Telephones
Examiner ........ 4641
CHEX ........ 4641
Nights after 6 p.m., Sundays, Holidays
Examiner ........ 4641
CHEX ........ 4643

Evening Peterborough Examiner

NIGHT FINAL

VOL. LXXXIX, No. 118 | WEATHER Fair and cool. | PETERBOROUGH, FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1944 | ★★ | PRICE FOUR CENTS

GERMANS SHOOT 47 R.A.F. PRISONERS

Greatest Air Fleet To Date Hurls Death On Europe Hits Berlin And Brunswick

First Major Air Activity In Six Days
Fierce Air Battles Ensue
From Coast To Heart Of Hun Capital

By GLADWIN HILL—Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 19—(AP).—American heavy bombers and fighter escorts, described officially as a strong force and probably numbering up to 1,500 planes, resumed the Allied aerial offensive after a five-day lapse today and struck at targets in the Berlin and Brunswick areas. The attack precipitated a running air battle right across Germany to the sky over the German capital, German broadcasts indicated.

The ensuing bombardment was so heavy that it disrupted German news broadcasts. From the R.A.F. and the U.S.A.A.F. Berlin has taken about 46,000 tons of bombs up to today. Channel observers said the parade of aircraft setting out for the Continent today was the biggest seen during the war.

While the American "heavies" were smashing at Berlin and Brunswick, small formations of R.A.F. Mosquitoes, Typhoons and fighter-bombers and other Allied planes attacked unspecified objectives in northern France this morning, taking advantage of clear skies to press home the attack.

Tracing the progress of the aerial invaders, the German broadcasts reported the bombers swept over the German border, crossed the much-bombed Hanover and Brunswick areas to Brandenburg—in the Berlin area—and finally appeared over the German capital itself.

It was the first sign of major air activity from Britain in six days.

As the high altitude armada swept across Europe the Vichy radio reported another air assault on Northern France and Belgium—a likely resumption of the attack on the enemy's anti-invasion railroads and airfields — was under way.

The Germans said heavy air battles were being fought as the Americans pierced Berlin's defences and indicated that the centre of battle was over Osnabruck where the "heavies" bombed railroad yards last Saturday in the concluding strike from Britain in the month-long offensive.

Stilwell's Army Besieging Myitkyina Town

KANDY, Ceylon, May 19.—(CP). —(CP).—Allied infantry with airborne reinforcements, have penetrated the outskirts of Myitkyina after capturing the town's airdrome, it was announced to-day.

The airdrome was seized two days ago in a surprise attack. It lies two miles south of the town.

While Chinese and American troops poured in to the field by air from other elements of Lt.-Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's forces, another column occupied the village of Nawraw Sakan and threw a block across the Mogaung-Myitkyina road.

An official announcement said other troops were thrusting toward Myitkyina from the north.

Japanese storming against an Allied roadblock by Chindits in the Mawlu vicinity 150 miles southwest of Mkitkyina were engaged in a bitter 11-hour battle. The enemy suffered heavy losses including a regimental colonel.

The Japanese also were engaged in struggles along the Myitkyina-Bhamo road where in one instance Gurkhas withdrew from a closing pincers and watched two enemy parties fight each other for an hour.

The Bhamo and Mawlu roads are the chief supply routest to Myitkyina from Mandalay to the south.

American Air Commando planes supporting the Chindit operations flattened Japanese positions 46 miles north of Bhamo with 500-pound bombs and fragmentation bombs.

ALLIES DRIVING

(Continued on Page 8, Column 3)

Soerabaja Hit In Daring Raid

NEW YORK, May 19 — (AP). — The Tokyo radio said to-day Soerabaja, one of Japan's key bases in the Netherlands East Indies, had been raided twice by Allied bombers on the mornings of May 17 and 18 and the Japanese account suggested that Allied naval and air task forces from India were carrying out another of their bold sweeps, this time in conjunction with United States Pacific Forces.

The broadcast, recorded by U.S. Government monitors, said some 50 bombers and fighters "coming from the direction of the Indian Ocean" carried out the first attack.

"It appears as though the enemy came as a portion of a task unit based on an aircraft carrier," it added.

The following morning, Tokyo added, a string of bombers shot over Soerabaja "one by one" and appeared to be Consolidated bomb-

SOERABAJA HIT

(Continued on Page 2 Column 3)

Cassino Abbey Can Be Rebuilt

WITH THE BRITISH 8th ARMY AT CASSINO, May 19—(AP)—Maj. Norman Newton of Cambridge, Mass., an Allied military government fine arts officer attached to the 8th Army, said today after examination of the ruins of the Monte Cassino Abbey that "reconstruction of the entire Abbey is possible although much of it now is only a heap of pulverized rubble and dust."

The interior form of the three lower cloisters still is visible, Major Newton said, but the cross colonnades are missing and the great stairway is pulverized.

"The statue of St. Benedict is headless but otherwise intact," he said. "The cloister of the Benefactors is ruined. In the Basilica the south wall and part of two large piers at a crossing are standing. Otherwise the Basilica seems to be done."

Newton reported the ancient stone mosiac floors at the high altar in the sacristy were not visible but might be undamaged beneath the rubble and said there was nothing to show whether the bronze doors cast at Constantinople (Istanbul) in 1066 were removed or buried. He said there was a possibility also that the library might be intact under the debris.

Gas Victims

WOODSTOCK, May 19 —(CP).—Members of a reserve army unit here were victims of a "gas attack" when tear gas from smoke bombs set off too close to the armory filtered into the building. The gas was part of an anti-gas training test given to other members of the unit, who were equipped with respirators, on the armory's parade ground.

Germans Mass Gliders On French Coast

LONDON, May 19 —(CP)—Heavy new German bombings of communications and concentrations behind the Russian front indicated today the Nazis expect an immediate renewal of the Red Army's offensive—a mighty thrust which the enemy said would be coordinated with invasion from the west.

Hitler's command reported heavy bombing blows on the rail stations of Rowne, Sarny and Sdolbunovo, suggesting that the Germans expected the new drive to explode on the central Polish front.

German propaganda kept up a scattergun guesswork locating the potential invasion on virtually every beachhead from Norway to the Bay of Biscay.

British motorists were warned that on D-day and afterwards, they must expect all civilian traffic to be diverted from many main roads and that the highways generally in the invasion springboard area would be closed to all but military traffic.

Flood Dutch System

A German broadcast heard in Turkey suggested that the final flooding of the Dutch defence system might be under way. The people of whole villages were being moved, many to parts of eastern Europe, the report said.

"It is quite possible that the Allied offensive in southern Italy is an overture to the much heralded drama of the Anglo-Saxon, full scale assault on Europe," Capt. Ludwig Sertorius said over the Berlin radio. "Moreover, it is likely that the overture will soon merge into the first act."

The Germans have massed gliders and transport planes in concealed hangars along the European coast in numbers sufficient to drop at least one airborne division on Britain, the London Daily Mail said today, asserting its information came from "excellent sources."

British authorities do not rule out the possibility of such a German counter-invasion. The enemy troops must be assigned to knock out nerve centres vital to the Allied war machine.

The Daily Mail said the German aircraft reported assembled along the channel coast included some huge six-engined Dorniers, each capable of carrying 150 men. The paper mentioned medium gliders and Junkers 52 transports as also in the enemy array.

Like the Allies, Germany presumably is concerned with safeguarding her military secrets as invasion D-day approaches. A Moscow broadcast heard here by the Soviet Monitor said Germany has cancelled all visas to leave the Reich and Germans reaching the frontiers are being turned back. The broadcast said the German foreign office gave no explanation.

The D.N.B. news and propaganda agency announced in a broadcast from Berlin that the Nazi air force intended "to smash Portsmouth,

GERMANS MASS

(Continued on page 2, column 4)

Genoa People Shipped Inland

BERN, Switzerland, May 19 (AP)—Fearing amphibious attack on the northern Italian coastline, Fascist authorities have ordered the evacuation of the Genoa harbor areas and other coastal towns by midnight Saturday, a Chiasso dispatch to the Neue Zurcher Zeitung said today.

The whole 30-mile coast line south of Genoa to Moneglia—north of Allied-held Corsica—was included. Among the towns are Pieve, Rapallo, Porto Fino, Sestri, Levanto, Lavagna, Chiavari and Santa Margherita. Those failing to leave will be arrested, the dispatch said.

Border reports said Partisans in northern Italy had intensified attacks on the Germans and Fascists of Mussolini. A communique of the Committee of National Resistance recounted several hit and run fights in Piedmont, one in which the Germans and Fascists were routed with 35 dead and 70 wounded.

Catholic Paper Raps Stalin

Says Not Sincere In Religious Appeal

BOSTON, May 19.— (AP).—An editorial appearing in to-morrow's issue of The Pilot official organ of the Boston Roman Catholic Archdiocese, declared Premier Stalin knew that Rev. Stanislaus Orlemanski "represented nobody but himself and could offer him (Stalin) only the benefit of a private opinion."

In criticizing the Springfield priest's recent trip to Moscow to confer with the Russian ruler, the editorial described Stalin "as calculating and unimpulsive a politician as any in the world" and said the "advertised purpose of this 'mission to Moscow' was not the real purpose."

Declaring "religious liberty does not exist in Russia to-day," the editorial stated that if "he (Stalin) means to allow religious liberty, Pope Pius XI would welcome a mission from Moscow as the answer to the prayers for Russia which Catholics have been offering up for more than 25 years."

The editorial reads in part:

"If Joseph Stalin should ever sincerely and honestly wish to reach an understanding with the Catholic church, he knows the proper procedure—it is the head of the church Stalin must approach, not one of its unauthorized members, and Stalin knows this perfectly well—has always known it."

French Units Dent Hitler Line Canadian Infantrymen In Thick Of New Italian Battle

8th Army 5 Miles Beyond Rapido
Poles Nearing Piedimonte
American Troops Threatening Itri

NAPLES, May 19—(CP).—Presence of Canadian troops in the new Italian offensive was disclosed today as French troops broke into the Hitler Line at its very centre and the Allies hammered all along the front at this new mountain wall manned by the Germans after "a disorderly retreat." While the British and Canadian forces and Polish troops pushed westward from Cassino, captured yesterday by the 8th Army, the French, with American tanks, were smashing toward Sant' Oliva and American troops struck close to the key Appian Way junction of Itri, menacing the German supply road from the Tyrrhenian coastal end. Itri is four miles northwest of the Tyrrhenian port of Formia which the Americans captured yesterday.

Sant' Oliva—only four miles from Pico on the inland road supplying the Nazi front—is at the tip of a pie-shaped wedge driven into the mountains between Pontecorvo and French-captured Esperia.

Meanwhile a headquarters officer declared the Germans had made "a disorderly retreat instead of a mere withdrawal" between the Liri Valley and the sea when they fell back from their smashed Gustav defences to the Hitler Line under Allied blows. This officer said "there is considerable disorganization, too, in the Liri Valley but not so complete as in the southern sector."

Losses Terrific

The Nazis suffered high losses in equipment and their artillery strength particularly has diminished, he asserted.

It appeared likely that any breakthrough in the south of the outskirts of Itri would compel the Germans to pull out of the entire southwestern end of the Hitler Line and swing their front into the mountain range running southwestward from Pontecorvo through Fondi to Terracini on the coast.

But such a line would be vulnerable to flank attack from the Anzio beachhead, where strong 5th Army forces are massed though quiet. It is believed the enemy has not had time to prepare fortifications on the Pontecorvo-Terracini route on a scale comparable with the Gustav or Hitler Lines.

From all reports it appeared the 5th and 8th Armies were off to an excellent start on the avowed objective of destroying the German 10th Army.

At the Tyrrhenian Sea end of the front, American troops battered their way toward the Appian Highway junction of Itri, four miles northwest of the captured Tyrrhenian port of Formia, in an attempt to cut off German defenders of heavily-fortified Gaeta Point.

The Allied command asserted the British 8th Army, "quick to exploit its successes" in the Cassino region after yesterday's capture of the rubbled town in less than a week of fighting, "pressed the enemy vigorously back againt the (Hitler) Line."

In the Liri Valley and hill immediately to the north, British and Polish troops mopped up scattered enemy resistance after the capture of Cassino, which had been under American siege for five months before the 8th Army moved in for a swift clean-up.

French Charge Slope

Near the centre of the battle line the French worked up the slopes of lofty Monte d'Oro, north of Esperia—an elevation officially described as a forward bastion of the Hitler Line. The French also seized Monte Santa Maria overlooking Pontecorvo and the Liri River.

The Allied command said Americans were in close contact with the

POLISH TROOPS

(Continued on Page 8, Column 2)

Germans Claim Attack Brewing

LONDON, May 19 — (CP). — Reports of heavy Nazi bombing of Russian communication lines in Eastern Poland reflected mounting German anxiety to-day that the Red Army is massing strength to break a long lull in land fighting with a new smash on the central front along the shortest line to Berlin.

The Berlin radio reported "concentrated attacks" on rail yards and trains at Sarny, Rowne and Zdolbunow, the last about 10 miles south of Rome.

Earlier the Russians announced bursts of action on two sectors of the eastern front as reports from both Moscow and Berlin continued to dwell on the theme that renewal of battle on a grand scale was close at hand.

The Russians announced capture of a "height of considerable importance" south-east of Stanislawow in pre-war Poland, and the slaying of 600 Germans who attempted a counter-attack in the Lower Dnestr region north-west of Tiraspol. The height, unidentified, apparently was in the Carpathian foothills.

Fighting also occurred south-east of Vitebsk, White Russian citadel, and in an unnamed sector where Red Army troops "beat off several attacks and wiped out two companies," the bulletin said. It declared, however, there were no important changes on the front yesterday.

Moscow dispatches, meanwhile, talked unofficially of preparations for big mountain operations on the Carpathian front, and Berlin said a Soviet attack was brewing on the Lower Dnestr.

WAR BULLETINS

More Canadians In Drive To Oust Huns In Italy

ITALY: Canadian infantry units reported for first time in new push up the Liri valley. An armored unit was reported in action previously.

* * * *

Allies Gain Steadily In Italian Campaign

ITALY: British and Polish troops sweep up Liri valley from Monastery Hill; several strong points under fire. 8th Army five miles beyond Rapido River.

* * * *

Bombs Splatter Berlin Breaking 6-Day Lull

AERIAL: American heavy bombers pentrate Reich dropping bombs on Berlin.

* * * *

Key Burma Town Likely To Fall Within Few Days

BURMA: Allied troops shelling Myitkyina after capturing town's airdrome in suburbs; reinforcements swarm in by air.

* * * *

Quiet Prevails Generally On Soviet Front

RUSSIA: Ominous lull pervades Russian front and Germans hint mammoth push likely to break any time.

* * * *

Nazis Continue Talks On Invasion Of England

BRITAIN: Germans reported massing huge gliders and transports on French coast for attack on Great Britain.

No Meat Shortage

PHILADELPHIA, May 19—(AP).—Tabby, Mrs. Rachel Walker's cherished cat, solved the meat shortage to her own and her kittens' satisfaction—but not Mrs. Walker's. Her owner didn't mind too much when tabby brought home mice and moles, but Mrs. Walker called for help at tabby's last tidbit—a wriggling 30-inch snake.

Loyang Chinese Surrounded By Jap Armies

By SPENCER MOOSA
Associated Press Staff Writer

CHUNGKING, May 19 (AP)—A Chinese army spokesman conceded today that the defenders of the ancient city of Loyang in Honan Province were surrounded and completely cut off, but he said the Chinese still retained 80 to 90 per cent of the city and were "determined to hold out."

It was announced that the Japanese who cut the east-west Lunghai railway west of Loyang had joined forces with the invaders from Shansi province and in a further push had reached the railway town of Shanshien. This town is 40 miles from Tungkwan, the gateway to the northwest at the Yellow river elbow.

Meanwhile Japanese troops thrusting westward south of the Lunghai rail line were declared to have advanced to a point 56 miles east-southeast of Tungkwan.

The Chinese offensive in Yunnan province, aimed at a junction with Allied forces in north Burma and reopening the Burma Road, is making further advances west of the Salween River, the spokesman said.

Get Air Support

Supporting that Chinese drive, American airmen attacked Tengchung and Lungling, principal Japanese bases in Yunnan.

Chinese troops were reported to have reached at two points the western slopes of the formidable Kaoli range, running north and south between the Salween and Shweli rivers.

One of these is near Mamien Pass 40 miles northeast of Tangchung and the other is in the vicinity of Pingka, 24 miles southeast of Lungling. The advance near Mamien Pass brought the Chinese into the Shweli River valley which lies generally northwest of the Burma Road. The airline distance between Myitkyina and Tengchung is only 65 miles.

The spokesman said the attack on Myitkyina, combined with the cutting of the Myitkyina-Bhamo highway and the severance of the Burma railway at Indaw by British parachute troops, had blocked the Japanese supply route in northern Burma.

"Their (the Japanese) only remaining line of communications is the Burma Road," he said. "We are extremely optimistic over the situation in western Yunnan province and northern Burma."

Crimea Presents Scene Of Horror

By EDDY GILMORE

SEVASTOPOL, May 19 —(AP)— Seven miles from battered Sevastopol on the ancient Cheronnes Cape lie the smoldering, smelling remains of one of Hitler's most disastrous military operations of the war, viewed for the first time by any war correspondent.

The beaten, shaken and demoralised German army of the Crimea—once 200,000 strong—fell back here for its promised evacuation to Romania after the Red Army cracked the defences of Sevastopol, itself a smoking city of dead where only a few buildings are left standing.

At Chersonnes Cape, on blood-soaked soil within shooting distance of the scene of the famous charge of the light brigade is the grim, grisly story of another of Hitler's Russian campaign errors of holding on until time ran out.

Col. Gen. Sergei Birinsov, 40, chief of staff of the Fourth Ukrainian Army, said 25,000 Nazi prisoners were taken here but the mute dead, the shocking scene of their last hours and the prisoners tell the real horror of what a colonel of the 111th Germany Infantry Division described as "immeasurably worse than Dunkirk." This latest Crimean fighting ended May 12.

But here it is before me. I'll try to let you see for yourself through my eyes:

We are standing on a cliff about 35 feet high, overlooking the Black

CRIMEA PRESENTS

(Continued on Page 2, Column 4)

Fliers Attempt Mass Escape From Hun Prison 15 Captured, 14 Get Away

German Guards Turn Machine Guns On Allied Prisoners
Anthony Eden To Lodge Strong Protest

By ALAN RANDALL—Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 19—(CP Cable).—Forty-seven officers of the "R.A.F., Dominion and Allied Air Forces" were shot by the Germans after a mass escape from a prison camp near Dresden last March 22, Foreign Secretary Eden informed a shocked House of Commons today and The Canadian Press learned six were Canadian.

Mr. Eden told the House 76 officers participated in the break from the camp, Stalag Luft Three.

Fifteen were reported recaptured alive and 14 are still at large, he said, on the basis of scanty information received through Switzerland, the protecting power, whose representative was informed of the incident by the Germans during a routine visit to the camp April 17.

Protest Action.

Mr. Eden said some of the men were shot resisting arrest and some in the course of a new escape attempt after they were captured.

"The Government is profoundly shocked by this news and I have urgently requested the protecting power to demand from the German government a full and immediate report of the circumstances in which these men met their deaths, and an explanation of its failure to report the facts at once to the protecting power,' Mr. Eden said.

The men were members of the "R.A.F. Dominion Allied" air forces, the customary terminology embracing the R.C.A.F., R.A.A.F., R.N.Z.A.F. and other national groups in the R.A.F like the Poles, the Netherlanders and the Norwegians.

Mr. Eden promised the House fuller information as he received it from the protecting power and said his statement contained all the information available.

It was considered here that the most significant circumstance is the failure of the German authorities to report the shootings and the secrecy which was maintained until inspecting officers of the protecting power visited the camp a month after the incident.

Article 50 of the prisoners of war convention provides that prisoners recaptured before they are able to rejoin their own armed forces or leave enemy territory shall be liable only to disciplinary punishment of which imprisonment is the severest form.

International law sanctions shooting in attempts to halt escapes, however.

That the escape might have been made by tunneling was hinted in a letter from Flt. Lt. R. C. Stewart of London, England, captured after he parachuted uninjured through an apartment house roof during a raid on Essen.

The dead included several heroes

MASS ESCAPE

(Continued on Page 8, Column 3)

Six Canadians Lose Lives In Prison Break

OTTAWA, May 19 — (CP). — R.C.A.F Headquarters made public to-day the names of six R.C.A.F. officers shot and killed by the Nazis when they attempted a mass escape from a German prison camp near Dresden with 41 officers of the R.A.F.

Following are the names, with official numbers and next-of-kin:

Langford, Patrick Wilson, Flt. Lt., C1631, Capt. R. W. Langford (father), 933 Hampshire Road, Victoria.

McGill, George Edward, Flt. Lt., J5312, Mrs. G. E. McGill (wife), 55 Chicora Avenue, Toronto.

Wiley, George William, Flt. Lt., J7234, M. R. Wiley (father), 1067 Highland Avenue, Windsor, Ont.

Birkland, Henry, Flt. Lt., J5238, Kristian Birkland (father), 334 Third Avenue W., Calgary.

Wernham, James Chrystall, Flt. Lt., J6144, J. C. Wernham (father), Suite 2, 270 Morley Avenue, Winnipeg.

Kidder, Gordon Arthur, Flt. Lt., J10177, Mrs. G. F. Evans (sister), Barnesdale, St Catharines, Ont.

The R.C.A.F. said next-of-kin of the men have been notified and added that the list was issued to "relieve any anxiety which might be felt by the next-of-kin of other members of the R.C.A.F. who may be prisoners of war."

76 officers took part in the break from Stalag Luft Three with 15 recaptured and 14 still free. It was assumed in Ottawa that there were Canadians among the officers recaptured and the ones still at large.

Airmen told how they took advantage of the switch-over from Italian to German control and rushed through the rear of a camp just as the Nazi guards arrived at the entrance. They told how the Germans mowed down many of their comrades with machine-gun fire. Many of those who finally found their way to British 8th Army lines bore enemy bullet wounds, the airmen said.

The Weather

Peterborough Temperatures:

Today:
Night low...30 Noon.....52

Yesterday:
Highest....61 Lowest....33

One Year Ago:
Highest....64 Lowest....40

Weather Forecast:

Georgian Bay — Moderate to fresh winds; fair and cool to-day. Saturday: Moderate to fresh winds; partly cloudy, followed by showers in west portion towards night.

Lower Lake Region — Fresh winds, fair and cool to-day. Saturday: Fresh winds; partly cloudy and cool; showers in south-west portion.

Ottawa and Upper St Lawrence Valleys — Moderate winds; fair and cool to-day and Saturday.

2 War Reporters Killed In Italy

LONDON, May 19.—(AP).—Cyril Bewley, 40, war correspondent for the Kemsley newspaper of Britain, and Roderick MacDonald, 32, correspondent for the Sidney Morning Herald and the London News-Chronicle, have been killed at the Italian front, it was disclosed today.

Bewley walked into a minefield after leaving his jeep to take cover, the dispatch said, and his Australian colleague was killed at the same time.

Name Seven Airmen Lost

Third Plane Still Missing Off Coast

MONTREAL, May 19 (CP) — Names of seven airmen known dead when two Anson training planes from No. 2 Air Navigators School of the R.C.A.F. at Charlottetown crashed in bad weather last Sunday were announced from No. 3 Training command today. A third plane is still listed as missing.

Those killed in the crash off Newfoundland, whose bodies were later found drifting on a life-raft off the coast, were:

Cpl. Henry Joseph Stoik, whose father lives at North Battleford, Sask.

LAC. Kenneth Eves, of Liverpool.

LAC. Ronald Colley, whose wife lives at London, Ont.

PO. William Duncan Potter, whose wife resides at Charlottetown.

Two men escaped with slight injuries in the Gaspe crash.

Their names were not included in the announcement but it was learned previously they were G. A. Wilson of Peterborough, Eng., and Bill Ellis of Edinburgh, Scotland. Those killed in the crash were:

WO2 Marion E. Trask, whose mother lives at Hanley, Sask.

LAC. Arthur V. Murphy, whose father lives at Toronto.

Cpl. Norman D. Gildemaster, whose mother lives at Gretna, Man.

The announcement did not say how many men were aboard the third plane, which is still missing.

8 Industries Are Found In 100 p.c. Group

All the employees of eight of the 28 Peterborough industries in the payroll savings section of the sixth Victory Loan were investors in the national bond issue.

This "100 per cent" group was composed of the employees of: Canadian Raybestos Company 170 on payroll and all investing, Canadian Sealright Company 38, Colonial Weaving Company 56, Peterborough Examiner 41, Peterborough Utilities Commission 74, A. Wander Company (Ovaltine) 55, G. Whitaker & Co. 27, Wonder Bakeries 46.

The next group in percentage of subscribers registered 98 per cent in the final report from headquarters; Western Clock Company 548 of 562 employees, Quaker Oats Co. 502 of 510 employees.

In the 97 per cent group: Canadian Nashua Paper Company, 92 of 95 employees, Dominion Woollens and Worsteds Limited 196 of 202 employees.

The 96 per cent group: Brinton-Peterborough Carpet Company 198 of 207 employees invested, Peterborough Lumber Company 70 of 73 employees, J. J. Turner & Sons Limited 64 of 67.

At Canada Packers: 237 of 250 employees rated 95 per cent.

The 94 per centers were: Canadian General Electric Company, Genelco Limited 3,821 of 4,065 employees invested, and at De Laval Company 496 of 530 employees bought Sixth Victory Loan bonds.

In the 93 per cent group: B. F. Ackerman Son & Co. Ltd. 58 of 62 employees, Peterborough Canoe Co. 86 of 92 employees, Peterborough Lock Company 162 or 176 employees.

At Outboard Marine and Manufacturing Company 556 of 616 employees represented 90 per cent.

City of Peterborough employees 124 of 142 was 87 per cent investing.

7,715 Subscribers.

The total number of subscribers by employees of these 28 industries was 7,716 of the 8,173 on the payrolls or 93.4 per cent.

Their objective was $900,000, and the full amount of their subscriptions was $979,800, or 108.87 per cent of objective.

And their per capita subscription was $119.86.

Employees of Canadian General Electric-Genelco obligated themselves to lend to the Government almost half of the total of $979,800. Their objective was $450,000, and they closed their campaign with $483,400, or 107 per cent of their quota.

Every one of these groups of employees "went over the top" in their subscriptions. Final figures were as follows, showing in order, objective, total subscriptions, and percentage.

B. F. Ackerman Son & Co.—$5,400, $5,800, 107.
Brinton-Peterborough Carpet — $17,900, $23,000, 129.
Canada Packers— $30,100, $35,850, 116.
C. G. E.-Genelco—$450,000, $483,400, 107.
Canadian Nashua Paper—$8,800, $11,350, 139.
Canadian Raybestos — $17,000, $19,350, 114.
Canadian Sealright—$3,500, $4,850, 139.
City of Peterborough — $16,500, $16,850, 102.
Colonial Weaving — $3,800, $7,850, 207.
De Laval — $49,500, $54,550, 110.
Dominion Woollens — $15,300, $18,500, 121.
Outboard Marine (Johnson Motors) — $67,000, $94,250, 141.
Peterborough Canoe — $8,500, $11,000, 129.
Peterborough Examiner — $5,000, $5,400, 108.
Peterborough Lock Co. — $16,300, $16,650, 102.
Peterborough Lumber — $7,200, $10,500, 146.
Peterborough Utilities — $10,000, $10,200, 102.
Quaker Oats — $49,100, $56,600, 115.
J. J. Turner & Sons — $5,600, $13,850, 247.
A Wander (Ovaltine) — $6,000, $7,650, 128.
Western Clock — $55,200, $63,900, 116.
G. Whitaker & Co. — $5,000, $5,800, 116.
Wonder Bakeries—$4,900, $5,250, 107.

Lieut. R. Matthiessen Revisits Peterboro

Lieutenant R. H. Matthiessen, formerly of the staff of the Western Clock Company in Peterborough and son of the president of the company, left Thursday evening for Toronto, terminating a forty-eight hour leave from the big airport and American Air Force training school at Pratt, Kansas.

The young officer flew to Detroit, in a flight of comparatively few hours compared with the railway journey from the southwest of Kansas, and came on to Peterborough to meet friends of two-year residence in this city. He called at the Big Ben plant from which so many of the associates of his employment are gone, like himself, into the armed forces, and distinguished chiefly by the insignia on their uniforms.

GOOD WAY TO TREAT SORE, ITCHING PILES

If you suffer agonising torture from sore, painful, itching piles, here is a chance to try a simple, home treatment with the promise of a reliable firm to refund the cost if you are not satisfied with the results.

Simply get a bottle of Hem-Roid from McDermid & Jury or any I.D.A or other drug store. This is an internal treatment whose medication is directed to the removal of the cause of piles. Hem-Roid is a small tablet easy and pleasant to use and pleasing results are quickly shown. Itching and soreness are relieved, pain subsides, and as the treatment is continued the swelling and inflammation are reduced and the sore, painful pile tumors heal over, leaving the rectal membranes clean and healthy. Get a bottle of Hem-Roid to-day and see for yourself what an easy, pleasant way this is to rid yourself of pile misery.

NOTE: The sponsor of this notice is a reliable firm, doing business in Canada for over 30 years. If you are troubled with sore, itching, painful piles, Hem-Roid must help you quickly or the small purchase price will be gladly refunded.—(Advt.)

PTE. TIMOTHY J. CROUGH

Pte. Tim Crough Hurt Overseas

Mr. and Mrs. James Crough, R.R. 7, Peterborough were notified by Ottawa Thursday night that their son, Pte. Timothy Joseph Crough, serving in England, is dangerously ill as a result of severe head injuries due to a road accident while on duty.

Enlisting in September, 1941, the soldier was originally with the Royal Canadian Artillery. He transferred later and has been a driver in a transport section for some time. A little over a month ago he was married to an English girl, who is within a few miles of his camp.

Mrs. and Mrs. Crough have a second son Pte. Urban Crough overseas about whom they have been more worried until now. He is in Italy with the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, working with with ambulance section. They said that as long as their one boy was in England, they felt he was comparatively safe.

Before enlisting, Pte. Crough was working with the Robinson Construction Company, which helped erect some of the Genelco buildings.

Formerly of Ennismore, Mr. and Mrs. Crough are believed to have the largest family in Peterborough county.

Mother Admits Drowning Baby

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP) — Mrs. Lucy Hawley, 28, of York Township, was arrested Wed. on a charge of murdering her seven-weeks-old baby, Barbara Joan, and remanded to May 25 for trial.

Magistrate W. Keith ordered she be taken to hospital for examination.

Police said Mrs. Hawley told them she was alone in the house Wednesday and drowned the baby in an enamel bath tub half full of water. She said her original intention had been to kill herself but her courage failed her.

Dr. W. L. Robinson performed an autopsy on the body and ascribed death to drowning.

Navy Seeking Women Recruits

OTTAWA, May 19.—(CP).— To meet an urgent need for recruits the Women's Royal Canadian Naval Service has decided to shorten the basic training period and increase the number of new entries. Naval Service Headquarters announced to-day.

The announcement said that the service needed a greater number of sick berth attendants, general clerks, shorthand typists, cooks, stewards and messengers.

Basic training at H.M.C.S. Conestoga at Galt, Ont., was extended to eight weeks last February, when a new system of calling up about 150 applicants as probationary Wrens each month was introduced. This training will be shortened to four weeks and nearly double the number of new entries will be drafted to Galt regularly.

Opening of enlistments in Newfoundland and Prince Rupert, B.C., in addition to future drafts to the United Kingdom will make room for the proposed increase, Headquarters explained.

MORE ABOUT—

Soerabaja Hit

Continued from Page 1

ers—such as operate from the Pacific.

A powerful task force including an American aircraft carrier under the command of Admiral Sir James Somerville, commander-in-chief of the British Eastern Fleet at Ceylon, last was reported in action April 19 when it attacked Sabang and Sumatra at the western end of the Dutch East Indies.

Soerabaja is the once-powerful Netherlands naval base on Java.

"Tokyo said "some damage was done installations in the first attack by carrier planes, but claimed three of the attacking planes were shot down by ground defences and two more were damaged in the second attack. No mention was made of any defence by aircraft.

Court Questions 2 Brothers In Assault Case

COBOURG, May 19 (ENS)—Joseph and William Quigley, brothers, appeared in court Thursday on a charge of assault, causing bodily harm to Henry McIvor of Cobourg. Magistrate R. B. Baxter reserved his decision. Harry Deyman acted for the Crown and A. R. Willmott appeared for the defendants.

The complainant some years ago lost his left leg and left arm in an accident. He told the court that on his last visit to a heart specialist this year he had been given six months to one year to live. He told court that on April 26 he went over to the home of his brother-in-law, Joseph Quigley, to see his mother who had been staying there, but on arrival there learned that she was at his sister's home. In the house were Joseph and his brother, William, along with Lewis Burley.

"Joe brought out some wine and I had a small glass I looked at some work he had done in decorating the rooms and the conversation was very friendly. Joe had been after a motor for his car and I had told him where I thought I could get a car and that we would go out and get it and I would wreck it and sell him the engine. Joe told me that he had got the car, and I told him that it was a damn dirty trick on me for him to get the car that I was after. I told him that he could not get away with it.

Make Attack

As I turned to leave, he pounded his fist on the table and asked what I was going to do about it. He swore at me and said 'I'll kill you.' My back was turned on my way out and William jumped and grabbed me by the arm and held me and Joe rushed and struck me on the face and neck and under the heart. He broke one of my ribs. My son, Harold, who had come in after I did, said to not hit his dad as he was sick. He ran out after Burley and when they came back Joe and William had quit," stated McIvor.

McIvor further told the court that he had been in bed seven months because of his heart and after the assault had to go back to bed from April 26 to May 13. Magistrate Baxter asked McIvor if the Quigley's had known of his condition.

McIvor broke into tears.

"Certainly they knew. I have been to a specialist in Toronto and he gave me six months to a year to live. The one leg I have started to get paralyzed when I was laid up and one of the reasons the doctors said I could get up was to get my leg exercised. I suffer pain all the time from my leg and have to take pills for the pain. There is something wrong with my blood pressure too, the doctors can't get it up," McIvor said.

McIvor was allowed to sit down before being cross-examined and in the interval, Dr. Edgar Hayden, who attended the complainant after the row, testified that it appeared that the rib was injured as it was tender in front. The face was swollen on the left side and the back of the neck showed swelling. McIvor had had a heart condition for several years, Dr. Hayden said.

Under cross - examination the complainant denied using profane language during the argument. Harold McIvor, 12-year-old-son of the complainant, said that he saw William Quigley hold his father and he saw Joe Quigley strike him. The boy related that he ran for help and got Lewis Burley, but that when they came back the fight was over.

Better Deal

Joseph Quigley said that the argument had started over the car but that he had known where to get it before McIvor had told him. He was to get the engine if McIvor had purchased it, for $35. He bought the car himself for $20. McIvor apparently had seen him tow the car home before he came over that night, witness related.

Joe Quigley related further that McIvor swore at him and that he ordered him out the house. Quigley admitted pushing McIvor back and his brother William stepped between them. McIvor didn't fall down but fell back against the refrigerator, the accused said. Cross-examined by the Crown Attorney, Quigley said that he was not onspeaking terms with McIvor for a year, until a short time before the row. On that occasion his car broke down and he and McIvor had talked about getting it fixed, stating that he could get a car at Plainville and would sell him the engine out of it for $35. He already was after the car himself and got it for $20. he testified.

William Quigley said that his brother only pushed McIvor and that he, William, stepped between them. He corroborated his brother's evidence in other details.

Burley was called and testified that there had been an argument over the purchase of a car but that he had left before the assault took place.

Life Underwriters Hear Toronto Speaker

Frank Buck manager of the Metropolitan Life, Humber District, Toronto addressed the monthly meeting of the Life Underwriters' Association this week and outlined the opportunities in life insurance business. Speaker was introduced by Jack Arnott and a hearty vote of thanks was extended by S. J. Houlihan.

Mr. Buck urged the underwriters not to ease off in their studies using lack of time as an excuse, but to equip themselves through the medium of the C.L.U. course and to keep abreast of the times for ever greater opportunities which the future holds in peace days.

W. Bowen, manager of the Metropolitan Life, J. Costigane, acting manager of the Confederation Life, and E. J. Cooper of the London Life, were introduced to the members and J. J. Murray, general superintendent of the Dominion Life, was a guest.

MORE ABOUT—

Germans Mass

Continued from Page 1

Plymouth, Bristol and the docks of London" — ports it described as "bristling — positively crammed to the bursting point—will all manner of invasion equipment."

D.N.B. asserted that "in these ports the entire Allied invasion material has to be concentrated."

A Stockholm dispatch, meanwhile, quoted a Finnish source there as saying the Allied invasion of Europe would bring about a quick Finnish peace with Russia by giving opposition parties sufficent strength to overthrow the present Helsinki government in favor of one willing to conclude an immediate armistice.

"The invasion looks imminent and may open the eyes of the lukewarm supporters of the government, putting some trumps in our hands," declared this source, a leader of the opposition.

Overnight Frost Damages Plants

Ice on the water buckets this morning confirmed the Thursday afternoon weather probabilities of overnight frost and suggested a May morn blight of asparagus and a nipping of tender garden plants.

"There were eight girls swimming in the canal at Maria Street Wednesday afternoon," Vincent Crebar of Downer's Corners told the Examiner this morning. "It seemed just like midsummer, but it was more like the middle of April down our way this morning. I had one hundred dozen bunches of asparagus tops frozen, and from the looks of them it may be on into the forepart of the week before I can get another cutting. To fill up an order for over town this morning I had trouble getting three last bunches."

Mr. Crebar said he had a lot of tomato plants out in boxes to harden before transplanting. He covered them last night with bags, but the frost penetrated to some of the leaves and put a crimp on their edges by morning.

"That was just a light front," said Herb Doig, contrasting it with a colder May night two years ago when asparagus and other vegetables failed to raise their heads when the sun beckoned to them.

"We took off the bulk of the 'grass' Thursday afternoon; something like 270 baskets, so we didn't fare too badly. We have a group of Collegiate girls helping, and they are doing a fine job; don't know what we'd do without them, help is so scarce."

Mr. Doig has been selling some of his asparagus crop to the Ottawa trade, 'one hundred baskets a night.'

"We usually do not set out tomato plants until after the '24th'," he explained, signifying that the Doig tomato crop was not occupying an exposed position.

New Camera Club Plans Fall Exhibit

A meeting of the Peterborough Camera Club was held at the Y.M.C.A. in which plans were made to hold a fall exhibit. A committee of three members was appointed for the affair. The committee is as follows; George Bard, Arthur Jenkinson, and Fred Jennings. The Exhibit is to be held some time in September, announcement of the date to be made in the future. The exhibit is open to all amateurs of the city regardless of membership of the club.

Since this is a newly formed Camera Club, all camera fans interested in photography are welcome to come to the meetings and join the club. Headquarters are at the Y.M.C.A., and meetings are held every second Tuesday.

MORE ABOUT—

Crimea Presents

Continued from Page 1

Sea. Behind us is the dead city of Sevastopol. Delayed action mines and bombs are exploding constantly, sometimes too close. In front of us somewhere over the blue horizon is Romania, which was the German goal. Immediately behind us is what once was an airfield.

Just below, the waterline is strewn with German corpses. In between the sprawled, drowned dead lie beached rafts—hopeless home made affairs on which hundreds tried to put out to Romania.

Fifty feet to my right is a beached, burned out landing barge crammed with corpses. A hundred feet to the left the black hull of a small transport sticks out like a sinister shark's fin.

For hundreds of yards along this cliff is the picture of many a man's last hour. It is the story of what he did in those last minutes with the Red Army blasting him to bits from one side and the cold sea on the other.

To make the rafts the Germans put planks together with gasoline tanks, ammunition boxes and food crates lashed to them.

LAKEFIELD LODGE, NO. 358, I.O.O.F., will hold annual Church parade on Sunday, May 21, 7 p.m. at Lakefield United Church. Will meet at Lodge Rooms at 6.30 p.m. all brothers cordially invited.

ACHES AND PAINS OF RHEUMATISM
Your money will be returned by Tamblyn's or any druggist if one bottle of Ru-Ma does not show you the quick, easy way to get relief from the cruel stubborn aches and pains of rheumatism. Ru-Ma must please you or money back. One bottle will convince you.—(Advt.)

Wadke Island Invaded By Americans

Resistance Light As Allies Seek New Airfield

ADVANCED ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, May 19—(CP)—Strategic Wakde Island was virtually in Allied hands today and it constituted a potential base for throwing a fighter plane umbrella over all the rest of Japanese-held northwestern New Guinea.

Other possibilities resulting from a hold on the island included: Battering Halmahera, enemy island guardian between the Allies and the Philippines, pounding Palau, Japanese naval stronghold along the Carolines approaches to the Philippines and increasing bomber blows against the Netherlands East Indies.

A communique disclosed today that leapfrog tactics, covered by air and naval bombardment, gave the forces of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Allied commander in the Southwest Pacific, most of Wakde Island and a quickly widened beachhead on the adjacent Netherlands New Guinea mainland within 36 hours.

American troops landed on the mainland beach near Toem, 110 miles northwest of Hollandia, Netherlands New Guinea, at dawn Wednesday. By nightfall they had fanned out up and down the coast for eight miles and taken small Insoemania island, southernmost of the two comprising Wakde.

These landings were unopposed.

"The enemy was completely surprised and his defence negligible," the community said.

Rocket guns and naval guns, bombers and fighters blasted the way for the troops coming out of the landing boats.

By noon Thursday, they had stormed ashore on Insoemoear (Wakde) behind a withering barrage. There was Japanese pillbox resistance here but not much. Within an hour the invaders had pinned the enemy defenders back against Wakde's vital airfield. It was the last-ditch stand for the Japanese

WADKE ISLAND
(Continued on Page 6, Column 4)

Says Pasteurize Milk For Cheese

OTTAWA, May 19 — (CP). — Dr. F. W. Gershaw (L.-Medicine Hat) urged last night in the Commons that the Federal Government pass a regulation obliging cheese-maker to pasteurize raw cheese or keep it in stock a sufficient amount of time to make it "safe."

Dr. Gershaw said that 70 cases of typhoid fever in Alberta recently had been caused by unpasteurized raw cheese. In all the primary cases the victims had eaten cheese made in a factory that bore a good reputation.

The epidemic caused a 10 per cent mortality and those who recovered were left in a weakened condition. The epidemic has cost more than $1,000,000.

If raw cheese were kept between 60 and 90 days it was made "safe," said Dr. Gershaw.

Cheese, Produce and Livestock

TORONTO LIVESTOCK

Livestock Receipts

| | |
|---|---|
| Cattle | 30 |
| Calves | 20 |
| Hogs | 500 |

Trade was at steady prices for the few slaughter cattle offered on the livestock market yesterday and about 50 head were unsold at the close. Hogs and veal calves were steady. No sheep or lambs were offered.

In cattle trade a few steers and heifers were $11.50-$12, butcher cows $8-$9.25, fed yearlings $12-$13 and bulls $7.50-$9.

Veal calves were $8 to $15.

Hogs were $17.65 Grade A dressedweight with sows $13 dressed.

CHEESE BOARD

CAMPBELLFORD, May 19 (CP) —646 boxes white cheese offered, all sold 20 cents f.o.b. Campbellford.

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, May 19 — (CP) — Canadian Commodity Exchange. Spot: Butter, Quebec (92 score) 33-33¼; eggs, B1, Western A-large 34¾c-35¼c; A-medium 32¾c-33¼c A-pullets 27¾c-28¼c; E-B 30c-30½c E-C 24½c-25c.

Futures: May butter 33⅛cA; eggs 34cB.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, May 19 — (CP) — Renewal of wheat export business was reported today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange.

United Kingdom purchased 300,000 bushels of Nos. 1 and 2 Northern wheat, while agents representing the British West Indies took 250,000 bushels in the form of flour.

TORONTO FRUIT

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP) — Wholesale fruit and vegetable prices were unchanged here today with the following exception: Domestic Asparagus, 11-qts., $1.50-$1.75.

TORONTO PRODUCE

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP) — Egg and butter prices in the spot market here today as reported by the Dominion Department of Agriculture follow:

Eggs: Wholesale to retail, A large 37c, A medium 35c, A pullet 31c, B 33c, C 30c, country shippers quoted graded eggs, cases free, A large 35c, A medium 33c, A pullet 27c-28c, B 30c, C 27c.

Butter: First grade solids 33⅛c, second grade solids 31½c-32½c.

TORONTO HOGS

TORONTO, May 19 — —(CP) — Prices were unchanged at bacon-hog markets reporting early today.

Dressedweight: London grade B1 $17 delivered; Barrie grade A $17.40, B1 $17, delivered, Stratford, grade A $17.25, B1 $16.85, delivered.

Allen Was Offered His Freedom For Information On Royal Navy

BY LARRY ALLEN

ABOARD THE EXCHANGE LINER GRISPHOLM, BARCELONA, May 19 — (AP) — Twenty long months of Italian and German prison camps, my third sinking and fifth torpedoeing have been added to my experiences as war correspondent which already had included two years aboard warships of the British Mediterranean Fleet. On the morning of Sept. 14, 1942, I was aboard the flagship destroyer Sikh, leading a squadron into the Axis-occupied harbor of Tobruk to land troops and "beat up" that enemy base. Apparently tipped the German and Italian garrisons were waiting. Coastal batteries opened fire about 3 a.m. just as the first disembarked British marines and troops were touching shore.

First salvos tore into the Sikh's engine-room and set her afire. The Sikh's crew fired back everything but the anchor. To prevent her from blowing to bits, Capt. St. John Mickelthwait of London ordered the magazine flooded. For the next four hours Axis guns battered her to pieces.

Thousands of shells were fired before the fatally stricken Sikh turned over on her port side with 30 shell holes.

Take By Italians

Then suddenly came the captain's order to abandon ship. While shells screamed and whizzed about me I clambered over the star board side, first hurling a rubber float into the sea. It drifted away, so I helped lower a rowboat and jumped into it.

Twenty others followed me. We pulled for the Tobruk shore.

Axis batteries continued to fire shells at us and at scores of officers and men who plunged overboard from the Sikh. Stukas flew over.

Italian landing craft put out from shore. I signalled with my handkerchief and shouted in Italian to be picked up. We were pulled aboard an Italian boat. For the next hour this boat moved about the scene picking up 100 or more British sailors, most of them badly wounded.

Stepping ashore at Tobruk, I shook hands with the German and Italian commanders, told them I was a newspaperman, and I asked for an interview with Field Marshal Erwin Rommel, then commanding the Africa Corps at El Alamein.

After three hours of dickering the German commander said Rommel was too busy to get to see me. My plan was to get to El Alamein and then try to get back to British territory.

The commander told me: "We'd rather have you as a prisoner than a whole division, but if you will tell us the position of the British fleet at this time we will release you and put you back across the lines."

I replied: "Don't be silly."

Admiral Plaintive

They then took me to Derna. At Derna the Italian naval commander wanted to know why I wrote stories that the Italian naval fleet always ran from battle.

I said that was simple, for it always did.

In Derna I went without food or drink for 36 hours, finally receiving a bowl of putrid macaroni which tasted like mucilage. Four days later the Italians flew me to Bari.

Then began four difficult months behind barbed wire at a transients camp commanded by Col. Stefano Orofal, where there were hundreds of lice-infested, cold, hungry Indian soldiers, whose legs were filthy and whose emaciated bodies were hideously distorted by swellings and malnutrition.

For four months I never saw soap, had a towel and a pair of shoes; wore only a torn, thin khaki naval uniform. Cold swelled my fingers and toes. The only food was a small plate of yellowish liquid called pumpkin soup, and little rolls of hardtack bread that fitted into the palm of my hand.

I constantly protested and fought for my release. I consistently refused to salute or show respect for those for whom I had none and who treated prisoners of war like swine.

Although my fingers were so swollen it was difficult to hold a pen I made myselft a news bulletin board, read and translated Italian newspapers, and ran a news service for the thousands of prisoners of war who passed through that camp.

Finally, after vigorous protests by me, Capt. Micklethwait and other naval officers, the commandant ordered all American prisoners of war to concentration camp No. 21 at Chieti, and I was separated from British naval oficers for the first time in this war, and I never rejoined them.

David Silvester Passes Away In Bowmanville

David Silvester, for over ten years provincial constable here, and prominent in Orange and church circles while stationed in Peterborough died early Thursday in Bowmanville after an illness of nearly three years.

An officer of many years experience during a police career that included service with municipal, R.C.M.P. and Ontario Provincial Police he was widely known as a conscientious and painstaking constable. During his residence in Peterborough he made many friends in this city and district who will be grieved at the announcement of his passing.

David Silvester was born in England and came to Canada in 188- with his family when only a child settling in Bruce peninsula.

He served for a short period in the Toronto city police and in 190- joined the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in Toronto. After undergoing training at Regina he was sent to the Yukon where he served until 1906, as a member of the old H Division at Braeburn on the White Horse-Dawson trail, in fact he helped to build that post. He was also stationed for some time at Kynock and afterwards at headquarters at White Horse.

After leaving the Mounted Police David Silvester operated a store for some time at Brooklin, and then returned to Toronto where he married Olma Robinson of Colborne daughter of the late William Robinson.

Hurt at Camp Borden

During the first great war he served as sergeant-major instructor with the 166th Battalion, Queen's Own, and was finally discharged as medically unfit as the result of injuries sustained at Camp Borden. Later he re-enlisted as a member of the Army gymnastic staff, took a course in orthopedic surgery and was attached to the Brant Military Hospital in charge of the remedial gymnasium.

His connection with the Ontario Provincial Police began in 1920 and since that time Officer Silvester had served at Sarnia, Dunnville, Renfrew, Sault Ste. Marie, Belleville and thirteen years ago was moved to Peterborough.

While a resident of this city he was prominently connected with the Orange Order, as master of the Duke of Manchester Lodge No. 50. He served as district master of No. 3 district and was also a member of the Royal Black Preceptory No. 261.

Officer Silvester was a member of the choir of Murray Street Baptist church during his residence here and was for some time vice-president of the organization. He also was vice-president of the R.N.W.M.P. Veterans' Association, O Division.

Left 3 Years Ago

Three years ago the popular officer was transferred to Bowmanville but shortly afterward he took a bad attack in June of 1941 and had been seriously ill ever since that time.

Surviving are his widow, and two sons, Ernest in the Canadian Army, and Harvey at home.

The funeral will take place here on Monday afternoon with a service in Murray Street church at 3.30 o'clock and interment in Little Lake cemetery.

Pall-bearers will be Inspector Harry Storey, Belleville, Chief Constable Sid Benton, Bowmanville, Chief Sam Newhall, Inspector J. F. Reid, Provincial Constable Price Morris and Provincial Constable L. A. McClure, Peterborough.

Victory Homes BUILT WITH CONCRETE

CANADA CEMENT COMPANY LIMITED
Office — 803 Northern Ontario Building — Toronto

IN HALIFAX BOMBER WHICH TURNED OVER—After a successful raid on Frankfurt, Germany, a Canadian pilot pictured here was forced to take his huge four-engined bomber into a loop to evade a German fighter. Navigator, charts, etc., floated to the roof of the Halifax bomber in its corkscrewing evasive action. The crew, Left to Right, above, included Sergt. M. R. Smith of Star City, Sask., the mid-upper gunner, who was worried the turret "bubble" might give under his weight; Sergt. Mesmore Rainville of Montreal, rear-gunner who was tossed about violently; Serg. Vern Irvine of Toronto, the pilot; and FO. Art Mauger, Victoria, B.C., the navigator, who floated up to the roof with his instructions. They are with Alouette Squadron, R.C.A.F.

Airgraph Cost Down One Cent

OTTAWA, May 19 — (CP) — Postmaster-General Mulock said Thursday in the Commons that the cost of airgraph messages to those in the forces is being reduced from six to five cents. The civilian rate is being reduced from 15 cents to 10 cents.

Col. Mulock said the cost of airgraph messages to the forces had been reduced from 10 cents to six in 1942.

The new reductions meant that economies in processing were being passed on to the users.

Col. Mulock said there had been substantial improvements in the speed of mail transport to those in the forces overseas.

Answering questions by G. J. Tustin (P.C., Prince Edward-Lennox) he said that the time required for transport of ordinary mail to the United Kingdom had been reduced from an average of 30 days to 15 and air letters from 10 to 8 days. There had been, no change in the time required for shipment of parcels. A great part of the mail with postage for surface transport now was being carried by air without additional charge.

Surface mail to the Mediterranean area used to require 59 days, but has been reduced to an average of 20. Air letters to this area now took an average of 16 days compared to 24, and parcel mail now took an average of 40 days compared with 90.

AIRBORNE PADRE—The Rev. J. Gwinnett, of Cheltenham, a padre with the airborne forces of the British Air Force. These padres must take part in airborne training exercises during which they drop by parachute and travel by glider.

Want Spending Program

TORONTO, May 19.—(CP).—Agnes Macphail, C.C.F. member of the Ontario Legislature for York East, said last night a vast postwar spending program is essential after the war "if the country is not to be plunged into another depression."

FO. G. Beatty Killed In Action

LINDSAY, May 19.—(ENS).—Official information has been received by Mrs. Marion L. Beatty, of Lindsay, that her husband, FO. George David Beatty was killed in action overseas on May 4. The funeral was attended by fellow members of his squadron and took place at Blackhorn cemetery, Cheshire.

FO. Beatty was born in Swift Current, Sask., a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Beatty. He enlisted as radio location student while attending the University of Toronto at the age of 21. He received his commission on graduating from McMaster University and went overseas in October 1941. While in England he transferred to air crew and received his pilot's wings at Cramwell in September, 1943. He is survived by his wife, formerly Marion L. Keith, daughter of Mrs. Keith and George Keith, principal of the Lindsay Collegiate Institute, and young son George Walter, also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Beatty of Swift Current. Prof. S Beatty of U. C. College, is an uncle.

To Handle Trials

LONDON, May 19.—(CP).—Trial and punishment of Quislings and Nazi collaborators probably will be delegated by the United Nations War Crimes Commission to government of their countries, various sources indicated last night.

Horse Kicks Farmer Fractures Man's Leg

CAMPBELLFORD, May 19 (ENS) —Ed Hubble of nearby Trent Bridge suffered a fractured leg Thursday when kicked by a horse while cultivating on his farm.

His cries for help attracted a passing motorist who brought him to Campbellford where he received first aid and later was taken to Belleville hospital.

GET A LIFT...
PEPSI-COLA
... DRINK IT ICED
"Pepsi-Cola" is the registered trade mark in Canada of Pepsi-Cola Company of Canada, Limited
BOTTLED BY
BOORMAN'S BEVERAGES, Peterborough, Ontario
Under special appointment

Sailors Stable Mentally Survey Reveals

OTTAWA, May 19 (CP)—The proportion of men discharged from the Royal Canadian Navy because of mental disorders is "extremely low" as compared with the rate in other services, and 85 per cent of the navy's psychiatric patients recover and are returned to full duty, it was disclosed in a paper presented before the American Psychiatric Association convention at Philadelphia this week by two navy psychiatrists.

The paper was prepared by Surgeon Lt.-Cmdr. M. Wellman, of Stirling and Whitby, Ont., and his associate, Surgeon Lieut. J. F. Simpson, of Toronto. Both officers were psychiatrists for the Ontario Government in peace time.

Cmdr. Wellman said the most frequent cause of psychiatric casualties in the navy was service life itself and the inability of some sailors to "adjust themselves to the emotional demands of living in a group." Sea service, particularly when accompanied by enemy action, was given as the next most frequent factor, with domestic worries third.

Wellman and Simpson reported that only 52 men in every 10,000 are discharged from the R.C.N. because of mental disorders.

From the fact that practically half of those who broke down at sea did so within the first six months, and that the incidence of mental trouble jumped again after between 15 and 18 months of service, the two psychiatrists drew the conclusion that "personnel should not be left at sea under conditions of active warfare for more than 15 months."

The paper said ratings appeared to be more affected by domestic worries than officers.

The R.C.N. medical branch established a psychiatric service in July, 1941, and during the next 18 months 900 patients passed through the clinic at Halifax.

Reserves Decision

COBOURG, May 19—(ENS)—Result of an accident occurring on April 19 near Baltimore when the accused's car collided with one driven by Fred Brown of Cobourg, James Grieve of Roseneath appeared in police court Thursday charged with drunk driving and reckless driving. The magistrate dismissed the drunk driving charge for lack of evidence and on the reckless driving charge he reserved his decision.

SOLDIERS!
ATTENTION!
STAND YOUR FEET AT EASE
Rub Out Aches with 35c
MINARD'S LINIMENT

The Answer
To Your Juicing Problem
The Juicemaster
Juices ALL FRUITS — ALL VEGETABLES
Capacity 2 quarts in 5 minutes
Reasonable in Price, Terms if Desired
Box 184, Peterborough Examiner

CPL. R. G. CARTWRIGHT

Havelock Soldier Awarded Military Medal

HAVELOCK, May 19 — (ENS) — Cpl. Robert G. Cartwright of Havelock, who is convalescing from shrapnel wounds in an Italian hospital, has been awarded the Military Medal, it was announced today.

Although his family said that they did not know why he had been given this decoration, it is probable that the story which appeared in the Army paper "Maple Leaf" contains the explanation.

In the early part of February, Cpl. Cartwright was one of a small patrol sent out on duty. Wounded while on this reconnaissance, he was cut off from his comrades and returned 24 hours later with important information.

Unknown to him, the patrol had been called back and as he struggled to dig in before the first light, it was decided to lay down two barrages, on and ahead of his particular area. That night he managed to reach his base with his information.

Cpl. Cartwright was born in Edmonton, but before the war had worked as a machinist in Havelock. He enlisted as a reinforcement August 19, 1942, and proceeded overseas in June of 1943. His wife is living in Vancouver, and a brother, Pte. William Cartwright is also overseas with the R.C.O.C.

Campbellford Weights Stand For Cheese

CAMPBELLFORD, May 19 (ENS) —The question of weighing cheese which has been a controversial matter for the past two years was settled to the satisfaction of local cheese men at the Board's regular meeting here Thursday night. Information was received that from this date Campbellford weights would be accepted. This means that cheese will not be re-weighed at Montreal and the shrinkage charged back to the local producers. Word to the effect was contained in a letter from J. S. Singleton, chairman of the Dairy Products Board. A total of 646 white cheese were sold. Eleven buyers were present.

Mrs. E. Birdsall Re-elected W.I. President

HAVELOCK, May 19 (ENS) — Nutrition proper diet and the value of food products were features stressed at the District Women's Institute annual meeting, where Mrs. Everett Birdsall was re-elected President for the coming year, on Thursday at the Department of Agriculture Office in Peterborough.

After a hearty welcome extended by Frank Paterson of the Department of Agriculture, he spoke briefly to the women on the matter of proper diet and foods. He said there should be a much closer link between the farmer and city people since a large percentage of food was produced on the farms. Rural and urban women can do much to correct faulty meal planning if they are willing to study, practise, and attend Short Courses and domestic science classes, which are available for the requesting of same he said. Army personnel records are showing that the health of the soldiers has improved with proper balanced diet, and many rejections were traced to malnutrition.

This address was responded to by Mrs. C. Price of Havelock, who said that since Peterborough was the centre of this district, and as long as gas and tires were rationed, Institute members preferred to meet in Peterborough and combine the convention with a shopping trip.

Special Visitors

Owing to the illness of the President, Mrs. E. Bridsall in Nicholls Hospital, Peterborough, the Vice-Pres. Miss Iva Smith of Belmont, presided. Four distinguished visitors were introduced and asked to sit at the front, and were Mrs. N. J. White of Myrtle Station, the Federated Representative for this district; Mrs. G. Holmes of Belleville, President of the Federated Board; Miss Lulu Rowe from the Department in Toronto, and Miss Jean Scott of Bowmanville, convener and coach of Junior activities.

An oratorical contest will be held in the Peterborough Normal School. It was unanimously decided that conveners of standing committees shall hold office for three years. Those re-appointed to office are Citizenship, Mrs. S. Wood Buckhorn Agriculture and Canadian Industries, Mrs. Carman McMillan, Belmont; War Work, Mrs. C. Price, Havelock; Historical Research, Mrs. J. Thompson, Westwood; Social Welfare, Miss Iva Smith, Havelock; Junior Activities and Publicity, Mrs. Tom Brown, Trent River; Home Economics, Mrs. W. Lean, Apsley.

Plan For Future

In bringing greetings from the Federated Board, Mrs. Holmes said the first aim now was when the war is over a Peace plan should be established. In every community there is a great responsibility for young people and for re-establishing returned members of the armed forces, and to give every assistance to war brides in getting adjusted in Canada.

Special study, she said, should be given to larger areas of administration in Education and in the new health programs. Two important lectures and sets of slides on Health will be available in early fall. Taking the Institute motto "For Home and Country". The W. I. must assume its responsibility and accept the challenge.

50th Anniversary

A member of the Federated Board, Mrs. Norman White urged members to prepare for the 50th anniversary, ever remembering that the Institute is based on educational achievements, is non-sectarian and non-partisan. She said the motto could well be wider in its scope and suggested "Homes of the Nation". A few suggestions for programs were Health posters, Question boxes, quiz, Tweedsmuir's "Village History", more publicity and exchange of printed programs. She asked the Branches to support the Central Fund, Putman Memorial Fund, Jam and Seeds for Britain.

Sues For Million

CHICAGO, May 19—(AP).—Sewell L. Avery, chairman of Montgomery Ward and Company, yesterday sued Marshall Field, publisher of the Chicago Sun, for $1,000,000, alleging Field "maliciously published untrue, false and defamatory statements" about Avery and his business.

in
B.F. Goodrich
Synthetic TIRES
FOR PASSENGER CARS...

Since 1940, an 80,000,000 mile driving test over all kinds of roads has proved the B. F. Goodrich all-synthetic rubber treads wear as well as those made of natural rubber. It only remained to develop, using synthetic rubber, a complete tire that would equal the wear of the tread.

Again B. F. Goodrich "know how" solved the problem. The Hi-flex type of cord, previously used only in B. F. Goodrich Truck Tires, was adopted for use in passenger car tires . . . giving the necessary added strength, cooler-running qualities, and protection against bruising. This, and many other, B. F. Goodrich features were combined to solve the problem of getting pre-war performance from passenger car tires made 99.8% from synthetic rubber. These tires are now available throughout Canada to eligible drivers.

There is still a severe shortage of all kinds of rubber. In the interest of our national war effort, motorists must observe the common sense driving rules that increase tire mileage. So... whether your tires are made of synthetic or natural rubber, keep within the legal speed limits, don't overload them, keep them properly inflated, have them inspected regularly by a capable tire service man—your B. F. Goodrich dealer.

TIRE SAVING TIPS

Drive within the legal speed limits: Excessive speed causes very rapid tirewear, on natural or synthetic rubber tires. Save your tires by driving well within legal speed limits.

Check tire inflation regularly: Under-inflation is a sure cause of early tire failure. Check your tire pressure regularly, and get many extra miles.

Have your B. F. Goodrich dealer inspect your tires for cuts, bruises, or other things that shorten tire life—it will pay you to see him.

Get off to a flying start with a
B. F. GOODRICH BATTERY

On a battery, as on a tire, the name B. F. Goodrich is your assurance of long life, and trouble free performance. B. F. Goodrich Batteries pack plenty of power to handle all the modern accessories on your car and bring your motor to life the instant you step on the starter. Let your B. F. Goodrich battery dealer inspect your battery regularly . . . he will help you avoid battery trouble.

Again!
In war or peace
B.F. Goodrich
FIRST IN RUBBER

The Examiner

The Peterborough Examiner published each evening by Peterborough Examiner Limited Office Hunter and Water Streets Peterborough, Ont.

W. RUPERT DAVIES, President
H. L. GARNER, General Manager
G WILSON CRAW Managing Editor

Subscription Rates 20c per week in City of Peterborough delivered by carrier; $6.00 per year by mail to outside points.

Members Canadian Press; Audit Bureau of Circulation; Canadian Daily Newspaper Association; Empire Press Union; Ontario Provincial Dailies Association.

TELEPHONE 4641
Private Branch Exchange to all Departments

History can be well written only in a free country. —VOLTAIRE.

FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1944

Will The Budget Bring Relief?

It will not be long before Mr. Ilsley will be bringing down the Budget for the approaching year, and every Canadian taxpayer is curious to know whether or not it will afford him any relief. The size of the Budget will not be reduced, of course; only the defeat of Germany will lower our expenses. But the taxpayer may reasonably expect that a few of the injustices of the present system of taxation will be removed, and the business man may look for a friendly nod from the Minister of Finance, instead of the icy glare which has been his lot during the past two years.

• • •

Britain's Budget has already been brought down by Sir John Anderson, and a token reduction in the Excess Profits Tax has cheered the business world; true, the actual reduction was little enough, but it showed that the Chancellor appreciated the problems of business, and meant to do more for it when he could. Sir John also made it clear that he expected that private enterprise would be the backbone of British business in the postwar years; in order to do its job of providing both employment and goods business must be relieved as early as possible from taxes which reduce its vitality. If business is expected to provide jobs for most of the men who return from the war it must be able to expand, and business cannot expand while it is taxed to the utmost limit of its capacity to pay. Is Mr. Ilsley going to give Canadian business any hint of what it may expect in the future?

• • •

And is Mr. Ilsley going to do anything to remove the feeling of the ordinary taxpayer that he is being bilked? In a recent complaint which he made about expenditure Mr. Ilsley seemed to take the attitude that all the money in the country is under his control, and that the portion of a man's income which is left to him when his taxes are paid is a favour which he enjoys from the government. Quite the contrary is the case: the portion of a man's income which he pays in tax belongs to the government, and the remainder is his own. It is well that we should not lose sight of this simple truth. And many taxpayers feel that they are treated in an unjust and punitive manner because of abuses in the tax system. These abuses have been widely discussed, but it will not be amiss to set them down again here.

• • •

First of all, are we to have a simplified system of taxation on small incomes? The U.S.A. has now devised a system, and adopted it, whereby the full income tax on small incomes is deducted at the source. The great value of this system is that it allows every small taxpayer to know where he stands financially at any time, and does not face him with an unexpectedly large bill for unpaid tax, as happened this year to thousands of Canadians. The U.S.A. has also simplified its tax form for large incomes and incomes which are derived from several sources; that would also be welcome here. At present our forms are so complicated that a taxpayer may easily make a mistake and pay either too much or too little. But if he pays too little he may be billed for the balance, plus accumulated interest, any time within twenty-six years of the time of payment. But if he finds that he has paid too much, he must make his claim for redress within a year of making the mistake, or he gets nothing. And he gets no interest on the money which he has involuntarily paid to the government, either. Neither Great Britain nor the U.S.A. permit this tricky business of reopening old tax bills.

• • •

The powers possessed by tax officials are exercised, to a great extent, on their own discretion, and thus vary greatly from one district to another. There is no good reason why so much power should be reposed in officials, and there is a strong feeling that their powers should be clearly stated, and applied equally everywhere in the country. This is important, because there is no appeal against the decision of one of these men except through the Exchequer Court of Canada, and proceedings in that court are far too costly for the average citizen to invoke them. In Great Britain and the United States there are courts for handling tax matters which are easy to appeal to and which do not cost more than the humbler taxpayers can afford. Why should Canada have tax officials against whom there is virtually no redress?

• • •

It has been pointed out that the same money is often taxed twice in Canada. The money made by a corporation is taxed at the rate of 40 per cent. This money is paid by the shareholders of the company. But when they get their dividends from the company they are taxed on that money also. And make no mistake about it, shares in Canadian companies are held by people in humble circumstances, as well as by wealthier citizens. And a man whose income from his shares is too small to be taxed has none the less paid tax on that money already at 40 per cent.—the rate levied against the richest shareholder!

• • •

As we pointed out in these columns recently, the tax on the income from government annuities is actually a tax on capital and, under Canadian law, capital is not supposed to be taxed. It is matters like these which make Canadian taxpayers feel that they are being squeezed, and that the Departments of Finance and National Revenue have a cynical disregard for the means by which they get money, so long as they get it. There are few taxpayers in this country, we are convinced, who grudge the heavy taxes which they pay for the prosecution of the war, but they are irritated and affronted by obvious injustices in the tax system, and by the power put in the hands of tax officials against whom they have no practical appeal. When the Budget comes down the taxpayers will want to know whether Mr. Ilsley is content to leave matters as they are, or whether he means to show some consideration for the people who have, in so many ways, supported his financial planning.

Brainy Candidates

In a speech which he made recently in London, the British Labour leader, Mr. Herbert Morrison, accused all political parties of carelessness in choosing their election candidates. He said, "Sometimes people are more interested in the political label of the prospect than they are in his ability, quality and character".

Now that is nothing new. Critics of parliamentary government have been saying that since the days of Simon de Montfort. Bernard Shaw has shown up the difficulty by complaining of "election of anybody by everybody". But no one has suggested how the difficulty should be overcome. It is not easy for a party to find a brainy candidate at election time; it is sometimes hard to find a candidate at all.

Not every man who would be useful to his country in Parliament wants to engage in politics. He may be more interested in his business or profession; he may simply not wish to sacrifice his private peace to a public career. It is rarely that an election finds any party with a wealth of good candidates, and rarely does more than one appear in a single constituency.

Comparatively few men are bitten by the political bug; a man who wants a political career must be ready to make great sacrifices to it. Politics is one of the most absorbing pursuits of our civilization, and in Canada, which is politically-minded to an unusual degree, the life of a politician is strenuous and often rough.

But we wonder if it is desirable that every member of Parliament should be a keen student of political economy, history and international affairs? There must be men in Parliament who are versed in these matters, but we suggest that their place is in the Cabinet and on the many parliamentary committees. The job of the average M.P. is not to be a specialist, but to represent the popular opinion of the country. And we think that they succeed in doing this, most of the time, with a success which deserves our respect. Popular opinion is not always the best opinion, but it should have a hearing before specialist opinion is acted upon. Sometimes men are sent to Parliament who are of no use there, but we don't think that it happens very often.

NOTE AND COMMENT

We read of a man in Texas who has married his cook. Now he has a fireless cooker.

If Sweden wants to keep on good terms with the Allies she had better keep her bearings.

A Capital For Canada

By BRUCE HUTCHISON
(In the Winnipeg Free Press)

THE Parliament of Canada is about to plan a new and better Ottawa, a national capital worthy of this nation. It is high time.

A nation lives largely by symbols, which represent feelings too deep, subtle and sacred to be uttered directly or framed in words, and of such symbols a capital city is one of the most profound. A great nation will have a great capital—not necessarily in bulk, expenditure and ornament but in quality and atmosphere — while a mean nation will display its character by the same outward signs.

London is the perfect mirror of English character which has deposited itself year by year and age by age upon the very stones of the city like a rich moss. In Paris, in the bright colour of roofs, in the strange welter of old houses, in the delicate bridges of the Seine, in the generous sweep of the Champs, all the energy, friendliness and gaiety of the French people is reflected as in a mirror.

These capitals grew from the beginning with their nations. Washington, on the other hand, has always been a capital apart, not even in a state of the Union. It does not have the lived-in look of London and Paris but is rather a showpiece, a special drawing room, as in a Victorian house, which is opened only for visitors; but as a showpiece it is, I suppose, without equal in the world, ancient or modern, a magnificent symbol of the nation's dream.

◇ ◇ ◇

OTTAWA stands in a position different from the older and larger capitals. Ottawa, like London and Paris, is a city of its own, with important industries, quite independent of the government, and was a town before Confederation, a town which has never stopped growing. But unlike London and Paris, it is not the commercial or industrial centre of the nation. It is a relatively small place. Nor is it a showpiece like Washington, nourished only by the government and devoted entirely to government business.

To plan the future Ottawa, therefore, is not easy. It cannot be planned without regard to its industries and it cannot be planned on the huge scale of a city like London or Paris or Montreal. It must be a relatively modest plan, but size is not important. Ottawa can become the most beautiful capital in the world because it has a natural setting of unsurpassed beauty which has not yet been spoiled.

London rose from a swamp. Paris is on a flat plain. Washington grew out of a steaming mud bank, which still steams. Ottawa stands beside a broad and gracious river, upon high banks topped with hardwood groves. The south bank, with its fine hill, hard by the little canyon of the Rideau Canal, is almost perfect as it stands now, with its soaring spires and generous lawns. But the north bank has been ruined by the industries of Hull, and if Ottawa is to be the kind of capital Canada deserves these industries will have to move upstream, or down. You cannot look past the Parliament buildings now without seeing smokestacks. Often you cannot breathe the air of Parliament Hill without inhaling the nauseous odour of chemicals.

Likewise Ottawa, to the south of the Hill, has grown and proliferated like a mediaeval village clinging to the side of its castle. A great central boulevard and parkway must be carved through the city to open it to the light, and to reveal from everywhere the majesty of the Hill. Such a mall has been started with the widening of Elgin Street, but it is in the wrong position and not complete. The main artery of the city should cut clear through the Rideau Club and the United States Embassy; and one likes to imagine the fine old encrusted characters of the Club, sealed to their leather chairs for generations, lifted gently by a steam-shovel.

◇ ◇ ◇

THE reconstruction of Ottawa is justified by the success already achieved there. Where man has set himself to the task of creating beauty on the Hill he has succeeded magnificently. The world holds no finer architectural picture than the Ottawa towers thrust up through their summer elm leaf, a spectacle far more beautiful than that of the London Parliament buildings which are their model. Or in winter the very spirit of the Canadian season seems to live in those towers, rimed with frost, lean, gaunt and hard like the Canadians who toil on the land, in the forests and on the sea.

No Canadian can stand and look at this cluster of buildings, and let his eye follow the stern shaft of the Victory Tower upward to its ultimate spire, without feeling that somehow on this Hill, perhaps by a happy accident, architects, masons and stone carvers have managed to grasp and materialize the beauty of Canada, the vastness of its land, its loneliness, its youth and its hope. This is the chief and central symbol of the emerging Canadian character. It should be completed and made worthy of the nation which is growing up around it.

At the Penny Reading

The Penny Reading was a form of entertainment already out of date in most places; but at Candleford Green it was still going strong in the 'nineties. For it the schoolroom was lent, free of charge, "By kind permission of the Managers," as stated upon the handbills, and the pennies taken at the door paid for heating and light. It was a popular as well as an inexpensive entertainment. Everybody went; whole families together, and all agreed that the excitement of going out after dark, carrying lanterns, and sitting in a warm room with rows and rows of other people, was well worth the sum of one penny, apart from the entertainment provided.

The star turn was given by an old gentleman from a neighbouring village, who, in his youth, had heard Dickens read his own works in public and aimed at reproducing in his own rendering the expression and mannerisms of the master.

Old Mr. Greenwood put a tremendous amount of nervous energy into his reading. His features expressed as much as his voice, and his free hand was never still, and if the falsetto of his female characters sometimes rose to a screech, his facetious young men were almost too slyly humourous, and some of his listeners felt embarrassed when the deep, low voice he kept for pathetic passages broke and he had to pause to wipe away real tears, his rendering still had an authentic ring which to Dickens lovers was, as the villagers said about other items, "well worth listening to."

They showed so much interest that one would naturally have expected them to get Dicken's books, of which there were several in the Parish Library, to read for themselves. But, with a very few exceptions, they did not, for, although they liked to listen, they were not readers. They were waiting, a public ready-made, for the wireless and the cinema.—From "Candleford Green," by Flora Thompson.

TIMELY TACKLE —By Rube Goldberg

Not All Imperialists

(SATURDAY EVENING POST)

"GOOD-NEIGHBOUR policy" is a good phrase because it suggests idealists with money to distribute. "Imperialism" is a bad word because it connotes traders in pith helmets kicking Chinese coolies and Indian doctors of philosophy clad in pyjamas, all in the interest of the "profit motive."

Dr. Carl Becker, professor emeritus of history at Cornell, thinks that perhaps our thinking on the subject of imperialism is not so profound as some of the pundits of press and radio would have us believe. In a wise and provocative book called 'How New Will the Better World Be?' (Knopf) Doctor Becker raises a few questions. From what he has read and listened to, Doctor Becker assumes the popular picture of an imperialist to be "a white man and a European, and a hidebound conservative in national politics, inspired by nothing more laudable than to hang on to the ill-gotten spoils of conquest in Asia and Africa." He gathers that neither Russia, China nor the United States could possibly be imperialistic. Let Doctor Becker take over.

"I suppose that if Siberia, with its eight or ten million of non-Russian inhabitants—Siberians, Chinese, Koreans—were an island or group of islanders separated from Russia by two thousand miles of water, there would be no difficulty in recognizing that Russia is an empire with very considerable 'vested colonial interests'. Or maybe the Chinese Empire would be regarded as imperialistic, if Mongolia, Manchuria, Tibet and Sinkiang were scattered in the Indian Ocean and southwest Pacific. Fortunately for us, the Middle West and the Louisiana Territory, acquired in 1803, are not separated from the Atlantic seaboard and from each other by large bodies of water, or we might suffer from the disadvantage of being called the United Commonwealth of Nations and the American Empire". Neither our offshore possessions nor our plan to build an oil pipe line across Arabia has accomplished that.

Doctor Becker did not make these simple observations merely for the fun of playing with words. It is his belief that the American people have "more in common with the people of Great Britain and the self-governing dominions than with any other people" and that it is a pity that Anglo-American understanding so necessary in a post-war world filled with totalitarian "empires," should be clouded by terms which have little meaning. For some inexplicable reason, Americans who are indifferent to the prospect of Poland being swallowed by the vast Muscovite "empire" can work themselves into a sweat about India, where there is ten times more liberty right now than ever existed in Stalingrad.

Somebody should thank Doctor Becker for upsetting such misconceptions. Our problems are tough enough without epithets to make them harder.

A National Library

(WINNIPEG FREE PRESS)

GRADUALLY there is developing in Canada an awareness that this country has no national library, and with this knowledge should come the first steps to make good this shortcoming in our cultural development. Leadership in this direction is to be expected from the ranks of the professional librarians and in the current issue of Food For Thought, published by the Canadian Association for Adult Education, Miss Elizabeth Dafoe, Librarian of the University of Manitoba, has a thoughtful article on a national library for Canada.

Miss Dafoe presents the thesis that our national library should be developed in the first place as a deposit library, and should "by means of copyright privilege, purchase, and co-operation with other libraries collect, preserve and maintain the printed record of the country and make it available to those engaged in study and research." She quotes Mr. Felix Desrochers, Parliametnary librarian, in his latest report to the House of Commons as saying:

"Of the books at present crowded into the library of Parliament probably two-thirds could be removed to a National Library. This would leave, say, 150,000 volumes in the library of Parliament embracing all material which would have any definite value as legislative material. Any other work that might occasionally be required for Parliamentary use would still be available in the National Library. Here, then, we have 350,000 volumes as the nucleus of a Canadian National Library."

Faced with the present overcrowded condition of the Parliamentary library the Government must make a decision soon. A plan for a national library is long overdue. The preliminary steps for its inception should be taken without further delay.

Easy Money

Fake stock salesmen would not be able to do business, if the woods were not filled with people looking for easy money. They have dreams of making fortunes in a hurry and they think there is always a chance that shares in Hunky-Dory will soar to the skies, or that a substantial holding of Kickapoo Preferred will make them a fortune.

If so many people were not convinced that it would be worth their while to gamble a few thousand dollars, the fake stock pushers would have no market.

It is criminal to sell the fake shares. But, some blame must also be attached to the purchasers. They are out on the hunt for some easy money in a hurry. If they were not, they would not be trusting thousands of their hard-earned dollars to total strangers.—Windsor Star.

Safety of Air Travel

The nation's commercial airlines, even in the face of new and tremendous burdens of war transportation, are achieving an enviable record in safeguarding human lives and equipment.

Compared with other types of accidents, the air record is unusual. In 1943, while commercial airlines were piling up millions of miles in travel, and only a few persons met death in crashes, some 33,000 other persons were killed within the supposed safety of their own homes. They fell off stepladders, tumbled down stairs, slipped on bathroom soap and were victims of the innumerable other careless things to which human nature is susceptible. In the same year almost 23,000 men, women and children were killed in traffic accidents.

Air travel has become much safer, and as time goes on it will be even more so. But it isn't the measure of safety on the airlines that worries either the operators or the travelling public—it's seat priorities and the lack of sufficient 'planes to carry the civilian traffic in a time of war.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Humour in the House

Hon. R. H. Hanson, Progressive Conservative member for York-Sunbury, speaking in the House of Commons on Monday, took exception to a speech made recently by Finance Minister Ilsley, and wanted to know if the latter had it in mind to "ingratiate himself into the hearts and pocketbooks of the so-called big interests."

We would like to know how Mr. Ilsley refrained from a Gargantuan burst of laughter at the implication that he was trying to ingratiate himself with anyone. If ever a politician was placed in a position where the stern requirements of duty demanded that he risk his popularity in the best interests of the nation, that man is Mr. Ilsley. The House must have been in a very blue Monday mood indeed to pass Mr. Hanson's highly humourous remark without gleeful demonstration.

DEEP SEA FISH

Halibut and salmon are both deep-sea fish, but the halibut remains that way all its life, while the salmon always steers a course back to the freshwater stream of its birthplace. When a salmon run passes fishermen must take their toll of fish-food or forever lose them. The halibut are always available. The fifty million pounds surplus to be harvested this year can be taken in August as well as in May. But we are used to halibut on our tables today, which makes consumers impatient of delays.—Vancouver Sun.

Hard To Believe How Time Flies

MAY 19

1914 Women's Council censures police commission for appointing a police matron without salary.

City Temperance Association decides to interview local candidates for the Legislature.

The opening sale of the Peterborough Cheese Board sees only 575 boxes boarded with 12 1-16 cents the top price.

Dr. Doolittle the president of the Ontario Motor League addresses the members of the Peterborough Automobile Association.

1924 Stoney Lake Navigation Company advertises a holiday service of steamers to Stoney Lake for May 24th.

John Armstrong, a well-known resident of North Monaghan township is dead.

Mrs. Charles J. Seymour is elected president of the newly-organized Peterborough Ladies' Lawn Bowling Club.

From the Apsley district comes reports of heavy frosts during the night.

Wyllie of the Canadian Woollens tops the scorers in the City Soccer League with five goals.

1934 Ashburnham boathouse which figured in a recent murder trial is destroyed by fire.

The funeral of the Rev. S. H. Moyer, Springville pastor, is held at Westwood.

James O'Keefe, well known here as a landscape gardener is dead.

Peterborough Central Ontario League ball club defeats Cobourg in an exhibition game 17 to 1.

Canada Packers give Caledonians their first loss of the season in a high-scoring game with the final count 5 to 4.

Contemporaries

BRITISH BRIDES

To British women Canada may seem a country of strange contrasts. Home equipment and home methods are often very different from those to which they are accustomed. So are the social habits to which they are suddenly introduced. But Canada has a reputation for friendliness and open-handed hospitality. These new wives of our boys overseas deserve the best we can offer them.—Halifax Chronicle.

MAYBE WE'RE LUCKY

The complexities of any income tax form result directly from the aim of the designers to make it fair; to arrange a tax tailor-made to fit the individual paying it. The fairer the tax, therefore, the more complex its calculation.

The U.S. carries this "tailoring" a good deal farther than Canada. For instance, the cost of auto plates is deductible. So is the tax on safety deposit boxes; the federal taxes on telephone calls and telegrams; the federal stamp on automobiles, deeds, etc.; the cost of "shop aprons or garments worn in addition to ordinary wearing apparel."

Also deductible is the amount of the taxes you paid on all the theatre and other amusement tickets you bought during the year. They do not, however, ask for vouchers or ticket stubs. They apparently just take your word for it.

All this bookkeeping plus the imagination involved, strikes us as something we are well without in Canada.—Financial Post.

OFF THE RECORD

This "off-the-record" device is a devilish problem; journalism has never succeeded in handling it with entire satisfaction. It has its uses, but it also is something which has been abused much less by the press than by the public figures involved.

It is probably correct to say that the gossip columnists (whatever their merits otherwise) have contributed most to the breaking of confidences. With a complete absence of ethics, many of them seem to believe they have the right to print anything they can lay their hands on, regardless of how it was obtained.

Most working newspaper men and women, we believe, have a much clearer conception than the gossipers of what they are privileged to divulge and what is to be regarded as strictly confidential. The practitioners of the sneak approach cause most of the trouble for all concerned. — New York Herald Tribune.

A Bible Message

Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the Lord. If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.... And I will set my tabernacle among you, and my soul shall not abhor you. And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people. (Lev. 26. 26: 2-4, 11, 12.)

◇ ◇ ◇

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them, The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: the Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them. (Num. 6: 22-27.)

Unconsidered Trifles

The late Baron de Rothschild once had a valet named Alphonse, an excellent servant whose only fault (in the Baron's eyes) was his following after Socialism. The man was a sedate, harmless fellow, whose demonstration against his master's capitalism amounted to nothing more than a weekly attendance at a meeting of Socialists, and so the Baron raised no objection to his political faith.

One week Alphonse failed to attend the meeting. The Baron thought he might have forgotten the night, but when the next week Alphonse again absented himself from the meeting, de Rothschild asked for an explanation.

"Sir," relied the valet, regarding his master very soberly, "some of the party members with whom I was mistakenly associated have worked out a calculation that if all the wealth in France were divided equally per capita, each individual would be the possessor of two thousand francs."

"Well," exclaimed the Baron, "what of it?"

"Just this, sir," replied the enlightened Alphonse, "I have five thousand francs now."

The Examiner

The Peterborough Examiner published each evening by Peterborough Examiner Limited Office Hunter and Water Streets Peterborough, Ont.

W. RUPERT DAVIES, President
H. L. GARNER, General Manager
G. WILSON CRAW, Managing Editor

Subscription Rates 20c per week in City of Peterborough delivered by carrier; $6.00 per year by mail to outside points.

Members Canadian Press; Audit Bureau of Circulation; Canadian Daily Newspaper Association; Empire Press Union; Ontario Provincial Dailies Association.

TELEPHONE 4641
Private Branch Exchange to all Departments

History can be well written only in a free country. —VOLTAIRE.

FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1944

Will The Budget Bring Relief?

It will not be long before Mr. Ilsley will be bringing down the Budget for the approaching year, and every Canadian taxpayer is curious to know whether or not it will afford him any relief. The size of the Budget will not be reduced, of course; only the defeat of Germany will lower our expenses. But the taxpayer may reasonably expect that a few of the injustices of the present system of taxation will be removed, and the business man may look for a friendly nod from the Minister of Finance, instead of the icy glare which has been his lot during the past two years.

• • •

Britain's Budget has already been brought down by Sir John Anderson, and a token reduction in the Excess Profits Tax has cheered the business world; true, the actual reduction was little enough, but it showed that the Chancellor appreciated the problems of business, and meant to do more for it when he could. Sir John also made it clear that he expected that private enterprise would be the backbone of British business in the postwar years; in order to do its job of providing both employment and goods business must be relieved as early as possible from taxes which reduce its vitality. If business is expected to provide jobs for most of the men who return from the war it must be able to expand, and business cannot expand while it is taxed to the utmost limit of its capacity to pay. Is Mr. Ilsley going to give Canadian business any hint of what it may expect in the future?

• • •

And is Mr. Ilsley going to do anything to remove the feeling of the ordinary taxpayer that he is being bilked? In a recent complaint which he made about expenditure Mr. Ilsley seemed to take the attitude that all the money in the country is under his control, and that the portion of a man's income which is left to him when his taxes are paid is a favour which he enjoys from the government. Quite the contrary is the case: the portion of a man's income which he pays in tax belongs to the government, and the remainder is his own. It is well that we should not lose sight of this simple truth. And many taxpayers feel that they are treated in an unjust and punitive manner because of abuses in the tax system. These abuses have been widely discussed, but it will not be amiss to set them down again here.

• • •

First of all, are we to have a simplified system of taxation on small incomes? The U.S.A. has now devised a system, and adopted it, whereby the full income tax on small incomes is deducted at the source. The great value of this system is that it allows every small taxpayer to know where he stands financially at any time, and does not face him with an unexpectedly large bill for unpaid tax, as happened this year to thousands of Canadians. The U.S.A. has also simplified its tax form for large incomes and incomes which are derived from several sources; that would also be welcome here. At present our forms are so complicated that a taxpayer may easily make a mistake and pay either too much or too little. But if he pays too little he may be billed for the balance, plus accumulated interest, any time within twenty-six years of the time of payment. But if he finds that he has paid too much, he must make his claim for redress within a year of making the mistake, or he gets nothing. And he gets no interest on the money which he has involuntarily paid to the government, either. Neither Great Britain nor the U.S.A. permit this tricky business of reopening old tax bills.

• • •

The powers possessed by tax officials are exercised, to a great extent, on their own discretion, and thus vary greatly from one district to another. There is no good reason why so much power should be reposed in officials, and there is a strong feeling that their powers should be clearly stated, and applied equally everywhere in the country. This is important, because there is no appeal against the decision of one of these men except through the Exchequer Court of Canada, and proceedings in that court are far too costly for the average citizen to invoke them. In Great Britain and the United States there are courts for handling tax matters which are easy to appeal to and which do not cost more than the humbler taxpayers can afford. Why should Canada have tax officials against whom there is virtually no redress?

• • •

It has been pointed out that the same money is often taxed twice in Canada. The money made by a corporation is taxed at the rate of 40 per cent. This money is paid by the shareholders of the company. But when they get their dividends from the company they are taxed on that money also. And make no mistake about it, shares in Canadian companies are held by people in humble circumstances, as well as by wealthier citizens. And a man whose income from his shares is too small to be taxed has none the less paid tax on that money already at 40 per cent. — the rate levied against the richest shareholder!

• • •

As we pointed out in these columns recently, the tax on the income from government annuities is actually a tax on capital and, under Canadian law, capital is not supposed to be taxed. It is matters like these which make Canadian taxpayers feel that they are being squeezed, and that the Departments of Finance and National Revenue have a cynical disregard for the means by which they get money, so long as they get it. There are few taxpayers in this country, we are convinced, who grudge the heavy taxes which they pay for the prosecution of the war, but they are irritated and affronted by obvious injustices in the tax system, and by the power put in the hands of tax officials against whom they have no practical appeal. When the Budget comes down the taxpayers will want to know whether Mr. Ilsley is content to leave matters as they are, or whether he means to show some consideration for the people who have, in so many ways, supported his financial planning.

Brainy Candidates

In a speech which he made recently in London, the British Labour leader, Mr. Herbert Morrison, accused all political parties of carelessness in choosing their election candidates. He said, "Sometimes people are more interested in the political label of the prospect than they are in his ability, quality and character".

Now that is nothing new. Critics of parliamentary government have been saying that since the days of Simon de Montfort. Bernard Shaw has shown up the difficulty by complaining of "election of anybody by everybody". But no one has suggested how the difficulty should be overcome. It is not easy for a party to find a brainy candidate at election time; it is sometimes hard to find a candidate at all.

Not every man who would be useful to his country in Parliament wants to engage in politics. He may be more interested in his business or profession; he may simply not wish to sacrifice his private peace to a public career. It is rarely that an election finds any party with a wealth of good candidates, and rarely does more than one appear in a single constituency.

Comparatively few men are bitten by the political bug; a man who wants a political career must be ready to make great sacrifices to it. Politics is one of the most absorbing pursuits of our civilization, and in Canada, which is politically-minded to an unusual degree, the life of a politician is strenuous and often rough.

But we wonder if it is desirable that every member of Parliament should be a keen student of political economy, history and international affairs? There must be men in Parliament who are versed in these matters, but we suggest that their place is in the Cabinet and on the many parliamentary committees. The job of the average M.P. is not to be a specialist, but to represent the popular opinion of the country. And we think that they succeed in doing this, most of the time, with a success which deserves our respect. Popular opinion is not always the best opinion, but it should have a hearing before specialist opinion is acted upon. Sometimes men are sent to Parliament who are of no use there, but we don't think that it happens very often.

NOTE AND COMMENT

We read of a man in Texas who has married his cook. Now he has a fireless cooker.

---

If Sweden wants to keep on good terms with the Allies she had better keep her bearings.

A Capital For Canada

By BRUCE HUTCHISON
(In the Winnipeg Free Press)

THE Parliament of Canada is about to plan a new and better Ottawa, a national capital worthy of this nation. It is high time.

A nation lives largely by symbols, which represent feelings too deep, subtle and sacred to be uttered directly or framed in words, and of such symbols a capital city is one of the most profound. A great nation will have a great capital —not necessarily in bulk, expenditure and ornament but in quality and atmosphere — while a mean nation will display its character by the same outward signs.

London is the perfect mirror of English character which has deposited itself year by year and age by age upon the very stones of the city like a rich moss. In Paris, in the bright colour of roofs, in the strange welter of old houses, in the delicate bridges of the Seine, in the generous sweep of the Champs, all the energy, friendliness and gaiety of the French people is reflected as in a mirror.

These capitals grew from the beginning with their nations. Washington, on the other hand, has always been a capital apart, not even in a state of the Union. It does not have the lived-in look of London and Paris but is rather a showpiece, a special drawing room, as in a Victorian house, which is opened only for visitors; but as a showpiece it is, I suppose, without equal in the world, ancient or modern, a magnificent symbol of the nation's dream.

◇ ◇ ◇

OTTAWA stands in a position different from the older and larger capitals. Ottawa, like London and Paris, is a city of its own, with important industries, quite independent of the government, and was a town before Confederation, a town which has never stopped growing. But unlike London and Paris, it is not the commercial or industrial centre of the nation. It is a relatively small place. Nor is it a showpiece like Washington, nourished only by the government and devoted entirely to government business.

To plan the future Ottawa, therefore, is not easy. It cannot be planned without regard to its industries and it cannot be planned on the huge scale of a city like London or Paris or Montreal. It must be a relatively modest plan, but size is not important. Ottawa can become the most beautiful capital in the world because it has a natural setting of unsurpassed beauty which has not yet been spoiled.

London rose from a swamp. Paris is on a flat plain. Washington grew out of a steaming mud bank, which still steams. Ottawa stands beside a broad and gracious river, upon high banks topped with hardwood groves. The south bank, with its fine hill, hard by the little canyon of the Rideau Canal, is almost perfect as it stands now, with its soaring spires and generous lawns. But the north bank has been ruined by the industries of Hull, and if Ottawa is to be the kind of capital Canada deserves these industries will have to move upstream, or down. You cannot look past the Parliament buildings now without seeing smokestacks. Often you cannot breathe the air of Parliament Hill without inhaling the nauseous odour of chemicals.

Likewise Ottawa, to the south of the Hill, has grown and proliferated like a mediaeval village clinging to the side of its castle. A great central boulevard and parkway must be carved through the city to open it to the light, and to reveal from everywhere the majesty of the Hill. Such a mall has been started with the widening of Elgin Street, but it is in the wrong position and not complete. The main artery of the city should cut clear through the Rideau Club and the United States Embassy; and one likes to imagine the fine old encrusted characters of the Club, sealed to their leather chairs for generations, lifted gently by a steam-shovel.

◇ ◇ ◇

THE reconstruction of Ottawa is justified by the success already achieved there. Where man has set himself to the task of creating beauty on the Hill he has succeeded magnificently. The world holds no finer architectural picture than the Ottawa towers thrust up through their summer elm leaf, a spectacle far more beautiful than that of the London Parliament buildings which are their model. Or in winter the very spirit of the Canadian season seems to live in those towers, rimed with frost, lean, gaunt and hard like the Canadians who toil on the land, in the forests and on the sea.

No Canadian can stand and look at this cluster of buildings, and let his eye follow the stern shaft of the Victory Tower upward to its ultimate spire, without feeling that somehow on this Hill, perhaps by a happy accident, architects, masons and stone carvers have managed to grasp and materialize the beauty of Canada, the vastness of its land, its loneliness, its youth and its hope. This is the chief and central symbol of the emerging Canadian character. It should be completed and made worthy of the nation which is growing up around it.

At the Penny Reading

The Penny Reading was a form of entertainment already out of date in most places; but at Candleford Green it was still going strong in the 'nineties. For it the schoolroom was lent, free of charge, "By kind permission of the Managers," as stated upon the handbills, and the pennies taken at the door paid for heating and light. It was a popular as well as an inexpensive entertainment. Everybody went; whole families together, and all agreed that the excitement of going out after dark, carrying lanterns, and sitting in a warm room with rows and rows of other people, was well worth the sum of one penny, apart from the entertainment provided.

The star turn was given by an old gentleman from a neighbouring village, who, in his youth, had heard Dickens read his own works in public and aimed at reproducing in his own rendering the expression and mannerisms of the master.

Old Mr. Greenwood put a tremendous amount of nervous energy into his reading. His features expressed as much as his voice, and his free hand was never still, and if the falsetto of his female characters sometimes rose to a screech, his facetious young men were almost too slyly humourous, and some of his listeners felt embarrassed when the deep, low voice he kept for pathetic passages broke and he had to pause to wipe away real tears, his rendering still had an authentic ring which to Dickens lovers was, as the villagers said about other items, "well worth listening to."

They showed so much interest that one would naturally have expected them to get Dicken's books, of which there were several in the Parish Library, to read for themselves. But, with a very few exceptions, they did not, for, although they liked to listen, they were not readers. They were waiting, a public ready-made, for the wireless and the cinema.—From "Candleford Green," by Flora Thompson.

TIMELY TACKLE —By Rube Goldberg

Not All Imperialists

(SATURDAY EVENING POST)

"GOOD-NEIGHBOUR policy" is a good phrase because it suggests idealists with money to distribute. "Imperialism" is a bad word because it connotes traders in pith helmets kicking Chinese coolies and Indian doctors of philosophy clad in pyjamas, all in the interest of the "profit motive."

Dr. Carl Becker, professor emeritus of history at Cornell, thinks that perhaps our thinking on the subject of imperialism is not so profound as some of the pundits of press and radio would have us believe. In a wise and provocative book called 'How New Will the Better World Be?' (Knopf) Doctor Becker raises a few questions. From what he has read and listened to, Doctor Becker assumes the popular picture of an imperialist to be "a white man and a European, and a hidebound conservative in national politics, inspired by nothing more laudable than to hang on to the ill-gotten spoils of conquest in Asia and Africa." He gathers that neither Russia, China nor the United States could possibly be imperialistic. Let Doctor Becker take over.

"I suppose that if Siberia, with its eight or ten million of non-Russian inhabitants—Siberians, Chinese, Koreans—were an island or group of islanders separated from Russia by two thousand miles of water, there would be no difficulty in recognizing that Russia is an empire with very considerable 'vested colonial interests'. Or maybe the Chinese Empire would be regarded as imperialistic, if Mongolia, Manchuria, Tibet and Sinkiang were scattered in the Indian Ocean and southwest Pacific. Fortunately for us, the Middle West and the Louisiana Territory, acquired in 1803, are not separated from the Atlantic seaboard and from each other by large bodies of water, or we might suffer from the disadvantage of being called the United Commonwealth of Nations and the American Empire". Neither our offshore possessions nor our plan to build an oil pipe line across Arabia has accomplished that.

Doctor Becker did not make these simple observations merely for the fun of playing with words. It is his belief that the American people have "more in common with the people of Great Britain and the self-governing dominions than with any other people" and that it is a pity that Anglo-American understanding so necessary in a post-war world filled with totalitarian "empires," should be clouded by terms which have little meaning. For some inexplicable reason, Americans who are indifferent to the prospect of Poland being swallowed by the vast Muscovite "empire" can work themselves into a sweat about India, where there is ten times more liberty right now than ever existed in Stalingrad.

Somebody should thank Doctor Becker for upsetting such misconceptions. Our problems are tough enough without epithets to make them harder.

A National Library

(WINNIPEG FREE PRESS)

GRADUALLY there is developing in Canada an awareness that this country has no national library, and with this knowledge should come the first steps to make good this shortcoming in our cultural development. Leadership in this direction is to be expected from the ranks of the professional librarians and in the current issue of Food For Thought, published by the Canadian Association for Adult Education, Miss Elizabeth Dafoe, Librarian of the University of Manitoba, has a thoughtful article on a national library for Canada.

Miss Dafoe presents the thesis that our national library should be developed in the first place as a deposit library, and should "by means of copyright privilege, purchase, and co-operation with other libraries collect, preserve and maintain the printed record of the country and make it available to those engaged in study and research." She quotes Mr. Felix Derochers, Parliametnary librarian, in his latest report to the House of Commons as saying:

"Of the books at present crowded into the library of Parliament probably two-thirds could be removed to a National Library. This would leave, say, 150,000 volumes in the library of Parliament embracing all material which would have any definite value as legislative material. Any other work that might occasionally be required for Parliamentary use would still be available in the National Library. Here, then, we have 350,000 volumes as the nucleus of a Canadian National Library."

Faced with the present overcrowded condition of the Parliamentary library the Government must make a decision soon. A plan for a national library is long overdue. The preliminary steps for its inception should be taken without further delay.

Easy Money

Fake stock salesmen would not be able to do business, if the woods were not filled with people looking for easy money. They have dreams of making fortunes in a hurry and they think there is always a chance that shares in Hunky-Dory will soar to the skies, or that a substantial holding of Kickapoo Preferred will make them a fortune.

If so many people were not convinced that it would be worth their while to gamble a few thousand dollars, the fake stock pushers would have no market.

It is criminal to sell the fake shares. But, some blame must also be attached to the purchasers. They are out on the hunt for some easy money in a hurry. If they were not, they would not be trusting thousands of their hard-earned dollars to total strangers.—Windsor Star.

Safety of Air Travel

The nation's commercial airlines, even in the face of new and tremendous burdens of war transportation, are achieving an enviable record in safeguarding human lives and equipment.

Compared with other types of accidents, the air record is unusual. In 1943, while commercial airlines were piling up millions of miles in travel, and only a few persons met death in crashes, some 33,000 other persons were killed within the supposed safety of their own homes. They fell off stepladders, tumbled down stairs, slipped on bathroom soap and were victims of the innumerable other careless things to which human nature is susceptible. In the same year almost 23,000 men, women and children were killed in traffic accidents.

Air travel has become much safer, and as time goes on it will be even more so. But it isn't the measure of safety on the airlines that worries either the operators or the travelling public—it's seat priorities and the lack of sufficient 'planes to carry the civilian traffic in a time of war.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Humour in the House

Hon. R. H. Hanson, Progressive Conservative member for York-Sunbury, speaking in the House of Commons on Monday, took exception to a speech made recently by Finance Minister Ilsley, and wanted to know if the latter had it in mind to "ingratiate himself into the hearts and pocketbooks of the so-called big interests."

We would like to know how Mr. Ilsley refrained from a Gargantuan burst of laughter at the implication that he was trying to ingratiate himself with anyone. If ever a politician was placed in a position where the stern requirements of duty demanded that he risk his popularity in the best interests of the nation, that man is Mr. Ilsley. The House must have been in a very blue Monday mood indeed to pass Mr. Hanson's highly humourous remark without gleeful demonstration.

DEEP SEA FISH

Halibut and salmon are both deep-sea fish, but the halibut remains that way all its life, while the salmon always steers a course back to the freshwater stream of its birthplace. When a salmon run passes fishermen must take their toll of fish-food or forever lose them. The halibut are always available. The fifty million pounds surplus to be harvested this year can be taken in August as well as in May. But we are used to halibut on our tables today, which makes consumers impatient of delays.—Vancouver Sun.

Hard To Believe How Time Flies

MAY 19

1914 Women's Council censures police commission for appointing a police matron without salary.

City Temperance Association decides to interview local candidates for the Legislature.

The opening sale of the Peterborough Cheese Board sees only 575 boxes boarded with 12 1-16 cents the top price.

Dr. Doolittle the president of the Ontario Motor League addresses the members of the Peterborough Automobile Association.

1924 Stoney Lake Navigation Company advertises a holiday service of steamers to Stoney Lake for May 24th.

John Armstrong, a well-known resident of North Monaghan township is dead.

Mrs. Charles J. Seymour is elected president of the newly-organized Peterborough Ladies' Lawn Bowling Club.

From the Apsley district comes reports of heavy frosts during the night.

Wyllie of the Canadian Woollens tops the scorers in the City Soccer League with five goals.

1934 Ashburnham boathouse which figured in a recent murder trial is destroyed by fire.

The funeral of the Rev. S. H. Moyer, Springville pastor, is held at Westwood.

James O'Keefe, well known here as a landscape gardener is dead.

Peterborough Central Ontario League ball club defeats Cobourg in an exhibition game 17 to 1.

Canada Packers give Caledonians their first loss of the season in a high-scoring game with the final count 5 to 4.

Contemporaries

BRITISH BRIDES

To British women Canada may seem a country of strange contrasts. Home equipment and home methods are often very different from those to which they are accustomed. So are the social habits to which they are suddenly introduced. But Canada has a reputation for friendliness and open-handed hospitality. These new wives of our boys overseas deserve the best we can offer them.—Halifax Chronicle.

MAYBE WE'RE LUCKY

The complexities of any income tax form result directly from the aim of the designers to make it fair; to arrange a tax tailor-made to fit the individual paying it. The fairer the tax, therefore, the more complex its calculation.

The U.S. carries this "tailoring" a good deal farther than Canada. For instance, the cost of auto plates is deductible. So is the tax on safety deposit boxes; the federal taxes on telephone calls and telegrams; the federal stamp on automobiles, deeds, etc.; the cost of "shop aprons or garments worn in addition to ordinary wearing apparel."

Also deductible is the amount of the taxes you paid on all the theatre and other amusement tickets you bought during the year. They do not, however, ask for vouchers or ticket stubs. They apparently just take your word for it.

All this bookkeeping plus the imagination involved, strikes us as something we are well without in Canada.—Financial Post.

OFF THE RECORD

This "off-the-record" device is a devilish problem; journalism has never succeeded in handling it with entire satisfaction. It has its uses, but it also is something which has been abused much less by the press than by the public figures involved.

It is probably correct to say that the gossip columnists (whatever their merits otherwise) have contributed most to the breaking of confidences. With a complete absence of ethics, many of them seem to believe they have the right to print anything they can lay their hands on, regardless of how it was obtained.

Most working newspaper men and women, we believe, have a much clearer conception than the gossipers of what they are privileged to divulge and what is to be regarded as strictly confidential. The practitioners of the sneak approach cause most of the trouble for all concerned. —New York Herald Tribune.

A Bible Message

Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the Lord. If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.... And I will set my tabernacle among you, and my soul shall not abhor you. And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people. (Lev. 26. 26: 2-4, 11, 12.)

◇ ◇ ◇

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them, The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: the Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them. (Num. 6: 22-27.)

Unconsidered Trifles

The late Baron de Rothschild once had a valet named Alphonse, an excellent servant whose only fault (in the Baron's eyes) was his following after Socialism. The man was a sedate, harmless fellow, whose demonstration against his master's capitalism amounted to nothing more than a weekly attendance at a meeting of Socialists, and so the Baron raised no objection to his political faith.

One week Alphonse failed to attend the meeting. The Baron thought he might have forgotten the night, but when the next week Alphonse again absented himself from the meeting, de Rothschild asked for an explanation.

"Sir," relied the valet, regarding his master very soberly, "some of the party members with whom I was mistakenly associated have worked out a calculation that if all the wealth in France were divided equally per capita, each individual would be the possessor of two thousand francs."

"Well," exclaimed the Baron, "what of it?"

"Just this, sir," replied the enlightened Alphonse, "I have five thousand francs now."

4 More Names Added To Casualty List

OTTAWA, May 19—(CP)—Naval service headquarters last night issued a list of four additional naval ratings, reported missing after the Canadian destroyer Athabaskan was sunk during a naval clash in the English channel last month.

The four new names brought to 206 the number of officers and ratings missing as result of the battle. The navy previously reported that 46 men were known to have survived. German broadcasts have claimed that 85 men were taken prisoner.

Following are the names of four new ratings listed as missing, with home towns of next-of-kin.

Croft, Moyle Haliburton, AB., Rose Bay, N.S.

Goulet, Robert James, Stoker (1st Class) Ottawa.

Saunders, Walter Burton, AB., Saint John, N.B.

Willock Samuel Cowan, supply assistant, Vancouver.

REHEARSAL FOR ALLIED INVASION OF EUROPE—Here American infantrymen who will take part in D-Day push are getting realistic training for the job on the shores of Europe. This wave of assault troops is storming "enemy" beach defences amid heavy explosions, which simulate enemy artillery bursts and bombing.

Cassino Battle Proved To All Limitations Of Aerial Bombing

By The Canadian Press

Cassino, which the Germans reported Thursday they had evacuated after a new British bombardment and British 8th army outflanking moves, probably will go down in military history as an example of the limitations of air bombardment unless closely supported by other arms.

And in Germany military history, it undoubtedly will go down as the keystone fortress in the Nazi winter line of 1944 which held for five months.

On March 15, more than two months after troops of the Allied 5th Army first reached the picturesque town guarding the broad Liri Valley and the road to Rome and then were stalled, Allied bombers dumped more than 2,500 tons of explosives on the Nazi defenders in an effort to stamp out their resistance.

The mighty blow described as "the greatest aerial assault ever launched against a single objective in the Mediterranean theatre." Lt.-Col. Eaker, Commander of the Mediterranean Allied Air Forces, declared that "undoubtedly never before in warfare have air forces concentrated so much destruction on target of comparable size in a single mission."

The devastating assault reduced Cassino to a rockpile. But the waves of Allied troops who followed up the raid found the surviving Germans putting up the same kind of fierce resistance. The Allies swept through most of the town, but two bastions—the Hotel Continental and the Hotel des Roses—held them at bay. The Nazis also were reported using ancient tunnels winding deep under the town.

On March 27— 12 days after the great raid—both Canadian and American soldiers' newspapers in Italy conceded that the attempt to wrest Cassino had been a failure.

Eighty-five miles from Rome by rail and 70 by air, Cassino was marked by Hannibal in ancient times, as of great strategic value because of its location in the Rapido River valley at the edge of the fair-broad Liri Plain. As a result of its location it was destroyed more than once by invading armies.

Famous for 50 years!

RED ROSE TEA "is good tea"

RED ROSE Orange Pekoe Tea is extra good!

Peas Are Vining In Garden Planted April 4

BY MRS. JOSEPH HAMILTON
Stony Lake

It is a most unusual thing in this county to put a garden in an early date as March.

About three years ago it was reported that Mitchel Hepburn had put onions out on March 4th. Being war time, I thought I would raise an early garden and I started my garden on about March 25.

Having taught Agriculture in the States, I wanted to try some of the theories I had taught.

First, I studied the location, depth of soil, weeds and any other phase concerned for a good garden. I could not have selected a much less prominent spot in some ways. The soil was just one foot in depth from the rock layer in some spots to not more than 2½ feet.

The spot had many good features. It is on the south-east side of a big brick house, a thick cluster of evergreen trees and Stony Lake is north of all mentioned. These facts make it possible for extremely early growth or late production in the fall. All these factors aid greatly in producing, and maintaining heat for production, namely closeness to the rock, quick drainage, protection by building, and timber being on the proper side of the garden. They are the vital points making my early garden possible. Many other people with similar features could have just as early a garden and have no fear of frosts harming most vegetables. Why put off raising an early garden when you can get it out before the weeds get a start, and before the spring rains come to water the plants?

When I put the garden out three years ago, there was snow back of the house, and the lake was covered over with ice. The garden spot being on the sunny side of the house had been free from snow for some time and the frost had been drawn from several inches in depth from that land. The earth seemed quite different than might be expected at that time of season. I started that garden about March 25 and put out 64 pound of onion sets, many spiny type vegetables, and many leafy types.

I selected 48 different varieties and arranged them according to type on account of the shallow depth of soil, the quick drainage possibilities, and to make the best growth, considering the mentioned features.

These facts shown brought many ridiculing comments from casual "Onlookers" who possibly had no garden in at that time. Their comments increased and my garden grew without delay. Some called me crazy, others said I was foolish and my huband said, "You will never raise a good garden there for that place is too shallow for earth and a rock layer just a foot down.

That year May 24 we were using seven different kinds of vegetables, farmers in the locality did not have any garden in.

Discretion must be used in the selection of locating making the most favorable prospects for production. The garden planted in front of a house looks so out of place, but it should be placed there only when no other suitable ground is near. Landscaping should be more considered in the planting of the vegetables too.

Selection of varieties should be carefully studied. Don't be content to eat spuds, meat and pastries alone. If you do not like leafy vegetables learn to eat them. I had many of the 48 varieties that many had never seen before. They called them just cow fodder. That so called cow fodder had more food in them than sugar coated pills and cost so much less and gave much more health and pleasure.

Frost and even two snow flurries covered that first garden, but it never harmed any of the vegetables.

Vegetables enduring cold weather are lettuce, radishes, endive, spinach, swiss chard, chicory, salsify, cauliflower broccoli brussels sprouts cabbage, (when seed is put in the open ground) parsley, onions and peas. The latter two kinds and radishes should be grown during the earliest time for the quick growth and sweet flavor.

My garden this year was started on April 4 and finished for early planting a short time later. There was snow back of the house much later and Stony Lake was covered with ice until April 30. That did not daunt my early planting, for I had good success twice before. My garden now looks as far advanced as most gardens my look by the middle of June. The onions are ten inches high and the peas are vining. The spinach, lettuce, endive, and swiss chard will not be long before it is in use. Strawberries are in bloom and asparagus has been up to use two weeks.

My garden for the past three years has reached the standard of my hopes it has proven to my opponents, that there is never the person too old or too wise who cannot have need for learning more than he already knows.

Clear and sparkling diamonds — beautiful designs. Choose now from these lovely-for-a-lifetime rings.

Blue River Rings

Blue River

ELSIE BENNETT
GIFT SHOP
345 George St.

PIMPLES
AND UNSIGHTLY
BLACKHEADS

Today, quick, get mildly medicated Cuticura. You'll probably be amazed how it helps clear up annoying, unsightly pimples, rash, blemishes and blackheads! A world-wide success! Recommended by many nurses. Made in Canada. Buy today! All druggists.

CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

OUT OF THE BARRIER

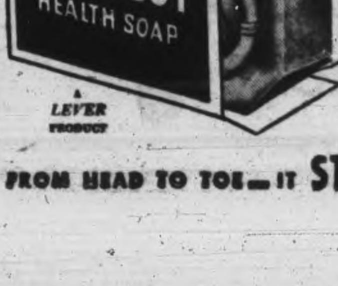
—INTO HIS ARMS!

ONCE she suffered the heartache of bitter loneliness. Unknown to her, the invisible barrier of "B.O." shut her off from friends and romance.

Yet today she is loved and cherished. She discovered the pleasant safeguard of careful people everywhere—a daily bath with refreshing Lifebuoy, the only popular soap especially made to stop "B.O."

Lifebuoy's rich, purifying lather gives lasting all-over protection. And its clean, invigorating scent vanishes before you're even dressed.

You'll like Lifebuoy's mildness, too. Tests show that Lifebuoy is actually milder than many so-called beauty soaps!



A LEVER PRODUCT

NEW ADDED INGREDIENT
NEW VANISHING SCENT
SAME PROTECTIVE LATHER

FROM HEAD TO TOE—IT STOPS "B.O."

Claims Agriculture Unfairly Treated

CHATHAM, N.B., May 19 — (CP) — Agriculture was termed the "Cinderella" of Canadian Industries by John Bracken, National Progressive Conservative Leader, in an address here yesterday.

"It is not fair that people should have to live on such low income that measures of health, education and opportunity are denied them," he said. "This has prevailed in the past in the primary industries such as fisheries, agriculture and lumbering. We propose to see that equality prevails and to bring about by a rational approach to the problems facing this nation.

"I realize that your material prosperity is going to be greatly determined by tne way that your forests are developed, conserved and used. Agriculture has been the Cinderella of Canadian industries and has been unfairly treated. It isn't fair that these industries should be put in the way of research work and scienific development in these industries. We feel that large research laboratories to deal with these problems should be erected."

Bensfort News

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Nurse, also Mr. and Mrs. C. Barnard and family with Mr. and Mrs. C. Emberson.

Messrs. W. and E. Westington, of Plainville and Peterborough, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Westington.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Harris of Oshawa, visited Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Harris.

Miss Katharine Morton, teacher of S.S. No. 2 was a visitor in Toronto this week.

The Bensfort W.A. held a cooking sale on the market on Saturday and received $27.25 from the proceeds.

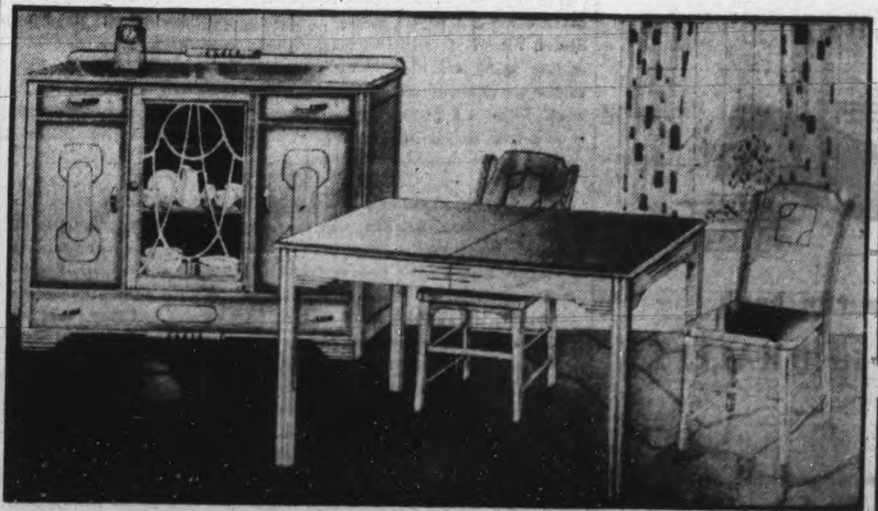
THERE IS STILL PLENTY OF FURNITURE TO CHOOSE FROM AT COMSTOCK'S

4 Piece Bedroom Suite

Suite is made with genuine walnut drawer fronts, with walnut finished hardwood construction. Vanity has tilting mirror, full size bed, chest of drawers and bench complete the suite. Dresser is also available ........ 89.50

6 Piece Dinette Suite

This suite features a large spacious buffet, extension table and 4 chairs in a light finish with walnut decorations. Not as illustrated ........ 79.50



6 Piece Breakfast Room Suite

...This sturdily made suite consists of a roomy flat top cabinet, extension table and 4 chairs in natural finish with red or blue trimming ........ 65.00

FOLDING VERANDAH CHAIRS 3.00
Made with slat seats and backs. Natural finish.

BABY SWINGS WITH SPRING 2.20
Baby jumpers in blue or white. Without spring, 1.95

HOMESPUN CUSHIONS 1.69
Plain cushions with coloured brush fringe.

DEEP CLOTHES HAMPERS 8.95
Roomy wicker hampers in ivory finish.

BOXED Wall Shelves 2.99
Colourful wall shelves, built-in a deep frame.

WALNUT FINISHED END TABLES 1.99
Useful tables in half round style.

LEATHERETTE HASSOCKS 2.25
Choice of round or square styles in many colours.

LAMP SHADES
Trilight Shades ........ 3.95
Bridge Shades ........ 3.50
Table Lamp Shades ........ 3.50
Vanity Lamp Shades ........ 1.50
All in tailored silk.

COMSTOCK'S

300 GEORGE ST. — BESIDE THE CAPITOL THEATRE — PHONE 4683

COUPLE OF YOUNG FELLERS—Age is creeping up on Freddy Fitzsimmons, Left, manager of the Philadelphia Blue Jays, and Mervyn Shea, coach and batting practice catcher. One offers a chair to the other after a workout but Shea declines for he's only 42 compared to Fitzsimmons' 43 years. The photo was taken in Chicago.

Signs To Fight

LONDON, May 19 — (AP). — Jack London, an R.A.F. sergeant, has signed to fight Freddie Mills for the British heavyweight fistic title over 15 rounds here July 8. Mills holds a 10-round non-title decision over London, but the West Hartlepool giant said he was confident of beating Mills over the longer route. The heavyweight title now is vacant.

Complete Auto Service
MOTOR REPAIR. BODY BUMPING. REPAINTING
J. J. DUFFUS CO.
Tel. 5757

SHAVING COMFORT
With Minora Blades!
Minora is the quality blade in the low-price field. It out-performs and outlasts ordinary double-edge blades. Prove it yourself.

Mark St. Boys Nose Out St. Paul's

In one of the closest Juvenile Church League games of the season Mark Street just managed to nose out St. Paul's 5 runs to 4 last night.

The winners chased three runs across in the second frame and that rally about won the ball game.

St. Paul's made it close by scoring two runs in the fourth and another pair in the sixth.

Mark Street—Jacquith c, Beavis 2b, Curry ss, Anderson 3b, Wilshaw lf, Cornwall cf, Atchison p, Stock rf, Alton 1b, Miller ss.

St. Paul's—Poole rf, Hall ss, McNaught cf, L. Brown p, Doughty c, Barrett 1b, Turner 2b, Courtney 3b, J. Brown lf.

All Saints had a score fest at the expense of St. James in a Juvenile Church League game last night, winning 29 to 9. The winners scored clusters of runs in every inning, climaxing the attack with eight runs in the 4th frame.

All Saints—Menzies c, Sisson rf, Doughty cf, Ellis 1b, McDougall p, Outram ss, Kidd lf, Filer 3b.

St. James—Byers 3b, Davis rf, Busby rf, Harris ss, Thompson 1b, Padgett lf, Downer rf, Eakins 2b, Payne c Dolan p.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

Tabhim, from the stable of Jim Fair, Brantford, Ont., was bought six years ago today by Philip Seagram, Waterloo, Ont., for $1 to run in the King's Plate a few days later. The deal was made because for the first time since 1889 the Seagram Stable had no horse eligible for the big race. Nothing was expected of Tabhim and he finished 11th in a field of 14.

FOR YOUNG MEN AND MEN WHO STAY YOUNG

If it carries this LABEL you can bank on its QUALITY

Behind the famous Society Brand label stands a reputation of forty years of style leadership, tailoring excellence and fabric superiority. If your next suit carries that label, you can bank on its quality.

From $35 to $65.00

ED. RILEY
Peterborough's Smartest Store for Men!
387 George St. Phone 5864

SPORTS-Day by Day

By FRED D. CRAIG

While the fans shivered on the sidelines the City Softball League managed to get the season under way Thursday with Switchgear defeating Plazas 8 to 5 in the opening game at Riverside Park. It was much too cool for softball but in spite of the near-frost in the air the teams managed to play a lot of good ball and it was an interesting exhibition with some nice fielding tossed in and two of the longest homers that will be seen at the park all season. This column pointed out the other night that Manager Murph Chambers of Switchgear had accumulated a lot of power in selecting his battle array for the season and his wrecking crew of Barney Ashmore, Gib Brockley and Holly Mowry supplies ample evidence of that statement last night. Their bats were swinging with a vengeance and between them the three registered six hits and the same number of runs. Mowry and Brockley each came through with a homer with a runner ahead of them and those two circuit clouts represented the margin of victory. Losing the first game of the season is of course not a new thing for Plazas; in fact the hockey outfit has yet to win the opener. Outside of the second innings when they scored all their runs the 1943 champs didn't do much hitting. They missed Eddie Starr who hurt his thumb in practice and will be out for a few games. The game demonstrated that there should be some great battles between the two teams during the season and if the other clubs measure up the City loop should have a banner year.

* * * * * *

From the headquarters of the Girls' Softball League comes the announcement that everything is ready for the opening of that loop on Monday night. The diamond has been groomed for the occasion and Westclox and Aircraft who clash in the initial game have been practicing faithfully and should be in good shape for the start of the season. While there will be some well-known players missing from both lineups, notably Marilyn Low and Bea McDowell from the ranks of Aircraft and Marg Watson, Eunice Armstrong and Beryl Dobbin from Westclox, most of the favorites of last season will be back again and with the rivalry between the two squads as intense as ever the opening game should be a peppery exhibition to get the league away to a fitting start. Starting pitchers have not yet been announced but it is a safe wager that Norma Strickland will be on the hilltop for Aircraft and that Isobel Bullock will get the call from the Westclockers. The rivals will have their strongest possible lineups in action in an effort to get a flying start in the race for the 1944 pennant. There should be a lot of entertaining ball in the girls' league in the next few months and Monday will see the season ushered in with due eclat.

* * * * * *

A Win For Judd

Lefty Judd made his first start of the season for the Boston Red Sox and the pride of Ingersoll who once pitched a mighty smart game of intermediate ball at the Exhibition grounds one September afternoon to dash Peterborough's hopes of an Ontario title to the ground made his debut an impressive occasion. The Ontario-born southpaw allowed the St. Louis Browns only five hits and the Red Sox took the decision 2 to 1. At that the Croninites might have made Judd's task easier for they crashed out 16 hits. However converitng them into runs was something else again and they just did manage to get enough to take care of the one run allowed by Judd. Another club which had still more difficulty yesterday in cashing on the hits they made was Connie Mack's Philadelphia aggregation. The Athletics made nine hits as against three registered by the Detroit Tigers but when the final returns were in and the last polls heard from the Bengals were riding out in front by the narrow margin of 1 to 0. Rube Gentry, last season with the Buffalo Bisons was the winner, his first triumph of the season as against three defeats. Black was the unlucky individual who only yielded three blows and yet had to take a loss because his team could not get him a run.

* * * * * *

The Chicago White Sox staged a fighting finish to knock off the New York Yanks. Until the later stages the Sox looked to be taking it on the chin but they rallied in the eighth and ninth to tie up the game and then went out in the tenth and pushed four runs across to win going away by 8 to 4. Home runs by Hal Trosky, his fifth of the year, and by Wallie Moses were a big help in the final result. Bonham started for the Yanks but the loss was eventually marked down to rookie Roser. And when you are speaking of battling until the last ditch you might take a look at the box score of yesterday's Pittsburg Pirates-Brooklyn Dodgers game. When the Corsairs went to bat in the ninth inning they were down 3 to 0 and all they did was to hammer in four runs and take the ball game 4 to 3. It was a nice win for Max Butcher who went in in a relief capacity.

* * * * * *

Katan Comes Back

If a bad man can ever be referred to in that way, a favorite villain is coming back to Peterborough for the Tunney wrestling show next Tuesday night in the person of John Katan. Yes, chum, the Palermo Panther who aroused a lot of heat here last year when he tried to give all the heroes he was matched with the well-known works is billed for the main bout next week and that indicates excitement plus. Katan is tough. He looks it, acts it and is. Furthermore he has a flair for arousing the ire of the fans. They are howling for his head on a charger even before he doffs his bathrobe and as he proceeds to cut loose the demands for his summary execution increase in intensity. Promoter Tunney, in bringing the Panther back to Peterborough after a long absence, is handing him plenty of opposition for he has matched him with the Columbus powerhouse Frank Sexton, foremost exponent of the giant swing and a grappler who knows all the holds and how to use them. The fans will visit Brock St. Arena next Tuesday all hoping the same thing. That is that Sexton will get a couple of opportunities to whirl Katan around in that famous swing and that he will keep on whirling him until the Panther will be too dazed to realize that he has been thrown for a total loss. That would make it a perfect night for local enthusiasts who while reluctantly admiring Katan for the courage and determination he shows like nothing better than to see him beaten.

* * * * * *

"The shortage of softball teams that threatens to wreck the popular sport in Kingston may be overcome by a new type of game introduced in Montreal for middle-aged players who can no longer keep up the pace of fastball," declares Bill Walshe, Kingston sport scribe. "Many players have resigned from the game fearing the exertion after working hard all day but they could return to the diamond and have a lot of fun with the softball style to be played in the Montreal playgrounds. In Cleveland, where the game originated, it is known as soft-pitching softball with 12 players a side instead of the customary nine and the objective of the defensive side is to permit a batter to hit instead of striking out. The extra men make it easier to get a side out and also provides entertainment and exercise for three more players. Teams are not allowed to use a fast ball pitcher or a hurler with hooks, curves, drops or with secret stuff on a ball that makes it do tricks. The ball must be tossed easily to the batter with the idea of allowing a man to hit. There are no walks but a batter is retired if he misses after three strikes."

* * * * * *

Sporting Chili Con Carne: There will be no game in the City Softball League tonight.... Soldiers were scheduled to meet the new U.E. club but were unable to play tonight for military reasons.... The next game will be Monday night when St. Peter's will clash with Switchgear.... St. Louis Cards must be rationing their hits.... They only made two last night off Al Javery but converted them into two runs and as a result the Boston Braves were beaten 2 to 0. Munger held the losers to five blows.... Winning three games in a row over the Yanks must qualify the Chicago White Sox for something or other.... Ken Raffensberger delivered a neat parcel of pitching last night in holding the Cincinnati Reds to three hits and no runs and the Blue Jays defeated Bucky Walters and company 3 runs to 0.

MAKER OF CHAMPIONS - By Jack Sords

Switchgear Defeats Plaza Team In Chilly Opener At Riverside

Sparked by the hard hitting of their wrecking crew Ashmore, Brockley and Mowry, Switchgear broke in front in the City Softball League race at Riverside Park on Thursday night when they turned back Plazas 8 runs to 5 in the opening game of the season, played in football weather.

Between them the three came through with six of Switchgear's nine hits and the same number of runs; Mowry and Brockley slammed out mighty homers with a runner on the sacks in each case.

Despite the cold weather it was a well-played ball game, with plenty of hitting in spots and also some smart defensive plays. The crowd shivered but stayed until the end and that was a real tribute to the quality of the ball dished up by the two clubs.

Switchgear took the lead by scoring single runs in the first two innings only to have Plaza come back in the last half of the second to chase five runs over and go in front 5 to 2.

Mowry's long homer with Brockley on the runways in the third cut down the Plaza margin to a single run and it disappeared altogether in the 5th when Brockley smashed another mammoth circuit clout to right, sending Ashmore in in front of him. Switchgear added single counters in the eighth and ninth to increase their majority.

Ron Akers went the route for the winners and outside of the second inning when Plazas bunched six of their eight hits and crossed the plate five times the Switchgear twirler had them popping up and under control. In fact, he blanked the hockey squad for the last seven innings and allowed them only two hits over that stretch.

Wilson Pitches.

Big Dave Wilson was on the firing line for Plazas and while he yielded only one more hit than Akers, the two home-run balls he fired to Mowry and Brockley hurt him a lot and in addition he had trouble with his control, walking six men and four of them scored.

There was some nice fielding. Jim Ellis pulled off a one-handed catch for an unassisted double play, Gib Brockley ran miles to gather in a long foul in the fifth, and Art Heal handled eight chances without a skip at second for the losers. Plazas were without the services of Eddie Starr. The hard-hitting catcher hurt his thumb in practice the other night and was unable to play. Joe Blewett had to take over the catching duties.

Switchgear scored one in the first. With one out Tompkins and Ashmore singled to left and Brockley to centre to fill the bases. Mowry forced Tompkins at the plate with a roller to Tucker, but Carpenter walked forcing in Ashmore. Holmes then flied to Jones in centre.

In the second with one away Akers walked, went to third on successive wild pitches, and scored while Heal was tossing out Pagett.

Plazas did all their scoring in their end of the second. Joe Blewett opened with a double to centre. Burton scratched a hit on a tap in front of the plate and Tucker singled to third. Pryde slashed a single past Holmes to score Blewett and Burton. Ellis popped to Tompkins, but Wilson singled to left to score Tucker and Pryde ran home on the catch after Heal had flied to Brockley. Then Jones singled on the ground into right to send Wilson in. Hawks got a life on an error, but Blewett, up for the second time, fanned.

Clouts Homer.

Switchgear closed the gap in the third. Ashmore opened with a single to left but was forced on Brockley's rap to Tucker. Mowry, however, exploded a long homer over Pryde's head scoring Brockley ahead of him. In the fifth after Ashmore had walked Brockley slammed a drive between right and centre for the circuit, Ashmore crossing the plate in front of him. That made it 6 to 5 for the ultimate winners.

In the eighth Carpenter walked. Holmes was out when he ran into the ball after bunting for a sacrifice, but Playford got a life on Hawks' error. Akers doubled to centre, scoring Carpenter, but Playford was nipped at the plate trying to register on the play. Switchgear got their final run in the ninth. With one away Brockley walked. Mowry singled to centre and when Maloney fumbled Brockley ran all the way home, scoring when Blewett dropped the ball after the runner had crashed into him at the plate. Mowry reached third, but was doubled on Carpenter's fly to Pryde.

| Plazas. | AB | R | H | PO | A | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Heal, 2b | 4 | 0 | 0 | 3 | 5 | 0 |
| Jones, cf | 5 | 0 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| Maloney, cf | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 1 |
| Hawks, 3b | 5 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 2 | 1 |
| Blewett, c | 4 | 1 | 2 | 6 | 1 | 1 |
| Burton, lf | 4 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Tucker, ss | 4 | 1 | 1 | 2 | 2 | 0 |
| Pryde, rf | 4 | 1 | 2 | 1 | 2 | 0 |
| Ellis, 1b | 3 | 0 | 0 | 10 | 0 | 1 |
| Wilson, p | 4 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 0 |
| *Woods | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| | 38 | 5 | 8 | 27 | 13 | 4 |

*—Batted for Heal.

| Switchgear. | AB | R | H | PO | A | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Pagett, 2b | 3 | 0 | 0 | 4 | 2 | 0 |
| Tompkins, 3b | 5 | 0 | 1 | 3 | 2 | 0 |
| Ashmore, 1b | 4 | 2 | 2 | 6 | 0 | 0 |
| Brockley, rf | 4 | 3 | 2 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| Mowry, c | 5 | 1 | 2 | 4 | 0 | 0 |
| Carpenter, lf | 2 | 1 | 0 | 3 | 0 | 0 |
| Holmes, ss | 4 | 0 | 0 | 3 | 1 | 2 |
| Playford, cf | 4 | 0 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| Akers, p | 3 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| | 34 | 8 | 9 | 27 | 5 | 2 |

By innings:

| | |
|---|---|
| Switchgear | 112 020 011—8 |
| Plazas | 050 000 000—5 |

The summary:

Runs batted in—Mowry 3, Brockley 2, Pagett, Carpenter, Akers, Pryde 2, Heal, Jones, Wilson. Two-base hits— Akers, Blewett, Pryde. Home runs—Mowry, Brockley. Bases on balls—off Akers 2, off Wilson 6. Struck out—by Akers 4, by Wilson 3. Double plays—Ellis (unassisted). Pryde to Blewett to Hawks. Left on bases—Switchgear 9, Plazas 6.

Umpires—Dormer at the plate, Batley on the bases.

Miller Edges Cards' Shortstop

NEW YORK, May 19.— (AP).— Fans throughout the National League are currently engaged in vigorous debate about the respective abilities of two great shortstops—Eddie Miller, ex-Toronto Leaf with Cincinnati Reds, and Martin Marion, the angular shortstop of the St. Louis Cardinals, who covers the ground with all the ambidexterity of an octopus.

There is little to choose between the pair, but it appears that the Miller rooting section is winning out. This is no reflecton on Marion, an admittedly fine ball player. But Miller seems to have the edge.

The only fair way to compare their fielding skill is to reduce their work to a per-game basis. Miller each day makes 2.26 put-outs, compared to 1.93 by Marion, 3.27 assists compared to 3.11, and .15 errors compared to .22. This gives Miller a daily ration of 5.68 chances as against 5.26 for Marion. Though this may appear to be only a slim edge, remember that Miller maintained that edge in very game for 601 games.

Highlander Killed

TORONTO, May 19—(CP).—Lieut. David M. Dickie of the 48th Highlanders, aide-de-camp to Maj.-Gen. Christopher Vokes, was killed in action in Italy May 15, his mother was informed here yesterday.

There's no better SYNTHETIC TIRE THAN A GOODYEAR

YEARS OF EXPERIENCE STAND BACK OF THESE TIRE FEATURES

Goodyear Synthetic tire pre-war features include an extra tough "compression tread"; an all-direction, skid-resisting tread design; sturdy, Supertwist Cord body; high tensile steel beads and of course, nearly half a century of actual tire building experience.

"Sold only for essential vehicles... and we can tell you if you are Eligible!"

We suggest that you come in and see the Goodyear Synthetic tire real soon.

J. J. DUFFUS CO.
PETERBOROUGH DIAL 5757

THE MEN'S STYLE SHOP

"WHERE STYLE PREVAILS"
In Sportswear

SPORT COATS
Smartly styled tweeds in herringbone, donegal and overcheck designs. Half lined for summer comfort and finished with patch pockets ........ 18.95

ODD TROUSERS
Tropicals, gabardines, tweeds and flannels in a real variety of colors and sizes ........ 5.50 to 11.50

WINDBREAKERS
Light weight gabardines and pony horsehides in attractive color effects ........ 4.95 to 14.95

SWEATERS
Pullovers and zipper front styles, styled by Jantzen in plain and fancy knits ........ 2.95 to 6.95

SWIM TRUNKS
Jantzen's famous brand in a new assortment of styles and colours ........ 2.95 to 4.95

SOX
New shades and patterns in ankle and regular lengths ....
59c, 85c, 1.00

BELTS
A wide variety of new styles by Hickok ........
75c, 1.00, 1.50

THE MEN'S STYLE SHOP
"Where Style Prevails"
BOB SAGER 136 Hunter St. ART BACON

"FLOOD TOWN" LEAPS TO VICTORY AT BELMONT—The camera halted this unusual action showing "Flood Town" actually flying across the finish line to win the 4th race at Belmont Park, New York. In the winners' wake are Paricutin and Hillyer Court who finished just that way. Jockey Mehrtens piloted the winner who paid a mild $5.50.

Baseball Results and Record

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Rochester | 14 | 7 | .667 |
| Toronto | 10 | 7 | .588 |
| Syracuse | 10 | 7 | .588 |
| Buffalo | 10 | 9 | .526 |
| Jersey City | 9 | 10 | .474 |
| Montreal | 9 | 10 | .474 |
| Baltimore | 7 | 10 | .412 |
| Newark | 6 | 15 | .286 |

Thursday's Results

Baltimore 11, Montreal 9
Buffalo 13, Rochester 3
Newark at Syracuse—Postponed
Only games scheduled.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| St. Louis | 19 | 7 | .731 |
| Cincinnati | 14 | 10 | .583 |
| Philadelphia | 12 | 10 | .545 |
| Pittsburgh | 11 | 10 | .524 |
| New York | 12 | 13 | .480 |
| Boston | 13 | 15 | .464 |
| Brooklyn | 11 | 13 | .458 |
| Chicago | 4 | 18 | .182 |

Thursday's Results

Pittsburg 4, Brooklyn 3
Philadelphia 2, Cincinnati 0
St. Louis 2, Boston 0
New York at Chicago—Postponed

AMERICAN LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| New York | 14 | 9 | .600 |
| Washington | 15 | 10 | .600 |
| St. Louis | 16 | 12 | .571 |
| Philadelphia | 13 | 12 | .520 |
| Chicago | 13 | 13 | .500 |
| Cleveland | 11 | 16 | .407 |
| Detroit | 11 | 16 | .407 |
| Boston | 10 | 15 | .400 |

Thursday's Results

xChicago 8, New York 4
Boston 12, St. Louis 1
Detroit 1, Philadelphia 0
Washington 4, Cleveland 2

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Thursday's Results

Louisville 12, Minneapolis 0
St. Paul 6, Indianapolis 1
xColumbus 5, Milwaukee 4
x—10 innings.
Kansas City at Toledo—Postponed

AFRICAN "GHOST"

The lemur, a nocturnal prowler in African jungles,, is about the size of a baby fox and its name in Latin means "ghost".

Hear these
NEW VICTOR and BLUEBIRD RECORDS

Milkman, Keep Those Bottles Quiet — King Sisters
Good-for Nothin' Joe — Charlie Barnet
I'll Get By — King Sisters
Behind Those Swinging Doors — Spike Jones
I'll Be Seeing You — Tommy Dorsey
Victor Smart Set Album, P147, "Smoke Rings"
"The Mikado" (Gilbert & Sullivan) D'Oyly Carte Company.

SULLIVAN'S
Charlotte St — Opp. Loblaw's

20% More Cream For Your Money In This Big 3-Ounce Tube

Gillette Lather SHAVING CREAM

Made by the world's leading experts in shaving comfort, the makers of Blue Gillette Blades.

• GIFTS! • BOOKS!
• Greeting Cards! • Luggage!
TRY DEYELL'S

BOOKS!

| | |
|---|---|
| The Curtain Rises | 3.50 |
| What A Man Can Believe | 2.50 |
| The Robe | 3.00 |
| The Apostle | 3.75 |
| Tree Grows In Brooklyn | 3.00 |
| The Promise | 2.75 |
| Undercover | 4.50 |
| Hotel Berlin 43 | 3.00 |
| The Razor's Edge | 3.25 |
| While We Still Live | 3.00 |
| Blessed Are The Meek | 3.50 |
| Chicken Every Sunday | 3.50 |
| Strange Fruit | 3.00 |
| Hungry Hill | 3.00 |
| Lassie Come Home | 2.35 |
| My Friend Flicka | 3.00 |
| Thunderhead | 3.00 |
| The Incomplete Anglers | 3.00 |
| How To Speak In Public | 2.50 |
| Malta Spitfire | 2.50 |
| Atlantic Meeting | 3.00 |
| Cross Creek | 3.00 |
| So Little Time | 3.25 |
| Madame Curie | 1.39 |
| Thorn Apple Tree | 1.39 |
| The Unknown Country | 1.98 |
| This Above All | 1.49 |
| Keys of the Kingdom | 1.69 |
| Boughs Bend Over | 2.50 |
| Our Old Home Town | 3.00 |

"PLOWMAN'S FOLLY"
Just published!
Popular edition 1.49

Overseas Mail Cartons
2 - Sizes - 2
Strong corrugated boxes for mailing your parcels to the boys anywhere. Complete with heavy cord, address labels.
Small Size 15c — Large Size 20c

PEN AND PENCIL SETS
• Parker's
• Waterman's
• Sheaffer's
Variety of Colours. Popular Prices.

TECHNICAL BOOKS!
• Machinists
• Tool-Makers
• Electricians
• Draftsmen
We Carry in Stock Books Published By McGraw-Hill Pub.
Industrial Press
Machinery
Theo Audel Pub.
American Technical Co.
Henry Ford Trade School

DEYELL'S BOOKSTORE
393 George St. PHONE 9641 Near Hunter

Senators Near Top Spot With Yankees

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sport Writer

Clark Griffith's night life diet has fattened the Washington treasury by some 100,000 admissions and today has lifted the Senators into a virtual tie with the Yankees for the American League lead.

Logged in sixth place in early season after pre-campaign dopesters had touted them as the club New York and the rest of the loop had to beat, the latin-tinted Nats have won 12 of their last 16, and six out of eight since they turned on the lights at Griffith Stadium.

Roger Wolff, Johnny Nigelling and Mickey Haefner have been three-time winners since the spurt started and Dutch Leonard added his third straight victory of the campaign last night on one big four-run inning by besting Cleveland 4-2.

Chicago's Thurman Tucker belted New York out of a 10-inning ball game, 8-4, when he tripled with the bases loaded off relief man Em Roser. Ernie Bonham was raked for 14 hits before he retired in the ninth after Wally Moses' circuit clout tied the score.

Rufe Gentry blanked Philadelphia with nine hits and batted in the only run of Detroit's 1-0 triumph over Don Black, and Oscar Judd clubbed two hits and scored three times while going the route for the first time in Boston's 12-1 swamping of St. Louis.

In the National Al Javery added another link to his tough luck chain by dropping a two-hitter to St. Louis. Javery, who has lost five in a row but never yielded more than four runs, blew this one on the first hit, a single by Whitey Kurowski driving in two runs for a 2-0 edge in the seventh.

Ken Raffensberger of the Phils didn't quite match Javery in his three-hit effort at Cincinnati but he managed to win and snap Bucky Walters' streak at five by a 2-0 score.

Rube Melton of Brooklyn whitewashed Pittsburgh for eight innings but the Pirates got after him and reliefer Bill Lohrman for four runs and a 4-3 victory before a man was retired in the ninth.

New York at Chicago was postponed.

Orioles Defeat Royals 11-9

By the Associated Press

A change in positions was all that Blas Monaco of Baltimore needed to make him a much improved ball player this season.

A natural second baseman, Monaco was assigned to the unfamiliar first base last year.

This year, upon the acquisition of Bob Latshaw to play first, Monaco was returned to second base, and his work immediately improved.

With Baltimore trailing 5-3 in yesterday's seventh inning, the rejuvenated infielder smashed a home run with the bases full to lead his team to an 11-9 victory over the Montreal Royals. Each side used four pitchers, with Frank Rochevot, the victor and John Travis the loser.

In a night game the Buffalo Bisons, though outhit 9-7 defeated the Rochester Red Wings, 13-3. The Bisons took advantage of 10 bases on balls and five Red Wing errors, ending their scoring with six runs in the ninth on only three hits.

The Newark-Syracuse game was rained out, and Jersey City and Toronto were not scheduled.

The Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 19 — (AP). — Since the death of Lord Lonsdale, the great British sportsman, boxing folks have been wondering if any one will continue the custom of giving belts to champions who successfully defend their titles three times....These awards have been made for over 100 years, and in that time only about half a dozen have been won outright....Incidentally, Nat Fleischer, who hands out the trophies in America on a wider scale, figures he owes belts to Manuel Ortiz and Willie Pep as the only real champions crowned since most titles were frozen for the duration...When Jolly Cholly Grimm took over the Cubs' management at the 10-loss mark, he wasn't exactly undergoing a new experience. Grimm broke in with the Athletics in 1916 when they were in the throes of a 20-game losing streak.

Quote, unquote:

Arnold S. Denker: "All the time I was winning the national chess title, I kept thinking about the lug that touted me off Pensive."

A rookie a day:

Augie Bergamo, Cardinals' outfielder: Augie isn't a regular now, but with Stan Musial and Dan Litwhiler listening for Uncle Sam's call he figures to become an important figure in the Cards' plans .....Up from Columbus where he led the American Association in drawing passes and tied for the lead in hitting two baggers Compiled a .324 batting average with plenty of clutch hits......In 1939 Augie didn't hit a homer for Columbus, Ga., until the last day of the season, but that blow won the pennant by a half game.

AUCTIONED FOR ARMY

FOLKESTONE, England — (CP) — A bottle of French red wine, 1937 vintage, raised $450 when auctioned at a "Salute the Soldier" dance here.

HURT TRYING TO STOP HOMER — Trying to stop a home run ball hit by a Yankee, Outfielder Jimmy Outlaw of the Detroit Tigers crashed into the bleacher wall at Yankee Stadium and was knocked out.

Canadian Sport Snapshots

By SYD THOMAS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP). — To race or not to race their utmost, that's the question facing owners of horse hopefuls for the annual King's Plate classic in Toronto when they send their entries to the post for the Plate trials, an innovation in the Royal Platter Derby this year.

Previously the youngsters went into the Plate running with only track workouts under their belt. But this year they will contend in a special preview running for a $2,500 purse. Where the rub comes, though, is the fact that the winning horse will pick up a five-pound handicap for the regular Plate running, and jeopardize its chance to cop the $10,000 prize money.

The owners are reported to like the idea of the trial which gives them an idea how the bets should be placed, but they definitely don't like that five-pound handicap.

Chances are, the only owners giving the all-out sign to their jockeys will be those whose steeds have only an outside chance in the King's Plate fixture.

Rhythm rascal:

Dave (Regina Leader-Post) Dryburgh tells a belated story of yesterseason's Stanley Cup finals. Seems a devoted Chicago fan turned up at the Stadium for one of the games. toting a steel triangle and bar to the astonishment of his neighbors. The mystery was solved in the second intermission, though, when "Deep in the Heart of Texas" was played, and our friend used the triangle for the accompaniment, then settled back for the game.

Incidentally:

Bobby Docherty, conqueror of Baby Yack in the 1936 Olympic trials, has returned to his home in Toronto after four years overseas. Bobby and his two elder brothers, Harry and Jack (who was killed in Italy) enlisted early in the war. Bobby won the Canadian Army and British Army featherweight titles before went to Sicily and Italy for more important business and got the shrapnel wound that sent him home....They've organized a 22-team juvenile and midget lacrosse league in Winnipeg, and the boys are due to swing into action any day now. The league has picked up a flock of sticks and balls, and 20 dozen more sticks are on the way from Vancouver....Death of Babe Seibert's father, Oliver Seibert, leaves only five of the famous Seibert family hockey team living. The family helped put Kitchener, Ont., on the hockey map back in the days when the city labored under the "Berlin" moniker.

MOVIE TIME TABLE

Regent — "Rookies In Burma", 3.25, 6.10, 9.00; "Woman of the Town", 1.35, 4.25, 7.10, 10.00.

Capitol—"Song of Russia", 1.40, 3.40, 5.30, 7.35, 9.35. Last complete show, 9.10.

Centre — "A Lady Takes a 'Chance," 2:25, 5:00, 7:31, 10:05. "Pack Up Your Troubles," 1:25, 3:55, 6:28 9:02.

Major League Leaders

By The Associated Press

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Batting—Walker, Brooklyn .408
Runs—Bordagaray, Brooklyn 21
Runs batted in—Schultz, Brooklyn 29
Hits—Walker, Brooklyn 40
Doubles—Holmes, Boston 11
Triples—Barrett, Pittsburgh 6
Home runs—Schultz, Brooklyn 5
Stolen bases—Macon, Boston 6
Pitching—Lanier, St. Louis 5-0

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Batting—Tucker, Chicago .400
Runs—R. Johnson, Boston 21
Runs batted in—Stephens, St. Louis 22
Hits—Torres and Myatt, Washington 34
Doubles—Doerr, Boston 10
Triples—Gutteridge, Lindell, New York and Moses, Chicago 3
Home Runs — Trosky, Chicago, Spence, Washington, and Hayes, Philadelphia 5
Stolen bases—Gutteridge, St. Louis 7
Pitching — Maltzberger, Chicago 4-0.

Fights Last Night

New York — Clean Shans, 134, Los Angeles, outpointed Leo Dulmaine, 138, Worcester, Mass., 8. Roman Alvarez, 142, New York, stopped Sonny Wilson, 146, Detroit, 3. Lulu O'Connor, 125, Montreal, knocked out Al Rodrique, 125, Puerto Rico, 4.

Philadelphia — Eddie Giosa, 131, Philadelphia, outpointed Walter (Cabey) Lewis, 125¾, New York, 8. Archie Wilmer, 129¼, Wilmington, Del., knocked out Joey Longo, 130, Baltimore, 1.

Paulette To Wed

HOLLYWOOD, May 19—(AP). —Movie actress Paulette Goddard, 33, and Air Forces Capt. Burgess Meredith, 36, former film and stage actor, obtained a marriage license yesterday at suburban Santa Monica. hey said they would wed Sunday at a private ceremony in Beverly Hills.

DANCING at RYE'S PAVILION
Friday, May 19th
Modern and Old Time Dancing
MOLONEY'S ORCHESTRA
Admission 50c and 25c

What's On the Air

| Stations | Kilocycles |
|---|---|
| CHEX | 1430 |
| CBL | 740 |
| CFRB | 860 |
| WEAF | 660 |
| WJZ | 770 |
| WABC | 880 |

Symbols: D—Drama, M—Musical, R—Religious, S—Songs, T—Talk, V—Variety, N—News

This Program has been given the Peterborough Examiner by stations herein listed If the presentations as scheduled are not on the air, the fault lies with the stations and not with the Examiner.

Radio Station CHEX Carries the News on the Hour

FRIDAY EVENING

6:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Tunes
CFRB—Dinner Music
CBL—Relax and Enjoy-M

6:15 P.M.
CHEX—Swing and Sway
WABC—Lyn Murray Orch.
CBL—Market Report

6:30 P.M.
CHEX—News; Rhythm Rndup
CBL—Curtain Echoes-M
WEAF—Serenade to America
WJZ—Whose War is This?

6:45 P.M.
CHEX—Parade of Bands
CBL—BBC News
WEAF—Lowell Thomas-N
CFRB—Sportviews

7:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Sports
CFRB—Vic and Sade-D
CBL—Sinfonette-M
WEAF—Pleasure Time-M
WJZ—Nero Wolfe-D

7:15 P.M.
CHEX—School Children
CFRB—Musical Revue
WABC—We Who Dream

7:30 P.M.
CHEX—Help Wanted
WABC—Friday on Broadway
WEAF—Musical Revue
WJZ—Lone Ranger-D

7:45 P.M.
CHEX—From Parliament Hill
CFRB—Song Styles
WEAF—H. V. Kaltenborn-N

8:00 P.M.
WEAF—Cities Service-V
WABC—Kate Smith-V
CBL—Victory Parade
CFRB—Gardening

8:15 P.M.
CHEX—On the Mail
CFRB—Lum and AbnerD
WJZ—Parker Family-D

8:30 P.M.
CHEX—To be announced
WEAF—Hit Parade
CBL—Musical Mailbox
WJZ—Meet Your Navy

9:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Mood Music
CFRB—Air Band
CBL—Waltz Time
WABC—Pays to Be Ignorant
WJZ—Gang Busters-D

9:30 P.M.
CHEX—That Brewster Boy
WJZ—Victory Parade
CBL—Opera and Ballet
WEAF—People Are Funny-V

10:00 P.M.
CHEX—To be announced
CBL—CBC News
WEAF—Amos 'n' Andy-V
WJZ—Leland Stowe-T
WABC—Durante-Moore Show

10:30 P.M.
CHEX—Concert Orch.
WABC—Stage Door Canteen
WEAF—Sports Newsreel
WJZ—Letters to Servicemen

11:00 P.M.
CHEX—News Commentary
CBL—Radio Newsreel
CFRB—News

SATURDAY MORNING

6:00 A.M.
CHEX—Early Risers

6:30 A.M.
CHEX—News

7:00 A.M.
CHEX—News

7:30 A.M.
CHEX—News

7:45 A.M
CHEX—Early Risers

8:00 A.M.
CHEX—News
WEAF—News Roundup
WJZ—Kibitzers-S

8:15 A.M.
CHEX—Breakfast Musicale
CBL—Morning Devotions
WABC—Music of To-day

8:30 A.M.
CHEX—Breakfast Musicale
WJZ—United Nations Review
WABC—Missus Shopping-T

8:45 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Devotions
WABC—Margaret Arlen
WEAF—In the Record

9:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Salon Strings
CBL—First Piano Quartette
WJZ—Breakfast Club

9:15 A.M.
CHEX—Lawrence Welk
CFRB—Garden Gate

9:45 A.M.
CHEX—Melody Parade
CFRB—Golden Gate Quartette
WEAF—Stuart Gracey-S

10:00 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Masterworks

10:30 A.M
CHEX—Morris Duke, pianist
WABC—Mary Lee Taylor-T
WJZ—Ozark Ramblers-M
WEAF—Inter Decorating-T

10:45 A.M.
CHEX—Church in Wildwood

11:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Our Neighbors
WABC—Let's Pretend
CBL—On Stage Everybody-V

11:30 A.M.
WABC—Fashions in Rations
WEAF—Lighted Windows-D
WJZ—Land of the Lost-D

11:45 A.M.
CHEX—On the Lighter Side

SATURDAY AFTERNOON

12:00 NOON
CHEX—News; Home Folks
WABC—Theatre of To-day-D
WJZ—Blue Playhouse-D
CBL—BBC News
CFRB—Red White and Blue

12:15 P.M.
CBL—Hot Wax-M
WEAF—Consumer's Time-T

12:30 P.M.
CHEX—News; Farm News
CBL—Children's Scrapbook
WABC—Stars Over Hollywood
WEAF—Atlantic Spotlight-V

1:00 P.M.
WJZ—Report from London
CHEX—Home Folks
WEAF—Here's to Youth

1:30 P.M.
CHEX—Home Folks
CFRB—Country Journal
CBL—Melody Moments

1:45 P.M.
WJZ—Swing-Shift Frolic
WEAF—War Telescope-T

2:00 P.M.
CHEX—Your Letter Says
CBL—Musical Program
CFRB—Men and Books

2:30 P.M.
CHEX—Victor Album
WJZ—Sherwood's Orchestra
WEAF—Sport Stories

3:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Melody Matinee
CFRB—Victory F.O.B.
CBL—On the Distaff Side-M

3:30 P.M.
CHEX—To be announced
CFRB—Visiting Hour
WJZ—Variety Show

3:45 P.M.
CHEX—Southland Singing

4:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Ballroom
WEAF—The Withers Race

4:30 P.M.
CFRB—The Colonel-V
WEAF—Doctors at War-D

5:00 P.M.
CHEX—Lindsay Salute; News
CFRB—Corliss Archer-D
CBL—Dance Serenade
WEAF—Your America

5:30 P.M.
CFRB—Report from London
WABC—Mother and Dad
WEAF—Behind the Headlines

5:45 P.M.
CHEX—Musical Moment
CFRB—Lone Ranger
WJZ—Hello, Sweetheart-M

Theatres - Dances - Radio

Here and There in Sport

By The Canadian Press

Famed on the Canadian gridiron and active in other sports before and after his enlistment in the R.C.A.F. PO. George Scott Oliphant, 28, was killed in England last Monday, according to word received last night in Toronto by his wife, Mrs. Jeanne Knowles Oliphant. A product of Toronto Secondary Schools, he starred at middle wing for London's Western Mustangs when they captured the Intercollegiate football title in 1940, later playing for Toronto Argonauts and Toronto R.C.A.F. Hurricanes. Prior to enlistment, PO. Oliphant was a teacher at North Toronto Collegiate Institute.

Under the sponsorship of Detroit Red Wings, the Galt, Ont., Junior Hockey team will operate in the O.H.A. Junior "A" series next winter as "Red Wings," it was announced yesterday. Players are already being lined up by Fred Cox and Carson Cooper of the Detroit club.

Plays Third

Although rejected for military service, Don Savage has become an outstanding third-baseman with the New York Yankees, despite the fact he had previously held down the shortstop position with Newark Bears. Savage is afflicted with diabetes.

Maj. E. Williams, chairman of the Illinois racing board, announced at Chicago yesterday there would be no horse racing on Illinois tracks on D-Day, the turf clubs being asked to conform with a suggestion all racing be suspended throughout the United States on Invasion Day.

Pitcher Al Lyons, 25, of the New York Yankees yesterday passed his medical examination and will go to the U.S. Navy. Last season he played with Kansas City in the American Association.

According to a report from occupied Holland yesterday, Mrs. Fanny E. Blankers (formerly Miss Koen) has lowered her own world's record for the 100-yard dash from 11 to 10.8 seconds. She was credited with the previous mark in 1938.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press

Thurman Tucker, White Sox—Clouted triple with bases loaded in 10th inning to beat Yankees, also singled in first to hold .400 batting average.

Rufe Gentry, Tigers—Shut out Philadelphia by scattering nine hits and singled to score Chuck Hostetler in eighth with game's only run.

Oscar Judd, Red Sox—Earned first victory of the year with impressive five-hit job on Browns, and aided Boston attack with two singles and a walk, scoring three times.

Virgil (Spud) Davis, Pirates—Capped Pittsburgh four-run spurt in last of ninth with single driving in Babe Dahlgren to down Brooklyn.

George Myatt, Senators—Batted in two runs with double during Washington's winning spurt in sixth against Cleveland.

Whitey Kurowski, Cardinals — Ruined Al Javery's no-hit bid with single in seventh batting in both runs of St. Louis, 2-0.

Ken Raffensberger, Phils—Whitewashed Cincinnati with three singles, striking out four men.

RUBY PERFECTION

An "imperfection"—the presence of chromium oxide—makes a ruby "perfect".

Beaver Meadow Golf Course Now Open

Green Fees, 50c
Clubs to Rent
LOCATION
Turn right two miles east on No. 7 highway.

OPEN BOWLING

From 7.00 p.m. Every Evening
"BOWL FOR HEALTH"
DUFFUS Recreation Academy
Phone 9068

Robert TAYLOR
SUSAN PETERS
'SONG of RUSSIA'
John Hodiak • Robert Benchley
ON THE SAME PROGRAM
Canada Carries On presents "Trans Canada Express"
Canadian Paramount News
Capitol

THE Woman OF THE TOWN
Claire Trevor • Albert Dekker
BARRY SULLIVAN • HENRY HULL
PORTER HALL • PERCEY KILBRIDE
On The Same Program
Rookies In Burma
PLUS! "THE PHANTOM"
TO-DAY - SAT.
Regent

2—DANDY FEATURES—2

HE THINKS LOVE IS THE FIFTH FREEDOM! (But she shows him some new man-trapping technique!)
FRANK ROSS presents
JEAN ARTHUR JOHN WAYNE
A Lady Takes a Chance
with CHARLES WINNINGER • PHIL SILVERS

Also ON THE SAME PROGRAMME
IT'S STILL THEIR FUNNIEST!
Stan LAUREL * Oliver HARDY in "PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES!"

EXTRA! "ARISTOCAT" - COLORED CARTOON
CENTRE To-day AND SAT.

Cattle Prices Strong; Veal Calves Up

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP) — A liberal supply of cattle was cleared at steady to strong prices, in trade on the livestock market here this week. Veal calves were 50 cents cwt. higher while hogs, sheep and lambs were unchanged.

In cattle trade weighty steers of choice quality were scarce. A few tops made $12.75 to $12.85. Medium to good steers sold at $11.50-$12.50. Fed yearlings sold at $12 to $13.25. Butcher steers and heifers were $11 to $12 with choice light steers up to $11.50. Butcher cows were $8 to $9.-50 with cannners and cutters at $5 to $7.50. Bulls sold at $7.50 for light bolognas up to $9.50 for good butchers. Stockers sold at $8.50 to $11 and some good feeding steers brought $11 to $11.50. Common to medium milkers and springers sold at $75 to $140 each.

Common to medium veal calves gained 50 cents cwt. selling mostly at $7 to $13. Good and choice vealers were firm at $14 to $15 cwt.

The few good feed-lot lambs offered sold at $14.25 with one lot at $14.35. Small lots of spring lambs brought $14 to $16 cwt. Sheep were mostly $2 to $5 cwt. for a small supply.

Hogs held steady at $17.55 to $17.-65 for Grade A, off-truck at yards or plants. Grade B1 sold at $17.15 to $17.25. Sows were $13 dressed.

The Toronto market will be closed Wednesday, May 24.

Weekly summary of receipts:

| | Cattle | Calves | Hogs | Sheep and Lambs |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| This week | 4,743 | 2,696 | 4,513 | 528 |
| Nevt week | 4,159 | 2,836 | 3,793 | 660 |
| 1944 to date ... | 80,706 | 33,249 | 82,223 | 32,210 |
| 1943 to date . | 78,688 | 30,437 | 63,270 | 19,556 |
| This week 1943 .. | 4,560 | 2,448 | 3,818 | 906 |

Want More Houses

TORONTO, May 19.—(CP).—The executive of the Board of Evangelism and Social Service of the United Church of Canada Thursday passed a resolution urging the Dominion government to provide wartime housing for soldiers' families unable to obtain shelter. Where possible, wartime houses that are now empty should be used for this purpose, it said.

DAVIS-THOMPSON COMPANY
Established 1858
Insurance and General Agency
All Branches of Insurance Represented
433 GEORGE ST. PHONE 4724

CANADIANS TRAIN IN BRITAIN FOR COMING INVASION—Lieut. Lew McQueen of Winnipeg, Man., fires from a window of a wrecked house, as Canadian forces in England train for the second front invasion.

Cpl. Andy Moufller, of Winnipeg, Man., fires from a peephole in the wall of a shattered building while on training manoeuvres somewhere in England.

MORE ABOUT—

Polish Troops

Continued from Page 1

battered enemy in the mountains forming the southern strongholds of the Hitler Line.

The Americans mopped up the few snipers left in captured Formia and a spokesman said other 5th Army units were "poised before Itri" without specifying how near that junction the advanced elements had progressed. It was disclosed yesterday, however, that they were less than two miles from the town even on the preceding day. Through Itri runs the enemy's only venue of retreat from the Gaeta Point sector to the southeast.

A glow lighted the skies even as far south as Naples before dawn today and it was believed the Germans were destroying ammunition and other dumps at Gaeta from where their long-range artillery has been operating in recent weeks.

Warships Busy

Allied warships poured shells against enemy batteries, dumps and roads west of that point yesterday in close support of the ground forces. An official announcement said retaliatory fire from German shore batteries was ineffective.

R.A.F. Wellingtons and Liberators attacked points just beyond the battle line last night.

Back from the Tyrrhenian coast Allied guns rained shells on the Itri-Pico road.

A German broadcast betrayed increasing enemy fears that 5th Army troops on the Anzio beachhead might begin an attack in an effort to join the main body of the Allied forces in the Itri area 40 miles away, but the Allied command said the beachhead "continued quiet."

The enemy's position appeared increasingly precarious in the Pontecorvo area. The French now are within two miles of that stronghold and river crossing, and 8th Army infantry and armor are roughly only two to three miles distant to the east.

A breakthrough at Pontecorvo would crack a substantial portion of Hitler's defences and outflank two other bases to the northeast, Aquino and Piedimonte.

MORE ABOUT—

Allies Driving

Continued from Page 1

Meanhile on the India side of the Indo-Burma warfare, an Indian Army Brigade in a sudden slashing attack by circuitous march through the jungle threw a road block across the Tiddim Road south of Imphal to the south of the enemy's main position, Allied Headquarters announced.

This march through the roughest country around the enemy's eastern flank cut off the Japanese 33rd Division which had been attacking Imphal from the south.

The communique said many casualties were inflicted by the Gurkhas making up the brigade which repulsed Japanese counter-attacks, and much equipment was captured.

North of Imphal, at the one enemy roadblock remaining between that base and Kohima, Allied troops repulsed a series of night attacks, it was stated.

MORE ABOUT—

Mass Escape

Continued from Page 1

of the battle of Britain and other spectacular R.A.F. operations.

Late Reporting It.

The shooting was disclosed by German authorities to a representative of the protective power "in the course of a routine visit to the camp on April 17," Mr. Eden said.

"Names of the officers shot were furnished to the representative and the next of kin were informed.

"The House will wish me to express its deepest sympathy with the relatives and pay tribute to the courage and high sense of military duty shown by all these gallant officers.

Sir Percy Harris, Labor, asked if Mr. Eden would "make it clear that the German government is responsible for all breaches of international law."

"That certainly is my position," Mr. Eden replied, referring to his request to Switzerland for an investigation.

First word of the fliers' fate came yesterday when relatives in England, given brief formal notification by the Swiss government of the deaths, began inserting obituatory notices in the London papers.

Only detail given the families was the official "shot trying to escape."

The fliers, like most war prisoners, had made efforts to escape and had even mentioned them in letters to relatives.

MORE ABOUT—

Wadke Island

Continued from Page 1

whom, the communique said, "our troops are rapidly overcoming."

Possession of Wakde's airfield, the communique said, will give us adequate air coverage all over of Dutch New Guinea and success of the operation presages reconquest of the entire province."

At last report, the invaders were running against heavy mortar fire as they fought for the 4,700-foot coral runway. Up to that time, they had lost only four men since they hit the beach at Toem. Twenty-eight were wounded. Thirty Japanese were killed.

Figure This Out

OTTAWA, May 19.—(CP).— An army spokesman said here yesterday a program launched by Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, chief of Pacific Command, to have Canadian citizenship talks given army personnel is something "set out in handbooks for general use," but which may not be given widespread attention.

Obituary

THOMAS McINROY

MARMORA, May 19 (ENS) — The funeral of the late Thomas McInroy who died in Toronto General Hospital on Monday evening as the result of a fall at Oshawa, took place on Thursday afternoon. The cortege left the residence of his brother, John McInroy, for service at St. Paul's church at 2.30, which was conducted by Rev. E. M. Cadigan of St. Andrew's United church, assisted by Rev. A. B. Caldwell.

There was a large congregation present and several beautiful floral emblems lined the casket. Interment took place in Marmora Protestant cemetery. Pallbearers were: George Kerr, Frank Leal, Fred Johnston, Harold Nayler, Warden Chrysler and William Regan.

War Pension Changes Aired In Parliament

BY D'ARCY O'DONNELL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, May 19 — (CP) — Most government supporters in the Commons were silent yesterday as opposition members held the floor, offering suggestions on what should be done for service personnel and particularly discharged personnel.

Changes in existing pensions legislation were most frequently suggested as debate ranged far and wide during examination of a Pensions Department estimate of $9,-000,000 for treatment and pensions examinations for members and ex-members of the forces in the present war.

Almost all opposition members urged that the insurance principle be applied to those in the services everywhere so they would be sure of compensation in the event of injury. Only personnel overseas now are entitled to pension if injured while not on duty.

T. L. Church (PC—Toronto Broadview) suggested that a system of National Life insurance be inaugurated by the government to supplement its pensions legislation and to protect the dependents of the armed forces.

Needs Insurance

"Out on the battlefield a man worries about what will happen to his family or his mother and father if he is killed in battle," said Mr. Church. If the man were covered by insurance he would at least know that his dependents would not be left in dire need.

Dr. J. J. McCann (L—Renfrew south) said disabled veterans should not have to travel outside their own district or community to obtain medical care or hospital treatment. Under existing regulations the veterans had to go to hospitals operated or designated by the Federal Pensions Department.

Stanley Knowles (CCF—Winnipeg north centre) said that to him the number of patients in veterans' hospitals in relation to the doctors available appeared to be too high.

Dr. Pierre Gauthier (BP—Portneuf) said some service personnel who suffered shell shock overseas were being discharged without being granted a pension. In some cases the doctors were ruling that the shell shock was the result of "pre-enlisting neurosis." These rulings were being given in cases where men were classed "A" on enlistment.

Dr. Gauthier joined with Dr. McCann and Dr. H. A. Bruce (PC—Toronto Parkdale) in urging that campaigns to fight venereal diseases be extended.

J. G. Diefenbaker (PC—Lake centre) said the Federal government should provide loans for service personnel who wished to start a small business of their own after being discharged. Loans should be provided for those who sold their business to enlist and for those with the ability and the desire to operate a private enterprise.

The suggestion that the insurance principle be extended to service personnel everywhere was given support by G. S. White (PC-Hastings-Peterborough), P. E. Wright (CCF-Melfort), Lt.-Col. Arthur Ross (PC-Souris), Howard Green (PC-Vancouver South), Clarence Gillis (CCF-Cape Breton South) and several others.

94,000 Discharged.

Mr. Green said the government should present to the Commons without delay legislation providing for the rehabilitation of service personnel. The government was slow in getting its rehabilitation plans under way, although approximately 100,000 men already had been discharged from the forces as medically unfit.

Mr. Mackenzie said 94,000 had been discharged from the forces as medically unfit up to March 31. This was out of a total of 129,000 discharges.

Care should be taken to see that the discharged men felt they were being properly treated said Mr. Green.

Mr. Gillis said it would be wrong to build up in the minds of the returned men the thought they were to be adopted when they came back and given everything without making any contribution themselves.

SAILORS' PAL—The sailor's pal, Vice-Admiral H. K. Hewitt, pictured here, has made a plea for a break with the U.S. Navy's tight-laced prohibitionist tradition, so that navy men might drink beer aboard American fighting ships.

Electric Shocks Used To Induce Sleep

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, May 19—(CP)—Electrically induced sleep, a new method of treating mental troubles, was reported to the American Psychiatric Association to-day by a group of California scientists.

The sleep is an apparent improvement on the new electrical shock treament, which seems quite literally to rebuild a thinking apparatus in grey matter.

Electronarcosis the Californians call the sleep. It is induced by electrodes and mild current applied to the head. It starts with a mild spasm followed by deep unconsciousness.

The electric sleep was maintained for seven minutes each time in more than 1,000 treatments, and without any bad effects. It worked better, the report said, both in curing and improving schizophrenia (split personality) than electric shock alone. It was no better, said the report, than insulin shock, but worked equally well.

The Californians said they had brought out this electric narcosis only after many years of experimenting on animals to be sure it would be safe.

Many reports were made to-day on growing evidence of the effectiveness of the electric shock treatment, which is a brief unconsciousness, often accompanied by convulsions.

Dr. Lothar B. Kalinowski of New York City told of a Russian-born woman, who lived in Germany and then a long time in the United States. After electric shock she first forgot English, then German, and remembered only Russian. Finally she forgot Russian. Then as she improved her languages came back, Russian first, then German, and finally English.

Psychiatrists are not all certain whether there may be brain damage, but they find that so far the benefits overcome possible brain injury.

WORTH LOOKING AT

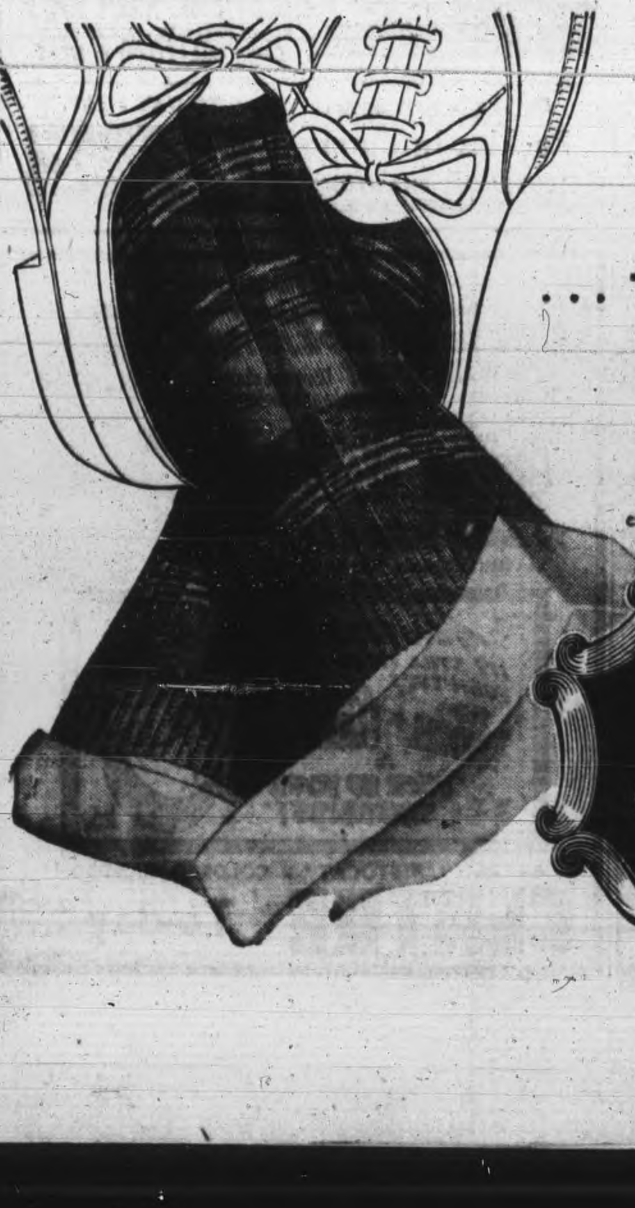
CANBERRA — (CP) — A cheque for £73,533,911 ($257,438,688) was paid by Britain for Australia's wool clip of 1942-43 and a copy of it is on display in King's Hall Parliament House, Canberra.

Old Glory
PLUG SMOKING TOBACCO
Sure! it goes further and lasts longer



Summertime
... TIME FOR COOLIES!
It's a joy to wear these short socks by Penmans. They have a special snug-fitting top which holds them up firmly. No garters needed. Coolies are smart, comfortable ... wear and launder well ... conserve materials in wartime. They offer you an excellent variety of patterns and colours from which to choose. Ask to see Coolies!
C3-44
Penmans
COOLIES
SHORT SOCKS FOR MEN

HALL'S SATURDAY SALE OF SUMMER DRESSES
Cool Cottons
Colourful Slubs
Flowered Rayons
Stunning Ginghams
MISSES' FROCKS
Sizes 3.94 12 to 20
Washable cotton dresses in refreshing gay colourings and interesting patterns. There are the one piece shirtmaker styles with button closing down front or two piece suit dresses wtih nicely fitted jackets and gored or pleated skirts. Here are seersuckers, ginghams, chambrays and lots of others... in all the cool Summer shades.
WOMEN'S MODELS
Sizes 3.94 38 to 44 18½ to 24½
These are charmingly printed running flower designs, neat little dots, and novel stripes on cotton seersucker, spun rayon, chambray. The assortment includes coat-dress styles—shirt-maker models, etc., in aqua, powder blue, rose, green, turquoise, spice. All have that fresh tailored smartness so favoured by the women and misses of to-day.
SECOND FLOOR
OTHER SUMMER DRESSES
At various prices as well too. We consider ourselves fortunate in being able to get together such a good range of dresses in one piece or two piece styles in striped or figured seersuckers, various checked ginghams, striped Miami cloths, spun rayons, etc. All smartly tailored and in gay Summer colourings.
Priced 2.98 to 8.95
5761 Phone RICHARD HALL LIMITED PHONE 5761

The Peterborough Examiner
VOL. LXXXIX, No. 118 — FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1944 — PAGE NINE

Main Street Topics

BATTERY RECRUITS.

Recently recruited to the ranks of the 4th (R) Heavy Anti-Aircraft Battery are Hillier Raymond Garrett, 259 McDonnel street and Donald Benjamin Sly, 194 Reid street.

KILLED OVERSEAS

Mrs. Gilbert McPherson, William Street n., Lindsay received word Monday to the effect that her brother, Flying Officer Malcolm McIver, D. F. C. of Toronto, had been killed in action overseas.

WITH R.C.A. OVERSEAS.

Gunner Lambert Collins, whose wife lives at 341 McDonnel street, is serving overseas with the Artillery. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Collins, 506 Murray street, and formerly worked at Genelco.

ARMY RECRUITS.

Three men from Harcourt, two of whom are brothers, were among those enlisting in the Canadian Active Army, last week. They are: Don Taylor and Elwood and Lyman Townsend. Other enlistments included: L. F. Lounsberry, Warsaw; Ernest Ruttle, Lakefield; A. S. Bornsby, R. R. No. 1, Havelock; Gerald Rogers, Bristol, N. B.; W. W. James; 785 George Street; and R. J. Austin, 364 Dobbin avenue.

BANK CLEARINGS

Bank clearings passing through the Peterborough Clearing House during the past week ending Thursday amounted to $1,250,089.

NO PARKING ALLOWED

No automobiles will be allowed to be parked on the market square or in the market lane after 5 o'clock this evening, the police department announces. The square is being kept clear because of the inspection of the Howe division, Sea Cadets there at 7.30 o'clock.

TO HOLD AN INQUQEST

There will be an inquest Tuesday night into the death of six-year-old Robert David White, Braidwood avenue, North Monaghan who was fatally injured in an accident in the yard of the Wood saw mill at Braidwood avenue and Monaghan road Tuesday afternoon.

TRANSIENT FINED

Frank McDonald, a transient, who was arrested at the C.P.R. station Thursday by Officer John Stevenson who was investigating the theft of a brief case pleaded guilty in police court this morning to a charge of having been drunk and was fined $10 and $2.50 or ten days in jail. He took the days.

Women Warned Against Rackets

Warning women against racketeer salesmen canvassing from door to door, Arthur R. Haskell, manager of the Better Business Bureau Toronto, exposed to members of the Local Council of Women at their meeting in the Y.W.C.A. on Thursday, some of the rackets which have been introduced by shady merchants.

He explained that the purpose of the Better Business Bureau was mainly to educate the public to recognize racketeers and to take steps to eliminate them. Mr. Haskell declared that it was a non-profit organization, run on the fees of merchants in the community who like to be associated with it. In more more than 8,000 people consulted the Toronto Bureau about suspected shady dealings, and no charge is made, he continued. The Peterborough Chamber of Commerce is affiliated with this concern and has found its services useful.

ARTHUR HASKELL.

"The success of a racket invariably relates to its resemblance of the real thing. You have to learn swindlers methods. Ninety per cent. of the racketeers have never used a gun, but they are shady merchants on the fringe of the law. The reason there aren't more operating is because people are gradually becoming educated to deal only with reputable business concerns.

Change Frequently

"Rackets are like clothes, they change with the season. Every few months some new angle is introduced which filches money from the purses of the unsuspecting buyers. Chain letters, which are not endorsed by the postal authorities are one of the wartime rackets which became popular at the end of February. These requested war savings stamps and certificates to be enclosed and sent out to others. The "Luck of London Letters" containing dire threats of what would happen if the repipient did not complete the chain, have been a source of trouble too."

Other fakes on which he touched were medical remedies; fake fertilizers and grass seed; charitable donations; on order merchandise and picture enlarging, by unknown photographic companies, which play upon the credulities of careless thinking buyers. Magazine salesmen, not representing legitimate companies have also been prevalent.

He also warned particularly that there were several salemen impersonating causes which they associated with the Blind Institute. Mr. Haskell explained that the Canadian National Institute for the Blind was the recognized organization.

"If you thing that some salesman is not what he claims to be and he cannot give you proper credentials, get all the information you can about his name, address, the firm he represents and their address. Then contact the Chamber of Commerce immediately and give James Dorris the information which you have collected."

The speaker pointed out that all the money which was diverted to these dishonest salesmen meant that honest merchants were losing the chance of making a living. Fraud can only be fought by exposing it and when it is uncovered, it gives the public more confidence in business, he declared.

Wants Support.

Mrs. H. H. Graham district chairman of the Consumer Branch of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, addressed the Council briefly on "Mrs. Consumer Week" which runs from May 22 to 27. She outlined the situation which led to the formation of the Consumer Branch and urged the women to give it their whole hearted support. Special material for programs has been made up and can be obtained from her, Mrs. Graham said.

It was suggested that a picnic be held for the small group of war brides in the city, so that they could become acquainted with members of the Local Council. Members were undecided what form the picnic should take and the matter was laid over to the next meeting.

The Council was reminded of the Provincial convention at Kitchener to be held June 2 and 3 and the 51st annual National Council meeting in Port Arthur which will take the form of a round table discussion from June 12 to 16. In the absence of Miss M. Patterson, Mrs. Harold Scott presented the report of the Citizenship committee.

Guest soloist for the afternoon was Mrs. W. B. Brown, who sang two contrasting numbers Little Silver Ring" and "The China Figure." J. J. Dorris of the Chamber of Commerce, introduced Mr. Haskell.

Public Schools To Close May 24

The Peterborough Collegiate Institute and Vocational Training School and the six city Public schools will be closed on May 24, G. Wilson Craw, chairman of the Board of Education, announced today.

Following a recent meeting of the board when the May 24th holiday was discussed, Mr. Craw had the secretary write to the Minister of Education, Premier George Drew, for a ruling on the matter as to whether the War Measures Act overruled the recently amended School Law Amendment Act which refers to school holidays. May 24th is mentioned as one of the holidays, and V. K. Greer in his reply says that the sections of the act state that the days mentioned shall be school holidays.

Last year Mr. Craw said the schools were kept open, but it was found that many classes were badly depleted and little or no progress was made with school work. In the Collegiate alone there were close to 400 absentees. "Apparently our school children were governed by the old rhyme 'May 24, Queen's birthday, if you don't give us a holiday we'll all run away'," Mr. Craw said.

Prevent Serious Fire

LAKEFIELD, May 19 —(ENS)— Fire that threatened the home of Capt. C. S. Calhoun Thursday night was subdued before major damage could be done when the whole fire brigade under Chief Allen Clark turned out in answer to the alarm. The fire got its start in the cellar, when overheated furnace pipes set fire to a canvas pad laid around the hot water tank.

Form New Body

WINNIPEG, May 19.—(CP).—The first conference of Canadian timber producers at its closing session yesterday decided to form a new national organization representative of the forest products industries in the Dominion.

WITH 8TH ARMY—Sgmn. Vernon Nelson is serving with the 8th Army in Italy. He enlisted in Peterborough in 1941, and he had lived since the age of 9 with Mr. and Mrs. Beatty Fee of Ida. Sgmn. Nelson was born in Worthing, England, son of Mrs. Harvey and the late V. Nelson.

77 Students Leave School For Farm Work

Seventy-seven boys and girls of Peterborough Collegiate and Vocational School have already laid aside their books for another season of wartime work on local farms, deserting Levana for the service of Ceres, titular goddess of the Quaker Oats and Dewart mills, Co-Op, Canada Packers and on down the line of processing agricultural products.

Carl S. Browne, principal of the Collegiate and Vocation School, confirmed this morning reports of the trek back to tractors and cultivators and all the rest of the farm machinery, including scufflers and hoes, and mentioned that the 77 recruits correspond with 76 at this time last year.

Twenty-five boys and also twenty-five girls are working on homesteads, staying home to take the place on the land of the men who are not available, chiefly because so many of them are in the armed forces and in the supporting auxiliary industries.

Fifteen boys and nine girls have signed up for farms of their own choice, and three girls are on their way to agricultural or fruit camps for the season.

The 1943 Record

Enlistments last year for farm work were: In April, 25 boys and 14 girls; in May, 15 boys and 10 girls; in June before examinations, 9 boys and 3 girls; and after examinations were written, 44 boys and 40 girls.

Collegiate students in their wartime opportunities are not waiting for the cereal season to provide an outlet for their energies. During the school period 115 students have been engaged at 115 afternoon jobs, 49 have evening work and 315 found Saturday employment. And that latter number has increased since the last count was made.

Principal Browne encourages the afternoon and Saturday work, but is inclined to frown on the evening work at least to the extent of preventing such industry every night in the week.

"We clamp down on that," Mr. Browne said, "but one or two evenings a week seem to be a reasonable limit from the consideration of the health of the student who wants to do some of this sparetime work."

Scope of Work

The engagement of secondary students this summer is limited to farms and cheese factories in the terms by which they may be advanced in their school studies.

The memorandum of the Ontario Department of Education stipulating the scope of such emergency service follows:

"A candidate who is preparing for a departmental middle or upper school certificate, an intermediate certificate, a secondary school graduation diploma or a secondary school honor graduation diploma in a high, continuation or vocational school, and who enlists for service in the present war or who leaves school for employment on a farm as hereinafter defined or in a cheese factory where Cheddar cheese is manufactured from milk delivered directly from farms for a period of not less than thirteen weeks, will be granted a diploma under the following conditions:

"(a) He shall have been in regular attendance at school until he enlists for active service or until he enters upon employment as stated above, but not earlier than April 29, 1944, except that a pupil whose services are urgently needed in the armed forces or on a farm may be released at the discretion of his principal at a date not earlier than April 7, 1944;

"(b) He shall have completed to the satisfaction of the principal the course of study in each subject for which he requires standing and shall have obtained a mark of not less than 50 per cent. in each paper, and such mark will be assigned by the principal and teachers on his year's work as shown not only by the results of formal school tests but also by his day by day class reports;

(c) He shall have furnished the principal with satisfactory evidence that he enlisted for service in the present war or that he was regularly employed in farm work or in a cheese factory as stated above for a period of not less than thirteen weeks after April 28, 1944.

"A candidate for a departmental certificate or diploma under the provisions of these regulations shall remain in school until he actually leaves for enlistment or for work on a farm or in a cheese factory and shall take examination tests or departmental examinations if he has not left before the date of these examinations."

Elect Robert Simmons President Of Y's Men

Robert C. Simmons, 786 Armour Road, foreman at the Western Clock Co., was elected president of the Y's Men's Club at their meeting Thursday night. He succeeds George Moore, who has been president during the club's year now coming to its close.

Other officers elected were as follows: William Prest, 1st vice-president; Norman Henderson, 2nd vice-president; Eric Howard, secretary; and Ken Jackson, treasurer.

Following adjournment of the regular meeting, the camp committee met to consider plans for running Camp Kawartha this summer. Confronting it was the problem of finding a new director to take over for Mac Singleton, Boys' Secretary of the Y.M.C.A., who leaves shortly to take up a post at St. Catharines.

COMRADES-IN-ARMS—Shown between two of his friends of the Hastings, Prince Edward Regiment as they recover from injuries and illness in an Italian convalescent camp, is Pte. Joseph Devlin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Devlin, 21 Cricket Place. Pte. Devlin, ill for three months, has now returned to active duty. Now 21 years old, he enlisted 2½ years ago and has been in the Italian theatre since December, 1943. On the Left is Pte. Delbert Barker of Havelock, who received injuries to his right leg and left hand in the Sicily campaign 10 months ago. The boy on the Right, Pte. Paul Bulcousy, is not further identified in this picture which Pte. Devlin sent home to his parents.

W. O. Harvey Recalls Shaky Trip On Train With Sir W. McKenzie

With their family scattered, with contacts in Iceland, England, Rhodesia, and Ceylon, and with keen interest in the progress of the present war, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Harvey, 4 Lansdowne street, observed their 64th anniversary Thursday. They experienced the trials of the first great war, are looking forward optimistically to the time when they can visit their native England, see the members of their family and renew old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey were married in Calverley, Yorkshire, England, where Mr. Harvey was attached to Her Majesty's Service for six years. In 1896 he came to Canada, whe has had a varied and interesting career in construction work, barely escaping with his life in a three-week ordeal through the Ontario bush. He was in charge of laying the steel for the first belt line in Toronto, and following the completion of his job, he went to Alberta to work for J. D. McArthur the Winnipeg millionaire, on the Dunvevan Road.

He had worked for McKenzie-Mann, with MacDonald O'Brien, in the construction of the British Transcontinental Railroad, and had ridden with Sir William McKenzie when he made the first hazardous trip over rails laid in bogs, with the work far from complete.

Disappointed

Mr. Harvey tells an amusing story about those last miles of track on the Transcontinental. Sir William McKenzie, who was on his way back to England to ask for more money had determined to go across Canada on the half-completed railroad, to make a more impressive showing for his requests. Accordingly, he arrived at the final section of the line, where Mr. Harvey was in charge, complete with a big engine several cars, and a firm determination to ride the rest of the way in that train.

Since the rail was laid over bogs and sink holes, and the work of supporting it had only begun, Sir William was forced to abandon his luxurious train, and travel in the small work engine with two cabooses attached which were being used on the line. Even with the small train the tracks weaved up and down dangerously when it passed over them, giving the impression of riding on a roller coaster. However, Sir William, and the crew and the train stuck it out, and arrived, battered from going through narrow defiles where trees had not been cut out, and shaky from the strain, at the end of the line. Mr. Harvey rode in the cab of the engine and so could appreciate the feelings of the passengers, as the earth beneath the tracks gave way under the weight of the engine.

Trapped in Bush

A narrow escape from death occurred in the Nipigon region, where he had taken a group of men 300 miles into the bush to begin work on a road. Their supply boat capsized while making the trip across the lake, and they were forced to make the long trek on foot. In the gruelling three-week trip around the lake 20 of the 28 men were forced to fall back. Wen the eight survivors finally reached a Hudson's Bay post at Black River they collapsed and Mr. Harvey says he doesn't remember just what happened until he found himself eating the most delicious moose soup he had ever tasted.

When the Great War broke out, Mr. Harvey who was then employed with the Hudson Bay Company at Port Nelson, went to England, and was in France by December, 1914. He was attached to the Intelligence service, and once spent six days and nights, trapped in a shell-hole between the lines. He was in the trenchs when the Germans unleashed their first gas attack in 1915, and still suffers from the after-effects of his ordeal.

After the war, Mr. Harvey returned to England, and kept a hotel till 1922, when he again came to Canada, accompanied by Mrs. Harvey, and they moved directly to Peterborought where their son, George Harvey lived. He has worked on the canal, and in the parks, but is now devoting his time to his garden.

Five Children

There are five children now living. They are Squadron Leader Cecil Harvey, R.A.F., stationed in Iceland; Jack Harvey, in England; George Harvey, R.R. 6 Peterborough; Mrs. M. E. Sturgeon, who lives in Yorkshire, England; and William Jack Harvey who lives at home, and is completing his Senior Matriculation at the Collegiate this year. There are 10 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren. Two grandchildren are in the R.A.F. Cyril Harvey is stationed in Ceylon, and Jack Sturgeon is stationed in Rhodesia. Squadron Leader Cecil Harvey, who says that there is only one thing wrong with Iceland, "It's above sea level," joined the R.A.F. in 1920, and has been stationed in Egypt, Iraq and Haiti. While in Iraq, he was official pilot for Sir William Morris, the high commissioner and piloted him on his missions.

Mrs. Harvey, who missed the sea when she came to live in Canada, still is homesick for England, and would like to return some day, if only for a visit. "When I first came to Canada, I was terribly lonely", she said, and often felt that I would have to start and walk back. However, I've 'settled down' now, and am very fond of Canada, although the desire to see my home again is still there."

FOLLOWS FAMILY TRADITION—Corporal Retta Southward, C.W.A.C., of Havelock, is now stationed at Barriefield, where she is taking a special shorthand course. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Southward of Havelock, her mother having served as a V.A.D. in the last war. Her grandfather, the late John Kinnaird, served with the Royal Irish Regiment in Africa, and with the Pioneer Regiment in the Punjab in India. Before enlisting Cpl. Southward served on the local Post Office staff for nearly four years.

Powerful Gun

CAMP DAVIS, N.C., May 19. —(AP).—The United States army has developed a powerful new anti-aircraft weapon, the stratosphere piercing 120-mm. gun, it was revealed yesterday. A War Department statement said the gun has a vertical range of four miles more than any other gun now in use.

War—4 Years Ago

By The Canadian Press

MAYY 19, 1940—Maxime Weygand replaced Marie-Gustave Gamelin as generalissimo of Allied armies. Hitler decreed re-incorporation into Reich of three Belgian provinces. Charles A. Lindbergh urged United States to "stay out of foreign wars."

Lions Vote $500 To Equip New Playground

Lions Club of Peterborough has voted $500 to equip a playground on the site of the tourist camp under Hunter street bridge, and plans have been completed to have the project in operation this summer.

Starting July 1, the club intends to have swings, teeters, slides, and sandboxes in place, and it is hoped also by that time to have the wading pool completed to the point where it can be used by children and a life guard on duty to keep the youngsters inside the safe area. A breakwater will be placed in the centre of the river, and with a competent lifeguard to police the pool, it should be an ideal spot for the beginners to enjoy wading, swimming and get plenty of healthful exercise and summer sun at a point where there is no pollution in the water.

The program as completed by this service club, calls for the hiring of a senior supervisor for the playground who would exercise jurisdiction over the lifeguard, and also over a female employee who will be secured to look after the girls.

Jim Burns, principal of Mays School, who has had several seasons as senior counsellor and assistant director at boys' summer camps has been asked to take the job of senior supervisor, and subject to the decision of Selective Service regulations, it is hoped this arrangement can be carried out. No female supervisor or life-guard has been obtained as yet.

It was set forth by club members that in this project they intend to shoulder the greater part of the responsibility and work in making this playground a success, rather than getting the project underway and then turning it over to the council to look after.

Since the plan was advanced some months ago, the wholehearted cooperation of the City Council has been evident, and recently the Council assumed the insurance protecting the city in the event of an accident taking place.

Just as soon as the water in the river is warm enough to permit men to work in bathing suits, Lions Club members will complete the wading pool, and work on the playground will start in a few days. Softball equipment has also been purchased and a regular playground program will be laid out, and followed.

This spot, one of the prettiest in the city, is centrally located and lends itself admirably to such an undertaking. There are dressing rooms under the bridge, for men and women, plenty of shade, park benches, and a stretch of greensward close to the river where parents can relax in comfort while the children use the wading pool.

Hurrell Dodds is chairman of the Wading Pool committee and a booster of the project since its inception. Thomas Doughty is chairman of the playground committee, and both men have live-wire committees to assist them.

Anglican Churches Have Special Service

Special Ascension Day services under the auspices of the Rural Deanery of Peterborough were held here last night with the combined choirs of the Anglican Churches cooperating in special music with Fred Mann as organist.

Rev. W. A. Filer, Rural Dean, took part in the ceremonies, and a large representative congregation attended. Among those assisting were Rev. S. Wood, B. A., Lakefield; Rev. W. J. Lennox, Campbellford; Rev. A. J. Arthur, St. Luke's, Peterborough; Canon W. P. Robertson, St. John's Church, Peterborough. Canon Robertson preached, speaking on the theme of Ascension.

Architect Dies

WINNIPEG, May 19—(CP).—John Woodman, 84, pioneer citizen and architect, died here Wednesday. Born at Oshawa, Ont., Mr. Woodman came to Winnipeg in 1880 and designed many buildings. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Sophia Woodman, and a son, Victor Woodman of Montreal.

SERVING OVERSEAS — PO. Edwin Pinn R.C.N.V.R., son of Mrs. G. Pinn, Antrim Street, is serving overseas. Before joining the Navy in 1942, PO. Pinn was employed at the De Laval plant. A brother, Sgt. Harry Pinn, R.C.A.F., is stationed in New Brunswick and a brother-in-law, Sgt. D. Green, R.C.A.F., is stationed in the west.

STATIONED OVERSEAS—Pte. Patrick O'Hara, whose wife lives at 197 Hunter Street, is serving overseas with the Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps. He enlisted in Peterborough in 1940 and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis O'Hara of Port Hope.

2 Emily Youths Fined In Court

Two young Emily residents, Victor O'Neill and Ralph Angus McNeill, cousins, were unfortunate Thursday night in the fact that they had a number of bottles of beer in an automobile, or at least they were unlucky in having the liquid refreshment at a moment when their car came close to colliding with another machine containing a couple of police officers.

The incident happened at the intersection of George and Lansdowne streets, and when the officers, Acting Chief John Thompson and Provincial Constable L. A. McClure, investigated the occupants of the other car and found the beer the two O'Neills were arrested.

This morning Victor O'Neill pleaded not guilty to a charge of having been drunk, but intimated that he would change his plea when he had a chance to get the money to pay his fine. He was remanded under bail of $50 until tomorrow, Magistrate Langley pointing out that in cases where liquor in motor cars was involved he was not inclined to be lenient.

Harvey Youths Given Remand

Arrested in Lindsay Thursday night by Constable Thurston of that town and brought to Peterborough by Provincial Constable Price Morris, two young Harvey Township youths, Byron Watson and Melville Lloyd Tate, both 16, were charged in police court this morning with having stolen an automobile belonging to Albert Groves of Nogie's Creek.

The two elected summary trial when they were arraigned and both pleaded not guilty.

They were remanded until next Thursday after Provincial Constable Morris stated that he had some further investigations to make.

Groves' car disappeared Thursday morning and the Lindsay police were notified. Last night the two youths were placed under arrest.

9 Found Guilty

NEWARK, N.J., May 19—(AP).—After about 17 hours of deliberation, a Federal jury last night found guilty nine defendants on charges of conspiring to act as agents of Germany before the United States entered the war. Five other defendants were acquitted and verdicts of disagreement were handed down for three others.

Help Resented

TORONTO, May 19—(CP).—The next time Hugh McLeod sees a dog fight he will more than likely walk off in the opposite direction. Recently he rushed to the aid of a little dog when attacked by a big one. He landed a kick on the big animal, which fled, but the underdog immediately turned around and bit him in the foot.

Sale Of Plants At Market For War Victims

This week-end and the days that follow should see a real burst of activity in the planting of gardens, for the time is now fast approaching that is usually the best suited to the getting this important phase of this year's production (so vital to the successful prosecution of the war effort) away to a good start.

This past four Saturday's, the stall on the market made available to the Peterborough and District British War Victim's Fund by the city council, has again been in operation to assist in the work it endeavors for that purpose, so that one hundred per cent of the returns have all come to assist in the humanitarian work it carries on.

Last Saturday, some plants and seeds were donated by Don Crawford, principal of King Edward School, and some boxed plants by the W. H. Hamilton Grocery Store, the balance being made up from the secretary of the fund's own production, and with Audrey Bolton and Alice Bullied, two senior girls at Central School acting as sales clerks, the fund raised another $5.30 which with previous returns makes a total of $18.60 in all that has come to the fund by this means this season.

Dutchman's Pipe Seeds

This Saturday the stall will again be in operation and a rather unique offering will be some seeds of the Dutchman's Pipe vine in a limited number of packets, which from the point of their hardly ever being obtainable might prove an attraction to those interested. The number of packets and seeds sold to date had considerably reduced the available supply, and this has been augmented by a donation from Mr. Cunningham, manager of the Woolworth Store.

Then there will be a supply of boxed and potted plants, quite a number of the secretary's own growing, and some sage plants given by R. R. Ford, with donations also from the Peterborough Floral Co. and Anthony's Store at the corner of Charlotte and George, among which will be both flower and vegetable types, while two senior girls from King George School through the kind arranging of F. E. Kerr, their principal, will be on hand to act as sales clerks.

The penny boxes at the Canadian Bank of Commerce have once more registered an assist for the cause, the amount they yielded on Thursday when collected by the secretary of the fund standing at $3.90, to mark their 3rd contribution of this year.

| | |
|---|---|
| Previously acknowledged | $76,201.62 |
| Proceeds of sale of plants and seeds at Market Stall per Audrey Bolton and Alice Bullied ........... | 5.30 |
| Penny boxes at the Bank of Commerce ........... | 3.90 |
| Total to date ............ | $76,210.82 |

Pilot Missing

OTTAWA, May 19 — (CP) — Flt. Lt. Jack Connell, son of Metals-Controller F. M. Connell, has been reported missing on active service following a bombing raid over Germany, his parents have been notified.

A Mosquito pilot, he was a resident of Toronto where he enlisted. His wife and son live in Waterloo.

SERVING OVERSEAS — Pte. Isban Donald Yule, C.I.T.C., who enlisted in October, 1943, is serving overseas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Yule of Warkworth. Prior to his enlistment he was employed as basket-maker at Jordan.

TONIGHT---
ANNUAL INSPECTION PARADE
164th AIR CADET SQUADRON
TAKING PLACE ON CONFEDERATION SQUARE
at 7.15 p.m.
GROUP CAPTAIN RIPLEY
Commanding Officer of Mountain View will be taking the salute
Don't Miss It!

QUAINT CHARM—Small straw sailors, flower trimmed and misted with lacy veiling, are at home atop some of the sleekest coiffures. Josephi does this pretty little sailor in natural leghorn and trims it with pressed pink and satin roses. A ruffle of black lace borders the miniature crown and there is a bordered face veil. It is delightful with a dress-up black frock, and old fashioned, somehow, despite its glossy smartness.—By Alice Alden.

THE TEA HOUR GOSSIP

To-day we will give you some recipes that you can use to make a tasty Sunday evening supper, and they are easily prepared. The first is a nice salad, the second a nice dessert.

Waldorf Salad.

Two heads celery cut fine, four good sound apples cut fine, 10 cents worth of pecan nuts cut fine, mix altogether, except the nuts, and place on bed of lettuce. Pour salad dressing on this, and sprinkle the chopped nuts over top.

Salad Dressing.

One egg, one dessertspoon of cornstarch, one small teaspoon of mustard, one cup granulated sugar. Mix these three ingredients together dry, then add egg, and mix together Put in a saucepan, one cup good vinegar, add the mixture and boil until about as thick as cream, stirring constantly. When dressing is perfectly cool, take about half the amount, add a little milk to make thickness of cream, and pour over the salad.

At this season of the year, to serve fresh asparagus on toast with the above salad makes a charming addition to this Sunday evening tea. Toast as many slices of bread as required. Cook the asparagus until tender, drain, and pour over this melted butter, place a serving on each slice of toast and serve very hot.

Orange Refrigerator Cake.

One-quarter cup orange juice, one tablespoon gelatine, one-third cup sugar, one-half cup boiling water, three-quarters cup orange juice, 12 marshmallows, one-quarter cup orange pieces, one cup whipping cream, 24 lady fingers, or sponge cake.

Soften gelatine in the one-quarter cup orange juice, add the sugar and boiling water, stir until dissolved. Add three-quarters cup of orange juice. When gelatine mixture cools, combine marshmallows cut into pieces and orange pieces. When gelatine begins to stiffen, beat until fluffy. Fold in orange pieces, marshmallows and whipped cream. Line a spring pan with wax paper, arrange a layer of ladyfingers or sponge cake on the bottom and sides. Pour in filling. Chill in refrigerator over night. Unmould and garnish with whipped cream and orange sections.

Peanut Butter Cookies.

One cup butter, one cup peanut butter, 1½ cups white sugar, ½ cup brown sugar, 2½ cups flour, one egg, one teaspoon vanilla, one teaspoon soda mixed with flour. Cream butter, flour and peanut butter, add beaten egg, and mix well, add sugar, mix well, then add flour and mix well again. Bake in moderate oven. If these cookies are cut in fancy shapes, they look much more attractive. Serve these cookies with the refrigerator cake, and coffee, and you have a delicious Sunday evening supper.

Lily Lake W.A. Honors Mothers

The Mother's Day theme was carried throughout the regular meeting of the Lily Lake Women's Association, when Mrs. James Shields and Mrs. D. W. Wilson were hostesses, at the former's home. The opening hymn was chosen by Mrs. G. Edmison, the oldest mother present, and the closing hymn by Mrs. Kenneth Darling, the youngest mother present. Mother's Day readings ere given by Mrs. Clarence Hancock and Mrs. William Steinkraus.

The members decided to donate a quilt to the Hospital Women's Auxiliary to be used as a prize in the annual Penny Sale. The afternoon was spent in quilting, and lunch was served. In addition to a large attendance of members, ten visitors were welcomed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Ireland, with Mrs. Ireland and Miss Mary Robson in charge.

Mrs. Ron. Howe, 89 Princess street, is spending a few days in Kingston.

◆ ◆ ◆

Mr. Isaac McNabb of Toronto was in Peterborough on Thursday.

◆ ◆ ◆

Miss Gloria Gardner of Norwood recently spent a few days in Peterborough with her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Miles, 316 Maitland avenue.

◆ ◆ ◆

Mr. and Mrs. George Duguid, of Sydney, Nova Scotia, have returned to their home after visiting their aunts, Mrs. M. Nicol and Mrs. George Duncan, 90 Auburn street.

◆ ◆ ◆

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Jamieson, Maitland avenue, have returned home, after spending a few days in Toronto with Mrs. Roland Denne, Dorchester Apartments.

◆ ◆ ◆

Friends of Lieut. Norman D. Bowler, a former employee of the Brinton Carpet Company, will be pleased to know that he is convalescing in a hospital overseas, where he has spent several months.

◆ ◆ ◆

Mrs. W. Ronald Mann, wife of Squadron Leader W. R. Mann, has returned from St. John's Newfoundland, and is now visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Lynch, Hastings.

◆ ◆ ◆

Mr. Stanley Scott, 80 Victoria avenue, has returned to Peterborough after attending a 10-day convention of the Brotherhood of Express Employees, in Toronto.

◆ ◆ ◆

Mrs. Geoffrey Robinson, nee Marguerite Hutton Walker, was the guest of honor recently at a shower, when a number of her friends gathered at the home of Miss Thelma Dowd. During the evening, Mrs. Robinson received a number of lovely gifts.

◆ ◆ ◆

Little Stanley Peryer, son of Bandsman Stanley Peryer and Mrs. Peryer, Bethune street, has now returned to Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, for further treatment. Mrs. Peryer is at present in Nicholls Hospital, where she has undergone an operation, and is doing well.

◆ ◆ ◆

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Taylor of Otonabee have announced the engagement of their younger daughter, Laura Belle Taylor, to Robert Keith Esson, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Esson of Otonabee. The wedding will take place quietly in June.

◆ ◆ ◆

Plan Supper

MARMORA, May 19—(ENS)—The May meeting of St. Andrew's Women's Association was held recently at the home of Mrs. James Sproul with Miss M. Brown, president, in the chair.

Mrs. W. Pack led in the study with the members assisting. Plans were made for a supper on the lawns at the parsonage on June 5 to assist in raising the allocation for the Society. The C.G.I.T. girls are to be asked to assist.

◆ ◆ ◆

Concert Series

The special concert of the Peterborough Concert Association presented this evening, will feature local artists. Gwen Bond Brown, Orma Lacheur, Mrs. Ford Turner, Phyllis Cowie and Thursa Williamson will be singing solos, while Margaret and Olga Westbye and Alicia Langley will present several trio selections. In the instrumental part of the program, piano solos will be played by Marion Best, Elsie Chamber and Katherine McDermid, and Mary Jane Wharry will play violin numbers. The Normal School Choir, under the direction of Quirt McKinney, will conclude the program with a group of songs.

◆ ◆ ◆

Patton—Finley

A pretty evening wedding took place in Yonge Street United Church, Toronto, recently, when Zetta Finley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Finley, Bobcaygeon, became the bride of Harold F. Patton, R. C. O. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Patton, Peterborough. Rev. S. M. Beach, of Toronto, officiated.

The bride was charming in a gown of ivory brocaded satin, with a finger-tip veil, and carrying a nosegay of red roses and baby's breath. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. George Scott, who wore a gown of blue satin, and carried a nosegay of pink carnations and baby's breath. Mr. Willis Patton, brother of the groom, was best man.

Following a reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jones, Toronto, the young couple left on a short honeymoon, the bride's travelling in a rose suit with brown accessories.

◆ ◆ ◆

Trinity W.M.S.

Rev. Archer Wallace will be asked by the Women's Missionary Society of Trinity United Church to give a lecture early in November. This was decided at the regular meeting of the W.M.S. in the Ladies' Parlors. Mrs. John Wood was guest speaker, and her address was based on a verse from Timothy, on the Mother's Day theme. She also paid tribute to the late Brigadier A. J. Smith of the Salvation Army.

Mrs. J. E. Middleton and her group had charge of the meeting. The devotional period was taken by Mrs. W. A. Davern, who read the Scripture, and Mrs. S. D. Carver, who led in prayer. An article on Christian Stewardship was read by Miss T. Mathers. Mrs. H. T. Rehill presided. Monthly reports were read, and Mrs. A. B. Gates reported that 28 calls had been made to sick and shut-ins during the month.

Personals and Social

◆ ◆ ◆

Entertain Newlyweds

About 50 friends and relatives recently gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Everson, Grand Hotel, Lindsay, to honor P. O. Tom Everson, R. C. A. F., and Mrs. Everson, nee Norma Christie, who were recently married in Barrie. During the evening, the happy couple received many beautiful gifts, and were also presented with a purse of money and an address. P. O. Everson has now left for a new posting.

◆ ◆ ◆

Give Out Mits Boxes

The Nettie McKenzie Mission Band of Knox Church met in the Junior Room for their work book period, during which 30 mite boxes were given out. Mrs. W. Gaskin, Miss Betty Fountain the pianist, and Mrs. R. Hanscom were group leaders. Thirty-four members were present. Margaret Johnston and Oryce McIlwraith gave a call to worship, followed by a dramatization of the "Whisper Song." The members marched and sang one verse of "Onward, Christian Soldiers" as they brought forward the offering and placed it in two boxes held by David Drummond and Bobby Londerville. In the absence of Miss Inez Barrer, superintendent of the Band, Mrs. Hanscom dedicated the offering.

◆ ◆ ◆

Bridgenorth W.M.S.

"All the World and All of Life for Christ" was the theme of the May meeting of the Bridgenorth Women's Missionary Society, held at the home of Mrs. Wallace Nicholas. Mrs. Clayton Telford was soloist and sang "He Leadeth Me." Mrs. W. Telford took the chapter from the study book, entitled "All of Life for Christ." Mrs. Nicholas read an article on Christian stewardship and Mrs. Annie Down read "Peace," by Helen Keller. During the devotional period Psalm 724 was read in unison and Mrs. Down led in prayer. Mrs. N. Robinson presided.

Pupils' Parents Guests At Queen Mary

Open House was held at Queen Mary School Thursday evening when parents had the opportunity of visiting the different class rooms and the respective teachers were in attendance to exhibit and explain the work of the children.

Mrs. James Matthews, president of the Queen Mary Home and School Associatoin and Mrs. C. H. Crowe, past president, received in the entrance hall and two class mothers were in attendance in each room to assist the teacher. The rooms were attractively decorated with the art of the pupils, and with spring flowers. A great deal of interest was shown in the outstanding work done by the boys of the handicraft class.

Later in the evening a concert was presented in the kindergarten room by the children of the school. The chairman E. G. Wagar, welcomed the large audience of parents, teachers, and friends and introduced the following program: Spring songs, The Tiny Elfin and The Robin, Grace Sarginson, Mary Beth Darling, Mary Tudhope, Sandra Zacks, accompanied by Miss M. Cox; Sailor Dance, Helen Zakos, accompanied by Mrs. H. V. Dobson; recitation, Lorraine Bacon; piano solo, Roy Weldon; song, Murray Manders, accompanied by Miss Musa Cox; group recitation, Agnes Rose, Mary Lou MacKie, Helen Fine, Jimmy Ridyard; piano solo, Joan Smith; Scottish dance, The Highland Fling, Jane Ann Myers and Nancy Rowell, accompanied by Mrs. H. V. Dobson; recitation, Joyce Keele; piano solo, Pauline Zacks; the School Choir sang three delightful numbers, conducted and accompanied by Miss Musa Cox.

Mr. O. M. Steer brought the program to a close by voicing his appreciation of the interest shown by so many parents and friends in attendance.

Mrs. C. H. Crowe, past president, thanked the children taking part and invited all to remain for refreshments. The pleasant social hour that followed was provided by Mrs. Jack Fanning and her committee.

During the evening the successful homemade cooking table in charge of Mrs. Fred Leslie and her committee was the scene of continuous activity.

Fashions

9201 SIZES 12-20

Princess lines save sewing time and accent your pretty figure, too! Pattern 9201 has smart scalloped detail, as well. Matching half-hat.

Pattern 9201, in misses' sizes: 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 16, dress and half-hat 3 yards 35-inch; 2½ yards ready-made ruffling.

Pattern Number ..................

Size ..................

My Name ..................

..................

Address ..................

I enclosed 20c for postage

Women's Institute Interested In Citizenship

An increased interest in local and Dominion affairs and management was reflected at the 19th anual meeting of the Peterborough district Women's Institute, when a majority of members voted to request "Citizenship" as the topic to be presented under the co-operative program of the provincial W. I. An instructor, sent out from Institute headquarters, will present this subject to separate meetings of the various W. I's. However, Miss L. Row, representatve from the Department of Agriculture, asked the groups to band together wherever possible, to relieve the transportation difficulties.

Peterborough district will ask that the instructor visit the distrist during September, but Miss Row also explained that the instruction schedule was worked out to comply as nearly as possible with the requests of the districts. However, when the instructor enters the district, she will complete her lecture commitments there, before travelling on.

Tuned To War

In her address, outlining the various topics offered in the program for the coming year, Miss Row explained that they were designed to assist with the job of carrying on during wartime. The topics themselves were not changed from the previous year, she said, but the material used was new, and designed to meet present conditions. In her opening remarks, she asked the group to take a broader view of the Women's Institute, and to realize that there were provincial and dominion federations, as well as the Associated Countrywomen of the World.

"Therefore," she said, "in this chain of connected organizations, each Institute is an important link, and the opinions and views expressed, the contributions of work made by each one, add to the grand total, and are a vital part of the whole."

Name Officers

Mrs. E. Birdsall was re-elected president of the district, in the election of officers conducted during the afternoon session. Because of illness, she was not in attendance. The results of the elections, conducted by Mrs. N. J. White, are as follows: President, Mrs. E. Birdsall; first vice-president, Miss E. Smith, of Belmont; second vice-president, Mrs. H. A. Shearer of Buckhorn; secretary treasurer, Mrs. J. Moore, of Hall's Glen; Federation representative, Mrs. H. Mann, Trent River; alternate, Mrs. W. Lean of Apsley; district delegate, Miss Iva Smith, of Belmont; alternate, Mrs. J. McCurcher, of Hall's Glen.

Presiding officer for both morning and afternoon sessions was Miss Ida Smith, first vice-president. Annual reports given during the afternoon were as follows: Miss Iva Smith, for social welfare; Mrs. Jane Thompson, for historical research; Mrs. C. Price, for war work; Mrs. L. Wood, for citizenship; Mrs. W. Lean, for home economics; Mrs. T. Brown, for junior activities. Mrs. J. Moore also gave the account of the three-day convention in Toronto in November, 1943. An entertaining feature was the quizz on the Hand-Book, conducted by Mrs. Price, when those giving correct answers were given awards of maple sugar candy. Mrs. Carman McMillan gave a report on agriculture and Canadian industries. Minutes of the previous annual meeting, the financial statements, and Branch statements were read by the retiring secretary-treasurer, Mrs. H. Mann, who served her sixth term as secretary-treasurer, and was therefore not eligible for re-election. Mrs. William McLaughlin read the auditor's report.

Treasure Hunt Shower Given

A shower, in the form of a treasure hunt, was given recently by Misses Emily and Gwen Parsons, in honor of Miss Barbara Parsons, bride-elect of June. The room was decorated with pink and white streamers and a gaily decorated white umbrella hung from the ceiling, under which the guest of honor sat to open her many lovely gifts. The hostesses served refreshments.

Those present were. Misses Lois and Leah Little, Margot Clydale, Merle Payne, Muriel Payne, Laura Powell Irma Rosborough, Jean Hammond, and Mrs. T. Barnes and Mrs. B. Clysdale. Those who were unable to be present, but sent gifts were Mrs. Ivan Butler, Mrs. George McCullough, Mrs. Gratton Bullock, Mrs. A. Harris and Misses Olive, Zelda and Thelma Tedford, and Mrs. M. Meadows.

Mrs. L. Bolands Heads Ashburnham CWL

Mrs. L. Boland was elected president of the Immaculate Conception sub-division of the Catholic Women's League, at the annual meeting and election of officers. Members of the executive are as follows: Chaplain, Rev. J. Greenan; past president, Mrs. G. Hynes; president, Mrs. L. Boland; first vice-president, Mrs. J. Garvey; second vice-president, Mrs. D. Campanaro; third vice-president, Mrs. H. Fraser; treasurer, Mrs. G. Kennedy; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. Armstrong; recording secretary, Mrs. H. Kennedy.

Mrs. F. Lynch presided for the election, and, at the conclusion, Rt. Rev. Monsignor F. J. O'Sullivan thanked the retiring executive for their splendid co-operation in all parish work, and congratulated the new executive on their acceptance of office. Mrs. L. Boland made a presentation of a silver plate to the retiring president, Mrs. G. Hynes, on behalf of the executive.

Annual reports showed a continuing interest in war work and a large amount of work accomplished. Donations were made to the Milk for Britain Fund, H.M.C.S. Peterborough, to the Soldiers' Library and to the National Scholarship Fund.

Friends Honor Bride-To-Be

Miss Eileen Casey ,whose marriage to James Connelly takes place Saturday, was guest of honor recently at a dinner party, held at the home of Mrs. H. J. Middleton, 493 Cross street, who was assisted by the girls of her department in the Western Clock Company. The bride-elect received many useful and attractive gifts.

Those present were: Misses Violet Foulger, Barbara Cavalier, Ethel Latchford, Madge Mycroft, Gloria Kidd, Ila Sayers, and Mesdames Mary MacKenzie, O. Nicholls, J. Hennessy, J. Driscoll, H. Miller, and H. J. Middleton. Miss Melva Dunbar was unable to be present but sent a gift.

Miss Casey was also guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower, given by Mrs. Robert Shaughnessy, 151 Albertus street. A basket, decorated in blue and white, and filled with gifts, was presented to the bride-elect. Those present were: Misses Margaret Shaughnessy and Hilda Casey; and Mesdames J. Casey, H. Connelly, C. Connelly, J. Grady, D. Foley, D. Johnson, P. O'Brien, R. Shaughnessy. Mrs. O. Hallihan, Mrs. A. Hewitt and Miss Marie Fagan were unable to be present but sent gifts.

Lawn Bowlers Hold First Tea

Members of the Ladies' Lawn Bowling Club spent an enjoyable afternoon Wednesday, when they held their first tea of the season at the Club House. Centre of attraction was the lovely tea table, set with a lace cloth over pink, with a bouquet of tulips, snapdragons and sweet peas. Mrs. Albert Boorne and Mrs. A. Leach received the guests. Mrs. A. Leach and Mrs. Fred Dawe poured tea, and members of the club assisted in serving.

The afternoon was spent in playing cards, and prizes in the lucky draw went to Mrs. J. Reid and Mrs. R. Hendry. Mr. P. Moore, president of the Men's Bowling Club, made the draw.

Pull Up Garters Expert Suggests

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 19.—(AP).—Louise Whitney, who knows about hosiery, thinks it would be a splendid thing for a nation at war if all women would pause at this moment and pull their garters up a couple of inches.

That concerted tug, Miss Whitney said in an interview, would ensure placement of the garter on the welt of the stocking and, if women persisted in the practice, would result in hosiery savings amounting to thousands of dollars. That, said Miss Whitney, an executive of a New York rayon factory, would be worthwhile for the women and conserve war-vital materials used in parachutes.

SWEET AND LOVELY—No gainsaying the popularity of the floor-length evening frock, since it is the delight of men of the armed forces who love to picture their girl in a soft, dainty, romantic evening dress. Surely this one fills the bill, a sweetly pretty frock of rayon sheer in a crushed berry hue. The grosgrain corset midriff minimizes the waistline and dramatizes the soft bodice draping.—By Alice Alden.

LOVE-MAKING CENSURED

MANCHESTER, England — (CP) — Father Francis Burney whose parish church is in Manchaster's warehouse district, is incensed over love making between girls of 16 and 17 and soldiers on the steps of his church. The girls, he said, should be horsewhipped.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

BRIDE MUST GO WITH HUSBAND

Nothing Man Resents More Than Mother-in-law Who Tries to Run His Family.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am an army wife of 19. Have been married just two months. My husband is on the ground crew of the air force and has been told that he will be kept at the station where he now is for the duration. He is begging me to come to him and make a home for him. He can make sure of an apartment for us to live in and his hours are such that we can be much together.

My problem is that I am living with my family and I have never been allowed to go any place away from home without my mother, so naturally my parents are very much opposed to the idea of my going so far away from them. What shall I do? If I go to my husband, my mother's heart will be broken. If I don't go, my husband is going to feel hurt. I am nearly crazy trying to decide what I should do.

TROUBLED BRIDE.

First Duty To Husband

ANSWER—There isn't any problem about what you should do. The right thing to do is as plain as the nose on your face. You should go to you husband. When you got married you swore at the altar to forsake all others and cleave to him, and you will be making a pretty bad start as a wife if you renege on that oath inside of two months and let Mother keep you tied to her apron strings.

It is perfect nonsense for you to say that if you go to live with your husband it will break your mother's heart. She doesn't love you a bit better than every other mother loves her daughter, and you have never heard of a single one of them dying of a broken heart, or making themselves miserable because their Evelyns or Susies or Marys have married and gone to make a new home with their husbands.

In spite of your mother making such a to-do over the matter, she is showing herself very selfish and lacking in regard for your happiness by making you feel like a criminal in leaving her. She is evidently one of the possessive mothers who wreck their children's marriages and break up their homes by trying to always be first in their affections and separate them from those to whom they are married.

Be sure of this—that the decision you make now is crucial. If you show your husband that you prefer your mother to him and that she is going to be the dominant influence in your life, you will lose him. There is nothing that a man resents so much as a mother-in-law who runs him and his family.

DEAR MISS DIX—If any man thinks he has trouble, he should have to wait on customers with all their red, blue, green, brown, spare, sugar and kerosene stamps, then have to deal with the wolverines who come out with the express purpose of making passes at me. When I go home I have nightmares in which I see all of these ration stamps and wolverines and it is about driving me crazy. Please tell me what to do.

DAVID.

ANSWER — Well, David, I agree with you that the ration stamps take most of the pleasure out of life for all of us, and it must be worse for a lad who is such a hot shot among the ladies. But I don't know what course to recommend unless it is to make yourself less fascinating. Or maybe a mask would help.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a girl of 16. My sweetheart is in the Navy and when he comes home on furlough he wants me to marry him. I think I love him and would like to marry him, but he may go to war and never come back and there I would be a young widow. Or he might come back a helpless cripple. What should I do?

IN DOUBT.

ANSWER—At 16 you shouldn't marry anybody because you are too young. You don't know your own mind and are in no way fitted to take upon yourself the responsibilities of marriage. Tell the boy that you will wait for him until the duration. By then you will know what you want to do.

Nearly all of these young wartime marriages are going to end in divorce.

Released by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Elizabeth Arden

Bare Legs WITHOUT APOLOGIES

VELVA LEG FILM

A flattering make-up for legs that must walk everywhere and look well.

Fashion-right shades,
SUN BEIGE or SUN BRONZE
VELVA LEG FILM, 1.00

GRETA GILES
190 Charlotte St.

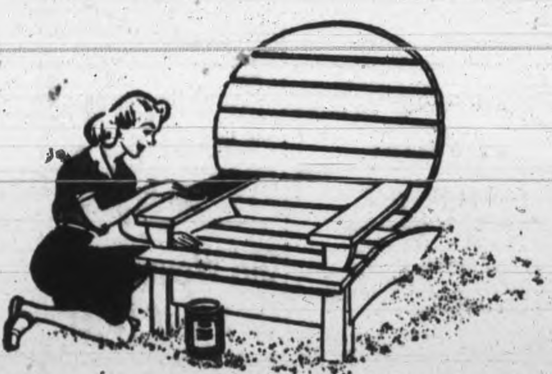
If you suffer MONTHLY

FEMALE PAIN

You who suffer such pain with tired, nervous irritable weak feelings—due to functional monthly disturbances—should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. Pinkham's Compound HELPS NATURE. Thousands upon thousands have reported benefit. Follow label directions.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Paint Up and Save



KEEP An Eye On Home Defence. Wherever wear or weather has pierced the paint armour of your home or its furnishings, repair the damage now and refresh it with paint. The more you "mend and make do" around your home in these war days the less you use of materials and services needed for war.

Look after the little repairs promptly and avoid the big jobs that result from neglect. Then paint for protection. And remember, with C-I-L Paints, beauty is a lasting bonus. Your C-I-L Paint Dealer sells first grade C-I-L Paints, enamels and varnish for every home requirement. Constant research has maintained their outstanding quality in spite of wartime conditions.

N44-6

C-I-L PAINTS

PRESERVE AND PROTECT

SOLD BY

KINGAN HARDWARE LTD.
167 Simcoe St.

GEO. S. TAYLOR
Keene

THE FLATTERING GESTURE—The full skirt, set on a broadish waistband, is taffeta with big black and white checks. The white crepe shirt has a tuxedo collar to the waist, and short sleeves. If you want to compliment your beaux, especially those in uniform, take the trouble to change into something pretty when they come calling. Even if that's all the evening amounts to .. not even a movie visit in prospect, it's worth while to pay him a flattering gesture. Nothing could be simpler and yet pretty-girl effective than this black and white checked taffeta skirt, very full, worn with a white crepe shirt and black linen playshoes, suggested as a good accessory by the New York designer who created this summer evening costume.—By Prunella Wood.

JUST FOR WOMEN

By CONNIE NICHOLSON (Society Editor of The Examiner)

A good many months often pass before the bride takes her lovely white satin gown out of its box, to wear for some special occasion, and if she is wise, she will not be disappointed to find that it has yellowed past its original loveliness because it was stored incorrectly. To keep a white gown from yellowing, it should be folded over several sheets of blue tissue paper, and packed in its original box. Another idea is to freshly launder an old sheet, and dye it blue. The gown can then be wrapped in it and will appear as fresh and white as when it was first was worn.

To keep a tulle or lace fresh and crisp, it should be rolled over wax paper, and then wrapped in blue tissue paper or a blue sheet. It is always a good plan to hang both dress and veil in the sun and give them a good airing twice a year, before storing them away again.

Millinery Magic.

Nimble little needlewoman need never want for a smart "chapeau" in these days of dinky little bunchese of flowers cocked over one eye, or fastened to a wide ribbon, which pass for hats. All the materials required are a few smart cloth flowers, a needle and thread, a little ribbon, and some ingenuity, and presto, a new creation makes its bow.

For girls who do not like to be too radical in their styles, a new plain round calot of straw or felt, or last year's beanie can be covered with flowers, and a swath of veiling and look completely new and bewitching. Small hats are much in demand on the fashion front, with the ever-popular sailor, a trifle smaller than usual, in the fore.

However, large cartwheel" hats, according to fashion forecasts, will also be in demand, and their flattering qualities will certainly give them added popularity.

Cleaning Methods.

There are a great many women these days who have not been able to procure a vacuum cleaner, and are therefore making the carpet sweeper do for the duration. There is also another group of women who have both, and use the carpet sweeper for quick clean-ups, to save wear on the nap of good carpets, and reserve the vacuum cleaner for thorough weekly cleanings.

Whichever the case may be, there are certain rules to be followed to make a carpet sweeper last longer and to give better services. Run the sweeper with smooth, even strokes, and do not put too much pressure, and it will do its best work. Another wise step is to empty the dustpan after each using, or every second using, and it should be oiled, according to maker's instructions, at least once a month.

Care of the bristles is also vitally important. The brush should be cleaned often to keep it from matting. Thread and hairs that catch between the tufts or around the axle can be cut, and the brush combed clean. When the bistles wear down the brush should be replaced.

Two very common habits, which are not conducive to long wear, are banging the sweeper against furniture, and letting it stand over a hot-air register.

Needlecraft Pattern

PET PINAFORE

Little girls love pinafores and look their cutest in them. Make hers amusing and she'll be doubly pleased ... with it, and YOU!

Pattern 844 contains a transfer pattern of embroidery; necessary pattern pieces in sizes 2, 4 and 6 (all in one pattern); directions.

Pattern Number ..........................

Size ..........................

My Name ..........................

..........................

Address ..........................

I enclosed 20c for postage

THE STARS SAY . . . . .

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Saturday, May 20

ALTHOUGH this may be a very lively day, with energies quickened to new plans for progress and development of static situations, yet there is definite need for adhering to the rules and regulations, and not going counter to the law or public interest in any respect. Also try to keep to conservation and protection of funds. Suppress tendencies to rash speculation or gambling. In affectional matters there might be petty friction, possibly through thoughtless words.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may expect a very lively and progressive year with plans and programs to develop lagging conditions, with a spurt into higher channels of production. However there is a tendency to take unjustifiable chances, speculative ventures, to be lax with words and writings, and probably with a lean to running counter to proper codes and public laws and regulations. Funds should not be jeopardized in doubtful investments. In the private affairs there may be friction due to unguarded acts or words.

A child born on this day may have a tendency to venture into doubtful connections in business, to side step codes and to waste its substance on personal indulgences.

COSTLY INDISCRETION

LONDON — (CP) — The secretary, 17-year-old Lila Chamberlain, didn't like it when the boss kissed her, so she hailed him into court where she was awarded $67 damages. The boss, a 34-year-old accountant, said he had been indiscreet but it was because he had been working under a strain for a long time.

STORE HOURS
Monday to Friday
9.00 to 5.30
Saturday, 9.00 to 6.00
Wednesday, 9.00 to 12.30

★ ★ ★

Summer Play Shoes

"Casual Capers"
"Wonder Wedges"

SANDALETTE: a "Casual Capers" style in all-white gabardine trimmed with red, blue or brown. Also: solid colour beige, blue, red. Sizes 4 to 8 .................... 1.98

SPORT-EES: A "Wonder Wedgee" style, California processed. Of white or beige Pigtex, trimmed with brown, cotton lining .............. 2.95

"AIRFLEX": light-&-cool as a Summer's breeze! Tan or black leather. Beige or red Congo Cloth. Sizes 4 to 8 2.69

BICYCLE-TIE "WONDER WEDGEE": white with tan; or all beige. Sizes 4 to 8 .................. 2.95

BICYCLE-TIE — Wheat linene, cuban heel, beige only. Sizes 4 to 8 .......... 1.98

LOAFERS — Casually styled, sturdily made of brown or white with brown leather low heels. Sizes 4 to 8 .................. 2.95

LINENE SANDALETTE — Open toe, cuban heel. Beige only. For sport or dress wear. Sizes 4 to 8 ...... 1.98

MULTI-COLORED PLAID STRAP SANDAL — Blue and brown trim, platform soles, cuban heels. Sizes 4 to 8 .................. 2.95

Strap Sandals
2.95

Open-toe, open-heel Sandals, featured in popular Nu-kid Beige and Tan. Also: white trimmed with red or blue. Sizes 4 to 8.

ZELLER'S

SPORTSWEAR
for the Smart & Thrifty!

Jackets

ALPINE CLOTH— Dashingly colourful. Jackets button-style. With two pockets. Sizes 14 to 20. 3.98

DENIM AND CHAMBRAY—4 button jackets with skirt to match. Red, blue, green, plaids and stripes. Sizes 12 to 20 .............. 2.98

Skirts

DIRNDL-STYLE "CABANNA" SKIRTS—Of tubable cotton prints, aglow with bright flower patterns. Sizes 12 to 18. 2.88

SLACKS - SHIRTS

SLACKS—Sizes 12 to 20. Rayon or alpine cloth; in navy, brown, green, grey, blue. 2.98 - 3.98

SHIRTS WITH CONVERTIBLE NECKLINE—"Club" style. Of tubbable cotton slub broadcloth. White, yellow, blue, pink. Sizes 12 to 20. 1.00

SPUN RAYON SKIRTS — Pleated or gored styles, in black, navy, brown and blue. Sizes 12 to 18 ...... 1.98

Lingerie

RAYON PANTIES—Tearose and white. Net trim, button closing. Sizes small, medium and large ..... 45c

RAYON SATIN AND CORDETTE SLIPS —Tearose and white. Lace trim and tailored styles. Sizes 32 to 42 1.00

GOTHIC BRASSIERES— "Breathing Waist" model. Brassieres for medium figures. Sizes 32 to 36. 1.25

Millinery

LADIES' COCONUT STRAW HATS — Off-face, large brim and "Casablanca" styles that will fit charmingly into the Summer scene. Trimmed with ribbon. 1.98

GIRLS' STRAW HATS — Darling little off-face, bonnet and brim styles for Miss Junior. White, natural, rose; with ribbon streamers ..... 1.29

Accessories

SUMMER HANDBAGS— Attractive assortment of pouch, tophandle and underarm styles. Made of novelty fabrics, "strawtex," or all-white Keratol. 1.93

WHITE GLOVES— Of cooly rayon silk, plain or embroidered. Come in and see the fine collection on Zeller's Accessories Counter. You'll want more than one pair, at these Thrift Prices— 79c to 1.00

VALUES FOR THE HOME

MONK'S-CLOTH DRAPERY: 50 ins. wide. Neutral-tone colors. Yard .................. 1.19

CURTAIN RODS: Complete with brackets and nails .................. 10c

"COTTAGE" CURTAINS: Cream marquisette with coloured woven patterns. 6-Pc. Set .................. 1.98

VOILE CURTAINING—Flocked pattern, checked design. 38 inches wide. Yard .................. 49c

CURTAIN CRANES—Made of wood complete with rings. Pair .................. 2.69

NOVELTY WEAVE CRETONNE — 36" wide. Large assortment of colours. Yard ........ 1.00

WINDOW DRAPES—Herringbone weave in plain colours of rose, wine, green and blue. Pinch pleat heading. Pair .................. 9.95

ZELLER'S LIMITED: Retailers to Thrifty Canadians

The Examiner

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES

Cash with order, 1½c per word per insertion; 35c minimum for first insertion; 45c minimum with box number

If paid within five days, 2c per word per insertion

After five days, 2½c per word per insertion

Refunds must be claimed within thirty days

The names and addresses of boxholders are confidential and cannot be given under any circumstances

THE PETERBOROUGH EXAMINER reserves the right to classify edit or reject any classified advertising copy. Read your ad at the first insertion. The Examiner will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion. Copy accepted up to 1 p.m. each day for insertion the same day except Saturdays when copy must reach the Examiner before 10 a.m.

| | |
|---|---|
| Birth Notice | 75c |
| Card of Thanks | 75c |
| Engagement Notice | 75c |
| Marriage Notice | 75c |
| Death Notice | 75c |
| In Memoriam | 75c |

The above charge is for 50 words—over 50 words 3c per word is charged. Coming Events — First insertion 20 words or less minimum charge 50c. Subsequent consecutive insertions 40c per insertion. Over 20 words, 3c per extra word per insertion.

TELEPHONE 4641

Births Marriages Deaths

In Memoriam Cards of Thanks

BIRTH

FISHER—Mr. and Mrs. H. Fisher wish to announce the birth of their son, Albert William, brother for Carol, at Nicholls Hospital May 14, 1944.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney C. Gibbs, Peterborough, announce the engagement of their only daughter, Dorothy Luella to Kenneth Irwin Hamley, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Irwin Hamley, Peterborough.

The wedding will take place in St. John's Anglican Church, Peterborough, June 17th at 2.30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Armstrong wish to announce the engagement of their elder daughter Olive Ferne to Stewart Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Whittington of Otonabee. The wedding to take place Saturday, June 3rd, 1944.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Taylor announce the engagement of their younger daughter Laura Belle to Robert Keith second son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Esson both of Otonabee. The wedding to take place quietly in June.

MARRIAGE

THOMPSON — STEPHENSON — On Saturday, April 29, 1944 at Green Hammerton, near York, England, the marriage took place of Miss Dorothy May Stephenson, R.C.A.F., and Sgt. Jack E. Thompson, R.C.A.F., son of Mrs. Thompson and the late C. S. Thompson.

DIED

WASHBURN—Mrs. Sim, at Lasswade, Ontario, on Friday, May 19, 1944, Lenora Dingman, beloved wife of the late Sim Washburn in her 86th year.

Resting at her late residence, Lasswade, with funeral service at the United Church on Sunday, May 21, at 2 p.m.

Interment Lasswade Cemetery.

QUARTERMAINE—On May 17, 1944, at her late residence, 416 London Street, Peterborough, Charlotte Eleanor Quartermaine, beloved widow of the late T. Q. Quartermaine, and dear mother of Ruby and Guy at home. Surviving also are three sisters, Mrs. R. Stevenson, Windsor, Mrs. W. C. Poussette, Los Angeles, and Mrs. E. L. Howe of Kingston, New York.

Resting at her late residence. Service will be held from St. John's Anglican Church on Saturday, May 20, 1944, at 2:00 p.m. Interment in Little Lake Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

SYMONDS—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Robert Symonds, who passed away May 19, 1941.

A silent thought, a secret tear,
Keeps his memory ever dear.
Time takes away the edge of grief,
But memory turns back every leaf.

—Ever remembered by wife and Family.

GARDNER—In loving memory of Alfred Gardner, who passed away May 19th, 1942.

Time speeds on, two years have passed,
Since death its gloom, its shadow cast,
Within our home, where all seemed bright,
And took from us a shining light,
We miss that light and ever will,
His vacant place there is none can fill.
Down here we mourn, but not in vain,
For up in Heaven we will meet again.

—Ever remembered by his loving wife and family, Fred, Shirley, Alf and Annie.

FLORISTS

ASHBURY'S WEDDING AND FUNERAL FLOWERS Phone 4683—Nights 3054 316 Charlotte

TURNBULL'S FLOWERS LIMITED 441 George Phone 7583—Nights 5357

In Memoriam Verses

A booklet from which In Memoriam verses may be selected is available at the Advertising counter of The Examiner. Telephone Classified Dept. 4641

COMING EVENTS

First insertion, 20 words or less minimum charge 50c. Subsequent consecutive insertions 40c per insertion. All over 20 words 3c per extra word per insertion

RESERVE THE DATE, JUNE 8th, for the Grenfell Mission Party at the home of Mrs. G. R. Langley, Burnham street. Home Cooking table. Also sale of stationery.

SOLDIERS CIGARETTE BINGO tonight in the Legion Hall at 8.15 the main prize will be $34.00 with one prize of $5.00, 4 prizes of $2.00 each and other good prizes, the names of thirty-six soldiers and airmen will be drawn. Admission, 25c, extra card 10c.

CRICKET CLUB PRACTICE Nicholls Oval to-morrow afternoon, all players urged to attend for practice and discussion. New players invited.

LAKEFIELD LODGE, NO. 358, I.O.O.F., will hold annual Church parade on Sunday, May 21, 7 p.m. at Lakefield United Church. Will meet at Lodge Rooms at 6.30 p.m. all brothers cordially invited.

RECITAL BY PUPILS OF AGNES Logan Green assisted by Mary Mitchell pupil of Thurza Williamson, on Monday June 12, Recreation Room of the Y. W. C. A. at 8 p.m.

PRINCE OF WALES HOME AND School Association on Monday, May 22nd 8 p.m. Annual meeting good attendance requested.

WORKERS AND UNEMPLOYED, "Bingo Tonight" Moose Hall 8.15 "Prizes"; Esmond, Woolcot and other large size good quality blankets, Bed Linens, Magazine Racks, Lamps, Fancy Cushions, Chromewear, Enamel Cookwear, Bed Spreads, Comforters, Luncheon Sets and other good prizes including cash to the amount of $40.00. Names of Men and Women serving in the armed forces overseas, will be drawn and Three Hundred Cigarettes sent to each. Admission 25c. Extra cards 10c.

RUMMAGE SALE, SATURDAY, May 20, opposite Hood and Cummings auspices W. A. Group of George Street Church. Doors open at 9 a.m.

BINGO AT THE ORANGE HALL, Saturday, 8.15. 30 games, 5 freeze outs. Large Cash Prize on 13th Game. Substantial Cash prize on 10, 20 and 30th Game. Come and bring your friends.

COMMUNITY CONCERT ASSOCiation, Members Concert, Friday, May 19th at 8.30 p.m. in Collegiate Auditorium. All 1943-44, 1944-45 members invited. Give your name at door. No admission cards required.

PERSONALS

"SLENDOR TABLETS" — HARMLESS and effective. Two weeks' supply $1.00, $5.00. At Buchanan's, Finn's, and McLeod's Drug Store

MEN 30, 40, 50! WANT NORMAL PEP vim, vigor? Try Ostrex tablets Contain tonics, stimulants, iron, vitamin B1 Calcium phosphorus. Introductory size 35c. If not delighted with results first package, maker refunds low price. At all druggists

AVON REPRESENTATIVE. 546 Bethune. Telephone 3194

NOTICE!

We are pleased to announce that we have secured the services as manager

Mr. Keith Innes

Our "Service with a Smile" will be capably dispensed at all times to old and new customers.

Curtis Service Station

COR. CHARLOTTE and STEWART STS.

SPIRELLA REPRESENTATIVES— 3011, 3150, 5151.

RAWLEIGH'S PRODUCTS, 360 SIMCOE Telephone 3058.

FULLER BRUSH REPRESENTATIVE. Telephone 9778

FULLER SALESMAN F. DAWE, 451 Water. Telephone 4789.

Custom Tailoring

DOES YOUR COAT OR SUIT NEED Altering? Have it done now. Tony Pepe, Greene Building. Dial 4295.

Piano Tuning

WILLIAM POTTER, PIANO TUNING and Repairing (formerly Heintzman) Dial 9462.

PIANO TUNING AND REPAIRING — Fred Walker, Heintzman & Company, Toronto. Mail orders to CHEX or Telephone 9496.

3a Hairdressers 3a

EXTRA SPECIAL OIL WAVE, $6.50 FOR $5.00. Rosanne Beauty Salon, Kresge Building. Dial 8837.

SPECIALS — $8.50 VAPOR PERMANent for $7.00. $7.00 Machineless Permanent for $4.00. Includes Shampoo, Hairstyle Cut and scientific testing. Telephone 5311. Paris Beauty Salon.

MARY MARINO SUGGESTS FOR FINE Dry, Hard-to-curl Hair, one of her better Oil Waves at $7.50. Other Oil Waves from $3.50 up. Dial 8663

SPECIALS — END PERMANENTS $1.00 up. Oil Permanents $2.50 up. Downer's. Dial 8874.

FOR SALE

4 Miscellaneous 4

ICE-BOX, 2-BURNER PERFECTION Stove, 2-Burner Hot Plate. Telephone 3468.

GAS STOVE, 4-BURNER, WITH OVEN and Broiler, nearly new; also Dinette Set. Telephone 9876, after 6 p.m.

ELASTIC STOCKINGS FOR VARICOSE Veins. All types and all sizes. Veins. All types and all sizes. Miller's Drug Store, corner Charlotte and Downie. Telephone 4734.

15.00 DAYS AT BLACK'S FOR 15.00

YOU MAY PURCHASE ANY Lady's Spring Coat OR 2 Better Dresses REGULAR TO 15.00 EACH OR Tailored and Sport Suit —OR— IN MEN'S WEAR Top Coat or Suit 15.00

ALSO SEE OUR LOVELY DISPLAY OF Washable Prints 3.98 and 7.95

Sport Shirts
Slack Suits
Jackets

BLACK'S

GEORGE at KING TELEPHONE 6812

FURNITURE AND GIFTS — 3-PIECE Chesterfields $99.00, $33.00 down, $7.38 per month for 10 months; 6-Piece Breakfast Suites, $69.95, $23.95 down, $8.44 per month for 8 months; Ornaments, 15c up; Cushions, $1.79; Mirrors, $3.50 up; Electric Heating Pads, $7.45; Table Lamps, $5.95 up; Vases, 29c up; Artificial Flowers, 19c per Spray up; Play Pens, $5.95; Bassinettes, $11.95. F. H. Johnston, corner George and McDonnel. Telephone 4697.

PLAYER PIANO, WITH ROLLS AND Bench, in good condition. Sacrifice Parks' Studio, 208 Charlotte.

NEW MACHINIST TOOL-BOX, LARGE size; Ice Refrigerator, Settee, suitable for Cottage. 188 Parkhill Road East

NAVY BLUE PIN STRIPE SUIT, SIZE 18, worn half-dozen times; too small for owner. Cost $37.50. Sell for $20.00. Telephone 5670.

The Peterborough Metal Co.

Plumbing and Heating Supplies, Bathtubs, Kitchen Sinks, Toilets, Basins, Septic Tanks, Boilers, etc., Pipe, Fittings, Electric Motors, Belting, Pulleys, Shafting, Posts, Angle Iron, Drums, Barrels, Fibreglas Insulating Products

Telephone 5769 256 Simcoe Street

ONE USED ICE BOX 15.00

ONE NEW HAND POWER WASHER Complete with wringer 25.00

ONE COAL and WOOD STOVE With warming closet 39.00

SEE OUR NEW CONNOR AIR CONDITIONED ICE BOXES. ONLY RE-ICE ONCE EVERY SEVEN DAYS. NOW ON DISPLAY.

T. J. CAVANAGH

REFRIGERATION SALES

434 George N. Tel. 3075

EIGHT-PIECE SOLID QUARTERED Oak Dining-Room Suite. Call after 6. 206 Elias.

HEINTZMAN & COMPANY PIANO, good tone, Tuned and Delivered. Parks' Studio, 208 Charlotte.

CLEANRITE JAVEL WATER, BY GALlon. 6 Aylmer. 5197

REVERSIBLE MAROON CARRIAGE, good tires. Telephone 8497.

GREY TWEED RAINCOAT, SIZE 16, like new. Call 8584.

MAN'S BICYCLE. 376 STEWART.

EXTENSION DINING TABLE, SIX Chairs, Wilton Rug, Buffet, $30.00 cash. To-night 276 Dalhousie Street.

TWO-WHEEL CABIN TRAILER. 423 Water.

CHINA CABINET, BUFFET, LEATHER Rocker, Combination Gas and Wood Stove, Brown Steel Bed complete, Centre Tables, Wheelbarrow. 545 King Street

NEW MATTRESS, SPRING, BED. 204 Barnardo Avenue.

JOHNSON OUTBOARD MOTOR, MOdel HS 10, good condition. 186 Lansdowne

ARMY BOOTS $2.95. NEWLY REconditioned Boots of our Armed Forces, perfect condition, $2.95. Ladies' Army Shoes, rebuilt like new $1.95. New and Used Suits and Top Coats, latest styles, at very low prices. Used Trunks, good condition, $1.00 up. Ruskin & Company. Aylmer off Charlotte

GENERAL ELECTRIC RADIO. DIAL 8617.

FOR SALE

4 Miscellaneous 4

BATTERY CHARGERS

New, Improved, Individual BATTERY CHARGERS. Plugs into any 110v circuit for charging Radio or Auto Batteries. Complete with Cords, Plugs, etc. $7.95

BATTERY TESTERS

Test your Battery with a HYDROmeter Scale marked for specific gravity readings. Built to sell at $1.00—Our Price Only 49c

Ground Straps, Cables, Terminals, Bolts, Battery Frames.

Save Safely at

CANADIAN TIRE CORPORATION ASSOCIATE STORE

(I. H. Keefer, Proprietor)

342-4 Water Street. (Opposite Market) Phone 8281

MEDIUM SIZE POTATOES, $1.00 PER Bag. Call at Scott's Cold Storage.

BUFFET, CAMP COT, BABY'S TOILET Seat. 543 Douglas Avenue.

EXTENSION TABLE, SIX CHAIRS. 548 Harvey.

GENDRON PRAM, WHITE 741 WALKerfield Avenue (Hatton Property).

BLUE GO-CART, GOOD CONDITION 444 Driscoll Terrace

POTATOES. TELEPHONE 5089.

ONE STEEL BED. 424 LONDON

LIGHT WEIGHT PIANO TUNING OUTfit, suitable for private individual. Write Box 316, Peterborough.

LINOLEUM RUG 7½ x 9, GOOD CONdition. 324 Sherbrooke.

WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC RANGE. Telephone 8603.

ROUND EXTENSION TABLE. TELEphone 4954.

NEW CISTERN PUMPS $3.85

The Peterborough Metal Co.

BABY'S BASSINETTE; GUITAR, TELEphone 3630.

POTATOES, $1.50. TELEPHONE 5132.

CHILD'S COMMODE CHAIR. 460 Sherbrooke Street.

POTATOES, KATAHDIN, $1.75. TELEphone 9258.

MINNOWS, DEW WORMS. 172 ADEline Street.

Plants and Flowers

HARD MAPLE TREES FOR PLANTing, 25c. Telephone 8007.

OKIE'S TOMATOES, PEPPER AND Flower Plants — The kind that produce. We have no agents. All Plants sold at the Gardens. 88 St. James Street (near Monaghan Road).

TOMATO PLANTS, STURDY, HARDened, Improved John Baer, by the Box; discount on large lots. Mrs. G. Westman, Port Hope Highway. Telephone 7054

IVEY, FLORIST AND NURSERY — Good Variety Shrubs, Evergreens, Perennials, Rock Garden Plants. — Telephone 3005. 5 Wolsley Street.

4a Seeds and Grains 4a

CERTIFIED SEED POTATOES — SEbago and Chippawa Foundation A. Dial 5005.

5 Dogs, Cats, Birds, Etc. 5

DOGS BOARDED. HEDGLEY KENnels Port Hope Highway, Telephone 4906.

6 Fuel 6

MIXED SLABS, 90% PINE, $7.50 PER Cord, Delivered. Telephone Lakefield 34W.

SAVE MONEY — CUT YOUR OWN Wood for next Winter, or would Sell 7 Acres to One Party. 554 Aylmer. Harold Lancaster.

7 Livestock and Poultry 7

FOUR JERSEY AND 7 HOLSTEIN Heifer Calves, $12.00 and $15.00 each. Telephone 4091.

WANTED, GRADE DURHAM BULL. Dial 7070

REGISTERED HOLSTEIN BULL, 15 months, herd accredited and tested. Timothy Hay. Walter Thorn, Dial 6087.

TWO DUAL-PURPOSE SHORTHORN Bulls, year old. Dry Cow for Sale or Exchange for Pigs. Frances Gardiner, Norwood.

PURE-BRED HOLSTEIN BULL, EIGHT months, good type and production. Henry Borland, Indian River.

FOUR PIGS, 7 WEEKS. CLIFTON Carl, Fraserville.

EIGHT PIGS, 6 WEEKS. CLARENCE McMurray, Warsaw Road.

BLACK PERCHERON, 5 YEARS. Would Trade for Pigs. 506 ring 24, Lakefield.

REGISTERED RED DURHAM BULL, 2 years. Would take Stockers. Henry Oliver, Concession 7, Smith.

10 PIGS, 7 WEEKS OLD. H. FRANKS, Omemee.

HOLSTEIN COW, 6 YEARS, 1,400 LBS., due June 14. R. Heffernan, Norwood.

DURHAM COW, DUE TO FRESHEN May 24. Telephone 3624.

Baby Chicks

DON'T TRUST TO LUCK THAT WE'LL have Chick later on for delivery. If you wish them for delivery June, July or even later, we should have your order now, and can meet your delivery date. Right now reasonably quick delivery, especially with Leghorns. Bray Hatchery, 364 Water Street. Dial 3834

"HILL-CREST" BABY CHICKS — WE are Hatching more Leghorn Chicks than anticipated earlier, and can now accept some orders for early June delivery. June, prices are $2.00 per Hundred Less. G. A. Brethen, Telephone 250, Norwood.

7x Farmers' Needs and Supplies 7x

TWO 21-INCH HORSE COLLARS, LIKE new. 5 ring 31, Warsaw.

TRACTOR CUSTOM WORK. C. M. McInroy, 4511

WANTED, FARM TEAM, HARNESS and Wagon. Write particulars to Fred Harper, Bailieboro P. O.

EXPERT TRACTOR PLOUGHING AND Cultivating. Two Tractors at your service. 319 McDonnel or Telephone Art O'Halloran 7781.

ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION, FOR 4-Can to 16-Can Milk Coolers, completely installed, including all electrical wiring, and Hydro permits and inspection, $199.50 up. F. H. Johnston, corner of George and McDonnel. Telephone 4697.

8 Real Estate 8

LAKEFIELD—CREAM ITALIAN STUCco, in excellent condition, with city conveniences, large Double Living-room, Dining-room, Sunroom, Kitchen, Four Bedrooms, and Bathroom, double garage, about One Acre of Land, with good garden. Low taxes. Telephone 54, Lakefield.

FOR SALE

8 Real Estate 8

LOTS, HIGHWAY FRONTAGE, NEAR City. Dial 7045, Noon Hour.

Guest Home, 10 Rooms. Hot Water heat, large grounds. Investigate.

| | |
|---|---|
| South, 4 Rms, new, $500 down | $2,000 |
| Westcott, 6 Rms, sewer | $2,050 |
| Water, 8 Rms, make Duplex | $4,000 |
| Charlotte 7 Rms near Maitland | $5,000 |
| Park St., 7 Rms, near Weller | $5,300 |
| Benson, 8 Rms, oak fls., h.w.h. | $5,500 |

J. A. GIBBS, 141 Hunter St. 3843

$4,800—Nice Home, Dennistoun Avenue. Possession September 1.
$4,700—East City, 4 Apartments. Revenue $50.00, and Apt. for Owner.
$11,000—One of finest Homes in City. Possession September 1st.
Summer Cottage, near Crowe's Landing. Furnished, boats, lights
For Rent—Several Summer Cottages for Season.

WALTER NUGENT
187 Charlotte Street Telephone 3040

EIGHT-ROOMED HOUSE, HARDWOOD floors, furnace, electric pump. One Acre Land, 10 minutes from bus line. Will Exchange for City Property. Telephone 9902.

Double House, Brick, Good Revenue $3,850
Brick, 7 Rooms, 3-piece bath, June 1. $3,700
Semi-Bungalow, 6 Rooms, modern $4,200
20 Acres, close to City, Brick House, barn, stone foundation, large orchard, running stream through pasture. Immediate possession $2,500

M. STOREY
374½ George St. Phone 6573

HOUSE AND LOT, IN NORWOOD, Charles Davey, Norwood.

Apartment House, Four Apartments, 4 Rooms each, well rented, East City. One vacant soon. A good investment $4,700
Good 6-Room House, with plumbing, central, bargain $1,900
One Nice Building Lot, on Third Avenue, close to Highway .... $100 cash
100-Acre Pasture Lot, 4 miles from City well fenced, lots of water $1,500
Number of other good Farms, good Buildings, al districts. See us for particulars.

P. E. RUTHERFORD
146 Hunter Dial 3602

Possession July 1st—
East 2½ Storey 7 Room Red Brick, A1 condition, oak floors, complete plumbing, furnace, large lot. $5,000
Possession June 1st—
South, 2 Storey 6 Room Brick, hardwood floors, complete plumbing, furnace, and garage $3,250

O'TOOLE BROS.
Real Estate and Insurance
184 Charlotte St Phone 9447

DESIRABLE SUMMER COTTAGE Property at Stoney Lake, between Burleigh Falls and Mount Julian. Good Buildings, consisting of Cottage, 4 Bedroom Cabins, Ice-house, and Outbuildings on acreage on Island. Apply McLaughlin, Fulton, Stinson & Anderson, 89 Kent Street West, Lindsay, Ontario.

FOR SALE, IN THE VILLAGE OF Grafton, New House. Possession soon. North Shore Realty Co. Ltd., Alger Building, Oshawa. Telephone 81

200 ACRES, ON LAKE, SMALL FARM. Timber and Wood. Tourist Lodge; good fishing and hunting. Telephone 9937, or write Box 164, Examiner

MODERN DUPLEX. INVESTMENT allows for Free Apartment. Telephone 7779

$4,600—Nice Brick Residence, Dennistoun Avenue. Lovely lot. Possession September 1

WHY NOT TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE NEW N. H. A. LOAN AT 4½%? Investigate the possibilities afforded by this low interest rate, with repayment on a monthly basis.

H. J. McCANNAN - JACK SINCLAIR
140 Simcoe St. Telephone 4246

Cottages for Sale or Rent

COTTAGES TO RENT, CHEMONG Lake. Telephone 4057.

FOR RENT—3 COTTAGES, NO LIGHTS two to three miles from City. Telephone 5012.

WANTED, SMALL COTTAGE OR CAbin, vicinity Kawartha Lakes; must be reasonable for cash. 229 Woodmount Avenue, Toronto.

COTTAGE TO RENT, ON UPPER Stoney Lake, fully equipped, main shore. Apply 162 Parkhill Road.

SMALL, WELL-BUILT, COMFORTABLY Furnished Cottage for Rent, Clear Lake, near Kawartha Park, Two Bedrooms, electricity. Reply 35 Langley Avenue, Toronto.

10 Used Cars 10

1941 CHEVROLET SEDAN, RADIO; 1941 Dodge Opera Coupe, Trades. 1937 Oldsmobile Sedan, 1937 Chrysler Coupe. R. Hopkins, Imperial Service Station, Lakefield. Telephone 124.

1930 PONTIAC COACH, TWO NEW tires. Fred Patton, Route 4, Peterborough.

CHRYSLER ROYAL COUPE, GOOD mechanical condition, good tires. 492 George Street N. (Saturday only).

1937 ZEPHYR COUPE, EXCELLENT tires. 250 Simcoe, 9 to 5 p.m.

1930 CHEVROLET COUPE. 530 Parnell.

1928 CHEVROLET COACH, GOOD condition, $100 cash. 549 Chamberlain

1933 V8 COUPE, WITH RUMBLE SEAT, radio, heater, new shocks, brakes, etc. Good tires, excellent condition throughout. Owner in Air Force. Must sell, bargain. 486 George Street (opposite Armouries).

1938 FORD HALF-TON PICK-UP Truck. 1932 Ford Coupe. 1930 Chevrolet Coach. Trade, terms. Brock Garage, 254 Brock.

10a Used Trucks 10a

1940 FORD ½-TON PICK-UP TRUCK, good as new. Dial 4511. 24 Cricket Place.

TO RENT

11 Miscellaneous 11

GARAGE, KING AND STEWART. Telephone 7293.

GARAGE. 480 SHERBROOKE STREET

ELECTROLUX CLEANER, COMPLETE by Day or Week. 4547.

11x Apartments to Rent 11x

MODERN 4-ROOM APARTMENT, CENtral, hardwood floors, Furnished or Unfurnished, garage. Immediate possession. Write Box 191, Examiner.

HEATED APARTMENT, FURNISHED, Unfurnished, garage, adults. 709 Water.

SMALL APARTMENT, EAST CITY; Two Girls preferred. Telephone 4511.

12 Rooms 12

TWO WARM, BRIGHT, UNFURNISHed Rooms, 3-piece bath on same floor. Vacant May 31. 805 Rubidge Street North.

TWO UNFURNISHED ROOMS, ADULTS only. 99 Aylmer

COSY TWO OR THREE ROOMED Suite, suit Business people, hot water heating, West residential. Write Box 192, Examiner.

TWO UNFURNISHED ROOMS, OR EXchange for Household Duties; no objection to one child. Telephone 3007.

TO RENT

12 Rooms 12

FURNISHED ROOM, SUITABLE FOR Girls. Dial 7518.

LARGE HOUSEKEEPING ROOM, WITH Sunporch, near Factories; Young Couple or Two Girls; Board if preferred. Telephone 3155.

BUSINESS OR PROFESSIONAL GIRL, to occupy a lovely Room in modern home, central; telephone, continuous hot water; Meals arranged. Write Box 182, Examiner

FURNISHED ROOMS FOR MEN. 417 Stewart.

FURNISHED ROOMS. 177 AYLMER.

FURNISHED ROOM, AND GARAGE, private entrance. Telephone 7411.

LIVING-ROOM, BEDROOM, AND KITchenette, Business Couple preferred. Furnished, and garage. 591 Water.

TWO UNFURNISHED ROOMS. 471 Albert Street. Telephone 4318.

ROOM FOR ONE OR TWO; MEALS arranged; near C.G.E. Telephone 7251.

LARGE, FURNISHED, HEATED, LIGHT Housekeeping Rooms, suitable for Two. 457 Gilmour, Upper Apartment.

OVERNIGHT ACCOMMODATION. TElephone 8319, after 5

WANTED

13a Apartments Wanted 13a

APARTMENT OR 3 OR 4 ROOMS, BY Married Couple, with one child. Telephone 6835.

13b Houses Wanted 13b

SIX-ROOM HOUSE OR LARGE DOWNstairs Apartment. Telephone 8320.

HOUSE OR UNFURNISHED APARTment. Would Exchange 5-Room Flat in Montreal. Telephone 7853.

HOUSE OR BUNGALOW, WOULD take any time; small adult family; reliable tenants. Dial 9376.

WILL PAY CASH FOR MODERN BUNgalow. What have you? Write Box 124, Examiner

14 Tourist Accommodation 14

ROOMS, OR OVERNIGHT ACCOMMOdation. 351 Charlotte. Dial 4885.

15 Miscellaneous 15

USED LAWN MOWERS, ANY CONDItion. Telephone 6884.

THE PETERBOROUGH METAL COMPANY

WE BUY SCRAP IRON AND METALS

HAY-FORK AND CAR FOR WOODEN Track. Write Box 183, Examiner

15 OR 16 FOOT SQUARE STERN SKIFF. Telephone 7151.

WANTED TO PURCHASE, FIVE SMALL Mantel-type Radios for Men's Messrooms in corvette 'Peterborough.' Have tried unsuccessfully to purchase from retail outlets, but Radios not available. Those having suitable Radios and willing to sell them for this purpose, apply Mr. Bert Crump, Radio Engineer, CHEX, Examiner Building.

HIGHEST CASH PRICES for OLD GOLD (in any form)

WARNE'S JEWELLERY STORE

349 George Street Telephone 5171

HOT PLATE. TELEPHONE 9049.

GENT'S BICYCLE, OUTBOARD MOTOR. Dial 7760, after 6.

PRIVATE PARTY WANTS GOOD USED Car, good tires not essential. Write Box 193, Examiner.

GOOD USED CAR, ABOUT $300. 278 Thomas.

BICYCLE, ANY CONDITION. TELEphone 5694

GOOD USED CAR, REGARDLESS OF tires; 6,000 Good Used Brick. Write Box 171, Examiner.

GIRL'S BICYCLE, IN GOOD CONDItion. Telephone 7937.

LAWN MOWER. DIAL 8849.

COMBINATION COAL AND GAS Range. Dial 8413.

FURS

Cash Paid for Your Old Fur Coat. Write Box 65, Examiner.

SMALL USED WAGON. DIAL 9612.

IRON, RAGS, FEATHERS, PAPER. Petersiel, Bethune and Hunter. Telephone 9403.

STOVES, FURNITURE. HUDSON. Telephone 65, Lakefield

POULTRY AND FEATHER TICKS PAY Highest Prices. M. Glshman. Dial 8298.

LIVE POULTRY WANTED — MARKET Prices. A. Lantin. Telephone 6297.

LIVE POULTRY — PAY HIGHEST Prices. Florence, 6823. 560 Homewood

STOVES AND FURNITURE WANTED. Telephone 4115—Nights 6294

LIVE POULTRY—MARKET PRICE. M. Katz. 6906. 192 Aylmer

HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR RAGS, Paper, Iron and Metals. J. Burfield. Dial 8368.

16 Teachers 16

BETHANY, ONT., DURHAM COUNTY, School Section, Manvers — Two Protestant Teachers Wanted. Senior Room Grades Seven to Ten, Junior Room Grades One to Six. Please state qualifications, experience, and salary expected. Duties commence September 5th. Apply F. W. Reynolds, Secretary-Treasurer, Bethany, Ontario.

PROTESTANT TEACHER FOR PUBLIC School Section No. 3, Township of Seymour. Duties to commence on September 1, 1944. This school is Hydro equipped. State salary. Apply to Douglas Rutherford, Secretary, R. R. No. 4, Campbellford, Ontario.

17 Help Wanted, Male or Female 17

CARETAKER AND MAID FOR GIRLS' Camp at Stoney Lake. Apply Selective Service. O-285.

EXPERIENCED OPERATOR OR HELPer for well-established Beauty Shop, in nearby town. Excellent working conditions; good wages. Apply Selective Service. O-288

LIFEGUARD

Male or female, for Municipal Swimming Beach at Inverlea Park for the Summer Season, beginning about June 15th. State age, qualifications, and salary. Applications received up to 5 o'clock, May 30th. No one on war work need apply.

Apply Employment and Selective Service Office, Barrie Building, Peterborough, Number 0-287.

WANTED

18 Help Wanted, Female 18

WOMAN TO HELP WITH HOUSEwork, from 10-2:30; Plain Cooking. Dial 3997. 544 Stewart.

WOMAN TO HELP WITH HOUSEcleaning. 7177. 179 Antrim.

CAPABLE WOMAN TO TAKE CHARGE of Home. Plain Cooking. Write Box 194, Examiner.

WANTED — GOOD HOUSEKEEPERS for Malton Women's Residence, housing 500 Industrial Workers. Two Free Meals Each Working Day. Good living accommodation. No scrubbing, no cooking. Apply Selective Service Office, Peterborough. Refer to C.R. 1073.

COOK FOR OLD PEOPLE'S HOME; good wages. Apply Selective Service Office. Refer to O-281

RELIABLE WOMAN FOR HOUSEwork; good home; must be capable of doing Plain Cooking. Apply 813 Water Street.

CLERK FOR GROCERY STORE, AGE 20-35; experience preferred, but not essential; good wages. Apply in writing or in person, to Selective Service Office. O-289.

INTELLIGENT YOUNG WOMAN, PREferably educated County Girl, to assist with Housework in Doctor's Home. Write Box 816, Peterborough

19 Help Wanted, Male 19

EXPERIENCED GENERAL TYPEWRITer Service Man; salary and commission. Apply Selective Service Office, Peterborough. O-246

MAN INTERESTED IN PRODUCE Business for Local Plant; experience not essential. Apply Selective Service. O-290.

BLACKSMITH FOR HORSESHOEING General Repair Shop. Apply Selective Service. O-283.

20 Employment Wanted 20

CAPABLE HOUSEKEEPER, ELDERLY. Good Cook, would like Work, part or whole time. Write Box 181, Examiner.

21 Boarders Wanted 21

ROOM AND BOARD FOR GIRL; ALL conveniences; 10 minutes to C.G.E. Dial 9227

BOARDING HOME FOR PENSIONER, reasonable. Telephone 6387.

ROOM AND BOARD, CENTRAL, HOT water. Telephone 5966.

ONE OR TWO GIRLS, HOME PRIVIleges. 218 Braidwood

WHO CAN DO IT

22b Painters, Decorators 22b

PAINTING AND REPAIR WORK. Telephone 9277.

EFFICIENT, SMART STYLING for HOME DECORATION

Interior and Exterior "Elastica Quality Goods"

HAROLD COLEMAN

Telephone 9922 336 George Street

COLEMAN BROS — "THE HOME OF Decorating." Established 1906. Telephone 4485. North of Brock Street.

PAPERHANGING AND PAINTING — Reasonable Prices. Hudson, Telephone 4514.

22f Miscellaneous 22f

WELLS DRILLED AND CASED, ANY locality. Prices reasonable. Write Box 151, Examiner.

GARDENS TO PLOW. 7781.

DUSTLESS FLOOR SANDING. — Graham 9007, Nights 8607.

LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED $1.00

Guaranteed to Cut, or Money Refunded

CHARLTON BROS.

LAWN MOWER SERVICE

Wolfe and Rubidge Streets

TELEPHONE 6884

BRICK, CEMENT WORK, STUCCOING, Brick Painting, Chimneys Rebuilt. 217½ Charlotte Street. Telephone 9836.

LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED — WE have the most Up-to-date Machinery. Satisfaction guaranteed. R. Harran's Cycle Shop. Dial 5925.

GARDENS TO PLOW. TELEPHONE 4511.

STORM WINDOWS REMOVED, WASHed. 634 Union

DUSTLESS FLOOR SANDING. William Higgins. Dial 6867.

22j Wood Cutting 22j

WOOD SAWING. CLIFF JEWELL. Telephone 4241.

25x Dressmaking 25x

DRESSMAKING, TAILORING, ALTERations. Telephone 4936. 593 Harvey

Radio Service

RADIO SERVICE

Every Repair Guaranteed. Established 23 Years.

F. H. JOHNSTON

Corner George and McDonnel

TELEPHONE 4697

DELUXE RADIO SERVICE — ALL makes of Radios Repaired. All work guaranteed. Telephone 7142—Night 6384. 450 Rubidge Street.

Electric Sales and Service

ELECTRIC WORK — SERVICE AND Repairs. Telephone 6195

Carting

MOVING AND CARTING. PLEASE call before 8—Telephone 4113.

LOST

MAN'S BLUE BICYCLE, VICINITY Regent Theatre. Telephone 3446. Reward.

GREEN AND GREY ROWBOAT, OTonabee River, below Crawford's Grove. Dial 3172. Reward.

LICENCE PLATE 60T49. TELEPHONE 7850

Douro News

The bedspread for which a draw was held recently was won by Miss Mary Considine of 364 Rogers street, with ticket No. 7188.

Bernard Delaney of the R.C.A.F., who has been stationed at Trenton is home on furlough and will leave shortly for a new post.

Eighteen boys and eleven girls were confirmed Wednesday evening by His Lordship Bishop McDonald at St. Joseph's Church, Douro.

Mrs. Wilfred Gerard and small daughter of Peterborough are visiting at the home of her father, Arthur Carveth.

Joseph Sheehan of the R.C.A.F., who is stationed at St. Thomas spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sheehan.

IMPORTANT CALLS

| | |
|---|---|
| Police | 3535 |
| Fire Dept. | 5711 |
| Nicholls Hospital | 4691 |
| St. Joseph's Hospital | 3561 |
| Examiner | 4641 |

LOANS

$20 to $1,000 Loans FOR Married Couples WITHOUT ENDORSERS

QUICK, friendly, fuss-free service. Easy repayment terms.

OVER 100,000 SATISFIED CUSTOMERS

CAMPBELL

FINANCE CORPORATION LIMITED
Subsidiary of Industrial Acceptance Corporation Ltd.
169 Charlotte Street
F. M. Vivash, Branch Manager
(Above A. & P. Store) Phone 3520

LOANS

$20 TO $500

NO ENDORSERS NEEDED

| Cash Loan You Get | 4 Payments | 6 Payments | 10 Payments | 12 Payments | 15 Payments |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| $25 | $ 6.57 | $ 4.46 | $ 2.78 | $ 2.36 | |
| 50 | 13.13 | 8.93 | 5.57 | 4.73 | |
| 75 | 19.70 | 13.39 | 8.35 | 7.09 | |
| 100 | 26.26 | 17.85 | 11.13 | 9.46 | $ 7.78 |
| 125 | 32.83 | 22.32 | 13.92 | 11.82 | 9.73 |
| 150 | 39.39 | 26.78 | 16.70 | 14.18 | 11.67 |
| 200 | 52.52 | 35.71 | 22.27 | 18.91 | 15.57 |
| 300 | 78.79 | 53.56 | 33.40 | 28.37 | 23.35 |
| 500 | 130.60 | 88.64 | 55.10 | 46.78 | 38.36 |

Choose a monthly payment plan

To apply for a Household loan just give us a few facts about yourself and choose a convenient payment schedule. Payments shown repay loans in full and include charges at our reduced monthly rate of 2% on a loan balance of $300 or less and 1% on that part of a balance in excess of $300.

Household Finance

Corporation of Canada
Established in Canada 1928
Second Floor Lanafield Block
177 Charlotte St. (Opp. Loblaws)
M. E. Holt, Manager Phone 5841

PROFESSIONAL

44 Lawyers 44

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY — Barristers, Solicitors. Money to Loan. Offices 415-417 Water Street. Telephone 4661. E. A. Peck, K.C., F. D. Kerr, K.C., V. J. McElderry, K.C., Walter H. Howell.

JACOB LOW — Barrister, etc. Mortgage Loans. Suite 1-2, 435 George Street (over Toronto Savings and Loan Co.). Telephone 7423 — Nights 6214

ELLIOTT, PHILP & CHANDLER—Barristers, etc. Money to Loan. Offices, Kresge Building. Telephone 6675. A. L. Elliott, K.C., W. R. Philp, B.A., R. J. Chandler, B.A.

P. D. SCOLLARD—Barrister, Solicitor. Bank of Toronto Building. Telephone 9939.

JOHN A. BRADSHAW — Barrister and Solicitor. 360 Water. Telephone 9884.

Chiropractors

M. C. GOODWIN, CHIROPRACTOR and Drugless Therapist. 108 Barrie Building, 312 George. Telephone 8795 and 5865.

AUCTION SALES

GORDON HANCOCK, LICENSED AUCtioneer and Valuator. Telephone 5021.

J. H. MILES, AUCTIONEER AND VALuator. Office 211 Hunter. Dial 4115, Residence 9122. 25 Years' Successful Selling and Valuating.

FOR MRS. J. GRANDY, ¼ MILE WEST of Springville, Tuesday, May 23rd, at 1:30: Household Effects, including Good Cook Stove, Living-room Furniture, Sewing Machine, Beds, Chairs, Tables, Rugs, Sealers, Canned Fruit and Pickles, many other articles.—Gordon Hancock, Auctioneer. Telephone 5021.

Girl Wounded On Italian Front

By GEORGE TUCKER
Associated Press War Correspondent

EIGHTH EVACUATION HOSPITAL, 5th Army Front, Italy, May 19 — (AP) — Our most surprising battle casualty came in at 6 p.m. last night.

As the litter was placed gently on a pair of wooden horses in the receiving ward where all casualties are identified and registered, the wounded warrior casually reached up and removed a cloth overseas cap and a wealth of chestnut hair fell out.

"My God, its a girl," a ward attendant cried, and all along the ward the ejeculation echoed: "It's a girl, it's a girl."

Indeed it was a girl, the first girl casualty of the battle. She was a French ambulance driver and she had been shot as she drove into the battle zone beyond Spigno.

"I guess I got on the wrong road," she explained.

DUTCH LOOK AHEAD

LONDON — (CP) — The Netherlands East Indies Government has ordered 30 1,000-ton coastal vessels for use in the N. E. I. during and after the liberation, reports Vrij Nederland, Netherlands newspaper published in London. The ships are to be delivered at the end of this year.

General Orders From Malta Pipes For Men

By DOUGLAS AMARON
Canadian Press War Correspondent

WITH THE CANADIAN CORPS IN ITALY, May 19 ((CP)—The pipe shortage in Italy was acute and soldiers who had never smoked them before were turning to cigarettes.

Lt.-Gen. Sir Oliver Leese, 8th Army commander, heard this complaint as he visited the divisions under his command. Wasn't Malta, he thought, the home of pipes, and wasn't his friend Lord Gort, Governor General of Malta?

So it happened that Gen. Leese wrote Lord Gort, whom he served as deputy chief of general staff in France in 1940, and ordered 1,000 pipes to distribute among the troops on his visits. It was the sort of thoughtfulness one has come to expect from the tall guardsman who commands Britain's most famous army.

Canadians know Gen. Leese well for he has been a frequent visitor to front and rear areas of the 1st Canadian Corps. Driving his own open car, he has toured the lines of the infantry, the artillery and armored troops.

His visit to a medium battery, when he was asked for a new gun by Sgt. Harry Trueman of Seeley's Bay., Ont., has been reported widely. The gun was delivered a few days later and members of his staff say Gen. Leese was as happy as a schoolboy when his promise was fulfilled. His chief regret is that he cannot spend more time with the troops.

Subordinates Run Show

He lets his subordinate commanders run their own shows. In consequence when divisional generals come to him with problems they are matters which require serious deliberation and a responsible decision.

Gen. Leese lives at the 8th Army's tactical headquarters which usually can be found handy to the front, sometimes within shell range of the enemy. Neat, comfortable caravans, made in an army workshop are the general's office and sleeping quarters.

Frequently, Gen. Leese invites war correspondents to tea, two or three at a time. He always goes out of his way to speak to newspapermen and in consequence is well liked by them.

Gen. Leese is the son of a baronet, graduate of Eton and Oxford. He joined the Coldstream Guards in 1914, served in France, was severely wounded three times and was awarded the Distinguished Service Order as a subaltern. Between wars he was adjutant and later commanded a battalion of Coldstreamers.

During this war, after various commands, he was appointed in September, 1942, as commander of the 30th Corps under Gen. Montgomery and held this command through all the 8th Army's fighting from El Alamein on. The 1st Canadian Division was part of his corps when it invaded Sicily 10 months ago.

Falls 6 Storeys From Hotel Room

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP) — Donald McCrimmon, 61 year old Brockville, Ont., businessman, was killed instantly early to-day when he fell from his sixth floor room in a downtown hotel (King Edward). Police said they believed he was walking in his sleep.

Mr. McCrimmon, described by police as a tobacco dealer well known throughout Eastern Ontario, was attending a convention of Ontario tobacco dealers at the hotel and had gone to bed early.

Early to-day hotel employees heard a loud crash and they found his pyjama-clad body lying on the first floor roof. Coroner J. Louden said death was due to a fractured skull and internal injuries.

No Kitchen For Her

EAST HARTFORD, Conn., May 19—(AP).—Mrs. Myrtle Cleveland, who washes locomotive cab windows at the New Haven railroad roundhouse here, was asked about her post-war plans. "Well," she said, "Diesel engines will be taking the place of these locomotives after the war—and there's a lot more window space to be cleaned in them."

A Sure Winner

LOS ANGELES, May 19 — (AP).—The radio comics are fond of cracks about what they think Bing Crosby's horses should be doing, but Eben Coe, a former singer who also owns a stableful of ponies, has put the idea to work. Coe has been granted a permit to operate horse-drawn cabs in Los Angeles and Hollywood. It's the first time in 20 years that dobbin has appeared here in a transportational role.

Doctor Performs Operation On Rough Sea

A NORTHERN IRELAND NAVAL BASE, May 19.— (CP Cable.)— A successful appendectory was performed under difficult conditions between U-boat actions by Surgeon Lieut. A. K. Mighton, R.C.N.V.R., of Hamilton, Ont., when his ship, the frigate Affleck, with other new frigates of the Royal Navy scored two "kills" on their first brush with ene my submarines in the North Atlantic.

The action was announced Wednesday night by the Admiralty in London. A communique said two U-boats were forced to the surface by depth bombs and then sunk by gunfire. Seventeen survivors were rescued. One of the frigates, the Gould, was lost.

Aboard the Affleck, rejoicing over the ship's first kill was dimmed by the serious illness of Able Seaman C. Prew. An urgent operation was necessary but there was not enough anaesthetic aboard the Affleck.

The sea was so rough and the Affleck was rolling so heavily it was impossible for the frigate Gore, third member of the sub-hunting flotilla, to come alongside. A line was fired to the Affleck and anaesthetics were hauled across in a bucket. With the aid of two lieutenants, Mighton performed the operation.

The Affleck crowned its success by bagging a second submarine.

And when the vessel made port here, Mighton was handed a telegram announcing that his wife had given birth to a daughter.

Indian Student Found In River

YONKERS, N.Y., May 19.—(AP). The body of Valsa Matthai, wealthy 22-year-old Indian student missing from Columbia University nearly two months, was found in the Hudson river last night but circumstances of her death remained a mystery.

Edwin M. Huntington, acting Westchester medical examiner, said the Bombay, India, girl, who disappeared from a Riverside Drive dormitory in New York during a predawn snowstorm March 20 had died of drowning.

The medical examiner said no bruises or marks of violence were found on her body and remarked that it would be impossible to detect any traces of poison in a body which had been in the river so long.

Object of one of the most intensive searches in New York police history since her disappearance, Miss Matthai was the daughter of John Matthai, head of the Tata Chemical Company, of Bombay.

Victory Loan Canvass Brings In $2,331,500

LINDSAY, May 19.—(ENS).—Figures released at the Victory Loan headquarters show that for the sixth time the counties of Victoria and Haliburton succeeded in not only reaching a very high objective, but went sailing over the top to win new laurels in patriotic endeavor.

Returns are still straggling in from the banks but the following figures tell the story:

The total objective for Victoria and Haliburton was $2,265,000. The unit obtained the total of $2,331,500, with all returns not yet in.

In the town of Lindsay (including the township of Ops) the objective was set at $900,000 but a determined effort was made to hit the million dollar mark and the actual figure now totals $1,003,000. The special names objective totalled $350,000 and the total reached amounted to $365,000.

Papers Laud Clear-Cut Talk

LONDON, May 18 — (CP-Cable) — The British press today greeted the declaration issued at the close of the Commonwealth Prime Ministers Conference as an affirmation of commonwealth unity and a proclamation of faith in its ideals.

"As an affirmation of war purpose," said the Manchester Guardian, "it will rank with the Atlantic Charter and the Moscow declaration. Now that the conference is over we may assume that the British government will feel able to make a stronger contribution to United Nations policy than in recent months has seemed to do."

The Daily Herald hailed the declaration as clarification that said the conquered countries will be free to decide "their future form of democratic government."

The paper said: "Here is language more precise than that which is used in the Atlantic Charter . . . it is right, therefore, that peoples should know the mind of the British Commonwealth, that our friendship cannot be given anti-Democratic regimes."

The Times of London described the conference as "a notably multilateral conference, in the sense that the United Kingdom has exercised no monopoly of the initiative."

MICROSCOPIC PLANT

The smallest known flowering plant in the world is watermeal, measuring about 1/32 of an inch in diameter.

SALLY'S SALLIES

Registered U. S. Patent Office

"I thought you'd give up fighting, Tony, when you got into the service."

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

READING HIS MIND

READING AN opponent's mind —and even doing it in advance—is often possible at the bridge table. In fact, doing that is the basis of many, if not most, deceptive plays. You can tell just what a certain opponent will think if you do a certain thing, and therefore know what he will do. That does not necessarily depend on any previous knowledge of that particular person, but only on bridge knowledge in general and the way that bridge players react in certain situations.

North: ♠ A 7 6 5 2 ♥ A K 7 4 ♦ Q ♣ A Q 7

West: ♠ K J 10 8 4 ♥ None ♦ 7 5 3 ♣ J 10 9 8 2

East: ♠ 3 ♥ Q J 8 2 ♦ 9 8 6 4 ♣ K 5 4 3

South: ♠ Q 9 ♥ 10 9 6 5 3 ♦ A K J 10 2 ♣ 6

(Dealer: East. North-South vulnerable.)

| East | South | West | North |
|---|---|---|---|
| Pass | Pass | 1 ♠ | Dbl |
| Pass | 3 ♥ | Pass | 5 ♥ |
| Pass | 6 ♥ | Pass | Pass |
| Dbl | | | |

West assumed that his partner's business double indicated readiness for a lead of the suit he had originally bid as a third-hand semi-psychic. So he picked the top card of it, his spade K. What trouble that caused. It was won by the A, and the declarer realized that East would surely think West had led from a combination which also included the Q.

Taking advantage of that, and sure that West had at least five, therefore East no more, the declarer scored his heart A and then led the spade 2 from the dummy. Sure enough, East fell for it. Certain his partner had the Q, he put on his club 5. A diamond would have been better, as we shall later see. Poor East was amazed when South produced the Q to take that trick.

Followed a diamond to the Q, the club A, club 7 on which East played the K and got it ruffed, the diamond A and K, a diamond ruffed by the heart 4, the club Q for discard of South's last diamond, and then East was thrown in by a spade from dummy. Having only his hearts, the Q, J and 8, he used one of his honors and had to lead back into the combination tenace consisting of South's 10-9 and North's K-7. So he got only one trick.

If East, failing to ruff the second spade, had discarded a diamond instead of a club, he could have later ruffed the fourth diamond. It required plenty of mistakes to enable South to score his otherwise impossible contract.

* * *

Tomorrow's Problem

North: ♠ 7 5 ♥ 9 5 ♦ A 10 8 5 3 ♣ J 9 8 3

West: ♠ J 4 3 ♥ J 10 7 4 ♦ J 9 ♣ 10 6 4 2

East: ♠ A 10 6 2 ♥ A Q 6 2 ♦ Q 6 ♣ K Q 5

South: ♠ K Q 9 8 ♥ K 8 3 ♦ K 7 4 2 ♣ A 7

(Dealer: South. North-South vulnerable.)

What is usually the worst possible suit to lead when the declarer and his partner had both bid suits?

DAILY CROSSWORD

ACROSS
1. Expression of sorrow
5. Facts
9. To be coquettish
10. Immature seed
12. Young eel
13. Skin disorder
14. River (Eng.)
15. Evening before a holiday
17. River (Swiss)
18. Lift
20. Sweeping implements
23. Grate
27. Merits
28. House of a lord
29. Looked askance
30. Readily
31. Silk scarf (Eccl.)
33. Lofty mountain
36. Constellation
37. Thin silk (Chin.)
40. Engraver's tool
42. Bury
44. Together
45. Edges
46. To load
47. Subsides

DOWN
1. Confederate
2. Existing
3. Part of "to be"
4. Bodies of water
5. Rounded roofs
6. Topaz humming bird
7. Prickly pear
8. Sea weed
9. Not many
11. Ever (poet.)
16. Force
18. Last movement of sonata
19. Rub out
20. Insect
21. Beam
22. Coin (Swedish)
24. Cuckoo
25. The sun
26. Lever
28. Feeling of discomfort
30. Organ of hearing
32. To train, a telescope
33. Sleeveless garment
34. Soothe
35. Malayan boat
37. Pierce
38. Borders of garments
39. Land-measures
41. India (poet.)
43. Beak of a bird

CASH FROM HOSEA LILAC
OMIT DAPPLE
BED AUK ELA
STEEPLE AS KEY FIRE
FREED FENDS
LAND BOA
AD WARRIOR
VIM ARM ORE
OCEANS SNAP
RATED TOILS
LESS ONCE

5-19

Yesterday's Answer

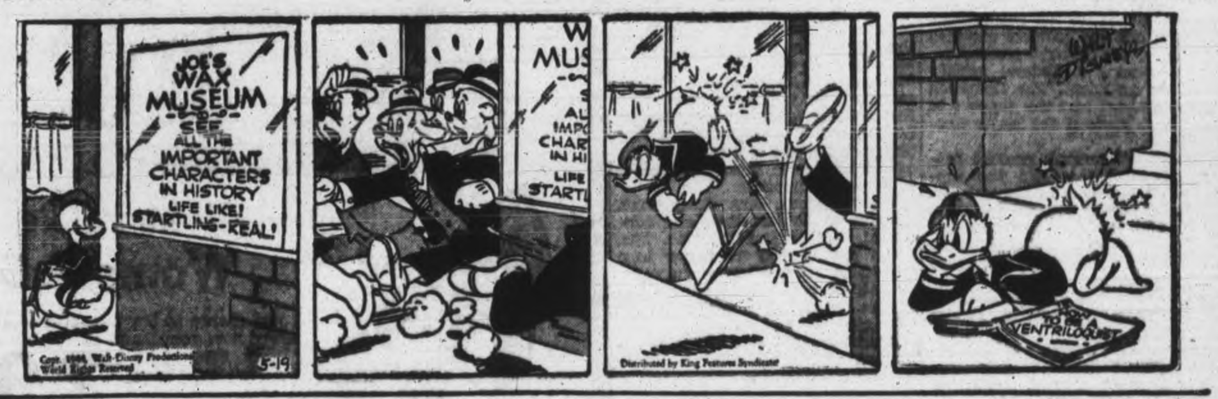
ROOM AND BOARD — By Gene Ahern

TERRY AND THE PIRATES — By Milton Caniff

LI'L ABNER — By Al Capp

HENRY — By Carl Anderson

DONALD DUCK — By Walt Disney



BLONDIE — By Chic Young

MUGGS AND SKEETER — By Wally Bishop

BRICK BRADFORD — By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

TILLIE THE TOILER — By Russ Westover

Liberals Head 6 Governments In Saskatchewan

REGINA, May 19 — (CP). — When Saskatchewan voters go to the polls on June 15 to elect a Provincial Government, they will be choosing the Province's eighth administration since 1905 when Saskatchewan became a province.

Since that time, the Liberals held office during six of the seven terms. The only exception was the Government led by Dr. J. T. M. Anderson between 1929-34. A Conservative, Dr. Anderson headed a Co-operative Government supported by 24 Conservatives, four Progressives, and six Independents.

At that, the Liberals were not defeated by any one group in the 1929 election. They actually obtained the largest group in the Legislature—28—but failed to obtain an over-all majority over all other successful candidates. The Liberals at that time were headed by Hon. J. G. Gardiner, now Federal Minister of Agriculture.

Mr. Gardiner, however, staged a victorious return in 1934, capturing 50 seats in the then 55-member House. The other five were taken by the Farmer-Labor group, later to become the C.C.F. Party. Mr. Gardiner held office until late in 1935 when he accepted the Federal Cabinet post. He was succeeded by W. J. Patterson, the present Premier.

Scott First Premier.

Hon. Walter Scott was Saskatchewan's first Premier. A Liberal, he was appointed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, then Canadian Prime Minister, when the province was granted autonomy.

The first provincial election was held on December 13, 1905, when Scott was opposed by Frederick Haultain, head of a Provincial Rights Party, composed mostly of Conservatives. The issue was control of natural resources. The Liberals won and Scott held office until 1916.

Haultain, later Sir Frederick Haultain, Chief Justice of Saskatchewan, had been Premier of the North-West Territories. He had demanded control of natural resources when the province obtained autonomy. Sir Wilfrid Laurier refused, claiming a Federal subsidy would be sufficient. The Dominion Prime Minister had the support of Scott, who made it the major election issue.

Premier Patterson's present Liberal administration had the support of 33 members in the last session of the 52-seat House, the C.C.F. formed the official Opposition with 10 and the Social Credit and Unity Parties held two seats each. Five were vacant.

Shut out in the 1934 election, the Conservatives suffered a similar fate in 1938.

The Province's Premiers and administrators follow:

Walter Scott, Liberal, September 5, 1905, to October 19, 1916.

W. M. Martin, Liberal, October 20, 1916, to April 5, 1922.

C. A. Dunning, Liberal, April 5, 1922, to February 26, 1926.

J. G. Gardiner, Liberal, February 26, 1926, to September 9, 1929.

J. T. M. Anderson, Co-operative, September 9, 1929, to July 19, 1934.

J. G. Gardiner, Liberal, July 19, 1934, to November 1, 1935.

W. J. Patterson, Liberal, November 1, 1935, to present.

Trees Injected

SHRUB OAK, N.Y., May 19 (AP).—A tavern owner and a chauffeur were free under $200 bail today accused of injecting saltpetre into trees on state-owned land to halt the growth of leaves which obscured the roadhouse from passing motorists. State police said Frank Dietrick, owner of the tavern off the Eastern Parkway, hired Elmer Losee for $10 to make the injections in two large maples and an elm. The men charged with malicious mischief, await further police action.

PAL
COMFORT
PAL BLADES ARE LEATHER-STROPPED for Extra KEENNESS
5 FOR 10¢

Groggy!
Grogginess is nature's warning that your system needs attention.
Sluggish kidneys can cause backaches, sleepless nights. Take GIN PILLS, the reliable remedy favoured by thousands—sold on a "relief or money back" basis.
Regular size, 40 Pills
Large size, 80 Pills
(In U.S. ask for "Gino Pills")
GIN PILLS FOR THE KIDNEYS

SKF CHIEF—William L. Batt president of the Philadelphia SKF Industries plant, Philadelphia. He denies there was any "Nazi control" of Swedish SKF or that any part of the American production of SKF was helping the enemy. The U.S. government is investigating connection between the U.S. and the Swedish SKF plants in its effort to prevent shipments by SKF of ball bearings to Germany from Sweden.

Bible Mothers Knox WMS Topic

HAVELOCK, May 19—(ENS)—Using as her topic "Mothers of the Bible," an interesting talk was given by Mrs. A. S. Thompson at Knox Women's Mssionary meeting, at the home of Mrs. Robert Buchanan.

On the subject of Mothers, the Bible has a good deal to say, since a good Mother in Israel was honored and held in high esteem, but in ancient times in heathen lands, women were often degraded and enslaved she pointed out. All through the Bible woman was given her rightful place as a help-mate to man, as God intended she should be. God decreed that incidents in the lives of many mothers should be corded in the Bible, said Mrs. Thompson. A brief review of several mothers were given, namely—Eve, mother of the race; Sarah, Leah and Rachel; Deborah, a prophetess Ruth and Naomi; Mary, the mother of Jesus; Elizabeth, mother of John the Baptist.

The president, Mrs. Colquohoun, presided at the meeting, and conducted the devotional period. Mrs. Harry Krantz read the prayer from the "Glad Tidings." It was decided to hold a pot-luck supper in the church for the June meeting, when the quilt for the bale will be quilted. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Obituary

G. JEWELL

LINDSAY, May 19—(ENS)—Word was received in Lindsay Tuesday of the death in Toronto of a former resident of this town, G. Jewell. At one time the late Mr. Jewell conducted the restaurant in connection with the former Elsmure Hotel, on Kent street. Mrs. Jack Stephens of Lindsay is a daughter of the late Mr. Jewell and is a present residing in Toronto.

CHARLES E. WAY

LINDSAY, May 19—(ENS)—The funeral of the late Charles Edwin Way, which was attended by a large number of fellow employees from the Dominion Arsenal.

The late Mr. Way was born in Lindsay, a son of the late John Edwin Way and Sidwell Growden, and following public school he took up the trade of a moulder, serving his apprenticeship with the Sylvester Manufacturing Company. Later he moved to Orillia and Belleville where he held positions along his chosen trade. Some five years ago he returned to Lindsay and at the time of his death was engaged in war work at the Arsenal.

Six fellow workers bore the remains of their colleague to their last resting place in Riverside cemetery. Service was held at the chapel, with Rev. C. D. Cross of St. Paul's Anglican Church, in charge.

Surviving are his devoted wife, formerly Sylvia Roach, and three children: Mrs. Harry (Marjory) Givin, John and Patricia in Lindsay; also three sisters, Miss E. L. Way, Mrs. S. S. Pilling and Mrs. J. E. Blewett.

STRANGE POWER

Rubies were believed in ancient times to have the power to stop bleeding.

DRAFT U.S. WOMEN?—If enlistments in the U.S. Women's Army Corps don't pick up, U.S. Representative Emanuel Celler, shown here, is ready to take up the slack with a "draft the women" amendment to the Selective Service Act. The New York congressman gives only until June 1 for the ladies to flock to the colors.

C.D.S. WEEK-END FEATURES

STORE HOURS:
9 A.M. to 6 P.M.; Wednesday, 9 a.m. to 12.30 Noon
DIAL 5721

Buy More War Savings Stamps.

Cool and Neat

Sport Shirts

A sport shirt of finely woven broadcloths and spun rayons that launders easily. Short sleeves, yoke shoulders, fitted waist styles. Some wtih convertible necklines. A good choice of colours to choose from. Sizes 12 to 20.

Ea. 1.98

—Main Floor, C.D.S

Helena Rubinstein Aquacade Leg Lotion

FOR SHEER LEG FLATTERY

These streamlined "Cosmetic Stockings" by Helena Rubinstein helps conceal tiny faults and blemishes, create a sleek enduring beauty that resists rain and water splashes . . . a smooth, golden-beige loveliness that looks supremely natural under any light. Easy to apply, quick-drying, economical.

4-oz. bottle 1.00

—Main Floor, C.D.S

Better Quality Dresses

That Go Places So Gracefully

One and two piece styles in pretty printed rayons, plain and printed chiffons, with gored and pleated skirts, plain shades in black only, prints in smart Summer pastel shades. Sizes 18 to 44, 16½ to 24½.

Ea. 8.95 to 14.95

—Second Floor, C.D.S.

Here's a Wide Choice of

Women's Sport Anklets

Snug-fitting and turn-down tops cotton, cotton and wool, mercerized cotton in lot, a wide colour assortment. Sizes 8½ to 10 in lot.

Pair .19 to .59

—Main Floor, C.D.S

Permanent Wave Set

Convenient, economical machineless Permanent Wave set. No heat or electricity necessary. Contains shampoo, hair rinse, curlers, wave set, curling lotion, heavy waxed paper and net. No net with small size.

Set with 25 curlers ........ .69

Set with 50 curlers ...... 1.15

—Main Floor, C.D.S

Clearance! Reg. $4.00 to $5.50

Women's Style Shoes

A real chance to buy a good shoe at a saving price. Black and brown pumps, ties, round and square toe styles, cuban and medium high heels. Sizes in lot 5 to 9. Widths AAC.

2.98 and 3.98

—Main Floor, C.D.S

EATON'S Fur Expert Here

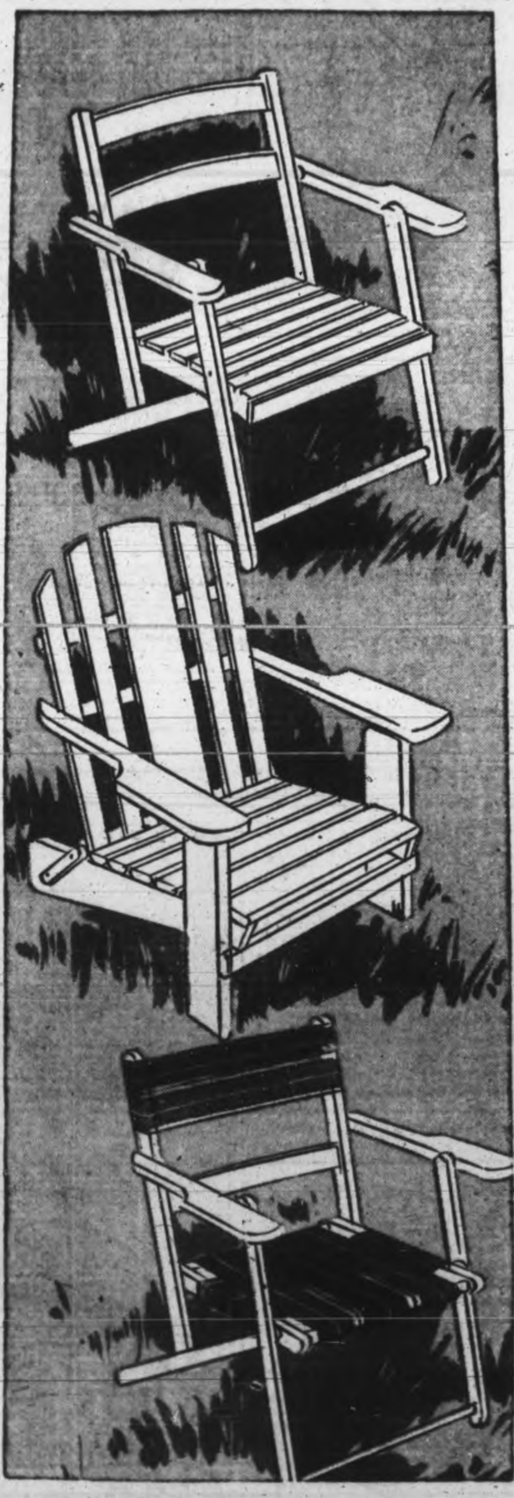
For the last time this Season!

EATON'S fur expert has a background of fine work to recommend him. Years of experience in handling choice pelts and of study in fine fur design and craftsmanship equip him to give you valuable advice and assistance. When choosing furs . . . a coat, a jacket, a neckpiece . . . you have an important decision to make. Our fur expert is at your service for the last time this season, backed by his own worth and the EATON guarantee of "Goods Satisfactory or Money Refunded".



Front-Fold

Porch Chairs

Splendid buys for porch or lawn —cool and comfortable in varnish finish birch with slat back and seat. Fold up neatly for carrying or storing away. Moderately priced for all you people who prefer an all-wood chair.

Each 1.59

Laurentian Style

CHAIRS

No garden or terrace is really complete without one or two of these big, cool, comfortable lounging style chairs. Have pleasantly sloping seat and back, wide, restful arms. Made of clear, unfinished hardwood, ready to paint a nice bright red or restful green. Fold flat for storing when not in use.

Each 2.98

Natural Finished

Porch Chairs

Prices that mean savings on these handy porch chairs—you'll want several. They're light, comfortable, easy to fold and carry. The frame is of natural finished hardwood. Painted canvas, arm rest, too.

Each 1.98

Camp Stools

Handy for home or cottage use, folds up and fits in small space.

Each .65 & .89

Camp Cots

Sturdy made of Hesson-cloth with hardwood frame.

Each 3.75

—Basement, C.D.S.

Men's Cotton

Knitted Sport Jerseys

Crew or Open Neck Styles

Cool summer jerseys that is always a good choice for sportswear. Colorful horizontal stripes, combining low price with neat appearance and general summer usefulness. Colors brown, blue, green and red with contrasting colours. Sizes small, medium and large. Each ........ .98

Boys' Summer

Work Shirts

Made of strong tightly-spun cotton yarns in a close weave. Full cut, one breast pocket. Blue and khaki. Sizes 12 to 13½. Each ..... .79

Men's Poplin

Windbreakers

Lightweight for summer sportswear. Water repellent, zipper front, two patch pockets. Sand shade only. Sizes 36 to 44. Each 3.79

—Main Floor, C.D.S.

HOUSEWARES IN THE BASEMENT

Handy Double Boiler
Triple coat enamel in white with black trim. About 1½ pint size. Each ........ 2.25

Blue Enamel Kettle
A sturdy kettle that is so serviceable around the home. About 8 quart size with strong bale handle. Each ........ 1.29

Large Glass Reamer
Complete with handle. Can also be used as a jelly mould. Each ........ .29

Clearance Of Shrubs
Ready to plant shrubs in a good assortment of golden elder, snowberry, honeysuckle, mock orange and a variety of Spirae. Special ...... 3 for 1.00

Glass Water Set
Set of seven pieces in attractive pressed glass. Large size pitcher. 6 glasses with foot. Set ........ 1.39

Covered Enamel Pail
You can put this pail to many uses. Made of heavy white enamel with good strong handle. Each 2.89

—Basement, C.D.S.

See the Alabastine Co. Water Paint Demonstration Monday and Tuesday

Little Girls' Butcher Boy

Play Suits

A jolly play pyjama suit, with trousers and jacket top of cotton linene. Button-front top has short sleeves, printed piping, "pussy-cat" pocket. Trousers with bib and suspender straps. Colours wine, royal blue, navy, brown, copen. Sizes 2 to 5.

Special, each 1.49

—Second Floor, C.D.S.

Printed

Rayon Jersey

For "Date" Dresses

There's another trend this summer and that's to small patterned prints, flooded with colour. And our newest rayon jersey has them in lush garden shades. Then for dramatic designs in the important short "after-five" dresses take to the medium or large florals, the "black stencil" designs, allover leafs, "patchwork" patterns, bubbles, or butterfly paisley type. Wealth of color. About 38 inches wide.

Priced from, Yard 2.50 to 2.95

—Second Floor, C.D.S.

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Telephones
Examiner ................4641
CHEX ................4641
Nights after 6 p.m., Sundays, Holidays
Examiner ................4641
CHEX ................4643

Evening Examiner
Peterborough

NIGHT FINAL

VOL. LXXXIX; No. 119 — WEATHER Warmer on Sunday. — PETERBOROUGH, SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1944 — ★★ — PRICE FOUR CENTS

ALLIES BREACH VAUNTED HITLER LINE

Bombs Rip Rail Networks At Many French Cities Aerial Offensive Renewed

Canadian Fliers Out In Force
125 Enemy Planes Downed
In Running Dog Fights On Friday

By W. W. HERCHER—Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 20—(AP).—The R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. in a strong renewal of the offensive against enemy railroad centres in occupied France, tore up networks of tracks at Boulogne, Orleans, LeMans and Tours last night, and fresh formations of Allied bombers continued the European assault in daylight.

The Air Ministry's communique reported British and Canadian bombers over France "in great strength," indicating possibly 750 heavy bombers were used and more than 3,000 long tons of explosives dropped.

In addition military objectives on the west coast of France were bombed. Fast flying Mosquitoes also attacked the German city of Cologne.

7 Craft Missing.

Seven aircraft were reported missing in the night's operations.

The Canadian bomber group were given two targets to hit in the night assault on the enemy-held continental coastal defences and sent what was described as "two fair-sized forces" out to plaster them with bombs The specific Canadian targets were not immediately made known.

All of the Canadian planes returned safely.

This morning wave after wave of Allied aircraft crossed the Dover Strait in hazy sunshine to renew the attack against German-occupied Europe. The German radio indicated some had already reached the Reich, warning of enemy fighters already over western Germany and going deeper.

American heavy bombers, possibly 250 strong, blasted three enemy airdromes in Northern France and the railroad yards at Reims to-day. Accompanied by "very strong' forces of escort fighters — estimated to number close to 1,000—the daylight bombers struck at Villacoublay fields near Paris and the Champagne field near Reims.

It was estimated the Allies had thrown 2,000 planes at German defences since midnight, most of them against targets in occupied France

The unusually large number of fighters accompanying the light force of heavy bombers in their morning mission indicated the Air Force Headquarters either anticipated heavier resistance from the Germans or planned possibly an ambitious ground strafing assault co-ordinated with the bombardment.

The Mediterranean Army Air Force sent heavy bombers, strongly escorted by fighters, against ports and bridges in Northern Italy while medium and light bombers operated behind the Hitler Line.

The great waves of R.A.F. and Canadian night bombers followed up the pounding given Berlin and Brunswick yesterday by 1,500 American bombers and fighters.

Allies Lose 35.

A total of 125 German planes were shot down yesterday at a cost of 26 bombers and 9 fighters.

A German news broadcast claimed 71 American planes, mostly four-engined bombers, were downed.

Railway yards at Boulogne, 70 miles across the Channel from London, were attacked previously the night of May 11. Tours, 145 miles south-west of Paris on the main railway line, and Le Mans, a vital link in the German supply lines 110 miles south-west of the former French capital, have been bombed repeatedly before.

A strategic air force bulletin said

BOMBS RIP RAIL
(Continued on Page 12, Column 3)

Victory Loan Reaches All Time High

OTTAWA, May 20 — (CP) — With returns still coming in, Canada's Sixth Victory Loan now has reached an all time high of $1,388,-?4,900, an increase of $24,623,300 over the amount received at this period of the Fifth Loan, War Finance Committee officials announced today. The three week drive for $1,-200,000,000 officially ended a week ago.

Total purchases by individuals now stand at $629,708,000, more than $43,000,000 in excess of the figure reached at the comparable period in the Fifth Loan. This figure reached at the comparable period in the Fifth Loan. This figure, according to a spokesman of the National War Finance Committee, was the most satisfactory feature of the returns.

Purchases of the large buyers such as corporate groups and companies was reported today as $758,-?16,900 compared to the objective of ?675,000,000.

More Individuals

Returns now show that more individuals participated in this Loan than ever before, a spokesman for the Finance Committee said. In the Fifth Loan for the comparable period there were 2,790,556 applications received. "To date in the Sixth Victory Loan we have received 2,-945,948 applications, an increase of 155,392,,.

Applications from personnel of the Armed Forces were increased to date by more than $9,866,750 over the figure they subscribed in the Fifth Loan. This is a magnificent record, the spokesman said, and clearly shows the determination of our fighting men to win this war as quickly as possible, both by supporting our Victory Loan and defeating the enemy on the battlefield.

The spokesman said it could be reasonably hoped that final figures in the Sixth Loan might reach around $1,400,000,000.

With overseas returns not yet complete, final figures as recorded by the navy at this time show the total applications from the Sixth Victory Loan are expected to exceed $5,500,000 which is over $2,-000,000 above their objective.

The army has announced a present total of $24,671,350 from 254,-086 applications with an objective for the Sixth Victory Loan set at $13,750,000.

With reports still incomplete the air force total stands at $17,230,-000, or 164 per cent. of its $10,-500,000 objective.

TWO YEARS TO REPLACE

CANTEBURY, England — (CP) — The valuable glass of Canterbury Cathedral, damaged by enemy action, is being repaired by 80-year-old Samuel Caldwell, cathedral glass expert who expects the work to take two years.

FIVE MEMBERS OF VALLEYFIELD LAID TO REST—Commodore C. R. H. Taylor, R.C.N., flag officer, Newfoundland (Right, with cane) is shown at the cemetery in St. John's, Nfld., where five members of the crew of the torpedoed frigate H.M.C.S. Valleyfield were buried with full naval honors. Officers and ratings were pall-bearers for the five flag-draped coffins.

Carrier Force Inflicts Heavy Damage

By C. YATES McDANIEL
Associated Press Staff Writer

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Southwest Pacific, May 20. —(AP). —A British-American aircraft carrier force heavily covered by units from the East Asian, Southwest and Central Pacific Commands, blasted Seroabaja shortly after dawn last Wednesday in the first ship-borne assault on Japan's principal Netherlands Indies base.

The Japanese air force and ground defences put up only minor resistance to nearly 100 Allied carrier planes. Heavy bombers from the Southwest Pacific followed up the carrier planes with a heavy blasting Wednesday night.

In the great operation deep into enemy-held regions of the Pacific the Japanese navy failed to offer the slightest resistance. It had a chance, presumably, to meet on this occasion the first sizeable Allied naval force to penetrate Eastern Netherlands waters since the Japanese won the battle of the Java sea two years ago.

The carrier-borne planes destroyed 19 enemy aircraft on the ground in the strike at Soerabaja, which is on Java to the northwest of Darwin, Australia.

Of the few enemy planes that accepted the Allied challenge, two were shot down.

While protecting fighters circled overhead the British-American carrier bombers scored direct hits on 10 vessels aggregating 35,000 tons. Only one ship was seen to blow up, but reports from the Fleet said others probably sank.

The greatest damage was inflicted around the harbor where an oil refinery and vital engineering works were wrecked and two floating docks were damaged. For this achievement the Allied force had to pay with only three planes and lost no surface vessels.

A Long Journey

STRATHROY, Ont., May 20 (CP). — A 2,089-mile rail journey ended yesterday for 16-year-old Leonard McAffery and a 13-year-old companion, both of Edmonton, who were taken from a freight car in the Canadian National Railways yard here by Police Chief George Tanton. The boys said they left their Edmonton homes April 21 when one of them found a wallet containing $21. They were taken to the Children's observation home here.

Five Of Crew Buried InNewfoundland

A NEWFOUNDLAND PORT, May 20—(CP)—Full naval honors, simple and dignified, were paid five member of the crew of the torpedoed frigate Valleyfield at a combined funeral attended by high-ranking officers and hundreds of fellow-sailors of the Royal Canadian Navy. They were the only bodies recovered.

In the chapel at the big R.C.N. barracks at this Atlantic base, two services were conducted by naval chaplains.

Roman Catholic rites were held for Ordnance Artificer Martin J. Hoffman, 22, Windsor, Ont., and Shipwright J. C. H. Therrien, 26, Cornwall, Ont. The officiating padre was Rev. Robert O'Donnell, St. John's, Nfld.

The Protestant rites were conducted for Lieut. Frank C. Reynolds, 31, Toronto; Supply Assistant William C. Burton, 26, New Westminster, B.C., whose mother lives in Steveston, B.C.; and Coder Archie W. Mills, 37, Cottam, Ont.

The Protestant chaplains were Rev. Horatio Todd, Ottawa, and Rev. J. E. Morgan, Heart's Delight, Nfld.

Horse-drawn hearses, driven by top-hatted drivers in the old Newfoundland funeral tradition, carried the five flag-draped coffins to the Joint Services cemetery on Blackmarsh road in St. John's. A naval band, led by PO. Laurence Frayne, Pine Falls Man., played the solemn notes of Chopin's funeral march, while a long retinue of naval officers and ratings slow-marched behind the hearses. Thousands of Newfoundland civilians watched the procession

Among those attending the chapel service and marching to the bur-

FIVE OF CREW
(Continued on Page 2, Column 6)

Convoy Battles Subs, Planes On Arctic Route

By LEO S. DISHER

WITH THE BRITISH FLEET IN NORTHERN WATERS, May 20—A British naval force, escorting one of the two largest convoys ever sent to Russia, recently sank two German submarines, probably sank two more and damaged others in the most smashing blow of the war against the Nazi undersea fleet in the Arctic.

The entire convoy of British, American and Netherlands merchant ships, carrying 250,000 tons of tanks, guns, planes and food, got through without loss after a series of battles fought in bitterly cold weather, but one British destroyer, the Mahratta, was sunk by a

CONVOY BATTLES
(Continued on Page 12, Column 1)

Burma Jap Base Hit On 3 Sides

By CHARLES A. GRUMICH
Associated Press Staff Writer

KANDY, Ceylon, May 20.—(AP). —The Japanese are being driven from besieged Myitkyina, chief Japanese base north of the Burma road, by Chinese and Americans closing in from three sides, Allied Headquarters announced to-day.

Allied lines were drawn about Myitkyina, strategic objective in the campaign to open a land route to China, when American marauders crossed the Irrawaddy river four miles below the city and closed one of its chief lines of communications.

On the Imphal-Kohima front of Eastern India, meanwhile, British forces suddenly turned the table on the Japanese by throwing a road-block across the enemy's line of communications near Jessami to the east of Kohima. To the southwest of Imphal Allied troops also advanced against "weak opposition" and occupied a number of enemy positions on the track leading to Silchar, Imphal's nearest railhead.

While one Allied force south of Myitkyina advanced to the Irrawaddy, occupied Zigyun village, and then crossed the stream and took the village of Katkyo, another force advanced on the city from Gharpate to the north.

The daily Allied communique said that in the Mogaung Valley above Myitkyina operations continued against trapped remnants of the Japanese Warong garrison. The Chinese 22nd division was reported holding a block across the Kamaing road south of Maladawng against enemy attacks.

Turkey Moves To Curb Plotters

ANKARA, May 20 — (AP). — President Ismet Inonu has announced discovery of a plot against the Turkish Republic, and he voiced the suspicion it was engineered by "foreigners."

Addressing a throng of 50,000 at a National Youth Day celebration yesterday, and the entire Turkish nation by radio, President Inonu apparently referred to the "Grey Wolf" or "Panturanian" Society, which other Turkish officials have contended was financed by Nazi funds.

Many members of the society have been arrested. They are expected to be court-martialed at Istanbul, where a form of military law has been in effect since 1940, and where more severe penalties can be invoked.

Inonu said Panturanians, who advocate consolidation and even annexation of outside territories inhabited by Turks, were responsible for some recent disturbances. He added it was possible that "it can never be proved that the plotters meant to serve outsiders, or had any connection with foreigners."

WAR BULLETINS

Survivors Tell Of Valleyfield Sinking In N. Atlantic

NEWFOUNDLAND: Survivors tell story of courage shown as frigate Valleyfield sinks in Atlantic.

• • • •

Pre-Invasion Aerial Blows In Full Swing Again

AERIAL: British bombers resume aerial offensive blasting rail centres across France. 125 Hun planes shot down Friday in daylight raid.

• • • •

Allies Advance Fast Across Italy

ITALY: Great Hitler Line outflanked as Gaeta and Itri fall to rampaging Allied forces in fast co-ordinated drive.

• • • •

Fall Of Myitkyina Expected Shortly

BURMA: Japanese garrison at Myitkyina being pressed on three sides by forces moving down Mogaung Valley.

• • • •

Great Offensive Imminent In Russia

RUSSIA: Women snipers aiding Soviet forces; heights captured at Vitebsk; big attack likely soon.

German Position Outflanked Gaeta Port and Itri Taken

NAPLES, May 20 — (CP) — British and Canadian Infantry and tanks were engaged today in the heavy fighting with German forces, attempting to knock out the last remants of the shredded Hitler Line, the Tyrrhenian sector of which was breached by 5th Army troops. The Germans in the Tyrrhenian sector fled to a new mountain line, anchored at Terracina on the Tyrrhenian and running northeast to Pico, after the Americans wiped out the last vestiges of the Hitler Line in that sector by taking the port of Gaeta and the vital road junction of Itri, on the Appian Way, 3½ miles to the northwest.

Farther north French troops ripped into the fortifications by taking Sant' Oliva.

The 8th Army shook the Hitler Line by putting under shattering attack the town of Aquino and the mountain stronghold of Pontecrovo, already in effect outflanked by the French.

(The German High Command reported the loss of Campodimele near the centre of the Hitler Line, slightly west of Nico, and within a few miles of the Pico-Terracina "switch line.")

"The Germans have been outmanoeuvred," an Allied staff officer said. "In 24 hours' fighting, the enemy has been bounced off the line he has spent months preparing."

The Germans in the Tyrrhenian sector fled to their new mountain line, leaving behind vast stores of equipment and battlefields littered with smashed guns, tanks and vehicles.

At Terracina, Allied warships shelled the town and roadways, starting fires after hitting a supply dump.

It was officially announced that the Germans, apparently to save Hitler's prestige, had transferred his name to new defence points closer to Rome than the area now being over-run.

The 5th Army forces which pushed into the Gaeta-Itri sector found smashed guns and vehicles, many dead animals and other evidence of destruction by Allied guns and by the enemy in his hasty flight.

Bombers Busy.

Strong forces of Allied bombers heavily attacked La Spezia, Livorno and Genoa, and targets in Terracina were bombarded successfully from the sea, the bullet said.

The Allies flew 2,270 sorties in their relentless attack on German-held ports.

"Giving the enemy no respite, Allied armies in Italy have pressed forward with great vigor all along the battlefront, and the battle for the Adolf Hitler Line has begun," said the official announcement.

"This swift movement, despite difficulties of terrain, has prevented the enemy from stabilizing his foremost line south of the Liri river.

"The 8th Army now is engaged in heavy fighting on the Adolf Hitler Line all along their front,' the communique said.

It is with the Britis h 8th Army advancing up the Liri Valley that Canadian troops are fighting.

The troops of the 5th Army have already captured commanding features in the Nazi fortifications south of the Liri, the communique said.

"The enemy is therefore now being forced back upon a switch line which runs approximately from Pico to Tellacina," it added.

"This switch line protects the flank of the enemy line across the Liri Valley."

King Sends Message To Youths Of Today Marking Observance Empire Youth Sunday

LONDON, May 20—(CP Cable) —The King, in a message made public yesterday in connection with the observance of Empire youth Sunday, May 21, said:

"At this crucial period in the fifth year of the war Empire Youth Sunday comes to remind the younger generation, in whose hands lie much of the ultimate shaping of the post-war world, of the great ideals which sustained the Empire in past trials and which we hand on through them to our children's children.

The message, sent to Lord Elton, chairman of the British committee for Empire Youth Sunday, added:

"Today, when the young people of the Empire express a sense of unity with the fellow-members of the great family of the British Commonwealth, we of the older generation are with them in spirit and prayer. May God Almighty bless them all."

The King's message was in reply to a message from the committee, which recalled that the Sunday ceremonial began in 1937, the year of the King's coronation.

Lord Athlone, Governor-General of Canada, sent a cable saying the young people of Canada were joining in the observance.

Allied Tanks Snap At Heels Of Huns Fleeing In Italy

By DOUGLAS AMARON—Canadian Press War Correspondent

WITH THE BRITISH 8TH ARMY IN ITALY, May 20—(CP Cable).—Canadian, British and Polish infantry and armor snapped at the heels of the retreating Germans today, driving them behind concrete fortifications of the Hitler Line in the 10th day of the Allied drive towards Rome. Canadian artillery also was in the battle. Canadian gunners fired some of the shells in the tremendous barrage which preceded the start of the Allied attack on the night of May 11 and the artillery is continuing to give the infantry close support.

Tanks and armored cars already have made contact with the Hitler Line at many points and infantry in the Liri Valley after a day and a half of fast pursuit is meeting the first stiff opposition since the Gustav Line was smashed.

Canadian infantry, whose presence in the Liri battlefront was disclosed yesterday, gained more ground in the drive along the southern half of the 8th Army's front. French-speaking Canadians south of Aquino airfield ran into stubborn resistance late yesterday while the Germans contested the advance of Ontario infantry on Pontecrovo with heavy shell and mortar fire.

Aquino is three miles northeast of Pontecorvo, between Pontecorvo and Piedimonte.

Canadians Keen

The Commander of the Canadians, watching the progress of his infantry from the heights overlooking the valley town of Pontecorvo, expressed satisfaction with the way the battle was going and said men were never keener nor in better shape.

IN PRISON BREAK?—Well-known Norwood flier, Flt. Lieut. Bruce Baker, is believed to have been one of the group of 47 prisoners who staged an escape from a German prisoner-of-war camp, March 22.

The Weather

Peterborough Temperatures:

Today:
Night low..35 Noon .....59
Yesterday:
Highest....59 Lowest....30
One Year Ago:
Highest....70 Lowest....47

Weather Forecast:

Georgian Bay — Moderate winds; fair and slightly warmer to-day and Sunday

Lower Lake Region — Fair and little warmer to-day. Sunday: Moderate to fresh winds; partly cloudy; showers in south-western counties; not much change in temperature.

Ottawa and Upper St Lawrence Valleys — Moderate winds; fair and slightly warmer to-day and Sunday.

Lake Superior — Moderate winds; fair and slightly warmer to-day Sunday: Moderate winds; partly cloudy; a few light scattered showers; not much change in temperature

Norwood Flier In Prison Break

It is believed that Flt. Lieut. Bruce Baker of Norwood, who has been a prisoner of war in a German camp near Dresden, where 47 men staged a break-out, is one of the men who is still at large or has been recaptured.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Baker, Norwood, received a letter this week dated March 10, containing the message that they were not to worry and he hoped to see them soon. A similar message has been received by families of several other men in this camp. The mass escape attempt took place March 22.

McQuesten Quits Park Position

HAMILTON, May 20 (CP)—T. B. McQuesten, former Ontario Minister of Highways announced today he has resigned from the Niagara Falls Parks Commission of which he has been chairman. The resignation came in response to a letter from Premier Drew which suggested "that the present members of the Board make it possible for us to carry out reorganization."

It was reported here that the entire board is resigning. One member, W. L. Houck of Niagara Falls, submitted his resignation several weeks ago explaining that he did so as a protest against board policies.

The Premiers letter to Mr. McQuesten said, in part:—

"The Government has become impressed with the necessity for a continuous and direct contact with the Niagara Parks Commisson and has come to the conclusion that it is desirable that the chairman of the Parks Commission be a member of the government.

"I wish to assure you that we appreciate the long years of service you have given to this work, and have been impressed with the desire you have indicated to co-operate

McQUESTEN QUITS
(Continued on page 2, column 4)

De Valera Has Big Edge

Party Only One With Enough Candidates

DUBLIN, May 20 (CP Cable) — With nominations completed for neutral Eire's May 30 election, Prime Minister Eamon De Valera's Fianna Fail party emerged today as the only one with a sufficient number of candidates nominated to enable attainment of a majority in the new Dail.

Of the 247 candidates nominated yesterday for the 138 Dail seats, 96 represented the government party and two were returned unopposed. Gen. Richard Mulcahy's Fine Gael party, the principal opposition group, named 54 candidates and one of these was returned by acclamation.

Other nominations were: Farmer's party, 26; Independents, 32; Labor, 30; National Labor nine.

The Prime Minister, nominated in his old constituency of Clare, charged that the Fine Gael party was aiming at the break-up of the government to depose him and form a Coalition government.

Gen. Mulcahy, who was not a member of the last Dail, will stand in Tipperary while Hugh Callaghan, Farmer leader, was nominated in Donegal.

Eire's neutrality, endorsed by opposition leaders, is not an issue in the election, which follows a one-vote defeat the government suffered May 8.

Poison Oak Worth Millions

Public Enemy Found To Be Valuable

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 20 (AP) —Poison oak, public enemy of the forest, is about ready to start paying its debt to society—at a rate of perhaps $5,000,000 a year, a scientist estimated today.

This bad boy of the plant kingdom, tormenter of picknickers and fishermen, has reformed under the benign guidance of chemurgy and is in a position to earn an honest living, said Dr. A. C. Shead, University of Oklahoma chemistry professor.

Mindful of the plant's painful rash, people have been busily stamping out the plant for years, but Dr. Shead raised a warning hand. What we should do, he told the first southwest chemurgic clinic here, is plant more poison oaks and thus give this country three important new commercial products.

The scientist said the same juice which has spread itchy rashes would, when oxidized to eliminate the irritant, make a lacquer of high quality, 20,000,000 pounds of which is at present imported annual from India.

The non-poisonous berries, Shead explained, are rich in fat that could be used to make Japanese wax, large quantities of which were imported from Japan before the war at prices ranging to 25 cents a pound. The Japanese got it from a poison oak similar to the North American variety.

The third product — and Shead said it was a rare plant which yielded as many as three useful substances—is tannin for the leader trade, extracted from the leaves.

SEA CADETS INSPECTED — On the Market Square on Friday evening the Royal Canadian Sea Cadet Corps "Howe" was inspected by Lt.-Commander Hugh Plaxton, commanding officer of the H.M.C.S. Cataraqui, Kingston. (At Left) the guard of honor is standing at the present; (Centre) Lt. Stanley-Longhurst, O.C., of the "Howe," Left, Mayor James Hamilton, Centre, and Lt.-Commander Plaxton, Right, and at (Right) Commander Plaxton is chatting with "Red" Ellis, Chief Petty Officer, during his inspection.

(McGillen—Staff Photos.)

Torpedo Splits Valleyfield In North Atlantic Sailors Show Rare Courage

Skipper Leads In Song To Last Ship As Survivors Cling To Carley Floats In Oil Capped Water

A NEWFOUNDLAND PORT, May 20—(CP). — The story of men who died bravely in icy Atlantic waters after a torpedo sank the Canadian frigate Valleyfield was told here by some of the 38 survivors. In announcing the sinking last Monday, Navy Minister Macdonald said there were five dead and 121 missing.

BACK IN CANADA—Flt-Sgt. James P. Lynch, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lynch, 494 McDonnel Street, has returned to Canada after two years overseas with the R.C.A.F. His parents expect him home on Monday. He enlisted in 1941 and went overseas in June, 1942. The young flier is a gunner and has taken part in many of the heavy raids in Europe.

There was the captain, Lt.-Cmdr. Dermott T. English, Halifax, who cheered his men with a song for the dying ship and there were officers and men who refused help so that their mates might survive the sucking, murky North Atlantic.

Lieut. Ian Tate, 22-year-old Toronto sailor, recalled the last command he got from the skipper. They were hanging to a Carley float and had just watched the frigate, cut in two, sink beneath the waves.

Remembered Wife.

Through the darkness Tate heard the captain's weakened voice:

"Mr. Tate, are you still there?"

Tate answered: "Yes, Tate here, sir."

The captain called back: "If I don't come through this will you please write my wife?"

"Aye, aye sir," Tate replied.

This was followed by silence, broken occasionally by the weakening shouts of other survivors. Tate remembered losing consciousness several times and he never saw the captain again. AB. H. C. Addison of New Westminster, B.C., clinging to the same Carley float as the captain, recalled that the captain was afloat until just before the rescuing corvette Giffard picked up the survivors.

Interviewed in the Royal Canadian Naval Hospital here where he was recovering from exposure and immersion foot, Lieut Tate told a graphic story of the sinking and of the deaths of two of his best friends—Lieut. Carleton (Tony) Flath, Medicine Hat Alberta., and Lieut Frank C. Reynolds, Toronto. They were hanging to the Carley float on which Tate rode to eventual safety but both refused Tate's offers of aid when he suspected their condition was weaker than his own.

Tate, who interrupted his University of Toronto studies to join the Navy in March, 1942, was on watch when the torpedo struck. With him was Lieut. Cash Mason, Tangiers, N.S., who was among the lost.

Sea Was Calm

"The weather was perfect, with a calm sea and a slight swell, and wonderful visibility," Tate related. "I heard a muffled explosion, followed by the terrible sound of great masses of metal being torn apart. Either Mason or I rang the 'action stations' alarm—I don't know which did it. Then I rang up the engine-room phone and yelled down to it: 'Get the hell out boys.' I didn't want the boys down there to stay at their posts another second.

"The next thing I knew, we were taking a tremendous list to starboard. The ship had split into two parts and was sinking fast.

"Suddenly the Captain appeared beside me and asked if anyone was trapped. There was so much noise all around I could hardly hear him, but I didn't bother trying to answer, instead, I helped the Captain in his efforts to pull a life-preserver off its metal clamps on a bulkhead. But the ship was pitching and rolling so much that we couldn't get a firm foothold. Finally I shouted into the Captain's ear: 'Let's leave it—let's swim for it sir.'"

"We didn't have to jump or dive into the water—we were just engulfed. The next thing I knew, I was deep under the water and starting to come up. I had heavy mitts

TORPEDO SPLITS

(Continued on Page 12, Column 2)

Professor Dymond To Speak Monday

Professor John R. Dymond of the University of Toronto will be the speaker at provincial park meeting in the Chamber of Commerce Monday at 8 p.m.

Professor Dymond is director of the Royal Ontario Museum of Zoology and is professor of natural history at the university. For years he has been secretary of the Ontario Federation of Naturalists and has occasionally visited the Peterborough country side in his pursuit of that interest. He is widely recognized as an authority on the conservation of wild life, reforestation, and other allied subjects.

The proposed Provincial Park will be discussed at this meeting, and Fred Marshall is hoping that the Chamber of Commerce will be crowded by citizens, including business men, manifesting their interest in this project.

On Refugee Job

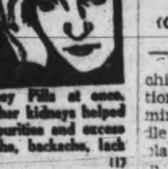
WASHINGTON, May 20—(CP)—Tracy Phillips, a British expert on international affairs and refugee problems, yesterday was appointed chief of planning for the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration section which will handle the repatriation of 200,000,000 displaced Europeans. Philipps has been in Canada as an advisor on the handling of communities of European immigrants.

"NERVES" SHE CALLED IT



Losing interest—losing friends—she never went out any more—always too tired. "Nerves," she thought — but it was her kidneys, the filters of her blood, that needed attention. Delay meant danger. She took Dodd's Kidney Pills at once. The improved action of her kidneys helped to clear away blood impurities and excess acids. Fatigue, headache, backache, lack of energy, disappeared. (17)

Dodd's Kidney Pills

165 Sea Cadets Turn Out For Inspection

The Peterborough Sea Cadet Corps, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, demonstrated in their first, and perhaps annual, inspection on the market square Friday evening a smartness in drill, appearance and discipline that won the applause of hundreds of assembled citizens, followed by official service and civilian compliments expressed by the inspecting officer, Lieutenant Commander Hugh Plaxton of Kingston and Mayor Hamilton.

Of the enrolled complement of 168 Cadets, exclusive of their officers, 165 paraded past the reviewing stand with a precision of alertness of mobility and with a thoroughness in the details of drill that reflected the expert and patient and sympathetic training they have received from Lieutenant Joseph Gaskell since he took them in charge a little more than a year ago.

Very Steady

The steadiness of these teenage boys was an obvious feature of their experience and polish as a Corps that stood out in most agreeable contrast with their first musterings on the same square twelve months ago. They have acquired a unity of movement and understanding of the purposes of their drill that have carried them far along the course of basic training preparing them, if need be, for active service.

Broadening knowledge of what in the end becomes seamanship has marked that manifestly measures the extent of control and curb on their boyish effervescence. They conducted themselves splendidly and put on a fine show that reflected a high degree of credit upon the entire personnel of H.M.C.S. Howe and the Kiwanis Club members who figuratively set them afloat.

Where Churchill Stood

Addressing the Corps from the bridge of the "Howe", Lieutenant Commander Plaxton said it was a pleasure to him as Commanding Officer of the area to attend the inspection. Incidentally, Lieut. Plaxton was speaking from the same position which was occupied by a brilliant young journalist and war reporter, visiting Peterborough on a lecture tour who today is the Prime Minister of Great Britain, the Right Honorable Winston Churchill, whom fate destined for an imperishable place in the history of the Empire and the world.

(Continued On Page 6)

SALAD CONSUMER

One woodchuck may eat as much as much as two pounds of greens in a day.

War—4 Years Ago

By The Canadian Press

MAY 20, 1940—Prime Minister King announced Canada would raise third army division. French denied German claim of having captured Laon, 75 miles northeast of Paris. Defence preparations being organized throughout Great Britain.

MAY 21, 1940—Premier Reynaud said French military situation dark because of 'inconceivable mistakes' as German motorized units took Amiens and Arras. German drive reached Abbeville, 12 miles from English Channel. Britain reported 2,000,000 men in training.

Youth Director To Attend K. of C. Meeting

John J. Contway of New Haven, Conn., the society's director of boy life, is expected to attend the convention of the Ontario state council of the Knights of Columbus which opens with registration this evening.

Sixty local councils will be represented by eighty delegates from all sections of the province. Dr. Gerald Lunz of Hamilton will be the presiding officer. Mayor Hamilton will extend a civic welcome Sunday afternoon and the main business sessions and election of officers are slated for Monday.

One of the visiting delegates remarked this morning that the Knights of Columbus have been directing increasing attention to the welfare of children and youth generally. Opinion throughout the organization considers that regeneration should begin in the homes, that youthful delinquency traces to parental neglect and disregard of duty.

MORE ABOUT—

McQuesten Quits

Continued from Page 1

in every way, but so many of the activities of the Commission are inseparably associated with the daily business of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission and the Department of Highways that we believe you will recognize the advantage of having the chairman sitting with us at our regular meeting.

"For that reason I must suggest that the present members of the Board make it possible for us to carry out the reorganization which we believe to be necessary for the purpose of achieving closer collaboration between the various departments concerned."

Minister Gives Plans For Demobilization

By D'ARCY O'DONNELL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, May 20—(CP)—In a quiet House of Commons yesterday, Pensions Minister Mackenzie indicated in what order the members of Canada's armed forces may be demobilized as they return home after the war, and he said retarded demobilization may provide the solution in the cases of men for whom no employment can be found immediately.

Under plans being considered by the government, the men would be discharged in the following groups:

1. Those who have a job to go to, or those who are engaged in a business or profession on their own account.

2. Those who are accepted for vocational training under existing provisions.

3. Those who are accepted for resumption of interrupted education at university level.

4. Those who desire to be released with a view to returning to their own farms, and those who desire to make application for settlement on the land and are able to make provision for themselves until their eligibility is determined.

It is thought that these four groups should be released as soon as arrangements can be made for the carrying of the new business, training or settlement on the land, or, if they are able to make provision for themselves pending the completion of such arrangements, it is thought they might be discharged even earlier," said Mr. Mackenzie. He spoke during examination of his Department's war estimates.

Handle All Groups.

Besides the four groups mentioned there were two other groups which would have to be dealt with. There were those who were competent and skilled and required no training, and unskilled persons lacking the basic education to assimilate a training course. These latter groups would be referred to employment offices of the Unemployment Insurance Commission, with a view to placing them in employment.

"It is a corollary of the program which I have just described that those who are not immediately able to enter upon, for instance, vocational training, or for whom employment is not immediately available, should not be discharged from the Forces until the arrangements for them have been completed," Mr. Mackenzie said.

"The procedures that have been described will apply both to new recruits and personnel with short service in Canada, as well as to personnel returned from overseas."

It would be the responsibility of the Government of the day, in co-operation with private industry through facilities of the proposed Department of Reconstruction, to develop additional avenues of employment.

"To the extent that such additional employment opportunity is not available, the device of retarded mobilization may be the necessary solution," he said.

Plans Incomplete.

As men and women were demobilized they would be referred to the various sections with trained personnel who would assist them in returning to civil life. Information would be given them on vocational training, the Land Settlement Act, civil service opportunities and Unemployment Insurance Act provisions.

He said the plans had not yet been "finalized." They were more in the form of suggestions which had been given careful attention during the last year and a half by departmental committees.

Mr. Mackenzie said the total of disability and dependent pensions paid as a result of the present war was 12,075 with a liability of $6,227,244. The total of all pensions in the present war was 12,536 with a liability of $6,487,755, including pensions paid to special classes outside the forces.

Besides concluding study of the pensions estimates, the commons dealt with some agriculture department war estimates, and heard Agriculture Minister Gardiner state that heavy shipments of western feed grains to Eastern Canada were expected this year.

Before examination of the Pensions department estimates entered a second day, Justice Minister St. Laurent announced the Canadian government has joined the British government in a request for a full report on circumstances surrounding the shooting of six Canadians among 47 R.A.F. and Empire airmen killed as they attempted a mass escape from a German prison camp.

Finance Minister Ilsley said he hoped to be able to present the budget "not too long" after the end of May.

MORE ABOUT—

Five Of Crew

Continued from Page 1

ial ground were Cmdr. C. R. H. Taylor, flag officer, Newfoundland, Capt. S. W. Davis, Trail, B.C., commanding officer of H.M.C.S. Avalon, the Navy's shore establishment here, and Lt.-Cmdr. Charles Petersen, Victoria, skipper of the Corvette Giffard.

The officer in charge of the funeral escort party was Lieut. W. McPherson, Toronto. The firing party, which fired three rounds from 25 rifles after the coffins had been lowered into the five graves, was directed by Lieut. John A. Grant, Montreal. The marching mourners were led by Lieut. K. T. Guest, Sydney, N.S.

Mrs. Frank Westington Re-elected President Of District W.C.T.U.

A good representative attendance from the five local unions, met in the Baptist Church, Cobourg, on Friday for the Women's Christian Temperance Union Annual County Convention for Peterborough-Northumberland counties.

The president, Mrs. Frank Westington presided with grace and tact throughout. Members of Smith Union were in charge of the morning worship service led by Miss M. Milburn, Mesdames W. W. Yale and Elmer Milburn, Mrs. C. Telford, soloist sang "Take Time to Be Holy" The devotions were based upon St. Mark's Gospel 10:33-41 and were a fitting prelude to the day's sessions.

A cordial welcome was extended to the visiting ladies by the Rev. Mr. Franks, pastor of the Convention Church and the meeting opened for business. After the minutes of former meetings were read and adopted committees were appointed as follows: Resolutions, Mrs. G. Kelly, Mrs. Throop and Mrs. Yale; Courtesy: Mrs. E. Milburn, Mrs. Edmison and Mrs. Jory.

In the president's address, Mrs. Westington deplored that though a feeling of discouragement might appear to the workers, she referred them to the words in Revelation: "Be watchful and strengthen the things which remain. One reason for the discouragement was the smugness and indifference on the part of church people, who were afraid of harming their popularity by taking a decided stand for temperance.

"After the first world war we had prohibition, but now the sale of liquor is wide open. No wonder we, a little group of temperance women become discouraged. We should remember the missionary, William Carey, who worked 35 years before he saw any results from his labours", she said.

Forty-one members responded to the roll call and the election of officers ensued. All officers being reinstated as last year.

President, Mrs. Frank Westington, Plainville, Ont.; 1st Vice, Mrs. J. G. Mann, R.R. 4, Peterborough; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. M. F. Ames, Gores' Landing, Ont.; Recording Secretary, Mrs. H. T. Rehill, 222 Dalhousie St., Peterboro; Treasurer, Mrs. Elmer Milburn, R.R. 4, Peterborough; "Y" Secretary, Mrs. W. A. Post, R.R. 4, Peterborough; L.T.L. Secretary, Mrs. G. Lacey, Camborne, Ont.

Superintendents of Departments

Evangelistic and Christian Stewardship—Mrs. B. W. Manning, 258 Murray St.; anti narcotics and medical temperance—Mrs. G. Lacey, Camborne, Ont.; flower mission, Miss Clara King, Plainville, Ont.; Little White Ribboners—Mrs. E. Joice, Plainville, Ont.; Lord's Day Observance, Law and Legislation, Mrs. J. G. Mann; Medal Contest—Mrs. M. Archer, R.R. 2, Peterboro; Peace and International Relations—Mrs. Earle, Cobourg, Ont.; Press—Mrs. E. J. Wagar, 105 Lock St., Peterboro, Ont.

Assistant Press, Mrs. Rehill, Peterboro; Prisons and Jail Work — Mrs. W. Rosborough, R.R. 4, Peterboro; Publicity and Social—Mrs. J. A. Spencer, 576 Stewart St., Peterboro; Scientific Temperance Day School—Mrs. R. McMullen, R.R. 4, Peterboro; Soldiers and Sailors — Mrs. M. E. Nicholls, Cobourg, Ont.; Temperance in Sunday Schools — Mrs. W. A. Post, R.R. 4, Peterboro; Travellers' Aid, Mrs. A. J. Throop, 362 Burnham, St.; Worlds and Canadian Missionary Work—Mrs. H. Lander, Coldsprings, Ont.

Reports from the various superintendent's showed good progress and no evident cause for discouragement.

Memorial Service

The morning session concluded with a short but impressive memorial service led by Mrs. H. Alton and Mrs. A. J. Throop and the noontide prayer by Mrs. Herriot.

After luncheon, the devotional period was taken by the Camborne Union, represented by Mesdames Lacey, Lander and Jamieson. A duet "Blessed Redeemer" was contributed by Cobourg ladies. The corresponding secretary reported a membership of 121 who raised a total of $257.20. All departments show improvement.

The guest speaker, Miss Edna Grant, Dominion travelling secretary and organizer, was introduced by Mrs. Westington and brought greetings from the National W.C.T.U. In her interesting address, Miss Grant declared that her most difficult task was to educate church people along temperance lines. "If Christians don't make Canada safe, who will do it?" she asked. "After the war a great deal of readjustment will be necessary on the part of young people, who will have to learn to live again. We must try to help them and in order to do that, we must "scrap" a lot of our old habits and make something new of them."

Miss Grant illustrated her talk with a "flannel-graph," a picture board which she uses in her work in the schools. On this she showed the five witches "Want, Disease, Ignorance, Idleness and Squalor" dominated by the largest witch "Alchohol", which is closely related to each.

In conclusion, the speaker declared that from 75 to 80 per cent. of the spread of venereal disease is due to alcohol, "There is no place for this evil in our new world."

The report of the courtesy committee and National Anthem brought to a close this successful annual gathering.

Summer Program Planned For Troops

Looking ahead to the hot summer months, a committee of citizens have banded together to give the soldiers at the Training Centre something different in the way of Sunday entertainment. Attendance at the Recreation Centre always drops in the summer because the canteen is so hot, and they propose to remedy this situation.

They have secured the co-operation of several people who are willing to provide cars to take the men a short distance to Nicholls Oval, or the river, where a sport program will be arranged. The regular Sunday afternoon canteen hostesses will be present and refreshments will be served.

Albert Hope was chairman for the initial meeting and others present were: F. Revoy, G. Groombridge, H. Hamblin, L. Grant, B. Chambers, C. Mowry, and Mrs. E. Norman, canteen hostess. Another meeting has been set for Wednesday, May 24 at 8.30 in the Recreation Centre when committees will be formed.

Presentation Made

MARMORA, May 20—(ENS)—A number of friends and neighbors gathered Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bonter to spend a social evening with them. Before lunch was served Mrs. L. Green and Mrs. L. Phillips made a presentation on behalf of the gathering to honor them on their recent wedding.

General Insurance

STAN DARLING
Insurance
Fire, Auto, Accident and Health, Plate Glass Liability and Life.
346 WATER ST. PHONE 8884

T. MARK & SON
General Insurance
360 WATER ST.
Phone 5425

INSURE IN SURE INSURANCE
C. J. RAY
416 Water Street Tel. 4142
Fire, Automobile, Sickness and Accident, Plate Glass, Liability, Etc

SUMMER COLDS
CATARRH, ROSE FEVER
Insert a little Buckley's Stainless White Rub in each nostril several times daily. You'll be surprised and delighted to see how quickly this helps clear your clogged nostrils, eases breathing, relieves your discomfort. It must give relief faster or your money back. 30c and 50c.
TAKE A JAR ON YOUR VACATION
BUCKLEY'S STAINLESS WHITE RUB

— — — Clip Here and Mail to Someone in Service — Do It Now! — — —

THE HOME FRONT

Service Edition of the Peterborough Examiner

VOL. 1. EVENING EXAMINER — PETERBOROUGH, MAY 20 NO. 30

Improve Point St. Charles

A suggestion that the Beaver Lumber Company move its mill from Point St. Charles to other property now owned by the city so that completion of Little Lake project of beautifying has been made by the council.

Given Sick Leave

Alderman Robert Cotton, veteran member of the city council has been given three months leave of absence from his civic duties.

Wins Von Contest

A picture taken by Lewis Parks, photographer, has won the VON Dominion-wide contest.

Crushed By Wagon

Stealing a ride on a truck which was towing a heavily loaded wagon, Robert White, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter White, Braidwood Avenue fell from the truck and a wheel of the wagon passed over his head. He died on the way to the hospital.

Salary Boost

Acting upon the recommendation of the salary committee of the city council and a notice from the council that $1,500 had been added to the police estimates the Police Commission has authorized an upward revision of the salaries of the police force.

Award Is Offered

For information effecting the conviction of persons turning in false fire alarms and mutilating the traffic "stop" signs the city council has offered a reward of twenty-five dollars.

Voluntary Effort

That efforts be made to raise funds by voluntary subscription to provide adequate hospital services is proposed in a report of the special hospital committee of the city council.

Must Carry Lights

A drive on bicyclists who operate without lights is under way by the city police.

Salvationist Passes

Brigadier Arthur J. Smith, commander of the Peterborough Salvation Army Corps at the time the local temple was destroyed by fire is dead.

Unveils Honor Roll

Mrs. Michael O'Toole who has five sons, two daughters and a son-in-law serving in Canada's armed forces unveiled the honor roll at the Immaculate Conception Church.

Seeding Well Advanced

Farmers are getting their spring seeding well advanced and some of the grain is already showing green above the ground.

Smith Led

Securing 132.44 per cent. of its objective Smith township led all sections in the Sixth Victory Loan. The objective for the Peterborough unit was $4,500,000 and $4,798,100 was obtained.

On The Sports Front

Switchgear defeated Plazas in the opening game of the City Softball League by 8 to 5. The game was played in chilly weather. Mowry and Brockley each hit homers for the winners with a runner on the bases in each case.

Whipper Billy Watson defeated Verne Baxter in the main bout of the Tunney wrestling show, two falls in three.

Indifference of Athenians Drives Apostle to Corinth

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for May 21 is Acts 18:1-18; I Corinthians 12-14, the Golden Text being I Cor. 13:13, "But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love.")

◆ ◆ ◆

PAUL DID not stay long in Athens, where he went after the events related in our last lesson. He tried to tell the Athenians about the "unknown God" to whom they had raised an altar, but they were a skeptical lot, and were not prepared to hear his message. So he left them and went to Corinth.

This city was a very important one at the time, a place of wealth and culture, of trade and commerce. It was, however, a wicked city, and it is said that "to live like a Corinthian" was a slur on a man's character, meaning that he lived a life of immorality.

Here Paul found a Jew and his wife, Aquila and Priscilla were their names. They had recently come from Italy, where the ruder, Claudius, had driven the Jews away. They were tent makers, and that being Paul's craft, he stayed in their home and worked with them. They apparently were earnest Christians.

Every Sabbath found Paul at the synagogue preaching and teaching to Jews and Greeks alike. One of the rulers of the synagogue, Crispus, believed, and he and all his house were baptized, but many vehemently opposed Paul, and finally, angered when they blasphemed Christ, he told them that their "blood be upon their own head," and that henceforth he would talk only to the Greeks.

Paul Has a Vision

Paul must have been discouraged and even in fear of his life, but one night he had a vision in which the Lord spoke to him, telling him not to fear; that He was with him, and would let no harm come to him. He was to walk without fear, for "I have much people in this city."

Much heartened, Paul stayed in Corinth a year and a half, "teaching the word of God among them."

His enemies would not let him alone, however, and dragged him to Gallio, the deputy, saying, "This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law."

This was not true but just as Paul was about to defend himself, Gallio said, that if Paul was guilty of immoral living or breaking the Roman law he would listen to them, but "If it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters."

The Greeks must have been delighted with this judgment, and they took Sosthenes, chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him right before the judgment seat, but still Gallio would not interfere.

Paul stayed awhile longer in Corinth, and then sailed to Syria, taking Aquila and Priscilla with him.

The rest of our lesson is taken from the first epistle to the Corinthians, in which he preached one of the finest sermons ever preached by mortal man. At this time there were many disputes in the Corinthian church. It was in a critical condition, and Paul's instructions were firm and tactful. We can give only a brief portion of it here, but it should be read and memorized if possible.

He told the Corinthians in these letters that there was no need for envy and jealousy in the church. It was one body, even as our eyes, hands, feet, etc., are parts of our bodies, each part having its work to do to fulfill the function of the whole. Each member of the church also had his particular gifts and work to contribute, and each should do his part for the glory of the faith and the church.

Paul Extols Love

Then he spoke of love, the thing that should unite all and make them forget themselves and their petty aspirations. "Charity suffereth long and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

"Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

"Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

"Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

"Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away."

◆ ◆ ◆

"And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity."

You remember that Jesus said that men should recognize His disciples because they loved one another. Also that the first great commandment was to love God with all our hearts, souls and minds, and the second "is like unto it: thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

Heavenly Reality of Jesus Should Be Basis of Thought

Jesus was parted from them and carried up into Heaven.—St. Luke 24:51.

"Where there is no vision the people perish" is the heading of a large advertisement by "Time." The management of this weekly has nothing to sell. "Their purpose is to get people to think."

What do you think about this statement of our Christian religion: "Jesus was parted from them and carried up into Heaven"? It took place on Mount Olivet just outside of Jerusalem. His disciples saw Him no more with the physical eye.

"Carried up into Heaven." Where is Heaven? Science tells us that there is no such thing as "up or down." But owing to our limitations of thought and speech we have to say: "Jesus was carried up into Heaven." The Lord Jesus was taken up into the spiritual world, which is all around us.

It is extremely interesting to remember that Our Lord's very first words to Mary Magdalene after His resurrection are about His ascension. "Our Lord makes mention of ascending twice, of rising not at all." He long to ascend. His human soul looks passionately forward to the moment when He shall find Himself face to face with the Father. To His Apostles in the Upper Room He utters the amazing statement: "I came forth from the Father and come into the world; again I leave the world to go to the Father."

In using the words "carried up" the inspired writer would teach us that the Lord's work on earth was completely satisfactory to the Father, Who twice testified: "This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased."

The Beloved Son takes up with Him into Heaven that which had never been there before. He took up our human nature. The Perfect Man stands in the Presence of the Father. His character had been perfected in the only possible way, through the stress and strain of temptation. In the days of His flesh He had to chose the good or the best. He chose the best and in so doing paid a great price. In His mind He saw the pearl of great price and was willing to pay all that He had for it. Now He is clad in the Best Robe of perfect humanity in all its loveliness and beauty. The Best Robe was woven by Him through pain, sorrow, tears, agony and death.

In heaven the Son looks back upon His life on earth and His human soul is satisfied. In Him the ancient prophecy has been fulfilled: "He shall see of the travail of His soul and shall be satisfied."

Jesus stands in the Presence of the Father clothed in that Best Robe. When God created man He saw in His mind the perfect man. This man should wear the Best Robe of self sacrifice, gentleness, purity and righteousness. The Lord Christ is willing to cast that Best Robe upon every soul who is willing to accept Him as Lord and Saviour. Clothed in that Best Robe the Father will look upon you and me. We are His children because Jesus Christ is our Elder Brother, bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh.

Time and again we are told in the New Testament that Our Lord has sat down at the right Hand of God. This is symbolic language. It is an important truth to remember that Jesus Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think deeply upon this truth. A Man is seated there upon the throne of God. It means that Jesus Christ is not absorbed into the God head, as Buddhism would have us believe. The individual is not absorbed in the Divine. The Lord Jesus has not ceased to be Man. He is still man with a human soul. As Bishop Westcott teaches: "He has only passed into another mode of existence." He is full of sympathy and His heart of compassion goes out to us in these terrible days.

To the dying man this is a great comfort. He thinks of his sins of omission and commission. He knows he must stand before the throne to be judged. But there sits upon the throne the God Man. He will be judged by one Who has been touched with the feelings of our infirmities and is not ashamed to call us brethren.

In these dark days we all need to have our minds strengthened in the deep things of God. Let us remember that God is above all and in all; that our manhood has been taken up into the God head; that we are partakers of the Divine Nature. God will never leave us nor forsake us.

LO: I AM WITH YOU ALL THE DAYS. THANKS BE UNTO THEE, O LORD.

DR. H. L. STEWART.

St. Paul's 111th Anniversary

St. Paul's Presbyterian Church is on Sunday celebrating its 111th anniversary with the special preacher being Dr. H. L. Stewart of Dalhousie University.

Dr. Stewart is an internationally known speaker and radio commentator. His weekly commentary on international affairs was carried by the CBC for several years.

Carl Bull, former tenor soloist at Yorkminster Baptist Church in Toronto, will assist the choir. Mr. Bull saw service overseas in the present war and is considered one of Canada's outstanding tenor soloists.

On Monday evening the choir is to give a concert and Dr. Stewart is to give an address on international affairs.

In the 111 years of its history St. Paul's to-day has its largest membership, and under the present leadership of Dr. James D. Smart the congregation is experiencing one of its most successful periods. Large congregations are present both morning and evening, and the morning broadcast goes into hundreds of homes in Central Ontario.

Dr. Smart is the sixth minister in the history of the congregation

PILING IT ON

LONDON — (CP) — George Smith, motorcycle trick rider used to ride the wall of death under the name of "Tornado Smith." Then he joined the National Fire Service as a motor-bike dispatch rider. He was then sent to school to learn to ride a motorcycle.

School Plans Anniversary

The members of St. James Church Sunday School will hold anniversary day on Sunday when Rev. E. W. Roland of Mark St. Church will preach at 11 a.m. All members of the school and brotherhood will assemble in Wesley Hall at 10.45 a.m. E. G. Kitney is the efficient superintendent of the school and with his faithful board of management is accomplishing excellent results in all departments. The officials of the school meet regularly to discuss plans for the building up of the organization in this worthy work in south Peterborough. At 2.45 p.m. there will be an open session for all departments of the Sunday School, when a splendid program will be given, and Rev. E. W. Roland will deliver an illustrated address. At 7 a.m. the minister will be assisited in the service by the young people of the church. Addresses will be given by Miss Gladys Langton, and Ken Meredith.

LESLIE HOWARD'S ESTATE

LONDON — (CP) — Leslie Howard, film actor and producer, left an estate of $282,000 mainly to his wife, son and daughter. Howard died when an air liner he was returning to Britain on from Lisbon was shot down over the Bay of Biscay last June.

ANGLICAN

ALL SAINTS'

Rector, Rev. W A. Filer

Corner of Rubidge and Sherbrooke Streets

EMPIRE YOUTH SUNDAY

11 A.M. ........ Morning Prayer
A Message to Youth
'A Great Adventure"

3 P.M. ........... Sunday School

7 P.M. ....Evening Prayer and Holy Communion.

"Nights of the Bible"
4th in Series, "The Night of Retribution."

At the morning service presentation of awards to the Junior W.A.

Let us make this a Family Day in All Saints.

ST. LUKE'S

Rogers St (opposite Robinson)

Rev. A. J. Arthur, B.A., B.D

8 A.M. ........Holy Communion

11 A.M. ...... Holy Communion

Parade of the Scouts and Cubs

3 P.M. ..........Sunday School

7 P.M. ........ Evening Prayer

ST JOHN'S

Hunter St. W. (Opposite Queen)

Rector:

Rev. Canon W P. Robertson B.A., B.D.

Organist and Choirmaster F G Mann, L.Mus.

8.30 A.M. .....Holy Communion

11 A.M. ............... Matins

11.30 A.M...Church Kindergarten

3 P.M. ......Sunday School and Bible Classes.

4 P.M. ................ Baptisms

7 P.M. ............. Evensong

Preacher: Canon Robertson

Confirmation Classes — Boys, Monday 7.30 girls Friday 4.30, adults 8 p.m. at Rectory.

Daily intercessions 5 p.m. Wednesday, Holy Communion 10 a.m.

BAPTIST

PARK STREET BAPTIST

Rev. E. J. Whan, Pastor

11 A.M. ................ Morning Worship and Sunday School

"Every Man In His Place"

7 P.M.

Hear — — Rev. S. J. Farmer, D. D.

Vice-President of Baptist Convention

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH

(Independent)

NEW ROMAINE AND MERVIN AVENUE

Rev. L. E. Jones, Pastor

11.00 A.M. ............ Bible Study in Ephesians

3.00 P.M. ...................... Bible School

7.00 P.M. ............. "WHAT IS A CHRISTIAN?"

"The Church Where You're a Stranger Only Once"

MURRAY STREET BAPTIST

Rev. Joseph H. Sutcliffe, M.A., B.D., Minister

Mr. Stanley Northrop, A.T.C.M., Acting Organist and Choir Director

11 A.M. ..... Service of Worship and Church School

Guest Speaker, REV. S. J. FARMER, D.D., of TORONTO, Vice-President of the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec

7 P.M. .............. The Minister. Sermon Subject: "IN THE DAYS OF YOUTH"

Empire Youth Sunday

PRESBYTERIAN

ST PAUL'S PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. James D. Smart, M.A., Ph.D.

Organist and Choirmaster - Martin S. Chenhall, A.R.C.O.

111th Anniversary Services

The Speaker for the Day Will Be

Professor Herbert L. Stewart

Of Dalhousie University at Halifax, Nova Scotia

MR. CARL BULL, NOTED TENOR OF TORONTO, WILL SING AT BOTH SERVICES.

11 A.M. ..................... Morning Worship

Solo—The Lord Is My Light—Oley Speaks
Solo—If With All Your Hearts (Elijah)—Mendelssohn
Choir—The Lord's Prayer—Joseph Lees

THIS SERVICE WILL BE BROADCAST OVER CHEX

The Beginners Department of the Church School will meet at this hour. Ages 2-6.

3.00 P.M. ...................... Church School

7.00 P.M. ...................... Evening Worship

Solo—Forward to Christ—Geoffrey O'Hara
Solo—In the Garden—C. Austin Miles
Anthem—Bless the Lord, O My Soul—Charles B. Granby
Come and worship with us at these two great services.

MONDAY, MAY 22ND, 8.00 P.M.

Dr. Stewart will deliver a lecture on "International Affairs," and the Choir will present a program of national music.

UNITED CHURCH

GEORGE ST. UNITED CHURCH

Rev. H. L. Roberts, M.A., B.D., Minister

Mrs. C. Renaud, Organist — Mr C Renaud, Director

11 A.M. .........."The Purpose of the Gospel In Its Deepest Note"

11.30 A.M. Junior Congregation; 3 P.M. Church School

7 P.M. ......"The Adjustment of Human Life to the Will of God"

The Singing Sisters, Margaret, Clarice and Elizabeth Atkinson, of Roseneath, in solos, duets and trios, at both services.

EMPIRE DAY SERVICES

MARK STREET

"House of Friendship"

Minister Rev. E. W. Rowland,

11 A.M. ..............Morning Worship and Junior Congregation

Rev. F. Craik, of St. James' United Church, in Charge

3 PM. .................. Sunday School and Adult Bible Study

7 P.M. ....................15 Minutes Singing Hymns We Love
The Minister in Charge.

Harry Northrop, A.T.C.M. - Organist and Musical Director

ST. ANDREW'S UNITED CHURCH

(Rubidge and Brock Streets)

Rev. E. W. Young, M.A., B.D., D.D., Minister

Director of Music, R B Harle, L.L.S.M., A.F.C.L.
Mrs. Ross Williamson, A.T.C.M., Soloist

11 A.M. ..... Subject: "THE LAME MAN AT THE BEAUTIFUL GATE"

3 P.M. ............Sunday School and Bible Classes

7 P.M. .........."A YOUNG MAN'S ARGUMENTS AGAINST CHRISTIANITY"

8.15 ...................... Young People's Group

ST. JAMES' UNITED CHURCH

Rev. Fred Craik, Minister

Cecil Lapp, Organist

11 A.M. ..........Preacher, REV. E. W. ROWLAND

Members of Sunday School and Brotherhood will unite with the morning congregation.

At 10.40 a.m. members of school will assemble in Wesley Hall and enter the church at the appointed time.

2.45 P.M. ..........Open Session For Whole School

Special program and illustrated address by Rev. E. W. Rowland. Parents cordially invited. Mr. E. G. Kitney, superintendent, will preside.

7 P.M. ....Members of the Young People's Union will assist the Minister in evening worship.

Addresses by Miss Gladys Langton and Mr. Kenneth Meredith

KNOX UNITED CHURCH

Rev. H. J. Mahoney, B.A., B.D.

William R. Potter, Musical Director

11 A.M. ...................... "STRONG AND FAITHFUL"

Anthem—"To Thee Our God We Fly"
Solo—"Land of Hope and Glory"—Mrs. M. Braund

12.15 ........................................ SUNDAY SCHOOL

7 P.M. ........................... "ALMOST PERSUADED"

Anthem—"Plains of Peace"
Solo—Marion Williamson

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

Rev. G. S. Easton, M.A., D.D., Minister

Guest Minister

REV. J. J. BLACK, of LINDSAY

11.00 A.M. .............. Public Worship and Children's Church

3.00 P.M. .............. Church School and Bible Study Groups

7.00 P.M. ...................................... Evening Service

May 28—Guest Minister, Lt.-Col., the Rev. Dr. G. O. Fallis B.D., C.B.E., (Chaplain), of Kingston

Miss Mabel Clarry, Organist and Choir Directress

Church News and Notices

VARIOUS

THE SALVATION ARMY

SIMCOE AND AYLMER STREETS

Major and Mrs. John Wood, Commanding Officers

SERVICES: 11.00 A.M., 3.15 P.M., 7.00 P.M., (Evening Service Broadcast Over CHEX From 7 to 7.30)

For Young People—Doctrine Class 10.15 a.m.; Sunday School 2.15 p.m.

Week-end Services: Wednesday and Friday, 8.00 p.m.

WELCOME TO ALL!

BETHANY TABERNACLE

CHRISTIAN AND MISSIONARY ALLIANCE

George Street (near Y.M.C.A.)

Rev. Walter S Crone, Pastor

"YOUTH FOR CHRIST"

Campaign Begins Sunday, May 21st, With

Rev. and Mrs. James W Anderson

Of Flint, Michigan

Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Anderson

Of Canadea, New York

PREACHERS - MUSICIANS - SINGERS

Sundays, 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Week Nights 8 o'Clock

These services will be non-sectarian in character, inter-denominational in spirit and are provided to benefit all young people. Everyone welcome!

"A SUNDAY WELL SPENT MEANS A WEEK OF CONTENT"

BROCK STREET GOSPEL HALL

Near Aylmer—Meetings Lord's Day (D.V.)

10 A.M. ......................... Sunday School

11 A.M. ...................... Breaking of Bread

7 P.M. ......................... Gospel Service

Wednesday.............Prayer Meeting and Bible Study, 8 p.m.

Jesus said: "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life."—John 14:6

Come! A Hearty Welcome Awaits You

Full Gospel Pentecostal Church

370 Water Street - - Near Simcoe Street

Pastor, Rev. Hugh J. McAlister

10 A.M. ............Sunday School and Bible Class

11 a.m. — — Devotional Service

7 p.m. — — Evangelistic Service

Subject: The Father's Love

We heartily invite you to listen to the Glad Tidings Gospel Broadcast over Station CHEX at 3 o'clock.

SPECIAL NOTE: We expect to have Rev. C. C. Scratch with us for a great missionary Sunday, May 28th. Mr. Scratch was interned in occupied China for a number of months and has a thrilling story to tell.

NAZARENE GOSPEL SERVICE

213 Charlotte St. — Rev. Clayton Kidd, Pastor

2.00 P.M. .................... Sunday School. Guest Speakers

3.00 P.M ................................ Preaching Service

7.00 P.M. ........................... Mr. G. W. Stenton

"A Friendly Place With Friendly People"

ELIM TABERNACLE

OLD LYCEUM HALL, SIMCOE ST.

(THE APOSTOLIC CHURCH IN CANADA)

Rev. F. C. Poole, Pastor

10 A.M. ........... Bible Class and Sunday School

11a.m. — The Good Shepherd

7 P.M. Christ Unknown and Unwanted

"ELIM TABERNACLE GOSPEL BROADCAST" OVER CHEX AT 1 P.M. DON'T MISS IT.

A hearty welcome is extended to all. Come and hear the old-time Gospel with old-time power.

FREE METHODIST CHURCH

Aylmer St.

REVIVALS — REVIVALS

Hear Outstanding Evangelist

A. L. McGuire, of Wiarton, Ontario

Services Each Night Except Saturday at 8 p.m.

Sunday 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.—S. S. at 3 p.m.

Special!—"Ambassador Male Quartette" of Toronto, at Church All Day Sunday.

Tune in CHEX May 24, 8.08-8.30 p.m. for Mid-week Meditations

ETERNITY — NEXT DOOR — TO THIS HOUR

REV. B. E. DAWSON, Pastor.

APOSTOLIC CHURCH

Paragon Hall—Corner George and Brock

Sunday Service 7 p.m.

Subject–The Devil's Capitulation

Don't fail to hear this stirring message on on Bible Prophecy

All Welcome—C. R. Ball in Charge

GOSPEL HALL

McDonnel St. (Near Water St.) LORD'S DAY

11 A.M. ............................ Lord's Supper

3 P.M. ............................ Sunday School

7 P.M. .................. Gospel and Song Service

Subject: "THE TREES OF THE BIBLE"

Friday, 8 P.M. ............ Young People's Meeting

"Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in His sight."—Rom. 3:20

You will enjoy these services—Plan to attend

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

183 CHARLOTTE STREET

All are Cordially Invited to Attend

SUNDAY CHURCH SERVICE 11:00 A.M.

Subject For Sunday, May 21st, 1944:

"SOUL AND BODY"

SUNDAY SCHOOL - 12:30 P.M.

Wednesday Evening Meetings are held at 8:00 o'clock, which include Testimonies of Healing through Christian Science

FREE PUBLIC READING ROOM

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Paul In Corinth

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Acts 18:1-18; I Cor. 12-14

Paul spent a short time in Athens, then went to Corinth, where he found a Jew named Aquila and his wife, Priscilla. They were tent-makers as was Paul, and he stayed with them and practised his craft with them.

Every Sabbath Paul reasoned with the Jews and Greeks in the synagogue, and when the Jews opposed him he shook his raiment, saying, "Your blood be upon your own head; henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles."

God appeared to Paul in a vision and told him not to fear, for He would let no harm come to him, but the Jews took Paul to the deputy, Gallio, and accused him; Gallio would not listen but sent them all away.

The Greeks, then, took the chief ruler of the synagogue and beat him before the judgment seat, and Gallio would not interfere. After some time Paul sailed from Corinth to Syria.

GOLDEN TEXT—I Cor. 13:13.

The Examiner

The Peterborough Examiner published each evening by Peterborough Examiner Limited Office Hunter and Water Streets Peterborough Ont.

W RUPERT DAVIES, President
H. L GARNER, General Manager
G WILSON CRAW Managing Editor

Subscription Rates 20c per week in City of Peterborough delivered by carrier; $6.00 per year by mail to outside points.

Members Canadian Press; Audit Bureau of Circulation; Canadian Daily Newspaper Association; Empire Press Union; Ontario Provincial Dailies Association.

TELEPHONE 4641
Private Branch Exchange to all Departments

History can be well written only in a free country. —VOLTAIRE.

SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1944

How British Is Canada?

The speech which the Prime Minister of Canada delivered before the British Lords and Commons was one of the best, if not the best, which he has made in a lifetime in which speechmaking has played a great part. It made a profound impression on his audience and on the British people; the press of Britain commented upon it at unusual length. Beyond any question of doubt Mr. King's speech was a great success.

• • •

It is natural that we in Canada should be extremely critical in our attitude toward the speech. To the people of Britain Mr. King represents the Dominion of Canada; here there are great numbers of people who are clamorous in their insistence that he does not represent them. One of the remarkable aspects of Mr. King's career has been the violence of antipathy which he arouses in the breasts of some of his opponents. Consequently the reception of his speech in Canada has been mixed, and criticism of it has ranged from what is reasonable and understandable to what is ridiculous and embittered.

• • •

A criticism of the speech which has been made by the Ottawa Journal deserves more than passing attention. Here it is:

"We have read the seven columns of the speech carefully (twice over) and we do not recall one word about any motive save Canadian philanthropy. Let us do Mr. King justice. Here are his words:

"'Ours was not primarily a response to a call of blood or race. It was the outcome of our deepest political instinct—a love of freedom and a sense of justice'.

"Again and again Mr. King rang the changes on the dogma that Canada is an independent country which first jumped into the war because we want to fight for the freedom of the world. We didn't do anything of the kind. Simply we jumped into the war to fight with Great Britain. At the outset, we had no other sufficient cause to go into the war. We were not a darn bit concerned for the freedom of the world; if for no other reason than that the freedom of the world did not seem to be in danger at the outset. The armies of Great Britain and France were intact, the British fleet was supreme—nobody envisaged the real strength of Germany, or sudden triumph of the German power over France—nor did we jump into the war through fear of our own fate. If that had been suggested, a good many in Canada would have shrugged their shoulders and remarked, 'well, even if Britain and France are licked, the United States will protect us. The Monroe doctrine will apply to Germany; and the United States can lick Germany'.

"No—Canada did not jump into this war for either the freedom of the world or for fear of its own hide. Canada jumped into this war because Canada is British".

• • •

We admire the spirit which prompts this criticism, and we almost wish that what the Journal says were true. But we do not think that it is true, and the Journal is certainly on boggy ground when it writes as follows:

"Continual hocus-pocus talk about our Canadian position in the British Commonwealth of Nations as being free of any obligations except our self interest is popular among many of our politicians because they don't want to offend some sections of our people by appearing to be too British. Mr. King's elaborate emphasis on the idea that Canada had merely an overwhelming determination at the first flash to martyr itself for the freedom of the world is bush-wah; and it seems time for some plain-speaking to be done to the effect that the majority in this country are British; and until the contrary may be true about the majority, which it just isn't yet and we hope never will be, this country will stand by the Empire, not because we are concerned for the freedom of the world but because we are concerned for our own great British heritage. The majority of us in this country are not merely British by blood or by naturalization, but British by pride".

◆ ◆ ◆

Let us consider the facts of the matter as they are set down in the Canadian Almanac. According to that authority the population of Canada in 1941 was 11,506,655, of whom 5,715,904 were of British origin; the remaining 5,790,751 are not of British origin and they cannot be expected to have the same feelings about Britain as the other, and very slightly smaller, group. They went to war, we think, for the reasons which Mr. King set forward; they cannot have felt a call of blood, or an emotional urge to rush to Britain's side.

• • •

It is time that we woke up to the fact that the people of Canada are no longer predominantly British in extraction. If we wish to change that situation we shall have to do so by a carefully controlled plan of immigration. But let us get this fact straight in our heads: Canada is British in allegiance, but it is not primarily British in stock.

The Black Camel

There is a Turkish proverb which says: "Death is a black camel that kneels once at every man's door". This week the black camel came to three men who had lived long lives and who left many to mourn them whom they themselves had never known. One of them was George Ade, the American humourist who is best remembered for his Fables In Slang, although he was also a successful playwright. George Ade wrote the Fables to amuse newspaper readers, and did not hold them in especially high regard himself, but they made him famous and they provoked many discussions among literary critics, some of whom insisted that Ade was the greatest fabulist since the mighty Aesop. Many writers who depend upon slang for their effects grow tiresome; Ade never did. In his hands slang was not merely a straining after neologisms; it was a supple and delicate instrument for the expression of thoughts which could not well be expressed in any other language. Certainly his name will live as one of the great American comic writers.

• • •

Sir Arthur Quiller-Couch died as the result of injuries which he sustained when he was knocked down by a jeep while taking his daily walk. This great Cornishman distinguished himself during his eighty years as a writer, a professor and a critic. He is best known for his Oxford Book of English Verse, perhaps the most popular anthology in our language, of which more than half a million copies have been sold. "Q" was remarkable also for having held professorial chairs both at Oxford and Cambridge. He was a keen yachtsman, and waged a lifelong war against teetotallers. He once defied his enemies to name six great poets and six great critics who had been teetotallers, and even Bernard Shaw was unable to produce any names save those of himself and Shelley. As well as being a great scholar "Q" was a great character, and his long life was filled with event.

• • •

Sir John Martin-Harvey died in his eighty-second year; an appreciation of this great actor's art will appear on this page next Tuesday. One anecdote of him may be given here, however. In 1938 the actors of England decided to honour the centenary of the birth of Sir Henry Irving by giving a great matinee performance of scenes from Irving's plays at the Lyceum Theatre in London. The idea was a good one, but it was not well carried out, and the performance would have made the sardonic Irving snort with disgust. Not the least of its faults was that the committee in charge of the program failed to ask Martin-Harvey—the last of Irving's great pupils—to take a share in it. Naturally the old actor was affronted, and suggested that he might speak a verse tribute to his former master at the close of the matinee. For some reason this matter was not satisfactorily cleared up, and the matinee was drawing to its close when the stage-door keeper rushed to John Gielgud, who was in charge of the finale, and said "There's an old gent at the door dressed as Nero who says 'e's going to act!" The old gent was Sir John Martin-Harvey, resplendent in the robes he wore in Oedipus Rex, and Gielgud had to explain to him that there was nothing for him to do except perhaps to appear on the stage with a crowd of others! So the last of Irving's company stepped back into his limousine and drove away in a bad temper. Had matters been better arranged the scene might have been a graceful close to a long and notable career.

NOTE AND COMMENT

A Kansas paper records: "Fifteen babies were born here on Easter Day, 13 in private hospitals and two by general delivery". What mailmen have to put up with!

---

"Mosquitoes Rip Berlin Without Loss" says a headline. And now that we have resumed our summer sport of stoop-settin' we regret to report that the mosquitoes rip us without loss, too.

---

A Quebec soldier confesses that he ate a piece of photographic film given to him by a sorceress, in order that his medical board should think that he had tuberculosis. The Windsor Star suggests that such cases should be heard in camera.

---

A statistician reveals that the Average Woman spends 47 hours each year looking through her handbag for something which is probably in her other handbag. But then, has any man ever met a woman who admitted that she was average?

Diary Of A Valetudinarian

By
SAMUEL MARCHBANKS

SUNDAY: A visitor who dropped in to see me this afternoon mentioned my diary, and said, "Mr. M., you seem to write a great deal about your ailments, your neuralgia and your indigestion and so forth. Do you really think that anyone is interested? And why do you seem to have so many more ills than other people?" I was not pleased by this, and replied thus: "Madam, scores of people say to me every day, 'How do you do?' In order to save their time and mine, I always say, 'I'm very well, thank you,' but it is not true. Once a week in my diary I tell the world how I really have done during the past seven days. My health is poor because I am a writer. All writers are valetudinarians. The wild scramble for material, the rush to get it into shape in time for publication, the agonizing search for the right word—these are the things which turn writers into nervous wrecks. You, who rarely write so much as a postcard, cannot imagine how nerve-wracking a writer's life is." She was properly abashed; anyway she changed the subject.

◆ ◆ ◆

MONDAY: Owing to the kind intervention of a friend, I laid hands on some pipe-cleaners today, and spent a happy hour dredging black, noisome goo from my pipes. Smoking is an enjoyable luxury, but no one can deny that it is dirty. What I cleaned out of my pipes was disgusting, but I dare say it was a trifle to the filth that I have sucked down into my lungs.... Dipped briefly into a book a visitor left with me called "Psycho-Somatic Medicine," the thesis of which seems to be that body and mind are inseparable, and that it is foolish to treat disease in one without at least suspecting the existence of fault in the other. This has been a commonplace of philosophy for several centuries, and all good doctors have always recognized it. But apparently it is only now being put on a scientific footing, and the world is full of people who pay no attention to anything until it has been proved by scientific means.

◆ ◆ ◆

TUESDAY: The Doukhobors have been making trouble again by taking off their clothes. Apparently the important thing about stripping is the way you do it. The pictures in the papers show several young male Doukhobors with their shirts off, and a few in their underpants; they reveal no more than they would if they wore bathing suits. The female Doukhobors apparently remove whatever comes off most easily. But as their intention is to dsturb the peace, and as they apparently strip in order to call the attention of God to their innocence and purity of intention, they create a good deal of indignation. If they simply went to a beach and lay about in the sand no one would give them a second glance. The convention that the human body is an obscene secret which we are all agreed to keep from one another dies hard.... Attended a band concert tonight and recalled that one of my childhood ambitions was to play a trombone. Its plangent blarings used to seem to me to be the most moving of all sounds. Horns and drums, being the most primitive instruments appeal most to children.

◆ ◆ ◆

WEDNESDAY: Today I seemed to be filled with daemonic energy, and attacked my work with a will; everything seemed to favour me and I finished jobs which had been hanging fire for a fortnight. Now what causes such days, I wonder? If only they could be persuaded to come more often life would be a glad sweet song. ....Someone remarked to me today that all men look alike in evening dress. This is only because men make a fetish of uniformity. Allow a few dress coats with velvet collars, or in green or mulberry broadcloth; make the breadth, length and floppiness of a dress tie a matter of individual choice; case the male ankle in polka-dot or clocked socks, and the uniformity would vanish at once. But no; men are incurably stupid about clothes and they ask nothing better than to look exactly like the next fellow.... I read that Lord Woolton, like Mr. Churchill, is a devotee of the after-lunch snooze. Would it be a good idea to introduce the siesta to moderate climates? It would save many office-workers from their present trick of snatching forty winks while they pretend to be thinking.

◆ ◆ ◆

THURSDAY: There has been a merry to-do in the papers because the visiting sages of the Information Please program thought that Queen's University was in Toronto. Personally I have never been able to remember whether it is Harvard or Yale which is located at Cambridge, Mass. I know that Colombia is in New York city, but I could not place Notre Dame or Rutgers on the map if my life depended on it.... "The secret of successful golf is relaxation," a golf expert says in a magazine I picked up. The secret of almost anything is relaxation, if you ask me. But what is the secret of relaxation? I have met scores of people, who were striving to relax in order to play golf, or cure their indigestion, or increase their capacity to work for long hours, or to bring themselves into direct communion with God. But the more they strove, the less relaxed they were. Confucius said that those who strove for calm would never gain it, and he was right. A lifelong fidget and jumping-jack myself, I have at least gained enough wisdom to see what Confucius meant.

◆ ◆ ◆

FRIDAY: A lady has written to me in high indignation, demanding to know what I meant by my remarks last week about the necessity of some women being beautiful; do I think that women are toys, she demands? Yes, madam; women are toys, among other things. And it is a very clever woman who knows when to be a toy, and how long to go on being a toy. I have the highest regard for women, and the more like women they are, the better I like them. But when they turn themselves into talking-machines, hard-faced climbers and uplift-vendors, they cease to be women and become pests. Nothing is so detestable as the woman who is really an inferior man.... I have been feeding my hedge with a solution of vitamin B1 which seems to do it a great deal of good: what an age we live in when even plants have to be dosed with medicine! Nature is in for a rough period, I can see.

◆ ◆ ◆

SATURDAY: Buying some cigarettes today, my eye was caught by a small magazine of Canadian origin labelled as "Intimate, Revealing Stories of Love," so I bought a copy. It was not intimate or revealing, and it had no connection with anything which I should call love; it was a pitiable little magazine, trying hard to be pornographic and lawful at the same time. It was funny, however, if you like unconscious humour.... One of the paradoxes of literature is that several classics, easily available in cheap editions, are far dirtier than these poor little magazines of "intimate and revealing" stories, but the boobs who are looking for dirt would never think of going to a classic author for it. But in pornography as in everything else, class will tell.... Passed the evening talking to a capitalist, and renewed a conviction I have long held that there is something very attractive about the rich, even today, when the poor creatures are in moult.

OMINOUS CLOAK —By Rube Goldberg

The "Prince of Nizam"

(KINGSTON WHIG-STANDARD)

WE have noticed on several occasions recently that some of our contemporaries, including T. D. F. of The Ottawa Citizen, made reference to the "Prince of Nizam", naming him the richest man in the world. The title aroused our curiosity, for that wasn't the way we heard it. So we looked up the name and titles of the richest man in the world, and sure enough we found that he is the Nizas of Hyderabad, whose person and possessions were described in a recent issue of The Saturday Evening Post. He rejoices in the following resounding string of names: Rustam-i-Dowram Arastu-i-Zaman Muzaffar-ul-Mulkwal-Mamalik Fatet Jung, Nizan-ul-Dowla Nizam-ul-Mulk Asaf Jah Sultan-ul-Uloom Sipah Salar General Nawab Sir Mir Ali Osman Khan Bahadur, G.C.S.I., G.C.B.E., Faithful Ally of the British Government. And he has many more millions of dollars than there are letters to his name and titles.

This ruler with the top-heavy titles and the bottomless purse is a frail little man with full powers of life and death over his 17,000,000 subjects. His principality covers 83,000 square miles on the plateau of the Deccan in Southern India —an area about the size of England and Scotland combined. The state of Hyderabad and its ruler seem like a dream straight out of the Arabian Nights, according to Ernest O. Hauser, The Post correspondent who recently spent a fortnight at the Nizam's court.

For the sake of brevity, His Exalted Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad is customarily referred to in conversation as Osman. And he and his habits are favorite subjects of conversation among the Hyderabadis. For one thing, Osman is the world's greatest miser. He permits himself a budget of $5 per week, and lives on a shaky old verandah which he shares with a pet goat. He has to live on the verandah or else build a new palace, for his vast store of gold and silver and jewels occupy every room of the present establishment—stowed away in half forgotten corners and overflowing into the grounds. Twenty years ago a truck drove into the grounds, loaded with bars of gold. There was no room to store them, so Osman mounted a sentry over the truck as a temporary measure. Truck and sentry —and gold—are still there.

Once upon a time Osman decided to clean his pearls. He had them taken from their sacks, washed, and intended to have them graded. The pearls covered the roofs of every building in the palace compound; it took a herd of servants three days to spread them out, and the monumental task of grading had to be abandoned. Hyderabadis often boasts that the Nizam could lay a pavement of pearls from Charing Cross to Oxford Circus, in London. They are not exaggerating very much.

And yet, with all this wealth, there is no nearer man with a rupee in the length and breadth of India. Although his regime has been reasonably progressive, Osman's personal attachment to the chips is so legendary that innumerable jokes are made about it. He knows about them and relishes them, particularly one which is supposed to run as follows: A courtier had an audience with Osman but, finding him asleep, feared to waken him. He told his troubles to a fellow-courtier who laughed and said that all that was necessary to snap Osman out of it was to clink two coins together. Osman tells this, it is said, with a gentle smile, seated on his goat-habited verandah, to which he has been thrust by the bulging treasure confined in the walls behind him.

If anyone can do anything about this, we'll go as high as one-half of one per cent. for a plausible and practical solution.

Why Be Ashamed Of Ourselves?

(WINDSOR STAR)

DR. H. A. BRUCE'S unjustifiably suspicious questions about praise of Canada uttered by an American columnist are important only insofar as they reflect a far too prevalent attitude on the part of Canadians politically opposed to the Government. The Parkdale Member's opinion of Mr. Walter Winchell is a matter of no interest whatever, nor is anyone in Canada called on to defend the reputation of the commentator. What is of concern to us is the fact that there are people in this country so politically-minded that they will deprecate and slander the part the Dominion is playing in the war, for purely party reasons.

Mr. Winchell went out of his way to pay tribute to what this country has done. Thereby he did more, in a few minutes, to put this matter straight before the people of the United States than our own Wartime Information Board has done in months. His reward from those of whom he spoke kindly is an insinuation that he was paid by the Government for what he did, that he was used merely as a tool of a Liberal propaganda machine.

◆ ◆ ◆

If this were an isolated incident, it would scarcely be worth mentioning. Unfortunately, however, it is indicative of a far too widespread attitude on the part of Canadians. It is the state of mind which interprets every word of praise for the country's war effort as merely a "plug" for the Government.

There is no objection to political activity in wartime. In fact, a certain amount of it is necessary to keep the men in charge of our affairs on their toes. But the uncompromising belief that everything the Government does is wrong, and that no good word should ever be spoken of it, is not only short-sighted but actually unpatriotic.

The Government is, after all, the group placed in control of the affairs of this country at the desire of the people. By virtue of its position, it must accept responsibility for the leadership of the nation and for the formulation of policies. It is subject to blame for its shortcomings, but it is, by the same token, entitled to credit for what it does that is right.

Nor should it be overlooked that, since the war began, the Government has been accorded a new mandate by the citizens. This was certainly an expression of continued confidence. Whether that confidence has since been lost can be decided only by another vote, and this will come in due course.

In the meantime, the unreasoning, destructive attacks which are being launched against it are doing no one any good. Their sole effect is to slander the country. The political opponents of the Government are fouling their own nests. And those who adopt these tactics are usually those who can advance not one idea for improving our war effort. They are bent merely on tearing down those in authority, and they are not greatly concerned if, in the process, they tear down Canada.

Mr. de Valera's Election

In one respect Eire has held fast to British political traditions; when its Government is defeated in Parliament on a major issue it proceeds to resign and appeal to the country. That, really, is all there is to Mr. de Valera's decision to hold an election; it has nothing whatever to do with his policy of neutrality, supported by his opponents as ardently as he supports it himself.

General Mulcahy, leader of the principal opposition party, proclaims himself a believer in co-operation with the British Commonwealth, but while it may be that he would go farther in that direction than Mr. de Valera, there is no reason for believing that he would go as far as to end neutrality. Actually, the only responsible southern Irish public man to come out openly against neutrality is Mr. James Dillon, a son of the old Irish Nationalist, John Dillon. At the last election he was returned for his constituency of Roscommon, but he has no followers in the Dail.—Ottawa Journal.

Hard To Believe How Time Flies

MAY 20

1914 The home of Mrs. John Armstrong on the River Road above Auburn is destroyed by fire.

Constable F. Burnham of the Peterborough police department has sent in his resignation.

Although Ringling Bros. Circus has cancelled its Peterborough date the Mighty Robinson Shows will visit here.

City council decides to purchase a strip of land 16 by 350 feet for the purpose of widening Prince street.

Lieut. Col. E. B. Clegg is presented with a blackthorne stick at the annual dinner of No. 6 Company of the 57th Regiment.

---

1924 Dr. E. E. Harvey, one of the city's well known physicans dies at his home after a long illness.

Walter Peters reports that Peterborough has had frost for the past five nights.

The Quaker Oats Company has converted the old raceway on the east side of the river into tennis courts.

Downeyville neighbours present a purse to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clancy who are moving to Peterborough.

Western Clock Company team defeats Bankers 4 to 3 in a Mercantile Baseball League game.

---

1934 The local enumerators are ready to begin their job of preparing the voters' lists for the coming election.

Dr. L. F. Austin of Queen's University gives the annual Halliday lecture to the local Medical Society.

Joseph McGinty for many years train inspector with the C.N.R. dies at his home here.

The city council has decided to seek the services of a full-time medical officer of health.

This city has had almost an inch of rain since yesterday after a long dry spell.

Contemporaries

INDIGNANT LEADER

Russian-born Sam Wolchuk, leader of the strike at Montgomery Ward, is on the CIO payroll at $10,000 a year. Sam's indignation upon beholding salesgirls who make only $25 a week is therefore understandable.—Windsor Star.

HARDY SCOTS

The Scots are hardy folk. From Dunoon comes a report that His Grace the 72-year-old Duke of Argyll has been convicted and "admonished" for whacking the 79-year-old Clerk of Inverary with a walking stick. No doubt some husky young Caledonian of 90 came along, stopped the fight and banged the squabblers' heads together. —Brantford Expositor.

THE ONLY METHOD

Far removed from the horrors of war 10,000 Nazis incarcerated in a camp near Lethbridge, Alta., celebrated Hitler's birthday by cutting a monstrous birthday cake. This incident emphasizes that in dealing with Germany unconditional surrender is the only sure method of checking the fervor of the Fuehrer's followers.—Renfrew Mercury.

PET AVERSIONS

Some of the things that still jar us—lipstick on a cup—fingernails half an inch from the end of the finger—four-inch heels—half a cigaret on the plate—hair dye on a middle-aged man—ungartered socks (on men)—people with colds who stand on top of us in the 5.45 bus—archair prophets of the invasion—complacency about anything.—London Free Press.

R.A.F. COOKIES

This story of a German lieutenant captured by a British officer comes from Italy. They talked about the war as they waited for an escort to take the prisoner down the line for interrogation. "Your bombing of Berlin is inexcusable," he complained.

"But the Germans bombed London first," pointed out his captor.

"Yes," replied the German, "but look how large your bombs are."—London Answers.

IN THE MINORITY

But for every 'teen aged boy or girl today who has strayed from the straight and narrow, for every urchin who has been picked up for some minor offence, the reformers, if they really want to look, can find hundreds of decent, worthwhile serious youngsters, who are fully as good as any past generation and probably better. If the calamity-howlers want to talk about youth, let them give us an honest picture, and not a picture which has been distorted for the sake of sensation, or which stems from a mind which concentrates so much on evil that it can think no good.—Saint John Telegraph-Journal.

SEA TRAVEL

Whatever the future of the trans-Atlantic air services may be, there is still a demand for sea voyages.

The Cunard Line are being kept very busy with reservations in the Queen Mary and the Queen Elizabeth for first voyages after the war.

Both liners are now in "battle dress," but they will be put into normal commission as soon as possible after the war.

The Queen Elizabeth has yet to make a commerical voyage. Her first trip will be regarded as her maiden voyage, and the Cunard offices in New York have an impressive passenger list already in reservations.—London Daily Sketch.

A Bible Message

And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou son of David, have mercy on us. And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord. Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you. And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country. As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil. And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel....

And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. (Matt. 9: 27-33, 35.)

The Examiner

The Peterborough Examiner published each evening by Peterborough Examiner Limited Office Hunter and Water Streets Peterborough Ont.

W RUPERT DAVIES, President
H. L GARNER, General Manager
G WILSON CRAW Managing Editor

Subscription Rates 20c per week in City of Peterborough delivered by carrier, $6.00 per year by mail to outside points.

Members Canadian Press; Audit Bureau of Circulation; Canadian Daily Newspaper Association; Empire Press Union; Ontario Provincial Dailies Association.

TELEPHONE 4641
Private Branch Exchange to all Departments

History can be well written only in a free country. —VOLTAIRE.

SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1944

How British Is Canada?

The speech which the Prime Minister of Canada delivered before the British Lords and Commons was one of the best, if not the best, which he has made in a lifetime in which speechmaking has played a great part. It made a profound impression on his audience and on the British people; the press of Britain commented upon it at unusual length. Beyond any question of doubt Mr. King's speech was a great success.

• • •

It is natural that we in Canada should be extremely critical in our attitude toward the speech. To the people of Britain Mr. King represents the Dominion of Canada; here there are great numbers of people who are clamorous in their insistence that he does not represent them. One of the remarkable aspects of Mr. King's career has been the violence of antipathy which he arouses in the breasts of some of his opponents. Consequently the reception of his speech in Canada has been mixed, and criticism of it has ranged from what is reasonable and understandable to what is ridiculous and embittered.

• • •

A criticism of the speech which has been made by the Ottawa Journal deserves more than passing attention. Here it is:

"We have read the seven columns of the speech carefully (twice over) and we do not recall one word about any motive save Canadian philanthropy. Let us do Mr. King justice. Here are his words:

"'Ours was not primarily a response to a call of blood or race. It was the outcome of our deepest political instinct—a love of freedom and a sense of justice'.

"Again and again Mr. King rang the changes on the dogma that Canada is an independent country which first jumped into the war because we want to fight for the freedom of the world. We didn't do anything of the kind. Simply we jumped into the war to fight with Great Britain. At the outset, we had no other sufficient cause to go into the war. We were not a darn bit concerned for the freedom of the world; if for no other reason than that the freedom of the world did not seem to be in danger at the outset. The armies of Great Britain and France were intact, the British fleet was supreme—nobody envisaged the real strength of Germany, or sudden triumph of the German power over France—nor did we jump into the war through fear of our own fate. If that had been suggested, a good many in Canada would have shrugged their shoulders and remarked, 'well, even if Britain and France are licked, the United States will protect us. The Monroe doctrine will apply to Germany; and the United States can lick Germany'.

"No—Canada did not jump into this war for either the freedom of the world or for fear of its own hide. Canada jumped into this war because Canada is British".

• • •

We admire the spirit which prompts this criticism, and we almost wish that what the Journal says were true. But we do not think that it is true, and the Journal is certainly on boggy ground when it writes as follows:

"Continual hocus-pocus talk about our Canadian position in the British Commonwealth of Nations as being free of any obligations except our self interest is popular among many of our politicians because they don't want to offend some sections of our people by appearing to be too British. Mr. King's elaborate emphasis on the idea that Canada had merely an overwhelming determination at the first flash to martyr itself for the freedom of the world is bush-wah; and it seems time for some plain-speaking to be done to the effect that the majority in this country are British; and until the contrary may be true about the majority, which it just isn't yet and we hope never will be, this country will stand by the Empire, not because we are concerned for the freedom of the world but because we are concerned for our own great British heritage. The majority of us in this country are not merely British by blood or by naturalization, but British by pride".

◊ ◊ ◊

Let us consider the facts of the matter as they are set down in the Canadian Almanac. According to that authority the population of Canada in 1941 was 11,506,655, of whom 5,715,904 were of British origin; the remaining 5,790,751 are not of British origin and they cannot be expected to have the same feelings about Britain as the other, and very slightly smaller, group. They went to war, we think, for the reasons which Mr. King set forward; they cannot have felt a call of blood, or an emotional urge to rush to Britain's side.

• • •

It is time that we woke up to the fact that the people of Canada are no longer predominantly British in extraction. If we wish to change that situation we shall have to do so by a carefully controlled plan of immigration. But let us get this fact straight in our heads: Canada is British in allegiance, but it is not primarily British in stock.

The Black Camel

There is a Turkish proverb which says: "Death is a black camel that kneels once at every man's door". This week the black camel came to three men who had lived long lives and who left many to mourn them whom they themselves had never known. One of them was George Ade, the American humourist who is best remembered for his Fables In Slang, although he was also a successful playwright. George Ade wrote the Fables to amuse newspaper readers, and did not hold them in especially high regard himself, but they made him famous and they provoked many discussions among literary critics, some of whom insisted that Ade was the greatest fabulist since the mighty Aesop. Many writers who depend upon slang for their effects grow tiresome; Ade never did. In his hands slang was not merely a straining after neologisms; it was a supple and delicate instrument for the expression of thoughts which could not well be expressed in any other language. Certainly his name will live as one of the great American comic writers.

• • •

Sir Arthur Quiller-Couch died as the result of injuries which he sustained when he was knocked down by a jeep while taking his daily walk. This great Cornishman distinguished himself during his eighty years as a writer, a professor and a critic. He is best known for his Oxford Book of English Verse, perhaps the most popular anthology in our language, of which more than half a million copies have been sold. "Q" was remarkable also for having held professorial chairs both at Oxford and Cambridge. He was a keen yachtsman, and waged a lifelong war against teetotallers. He once defied his enemies to name six great poets and six great critics who had been teetotallers, and even Bernard Shaw was unable to produce any names save those of himself and Shelley. As well as being a great scholar "Q" was a great character, and his long life was filled with event.

• • •

Sir John Martin-Harvey died in his eighty-second year; an appreciation of this great actor's art will appear on this page next Tuesday. One anecdote of him may be given here, however. In 1938 the actors of England decided to honour the centenary of the birth of Sir Henry Irving by giving a great matinee performance of scenes from Irving's plays at the Lyceum Theatre in London. The idea was a good one, but it was not well carried out, and the performance would have made the sardonic Irving snort with disgust. Not the least of its faults was that the committee in charge of the program failed to ask Martin-Harvey—the last of Irving's great pupils—to take a share in it. Naturally the old actor was affronted, and suggested that he might speak a verse tribute to his former master at the close of the matinee. For some reason this matter was not satisfactorily cleared up, and the matinee was drawing to its close when the stage-door keeper rushed to John Gielgud, who was in charge of the finale, and said "There's an old gent at the door dressed as Nero who says 'e's going to act!" The old gent was Sir John Martin-Harvey, resplendent in the robes he wore in Oedipus Rex, and Gielgud had to explain to him that there was nothing for him to do except perhaps to appear on the stage with a crowd of others! So the last of Irving's company stepped back into his limousine and drove away in a bad temper. Had matters been better arranged the scene might have been a graceful close to a long and notable career.

NOTE AND COMMENT

A Kansas paper records: "Fifteen babies were born here on Easter Day, 13 in private hospitals and two by general delivery". What mailmen have to put up with!

---

"Mosquitoes Rip Berlin Without Loss" says a headline. And now that we have resumed our summer sport of stoop-settin' we regret to report that the mosquitoes rip us without loss, too.

---

A Quebec soldier confesses that he ate a piece of photographic film given to him by a sorceress, in order that his medical board should think that he had tuberculosis. The Windsor Star suggests that such cases should be heard in camera.

---

A statistician reveals that the Average Woman spends 47 hours each year looking through her handbag for something which is probably in her other handbag. But then, has any man ever met a woman who admitted that she was average?

Diary Of A Valetudinarian

By
SAMUEL MARCHBANKS

SUNDAY: A visitor who dropped in to see me this afternoon mentioned my diary, and said, "Mr. M., you seem to write a great deal about your ailments, your neuralgia and your indigestion and so forth. Do you really think that anyone is interested? And why do you seem to have so many more ills than other people?" I was not pleased by this, and replied thus: "Madam, scores of people say to me every day, 'How do you do?' In order to save their time and mine, I always say, 'I'm very well, thank you,' but it is not true. Once a week in my diary I tell the world how I really have done during the past seven days. My health is poor because I am a writer. All writers are valetudinarians. The wild scramble for material, the rush to get it into shape in time for publication, the agonizing search for the right word—these are the things which turn writers into nervous wrecks. You, who rarely write so much as a postcard, cannot imagine how nerve-wracking a writer's life is." She was properly abashed; anyway she changed the subject.

◊ ◊ ◊

MONDAY: Owing to the kind intervention of a friend, I laid hands on some pipe-cleaners today, and spent a happy hour dredging black, noisome goo from my pipes. Smoking is an enjoyable luxury, but no one can deny that it is dirty. What I cleaned out of my pipes was disgusting, but I dare say it was a trifle to the filth that I have sucked down into my lungs.... Dipped briefly into a book a visitor left with me called "Psycho-Somatic Medicine," the thesis of which seems to be that body and mind are inseparable, and that it is foolish to treat disease in one without at least suspecting the existence of fault in the other. This has been a commonplace of philosophy for several centuries, and all good doctors have always recognized it. But apparently it is only now being put on a scientific footing, and the world is full of people who pay no attention to anything until it has been proved by scientific means.

◊ ◊ ◊

TUESDAY: The Doukhobors have been making trouble again by taking off their clothes. Apparently the important thing about stripping is the way you do it. The pictures in the papers show several young male Doukhobors with their shirts off, and a few in their underpants; they reveal no more than they would if they wore bathing suits. The female Doukhobors apparently remove whatever comes off most easily. But as their intention is to dsturb the peace, and as they apparently strip in order to call the attention of God to their innocence and purity of intention, they create a good deal of indignation. If they simply went to a beach and lay about in the sand no one would give them a second glance. The convention that the human body is an obscene secret which we are all agreed to keep from one another dies hard.... Attended a band concert tonight and recalled that one of my childhood ambitions was to play a trombone. Its plangent blarings used to seem to me to be the most moving of all sounds. Horns and drums, being the most primitive instruments appeal most to children.

◊ ◊ ◊

WEDNESDAY: Today I seemed to be filled with daemonic energy, and attacked my work with a will; everything seemed to favour me and I finished jobs which had been hanging fire for a fortnight. Now what causes such days, I wonder? If only they could be persuaded to come more often life would be a glad sweet song. ....Someone remarked to me today that all men look alike in evening dress. This is only because men make a fetish of uniformity. Allow a few dress coats with velvet collars, or in green or mulberry broadcloth; make the breadth, length and floppiness of a dress tie a matter of individual choice; case the male ankle in polka-dot or clocked socks, and the uniformity would vanish at once. But no; men are incurably stupid about clothes and they ask nothing better than to look exactly like the next fellow.... I read that Lord Woolton, like Mr. Churchill, is a devotee of the after-lunch snooze. Would it be a good idea to introduce the siesta to moderate climates? It would save many office-workers from their present trick of snatching forty winks while they pretend to be thinking.

◊ ◊ ◊

THURSDAY: There has been a merry to-do in the papers because the visiting sages of the Information Please program thought that Queen's University was in Toronto. Personally I have never been able to remember whether it is Harvard or Yale which is located at Cambridge, Mass. I know that Colombia is in New York city, but I could not place Notre Dame or Rutgers on the map if my life depended on it.... "The secret of successful golf is relaxation," a golf expert says in a magazine I picked up. The secret of almost anything is relaxation, if you ask me. But what is the secret of relaxation? I have met scores of people, who were striving to relax in order to play golf, or cure their indigestion, or increase their capacity to work for long hours, or to bring themselves into direct communion with God. But the more they strove, the less relaxed they were. Confucius said that those who strove for calm would never gain it, and he was right. A lifelong fidget and jumping-jack myself, I have at least gained enough wisdom to see what Confucius meant.

◊ ◊ ◊

FRIDAY: A lady has written to me in high indignation, demanding to know what I meant by my remarks last week about the necessity of some women being beautiful; do I think that women are toys, she demands? Yes, madam; women are toys, among other things. And it is a very clever woman who knows when to be a toy, and how long to go on being a toy. I have the highest regard for women, and the more like women they are, the better I like them. But when they turn themselves into talking-machines, hard-faced climbers and uplift-vendors, they cease to be women and become pests. Nothing is so detestable as the woman who is really an inferior man....I have been feeding my hedge with a solution of vitamin B1 which seems to do it a great deal of good: what an age we live in when even plants have to be dosed with medicine! Nature is in for a rough period, I can see.

◊ ◊ ◊

SATURDAY: Buying some cigarettes today, my eye was caught by a small magazine of Canadian origin labelled as "Intimate, Revealing Stories of Love," so I bought a copy. It was not intimate or revealing, and it had no connection with anything which I should call love; it was a pitiable little magazine, trying hard to be pornographic and lawful at the same time. It was funny, however, if you like unconscious humour.... One of the paradoxes of literature is that several classics, easily available in cheap editions, are far dirtier than these poor little magazines of "intimate and revealing" stories, but the boobs who are looking for dirt would never think of going to a classic author for it. But in pornography as in everything else, class will tell.... Passed the evening talking to a capitalist, and renewed a conviction I have long held that there is something very attractive about the rich, even today, when the poor creatures are in moult.

OMINOUS CLOAK —By Rube Goldberg

The "Prince of Nizam"

(KINGSTON WHIG-STANDARD)

WE have noticed on several occasions recently that some of our contemporaries, including T. D. F. of The Ottawa Citizen, made reference to the "Prince of Nizam", naming him the richest man in the world. The title aroused our curiosity, for that wasn't the way we heard it. So we looked up the name and titles of the richest man in the world, and sure enough we found that he is the Nizas of Hyderabad, whose person and possessions were described in a recent issue of The Saturday Evening Post. He rejoices in the following resounding string of names: Rustam-i-Dowram Arastu-i-Zaman Muzaffar-ul-Mulkwal-Mamalik Fatet Jung, Nizan-ul-Dowla Nizam-ul-Mulk Asaf Jah Sultan-ul-Uloom Sipah Salar General Nawab Sir Mir Ali Osman Khan Bahadur, G.C.S.I., G.C.B.E., Faithful Ally of the British Government. And he has many more millions of dollars than there are letters to his name and titles.

This ruler with the top-heavy titles and the bottomless purse is a frail little man with full powers of life and death over his 17,000,000 subjects. His principality covers 83,000 square miles on the plateau of the Deccan in Southern India—an area about the size of England and Scotland combined. The state of Hyderabad and its ruler seem like a dream straight out of the Arabian Nights, according to Ernest O. Hauser, The Post correspondent who recently spent a fortnight at the Nizam's court.

For the sake of brevity, His Exalted Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad is customarily referred to in conversation as Osman. And he and his habits are favorite subjects of conversation among the Hyderabadis. For one thing, Osman is the world's greatest miser. He permits himself a budget of $5 per week, and lives on a shaky old verandah which he shares with a pet goat. He has to live on the verandah or else build a new palace, for his vast store of gold and silver and jewels occupy every room of the present establishment—stowed away in half forgotten corners and overflowing into the grounds. Twenty years ago a truck drove into the grounds, loaded with bars of gold. There was no room to store them, so Osman mounted a sentry over the truck as a temporary measure. Truck and sentry—and gold—are still there.

Once upon a time Osman decided to clean his pearls. He had them taken from their sacks, washed, and intended to have them graded. The pearls covered the roofs of every building in the palace compound: it took a herd of servants three days to spread them out, and the monumental task of grading had to be abandoned. Hyderabadis often boasts that the Nizam could lay a pavement of pearls from Charing Cross to Oxford Circus, in London. They are not exaggerating very much.

And yet, with all this wealth, there is no nearer man with a rupee in the length and breadth of India. Although his regime has been reasonably progressive, Osman's personal attachment to the chips is so legendary that innumerable jokes are made about it. He knows about them and relishes them, particularly one which is supposed to run as follows: A courtier had an audience with Osman but, finding him asleep, feared to waken him. He told his troubles to a fellow-courtier who laughed and said that all that was necessary to snap Osman out of it was to clink two coins together. Osman tells this, it is said, with a gentle smile, seated on his goat-habited verandah, to which he has been thrust by the bulging treasure confined in the walls behind him.

If anyone can do anything about this, we'll go as high as one-half of one per cent. for a plausible and practical solution.

Why Be Ashamed Of Ourselves ?

(WINDSOR STAR)

DR. H. A. BRUCE'S unjustifiably suspicious questions about praise of Canada uttered by an American columnist are important only insofar as they reflect a far too prevalent attitude on the part of Canadians politically opposed to the Government. The Parkdale Member's opinion of Mr. Walter Winchell is a matter of no interest whatever, nor is anyone in Canada called on to defend the reputation of the commentator. What is of concern to us is the fact that there are people in this country so politically-minded that they will deprecate and slander the part the Dominion is playing in the war, for purely party reasons.

Mr. Winchell went out of his way to pay tribute to what this country has done. Thereby he did more, in a few minutes, to put this matter straight before the people of the United States than our own Wartime Information Board has done in months. His reward from those of whom he spoke kindly is an insinuation that he was paid by the Government for what he did, that he was used merely as a tool of a Liberal propaganda machine.

◊ ◊ ◊

If this were an isolated incident, it would scarcely be worth mentioning. Unfortunately, however, it is indicative of a far too widespread attitude on the part of Canadians. It is the state of mind which interprets every word of praise for the country's war effort as merely a "plug" for the Government.

There is no objection to political activity in wartime. In fact, a certain amount of it is necessary to keep the men in charge of our affairs on their toes. But the uncompromising belief that everything the Government does is wrong, and that no good word should ever be spoken of it, is not only short-sighted but actually unpatriotic.

The Government is, after all, the group placed in control of the affairs of this country at the desire of the people. By virtue of its position, it must accept responsibility for the leadership of the nation and for the formulation of policies. It is subject to blame for its shortcomings, but it is, by the same token, entitled to credit for what it does that is right.

Nor should it be overlooked that, since the war began, the Government has been accorded a new mandate by the citizens. This was certainly an expression of continued confidence. Whether that confidence has since been lost can be decided only by another vote, and this will come in due course.

In the meantime, the unreasoning, destructive attacks which are being launched against it are doing no one any good. Their sole effect is to slander the country. The political opponents of the Government are fouling their own nests. And those who adopt these tactics are usually those who can advance not one idea for improving our war effort. They are bent merely on tearing down those in authority, and they are not greatly concerned if, in the process, they tear down Canada.

Mr. de Valera's Election

In one respect Eire has held fast to British political traditions; when its Government is defeated in Parliament on a major issue it proceeds to resign and appeal to the country. That, really, is all there is to Mr. de Valera's decision to hold an election; it has nothing whatever to do with his policy of neutrality, supported by his opponents as ardently as he supports it himself.

General Mulcahy, leader of the principal opposition party, proclaims himself a believer in co-operation with the British Commonwealth, but while it may be that he would go farther in that direction than Mr. de Valera, there is no reason for believing that he would go as far as to end neutrality. Actually, the only responsible southern Irish public man to come out openly against neutrality is Mr. James Dillon, a son of the old Irish Nationalist, John Dillon. At the last election he was returned for his constituency of Roscommon, but he has no followers in the Dail.—Ottawa Journal.

Hard To Believe How Time Flies

MAY 20

1914 The home of Mrs. John Armstrong on the River Road above Auburn is destroyed by fire.

Constable F. Burnham of the Peterborough police department has sent in his resignation.

Although Ringling Bros. Circus has cancelled its Peterborough date the Mighty Robinson Shows will visit here.

City council decides to purchase a strip of land 16 by 350 feet for the purpose of widening Prince street.

Lieut. Col. E. B. Clegg is presented with a blackthorne stick at the annual dinner of No. 6 Company of the 57th Regiment.

1924 Dr. E. E. Harvey, one of the city's well known physicans dies at his home after a long illness.

Walter Peters reports that Peterborough has had frost for the past five nights.

The Quaker Oats Company has converted the old raceway on the east side of the river into tennis courts.

Downeyville neighbours present a purse to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clancy who are moving to Peterborough.

Western Clock Company team defeats Bankers 4 to 3 in a Mercantile Baseball League game.

1934 The local enumerators are ready to begin their job of preparing the voters' lists for the coming election.

Dr. L. F. Austin of Queen's University gives the annual Halliday lecture to the local Medical Society.

Joseph McGinty for many years train inspector with the C.N.R. dies at his home here.

The city council has decided to seek the services of a full-time medical officer of health.

This city has had almost an inch of rain since yesterday after a long dry spell.

Contemporaries

INDIGNANT LEADER

Russian-born Sam Wolchuk, leader of the strike at Montgomery Ward, is on the CIO payroll at $10,000 a year. Sam's indignation upon beholding salesgirls who make only $25 a week is therefore understandable.—Windsor Star.

HARDY SCOTS

The Scots are hardy folk. From Dunoon comes a report that His Grace the 72-year-old Duke of Argyll has been convicted and "admonished" for whacking the 79-year-old Clerk of Inverary with a walking stick. No doubt some husky young Caledonian of 90 came along, stopped the fight and banged the squabblers' heads together. — Brantford Expositor.

THE ONLY METHOD

Far removed from the horrors of war 10,000 Nazis incarcerated in a camp near Lethbridge, Alta., celebrated Hitler's birthday by cutting a monstrous birthday cake. This incident emphasizes that in dealing with Germany unconditional surrender is the only sure method of checking the fervor of the Fuehrer's followers.—Renfrew Mercury.

PET AVERSIONS

Some of the things that still jar us—lipstick on a cup—fingernails half an inch from the end of the finger—four-inch heels—half a cigaret on the plate—hair dye on a middle-aged man—ungartered socks (on men)—people with colds who stand on top of us in the 5.45 bus—archair prophets of the invasion—complacency about anything.—London Free Press.

R.A.F. COOKIES

This story of a German lieutenant captured by a British officer comes from Italy. They talked about the war as they waited for an escort to take the prisoner down the line for interrogation. "Your bombing of Berlin is inexcusable," he complained.

"But the Germans bombed London first," pointed out his captor.

"Yes," replied the German, "but look how large your bombs are."—London Answers.

IN THE MINORITY

But for every 'teen aged boy or girl today who has strayed from the straight and narrow, for every urchin who has been picked up for some minor offence, the reformers, if they really want to look, can find hundreds of decent, worth-while serious youngsters, who are fully as good as any past generation and probably better. If the calamity-howlers want to talk about youth, let them give us an honest picture, and not a picture which has been distorted for the sake of sensation, or which stems from a mind which concentrates so much on evil that it can think no good.—Saint John Telegraph-Journal.

SEA TRAVEL

Whatever the future of the trans-Atlantic air services may be, there is still a demand for sea voyages.

The Cunard Line are being kept very busy with reservations in the Queen Mary and the Queen Elizabeth for first voyages after the war.

Both liners are now in "battle dress," but they will be put into normal commission as soon as possible after the war.

The Queen Elizabeth has yet to make a commerical voyage. Her first trip will be regarded as her maiden voyage, and the Cunard offices in New York have an impressive passenger list already in reservations.—London Daily Sketch.

A Bible Message

And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou son of David, have mercy on us. And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord. Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you. And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country. As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil. And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel....

And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. (Matt. 9: 27-33, 35.)

DAY COACH WEDDING PLANS — This bride and her sister have travelled in beige and chocolate brown suits, respectively; from their luggage, diamond-set bracelets and ear clips; packed along orchids too. The voice that breathed o'er Eden murmurs over strange surroundings, nowadays. Not the white satin and the pastor at home make necessary wedding components these days . . . where and when your beau can get leave long enough for the bare ceremony is the nub of the nuptials. That means that many a girl must travel to a distant camp to be married . . . and often as not she rides a day coach to get there. Above, fashion suggestions for the train trip.—By Prunella Wood.

DOROTHY DIX

CHILDREN IMITATE PARENTS

Folly for Mom and Pop to Urge High Standards Unless They Set Pace Themselves

Children are bound to be little copycats because, having no knowledge or experience or philosophy of life to guide them, they inevitably imitate those with whom they are brought in close contact. They cannot argue the ethics of a situation, or decide the wisdom of a course of action. They can only do as they see others about them doing and thus they form habits and opinions and acquire characteristics that become almost as much a part of them as their skin, and they often spend years in trying to slough off.

Children Reflect Parents

There is no true adage than the one that says "like father, like son; like mother, like daughter." There is no better way of judging people than by their children, for they are little mirrors of their fathers and mothers, little echoes of what they hear at home. If Johnny speaks grammatically and with a cultivated accent, you know he belongs to an educated family. Children's table manners are a dead giveaway as to whether their mother and father dine, or just gobble their food. Let half a dozen youngsters troop into your house and you can pick out those whose fathers and mothers are ladies and gentlemen just as easily as you could separate the sheep from the goats in a stock yard.

Now, of course, almost all parents are anxious for their children to be well-behaved and to grow up into being fine men and women, and there are few little tikes who are not swamped, from the cradle up, with pious admonitions about leading the higher life and practising all the virtues.

But, unfortunately, children have short memories, and good advice goes in one ear comes out of the other without making a dent in their consciousness. It is what they see that makes an indelible impression on them, and so it is folly for Mom and Pop to urge them to walk the straight and narrow road unless they are pace-makers on it themselves.

It is no use for Father to preach honesty and high ideals to little Johnny when little Johnny hears him boasting about having tricked someone in a deal. Nor is Mamie impressed by Mama's soulful discourse on the true and the beautiful when she hears Mama lying over the telephone and sees her padding the butcher's bill.

Boy Duplicates Father's Behavior

All parents hope and pray that their children will make good marriages and have happy and peaceful homes. But how many of them do you know who teach their youngsters by their own conduct how to work this miracle? Practically every boy treats his wife the way he sees his Father treat Mother, and if Father has been grouchy and fault-finding and stingy and has made Mother nothing but an unpaid servant, he isn't going to make any girl glad she married him.

And nearly every girl makes just about the kind of wife her mother made, and if Mother is high-tempered and a nagger and lazy and shiftless and a bad cook, she is pretty sure to follow Mother's example and do likewise.

It is not words that count with children. It is the example that we set them that makes or mars them. (The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Bride-To-Be Given Party

OMEMEE, May 20—(ENS)—The home of Mrs. G. Arthur Williamson, Omemee, was the scene of a delightful party on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Marion Fisher whose marriage to Thomas J. Pogue will take place this month.

Over twenty friends of the bride-to-be were present and the first part of the evening was spent playing games. Miss Fisher was then brought into a room where an enormous wedding cake, beautifully decorated, was awaiting her. When opened, the cake proved to be filled with gaily wrapped gifts. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Patricia Hunt, Miss Jane Magee, and Mrs. W. D. Weir.

Guests who attended were: Misses Marion Rea, Christina Connell, Ruby Corneil, Eunice Thexton, Doris Jones, Cora Jones, Orma McConnell, Marie Chester, Marion Deyell, Hazel Wilson, Florrie Sloan, Helen Graham and Bernice Smith, Mrs. Victor Williams, Mrs. Charles Agnew, Mrs. Jean Collins, Mrs. Howard Bent and Mrs. Ross Rehill.

Club Presents Play

NORWOOD, May 20—(ENS)—A large crowd were in attendance at the play in the town hall this week. The play, under the auspices of St. Paul's Church, Norwood, was presented by the Dramatic Club of Sacred Heart Church, Marmora. The three-acts took place in the Brannigan's summer cabin by a lake in the Ozarks and was called "The Campbells Are Coming." Between acts dances and songs were given.

LAMPS

Just received a new shipment of lamps. All styles and kinds including

VANITY LAMPS
BED LAMPS
PIN-IT-UP LAMPS
BOUDOIR LAMPS
POTTERY TABLE LAMPS
TRI-LIGHT FLOOR LAMPS
(Silk and Parchment Shades)

GRANT & LOUCKS
COMPANY LIMITED
418 George St. N. Phone 5745

ESTABLISHED 1899 CONTINENTAL LIFE

Efficient Service . . .
Yours, Always

Tested and tried for over 44 years, the Efficient Service of the Continental Life continues to give complete satisfaction to policyholders and beneficiaries.

THE CONTINENTAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
HEAD OFFICE TORONTO

J. R. S. MacLEOD BRANCH MANAGER
355 George Street, Peterborough

FOUR SQUARE
A Purely Canadian Company

Privates George Paranuik and Clarence Reynolds, of Marmora, are serving overseas

◆ ◆ ◆

Mrs. Mary Petrie and Mrs. R. T. Lillico are spending the week-end in Toronto with the latter's sister, Miss Ann Gilgour.

◆ ◆ ◆

Miss Shirley Buller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Buller, 272 Simcoe street, will celebrate her 14th birthday Sunday.

◆ ◆ ◆

Ord. Smn. Don Wedlock, R.C.N. V.R. who has been stationed on Prince Edward Island, is at present spending a sick leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Wedlock, Rubidge street.

◆ ◆ ◆

Dr. H. L. Stewart, of Dalhousie University, who is preaching at the 111th anniversary services in St. Paul's church on Sunday, will be the guest of Rev. Dr. J. D. Smart and Mrs. Smart, while in the city.

◆ ◆ ◆

Rev. J. J. Black of Lindsay, will take both services in Trinity church on Sunday. Mr. Black is acting president of the Bay of Quinte conference, which begins at Trinity church, June 6, in the absence of Rev. Dr. G. S. Easton.

◆ ◆ ◆

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carr, 566 Weller street, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Tuesday, May 23, and will be at home to their friends from 3 to 5 in the afternoon, and from 7 to 9 in the evning.

◆ ◆ ◆

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Armstrong have announced the engagement of their elder daughter, Olive Ferne Armstrong, to Stewart Gordon Whittington, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Whittington, of Otonabee. The wedding will take place Saturday, June 3.

◆ ◆ ◆

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney C. Gibbs, Peterborough, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Luella Gibbs, to Kenneth Irwin Hamley, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Irwin Hamley, Peterborough. The wedding will take place in St. John's Anglican Church, June 17, at 2:30 p.m.

◆ ◆ ◆

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Larmer, Peterborough, have announced the engagement of their second daughter, Dorothy Lenore Larmer, to Raymond Henry Clements, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Clements of Warsaw. The wedding will takke place in Mark Street United church on June 3.

◆ ◆ ◆

St. Andrew's W.M.S.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 20 (ENS)—St. Andrew's Mission Circle met at the home of Mrs. F. DeCarroll with a large attendance of members and former members. Miss Hazel Atkinson presided and after devotional exercises the visitors were welcomed. Mrs. Ralston gave an interesting report of the provincial convention held at Hamilton. The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. DeCarroll, Mrs. V. Hay, Mrs. Gordon McCullough, Mrs. F. Adamson, and Miss Josephene Locke. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Edson Wynne. The Circle will be the guests of St. John's United Church Auxiliary on June 1.

◆ ◆ ◆

Win Service Badges

At a recent executive meeting of the Peterborough Branch of the Red Cross, service pins were presented to two outstanding members of the Society, Mrs. Charles Ray and Miss Helen Munro. Mrs. R. Turner, president, made the presentations. Mrs. Ray received her badge of service for active membership in the Peterborough Executive Committee for 12 years, and as secretary of the Blood Donor Service Committee and supervisor of the Blood Donor Clinic. Miss Munro's badge of service was awarded to her for her energetic work in campaigns, and her convenership of the Wool Department committee, which she organized. Miss Munro has also been a member of the society for 12 years.

◆ ◆ ◆

W.M.S. Group Meets

The May meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Andrew's United church was in charge of Miss F. Dixon's group. In the absence of the president, Mrs. H. Tremaine, Mrs. F. W. K. Harris presided. The Bible reading was given by Mrs. J. Finney, and the following ladies assisted, Mrs. E. Manning, Mrs. A. Porteous, Miss M. Moir, Mrs. E. Reid.

Miss Moir read a paper on the chap., "The Joy of Living Together," from the study book. Items from the Missionary Message were also read by the ladies, and Mrs. B. F. McNeely gave a complete account of the meeting of the Local Council of Women. Mrs. Ray Morrow was pianist for the afternoon.

Needlecraft Pattern

CROSS-STITCH "PRINT"

You won't want to stop your needlework once you start this flower "print." It's in simple-to-follow 8-to-the-inch cross-stitch.

Cross-stitch flower 'print,' a smart note! Pattern 846 contains a transfer pattern of spray 13 x 19 inches;

Pattern Number ....................

Size ....................

My Name ....................

....................

Address ....................

I enclosed 20c for postage

Personals and Social

Annual Y W Maytime Dance Given By Girls' Council

The annual Maytime Dance of the Girls' Council of the Y.W.C.A. attracted approximately 300 people Friday for an evening of dancing to the music of the Melody Men. The Y.W.C.A. gymnasium was decorated in a Maytime theme, with a Maypole, and spring blossoms. Dorothy Hepburn was convener of the decorations, Ina Robinson convened the refreshments and Miss Doris Royea was convener for the sale of tickets. They were assisted by Misses Ada Smith, Marjorie Lorne and Flora Metcalfe, members of the council.

Receiving the guests were Miss Leta Brownscombe, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Pettit, Miss Betty Detcher, and Cpl. W. Thornton.

Those attending were: Misses Betty Detcher, Flora Metcalfe, Nancy Stanton, Iris Hopkins, Marion Thomas, Mabel Barnes, Gladys Latchford, Ethel Hopkins, Marg. Fearson, Lillian Wood, Nancy Eastwood, Betty Lou Brand, Norma Wallace, Dorothy Borland, Joan Welsh, Marilyn Wilson, Kathaleen Quirt, Elinor Shirley, Helen Warner, Mary Barrett, Mary Waterman, Agnes Strickland, Mary Jane Wharry, Jean Elcombe, Norma Elcombe, Wenda Jaquith, Crystal Hendry, Joan Foster, Gwen Burgess, Jean Carew, Margaret Adamson, Hilda Noble, Trudy Forsyth, Mary Strickland, Beverley Martin, Madeline Thomson, Alma Hill, Dorothy Battle, M. McKee, A. Brown, I. Shearer, Jeanne Metcalfe, Eleanor Kingboroug, Adelnie Wood, Ann Young, Nancy Ackerman, Iva Robinson, Yetta Fine, Marjorie Kirn, Mary King, Geraldine Melton, Jean MacTavish, June Allen, Dorothy Saunders, Marjorie Schaus, Dorothy Riley, Vivian Martin, Gwyneth Reed, Margaret McElroy, Monica Lawless, Ruth McNeely, Barbara Moore, Majorie Miles, Jean Ferguson, Catherine Scott, Mary Joan Hutchison, Gloria Lowney, Peg Hughes, Lenore Fleetwood, Jackie Brown, Gwen McKee, Joan Brown, Mildred Spicer, Margaret Morgan, Ruth Johnstone, Jean Gillespie, Bertha Boyd, Vera Young, Helen Weddell, Agnes Weddell, Bunny Hutchison, Doria Royea, Marguerite Royea, Lena Dewart, Margaret Burgess, Isabel Wray, Marjorie Thackeray, Freda McMahon, Eva Johnston, Audrey Britnell, Audrey Lacey, Margaret Wood, Betty Richardson, Mary Craig, Dorothy Telford, Jean Ketchison, Babs Rishor, Caroline McCabe, Joan Leslie, Rosemary Blaiklock, Beverly Pringle, Shirley Pringle, Mary Gregson, Barbara Long, Ruth Murray, Ruth Kingan, Frances Wolfe, June Brisco, Doreen Smith, Catharine Turner, Margaret Langley, Judy Clarke, Grace Schiarizza, Yvonne McAuliffe, Barbara Allen, Helen Riley, Roberta Deyell, Norma Lynch, Lindy Reed, B. Middleton, Dorothy Boyle, Betty Deline, Theresa Corkery, Jean Low, Lola McCan, Jean Ackerman, Beverly Miller, Christine Carlisle, Phyllis Upper, Jean Plaunt, Marilyn Parsons, Velma Boomhower, Margaret Braund, Jane Smith.

Cpl. W. Thornton, Bill Lech, Ed. Keegan, Bill Keash, Jim Reid, Howard Smith, Jim McDonald, Jack Wallace, Douglas Glenn, Owen Cauley, Jack Matthews, Vance Colling, Clayton Selkirk, Don Barrett, Stan Armitage, Bob Adams, Graham Elliott, Kennethy Godfrey, W. B. Peterson, Don Ferguson, Bruce Upper, Douglas Head, PO A. W. Bethune, Aiden Gourley, Bob Menzies, Bob Porter, Glenn Grierson, James Baird, John Lee, Stan Adamson, Gerry Braund, Don Ireland, Al Cauley, Al Thomson, Sid Phillips, Max Fredenburg, L. Marshall, Glenn Price, C. W. Shaw, Bill Millen, Jeff Cridland, Frank DeRoche, Rev. Comba, Ray Sutcliffe, Hugh Graham, Walter Dher, Sgt. S. Cegal, Douglas Morrow, Chuck Laurence, Garry Braund, John Rutherford, Harry Vass, Bob Cooke, Jack Matchett, Jack Sisson, Don Spicer, Bill Allen, John Wolff, Doug Roblin, Rod Blackwell, Ernie Darling, Tom Weir, Morris Richardson, Jerry Davis, Jim English, S. Sage, R. VanAllen, Arthur Thomas, Edgar Duffus, H. Kelly, Joe Doke, Ray Kidd, George Sharpe, Herb O'Connor, Harold Rogers, Don Sly, Homes Gardiner, Norman Dallin, John Gillespie, John Clarke, Ed Morgan, Howard Walsh, Roy Hudson, Irvine Warner, John Way, Donald McIntyre, Jack Ainslie, Bill Keegan, Bill Shadgett, Jack Murray, Jack Sackville, Bill Thompson, George Nixon, Bruce Butler, Lieut. J. W. Bannister, Paul Lillico, Ernest Lee, Jim Collins, Ralph Hall, George Gray, Murray Dewart, Bill McCreery, Ernie Gregson, Bernard Glaum, Frank Patterson, John O'Toole, Bob Miller, Bill Matheson, Fred Huycke, Bill Crowe, Jack Dinsdale, Albert Vass, Morley Geraghty, Sheldon Richardson, Frank Connelly, Harvey Staunton, Tom Carey, Gibb Brockley, Ivan Pearson, Warren Gamble, Alvin Lee, Jack Grisdale, Hubert LeBrun, Elwood McCarrell, Bob Maybee, Jack Ackerman, Gordon Johnston, Ken Cox, Jim Bond, Ken Marshall, Albert White.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Tuck, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gannon, Mr. and Mrs. Leo English, Mr. and Mrs. T. Sheridan, Mr. and Mrs. John Buckley, Mr. and Mrs. K. Choate, Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. McDermid

Barbara Ferguson Tendered Shower

The girls of the Peterborough-Brinton Carpet Company setting department held a surprise party in their canteen for Miss Barbara Ferguson, whose marriage takes place shortly. Lunch was prepared by Misses Muriel Smith and Muriel Krogh, Kay Paterson and Kay Shanque served. After lunch the bride-elect opened her gifts at a table decorated in pink and white.

Those present were Misses Kay Paterson, Kay Kitchen, Kay Shanque, Muriel Krogh, Muriel Rose, Muriel Smith, Alice Marshall, Helen English, Dorothy Elliott, Margaret Martin, Margaret Lawson, Helen Akers, Mary Herlihey, Barbara Ferguson; and Mrs. B. Crawford, Mrs. A. Kennedy, Mrs. J. Basciano, and Mrs. R. Millen. Those who were unable to be present but sent gifts were Agnes Baird, Jennie MacMurray, Mrs. E. Rose and Mrs. M. Byers.

THE STARS SAY . . . .

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Sunday, May 21

SUNDAY'S horoscope encourages any needful business operations, especially where generous or lucrative offers are concerned, but the accent may be placed on domestic, social or affectional affairs, in which there may be temptation to over-spend or over-indulge. With prudence some sound progress may be made.

Those whose birthday it is may have a sucecssul and productive year, with some old stagnant affairs coming to life or else an entirely new and expansive opportunity. In all be prudent with funds — not taking unreasonable chances. In private social, romantic or domestic celebrations any proclivity to splurge also should be regulated.

A child born on this day may be talented in the finer expressions of its creative ability, but a proclivity to the pursuit of pleasure may wean it from its greatest success.

◆ ◆ ◆

For Monday, May 22

MONDAY'S astrological forecast is for a particularly lively, enterprising and progressive day, with a sudden spurt to affairs, probably through strokes of ingenuity, inventive genius, intuitive hunches, or other out of the routine performances. Novelty and originality in business, science, even literary, musical, artistic, or mystical matters, should thrive beyond expectations.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a year of splendid success, especially in out of the customary lines, in invention, science, literature, drama or other stimulated creative ability. Originality novelty and all modernistic and progressive skills should thrive far beyond the mediocre or amateur. Strike for high expressions or recognition with originality, audacity and unique talents.

A child born on this day may be blessed with exceptional skills and creative talents.

THE TEA HOUR GOSSIP . . . .

Everyone is wishing for nice summer weather for the 24th of May, and we are going to have a little chat regarding dress styles for this holiday. I saw such a smart dress the other day; it was cocoanut brown rayon shantung. It had all the new headlines of fashion. It was sleeveless, had the new bare look, dropped shoulder line, the inset belt tying at the side, the cardigan neckline, and was trimmed with huge white plastic buttons, giving that decided contrast between the brown goods and white buttons, which is so very smart this summer. The large straw sailor hat which was worn with the costume was in white with a plain ribbon band of cocoa brown. Maytime is gay time, outdoor time—for light hearts, and light frocks. This is where cotton comes into its own, queening it for the 24th of May, heralding a summer long quota of comfort and color. There are so many flippant little eye-catchers for the young modern, cool happy frocks for the sunshiny days ahead. These dresses are self-trimmed, either with bias frills or diamond-shaped pockets, and they are nearly all two-piece frocks. Large off the face straw hats, very plain in style, are worn with these cotton frocks. Also worn with cotton frocks are the box-jackets. These may be made of a material same as dress or in lace or pique. There are cute little coats just clearing the hip-bone. If you want a jacket to wear over a dress of dark material, have it made of striped men's wear wool or grey flannel. All these look very smart worn over your cotton dress on a cool day.

The many styles in collars will make one dress look as if you had several, and in truth it will be the same little dress but with a different collar. Some of these are made in white, in fact most of them are white, but on a brown check gingham, a yellow collar looks very smart; on pink and white striped rayon a pink collar adds much to the plain cotton dress. There is a smart dress for the junior miss made in the novel dot stripe, and is broken with blocks of solid color. You will want several of these cool cottons for the very hot weather that is ahead. All these will tub so well, and you can appear fresh and cool looking. Just because these dresses are made of cotton and are so practical, is no reason for them to be dull looking. Choose the color that is the most becoming to you, that does something for you, then a style becoming to your figure, and you can go almost any place, afternoon or evening, and feel well dressed.

J. O. Connelly Weds Eileen Casey

Immaculate Conception Church was decorated with ferns and tulips this morning, for the wedding of Eileen Casey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph Casey, and James Orville Connelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Joseph Connelly. Rev. J. Lynch officiated. Mrs. H. Macdonald played the wedding music, and Mrs. Clare Connelly sang "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white taffeta, brocaded in a rose design. The gown was made on long torso lines, with tight-fitting bodice, buttoned down the back from neck to waist, and long leg-o-mutton sleeves coming to a point over each wrist. Her floor-length veil and train of fine tulle was caught to her head with small white flowers, and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and sweet peas.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Hilda Casey, who wore floor-length blue sheer, with a gathered waist, full skirt, and long, full sleeves. She wore a blue turban of matching material, trimmed with pink, and carried pink roses and sweet peas. Her only ornament was a pendant set with her birthstone, the gift of the groom.

Mr. James Cranley was best man, and Mr. Frank Connelly and Mr. Mac Hickey were ushers. The groom's gifts to the best man and ushers were leather billfolds.

At the reception held at the Empress Hotel, the bride's mother received in a black gown, trimmed with turquoise, a black hat with turquoise flowers, and wearing a corsage of Talisman roses. The groom's mother, who also received was gowned in navy blue trimmed with white, a navy hat trimmed with white, and a corsage of red roses.

For a motor trip to Toronto and points west, the bride chose a black tailored suit, with black and red accessories, and carried a beige all-wool coat.

Millbrook

The Religious Education Council of Cavan and South Monaghan has secured Rev. Dr. Flether, of Bowmanville, as guest speaker for its annual convention, to be held at Mount Pleasant on Wednesday, June 14, with afternoon and evening sessions, R. I. Sutton is president, and Mrs. Richard Matchett secretary.

LAW. Beatrice McDowell, R.C.A.F. (W.D.), who has been at a western training centre, is at present on furlough with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. McDowell, and will later take a course at the Trenton station.

The local Business Men's Association has decided on a public holiday on May 24, with the stores remaining open the previous Tuesday evening, and the usual half holiday observed on Thursday, May 25.

Dr. G. H. Needler, of Toronto, visited his brother, A. A. Needler, this week, and also his sister, Miss H. Needler, at Peterborough.

Mrs. Hugh Blair, who has been a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterborough, following an operation, was able to be brought home on Thursday, though there will likely be an extended period of canvalescence.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Powell who spent the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Armstrong, Eighth Line, Cavan, following her mother's accident resulting in a fractured hip, are again at their home, King street east.

Fashions

Your little boy will be proud as Punch of his suit, Pattern 9184! The cute ruffles are optional. Use same easy pattern for overall version.

Pattern 9184 comes in sizes: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6. Size 6 shirt, takes 1 yard 35-inch. Shorts, 1¼ yards. Overalls, 1⅝ yards. Sunsuit included with pattern.

Pattern Number ....................

Size ....................

My Name ....................

....................

Address ....................

I enclosed 20c for postage

DRESSMAKER CHEMISE—Another country is heard from in current fashions: Cambodia dancing girls provide the printed motif in black on this ginger colored crepe frock. Black patent belt. All summer long a dress like this is worth at least twice what you paid for it (and it's barely "better dress" price, too) for it can dress you as a wedding guest, a diner out in smart spots, or take you shopping, week-ending, with equal appropriate effect. Although straight and narrow, the cut is flatteringly soft and stride-easy; notice the jigsaw ornate belt which accents so beautifully.

—By Prunella Wood.

Bride Honored Before Marriage

Prior to her marriage to John Joseph Connelly, which took place to-day, Miss Eileen Casey was presented with an end table by her associates at the Western Clock Company.

Miss Anna Marie Killen, assisted by Miss Hilda Casey, held a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Eileen Casey, at the latter's home, 219 Rogers street. After a social evening spent in playing games two little sisters of the bride-elect carried in a basket laden with gifts.

Those present were Mesdames H. Connelly B. Shaughnessy, H. Ryan, P. Cooper, B. Milne, M. Adams, J. J. Kellen, C. Crough, J. Monahan, J. Casey and Misses Bernice Slater, Marie Heffernan, Eva O'Brien, Marcella Healey, Helen McAuliffe, Marguerite Heffernan, Mary O'Brien, Irene Milne, Anna Killen, Jean Larmer, Phyllis Monahan, Jean O'Brien, Jean Casey, Kay Casey and Hilda Casey. Those who sent gifts but were unable to be present were Mrs. C. Howson and Miss Rena Toms.

Indian River News

Ordinary Seaman Francis Kelly of Kingston spent the week-end the guest of his mother, Mrs. F. Kelly.

Born — to Mr. and Mrs. John Walsh (nee Rita Cleary), at St. Joseph's Hospital, on Monday, May 15, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Clarke, Jean and Harry, of Peterborough, were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. E. Fitzgerald.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Greenley and family spent Sunday in Peterborough, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Langford.

Miss Hannah Devlin is spending a few weeks with friends and relatives in Peterborough.

Mrs. D. Greenley spent the week-end in Peterborough, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Langford.

The local branch of Silverwoods Dairy commenced operations for the season on Monday under the supervision of Adrian Babcock.

The bridge and building crew of the C.P.R., under Foreman Blakley, have been busy repairing the culverts in this section.

Raymond Rice of Colborne has been the successful applicant as sectionman for Indian River.

BOTTLED BY
BOORMAN'S BEVERAGES

There's Nothing Like a Home of Your Own . . .

Greater freedom and satisfaction, deeper happiness for all the family, more security, and a place for the children to play and grow.

If you need a home, come in and talk it over with us. We have the materials plus the experience (over a century) to serve you.

ESTABLISHED 1840 The TELEPHONE 4655

PETERBOROUGH LUMBER CO., LTD.

Listen to CHEX for our program "Drums" every Tuesday evening 8:30 to 9 p.m.

SPORTS - Day by Day

By FRED D. CRAIG

Girls' softball, always a favorite with Peterborough fans comes into its own Monday night when Girls' Softball League opens its season at the East City bowl with a battle between the two old rivals, Westclox and Aircraft. And that should be a fitting opener for what promises to be a very successful campaign. The two clubs have lined up all their available talent for the initial encounter. Both look strong. Westclox will be shy some of their regulars of last season but the champs still have a formidable squad. Aircraft, too, have lost a couple of capable performers but have filled the gaps and are ready to resume the struggle with Westclox that made last season's race a close one until the end of the playoffs. There was little to choose between the two in that hectic argument and on paper at the present time the rivals look to be about even in strength. The result should be a lot of close, exciting games and Monday's opening battle should fit itself into that category for both clubs have managed to work in a considerable amount of practice and are ready for the opener. The game will start at 6.45 o'clock sharp and with good weather a huge crowd is assured for the offic al start of the 1944 season.

* * * * * *

The Men's City League is also staging a game Monday night so there will be plenty of softball on the East City side of the half million dollar bridge. Switchgear who opened the season Thursday with a clean cut win over the champion Plazas are billed to meet the new entry, the St. Peter's team in a game scheduled for Riverside Park at 6.45 o'clock. Manager Chambers' Switchgears are out to grab off their second win of the season and thus get away to a flying start in the league race but the Saints have other ideas. They would like to make their debut into the City loop notable by reason of a win over the hard-hitting Switchgear outfit. The St. Peter's lineup is somewhat of an unknown quantity but they have been digging up a strong combination and will go all out to stop the Chambers' aggregation. Harrison is likely to get the pitching call for Switchgear while St. Peter's twirling selection has not yet been announced. Soldiers and Plazas will meet in the Tuesday night affair, with Woods the probable pitching choice for the champs.

* * * * * *

Katan Is Ambitious

John Katan, the Palermo Panther, who returns to the wrestling wars here Tuesday night with a main bout match with Frank Sexton in the Tunney card at the Brock St. Arena is an athlete who sincerely believes that if justice were done he would be the British Empire champion and in line for a match with Wild Bill Longson for the world title. Katan thinks that he is a better wrestler than any of the current crop of contenders, that he is stronger and tougher than the best of them and that most of the top-notchers are getting by on the strength of some unusual hold with a fancy name, something that the newspapers can play up. "There is nothing fancy about me," growls Katan. "I just wrestle and because I don't invent a Canadian avalanche or an Irish whip or something of that kind I don't get the writeups and the promoters pass me up in favor of some of those good-looking birds who go through all kinds of fancy moves but probably don't know half a dozen real wrestling holds. I get a big kick out of tossing those babies around and that is why probably most of them don't want anything to do with me." Katan could be right at that. He is a powerful adversary, none too clean in his methods and nobody he has met has ever found him easy to handle.

* * * * * *

Incidentally he is meeting one of those "good-looking birds" he was talking about Tuesday night. Frank Sexton, clean-cut athlete from Columbus, O., is a well-built, strong and clever performer who moves fast and has a lot of tricks up his sleeve. And his favorite winner is the giant swing, one of the most spectacular holds the wrestling game affords. When the Ohio power-house gets an opponent by the heels and spins him around in the air half a dozen times like a hammer-thrower winding up it is a move that always brings the crowd to its feet. It also almost invariably means a fall for Sexton for nobody who gets taken on one of those rides through the air is in much shape to defend himself for the next few moments. He is usually pinned as soon as the giant swing ends. Sexton is regarded as the best exponent of that method of attack in the game today and it has won many a match for him. It may come in the category that Katan calls "fancy holds" but if the Palermo Panther finds himself at the wrong end of a Sexton swing he is likely to change his mind.

* * * * * *

Perhaps the sport witers were premature in putting the St. Louis Browns in the morning glory class. Anyway the same Browns are back at the top of the American League ladder this morning as the result of nosing out the New York Yanks 6 to 5 yesterday. It was, incidentally the fourth straight loss for the New Yorkers which carries its own evidence that this is far from being the old Yanks club. Potter who has been pitching nice ball for the Brownies held the losers to six hits in grabbing off his fourth victory of the season while the defeat went to Atley Donald who has only just managed to break even so far this season. Boston scoring a run in the ninth inning to tie the score pushed over another in the 12th to defeat Chicago White Sox 3 to 2. Mike Ryba in a relief role won his third victory of the campaign and Maltsberger who had picked up four straight wins acting as a fireman was finally beaten in that capacity. Old Luke Hamlin took a beating at the hands of Cleveland who finally won the argument 9 to 1 making 17 hits during the melee. Smith kept nine Philadelphia blows well distributed.

* * * * * *

In the National League the two no-hit pitchers of the season Clyde Shoun and Jim Tobin showed that the feat was no fluke for both came up with wins yesterday. Shoun went the route for the Reds to beat the Philadelphia Blue Jays 7 to 5 in his third triumph of the year as against one defeat. Barrett who opposed him absorbed his sixth trimming. The Phillies pitcher has been able to win only one game to set up against that string of half a dozen beatings. Jim Tobin was opposed to the mighty Mort Cooper and proved the better man for the day at least for the Boston ace was still in there pitching when the game ended while the star of the Cards who has been having a spot of difficulty this season disappeared before the end of the fray. It was his third defeat in five starts. Boston took the decision 4 to 3. Luke Sewell the dipsy-doodle maestro of the Pittsburg Pirates nicked Victory No. 4 at the expense of the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Pirates scored four runs in the seventh to win the tussle 5 to 2 with Vince DiMaggio's third homer of the year helping a bit. The Chicago Cubs chased in three counters in the seventh, all their scoring for the day but it was enough for it gave them a 3 to 2 win over the New York Giants. Vanderburg in a relief chore was the winning pitcher for the Cubs while the loss went to Ace Adams who went in to save the game and instead had to take a reverse, his fourth of the year as against the same number of wins.

* * * * * *

Sporting Chili Con Carne: Watercraft, City Industrial League team will practice at Central School grounds Monday at 6.30 o'clock. All players are asked to attend....Peterborough hockey fans have reason to remember Lieut.-Commander Hugh Plaxton who inspected the Navy cadets here last night....He scored a lot of goals against the Petes while playing for Varsity....Mort Cooper had to leave yesterday's game with a sore elbow....Nels Potter had only beaten the Yanks once in nine starts before he took the champs over the hurdles yesterday....Washington Senators dropped back into third place in the American League race last night when they were beaten 4 to 1 by the Detroit Tigers and Johnny Gorsica's effective pitching....Eddie Hanyzewski of the Chicago Cubs was another pitcher who had to retire yesterday with a lame flipper....He hurt his arm pitching a curve ball....Mike Ryba who used to be called the one-man ball club showed why in yesterday's Boston-Chicago game....Mike went in as a relief pitcher, held the White Sox hitless for three extra frames and then drove in a run in the 12th to win the game for the Red Sox.

STENGEL WATCHES CUBS LOSE No. 17—Casey Stengel, Left, manager of Milwaukee Brewers, chats with Cub manager Charlie Grimm at the New York Giants and Chicago Cubs game at Wrigley Field, Chicago. Stengel succeeded Grimm as pilot of the Brewers and has steered the Milwaukee squad to 12 straight victories since he took charge. Casey saw the Cubs drop the 17th game of the season to the Giants by a 10 to 6 score.

Here and There in Sport

By The Canadian Press

Manager Jimmy Dykes of the Chicago White Sox predicted a tight race in the American League, emphasizing, during an interview in New York last night, there was a matter of practically only give games between first and last place in the standing. The Sox would do all right once they got into their hitting groove, he said, and he was hanging onto his seven outfielders despite pleas from other clubs for trades. New York Yankees needed better pitching while Cleveland was weak in the catching department, he declared.

St. Louis Browns yesterday received word their swatting outfielder, Chet Laabs, had transferred his war-plant job from Detroit to St. Louis and would rejoin the team as a part-time player, being available for home games as fell as week-end trips to Chicago, Cleveland and Detroit.

Sinus Trouble

Because of sinus trouble, which may be affecting his arm, Pitcher Whitlow Wyatt yesterday left the Brooklyn Dodgers at Pittsburgh for Brooklyn where he is to undergo special treatment.

The 73-day racing season opens at Detroit today with 17 sprinters lined up for the $7,500 Boots and Saddles Handicap, the inaugural feature for the State Fair Grounds track which is swinging into its 12th year since racing returned to Michigan.

Pitcher Bucky Walters, now 34, of the Cincinnati Reds is piling up a nifty record both on the mound and at the plate in his sixth year with the team. In seven games he allowed 36 hits, fanned 16 and passed only seven batters. Three of his victories have been shutouts.

Catcher for Washington Senators for three seasons before enlisting in 1942, Al Evans yesterday notified the club he had been discharged from the navy and would report for playing duties. President Clark Griffith said he was happy to give him back his old job.

165 Sea Cadets

(Continued from Page 2)

As evidence of the Sea Cadet organization as tested in this war, Lieutenant Commander Plaxton said that approximately 4,500 of the armed services, as soldiers, airmen or on sea with the Royal Canadian Navy were once Sea Cadets.

Good Conduct

Another conspicuus face was that 85 per cent of the Sea Cadets, on coming of age, willingly graduate into the senior services; and furthermore, only a fraction of one per cent of 15,000 Sea Cadets across Canada had come within the attention of the civil law during the year.

"I wish to compliment all the members of this Corps on your efficiency of drill your cleanliness and neatness, and also on your personal deportment. You show all the signs of good training and leadership by your officers. I want to congratulate the band, also, because they gave a fine account of themselves this evening."

Lieut. Plaxton said he felt confident that "if the time ever comes when you young chaps find yourselves in the Navy you will give a good account of yourselves and show that you are worthy custodians of the best traditions of the Royal Canadian Navy."

Mayor's Compliment

Mayor Hamilton was also called upon by the Commanding Officer of the Sea Cadet Corps, Lieut. H. S. Longhurst. His Worship said that on behalf of the citizens of Peterborough he was privileged to congratulate them "on the fine showing you have made this evening and on other occasions. I feel that you are all proud to belong to such a fine Corps, and to hear the compliment which has just been paid to you by Lieutenant Commander Plaxton. To the sponsor of this Corps I extend sincere thanks for the organization they have built up and carried to such a successful stage.

Rev. W. A. Filer, Protestant Chaplain, reminded the boys that Sunday was being observed throughout the Empire as Youth Sunday, and advised them to attend divine worship in the respective churches, thereby availing themselves of the opportunity of sharing in the greatness of a day of inspiration for the young people.

The Cadets were then dismissed to "splice the main brace", a naval term that signified for them the issuing of two "cokes" for each boy.

Ship's Routine

Returning to their "ship" from the official inspection, the Corps proceeded with their divisional classes and routine in signalling, the learning of types of ships, the making of bends and hitches with ropes, and so on. These classes began shortly before nine o'clock, which was sounded a "two bells" in quarters" proceeded to the final ship's time. The details of "evening stage of "liberty boat", meaning that the crew going ashore on evening leave were supposed to be marched to the companionways, good order continuing even in their departure.

Lieutenant Commander Plaxton, who in addition to being Commanding Officer of the Area is also Commanding Officer of H.M.C.S. "Catarqui", was accompanied from Kingston by Lieutenant C. O. Chamberlain liaison officer between the Sea Cadets and the Naval Department, and by Lieutenant Jack Raine, Commanding Officer of the Corvette "Peterborough".

Committee and Officers

The Committee supporting the local Sea Cadet Corps is composed of: M. G. Hardill, chairman; T. T. Rodger, secretary, and Dick Raine and C. H. Saunders.

The Corps officers are:—

Commanding Officer, Lt. H. S. Longhurst.

Executive Officer, Lt. C. H. Huffman.

First Lieutenant: Lieut. J. J. Collins.

Paymaster: Lt. R. G. Maniece.

Assist. Paymaster: Lt. C. H. Spearin.

Medical Officer: S/Lt. C. B. Waite.

Training Officer: Lt. Joseph Gaskell.

Instructor: Lt. G. S. Alexander.

Bandmaster: Lt. T. A. Hall.

Protestant Chaplain: Rev. W. A. Filer.

Roman Catholic Chaplain: Rev. F. K. Malane.

Divisional Officers: Lieutenants H. Coleman, E. G. Pridham, R. H. McClellan, W. J. Garner, J. Wolstenholme, J. W. Madden.

The Non-Commissioned divisional officers: Petty Officer Robert Shadgett; PO. James Conlin; PO. Paul Turcotte; Leading Cadet Harold Syverston; PO. Arthur Wells.

Tender: PO. Wm. Junkin. Band, drum section, PO. Richardson, and trumpet section Leading Cadet Murney Patterson.

The Cadets committee served refreshments to invited guests at the conclusion of ship's routine.

J. F. Hynes Wins Claim In Park Case

TORONTO, May 20.—(CP).—Mr. Justice W. D. Roach in non-jury assize court yesterday granted a declaration in favor of John F. Hynes who had launched a suit against W. J. Risewick, Ryland H. New and Charles Hemstead in a dispute over purchase of a block of shares in the Napanee Driving Park Association Limited.

Hynes testified that he had obtained an option on the charter of the company but defendants had closed the deal and told him he no longer was interested. He said the charter was considered valuable because it recently had been changed by letters patent to allow it to conduct racing within 25 miles of Toronto.

Mr. Justice Roach declared that upon payment of $900, Hynes "should be declared the owner of a one-third interest" in the Association.

Earlier counsel for Risewick had contended that there was no partnership between the defendant and Hynes although Hynes had put up the original $100 to cover the option. Hemstead's counsel had argued that since the option had expired before he entered into the agreement with Hynes there was no case against him.

Evidence indicated that the plan of the agreement was to build a race track on property owned by Hemstead on north Yonge street, just outside the city of Toronto.

Cool Weather For Race Day

TORONTO, May 20 (CP)—Unless the weather changes, Ontario's racing season will officially get under way at Woodbine Park today on a fast, dry track. Ontario Jockey Club officials began making preparations for a crowd of close to 20,000.

Feature event on the opening card will be the running of the Plate trial which has been split and will be run as the fourth and fifth races. This will be the first running of the new race exclusively for candidates in the King's Plate to be run next Saturday.

When entries closed yesterday there were 19 horses named.

This is the first time in many seasons the King's Plate has not been run on opening day, but it was changed at the request of owners.

London's Old Vic To Get New Home

LONDON, May 20—CP-Reuters)—Once a disreputable music hall in London's drab Waterloo Road, Britain's famous theatre, the Old Vic, which became the home of grand opera, is to have a new home nearer London's west end.

German aircraft blitzed the historice Old Vic, where Bernard Shaw played grand piano for one performance of Faust one night in the 1870s. Since the war the Old Vic Company has been touring in the provinces with only occasional seasons in London.

Two prominent British actors, Ralph Richardson and Lawrence Olivier, until last week instructors in the fleet air arm, have been released by the Admiralty for the opening repertory of three plays."

Goat In Reverse

CHICAGO, May 20 (AP). — With only three legs to stand on Chico, a small white goat owned by James Furlano, is getting along okay, almost as well as most goats who have the regular number of appendages. Chico, born two weeks ago with a right foreleg and two hind legs, has learned to move around with considerable ease. However, Chico's mode of travel differs from that of other goats in one way—he moves backward.

Art Truxes

Carl Anderson

Don Burnham

Phil Lansing

ARMY FAVORED IN IC-4A TRACK AND FIELD MEET — U.S. Army's strong track and field team, headed by Art Truxes, Carl Anderson and Phil Lansing, rules as favorite for the 68th renewal of the IC-4A track and field meet at Philadelphia, today. More than 400 athletes from 30 universities and colleges are expected to compete. Lansing is a pole vaulter, Anderson a hurdler, and Truxes a distance racer. Among the defending champions expected to compete is Don Burnham of Dartmouth, who won the mile last year in 4.18.2.

Big Belmont Race Wide-Open Affair

NEW YORK, May 20—(AP)—With Pensive and Platter staying in their stalls and no Count Fleet around, today's 69th running of the $15,000 added Withers Mile at Belmont Park shaped up as a wide-open race for 15 three-year-olds.

Despite the absence of Warren Wright's Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner and George Widener's Preakness runnerup, a crowd of more than 40,000 was anticipated at the attractive Long Island track. Overnight odds favored Alfred Parker's By Jimminy, a colt who missed the Derby because of an ankle injury.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press

Mike Ryba, Red Sox—Won own game by singling with bases loaded after pitching three no-hit relief innings against Chicago.

Mark Christman, Browns—Took over first base as sub for George McQuinn and led St. Louis attack with three hits including decisive homer that beat Yanks.

Russ Peters, Indians—Batted in three runs with double and homer in Tribe's 17-hit attack against A's.

Tommy Holmes, Braves—Rapped St. Louis pitching for three singles, batted in half of Boston's runs in 4-3 triumph.

WRESTLING

TUESDAY

A Great Card!

JOHN KATAN

PALERMO PANTHER

vs.

FRANK SEXTON

COLUMBUS POWERHOUSE

Two Other Outstanding Exhibitions of Skill and Science

First Bout 8.45 p.m.

TUESDAY, MAY 23rd

BROCK ARENA

REMEMBER THIS OLD CHUM CALENDAR?

REMEMBER 1930?

That was the year of the great dirigibles — the R 100 flew to Canada and the R 101 crashed in France.

Empress of Britain was launched ; ; ; Sir Arthur Conan Doyle (71) died.

The London Naval Treaty between France, Great Britain, Japan, Italy and United States was signed in 1930.

319 prisoners were burned to death in Ohio State Penitentiary fire.

The Windsor-Detroit Tunnel was opened that year.

Bobby Jones won the U.S. and British amateur and open golf championships — all four!

OLD CHUM

The Tobacco of Quality

CUT COARSE FOR PIPE — CUT FINE FOR ROLLING YOUR OWN

EVINRUDE

Lands Commandos on Enemy Beaches

POWER, Speed, Stamina : : : That's what it takes for wartime service and that's what Evinrude outboard motors have! Power to drive the storm boats through the pounding surfs, Speed to zig-zag through the enemy's gun fire, Stamina to stand rough treatment and tough going : : : these qualities, inherent in peacetime Evinrudes, are now making them invaluable on our battle fronts. Instant starting, easy handling, ability to operate in shallow water make them the ideal power plant for storm boats and landing barges for they eliminate the necessity of hazardous landings in the water.

Evinrude now is exclusively on war service; but, when this war is won, there will be Evinrudes again for civilian use. Therefore, until these new Evinrudes are available, get the utmost in efficient service and lasting satisfaction from your present motor by sending to-day for the handy, pocket size, fifty-two page booklet, "Know Your Outboard Motor." Address your request to our plant in Peterboro, or to your dealer.

EVINRUDE MOTORS
PETERBORO • CANADA
MILWAUKEE • WISCONSIN
DIVISION OF OUTBOARD MARINE & MANUFACTURING CO.

244

Derby Winner Pensive One Of Turf Greats

By WALTER L. JOHNS
Central Press Canadian

Racing's glamour boy of the moment, Warren Wright's chestnut colt, Pensive, easy winner of the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, may go on to become one of the "greats" of the turf.

And if he does, there'll be the usual number of "I told you so's" who saw in the handsome Calumet Farm colt a winner when he was born at the Calumet Farm two years ago after having been bred in England.

Pensive is a son of Penicuik II and Hyperion. Penicuik II, daughter of Buchan, was imported to the United States two years ago and she was carrying the colt destined to be known as Pensive when she arrived here.

At first Pensive was just another colt to the onlookers. But as the Derby winner-to-be grew, the word was passed around that the wily Calumet Farm trainer, Ben Jones, who had sent out Lawrin and Whirlaway to triumph in the Kentucky Derby, had "somethin'" in the chestnut beauty.

After a careful prepping, Pensive finally went to the races on Sept. 20 last year, running in a three-quarter-mile event at Belmont Park. So well did the paddock populace like him that he was the favorite at 6-to-5.

PENSIVE WORKS OUT

He ran like the favorite, too, winning his first start by three and one-half lengths.

Five days later he again entered the starting gate at Belmont Park in another six-furlong dash. This time he went off at 7 to 10. Pensive won that one by five lengths.

Then came the Futurity. Pensive was the favorite again, this time at 6 to 5. He finished fourth after a slow start for his worst race of his career.

The Champagne Stakes was next. Once again 6 to 5, Pensive ran a rather poor third to Pukka Gin and Pressure. Once more in 1943 did the Calumet colt race and again he was third to Director J. E. in a six-furlong dash at Pimlico. Strangely, this was the only race that Pensive has run in two years of campaigning that he wasn't the favorite.

First time out this year and Pensive was the 3 to 10 favorite at Hialeah. He finished third to Valdina Malden. A week later, at Tropical Park, he ran a close second to Afriran Sun, an older horse.

Coming back to the east, Pensive won his first start at Pimlico and then ran second to Tola Rose, handicap performer, in a stake race. His final race before the Derby was the Chesapeake Stakes at Pimlico, when he ran second to Gramps Image, a long shot who beat him by a nose.

Pensive's Derby win, by four and one-half lengths, over the mile and a quarter distance, proves his staying power. He again proved his worth in the Preakness and should be the choice in the longer Belmont race.

Pensive has started 14 times. He has finished first seven times, run second three times, third three times and fourth once. He has won $86,415 for Owner Wright thus far. He probably will stretch that into plenty more by the time he ends his career.

FOUR YEARS A STAR, RECORD-BREAKER AT 17—For four years a leading competitor in swimming meets, Jeanne Wilson, breaststroke star of the Chicago Lake Shore Athletic Club, is one of the fastest swimmers in the nation.

Canadian Sport Snapshots

By SYD THOMAS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, May 20 — (CP). — Golfers have been scanning with more than passing interest reports telling of the wooden golf balls used in South Africa and later introduced in England. With the regular pellets scarce as contented Germans, the golfers are ready to grasp at any straw, or rather chip.

The wooden balls are said to have a fair amount of zip, and 180-yard drives are possible with a good golfer swinging the club. Of course, no mention is made of what result your average duffer can achieve, but that may be better left unsaid.

Another gift?

There's another Omar's gift legend in the making out West, Herb (Winnipeg Tribune) Manning reports. Omar's gift was the 37-cent filly of Pte. Scotty Kenedy that won the Winnipeg Futurity and the other gallops to establish quite a racegoer's tale. Now Jim Jackson sight unseen bought a three-year-old colt that had never raced, and it won the first canter in Calgary. The colt, Bragg Creek, isn't any 37-center, but he shows plenty of promise for the future.

Saturday serenade:

Jiu-jitsu experts at the Montreal Y.M.C.A. have launched a drive to encourage the girls to take up the gentle self-defence art. It looks like a rough time for the mashers if they get those gals jiu-jitsued.. ...Hal (Edmonton Bulletin) Dean predicts British Columbia will capture the Canadian football title very shortly after the war ends. Popularity of the game has been growing rapidly on the coast, and the schools are developing scads of good players ready for the day when the senior game is revived.... Harry Kazarian, junior hockey player in Galt, Ont., and with the Montreal Royals last winter, has taken up a roving life on the Great Lakes boats....Dick (Skip) Pawley, star pitcher with the Halifax Navy Ball Club the past three seasons, has been posted away leaving the tars up against it for a headline hurler....The Niagara Falls, Ont., Council decided to call off any sport event in the Stadium there the evening after the invasion starts, so a public prayer service can be held.

Major League Leaders

(By The Associated Press)

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Batting—Tucker, Chicago, .413.

Runs—R. Johnson, Boston, 22.

Runs batted in—Stephens, St. Louis, 22.

Hits—Torres, Washington, 36.

Doubles—Doerr, Boston, 10.

Triples—Lindell, New York, Moses, Chicago, and Gutteridge, St. Louis, 3.

Home runs—Spence, Washington, Trosky, Chicago and Hayes, Philadelphia, 5.

Stolen bases — Stirnweiss, New York and Gutteridge, St. Louis, 7.

Pitching—Leonard and Niggeling, Washington and Harder, Cleveland, 3-0.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Batting—Walker, Brooklyn, .416.

Runs—Bordagaray, Brooklyn and Ryan, Boston, 22.

Runs batted in—Schultz, Brooklyn, 30.

Hits — Walker, Brooklyn, and Holmes, Boston, 42.

Doubles—Holmes, Boston, 11.

Triples—Barrett, Pittsburgh, 6.

Home runs—Schultz, Brooklyn, 5.

Stolen bases—Macon, Boston, 6.

Pitching—Lanier, St. Louis, 5-0.

Bingo Prize-Winners

CAMPBELLFORD, May 20 (ENS) —At the regular bingo held Friday evening by the Catholic Women's League, the special prizes were won by Mrs. Ben Pickering and Mrs. Gill.

Brown On Top Defeat Yankees 6 to 5

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

If you've been counting the St. Louis Browns out of the American League pennant race because of their poor eastern trip, better revise the figures and look again. Luke Sewell has them back in first place today.

After winning their first nine, the Browns started to slip, blew an entire series in Philadelphia and fell off the top. But yesterday they grabbed a 6-5 edge over the Yankees at New York.

It was the first time the world champions had seen the Brownies this season and Nelson Potter gave them an eyeful with a neat six-hit job while Mark Christman and Al Zarilla banged out their first homers. It was New York's fourth straight defeat.

Detroit tumbled Washington into third place behind Johnny Gorsica's tight seven-hit twirling as Rudy York banged out two hits and drove in half the runs of the Tigers' 4-1 edge.

Philadelphia's luck continued to run bad as Cleveland's Al Smith hung up his first triumph of the year by a 9-1 count, scattering nine hits.

Mike Ryba capped off three hitless innings as a relief hurler by singling home the winning run in the last of the 13th for Boston's 3-2 shade over Chicago.

Pittsburgh swept the series from Brooklyn in the National, advancing into third place on a 5-2 victory. Vince DiMaggio's third homer was the big wallop of a four-run spurt in the seventh.

Mort Cooper came up with a sore elbow after two trying innings as Jim Tobin pitched Boston to a 4-3 nod over the St. Louis Cardinals whose lead was sliced to three and a half games when Cincinnati outslugged the Phils, 7-5.

Chicago collected only three hits but they were enough for a 3-2 verdict over New York with the help of Hugh Luby's error with the bases loaded.

STEAMS 30,246 MILES

A SOUTH COAST NAVAL BASE, England — (CP) — H.M.S. Stevenstone, which frequently moors here and is nick-named "Steaming Stone," has a steaming record of 30,426 miles since she was first commissioned a little more than a year ago.

TWO-RUN HOMER—Red Kress whose two-run homer gave the Toronto Maple Leafs an 11-10 win in the eighth innings of the game with Newark Bears at Toronto.

BASEBALL

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Rochester | 14 | 8 | .636 |
| Syracuse | 11 | 7 | .611 |
| Toronto | 10 | 8 | .556 |
| Buffalo | 11 | 9 | .550 |
| Montreal | 10 | 10 | .500 |
| Jersey City | 9 | 11 | .450 |
| Baltimore | 8 | 10 | .444 |
| Newark | 6 | 16 | .273 |

Friday Results

Montreal 9, Toronto 3.
Baltimore 3, Jersey City 2.
Syracuse 5, Newark 0.
x-Buffalo 4, Rochester 3.
x—11 innings.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| St. Louis | 19 | 8 | .704 |
| Cincinnati | 15 | 10 | .600 |
| Pittsburgh | 12 | 10 | .545 |
| Philadelphia | 12 | 11 | .522 |
| Boston | 14 | 15 | .483 |
| New York | 12 | 14 | .462 |
| Brooklyn | 11 | 14 | .440 |
| Chicago | 5 | 18 | .217 |

Friday's Results

Pittsburgh 5, Brooklyn 2.
Chicago 3, New York 2.
Cincinnati 7, Philadelphia 5.
Boston 4, St. Louis 3.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| St. Louis | 17 | 12 | .586 |
| New York | 14 | 10 | .583 |
| Washington | 15 | 11 | .577 |
| Philadelphia | 13 | 13 | .500 |
| Chicago | 13 | 14 | .481 |
| Cleveland | 12 | 16 | .429 |
| Detroit | 12 | 16 | .429 |
| Boston | 11 | 15 | .423 |

Friday's Results

St. Louis 6, New York 5.
Cleveland 9, Philadelphia 1.
x-Boston 3, Chicago 2.
Detroit 4, Washington 1.
x—12 innings.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Friday's Results

Kansas City 7-1, Toledo 1-5.
Columbus 9, Milwaukee 6.
Louisville 6, Minneapolis 3.
St. Paul 5, Indianapolis 1.

Fights Last Night

CHICAGO — Willie Pep, 126¾, Hartford, Conn., outpointed Frankie Rubino, 133¼, Brooklyn, 10. George Parks, 188½, Washington, knocked out Johnny Tuck, 211, Paterson, N.J., 6.

MILWAUKEE — Lloyd Marshall, 170½, Sacramento, Calif., outpointed Joe Reddick, 160, Paterson, N.J., 10. Leroy Jackson, 123½, Cleveland, outpointed Mike Gravino, 125¼, Hamilton, Ont., 8.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J.—Bernie Mille, 141¼, New York, knocked out Henry McNeil, 143, Philadelphia, 1. John Henry Johnson, 162, Philadelphia outpointed Ben Russ, 178, Atlantic City.

HOLLYWOOD — Manuel Ortiz, 124, El Centro, Calif., stopped Pewee Lewis, 124, Baltimore, 9.

Maybe it's the weather. Maybe it's spring. Anyway, the baseball boys go in for balmy gyrations in this picture snapped during recent Yankee-Indian game in New York. Lou Boudreau of the Tribe covers the bag. George Stirnweiss of the Yanks does the sliding. Stirnweiss is out.

Sports Spice

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sport Writer

NEW YORK, May 20—(AP)—Delaware Park has dropped the Daily Double for several reasons, including "a question among the directors whether the daily double is a desirable form of wagering." . . . That serves to bring out the point that horse racing does exist in some places for other purposes than extracting as much dough as possible from the public . . . Delaware and Keeneland are the biggest non-profit tracks—skipping such obviously unprofitable ventures at Gulfstream Park and the Albany, Calif., track—and in the pre-mutuel days nobody ever thought the New York tracks were exactly rolling in money.

There's Nothing New

If you thought Bucky Walters and Clyde Shoun were hot stuff when they pitched a one-hitter and a no-hitter for the Reds on successive days, listen to this report from Bill Diehl of the Norfolk, Va., Ledger-Dispatch . . . When Norfolk's bitter high school rivals, Maury and Granby, clashed recently, two Maury pitchers did the same trick on one afternoon, with added flourishes . . . first Billy Rainier tossed a one-hit, 7-0 victory over Granby and Shortstop Allen Richter made two hits . . . then they traded positions and Richter hurled a 21-0 no-hitter and Rainier led the attack with five for six.

QUIET INVASION AREA

BRIGHTON, England — (CP) — In cities and towns in the banned areas around Britain's south coast visitors are so few that chicken, steaks, chops and ham are being freely advertised on restaurant menus.

TUNE IN
CHEX
SUNDAY
12.45 to 1.00 P.M.
Hear Vocalist
LUCY MUNROE
Accompanied by JESSE CRAWFORD
at the organ.
Elsie Bennett
GIFT SHOP
345 GEORGE ST.

COMING...
Wed., May 24th
OZZIE WILLIAMS
AND HIS ORCHESTRA
Direct From Toronto's "Club Kingsway"
Admission—75c Person
Summer Gardens
PETERBOROUGH

What's On the Air

| Stations | Kilocycles |
|---|---|
| CHEX | 1430 |
| CBL | 740 |
| CFRB | 860 |
| WEAF | 660 |
| WJZ | 770 |
| WABC | 880 |

Symbols: D—Drama, M—Musical, R—Religious, S—Songs, T—Talk, V—Variety, N—News

This Program has been given the Peterborough Examiner by stations herein listed. If the presentations as scheduled are not on the air, the fault lies with the stations and not with the Examiner.

Radio Station CHEX Carries the News on the Hour

SATURDAY EVENING

6:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Tunes
CBL—Saturday Serenade
WABC—Quincy Howe-T

6:15 P.M.
CHEX—Singing Strings
CBL—CBC News
WEAF—Hollywood Theatre
WJZ—Storyland Theatre

6:30 P.M.
CHEX—News; Rhythm R'dup
CBL—Songs at Eventide

6:45 P.M.
CHEX—Canada at the Front
CBL—BBC News
WEAF—Religion in the News
WABC—The World To-day

7:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Sportscasts
CFRB—Mayor of the Town
WJZ—Good Old Days-V
WEAF—American Story

7:15 P.M.
CHEX—Footlight Parade

7:30 P.M.
CHEX—Melodies from England
WEAF—Ellery Queen-D
CFRB—Tim's Gang
WABC—Thanks to Yanks

7:45 P.M.
CHEX—Lyrics for To-night

8:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Cugat's Orch
CBL—Ici L'on Chante
WJZ—Early Amer. Dance-M
WABC—Blue Ribbon Time-V

8:30 P.M.
CHEX—Erie Tully Barn Dance
WABC—Inner Sanctum-D
WEAF—Truth or Consequences
CBL—Share the Wealth
WJZ—Boston Symphony

9:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Dancing Party
CBL—Two-Piano Team
WABC—Your Hit Parade
WEAF—National Barn Dance

9:30 P.M.
CHEX—Rhythm and Rhyme
CFRB—Awcommon Inn

10:00 P.M.
CHEX—Stringtime-M
WJZ—Guy Lombardo-M
WEAF—Variety Program

10:15 P.M.
WABC—Correction Please
CFRB—Barn Dance

10:30 P.M.
CHEX—Norman Harris Orch.
WEAF—Grand Old OpryV

10.45 P.M.
CHEX—America Looks Ahead

11:00 P.M.
CHEX—News and Commentary
CFRB—News

11:15 P.M.
CHEX—Sign Off
CFRB—Dateline
WEAF—Am. String Quartette

11:30 P.M.
WJZ—Hoosiers' Hop
CFRB—Casey, Press Photo'er
WEAF—I Sustain the Wings

SUNDAY MORNING

8.30 A.M.
WABC—Columbia Ensemble

9:00 A.M.
CBL—Interlude
CFRB—News

9:15 A.M.
WEAF—Commando Mary-T
CBL—Serenade in Waltztime

WJZ—Victory Garden Talk

9:45 A.M
CFRB—New Voices-S
WJZ—White Rabbit Line
CBL—String Quartette

10:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Sun Song Sedv.

CFRB—Church of the Air
CBL—Andy Clark-T
WEAF—Nat. Radio Pulpit-R
WJZ—Message of Israel-R

10:30 A.M.
CHEX—Words and Music
CFRB—Wings Over Jordan

WJZ—Southernaires
CBL—Ontario Gardener

11:00 A.M.
CHEX—St. Paul's Church
WABC—Blue Jacket Choir-S
WJZ—Your War Job-T
WEAF—Rhapsody of Rockies

SUNDAY AFTERNOON

12:00 P.M.
CFRB—Bluejacket Choir-S
CBL—BBC News
WEAF—NBC Orchestra
WABC—Salt Lake Choir

12:15 P.M.
CBL—St Michael's
CHEX—Rosanne Salon

12:30 P.M.
CHEX—News; Emerald Isle
WJZ—Moments of Memory

12:45 P.M.
CHEX—Old Refrains

1:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Elim Church
WABC—Church of the Air

CBM—Hello, Children

1:30 P.M.
CHEX—Chapel Chimes
CBL—Chamber Music
CFRB—Sunday Hour-M
WEAF—R'nd Table Discussion

2:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Music and Verse
CFRB—Bid for Victory
WEAF—Those We Love-D
WJZ—Chaplain Jim-D

2:30 P.M.
CHEX—Wayne King-M
CBL—Religious Period
WEAF—John C Thomas-S
WJZ—Sunday Vespers

3:00 P.M.
CHEX—Pentecostal Church
CBL—The People Ask
WJZ—The Life of Riley
CFRB—N Y Philharmonic
WEAF—World Parade

3:30 P.M.
CHEX—Waltz with Me
WEAF—The Army Hour
WJZ—Hot Copy-D

4:00 P.M.
CHEX—Bethany Tabernacle
WJZ—Fun Valley
CFRB—N Y Philharmonic

4:30 P.M.
CFRB—Variety Program
WEAF—Lands of the Free
CBL—Church of the Air-R
WJZ—World of Song

5:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Hit Parade
CBL—Musical Program
WEAF—Symphony of the Air
WJZ—Mary Small Revue-V
CFRB—Family Hour-V

5:30 P.M.
CHEX—Guy Lombardo
WJZ—Musical Steelmakers

5:45 P.M.
CHEX—Command Performance

SUNDAY EVENING

6:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Hall of Fame
WEAF—Catholic Hour
CBL—Comrades in Arms
WABC—Silver Theatre-D
CFRB—Green Hornet-D

6:30 P.M.
CBL—Art and Democracy-T
CFRB—Light Opera
WABC—America in the Air
WEAF—Great Gildersleeve-V

7:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Salvation Army
CBL—Jack Benny
WABC—William Shirer-N

7:30 P.M.
CHEX—L for Lanky
WABC—We the People-V
WJZ—Quiz Kids

8:00 P.M.
CHEX—News
WABC—Walt. Pidgeon Show
CBL—Charlie McCarthy
WJZ—Chapel Service

8:15 P.M
CHEX—Treasury Star
WJZ—Andy Russell-S

8:30 P.M.
CHEX—Memories Melodies
CBL—Week-end Review

WJZ—Keepsakes-V
WABC—Crime Doctor-D
WEAF—One Man's Family-D

9:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Say with Music
CBL—Refugee-D
WJZ—Walter Winchell-T
CFRB—Radio Digest-D

9:15 P.M.
CHEX—House of Dreams

9:30 P.M.
CHEX—Fred Allen-V
CBL—Familiar Music

10:00 P.M.
CHEX—Lat.-Amer. Serenade
CBL—National News
WEAF—Hour of Charm
WABC—Take or Leave It-V
WJZ—Listen, the Women

10:15 P.M.
CBL—Songs of Empire-M

10:30 P.M.
CHEX—Nocturne
WABC—Adven. of Thin Man-D
WEAF—Bob Crosby-V
CFRB—Artists in Recital

11:00 P.M.
CHEX—Nat'l News Summary
CBL—Radio Newsreel

MONDAY MORNING

6:00 A.M.
CHEX—Early Risers

7:30 A.M.
CHEX—News

7:45 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Cheer

8:00 A.M.
CHEX—News
WJZ—Kibitzers-V

8:15 A.M.
CHEX—Breakfast Musicale

8:30 A.M.
CHEX—Breakfast Musicale

CFRB—Quiet Sanctuary
WJZ—Woman of Tomorrow

8:45 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Devotions
CFRB—Coffee Club
WEAF—Modern Romances

9:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Salon String
CBL—Mirth and Madness

9:15 A.M.
CHEX—Meet the Band

9:30 A.M.
CHEX—Invit. to Waltz

9:45 A.M.
CHEX—Smiling Jack

10:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Masterworks
CBL—Band-Plays On

10:15 A.M.
CHEX—Uncle Jimmy-D

10:30 A.M.
CHEX—Peter McGregor-D
CFRB—Mrs Aitken
CBL—Wartime Housekeeping

10:45 A.M.
CHEX—Mastersingers

11:00 A.M.
CHEX—News
WJZ—Breakfast at Sardi's-V

11:15 A.M.
CHEX—Music by Montovani

11:30 A.M.
CHEX—Invit to Syncopation
CBL—Soldier's Wife
WABC—Bright Horizon-D

11:45 A.M.
CHEX—On the Lighter Side

MONDAY AFTERNOON

12:00 NOON
CHEX—News; Home Folks
CBL—BBC News
WJZ—Frontiers of Am. Life-T

12:30 P.M.
CHEX—News, Farm News
WABC—Helen Trent-D
WEAF—Navy Band
CBL—Farm Broadcast

1:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Home Folks
WEAF—Sketches in Melody

1:15 P.M.
CBL—Happy Gang
WJZ—The Woman's Exchange

1:30 P.M.
CHEX—Who's New To-day
CFRB—Tropical Moods
WABC—Bernardine Flynn-T

1:45 P.M.
CHEX—They Tell Me

2:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Salon Orch.
WEAF—Guiding Light-D

2:15 P.M.
CHEX—The Lady Sings

2:30 P.M.
CHEX—Stars of the Week

2:45 P.M.
CHEX—B'by Birthday Mother

3:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Melody Matinee
WJZ—Morton Downey-S

3:30 P.M.
CHEX—Alf. Standen, piano

3:45 P.M.
CHEX—Voice of Memory

4:00 P.M.
CHEX—Make Believe Ballr'm
CBL—Ann Watts-S
WJZ—Blue Frolics

5:00 P.M.
CHEX—Robertson Davies-T
WABC—Fun with Dunn-V
CBL—Frontline Family

5:05 P.M.
CHEX—Lindsay Salute

Theatres-Dances-Radio

Cuban Sparks Syracuse To Win

(By Th Associated Press)

The best break enjoyed by the Syracuse Chiefs occurred when Antonio (Chico) Rodriquez decided to abandon his idea of quitting the club to play with his home town Cuban ball club.

After a slow start, Chico began to hit the ball at a merry clip until today, he is second to the International League's leading batter, Al (Red) Schoendienst of Rochester, with a mark of .397.

In last night's game, for example, the Syracuse third baseman smacked out three hits, one a double, and drove in two runs to lead his team to a 5-0 verdict over the Newark Bears.

Frank Skaff's home run with a teammate on base in the ninth inning gave Baltimore Orioles a 3-2 decision over Jersey City Little Giants in the first game under lights in Roosevelt Stadium since dim-out restrictions put the end to night ball in New Jersey.

Buffalo came from behind to defeat Rochester 4-3 in 11 innings. Trailing 3-0, the Bisons tied the score in the eighth and won in overtime when Carl McNabb doubled to score Frank Heller.

Montreal scored seven runs in the last three innings to defeat Toronto 9-3 and move up to fifth place in the standings, one game behind third. Catcher Stan Andrews homered for the Royals in the seventh with two on.

MOVIE TIME TABLE

Regent — "Rookies In Burma", 3.25, 6.10, 9.00; "Woman of the Town", 1.35, 4.25, 7.10, 10.00.

Capitol—"Song of Russia", 1.40, 3.40, 5.30, 7.35, 9.35. Last complete show, 9.10.

Centre — "A Lady Takes a Chance," 2:25, 5:00, 7:31, 10:05. "Pack Up Your Troubles," 1:25, 3:55, 6:28 9:02.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

Pete Latzo dethroned Mickey Walker as world's welterweight boxing champion 18 years ago tonight with a 10-round decision over the "toy bulldog" at Scranton, Pa. Four years later Walker became middleweight champion by defeating Tiger Flowers, only negro to hold that title. Walker, who entered heavyweight ranks in 1931, retired some years ago.

DANCING TO-NIGHT
TO THE
"MELODY MEN"
ADMISSION:
Ladies, 40c
Gents, 60c
SUMMER GARDENS
PETERBOROUGH

LAST TIMES TO-DAY!
JEAN ARTHUR and JOHN WAYNE
"A LADY TAKES A CHANCE"
Hit No. 2, "Pack Up Your Troubles"
With Laurel and Hardy—Plus! Comic Cartoon
CENTRE
STARTS MONDAY
Loretta Young - Brian Aherne
In a Mystery-Comedy-Romance To Tickle Your Funnybone
"A Night To Remember"
And Feature No. 2
"MR. MUGGS STEPS OUT"
With THE EAST SIDE KIDS
Extra! Latest British Newsreel

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE Solves the SUPER-MYSTERIOUS
MURDER ON THE WATERFRONT
A WARNER THRILLER with WARREN DOUGLAS • JOAN WINFIELD • JOHN LODER
RUTH FORD • Directed by B. Reeves Eason
Regent
STARTING MONDAY
Hit No. 2
"HOW'S ABOUT IT"
TO-NIGHT ONLY!
"WOMAN OF THE TOWN" - "ROOKIES IN BURMA"
PLUS! LAST CHAPTER OF "THE PHANTOM"

Mirth by ROCHESTER
Melody by FREDDY MARTIN
Rhythm by ANN MILLER
A picture that's buzzin' with love and laughs!
STARRING ANN MILLER, ROCHESTER, JOHN HUBBARD, FREDDY MARTIN ORCHESTRA
What's Buzzin' Cousin?
A COLUMBIA PICTURE
Also ON THE SAME PROGRAMME
The Greatest Picture of All Time Brought Back to Our Screen!
"MR. DEEDS GOES TO TOWN"
Gary Cooper — Jean Arthur
Last Day-
ROBERT TAYLOR
SUSAN PETERS
in
"SONG OF RUSSIA"
MONDAY
Capitol
A FAMOUS PLAYERS THEATRE

Blood Plasma And Bombs Transport Load

OTTAWA, May 19.—(CP).—This is the story about the "bombs and blood" transport squadron of the R.A.F. in the Mediterranean who consider themselves truck drivers because they have carried everything from paratroops to Spitfires. Others consider them heroes because they have hand-rolled bombs at Germans and landed behind enemy lines to mine bridges.

Containing many Canadians the squadron, now flying Dakotas, operates between Gibraltar and Cairo. One of its biggest tasks was flying 16,000 casualties out of North Africa, Sicily and Italy.

It is an old R.A.F. squadron, dating back to 1911 when Handley Paiges were popular. It started out in this war with Bombays, and it was from antiquated aircraft that crewmen hand-rolled bombs on the famous Africa Corps. They formed part of the nondescript air group which helped stop Field Marshal Erwin Rommel at El Alamein.

"Sometimes you feel like a truck driver, pushing Dakotas through the sky, but it's the next best thing to being on a bomber squadron," said Flt. Lt. W. O. Reeves, Toronto, in Cairo recently. Reeves, 38, is too old to be a bomber pilot.

Flt. Sgt. Bruce Pitkethly, St. Catharines, Ont., said he always got a kick out of the contrast of conditions in which airmen found themselves.

Luxury Sometimes

"One night you are sleeping out on the desert and the next night you are at a place in Morocco with a Posh hotel and bags of hot baths," he laughed.

The aircrews can always look at the record of the Transport Command for satisfaction. The Command has flown thousands of miles with supplies needed by the Army and Air Force. They flew paratroops to the Greek island of Cos.

Flt. Lt. Art Brown, Hawarden, Sask., told something of the job his squadron has done.

"We used to fly whole Spitfires up to the 8th Army," he said "The fuselage of a Spitfire will just fit in one of these Dakotas."

W.O. Stewart Mutch, Norquay, Sask., Brown's wireless operator, said the standard load in those days was called "bombs and blood."

"It was made up of bombs for the forward bomber squadrons and blood plasma for the casualties," he said. "Of course the 'bombs and blood' weren't for the same guys."

Other Canadians on the squadron include James F. Flumerfelt, St. Catharines.

Two Constables Are Up For Manslaughter

QUEBEC, May 20—(CP)—Charges of manslaughter today were laid against Constables Fernand Savard and J. R. Lizotte of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in connection with the fatal shooting of Georges Guenette of nearby St. Lambert de Levis May 7.

Both constables pleaded not guilty to the charges today and were remanded until May 25 for hearing.

Guenette was shot as he sought to escape from a group of R.C.M.P. officers who raided the home of his father in search of him early in the morning of May 7. He was shot while running across a field at the rear of his home after making his getaway from an upstairs window.

Police were seeking to arrest him on a 15-month-old charge of participating in an attack on an R.C.M.P. officer who had been attempting to arrest a draft dodger.

Hastings News

L.A.C. Milton McConnell, R.C.A.F of Toronto was a week-end visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McConnell.

Miss Lillian Dodd of Toronto was a week-end guest with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dodd.

Misses Elsie and Laura Nelson of Toronto spent the week-end with their mother, Mrs. A. Nelson of town.

Miss Mary McKee of Peterborough spent the week-end with her Mother, Mrs. F. McKee and sister Freeda.

BACKACHE
Quickly relieved and Kidneys stimulated by
RUMACAPS

M. Rawlinson LIMITED
610 YONGE ST. TORONTO KI. 5125
Moving PACKING SHIPPING STORAGE

57th CHAPTER I.O.D.E.
THRIFT SALE
May 25, 26, 27
257 GEORGE ST.
Good used clothing, china, jewellery and other household articles.
A lucky draw for hamper of groceries.

NAZI ROLLING STOCK IS BOMBED TO JUNK—Striking evidence of the efficacy of Allied bombings of German railroads and German-operated railroads in occupied countries is this picture, taken from a captured German film and incorporated in "March of Time's" newsreel "underground report." Multiply this by a thousand and you may have an idea of what Allied bombs have done to rail centres in pre-invasion bombings of Nazi communications.

Red Cross Group Does 300th Quilt

NORWOOD, May 20 — (ENS) — Mrs. F. Websters' group of Red Cross Workers met this week at the home of Mrs. G. Andrews when sixteen ladies were present and 4 large quilts were finished. This makes the 300th quilt undertaken since the beginning of the war.

Mrs. A. McMillan received a letter from a girl in England who had received a quilt and Mrs. J. Loughton received one from Eileen Hamet which is as follows!

"It was rather nice finding your address tucked in the corner of the counterpane I was issued with on my arrival in Kent my home is in Yorkshire and when we were sent here the weather was none too warm and as you can imagine extra covering at night time was more than greatly welcomed. Billets at the best time are not very homey and he occupants have to make the best of what is provided. Beautiful colorings and designs of the counterpanes add a certain amount of attraction to our none-to-cheery bedrooms.

By now you are wondering what the person is like who is writing to you, I had better describe myself in detail. My name is Eileen, my age is 22 in July, I am blonde, blue eyes, fair skin, height 5 feet 1 inch. I am a telephonist in the National Fire Service, that is about all I think, I can tell you more but Secnoity forbids it. I should love to know all about your work your home town and if you have any sons or daughters. Do write.

Marmora News

Mr. H. A. Burwash has purchased the Bowen cottage at Crowe Lake.

Mrs. Douglas Moore of Oshawa, is visiting her mother, Mrs. S. Van Volkenburg.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. McConnell of Belleville, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Bowen.

Born—At Hotel Dieu Hospital, Kingston, on Tuesday, May 16, to Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Cournyea (nee Margaret O'Connor) a daughter.

Mr. John Connors has sold his farm in Marmora township to Mr. Harry Moffatt and will move into the village in the fall.

Week-end guests included Mrs. William Prentice and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wannamaker of Foxboro with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Prentice.

Flying Officer Ewart Haacke of Oshawa with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Haacke.

Mrs. Mary Prentice and son Arnold, of Peterborough, with Mr. and Mrs. John Vansickle.

Mr. John McCracken, who has been residing in Niagara Falls, Ont., for several months, returned to the village on Wednesday to spend the summer here.

Mrs. H. R. Haacke is visiting relatives in Toronto this week.

Mrs. William Bonter of Toronto, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bonter for a few days.

HOUSEKEEPING LESSONS

CAPE TOWN — (CP) — In the Bosotho district Basutoland there is a movement to educate and train women in the latest, cheapest and best methods of managing their houses.

DROWNS BABIES—Mrs. Helen McMahon, 27-year-old, who is being held for grand jury action on murder charges after confessing that she threw her two children, Judyne, three months old, and Jane Louise, 14 months, into a cistern on her parents' farm near Rockford, Ill., drowning both. She told authorities, "I couldn't take care of them."

Millbrook News

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barringer spent the week-end with their son-in-law and daughter, Cpl. B. Stevens, R.C.A.F., and Mrs. Stevens, Belleville.

Mrs. Elizabeth Armstrong, who spent the winter in Calgary, Alta., and her daughter, Mrs. M. Shearer, of Penticton, B.C., were in the village on Tuesday and called on a number of friends. Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Shearer have spent the past two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Reid, and Miss Mary Hampton, of Reaboro, owing to the latter's ill health.

FO. R. R. Edmunds, R.C.A.F., and Mrs. Edmunds are spending his two weeks' furlough with Mrs. H. R. Edmunds and Mr. and Mrs. M. McDowell.

Pte. George Sisco, of Camp Borden, was home for the Mother's Day week-end with his parents, Rev. A. L. and Mrs. Sisco.

Sgt. Frank Tickner, C.A.S.C., is spending a furlough with his wife and family, Queen street.

Pte. Mary Dawson, of the Training Centre, Peterborough, spent Mother's Day with Mrs. B. B. Dawson, and family.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. McKnight, Tupper street, for the Mother's Day family gathering included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lang, their daughters, Misses Margaret and Bernice, and their son, Pte. Aylmer Lang, of Toronto, Mrs. M. Perrin, of Ida, and Mrs. W. Williamson, of Carbon, Alta., who is visiting in Ontario for the current month.

Mrs. S. Walley, of Sarnia, has been visiting with her daughter, Miss Francis Walley, B.A., at Mr. and Mrs. C. Thorndyke's home. Miss Walley has been on the staff of the Continuation School for the past two years, but resigned this term, and with her mother left on Tuesday for their home in Western Ontario.

Misses Bernice Smith, of Omemee, Muriel Ball, of Lindsay, and Ruth Ball, of Oshawa, K. Smith of Niagara Falls and Dorothy Smith, of Crooked Creek, were among teachers home for Mother's Day with their respective families.

Latest figures for the Victory Loan Campaign, show that Durham County is over the top, its record being 118 per cent, and the total $1,695,000, according to Dr. H. A. Turner, county chairman for the campaign. Cavan, to date has $107,000 but it is believed when all returns are in the objective of $115,000 will be reached.

Warkworth News

Most Rev. J. R. MacDonald, D.D., Bishop of Peterborough Diocese, officiated at the confirmation service held Sunday evening in St. Jerome's Catholic church. Assisting were Fr. J. P. Collins, Campbellford, Fr. F. L. Rishea, Wooler and Fr. F. A Marocco, Peterborough

Mr. George Wilson, Rochester, is spending a few days with his father, Mr. George Wilson, Sr.

Mr. Austin Moore Mr. and Mrs. J. Kemp and family, Peterborough, visited Mr. and Mrs. John Beatty Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Strople, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wellard and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edgar, Belleville, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. G. A. Ireland and Mrs. H. Clegg, Trenton, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. B Baker over the week-end.

Miss Mary Somers, Reg. N., and friend, Mrs. Madeline Nicholson, returned to Toronto Saturday after spending a few days with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Somers.

Mrs. T. G. Smith has returned home after spending several months in Toronto with Mr and Mrs. E. P. Gallagher.

PO. Melford Gummer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gummer, is serving overseas.

Miss Lillian McCleary, Toronto, is spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Harry McCleary.

Miss Teresa Lonergan and friend, Miss Margaret Cronin, Toronto, spent the week-end with the former's mother, Mrs. Frances Lonergan.

Mrs. James Grant is spending a week with relatives in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hamley and Mrs. E. Clements, Toronto, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. John Grant and other relatives.

ENTERTAINER AT 92

LONDON — (CP) — Actor Charles Coburn will be 92 next August but he still travels around England singing to Britain's armed forces. Onetime favorite of English music halls, Coburn bemoans the fact he "cannot hear so well" as in his younger days.

Wood Industries Plan Expansion

TORONTO, May 20 — (CP). — Wood products industries in Canada plan an expenditure of more than $36,300,000 in the first three years after the war, the Post-War Research Department of the MacLean Publishing Company said today in its fourth report based on surveys of Canadian industry.

The wood products survey covered 2,400 manufacturers employing 50 or more persons each and they estimated they would employ more than 83,000 workers after the war compared with 58,963 in 1939.

The indicated post-war expenditures include $18,401,000 on construction and rehabilitation of factory premises $11,278,500 on new machinery and equipment; $6,600,000 on maintenance of machinery and equipment.

Sawmills led in postwar spending estimates, these companies reporting they plan total expenditures of $20,165,600, an increase of 32 per cent over average expenditures during a normal three-year pre-war period. Furniture factories indicated they would spend $2,847,200.

J. Edwin Wilson Heads Osteopaths

TORONTO, May 20 — (CP) — J. Edwin Wilson of Barrie, Ont., yesterday was elected President of the Ontario Osteopathic Association at the annual meeting held here. Other officers are: C. V. Hinsperger of Windsor, Ont.; vice-president; R. A. Linnen of Ottawa, president-elect; Eldon S. Detwiler London, Ont., Secretary-Treasurer; and directors, A. G. Davidson of London; N. Routledge of Chatham, Ont., and Douglas Firth, G. A. Dejardine and J. J. O'Connor of Toronto.

Smuts Believes Coming Blow Will End War

BIRMINGHAM, England, May 20 —(CP Cable.)—A triangular assault from the west, the east and the south may bring about "the final decision in Europe much earlier than pessimists forecast to-day," Prime Minister Jan Christiaan Smuts of South Africa said here to-day.

The veteran empire statesman, who came here fresh from the Commonwealth Prime Ministers' Conference to receive the freedom of the city, said the Commonwealth never had been in better shape than today, reported on the successful conference which ended Tuesday and touched also on the war situation.

It would be a mistake, he said, to concentrate all hopes and attention on the coming western front "forgetting that all three fronts are but one and should be viewed as a whole."

Of the Pacific, he said, he was "inclined to be more optimistic than many others about the duration of the Japanese war after Hitler has been finished."

Best Of All.

Of the Commonwealth Prime Ministers' Conference, Field Marshal Smuts said he had attended many Imperial conferences in the last 30 or 40 years "but I can truthfully say I recall none which compares with this both in magnitude of issues raised and the spirit of mutual understanding which prevailed throughout."

"We discussed not only problems of war but also of peace so far as we can peer into the future," he added. "When we came face to face we found nothing to differ about in our broad aiams and policies."

He put the problem of salvaging and rehabiliating Europe — where the prospect was bleak and obscure "to a degree unknown for generations"—first in "our program of world reconstruction after the war."

Second on the post-war peace program we placed the "question of establishing a new world organization for security against war."

In a tribute to Prime Minister Churchill, Field Marshal Smuts said "Churchill beyond all doubt belongs to the great men of our age. The future may place him even higher —in that small select company of really great men whom this island has produced.

"In the gravest national emergency and world crisis of unprecedented dimensions, he has stood forth as a heroic dauntless champion, inspiring leader, and has once more proved how great a factor leadership is in the determination of our human lot."

Six Girls At Camp

MARMORA, May 20 — (ENS) — Six of the Uppen School girls of Marmora High School have joined girls' work camps under the plan arranged by the Ontario Department of Education. Isobel Hickey has joined the camp at Cooksville; Eva Johnston and Aina Hoski went to St. Catharines; Betty Bailey and Dorothy Forestell to Fenwick while Jane McNally is at Winona.

CHINESE GUNNER IN BURMA — A soldier of the 22nd Chinese Division fighting with Allied troops in northern Burma is shown in a mortar position in the northern part of the Mougawng valley, several miles north of Shaduzup. Shelling Japanese positions only 1,000 yards away, this Chinese soldier is placing a projectile into a heavy 4.2 mortar.

Norwood Club Have Good Year

NORWOOD, May 20—(ENS)—The Willing Workers met at the home of Betty Baker this week, president Janet Giffen presiding. Group leaders collected the work finished by the members consisting of quilt blocks, a pair of pyjamas and a pair of soakers. A quilt top was finished by the Leaders. The program consisted of recitations by Marion Cuthbertson and Gail Baker and a piano solo by Lois Stockhouse.

The report of the year's work was as follows; proceeds of a tea $14.45; handkerchief sale $24.18; sale of an afghan $10; concert by the girls $37; Collections amounted to $3.19;. The expenditures were materials for sewing and knitting 46.62; Christmas Cards for soldiers $12.25; Russian Relief $10; Salvation Army $15; Norwood Red Cross $10; Chinese Relief $5; Mile of Pennies I.O.D.E. $2; Milk for Britain $5.

All Produce Shows Strong Demand

TORONTO, May 20—Trading on yesterday's produce markets remained unchanged from the previous trend. Good demand for Ontario butter was apparent, while supplies were still quite light. The expected seasonal increase has been very slow in coming, and at present a much larger volume of arrivals could be readily absorbed. Prices remained unchanged, closing on the basis of 33½ cents for first grade.

The present rate of egg production is believed at its peak, and receipts are adequate to meet all demands.

No movement was noted on the cheese market.

Bancroft News

The funeral of the late John Price of Monteagle who passed away at his residence Sunday after a lengthy illness was held Tuesday afternoon at Zion Church, Monteagle, the service being conducted by the Rev. R. McLaughlin. Interment was made in Zion cemetery.

Misses Rhoda and Freeda Wilson of Peterborough spent the week-end at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilson of town.

Mrs. J. M. Joynt left Tuesday for Toronto where she will visit with relatives

Miss Ursie Russell of Peterborough spent the week-end at her home in Bancroft.

Messrs. R. C. Wiggins, Cecil Wiggins and R. Blatherwick returned home from Toronto Tuesday morning.

Miss Mary Shalla spent the week-end visiting at her home in Barry's Bay.

Miss Jean Reynolds of Peterborough spent the week-end in town with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Graham of Belleville are visiting at the home of the latter's brother, Mr. T. O'Shaughnessy of town.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Blatherwick spent the week-end visiting the former's mother, Mrs. S. S. Batherwick of Rockwood, and also at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. W. L. Hunter of Kitchener.

Miss Jean Woodcock of the village underwent an operation for appendicitis at the local Red Cross hospital Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Cecil Wiggins of Belleville is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bowen of Baptiste.

Mrs. Dunne of Detroit accompanied by Mrs. Betty Woods of Port Perry are visiting at the home of the former's daughters, Mrs. H. L. Tanner of Bancroft.

Rodney Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Robinson of town is home awaiting a call by the Merchant Marine having completed his course as a wireless operator at Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wiggins of Cobourg returned home Tuesday afternoon having spent over the week-end in Bancroft with relatives.

Miss Pauline Bronson of Peterborough spent the week-end visiting with friends in town.

School Report

HAVELOCK HIGH SCHOOL.

HAVELOCK, May 20 — (ENS) — —The following is the Havelock High School Easter report, with the percentages Grade 9— Stella Wilkinson 88, Betty Stewart 84, Eleanor Lean 82, Ethel Menzies 79, James McMillan 77; Robert Baines 77, Winston Goheen 73, Jean Peters 72, Bruce Melville 68, Helen Peters 68, Gladys Grayling 62, Jacquelyn Puffer 60, Kathleen Rooney 57, Marion Clark 56, Wallace Young 53, John Anderson 53, Harry Hubble 48, Wayne Young 45, Thelma Graham 43, Lawrence Gerow 33.

Grade 10— Meryl McMullen 83, Fred Jones 82, Lois Fraser 73, Helen Price 72, Marilyn Hutchinson 68, Inez Spooner 66, William Pollock 58, Lorraine Page 53, Robert Pollock 48, Marion Deline 47, Thelma Althouse 40, James Scott 38.

MIDDLE SCHOOL.

Grade 11 — John Wilkinson 87, Vernon Goheen 74, Viona Brownsell 68, Evelyn Iles 65, Ross Clark 60, Ray Barton 57, Helen Clarke 52, Marjorie Brennan 50, Laurena Wight 47, Douglas Grayling 44.

Grade 12 — Grace Menzies 88, Ross Goheen 78, Ruth Wilkinson 76, Evelyn Melville 69, Carleton Longmuir 60, Elaine Iles 59, Robert Watson 57, Betty Holdcroft 56, Cleo Copp 55, Clarence Price 54, Murray Wight 46.

UPPER SCHOOL.

Grade 13 — Allan Goheen 81, Margaret Anderson 66, Betty Clarke 64, Rae Brownsell 61, Walter Nobes 59, Marion Forsyth 55.

Bank Of Canada Will Curb Money Panics

OTTAWA, May 20 — (CP) — Graham Towers, governor of the Bank of Canada, said Thursday before the Commons Banking and Commerce committee that if a bank panic developed the chartered banks could obtain the assistance they needed from the Bank of Canada in tiding them over.

Arthur Slaght (L-Parry Sound) said that meant the taxpayers' money would be used to support the banks.

Mr. Towers: "On the contrary, it would be a very profitable operation for both the Bank of Canada and the taxpayer. Mind you, I don't want it to happen."

The committee continued examination of the power of banks to issue credit.

R. T. Graham (L-Swift) asked if the loaning capacity of banks would be impaired if the suggestion of G. G. McGeer (L-Vancouver Burrard) that the government conscript savings for its financial needs were carried out.

Mr. Towers said that if there was a loss of confidence in the banks their loaning capacity would be impaired. It was only because of confidence in the banks that they were able to extend loans in excess of their actual cash reserves.

Mr. Slaght said he was opposed to nationalization of banks and he praised the service they had given, but he felt the right to issue credit and currency should be returned to Parliament. The right to create money had been given the chartered banks.

Mr. Towers said the right had been given but the banks could do so only if they retained the confidence of thir customers.

MUST WORK FOR YEAR

SALISBURY, England — (CP) — Charged with housebreaking, Gwyn Jones, 21, was bound over for 12 months on condition he return to work in the Welsh coalmines and work steadily for 12 months even if every other worker in the mine goes on strike.

REPATRIATED—Larry Allen, Associated Press war correspondent, who won the Pulitzer prize for his coverage of the British fleet in the Mediterranean, is among the exchange prisoners from Germany, now being repatriated. He was captured two years ago following the sinking of a British cruiser.

Rupture Troubles Ended
Thousands healed by our advanced method. No leg straps, no elastic, no plasters. No pressure on hips or spine. Flexo pad. Different from all others. Endorsed by doctors, mechanics, clerks; everywhere. Very light. INEXPENSIVE. GUARANTEED. Write for information and trial offer.
SMITH MANUFACTURING COMPANY
Established 1893 Dept. 37, Preston, Ont.

In compliance with the requirements of the Surveys Act, Chapter 232, R.S.O., 1937, Notice is hereby given that the survey of that part of the line between Concessions 5 and 6, Township of Methuen, northerly from Lot 21 to the northern boundary of the Township, has been performed by Ontario Land Surveyor J. W. Pierce, who has filed the returns of this survey in this Department.

On Monday, the twelfth day of June next, at 10.30 a.m. Daylight Saving Time, a hearing of any objections to the said survey that may be filed prior to that date, will be held in the office of the Surveyor-General, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

In the event of no objections being filed, the survey will be confirmed in accordance with the Provisions of the Act above mentioned.

A copy of the Surveyor's Report, Plan and Field Notes may be seen at the office of the Clerk of the Municipality of the United Townships of Belmont and Methuen, and also at the office of the Surveyor-General, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

C. H. FULLERTON,
Surveyor-General.
HON. W. G. THOMPSON,
Minister of Lands and Forests

PEARKES REVIEWS 2,000 VOLUNTEERS AT VERNON—More than 2,000 troops stationed at the training centre at Vernon, B.C., who joined the Active Forces within a period of three weeks were reviewed by Major-General G. R. Pearkes, V.C., C.B., D.S.O., M.C., who is general officer commanding the Pacific Coast area, as they prepared to leave their training camp. The men gave the general three thunderous cheers following the review and march past and a brief address in which Major-General Pearkes complimented them on volunteering for Active Service. At Top, General Pearkes is pictured as he inspected the troops before wishing them Godspeed, stopping to talk to individuals in the ranks. The soldiers are shown below as they waved steel helmets in the air and cheered the General at the conclusion of his inspection. (Canadian Army Photos)

Excessive Worry Saps the Nervous System

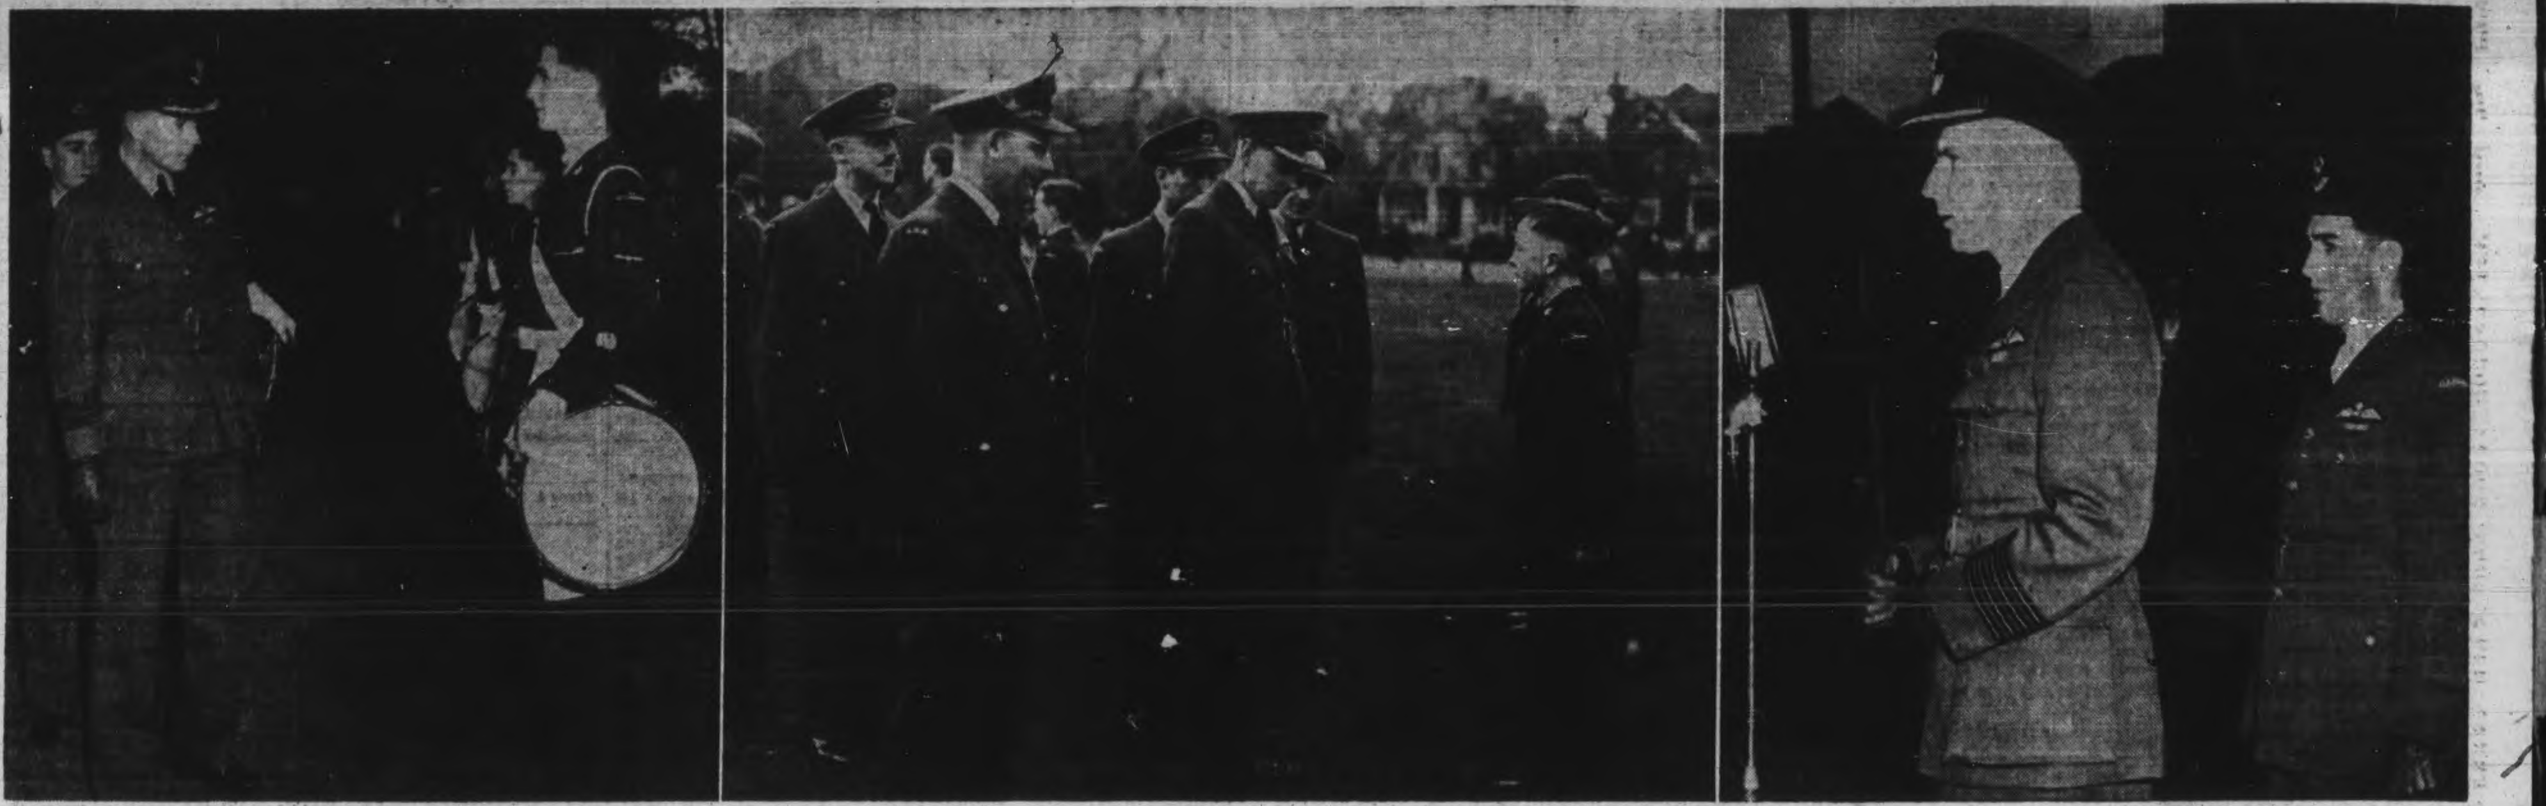
Worry over business or household duties, sudden shock, distressing news, the foolish attempt to put a week of normal life into 24 hours all put a strain on the nervous system it cannot stand.
If you are tired, listless, nervous and worried why not give Milburn's Health and Nerve Pills a chance to help put you on your feet again?
They are a blood enriching and nerve tonic containing essential elements for the blood and the nervous system.
Help yourself back to health—happiness by taking H. & N. Pills.
Price 50c a box, 65 pills, at all drug counters.
Look for our registered trade mark a "Red Heart" on the package.
The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.



AIR CADETS INSPECTED—The 164th Air Cadet Squadron was given its annual inspection on Confederation Square on Friday evening. The inspecting officer was Group Captain R. C. Ripley, commanding officer of Mountain View. (At Left) Group Captain Ripley inspects the band of the Peterborough squadron; (at Centre) Ripley stops to chat with a cadet during his inspection; at his Right is Flight-Lieutenant A. Ward Smith, O.C. of the Peterborough squadron, and immeditely to the Rear is FO. Lewis Briggs, adjutant of the squadron; (at Right) is Ripley addressing the Cadets, and immediately behind him is FO. Stanley Brooks, who assisted at the inspection. Brooks escaped from an enemy internment camp.

(Parks' Studio Photos)

Main Street Topics

SAILOR OVERSEAS

Stoker 1st Class Gerald Longhurst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Longhurst, 516 Aylmer street, is serving overseas. Before joining the Navy in March, 1943, he was employed at Genelco.

WINS CERTIFICATES

The winners of the $5 War Savings Certificates in aid of the Bomber Fund, drawn at the Canadian Legion bingo on Friday night are as follows: Hilda Dunlop, 270 Dalhousie street; Mrs. Florence Stanley, 523 Bolivar street; Alice Pallant, 667 Donegal street; Mrs. Florence Patterson, 93 Hunter street west; Bob Patterson, 93 Hunter street west.

RECEIVES HIS WING

Grant Smedmor, 148 Muray street, who went overseas with an anti-tank unit, transferred to the R.C.A.F. and returned to Canada to train for air crew received his wings as navigator at No. 1 A.O.S. Malton on Thursday and yesterday was commissioned as a pilot officer.

PRAISED FOR WORK

Wes Ellis, Chief Petty Officer of the ship's company of R.C.S.C.C. Howe and Harry Botnick, Petty Officer of the Guard, received commendation Friday night for their efforts at the cadet inspection made by Lt. Commander H. Plaxton of Kingston.

INSPECTS CADETS

Lt. Commander Hugh Plaxton of Kingston, who inspected the Peterborough Sea Cadets Friday night, is inspecting the Grove School Sea Cadets this afternoon. Beside the march past, the corps will present a drill and illustrate different phases of their training, including work on the lake.

At C.G.E. For 42 Years F. Lawless Honored

An employee of the armature department of the Canadian General Electric Company for forty-two years, Frank Lawless was recently presented with an easy chair and stool by his department associates as reported in the Shops News this week.

For many years Mr. Lawless was one of the group of expert armature winders and builders who comprised the department that was supervised by the late John G. M. Wilson. In those earlier days of the industry, probably all the motors and dynamos turned out in the plant passed through that department, from the little fractional horse power miniatures to the huge machines designed and manufactured for the big power projects throughout the country.

The presentation to Mr. Lawless was made by David Menzies, department foreman, and Ian McRae, works manager, was present, wishing Mr. Lawless health and happiness in his years of retirement, and also some satisfactory fishing.

A group picture representing 250 years of service in the department shows Mr. Lawless in the company of E. Sollett, G. Reader, A. Brumwell, T. Menzies, C. Porter, S. Killingbeck, C. Killingbeck.

ENDOWS BED

BROOMFIELD, England — (CP) — George Knowles has given £1,000 ($4,500) to endow a bed at Chelmsford and Essex Hospital.

W. R. TURNER

Phone 4971 195 Simcoe St.

Heating—Plumbing

Sheet Metal Work

CONTRACTING, JOBBING, REPAIRING

"CRANE" PLUMBING FIXTURES

"IRON FIREMAN" STOKERS

"HECLA" FURNACES

WOOL

Standard Government prices paid for various grades. At Registered Warehouse No. 3 we have been handling and grading wool for twenty-five years.

Ship or Bring Your Wool To:—

G. WHITAKER & CO. Limited

SIMCOE ST. EAST

(Rear Dewart's Feed Warehouse) Peterborough

RED CROSS BLOOD DONOR CLINIC

Notice to those who are scheduled to give blood donations on Wednesday next, May 24th.

Owing to the absence in Toronto of the doctors of the city and district, including those who would attend the Clinic on Wednesday next, there will not be a blood donor clinic on this date.

The occasion is an important convention of physicians and surgeons.

If those scheduled for the cancelled date could conveniently give their blood donation on Monday, May 29th, or Wednesday, May 31, it would be appreciated.

Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic.

$777 Required To Complete Next Donation

Three lucky sevens in a row might well spell a happy omen for something that is worthwhile, and when it comes down to the work that the Peterborough and District British War Victims' Fund endeavors to carry on, it would be tremendously so if it spelt a speedy completion of the next donation of £500 for that is exactly the amount needed at the moment to chalk up another success of achievement by the residents of this city and district, in its efforts towards helping to bring the war to a successful conclusion.

Recent events have shown an increase in the needs that the fund works to assist, due in part to the events that are expected to transpire in the war zone as it concerns the British Isles, and this may be expected to be more acute as D-day approaches, and it would be a splendid tribute to the loyalty that the people hereabouts have previously displayed, if the fund were in a position to give a further helping hand by cabling over a further contribution at the time it is urgently needed.

Personal Interest Needed

So many and varied are the means by which this latest objective in the raising of money to help those who suffer through enemy air raid attacks can be accomplished, that it would take much time and space to enumerate only a part of them, but viewed from the standpoint of that which in one form alone could be of the greatest service to the cause, there is no doubt that a wider personal interest either in an individual sense or in giving leadership to a group movement for the same purpose, would quickly be translated into a practical form which would keep pace with the quickened tempo of events that seem most likely in the immediate future.

To give a fine example of this personal interest in today's receipts, it should be related that the nice return as shown from the penny box located in the Miss Curtis Children's Wear Store on George street is largely due to the personal interest the proprietor takes in assisting the cause herself, for a large part of this amount credited comes by reason of her placing the payment given for alterations to garments in this box, which the writer only ascertained in a roundabout manner, and could hardly help but feel was a splendid illustration of what has previously been written on this particular subject.

Individual personal gifts of course may be used for income tax deductions, giving a double satisfaction at the close of the fiscal year, for apart from the relief they afford in this direction, there is nothing should afford more greater satifaction at the end of another year then gone beyond recall, than the feeling that one has done some good for others during that period, and that it has not in this particular been lived in vain.

The Penny box at the Bank of Toronto has once again registered another assist to the cause, the amount to its credit standing at $2.50 when collected by the secretary of the fund on Friday.

| | |
|---|---|
| Previously acknowledged | $76,210.82 |
| Penny box at the Miss Curtis Children's Wear Store | 9.50 |
| Penny box at the Bank of Toronto | 2.50 |
| Total to date | $76,222.82 |

UNDER AN "ADVISER"

LONDON — (CP) — To centralize administration, the old zone and group commands of the Home Guard have been replaced by sub-district commands, each command to be under an 'adviser."

AMENDMENT TO CITY TAXI BY-LAW

BY-LAW NO. 20 of the Board of Commissioners of Police, amending the Taxi By-law, was passed by the Board at a Meeting held on May 15th, 1944. This By-law provides that the North Side of Anson Street is included now in Area Number 1 of the City for the purposes of Taxi Service and Charges.

May 20th, 1944.

E. A. OUTRAM,
Secretary, Board of Commissioners of Police.

Group Capt. Ripley Inspects 164th Air Cadet Squadron

With assured step and faultless precision the young members of Peterborough's 164th Air Cadet Squadron paraded before Group Captain R. C. Ripley, Commandant of the Mountain View Air Station, in their second annual inspection on Friday evening on the parade grounds in Confederation Square. The Cadets, under the command of Flt. Lieut. A. Ward Smith, put on a sparkling review for the visiting R.C.A.F. officer, who spoke high words of praise of their military bearing and proficiency in the ceremonial drill.

"Somebody," said Group Captain Ripley, addressing the boys following his inspection and the march past, "has done a darn good job." He spoke briefly and to the point. ied themselves for the inspection to ing any bones about your value to us. The value of your training can't be exaggerated. We appreciate it."

The Cadets, divided into three flights and preceded by their band, marched on to the field, dressed their lines in formation, and readied themselves fos the inspection to begin the review. Each flight stood at rigid attention while all its members were being inspected, and then assumed an "at ease" position while the other flights were examined. None of the youngsters faltered, though called on to stand at attention for upwards of 20 minutes.

Accompanied By Veteran.

The inspection, which was conducted in a very thoroughgoing manner by Group Capt. Ripley, took nearly an hour's time. Accompanying the high R.C.A.F. officer was FO. Stanley Brook, Peterborough flier who has returned to Canada after being shot down over Italy, and escaping from an Italian prison camp to make his way safely back to British Army lines.

Group Capt. Ripley spoke to a number of the boys as he walked through the lines, asking them such questions as their age and whether they wanted to join the Air Force.

FO. Stanley Brook also spoke a few words to the assembled Cadets after Group Capt. Ripley had addressed them. He said: "You can't imagine what a thrill it gives me to see you here together as Air Cadets. You are doing a great job. Keep it up."

Flt. Lieut. T. O'Rourke handed commissions to Flt. Lieut. A. Ward Smith, commanding officer of the 164th Air Cadet Squadron, and to two of its officers, FO. William Hamilton and FO. Lewis Briggs. Other officers of the Cadets who participated in the inspection were FO. Ken Currie, FO. Robert Sager, and FO. John Fanning. PO. A. Lansdell is chief instructor, and Joseph Dunkerly the disciplinarian.

The review ended as the Air Cadets marched smartly off the field and paraded down George Street before disbanding.

Following the ceremony certificates and diplomas qualifying them as civilian instructors were awarded to M. Harrison, J. Freeman, and R. Scrutton.

Lakefield Man Given 20 Days

As a result of an episode near Warsaw Friday night, Ernest Lindsay, 51, Lakefield, was arraigned in police court this morning on charges of having been drunk in charge of a car and assaulting J. O. Windover, local wood dealer.

Windover was brought into the local police station last night with his face covered with blood and Dr. D. W. Clark dressed a number of cuts.

Later Lindsay and his brother George Lindsay, Peterborough, were arrested on the 3rd line of Dummer by Provincial Constable Archie Grayling of Havelock.

Ernest Lindsay pleaded guilty to both charges this morning and on the drunk-in-control charge was sentenced to ten days imprisonment and his car was impounded for three months and in the assault count was given an additional ten days' imprisonment.

Giving evidence in the latter case Windover said that he was loading his truck with wood near Warsaw when Lindsay came along in his car, stopped the machine, got out and using threatening language climbed into the back of the truck. Windover said he was on top of the truck and that Lindsay knocked him down with his fist and then picked up a maple limb and struck him a number of blows in the face.

"What names did you call me when I was beside the truck?" asked Lindsay.

"I didn't call you any."

"Then why did I get up on your truck and assault you?"

"That's what I have been wondering."

George Lindsay pleaded guilty to having been drunk and was fined $15 and $2.50 costs.

Max Hayman Delegate To C.C.F. Convention

The Peterborough C.C.F. Association held a meeting on Thursday night for the purpose of discussing resolutions to be sent to the National convention of the C.C.F., to be held in Montreal on July 31 and August 1 and 2 and also to select a representative to attend the convention.

In a close contest Max Hayman was elected as delegate after Bruce Johnston had asked his supporters to transfer their allegiance to Mr. Hayman.

Obituary

MRS. WALTER WIGGINS

BANCROFT, May 20 (ENS) — Announcement was received here Thursday night of the death of Mrs. Alice Wiggins, wife of Walter E. Wiggins of Bancroft. She passed away just before midnight at the Private Patients Pavilion of the Toronto General Hospital after a four-day illness, the result of a fractured hip received May 14. Known to many in this village, the news of her death, which occurred in her 66th year, brings great regret.

Born in Sussex, England, she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carfrae of Bancroft. Mrs. Wiggins had lived in the vicinity of Bancroft for 56 years and was a staunch member of St. John's Anglican church.

Surviving are her husband, Walter E. Wiggins; two daughters, Mrs. R. W. Blatherwick and Mrs. R. G. Kellar of Bancroft; and five sons, Ernest of Cobourg, Frank of Kingston, Cecil of Belleville, and John and Reginald of Bancroft. There are two brothers,, Alfred and Albert Carfrae of Bancroft.

The remains are resting at the residence, until the funeral Sunday. Interment will be at Bancroft.

OVERSEAS WITH R.C.A. — Gunner Gordon Harrison, whose wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Harrison, live in Indian River, is serving overseas. He received his education in Myrtle and Brooklin and was active in sports. Before enlisting, he worked in Oshawa.

4 Horses Lost When Fire Destroys Stable

Fire of unknown origin that may have had its beginnings in defective wiring detroyed the four delivery horses of the George Weston Bread and Cakes Co. Ltd., 62 Hunter street east, in their stable at the rear of the company's premises Friday night. Lost were the entire contents of the stable, a structure of wood frame with a galvanized iron outer sheetings and the stable itself was reduced to a mass of charred wreckage.

The fire, which began about 10.10 p.m., was discovered by Helen Thompson, 56 Hunter street east. The premises of the bakery had been left vacant since about 7.30 p.m. when Dan Donoghue, the stableman, went to his home at 449 Rogers street. Mr. Thompson, informed of the blaze that his daughter had seen, rushed over to the stable and opened it only to be confronted with sheets of flame. He then notified the Fire Department, which succeeded in stifling the blaze within an hour.

A rough estimate of the damage placed the loss to property and equipment in the neighborhood of $1,100. The horses were all first-class delivery horses, and in addition some six complete sets of harness, manure forks, hoes and various spare parts such as tugs and hames, and twelve horse blankets were destroyed by the fire. Two tons of hay, three tons of straw and approximately 150 bushels of oats, which added fuel to the fire, also went up in the blaze.

The office of the Weston Bakeries faces the street, and behind this are the shipping rooms, the garage and at the back the stable. Only the fact that a solid brick wall separates the stable from the garage saved the company an even more serious loss, as without it the fire might have spread towards the front of the premises.

Despite the loss of all its animals last night the bakery was operating its regular rounds as of this morning. Mr. Donoghue phoned Toronto to get replacements when the extent of the bakery's loss became evident, and the company's head office sent up three horses early to-day. A fourth, supplied through the kindness of the manager of the Sunshine Dairy, enabled the bakery to carry on with a full complement despite the serious loss sustained.

GET HIGHER WAGES

LONDON — (CP) — Mrs. E. V. Parker told the National Union of Teachers' conference that children of 14 can start work at wages higher than those paid some British schoolteachers, who received as little as $400 a year.

Enjoyable Program Given By Concert Association

By ROBERTSON DAVIES.

The Community Concert Association, which has increased greatly in strength and influence during the past three years, tried an experiment on Friday night when a group of its own members gave the last concert of the season. Peterborough is apt to be distrustful of anything which has not been done before, and the concert was not well attended; if the members' Concert is given again next season the doubters may accept this assurance that they may attend without danger of disappointment. The Friday night concert was of an excellent standard, and those who turned out to hear it passed a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

The atmosphere of the concert was very much that of a private musical party, and for that reason it is unnecessary and undesirable to enter into detailed criticism of each performance. Groups of songs were sung by Gwen Bond Brown, Orma Lacheur, Mrs. Ford Turner, Phyllis Cowie and Thursa Williamson; Marion Best, Elsie May Chambers and Katherine McDermid played pianoforte numbers; Mary Jane Wharry played two compositions for the violin, and Olga Cutting, Margaret Westbye, and Alicia Langley sang a group of trios; the accompanists for the evening were Agnes Logan Green, Gwen Craw, and Margaret McCabe.

The concert was concluded by two choral numbers and an encore sung by the Normal School Choir, conducted by Q. S. McKinney; the tone of the choir was excellent, and the sureness of pitch which it showed in its unaccompanied part-songs was unusual in a group which has sung together for less than a year. The soloist, Patricia O'Donnell, sang most pleasingly under handicaps which might well have excused her from singing at all. The freshness of the singing, the fine but unobtrusive discipline of the choir, and the obvious enjoyment which the singers felt in their work, made this group of part-songs a splendid conclusion to the concert.

Again it must be said that the concert was not adequately supported. In these days when so much professional entertainment is available to everyone, there is a tendency to undervalue the entertainment which we can provide for ourselves. The Members' Concert was good enough to deserve a full house, and the fact that it did not have one says little for the discernment of many Peterborough citizens who profess to be fond of music, but who, perhaps, are only fond on widely-advertised names.

Youth Has Job

HAMILTON, May 20 — (CP). — Premier Drew of Ontario last night told more than 800 delegates to the annual convention of the Catholic youth organization of the Diocese of Hamilton that Canada's future depends on the extent to which its youth can envision what lies ahead and prepare themselves for the opportunities which will be theirs.

McDermid & Jury's Drug Store

OPEN SUNDAY

DIAL 8801

ROOFING MATERIALS

Why Tolerate a Leaky Roof?

Repair Now

Roll Roofing of all kinds

REHILL

FUEL & BUILDERS' SUPPLY

210 Wolfe St. Phone 5401

The PETERBORO METAL COMPANY

Plumbing and Heating Materials

250 Simcoe St. Tel. 8301

ESPECIALLY FOR THE

YOUTH OF PETERBORO!

AN 8-DAY SERIES OF SPECIAL MEETINGS FOR THE SPIRITUAL UP-BUILDING OF OUR YOUNG PEOPLE OF PETERBOROUGH WILL BE CONDUCTED BY

Rev. and Mrs. James W. Anderson of FLINT, MICHIGAN and Rev. and Mrs. G. Anderson OF NEW YORK

SINGERS – MUSICIANS – PREACHERS

Commencing

Sunday, May 21st at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Each Night at 8 o'Clock.

REV. JAMES AND GORDON ANDERSON TOURED NORWAY, TAKING PART IN THE GREAT REVIVAL WHICH SWEPT THAT COUNTRY JUST PRIOR TO THE GERMAN OCCUPATION. HEAR THEM TALK OF THEIR EXPERIENCES!

BETHANY TABERNACLE

GEORGE ST. NEAR Y.M.C.A. — REV. WALTER S. CRONE, PASTOR

The Examiner

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES

Cash with order, 1½c per word per insertion; 35c minimum for first insertion; 45c minimum with box number.

If paid within five days, 2c per word per insertion.

After five days, 2½c per word per insertion.

Refunds must be claimed within thirty days.

The names and addresses of boxholders are confidential and cannot be given under any circumstances.

THE PETERBOROUGH EXAMINER reserves the right to classify, edit or reject any classified advertising copy. Read your ad at the first insertion. The Examiner will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion. Copy accepted up to 1 p.m. each day for insertion the same day except Saturdays when copy must reach the Examiner before 10 a.m.

| | |
|---|---|
| Birth Notice | 75c |
| Card of Thanks | 75c |
| Engagement Notice | 75c |
| Marriage Notice | 75c |
| Death Notice | 75c |
| In Memoriam | 75c |

The above charge is for 50 words—over 50 words 2c per word is charged.

Coming Events — First insertion 20 words or less minimum charge 50c. Subsequent consecutive insertions 40c per insertion. Over 20 words, 2c per extra word per insertion.

TELEPHONE 4641.

Births Marriages Deaths
In Memoriam
Cards of Thanks

BIRTH

BELL—To L/Cpl. and Mrs. Clifton G. Bell (nee Zaida Harvie) at Soldiers Memorial Hospital Orillia, May 19, 1944 a son (Clifton Harvie). Father overseas.

TULLY — Mr. and Mrs. J. D. (Bud) Tully (nee Marie Allison) announce the birth of a daughter, Donna Marie, at St. Joseph's Hospital on Saturday, May 20, 1944. Both well.

ELLIOTT—To Sgt. and Mrs. Russell Elliott at Nicholl's Hospital on May 19, 1944, a daughter (a sister for Paddy and Gail.)

WICKS—To. L. A. C. Paul Wicks R.C.A.F. and Mrs. Wicks (nee Martha Sands) in Nicholls Hospital on Thursday, May 18 1944, the gift of a daughter, Gloria Jean—Father overseas.

WEDDING

LOWE—DOBSON—On Saturday, May 20, 1944, the marriage took place of Elizabeth Dobson and Stanley A. Lowe. Rev. Dr. James D. Smart officiated.

RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carr, 566 Water Street will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary, Tuesday, May 23rd, and will be at home to their friends from 3 to 5 in the afternoon and 7 to 9 in the evening.

DIED

EDWARDS, David Joseph—On Friday, May 19 1944, at the residence of his son, 211 London Street, David Joseph Edwards beloved husband of Margaret Jane Hall and Father of John, William, Mrs. M. Cummings, and Mrs. E. Lytle.

Funeral service on Monday, May 22, at 2 p.m. from the Nesbitt Funeral Home, 347 Charlotte street. Interment Little Lake Cemetery.

SILVESTER, David—At Bowmanville on Thursday, May 18th, 1944 David Silvester (Retired Provincial Officer) beloved husband of Alman Robinson, aged 62 years.

Resting at the family residence, Wellington St. Brief service in the home on Monday at 1 o'clock. Funeral from Murray St. Baptist Church, Peterborough. Service at 3 p.m. Interment Little Lake Cemetery.

WRIGHT—Mrs. Stanley, on Friday, May 19 1944, at Miss Hunter's Nursing Home, Millbrook, Minnie Todd, age 43, beloved wife of Stanley Wright and Mother of Joan and Ivan.

Funeral will be held Monday, May 22 at 2 p.m. from McPherson's Funeral Home, Millbrook. Interment Gardner's Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

MURPHY—In loving memory of my dear brother Jim who was drowned May 21, 1938.

Whatever else I fail to do
I'll never fail to think of you.
You linger in my memory still
Not just today, but always will.
—Always remembered by his brother, Arthur.

HEGADOREN—In loving memory of Harry Hegadoren, who passed away 7 years ago, May 20, 1937.

Some day we hope to meet again,
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp his hand in the better land,
Never to part again.
—Always remembered by Mother, Art and Flossie.

HEGADOREN—In loving memory of Harry Hegadoren, who passed away, May 20, 1937.

Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all,
And though the years be many or few,
They are filled with remembrance, dear, of you.
—Ever remembered by his wife and family.

TULLY—In loving memory of Mrs. Willis Tully who passed away May 21, 1939.

O' happy hours we once enjoyed,
How sweet their memory still;
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
—Ever remembered by her daughter, Olive.

In Memoriam Verses

A booklet from which In Memoriam verses may be selected is available at the Advertising counter of The Examiner. Telephone Classified Dept 4641

Births, Deaths, Etc.
(Continued from Preceding Col.)

IN MEMORIAM

CROUTER—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Sidney Crouter, who passed away May 22, 1937.

He is gone, but not forgotten,
And as dawns another year
In our lonely hour of thinking,
Thoughts of him are always near,
Days of sadness will come over us,
Friends may think the wound is healed.
But they little know the sorrow,
That lies within the heart concealed.
—Ever remembered by his wife, daughter, daughter-in-law and son.

GARDNER—In loving memory of Alfred Gardner who passed away, May 19, 1942.

We knew you fought so hard in vain
On earth with loved ones to remain,
God loved you too and thought it best,
To take you Home with Him to rest.
—Sadly missed and ever remembered by Gladys, Gord and Granddaughter Sandra.

HAMLIN—In loving memory of Muriel Grace Hamlin, who passed away May 21, 1943.

She had gone across the river
To the shore of ever green,
And we long to see her dear face
But the river flows between.
Some day, some time, our eyes shall see
The face we loved so well,
Some day we'll clasp her loving hand
And never say farewell.
—Sadly missed by Father, Mother, sister and brothers.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

FUNERAL SERVICE
J. J. DUFFUS
WATER AND CHARLOTTE STS
Telephones, Day and Night:

| | |
|---|---|
| OFFICE | 5757 |
| J J DUFFUS (Residence) | 6443 |
| ORVILL J FALLS | 5618 |

TEDFORD FUNERAL HOMES

| | |
|---|---|
| NORWOOD | Phone 297 |
| LAKEFIELD | Phone 28 |
| HASTINGS | Phone 31 |

FLORISTS

ASHBURY'S WEDDING AND FUNERAL FLOWERS
Phone 4962—Nights 3054 318 Charlotte

TURNBULL'S FLOWERS LIMITED
441 George Phone 1583—Nights 3257

COMING EVENTS

First insertion, 20 words or less minimum charge 50c. Subsequent consecutive insertions 40c per insertion. All over 20 words, 2c per extra word per insertion.

COME TO THE LILAC TEA TO BE held by Group C of George Street W.M.S. in the Primary Room on Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 6.

DANCE AT RYE'S PAVILION, Thursday, May 27. Graydon Orchestra, Modern and Old Time dancing. Admission 35c. Gents 50c. Tune in CHEX 9.00 to 9.30.

BINGO AT THE ORANGE HALL, Saturday, 8.15. 30 games, 5 freeze outs. Large Cash Prize on 13th Game. Substantial Cash prize on 10, 20 and 30th Game. Come and bring your friends.

PERSONALS

DON'T RISK LOSING YOUR POSITION or social popularity just because your hair is grey and makes you look older "ANGELIQUE GREY HAIR RESTORER" positively restores grey hair to its natural color, $1.00, at Elliott's, McDermid & Jury, Payne's, and Tamblyn's Drug Stores

AVON REPRESENTATIVE 548 BETHune. Telephone 3194.

NOTICE!

We are pleased to announce that we have secured the services as manager

Mr. Keith Innes

Our "Service with a Smile" will be capably dispensed at all times to old and new customers.

Curtis Service Station
COR. CHARLOTTE and STEWART STS.

HEARING TROUBLES ARE PREVALent in cold weather "Common sense" directions with each bottle of Leonard Ear Oil may give helpful suggestions. At your Druggist, $1.00.

"KLEEREX" — CLEARS THE SKIN. Heals Boils, Impetigo, Eczema, Psoriasis, Chaps, etc. Gives quick relief while you work. 50c, $1.00. (Medium and Strong.) Sold by Bogue's, Lynch's, Finn's, and Tamblyn's Drug Stores.

SPIRELLA REPRESENTATIVES— 3011, 3150, 5151.

RAWLEIGH'S PRODUCTS 360 SIMCOE Telephone 3055.

FULLER BRUSH REPRESENTATIVE Telephone 9778

FULLER SALESMAN F. DAWE, 451 Water. Telephone 4789.

Custom Tailoring

DOES YOUR COAT OR SUIT NEED Altering? Have it done now. Tony Pepe, Greene Building. Dial 4295.

Piano Tuning

WILLIAM POTTER, PIANO TUNING and Repairing (formerly Heintzman) Dial 9462.

PIANO TUNING AND REPAIRING — Fred Walker, Heintzman & Company, Toronto. Mail orders to CHEX or Telephone 9498.

PERSONALS

3a Hairdressers 3a

SPECIALS — $8.50 VAPOR PERMANent for $7.00. $7.00 Machineless Permanent for $4.00. Includes Shampoo, Hairstyle Cut and Scientific testing. Telephone 5311. Paris Beauty Salon.

EXTRA SPECIAL OIL WAVE, $6.50 FOR $5.00. Rosanne Beauty Salon, Kresge Building. Dial 8837.

MARY MARINO SUGGESTS FOR FINE Dry, Hard-to-curl Hair, one of her better Oil Waves at $7.50. Other Oil Waves from $3.50 up. Dial 8663.

SPECIALS — END PERMANENTS $1.00 up. Oil Permanents $2.50 up. Downer's. Dial 8874.

FOR SALE

4 Miscellaneous 4

ROLL-TOP DESK, DAVENPORT BED, Studio Couch, Table, Chairs, Small Articles. Apartment D, above Regent Theatre.

GO-CART. TELEPHONE 4527. 527 King Street.

RED MAPLE BEDROOM SUITE (IMperial Loyalist), also Continental Bed. Telephone 4994, after 6 p.m.

NEW ELECTRIC FENCES
Latest Deluxe Models, with Meters — $19.80 and $12.95.
Also Standard Fences, $8.90.
Includes Insulators, Ground Clamp.
We also carry Wire and Extra Porcelain Insulators, 2c each.
Save Safely at Canadian Tire Corporation, Associate Store, I. H. Keefer, Proprietor, Water Street (opp. Market).

COAL OIL STOVE 646 STORMONT, Evenings.

SMALL COOK STOVE, CREAM ENAmel. Dial 8413.

ICE-BOX, 2-BURNER PERFECTION Stove, 2-Burner Hot Plate. Telephone 3468.

GAS STOVE, 4-BURNER, WITH OVEN and Broiler, nearly new; also Dinette Set. Telephone 9876, after 6 p.m.

FURNITURE AND GIFTS — 3-PIECE Chesterfields $99.00, $33.00 down, $7.38 per month for 10 months; 6-Piece Breakfast Suites, $69.95, $23.95 down, $6.44 per month for 8 months; Ornaments, 19c up; Cushions, $1.79; Mirrors, $3.50 up; Electric Heating Pads, $7.45; Table Lamps, $5.95 up; Vases, 29c up; Artificial Flowers, 19c per Spray up; Play Pens, $5.95; Bassinettes, $11.95. F. H. Johnston, corner George and McDonnel. Telephone 4697.

PLAYER PIANO, WITH ROLLS AND Bench, in good condition. Sacrifice Parks' Studio, 208 Charlotte.

NAVY BLUE PIN STRIPE SUIT, SIZE 18, worn half-dozen times; too small for owner. Cost $37.50. Sell for $20.00. Telephone 5670.

EIGHT-PIECE SOLID QUARTERED Oak Dining-Room Suite, Call after 6. 296 Elias.

HEINTZMAN & COMPANY PIANO, good tone, Tuned and Delivered. Parks' Studio, 208 Charlotte.

CLEANRITE JAVEL WATER, BY GALlon. 6 Aylmer. 5197.

REVERSIBLE MAROON CARRIAGE, good tires. Telephone 8497.

GREY TWEED RAINCOAT, SIZE 16, like new. Call 8584.

MAN'S BICYCLE. 376 STEWART.

TWO-WHEEL CABIN TRAILER. 423 Water.

CHINA CABINET, BUFFET, LEATHER Rocker, Combination Gas and Wood Stove, Brown Steel Bed complete, Centre Tables, Wheelbarrow. 545 King Street

NEW MATTRESS, SPRING, BED. 224 Barnardo Avenue.

JOHNSON OUTBOARD MOTOR, MOdel HS 10, good condition. 186 Lansdowne

GENERAL ELECTRIC RADIO DIAL 5617.

MEDIUM SIZE POTATOES, $1.00 PER Bag. Call at Scott's Cold Storage.

BUFFET, CAMP COT, BABY'S TOILET Seat. 543 Douglas Avenue.

EXTENSION TABLE, SIX CHAIRS. 548 Harvey.

GENDRON PRAM, WHITE 741 WALKerfield Avenue (Hatton Property).

BLUE GO-CART, GOOD CONDITION. 444 Driscoll Terrace

POTATOES. TELEPHONE 5089.

WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC RANGE. Telephone 8603.

ROUND EXTENSION TABLE. TELEphone 4954.

NEW CISTERN PUMPS $3.85
The Peterborough Metal Co.

MINNOWS, DEW WORMS. 172 ADEline Street.

Plants and Flowers

HARD MAPLE TREES FOR PLANTing, 25c. Telephone 8007.

[illegible] TOMATOES, PEPPER AND Flower Plants — The kind that produce. We have no agents. All Plants sold at the Gardens. 88 St. James Street (near Monaghan Road).

TOMATO PLANTS, STURDY, HARDened, Improved John Baer, by the Box; discount on large lots. Mrs. G. Westman, Port Hope Highway. Telephone 7054

4a Seeds and Grains 4a

CERTIFIED SEED POTATOES — SEbago and Chippawa Foundation A. Dial 5005.

5 Dogs, Cats, Birds, Etc. 5

DOG, ONE YEAR OLD, BLACK, Thoroughbred Cocker Spaniel (Female), house broken. Telephone 8083.

DOGS BOARDED. HEDGLEY KENnels Port Hope Highway. Telephone 4906.

6 Fuel 6

MIXED SLABS, 90% PINE, $7.50 PER Cord, Delivered. Telephone Lakefield 34W.

SAVE MONEY — CUT YOUR OWN Wood for next Winter, or would Sell 7 Acres to One Party. 554 Aylmer. Harold Lancaster.

7 Livestock and Poultry 7

TEN LAYING HENS, $1.50 EACH. 17 Brioux.

FOUR JERSEY AND 7 HOLSTEIN Heifer Calves, $12.00 and $15.00 each. Telephone 4091.

WANTED, GRADE DURHAM BULL. Dial 7070

FOUR PIGS, 7 WEEKS. CLIFTON Carl, Fraserville.

EIGHT PIGS, 6 WEEKS. CLARENCE McMurray, Warsaw Road.

BLACK PERCHERON, 5 YEARS. Would Trade for Pigs. 506 ring 24, Lakefield.

DURHAM COW, DUE TO FRESHEN May 24. Telephone 3624.

FOR SALE

7 Livestock and Poultry 7

REGISTERED RED DURHAM BULL, 2 years. Would take Stockers. Henry Oliver, Concession 7, Smith.

10 PIGS, 7 WEEKS OLD. H. FRANKS, Omemee.

HOLSTEIN COW, 6 YEARS, 1,400 LBS., due June 14. R. Heffernan, Norwood.

Baby Chicks

ADVANCE ORDERS ARE NECESSARY for June-July or later Chicks. We can meet your date for delivery, but orders must be placed now so we can plan ahead. If you want Chicks now, we can let you have them in most breeds, especially Leghorns. Bray Hatchery, 364 Water Street. Dial 3834.

7x Farmers' Needs and Supplies 7x

TWO 21-INCH HORSE COLLARS, LIKE new. 5 ring 31, Warsaw.

TRACTOR CUSTOM WORK. C. M McInroy, 4511

WANTED, FARM TEAM, HARNESS and Wagon. Write particulars to Fred Harper, Bailieboro P. O.

EXPERT TRACTOR PLOUGHING AND Cultivating. Two Tractors at your service. 319 McDonnel or Telephone Art O'Halloran 7781.

ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION, FOR 4-Can to 16-Can Milk Coolers, completely installed, including all electrical wiring, and Hydro permits and inspection, $199.50 up. F. H. Johnston, corner of George and McDonnel. Telephone 4697.

8 Real Estate 8

I AM INSTRUCTED BY THE OWNER to Sell his 13-Room Hot-water-heated Home. Three sets of plumbing, four fireplaces, close to centre of City, on 2 Acres of Ground. Planted with perennials and fruit. Land could be divided in 6 Lots and Building into 5 Apartments. Would cost $20,000.00 to replace. For price and terms, see J. A. Gibbs, 141 Hunter Street.

LAKEFIELD—CREAM ITALIAN STUCco, in excellent condition, with city conveniences, large Double Living-room, Dining-room, Sunroom, Kitchen, Four Bedrooms, and Bathroom, double garage, about One Acre of Land, with good garden. Low taxes Telephone 54, Lakefield.

LOTS, HIGHWAY FRONTAGE, NEAR City. Dial 7045, Noon Hour.

Guest Home, 10 Rooms, Hot Water heat, large grounds. Investigate.

| | |
|---|---|
| South, 4 Rms, new, $500 down | $2,000 |
| Westcott, 6 Rms, sewer | $2,050 |
| Water, 8 Rms, make Duplex | $4,000 |
| Charlotte 7 Rms near Maitland | $5,000 |
| Park St., 7 Rms, near Weller | $5,300 |
| Benson, 8 Rms, oak fls., h.w.h. | $5,500 |

J. A. GIBBS, 141 Hunter St. 3843.

Double House, Brick, Good Revenue .. $3,850
Brick, 7 Rooms, 3-piece bath, June 1 $3,700
Semi-Bungalow, 6 Rooms, modern ... $4,200
20 Acres, close to City, Brick House, barn, stone foundation, large orchard, running stream through pasture. Immediate possession ..... $2,500
M. STOREY
374½ George St. Phone 6573

HOUSE AND LOT, IN NORWOOD. Charles Davey, Norwood.

Apartment House, Four Apartments, 4 Rooms each, well rented, East City. One vacant soon. A good investment $4,700
Good 6-Room House, with plumbing, central, bargain ........ $1,900
One Nice Building Lot, on Third Avenue, close to Highway .... $100 cash
100-Acre Pasture Lot, 4 miles from City well fenced, lots of water ..... $1,500
Number of other good Farms, good Buildings, al districts. See us for particulars.
P. E. RUTHERFORD
146 Hunter Dial 3602

Possession July 1st—
East 2½ Storey 7 Room Red Brick, A1 condition, oak floors, complete plumbing, furnace, large lot ... $5,000
Possesion June 1st—
South, 2 Storey 6 Room Brick, hardwood floors, complete plumbing, furnace, and garage ............ $3,250
O'TOOLE BROS.
Real Estate and Insurance
184 Charlotte St Phone 9447

FOR SALE, IN THE VILLAGE OF Grafton, New House. Possession soon. North Shore Realty Co. Ltd., Alger Building, Oshawa. Telephone 81

200 ACRES, ON LAKE, SMALL FARM. Timber and Wood, Tourist Lodge; good fishing and hunting. Telephone 9937, or write Box 164, Examiner

MODERN DUPLEX. INVESTMENT allows for Free Apartment. Telephone 7779

$4,600—Nice Brick Residence, Dennistoun Avenue. Lovely lot. Possession September 1
WHY NOT TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE NEW N. H. A. LOAN AT 4½%? Investigate the possibilities afforded by this low interest rate, with repayment on a monthly basis.
H. J. McCANNAN - JACK SINCLAIR
140 Simcoe St. Telephone 4246

Cottages for Sale or Rent

COTTAGES TO RENT, CHEMONG Lake. Telephone 4057.

WANTED, SMALL COTTAGE OR CABin, vicinity Kawartha Lakes; must be reasonable for cash. 229 Woodmoust Avenue, Toronto.

COTTAGE TO RENT, ON UPPER Stoney Lake, fully equipped, main shore. Apply 162 Parkhill Road.

SMALL, WELL-BUILT, COMFORTABLY Furnished Cottage for Rent, Clear Lake, near Kawartha Park, Two Bedrooms, electricity. Reply 35 Langley Avenue, Toronto.

Summer Resorts

THURSTONIA HOTEL — OPEN JUNE Third. Excellent Meals, Comfortable Beds, conveniences. Summer activities. Cottages, Special June Rates. Booklet. Percy Skitch, Thurstonia Park.

Accommodation Tourist

ROOMS, OR OVERNIGHT ACCOMMOdation. 351 Charlotte. Dial 4885.

10 Used Cars 10

1934 FRONTENAC, EXCELLENT CONdition. 305 Reid.

1941 CHEVROLET SEDAN, RADIO; 1941 Dodge Opera Coupe. Trades. 1937 Oldsmobile Sedan, 1937 Chrysler Coupe. R. Hopkins, Imperial Service Station, Lakefield. Telephone 124.

1930 PONTIAC COACH. TWO NEW tires. Fred Patton, Route 4, Peterborough.

CHRYSLER ROYAL COUPE, GOOD mechanical condition, good tires. 492 George Street N. (Saturday only).

1937 ZEPHYR COUPE, EXCELLENT tires. 256 Simcoe, 9 to 5 p.m.

1930 CHEVROLET COUPE. 330 PARnell.

10a Used Trucks 10a

1940 FORD ½-TON PICK-UP TRUCK, good as new. Dial 4511. 24 Cricket Place.

CLASSIFIED ADS BRING QUICK RESULTS

TO RENT

11 Miscellaneous 11

GARAGE, KING AND STEWART Telephone 7293.

GARAGE. 480 SHERBROOKE STREET

ELECTROLUX CLEANER COMPLETE, by Day or Week. 4547.

11x Apartments to Rent 11x

MODERN 4-ROOM APARTMENT, CENtral, hardwood floors, Furnished or Unfurnished, garage. Immediate possession. Write Box 191, Examiner.

HEATED APARTMENT, FURNISHED, Unfurnished, garage, adults. 709 Water.

SMALL APARTMENT, EAST CITY; Two Girls preferred. Telephone 4511.

12 Rooms 12

ROOM FOR WOMAN, CHILD NO OBjection, central. Write Box 204, Examiner.

TWO WARM, BRIGHT, UNFURNISHed Rooms, 3-piece bath on same floor. Vacant May 31. 605 Rubidge Street North.

COSY TWO OR THREE ROOMED Suite, suit Business people, hot water heating. West residential. Write Box 192, Examiner.

FURNISHED ROOM, SUITABLE FOR Girls. Dial 7518.

LARGE HOUSEKEEPING ROOM, WITH Sunporch, near Factories; Young Couple or Two Girls; Board if preferred. Telephone 3155.

FURNISHED ROOMS FOR MEN. 417 Stewart.

FURNISHED ROOMS. 177 AYLMER.

ROOM FOR ONE OR TWO; MEALS arranged; near C.G.E. Telephone 7251.

OVERNIGHT ACCOMMODATION. TElephone 8319, after 5

WANTED

13 Rooms Wanted 13

BY PROFESSIONAL MAN, LARGE, Well Furnished Bed-Sitting-Room, with Housekeeping privileges, or Furnished Apartment; not more than ½ mile from Post Office. Write Box 201, Examiner.

13a Apartments Wanted 13a

THREE OR FOUR ROOMED APARTment, Unfurnished, near General Electric, by June 1. Write Box 203, Examiner.

REFINED BUSINESS WOMAN DESIRES Small Apartment. Telephone 4428.

APARTMENT OR 3 OR 4 ROOMS, BY Married Couple, with one child. Telephone 6835.

13b Houses Wanted 13b

MODERN HOUSE, CENTRAL OR North, immediately or later, adult family. 9428.

SIX-ROOM HOUSE OR LARGE DOWNstairs Apartment. Telephone 8320.

HOUSE OR UNFURNISHED APARTment. Would Exchange 5-Room Flat in Montreal. Telephone 7853.

HOUSE OR BUNGALOW, WOULD take any time; small adult family; reliable tenants. Dial 9376.

15 Miscellaneous 15

BOARD AND SINGLE ROOM, BY A Stationary Engineer, working alternate shifts. Write Box 205, Examiner.

SINGER BUTTON HOLE ATTACHment. Telephone 8514

EVENING WRAP. WRITE PARTICUlars, Box 202, Examiner.

ICE-BOX, ANY CONDITION; GOOD Commode Chair. 763 Donegal.

THE PETERBOROUGH METAL COMPANY
WE BUY SCRAP IRON AND METALS

HAY-FORK AND CAR FOR WOODEN Track. Write Box 183, Examiner

15 OR 16 FOOT SQUARE STERN SKIFF. Telephone 7151.

WANTED TO PURCHASE, FIVE SMALL Mantel-type Radios for Men's Messrooms in corvette 'Peterborough.' Have tried unsuccessfully to purchase from retail outlets, but Radios not available. Those having suitable Radios and willing to sell them for this purpose, apply Mr. Bert Crump, Radio Engineer, CHEX, Examiner Building.

HOT PLATE. TELEPHONE 9049.

PRIVATE PARTY WANTS GOOD USED Car, good tires not essential. Write Box 193, Examiner.

GOOD USED CAR, ABOUT $300. 278 Thomas.

BICYCLE, ANY CONDITION. TELEphone 5894

LAWN MOWER. DIAL 8849.

FURS
Cash Paid for Your Old Fur Coat. Write Box 65, Examiner.

SMALL USED WAGON. DIAL 9812.

IRON, RAGS, FEATHERS, PAPER Petersiel, Bethune and Hunter. Telephone 9403.

STOVES, FURNITURE. HUDSON. Telephone 65, Lakefield

POULTRY AND FEATHER TICKS PAY Highest Prices. M. Gishman. Dial 8296.

LIVE POULTRY WANTED — MARKET Prices. A. Lantin. Telephone 6297.

LIVE POULTRY — PAY HIGHEST Prices. Florence, 6823. 560 Homewood.

STOVES AND FURNITURE WANTED. Telephone 4115—Nights 6294.

LIVE POULTRY—MARKET PRICE. M. Katz. 6906. 192 Aylmer.

HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR RAGS, Paper, Iron and Metals. J. Burfield. Dial 8368.

16 Teachers 16

BETHANY, ONT., DURHAM COUNTY, School Section, Manvers — Two Protestant Teachers Wanted, Senior Room Grades Seven to Ten, Junior Room Grades One to Six. Please state qualifications, experience, and salary expected. Duties commence September 5th. Apply F. W. Reynolds, Secretary-Treasurer, Bethany, Ontario.

PROTESTANT TEACHER FOR PUBLIC School Section No 3, Township of Seymour. Duties to commence on September 1, 1944. This school is Hydro equipped. State salary. Apply to Douglas Rutherford, Secretary, R. R. No. 4, Campbellford, Ontario.

17 Help Wanted, Male or Female 17

EXPERIENCED HAIRDRESSERS Wanted for Salons in cities East of Toronto. Also Helpers Wanted. Apply nearest Employment and Selective Service Office.

CARETAKER AND MAID FOR GIRLS' Camp at Stoney Lake. Apply Selective Service. O-265.

WANTED

17 Help Wanted Male or Female 17

Stenographers and Typists

Stenos, Typists, Postal Clerks for Government war work. You can train at home. Free information. M.C.C. Civil Service School, Ltd., Toronto 10.

EXPERIENCED OPERATOR OR HELPer for well-established Beauty Shop, in nearby town. Excellent working conditions; good wages. Apply Selective Service. O-288

LIFEGUARD

Male or female, for Municipal Swimming Beach at Inverlea Park for the Summer Season, beginning about June 15th. State age, qualifications, and salary. Applications received up to 5 o'clock, May 30th. No one on war work need apply.

Apply Employment and Selective Service Office, Barrie Building, Peterborough, Number 0-287.

18 Help Wanted, Female 18

PART TIME, 3 HOURS DAILY APproximately. Does not interfere with own Housework; good wages. Telephone Mr. Pogue, 4641.

WOMAN TO HELP WITH HOUSEcleaning. 7177. 179 Antrim.

CAPABLE WOMAN TO TAKE CHARGE of Home, Plain Cooking. Write Box 194, Examiner.

WANTED — GOOD HOUSEKEEPERS for Malton Women's Residence, housing 500 Industrial Workers. Two Free Meals Each Working Day. Good living accommodation. No scrubbing, no cooking. Apply Selective Service Office, Peterborough. Refer to C.R. 1073.

COOK FOR OLD PEOPLE'S HOME; good wages. Apply Selective Service Office. Refer to O-281

RELIABLE WOMAN FOR HOUSEwork; good home; must be capable of doing Plain Cooking. Apply 813 Water Street.

CLERK FOR GROCERY STORE, AGE 20-35; experience preferred, but not essential; good wages. Apply in writing or in person, to Selective Service Office. O-289.

19 Help Wanted, Male 19

EXPERIENCED GENERAL TYPEWRITer Service Man; salary and commission. Apply Selective Service Office, Peterborough. O-246

MAN INTERESTED IN PRODUCE Business for Local Plant; experience not essential. Apply Selective Service. O-290.

BLACKSMITH FOR HORSESHOEING General Repair Shop. Apply Selective Service. O-283.

20 Employment Wanted 20

CAPABLE HOUSEKEEPER, ELDERLY, Good Cook, would like Work, part or whole time. Write Box 181, Examiner.

21 Boarders Wanted 21

ROOM AND BOARD FOR GIRL; ALL conveniences; 10 minutes to C.G.E. Dial 9227

BOARDING HOME FOR PENSIONER, reasonable. Telephone 6387.

ROOM AND BOARD, CENTRAL, HOT water. Telephone 5966.

WHO CAN DO IT

22b Painters, Decorators 22b

PAINTING AND REPAIR WORK. Telephone 9277.

EFFICIENT, SMART STYLING for HOME DECORATION
Interior and Exterior "Elastica Quality Goods"
HAROLD COLEMAN
Telephone 9922 336 George Street

COLEMAN BROS — "THE HOME OF Decorating." Established 1906. Telephone 4485. North of Brock Street.

PAPERHANGING AND PAINTING — Reasonable Prices. Hudson, Telephone 4514.

22f Miscellaneous 22f

WELLS DRILLED AND CASED, ANY locality. Prices reasonable. Write Box 151, Examiner.

GARDENS TO PLOW. 7781.

DUSTLESS FLOOR SANDING. — Graham 9007, Nights 8607.

BRICK, CEMENT WORK, STUCCOING Brick Painting, Chimneys Rebuilt. 217½ Charlotte Street. Telephone 9636.

LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED — WE have the most Up-to-date Machinery. Satisfaction guaranteed. R. Harran's Cycle Shop, Dial 5925.

GARDENS TO PLOW. TELEPHONE 4511.

DUSTLESS FLOOR SANDING. WILliam Higgins. Dial 8887.

22j Wood Cutting 22j

WOOD SAWING. CLIFF JEWELL, Telephone 4241.

25x Dressmaking 25x

DRESSMAKING, TAILORING, ALTERations. Telephone 4936. 593 Harvey

Radio Service

RADIO SERVICE
Every Repair Guaranteed.
Established 23 Years.
F. H. JOHNSTON
Corner George and McDonnel
TELEPHONE 4697

DELUXE RADIO SERVICE — ALL makes of Radios Repaired. All work guaranteed. Telephone 7142—Night 6384. 450 Rubidge Street.

Electric Sales and Service

ELECTRIC WORK — SERVICE AND Repairs. Telephone 6195

Carting

MOVING AND CARTING. PLEASE call before 6—Telephone 4115.

LOST

LADY'S GOLD WRIST WATCH, WEDnesday, vicinity Co-Op or Deluxe Cafe. Telephone 4509.

DODGE HUB CAP. TELEPHONE 5892. Reward.

LADY'S YELLOW GOLD IDENTIFICAtion Bracelet, with R.C.A.P.C. crest, dates engraved on back, somewhere downtown area. Reward. Telephone 7622.

LICENCE PLATE 6T49. TELEPHONE 7850

LOST

MAN'S BLUE BICYCLE, VICINITY Regent Theatre. Telephone 3446. Reward.

GREEN AND GREY ROWBOAT, OTonabee River, below Crawford's Grove. Dial 3172. Reward.

LOANS

Loans—$20 to $1,000
—WITH OR WITHOUT CO-SIGNERS
—STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL
—PERSONAL OR BUSINESS
—QUICK, FRIENDLY SERVICE
—WIDE CHOICE OF REPAYMENTS

CAMPBELL
FINANCE CORPORATION LIMITED
Subsidiary of Industrial Acceptance Corporation Ltd.
169 Charlotte Street
(Above A. & P. Store) Phone 3320

LOANS
$20 TO $500
NO ENDORSERS NEEDED

| Cash Loan You Get | | Choose a monthly payment plan: 4 Payments | 6 Payments | 10 Payments | 12 Payments | 15 Payments |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| $25 | | $ 6.57 | $ 4.46 | $ 2.78 | $ 2.36 | |
| 50 | | 13.13 | 8.93 | 5.57 | 4.73 | |
| 75 | | 19.70 | 13.39 | 8.35 | 7.09 | |
| 100 | .. | 26.26 | 17.85 | 11.13 | 9.46 | $ 1.78 |
| 125 | .. | 32.83 | 22.32 | 13.92 | 11.82 | 9.73 |
| 150 | .. | 39.39 | 26.78 | 16.70 | 14.18 | 11.67 |
| 200 | .. | 52.52 | 35.71 | 22.27 | 18.91 | 15.57 |
| 300 | .. | 78.79 | 53.56 | 33.40 | 28.37 | 23.35 |
| 500 | .. | 130.60 | 88.64 | 55.10 | 46.73 | 38.36 |

To apply for a Household loan just give us a few facts about yourself and choose a convenient payment schedule. Payments shown repay loans in full and include charges at our reduced monthly rate of 2% on a loan balance of $300 or less and 1% on that part of a balance in excess of $300.

Household Finance
Corporation of Canada
Established in Canada 1928
Second Floor Lansfield Block
177 Charlotte St. (Opp. Loblaws)
M. E. Holt, Manager Phone 3841

NOTICE

TAKE NOTICE THAT:

(1) THE COUNCIL OF THE CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF PETERBOROUGH intends to Construct as a Local Improvement a Sanitary Sewer on Gilchrist Street, running northerly from Murray Street a distance of 243 feet, and intends to specially assess a part of the cost upon the Land abutting directly on the work, namely, land on which the following premises are located, 486, 490 and 496 Gilchrist Street, and upon 388 Murray Street, which is immediately benefitted by the work.

(2) The estimated cost of the work is $691.30, of which $429.58 is to be paid by the Corporation. The estimated cost per foot frontage is $2.84. The special assessment to be paid in 15 annual instalments.

(3) A Petition to the said Council will not avail to prevent its construction, but a Petition against the work or the manner in which it has been undertaken, may be made pursuant to Section 10 of the Local Improvement Act, to the Ontario Mnuicipal Board, by a majority of the owners representing at least one-half of the value of the Lots which are to be specially assessed therefor.

(4) A By-law for undertaking the work will be considered by the Council at a Meeting thereof to be held on the 19TH DAY OF JUNE, 1944, or at a Regular or Special Meeting thereof to be held thereafter.

Peterborough, Ontario,
May 20th, 1944.
E. A. OUTRAM,
City Clerk.

Notice to Creditors
AND OTHERS

IN THE ESTATE OF EVAN STRATFORD JONES MARTIN.

All Persons having CLAIMS against the Estate of EVAN STRATFORD JONES MARTIN, late of the City of Peterborough, Retired Banker, Deceased, who died on or about the 12th Day of March, 1944, are hereby notified to send in to the undersigned Executors on or before the 10th Day of June, 1944, full particulars of their Claims. Immediately after the said 10th Day of June, 1944, the Assets of the Deceased will be distributed among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to Claims of which the Executors shall then have notice.

DATED at Toronto, this 5th Day of May, 1944.

THE ROYAL TRUST COMPANY and GWLADYS BEVERLEY MARTIN, Executors, 66 King Street West,
Toronto, Ontario.
By MESSRS OSLER, HOSKIN & HARCOURT,
68 Yonge Street,
Toronto, Ontario,
Their Solicitors herein.

OBITUARIES

WILLIAM H. HEFFERNAN

The funeral of the late William Heffernan took place from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Collins of 17 Brioux avenue on Friday to the Church of the Sacred Heart where he had been a member ever since the church was dedicated.

Rev. Dr. Grant said requiem mass. Interment was made in St. Peter's Cemetery, Rev. J. F. Houlihan conducting the services at the graveside.

Pallbearers were Albert Ryan, Edward Heffernan, James O'Brien, Joseph Primeau, Joseph Heffernan, and Thomas Turcotte.

DAVID JOSEPH EDWARDS

David Joseph Edwards, a veteran of the last war who was wounded at the Battle of the Somme, died after a year's illness at the residence of his son, John, 211 London street, on Friday evening. He was in his 79th year.

Born in Douro the son of the late James Edwards and Hannah McCoy, he had spent most of his life there and in Warsaw, coming into the city only a week before his death.

Mr. Edwards joined the 258th Canadian Railway Troops in 1916 and served overseas until seriously wounded in the Battle of the Somme. He was invalided home shortly before the armistice.

Surviving are his wife, the former Margaret Jane Hall; two sons, John, of Peterborough and Pte. William Edwards, Veterans' Guard, Monteith; and two daughters, Mrs. M. Cummings (Lana) and Mrs. Elias Little (Lucy), both of Toronto. Three brothers, Mark, Edward and Robert, live in the city; and other brothers are Joseph of Lakefield, and Charlie of Toronto. Three sisters, Mrs. George Brown of Lakefield, Mrs. Harry Chandler and Mrs. Harry Suddards of Peterboropgh, also remain.

The funeral will be held on Monday at 2 p.m. from the Nisbett Funeral Home, 347 Charlotte street, with services conducted by Rev. Snelgrove of Warsaw United Church of which Mr. Edwards was a member. Interment will be made at Little Lake cemetery.

MRS. REBECCA SQUIRE

NORWOOD, May 20—(ENS)—The death occurred in Toronto on May 15 of Rebecca Scott at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Patterson of 207 Gendonevynne Road. Born in Norwood, she was the daughter of Robert Scott and married Edwin C. Squire who predeceased her some years ago.

She passed away after a lengthy illness, having resided all her life in Norwood but spending the last two winters in Toronto. Mrs. Squire is survived by one daughter, Mrs. C. S. Patterson (Reba) and one sister, Miss Lily Scott of Toronto.

A valued member of the United Church choir and a past president of the Women's Missionary Society she was also an active member of the W.A. A member of the R.R.D. Club and the I.O.D.E.

The body rested at the home of her daughter in Toronto until Tuesday and a funeral service was held from her home in Norwood on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. E. E. Pugsley officiating assisted by Rev. A. S. Cleland. Interment was in Norwood cemetery.

IMPORTANT CALLS

| | |
|---|---|
| Police | 3535 |
| Fire Dept. | 5711 |
| Nicholls Hospital | 4691 |
| St. Joseph's Hospital | 3561 |
| Examiner | 4641 |

NOTICE

NOTICE

TREASURER'S SALE OF LANDS FOR TAXES

Corporation of the City of Peterborough

TO WIT:

By Virtue of a Warrant issued by the Mayor of the City of Peterborough, bearing date the 11th Day of March, 1944, Sale of Lands in Arrears of Taxes in the City of Peterborough, will be held at the City Council Chamber, at the hour of Ten o'clock in the Forenoon, on the 6th Day of July, 1944, unless the Taxes and Costs are sooner paid. Notice is hereby given that the List of Lands for Sale of Arrears of Taxes is being published in the Ontario Gazette on the 1st Day April, 6th Day of May and 3rd Day of June, 1944, and that copies of the said List may be had at my Office.

MORLEY E. SHAVER,
City Treasurer.

PROFESSIONAL

44 Lawyers 44

JACOB LOW — Barrister, etc. Mortgage Loans. Suite 1-2, 435 George Street (over Toronto Savings and Loan Co.). Telephone 7423 — Nights 6214

ELLIOTT, PHILP & CHANDLER—Barristers, etc. Money to Loan. Offices, Kresge Building. Telephone 6675. A. L. Elliott, K.C., W. R. Philp, B.A., R. J. Chandler, B.A.

P. D. SCOLLARD—Barrister, Solicitor. Bank of Toronto Building. Telephone 9939.

JOHN A. BRADSHAW — Barrister and Solicitor 360 Water. Telephone 9884.

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY — Barristers, Solicitors. Money to Loan. Offices 415-417 Water Street. Telephone 4681. E. A. Peck, K.C., F. D. Kerr, K.C., V. J. McElderry, K.C., Walter H. Howell.

Chiropractors

M. C. GOODWIN, CHIROPRACTOR and Drugless Therapist. 108 Barrie Building, 312 George. Telephone 8795 and 5865.

AUCTION SALES

GORDON HANCOCK, LICENSED AUCtioneer and Valuator. Telephone 5021.

J. H. MILES, AUCTIONEER AND VALuator. Office 211 Hunter. Dial 4115. Residence 9122. 25 Years' Successful Selling and Valuating.

FOR MRS. J. GRANDY, ¼ MILE WEST of Springville, Tuesday, May 23rd, at 1:30: Household Effects, including Good Cook Stove, Living-room Furniture, Sewing Machine, Beds, Chairs, Tables, Rugs, Sealers, Canned Fruit and Pickles, many other articles.—Gordon Hancock, Auctioneer. Telephone 5021.

OUTSTANDING AUCTION SALE — OF High-class Furniture and Furnishings, property of Leonard Welch, to be held on Premises, 50 William Street S., Lindsay, Wednesday, May 24th, at 1:30 p.m., including: Walnut Hall Table and Mirror, 1 9-Piece Set Crown Ducal Set of Dishes, 2-piece Kroehler Chesterfield Suite, Drapes, Rugs, Walnut Chair, Lamps, Breakfast Suite, and Beatty Washer, McClary Electric Stove, General Electric Refrigerator, 9-piece Oak Dining-Room Suite, Round Mirror, Hotpoint Toaster and Iron, Cooking Utensils and Dishes, numerous other articles. This Furniture is all nearly new. Terms: Cash. No reserve — Charles Lamb, Auctioneer.

NEW STRATOSPHERE WEAPON — Above a gun crew mans the U.S. Army's new "stratosphere" gun, one of the most powerful new American weapons, the 120 mm. (4.7 inch) anti-aircraft gun developed by the War Department. The gun is capa[illegible] firing a projectile into the stratosphere 20,000 fe[illegible]r than any other known anti-aircraft weapon's [illegible]

Visiting Baby Steals Hearts Of Soldier Donors At Clinic

A big husky soldier wandered casually into the waiting room at the Blood Donors Clinic, stopped dead, then with a whoop of "Hey fellows, look at the swell girl I've found," almost precipitated a riot. The star performer of the occasion, baby daughter of Mrs. Aileen Anderson who came up from Norwood to give a donation, then and there became the sweetheart of the 60 soldiers present.

The young lady sat in her carriage, and bestowed her favors impartially. Her big dark eyes followed the moves of her companions with interest, and occasionally, one of the boys was able to elicit a gurgle and a small smile. Fathers, prospective fathers, and the other young soldiers, had a wonderful time playing with the baby, and were torn away reluctantly when their numbers were called.

A family of three recently came from Indian River to give their blood a second time for the fighting men overseas. They included the mother, Mrs. Janet Cameron, a daughter, Miss Kathleen Cameron, and a son, Donald Cameron.

C.G.E.—Arthur J. Girdwood 6, Walter McAnerin 5, Ken R. Hewitt 4, William J. Olmstead 2, Miss Aileen Clancy 3, Mrs. Jean Vass 6, Robert O. Dixon 3, James McKenzie 5, William Sharpe 7, James O'Dette 8, Harold Roberts 4, Miss Bertha Byman 1, Melville Rogers 1, William H. McLeod 1, Kenneth Pearson 1, Albert Pilley 1, Robert Kemp 3, Ernest Murphy 4, James McCliggott 4, George Spiers 2, Edward A. Collis 2, W. T. Fanjoy 6, Ben Baker 4, Miss Joyce McQuade 2, Miss Olive Sage 2, Miss Shirley Jeffries 1, Ervin Tully 4, Miss Ruth McMurray 1.

J. J. Turner & Sons Ltd.—Miss Agnes Reid 2.

Outboard Marine — Edmund J. Purvis 2.

Quaker Oats—William Glover 8.

Westclox—Wilfred S. Wilson 1, Warren G. Rayner 7, Leslie Moore 6, Hugh Robertson 5, Mrs. Macy Cooper 2, Miss Audria Windsor 1, Mrs. Helen Moyles 1, John Currie.

Canada Packers—David Gray 1, Harry Golloher 5.

General List—Harold E. Lang 8, Norman Hayes (Dewart Milling) 8, Bruce L. Fowler (J. J. Duffus) 8, Mrs. Lottie Bartley 5, W. Stanley Johnston (Coca Cola) 3, Miss Helen Panter (J. C. Pullman Co.) 3, Ronald Shewen 4, T. Dalton Johnston (Court House) 7, Mrs. Dave Gray 1, Mrs. George James 6, Mrs Dorothy Thompson 1, Mrs. Dorothy Healy 2, Mrs. Mary Hutchinson 2, Miss Jean Paul 1, Mrs. Agnes Murray 2, Mrs. Ida Edgar 2, Quirt McKinney (Normal School) 5, Donald C. Brooking (R.C.N.V.R.) 8, Mrs. Irene Hughes 2.

Buckhorn—Mrs. Laura Gillespie 4.

Lakefield—Gordon Davis 2, Mrs. Ellen Crawford 5.

Birdsall—Mrs. Ruby Hie 5, Mr. Alfred Hie 5.

Omemee—Mrs. Dorothy Armstrong 2.

Keene—Thomas J. Gall 3, Duncan Keitel 2, James A. Elmhirst 3.

Doctors Chenoweth and Clark.

General List — Miss Harriett McIntosh 4, Lloyd McCarrell 3, Victor Allen 3, Howard McLean 7, Mrs. Annie Murphy 3, Mrs. Lima Clapham 4, Mrs. Donald Darling 3, Mrs. M. W. Howey 7, Mrs. Jessie Clarke 3.

Quaker Oats — Wilfred Rankin 8, Miss Agnes Dixon 5, Harry Gray 6, Miss Nora Corkery 1, Miss Viola Lee 1, Miss Irene Sandy 6, Ross Curl 6, Allan Foster 6.

Brinton Carpet— Lawrence Gordon 5, Melville H. Byers, Lionel Monk 2, John Stante 2, Miss Muriel Rose 3, Miss Alice Marshall 5.

Lily Lake—Mrs. Ida Chapman 2, Ken Darling 2.

Westwood—Herman J. McCall 6.

Warsaw — Don Clysdale 3, Lloyd Payne 3.

Havelock—Mrs. Kathleen Brooks 2.

Norwood—Mrs. George Wright 1.

Fraserville — Mrs. Annie Park.

C.G.E. — Max Laidley 3, William J. Jones 2, Vern Janeway 7, A. Verral Brown 3, Joe O'Dette 4, A. L. Malby 4, Harvey T. Allison 3, Francis M. Heath 7, William Thomas 7, Albert Buott 2, Ken Gibson 1, J. Ashton Fife 6, William Rickard 1, Albert G. Saunders 2, Frank C. Frost 3, Miss Agnes Sloane 2, Mrs. Nellie Galbraith 6, Charles Whitmore 3, Douglas Miller 6, Hugh Hunter 6, Reginald Whitehead 7, Bruce Aiken 8, Thomas Delpellaro 4.

De Laval — Arthur Beardsmore 2, John R. Murray 6, George Brown 3, Robert Halliday 1, Norman Dunlop 2, Ainslie Phillips 4.

Outboard Marine — Charles Pilon 9, Miss Francine MacMillan 5, German Morgan 2, William S. Cotton 4, Raymond D. Fuller 7, Nelson Foy 3.

Ventilating Shades — Mrs. Marette Forbes 2.

Doctors Walsh and Fitzpatrick.

Training Centre — Sergt. A. K. Ruckstuhl 3, Cpl. S. M. Caldwell 3, Cpl. Robert Wallace, Cpl. Jack F. Puleine, Cpl. Brian Ashton, L.-Cpl. R. L. McNabb 2, L.-Cpl. Ross Williams, L.-Cpl. Garnet Freeburn, D. R. Friesen 2, Lorne Anthony, Fred Gilbert, Cliford Wiest 3, Roy Main, F. J. Gaspar, L. R. Ellison, Arthur Blake, A. J. Soulliere 2, Jacob Kroeker, Melvin F. Lake, Jack Fairless, Dan Tomen, Laurence Phillips, T. L. Cadotte, John Gillan, Rolland Sauve, J. C. Massey, J. S. Thompson, Alphonsus Walsh 2, Charles Wiebe, Augustus McLean, L. G. Taylor, Daniel Spenst, Gordon Stead, John McGuire, Harvey Richard, Norman Shaw, Charles Joseph, Henry Letkeman, Arthur Smith 6, Emeth I. Clark, Edmundt Rosenthal, K. G. Smith 2, Cyril T. Gray, D. J. Wyatt, E. O. Fasten, F. R. McTague, A. Drobet, E. Wease, John C. Klassen, Jacob Doerksen, Phillip Deduc, Lloyd Flaro.

Warsaw — David Barr 2, Tom Webster 2, Mrs. Ivah Barr 2, George Webster 2, George Toms.

Havelock — Mrs. Emily Varty.

Peterborough — Lois Little, Mrs Hazel Hall 2, David Clark 3, George Ball 3, Eleanor Morrison 3.

Lakefield—Glen Wannamaker 2.

REPATRIATED — Capt. Lionel Massey, 28, elder son of Right Hon. Vincent Massey, High Commissioner to London, is among the prisoners of war being repatriated through Spain in exchange for German nationals. He was seriously wounded and taken prisoner in the campaign in Greece, three years ago.

Price Tag Necessary For Retail Clothing

OTTAWA, May 20 — (CP) — E. G. Burton, administrator of retail trade for the Prices Board, announced today that effective June retailers of men's women's and children's clothing and furnishings will be required to put a price tag on every article displayed for sale. Selling price of the article must be clearly shown. The ruling also affects all types of footwear.

A Prices Board spokesman said this was being done as a means of checking infractions of the ceiling price.

ROOM AND BOARD —By Gene Ahern

SALLY'S SALLIES

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

"Pop argues about everything. He out-argued the optometrist about whether he needed new glasses."

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

WORST LEAD OF ALL

THERE IS one opening lead which is nearly always the worst that can be made, from the standpoint of logic, against either a No Trump or a suit contract. That is a lead of the suit which had been bid by the player who eventually becomes the dummy—if he had bid only one suit aside from the declaration in which the deal is being played. Besides losing a "unit of timing" for your own side, in helping to set up winners in some other suit, it grants the declarer that privilege instead, helping him build up assets first.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | ♠ 7 5♥ 9 5♦ A 10 8 5 3♣ J 9 8 3 | |
| ♠ J 4 3♥ J 10 7 4♦ J 9♣ 10 6 4 2 | NW ES | ♠ A 10 6 2♥ A Q 6 2♦ Q 6♣ K Q 5 |
| | ♠ K Q 9 8♥ K 8 3♦ K 7 4 2♣ A 7 | |

(Dealer: South. North-South vulnerable.)

| South | West | North | East |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1 ♠ | Pass | 2 ♦ | Pass |
| 3 NT | | | |

What a gross over-bid by South, and what a clear-cut beating he should have taken. But he didn't, thanks to West and his idea that it would be smart to "lead through strength." He opened the diamond J, right into the dummy's suit. By the time East got through indicating his displeasure, the carnage was fearful.

South took that first trick with the diamond K, led to the A and brought back the spade 7. East unsoundly stuck in his 10, and the K won. The diamond 4 to the 5 made entry for a lead of the spade 5. This time East used his A and led the heart 2. South ducked and let the 10 win. West fired back the heart J, and the K took it. Then the spade Q dropped the J and the 9 won—would not if East had not wasted his 10.

The diamond 7 to the 10 was followed by the last diamond, which squeezed East. Dummy also held the club J-9, and South the heart 8 and club A-7. East held onto his heart A to keep from building up South's 8, so had to break his club K-Q. South then discarded the heart 8 and took the final two tricks with clubs, making five-odd. Against any fairly sound defense, South would not have had a chance to make his contract, let alone two extra tricks.

• • •

Your Week-End Question

Do you know the two main reasons why an experienced player should read a course planned to teach bridge to absolute beginners who have never played at all? Tell both your friends who are veteran players, and those who have not played, that such a course begins in these columns on Monday.

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

DAILY CROSSWORD

ACROSS
1. Exclamation
4. Weaken
7. Seraglio
9. Accumulate
12. Dropsy
13. Devilfish
14. Grate
15. Expression of disgust
16. Sloth
17. King of Bashan
18. Himalayan marmot
19. Conquer
20. Baffle
23. Penny
24. A song
25. Carting vehicle
26. Jog
28. Butcher
31. Ugly old woman
32. A wit
33. Greek letter
34. Lowest note (Guido)
35. Caress
36. Face of timepiece
38. Measure of length
40. Ball
41. Unable to see
42. Leaves out
43. Type measures
44. Beverage

DOWN
1. God of war
2. Source of hashish
3. Wine receptacle
4. Island in the Pacific
5. Nurse (Orient.)
6. Kettle
7. A King of Judea
8. Maxim
10. Blemish
11. Holy person
15. Abyss
18. Coat, as a ship's bottom
19. Travel
21. Thrash
22. Devour
23. Vehicle
25. Cavity in a lode
26. Finger
27. A musteline animal (So. Afr.)
28. Cushion
29. Correct
30. Vexes
32. Divisions in hospitals
35. Founder of Pennsylvania
36. Title applied to an older woman
37. Fresh-water porpoise
39. Bind
40. Speck

Yesterday's Answer

TERRY AND THE PIRATES —By Milton Caniff

LI'L ABNER —By Al Capp

HENRY —By Carl Anderson

DONALD DUCK —By Walt Disney

BLONDIE —By Chic Young

MUGGS AND SKEETER —By Wally Bishop

BRICK BRADFORD —By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

TILLIE THE TOILER —By Russ Westover

Telephones
Examiner ........ 4641
CHEX ........ 4641
Nights after 6 p.m., Sundays, Holidays
Examiner ........ 4641
CHEX ........ 4643

Evening Examiner
Peterborough

NIGHT FINAL

VOL. LXXXIX, No. 120 — WEATHER Cloudy and cooler. — PETERBOROUGH, MONDAY, MAY 22, 1944 — ★★ — PRICE FOUR CENTS

BOMBERS MASH DUISBURG, KIEL PORT

Canadians Reach Outskirts Of Pontecorvo Town; Allies 24 Miles From Anzio

5th Army Vanguards Besiege Terracina
Key Pico Road Severed
More Hun Units Believed Outflanked

NAPLES, May 22—(CP).—Canadian troops penetrated the bristling Hitler Line northeast of Pontecorvo, headquarters announced today, as the Germans forced back American patrols from Terracina on the Tyrrhenian Sea and resisted a new thrust southwest of Pico in the centre of the front. Headquarters said Canadian infantry pierced the barbed wire entanglements of the line northeast of Pontecorvo on the southern edge of the Liri Valley and got leading troops through the enemy wire at one or two points. There was no disclosure of the identity of the troops.

Ontario and Western Canadian infantrymen, however, were reported operating in the Pontecorvo area, eight miles west and slightly south of fallen Cassino.

From their tree-tudded positions yesterday, the Canadians had a good view of these defences and patrols reconnoitred the enemy positions prior to this new phase of the attack.

French-Canadian troops also may have been in the assault, since front dispatches have told of them operating with the 8th Army in this sector.

The assault on the Hitler Line came after a week-end rain drenched the terrain, presenting a threat to hastily-constructed roads, but a drying wind raised dust again today.

To the left of the Canadians, French troops took, lost and then recaptured today Monte Leucio, three miles west of Pontecorvo.

Polish troops of the 8th Army burst into Piedimonte on the north side of the Liri valley west of Cassino and were mopping up trapped Germans.

The Swiss radio said in a broadcast heard in London that Pontecorvo has been captured by the 8th Army.

The Canadians, who had been patrolling actively for two days before this new thrust, well realized the difficulty involved in assaulting Pontecorvo, Douglas Amaron, Canadian press war correspondent reported. The Hitler Line there is at its greatest depth with barbed wire entanglements 20 feet deep only a part of the defences which include pillboxes, mines and bobby traps.

Meanwhile Field Marshal Albert Kesserling is moving all his mobile reserves into the battle, according to information reaching headquarters. A spokesman said the Germans now have 17 divisions committed against the main offensive and have "nothing left in reserve south of Rome."

Allied losses have been "considerable," a spokesman said but not too high in relation to results achieved and the extreme casualties inflicted on the Germans.

Capture Terracina

Entry of American troops into the city of Terracina, on the Appian Way coastal road to Rome, indicated the German "switch line" defences could not stand long against the Allied advances. Terracina is on the coast about nine miles southwest of Fondi, the last important town American troops captured in this sector. Monte San Biagio, four miles west of Fondi, also has fallen,

ALLIES 24 MILES
(Continued on Page 8, Column 3)

Germans Send 6 Division Against Rebels

NAPLES, May 22 —(AP)— The first communique to be issued by Italian patriot forces declared today that of the 25 German divisions now in Italy six had been dispatched to the north to fight against the patriots and against Yugoslav Partisans along the Italian border.

"The danger of further development in the battle on the Italian Liberation front which may arise from one moment to another prevents the Germans from using these six divisions against the 5th and 8th British-American armies," said the communique.

The bulletin was made public through the headquarters of Gen. Sir Harold Alexander, Allied Commander in Italy.

The Patriots asserted that in recent operations they had cut the main railway near Verona in two places, causing two derailments in which 17 cars loaded with war material en route to the Southern Italian front were destroyed.

They also reported attacks on a German truck convoy near Lecco, firing of an industrial plant engaged in work for the Germans, and skirmishes with Nazi troops at Vicenza and Piedmont.

Fighting also was reported 22 miles northwest of Florence, where the Patriots said Germans had tried unsuccessfully to surround one of their groups.

GERMANS SEND
(Continued on page 2, column 4)

Fighting Flares On Anzio Front

By DANIEL DE LUCE
Associated Press War Correspondent

ANZIO BEACHHEAD, Italy, May 22 (AP)—Veteran Allied infantry companies, staging a series of fierce, brief thrusts against fortifications guarding the Germans' flank in the Pontine Marshes, have taken more than 70 prisoners in 48 hours, and yesterday a Canadian-American raiding party struck within two miles of Littoria.

The Germans shelled the beachhead heavily today as an American vanguard at Terracina brought the main 5th Army forces within 24 miles of this isolated area.

The raiders hitting close to Littoria with attacks on enemy defences around Sessano and Borgo Piave east of the beachhead, said they captured 17 Germans and one officer, and estimated they killed or wounded 74 others.

Capts. T. C. Gordon, Welland, Ont., and Adna Underhill, Summit, N.J., withdrew their outnumbered forces when the Germans counterattacked in battalion strength, but the fighting lasted from midnight until dusk.

EXTRA!

LONDON—Thousands of passengers missed their trains at London stations today, with blackboards announcing that many schedules had been cancelled without warning.

Indians On Warpath Invade Home For Beer Family Drives Them Off With Skis

BRANTFORD, May 22 (CP)—Forty-year-old John Ferney told police he worsted three Indians Saturday night when they smashed their way into his home here in search of beer. Two of the Indians, said to have been drinking, are under arrest and police are are looking for the third.

Ferney said a furious free-for-all raged for approximately an hour, half of that time in the kitchen of his home and the rest of the time in the backyard. Ferney suffered minor injuries.

Also injured was his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ellen Paling, 75, who told officers she was hit on the side of the head by a ski which she wielded against one of the Indians. The man, she said, wrested it from her and struck her.

In a struggle that ensued after the men broke down the door, Ferney used the ski to fell one, punched another in the jaw and broke a glass jar on the third man's head. He said the Indians finally "decided they were licked. One was in bad shape and they were covered with blood...."

The Indians then left the premises. Two men later were arrested by police.

Canadian-Manned Spitfires Riddle Trains, And Trucks

By LOUIS V. HUNTER—Canadian Press War Correspondent

WITH A CANADIAN FIGHTER WING IN BRITAIN, May 22—(CP Cable).—The R.A.F. 2nd Tactical Air Force with a Canadian Spitfire wing under Wing Cmdr. Lloyd V. Chadburn of Aurora, Ont., playing a prominent part, ranged across the Netherlands, Belgium and France Sunday in a great softening-up of the enemy's rail transport which might have to bear the brunt of troop-carrying traffic when the invasion begins.

With bombs and cannon and machine guns, the British and Canadian fliers attacked this minimum list of targets with excellent results:

Thirty-five military supply trains; 33 locomotives (five of which were seen to blow up), a large number of military lorries, staff cars, tugs, barges, flak towers and other military installations.

The Canadians struck in the area northwest of Paris, accounting for 16 trains as well as an assorted bag of lorries, army buses, staff cars, dispatch riders and other enemy personnel.

Heavy Ack-Ack.

The airmen flew through vicious anti-aircraft fire thrown up by flak cars which the German command has attached to many trains moving through Europe in a futile effort to husband its dwindling rolling stock.

Chadburn did not go up himself but his old City of Oshawa Squadron, led by Sqdn.-Ldr. Freddie Green, D.F.C., Toronto, was in the forefront of the Canadian attack. Pilots of the squadron attacked 13 trains, six of which were shared by Ft.-Lt. Don Hayworth of Regina and FO. R. Sharun of Toronto.

"The most amazing thing about it all," Green said, "was that you could fly about France and not see any enemy aircraft."

Three trains were damaged by FOS. G. A. Borland of Guelph, Ont., and A. R. McFadden, Springdale, Alta., and four others were shared by Flt.-Lts. R. B. Forrest-Roberts, Vancouver, D. R. Cuthbertson, Brantford, Ont., and WO. Ron McRae, Spencerville, Ont.

The Red Indian Squadron under Sqdn. Ldr. W. A. Conrad, D.F.C., of

CANADIAN-MANNED
(Continued on Page 2, Column 7)

French Patriots Given Warning

By NED NORDNESS
Associanted Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 22.—(AP).— Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's Surpreme Headquarters told the people of occupied countries to-day of more ways to help the invasion armies—by providing intimate knowledge about roads, bridges, rivers, woods and possible landing fields.

The broadcast came after a German threat of "terrible and bloody reprisals" against any French Patriots who heed Eisenhower's previous call to take up arms and help the invasion forces.

A member of Eisenhower's staff told the radio listeners:

"Listen carefully. For some time you have been receiving from voices already well known to you advice and instructions on how to prepare yourselves for the final phase of the struggle for liberation.

"The Supreme Commander wishes you to know that what you have heard is in accordance with his plans and wishes. In due course, you will receive advice and instructions from the Supreme Commander himself. In the meantime, he directs you to continue to note well and to act on advice and instructions by speakers whom he will introduce in his behalf.

"Now here is a speaker to give you the second operational instructions...."

The Message

"The subject is the importance of everyone having the fullest knowledge of his or her own surroundings. This applies equally to town and country districts. Allied forces or individuals will repeatedly want information. Often they will want guides. It is very important that this information should be accurate and that guides should be quite certain of the way by day or night."

After giving a list of subjects such as roads, woods, rivers and streams and possible landing spaces about which information would likely be

FRENCH PATRIOTS
(Continued on Page 2, Column 2)

Indian Captives Escape Nazis

ZURICH, May 22 — (CP-Reuters) — Nearly all the several thousand Indian prisoners who escaped from a German prison camp near Epinal in France in the confusion caused by a recent R.A.F. raid have reached Switzerland.

Hundreds of them hid in the woods near the Franco-Swiss frontiers awaiting the opportunity to cross in neutral territory and the chance came during a heavy storm Saturday night. The influx was so great that special trains had to be run to convey the escapees into the interior of Switzerland.

The number of prisoners and conscript labourers of all nationalities escaping from camps in southern Germany and Alsace has greatly increased recently.

Numerous Russians from a camp near Mulhouse also reached safety on Saturday night. German civilians are also fleeing across the frontier in increasing numbers. The majority of the inhabitants of the German village of Neuweiler, near Basle are already on Swiss territory.

It was believed in London that ther were about 3,000 Prisoners of War at Epinal Camp. The total number of Indian prisoners of war in German hands is 12,000.

Dogs Become Paratroopers
Alaskan Pooches Used In Rescue Work

HEADQUARTERS, ALASKAN WING, AIR TRANSPORT COMMAND, U.S. ARMY AIR FORCES, May 22 — (CP) — Parachute dogs, believed the first in Canada, are tumbling to earth these days in the Fort Nelson, B.C. region, about 550 miles northwest of Edmonton. The "para-pooches," too, are taking the leaps in their stride.

The dogs, used as the latest means of rescuing fliers in the far northern wilds, are trained by the search and rescue unit of the Alaskan Wing under the direction of Maj. Joseph F. Westover of Winnetka, Ill., who commands the Canadian sector of the unit. Maj. Westover says unit equipment is at the disposal of the R.C.A.F.

First contenders for the caterpillar club are Maggie and Jiggs, each weighing 100 pounds, who have merited "parapup" wings for completion of five jumps.

Maj. Westover, peace-time pilot, American Air Lines, and a member of his staff, Lieut. David Irwin, of Grand Rapids, Mich. investigated the feasibility of dropping pack dogs as well a sfood, warm clothing and emergency kits to grounded airmen.

Maggie and Jiggs were chosen to make the initial attempt.

At 1,500 feet they were heaved out. Neither offered resistance, descended without a yelp and landed, ready to hit the trail under load of from 25 to 30 pounds.

9,000 Planes Hit Nazi Points In Raids Saturday and Sunday

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR—Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 22 — (AP) — The German submarine centre of Kiel and German fortifications in the Pas-de-Calais area of France were pounded by 500 American heavy bombers today after 750 R.A.F. heavy bombers saturated the major inland Nazi port of Duisburg with 2,800 tons of explosives Sunday night. Hannover, a rail and rubber centre, and a German airfield in Belgium were other R.A.F. targets during the night while other planes, including Canadian aircraft, laid mines in enemy waters. The latest daylight attacks carried the newest Allied aerial prelude to the western invasion past 80 hours of continuous day-night attacks.

Thirty British planes were lost in the night attacks.

In all some 3,000 Allied planes, most of them fighters, sprayed nearly every moving piece of Nazi transport sighted in Western Europe yesterday with cannon and machine-gun fire These fighter sweeps and the R.A.F. night blows dovetailed into the Allied strategy aimed at crippling Germany's movement of troops and supplies to combat the impending invasion from the West. There was no immediate indication of R.C.A.F. participation in the night attacks which followed Saturday assaults by 6,000 planes.

The attack last night was described by the Air Ministry as "very heavy." While Duisburg was being pummeled other R.A.F. bomber formations cracked down on objectives in Hannover, raided a Nazi airfield in Belgium and carried out extensive mine laying in waters frequented by enemy shipping.

The loss of 30 night bombers was the greatest sustained by the R.A.F. since May 3, when 49 bombers failed to return from widespread attacks on multiple targets in France and Germany.

Light units of the riddled German Navy in the English Channel were under attack too. R.A.F. Typhoon fighter-bombers and Spitfire fighters flew mast-high through intense flak to attack on a half-dozen Nazi naval vessels sighted off Cape Cape Frehel near St. Malo last night.

The Air Ministry said the Spitfires went in first and shot up the German ships, the majority of which were minesweepers. Typhoon pilots said one was in flames as they went in low to bomb. Observation of the bombing was difficult but one pilot reported a direct hit or a near miss. Another silenced the flak from a minesweeper with cannon fire. One Typhoon was missing from the operation.

Hanover, important railway centre between Germany and the low countries, was last attacked April 11 and previously has been the target of four major raids.

It is a centre for many important war industries, including locomotive

9,000 PLANES
(Continued on Page 8, Column 6)

Nazis Send Bulgaria Recent Ultimatum Public Sentiment Violently Anti-German

GENEVA, May 22 — (CP-Reuters). — Sensational developments are expected shortly in Bulgaria where, according to unconfirmed reports from foreign diplomatic sources, the Government is debating a German note amounting to an ultimatum.

These reports say that Bulgarian public sentiment, which previously has been apathetic, now is violently anti-German and against several leaders who are pro-Axis.

Leading Bulgarian politicians and military men are believed to have politely but firmly refused a German invitation to Hitler's headquarters, fearing that they would share the fate of the Hungarian delegation.

A Moscow report earlier to-day said information has been received there that the Bulgarian Government had resigned.

Vital Arms And Equipment Pours Into Invasion Ports

By HOWARD FLIEGER—Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, May 22 — (AP). — Lend-lease arms and equipment to power a three-way invasion smash at Europe are moving out of the United States at a steadily-growing speed, President Roosevelt told Congress today. "United nations forces are now about to strike new and mightier blows tune awaits.

at Nazi-occupied Europe from offensive bases in the west, the south and the east," the President said as he submitted the 15th report on lend-lease operations.

"They are armed with the most powerful weapons that the combined resources and ingenuity of the United Nations can produce.... Through lend-lease we have made certain that every man in the forces of the other United Nations who goes into battle beside an American fighting man has what he needs to hit the common enemy as hard as possible."

The report shows $24,225,000,000 worth of equipment, services and supplies nave gone from the United States lend-lease arsenal—nearly three-fourth to Britain and Russia and much of it in recent months.

China Helped Too.

"China is being helped to the utmost of our ability," Mr. Roosevelt said. But the report itself shows the supplies being flown into that country are only a trickle against the flood of equipment being massed before the Nazi fronts.

The report also showed a mounting total of reverse lend-lease.

Emphasizing the pooling of Allied fighting equipment, it said: "In proportion to their available resources, our principal allies are putting into this war fully as much as we are, including lend-lease aid."

VITAL ARMS
(Continued on Page 2, Column 5)

11,500 Workers Out In Detroit

DETROIT, May 22.—(AP).— Approximately 11,500 Chrysler Corporation employees remained idle today despite a War Labor Board back-to-work order and instructions from the United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.) to go through picket lines set up by a group of strikers protesting the dismissal of 16 fellow workers.

The strikers voted yesterday to continue their protest to-day and George F. Addess, secretary-treasurer of the International U.A.W.-C.I.O., said he would ask that an administrator be appointed for the Chrysler union local involved if work was not resumed to-day.

A company spokesman said to-day that groups of employees gathered around the plant gates apparently uncertain whether to attempt to pass through picket lines or to go home. The pickets, he said, passed out handbills on which was printed: "The company threw us out; stay out until all discharged employees are rehired.

William Jenkins, president of Local 490, U.A.W.-C.I.O., said he was not surprised at the vote against returning to work. "The men want the army to take over," he said.

Production was resumed at the Buick aluminum foundry at nearby Flint to-day when 1,400 employees returned to their jobs.

The dispute started last Tuesday when 24 metal pourers, members of the United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.) walked out in what they described as a protest against pouring more than 18 heats of metal in one shift.

Marcus Raid Starts Jap Sirens

LONDON, May 22 — (AP) — A Japanese communique broadcast by Tokyo radio today asserted that "enemy naval units" approaching from the east had launched aerial attacks Saturday and Sunday against the Central Pacific Minamirtori Island, 1,200 miles southeast of Tokyo.

Damage to Japanese installations was acknowledged in the broadcast, recorded by the Associated Press, and the bulletin declared that at least 32 raiding planes were shot down.

Minamitori, or Marcus Island, is about mid-way between the Marshall Islands and the Japanese mainland, and 600 miles east of the main islands of the Bonin group. It has been attacked before by United States fleet units in March, 1942, and in September, 1943.

Tokyo apparently jumped to the conclusion that it was in for another bombing. The German radio, quoting Tokyo reports, said:

"An air raid alert was sounded in the whole north and east of Japan during the Allied attacks on Marcus Island."

WAR BULLETINS

Premier King Back In Canada

OTTAWA: Premier King returns from Britain and voices confidence in ultimate victory for Allied nations.

• • • •

Kiel Port Latest Targets Of Allied Bombers

AERIAL: R.A.F. raids Duisburg, other targets Sunday night; daylight offensive maintained with American sweep at Kiel, Pas-de-Calais.

• • • •

New Guinea Invasion In High Gear

NEW GUINEA: Jap casualties 1,000 a week in past four weeks in northern New Guinea invasions.

• • • •

Mogaung Valley Campaign Progresses

BURMA: Key Jap stronghold of Myitkyina completely encircled. Jap casualties mount steadily.

• • • •

Allied Push In Italy Gaining Speed

ITALY: 8th Army captures Pontecorvo, Liri Valley strongpoint in Hitler Line.

Lt.-Gen. Sansom To Quit Army

OTTAWA, May 22 (CP)—Lt.-Gen. E. W. Sansom, C.B., D.S.O., 55, of Fredericton, who went overseas with the 1st Canadian Division in 1939 and later commanded a Canadian corps overseas, is retiring because of ill health, Defence Minister Ralston announced today.

The announcement said Gen. Sansom will "proceed on leave pending retirement, there being no suitable employment available in his present rank."

He was admitted to hospital overseas last November and remained there almost continuously until February, when he returned to Canada for further medical treatment.

Gen. Sansom has been an officer of the Canadian Non-Permanent and Permanent Active Militia for 37 years, since his first appointment in the 71st Fredericton (N.B.) Regiment when he was 16. He served overseas throughout the First Great War and at 27 was a lieutenant-colonel commanding the 2nd Machine Gun Battalion, C.E.F.

At the outbreak of this war he was director of military training and staff duties at N.D.H.Q.

The Weather

Peterborough Temperatures:

Today:
Night low..51 Noon .....64
Yesterday:
Highest....72 Lowest....37
One Year Ago:
Highest....61 Lowest....54
.4 precipitation.

Weather Forecast:

Georgian May — Moderate winds; mostly cloudy and cooler to-day and Tuesday, with light scattered showers.

Lower Lake Region — Cloudy and cooler, with occasional light rain and some fog Tuesday: Moderate winds; partly cloudy and cool, with showers.

Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence Valleys — Cloudy and cooler, with occasional rain. Tuesday: Moderate winds; partly cloudy and cool, with light scattered showers.

Allies Hold One-third Of Myitkyina

Monsoon Rains Starting On Burma Front

BY CHARLEs A. GRUMICH
Associated Press War Correspondent

KANDY, Ceylon, May 22 — (AP) — Allied forces advancing through deep mud and monsoon rains hampering the battle for Myitkyina—great Japanese base in northern Burma already one-third in Allied hands—have won command of the junction of roads fanning west and north of Mogaung and Fort Hertz, it was announced today.

A firm line has been established on an arc four miles northwest of the city from Charpate to Namkwi, blocking the enemy's Burma railway and road communications between Myitkyina and Mogaung to the west, and Fort Hertz far to the north, a southeast Asia command communique said.

A Chinese communique said "one of our columns advanced to a position 1,100 yards past the north landing strip" to win the junction.

Street Fighting.

The southern approach to Myitkyina and the airfield are firmly held by the Allies, Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten's bulletin said. Before the onset of the heaviest rains bombers and fighters struck enemy positions and dumps in the Kamaing-Mogaung-Myitkyina sectors Saturday preparatory to a newly unified and intensified Allied blow to exterminate the Japanese in northern Burma.

The Chinese were reported to have repulsed Japanese reinforcing attempts in the Kumon Hills.

Allied troops were reported in a communique yesterday to have taken a third of Myitkyina in heavy street fighting, and airmen sank boatloads of enemy troops seeking to flee across the Irrawaddy River. The fall of Myitkyina would mark the first major Allied strategic victory in the north Burma offensive.

(Tokyo radio as quoted by Berlin said the Japanese were putting up stubborn resistance in the city.)

There was no indication of any Japanese effort to reinforce enemy forces anywhere in the Burma-India theatre, but air-borne Allied troops

JAP STRONGHOLD
(Continued on Page 8, Column 7)

Jap Casualties 1,000 A Week

ADVANCED ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, May 22—(AP).—Japanese casualties in the month-old Allied invasion of Northern New Guinea stood at 3,829 today—nearly 1,000 a week, on the average — as enemy bodies were counted at conquered Wakde and on the mainland nearby where three counter-attacks were bloodily repulsed.

Of the total enemy casualties, 3,343 Japanese were killed in the overall Northern New Guinea operations which began with the April 22 landings at Hollandia and Aitape.

American troops who annihilated the Japanese on the Wakde Islands, 110 miles northwest of Hollandia, have counted 676 enemy dead, "with others not yet reported," said the Monday Allied communique.

American troops pressed against stubborn mortar, machine-gun and rifle fire from their Tor river beachhead on the mainland. Three enemy counter-punches Friday and Saturday were turned back, with 11 Japanese dead.

Errand Of Mercy Is Fatal
Doctor Loses Life Visiting Frigate

A NEWFOUNDLAND PORT, May 22.—(CP).—An ironic quirk of fate resulted in the death aboard the Canadian frigate Valleyfield, of Surgeon Lieut. C. E. Irvine, 37, of Timmins, Ont. Lieut. Irvine did not belong to Valleyfield, victim of an enemy torpedo. He was called aboard her at sea on an errand of mercy, and was on the frigate when the torpedo struck.

Irvine received his first official sea appointment less than a month ago—to the Corvette H.M.C.S. Halifax. On the return trip from the United Kingdom he was called to the Canadian Corvette Giffard to attend the commanding officer, Lt.-Cmdr. Charles Petersen of Victoria, who had been ill with quinsy.

Irvine was about to return to his ship when a rush call came from Valleyfield saying a man was ill and asking if the doctor could be spared. Irvine went across to the frigate in a seaboat. His patient was feared to have been stricken with appendicitis.

After making an examination the doctor decided to apply ice and see if he could nurse the man until the ship reached port and facilities for performing an appendectory. He said that if the appendix ruptured he would operate at sea.

Survivors said that instead of going to an officer's cabin, Lieut. Irvine decided to stay in the sick bay with his patient. Thus he met his death. He was never seen again from the time the torpedo struck.

Premier King Confident Victory Certain

OTTAWA, May 22—(CP)—Back from the conference of Empire prime ministers and more than ever confident of the ultimate victory of Allied arms, Prime Minister Mackenzie King landed at an Ottawa airport at 10.14 o'clock last night, after a 23-hour flight from London.

He left Ottawa for the conference by air on April 26. This was his second transatlantic round trip, as he made the journey in 1941 for conferences with Prime Minister Winston Churchill and to see Canadian forces then in the United Kingdom.

Cabinet Ministers and other members of Parliament, together with high officers of the services and senior civil servants, greeted him as he stepped from the United States Army four-motor transport which carried him from the United Kingdom via the Azores and Newfoundland.

He said the trip had been "splendid" and he had been able to sleep. In a short speech he told of increased confidence in light of what he had seen that the Allies would be victors in the war.

Tribute To Canada

He bespoke his appreciation of meeting with Mr. Churchill and other Empire Prime Ministers again and of his pride in Canadians in the United Kingdom. His pride in Canada never was greater than when he heard the appreciation of United Kingdom people for what the Dominion had done in the war.

The conference had been "a great success" with many subjects, not only those associated with immediate war problems, coming under review. The people of the United Kingdom were 'magnificent," standing united as one in readiness for the trials ahead.

Mr. King said he would have to discuss his experiences overseas at some later date. Probably this will be at an early date in the Commons, possibly when External Affairs Department estimates are before the House. This may be this week.

Norman Robertson, Undersecretary of State for External Affairs; Walter Turnbull, principal secretary and Ed. Hendy, personal secretary, were with the Prime Minister on the return journey.

Mayor Stanley Lewis of Ottawa, among those who welcomed Mr. King, said later no date had yet been set for the civic reception which the capital will tender the Prime Minister.

Hog Quotations In Peterborough

MONDAY, MAY 22

Grade A hogs $16.90 plus transportation.

Sows: $12.25 plus transportation.

Eggs: A large 31c; A medium 29 cents; A pullet 28c; B grade 26c; C grade 23c.

The Quaker Oats Company quotes No. 2, $1.10; No. 3, $1.08; milling Ontario Winter Wheat No. 1, $1.10; oats 62c; buckwheat 68c.

Headaches Sufferers TAKE AN ANTALGINE
THE TESTED PRESCRIPTION
And Suffer No More
TRY IT TO-DAY
25¢ AND 75¢ PER BOX

She Isn't Old

DUNDALK, Ont., May 20—(CP).—Donors came from far and wide to give blood at the 10th Mobile Blood Donor Clinic here, but officials believe Mrs. Lillian Horburg, 63, set some kind of a record. She rode her bicycle 18 miles from her Grand Valley district home into town, gave her blood, and cycled back. The trip into town took 2 1-2 hours.

Rev. C. E. Silcox Appeals To Quebec Prelate

TORONTO, May 22 (CP)—Hope that Cardinal Villeneuve will "make a forceful" against anti-semitism is expressed by Rev. Dr. C. E. Silcox, director of the Canadian Conference of Christians and Jews.

"If the burning of the Quebec City Synagogue proves to be a case of arson, it becomes a matter of national significance and gives additional proof that Hitler has too many disciples right in Canada," said Dr. Silcox.

"But it would only be the logical sequence of the Achat-Chez-Nous movement, the bitter anti-Semitic propaganda before the war, and the un-Christian petitions circulated by the St. Jean Baptiste Societies against allowing any Jewish refugees to enter Canada.

"The Roman Catholic church enjoys in Quebec certain privileges which have been given no other religious communion or denomination in Canada. Surely it has a moral duty to protect the rights of religious minorities in that province...I trust that his Eminence, the Cardinal-Archbishop, will, for the honor of Christendom, make a forceful declaration on the matter, remembering the words of Pope Pius XI in September, 1939, when he said: 'It is not possible for Christians to take part in anti-Semitism.'"

MORE ABOUT—

French Patriots

Continued from Page 1

required the speaker added:

"By the way, leaflets giving these instructions more fully are being dropped from aircraft. The Germans may scatter fake leaflets. You can recognize the Allies' leaflets because they duplicate the instructions just given you."

The threat of reprisals against those who help the Allies came from the Vichy radio.

"Consider carefully before you listen to General Eisenhower," said Phillippe Henriot, Vichy information minister, in a broadcast in direct answer to Gen. Eisenhower's radio statement of Saturday. "The Allied invasion is a gamble and its success is a very open question."

The Germans themselves again sent reconnaissance planes over Britain last night in another of their almost nightly attempts to find clues to the Allies' invasion plans. These planes flew over north and northeast Scotland and southwest England. Bombs caused casualties and damage in one Kent town.

SWAMI STUFF

Ancient people thought emeralds sharpened the wits, conferred riches, and when placed under the tongue, gave the power of prediction.

EVERYDAY LOANS

How much money would it take to put your personal finances in order? Whatever the sum—from $20 to $1,000—Campbell Finance Corporation will gladly lend it to you.

For your convenience, there is a wide choice of repayment plans. All arrangements are completed in the closest confidence. Campbell's specialize in "everyday loans" the way you want them. Tailor-made to fit your needs on the security that suits you best.

to EVERYDAY PEOPLE

It makes no difference what you do—whether you are a baker, a steel-worker or stenographer, you can get cash at Campbells. It is your own good character that counts most. Campbell men are specialists in solving the problems of "everyday people." We serve you in a friendly co-operative way.

for EVERYDAY NEEDS

Have you an accumulation of bills that you would like to clear up? Do you owe money to the doctor or dentist? Do you need cash to move or pay taxes? A Campbell loan can help you in an emergency!

Do not hesitate to phone or call at Campbell Finance. We are always glad to help you with your "everyday needs," to lend you cash for any worthwhile purpose. Quick, friendly, confidential service. 46-43

Here are but a few of Campbell's 233 Loan Plans

REASONABLE RATES

| Cash You Get | MONTHLY PAYMENTS 4 | 6 | 10 | 12 | 15 | 18 |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| $20 | $ 5.25 | | | | | |
| 50 | 13.13 | $ 8.93 | $ 5.57 | $ 4.73 | | |
| 150 | 39.39 | 26.78 | 16.70 | 14.18 | $11.67 | |
| 275 | 72.22 | 49.09 | 30.61 | 26.00 | 21.40 | |
| 400 | 104.79 | 71.17 | 44.33 | 37.63 | 30.94 | |
| 500 | 130.00 | 88.64 | 55.10 | 46.73 | 38.36 | |
| 1000 | | | | 91.35 | 74.50 | $63.30 |

OVER 100,000 SATISFIED CUSTOMERS.

CAMPBELL FINANCE CORPORATION LIMITED

F. M. VIVASH, Branch Manager
169 Charlotte Street
Over A. & P. Store — Phone 3880

Bourassa Says C.C.F. Party Rates Support

QUEBEC, May 22—(CP)—Henri Bourassa, 77-year-old French-Canadian Nationalist leader, last night told a Bloc Populaire rally here that in constituencies where there would not be a Bloc candidate at the next federation elections "true Canadians" should vote for the C.C.F. candidate.

Mr. Bourassa, who did not elaborate, simply added that true Canadians should rather vote for a C.C.F. candidate than for "Reds or Blues." Liberals in Quebec have for generations been nicknamed Reds and Conservatives Blues.

In provincial field, Mr. Bourassa went on, it will be the duty for "all those who do not want to shine the foreigners' boots any longer" to vote for the Bloc candidates led by their provincial leader, 31-year-old Andre Laurendeau of Montreal.

(It was previously stated by Bloc officials that their party would have candidates in every constituency at the next provincial elections in Quebec.)

Wants Equality

Mr. Bourassa said that all Nationalists in Quebec should unite. He expressed hopes that Rene Chalout, formerly sole Bloc member of the Quebec legislature and now classified as Nationalist; Paul Gouin, former leader of the Action Liberale Nationale; and Dr. Philippe Hamel, former member of the Quebec Legislature; come back to the Bloc which they supported until last winter.

He said he was in favor of co-operation between French-speaking and English-speaking Canadians. However, he added, "that does not mean we have to shine the boots of (Prime Minister) Mackenzie King as Premier Godbout does, or to hold Churchill's cigar as Mackenzie King does. The only possible co-operation is based upon equality."

"I am against imperialisms of all kinds," he concluded. "However, when they speak of a crusade for Christianity I can not forget that our first co-operation with British imperialism contributed at the end of the last century to the extermination of a valiant little nation in South Africa."

Soul And Body Is Lesson Subject

"Soul and Body" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which was read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Peterborough, on Sunday. The Golden Text was: "For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself." (Philippians 3:20, 21).

Selections from the Bible included the following from Philippians 4:8, 9: "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you."

Correlative citations from the Christian Science textbook, included the following: "To divest thought of false trusts and material evidences in order that the spiritual facts of being may appear—this is the great attainment by means of which we shall sweep away the false and give place to the true. Thus we may establish in truth the temple, or body, 'whose builder and maker is God'."

BULLETIN

BANCROFT, May 22—(ENS)—John McCulloch, 59, 3342 Royal Ave., N.Y., was drowned Sunday evening in Baptiste Lake, off Millionaire's Island.

Clark Escapes

ON THE 5TH ARMY FRONT IN ITALY, May 22—(AP).—A well-disguised booby trap on an abandoned German artillery piece barely missed killing Lt.-Gen. Mark W. Clark, Allied 5th Army commander, yesterday during a survey drive around the front. The explosion which critically wounded one soldier and injured several others, was less than 25 feet from Clark's jeep.

OBITUARIES

MRS. WILFRED RAYMOND TYNDALL

The death, in her 33rd year, of Mrs. Mary Elfrida Doig Tyndall, beloved wife of Wilfred Raymond Tyndall, 100 London street occurred Sunday evening in hospital following a three weeks' illness. She had been a resident of Peterborough all her life.

Born here the daughter of Mrs. H. Jones and the late Mr. Doig, she attended the Peterborough public schools and Collegiate Institute and was a member of St. Andrew's United Church. Surviving besides her mother are three sons and one daughter Charles Raymond, Stewart George, Ronald Francis and Shirley June at home. Three sisters, Mrs. Harry Galvin (Hattie), Miss Stella Marie Doig, and Mrs. James Sutherland (Alta), also remain. Mrs. Tyndall's brother, Stewart Doig, died in March of this year.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday at 2 p.m. from the Belleghem Funeral Home, 190 Hunter street, with service conducted by Rev. Dr. W. E. Young of St. Andrew's Church. Interment will be made in Little Lake Cemetery.

MRS. JOHN MURPHY.

ROSENEATH, May 22—(ENS). The funeral service for the late Mrs. John Murphy was held on Friday morning at 10 o'clock in St. Jerome's Catholic Church, Warkworth. Rev. Father Ferguson celebrating Requiem Mass. Interment was made at Cobourg Catholic Cemetery. Pall-bearers were Charles and Ambrose Fanning, Edward Noonan, Joseph Kelly, Leslie Down, J. Wesley Pacey, Peter Brahney, and Joseph Wilson.

JAMES ARTHUR WILSON.

For many years prominent in the shoe business in Napanee, James Arthur Wilson, 75, died Saturday at the Toronto General Hospital. He was stricken while visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. W. Edmonds, Toronto. Mr. Wilson was a lifelong resident of Napanee, a son of the late Uriah Wilson, one-time M.P. for Lennox and Addington. He was a member of Court Lennox, Canadian Order of Foresters, and the United Church. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Edmonds, Toronto, Mrs. Fred Todd, Hamilton; Mrs. C. W. Nugent Deseronto, and Mrs. T. P. Pointe, Port Hope, and two sons, Herbert, Coral Gables, Fla. and Robert, St. Mary's, Ont.

MRS. HERBERT J. DUFFUS.

Mrs. Herbert J. Duffus, 269 Romaine street, who has been ailing for six months, died at her residence Sunday morning.

Formerly Annie Shaughnessy, she was the daughter of the late Dennis Shaughnessy and Caroline Carley, and was born in Otonabee on the Crowley Line. The late Mrs. Duffus had lived in Peterborough for 25 years and was an active member of the Sacred Heart church since its dedication. She was a past president of the Catholic Women's League there; an untiring worker in St. Anthony's Society and all matters pertaining to church welfare. Mrs. Duffus was also active in Red Cross work until she became ill.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, Herbert Duffus, two sisters, Mrs. John Michels (Carrie), South Monaghan; Mr. Edward Lynch (Bertha) of Toronto; and one brother, John Shaughnessy of Peterborough.

The funeral service will be held Wednesday from her late residence at 8.45 a.m. to the Church of the Sacred Heart for requiem mass at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in St. Peter's cemetery.

MORE ABOUT—

Germans Send

Continued from Page 1

Later the Algiers radio announced formation in Naples of a military council, composed of Gen. Sir Harold Alexander's representatives and members of the Italian staff, whose "main function will be to guide the operations of Italian guerillas in Northern and Central Italy by providing them with daily instructions." The council will issue daily communiques.

TORONTO PRODUCE

TORONTO, May 22 — (CP) — Egg and butter prices in the spot market here today as reported by the Dominion Department of Agriculture follow:

Eggs: Wholesale to retail, A large 37c, A medium 35c, A pullet 31c, B 33c, C 30c, country shippers quoted graded eggs, cases free, A large 35c, A medium 33c, A pullet 27c-28c, B 30c, C 27c.

Butter: First grade solids 33½c, second grade solids 31½c-32½c.

Thin Girls Learn
The way to better health

Thin girls are learning that they can sharpen their appetites and improve digestion by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food—the vitamin tonic.

To be sure of not missing the usual after-meal treatment they buy the new, economy size bottle of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and keep it on the dining table along with the salt and pepper shakers.

The increased supply of vitamin $B_1$ and food minerals helps them to get relief from tired feelings, nervous spells and irritability and to know again the joy of healthful living.

Whether in war work or other occupations they find that they have the pep and energy which is essential for efficiency and success.

Ask for the new, economy size bottle of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food FOR NEW PEP AND ENERGY

Golfing Season Opened At Peterboro Club

The weatherman smiled on those who chased the little, white ball from hole to hole Saturday afternoon, and the opening field day and dinner at the Peterborough Golf and Country Club enjoyed an unusually large turnout.

The course proved to be in excellent shape and the very rapid growth experienced at this time of the year is being kept well under control. Robert Abbott, chairman of the greens committee, announced during the dinner that his committee would promise to keep the course in better shape this year than it ever had in the past. Progress was reported in planting hundreds of trees about the course, in strategic spots where their growth in later years would enhance still further the beauty of the club property.

About fifty members sat down to an excellent dinner prepared by the club's new stewardess, Mrs. Devall, and all unanimously agreed that this lady really knows her business.

New members were introduced to the club by Hugh Waddell, who expressed the desire that all new members should acquaint themselves with the facilities offered by the club and use them as much as possible.

Stan. Payne, the club president, introduced as guests for the day Dick Raine, Lieut. Jack Raine, commander of the corvette "Peterborough," and Lieut. Bill Ostler, also of the corvette "Peterborough," who is a visitor in the city for a few days. Andy Rutter, chairman of the match and handicap committee, was called to say a few words about the tournaments which were planned for the coming season, and remarked that the first round of the president's prize, Stratton Trophy and Westclox Trophy would commence Saturday, May 27, and players would be given two weeks in which to complete the first round. The draw for these tournaments will be made from the list of all playing members at once and will be printed in this column as soon as they are available. Mr. Rutter drew special attention to the mixed two-ball foursome tournament which will be held on four Sundays between now and the closing of the club in the fall, and pointed out that twelve to fourteen couples had already signified their intention of competing in this tournament for the C. G. Graham Trophy, and it was felt that this addition to the club's competitive field should prove very successful. The first round will be played Sunday, May 29th, weather permitting. The draw will appear in The Examiner Friday or Saturday next.

R. R. Faryon, chairman of the house committee, brought to the members' attention the new catering facilities which were available and mentioned that their immediate success seemed to be assured when Mrs. Devall reported all reservations for Sunday dinner had been snapped up a few hours after a club bulletin had been issued, advising that dinners, lunches, etc., were available to members once again. It was hoped that the Thursday night family buffet suppers would prove to be as popular at the Peterborough club as they had at other well-known clubs throughout the Dominion. Mr. Faryon pointed out to the members the difficult task of preparing large quantities of food for banquets, dinners, etc., and hoped they would assist the house committee in future by signifying their intention of attending or not.

Joe Jebson thanked the members of the various committees for their activity in getting the club away to a good start, and followed with a Jebson story which did not bring its regular round of hearty applause. Perhaps Joe forgot that he told exactly the same story last year, and some of the members recalled that Joe had first introduced the same story two years previously. However, Joe has assured his friends that he will have a brand new story on tap for the next get-together.

Charlie Westbrook expounded once again his theory on the contents of a vacuum and followed with a story told as only Charlie can tell them. Bob Johnstone at the piano turned out many old favorites, assisted by "The Dick Raine Quartet" and Tom LaBranche with "Allouette."

The brand of golf turned in by the members during the day was not exceptionally brisk, but sweepstakes found Bob Abbott a winner again, turning in a low gross in the first flight of 83, while H. C. Scotheran captured the low net with a 73. Gordon Maniece took home the prize for the low gross in the second flight with a 92, while Gordon Whatman, a new member, took the low net in the second flight with a very nice 70. Many players found the going extremely tough and did not finish the full eighteen holes, and many cards were therefore not turned in.

MORE ABOUT—

Vital Arms

Continued from Page 1

More than $1,000,000,000 in planes and parts, a similar amount of guns and ammunition and almost that value in tanks and war vehicles have gone to the United Kingdom—three-fourths of them in the past year.

In the first 60 days of 1944, the report shows, more than 2,100 lend-lease planes, almost 2,000 tanks and more than 60,000 other military vehicles were sent to other United Nations, the bulk of them to invasion dumps.

Nearly $4,750,000,000 in lend-lease aid has gone to Russia, two-thirds of it in the past year. Up to March, 1944, America had sent Russia 8,800 fighters and bombers, 190,000 military trucks, 36,000 jeeps, 5,200 tanks and tank destroyers and 30,000 other military vehicles.

Cheese, Produce and Livestock

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, May 22 — (CP) — Liberal liquidation reflecting a five-cent break at Chicago, sent rye futures lower Saturday on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange.

Final prices were 3⅛-3¼ lower.

Wheat export business during the session included the sale of 500,000 bushels of top grades to the United Kingdom and 500,000 bushels to Eire.

TORONTO LIVESTOCK

TORONTO, May 22 — (CP) — Cattle trade was active at steady to firm prices on the livestock market here up to mid-session today. Hogs, veal calves and sheep were steady.

Receipts reported by the Dominion Marketing Service were: Cattle 2,500, calves 700, hogs 1,100, sheep and lambs 200.

Prices in the trade included:

Cattle: Weighty steers $11.50-$12.85, butcher steers $11-$12.50, heifers mostly $11-$11.85, butcher cows $8-$9.55, canners and cutters $5-$7.50, bulls $7.50-$9.75, fed yearlings $11.50-$13.50, stockers $10-$11.50.

Veal Calves: Choice $14.50-$15, common lights downward to $7.

Lambs: One lot feed-lot $14.75, common to medium feed-lot $10-$14, good spring lambs $16-$16.50.

Sheep: $3-$6.

Hogs: Grade A $17.65 dressed-weight, sows $13 dressed.

TORONTO POULTRY.

TORONTO, May 22 —(CP) — Wholesale poultry prices were unchaged here today.

TORONTO FRUIT

TORONTO, May 22 — (CP) — Wholesale fruit and vegetable prices here today (supplied by White and Company) follow:

Domestic: Green onions 20-25c doz; carrots 50-lb. bu. $1-$1.25; beets 50-lb. bu. 75c-$1; turnips 50-lb. bu. 60c-75c; outdoor rhubarb 40c-50c doz; parsnips 45-lb. hamper $2.50; mushrooms 5-lb. carton $2.15-$2.25; cucumbers hothouse 11-qts. bsk. $3.75-$4, 2-doz. carton $5-$5.25; asparagus 11-qt. bskt. $1.50-$2; spinach 75c-$1.25.

Imported: Calif. Velencia oranges $6-$.25; Texas & Florida Velencia oranges $5.25-$5.50; lemons, all sizes $7.50-$8.25; yams $5-$5.25; Florida and Texas grapefruit $5-$5.55; lettuce, case $6.75-$7; Florida celery $12-$13 case; Calif. carrots, 6-dozen $4.50-$4.75; 50- lb. bag $2-$2.10; Cuban pineapple $9-$9.50; cabbage, crates, $4.50-$4.75, 50-lb. bag $2.65-$2.75; beans, green $5.50-$6; wax $6; strawberries, Tennessee, case containing 24 quarts $14-$14.50.

MONTREAL LIVESTOCK

MONTREAL, May 22 — (CP) — Bulls were 25 to 50 cents higher and calves were up 75 cents to $1 today. Receipts: Cattle 541; Calves 1379; Sheep 64; Hogs 1342.

Good quality steers $12-$12.50, medium kinds $11.25 up. Heifers $7.50-$11.25, tops $11.75. Good cows $9-$9.50, butchers $6.75 up, good bulls $9.-$9.75.

Calves $11-$11.50, tops $12. Medium calves $11-$11.50, bulk in mixed lots between $7-$9.

Sheep unchanged at $4-$7. Hogs $17.65 for grade A and $17.25 for B-1 dressed. Sows $12.25-$12.50 dressed.

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, May 22 — (CP) — Canadian Commodity Exchange. Spot: Butter, Que. (92 score) 33c-33¼c; eggs, B1, eastern A-large 34¾c-35¼c; A-medium 32¾c-33¼c; A-pullets 27¾c-28¼c; E-B 30c-30½c; E-C 24½-25c.

Futures: May butter 33⅛cA; eggs 34cB.

BUFFALO LIVESTOCK

BUFFALO, N.Y., May 22 — (AP) — Hogs 3,500; 170-250 lbs. $12.50-$13.50; heavies $11.00-$12.00; sows $9.50-$10.50.

Cattle 600; Lightweight canners $6.00-$6.75; weighty canners $7.00-$7.50A.

TORONTO HOGS

TORONTO, May 22 — (CP) — Prices were unchanged at bacon-hog markets reporting early today.

Dressedweight: London grade A $17.35 delivered, Hull Grade A $17.40 delivered, Barrie grade A $17.40 grade B1 $17, delivered, rail grade A $17.25, grade B1 $16.85, delivered.

MORE ABOUT—

Canadian-Manned

Continued from Page 1

Richmond, Ont., shot up four trains.

Flt.-Lt. Paul Johnston of San Diego, Calif., and Flt.-Lt. C. T. Brown of Prescott, Ont., attacked two truckloads of soldiers, and Flt.-Lt. Peter Logan of Montreal blasted a German staff car.

Bag 7 Planes.

Seven German aircraft were destroyed by Canadian fighters today, two falling to a repair and salvage unit checking their guns on a routine test flight over the Channel.

The others were destroyed east of Rouen, France, by six City of Oshawa Spitfire Squadron pilots when the Canadian's ammunition was dangerously low after a successful train-busting sortie.

These five "kills" came in a five-minute combat after the six Canadians met an equal number of Germans. Three of the German planes were destroyed in 10 seconds after the Spitfires shot up four trains and two other members of the same squadron shot up another train.

Flt.-Lt. R. D. Forbes-Roberts of Vancouver, leading a section; Flt.-Lt. G. R. Paterson, Kelowna, B.C., and FO. W. H. Palmer, Kamloops and Salmon Arms, B.C., each downed a Focke-Wulf 190. Flt.-Lts. S. F. Mason, Smiths Falls, Ont., and A. R. McFadden, Springdale, Alta., each got a Messerschmitt 109.

The double Channel victory was scored by FO. Bud Bowker, Granby, Que., whose victims were Focke-Wulf 190's.

James J. Bell Drowns In Trent River

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22.—(ENS).—The third sudden death in Campbellford within five days occurred Sunday morning when James Jackson Bell was accidentally drowned in the Trent river south of the town.

The others were Miss K. Boyd who died in her sleep, Mr. Walter Blake, who died suddenly after breakfast as he prepared to go to work.

It was particularly sad as he was accompanied by his fourteen-year-old son James, who was beside him when he slipped on the slimy, rocky edge into the river, which is about 18 or 20 feet deep at that particular place. They were on a fishing trip, a sport he enjoyed to the full.

Jim heard his father's call for help and realizing that he could not reach him in the swirling water rushed to the nearby mill for help. Mr. Phillips immediately telephoned the fire department and a general alarm was sounded, but the rapids caused by the narrowing gorge at that section precluded any chance of rescue. He was found below Ran-

JAMES J. BELL

(Continued on Page 8, Column 6)

Fine Bridgenorth Man $5 For Disturbance

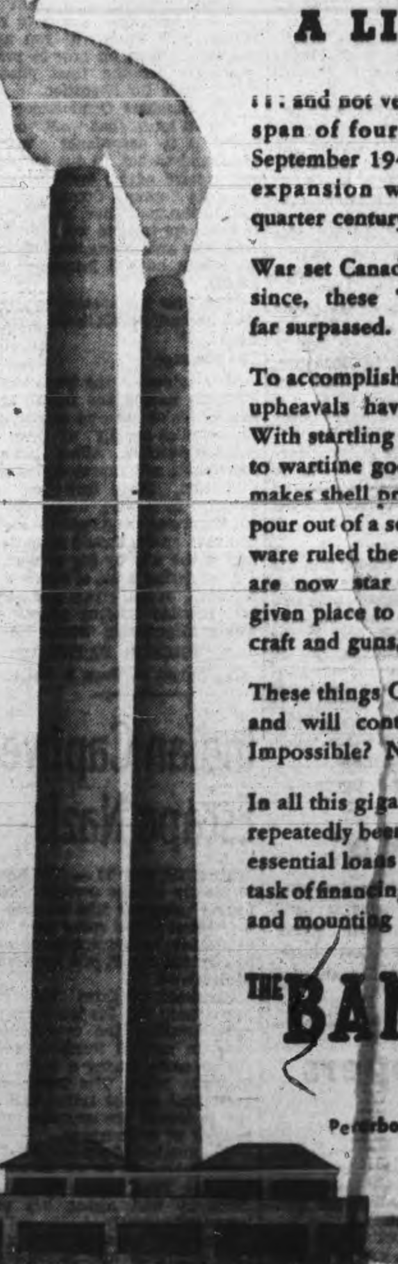
Charged with having created a disturbance at the Canadian Legion Hall the other night, Harold Churnsides, Bridgenorth, pleaded not guilty but was convicted in police court this morning on the evidence of two crown witnesses and was fined $5 without costs by Magistrate O. A. Langley.

It was stated that Churnsides had refused to buy a ticket of admission to the dance hall and had tried to hit the ticket seller. Constable Reg. McMillan testified that he had put the man out of the hall twice and finally had arrested him. He said that people were coming out of the dance hall to see what was causing the noise.

RHEUMATIC SUFFERERS

Accept This Generous Offer!

Tamblyn's will return your money, if one bottle of Ru-Ma does not give you relief from rheumatic aches and pains, sore, swollen and painful joints. No matter how long you have suffered, you must get relief or "no pay." Try Ru-Ma and be convinced. Accept this generous offer now.—(Advt.)



WHERE THE IMPOSSIBLE JUST TAKES A LITTLE LONGER

... and not very much longer, at that. In the brief span of four years, from September 1939 to September 1943, Canadians achieved an industrial expansion which normally would require a quarter century.

War set Canadian enterprise fantastic goals. Long since, these "impossible" objectives have been far surpassed.

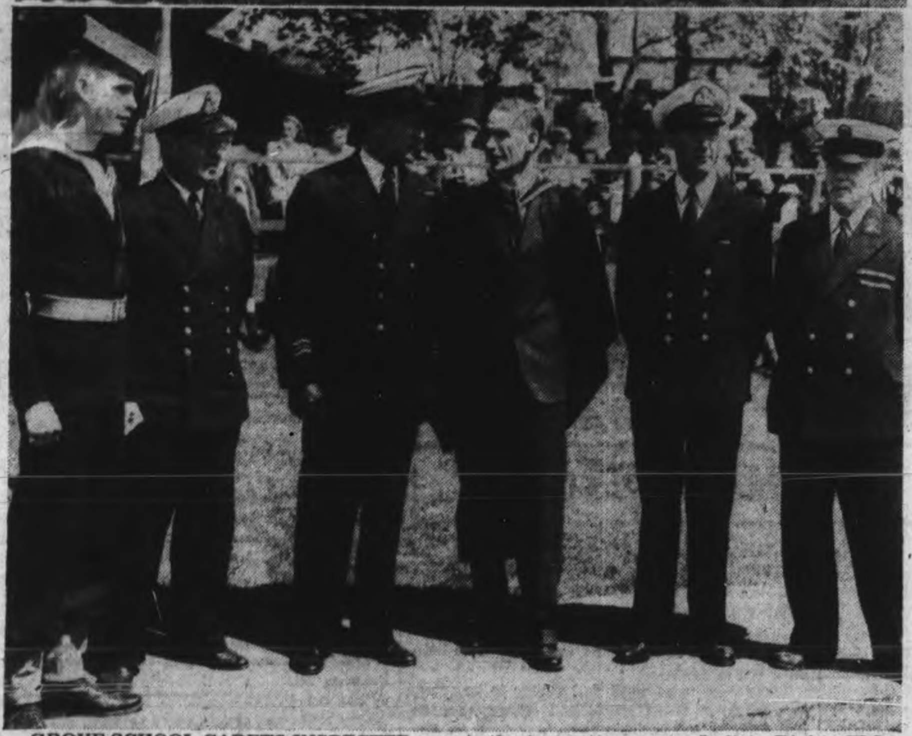
To accomplish the astounding records, tremendous upheavals have taken place inside the factories. With startling speed they have shifted from civilian to wartime goods. A fountain pen company today makes shell primers. Ammunition boxes and fuses pour out of a sewing machine factory. Where silverware ruled the roost, smoke bombs and shell clips are now star products. Electrical supplies have given place to gun mounts, trams and buses to aircraft and guns, locomotives to tanks.

These things Canadian industry has done, is doing, and will continue to do until Victory is won. Impossible? Not for free enterprise!

In all this gigantic effort, The Bank of Toronto has repeatedly been called upon for friendly counsel, for essential loans and for expert guidance through the task of financing new equipment, swollen inventories and mounting payrolls.

THE BANK OF TORONTO
Incorporated 1855

Peterboro Branch: J. L. THOMPSON, Manager



GROVE SCHOOL CADETS INSPECTED— At the Lakefield Preparatory School on Saturday afternoon Lt.-Commander H. J. Plaxton inspected the Sea Cadets. (At Top) a squad displays rifle drill and (at Bottom) is the inspection party, Left to Right, CPO. Terry Martin; Lt. C. Chamberlain, R.C.N. V.R.; Lt.-Commander H. J. Plaxton; G. Winder Smith, headmaster; Cadet Lieut. W. E. Rashleigh, and CPO. G. M. Lee, D.S.M., cadet instructor. (Parks' Studio Photo.)

Northumberland Loan Total

COBOURG, May 22 — (ENS) — Final standing of Northumberland County in the recent Victory Loan campaign shown a total of $1,642,350 subscribed, or a percentage of 102.64 of the $1,600,000 objective. Seven of the 14 municipalities went over the top, the highest standing being obtained by Colborne village with 140.43.

Totals for the individual municipalities are as follows:

| | Total | Pct. |
|---|---|---|
| Cobourg | $440,750 | 110.19 |
| Hamilton Township | 163,700 | 116.93 |
| S. Monaghan Twp. | 36,850 | 92.125 |
| Haldimand Twp. | 77,900 | 82.0 |
| Alnwick Twp. | 23,250 | 66.4 |
| Percy Township | 94,050 | 85.5 |
| Cramahe Township | 84,900 | 121.3 |
| Hastings Village | 45,400 | 100.9 |
| Colborne Village | 98,300 | 140.43 |
| Brighton Township | 76,700 | 109.6 |
| Brighton Village | 189,950 | 131.0 |
| Murray Township | 65,150 | 81.44 |
| Campbellford | 149,150 | 85.23 |
| Seymour Township | 96,300 | 77.04 |
| Total | $1,642,350 | 102.64 |

FOR HEALTHY PIGS

Clean, fresh sod or dirt put into a pig pen every few days is a good anemia preventative.

More Lakeshore News On Page 13

Friends Honor Italy Veteran

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22 (ENS) —Corporal Ken. Sisley, invalided home after more than four years overseas during which he was in the thick of the fight in Italy, was honored by a large gathering of friends at Polmont Orange hall over the week-end.

A popular member of the Seymour community for ten years, prior to his enlistment with the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, he had won a host of friends in this district. Cpl. Sisley is among the first to return bearing the scars of battle, for he received serious leg injuries when a German anti-tank mine exploded. He was in action with his unit near Cattrazanza, Italy.

(Continued on Page 13)

"Gentle All-Bran keeps me regular"

"You bet I think ALL-BRAN is helpful for constipation. It sure helped me. You see I'd been dosing myself for years with many kinds of purgatives which helped only briefly. But eating ALL-BRAN keeps me free of that. Now I'm regular as a clock — and I like ALL-BRAN a lot."

Here's all you do, if your constipation is due to lack of "bulk" in the diet. Simply eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly, and drink plenty of water. This wholesome cereal helps to produce smooth-working "bulk", and prepare wastes for easy elimination. So, to stay regular, eat ALL-BRAN daily, as a cereal or in several ALL-BRAN muffins. Remember, ALL-BRAN is a cereal—not a medicine. Get it at your grocer's. 2 handy sizes. Made by Kellogg's in London, Canada.

Lakefield Sea Cadets Are Commended For High Efficiency

LAKEFIELD, May 22.— "Highly efficient throughout" was the praise Lieut. Commander Hugh Plaxton gave the Lakefield Preparatory Sea Cadets at their annual inspection held at The Grove on Saturday.

Arriving at the school on the beautiful May morning Lieut. Commander Plaxton was greeted at noon by the band and the school guard of honor. Following dinner he inspected the stores and quarters. The ceremony was held on the school's lower cricket field amidst all the spring splendor of the Katchewanooka setting, enhanced by the naval uniforms and colors of the flags.

With Capt. Plaxton at the saluting base and party of Headmaster J. Wender Smith, Lieut. Chamberlain, Sea Cadet Lieut. W. Rashleigh and Chief Petty Officer Geroge Lee, D.S.M., the salute was taken as the sea cadets under command of Chief Petty Officer Terry Martin marched in on the colors. Color party bayonets were corked to prevent tearing of the emblem. Inspection of the ship's company followed, after which the cadets marched past the commanding officer in open column, close colmn, and column of route.

Other officers in charge of the cadets were P. O. Patton, commanding first division P. O. Roy, 2nd division, and P. O. Lyman, color party.

The colors, presented by Admiral Nelles last year and donated by Mrs. McBrien of Toronto, were then returned to the chapel and replaced over the altar.

The junior boys under Gerald Staples, school master, looked smart in their green blazers and white shorts, as they stood in formation on the edge of the green, watching the inspection.

Seamanship instruction was displayed on the field as the boys demonstrated their skill in sending signals by Morse, flashing, flag and buzzer compass, helm, chart and sextant reading, the tying of knots, splices bends and hitches, hut-building, life saving and first aid. In charge of these were P.O. Preston, A. B. Clare and A. B. Freethy.

Attracts Much Attention.

A plastic model of Halifax harbour, complete with buoys, made by Mr Furze and the other masters attracted much attention, as did a barracoe, which is similar to a small barrel with a spigot, containing drinking water, which is stowed under the thwart of a sea boat.

The boys then dispersed and went to the waterfront, where the commanding officer inspected the boat sailing. There were ten dinghies sailing, which let 'fly the sheet' as a salute to Lieut. Commander Plaxton, and two cutters pulling who as they passed the saluting base, tossed oars and the coxswain saluted.

The dinghies were manoeuvred by flag signalling by four young signallers, all under 12 years of age.

Tea was served in the dining room to a large number of guests, with Mrs. A. T. LeFevre and Mrs. Wm. Rashleigh officiating at either end of the tea table. A demonstration of physical training under P.O. Terry Martin was put on on the lawn.

Throughout the entire afternoon the efficiency of the boys and the excellence of their work marked the results of the training received throughout the year under the supervision of Chief Petty Officer George M. Lee, D.S.M. a sailor who has seen service under four sovereigns.

A highlight of the afternoon was the presence of four generations of the Mackenzie family, pioneer founders of the historic school. They were: Mrs. A. W. Mackenzie, wife of the late Dr. Mackenzie, her daughter, Mrs. A. Lampman, her granddaughter, Mrs. A. Clarke, and her great grandson, 4 month old Michael Clarke all of Lakefield.

Another feature of the day was the presentation of a sailing canoe and sail to the school by Larry Smart of Toronto.

D. Bolster Candidate At Tory Convention

COBOURG, May 22 — (ENS) — Don Bolster, temporary secretary-treasurer of the Cobourg Progressive Conservative Association, announced that he would be a candidate for nomination at the convention of the Progressive-Conservatives to be held next Monday at Warkworth. It is understood that Earl Drope of Harwood will also be a candidate. The announcement was made at the annual meeting here of the local Association. Roy Dodge was elected president for the coming year. W. A. Goodfellow, M.L.A. for Northumberland, addressed the meeting and gave a report of his stewardship at the Legislature.

The Examiner

The Peterborough Examiner published each evening by Peterborough Examiner, Limited. Office Hunter and Water Streets, Peterborough, Ont.

W. RUPERT DAVIES, President
H. L. GARNER, General Manager
G. WILSON CRAW, Managing Editor

Subscription Rates 20c per week in City of Peterborough delivered by carrier; $6.00 per year by mail to outside points.

Members Canadian Press; Audit Bureau of Circulation; Canadian Daily Newspaper Association; Empire Press Union; Ontario Provincial Dailies Association.

TELEPHONE 4641
Private Branch Exchange to all Departments

History can be well written only in a free country. —VOLTAIRE.

MONDAY, MAY 22, 1944

Let's Inform Ourselves

The former head of the Wartime Information Board, Mr. John Grierson, has said in an interview that he thinks that the Board will continue its work, in some form, after the war. Mr. Grierson has passed a great part of his life in providing public information through exceptionally good documentary films, and all his abilities lie in the direction of public education, so that his opinion is easily understandable. But the Canadian people will want to know why a continuance of W.I.B. would be necessary.

People in democratic countries like to inform themselves, and they have a strong prejudice against government-controlled information bureaux. There are flaws in the democratic system, of course; many citizens of democratic countries never trouble to inform themselves about matters of public interest, and others readily accept superficial and foolish opinions. But there are also many people who take pains to keep abreast of what is going on in the world and in their own country, and who pride themselves on their ability to sift information and form opinions of their own. They would not welcome information from a government bureau, which they would regard as influenced by government policy.

The passion for "influencing" and "moulding" public opinion by various subtle means is one which has shown itself frequently in Britain since the First Great War, and many clever fellows there have amused themselves at the game. They have had no great success, it is true, but they have had a lot of fun, and they have drawn salaries for their work. They do no specific or obvious job, like writing, or broadcasting, or making documentary movies; they merely listen for trends, and catch currents of opinion, and generally mess about. We don't want them messing about at the public expense at Ottawa after the war is over. The W.I.B. has done a good and necessary job during the war, but when the war is over that job will be over, too.

Let us not permit the war to leave us with a group of government agencies which do something elaborately and expensively which we could do simply and cheaply ourselves. Let us not support any more civil servants than we really need. In this country we are all free to be intelligent or ignorant as we choose; we can make up our own minds about national and international affairs without wet-nursing by a peacetime W.I.B. Let's inform ourselves.

Movies—Perennial Scapegoat

On Tuesday in Montreal a boy of 15 was sentenced to hang for the murder of a police officer. In attempting to excuse the boy's conduct his Defense Counsel pleaded that he had been in the habit of going to gangster movies six or seven times a week, and said that the boy's downfall could be attributed to the failure of society to apply a Provincial law barring children under sixteen from the movies.

Clearly this is nonsense, and Mr. Justice Lazure treated it as such. The duty of the jury, he pointed out, was not to judge society, but to decide the responsibility of the accused. Nevertheless, we are surprised that this hoary charge against the movies should be produced by a lawyer. The moving-picture industry at the moment is so hedged about by regulations of its own making that we do not think that the movies could possibly corrupt any child who had not already the seeds of corruption well-developed within him. Crime is not presented on the screen in an attractive light, and it is very rarely that the criminal in a moving-picture is not captured and punished. Criminals are represented in so unpleasant a light that no healthy-minded child could admire them or wish to be like them. Indeed, the movies are so careful in this respect, that they seriously impair their value as art, for in real life not all criminals are punished. But the fact remains that the movie makers and the censors between them keep crime from appearing on the screen as an attractive pursuit.

Nothing is easier, when a man or a boy appears in court on a serious charge, than to moan about the sins of society, or the vicious influence of the movies, or jitterbug dancing. But it is clear that the majority of people who grow up in difficult circumstances, or who go to the movies, or who dance, are not criminals but perfectly law-abiding citizens. Mr. Justice Lazure put the responsibility on the individual, and that is where it must lie. If every man or woman who had a hard time became a criminal, who among us would be honest, for there are few people who have not had hard luck of some kind at some time. Blaming society or the movies does not explain away a murder.

Tributes To Wingate

Papers which arrive at this time from England carry a great number of tributes to Major-General Orde Wingate, the mighty guerilla fighter who organized the Chindits, beat the Japs at their own game of jungle warfare, and showed that a British line regiment, recruited from city-dwellers and factory workers, could be turned into the most resourceful and tough fighting unit in the world.

Wingate was one of these great eccentrics, like Sir Richard Burton and T. E. Lawrence, who occasionally turn up in British official circles. And like all eccentrics who attempt to upset the routine of military life, his lot was not an easy one. Indeed, it was one long battle with brass-hats, until he became a brass-hat himself, and did not need to worry about criticism. Winston Churchill and Lord Wavell knew Wingate's quality, and saw that he had a reasonably free hand; lesser men did what they could to put obstacles in his way. This is what a British news diarist says about him:

"I knew Wingate enough to find some of the official eulogies rather nauseating. For on the occasion when I had a long talk with him it was mainly about the way in which the War Office refused to believe that guerilla warfare was worth anything. He had offered other proof to the contrary in Palestine and Abyssinia; he had other plans and was angry that night because his special experience seemed to him likely to be deliberately wasted. Later I heard in some detail about his part at the Quebec conversations. He always had brilliant ideas. The orthodox staff officers were always horrified or incredulous. Mr. Churchill listened with interest and excitement. He, too, is a man of imagination. But then came the difficulty. There seemed no one capable of carrying out Wingate's plans except Wingate himself. But I think some people have learnt from him since the days of Quebec".

Let us hope that something of the Wingate lesson has been learned. But we cannot hope that a successor will learn it all; the secrets of genius cannot be passed from one man to another.

Most of us spend our days half alive. If our bodies are working our minds are dormant, and vice versa. Wingate kept body and mind working at top speed for weeks on end, and then slept for days at a stretch, storing up energy, as he believed, for further feats. He was an eminently practical commander, but he was a mystic, too. This personal appraisal of him by Prof. Harold J. Laski is of value:

"Orde Wingate was a realist, tough, relentless, unbreakable. But he was a dreamer, too, with a mystic element in his character which drove him on in relentless development to an end he understood but could never have defined. He did not give himself easily, but when he did give himself he gave all that he was with a magnanimity that was almost reckless in its profusion. He read widely, and there was in him, half-shyly hidden yet omnipresent, the soul of a poet. I have heard men complain of his insistent silences, but I have listened to his tales of adventure, his portraits of men, his statements of principle, in hushed amazement at the unceasing torrent of eloquence that welled up into pictures that are unforgettable. He was a great soldier, who knew every aspect of his profession as the great artist knows every medium through which his expression may be fulfilled. But he was more than a great soldier. He was already a citizen of that greater commonwealth in which there is no denial of justice, and, not less for the humble than the eminent, the recognition of the right to freedom. For Orde Wingate, in a fundamental way, there was neither Jew nor Greek, neither bond nor free. That was the battle in which he fought so urgently, and that was the cause for which he gave his life. No one who knew him will ever forget that it was grand to be his friend, and no one who is aware of what he achieved in so brief a span of years will doubt that even the vastness of this conflict cannot prevent his name from living in our history".

Like many another good story, the full tale of Wingate's exploits will not be told until after the war. When it is told, we shall perhaps realize what a great man was among us at a time when great men were badly needed.

NOTE AND COMMENT

A philosopher remarks that there is a great deal of satisfaction in growing old. Yes, but there is less and less future in it.

A snake has made its appearance in a beverage room in Woodstock. Drinkers should be made to collect their delusions before leaving.

Farming News and Views

By HON. DUNCAN MARSHALL

LAST year a good many sweeps were built in Ontario for handling and carrying hay and the number will be greatly increased this year. Sweeps and stackers have been very generally used in Western Canada for over fifty years. In the earlier years it was a case of cutting and stacking Prairie wheat and for this purpose they were excellent. This stuff was raked into windrows, gathered with a sweep that was driven onto the long prongs of a stacker, the sweep backed away, and the stacker, operated by a horse, threw the stuff over onto the stack. Sweeps were drawn by two horses, one on each side of the windrow, and they could carry a tidy load.

I remember shipping to Alberta some good white ash scantlings and planks to make sweeps and stackers. The sills, and 3 x 6's that swung the load up had to be B.C. fir, but one of these home-made stackers or sweeps would last for years if given care.

◇ ◇ ◇

THE sweep and stacker caught on in England as most of the hay was put in "ricks" or stacks. Hay can be loaded on a wagon with a basket rack with a small stacker but it better be taken off with a horse fork as it is too tough a job for a pitch fork. In England sweeps were motivated mostly by second hand motor cars and it was not unusual, some years ago, to see a Rolls Royce or a Daimler reduced to the indignity of gathering hay. These machines had a fine supply of power and it was often the ambition of a youth to drive a Rolls Royce in a hayfield where his age was no legal bar to his operating it.

Now most sweeps in England are driven by a tractor, as one extensive hay farmer said, too many things can go wrong with a second-hand car, and haying is a very busy time. This man also makes the very apt statement that he hopes after the war we shall not spend too much time trying to turn Jeeps into farm power as he says we have enough half-used and, in many cases, quite useless machines cumbering our farm yards. Good power implements built expressly for farm work is his idea of efficiency on the land.

◇ ◇ ◇

A NUMBER of plans, including tripods of wood and iron, and waterproof caps for hay coils, have been devised for saving hay in good condition in Ontario, and as the better feeding qualities of early-cut, well-cured hay are realized the farmer feels that he must take every reasonable precaution in making hay, because he cannot always make it while the sun shines. This is more important at the present time because of the scarcity of protein-rich feed, making carefully saved alfalfa hay quite valuable for feeding more than one kind of beast on the farm. This should prove a fairly good year to hurry on to the hay when the corn and root crops are disposed of for a while at least. Haying is one of the farmer's most urgent operations.

◇ ◇ ◇

OATS and barley are now omitted from the flour milled for bread in Britain and the loaf is now to contain almost all wheat flour with a small addition of rye. The expense of hulling oats and barley for this purpose helped to bring about the change. There is no doubt about Canadian wheat being in high favour when it can be had. Its superior gluten content is valued and the absence of undue moisture is strongly in its favour. English wheat is often found to have a high moisture content in some shipments which means testing and drying before grinding, while with Canadian wheat the millers say they can grind it straight-away. The admixture of rye in the British loaf is only to be 2½ per cent. At the present time 55 per cent, and at times 60 per cent, of home grown wheat is used. Science has come forward with a new and arresting announcement that flour made of whole wheat is not as nourishing as when the bran is not all used and the rate of extraction is made 85 per cent of the whole wheat. It appears that the digestive tract of humans has the effect of extracting more calcium from 85 per cent than from 100 per cent flour, that in fact the consumption of the latter has the effect of reducing the calcium content of the body and producing ricketts in children. A leading Scottish nutritionist as well as two men of science in Eire have asserted proof of this, and now the "whole wheat" flour advocates have some explaining to do.

◇ ◇ ◇

IT has come as rather a surprise to me to learn that nearly one half the farmers in the United States are tenants. With forty-eight States in the Union, each of which has control over lease laws, there is not likely to be very great security of tenure, and frequently a lease does not last for more than two or three years. We have that difficulty also in Canada as leases are made under provincial laws. With only nine provinces there is likely to be reasonable uniformity. It is many years since Henry Ward Beecher made the statement: "The root of patriotism is property in land." There is still a great deal of truth in this utterance as the ownership of a home is something that a man is very willing to fight for. Let us hope that the Soldiers' Settlement made after this war will give these men homes on conditions which will make the struggle, they have played an important part in, seem not in vain.

◇ ◇ ◇

A BRITISH Farm paper calls attention to the fact that there is a 21 per cent reduction in the sheep of Britain from pre-war figures and adds: "Small wonder, then, that there is widespread concern, for there is no substitute for sheep." The recent export of Canadian lamb to Britain indicates another outlet for meat from our farms, and sheep as producers of wool and mutton, as well as their competency as scavengers to clean up weeds and waste, make their increase useful to farm development.

◇ ◇ ◇

THE British Minister of Agriculture has come in for a good deal of criticism for his energetic efforts. Blythe in "The Farmer and Stock-Breeder," however, says: "He will go down to posterity as one of the most successful Ministers of Agriculture of all time. He has not lacked courage: he has shown great vision: and he has got the job done." There is some talk of Mr. Hudson going to the War Office and Blythe adds: "If the Prime Minister decides to make a change, let us hope that he will recognize that in the task we have before us we need not a complacent man, but another strong one. We need leadership and drive." If a Minister of Agriculture does not give leadership he gives very little.

CAPITOLIAN VIRTUE

Some Ontario municipalities which owed money to the Ontario treasury for housing loans dating back to the other war are being forgiven their debts. Ottawa, having paid up the advance in full some years ago, does not profit, but virtue it its own reward.—Ottawa Journal.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

APPRECIATION

Editor Examiner:

Sir,—Your editorials about Canada's war effort have been a real inspiration and will do vastly more to promote unity and co-operation in our Dominion than the constant fault-finding and belittling carried on by some other Ontario papers which is driving people over to the C.C.F.

When Canada has played so great a part in this present war why should not other countries hear about it. I sincerely hope you keep up the good work.

CANADIAN.

CHRISTIE ST. HOSPITAL

Editor Examiner:

Sir,—I see by the Globe and Mail paper some people have been criticizing the Christie St. Hospital: I was there near 7 weeks, went through an operation, I was used the very best by the doctors and nurses; the hospital is in a good condition: I could not see any thing wrong; the wash rooms and toilets are kept clean by the orderlies night and day; every day or two the floors are waxed and cleaned by machines; the beds are good and clean; a patient can help a lot if he is able to walk around the hospital to help keep the place A1.

There is a lot of work and money to be spent in a hospital like Christie St.; there must be about 300 to 400 patients every day in there beside the hospital staff. I have seen dozens of this World War II vets coming in for treatments and they are looked after as soon possible each one. There is no building fire proof; as far as that goes the elevators were working all right. I don't think some M.P.'s of Ottawa know what they are taking about. I am not taking any sides on the politics of the country; what I know is true from Christie St. Hospital.

195626,
52nd Btn., World War I.

A Link With The Past

(MONTREAL GAZETTE)

THE death of Senator Rufus H. Pope breaks a living link with an old political world that had passed into the quaintness and glamour of history. For Senator Pope was the political patriarch of the Eastern Townships. Though still a member of the Senate at the time of his death, he had begun his active political career back in the 1880's, when he was elected to the House of Commons. He had known the days when the old heavy-beamed chamber on Parliament Hill had echoed to the great political voices of the past. It was a time when vigour and struggle and excitement made the political scene always picturesque and never cold. It was a scene upon which he entered with zest and in which he found his natural place.

But his almost unique political position in the Townships came not only from the fact that his own political career extended back over more than half a century, but also from the political traditions that he inherited from his father, Hon. John Henry Pope. And surely the old Parliament had few more colourful characters than Hon. John Henry Pope. A farmer, he had the direct speech and methods of rural life, and the story of his five-word address is among the enduring traditions of the Ottawa press gallery. When a minister in the cabinet of Sir John A. Macdonald, he had been accused of corruption. The Liberals hurled their accusations at him in a protracted debate. Then the Hon. John Henry Pope rose to reply. "There ain't nothing to it," he declared with great emphasis, and sat down. The matter was ended.

But the true background of Senator Pope's life lay in his attachment to the Eastern Townships. Neither his political interests at Ottawa, nor his business interests in Alberta and British Columbia interfered with his foremost profession, that of a farmer. Like his father before him, his life was centred in the county of Compton, where their ancestors had settled as United Empire Loyalists in 1798. And, like his father, it is in the traditional soil of Compton that he is to be buried.

New Zealand Casualties

In proportion to population New Zealand's figures of her men killed in this war and of total casualties are still greater than those of any other Dominion or of the Mother Country. She has lost proportionately about twice as many killed as Australia and about five times as many as Canada.

The British Isles (including Eire, whose contribution to the armed forces is substantial) have lost almost as large a proportion of men killed as New Zealand when civilian losses at home and Merchant Navy losses are included. Their losses in the armed forces are very roughly about half New Zealand's.

The disparity between New Zealand's losses and other countries is not so marked as it was when the casualty figures were last given, but the actual loss must be of terrible moment to a young country with a total population of only just over one and a half millions and with her young men still fighting both in Italy and in the Pacific. She has lost nearly one in three hundred of her total population including Maoris, and one in 143 of her total male population of all ages.—Manchester Guardian.

On Doing Without

"These are difficult times when we have have to do without the things our parents never had." Thus, with considerable truth, remarks a philosopher of the hour. Many of the things the war obliges us to do without were scarce, if not unknown, in the days of our parents, or, at least, of our grandparents. For example, extension telephones for the upstairs rooms of our homes. Grandfather and Grandmother had no telephone at all, much less telephones for upstairs rooms.

They got along, too, without a new automobile in the garage every year, or an old one, for that matter, or even a garage, let alone unlimited gasoline. As we recall, they did also without central heat always on tap, air condition, dish-washing machines, nylon hosiery, night clubs, luxury travel, flashlight batteries, camera films and gay, bright street lighting.

They may have had more butter than we are getting, but the chances are that Grandmother at her churn produced it and that, lacking an electric refrigerator, she kept it reasonably cool with the aid of the springhouse or the dooryard well. As for fresh meat, they expected it only in butchering season or when the weekly meat wagon called.

An Army sergeant is quoted as joshing the American people of the home front for the "great sacrifusses" they are making for the war. We can smile at that without believing that it applies to the great majority. Most of us realize that this total war has not yet begun to be total for us and that thus far, except for those with service stars in their windows, we are little more than spectators of the world's tragedy.—New York Times.

Willow Whistle

The Pipes of Pan are heard these earth-stirring days on country roads and rural lanes. A boy and his dog going for the cows are accompanied by a series of shrilly plaintive blasts, for the month of May is willow-whistle season.

There's an art in the construction of the instrument. It requires a craftsman's skill to make the different sizes to produce varied tunes. A country lad knows that the willows along the meadow brook are better than those whose roots find nourishment in higher ground. The juice of life runs richer and more abundantly when the tree roots can reach running water. The bark is tapped loose more easily, and when it dries after the sharp jackknife has made the clean-edge cut for the music-producing area it clings tighter to the bole as a whistle is jostled in a lad's pocket in intimate juxtaposition with a knife, nails, coloured pebbles, marbles, cut-out ads from the hunting magazines, odd pieces of twine, a few pictures of airplanes, match covers, bottle tops and a lucky coin.

A boy and a whistle are a sure sign of spring. It's likely to be the tag end, to be sure. But if the Weather Man insists on hurdling from winter into pre-summer, the willow whistle will at least remind us of the good old days when spring was a recognized season in nature's calendar.—New York Times.

Hard To Believe How Time Flies

MAY 22

1914 New pulmotor is successfully used in saving the life of C. Graecho, overcome by gas while digging a sewer.

Major G. H. Gillespie compliments the Collegiate Cadet Corps on its showing at the annual inspection.

Rain is urgently needed. The last precipitation of any account in this district was on April 28.

Rev. F. J. Sawers delivers a patriotic address as the Normal School pupils observe Empire Day.

Three members of the Peterborough ball club are fined and four others chased from the game in a fight with Umpire Walsh at London.

1924 Two degrees of frost were reported during the night, the sixth night in a row with a below-freezing temperature.

At St. John's Church 28 candidates are confirmed by Bishop Sweeny of Toronto.

Nine cans of pickerel fry are deposited in the Pigeon River by Inspector Toole.

Work on the new dam at Young's Point is halted with the water at its highest level in years.

Peterborough Symphony Orchestra gives a concert in Millbrook and the Male Voice Choir visits Cobourg.

1934 Story from St. Catharines says that the bridge over the Welland Canal at that point is being moved to Peterborough where it will span the Otonabee above the lock.

Dr. Lorna Cotton has been nominated as the C.C.F. candidate in the Durham riding.

Martin Devine, Emily, is fatally injured when a team of horses attached to a seeder runs away.

C.G.E. team takes over first place in the City Baseball League by beating the Brintons 12 to 4.

Contemporaries

NEED BETTER RINGS

As the home-canning season approaches, one of the things that figure largely in housewives' conversation is the quality of fruit jar rings. Many of them, perhaps for perfectly valid reasons, left much to be desired last year with the result that preserved fruit was spoiled. With food needed so badly this year as well, we cannot afford to let that happen again.—Brockville Recorder and Times.

WAR IN PARADISE

The first time the air raid warning sounded on Fanning Island, a mid-Pacific paradise peopled by charming healthy natives, they all flew to the slit trenches and settled down to wait.

It was a hot day so they put up gaily-coloured beach umbrellas left by peacetime visitors to keep off the rays of the sun. The horrified missionaries pointed out that the idea was rather too brilliant.

After it was over a stream of them brought their savings—£50 in all—to the British administration to give to the King to fight the war. It was invested for them in war loan and when redemption day comes they hope to realize a life's ambition. All the men want bicycles and all the women sewing machines.—Australian News-Letter.

TRAFFIC ON LAKES

The Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence River form one of the busiest waterways in the world. More traffic passes up and down the Detroit River than on any other waterway in the world. Traffic through the Detroit River reached a peak of 111,346,567 tons in 1940, the last year for which there are official figures. By the end of 1943 more than 110,000,000 tons of freight had passed through the canals at Sault Ste. Marie. In the same year more than 2,000 vessels cleared from Port Arthur and Fort William, two busiest Canadian lake ports. These figures are a long way ahead of statistics for either the Suez or Panama canals and give an indication of the importance of these routes to the Allied war effort.—London Free Press.

WEED FROM CANADA

When I was recently discussing alien wild plants which have invaded and spread through this country I might have taken an even more striking example than rayless mayweed, namely, the common American or Canadian pondweed, that luxuriant "water thyme" which makes a soft carpet for schoolboys as they wade in clear-flowing streams catching their sticklebacks.

It is said that a Cambridge professor received some specimens from a botanical friend in Canada and left them in the wash basin, where they were thrown out by a servant. A few years later a weed new to English botanists was hailed with great delight in certain reaches of the Cam, and duly given its impressive scientific name.

But it proved to be a weed common in North American streams: clearly the professor's specimens had taken root and spread. Soon the pondweed was choking canals and rivers and threatening to bring traffic to a standstill in some areas.—Yorkshire Post.

A Bible Message

The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him.... Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever. (Ps. 28: 7, 9.)

◇ ◇ ◇

I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations. (Isa. 61: 10, 11.)

◇ ◇ ◇

Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.... Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice....

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me do: and the God of peace shall be with you. (Phil. 4: 1, 4, 8, 9.)

ALLIES SMASH THROUGH RUINS—The Allied forces are smashing through Italy as this upturned German tank lying amid ruins of a village west of Castleforte, gives evidence. They are far beyond this sector now.

Seventeen Havelock Students Go To Aid Farmers

HAVELOCK, May 22 — (ENS) — Seventeen boys and girls of Havelock High School have already laid aside their books and pencils for hoes, pruning hooks, teams, tractors of general market garden work.

Six of the senior girls left a week ago for the fruit camp at Fenwick, and are Cleo Copp, Marion Forsyth, Margaret Anderson, Betty Clarke, Helen Yeo and Ruth Wilkinson. So far their work has consisted in tying up and pruning grape vines, transplanting tomato plants cutting seed potatoes, grafting fruit trees and lastly taking turns at work in a dairy. Two senior boys Clarence Price and Ross Goheen are established at "Fine Foods Camp," at Fenwick, 25 miles south-east of Windsor. At present there is 55 boy students there on a 175 acre plantation, of sparrow grass (asparagus) which has to be gone over every day, Sunday included. The camp is ideal, the meals perfect and the supervised recreation in the evenings, makes them forget about the back aches. Allan and Vernon Goheen are working for their uncle at Port Hope on a general farm; six others are on farms of their own choice—Walter Nobes works for C. Morrow, Belmont; Lloyd Brisbin for B. Elliott, Norwood; Bob Watson for C. Watson, Belmont; Ralph Young for G. Fisher near Campbellford; Ray Brownswell and Murray Wight near Trent River and Lois Fraser is assisting with the work on her parents' farm in Belmont.

These students have all completed their required courses of studies, as outlined by the Department of Education, and are offering their services to their country to alleviate the shortage of laborers.

DOES INDIGESTION WALLOP YOU BELOW THE BELT?

Help Your Forgotten "28" For The Kind Of Relief That Helps Make You Rarin' To Go

More than half of your digestion is done below the belt — in your 28 feet of bowels. So when indigestion strikes, try something that helps digestion in the stomach AND below the belt.

What you may need is Carter's Little Liver Pills to give needed help to that "forgotten 28 feet" of bowels.

Take one Carter's Little Liver Pill before and one after meals. Take them according to directions. They help wake up a larger flow of the 3 main digestive juices in your stomach AND bowels—help you digest what you have eaten in Nature's own way.

Then most folks get the kind of relief that makes you feel better from your head to your toes. Just be sure you get the genuine Carter's Little Liver Pills from your druggist — 25¢.

They Never Change

DUNGANNON, Ont., May 20 (CP).—A $1,000 note was found between the pages of a magazine collected during a waste-paper drive here. It was returned to its owner—an 80-year-old man who had forgotten he put it in the magazine "for safe keeping."

Training Of Nurses Important To War

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22 (ENS) —The important work carried on by nurses in war and peace was the subject of an address by Miss E. Young, superintendent of nurses, Nicholls Hospital, Peterborough, guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Seymour West Women's Institute held at the home of Mrs. Fred Rutherford.

The president, Mrs. R. A. Rutherford, in opening the meeting urged members to remember paper salvage. Five dollars was donated to the Jam for Britain Fund and $1 to the Tuberculosis Fund. Mrs. H. Hoard and Mrs. F. McKelvie were appointed as delegates to the Rehabilitation meeting, and Mrs. Reg. McCullough gave a report on war work.

Miss Young said that nursing was war work with a future, that training was always valuable, that it was a duty to prevent disease. She gave a resume of the work carried on by Nicholls Hospital. Miss Young said that behind every front line soldier must stand eighteen healthy Canadians and urged the training of nurses as part of our post war planning. For the program, Mrs. R. McCullough was asked to take the chair. Mrs. Charles Macoun gave a reading and Mrs. Don Rutherford a solo. This was followed by the Grandmothers serving old fashioned tea and biscuits to the forty-two guests who were present.

TO WORK IN EUROPE

LONDON — (CP) — British A. T. S. and Waafs will work in the rehabilitation of Europe. U.N.R.R.A. has asked for volunteers from the women's services "to help in the job of tidying war ravaged territory." It is emphasized that no one will be released for this work, "until second front needs are met."

PEAT OUTPUT DOUBLED

STOCKHOLM — (CP) — Sweden's peat bogs have been of great value during the war, when the country largely has had to rely upon her domestic fuels. During 1943 production of peat amounted to about 1,200,000 tons, twice the figure for the preceeding year.

BEST KNOWN for helping clear up blackheads and PIMPLES
Try it!
CUTICURA OINTMENT

A Pimple Covered Face Kills Many a Romance

The lives of many young people are made miserable by the breaking out of pimples, and you probably know of cases where a promising romance has been spoiled by those red, white, festering and pus filled sores on the face.

The trouble is not so much physical pain, but the mental suffering caused by the embarrassing disfigurement which very often makes the sufferer ashamed to go out in company.

The quickest way to get rid of pimples is to improve the general health by a thorough cleansing of the blood.

Burdock Blood Bitters helps to cleanse the blood and with the blood cleansed the complexion should clear up.

The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Thank You--- Mrs. Consumer!

We welcome the opportunity afforded us by MRS. CONSUMER WEEK to express our appreciation of Canadian women shoppers who are cooperating splendidly with the wartime policy of economic stabilization; and we thank our customers for buying only what they really need . . . for dealing only with established businesses and refusing to tolerate Black Markets . . . for patience with inexperienced help . . . for observing wartime restrictions on deliveries . . . for cheerfully making other things do, when there are shortages in lines of merchandise to which they have been long accustomed. Again we say: THANK YOU, MRS. CONSUMER, FOR YOUR SPLENDID COOPERATION.

ZELLER'S

Retailers to Thrifty Canadians

Enlargement SPECIAL

The beauty and charm of your own Favorite Snapshots is enhanced many times when enlarged

To Size 6" x 8" and Mounted in Attractive ARGO FOLDER

57c

Colored in Oils 55¢ Extra

TAMBLYN

Suggests Practical Economy

One of the greatest problems facing the average woman of today is that of the supply of "stockings," and "runs" are indeed prevalent and noticeable everywhere. With the advent of the warm weather, however, a certain respite may be gained, for once again Science has come to the rescue and "Stockings out of a bottle" or "Leg Do's" are now recognized as a satisfactory replacement, giving a most excellent appearance and necessitating but little extra time or attention. Indeed "liquid stockings" are ideal as a leg covering and are rapidly becoming equally popular with maid and matron. Your Tamblyn Drug Store in line with their regular policy are prepared to meet the demand for this type of product and have available for your selection a number of the better known brands, each of them of proven merit and at most economical prices. As a guide to your choice a few have also been included in this list of

Suggestions and Bargains for the Balance of the Week

PARFINOL
Intestinal Lubricant
16 oz. Reg. 53c 43¢
40 oz. Reg. 98c 79¢

For the Stockingless Vogue
Du Barry Powder Lotion 1.00
Dorothy Gray Leg-Show 1.00
Duration Leg-Do 49¢

SUPER-LATHER SHAVING CREAM
Softens The Toughest Beard
Special 19¢

Are You Pie-Minded?

If you are, you'll like this special.

RHUBARB CUSTARD PIE

Temperature: 450° F.—15 minutes, 350° F.—30 minutes.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| | Rich pastry | 1 | teaspoon grated lemon rind |
| 1 | egg | | |
| ¾ | cup white sugar | 1 | tablespoon corn starch |
| ⅛ | teaspoon salt | | |
| 3 | cups diced rhubarb | | |

Line a 9" pie pan with rich pastry. Beat the egg till light; add the sugar, the salt, grated lemon rind, the corn starch, and the rhubarb. Mix well and pour into the unbaked crust. Cover with a criss-cross lattice work of pastry. Bake in a hot oven for fifteen minutes; reduce the heat and continue baking till the rhubarb is tender.

Your Tamblyn Broadcast is on the air each morning at 10:30 a.m., Monday through Friday, CFRB.

MILK OF MAGNESIA
Relieves Acid Indigestion
20 oz. Reg. 39c 29¢
32 oz. Reg. 59c 43¢

Bile Beans — Tone Up the System 47c

BETAMIN
High Potency Vitamin B Complex Tablets
1.00
1.75-3.00

SQUIBB VIGRAN Capsules
Contain Vitamin A-B-C-D and Riboflavin
25's 1.35
50's 2.50
100's 4.65

Home Needs

Ivory Soap — Medium Size — 3 for 17¢
Apple Blossom Bath Soap — 2 for 23¢
MOTH-KIL — 1 lb. Carton 33¢
TAMBLYN FLOOR WAX — Gives Your Floors a New High Gloss, Lustrous Finish — Durable & Economical — 1-lb. Tin Special 29c
Palmolive — Large Size — 3 for 23¢
Climax Cleaner — 24 oz. Size 44¢
Oxydol 23¢
CHIPSO 23¢
EPSOM SALTS For Bathing — 5-lb. pkg., Reg. 49c 39¢ — 10-lb. pkg., Reg. 79c 69¢
LUX Toilet Soap — 2 for 11¢

Pfunder's TABLETS for HYPERACID STOMACHS — TRIAL SIZE $1.50

FITCH DANDRUFF REMOVER SHAMPOO 69¢

DR. A. W. CHASE'S K. & L. KIDNEY AND LIVER PILLS — 35¢ a Box

Men's Requisites

| | |
|---|---|
| GILLETTE BLADES, 5's | 25¢ |
| AUTO-STROP BLADES, 5's | 25¢ |
| VALOR SHAVING STICKS | 29¢ |
| VALOR SHAVING LOTION | 39¢ |
| VALOR SHAVING BOWLS | 49¢ |
| LILAC LOTION, Mentholated | 19¢ |
| SHAVING BRUSHES— | 75¢, 1.00, 1.10, 2.00 |

CASHMERE TISSUE — 3 Rolls 25c

ASPIRIN TABLETS — 18¢ 29¢ 79¢

ZAM-BUK OINTMENT — Soothes TIRED, ACHING FEET 47c — Excellent for CUTS, BURNS, BRUISES

"FOOT REMEDIES"

| | |
|---|---|
| ABSORBINE Jr. | 98¢-1.95 |
| CRESS CORN SALVE | 50¢ |
| PENETRINE | 59¢ |
| BLUE-JAY CORN REMEDY | 25¢ |
| SANTAX FOOT POWDER | 19¢ |
| FREEZONE | 32¢ |
| SCHOLL CORN AND BUNION PADS | 35¢ |

Summer Salines

KRUSCHEN SALTS — Has Helped Thousands Get Relief From Constipation Rheumatic Pains Headaches — 69¢
ALKA-SELTZER 29¢-57¢
ENO'S FRUIT SALT — Keeps You in the Picture of Health — 59c-98c
ENGLISH STYLE HEALTH SALTS — Mildly Laxative — Cooling and Refreshing — Pleasant to Take — 1-lb. Tin 43c
BROMO-SELTZER — For Headaches and Neuralgia — 25¢ 49¢
KKOVAH SALTS — The Good Morning Tonic — 29c-79c
SAL HEPATICA — Alkalizes the System — Relieves Rheumatic Pains — 30¢ 1.15

PEPSODENT — Floats film away — 45¢

For Eye Protection SUN GOGGLES — 25¢-35¢-50¢ 59¢-75¢-1.50

PAR-OL AGAR — Relieves Chronic Constipation — Special 63¢ 1.19

SAPHO LIQUID — Exterminates Moths Mosquitoes Bed Bugs (Odorless) — 8 oz. 24¢—16 oz. 43¢

SALOTYN TABLETS — For the Relief of Headaches Rheumatism Neuralgia — Bottles of 100 Reg. 39c 33¢ 2 for 65¢

KOTEX — Can't Chafe Fail or Show — 12's 25¢ 48's 98¢

BIS-CARB-CO — For Stomach Acidity and Indigestion — Relieves Heartburn — Reg. 49c 39¢

339 GEORGE STREET PETERBOROUGH

STORE HOURS: 8.30 a.m. to 10 p.m. Daily — Saturday, 8.30 a.m. to 11 p.m.

TELEPHONE 9901

ENTERTAIN FORCES—Pictured above in their overseas uniforms are Lily Pons and her husband, noted conductor Andre Kostelanetz, who have arrived in European theatre to entertain the armed forces.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS

By The Canadian Press

An all-time betting mark was rung up at Belmont Park Saturday when 40,732 customers at the New York track wagered $3,562,771 during the eight-race card. Another track where mutuel take went over the million was Suffolk Downs, the total wager of 30,000 fans being $1,197,270. At 10 tracks throughout the United States, the combined attendance was 169,630 and they had $8,353,440 in cash for the wickets for an aggregate of 81 races. At Detroit, where fair grounds opened for the season, the bets of 25,630 patrons totalled $603,392 this showing being exceeded at both Lincoln fields, Chicago, and Bay Meadows where the waggering was $938,781 and $828,379 respectively.

Who Goes There, owned by George Widner of Philadelphia, romped home as a 19-to-1 outsider to win the Withers mile at Belmont Park Saturday four lengths in front of By Jimmy, covering the course in 1.36.

The Gale Trophy, emblematic of the Canadian Ornamental swimming championship was won Saturday at Toronto by Marjorie Bradshaw of Montreal in defeating Jean Mowat of Toronto, defending champion, the runner-up being Evelyn Buchanan of Toronto.

Plans were completed yesterday at a meeting of Major league heads with Commissioner K. M. Landis at Pittsburgh for the all-star game to be players at Forbes Field Tues. night, July 11, with Billy Southward and Joe McCarthy as opposing managers. Proceeds will be devoted to buying baseball equipment for the U.S. armed forces.

Combined attendance at the eight major league baseball doubleheaders was 189,867.

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

Commenting on the fact that our lawn bowling will not get under way until Thursday, June 1st some of the bowlers think that this will establish an all time record, but that is not the case.

Looking back through the scrap book we find that in the year 1940 we never tossed a bowl down the greens until June 3rd. There had been a lot of rain and the greens were just too soft to play on before the above date.

The schedule books are off the press and are now ready for distribution. Members may receive their book if they call at H. Freeman's shop, Simcoe street.

And while we may be a little later than usual with our bowling, yet the committees are still working. On Friday night last the open tournament committee met and made arrangements for the first open tournament of the season. Men's doubles on Wednesday, June 14th. This is just a fore-runner. We'll have more information later.

We understand that some of our bowlers have made their entry for the tournament to be held on the Canada Club greens, Toronto on Saturday, June 3rd.

Complete Auto Service
MOTOR REPAIR. BODY BUMPING, REPAINTING
J. J. DUFFUS CO.
Tel. 5757

SAVE ON SHAVES
With Minora Blades!
Minora outlasts ordinary double-edged razor blades. It's the quality blade in the low-price field.

SPORTS-Day by Day

By FRED D. CRAIG

When Westclox and Aircraft take the field at the Ashburnham Bowl tonight in the opening game of the Girls' Softball League the fans are going to see considerable changes in the lineups of the two outfits. Manager Ab Delahaye of Westclox has been forced to shift his battle array by reason of the fact that three well-known performers of last season are not available and as a result the Big Bens will start the campaign with an infield in which none of the players occupied the same post last season. Nona Whetung will play first base, Joyce Withers who was with Johnson Motors last year will be at second, Viola McLean has been moved from the keystone corner to third and Marg Hawthorne shifted from third to short. Isobel Bullock is the pitching selection with Jean Castle doing the catching. Coach Dave Wilson of Aircraft also announces a few changes. The battery will be the same with Norma Strickland doing the pitching and Annette De Carlo behind the bat. In the infield will be Eleanor Craig, Marg Batley, Audrey Patterson, Helen Hunt and Phyllis Bigelow and in the outfield Marg Barrie, Marg Selkirk, June Moore, Irma Perdue, Marg Lynch and Evelyn Rehill. The game will get under way at 6.45 o'clock and there will be a real opening night crowd on hand to see the season ushered in.

* * * * * *

Action in the Men's City League tonight calls for the St. Peter's team, new entrants in the loop this season to meet the powerful Switchgear outfit which started the season by home-running a win over the champion Plazas and figure on doing about the same thing at the expense of other City League clubs as the schedule unwinds. Manager Chambers' team has a lot of batting strength and are undoubtedly formidable opposition. St. Peter's lineup has not been announced but the Catholic League winners of last season played good ball in that loop and the Saints will undoubtedly come up with a fighting club. Harrison gets the call as the Switchgear gunner for the night. Tomorrow night the Military Training Centre will make their 1944 debut in a game against the Plazas and it should prove an interesting tussle. Soldiers have a number of last year's team still in action and the gaps will be filled by new-comers. Plazas who lost the opening game will be out to redeem themselves by a win over the Training Centre. Terry Woods is the likely Plaza pitcher for the Tuesday night tussle.

* * * * * *

The Yanks Again

In a rash of baseball over the week-end the New York Yankees did quite nicely by themselves by walloping the St. Louis Browns three straight games, thus, of course, knocking the Brownies off the top shelf with a bang. Walter Dubiel started the trio of wins Saturday by pitching a four-hitter and defeating St. Louis with five-game-winner Jack Kramer on the rubber 3 to 2. The New Yorkers came back with a double win on Sunday, the first a tight tussle that went 12 innings before the Yanks took the argument by scoring two runs to win 4 to 3 and the second a walkaway. Hank Borowy was the winner in the first, his fifth triumph as against one defeat while Page took the marbles in the second. Boston Red Sox grabbed off a pair from Chicago yesterday with Tex Hughson who has hit his stride picking off his fourth win, 4 to 3, in the first game and old Mike Ryba getting credit for the second which the Red Sox took 9 to 2. Bobby Derr had his third homer of the season in the second contest. One of the pitching classics of Saturday was the work of the old curveball maestro of the Cleveland Indians who shut out the Philadelphia A's with three hits. Harder cannot work as often as he used to but he has won four games this season and they haven't beaten him yet.

* * * * * *

In the National loop a pitcher not unknown to Toronto fans, Nick Strincevich who was with the Leafs last season has also picked off four wins without a defeat. He held the Philadelphia Bluejays to seven hits Saturday and the Pirates won 4 to 3. Another Saturday feature was the fact that Paul Derringer of the Chicago Cubs who had had five losses without a win finally broke into the victory column by beating the Boston Braves 3 to 2. Detroit's two victories over Washington Sunday 2 to 1 and 9 to 1 were a Sunday highlight in the American League. Dizzy Trout won the first game against Johnny Niggeling and Hal Newhouser garnered his fifth win by outpitching Wolfe, Candini and company in the second fixture. Cincinnati Reds gave the Dodgers a double shellacking 5 to 3 and 6 to 5. Ed Heusser was the pitching hero in the first triumph, with Bucky Walters, going in in a relief capacity getting the credit for the second. Les Webber who has yet to win a game for the Bums this season was the losing Brooklyn gunner in the second affray.

* * * * * *

Chin-Lock or Giant Swing

Killer John Katan and Frankie Sexton will be working at opposite ends when they tie into each other in the main bout of the Tunney wrestling circus at the Brock St. Arena Tuesday night. Katan's favorite hold is a chin-lock, a grip he has used successfully against many tough opponents. On the other hand the Columbus boy who holds the Pacific Coast championship counts considerably on his spectacular giant swing and that calls for Sexton to grab his opponent by the ankles and whirl him around in the air. Neither of course may get a chance to use his specialty for the battle is likely to be a grim affair. Katan comes back from the Boston district with a worse reputation for ruthlessness in the ring than he had been before if that were possible and he has been the storm centre of many a wild mat engagement across the line. However he is meeting a foeman who has successfully disposed of a whole platoon of bad men and who believes that Katan will not be a bit tougher than some of the others he has put away. Promoter Tunney has arranged a good supporting bill with rotund Nick Elitch matched with the Toronto strong man Bunny Dunlop and Cliff Bell a new mat artist from Syracuse matching grips with the fast-moving Johnny Gyroffy, late of the R.C.A.F.

* * * * * *

Peterborough's two golf clubs, Peterborough and Kawartha, staged successful openings in ideal weather Saturday and launched what promises to be a good season in spite of wartime conditions. There was an encouraging attendance at both courses and a feature noted was the number of new members who took part in the opening contests. Both Peterborough and Kawartha have many activities planned for the season and from now until the heavy frosts set in next fall both courses should be popular places. A feature of Saturday's competition at Kawartha was that the golfers were running true to form. Thus Fraser Dunfield, city and Kawartha champion last season won the low gross honors with a sparkling 74, just three over par and Charlie Low, who held both titles in 1942, was right behind with 76 and took the first low net prize.

* * * * * *

Sporting Chili Con Carne: Aircraft of the Girls' City Softball League are staging a dance in the Brock St. Summer Gardens on May 31 with a draw for a suit donated by I. Black....All the players of the various teams in the league will be guests so that it will be a real softball evening. ....Toronto Leafs spent a dismal Sunday being hammered twice by the thundering Buffalo Bisons who have climbed into first place in the International League....Frankie Colman, London boy with the Pittsburg Pirates came through with a pinch-triple to drive in the winning run in the first game of yesterday's double-header with Philadelphia....The Pirates took both ends of the twin bill....Red Schoendienst, star shortstop of the Rochester Red Wings is through with baseball for the duration....He was inducted into the United States army today....Chicago Cubs found their batting eye Sunday and walloped the Boston Braves 15 to 1 and 14 to 5....Mel Ott had his fourth homer of the season in the secnod game yesterday....The Giants' manager was filling in at first base for his club.

UGANDAN GROWS MAIZE

KAMPALA — (CP) — Uganda, which has never before grown maize, and had been dependent on Kenya for supplies, produced 245,000 bags of it in 1943.

Use Boxing Bout To Sell Bonds

HOUSTON, Texas, May 22—(AP)—A $1,000,000 gate is a novelty in boxing—or was.

Down here they're planning to click the turnstiles at the rate of $20,000,000 June 21, and they claim that would be the biggest "draw" in fight history.

Principals in the extravaganza of cash and socks are Cpl. Al. Hostak, twice middleweight champion of the world, and Cpl. Glenn Lee, formerly No. 1 contender for the crown.

The 10-round bout will be the feature of a boxing carnival in connection with a war loan drive. Admission will be by bond purchase only with 11,000 seats scaled from $25 in the balcony to $50,000 a pair for ringsides. The total, if all seats are filled—and the committee has no doubt they will be—will reach $20,000,000.

The Elks Lodge, sponsoring the show, will pay the purses of the fighters and all other expenses.

Navy Training Hardens Kramer

NEW YORK, May 22 — (AP). — A six-month stay with the Seabees in the United States Navy has converted Jack Kramer of the St. Louis Browns into one of the best pitchers in the major leagues today.

In an interview Kramer declared his rigorous training with the Seabees has taught him the value of keeping in condition. He disclosed that it was because of his not being in shape that he was shipped down the river by the Browns at the end of the 1942 season.

This season Kramer spearheaded the St. Louis drive which enabled the Browns to tie the major league consecutive victory record at the start of the season by winning their first nine games. Jack won five times before he lost because of the poor support.

After his honorable discharge from the Navy last summer due to a sinus disorder, Kramer was optioned by the Browns to Toledo, where he pitched the Mudhens into the American Association playoffs.

Sports Menu

Men's City League

St. Peter's vs. Switchgear, 6:45 o'clock, Riverside Park.

Ladies' City League:

Westclox vs. Aircraft, East City Bowl, 6:45 o'clock.

Additional Sport Pages 7, 13

The Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP) — Spring fever department . . . This columnist can hear with no serious increases in blood pressure that the ice is out in the Maine Lakes and the landlocked salmon and togue are striking furiously; that in Winconsin big pike are almost jumping into the boats; even that anglers at Peconic Bay are hauling in weakfish by the dozen and a big run of blues is reported heading north . . . But this note from Dave up at Freedom village is almost too much to endure.

Just Fishin'

"Today I went fishing," Dave writes. "I dug some worms and started in at the village dam with the intention to fish down to the outlet. After 15 minutes, I felt a helluva jerk and then a few more, so I pulled in a 12-inch rainbow. No kidding, right in the brook directly behind the store . . . The bugs are beginning to bite badly, but now I was determined that nothing would deter me. It really was beautiful down by the stream; the apple blossoms are all out and the brook is just high enough. Everything was perfect . . . Down by Sim's I got another bite and another beautiful trout broke the water and played around before I stuck him in my basket—12½ inches . . . The time is here; the fish are biting; the weather is great; tomorrow for breakfast I shall have a little rainbow trout . . . Spring only comes once a year; why don't you come, too, for a few outin's?"

P.S.: If this column turns up missing for a few days, you'll know where I am.

Across Perilous Seas

LOADED, she has the freeboard of a half tide rock, in ballast she towers high above the water. Her general appearance varies from streamlined beauty to the lines of stark utility. She is a tanker. But whether loaded with phlegmatic Bunker "C", volatile aviation spirit, or lubricating oil—or whether she be in ballast—one cargo she always carries, and that is COURAGE. This cargo is carried in the hearts of her personnel, and is distributed from crow's nest to stokehold plates.

Inside her hull there are three million or more gallons of liquid fire. Much of the crude oil carried by the Imperial Oil tanker fleet will be made into products for the fighting forces in Canada and Newfoundland. The navies and the oil burning merchant marine of the United Nations operating from ports on the Atlantic Coast of Canada are supplied from Imperial Oil refineries. On the Pacific Coast too, Imperial Oil Limited supplies a large share of similar requirements.

So next time you cheer the victories of our fighting fleets of ships and planes and tanks, remember the silent struggle of this other fleet . . . the unsung tanker service.

IMPERIAL PRODUCTS

IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED

Killer Katan Is Back; Still Menace

Two of the strongest and most powerful wrestlers of the current decade will be seen in the main bout of the Brock Arena Tuesday card when peerless Frank Sexton hooks up with big John Katan. Katan who is known in Boston as "the Killer" has just returned from the erudite Back Bay atmosphere but reports indicate that the big Ukrainian-Canadian has not reformed one bit. Katan is tough and everybody in wrestling knows it. Plenty of the large matmen prefer to avoid him just as they would rather not meet Karl Davis. John "The Arm" Katan has a streak of destructive meanness in him that has meant staying on the sidelines for many of his opponents.

But on Tuesday night here Katan's opponent will be the superlatively clever and splendidly-conditioned Frank Sexton, the Pacific Coast champion. Sexton won his title in open competition and in three years of constant campaigning has yet to meet defeat. It is doubtful if any other matman can boast of such a remarkable record. Wild Bill Longson held such a position until he was man-handled by Whipper Billy Watson in St. Louis recently, but Sexton has no such spot on his white escutcheon. However that is not to say that the same will hold good after Tuesday. Katan's memorable fight with Gentleman Jack Claybourne here last fall clearly demonstrated the type of ruthless matman the Palermo Pryer can be. Meeting Sexton and trying the same stuff on him should result in a spectacle worth seeing. A stirring supporting card includes a fracas between Nick Elitch and Bunny Dunlop and Cliff Bell of Syracuse and Johnny Gyroffy the ex-airman.

Wed 3rd Time

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., May 22 —(AP)—In a simple private ceremony Paulette Goddard, film star, was married yesterday to Capt. Burgess Meredith of the United States Army Air Forces, former screen and stage actor. It was the third marriage for each.

This Week
SUMMER GARDENS
PETERBOROUGH
MONDAY
ROLLER SKATING
TUESDAY
WRESTLING
WEDNESDAY
Ozzie Williams and His Band
FRIDAY
DANCING
"Melody Men"
SATURDAY
DANCING
"MELODY MEN"

Wrestling At It's Best!
Don't Miss This!
JOHN KATAN
PALERMO PANTHER
vs.
FRANK SEXTON
COLUMBUS POWERHOUSE
SEMI-FINAL
NICK ELITCH vs. BUNNY DUNLOP
FIRST BOUT
CLIFF BELL vs. JOHNNIE GYROFFY
Brock St. Arena
Tomorrow 8.45

Canadian Sport Snapshots

By SYD THOMAS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, May 22 — (CP). — The ceremony and color attending English race meets may be all right for the British, but not for rough-and-ready Canadian followers of the sport, opines one of the Canucks who has just returned from eyeing the British circuits. Cpl. Tommy Ramsay, who used to work with the starter's crew at Victoria Park, Calgary, viewed the overseas pony-goes with interest but came back to report he likes the way it's done here.

Being in the starting business himself, that end of the game took his eye and he noted with relish the high hat and frock coat the English starter wore as he drove in style to the post in an old-time victoria. And the corporal couldn't held but conjure up a picture of Victoria Park's Jim Donovan or some other Canadian starter dogged up in soup-and-fish and addressing the jockeys as "Mister" as done in England.

Those rowdy Canadian crowds would kid the swallowtail coat off any unfortunate if he tried it.

Monday matinee:
Bill Durnan, iceberg netminder of Montreal Canadiens, broke into the lecture game the other night when he gave youngsters a talk on softball fundamentals at a "sport clinic' in Montreal. Bill reiterated what he has never kept a secret, that softball and not hockey, is his favorite sport. They say he's even better as a pitcher than as a goalie....Speaking of softball they must have an old-fashioned team at Windsor, Ont. Manager Mike Patrick of the Dayus Mic Macs claims he has the best bunch of bunters ever assembled on one team at Windsor. And bunting as a practice has been none too common of late years, in baseball or softball....In Winnipeg, President Tom O'Brien of the lacrosse organization waxes enthusiastic about boxla prospects. He says the game can be completely revived in a year, and that it will be a major sport in Manitoba by the end of the war......It must be the Brooklyn Dodgers' influence, but Montreal Royals are adopting white satin uniforms and caps for better night visibility. Montreal fans will adopt as their theme song, that heart-stirring old favorite, "Our Boys Will Shine To-night."

Baseball Results and Record

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Buffalo | 14 | 9 | .609 |
| Rochester | 15 | 10 | .600 |
| Syracuse | 12 | 9 | .571 |
| Montreal | 12 | 12 | .500 |
| Toronto | 11 | 11 | .500 |
| Jersey City | 12 | 12 | .478 |
| Baltimore | 9 | 12 | .429 |
| Newark | 8 | 17 | .320 |

Sunday's Results

Buffalo 9-7, Toronto 4-3.
Montreal 6-2, Rochester 5-11.
Jersey City 3-0, Newark 0-1.
Syracuse 8-1, Baltimore 4-2.

Saturday's Results

Toronto 5-4, Montreal 2-7.
Buffalo 3, Rochester 1.
Baltimore 7, Jersey City 8.
Newark 9, Syracuse 8.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| St. Louis | 21 | 9 | .700 |
| Cincinnati | 17 | 11 | .607 |
| Pittsburgh | 14 | 10 | .583 |
| Philadelphia | 12 | 13 | .480 |
| New York | 13 | 16 | .448 |
| Boston | 14 | 18 | .438 |
| Brooklyn | 12 | 16 | .429 |
| Chicago | 8 | 18 | .308 |

Sunday's Results

aCincinnati 5-6, Brooklyn 3-5.
bPittsburgh 4-4, Philadelphia 3-9.
cChicago 15-14, Boston 1-5.
St. Louis 10-5, New York 3-7.
a—Second game, 10 innings.
b—Second game called after 7½ innings; darkness.
c—Second game called after 8 innings; to be completed at later date.

Saturday's Results

Philadelphia 3, Pittsburgh 4.
Brooklyn 6, Cincinnati 1.
Boston 2, Chicago 3.
New York 0, St. Louis 10.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| New York | 17 | 10 | .630 |
| St. Louis | 17 | 15 | .531 |
| Washington | 15 | 14 | .517 |
| Detroit | 15 | 16 | .484 |
| Boston | 14 | 15 | .483 |
| Philadelphia | 14 | 15 | .483 |
| Cleveland | 14 | 17 | .452 |
| Chicago | 13 | 17 | .433 |

Sunday's Results

Detroit 2-7, Washington 1-1.
Boston 4-9, Chicago 3-2.
New York 4-8, St. Louis 3-1.
xCleveland 5-2, Philadelphia 4-3.
x—First game, 11 innings.

Saturday Results

Cleveland 5, Philadelphia 0.
St. Louis 2, New York 3.
Chicago 1, Boston 8.
Detroit 6, Washington 2.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Sunday's Results

Columbus 12-5, Kansas City 10-2.
x Toledo 3-2, Milwaukee 2-4.
Louisville 15-6, St. Paul 3-8.
Indianapolis 5-3, Minneapolis 4-2.

Saturday's Results

St. Paul 4, Indianapolis 0.
Louisville 4, Minneapolis 2.
Columbus 4, Milwaukee 3.
Kansas City at Toledo—Postponed.

MOVIE TIME TABLE

Centre—"A Night To Remember," 1.30, 4.20, 7.10, 10.00; "Mr. Mugg Steps Out", 3.13, 6.05, 8.55.

Capitol—"Mr. Deeds Goes To Town", 2.10, 5.30, 9.00; "What's Buzzin' Cousin", 4.10, 7.35.

Regent—"Murder On the Waterfront", 1.30, 3.25, 5.25, 7.25, 9.30; "How's About It", 2.15, 4.15, 6.15, 8.20, 10.25.

OUR STORE WILL BE CLOSED
All Day Wednesday
MAY 24th
PRATTEN
HARDWARE
396 George St. Phone 7523

Detroit Takes 2 Games From Senators

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Detroit Tigers nudged the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals out of the major league limelight yesterday. The Bengals swept a doubleheader from Washington to run their winning streak to six straight and climb into the American League first division. Dizzy Trout and Hal Newhouser turned in two fine pitching performances to whip the Senators 2-1 and 7-1 at Washington.

Meanwhile the Yankees twice beat the St. Louis Browns at Yankee Stadium, before 59,161, largest crowd of the season. The Yanks took the opener 4-3 in 12 innings when George Caster forced home the winning run by walking Johnny Lindell with the bases loaded. The nightcap was comparatively easy for the Bronx Bombers, 8-1.

The Cardinals, breezing along in the National League top spot, walloped the New York Giants at St. Louis 10-3 in the first game, but the Giants took the nightcap 7-5. Giants manager Mel Ott hit his first homer away from the Polo Grounds in two years.

Charley Grimm's Chicago Cubs surprised by blasting the Boston Braves 15-1 and 14-5 at Wrigley Field.

The Boston Red Sox wound up their home stand by whipping the Chicago White Sox twice, 4-3 and 9-2, to sweep a four-game series. The double setback dumped the Sox into the cellar.

Cincinnati shoved Brooklyn deeper into seventh place in the National loop by winning a doubleheader, 5-3 and 6-5. Gee Walker's single with two out won the nightcap, which went 10 innings.

Cleveland made it three straight over Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics by taking the first game of a twin bill, 5-4, in 11 innings but dropped the nightcap, 3-2, on Steve Gromek's wild pitch in the eighth.

Frank Colman's pinch triple in the eighth gave Pittsburgh a 4-3 triumph over the Phillies in the first game of their twin bill at Pittsburgh. The Phils were ahead, 9-4, in the second game when it was called after the eighth inning because of the Sunday curfew law. The last inning will be played the next time the Phils visit Pittsburgh. Until then the game does not count in the standings.

No major league games were scheduled today.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press.

At New York three years ago tonight, Gus Lesnevich, rugged New Jersey Russian, won the National Boxing Association version of the world's light heavyweight title by defeating Anton Christofordis, a Greek, who had been in the United States for a year, in 15 tough rounds.

SUBs FOR ADHESIVE TAPE

COLOMBO, Ceylon — (CP) — Rubber research staffs have produced a substitute for adhesive tape for rubber bud grafting. The substitute will represent a substantial saving of the adhesive tape which has to be imported.

HARVARD CREW—25 YEARS LATER—Twenty-five years later, Gov. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts return to the Charles River with his Harvard crew of 1919, and goes for a spin. The Crimson crew of '19 lines up with Saltonstall at bow; James Talcott, No. 2; Henry H. Myer, No. 3; H. S. Middendorf, No. 4; J. W. Middendorf, No. 5; Dr. D. P. Morgan, No. 6; Louis Curtis, No. 7; Dr. Charles Lund, stroke, and Coxswain Lieut.-Col. Henry Kreger.

Buffalo Bisons Sweep Double Bill From Toronto Leafs On Sunday

By the Associated Press.

The Buffalo Bisons and Al (Red) Schoendienst of the Rochester Red Wings shared the spotlight in the International League yesterday.

The Bisons, playing at home and under the helm of Bucky Harris, former major league manager, won both games of a double-header from Toronto, 9-4 and 7-3 before 9,591, to jump from third place to the top of the loop.

Eddie Kobesky, Bison outfielder, took the lead in the home run derby, hitting his sixth in the opener. Rookie Zeb Eaton and Emery Hresko, two youngsters recently sent down by the Detroit Tigers, received credit for their first victories.

Schoendienst, last year's champion batter with a mark of .337, and currently leading the league with a batting average of .386, played his last game for the duration for Red Birds. He is scheduled to enter the United States Army to-day.

Red made three hits and scored three runs as Rochester split with Montreal to drop to second place. The visiting Royals won the first 6-5, but Rochester broke a five-game losing streak to take the nightcap 11-2.

Jersey City and Newark swapped shutouts, the Little Giants winning the opener 3-0 and the Bears taking the second 1-0. Two Kens, Miller of Jersey City and Holcombe of Newark, pitched the shutouts, Miller yielding six hits and Holcombe but two.

Syracuse slipped to third place by dividing a pair of games with Baltimore, the Chiefs belting out an 8-4 victory in the first, and the Orioles winning the second 2-1.

Major League Leaders

By The Associated Press

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Batting—Tucker, Chicago, .395.
Runs—R. Johnson, Boston, 26.
Runs Batted In— Stephens St. Louis, and Tabor, Boston, 22.
Hits—Doerr, Boston, and Torres, Washington, 38.
Doubles—Doerr Boston 11.
Triples—Gutteridge, St. Louis, 5.
Home Runs—Seerey, Cleveland, 6.
Stolen Bases— Stirnweiss, New York, 8.
Pitching—Hardner, Cleveland, 4-0.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Batting—Walker, Brooklyn, .421.
Runs—Bordgarary, Brooklyn, 25.
Runs Batted In—Schultz, Dodgers, 33.
Hits — Walker, Brooklyn, and Holmes, Boston 48.
Doubles—Holmes, Boston, 13.
Triples—Barrett, Pittsburg, 6.
Home Runs—Schultz, Brooklyn, 6.
Stolen Bases—Macon Boston, 6.
Pitching—Lanier, St. Louis 6-0.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press

Lou Boudreau Indians, and Jesse Flores, Athletics—Boudreau's homer in 11th won opener for Cleveland; Flores pitched Philadelphia to even split, limiting Indians to four hits.

Dizzy Trout and Rudy York, Tigers—Trout scattered eight Washington blows to win ouener 2-1; York smashed single, double and home run to lead Tigers to double win.

Bob Johnson and Bob Doerr, Red Sox—Johnson's three hits, including home run, won opener for Boston, 4-3; Doerr hit home run with two on in first inning of nightcap to lead Red Sox to double victory.

Roy Hughes and Dom Dallessandro, Cubs— Hughes drove in five runs in opener with double and triple; Dallessandro led Cubs to double win over Braves by making four hits in nightcap.

RAND'S CHIEF CITY

JOHANNESBURG — (CP) — The city of Johannesburg has 393 public buildings including 245 churches. The total population is 584,000.

What's On the Air

| Stations | Kilocycles |
|---|---|
| CHEX | 1430 |
| CBL | 740 |
| CFRB | 860 |
| WEAF | 660 |
| WJZ | 770 |
| WABC | 880 |

Symbols: D—Drama, M—Musical, R—Religious, S—Songs, T—Talk, V—Variety, N—News

This Program has been given the Peterborough Examiner by stations herein listed. If the presentations as scheduled are not on the air, the fault lies with the stations and not with the Examiner.

Radio Station CHEX Carries the News on the Hour

MONDAY EVENING

6:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Tune of Times
CBL—Relax and Enjoy
CFRB—Dinner Music

6:15 P.M.
CHEX—Swing and Sway
CBL—Market Report
WJZ—Terry and Pirates-D
WEAF—Serenade to America

6:30 P.M.
CHEX—News; Rhythm R'nd-up
CBL—Curtain Echoes
WJZ—Whose War is This?
WABC—Arthur Godfrey Show

6:45 P.M.
CHEX—Stand by for Advent.
WABC—World To-day-N
WEAF—Lowell Thomas-N
CBL—BBC News

7:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Sportcast
CFRB—Vic and Sade-D
WJZ—Horace Heidt's Orch.
WEAF—Pleasure-Time-M
CBL—Virginia Warren-S

7:15 P.M.
CHEX—School Children
CFRB—Musical Revue
WABC—Ed Sullivan Entertains
WEAF—News of the World

7:30 P.M.
CHEX—Down Nature's Trail
CBL—Carol Sisters
WJZ—Lone Ranger-D
WABC—Blondie-D
WEAF—Musical Revue

7:45 P.M.
CHEX—Essay Contest
CBL—News Roundup
WEAF—H V Kaltenborn-N

8:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Green Hornet
CFRB—Vox Pop
WEAF—Ship to Remember-D
CBL—Victory Parade
WJZ—Watch the World-N

8:30 P.M.
CHEX—Riches to Rhythm
WABC—Gay Revue-M
CFRB—Spin to Win
CBL—Seeding Roundup-T
WEAF—Firestone Musical
WJZ—Blind-Date-V

9:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; McKinney Choir
CFRB—Radio Theatre-D
CBL—Serenade-M
WEAF—Telephone Hour-M
WJZ—Counter Spy-D

9:30 P.M.
CHEX—Information Please
WJZ—Spotlight Bands
CBL—We Are Seven—M

10:00 P.M.
CHEX—Uncle Silas-D
CFRB—Screen Guild Players-D
CBL—National News
WEAF—Contented Program-M
WJZ—Raymond G Swing-T

10:30 P.M.
CHEX—Melody in the Night-M
WABC—Showtime-D
CBL—Don. Turner's Orch.
WJZ—Hollyw'd Award Theatre
WEAF—Dr I. Q.

11:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Sign Off
CBL—Radio Newsreel

TUESDAY MORNING

6:00 A.M.
CHEX—Early Risers

6:40 A.M.
CHEX—News

7:00 A.M.
CHEX—News

7:30 A.M.
CHEX—News Highlights

7:45 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Cheer

8:00 A.M.
WEAF—News Roundup
CFRB—Jim Hunter-N
WJZ—The Kibitzers

8:15 A.M.
CHEX—Breakfast Musicale
CFRB—Coffee Time-M
WEAF—Two Minute Man-V

8:30 A.M.
CHEX—Breakfast Musicale
WJZ—Nancy Craig-T
WABC—Missus Goes Shopping
CBL—March Past

8:45 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Devotions
CFRB—Coffee Club
WEAF—In the Record-M
WABC—Margaret-Arlen-T

9:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Salon Strings
CFRB—Interlude
CBL—Mirth and Madness-V
WJZ—Breakfast Club-V

9:15 A.M.
CHEX—Meet the Band
CFRB—Sing Along Club

9:30 A.M.
CHEX—Invitation to Waltz
CBL—Daytime Classics-M

9:45 A.M.
CHEX—Musical Magic

10:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Masterworks
CFRB—Decorating Talk
WJZ—Sweet River-D
WABC—Valiant Lady-D

10:15 A.M.
CFRB—Baby Program-T
WABC—Kitty Foyle-D

10:30 A.M.
CHEX—Novatime
CBL—Wartime Housekeeping
CFRB—Mrs Aitken-T
WABC—The Open Door-D

10:45 A.M.
CHEX—With the Jesters
CBL—Monica Mugan-T
WEAF—Music Room
WJZ—The Listening Post-D

11:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Victor Opera Co.
CBL—Road of Life-D
WJZ—Breakfast at Sardi's-V
WABC—Honeymoon Hill-D

11:30 A.M.
CHEX—Invit to Syncopation
CBL—Soldier's Wife-D
WEAF—Brave To-morrow-D

11:45 A.M.
CHEX—On the Lighter Side
WEAF—David Harum-D
CFRB—Do You Remember?
WABC—Aunt Jenny-D

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

12:00 NOON
CHEX—News; Home Folks
WJZ—This World of Ours-T
CBL—BBC News
WABC—Kate Smith Speaks

12:15 P.M.
CHEX—Musical Moods
CFRB—Farm Broadcast
WEAF—Words and Music

12:30 P.M.
CHEX—News; Farm News
CBL—Farm Broadcast

1:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Home Folks
WEAF—Sketches in Melody

1:15 P.M.
CBL—The Happy Gang

1:30 P.M.
CHEX—Chapel Chimes-M
CFRB—Aloha Land
WABC—Bernadine Flynn-T

1:45 P.M.
CHEX—They Tell Me
WJZ—Little Jack Little
WABC—The Goldbergs-D

2:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; A to Z
CFRB—Our Gal Sunday-D
WEAF—Guiding Light-D

2:15 P.M.
CHEX—Lady Sings
WJZ—Mystery Chef-T
WEAF—To-day's Children-D
CFRB—Helen Trent-D

2:30 P.M.
CHEX—Stars of the Week
CBL—Mutual Goes Calling
WJZ—Ladies Be Seated
WEAF—Light of the World

2:45 P.M.
CHEX—H'py Birthday Mother
CFRB—House of Melody
WEAF—Hymns of Churches

3:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Melody Mat.
CBL—A Woman of America-D
WJZ—Morton Downey-S

3:15 P.M.
CHEX—Sweethearts
WJZ—Appointment-D

3:30 P.M.
CHEX—Alf Standen, pianist
CFRB—Capsules of Melody
CBL—Pepper Young-D

3:45 P.M.
CHEX—Voice of Memory
CBL—Right to Happiness
WJZ—Ethel and Albert

4:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Ballroom
CBL—Joint Recital
WJZ—Ozark Ramblers-V
WABC—Broadway Matinee

4:15 P.M.
CFRB—Big Sister-D
CBL—Your Next Job
Weaf—Stella Dallas-D
CHEX—1430 Club-V

4:30 P.M.
CBL—The Liptonaires-M
CFRB—Lady Stowe's Guests

4:45 P.M.
WABC—Raymond Scott Show
WJZ—Sea Hound-D
WEAF—Widder Brown-D

5:00 P.M.
CHEX—News
WABC—Fun with Dunn-V
CBL—Front Line Family
WJZ—Hap Harrigan-D

5:05 P.M.
CHEX—Lindsay Salute

5:15 P.M.
WEAF—We Love and Learn-D
CFRB—Fun with Dunn-V

5:30 P.M.
CHEX—Lindsay Salute
CFRB—Four Clubmen-S
CBL—Listen to London
WJZ—Jack Armstrong

5:45 P.M.
CHEX—Musical Moment
CFRB—Lone Ranger-D
WABC—American Women

OPEN BOWLING
From 7.00 p.m. Every Evening
"BOWL FOR HEALTH"
DUFFUS
Recreation Academy
Phone 9068

Theatres - Dances - Radio

Baer Admits He's No Quitter

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 22—(AP)—Sgt. Max Baer says he knows, and his friends know, that he never has been a quitter—and it's nice to have the general public know it, too.

Speaking from his bed in the station hospital of the San Antonio Air Service Command, the former world heavyweight boxing champion commented Sunday on a statement by Joe Louis that Max was the toughest man he ever fought.

"If I had wanted to quit," he said, "I'm a good enough ham actor to take a punch going away and stay down for the count. Sure, I could have quit and been a hero for it, a 'game loser,' but nobody ever saw Max Baer flat on his back in the ring and they never will."

Maxie, who has been touring the United States in behalf of the physical fitness program of the air service command, is in the Kelly Field hospital for a routine physical check-up.

He admitted he lacks the killer instinct and added: "It's easy for the fan at the ringside or in the gallery—who doesn't feel a single punch—to be bloodthirsty and yell for the kill, but boxing is supposed to be a sport, not legalized murder."

COMING...
Wed., May 24th
OZZIE WILLIAMS
AND HIS ORCHESTRA
Direct From Toronto's "Club Kingsway"
Admission—75c Person
Summer Gardens
PETERBOROUGH

ROCHESTER for Mirth!
FREDDY MARTIN for Music!
ANN MILLER for Rhythm!
What's Buzzin' Cousin?
2ND GREAT ATTRACTION!
The Biggest Picture Of All Time......
Brought Back To Our Screen!
"MR. DEEDS GOES TO TOWN"
With
Gary Cooper -Jean Arthur
Today CAPITOL
A Famous Players Theatre

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE NAILS NAZI SPIES!
it's all because of the baffling
MURDER ON THE WATERFRONT
A WARNER THRILLER with WARREN DOUGLAS · JOAN WINFIELD · JOHN LODER
Regent
STARTS TO-DAY
Hit No. 2—"How's About It"
With the Andrews Sisters
To-night Is Foto-Nite – $165 Offered

CENTRE
TO-DAY
TUES. and WED.
2—Splendid Hits—
Something new in gay mystery!
A Night TO REMEMBER
LORETTA YOUNG · BRIAN AHERNE
AND THE SECOND BIG FEATURE
THE EAST SIDE KIDS
"Mr. MUGGS STEPS OUT"
LEO GORCEY · HUNTZ HALL
GABRIEL DELL · BILLY BENEDICT
EXTRA! LATEST ASSOCIATED BRITISH NEWSREEL

World Must Look For Leadership From Young Men With Vision

It is to the young men with visions and the older people with dreams, the result of mellowed faith, that the world must look for leadership after the war, and not to the middle-aged group with its attitude of disappointment and hopelessness, Dr. Herbert L. Stewart of Dalhousie University said on Sunday. He was guest preacher at the 111th anniversary of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church.

Quoting from Job, where "Old men shall dream dreams and young men shall see visions," Dr. Stewart pointed out that the prophet had left no place for those in the middle age. He said that youth was full of enraptured dreams, and older people had acquired a mellower faith, but those in middle age had suffered their first big disappointments and had not yet garnered in the harvests of their life's work. He asserted that while calling themselves realists, they adopted the attitude that the worst could be expected to happen.

"At the time Job spoke this message, an unprecedented disaster had befallen the nation. While aggressor nations threatened their national security, internal ruin encompassed the people in the form of a devastating plague of grasshoppers which destroyed their entire crop yield.

Lose Nerve.

"The middle-aged citizens, to whom the people looked for guidance, were useless. They panicked and were prepared to accept capture without a struggle. The unhappy people felt that their plight was a manifestation of God's wrath and they held a national day of humiliation, in which they supplicated and wept to the Lord."

The speaker said that Job was a man far in advance of his fellow men and warned them to "rend their hearts, not their garments," the latter being no more than a formal gesture. He then became intensely practical and told the nation to stop waiting for a miracle and prepare to defend itself by forging weapons and an army. Like every genuine prophet he stimulated faith in the ultimate issues, following repentance, Dr. Stewart declared.

Still True.

This is a message for all time, and it is as true now as when it was spoken hundreds of years before Christ, the visiting preacher warned. Middle age has lost its early enthusiasm, and has yet to grasp a mellower vision. In Job's day, those men could only see the plague and desolation accompanied by peril from without. They bore the mark of cynics, produced by disillusioned minds. Facing a changing world, such minds envision only losses and that matters may become worse.

"Can there be a more conspicuous teaching than that of keeping expectations high, rebuking despair? Or to live those visions of high humanity, believing in a better future? This is the essence of the Christian message. The meaning of Job's words ran deeper than he knew, for the young and old together fashioned something greater than had ever been dreamed possible. Out of the dominion of Israel, the Christian faith spread through the entire world, made possible only by the faith and enthusiasm of those with vision. The deep destinies of mankind lay in the hands of those with their visions and dreams, and their faith in God refused to let them sit idly by.'

Guest soloist for the day was Carl Bull of Toronto. At the morning serive he sang "The Lord is My Light" and "If With All Your Hearts"; at night, "Forward to Christ," "In the Garden" and "The King of Love My Shepherd Is." The choir sang The Lord's Prayer and the anthem "Bless the Lord, O My Soul."

PRISONER FOUR YEARS—Pte. Kenneth Cooper, whose mother lives at 34 Brioux Avenue, has been a prisoner of war in Germany for four years. He went to England and enlisted shortly before the war, and was the first Peterborough boy to be taken prisoner during the battle for France. Pte. Cooper attended Murray Street Church, and was active in the Young Men's Class. Though he has been away from home for such a long period, his letters are always cheerful.

TWO BROTHERS OVERSEAS—Pictured above is Pte. Roy Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Wood, 259 Engleburn Avenue, who is serving overseas with the R.C.O.C. Before his enlistment, he was employed at the Western Clock. His wife lives on Munro Avenue. One brother, Pte. Melville (Jerry) Wood has been overseas nearly four years, and another brother, Ordinary Seaman Maurice Wood, R.C.N.V.R., is stationed at Kingston.

STATIONED OVERSEAS—Pte. Wesley Nevins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nevins, Norwood, is stationed overseas. He enlisted in Toronto in March, 1943, and was formerly employed at the John Inglis Company there.

MORE ABOUT—

Allies 24 Miles

Continued from Page 1

headquarters announced today.

The German switch line, adopted after the flanking of the Hitler Line, ran southwest from Pico through Fondi to Terracina.

With two of their key towns occupied the enemy must fall farther back.

The retreating Nazis hid their movements around the eastern flank of the Anzio beachhead with smoke screens.

The first troops to enter Terracina found only a few enemy rearguards, among them non-combat units left as a covering force.

From Monte Leucio, the Allies commanded the Liri Valley floor west of Pontecorvo and dominated positions around Pontecorvo to the east.

Street fighting raged yesterday in the town of Piedimonte on the north side of the Liri Valley after Polish Infantry and tanks supported by British units from the south, had virtually encircled the town the preceding day. Piedimonte was a Hitler Line bastion.

An official report said enemy troops in the town were surprised by the swift encirclement and many were taken prisoner.

Resistance Fades

Resistance was fading in face of the 5th Army's unrelenting blows at the southern flank of the Liri valley defences, and a headquarters staff officer said the enemy was abandoning positions within the Hitler Line to escape annihilation.

The total of the prisoners taken since the offensive was launched now has gone well beyond 6,000, and the number increased hourly as mopping up continued in the newly-conquered areas and defences fell one by one.

The German High Command was reported shifting fresh troops across Italy from the Adriatic sector, at the same time swinging other units from the south to bolster resistance in the Pico area, where a continued Allied thrust northward would threaten to envelop and destroy the bulk of the forces in the whole Pontecorvo-Aquino Zone of the Hitler Line.

Allied fighter-bombers swooped against German ground forces all along the battle front, hitting bridges, guns, motor transport and troops transport. Medium bombers also attacked bridges.

Twenty-four German planes were counted over the battle area during the day eight of which were destroyed. Five Allied planes are missing.

West coast ports of Italy were hit by night bombers last night.

German reinforcements were joining in futile counter-attacks in the Pico area along the south side of the Theliri valley.

At Terracina, which represents a gain of as much as 25 miles from some of the jumping-off places of the offensive, the 5th Army was less than 60 airline miles from Rome.

American troops also seized Monte Passignano, a mile north of Fondi, as well as Monte Casa Reccio, three miles northwest of the same town.

Astride Highway

In the Liri Valley, which affords the most direct route to Rome by way of Route 6 (via Casilina), the enemy's defensive outlook was somewhat better.

A headquarters spokesman said that "when the enemy havs been driven out of the Adolf Hitler Line there are a number of natural defensive positions between Ponecorvo and Valmontone (45 miles northwest on highway 6) on which the enemy may attempt to stabilize his position and obstruct our further advance.

"From a study of the map, two positions suggest themselves. First, about San Giovanni and Ceprano, and second, Ceccano-Frosinone.

"Astride Highway 6 at Valmontone there may be expected a strong defensive position which, according to aerial photos, runs through the mountains to Avezzano (about 40 miles to the northeast) and south from Valmontone, thence incorporating the Alban Hills, to the sea (at the Anzio beachhead)."

"It is on this line that the battle for Rome no doubt will begin."

An enemy air attempt to raid the Allied positions was brought to disaster by an R.A.F. Spitfire Squadron. The Spitfires intercepted 20 bomb-carrying FW-190's north of Anzio with ME-109's escorting. The British shot down eight of the FW-190's.

MORE ABOUT—

James J. Bell

Continued from Page 1

ney Falls by Mr. Fraser, Gerald Kellogg, Walter Lowe, Mr. Ferris and other helpers at 11.40 a.m. Strangely, his watch had not stopped. It was still ticking when the body was recovered.

Mr. Bell was born in Ireland 57 years ago and had lived in Campbellford for over twenty years. He was night foreman of the rasser department of the pulp mill. He was a Royal Arch Mason, a Presbyterian, a member of the Legion who served for three years in the First Great War and a highly esteemed citizen.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret Minnie, one daughter, Mrs. Cecil Skene of Walkerton, 2 son, Stoker Jack with the Royal Canadian Navy at Halifax, James at home and the two children of Mr. and Mrs. Skene.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday under Masonic auspices and Legion auspices.

MORE ABOUT—

9,000 Planes

Continued from Page 1

and tank factories, synthetic rubber plants, oil refineries, aircraft component works, textile and chemical works.

Airmen back from Duisburg reported fierce combats over the city. They had little opposition on the way to the target, however, and the bombs had started falling before German fighter packs arrived over the town then flares lighted the area and bitter fights between bombers and interceptors continued over Duisburg and for many miles on the homeward journey.

One pilot said fighters pursued the bombers beyond the coast of Continental Europe.

MORE ABOUT—

Jap Stronghold

Continued from Page 1

continued to land at captured Myitkyina airport to swell the besieging forces.

Allied dive-bombers hit the enemy almost at will and kept a constant watch over the one remaining escape route of the Myitkyina garrison — the road southward to Bhamo.

Headquarters said the isolation of the Japanese in the city was completed by Chinese patrols sweeping across the Irrawaddy to the south and rear elements joining forces and cutting railway and motor roads to Mogaung to the northwest.

MR. T. A. PUMPHREY is a war worker. He began to feel dizzy, nervous and all in—always constipated. An inactive liver was the cause—Fruit-a-tives quickly made him well. Buck up your liver with Fruit-a-tives, Canada's Largest Selling Liver Tablets.

SWEET CAPORAL

CIGARETTE TOBACCO

The Roll-your-owners Best Bet

Extra Good!

RED ROSE ORANGE PEKOE TEA

Canada's largest selling fine QUALITY tea!

Sorry!

--- YOU STILL CAN'T BUY CANADA'S FIRST-CHOICE TYPEWRITER

Government restrictions continue to conserve, for the Armed Forces and top-priority war operations, what remains of our stock of Canada's first-choice typewriter.

Civilian users still can't buy new Underwoods. Furthermore, there's no prospect that new Underwoods will be available for general distribution for many months to come.

New-Underwood speed, accuracy and performance, however, are available to every Underwood owner. How? By the economical plan of having their old and aging machines factory-rebuilt.

Next to a new Underwood, your present Underwood, factory-processed by the manufacturer, is today's best typewriter value—for your rebuilt machine comes from Underwood Elliott Fisher's Toronto plant completely new in everything but age.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO WAIT FOR NEW UNDERWOODS — MAKE YOUR PRESENT UNDERWOODS NEW!

Ask for particulars today!

Underwood

UNDERWOOD ELLIOTT FISHER LIMITED

Joseph L. Seitz, President

355 George Street. 6853.
R. T. Pammett, Manager
Branches in all Canadian Cities

A limited number of new, manual Underwood-Sundstrand Adding Machines are available for civilian buyers.

UNDERWOOD TYPEWRITERS — CANADA'S *7-OUT-OF-10 CHOICE

"A NATIONAL ELECTRICAL SERVICE" means...

A trained PERSONNEL imbued with the SPIRIT of service—supported by the FACILITIES and the ORGANIZATION to deliver electrical goods—WHERE required—WHEN required.

Another Mobile Workshop rolls off ahead of schedule...

..."Rush special electrical equipment for Mobile Workshop"... came the call from Chrysler, Ford, General Motors—then the facilities, peculiar only to Northern, swung into action. Designs speeded —blueprints rushed through—manufacture started—but certain component parts were still needed to meet the schedule. And so, the hands of Northern Electric reached out—found the right suppliers (nearly fifty of them)—and delivered the necessary materials promptly.

The Mobile Workshops, outstanding war product of famous manufacturers, rolled off ahead of schedule to accomplish their task of on-the-spot repair work on every fighting front. The important part played by Northern in this instance is but one phase of the diverse activities of a National Electrical Service.

Northern Electric Company Limited

IN WAR AND IN PEACE
Northern Electric
SUPPLIES—
Wires and Cables
Telephones
Power Apparatus
Radio Equipment for Air and Land
Electronic Devices
Illumination
Electrical Supplies
Household Appliances
Overhead and Underground Equipment

Northern Electric
AND ITS EMPLOYEES
A NATIONAL ELECTRICAL SERVICE

The Peterborough Examiner

VOL. LXXXIX, No. 120 — MONDAY, MAY 22 — PAGE NINE

Main Street Topics

SEPARATE SCHOOLS CLOSING.

Along with the public schools, all separate schools will close for the holiday, Wednesday.

CITY HALL HOLIDAY.

The city offices will be closed all day Wednesday, in observance of the old holiday of May 24.

NO CLINIC WEDNESDAY.

Due to a medical convention being held in Toronto Wednesday the Blood Donors Clinic regularly scheduled for that morning has been called off.

GEORGE SMEDMORE COMMISSIONED

This column was in error Saturday in announcing that Grant Smedmore, 148 Murray street had received his wings at Malton on Thursday as a navigator. It was Grant's brother George who was presented with his wings and commissioned as a pilot officer. Grant himself has not yet finished his training as a pilot.

FINDS CURIOUS BRANCH.

A four-foot maple branch with a very large growth of wood and bark that brought its total weight to six or more pounds was found recently by Frank Downard, 583 Chamberlain street, as he walked on the farm of his brother-in-law, Thomas Ryan, one mile north of Marmora. The growth protrudes some five inches out of the limb from which it grew and measures nearly ten inches across. In appearance it resembles a fungus growth.

WEEK-END FIRES

A fire starting in the shaving bins of the Peterborough Lumber Company, Monaghan Road South, at 11:19 p.m. Saturday night, caused a small amount of damage, it was said today by Chief Gimblett. He reported that the fire had started through heat from the boilers. At 12:24 p.m. Saturday there was a chimney fire at 460 Elm street, residence of R. Farthing; and at 3:40 p.m. a grass fire on the CNR right-of-way at Stewart and Murray streets. Sunday's only alarm, for a rubbish fire on Bonaccord street, occurred at 5:33 p.m. Early this morning, at 7.44 a.m., there was a chimney fire at 94 Gladstone, home of J. Anderson. Only the lumber company fire caused any damage.

WOUNDED IN ITALY

L-Cpl. A. Willshaw, 178 Sophia street, has been wounded in action on the Italian front, according to word received by his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Willshaw. Formerly employed at the Peterborough Lock Company, he has been overseas two years, and is now with the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment.

FINDS OLD COIN.

Digging in his flower bed, Vernon Olver R. R. N. 4, Peterborough, turned up an 80-year-old United States coin. It is a 2-cent piece minted in 1864, resembles an ordinary copper, and despite its great age the lettering on it can be read without difficulty.

BETTER ON FARM

Pleading guilty to begging on the street, Lyall Brooks told Magistrate O. A. Langley, K.C., in police court this morning that he had secured a job with a farmer and would get to work. "He'd be better off on a farm," commented the magistrate in making the fine $2.

WORK FOR JUVENILE COURT

There are busy days ahead for the juvenile court here. A number of local youngsters has been rounded up in connection with a series of bicycle thefts and in Lakefield Chief Garnet Samis has another band of juvenile offenders ranging from 13 to 15 years who face charges of stealing many articles from Lakefield stores and some of them with breaking into a booth at Gilchrist Park.

BICYCLIST INJURED

B. Scarlett, 458 Rubidge street, was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital with an injured shoulder after the bicycle on which he was riding collided with an automobile at Brock and Bethune streets. Harry Meehan, Lindsay, was driving his car west on Brock street and was making a left turn into Bethune street when it came into contact with Scarlett who was riding east on Brock street.

IT WAS EXPENSIVE

Arrested on the 3rd line of Smith on Saturday, Norman Green, Fenelon Falls and Arthur Macklin, Lindsay, pleaded guilty in police court this morning to having been drunk and were each fined $15 and $2.50 costs after Provincial Constable Price Morris had informed the court that the two men had been in a motor car. The officer said that apparently another man had been driving for neither of the two had the keys of the car when he arrested them.

STATIONED OVERSEAS—Sgt. R. R. Madill of the R.C.A.F., son of Mrs. L. Madill and the late Thomas Madill of Cavan, is serving overseas. He graduated at Mont Joli and is serving as a mid-upper gunner in a bomber crew.

Clare E. Althouse

in the operating room of his new Dermathia Studio at 408½ George St. using the latest scientific equipment for the removal of unwanted hair.

PHONE 5201 For Appointments

Orono Woman Thrown From Truck In Crash

Thrown from a truck after it had come into collision with another automobile at the corner of McDonnel and Aylmer streets at noon Saturday Mrs. M. Weinberger, R.R. 1, Orono was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital in a dazed condition and suffering from shock. It was learned that she had sustained bruises on her legs and arms but had not been seriously hurt in the afternoon.

Mrs. Weinberger was a passenger in a truck driven by Francis Hale, Clarke township. Hale was driving south on Aylmer street and told police afterward that he did not notice the stop sign at McDonnel street. Ned Vitarelli, 489 Murray street was travelling west on McDonnel street and his car and the truck came into collision at the intersection. After the crash the truck jumped the southwest curb and Hale, his father and Mrs. Weinberger were thrown out.

The front of Vitarelli's car and the side of the truck were considerably damaged by the impact.

Fr. F. Wafer Doyle Dies In Kingston

The death in Kingston, Friday of Rev. F. Wafer Doyle, S. J., will deeply touch the sympathy of a host of friends who knew and revered him in Montreal, Guelph, Kingston, and elsewhere. He had been a visitor to Peterborough on some occasions, and is remembered as having twice preached at the Church of the Sacred Heart. After his ordination in 1901 he was appointed assistant rector of Loyola College, Montreal, and later was a member of the staff of St. Mary's College, in that city. Since then he was parish priest of the Church of Our Lady in Guelph, for eighteen years until 1930 when he became the first rector of the Jesuit College in Toronto. Father Doyle was 81 years old, and a native of Kingston.

Golf Tourney Date

TORONTO, May 22—(CP)—Competition for the Millar Trophy, emblematic of the Professional Golf Match Play championship of Canada will be held July 20-22 at the Islington club here, officials of the Toronto and District Professional Golfers' Association announced today.

TONIGHT 7.45

CHEX—1430 on Your Dial

Lord Beaverbrook

The Man of the Hour

HAMILTON'S

STYLE LEADING FURRIERS

ATTENDED SEA CADET INSPECTION—A highlight of the annual inspection at the Lakefield Preparatory School on Saturday afternoon was the presence of four generations of the Mackenzie family, founders of the historic school. They are shown above (Left to Right), Mrs. A. Lampman, then her mother, Mrs. A. W. Mackenzie, wife of the late Dr. Mackenzie, for years headmaster of the school; Mrs. Mackenzie's granddaughter, Mrs. A. Clarke, and her great-grandson, four months old Michael Clarke.
(Parks' Studio Photo)

Peterboro Youth Tried For Car Theft

Sandford Robbins, 19, Monaghan Road, was identified in police court this morning as one of two youths who were seen running away from a damaged car on Highway 28, after an accident, on the afternoon of May 14.

Robbins was charged with the theft of the car, the property of Robert Crowley of Otonabee. He was defended by John A. Bradshaw, elected summary trial and pleaded not guilty.

Maurice Pelland, 19, faces a similar charge.

Robert Crowley, testified that his car had been left on the Preston garage parking lot, Charlotte St., on May 14. The keys had been left with ignition. Crowley said that his brother had been driving the car that day and had left it for him. He had not given anybody else permission to take it and the brother George Crowley, called later, said that he had not granted authority to anybody to drive the car away.

Pte. W. J. Doughty, of the 39th Provost Company, Toronto, swore that he had been visiting the home of Carl Rose, North Monaghan on May 14, had heard the crash of a car going through a wire fence and had seen two youths running away across the field after the accident. He identified Robbins as one of the two.

Doughty and Rose chased the pair and eventually caught up to them and held them until police arrived and put them under arrest.

Carl Rose gave similar evidence and William Dale, North Monaghan, testified to seeing the accident from his bedroom window. He said he saw two youths get out of the damaged car, walk a short distance and then start to run across the field.

Constables Andre Dalton and Ernest Beatty gave evidence as to the arrest of Robbins and Pelland. Describing the accident the officers said that the car had shot off the highway, into a ditch, climbed up the far side of the ditch, went through one fence and finally stopped against another fence.

At the conclusion of the Crown's case, Mr. Bradshaw moved for dismissal without the defence being called upon, stated that the evidence was as consistent with Robbins having been a hitch-hiker or having been offered a ride as it was consistent with his guilt.

Magistrate O. A. Langley denied the motion and Robbins was called to give evidence. He said that he was riding along Charlotte street on his bicycle when Pelland called him from the Preston garage and asked him to go for a car ride. Pelland was trying to get a car started but could not and finally suggested that they take another car on the lot.

"He said the guy thato wned it was out of town," Robbins said.

The two had got into the other car with Pelland at the wheel but before they left the parking lot Pelland suggested that Robbins take over. Robbins said that he had been driving at the time of the accident. After the crash he said that Pelland said "We had better get out of here."

To Mr. McElderry, Robbins admitted that he knew at the time that Pelland did not own a motor car. The case was adjourned to luncheon at this stage.

Born Same Date

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, May 22—(AP).—Father, son and grandson had a birthday party May 21. Frank J. Price, 51, his son, Glen, 29, and grandson, Gary, six, all were born on that date. Each is a second son. The grandfather was 23 was his son was born, and the son was 23 when the grandson was born.

War—4 Years Ago

By The Canadian Press

May 22, 1940— Prime Minister Churchill became virtual dictator as British parliament passed bill giving government the right to conscript life, labor and property. New 200-mile Allied front along the Somme, and Aisne said to have checked German twin drive on Channel and Paris.

Potato Growers Sell Produce At $1.25 Bag

Some of the growers of potatoes who have been missing from the market for many months appeared out of obscurity Saturday, some of them nicking the price down to $1.25 a bag. The general price was around $1.50 with evident abundance for all local needs.

Some of the recent strangers seemed to be the most willing to shake down the price. Butter was 40 cents, eggs 30 to 35 cents; broiler chickens 40 cents and year olds 35 cents. Some of the regular potato men said they had no difficulty unloading at $1.50 a bag. They have been following the market through the winter, and have taken off the reasonable top price, which has been usually been around $1.75 to $2 a bag.

The volume of potatoes Saturday must have surprised everybody, and plainly suggested that the growers who had been holding for a repetition of the price peaks of a year ago must be keenly disappointed.

Peterboro Resident Dies In Markham

MARKHAM, Ont., May 22 (CP)—A funeral service was conducted today by Rev. B. E. Newnham of the United church for Mrs. Lillian L. Day Roffey, who died Friday. Interment followed in Elmwood cemetery.

Born in England. Mrs. Roffey came to Canada in 1909 and lived in Peterborough. She had lived in Markham for 26 years.

Surviving are her husband, Edwin J. Roffey, and one daughter, Mrs. Fred Reid. Her only son, Sergt. Pilot Fred Roffey, was killed on active service overseas in February, 1941.

Execute 59

BERN, May 22—(AP)—A Swiss Telegraphic Agency dispatch Sunday from Chiasso said the Germans had executed 59 Italians at Genoa May 18 in reprisal for the death of five Nazi soldiers in a theatre bombing.

WINS PROMOTION—Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas of Birdsall Station that their son, Murray Thomas, serving with a Spitfire Squadron in Italy, has been promoted to Flight-Lieutenant. A recent story was sent from Italy, telling of how he narrowly missed death when a German bullet struck his "quick release box."

26 Sheep Dead Two Injured By Raiding Dogs

Twenty-six lambs and sheep owned by Robert Dobbin and Wilbert Sucee, North Monaghan farmers, have recently been killed by dogs. Mr. Dobbin's flock of about 80 animals was the more seriously depleted, eighteen being worried to death and two others may die. Two dogs that are believed to have strayed out from the city were seen by Mr. Dobbin, a week ago Sunday or on Tuesday afternoon when the brace of killers returned to the farm and fatally attacked five more of the flock, according to information learned today.

Mr. Succee lost his eight lambs three weeks ago. Fred Campbell, sheep valuator for the township, has investigated both claims for damages, and will submit a report to the township council. Both raids on the Dobbin flock were in daylight. It is understood that the lambs will be valued at from $12 to $15. Procedure usually requires the valuator to present his report to the municipal council.

Canon W. L. Armitage 50 Years Ordained

TORONTO, May 22 (CP)—Canon W. L. Armitage, assistant rector of St. Paul's Anglican church (Runnymede) yesterday celebrated the 50th anniversary of his ordination. A graduate of Huron College in 1891, he was ordained in 1894 by Rt. Rev. Maurice S. Baldwin, then Bishop of Huron.

Since then he has served at London. Peterborough, Picton, Saskatoon, Walkerville and Toronto.

Dr. Gerald Lunz Renamed Deputy

Dr. Gerald J. Lunz, Hamilton, was re-elected State Deputy of the Knights of Columbus at this morning's session of their provincial convention.

The other officers were: Past State Deputy, Philip Phelan, Ottawa; state secretary, B. J. Costello, Kitchener; state treasurer, A. H. Tellier, Belle River; state advocate, J. M. King, Stratford; state warden, W. J. Thompson, Arnprior.

Delegates to the Supreme convention to be held in Toronto in August: E. J. Wolff, Peterborough; William Casey, Kirkland Lake; A. J. Deneau, Windsor; James H. Ryan, Ottawa.

Alternative delegates—Frank McDonagh, Toronto; James J. Gaffney, Hamilton; J. Waller, Brantford.

"The Place Of Russia In World Reconstruction"

A LECTURE BY

DR. H. L. STEWART

Internationally-Known Commentator

IN ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

TONIGHT AT 8:00 P.M.

AN AMPLIFIER will be used to ensure that the address will be heard with equal clearness in all parts of the auditorium.

St. Paul's Choir will assist with a program of national songs.

ADMISSION 35c

Love's Memory Brings Aid For War Victims

The richest inheritance that one can leave behind them when passing beyond this veil of earth, are those memories for good that will always be cherished, and cause others to go on and forward in a strength of character, that can too in its turn serve as an inspiration to others who pass the same way or may follow after.

It is perhaps a truism that they who suffer most can look around and sympathize with others who are in trouble to a more marked degree, than others to whom the cares of life at that time may be non-existent or purely superficial.

In a combination of these two features, a number of people have on occasion come forward to give a helping hand to those stricken through enemy air raids over Britain through the local and district fund which works on their behalf, by the giving of their own means in the name of people who have passed on, and when one comes to visualize what this really means, there surely could hardly be found a more appropriate way in which they could pay a tribute to the memory of those who have left behind them a memory such as would inspire them to do good works that others in trouble might have some consolation to assist them on their journey through this life.

In Memory Of Barbara.

Today sees another of these lovely remembrances acknowledged with a gift to go on its message of good cheer, given "In Memory of Barbara," which will do some good in her name for those to whom the future may have a drear outlook, through the misfortune occasioned by their being caught in the maelstrom of adversity rained on them in the shape of bombs, by enemy raiders from the skies above their homes.

Many people might well think of forming a monument to their loved ones who have passed on in this same manner, which might well be considered as coming within the meaning of the biblical saying of "laying up treasure in heaven, where rust and moth doth not corrupt."

Saturday's account of the fund's activities pleaded for a wider personal interest, and this finds a reflection in another gift from "J.D.," whose personal interest has from time to time been expressed in a like manner, and were the same vision of what can be accomplished by a similar steady support, take its hold on others who could easily afford to help in this manner, the next contribution of £500 would be completed in a comparatively short time.

| | |
|---|---|
| Previously acknowledged | $76,222.82 |
| In Memory of Barbara | 10.00 |
| "J.D.," Receipt No. 3619 | 2.00 |
| Total to-date | $76,234.82 |

QUICK FIRE

Boy Scouts have produced fire by friction of two pieces of wood in less than 8 seconds.

AT TRENTON STATION—Sgt. Clifford Wood, whose wife and baby daughter live in Trenton, is working as a ground mechanic at that station. He is the son of Mrs. Arthur Wood, Fraserville, and before his enlistment in the R.C.A.F. in 1940, he farmed near Fraserville.

SAILOR OVERSEAS—Able Seaman Louis J. Jackson is stationed overseas. His wife, formerly Alberta Ellis, lives at 104 Gladstone Avenue, and he is the son of S.-Sgt. and Mrs. Louis Jackson, 163 Murray Street. The sailor has been serving on a frigate.

Veteran Cricket Treasurer Resigns Post

A meeting of the Peterborough Cricket Club was held on Saturday, with the vice-president, Charles Coleman, presiding. The chairman said they would be asked to appoint a new treasurer to succeed the veteran, R. N. Stuart, who wished to be relieved of the duties he had performed so long and so well, owing to increasing years and failing health. It was proposed by T. Williams and seconded by Frank Dyer that Charles Coleman be elected treasurer, and the nomination was accepted. C. H. Ireson was appointed acting secretary to attend to any matters arising out of the relations between the club and the Peterborough-Whitaker organization. He was instructed to write to Mr. Stuart expressing the club's deep appreciation of his work for the club during a long term of office, and sympathy for the reasons causing his retirement.

R. N. Stuart was born in Hampstead, London on July 11, 1862 Coming to Canada in 1884 and to Peterborough in 1903 he has been an invaluable asset to local cricket. He has been treasurer for some 17 years, and has shown an uncanny knack of getting donations from men perhaps not keenly interested in the game, but just because he asked them, a great compliment to any man.

On July 6, 1941, just previous to his 79th birthday, he made his last appearance for the Peterborough Club against the Picton R.A.F. at Nichols Ovan. In 1937, on the occasion of his 79th birthday, he received a presentation from local cricketers and friends, which was handed to him by the then Mayor, George A. Macdonald.

It was then claimed that he was the oldest active cricketer in the Dominion, and probably in the Empire, and this has never been refuted.

He will (D.V.) celebrate his 82nd birthday on July 11 next.

Took Dog, Too

BERLIN, Conn., May 22—(AP)—Chicken thieves who stole all 25 hens from John Scahola evidently thought John would have no further need of a watch dog, so they took the pooch too.

K. of C. Councils Report Gain In Membership

Substantial gains in membership by the constituent councils of the the orders throughout the province were reported at the opening session of the State convention of the Knights of Columbus here Sunday afternoon.

Reviewing the special interest that is being directed toward youth. J. T. Contway of New Haven, Conn., who is in charge of the Order's attentions to the younger element of society, mentioned with special commendation the two new circles of Columbian Squires organized by the councils of Chatham and Belleville.

A report on the rehabilitation of Canada's military service men was read by the past State Deputy R. A. Jeffrey of Arnprior. This report affirmed that plans for postwar assistance to the men of the three forces seemed to be comprehensive and practical, but the Knights expressed the wish and advice that steps be taken to make the plans widely known throughout the forces, so that every returning man should be aware of the scope of the plan, what it offered him.

The report recommended that all the home-coming veterans of this war become affiliated with the Canadian Legion, the Catholic Legion or any recognized organization of men of the services. It suggested to all councils of the Order that they be prepared to provide their chambers for meetings of returned men, of all faiths, who might wish to avail themselves of the accommodation.

Given Voice

The report also recommended to the federal authorities that the Knights of Columbus be given representation on committees that are to be named for the instituting of rehabilitation plans and projects and that the Knights of Columbus offer their services to the federal authorities for any use that may be considered helpful in the broad scheme of postwar rehabilitation; representation on all committees appointed for the assistance of ex-service men in their resumption of civilian life was urged.

The report was prepared by Mr. Jeffrey, George Hanrahan of Windsor, Phillip Phelan of Ottawa and Senator J. J. Dufus o Peterborough.

Dr. Gerald Lunz of Hamilton is the presiding State Deputy. Mass was celebrated at St. Peter's Cathedral Sunday at 12.15 p.m. for the delegates and their wives by Rev. F. K. Malane, and a greeting of welcome was extended by Rev. John T. Finn, rector of St. Peter's.

Mayor Gives Welcome

At the afternoon session. Mayor Hamilton, introduced by Alderman J. E. Sullivan, welcomed the visiting Knights to Peterborough, and congratulated the society especially on its enterprise as an auxiliary service of the armed forces of Canada.

The session opened with prayer by Very Reverend Dean McAuley of Lindsay. Appreciation of the Order's work for the soldiers and upon its practical and broadening interest in youth was a tribute from Bishop J. R. McDonald. Greetings were received from the Supreme Grand Knight, Francis J. Matthews of Omaha, Neb., from Bishop J. T. Kidd of London, Ontario, and from Dr. M. J. Bennett, Toronto.

NOTICE

No further meetings will be held in connection with the local branch of the Canadian Protestant League in Peterborough until you are notified by the press.

Secretary,
B. E. DAWSON.

HOW TO GET A LOAN

$100 — $300 — $500

Here's a quick, simple way to borrow WITHOUT ENDORSERS—12 monthly instalments of $9.46 each repay $100 loan in full

SHORT OF CASH? Get a personal loan at Household Finance in a quick, simple transaction. To apply for $100, $200 or any amount up to $500, just give us a few facts about yourself and your job—and choose a convenient payment schedule. We require no endorsers or guarantors, no recommendations from friends or relatives. Household Finance loans are made largely on character and earning ability. If you have a job or other source of steady income, you are invited to apply to Household for the loan you need.

Loans over $300 at reduced rate

Notice the choice of plans for repaying your loan. The shorter the time you take to repay the less your loan costs. A $100 loan repaid in twelve monthly instalments of $9.46 each—a total of $113.52—costs $13.52. If repaid in six monthly instalments a $100 loan costs only $7.10. Charges on loans of more than $300 were recently reduced. Notice that a $500 loan repaid in four monthly instalments costs only $22.40. Payments shown in the table include both principal and costs. You pay nothing more. We have no hidden charges of any kind.

Solve your problem here

Household makes loans to pay old debts, taxes, doctor bills, help relatives—for emergencies of many kinds. When you need $50, $100 or up to $500, phone, write or visit Household Finance.

FIND HERE THE CASH LOAN YOU NEED — CHOOSE YOUR MONTHLY PAYMENT HERE

| | 2 payments | 4 payments | 6 payments | 8 payments | 10 payments | 12 payments | 15 payments |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| $ 25 | $12.88 | $ 6.57 | $ 4.46 | $ 3.41 | $ 2.78 | $ 2.36 | * |
| 50 | 25.75 | 13.13 | 8.93 | 6.83 | 5.57 | 4.73 | |
| 75 | 38.63 | 19.70 | 13.39 | 10.24 | 8.35 | 7.09 | |
| 100 | 51.50 | 26.26 | 17.85 | 13.65 | 11.13 | 9.46 | $ 7.78 |
| 125 | 64.38 | 32.83 | 22.32 | 17.06 | 13.92 | 11.82 | 9.73 |
| 150 | 77.26 | 39.39 | 26.78 | 20.48 | 16.70 | 14.18 | 11.67 |
| 200 | 103.01 | 52.52 | 35.71 | 27.30 | 22.27 | 18.91 | 15.57 |
| 300 | 154.51 | 78.79 | 53.56 | 40.95 | 33.40 | 28.37 | 23.35 |
| 400 | 205.51 | 104.79 | 71.17 | 54.39 | 44.33 | 37.63 | 30.94 |
| 500 | 256.51 | 130.60 | 88.64 | 67.68 | 55.10 | 46.73 | 38.36 |

WE GUARANTEE that these payments will repay loans in full, if payments are made on schedule. The loan will cost less if payments are made ahead of schedule. Payments include Household's charge of 2% per month on loan balances of $300 or less and 1% per month on that part of a balance in excess of $300.

HOUSEHOLD FINANCE
Corporation of Canada

Canada's largest and oldest Small Loans Company with 22 offices in 19 cities

M. E. Holt, Manager

Second Floor, Lansfield Block, 177 Charlotte St., Opposite L[illegible]
PETERBOROUGH, ONT. Phone 8841 523

Personals and Social

LAC. Roy B. Pitchford, R.C.A.F. and Mrs. Pitchford, were week-end visitors in Peterborough with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Williams, Engleburn avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. B. Pitchford, Simcoe street.

❖ ❖ ❖

Miss Eleanor Wilson returned to Toronto this morning, where she is a student in residence at Branksome Hall, after spending the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. George Baird, George street.

Needlecraft Pattern

by Laura Wheeler

TWO-MEDALLION HATS

In one hour you can crochet a gadabout hat....two medallions make each of these. Ribbon completes one; crochet bows, the other.

So inexpensive, you can make a hat to match each dress. Pattern 861 contains directions for hats; list of materials; stitches.

Pattern Number ....................

Size ....................

My Name ....................

....................

Address ....................

I enclosed 20c for postage

Mr. Thomas Allston, 107 Aylmer street, is quietly celebrating his 88th birthday today, and is feeling well.

❖ ❖ ❖

M. J. Roche, optometrist, is in Toronto, attending the Optometrical Association of Ontario convention, May 22 and 23, at the King Edward Hotel.

❖ ❖ ❖

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Freeman, 173 Stewart street, are celebrating their 20th wedding anniversary today. Mr. Freeman is also observing his 50th birthday.

❖ ❖ ❖

Mrs. W. H. Cunningham of Montreal, a former resident of Peterborough, is visiting Mrs. E. H. Brown, 793 Water street, and other friends and relatives in the city.

❖ ❖ ❖

The many friends of Mrs. Ethel Phillips, will be pleased to learn that she is recovering in Nicholls Hospital, after her recent serious operation.

❖ ❖ ❖

Sgt. W. C. Snow, R.C.A.S.C., and Mrs. Snow, of Terrace, B.C., are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cavanagh, 604 Stewart street.

❖ ❖ ❖

Mrs. F. J. Courneya, 63 Olive avenue, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. Chouinard, in Detroit, has left by plane with Mrs. Chouinard and her daughter, for an extended visit in Cincinnati, Ohio, and Kentucky.

❖ ❖ ❖

Friends of Doug. Carveth, who is with the R.A.F. Transport Command stationed at North Bay, will be glad to know that he is now convalescing at his home in Millbrook, after undergoing an emergency operation about a month ago.

❖ ❖ ❖

L.-Cpl. Pearl Henry, C.W.A.C., and Pte. Alice Day, C.W.A.C., of the R.C.A.M.C., have returned to their posts, after spending a short leave at Mount Dennis, near Toronto. L.-Cpl. Henry's parents live in Lakefield.

❖ ❖ ❖

AC2 Arthur A. Masters, R.C.A.F., spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Masters, Braidwood avenue, after passing his course at Queen's University, Kingston. He has now been transferred to No. 3 Wireless School, Winnipeg, Man.

❖ ❖ ❖

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lillico, 227 Engleburn avenue, quietly observed their 25th wedding anniversary at their home on Sunday. They were married in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, and have lived in Peterborough most of the time since their marriage.

❖ ❖ ❖

Baptist Delegates

Two Peterboro' Baptist churches, Murray Street and Park Street, have sent delegates to the three-day convention of the Baptist Young People's Union of Ontario and Quebec, in Talbot Street Baptist Church, London, Ontario. The Murray Street representatives are Misses Irma Rosborough, Gilmour street and Ruth Ellis, Mark street, and Harold Roberts, Park street and Ken Gillespie, Lock street. Park Street delegates are Misses Nela and Thelma Tedford, Stewart street, Miss Olive Tedford, Charlotte street, and Mrs. R. Neville, Park street.

❖ ❖ ❖

Class Gives Shower

ROSENEATH, May 22 (ENS) — Mrs. Lorne Thackeray (nee Ruby Blodgett) a bride of the week was a guest of honor at a party held in Mrs. R. Crego's home a few nights previous to her marriage. The party was given by the bride's Sunday School classmates and their teacher, the hostess. Following an evening of games, Miss Helen Weir read an address conveying their good wishes to the bride-elect, and Miss Adelaine Mouncey made the presentation of a Roslyn China cup and saucer and a half dozen silver coffee spoons.

❖ ❖ ❖

Honor Bride

About 100 guests gathered recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Webster, Otonabee, to honor Leotta Mae Webster, whose marriage to Lloyd Henry Crane took place Saturday. Baskets decorated with pink and white streamers, and filled with miscellaneous gifts, were brought in, and Mrs. Kenneth Petrie read an address . Lunch was served, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

L. J. Thackeray Weds Ruby M. Blodgett

ROSENEATH, May 22 (ENS) — The marriage was solemnized Saturday of Lorne John, third son of Mr. and Mrs. Corelli Thackeray, and Ruby Marguerite, only daughter of Mrs. Fannie Blodgett and the late Wilbur Blodgett, all of Roseneath. The bride has operated Alnwick Rural Telephone Exchange for the past fourteen years.

The ceremony was performed in Baltimore United church at 3 p.m. by Rev. Floyd Honey.

The bride wore a floor-length cloud mist white chiffon dress over white taffeta, with bishop sleeves, and high round neckline, the bodice embroidered in silver, and a bouffant skirt. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a circlet of shell pink forget-me-nots. She wore silver slippers and carried a cascade bouquet of pink Virginia carnations. Her white gloves were the "something old," and her string of pearls the "something borrowed."

The bride was attended by Miss Alma Thackeray, cousin of the groom. She wore a floor-length heaven blue sheer over taffeta, the front of the bodice, an embroidered lace panel, the sleeves long, and the neckline round. Her head dress was a blue lace Dutch cap with pink forget-me-nots. She carried pink Virginia carnations on a lace heart-shape muff, and wore lace gloves and silver slippers.

Clark Mouncey, cousin of the bride was groomsman.

Mrs. Stewart Thackeray played "I Love You Truly," during the signing of the register. She wore a floor-length heaven blue sheer dress with lace panels and blue hat, and a corsage of yellow roses.

The reception and wedding supper were held at "Village View Farm," Roseneath. The bride's mother received, wearing a gown of black crepe, embroidered in white, black hat and a corsage of orchid and lily-of-the-valley. The groom's mother was dressed in black and white sheer and wore a black and white hat.

The rooms were decorated with the bridal colors and bells, and spring flowers were everywhere. The supper table was centred with the tiered wedding cake, flanked with pink candles and vases of Narcissus.

Two nieces of the groom, Misses Noreen Adams and Valetta Thackeray, acted as waitresses. Only immediate relatives were present.

The groom's gift to the bride was a yellow gold sweetheart locket; to the bridesmaid, silver candle holders; to the groomsman a compact travelling set, and to the waitresses, wall plaques and hand-made centre-pieces.

After supper Mr. and Mrs. Thackeray left by motor for Hamilton. For travelling the bride wore a navy blue all-wool Alpine suit, white blouse, blue pompadour hat, with white flowers and black veil, blue top coat and accessories.

On their return they will take up residence on the Thackeray farm north of the village.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Carr Observe 50th Wedding Anniversary

A marriage which was solemnized fifty years ago in the Methodist parsonage, Lindsay, will mark one of its high points Tuesday, when Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carr, 566 Weller street, celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. After living six years in Lindsay, they moved to Peterborough, where they have made their home since that time. Mrs. Carr, who was Della Robinson, before her marriage, previously lived in Oakwood.

Recalling their first years in Peterborough, Mr. and Mrs. Carr mentioned particularly the growth of the city, since, when they first arrived, most of the land below Charlotte on Park street, was boggy and damp, with very few houses. This section is now filled in, and King, Bolivar and Sherbrooke streets, and parallel streets, have been made.

Mr. Carr, who has been employed at the Bonnerworth mills for 30 years, vividly remembers an incident which occurred in his youth, when he was assisting on a steamboat, which was towing seven scows loaded with logs from Deer Bay through Buckhorn and Bobcaygeon. A wind had come up during the night, and was driving the logs into the shore. About three o'clock in the morning, one of the men guarding the scows called to the boat, and woke up Mr. Carr, who had a very rude awakening when he stepped into the cold water which was spreading over the floor. The logs had pressed against the boat, and were dragging it down. After an anxious night, however, the scows were back in position and the journey continued.

Another [illegible] which had to met on that tr[illegible] enforced wait over Sund[illegible] one of the locks. They had arr[illegible] late Saturday at one of the locks near the end of their journey. After six of the seven scows had been towed through, the keeper closed up for Sunday, and the boat had to wait until Monday morning before the last scow could be towed through.

Likes Bicycle.

Mrs. Carr, who is 72, is quick and active, and keeps things humming around her home. She still chuckles over the bicycle trip she and her son, Virg Carr, made over thirty years ago. They started out early in the morning, to pedal to Lindsay over the gravel road. She says that her son used to pedal ahead, and then wait for her to catch up. Going down the hills, great care had to be taken, since the gravel was treacherous, and it was easy to be thrown off. Mrs. Carr says that just at the bottom of one particularly steep grade, she hit a patch of sliding gravel, and flew over the handlebars. Just a bit shaken up, she continued the trip after a short rest. They arrived in Lindsay around five o'clock that evening, and spent the night there, and visited friends. They also made the return trip in one day.

Mr. Carr is 77 years of age, and was born in Port Perry. He has five brothers living, three are living in the west; and two in the United States. Mrs. Carr was born in Pleasant Point, and has two sisters living, Mrs. A. Murray, and Mrs. H. James, of Peterborough. They have three children, Verg. Carr is a master mechanic at the Peterborough Fire Department, and the twins, Georgiana and Marie are employed at the Canadian-Ventilating Shades.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr will be "at home" to friends on Tuesday afternoon and evening, and are looking forward to meeting everyone who comes to their home.

Jr. Red Cross Sponsor Sale

LAKEFIELD, May 22—(ENS)—The Anglican parish hall, decorated with red and white streamers, red crosses, and cherry blossoms, was the scene of a very successful afternoon tea and sale of home cooking Friday under the auspices of the Junior Red Cross Society of Lakefield High School. The home-cooking table displaying delicious food was supervised by Jean Canner, Mureta Hull, Joyce Hutt, Rosemary Nichols and Grace Millage. There was selling of names for the autographed quilt, some of the blocks of which were on display.

Those serving at the tea table included: Vivian Huddart, Lois Reid, Helen Kylie, Dorothy Bullock, Helena Geraldi, Mary Northey, Betty Hill, Jean Smith, Evelyn Peel, Lillian Calderry, Helen Peel, Irma Bullock, Marion Sloan, Joan Dracup and Mary Scollard.

Crane-Webster Vows Pledged

A spring wedding of interest took place in the parsonage of Mark Street United Church, Saturday, when Leotta Mae Webster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Webster, of Otonabee, became the bride of Lloyd Henry Crane, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Crane, of Otonabee. Rev. E. W. Rowland officiated, and Mrs. Rowland played the wedding music. During the signing of the register, she played "Melody Of Love."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white sheer over silk, with long full sleeves and a fitted bodice. Her shoulder length veil of Bridal net was caught to her head with tiny white velvet flowers, and she carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Webster, who wore a gown of pink sheer on similar lines, matching headdress of tiny pink roses and streamers. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. Percy Crane, brother of the groom, was best man.

Thirty-seven guests were entertained at the reception, held at Hooper's Palm Rooms, where the brides' mother received, wearing a dark blue crepe dress, trimmed with white, matching hat and accessories. Also receiving was the groom's mother, in brown flowered silk, white hat, and matching accessories. For travelling, the bride chose a rose wool suit with matching hat and black accessories. After a short honeymoon the young couple will live on the groom's farm, in Otonabee.

Young People Hold Banquet

Young People's gathering of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church had a successful banquet last week. Nearly one hundred of the young people, who had gathered on Sunday evenings throughout the winter after the church service, were present.

The dinner, was prepared and served by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Church. The president, Miss Mary Curry, welcomed the guests, and thanked all who had assisted in preparing for the banquet. Miss Dorothy Block offered a toast to the guests, and the response was made by Dr. C. M. Lawrence. The Rev. Dr. J. D. Smart addressed the group, and congratulated them on the success of this, their first year of such meetings, stating that it proved his confidence in the ability of young people to make sound decisions and carry them out.

A well-planned program was arranged by Ray Watson and his committee, with Ralph Rutherford as master of ceremonies. An amusing reading by Mrs. F. Holmes, "Sam's Letter from His Brother" was much enjoyed by the audience. Mr. John Smith of the choir, sang "She's the Lass for Me", and was joined by Mr. Bob Henry for a humorous duet "Mary Had a Little Lamb". The master of ceremonies then conducted a game of Truth and Consequence which provided much merriment. Five members of the club put on a pantomime sketch of "The King's Breakfast" with their sincere apologies to A. A. Milne. The narrator was Miss Evelyn Poole, and the parts were taken by Misses Eula Rosenburg, Betty White and Gordon Minty, and Pte. C. E. Hall, of the local Training Camp, who was hilarious in his version of the Alderney Cow. At intervals throughout the program the group jointed in a sing-song, with Mr. Smith at the piano. The latter part of the evening was spent at the Paragon Hall, where games and dancing, organized by Jack Marshall, completed the evening's entertainment.

Penny Sale Gets Support

The sixth annual Penny Sale, of the Nicholls Hospital Women's Auxiliary, is now entering its third week, building up to the grand climax of the draw, Monday evening, May 29. An excellent display of prizes for lucky numbers has been set up in Coleman's window, and members of various women's organisations throughout the city have been assisting in the sale of tickets. The sale officially closes Saturday, May 27.

The proceeds from this Penny Sale are used for the work of the Auxiliary, and each year, it makes one or more large contributions to the Hospital. Last year, the sum of $1,500 was given to provide equipment for the new diet kitchen, and also for an extension of the nursery. Other contributions included cubicle curtain screening for two eight-bed wards at a cost of $328.

For their contribution this year, the members have voted the sum of $500 towards the re-furnishing of the nurses' dining room, with tables, chairs, draperies, and the further amount of $225 has been voted, to be used to make the nurses' bedrooms more comfortable and attractive. In addition, the Auxiliary is providing four new mattresses for a public ward, and three germicidal lamps, for the nursery and utility rooms, making a complete set-up to purify the air. Two electric dishwashers, one for the second floor diet kitchen and one for the main kitchen, and clinical thermometers for graduating nurses, are other projects of the Auxiliary, which have been completed this year.

Sunday Hostesses On Canteen Duty

About 35 Sunday Canteen hostesses served doughnuts and coffee to a large number of soldiers, at the Servicemen's Uptown Recreation Centre, Sunday afternoon. Miss Barbara Nicholls and Jimmy Abraham were at the piano for the entertainment. In the evening, Pte. Harold Wright led in a sacred singsong, with Mrs. E. Norman at the piano, and Capt. V. Graham closed the period with prayer. Guest soloists were Mr. Victor Coleman, Pte. John "Scotty" Duffus, and LAC. Vic Reid, R.C.A.F., the singing cowboy, of Toronto. Coffee and cookies were served at the canteen counter.

Special guests during the week were Salvation Army officers Col. W. Peacock and Col. W. Dray, of Toronto. Several servicemen, home on leave, visited the Centre on Sunday.

Fashions

Style-wise Junior Misses adore the wand waist flattery of Pattern 9210. The Dutch bonnet is "pretty enough to go to your head."

Pattern 9210: Junior Miss sizes: 11, 13, 15, 17. Misses': 12, 14, 16, 18. Size 13 dress and hat, 3¾ yards 35-inch. Ready-made ruffling optional.

Pattern Number ....................

Size ....................

My Name ....................

....................

Address ....................

I enclosed 20c for postage

SWIFT'S WEEKLY FOOD HINTS

Martha Logan, Swift's famed home economist, whose weekly, wartime cooking column is a regular feature of this page. Look for these valuable hints each Monday

by Martha Logan

Swift's Summer Suppers

Tasty, appetizing, nutritious and easy-to-prepare Swift's Table-Ready Meats are the answer to a wartime housewife's prayer

There's nothing so colourful as a tastefully arranged platter of sliced cold meats with a crisp parsley or watercress garnish, and a big bowl of salad on the side. What's even more important these wartime days, it's about the quickest and easiest supper any woman can prepare. And nutritious? Why the whole set-up is just bursting with body building proteins, vitamins and minerals. So take my tip, from now on plan to serve a "Summer Supper" at least once a week. For a little variety start with soup one time, and have a platter of steaming asparagus with hollandaise sauce the next. But make "Table-Ready Meats" the main course at least once a week.

Martha Logan

LOOK FOR THESE DELICIOUS COOKED MEATS
Premium Macaroni and Cheese Loaf
Premium Luncheon Meat
Premium Liver Cheese
Premium Veal Pork and Chicken Roll
Premium Dutch Loaf
Premium Mock Chicken Loaf

SWIFT CANADIAN CO. LIMITED
...rs of Premium Quality Products; Brookfield Butter, ...nd Cheese; Jewel Shortening and Silverleaf Lard.
MHM

FLAVOR
Chase & Sanborn's rich, fresh flavor sends sales up, Up, UP!...

Let Calumet Safeguard Your Baking

MAKE sure your biscuits will be feather-light . . . your cakes moist, even, velvety-crumbed. Use Calumet double-acting Baking Powder.

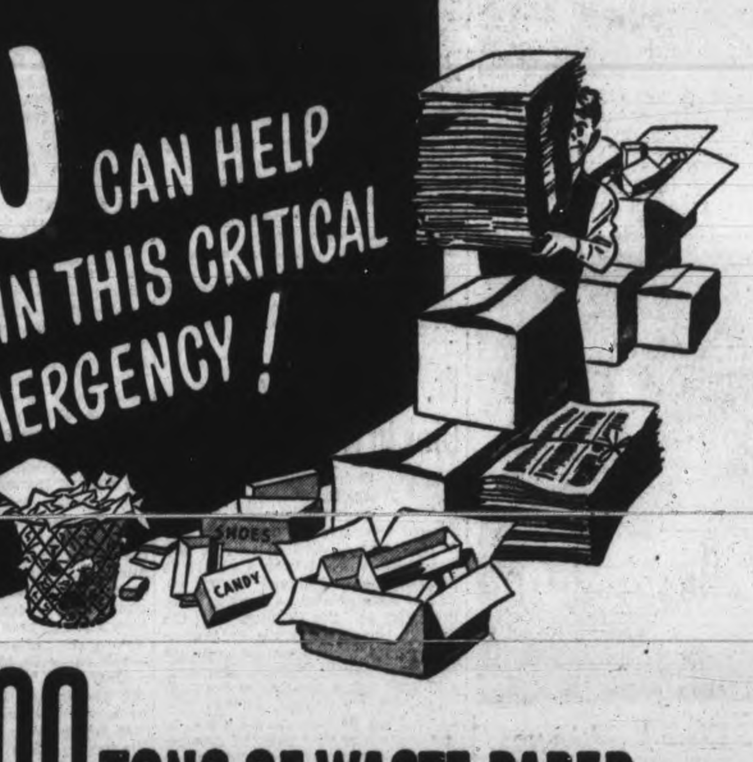
FIRST ACTION—in the mixing bowl, thousands of tiny, even-sized bubbles are released to start the leavening, as soon as liquid is added.

SECOND ACTION—in the oven, thousands more bubbles continue to raise your batter or dough—hold it high, light, even!

Try Calumet next baking day.

CALUMET double-acting BAKING POWDER
A Product of General Foods
L54

YOU CAN HELP CANADA IN THIS CRITICAL WAR EMERGENCY!



20,000 TONS OF WASTE PAPER ARE NEEDED EVERY MONTH!

● Today, Canada faces a critical shortage of waste paper urgently needed for war purposes. Waste paper is essential to the production of ammunition, paper parachutes, maps, sun helmets and hundreds of other items. It is a vitally important raw material for the making of paperboard containers, millions of which are required to ship medical kits, rations, ship stores, tank and airplane parts and innumerable supplies of all kinds overseas. Meet this critical paper shortage with every scrap of paper you can!

WHAT IS WANTED

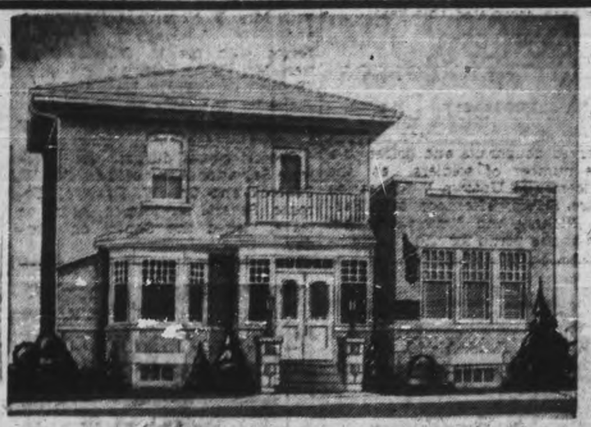
You can remedy this critical paper shortage by saving every scrap of Waste Paper, namely: wrapping paper—store bags—cardboard—cartons—corrugated board—old magazines and books—envelopes and letters—newspapers. These represent the raw material for making vitally needed Paper containers.

HOW TO DO IT

Tie securely in separate bundles. (The little time you take will save thousands of man hours.) Then dispose of it through your local voluntary Salvage Committee or other War Voluntary Organization, or sell it through any known trade channels, your pedlar, dealers or others. The important thing is to get your Waste Paper moving to the mills.

WASTE PAPER IS AN ESSENTIAL WAR MATERIAL! SALVAGE ALL YOU CAN!

DEPARTMENT OF NATIONAL WAR SERVICES



The Comstock Funeral Home

Service in all districts adjacent to Peterborough

One of the reception rooms at our funeral home

Arrangements made to or from any point in Canada or United States

Comstock Funeral Service

305 WATER ST.

Telephone 4683 at any time

FLIERS RESCUED BY DARING SUB AFTER RAID ON TRUK—Above are the 22 U.S. navy carrier-based fliers who were rescued off Truk lagoon by the U.S.S. Tang, submarine of the Pacific fleet, after the navy blitz of the great Jap base at Truk last April. With rescued fliers is Lt.-Commander Richard H. O'Kane, San Raphael, Cal., commander of the Tang. Bottom Row (Left to Right), Harry P. Gammell, Philadelphia, Pa.; Joseph Hranek, Endicott, N.Y.; James L. Livingston, Los Angeles, Cal.; Joseph D. Gendron, Oakland, R.I. Second Row (Left to Right), Robert W. Gruebal, Memphis, Tenn.; Robert E. Hill, Houston, Tex.; Lt.-Commdr. O'Kane, skipper of the Tang; H. A. Thompson, San Bernardino, Cal.; Aubrey J. Gill, Compton, Cal. Third Row (Left to Right), Ensign Carroll L. Farrell, Ada, Akla.; Lt. (J.G.) James G. Cole, Kilhsen, Tex.; Lt. John J. Bowdle, Jr., Wilmette, Ill.; Lt. (J.G.) J. A. Burns, Wynnewood, Pa.; Lt. (J.G.) Robert T. Barber, Rockville Centre, N.Y.; Lt. Harry E. Hill, Virginia, Minn.; Lt. (J.G.) Scot Scammall, II, Yardley, Pa. Top Row (Left to Right), Owen F. Tecrum, Portland, Ore.; Lt. (J.G.) Robert F. Kanze, Freehold, N.J.; Lt. Donald Kirkpatrick, Jr., Evanston, Ill.

Women Snipers Aiding Russians

LONDON, May 22—(CP)—The Soviet High Command announced to-day the capture of a German fortified height southeast of Vitebsk on the long quiet north-central front where Berlin broadcasts have suggested an impending Red army offensive.

Women snipers aided Russian infantrymen who took the forward German position yesterday after a two-hour battle, Moscow said, without indicating whether the action was preliminary to imminent large-scale action German broadcasts also told of Russian attacks west of Nevel, 60 miles to the north.

Soviet troops have not engaged in any major thrust near Vitebsk, a stronghold barring the way to Upper Poland and Latvia since last Dec. 26 when they were reported within eight miles of the White Russian city.

Without loss Baltic Red Banner Fleet airmen yesterday set fire to a supply ship, damaged dock installations, and left fires raging at Kotka, Finland. Other airmen operating off the northern Norwegian coast sank two German patrol ships and knocked down seven enemy planes in combat, the communique said.

DOROTHY DIX . . . .

READING CURE FOR BOREDOM

Long, Dull Evenings of Soldier's Wife Pass In Flash With Good Books at Hand.

◆ ◆ ◆

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—My husband is in the service and overseas. I have one child 3 years old. I get along very well through the day, but when night comes I am so bored and lonesome I nearly die. My mother keeps the baby three nights a week while I go to the movies or out with friends, but my problem is what to do with the other four evenings when I am at home by myself.

I don't like to read and I hate all kinds of needlework, and I get the jitters when I try to play games by myself. So please tell me what to do to pass the time away until this terrible war is over.

LONESOME WIFE.

◆ ◆ ◆

Loneliness Dispelled

ANSWER—The one infallible cure for lonesomeness and boredom is a love for reading. Acquire that and you will have a magic that will make your, long dull evenings pass in a flash. You will have about you the most entertaining and amusing company, and you will always be taking part in some thrilling adventure that will keep you on your tip toes.

You will say that my suggestion doesn't appeal to you and that you hate books, but you can overcome this dislike if you will. You can cultivate a fondness for reading just as you probably did for olives or caviar. Some people even learn to like spinach. So you needn't go on missing all the fun there is in reading unless you are so narrow-minded that you will not try any new thing.

Take my word for it, if you will get a real peppy detective story or a sweet love story full of romance and read it for an hour every night, it won't take you a week to get over your prejudice against the printed word and turn you into a bookworm.

If you scorn reading, why don't you put in your evenings learning some trade by which you can make money, if, after the war, you need to add to your income? Your husband may come back sick or wounded and you may need to stand on your own feet and help him. Of course, you can't leave your baby at nights to go to a school, but you can organize a little class that will meet at your house and get some expert to come and give you lessons.

◆ ◆ ◆

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a housewife and having no children I am engaged in many social activities. I like to have the car at hand so that I can join my friends whenever anything comes up to go to, but my husband is very unreasonable in insisting on having the car one night a week when he goes to a poker game with his friends. Will you please advise me how I can point out to him how extremely selfish he is in depriving me of the use of the car at all times?

I dearly love harmony in a home and hate to have him spoil it with his selfishness.

UNSELFISH WIFE.

◆ ◆ ◆

Husband Entitled to Car One Night

ANSWER—As you monopolize the car six days out of the seven, it seems to me that you should not begrudge your husband having the use of it one night during the week, especially as he pays for the car and for its upkeep. Evidently your idea of selfishness is for anyone to interfere with your pleasure and comfort. It is a great one if you can put it across.

◆ ◆ ◆

DEAR MISS DIX—How can you tell a boy not to put his arm around you in the show without offending him? To my mind a picture show is NOT the proper place for a demonstration of affection.

E. S.

◆ ◆ ◆

ANSWER—Right you are. Nothing makes a couple look so goofy and common as to spoon in public. Everybody is snickering at them, and naturally no girl wants to furnish amusement for the crowd.

Of course, the boys who stage their petting parties where all can see are either very unsophisticated, or else they are trying to show off what wolves they are. But, at any rate, you don't have to stand for it. If they won't take a few hints about you not wanting to make a holy show of yourself, you can fall back upon woman's ever faithful weapon, the hat pin. A good jab in the arm will cause any amorous youth to remove his arm promptly and keep it to himself.

Released by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.

The Stars Say

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Tuesday, May 23

The lunar transits for this day point to a fairly pleasant and progressive state of affairs, with business, although not neglected, relegated to the background by considerations of a more personal nature. This may involve family celebrations of a romantic or sentimental aspect, with social, cultural or professional interests more engaging than the practical or commonplace. However, in the latter the personal prestige and popularity holds definite weight, and should be pushed to advantage in the direction of cherished ambitions or ends. In all affairs be alert to petty deceptions and shun doubtful intrigues.

Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a year in which the interest may be concentrated on matters of a personal rather than business nature, although finances and credit are under expansive rule. Push in this direction with precaution and vigilance, as there are threats of small treacheries or intrigues. In romantic, social and domestic relations there may be pleasant parties or celebrations that should enhance the personal popularity and prestige. With care and diligence it should be a year of growth, fair fortune and happiness.

A child born on this day should have ambitions and talents and professional skills to attain them, especially with the influence of its attractive and warm personality. It should be popular and influential and have a fortunate and happy life.

IRISH DIVISION

Eire comprises five-sixths of Ireland—the balance is included in Northern Ireland, politically a member of the United Nations.

"What's happened to our Marriage?"

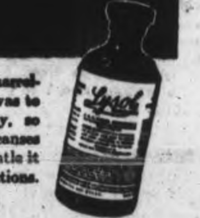
INSTEAD OF HAPPY HOURS at home, there was quarreling—tears! She didn't dream her own "one neglect" was to blame—carelessness about feminine hygiene. Today, so many modern wives use Lysol disinfectant. It cleanses quickly, thoroughly, and deodorizes, too. Yet it's so gentle it won't harm sensitive tissues—just follow easy directions. Costs so little. Write to Lehn & Fink (Canada) Ltd., 9 Davies Avenue, Toronto 8, Ontario, for FREE Feminine Hygiene Booklet.



Lysol Disinfectant

FOR FEMININE HYGIENE

COULDN'T SLEEP COULDN'T WORK

What a relief to settle down to a real night's rest, and awake fully refreshed, ready for the day's duties. I was tortured by fretful nights—tossing, turning—never comfortable. Half awake days—over-tired, driving body and mind to work when they needed rest. "Try Dodd's Kidney Pills," said a friend—"it may be your kidneys". I'm glad I followed his advice as now I'm sleeping like a top—thanks to 111

Dodd's Kidney Pills

Husbands think about it!

Make no mistake—husbands often think about coffee. They, too, remember the lesson that coffee rationing proved to be so true:

To make sure of full satisfaction in every cup, you must use really good coffee.

To be absolutely sure of really good coffee, give your husband Maxwell House. It's a truly wonderful blend—full of the fragrant flavor and fine body that men look for in coffee. And here's why:

1. Maxwell House is blended from rare, extra-flavor coffees—the finest the world produces.

2. This finer blend is roasted by a remarkable process that roasts every single bean evenly all through.

Maxwell House is packed in a Wartime Bag, in an All Purpose Grind and at less cost to you.

REGISTERED TRADE-MARK

Maxwell House BRAND Coffee

MH84 A Product of General Foods

ARENAS OF ZERO HOUR BOMBINGS—The four circles shown on the map ring the areas of great recent bombing activity over Europe. Interest in the Toulon-Genoa sections has been given particular attention by invasion prognosticators. The largest of the circles encloses the area where airplane plants have been a favorite target.

What SHERWIN-WILLIAMS

PAINT RESEARCH

means to YOU!

FOR NEARLY half a century the Sherwin-Williams Company has maintained a research department consisting of chemists and experts who are continually testing and trying various products including new discoveries and developments, keeping pace with the advance of science, with a view to providing better and better paint products for the public.

It is natural, therefore, that Sherwin-Williams Paints stand at the head of the list. For ease of application, for covering qualities, for resistance to wear and weather, and for permanence of colour, Sherwin-Williams paints stand supreme.

Somewhere near you is a dealer who displays the famous "cover the earth" sign. He is our representative in your district. He has a stock of various kinds of paints, varnish and enamels for various uses. He knows the right product for the right purpose. He will lend you the famous "Style Guide", a book of large colour illustrations filled with colour schemes and suggestions for painting and decorating inside and out. And he will furnish you with the proper materials to do your job lastingly and well, at moderate prices. Play safe when you paint—get products of solid reputation that will give you complete satisfaction.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS CO. of Canada, Limited
Head Office MONTREAL

CONSULT YOUR LOCAL SHERWIN-WILLIAMS DEALER

396 GEORGE STREET PRATTEN HARDWARE PHONE 7523

The Examiner

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES

Cash with order 1½c per word per insertion; 35c minimum for first insertion; 45c minimum with box number.

If paid within five days, 2c per word per insertion.

After five days, 2½c per word per insertion.

Refunds must be claimed within thirty days.

The names and addresses of box-holders are confidential and cannot be given under any circumstances.

THE PETERBOROUGH EXAMINER reserves the right to classify, edit or reject any classified advertising copy. Read your ad at the first insertion. The Examiner will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion. Copy accepted up to 1 p.m. each day for insertion the same day, except Saturdays when copy must reach the Examiner before 10 a.m.

| | |
|---|---|
| Birth Notice | 75c |
| Card of Thanks | 75c |
| Engagement Notice | 75c |
| Marriage Notice | 75c |
| Death Notice | 75c |
| In Memoriam | 75c |

The above charge is for 50 words—over 50 words 2c per word is charged.

Coming Events — First insertion 20 words or less minimum charge 50c. Subsequent consecutive insertions 40c per insertion. Over 20 words, 2c per extra word per insertion.

TELEPHONE 4641.

Births Marriages Deaths

In Memoriam, Cards of Thanks

BIRTH

BARRIE—Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Barrie wish to announce the birth of a son, Ian Alexander, at Nicholl's Hospital on Saturday, May 20, 1944.

ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. Clara Barnes, 3rd Avenue, wishes to announce the engagement of her daughter Irene Hilda to Frederick Lawrence Peel son of Mr. and Mrs. William Peel, Norland, Ont. The wedding to take place June 10th, 1944 at 2 p.m. in the Pentecostal Church.

RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carr, 566 Weller Street will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary, Tuesday, May 23rd, and will be at home to their friends from 3 to 5 in the afternoon and 7 to 9 in the evening.

DIED

TYNDALL—Mary Elfrida at St. Joseph's Hospital, on Sunday evening May 21, 1944, Mary Elfrida Doig, dearly beloved wife of Wilfred Raymond Tyndall in her 83rd year.

Resting at the Belleghem Funeral Home, 190 Hunter street for service on Wednesday at 2 o'clock. Interment Little Lake Cemetery.

DUFFUS—Mrs. Herbert J. At the family residence, 269 Romaine St. Sunday morning, Annie Shaughnessy dearly beloved wife of Herbert J. Duffus and sister of Mrs. Edward Lynch, Toronto, Mrs. John Michels of South Monaghan and John Shaughnessy of this city. Funeral from the residence Wednesday morning, May 24th to Sacred Heart Church for Requiem Mass at 9 o'clock. Interment at St. Peter's Cemetery.

Cobourg, Toronto and Rochester papers please copy.

IN MEMORIAM

CROUTER—In loving memory of Sidney Crouter, who passed away May 22, 1937.

Just a thought of sweet remembrance
Just a memory sad and true,
Just the love and sweet devotion
Of we who think of you.

—Ever remembered by son, daughter-in-law, and grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. Jack Simmons, Manager of Weston's Bread, wishes to thank Sunshine Dairy, other Dairies and Bakeries, for their kind offers of help and assistance at the time of the fire which demolished their barn last Friday.

FLORISTS

ASBURY'S WEDDING AND FUNERAL FLOWERS Phone 4982—Nights 3084 316 Charlotte

TURNBULL'S FLOWERS LIMITED 441 George Phone 7583—Nights 3267

COMING EVENTS

First insertion, 20 words or less minimum charge 50c. Subsequent consecutive insertions 40c per insertion. All over 20 words, 2c per extra word per insertion.

NAVY AUXILIARY SPECIAL general meeting at 8 p.m. all conveners and executives at 7 p.m. Wednesday, May 24th in the Y.W.

OLD TIME DANCE AUSPICES Women's Institute Norwood Town Hall, Friday May 26. Good music. Admission 25c.

57th REGIMENT CHAPTER OF I.O.D.E. Thrift Sale. May 25, 26 and 27 at 257 George, opposite Hood and Cummings.

SOCIAL EVENING, — K. OF C. Hall, Simcoe street, Tuesday — Thirty games. Special Prizes. Come and bring your friends for an enjoyable evening.

LILAC TEA—ST. ANDREW'S Missionary Society at the Manse, Friday, May 26th, 3 to 6 p.m. Home Cooking. Novelties, Roots and Bulbs for Sale.

In Memoriam Verses

A booklet from which In Memoriam verses may be selected is available at the Advertising counter of The Examiner. Telephone Classified Dept. 4641.

Coming Events

(Continued from Preceding Col.)

SOMETHING DIFFERENT—RUMMAGE Sale, Thursday, May 25th. Proceeds in aid of War Work. George Street opposite Capitol Theatre. Doors open at 10 o'clock.

DANCE IN NORWOOD ARMOURIES, under Auspices of Catholic Women's League, Monday, May 29. Hastings Orchestra. Lunch served. Admission 50c. each.

WORKERS AND UNEMPLOYED. Bingo "Tonight" Moose Hall, 8.15 "Prizes" $40.00, Good Quality White Blankets, Bed Linens, Kitchen Linens, Comforters, Lamps, Hassocks, Chromeware, Cookware, Fancy Cushions, 8-day Mantel Clock, 32 Piece Luncheon Set, Rayon Spreads, Esmonds, Woolcots, and other good prizes. Admission 25c. Extra card 10c.

PIANO RECITAL BY PUPILS OF Marguerite Rome, Recreation Room, Y. W. C. A., Miss Olive Rome, Contralto, assisting Artist will sing songs by Handel, Malotte and Brownell, Friday evening, May 26th, 7.45. Proceeds Red Cross. Admission 25c.

PERSONALS

"SLENDOR TABLETS" — HARMLESS and Effective. Two weeks' supply $1.00. At Elliott's, McDermid & Jury and Payne's Drug Stores.

AVON REPRESENTATIVE 348 BETHune. Telephone 3194.

SPIRELLA REPRESENTATIVES— 3011, 3150, 5151.

RAWLEIGH'S PRODUCTS. 360 SIMCOE Telephone 3055.

FULLER BRUSH REPRESENTATIVE Telephone 9778

FULLER SALESMAN F. DAWE, 451 Water. Telephone 4780.

Custom Tailoring

DOES YOUR COAT OR SUIT NEED Altering? Have it done now. Tony Pepe, Greene Building. Dial 4295.

Piano Tuning

WILLIAM POTTER, PIANO TUNING and Repairing (formerly Heintzman) Dial 9462.

PIANO TUNING AND REPAIRING — Fred Walker, Heintzman & Company, Toronto. Mail orders to CHEX or Telephone 9496.

3a Hairdressers 3a

EXTRA SPECIAL OIL WAVE, $6.50 FOR $5.00. Rosanne Beauty Salon, Kresge Building. Dial 8837.

MARY MARINO SUGGESTS FOR FINE Dry, Hard-to-curl Hair, one of her better Oil Waves at $7.50. Other Oil Waves from $3.50 up. Dial 8663.

SPECIALS — END PERMANENTS $1.00 up. Oil Permanents $2.50 up. Downer's. Dial 8874.

SPECIALS — $8.50 VAPOR PERMANENT for $7.00. $7.00 Machineless Permanent for $4.00. Includes Shampoo, Hairstyle Cut and scientific testing. Telephone 5311. Paris Beauty Salon.

FOR SALE

4 Miscellaneous 4

GOOD SINGLE BED, CHEST OF Drawers, Chifrobe Mirror, Kitchen Service Table, Screen Door, Child's Scooter. 574 McCannan, after 7.

ONE MODERN KITCHEN CABINET. Apply 441 Rogers

KITCHEN CABINET 30 DUMBLE Avenue.

LARGE COOK STOVE, RESERVOIR and Warming Closet. 6042.

EVENING DRESS, WHITE CHIFFON, practically new, in good condition. Telephone 6129.

DOUBLE BRASS BED, SPRING AND Mattress 300 Maitland, or Telephone 5996.

FLOOR PAINT

Save safely by using higher grade Armor Coat Floor Paint for porches, kitchens, verandahs and cottages.

| | |
|---|---|
| QUART | $1.09 |
| 1 GALLON | $3.95 |

ALSO EASI-FLOW FLOOR PAINT

| | |
|---|---|
| QUART | 95c |
| GALLON | $2.35 |

We also sell Higher Grades Interior and Exterior Armor Coat

HOUSE PAINTS

| | |
|---|---|
| 1 QUART | $1.09 |
| 1 GALLON | $3.95 |

Also Easi Flow House Paint and Satin Finish Wall Paint, 4-Hour Enamel, Varnish, Oils, etc.

Save Safely at

CANADIAN TIRE CORP'N ASSOCIATE STORE

(I. H. Keefer, Proprietor)

342-4 Water Street. (Opposite Market) Phone 8261

SEED POTATOES, $1.00 BAG. C/O Hugh Leason, Route 4, Peterborough.

ROLL-TOP DESK, DAVENPORT BED, Studio Couch, Table, Chairs, Small Articles. Apartment D, above Regent Theatre.

GO-CART. TELEPHONE 4527. 527 King Street.

RED MAPLE BEDROOM SUITE (Imperial Loyalist), also Continental Bed. Telephone 4994, after 6 p.m.

COAL OIL STOVE 646 STORMONT, Evenings.

SMALL COOK STOVE, CREAM ENAMEL. Dial 8413.

FURNITURE AND GIFTS — 3-PIECE Chesterfields $99.00, $33.00 down. $7.38 per month for 10 months; 6-Piece Breakfast Suites, $69.95, $23.95 down, $6.44 per month for 8 months; Ornaments, 19c up; Cushions, $1.79; Mirrors, $3.50 up; Electric Heating Pads, $7.45; Table Lamps, $5.95 up; Vases, 29c up; Artificial Flowers, 19c per Spray up; Play Pens, $5.95; Bassinettes, $11.95. F. H. Johnston, corner George and McDonnel. Telephone 4697.

REVERSIBLE MAROON CARRIAGE, good tires. Telephone 8497.

NEW MATTRESS, SPRING, BED. 224 Barnardo Avenue.

MEDIUM SIZE POTATOES, $1.00 PER Bag. Call at Scott's Cold Storage.

POTATOES. TELEPHONE 5089.

MINNOWS, DEW WORMS. 172 ADEline Street.

NO. 1 COBBLER POTATOES. LIMITed quantity of Small Burbanks. Telephone 5065.

.22 AUTOMATIC RIFLE, WITH SHELLS. Dial 3670.

KITCHEN STOVE. 500 PARNELL Street. Telephone 7927.

GERHARD HEINTZMAN, PERFECT condition. Write Box 227, Examiner.

FULL SIZE STEEL BED, WITH Spring-filled Mattress, in A1 condition. 120 Aylmer.

FOR SALE

4 Miscellaneous 4

ROCK, SUITABLE FOR BUILDING. Free. Telephone 9934.

SOLID WALNUT BEDROOM SUITE and Spool Bed. After 6, Telephone 4448.

PAINTS! PAINTS! PAINTS!

SUPER-LASTIC ARMOR COAT PAINTS

—Interior and Exterior House Paints
—4-Hour Enamel for Woodwork and Furniture
—Floor Paint
—Satin-Finish Wall Paint
—Auto, Truck, and Boat Paint
—Implement and Wagon Paint
—Turpentine, Boiled Oil, Etc.
—Brushes, Sand Paper.

Tested, Proven Products

Save Safely at

CANADIAN TIRE CORPORATION ASSOCIATE STORE

(I. H. Keefer, Proprietor)

342-4 Water Street (Opposite Market) Phone 8281

Musical Instruments

UKULELE (INLAID), SOMETHING out of ordinary. 218 Stewart Street.

Plants and Flowers

PERENNIALS, STRONG PLANTS — Hesperis in bud, Rudbeckia, Lupins, Spider Lily, etc. Also Ruby Rhubarb. Telephone 6921.

HARD MAPLE TREES FOR PLANTING, 25c. Telephone 8007.

4a Seeds and Grains 4a

CERTIFIED SEED POTATOES — SEbago and Chippawa Foundation A. Dial 5005.

5 Dogs, Cats, Birds, Etc. 5

COLLIE PUPS, MALES, $3.00. GEORGE Lindsay, Apsley.

DOG, ONE YEAR OLD, BLACK Thoroughbred Cocker Spaniel (Female), house broken. Telephone 8083.

DOGS BOARDED. HEDGLEY KENnels Port Hope Highway. Telephone 4906.

6 Fuel 6

MIXED WOOD, STOVE LENGTH, $10.00 Cord Delivered. Omemee 35 ring 3.

MIXED SLABS, 90% PINE, $7.50 PER Cord, Delivered. Telephone Lakefield 34W.

7 Livestock and Poultry 7

TEN LAYING HENS, $1.50 EACH. 17 Brioux.

FOUR JERSEY AND 7 HOLSTEIN Heifer Calves, $12.00 and $15.00 each. Telephone 4091.

WANTED, GRADE DURHAM BULL. Dial 7070.

EIGHT PIGS, 6 WEEKS. CLARENCE McMurray, Warsaw Road.

BLACK PERCHERON, 5 YEARS. Would Trade for Pigs. 506 ring 24, Lakefield.

YORKSHIRE PIGS, SEVEN WEEKS old. Norman A. Bowles, Cavan. Telephone 4012.

SOW AND NINE PIGS. PERCY MONcrief, 4 ring 12, Baillieboro.

BLACK HEIFER, DUE. F. CLANCEY, 33 ring 3, Keene.

JERSEY HEIFER, DUE TO FRESHEN June 1. Jersey Cow, due to freshen June 9. J. Braithwaite, Cavan.

SOW AND PIGS. DUFFUS FARM, Keene Road.

JERSEY COW, DUE TO FRESHEN soon. Telephone 8046.

HOLSTEIN COW, 5 YEARS, DUE TO freshen one week. Emmet Fitzgerald, Indian River.

10 PIGS, 7 WEEKS OLD. H. FRANKS, Omemee.

Baby Chicks

BABY CHICKS — LEGHORNS AND Rocks; also Started Leghorn Pullets. Poultry Farm. Wolsley Street West. Telephone 9659. P.O. Box 829.

LEGHORNS, DAY-OLD, STARTED — also B.M.xW.L.—immediate shipment. Order June-July Chicks now, as we may be only hatching to order later. Bray Hatchery, 364 Water. Dial 3834.

"HILL-CREST" BABY CHICKS — WE are Hatching more Leghorn Chicks than anticipated earlier, and can now accept some orders for early June delivery. June prices are $2.00 per Hundred Less. G. A. Brethen, Telephone 250, Norwood.

7x Farmers' Needs and Supplies 7x

ERBAN OATS. DIAL 6020.

TWO 21-INCH HORSE COLLARS, LIKE new. 5 ring 31, Warsaw.

TRACTOR CUSTOM WORK. C. M. McInroy, 4511.

EXPERT TRACTOR PLOUGHING AND Cultivating. Two Tractors at your service. 319 McDonnel or Telephone Art. O'Halloran 7781.

CREAM WANTED

DID YOU RECEIVE A DIVIDEND FOR LAST SUMMER'S CREAM?

We Paid One

ALWAYS FULL MARKET PRICE, PLUS DIVIDENDS WHEN EARNED.

Write for particulars

Toronto Creamery

BRANCH OF

THE UNITED FARMERS CO-OPERATIVE CO., LIMITED

28 DUKE ST. TORONTO

MASSEY-HARRIS MOWER, NO 21, 5-foot cut, fitted with complete set of New Gears and Bushings, and New Knife. J. M. Sandy, R. R. 2, Omemee.

ONE ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION Milk Cooling Unit. Will handle up to 10 Cans of Milk at one cooling. Price complete installed, including Electrical wiring, $296.00 cash. Terms if desired. Guaranteed one year. F. H. Johnston, corner of George and McDonnel, Peterborough.

8 Real Estate 8

200 ACRES, ON LAKE, SMALL FARM, Timber and Wood, Tourist Lodge; good fishing and hunting. Telephone 9937, or write Box 164, Examiner.

$4,600—Nice Brick Residence, Dennistoun Avenue. Lovely lot. Possession September 1.

WHY NOT TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE NEW N. H. A. LOAN AT 4½%? Investigate the possibilities afforded by this low interest rate, with repayment on a monthly basis.

H. J. McCANNAN - JACK SINCLAIR 140 Simcoe St. Telephone 4246

FOR SALE

8 Real Estate 8

$4,000—Modern 7 Room Pressed Brick, South.
$2,500—5 Room Frame Cottage, Dublin Street.
$3,000—5 Room Cottage, Murray Street.
$4,700—Double House, West, one side vacant August 1st, $1,200 down.
$3,500—6 Roomed Brick, Perry Street, vacant now.
$11,500—Modern Home, West-end — owner leaving City.

Owing to death of Owner, I have one of the best Guest and Tourist Homes in Ontario—13 Rooms, beautiful grounds, on main highway to the Kawartha Lakes. Possession July 1st.

A. E. THOMPSON, REALTOR, Kresge Building. Telephone 7294

CENTRAL BUSINESS LOT, 70 BY 112 feet, on West side of George Street, south of King. Good Site for Stores and Apartments, Garage. Apply 146 Hunter Street for particulars. Take Small House as part.

A Good Going Business, Large 13-Room Guest Home, garages, etc. Very modern, large lawns and gardens. A choice locality. Inquire.

| | |
|---|---|
| South, 4 Rms, oak fls., vacant | $2,000 |
| Sherbrooke, 10 Rms, modern | $3,900 |
| Princess, 6 Rms, oak fls., vacant | $4,000 |

Many others to choose from.

J. A. GIBBS, 141 Hunter St. 3843.

EIGHT-ROOM HOUSE, CENTRAL, first-class property, good location—$4,200. W. P. Hetherington, 421 George. Telephone 7454.

Double House, Brick, Good Revenue $3,850

Brick, 7 Rooms, 3-piece bath, June 1 $3,700

Semi-Bungalow, 6 Rooms, modern $4,200

20 Acres, close to City, Brick House, barn, stone foundation, large orchard, running stream through pasture. Immediate possession ....$2,500

M. STOREY

374½ George St. Phone 6573

Possession July 1st—

East 2½ Storey 7 Room Red Brick, A1 condition, oak floors, complete plumbing, furnace, large lot $5,000

Possession June 1st—

South, 2 Storey 6 Room Brick, hardwood floors, complete plumbing, furnace, and garage .......... $3,250

O'TOOLE BROS.

Real Estate and Insurance

184 Charlotte St Phone 9447

FOR SALE, IN THE VILLAGE OF Grafton, New House. Possession soon. North Shore Realty Co. Ltd., Alger Building, Oshawa. Telephone 81

Cottages for Sale or Rent

FIVE-ROOM SUMMER COTTAGE, 15 miles from Peterborough. Write Box 226, Examiner.

BEAUTIFUL LOG COTTAGES FOR Rent, fireplace, spring water, safe beach, Lake Chemong. Telephone 7032.

WANTED TO BUY, LOT OR COTTAGE Crowe Lake. Must be reasonable. Write Box 225, Examiner.

COTTAGES TO RENT, CHEMONG Lake. Telephone 4057.

WANTED, SMALL COTTAGE OR CABIN, vicinity Kawartha Lakes; must be reasonable for cash. 229 Woodmount Avenue, Toronto.

Summer Resorts

THURSTONIA HOTEL — OPEN JUNE Third. Excellent Meals, Comfortable Beds, conveniences, Summer activities, Cottages, Special June Rates, Booklet. Percy Skitch, Thurstonia Park.

Accommodation Tourist

ROOMS, OR OVERNIGHT ACCOMMOdation. 351 Charlotte, Dial 4885.

10 Used Cars 10

1941 PLYMOUTH SEDAN, GOOD CONdition. Would accept Trade. 228 Westcott Street.

1929 ESSEX COUPE, WITH RUMBLE seat, good condition. 322 Mark Street.

1934 CHEVROLET COACH. 576 ROGERS.

1935 OLDSMOBILE COUPE. WILL Trade for Motorcycle. Telephone 142W, Lakefield.

1932 CHEVROLET COACHES, GOOD condition. 508 Glengarry Avenue, after 6.

1934 FRONTENAC, EXCELLENT CONdition. 305 Reid.

1930 PONTIAC COACH. TWO NEW tires. Fred Patton, Route 4, Peterborough.

1937 ZEPHYR COUPE, EXCELLENT tires. 256 Simcoe, 9 to 5 p.m.

1930 CHEVROLET COUPE. 530 PARnell.

TO RENT

11 Miscellaneous 11

GARAGE. 9873.

GARAGE. 480 SHERBROOKE STREET.

ELECTROLUX CLEANER COMPLETE, by Day or Week. 4547.

11x Apartments to Rent 11x

SMALL APARTMENT, SUITABLE FOR Business Girls. Telephone 6514.

MODERN 4-ROOM APARTMENT, CENtral, hardwood floors, Furnished or Unfurnished, garage. Immediate possession. Write Box 191, Examiner.

HEATED APARTMENT, FURNISHED, Unfurnished, garage, adults. 709 Water.

SMALL APARTMENT, EAST CITY; Two Girls preferred. Telephone 4511.

11xx Houses To Rent 11xx

FIVE-ROOMED HOUSE AND GARden, 2 miles North-east of Peterborough. D. McCall, Curtis Brick Yard.

12 Rooms 12

COMFORTABLE, FURNISHED ROOM, all conveniences. 297 Park Street North.

FURNISHED BEDROOM; BOARD OPtional. 487 Bolivar.

ROOM FOR WOMAN, CHILD NO OBjection, central. Write Box 204, Examiner.

COSY TWO OR THREE ROOMED Suite, suit Business people, hot water heating. West residential. Write Box 192, Examiner.

FURNISHED ROOM, SUITABLE FOR Girls. Dial 7518.

FURNISHED ROOMS FOR MEN. 417 Stewart.

OVERNIGHT ACCOMMODATION. TElephone 8319, after 5.

LARGE BED-SITTING-ROOM, SUITable Two Girls, private home. Telephone 4448.

WANTED

13 Rooms Wanted 13

BY PROFESSIONAL MAN, LARGE, Well-Furnished Bed-Sitting-Room, with Housekeeping privileges, or Furnished Apartment; not more than ½ mile from Post Office. Write Box 201, Examiner.

WANTED

13a Apartments Wanted 13a

ENGINEER AND WIFE WOULD LIKE 3 or 4 Roomed Partly Furnished Suite; no family. Telephone 8698.

THREE OR FOUR ROOMED APARTment, Unfurnished, near General Electric, by June 1. Write Box 203, Examiner.

REFINED BUSINESS WOMAN DESIRES Small Apartment. Telephone 4428.

13b Houses Wanted 13b

MODERN HOUSE, CENTRAL OR North, immediately or later, adult family. 9428.

HOUSE OR UNFURNISHED APARTment. Would Exchange 5-Room Flat in Montreal. Telephone 7853.

15 Miscellaneous 15

CHESTERFIELD SUITE. WRITE BOX 223, Examiner.

BROKEN-DOWN TRICYCLES FOR REpairs. Telephone 6446.

WANTED, TO RENT, A 50-ACRE Ranch. Walter Windrem. Dial 6020.

GARDENS TO PLOUGH. DIAL 8576. 245 Princess.

USED LAWN MOWERS

Any Condition.

TELEPHONE 6884

1933 OR 1934 BUICK OR HUDSON Coach or Sedan. Write Box 224, Examiner.

POCKET MODEL OR CANDID TYPE Camera for Airman overseas. Telephone 3069.

BOARD AND SINGLE ROOM, BY A Stationary Engineer, working alternate shifts. Write Box 205, Examiner.

SINGER BUTTON HOLE ATTACHment. Telephone 8514

EVENING WRAP. WRITE PARTICUlars, Box 202, Examiner.

ICE-BOX, ANY CONDITION; GOOD Commode Chair. 763 Donegal.

THE PETERBOROUGH METAL COMPANY

WE BUY

SCRAP IRON AND METALS

HOT PLATE. TELEPHONE 9049.

PRIVATE PARTY WANTS GOOD USED Car, good tires not essential. Write Box 193, Examiner.

GOOD USED CAR, ABOUT $300. 278 Thomas.

BICYCLE, ANY CONDITION. TELEphone 5894.

LAWN MOWER. DIAL 8849.

FURS

Cash Paid for Your Old Fur Coat. Write Box 65, Examiner.

SMALL USED WAGON. DIAL 9812.

IRON, RAGS, FEATHERS, PAPER. Petersiel, Bethune and Hunter. Telephone 9403.

HIGHEST CASH PRICES for OLD GOLD (in any form)

WARNE'S JEWELLERY STORE

349 George Street Telephone 5171

STOVES, FURNITURE. HUDSON Telephone 65, Lakefield.

POULTRY AND FEATHER TICKS PAY Highest Prices. M. Glahman, Dial 8298.

LIVE POULTRY WANTED — MARKET Prices. A. Lantin. Telephone 6297.

LIVE POULTRY — PAY HIGHEST Prices. Florence, 6823. 560 Homewood.

STOVES AND FURNITURE WANTED Telephone 4115—Nights 6294.

LIVE POULTRY—MARKET PRICE. M. Katz. 6906. 192 Aylmer.

HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR RAGS, Paper, Iron and Metals. J. Burfield. Dial 8368.

16 Teachers 16

QUALIFIED TEACHER FOR S.S. 14, Douro. Applications will be received until June 1, 1944. Please state salary. Apply Secretary-Treasurer, R. W. Little, No. 2, Lakefield.

TEACHER, SCHOOL SECTION NO. 9, Cavan, holding First-class Certificate. Duties to commence September 1st. State salary. F. Elliott, Secretary-Treasurer, Cavan, Route 1.

17 Help Wanted, Male or Female 17

EXPERIENCED HAIRDRESSERS Wanted for Salons in cities East of Toronto. Also Helpers Wanted. Apply nearest Employment and Selective Service Office.

CARETAKER AND MAID FOR GIRLS' Camp at Stoney Lake. Apply Selective Service. O-285.

EXPERIENCED OPERATOR OR HELPer for well-established Beauty Shop, in nearby town. Excellent working conditions; good wages. Apply Selective Service. O-288

18 Help Wanted, Female 18

GIRL OR WOMAN TO DO HOUSEwork; Plain Cooking; hours from 10 to 2:30. 544 Stewart. Dial 3997.

PART TIME, 3 HOURS DAILY APproximately. Does not interfere with own Housework; good wages. Telephone Mr. Pogue, 4641.

WOMAN TO HELP WITH HOUSEcleaning. 7177. 179 Antrim.

CAPABLE WOMAN TO TAKE CHARGE of Home, Plain Cooking. Write Box 194, Examiner.

WANTED — GOOD HOUSEKEEPERS for Malton Women's Residence, housing 500 Industrial Workers. Two Free Meals Each Working Day. Good living accommodation. No scrubbing, no cooking. Apply Selective Service Office, Peterborough. Refer to C.R. 1073.

COOK FOR OLD PEOPLE'S HOME; good wages. Apply Selective Service Office. Refer to O-281

RELIABLE WOMAN FOR HOUSEwork; good home; must be capable of doing Plain Cooking. Apply 813 Water Street.

19 Help Wanted, Male 19

RELIABLE MAN FOR FARM WORK. Dial 4051.

MAN TO CUT GRASS AND TEND Lawn. 463 Hunter.

EXPERIENCED GENERAL TYPEWRITer Service Man; salary and commission. Apply Selective Service Office, Peterborough. O-246

MAN INTERESTED IN PRODUCE Business for Local Plant; experience not essential. Apply Selective Service. O-290.

BLACKSMITH FOR HORSESHOEING General Repair Shop. Apply Selective Service. O-288.

WANTED

19x Agents Wanted 19x

AGENTS WANTED

Start Your Own Part-time Business without any investment on your part. Profitable Watkins Route available in nearby rural locality. Suitable travel outfit required. For details write promptly to The J. R. Watkins Company, Dept. O-P-2A, 2177 Masson Street, Montreal.

21 Boarders Wanted 21

ROOM AND BOARD. 4265.

TWO GIRL BOARDERS, ROOM TOgether, separate beds, home privileges. 21 Howden Avenue. Telephone 8367.

BOARDING HOME FOR PENSIONER, reasonable. Telephone 6387.

ROOM AND BOARD, CENTRAL, HOT water. Telephone 5966.

WHO CAN DO IT

22b Painters, Decorators 22b

PAINTING AND REPAIR WORK. Telephone 9277.

EFFICIENT, SMART STYLING for HOME DECORATION

Interior and Exterior "Elastica Quality Goods"

HAROLD COLEMAN

Telephone 9922 336 George Street

COLEMAN BROS. — "THE HOME OF Decorating." Established 1906. Telephone 4485. North of Brock Street.

PAPERHANGING AND PAINTING — Reasonable Prices. Hudson, Telephone 4514.

22f Miscellaneous 22f

GARDENS TO PLOW. 7781.

LAWN MOWERS, MACHINE SHARPened. 82 McDonnel. Dial 6315.

BRICK, CEMENT WORK, STUCCOING Brick Painting, Chimneys Rebuilt. 217½ Charlotte Street. Telephone 9636.

SHINGLING DONE AT REASONABLE Prices — Specializing in British Columbia No. 1 Shingles or Asphalt. Dial 6624 or 8203. See Bert Pearson. 499 Stewart.

LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED $1.00

Guaranteed to Cut, or Money Refunded.

Called for and Delivered—35c

CHARLTON BROS.

LAWN MOWER SERVICE

Wolfe and Rubidge Streets

TELEPHONE 6884

LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED — WE have the most Up-to-date Machinery. Satisfaction guaranteed. R. Harran's Cycle Shop, Dial 5925.

DUSTLESS FLOOR SANDING. WILliam Higgins. Dial 8887.

22j Wood Cutting 22j

WOOD SAWING. CLIFF JEWELL. Telephone 4241.

25 Nursing 25

REGISTERED NURSE, AVAILABLE. Write Box 221, Examiner.

PRACTICAL NURSE. WRITE BOX 228, Examiner.

25x Dressmaking 25x

DRESSMAKING, TAILORING, ALTERations. Telephone 4936. 598 Harvey

Radio Service

RADIO SERVICE

Every Repair Guaranteed. Established 23 Years.

F. H. JOHNSTON

Corner George and McDonnel

TELEPHONE 4697

DELUXE RADIO SERVICE — ALL makes of Radios Repaired. All work guaranteed. Telephone 7142—Night 6394. 450 Rubidge Street.

Electric Sales and Service

ELECTRIC WORK — SERVICE AND Repairs. Telephone 6195

LOST

LADY'S GOLD WRIST WATCH, WEDnesday, vicinity Co-Op or Deluxe Cafe. Telephone 4509.

DODGE HUB CAP. TELEPHONE 5892. Reward.

LADY'S YELLOW GOLD IDENTIFICAtion Bracelet, with R.C.A.P.C. crest, dates, engraved, on back, somewhere downtown area, on Friday. Reward. Telephone 7622.

MAN'S BLUE BICYCLE, VICINITY Regent Theatre. Telephone 3446. Reward.

GREEN AND GREY ROWBOAT, OTonabee River, below Crawford's Grove. Dial 3172. Reward.

THE TEA HOUR GOSSIP . . . .

Today I am going to make up my whole column of recipes on cookies and small cakes. In these days, when so many women have lunches to make up, there is nothing more tasty than a cookie, and they are so easily made and kept on hand. From the oldest to the youngest in the family, they all like cookies, and all wear a smile when they see the cookie jar well filled with several different kinds. I will say no more at present, but will use all the rest of my space for the recipes. Try them all, you will be ever so glad you did.

Plain White Cookies

Two cups granulated sugar, 1 cup butter, 1 cup milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 teaspoons baking powder. Mix with enough flour to make a stiff batter. Roll very thin, and sprinkle with sugar. Bake in oven at 400 degrees for about 20 minutes.

Oatmeal Cakes

Two cups granulated oatmeal, 2 cups flour, 1 cup brown sugar, 1 cup butter, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 small cup sour milk, 1 teaspoon soda. Put soda in sour milk and mix well. Mix all well together and cut in squares. Bake in moderate oven.

Peanut Butter Cookies

One cup butter, 1 cup peanut butter, 1½ cups granulated sugar, ½ cup brown sugar, 2½ cups flour, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 teaspoon soda mixed with flour. Cream butter and peanut butter. Add beaten egg and mix, add sugar and mix well together, then add flour and mix well. Cut in fancy shapes, and bake in moderate oven.

Butterscotch Snaps

One-half cup of butter melted but not browned, 1 cup brown sugar, stirred into the butter, 2 cups rolled oats, 1 teaspoon baking powder, ½ teaspoon vanilla. Mix and pat in thin sheets in baking pan. Bake in quick oven, but be careful of scorching. Cut in squares or finger lengths while still warm but not hot.

Butter Ginger Cookies

One egg, ¾ cup butter, 1 cup brown sugar, (beat well together). 2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon ginger, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon cream of tartar, (sift all together), add to the first mixture. Drop or roll in a ball, and flatten with a fork. Bake in quick oven.

Short Bread

One cup brown sugar, 1 pound butter, 1 egg. Enough flour to make stiff. Sprinkle with sugar, cut in squares and bake.

LOANS

Campbell Loans

$20 TO $1,000

NO ENDORSERS

You can choose a plan that requires no endorsers. Get the cash in strictest confidence.

QUICK SERVICE

The money can likely be in your hands the same day as you apply.

WIDE CHOICE

No other company has as wide a range of loan plans.

WRITE, PHONE OR CALL IN

CAMPBELL

FINANCE CORPORATION LIMITED

Subsidiary of Industrial Acceptance Corporation Ltd.

169 Charlotte Street

(Above A. & P. Store) Phone 3520

LOANS

$20 TO $500

NO ENDORSERS NEEDED

Choose a monthly payment plan

| Cash Loan You Get | 4 Payments | 6 Payments | 10 Payments | 12 Payments | 15 Payments |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| $25 | $6.57 | $4.46 | $2.78 | $2.36 | |
| 50 | 13.13 | 8.93 | 5.57 | 4.73 | |
| 75 | 19.70 | 13.39 | 8.35 | 7.09 | |
| 100 | 26.26 | 17.85 | 11.13 | 9.46 | $7.78 |
| 125 | 32.83 | 22.32 | 13.92 | 11.82 | 9.73 |
| 150 | 39.39 | 26.78 | 16.70 | 14.18 | 11.67 |
| 200 | 52.52 | 35.71 | 22.27 | 18.91 | 15.57 |
| 300 | 78.79 | 53.56 | 33.40 | 28.37 | 23.35 |
| 500 | 130.60 | 88.64 | 55.10 | 46.73 | 38.36 |

To apply for a Household loan just give us a few facts about yourself and choose a convenient payment schedule. Payments shown repay loans in full and include charges at our reduced monthly rate of 2% on a loan balance of $300 or less and 1% on that part of a balance in excess of $300.

Household Finance

Corporation of Canada

Established in Canada 1928

Second Floor Lansfield Block

177 Charlotte St. (Opp. Loblaws)

M. E. Holt, Manager Phone 5841

100 Guests Attend Inspection At Grove School

Over 100 guests were present at the inspection of the Royal Canadian Sea Cadet Corps, St. George, of the Grove School, on Saturday afternoon. Lt.-Commander Hugh Plaxton, H.M.C.S. Cataraqui, of Kingston, who also inspected the Royal Canadian Sea Cadet Corps Howe in Peterborough on Friday evening, was in charge of the inspection.

Among the guests were: Mr. E. L. Delmar-Morgan, Washington, D.C., Major R. S. Gamey, Peterborough, Capt. D. Neil-Johnston, M.C., Peterborough, Capt. D. A. Loomis, M.C., E.D., Peterborough, Capt. H. F. Ketchum, Peterborough, Lieut. E. G. Ellis, Peterborough, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McCulloch, Galt, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Bloomfield, Lindsay, Ont., Lt.-Col. and Mrs. F. H. Wilkes, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Fraser, Burleigh Falls, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McKeen, Ottawa, Mr. E. Hinckes, Timins, Mrs. G. Freethy, Toronto, Mrs. J. M. Mason and Mrs. Thomas, Ottawa, Major R. Diespecker, Toronto, Mrs. J. M. Easson, Toronto, Mrs. L. B. Smart, Toronto, Mr. Frank Pullen, Oakville, Ontario, Lieut. Tom Crawford of the U.S. Navy, a former master at The Grove, now of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Leonard, Lakefield; Mrs. and Miss Stevenson, Peterborough; Mr. Terry Hall, Peterborough; Mrs. S. M. Kennedy, Port Credit, Ont.; Mrs. Boucher and Miss Belcher, Peterborough; Mrs. Theo. Crawford and Miss Crawford, Lakefield; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Collins, Peterborough; Mrs. C. Gormley, Kirkfield; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Smitheram, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. J. McKerchar, Lakefield; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Harvey, Lakefield; Mrs. Stuart Ryan, Lakefield; Mr. and Mrs. Hills, Peterborough; Rev. E. C. and Mrs. Moore, Peterborough; Mrs. D. M. Ross and Miss Allan, Lakefield; Miss Ogilvie, Lakefield; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Morris, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Simpson, Lakefield; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Nobbs, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. R. Fairbairn, Peterborough; Miss Jean Millard, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. MacKay, Peterborough;

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Fraser, Burleigh Falls; Mrs. C. D. Mathias, Peterborough; Mrs. James Blaiklock, Peterborough; Mrs. King and daughter, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Langley, Lakefield; Mrs. G. Stuart, Lakefield; Mr. and Mrs. J. Huddart, Lakefield; Mrs. L. Quackenbush, Lakefield; Mrs. Freethy and daughter, Toronto; Mrs. Mason and Mrs. Thomas, Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Burrows, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Milford, Lindsay; Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Smart, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Wainwright, Lakefield; Mrs. D. MacInnes, Lakefield; Mr. and Mrs. Todd, Lakefield; Misses Atwood, Lakefield; Mrs. Sanborn and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. MacKeen, Ottawa; Mr. E. Hinckes, Timmins; Mrs. E. M. Tate, Lakefield; LAC A. T. and Mrs. Le Fevre, Lakefield; Lt. H. D. and Mrs. Wilford, Lakefield; Mrs. G. Hicks-Lyne; Brig. J. Agnew of Kingston.

IMPORTANT CALLS

| | |
|---|---|
| Police | 3535 |
| Fire Dept. | 5711 |
| Nicholls Hospital | 4691 |
| St. Joseph's Hospital | 3561 |
| Examiner | 4641 |

NOTICE

NOTICE

All Persons in the TOWNSHIP OF OTONABEE who Own or Possess a Dog much purchase a Dog Licence for the year 1944, from Mr. Will E. Patterson, at the time he takes the Assessment or on or before the 1st Day of September, 1944.

Failure to comply with this order will bring Court action. The usual rates will prevail.

THOMAS WEIR,
Clerk-Treasurer,
Township of Otonabee.

PROFESSIONAL

44 Lawyers 44

ELLIOTT, PHILP & CHANDLER—Barristers, etc. Money to Loan. Offices, Kresge Building. Telephone 8675. A. L. Elliott, K.C., W. R. Philp, B.A., R. J. Chandler, B.A.

P. D. SCOLLARD—Barrister, Solicitor, Bank of Toronto Building. Telephone 9939.

JOHN A. BRADSHAW — Barrister and Solicitor. 360 Water. Telephone 9884.

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY — Barristers, Solicitors. Money to Loan. Offices 415-417 Water Street. Telephone 4681. E. A. Peck, K.C., F. D. Kerr, K.C., V. J. McElderry, K.C., Walter H. Howell.

JACOB LOW — Barrister, etc. Mortgage Loans. Suite 1-2, 435 George Street (over Toronto Savings and Loan Co.). Telephone 7423 — Nights 6214

Chiropractors

M. C. GOODWIN, CHIROPRACTOR and Drugless Therapist. 108 Barrie Building, 312 George. Telephone 8795 and 5865.

AUCTION SALES

GORDON HANCOCK, LICENSED AUCtioneer and Valuator. Telephone 5021.

J. H. MILES, AUCTIONEER AND VALuator. Office 211 Hunter. Dial 41[illegible]. Residence 9122. 25 Years' Successful Selling and Valuating.

FOR MRS. J. GRANDY, ¼ MILE WEST of Springville, Tuesday, May 23rd, at 1:30; Household Effects, including Good Cook Stove, Living-room Furniture, Sewing Machine, Beds, Chairs, Tables, Rugs, Sealers, Canned Fruit and Pickles, many other articles.—Gordon Hancock, Auctioneer. Telephone 5021.

MILES' AUCTION ROOM, 211 HUNTER Thursday, May 25: Electric Frigidaire A1 condition, also Ice-Boxes, Walnut Settee and Chairs, Screen Door, Hall Racks, Chesterfield Suite, Beds, Springs, Mattresses, Chairs, Tables, Sectional Book Case, Ironing Board, Electric Electrolux Vacuum Cleaner, like new, with Attachments, Ironer, good condition, Dishes, Clothing, etc.

RE-CONDITIONED LAWN MOWERS — Miles' Auction Rooms, 211 Hunter Street, Thursday, May 25.

Troop Carriers Move Division

KANDY, Ceylon, May 22—(AP)—During the early stages of the Imphal campaign the 5th Indian Division was moved 230 miles by aerial troop carriers from the Arakan front to India's Imphal plains in a reinforcing operation which completely fooled the Japanese, it was officially disclosed today. The movement was carried out without any loss in men or aircraft.

Brig. Gen. William Old of Uvalde, Tex., troop carrier commander, had personal direction of the operation.

Long after the 5th Indian Division units were engaged around Ukhrul in the Indian Manipur State, the Japanese continued to place the division on the Arakan front in South Burma.

This manoeuvre was conducted under strictest secrecy, the infantrymen themselves being unaware of their destination.

Men, mules, mountain guns medical equipment and jeeps with trailers of ammunition were piled into the planes. In 36 hours thousands of men were fighting on a front which would have required weeks to reach by ground movement.

This extreme manoeuvreability of infantry to meet the Japanese wherever an air strip is available was demonstrated again May 17, when glider-borne American engineers quickly prepared the Myitkyina airdrome in North Burma, after its seizure and opened the way for arrival of air-borne Chinese reinforcements the same day. This operation also was under Old's direction.

Both British and American personnel and aircraft were involved in the transfer of the Indian division.

Delegates' Wives Taken On Tour

Wives of the delegates attending the Knights of Columbus Ontario State conference in Peterborough, last week-end, were entertained Sunday afternoon by the wives of the local Council members. The hostesses, Mrs. P. J. Anglesey, Mrs. A. C. Wolff and Mrs. R. E. Macdonald, welcomed the ladies at the club rooms on Simcoe street, and the party proceeded on a slow drive along the scenic river route to South Beach. Points of interest were shown to the visitors.

During their stay at the beach, Mrs. T. J. Lawlor and the hostesses served tea, assisted by Mrs. J. K. Sheehy and Misses Gladys Costello and Louise Hickey. Mrs. F. P. McNulty and Mrs. A. E. Cauley poured tea. After a pleasant afternoon, the party returned to Peterborough, to rejoin their husbands for dinner.

Fraser Dunfield Starts Season With 3 Over Par

Grand weather and a course that is in mid-season condition greeted the large field of men and lady golfers who turned out for the 1944 official opening of the beautiful and difficult Kawartha course on Saturday.

Forty-eight men and 15 ladies took part in this the first combined opening day. Club spirit (and we don't mean the 19th hole) and good fellowship were the order of the day.

Fraser Dunfield, the 1943 Club and city champion, started the season with a 3 over par 74 to take the low gross honours in the first flight, handicaps 1 to 14. Charlie Low 1942 club and city champion was close on his heels carding a 5 over par 76 to take 1st low net with a 72. 2nd low net in this flight went to R. Buchanan with 87-14 net 73. In the second flight handicaps 14 to 24 Stu. Munro last year's Kawartha Cup winner and Harry Pounder both carder 93's and after a toss Stu. Munro took low gross and Harry Pounder 1st low net. Second low net was won by Chuck Fraser with 94-20 net 74. Adam Sands (the thin one) walked away with the honours in the third flight with a 46-54-100-1st low net went to M. King with 103-32 net 71 and 2nd low net to Cyril Crowe last years runner-up in the Kawartha Cup.

The scores in the Ladies section suffered somewhat as most of the ladies were playing the full eighteen holes for the first time. Low gross went to Mrs. Vern Selkirk who played her usual steady game to card very good 54-50 gross 104. Mrs. Jim King turned in a 121-36 net 85 to take 1st low net 89 took 2nd low net.

The days activities were topped off with a dance in the club house which was enjoyed by all.

Sunday Ball Sweeps.

The grand weather on Sunday brought out a large number of the members, old and new, and occasional players. Lex Robson's ball sweep proved very popular (as it should) with 43 entries. Scores ranged from 79 to 133 and everyone has fun, even the 14 handicap player who had a 15 (count 'em) on the 4th hole (sometimes the creek is a mile wide).

First flight low gross honors were taken by Ron Akers, who returning to an old love after an absence of two years carded a very good 79. Frank Poste (he improves with age) carried off the first low net with an 87-13 net 74. Stan Whiddon with 82-6 net 76 and Fraser Dunfield 82-4 net 78 won second and third low net. Second flight handicaps 15 to 26 brought out a good 89-22 net 67 by Stan Hall, a new member, who evidently finds the course to his liking. Dave Price with a net 73, D. A. McIver net 73, Bert Jopling net 74, Doug Anderson net 76 won the balance of the honors in this flight. The third flight featured a good 97-28 net 67 by Leo Ackford. Frank Weart another newcomer took second low honors with 107-32 net 75. G. Seabrooke 104-28 net 76, and Jim Geraghty (nice going Jim) 104-26 net 78 were the other winners.

This week saw the inauguration of a cold plate luncheon and supper in the club house, which was enjoyed by all who availed themselves of this privilege.

Cardinals Victors Over Shamrocks

An exciting game of ball was played Friday night with the Shamrocks versus the Cardinals. Both teams played good ball, and the Cardinals proved to be the winners.

Shamrocks: Berniece Brown, c; Marcelle Fontaine, p; Marion Redmond, 1b; Jean Terrio, 2b; Edith Terrio, 3b; Helen Caravaggie, ss; Teresa O'Donnell, rf; Mary Joan Fitzgerald, cf; Eileen O'Brien, lf.

Cardinals: Joan Wade, c; Teresa Quigly, p; Teresa Stewart, 1b; Isabel Hunt, 2b; Mary Cauley, 3b; Lois Nolan, rf; Betty Schiarizza, cf; Margaret Whaley, lf; Anna Maria Caccavella, ss.

Friends Honor

(Continued from Page 3)

on September 8 when he became a casualty. Following a period of hospitalization overseas he was transferred back to Canada and on leaving Kingston early this month planned to spend his leave with friends here.

Watch Presentation

At Polmont the evening was spent in cards and dancing and prior to serving lunch, Mr Ernie Allan presented him with a wrist watch. Mrs. G. Cummings gave the presentation address in which she paid high tribute to the guest of honor saying: "We are proud of your achievements and grateful to Divine Providence for bringing you back to use," Mrs. Cumming went on to express the hope that Cpl. Sisley, though still bearing the scars of battle, would soon be restored to civilian life. The address was signed by Messrs. Sam Adams, Knowlton Watters and Marshall Longmuir.

Display Handwork

COBOURG, May 22 — (ENS) — Work done during the winter by the Homemaking Club comprised by farm girls of the County of Northumberland was on display Saturday at Brighton town hall. The work featured accessories for the girl's bedroom, such as chair pads, dresser scarves and other articles. The girls have carried on their work under the local leaders in the various communities and supervision has been given by Miss Jean M. Scott of the Women's Institute Branch.

Churchill Will Start Vital House Debate

By WILLIAM STEWART
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 22—(CP)—Prime Minister Churchill will address the House of Commons Wednesday, opening the debate on foreign affairs, a debate expected to be one of the most important of the war.

The Prime Minister, as a result of the recent Empire conference, will be able to speak with intimate knowledge of Dominion opinion of the British Commonwealth of Nations in world affairs and with complete agreement reported on the idea that Britain might enter further inter-allied talks.

A fresh Allied meeting in the near future is expected to be concerned with post-war organization for peace, liberation and restoration of Europe and measure of control to be applied to Germany once victory is won.

The Dominion prime ministers are understood to have agreed to the proposed methods of approach to to those questions, though it is impossible for them to give final decision without consulting their own governments.

Sequel To Meeting

The two-day debate in parliament, to be wound up by Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, is regarded as a direct sequel to the Empire meeting the delegates to which made an impression in political circles in London by their spirit of frankness, open-mindedness and unity of purpose.

The conference declaration following the meeting, purposely drawn up in general terms because the questions discussed were dealt with broadly rather than in detail, has been welcomed on all sides. It has been given a place with such other important wartime statements as the Atlantic Charter declaration.

The seasoned political commentator, J. L. Garvin, writing in the London Sunday Express, said witnesses whose experience dates back to before the First Great War saw the conference as "at least equal in importance and promise to any gathering of its that ever met."

Sir Stafford Cripps in a week-end speech said "if we could get throughout the world the same spirit of common purpose and the same free ideals we have with the British Commonwealth, there would be little danger of any future wars."

Silver Fox Prices Turn Downward

MONTREAL, May 22—(CP)—A general downward trend in, silver fox prices was reported by Canadian fur auctions yesterday at the conclusion of a three-day auction of silver fox pelts.

Selected full silvers were 29 per cent sold at an average price of $55.25, down eight per cent in comparison with the March sales. Regular full silver brought an average of $37.93, a decrease of six per cent, and were 26 per cent sold.

Selected half and three-quarter silvers averaged $38.70, off eight per cent, and were 16 per cent sold; regular half and three-quarter types brought $31.77, off 10 per cent and were 30 per cent sold; inferior types were 54 per cent sold at an average of $25.77, off six per cent, while low grade foxes were 65 per cent sold at an average of $8.57, a decrease of 13 per cent.

OBITUARIES

FREDERICK C. FORREST.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22. — (ENS).—Frederick Charles Forrest, who was born in Seymour township seventy years ago, died on Saturday. His wife, who predeceased him, was Winnie Crawford of Marmora.

He was a blacksmith by trade and moved to Trenton, where he lived for fifteen years. Mr. Forrest then moved to Niagara Falls N.Y., where he worked for the Carborundum Co. He was a member of the Catholic Order of Foresters and the C.M.B.A. He leaves one son, Clarence, of Windsor, Ontario, and one daughter, Mrs. Dr. J. E. Free of Ogdensburg, N.Y., and one sister, Mrs John Potts of Bradley Bay, where he has resided during the past year

Funeral mass was held on Monday at St. Mary's church by the Rev. Father Collins.

WALTER BLAKE.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22. — (ENS).—Walter Blake, son of the late William Andrew Blake, and Catherine Stafford, who was born in Prince Edward county 51 years ago, died suddenly at his home Saturday morning.

He has been an employee of the Campbellford Cloth Co. for thirty-six years and was foreman in the working department for 30 years. Surviving are his wife, formerly Agnes Shaw, three sons Don of town, Pte. Wilbert of Camp Borden, Pte. Robert with the Tank Corps and one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Rowe (Maragret) of town. Also three brothers, Harry of Toronto, Manley and Fred of Campbellford, and three sisters, Mrs. Clinton Heath (Flossie) of Campbellford, Mrs. Wallace Huey (Edna), Peterborough, and Mrs. Simon Dunbar (Pearl) of Porcupine.

Curtin Is Angry

LONDON, May 22—(CP)—Prime Minister Curtin of Australia said yesterday he was taking immediate steps to stop "aspersions" on members of the Royal Australian Air Force in England, who told them they were called "Jap dodgers" at home. "No Australian in his senses would use the term, but if such an idiot exists I shall deal with him," he said.

ROOM AND BOARD —By Gene Ahern

SALLY'S SALLIES

"... And it's only a hand grenade's throw from a bus line."

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

LEARN BRIDGE FAST
1—A Course for You

WHETHER YOU are an absolute beginner, who never saw a game of bridge, or a veteran expert, who has played for years, this course is for you.

Every player has a friend or relative who would like to know the game, but has never had a simple way to learn it. Following this course—which is planned to teach the game to such absolute beginners—will help show those experienced ones how they can pass on their knowledge to the newcomers.

Right now there is a greater demand for learning the game than at any previous time since contract bridge became popular, as the most enjoyable card game ever devised. In the land, sea and air fighting forces, on every continent of the world, on countless islands, aboard ship and even up above the clouds, more bridge is being played now than many of those fighters played in peacetime. For a great deal of wartime hours must be spent somehow in the tedious periods between strenuous duties.

Bridge also is being played more on the home fronts, with transportation and other factors causing people to seek their relaxation among their families and friends.

In every such group there is someone who would like to join the game, but cannot for lack of knowing how to play. On numberless occasions, three bridge players will lack the necessary fourth, so none of them can play.

If you have never played the game, you will find that this course strips bridge of its mystery and will enable you to be playing with sympathetic experienced players after the second lesson, which appears tomorrow.

If you are an experienced player, there are several things this course may do for you. First, you can tell your friends who are non-players, to follow it. Second, you can clip it for them and give or send it to them—even if they are overseas. Third, your own reading of it will not only help you later on to teach friends, but will strengthen your own game. For it is always good for the most advanced student of any subject to go back to fundamentals once in a while.

It has been proved, time and again, that bridge is one of the very best tonics for people who are tense from strain. Nothing else has such a magic ability to compel complete concentration in a pleasant sort of way, and take your mind off of worries. Doing that enables you to come back to your serious problems with your mind refreshed and keen for the task.

Tomorrow: Sketching the Game.

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

DAILY CROSSWORD

ACROSS
1. To become red, as the face
6. Prices of passages
11. Ancient district (Asia Minor)
12. Lariat
13. Bends the head
14. Paleness
15. Ostrich-like bird
16. Brown, as in the sun
17. Finish
18. Protective covering (zool.)
21. Apportioned
23. Glacial snow
27. Tiny
28. Russian leader (1917-24)
29. Toward the lee
30. Molded masses, as of bread
31. Palace in Paris (Museum of Arts)
33. Fabulous bird
36. Perish
37. Bowl underhand (cricket)
40. Corrects
42. Bird of peace
43. Alpine province, W Austria
44. To pay back
45. Abounding in stones
46. Touches

DOWN
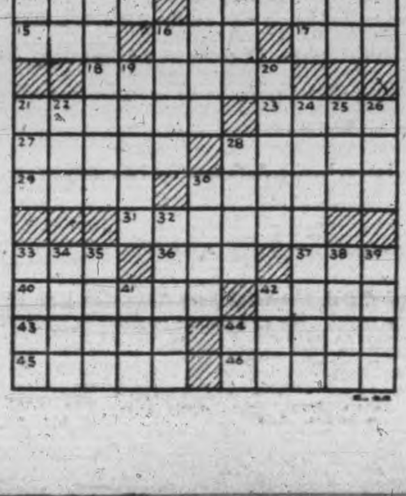
1. Twining stem
2. Weaving machine
3. To surge
4. Little girl
5. Exclamation
6. Coin (Fr.)
7. Trouble
8. Respiratory sound
9. Boy's school (Eng.)
10. Variety of chalcedony
14. Gave, as money
16. Allowance for waste
19. Bay window
20. Close to (poet.)
21. Resort
22. Goddess of death
24. A wrapper
25. Contend
26. Half ems
28. Ardent affection
30. Boy's name
32. Strangely
33. Rodents
34. Leave out
35. Gamefish
38. Elliptical
39. Rulers of Tunis
41. Not (prefix)
42. English river
44. Radio frequency (abbr.)

Saturday's Answer



TERRY AND THE PIRATES —By Milton Caniff

LI'L ABNER —By Al Capp

HENRY —By Carl Anderson

DONALD DUCK —By Walt Disney

BLONDIE —By Chic Young

MUGGS AND SKEETER —By Wally Bishop

BRICK BRADFORD —By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

TILLIE THE TOILER —By Russ Westover

HEROIC CREWMEN OF VALLEYFIELD —(Left) LS. David Henry Bron of Roseland, Ont., who was one of three heroic crewmen who stayed on deck to remove the primers from all of live depth charges, which would have finished all of the survivors. The three are "missing." (Centre) OS. Donald Harold Godwin of Hamilton, who swam with W. C. Burton of Vancouver on his back, until Lieut. Godwin Warren took him over and made for a Carley float. Godwin is a survivor. (Right) Lieut. Charles Ian P. Tate of Toronto, who was on the bridge with Lieut.-Cmdr. D. T. English when the ship was torpedoed and both were engulfed in the sea. "It was like something in a horror movie," says Tate. Later on a Carley float the captain called to Tate, "If I don't come through this, will you please write my wife?" It was the last he heard from the captain.

People Learn To Prize Their Victory Bonds

"I know some people I couldn't pry their Victory Bonds from them now, but they were mighty dubious and hesitant about buying their first one."

That is W. A. Reid answering a reporter's question as to whether he had any comment or advice to the Victory Bond buyer.

"I know one man and his wife," said Mr. Reid, "who are in that class of converts, and I think of them as examples of the vast majority who intend to hang on to their Bonds as long as they can.

I was driving down from Dominion Woollens and Worsteds one day after I first came here. I saw a man at a crossing and stopped and asked him if he was coming down town with me. And we got talking about Victory Bonds. This man said he didn't know anything about them; never bought a bond of any kind in his life. He sounded almost as if he would rather give the government a hundred dollars than be bothered with the bond business. Well, I told him that was all poppycock, and we talked bonds the rest of the way. That man's wife is working and so is he, and they have been buying all the Victory Bonds they can, and as I said in the beginning if I tried to pry their bonds from them today I don't think I could do it."

Mr. Reid's advice was: "Don't cash your Victory Bonds. Hang on to them. Do without something; save money and put it into bonds and you'll have something well worth the effort when it is all over."

So the reporter asked Mr. Reid a personal question. "The Sixth Victory Loan campaign is over, and you are talking about doing without things, do you mind a personal question: "How about Bill Reid? Is he on par with the fellow he talked Bonds to in that car ride?"

"I don't mind that question," he answered. "I have been doing without certain things. One of them is my golf club membership and I think I like a game of golf just about as keenly as the next duffer. I knew that if I was going to buy Victory Bonds I would have to do without some things: And that is where I started. And I've kept right on at it."

"Take care of your Bonds. Don't stick them in some drawer like a letter from Aunt Charlotte. You wouldn't leave hundred dollar bills lying around carelessly. And your Bonds is worth more than any century note you ever saw. Take care of them, know where they are, and don't spend them unless you run into some real emergency. The boys overseas can't buy anything, probably some cigarettes or a beer. They have to do without things, and they are used to it. Over here it is optional with us, but if they are just a fraction as good as those men we are going to keep piling the Victory Bonds into the tin box, and they will soon mount up into an attractive sum."

If Back Aches Help Kidneys

Do you feel older than you are or suffer from Getting Up Nights, Backache, Nervousness, Leg Pains, Rheumatic Pains, Burning, scanty or frequent passages? If so, remember that your Kidneys are vital to your health and that these symptoms may be due to Kidney and Bladder troubles—in such cases Cystex usually gives prompt and joyous relief by helping the Kidneys clean out poisonous excess acids and wastes. You have everything to gain and nothing to lose in trying Cystex. The iron clad money-back agreement assures a refund of your money on return of empty package unless fully satisfied. Don't delay. Get Cystex (Siss-tex) from your druggist today.

Cystex
Helps Flush Kidneys

CHEMISTRY SERVES CANADA

HOW MUCH SOUP CAN A BOMBER CARRY?

TEN times as much if the soup has been dehydrated and compressed. One four-motored bomber can carry enough dehydrated and compressed soup for 500,000 servings—a half-million bowls of soup!

Dehydrated and compressed foods when carried by ship provide a saving of 90% in shipping weight and up to 50% in bulk. Today, when cargo space is still at a premium, this method of preparing foodstuffs for overseas simplifies and speeds the delivery of larger quantities of food than might otherwise be possible.

Today, all the billions of eggs shipped abroad from this continent are dried; all milk going to Britain is dried. Most of the potatoes, carrots, onions, beets, cabbage are also dehydrated. These foods when rehydrated retain their appearance, flavour and most of their vitamin values.

Dehydrated food packages must be air-proof and moisture-proof. Many packages now being successfully shipped from this continent use a laminated material built partly from moisture-proof "Cellophane" or depend upon "Cellophane" specially treated with wax resin compositions. Thus, "Cellophane", developed for peacetime use, serves the United Nations by helping provide proper packaging for vitally important dehydrated and compressed foods.

"Cellophane" cellulose film for packaging foods offers another example of how Industrial Chemistry is today serving Canada and her allies.

C-I-L

CANADIAN INDUSTRIES LIMITED

Eggs Showing Steady Demand

TORONTO, May 22—The heavy volume of receipts arriving in the city during the past week failed to change the steady trend of the egg market. Breaking plants have been operating rather spasmodically, being limited as to the amount of melange they are allowed to manufacture. The local consumer demand has held very well for top grades, while undergrades have been inclined to drag. Seven carlots were assembled this week for the Special Products Board. Out of town movement has been light.

The production picture on the butter market continues unchanged, with offerings limited, and a good demand still in evidence. Current indications point to some broadening in consumer demand.

The cheese market was still without supplies and no sales were noted during the week.

Citizens Outline Post-War Plans

CAMPBELLFORD, May 22 (ENS) —Stressing the fact that we cannot sit with folded hands awaiting the arrival home of the men and women of the armed forces, the local rehabilitation committee, under the chairmanship of Rev. G. N. Maxwell completed their organization at a well attended meeting held Friday evening in the public library.

Suggestions for the best method of providing for the welfare, housing and employment of the returning soldiers were made and discussed. Called on by the chairman, Mayor Long, who attended the meeting in Toronto, called for this purpose, stated that he was impressed by the fact that if we wanted tangible result we must rely to a great extent on our own efforts.

The town council had given this matter serious consideration, he said, and it was suggested that a memorial hospital be erected. He stated that the water and light commission was building up a surplus (the amount now is $33,000) to instal new transmission lines, to build a storage basin on the west side of the river in order that an adequate supply of chlorinated water would be available. Councillor Donald also favored the erection of needed public buildings. Mrs. Ironside and Mrs. McEachern felt that this would not meet the need, while Mr. MacColl affirmed that 80 per cent of the men would return to their old occupations. Mr. Kingston brought up the question of education and the extensive plans already made by the department. Rev. Mr. Ralston also dwelt on public improvements and education but stated that the ability to pay should be considered if the plan was to be a success. Whatever plan is chosen Campbellford will do her part.

Asthma Mucus Loosened First Day

Choking, gasping, wheezing Asthma and Bronchitis ruin your health. The prescription Azmo-Tabs quickly circulates through the blood promptly helping to curb these attacks and usually the first day the mucus is loosened thus giving free easy breathing and restful sleep. Just send your name, card will do, for $1.00 Azmo-Tabs free. No cost. No obligation. Just tell others if it stops your Asthma attacks. Knox Company, 737 Knox Bldg., Fort Erie North, Ontario.—(Advt.)

Fraserville News

Friends of little Carol Yelland who recently underwent an appendicitis operation in Nicholls Hospital will be pleased to know she was able to leave the hospital this week and is visiting with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Larmer, and also with her grandmother, Mrs. A. Wood, Fraserville.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lang, Fraserville, had their son, Ralph Hilliard, christened in Millbrook United church Sunday, after which they motored to Blackstock to visit Mrs. Lang's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williamson and also her mother, Mrs. John Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holden moved on Tuesday to Millbrook, where they have recently purchased a house. Mr. Harold Lunn having purchased their farm will now reside there.

The Battle of Price Ceilings

The Battle of Curtailed Deliveries

The Battle of Rationing

The Battle of Making Things Do

The Battle of Short Supplies

The Battle of Voluntary Services

"I hear I'm a hero!"

"Oh, it's heroine isn't it? I guess I'm confused and flattered . . . and awed! Imagine me, plain Mrs. Jones, busy sending Big Joe (that's my husband) off to the munitions plant every morning with a full lunch pail, and packing parcels for Little Joe who's six feet now and in the Airforce . . . imagine me a hero . . . I mean heroine!

Imagine honouring me, and all the other Mrs. Consumers, in cities and villages and farms across this broad country. Imagine honouring us for our part! Of course we've watched prices, and carried parcels . . . we've mended and made over . . . we've worn "frozen" fashions and re-soled shoes . . . we've rolled bandages and reached for our extra pennies (put away in the old sugar-bowl) and bought another book of War Savings Stamps. Of course we did these things, we thought it was our everyday wartime job. Now they say we are saving the price ceiling . . . that we are part of the forces that keep the front line firm.

My goodness! If I'm a hero, I mean heroine, that's fine. But I am really only doing my job . . . and I'll keep right at it!

No one knows better than the C.D.S. the vital part Canadian women are playing in the battle against inflation on the home front. We are proud to publish this tribute in conjunction with Mrs. Consumer Week, May 22nd to 27th.

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES

Telephones
Examiner .......... 4641
CHEX .......... 4641
Nights after 6 p.m. Sundays, Holidays
Examiner .......... 4661
CHEX .......... 4643

Evening Examiner
Peterborough

NIGHT FINAL

VOL. LXXXIX, No. 121 — WEATHER Cloudy; little cooler. — PETERBOROUGH, TUESDAY, MAY 23, 1944 — ★★ — PRICE FOUR CENTS

CRACK MAIN HITLER LINE DEFENCES

Anzio Troops Launch New Attack

700 Heavy Bombers Blast Targets Spearheading Push

By NOLAND NARGAARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

NAPLES, May 23—(AP)—Allied troops on the Anzio beachhead launched a powerful offensive today, cracking into the German line only 22 miles from main Fifth Army forces driving up from the south-east.

Five hundred to 700 heavy bombers blasted military target within a 50-mile radius of Rome in a thundering spearhead for the drive.

On the main front to the southeast, other 5th Army forces smashing into the reinforced Nazi battle line seized more heights and Allied troops pierced the Hitler line all front.

A Swiss broadcast said the Allies were only 20 miles from the Anzio perimeter.

Pacing the beachhead charge, Allied light bombers and fighters bombed Nazi concentrations on an eight-mile stretch of dry river bed near the rail line north of Cisterna, German fortress in the centre astride the Appian Way, and swooped low to strafe the Germans.

The Swiss radio said the Allies, hitting on the eastern edge of the beachhead, had reached Lake Fogliano, and that an attack was "developing successfully in the direction of Littoria" due north of the lake.

New Phase

Lt.-Gen. Mark W. Clark came to the beachhead yesterday, establishing an advanced command post and inspecting U. S. troops on the eve of renewed battle.

"The battle in Italy has started upon a new phase," headquarters declared.

An attack by the 5th Army Allied beachhead force started early in the morning of May 23 in conjunction with an attack by the 8th Army against the Hitler Line and continued action of the 5th Army on the coastal sector."

The statement added that no details of the day's fighting were yet available.

The hail of bambs cannon shells and bullets from the Allied Air Arm pacing the ground assault ripped at enemy tanks, vehicles and troops, with bombers joining in blows against German ground forces and transportation lines.

Virtually every type of Allied plane was flung into the task of carving a path for the offensive in one of history's greatest aerial onslaughts in support of ground troops.

There were no German fighters when the heavy bombers attacked.

WITH THE ONTARIO REGIMENT IN ITALY—Giving their tank the "Once Over" somewhere in Italy, are, Left to Right, L.-Cpl. E. G. Burwick, Tpr. G. W. Huggins, and Tpr. G. L. Langton, all of Peterborough, members of the Ontario Regiment. These boys in the recent drive have been right in the thick of the fighting. (Canadian Army Overseas Photo)

3,500 Planes Batter Nazi Targets

Dortmund, Brunswick French Bases Riddled By Bombs

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON May 23.—(AP).— Approximately 3,500 Allied planes battered Hitler's Europe to-day in a day-long assault in which more than 5,000 tons of explosives were loosed on German airdromes, freight yards and other military objectives in the fifth day of the renewed pre-invasion aerial offensive.

After more than 1,000 R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. night bombers hit Dortmund and Brunswick in Germany and other continental objectives, about 750 American heavy bombers made an attack on French and German targets

Of the more than 1,700 planes—including fighters—making the daylight raid, three bombers and three fighters failed to return. The night attacks cost 35 planes, including five Canadian.

Targets of the American attacks included rail yards at Epinal and Chaumont and airdromes at Avord, Orleans-Bricy, Bourges, Etampes-Mondesire, Caen and Chateaudun, all in France. Targets within Germany were not identifned immediately.

1,000 Fighters.

The great force of American fighters — more than 1,000 escorted the big bombers on the morning missions—kept German opposition at a respectable distance and the Headquarters announcement said that only one bomber formation encountered German fighter opposition and this was scattered by fighters.

In all the night and daylight attacks some 1,700 heavy bombers, 1,300 fighters and 500 miscellaneous types were estimated to have carried the equivalent of 15,000 men.

The Vichy radio network left the air again early to-night, signalling perhaps a last-minute pick-up of the day's assaults which may make them among the war's heaviest.

Late this evening the German radio also was still broadcasting warnings of Allied planes over western Germany.

The day attackers were out at dawn. The American heavy bombers attacked installations figuring importantly in the Germans' plans to combat the impending invasion.

The Canadian bomber group was out in strength, comprising the bulk of the force of four-engined aircraft which struck heavily at Dortmund in the Ruhr and Le Mans. R.C.A.F. bombers also flew to Orleans.

Ludwigshafen was hit by swift-flying Mosquitoes.

Portsmouth Hit

Portsmouth was identified by the Germans as the principal target of their night stabs at Britain, the Nazis saying they attacked the harbor and other installations.

Dortmund, like Duisburg—which was hit Sunday night—is an important terminal on the Dortmund-Ems canal, a main transport exit from the Ruhr.

Describing the weather as clear

NIGHT RAIDERS
(Continued on Page 8, Column 3)

Modern Monster

LANCASTER, Pa., May 23 (AP).—Police here abrutly ended a 1,200-mile jaunt of a merchant seaman in a strange vehicle with a torpedo snout, one centre headlight, airplane cockpit, belching flames from two exhaust pipes but without licence plates. The owner, who told police he travelled from New York to Detroit and then here without being stopped, must get a tow or have his vehicle licensed before he can drive it to Philadelphia, 70 miles away.

Peterboro Men On Ship Returning Home

HALIFAX, May 23 — (CP). — Battle casualties and other invalided fighting men arrived here today on the Canadian hospital ship Lady Nelson, eagerly asking about the latest developments in the new drive in Italy. The ship brought more than 500 men from various parts of the Dominion.

Battle casualties included Pte. L. W. Hutchings of Gatineau, Que., a member of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, who was hit in the stomach by mortar fire in Italy. Pte. J. M. Beauchamp, Toronto, of the 48th Highlanders, and Pte. M. A. Warren of Eganville, Ont., of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, were both wounded by shrapnel near Ortona.

Gnr. Jim Bates, R..CA., of Weir, Que., an anti-tank dispatch rider, was hurt in a motorcycle accident while moving up to the front in Italy.

Two men who fought all through the early Italian and Sicily campaigns, were sent back home for medical reasons. They are Pte. W. J. Stevenson, a member of the 48th Highlanders from Beeton, Ontario, and Cpl. Aime Gladu, Montreal, Royal 22nd Regiment.

Two others who went through the early Italian campaign and also back for medical reasons are Gnr. Oscar Matteau, R.C.A., Montreal, aqud Pte. Jim Collier, Georgetown, Ont., a member of the Lorne Scots.

German mortar fire accounted for diminutive Pte. John McFadden of Peterborough, Ont., near Ortona. Though struck in the thigh and chest, the member of the Hastings and Prince Edward regiment was travelling under his own power and cheerful about his wounds. He had been overseas 4 years. There are eleven Peterborough and district men on board.

Sgt. Arthur Williams, of Stratford, Ont., and Windsor, Ont., a member of the Perth Regiment, had seen action at sea and on land. When he was travelling to the Italian front last November one of the ships in his convoy—carrying a hospital unit—was hit by an aerial torpedo.

PETERBORO MEN
(Continued on Page 2, Column 4)

Allies Advance On 2 Fronts Huns Evacuate Pico Throw Reserves Into Battle

Allies Now North Of Terracina Driving Into Mountains Fighting In Full Swing Along Anzio

NAPLES, May 23—(CP).—British 8th Army troops, supported by tanks, today cracked through some of the main defences of the Hitler Line as the Allies on the Anzio beachhead smashed forward to open a new phase of the battle in Italy to crush the German armies. At the same time other 5th Army forces hammered upon Nazi defences on the Tyrrhenian coastal sector—only 22 miles southeast of the beachhead.

The 8th Army, which includes Canadian infantry army and artillery, launched an attack at dawn against a sector of the Hitler Line midway between Pontecorvo, eight miles west and slightly south of Cassino, and Aquino, 3½ miles northeast of Pontecorvo. A barrage from several hundred guns preceded the attack.

Great Offensive.

A battlefront dispatch said "The whole Liri Valley seemed to erupt today" as 8th Army formations crunched against Hitler Line bastions some 40 miles east of the beachhead.

British, Canadian and Polish units already had penetrated the Hitler Line in the Liri Valley and had the strongholds of Pontecorvo, Aquino and Piedimonte, about three miles northeast of Aquino, in a pincer grip before today's offensive started.

A front dispatch from Lynn Heinzerling reported late today Pontecorvo was wreathed in smoke and ugly clouds of battle smoke hung over the line between Pontecorvo and Aquino.

"The battle in Italy has started upon a new phase," Allied headquarters said.

Berlin reported the Germans had evacuated Pico, stronghold in the centre of the Hitler line and six miles west of Pontecorvo, where Canadian infantry made a penetration of the line's barbed wire defences yesterday.

While the 5th Army seized more mountain heights northeast of Terracina, British 8th Army forces penetrated the Nazi defences farther northeast in the Liri Valley.

Headquarters said the Germans have thrown their full reserve strength south of Rome into the Hitler Line battle, and the Allied main and beachhead armies are engaging 17 Nazi divisions, some of them already badly mauled.

American troops also have occupied or are in the process of occupying various other high points in the mountain mass running inland from Terracina. These include Monte Capiccio, Monte Autone, Monte Calvo and Monte Marino.

Other units were ascending the southern slopes of Monte Dellafate, 3,000 - foot - high feature towering above the other hills and had taken Colle Cima Delmonte, 2,500 feet high,

ALLIES CARVE
(Continued on Page 8, Column 7)

Lawyer Claims Killer Of 4 Insanity Victim

By FRANK FRAWLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

CAMP ANZA, Calif., May 23 — (AP)—On the contention that 2nd Lieut. Beaufort Swancutt suffered from epilepsy, amnesia and insanity, his counsel today sought to convince a general court martial that he should be spared capital punishment for a shooting here March 5 that killed four persons and wounded four others.

The death penalty, upon conviction, is optional with the military court.

Swancutt, handsome 31-year-old resident of La Crosse, Wis., was to have shipped overseas the day after the burst of gunfire brought death to Miss Dorothy Douglas and Miss Lourdine Livermore, both 19; Capt. Aubrey G. Serfling of Preston, Minn., and Policeman Arthur B. Simpson of Riverside.

Chief Counsel for the accused, Capt. Delphine D. Rasco, said he intended to show that Swancutt is

LAWYER CLAIMS
(Continued on Page 2, Column 3)

CIO Determined To Re-elect Pres. Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, May 23.—(CP).— Sidney Hillman's powerful and allegedly wealthy C.I.O. committee for political action is thumping the barrel for a Roosevelt fourth term more loudly than any other group, and a lot of Democrats are as unhappy about it as are the Republicans.

Mr. Roosevelt says nothing about this—or any other phase of this strange presidential election campaign which will be decided at the polls next November.

But Democrats and others are saying plenty, and the possibility of the C.I.O. finding itself in the position to say it has elected a president and a large part of Congress, is causing apprehension in many circles.

Rankin Angry

Here is a sample of one form of Democratic reaction to the C.I.O. political action committee's activities, an extract from a House speech by Rep. John Rankin (Dem., Miss.):

"I want to say now, once and for all, that these Communistic racketeers, headed by Sidney Hillman, who is out raising money to corrupt the electorate of the country, promoting strikes and driving the dagger into the backs of our boys at the front.... are not going to dominate the Democratic party."

But other house Democrats are not so confident. Rep. Martin Dies (Dem., Texas), head of the famous communist-hunting House of Representatives committee bearing his name, announced the other day that he would not be a candidate for re-election. He gave a throat affliction as his reason.

Later, however, he said another reason was his unwillingness to spend the money necessary to offset the sums he said the C.I.O. was prepared to spend in order to beat him.

But the Rankin outburst quoted above who prompted by a warning from a Republican representative, Clare Hoffman of Michigan, who said:—

"He (Hillman) and his aids with the $2,000,000 political fund, boldly announce that they will defeat all congressmen who venture to oppose their wishes; they intend to turn this into a government by and for the C.I.O. . . .

"The next congress will be either a Republican Congress or a C.I.O. Congress, rather a combination of C.I.O., communists and new dealers.

"The real Democrats are clear out on a limb and will be out so far as the next congress is concerned if Hillman and the administration have their way."

Quadruplets

SOUTHEND, England, May 23—(CP).—Mrs. Daisy Moxham of Southend has given birth to quadruplets, three boys and a girl, it was announced today.

Mrs. Moxham, wife of an R.A.F. flying officer, and the four children were reported well. Southend is an Essex coast town 50 miles east of London.

US Planes Using Captured Base

ADVANCED ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, May 23 — (AP). — All new Guinea was within range of fighter-escorted Allied bombers to-day with Wakde's airfield placed in use—and the placing of the newly-captured field in service presaged deeper aerial inroads on the Netherlands East Indies and even air penetration of the Philippines.

On the nearby New Guinea mainland, jungle-wise Japanese troops blocked the advance of American 6th Army forces against two other important airfields.

Accurate enemy mortar fire kept American soldiers pinned against the Tor River in the Toem area which they invaded Wednesday, the day before they stormed Wakde. Heavy artillery was brought up behind the beachhead to blast enemy positions.

The Wakde strip, 110 miles northwest of Hollandia, was made ready [illegible] invaders hit the beach. First down were big transports carrying troops to reinforce the mainland offensive.

Objectives of the Toem-based drive are Sarmi and Maffin Bay airfields which have runways comparable to Wakde's excellent 4,700-foot coral strip.

This can be lengthened to 7,000 feet to accommodate fully-loaded heavy bombers for strikes deep into the East Indies and the Southern Philippines, 1,100 miles northwest. Wakde-based fighters can escort bombers in strikes westward in New Guinea.

Fierce mainland fighting boosted the total American casualties in the Wakde-Toem operation to 41 killed, 135 wounded. Enemy dead numbered 833.

Chinese Sever Burma Road Near Frontier

CHUNGKING, May 23 — (AP) — Chinese High Command announced to-day that Chinese forces striking for the Burma border from the Salween river have cut the old Burma road at Chefang, only 28 miles from the Burma frontier.

The Chinese victory isolated the main enemy Burma road base at Lunling, 35 miles to the northeast, by cutting its supply route from Mandalay. The communique said the Japanese garrison at Che?ng was encircled and wiped out by the advancing Chinese.

These forces pushing westward across Yunnan Province in western China now stand less than 100 airline miles from Chinese, American and native forces in North Burma engaging the Japanese in hand-to-hand combat for Myitkyina.

A communique from headquarters in North Burma of Lt.-Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell said heavy rains are continuing to delay operations around Myitkyina and there has been no material change in the battle for that Japanese railhead base, already one-third occupied by Allied troops.

"The slow work of eliminating savagely resisting pockets of Japanese, who evidently are prepared to die in their dugouts and behind log entrenchments, continues," the bulletin said.

In the Mogaung valley of Myitkyina, the communique reported, the Japanese renewed attempts to reinforce their men isolated at Warong, but twice were thrown back.

The Chinese advance which cut the old Burma Road also severed the enemy's chief means of supplying forces in South-western China There is an alternate route from Tengchung to Bhamo in Burma, but it is only a trail and far inferior to the old road.

Partisans Claim Hun Losses Up

LONDON, May 23 — (AP). — Marshal Josip Broz (Tito) announced today his Yugo-slav Partisans have killed more than 200 Germans and Chetniks in fighting on a 55-mile front extending from the vicinity of Nevesinje, 15 miles south-east of Mostar in Nercegovina, to Gacko and south to Trrebinje.

The Germans were declared to be bringing up reinforcements in Dalmatia, but the communique said the Partisans still maintained the initiative in that coastal area.

Heavy losses were said to have been caused the enemy when Tito's forces blew up two trains on the Zagreb-Belgrade line near Velika Gorica. Trains also were reported blown up on rail lines leading from Trieste and Pola, Adriatic ports in North-eastern Italy.

Allies Remove Jap Threats

KANDY, Ceylon, May 23—(AP)—Final removal of the Japanese threat to Allied communications in the Brahmaputra Valley in North-eastern India was announced today in an Allied review of operations in the India-Burma theatre during the past week.

The bulletin also said the Japanese menace to communications serving Allied forces in Northern Burma has been broken by mopping up operations around Kohima on the road leading to Dimapur, station on the Bengal-Assam railway 35 miles to the northwest.

"Progress has been made in all sectors of the Assam front against stiff opposition, and heavy casualties have been inflicted on the enemy and considerable equipment has been captured," the review added.

WAR BULLETINS

All-Out Offensive Rages Across Italy

ITALY: British 8th Army advances in Liri Valley; Allies strike deeper into German mountain barrier 22 miles from Anzio beachhead; Germans say Pico evacuated.

• • • •

Allies Gain Ground Steadily Against Hun Defences

ITALY: Allies hack out new gains in Italian campaign; hem Germans on three sides in Piedimonte.

• • • •

Pre-Invasion Battering Of Europe Grows In Volume

AERIAL: Dortmund, Brunswick, LeMans and Orleans, targets of night raiders; 1,750 planes launch attack at dawn.

• • • •

Wadke Airfield Brings Philippines Within Range

NEW GUINEA: Jap mortar fire pins down advancing Americans. Enemy airstrip now being used by Allied forces to launch new air blows in the Pacific.

• • • •

Train Schedules Upset in Latest War Changes

LONDON: Britain put all railways on pre-invasion footing, causing many commuters to miss their daily transportation.

• • • •

Premier Sounds Ominous Note On Return Home

OTTAWA: Premier King warns end of war will not finish strife in the world. New bacon agreement looms with Great Britain.

Plane Crash Kills 4 Fliers

POINT DU PIC, Que., May 23. — (CP).— The four occupants of a training plane were killed to-day when the aircraft crashed on to a street of this Lower St. Lawrence village. No residents of the village were injured.

The plane crashed close to the village church, but did not strike the church or any buildings of the village. Alfred Bergeron, whose home is close to the scene of the crash, said that he believed the plane had "exploded" in the air before striking the street.

(Officials at the R.C.A.F. station at Ancienne Lorette outside Quebec, said they had not determined immediately from what station the aircraft was operating).

Pointe Au Pic is on the St. Lawrence river 65 miles below Quebec and close to the summer resort of Murray Bay.

Residents said the plane had been flying over the village for some time before the crash, and that it was "very low" before it took its final plunge. They added one airman was seen attempting to leave the aircraft by parachute just before the crash.

An inquest will be held later today.

No Paper On Wednesday

Wednesday being May 24 there will be no edition of the Examiner published. Comics and all features scheduled for that day appear in this edition.

The Weather

Peterborough Temperatures:

Today:
Night low.. 50 — 9 a.m. .... 66
Yesterday:
Highest.... 73 — Lowest.... 52
One Year Ago:
Highest.... 68 — Lowest.... 45

Weather Forecast:

Georgian Bay — Moderate winds; generally fair to-day and Wednesday; not much change in temperature.

Lower Lawe Rigion—Moderate winds; partly cloudy to-day and Wednesday; a few light scattered showers; not much change in temperature

Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence Valleys — Moderate winds; generally fair to-day and Wednesday; not much change in temperature.

Chrysler Strike Ended By Union

DETROIT, May 23 — (AP). — The Chrysler Corporation strike causing idleness for nearly 12,000 war workers was called off suddenly to-day by the executive board of Local 490, United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.).

Ordering strikers back to work, the Local's executive board took its action a day before its membership was to appear before the parent U.A.W.-C.I.O.'s highest councils "with facts and witnesses" to explain the strike.

President R. J. Thomas and co-officials of the U.A.W.-C.I.O. had ordered the Local's leaders to appear before the U.A.W.-C.I.O.'s International Executive Board tomorrow. At the same time George F. Addes, international secretary-treasurer, had urged employees to disregard picket lines and enter the affected plants.

The meeting of the rank and file membership had been called for tonight by Thomas with a warning "your jobs and your union are at stake." The strike had been carried on in defiance of a War Labor Board return-to-work order.

A company announcement today had placed the total of idle at 11,785.

Meanwhile approximately 4,500 employees of four other Michigan firms were away from their jobs as 1,900 workers at two Detroit plants of Parke Davis & Co. carried out a strike authorized last Saturday in a National Labor Relations Board election and 2,600 others were idle in two disputes at Saginaw and Muskegon.

Objectors Aiding Red Cross

9,000 Conscientious Objectors To Work

CALGARY, May 23 — (CP) — The Canadian Red Cross Society has received more than $500,000 to date from earnings of conscientious objectors in Canada, said H. A. Black, Ottawa, assistant to the Deputy Minister of Labor, at a labor conference last night.

Mr. Black, attending a western conference of alternative service officers from the our western provinces, said a substantial portion of the earnings of the conscientious objectors, who are directed into agriculture or other essential industries, instead of being sent to work camps, was diverted to the Canadian Red Cross Society.

The placement of 9,000 Canadian conscientious objectors in jobs where they are most needed is one of the chief problems under discussion at the conference, said L. E. Westman of Ottawa, Chief Alternative Service Officer.

Conscientious objectors prosecuted for failure to obey orders of alternative Service Officers totalled 141 with 139 convictions, it was stated.

Bulgar Premier Resigns

New Government Being Formed

LONDON — (CP) — The Ankara radio said today a new Bulgarian government will be formed with Hristo Kalfov, President of Parliament, succeeding Dobri Bojilov as premier.

Other neutral advices reaching London offered no confirmation for this report but said Adolf Hitler is demanding that the Bojilov government break relations with Russia and give the Nazis more military help in meeting the expected new Red Army offensive.

These reports also said the present Bulgarian government—denounced by the Moscow radio as playing the German game—was faced with growing anti-German and pro-peace sentiments within the army and among the people.

Quoting Turkish reports, the Moscow radio said last night that a Bulgarian mission was visiting Germany for military talks. Bulgaria is an ally of Germany but has not declared war on Russia.

A Bern dispatch to the Stockholms Tidningen said Bojilov resigned Sunday after receipt of a Russian warning to drop military cooperation with Germany.

Prince Cyril of the Regents Council also was reported to have declined an "invitation" to visit Berchtesgaden, presumably to see Hitler.

4-Year Bacon Contract Is Announced

Expect Great Britain To Continue Usual Yearly Quota

OTTAWA, May 23. — (CP).— There was no reason for farmers to worry about not having markets for a considerable part of their hog production "for years" Agriculture Minister Gardiner said in the Commons last night in announcng the negotiation of a four-year bacon agreement with the United Kingdom.

He said, however, that world associations had to be considered in any agreement entered into with the United Kingdom or anyone else, and a factor in the future would be the consideration that the British will not always be buying all the food they require in Canada. Mr. Gardiner said he could give no guarantee of conditions five or 10 years away.

The minister said the new four-year bacon agreement had not been signed, and there might be some minor changes, however, it was planned that the United Kingdom should take as much bacon from Canada in the next four years as she did in the last four years. The agreement would cover 1944, 1945, 1946 and 1947 and the brice would be 75 cents per hundredweight higher than paid in any year before 1944.

This would apply whether the payment was made out of the Canadian treasury or by the United Kingdom.

(Officials estimated that Canada, under mutual aid arrangements, had borne more than 50 per cent of the cost of bacon shipments to the United Kingdom in 1943.)

Price Increase

Canada's present bacon contract with the United Kingdom calling for shipment of not less than 900,000,000 pounds of bacon in 1944 an 1945, provides for a price paid by the United Kingdom of $22.50 per hundredweight at seaboard, an increase of 75 cents over the price paid last year.

Shipments of bacon to the United Kingdom in the last four years have been: 1940 contract, 330,000,000 pounds; 1941 contract, 440,000,000 pounds; 1942 contract, 600,000,000 pounds; 1943 contract, 675,000,000 pounds.

4-YEAR BACON
(Continued on Page 8, Column 3)

59,840 Speckled Trout Put In 24 Streams

The Deer Lake hatchery north of Havelock has supplied this season 59,840 speckled trout distributed among twenty-four streams of the district from Cavan on the west to Nogey's Creek, Blairton, Bel's, Big Ouse, Mount Pleasant stream, also in Cavan, Birdsall's and so on down the list.

The Fish and Game Association also reported today through C. G. Kingan that 2,000 trees have been planted this season in the Crown Game Reserve, bringing the total plantation to 6,000 largely through the efforts of Ralph Kilbon of Lakefield.

MONKEY NUTS IN ENGLAND

Peanuts are called ground-nuts in Africa.

for BETTER SLEEP... BETTER DIGESTION.. BETTER HEALTH!

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

CANADIAN SNIPERS PREPARE—Canadian snipers train for the "big job." Left to Right in a practice shoot: Riflemen J. J. Showers, Montreal; C. H. Gerrard, Tottenham, Ont.; W. G. Bettridge, Brampton; W. A. Lyons, Toronto, and L. H. Oddy, Toronto. (Canadian Army Overseas Photo)

Fliers Murdered Stockholm Says

LONDON, May 23 (Tuesday), — (CP) — A Stockholm dispatch to the Daily Express said to-day a detailed account of the killing in March of 47 Allied prisoners of war by the Nazis showed the "massacre ....did not take place in a clash between prisoners and guards, but was carried out by groups of guards who lost their heads, and shot prisoners haphazardly in barracks, courtyards and workshops." Six Canadian airmen were among those killed by the Nazis.

The Daily Express correspondent, B. D. Masterman, said British pilots who escaped and reached Sweden gave eye-witness accounts of the affair, on which an official report, based on their statements, is expected within a few days.

"I understand it will be one of the most shocking stories of the war," he wrote.

No Inquiry or Trial

Masterman wrote that he had learned the witnesses "most emphatically refute the German allegation that the prisoners were shot

FLIERS MURDERED
(Continued on Page 8, Column 4)

Telegraph Marks 100th Birthday

TORONTO, May 23—One hundred years ago on May 24, Samuel F. B. Morse sat down to his telegraph key and tapped out the message—"What Hath God Wrought!"—and the world had the beginning of its first practical telegraph. Since the day of that first message, the telegraph and the railroad industries have marched down the years arm in arm. It not only revolutionized railroad operations, but it started a period of scientific, educational, industrial and commercal advancement probably unequalled in any period of history.

In order to pay tribute to Morse, and the others who were instrumental in making the telegraph a success, railroad and telegraph officials are gathering in Washington, D.C., to honor the occasion during a Telegraph Centennial observance which is being held on a national scale. W. M. Armstrong, general manager, and J. R. White, commercial manager, will go as representatives of the Canadian National Telegraphs, W. D. Neil, general manager of communications, and W. M. Thompson, assistant general manager, will represent the Canadian Pacific Telegraphs.

In the hundred years since Morse's first message, the progress of the telegraph industry has been a sweeping one. It has become, like the railroads, a great world industry. An indication of the immensity of the Canadian telegraph industry can be more fully appreciated by showing figures taken from the 1942 Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The two major telegraph companies in Canada—Canadian Pacific-Canadian National — operate 355,159 miles of telegraph communications. During the year 1942 a total of 12,631,260 telegraph messages were transmitted by the combined companies throughout the Allied world. In the same year 1,021,972 cablegrams were accepted or transmission by those two communication systems.

KANDY, Ceylon—Eastern Area Command fighters of the 3rd Tactical Air Force destroyed 213 Japanese aircraft in the last 10 weeks it was announced today. Thirty-one enemy planes probably were destroyed and 58 were damaged.

Cheese, Produce and Livestock

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, May 23 — (CP). — Rye futures closed 1¼ to 2⅝ cents higher yesterday on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange following an irregular session.

Sharp losses were recorded early, but were later erased when offerings thinned and Chicago interests entered the market on the buying side.

United Kingdom interests were credited with taking more than 700,000 bushels of Nos. 1 and 2 Northern wheat during the session.

TORONTO LIVESTOCK

Livestock Receipts

| | |
|---|---|
| Cattle | 3,100 |
| Calves | 1,100 |
| Hogs | 1,400 |
| Sheep and lambs | 240 |

Cattle trade was active yesterday with prices strong to 15 cents higher, About 400 head were unsold. Veal calves were strong. Hogs and sheep were steady.

In cattle trade weighty steers were $11.50 to $12.90, butcher steers $11.00 to $12.50. heifers 10.50 to $11.85, butcher cows $8 to $9.75, canners and cutters $5 to $7.50, bulls $7.50 to $9.50 fed yearlings $12 to $13.75, stockers $10 to $11.50.

Veal calves were $14.50 to $15 with a few tops at $15.50 for choice with common to medium $7 to $13.

Lambs were: One lot of feed-lot, $14.75, common to medium feed-lot $10 to $14, good spring lambs $16 to $16.50. Sheep were $3 to $6.

Hogs sold at Grade A $17.65 dressedweight, and sows at $13 dressed.

Representative Sales

WEIGHTY STEERS: 20, 1250, $12.85; 26, 1100, $12.50; 7, 1070, $12.40; 6, 1210, $12.35; 4 1260, $12.25; 40, 1190, $12; 7, 1080, $11.85; 5, 1100, $11.50.

HEIFERS: 5, 900, $11.85; 35, 900, $11.75; 4, 1010, $11.50; 2, 1015, $11.25; 3, 920, $11; 4, 1090, $10.

LIGHT STEERS: 11, 920, $12.50; 3, 1040, $12.35; 5, 1002, $12.25; 2, 1015, $12.15; 8, 920, $12; 19, 920, $11.75; 15, 960, $11.65; 39, 890, $11.50; 8, 820, $11.35; 8, 990, $11.25.

COWS: 3, 1300, $9.75; 4, 1230, $9.50; 6, 1300, $9.25; 16 1220, $9; 6, 1180, $8.75; 10, 1120, $8.50; 5, 860, $8.25; 4, 1060, $8; 3, 920, $7.50; 4, 980, $7; 2, 990, $6.50.

BULLS: 1, 1080, $9.75; 1, 1500, $9.50; 2, 1420, $9.25; 3, 1160, $9; 5, 1750, $8.75; 7, 1600, $8.50; 9, 1100, $8; 7, 1600, $7.50.

STOCKERS: 20, 550, $11.40; 40, 500, $11.25; 39, 460, $11.15; 25, 620, $11; 9, 500, $10.50; 27, 520, $19.25; 2, 900, $10.

FED YEARLINGS: 5 660, $13.50; 3, 550, $13.25; 12, 600, $13; 8, 680, $12.75; 13, 750, $12.50; 8, 710, $12; 4, 720, $11.75.

VEAL CALVES: 3, 220, $15.50; 60, 210, $15; 28, 200, 14.50; 32, 190, $14; 3, 140, $13.50; 16, 150, $13; 2 145, $12; 32, 150, $11; 9, 320, $10.75.

LAMBS: 73, 93, $14.75; 2, 65, $14; 17, 92, $12.50; 4, 63, $12; 21 80, $10.

SPRING LAMBS: 16, 70, $16.50; 3, 53, $16.

SHEEP: 6, 120, $6; 5, 120, $5.50; 1, 140, $5; 13, 100, $4.50; 2, 160, $4; 1, 120, $3.

TORONTO PRODUCE

TORONTO, May 23 — (CP) — Egg and butter prices in the spot market here today as reported by the Dominion Department of Agriculture follow:

Eggs: Wholesale to retail, A large 37c, A medium 35, A pullet 31c, B 33c, C 30c, country shippers quoted graded eggs, cases free, A large 34c, cases free, A large

A medium 33c, A pullet 27c-28c B 30c, C 27c, with an odd sale of grade A large in 15-doz. cardboard containers at 34½ cents doz. reported.

Butter: First grade solids 33½c, second grade solids 31½c-32½c.

TORONTO FRUIT

TORONTO, May 23 — (CP) — Wholesale fruit and vegetable prices were unchanged here today.

TORONTO HOGS

TORONTO, May 23 — (CP) — Grade A dressedweight were down 10 cents at London and prices were unchanged at other bacon-hog prices reporting early today.

Dressedweight: London $17.25 delivered; Barrie grade A $17.40, grade B1 $17, delivered; Hull grade A $17.40 delivered; Stratford, grade A $17.25, B1 $16.85, delivered.

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, May 23 — (CP) — Canadian Commodity Exchange. Spot: Butter, Que. (92 score) 33c-33¼c; eggs B1, eastern A-large 34¾c-35¼c, A-medium 32¾c-33¼c; A-pullets 27¾c-28¼c, E-B 30c-30½c; E-C 24½c-25c.

Future May butter 31⅛cA, eggs 34cB.

MONTREAL LIVESTOCK

MONTREAL, May 23 — (CP) — Prices on all classes were steady to strong today on the livestock markets. Receipts cattle 98; sheep and lambs 9; hogs 991; calves 725. Fifteen cars additional were reported.

The few steers offered made $10-$12; butcher cows $6.75-$9.75 with few tops $10; canners and cutters $5-$6.50; bologna bulls $6-$8.50.

Calves in good demand $6-$12.50; good veals $12-$12.50; bulk of sales between $8-$9.25.

Spring lambs $6-$9 each; sheep $4-$7. Hogs firm $17.65 for Grade A and $17.25 for B-1. Sows $12.25-$12.50 dressed.

MORE ABOUT—

Lawyer Claims

Continued from Page 1

insane now and was at the time of the shootings with which he is charged, that he suffered from a form of epilepsy, not apparent to a casual observer, and that he had lapses of memory.

Seemed Normal

Lieut. Harry J. Light of Bridgeport, Pa., the first of eight persons to be shot, testified that Swancutt appeared to be in full control of his facilities, as he was seated at the Officers' Club with Light and the two young women. He said Swancutt suddenly asked: "Light, have you enjoyed life? Do you think you will go overseas?"

"I answered that I tried to get the most out of everything, and that the Army would decide about overseas duty.

"Then Swancutt informed me: 'Light, you're not going overseas. I'm not going, either. Neither of us will leave here alive tonight.' He reached for his pistol, and, as I instinctively came toward him, he fired. I fell to the floor. I heard other shots. I looked up again to see Swancutt point his gun at me, but there was no other shot. He then pointed the gun at himself. It didn't fire. He ran from the clubhouse."

LONDON—Cairo radio today reported advanced forces of the Allied armies now are only 14 miles from the Anzio beachhead.

He Came Back

ELBERTSON, Ga., May 23 — (AP). — It was hot when Sheriff John Starke reached his office with a Negro prisoner and discovered he had left his six-shooter in his car down the street. Knowing that Negroes don't mind a little heat, he said: "Boy, go back to the car and bring me my gun." The prisoner did.

Hog Quotations In Peterborough

TUESDAY, MAY 23

Grade A hogs $16.90 plus transportation.

Sows: $12.00 plus transportation.

Eggs: A large 31c; A medium 29 cents; A pullet 23c; B grade 26c; C grade 23c.

The Quaker Oats Company quotes No. 2, $1.10; No. 3, $1.08; milling Ontario Winter Wheat No. 1, $1.10; oats 62c; buckwheat 68c.

MORE ABOUT—

Peterboro Men

Continued from Page 1

He was put out of action by mortar fire near Orsogna, Italy, a splinter partially paralyzing his right arm.

Luckiest man on the ship by his own estimate, was Pte. Bill Stevenson of Beeton, Ont., a member of the 48th Highlanders, who was invalided home after a severe fall near Ortona, Italy. He had seen service in both Sicily and Italy.

"I'm lucky just to get back alive," he announced. "Didn't expect I would, because all my relatives who've gone to war—including my father—have been killed. Now, I guess the jinx is broken."

Scouts Are Active

COBOURG, May 23 — (ENS) — Cobourg's boy scout movement is well under way now with an active membership of enthusiastic scouts. Representing the town's three service clubs, Judge J. C. M. German, Fred Dufton and Harold Bellamy comprise the committee responsible for the growth of the boy scouts local organization. There are at present five patrols, which meet on Thursday nights with George P. Brook as scoutmaster and Joe Randall, assistant scoutmaster. Patrol leaders and seconds are Douglas Clarke and Eddie Caffin, Eagle Patrol; Ronald Whitefield and George Norman, Bulldog Patrol; Garth Cain and Eugene Dowdell, Beaver Patrol and Robert Wilson and Ken Gorman, Fox Patrol.

Police Force Honors Comrade

Attended by a large delegation of Provincial Police from Toronto, Belleville and Barrie, the funeral of David Silvester, former Provincial Constable here, was held on Monday afternoon with a service in the Murray Street Baptist Church and interment in Little Lake Cemetery.

Early in the afternoon there was a service at the home of the former constable in Bowmanville, after which the funeral cortege travelled to Peterborough, where in the church he had attended so faithfully during his residence here, last respects were paid to his memory by many police colleagues and by many citizens of Peterborough, including most of the members of the Peterborough Police Department, and officers from the surrounding district.

The funeral sermon was delivered by Rev. J. H. Sutcliffe, pastor of Murray Street Baptist Church, who sang one of David Silvester's favorite hymns during the service.

Pall-bearers who officiated both at Bowmanville and here were District Inspector Harry Storey, Belleville, Chief Vinton, Bowmanville, Chief Constable Sam. Newhall, Inspector J. F. Reid, Provincial Constable Price Morris and Provincial Traffic Officer L. A. McClure, Peterborough.

Among the outside members of the Provincial Police in attendance, were Staff Inspector Doyle, Toronto, Inspector Gurnett of the C.I.B., Toronto, District Inspector Eric Hand, headquarters, Toronto, District Inspector Richard Cox, Barrie, Sergt. H. Kay, Belleville, Provincial Constables Everett Smith, Belleville, Wallace Hendren, Minden, Robert Duncan, Bowmanville and a quota of ten constables from Toronto. Chief Constable K. Hardy of Port Hope was another of the outside officers who came for the funeral.

Strike Stalls Lumber Output

SEATTLE, May 23 (AP)—Production of lumber supplies, listed by the War Production Board as the United States foremost vital materials shortage, was stalled in more than 40 plants today in the great Pacific norhwest lumber belt.

Thousands were idle: estimates of the number off duty ranged from 13,000 to 15,000; the walkouts—in protest against a wage increase denial—were spreading rapidly and more mills may close tomorrow in eastern Washington around Spokane, where a mass meeting was scheduled tonight.

All mills in Tacoma, where around 4,500 are employed, were closed, including the St. Paul-Tacoma Lumber Company, one of the world's largest Douglas fir operators. About 800 workers suddenly left their work to close that mill.

In Seattle and Portland the situation was almost the same. Only the U.S. Plywood Corporation was running in Seattle; 1,000 A.F.L. members and 1,300 C.I.O. workers quit in Portland, closing all but one plant and leaving another running part time.

Union officials termed the walkouts "wildcat," and spokesmen issued public statements in an attempt to keep the men on the job.

The walkouts began after the War Labor Board denied last week requested wage increases.

LONDON — The German-controlled Paris radio admitted today that attacks by British-American air forces, destroying rolling stock and stations, and the derailing of trains by saboteurs were "systematically paralyzing transport."

A Lucky Find

BUFFALO, N.Y., May 23 —(AP).—Dorothy Schmerbach, starting to eat some mussel stew, bit on a pearl. Further search revealed seven more. All came from a can of mussels purchased at a neighorhood store.

Tension Grows As Train Service Cut

By JAMES F. KING
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 23 — (AP). — New invasion tension gripped troop-packed Britain to-day as further drastic cuts in main line passenger train schedules left thousands of civilians stranded in stations.

Train time-tables throughout the country were put on a virtual day-to-day basis. Troops were given priority on trains still running.

At some stations as many as 50 trains were cancelled without forewarning—some on busy suburban routes. "We are in the hands of the authorities," was the only explanation officials at one London station ould give.

The appearance of German air scouts over Britain early to-day, apparently seeking to spot military preparations, added to the sense of invasion imminency. Six of the enemy planes were shot down.

Over 3 Millions.

Nazi radio warnings and reassurances about the impending invasion included an estimate that 3,500,000 troops are poised in the South of England for a thrust against the Continent, the biggest Nazi estimate thus far.

Berlin radio broadcast an article by Col. Ritter Von Schramm in the Berlin Borsen Zeitung conceding the Allies would excel in power and weight of equipment in the opening phases of the assault but said "fast armored forces are standing by for counter-attacks against any threatened points and to isolate penetrations. The Allies

TENSION GROWS
(Continued on Page 8, Column 4)

A New Slant

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP). —Girls have a new way of selecting civilian candidates for matrimony. One was overheard telling another: "A well baked neck's the thing to look for. That's where you get burned working in a victory garden. And with ration points the way they are, a good provider's what you want these days."

Case Laid Over Mayor Objects

Although Major V. M. Eastwood of the Prince of Wales Rangers Reserve, objected that he had summonsed a number of witnesses and that it would be a hardship for them to get off work and appear at a subsequent hearing, nine charges against Pte. R. L. McIntosh of failing to attend drills of the Rangers were adjourned when called in police court this morning.

A. E. MacDougall, representing W. J. Arthur Fair who is defending McIntosh told the court that Mr. Fair was engaged in court at Belleville and wished to have an adjournment.

Major Eastwood who said that he had not been informed of the request for a postponement until this morning objected to the delay, declaring that he had his witnesses ready to proceed with the case today.

"You know what an outcry there would be if I were to go ahead and convict this man in the absence of his solicitor," said Magistrate Langley.

Finally by consent the charges against McIntosh were adjourned until May 31.

Obituaries

VINCENT ARTHUR MURPHY

MARMORA, May 23—(ENS)—Pierre Murphy received word on Saturday of the death of his nephew, Vincent Arthur Murphy, as the result of a flying accident at Gaspe Bay.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Murphy of 59 Lansdowne street, Toronto. Besides his parents, he is survived by five brothers and three sister, Pearse, Frank, Raymond, Wilfred, George, Mary, Sheila and Bernice. The funeral took place today from the home of his parents to St. Helen's Church, Toronto, for requiem mass. Interment was in Mount Hope cemetery.

MRS. STANLEY WRIGHT.

MILLBROOK May 23.—(ENS).—The death of Mrs. Stanley Wright took place, following an extended illness, at Miss Hunter's nursing home, Millbrook recently, in her forty-third year. She was born in Cavan township and was a daughter of the late John Todd and his wife, Elizabeth Fallis, her maiden name having been Minnie Todd.

Practically all of Mrs. Wright's life had been spent in this vicinity, and for the past thirty years, residence had been at Millbrook. Brought up in the Anglican church, she had, since her marriage, been connected with St. Andrew's United church, and while health permitted, was faithful at its services.

The immediate surviving relatives include her huband, two young children, Joan and Ivan; two brothers, Matthew and Reuben, of Millbrook, and a sister Mrs. R. Brown of Peterborough.

The funeral, which was attended by a large number of citizens, took place on Monday from the Scott Funeral Parlors, Millbrook, Rev. A. L. Sisco having charge of the service. Pallbearers were all relatives and included: William Todd, of Healey Falls; Robert Todd, Cavan; Robert Brown, Peterborough; A. Eagleson Bailleboro; Charles Foster, Peterborough and Byron Fallis, Millbrook. Interment was in the family burial plot at Gardiner's cemetery.

BABY FRANCINE SAUNDERS.

Death came to Francine Saunders, six-month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Saunders, 594 Douglas avenue, at St. Joseph's Hospital, this morning following a short illness. Surviving besides her parents, are five sisters, Lenore, Audrey, Lois, Jacqueline and Mary. The funeral will be held Wednesday at 2.30 p.m. from the funeral parlors of A. Comstock & Sons, 305 Water street, with service conducted by Rev. F. W. Craik of St. James' United church Interment will be made in Little Lake cemetery.

MRS. EMMA JANE GRILLS

CAMPBELLFORD, May 23 (ENS) —After a lingering illness Emma Jane Hooper, wife of the late Nathan Grills, died on Friday. The funeral was conducted on Saturday by the Rev. J. J. Bick at the English Line United church, and interment in English Line cemetery.

She was born seventy-four years ago in Seymour township, and for thirty years was a resident of Campbellford, where her late husband was assessor for the town.

Three sons, Manley, of Campbellford, Harold of Ottawa, Ian of Toronto, survive her, also a half-brother, George Grills of Campbellford and a half-sister, Mrs. Minnie Pettifer of Toronto.

She was a faithful member of St. John's United church here and took an active interest in the women's societies.

Pallbearers were Harry and Don Grills, John and Neil Hooper, Edgar Stollery and Richard Pettifer.

MRS. LENORA WASHBURN

LAKEFIELD, May 23, (ENS) — The funeral of Mrs. Lenora Washburn, 85-year-old pioneer of the Carroll Settlement, was held in Grace United Church, Lasswade recently. The daughter of William Dingman and Caroline Cornelius, she lived in the Carrol settlement for over 60 years.

Her death occurred at the home of her son Ambrose Dingman following an illness of some weeks. She is survived by two sons, Ambrose Dingman of Lasswade, Pte. Harry Washburn of Kingston, Mrs. E. Carrol of St. Ola, Mrs. J. Richardson of Toronto, and Mrs. I. Post of Oak Lake, also 21 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

The funeral which was largely attended was conducted by Rev. Robb of Peterborough. The casket bearers were: O. McCauley, F. McColl, A. McColl, R. Davis, G. H. Bullied and T. Mindle.

Interment was in Lasswade Cemetery.

13 Vacancies

OTTAWA, May 23 (CP)—Death in hospital here Saturday of Senator Benjamin Franklin Smith of New Brunswick brings to 13 the number vacancies in the Senate. Standing in the 96-seat Upper House now is Liberals 50, Conservatives 33 and vacancies 13.

Recover Plane

WASAGA BEACH, Ont., May 23—(CP)—An R.C.A.F. wrecking crew yesterday recovered an unidentified air force plane which crashed in the bay here last Wednesday. Three crew members, whose names were not announced, were rescued before the plane sank.

Sound Asleep

PORTLAND, Ore., May 23 — (AP). — Two policemen found a motorist asleep at the wheel of his automobile parked in the centre of a downtown street. Explained the driver: "I was just waiting for the light to turn."

Premier Warns World Strife To Last Years

By JAMES McCOOK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, May 23.—(CP).—Members of the Commons to-day pondered the sober words of Prime Minister Mackenzie King—spoken a few moments after they gave him a tumultuous welcome back to the House yesterday—that the victorious end of the present war will not be the end of strife.

Touched by the warmth of the members' greeting on his return from flying 4,000 miles to attend the Empire Prime Ministers' Conference in London Mr. King thanked them and then declared his pride in being a Canadian and a citizen of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

He spoke of the unity of feeling at the conference, the appreciation of the United Kingdom for the Canadian contribution to the war effort and his renewed confidence in ultimate victory in light of the "inside" knowledge he obtained in London, And then he added solemnly:

PREMIER WARNS
(Continued on Page 8, Column 1)

Farmer Fined Took 3 Bass

Els. Sheehy, Burnt River farmer, went fishing for suckers in Nogie's Creek recently and if he had confined his catch to the original object of his expedition he would be further ahead financially today. Unfortunately for Sheehy Fish and Game Overseer Stan. Windsor of Peterborough happened along during the fishing operations and still more unluckily he found the Burnt River man in possession of two three-pound female black bass, full of spawn.

As a result Sheehey was charged with catching the bass out of season and at this morning's session of police court he entered a written plea of guilty and was fined $15 and $2.50 costs by Magistrate O. A. Langley, K.C.

Toronto News Writer Gave Book Donations

GORE'S LANDING, May 23—(ENS)—With the death last week of Miss Mary White, "Bride Broder," columnist for a Toronto paper, the library of this village lost a good friend.

Miss White's interest in rural activities was well known, especially rural education. Two or three years ago, when her health was causing anxiety, she sent a package of books to the Gore's Landing Library. They consisted of autographed books of poetry and prose, sent Miss White by various Canadian authors. She wished these books to be kept in the library for future generations. At another time, she was instrumental in enlisting the interest of a library in a large city in the village library.

Miss White consistently advocated better rural schools and frequently devoted her column towards urging modern methods for rural education.

Scout Investiture

GORE'S LANDING, May 23—(ENS)—A Boy Scout investitute was held in St. George's-on-the-Hill Sunday evening when the rector, Rev. Lloyd Delaney, inducted three boys into the scout troop and one a member of the wolf cubs. Clare Harris, assistant scout master, and Scout Maurice Harris assisted in the ceremony, as each boy repeated the pledge and saluted. New scouts included Jack Dear, Billy Meggs and Eric Harris, while Robert Harris became a wolf cub.

Women Workers! SAY "NO" To Rough Red Skin!
Try quick easy way to help keep face, hands smooth
Surprising! Say thousands the way Cuticura helps relieve surface cracks, chafing and irritation—helps bring back natural smoothness. Buy BOTH today! All druggists.
CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

Roll your own with

MAKES A BETTER CIGARETTE

Had Another Bad Night? Couldn't You Get Any Rest?

To those who toss, night after night, on sleepless beds. To those who sleep in a kind of a way, but whose rest is broken by bad dreams and nightmare. To those who wake up in the morning as tired as when they went to bed, we offer in Milburn's Health and Nerve Pills a tonic remedy to help soothe and strengthen the nerves.

When this is done there should be no more restless nights due to bad dreams and nightmares.

Price 50c a box, 65 pills, at all drug counters.

Look for our registered trade mark a "Red Heart" on the package.

The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Losin' Lovin' through BAD BREATH?

76% of all adults have bad breath! Play safe—use COLGATE'S TOOTH POWDER

Scientific tests prove conclusively that in seven out of ten cases COLGATE'S TOOTH POWDER instantly stops oral bad breath.

SAVES YOU MONEY! Compared to other leading brands, a large tin of Colgate's gives you up to 30 more brushings, a giant tin up to 46 more brushings—for not a penny more!

TIP TO SMOKERS! Colgate's Tooth Powder is one of the quickest, easiest ways to guard against tobacco stain and tobacco breath! Get Colgate's today.

COLGATE'S TOOTH POWDER 25¢ 40¢

CLEANS YOUR BREATH AS IT CLEANS YOUR TEETH

COLGATE'S NYLON TOOTHBRUSH — SPECIAL VALUE 29¢

Youths Charged Theft Of Car

COBOURG, May 23 — (ENS) — Roger LaPalm and Romeo Mahew of Montreal appeared in police court yesterday morning on a charge of theft of a car and were remanded for a week. The two were arrested over the week-end by Provincial Constable Douglas Wilson of Colborne, who picked them up in Grafton a half-hour after they are said to have stolen a car owned by Morley Webster at Brighton. LaPalm is also charged with reckless driving.

Austin John McDuff of Campbellford was remanded for one week on a charge of altering a registration card. He was arrested by local R.C.M.P.

A juvenile appeared, charged with breaking and entering the residence of Earl Craig of Brighton on May 16, and theft of a watch and other articles. He was arrested by Provincial Constable Alex McLeod.

EASY WAY TO RELIEVE RHEUMATIC
ACHES AND PAINS
Here is a simple, easy way to get relief from the agony of swollen, rheumatic joints and muscular aches and pains. Go to Tamblyn's and get a bottle of Ru-Ma. If you are not pleased with the help it gives you—go get your money back. This is a generous offer you can not afford to ignore.—(Advt.)

"Long Distance Telephoning is heavier than it was a year ago"

IT'S TRUE—For the first three months of this year Long Distance lines handled calls at a rate which would represent an increase, over the full year, of nearly three and one-half million calls.

So you see we're not out of the woods yet—and won't be until the war is won. Please continue to keep wartime communication lines clear—use Long Distance for essential calls only. Delays can cost lives!

On Active Service — Giving Wings to Words

REMEMBER —night rates now begin at 6 p.m.

F. D. TUFFORD
Manager.

AN INSPECTION TOUR—Cpl. E. E. Hillier of Southey, Sask., talks with Lieut.-General E. L. M. Burns, O.B.E., M.C. General Burns is making an inspection tour of the troops under his command.

Soviet Russia's Part In War Earns Big Voice In Peace Plans

A picture of Soviet Russia on the one hand and Britain and the United States on the other drawing ever closer together in policy and understanding and so cooperating for the good of the world in the establishment of a lasting peace was drawn by Dr. Herbert L. Stewart, well-known commentator on world affairs, at an address delivered Monday night in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. Dr. Stewart spoke on "The Place Of Russia In The Postwar Reconstruction."

"A great change," the speaker deduced, "has come over Russian policy and likewise over that of Britain and America under the stress of the enlightening experience they have been through together. An understanding that never existed before is coming into being through the fact that these countries and their leaders are getting to know each other better, the events of the past four years have caused them to revise their notions and their prejudices considerably.

"Stalin, who in the beginning, as a disciple of Lenin, seriously believed that all capitalists were necessarily rapacious exploiters and that the church was little more than an agent of the capitalist powers' schemes, has made up his mind that these ideas of the Father of the Russian Revolution are wrong. Churchill, once a bitter foe of all that Soviet Russia stood for, has come round to see that country in a different light now. But men wanting justice for all the people, were fundamentally radical reformers, but until recently they looked upon one another as reactionaries. Both had the magnanimity to admit that they were wrong."

Important Part

"For good or ill," Dr. Stewart said, in opening his address, "Russia will count enormously in the settlement of the peace. "She has counted tremendously in the course of the war. Suppose for a minute that Hitler had not expended his resources in a war with Soviet Russia, in that happily futile campaign. Or even more tragically, suppose that Hitler and Stalin had joined forces instead of fighting each other. What Russia has done has entitled her to a very great place in the final settlement. But when that is said, there immediately arise deep misgivings in many minds, so constituted that they cannot reconcile themselves to the idea of Russia being a partner at the peace conference."

On the subject of Soviet Russia, the speaker declared, there was more perplexity and anxiety than on any other; and most of the correspondence he received dealt directly or indirectly with this problem.

Outlines Differences.

The history of the feud between the capitalist powers and Soviet Russia was lucidly outlined by the speaker, who reviewed the events between 1917 and 1939 from two points of view, that of the typical citizen of Great Britain or the United States and that of a leading advocate of the Soviet. Purposely Dr. Stewart overstated the position of each side, and then remarked on the possibilities by which the viewpoints might be reconciled.

He dealt with the accusations of bad faith levelled at the new government of Russia, when it took the country out of the war in 1917; its repudiation of enormous American debts; its persecution of religion; its supposed fomenting of world revolution by sending secret agents to the capitalist nations intent on working to overthrow their governments; its mock trial of the British engineers in 1935; and its sudden announcement of a pact with the Nazis in August, 1939, when representatives of the western powers were openly conferring with it on plans projected towards a military alliance.

For all these accusations of British and American governments the Russians had sincere and ample answers, Dr. Stewart declared. Under the corrupt Czarist regime, its men were being slaughtered by the German armies in 1917, there was nothing the country could do but sue for peace on Germany's terms. With regard to the war debts, the Soviet position was that a much greater debt was owing her for the democracies interference, rather than aid and assistance, in the Revolution. To the charge that its agents were plotting world revolution, Russia's answer was that it recognized the coming threat of to tell the story of its accomplish-Nazi Germany and was attempting ments and make friends for itself in the democratic countries.

Justifiable Action.

The most informed witnesses, Russia would say in regard to its trials and purges that had characterized its internal politics and shocked the outside world, were in agreement that those trials were fairly brought and fairly conducted, and that the prisoners got no more than their just deserts. Liquidation might be an unpleasant expression, but it was never to be forgotten that, of all the countries Germany invaded, in Russia alone there was no 5th column.

Considering "the ultimate perfidy" of Soviet Russia forming an alliance with Hitler behind the backs of the nations that were in good faith conferring openly with it, there was an answer, specious and with much justice in it, to that also, Dr. Stewart explained. Russia had been unceremoniously excludede from the Munich conference, and this she bitterly resented. It was Stalin's suspicion that Great Britain and France were trying to divert Hitler to an attack on Russia in order to turn the dictator's attention from themselves; and that the representatives at the 1939 conference were all demonstrably Nazi in their sympathies and so hardly to be trusted. Therefore, Dr. Stewart said the Russian government jumped at the chance, when it was

(Continued on Page 11)

Rotarians Hear Excellent Talk

CAMPBELLFORD, May 23. — (ENS).—Rotarian Lou Glover used the golden rule of Rotary, "Friendships," as the subject of his address at the regular dinner held at Woodlawn.

He quoted gems from Edgar Guest and other poets for poetry rouses the imagination of its hearers and brings home to people in the most poignant manner the great truths of everyday life, he declared.

Eleven year old Miss Ruth Watson of Toronto was a guest and played a delightful piano solo, "The Spinning Song," by Schubert.

The induction charge to new members was read by Rotarian P. Denyes. This will be used henceforth when new members are received. After discussion the matter of farmers' night was left to the committee.

Roy H. Thomson has purchased the Earl Hay farm at Crow Bay on Lot 14, Concession 7, township of Seymour and takes immediate possession.

Mr. Thomas Rowe is converting into a dwelling the block owned by him on Front street, formerly used as a grading station.

James Smith of the Campbellford Wooden Toy Co., has purchased the dance pavilion on Rear street from Gerald Hay and will continue the manufacturing of toys in that location.

BACKACHE
Rheumatic and Sciatic Pains Quickly Relieved by
RUMACAPS

A CANADIAN CLEAN-UP IN ITALY—Taking advantage of a rest after a hard three days in the front lines Privates H. Gater, Left, of Weston, Ont., and R. Gagnon of Toronto, of the British 8th Army, wash their clothes in an Italian stream.

Provincial Park Coming Need When People Work Shorter Hours

"Sooner or later the people of this area are going to insist on a park. They don't know what it is going to be or where, but they will demand that it belong to all the people."

In that prediction, J. R. Dymond, M.A., Professor of Systematic Zoology on the staff of the University of Toronto, prefaced an outline of the ideal of perpetuating some public possession in the great outdoors of Ontario at a meeting in the Peterborough Business College last night which finally reached an extensive and undersigned park project within the boundaries of this county.

"The trouble is that we don't take a long enough view or these matters," Professor Dymond continued, and illustrated that thought by an allusion to the regrets of men of today in the lack of foresight of forefathers who failed to recognize such opportunities as the acquisition of property at King and Young Streets, Toronto, or more or less comparably and potentially valuable locations elsewhere.

Professor Dymond was followed by Professor T. F. McIlwraith, M.A. of the faculty of Anthropology in the University of Toronto, who enlarged the idealistic approach which preluded a brass tacks discussion in which the northern park proposal nearly foundered on rocks of special interest.

Should Act Now

Professorial advice to the assembly of some fifty men from the city and county was that the time for acquiring properties for future generations was now. Much of the subsequent discussion, which was directed toward the subject of a provincial park, was turned toward the question that may be summarized in the word "where". And at that stage opinions and some strong opposition to the Burleigh-Anstruther area were largely a review of statements that have been published in these columns since the original proposal begot a controversy that seems to have been clouded with present personal rights and interests.

Prof. Dymond explained the general features of the provincial park plan, with special reference to its operation in Algonquin Park, and after the discussion of the proposed provincial park for Peterborough had nearly expended itself towards 11 p.m., Senator Duffus outlined the national park scheme and suggested that at least it recommended investigation. The composite spirit of the meeting was averse to counting the evening's effort wasted, and the Duffus suggestion quickly developed into a resolution by Percy Edwards and Senator Duffus to the effect that a committee be appointed to obtain further information relating to a parks scheme without being confined to either provincial or national aspects and details.

The following committee was then appointed, converting the long evening at least to the advantage of a survey and finding of facts:—Norman Wilson of Apsley; Fred Marshall, Fred L. Roy, James Geraghty, Charles G. Kingan, Wallace Shearer of Buckhorn; and Lloyd Young of Apsley.

The meeting last night arranged for the Chamber of Commerce, was transferred to the Peterborough Business College through the hospitality of its principal, John A. McKone. Reeve James Gifford of Ennismore was appointed chairman. The definite purpose as set forth in the announcement was to consider action for the establishment of a provincial park in Peterborough county.

The area that has been tentatively mentioned lies within the Burleigh Falls-Apsley Road on the east; the Oregon Trail on the south, and the Buckhorn-Ketchecum Lake Road on the west. Mentioned along the course of the discussion was the Crown Game Reserve on the east side of the Apsley Road, and on one point that arose in the debate H. R. Scott, M.P.P., stated that, although he had come to the meeting simply to listen and get information, he was in a position to say definitely that, if a provincial park was laid out, the Crown Game Reserve would be discontinued as such, and would be again thrown open for general hunting and trapping within the law.

Professor Dymond in his reference to the regulations pertaining to Algonquin Park said that acre lots could be leased on lake fronts for terms of twenty-one years, with provision for privacy and elbow room by adjoining acre lots on both sides being kept vacant. A staff of rangers assured protection of the park properties; lumbering concessions and privileges remained unaffected, and certain areas were set aside for public use.

Prophecy of Leisure

"After the war our chief business will be how to kill time," Prof. Dymond said. "And that is going to get worse and worse as this country becomes more industrialized. "Unless we get back some of the things we have lost, I think we are going to go down hill in health and perhaps so swiftly that we don't realize it. Education has got to get back to nature.

Many people in Toronto have no more idea of some of the realities of life than a squirrel in a cage. Conservation means nothing to them. You would be only wasting your time trying to interest them; and they are people who are helping to run our country. Conservation of soil and forest and water supply means nothing to them. They think that all you have to do to get the necessities of life is to go to the store."

Professor Dymond said he felt certain that the five-day week was coming. Men were going to work fewer hours. "What are the people of the future going to do with their time, not next year, but fifty and one hundred years hence?"

His recommendation, and he said at the outset "we haven't come here to tell you Peterborough people what to do," was generally that large areas should be set apart now while they are available and easily accessible for future generations, areas in the outdoors amid natural surroundings where people, and especially the young people of tomorrow, could spend their leisure.

Professor McIlwraith amplified his associate's theme, saying at one point in his talk: "It is easier to do now the things that will need to be done for the future. See to it that we are going to have areas where boys and girls will find the peace of the countryside. You find it in poetry, in art, literature and religion. You find it in actuality by sharing the great outdoors with its trees and lakes and fishing."

Algonquin Ideal

Fred Roy emphasized the same idea in his statement: "If you want to keep a boy clean, and I know it, mentally and physically, take him into the outdoors and keep him there." Mr. Roy said he estimated Algonquin Park as one of the finest natural areas in Ontario. If a park of that type could be obtained for Peterborough County without infringing the rights of people already established there he was inclined to favor it.

Fred Marshall took the brunt of questions relating to the proposed Burleigh-Anstruther section, but certain fishing charges and some other restrictions were obviously causes of opposition by some of the men present.

Senator Duffus said there was no national park in Ontario except a few island acres, and he felt certain that an application from Peterborough would receive attention from the Department of Mines and Resources. He said he had no intention of trying to impose on the meeting any opinion he might have and he felt disposed to keep an open mind as to areas that might be

(Continued on Page 13)

HOW TO RELIEVE PILE TORTURE
QUICKLY AND EASILY
If you are troubled with itching piles or rectal soreness do not delay treatment and run the risk of letting this condition become chronic Any itching or soreness or painful passage of stool is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once
For this purpose get a package of Hem-Roid from McDermid & Jury or any I.D.A or other drug store and use as directed This formula which is used internally is a small easy to take tablet, will quickly relieve the itching and soreness and aid in healing the sore tender spots Hem-Roid is pleasant to use is highly recommended and it seems the height of folly for any one to risk a painful and chronic pile condition when such a fine remedy may be had at such a small cost
If you try Hem-roid and are not entirely pleased with the results, your druggist will gladly return your money —(Advt.)

BROWN and WHITE SPECTATOR PUMPS
CUBAN and HIGH HEELS
WALKWEL SHOES
378 George St. Phone 3856

IF you are thinking of your savings, you must ask yourself where you can invest your funds safely and profitably so that they will be returned to you thirty, forty or fifty years hence. The best way to gauge the outlook for insurance in years to come is to look at its record in the past:

in 1914
At the outbreak of the Great War, the price of most securities tumbled. But the guaranteed values of Great-West Life policies did not drop one cent.

in 1921
The post-war depression knocked the bottom out of security prices. But beneficiaries or policyholders in retirement receiving guaranteed incomes from the Great-West Life, were regularly paid in full just as if there had been no depression.

in 1933
In 1933 the man who owned real estate or a share in any business, could have obtained only a fraction of 1929 prices. But the guaranteed value of his Great-West Life policies did not change.

in 1939
The outbreak of the second World War again upset security prices. But the family of the man who died in 1939 received the full face value of Great-West Life insurance policies.

Through many wars and depressions, life insurance has proved itself to be the investment on which the average man can rely. Whatever happens, it is in your interest to keep your Great-West Life policies in force. They will never let you or your family down.

The GREAT-WEST LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY
F. B. SARGENT
District Manager - Bridgeway Bldg., Peterborough
LIFE INSURANCE - ACCIDENT & HEALTH - GROUP INSURANCE

ESTABLISHED 1877
Scarfe's
SURFACE SATISFACTION
Varnishes · Paints
Enamels · Wax
A FINISH FOR EVERY SURFACE
SCARFE & CO.
LIMITED
PETERBOROUGH
BERT BOOMHOWER, Buckhorn — M. H. McDONALD, Apsley
M. McCULLOUGH, Cavan — YOUNG'S GENERAL STORE, Young's Point
H. M. FOSTER, Campbellcroft — RENWICK & SON, Westwood
W. J. GRADY, Lock and Lansdowne St., Peterborough

The Examiner

The Peterborough Examiner published each evening by Peterborough Examiner Limited. Office Hunter and Water Streets. Peterborough, Ont.

W. RUPERT DAVIES, President
H. L. GARNER, General Manager
G. WILSON CRAW, Managing Editor

Subscription Rates 20c per week in City of Peterborough delivered by carrier; $6.00 per year by mail to outside points.

Members Canadian Press; Audit Bureau of Circulation; Canadian Daily Newspaper Association; Empire Press Union; Ontario Provincial Dailies Association.

TELEPHONE 4641
Private Branch Exchange to all Departments

History can be well written only in a free country. —VOLTAIRE.

TUESDAY, MAY 23, 1944

Empire Day: 1944

The celebration of Empire Day this year has special significance, for at last the United Nations of which our Empire forms so large a part seem to have their feet firmly set on the path of victory, and an historic conference of the Commonwealth leaders has been concluded in London. The British Empire or the British Commonwealth—call it what you will—is a growing and not a static organization, and it will shortly be called upon to show whether or not it is prepared for the great events of the twentieth century; those events, we venture to say, are not the battles of this war, but the battles which will be fought at the conference tables when the war is won; our fighters can quell the enemy, but our statesmen will have to devise the means to keep him from rising against us once again. Where will the Commonwealth stand? The free world, and a great part of the world which has been enslaved, wants to know.

• • •

It is doubtful if the average Canadian realizes the immense prestige of the Commonwealth of Nations of which we are a part. Other federations and leagues are dreams which have still to be made reality: the Commonwealth exists, works smoothly, and has never shown any sign of breaking up. It is almost impossible to say what holds it together, for although all parts of it declare their allegiance to a common Sovereign and share in some degree a common ancestry these things alone cannot account for its great strength. A great deal of nonsense is talked about the Empire, but it is a plain fact which all our neighbours can see that the Empire is the largest federation of Nations devoted to common causes of democratic advancement that the world has ever seen. Yet the Commonwealth, like a hydra, has many heads and many voices. The world may be excused for wondering what this unaccountable monster means to do?

• • •

Recently the old question has cropped up: should the Empire have one voice and one policy, binding upon all? It was to discuss that matter, primarily, that the leaders of the Commonwealth recently met in London. When they parted the decision had been made: the Commonwealth was not to have a single voice and a single policy. There was much to be said on both sides. But in the end it appeared that the Commonwealth did not wish to be mistaken for a power bloc in the postwar world, and did not wish to set up any machinery which might gently warp it in that direction.

• • •

It would be a mistake, however, to assume from this that the decision of the conference was wholly negative. It so happened that two of the most experienced and canny statesmen of the Empire, Mackenzie King and Jan Smuts, opposed the centralization plan, but they had excellent reasons to put forward for doing so; they did not want the Commonwealth to draw into itself, concentrating on an inward strength, but rather to be the nucleus of an international organization for the maintenance of peace. The hope of keeping peace by power blocs is a thin one; and if that plan were adopted it would put serious strains on the Empire, for it must be obvious that some parts of the Empire would naturally gravitate toward great powers which were non-British, and a division of loyalties, and a consequent distraction from the main purpose, would be the upshot. The Empire has been a paradox all through its existence; now, paradoxically it is stronger within a greater organization than it would be if it chose to stand alone.

• • •

These considerations were admirably set forward by Mr. Mackenzie King when he spoke before the British Houses of Parliament. The Empire sets the security of the whole democratic world at the top of its list of postwar plans, and it is not afraid of taking the logical step which will gain that end. The general principles which have made the Empire great shall apply to all peace-loving nations. This does not mean that the Empire will be less British, or that its parts will be swallowed up in a greater organization. But it does mean that the Empire does not wish to be exclusive in the postwar world.

• • •

Now that Mr. King has returned to Canada there will be a great deal of argument about the decisions made at the conference. Some of it will be logical objection to a very ambitious scheme; some of it will be violent and abusive accusation that the Empire is being sabotaged. But it will be hard for the objectors to deny that the final decision of the conference marked another step in the direction which the Empire has taken for decades, toward greater freedom for its component parts and wider co-operation with countries which lie outside the sphere of the Commonwealth. It will take bold argument to check that course.

Empire Day In The Schools

Premier Drew and his Ministry of Education deserve congratulations on the excellent arrangements which they have made to see that Empire Day is adequately celebrated in the schools of the Province. We have at hand the program which was sent out to the schools, and which many of our readers have probably seen carried out this afternoon. It is a first-rate piece of work, dignified without being ponderous, and contemporaneous in tone without being trivial.

We were particularly pleased to see portions of Noel Coward's verses Lie In The Dark And Listen included for recitation. The voice of the Empire changes as the Empire changes, and it is pointless for children to go on reciting passages from Kipling years after the Kipling spirit has disappeared. Noel Coward began his career as a castigator of the follies of the twenties, and in the last ten years or so he has made himself an unofficial spokesman of the modern Empire spirit. It is fitting that what he has to say should be heard by the young.

And we were glad to see that most significent of sea songs—Rule, Britannia—on the program. It used to be the fashion to scoff at that song because of the blatant claims which it is thought to make for British sea power. Blatant the claims may be, but we do not think that they are unjustifiable, and now that Canada has become an important naval power it is fitting that we should know this magnificent song and sing it well.

The program concluded, as we shall do, with these words of H.M. King George VI: "I think of you, my peoples, as one great family, for that is how we are learning to live. We all belong to each other. We all need each other. It is in serving each other and sacrificing for our common good that we are finding our true life. In that spirit we shall win the war, and in that same spirit we shall win for the world after the war a true and lasting peace."

The Queen's Birthday

We are heartily glad that the decision was taken in this Province to celebrate the Queen's birthday this year in the usual manner. There has been some suggestion that in wartime holidays of this kind are inadmissable, and that we should all keep on the job every possible moment of every day. Now this may be a good policy in the case of men and women who are doing vital war work, but we do not think that it is good for everybody. When people are not given holidays in which to refresh themselves they become stale, tired, out of sorts and consequently inefficient. It would be interesting to know just how much working time is actually lost through the shortsighted denial of accustomed holidays.

Tomorrow most of us will have a day off from our usual work, and there will be few of us who have not some other work which will occupy us busily all day. But we should spare a short time at least to think about Queen Victoria, whose birthday we are celebrating. The great Queen was in a very real sense the founder of this Dominion, and she took a close interest in it from the time of its Confederation until the day of her death. Canada is a Victorian institution, in a sense, and our country still has many of the great virtues, and some of the glaring faults, which marked the Victorian Era.

We may take pride in being a Victorian nation. Our materialism, our preoccupation with politics and religion, our somewhat extreme propriety—these are Victorian attributes which we sometimes carry to undue lengths. But our practicality, our fixity of purpose and our wise conservatism are also Victorian, and they have served us well. The Queen's birthday is the day to consider these matters, and appreciate the legacy which Victoria the Good left to us.

A cynic on the Toronto Star says: "An old timer remembers that even in the days when women had sensible hats they still had crazy quilts".

The Last Link With Irving

By
SAMUEL MARCHBANKS

THE death of Sir John Martin-Harvey on the 14th of May breaks the last link between the stage of our time and the great school of acting which reached its peak in the art of Sir Henry Irving. In the nineteenth century traditions of acting were passed from one actor to another in a manner which the different theatrical practice of our day has destroyed. Irving himself got his schooling with a number of fine actors, and was particularly influenced by those who had worked with Edmund Kean: Forbes-Robertson learned his craft from Samuel Phelps, a giant in his day, and also from Irving: Martin-Harvey studied with John Ryder, who passed on to him something of the magnificence of Macready, and later served a long apprenticeship in Irving's Lyceum company. Martin-Harvey always spoke of Irving as "my master," and there was no affectation in the expression: those who have seen Martin-Harvey have seen something of Irving.

◊ ◊ ◊

NOW that he is dead there are no more actors who can show us what Irving was like and what he was able to do. Doubtless actors linger on the stage who played with Irving; Ben Webster, now in Hollywood, who once played Lancelot in Irving's production of Comyns Carr's "King Arthur," is one; but they cannot recreate anything of the spirit of Irving, any more than ordinary circus clowns can show us why Grimaldi was great. Martin-Harvey acted in the Irving tradition, and he added to it a romantic quality and a sweetness which was peculiarly his own.

◊ ◊ ◊

DOES the Irving tradition matter? someone may ask me. Yes, it does, for it is lost to the stage now it will be necessary for the actors of the future to rediscover it. The Irving tradition was not merely the personality of Henry Irving; it was the essential spirit of the theatre itself—it was everything which we imply when we use the word "theatrical" in its best sense. There are people nowadays who think that Irving was a ranter and a ham; quite true, he was, but in the sense that Alexander the Great was a martinet and a butcher. Ranting and hamming are very necessary accomplishments for a great actor, and he is able to invest them with a greatness which lesser actors cannot approach. Acting is a positive, and not a negative, art; no man becomes great actor because he refrains from ranting and hamming: he becomes great by creating greatness on the stage, and pouring it into the eyes and ears of his audience: to do that it may be necessary for him to do many things—ranting and hamming among them—the very existence of which are unsuspected by the self-conscious bouregois who are now a majority among the acting profession.

◊ ◊ ◊

MARTIN-HARVEY was an artist of great accomplishment. He played many of the old melodramas which he inherited from Irving, like "The Lyons Mail," "The Corsican Brothers," and "The Bells" and he gave the stage one unforgettable melodrama in "The Only Way." These plays had no literary value, and were not meant to have any; they were actor's pieces, and the pleasure which they gave was comparable to any other virtuoso performance. But Martin-Harvey also introduced Maeterlinck's work to the English-speaking stage, and lost a lot of money by doing so; he gave a magnificent performance in the "Oedipus Rex" of Sophocles, directed by Max Reinhardt; he played several Shakespearean roles greatly; he cannot be dismissed as a merely popular actor because he did much to strengthen and enrich the stage in his time.

◊ ◊ ◊

CANADA has special cause to be grateful to him, for he toured this country on seven different occasions, and brought us great acting and great drama; we supported him wholeheartedly and he did not fail us. His plays were always plays of the fine manners, beauty of speech, beauty of motion and romance of a sort which the movies have never been able to give; Martin-Harvey gave poetic distinction, as Irving did, to some indifferent stuff, but the distinction was genuine. Hollywood, which has never felt that there was a "public" for distinction or beauty, has always been careful to tone down both when an actor has appeared in a film who possesses such graces. In the Irving tradition, Martin-Harvey always insisted that he be the centre of attraction when he was on the stage, and when he was not on it, all the action seemed to lead to his re-appearance. This is contrary to the "ensemble" acting about which we hear so much in these days, but an evening of Martin-Harvey was always worth a dozen 'ensemble performances. He was a star, and even in his last years—the writer saw him play 'Oedipus' at Covent Garden in 1937—he dominated the stage. When he acted he was a most uncommon man, a portent and a phoenix before the eyes of his audience, and the other actors seemed very common indeed, however accomplished they might be: although we are assured that this is the Century of The Common Man, we grow weary of common men on the stage; there we want heroes and demigods, and Martin-Harvey was able to give them to us.

◊ ◊ ◊

WRITING in his Autobiography, Martin-Harvey said that he had been happy ever since he was eighteen. He had his ups and downs of fortune; he was idolized by hundreds of thousands of people; he made a great deal of money, and lost much of it; he reckoned his friends by the score; he had at his side all his life a sympathetic and charming lady who was also a versatile actress, although she was not always suited to the roles for which her devoted husband cast her. And his art never declined, even when old age was upon him: in 1932 he toured Canada in a rubbishy play called "The King's Messenger," and although he was 70 at the time he carried the piece far beyond its deserts. It would be foolish to say that we shall not see his like again; we shall do so, for he was of the very best of the company of the theatre, and we cannot do without greatness in the theatre. If he has left no one to speak of him as "my master," it will be necessary for the actors of the future to rediscover the secrets of art which he knew.

C.C.F. UNIQUE

We have been assured lately that the C.C.F. is the British Labour party of Canada. Now that the British Labour party is endorsing private enterprise, which the C.C.F. would extinguish, we may expect to note an absence of the British example in the C.C.F. speeches. In actual fact the C.C.F. with its plan of complete state control of everything, is absolutely unique in British nations and among all democratic nations. The only parallel to the C.C.F. plan is to be found in the totalitarian countries, and that plan can only be enforced by a totalitarian government.—Winnipeg Free Press.

CURTAIN! —By Rube Goldberg

In An Englishman's Castle

UNTIL the end of the fifteenth century an Englishman's home was his castle, not only in name but in fact. The great castles and the lesser defended dwellings were constructed for security and, as was frequently necessary in those times, for resistance. The standing and wealth of the owner were displayed in this outward and visible sign of strength, but not for this purpose alone. The ingenity of protective devices might at any moment be put to the practical test.

The methods employed were numerous and are to be found more or less in common throughout England. The surrounding walls were of great thickness and considerable height, being covered at every angle from battlements and lancet windows in the main building. The outer circle of defence was a moat, if it was practicable, and a site was often chosen to admit of the construction of this feature. The approaches across it were strongly guarded and covered by the keep. At corners or intervals of the main building were towers or bastions of great strength and commanding height....

Invariably we find that the Englishman's home was evolved according to his needs. In times of disturbance the first need was very naturally safety and protection, while in times of peace, development was dictated by the desire for greater comfort and adornment. As England emerged from the Wars of the Roses into the era of calm and reconstructoin introduced by Henry VII the elaborate precautions for defence were gradually dispensed with. Building for peaceful occupation and enjoyment began to progress very rapidly, and the Tudor period was the result of this activity. The castle keep gave way to the gatehouse, and that in turn a century later had become a gateway which it was the custom to make an architectural feature by giving it much dignity and ornamentation to make up for its loss of usefulness. The old defensive walls became lower until, in Elizabethan times, their breast-height only served the purpose of marking the formality of courtyard or garden. Battlements were succeeded by plain-pointed gables, and although stepped gables were frequently introduced, it was mainly for decoration or distinction, to give the added importance which the fastidious Elizabethan era demanded. Every rich man of the time desired to build a mansion that would exceed in beauty and size that of his friend or political rival. The excellence of his dwelling was expressed in the elaboration of its design and the luxury of its adornment, for it must be remembered that most Tudor and many Elizabethan squires were their own architects.—From "A Manor Through Four Centuries," by A. R. Cook.

Clerical Discipline

(OTTAWA CITIZEN)

THE penalizing of Father S. Orlemanski, the Roman Catholic priest at Springfield, Mass., gives rise to mixed reactions. For an obscure parish priest, without papal credentials, to be able to interview Marshal Stalin and Premier Molotov is a feat of no mean order.

Another celebrated case is ecclesiastical annals is recalled in this connection. In 1886, the Rev. Dr. Edward McGlynn, then parish priest at St. Stephen's, New York City, was suspended for appearing at a mayoralty election meeting at which he had been advertised to speak. At noon on the scheduled day, his archbishop forbade him to appear, but Dr. McGlynn kept faith with the public. The candidate that Dr. McGlynn supported was Henry George, whose economic ideas were looked at askance by the clericals.

Dr. McGlynn staunchly maintained that the principles of Henry George were not incompatible with those of the Church. He was ordered to go to Rome: the vicar general of his diocese stating that Dr. McGlynn was "not sent for to be complimented," but "to be disciplined." Dr. McGlynn refused to go to Rome as a suspended priest, but he offered to go on condition that he should first be reinstated. For his failure to obey, Dr. McGlynn was excommunicated.

The case was not closed by this action. In 1891, Archbishop Satolli (later Cardinal) was sent as Ablegate to represent the Holy See at Washington, and one of his commissions was to settle the McGlynn case. Dr. McGlynn presented a written statement of his views on the land question, which was submitted to a committee of professors of the Roman Catholic University in Washington, who declared that they contained nothing contrary to the teachings of the Catholic Church. The excommunication was duly rescinded, and Dr. McGlynn was given a parish, and a stipulation that he was to be free to express his economic views.

The injustice done to Dr. McGlynn was remedied. In the case of Fr. Orlemanski, wise counsels will doubtless also prevail.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

ENQUIRES ABOUT ANCESTORS

Sir,—I would appreciate it if any of your readers could give me information regarding the following:

I am trying to establish the Canadian residence of Robert Doman, who, I understand, arrived in Peterborough with the Hon. Peter Robinson party of 415 families (2,024 persons) which left Cork, Ireland, on several ships in May, 1825, and which came to Peterborough via Kingston, Cobourg, Rice Lake and the Otonabee River.

My best information is that Robert Doman, his wife Elizabeth Upton Doman, and children, Ellen (16) and James Doman (12), settled for some years in Indian River near Peterborough, residing there until they purchased a farm in 1836 near Shannonville, Hastings County, Ontario.

I would appreciate it if you or your readers could inform me whether there is a list of the original residents of Peterborough, members of the "1825 Immigration", in any history of Peterborough, or early accounts of the city, or in any city or county directory which lists the early citizens. Are any Domans on this list?

Also are there any maps showing the acreage taken up by the early citizens. Indian River is mentioned very often in old letters of the Doman family.

Incidentally, are there any residents of Peterborough who have made a study of the history of their city who can tell me whether Alec Maloy or James Taunt were among the early residents of Peterborough. Are there any Taunts, Maloys or Domans in Peterborough or vicinity now? James Taunt married Ellen Doman, daughter of Robert and Elizabeth Doman, mentioned above, about 1854, or shortly after, in Peterborough. One son, James Taunt, Jr., was born in Peterborough. Descendants now live in Michigan. I will greatly appreciate any information from your readers.—Sincerely,

ROBERT S. DOMAN,
527 Ocampo Drive, Pacific Palisades, California.

DEFINITION

This comes indirectly from an administrator of one of the many departments of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, but is perhaps not to be regarded as official. Asked at a meeting of his trade group to define his functions, he summarized them in the following sentence:

"An Administrator is one who develops ordered chaos out of utter confusion."—The Printed Word.

DEAR TO DE VALERA

Archbishop Mannix, of Melbourne, must be dear to de Valera. He says that although the United States, supported by Britain, requested the closing of the Axis Legations in Eire, Germany had always "had the good sense" not to demand the closing of Allied Legations. Is it not simple? Eire is neutral; therefore if the Axis Legations should be closed, so should the Allied. It is true that Axis agents in Eire might be able to obtain all sorts of information about Allied plans and transmit it to their Governments, while Allied agents could do nothing equivalent because there are no Axis military movements in Ireland to report. But what is a bit of common sense to the masterlogicians, heirs of the mediaeval schoolmen, in Dublin or in Melbourne?—Manchester Guardian.

Hard To Believe How Time Flies

MAY 23

1914 Arrangements are completed for the reception to the Duke of Connaught on his Peterborough visit.

Ross Green has been appointed as a constable on the police force, succeeding F. W. Burnham.

Les Myland, president of the Peterborough Typographical Union leaves to attend the Labour Educational Association convention at St. Thomas.

Belleville regiment arrives here to spend Victoria Day in Peterborough.

Richard Sheehy has been awarded the contract to build a new Roman Catholic Church in Toronto to cost $126,000.

1924 Large quantities of pickerel fry have been deposited in the Trent River between Rice Lake and Hastings.

Walter Peters reports the weather showing an improvement with 38 degrees the lowest reading during the night.

With steamers not available Salvation Army decide to hold annual picnic at Jackson Park.

The war memorial of the Hastings chapters of the I.O.D.E. is unveiled.

Rev. W. R. Courage delivers his farewell sermon to the congregation of St. George's Church.

1934 Letters from candidates stating their stand on the beer question are read at the annual convention of the County Temperance Association.

At the annual meeting of the Peterborough Y.M.C.A. an excellent financial report is presented.

It is announced that 200 more trees have been planted at Riverside Park.

Lakefield Veterans, Grove and School cadets attend a service at St. John's Church, Lakefield.

J. W. Pierce has been elected chairman of the Peterborough branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada.

Contemporaries

JAPAN FEELS PINCH

Following are some recent indications of belt-tightening in Nippon:

Wrestlers are participating in Wartime Emergency Small Luggage Transportation Increase Week. They wear national suits, trench helmets and leggings as they wrestle luggage. According to the Tokyo radio they grunt "Ugh ugh" and are "very brave looking."

The Emperor has "graciously granted" permission for the breeding of fish in the outer moat of the palace.

All members of the general affairs bureau in the Yamaguchi prefectural office are now clipping each other's hair instead of patronizing barber shops.—New York Herald Tribune.

WOMEN ON THE LAND

Post-war prospects for women in agriculture have been considered by a committee of the "Women's Farm and Garden Association", which represents permanent women workers in agriculture.

Their recommendations are that all administrative and permanent appointments should be available for women on the same terms as men, that women should be more widely represented in the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries inspectorates, should be represented on committees dealing with agriculture, housing, and wages, and should have an equal chance of posts in botanic gardens, public parks, and the Forestry Service.

Before the war something like 40,000 women were employed on the land. There are twice as many of them now, excluding the Women's Land Army, and they have filled responsible posts so successfully and to such an increasing extent that the committee is confident of their future in senior appointments and as trained practical workers.

A Bible Message

Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good..... In the fear of the Lord is strong confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge. (Prov. 14. 22, 26.)

◆ ◆ ◆

Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go. ....I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.... Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. (John 8: 12-14, 38-40, 44.)

Unconsidered Trifles

A detachment of Highlanders arrived in camp and the sentry reported to the Sergeant-Major: "Excuse me, sir, but the pipers have come."

The RSM looked up from his desk and snorted: "Don't you know there's a war on. I 'aven't time to read 'em now."

◊ ◊ ◊

"Sedentary work," said the college professor, "tends to lessen the endurance."

"In other words," the student butted in, "the more one sits the less one can stand."

"Exactly," retorted the professor, "and if one lies a great deal one's standing is lost completely."

◊ ◊ ◊

The young man, calling on an editor's daughter, was eager but polite. "Er, do you mind," he ventured, "if I imprint a kiss upon your lips?"

"Cricky," said the little brother, who was passing through the hall, "you can run off a whole edition, and Ene won't mind."

Wool Industry Makes Plan For Research

By J. E. HOLDSWORTH
Canadian Press War Correspondent

SYDNEY, Australia, May 23 — (CP Cable) — Plans which it is claimed will have a far-reaching effect on the Australian wool industry have been submitted to the Federal Government by the textile advisory panel.

These plans provide for intensification of pastoral and wool textile research and other objectives on an unprecedented scale. The proposals envisage establishment of a Research Institute which may in some respects resemble the great Wool Research Institute at Torridon, near Leeds, England. However, it is not intended to duplicate the Torridon activities in Australia.

Initial cost of the Research Institute and equipment probably would be more than £500,000 (about $1,800,000) and thereafter annual costs might exceed £200,000.

Important features of the plan are believed to be steps calculated to win for Australia an expanding position in the export trade of top yarns, tissues and make-up woollens. However, many persons associated with the industry consider it will be unfortunate if Australia enters the overseas wool goods market in competition with Britain.

The United Kingdom has been worth more to Australia as buyer of raw wool than all other countries combined. This latest development follows renewed discussions on the possible threat to the wool industry from synthetic fibres.

The Commonwealth's First Victory Loan, which follows several War Loans, has been oversubscribed, Acting Premier Francis Forde has announced. The objective, £150,000,000, was the largest in Australia's history. Preliminary reports showed 440,000 subscribers compared with 567,000 was the last loan.

Mr. Forde reported a "splendid response" from financial institutions, the labor movement, and the armed forces.

DADDY INDUCTED — When Albert Caponetti, 29, of Chicago, carried his 11-month-old son in his arms when he reported for induction into the U.S. Army, at Fort Sheridan, Ill., he explained to the puzzled army officers: "The baby is my son and all I could do was to bring him with me. My wife is unable to care for him; she has had a spinal ailment since last June when the baby was born."

Settle Dispute

LIMA, May 23—(AP)—Settlement of the ancient boundary dispute between Peru and Ecuador, which in the past has broken into open conflict, was announced yesterday in a government communique. The announcement said the settlement was in compliance with the "peace and friendship" protocol signed at the Rio de Janeiro conference in 1942.

Gerry McGeer Lib. Member Plans To Retire

WASHINGTON, May 23—(CP). — F. G. (Gerry) McGeer, Liberal member of Parliament for Vancouver-Burrard, left for Ottawa yesterday after successful discussions with United States authorities over removal of "ripple rock" from the Seymour Narrows, off North Vancouver Island.

He said this menace to navigation in the inland passage connecting Seattle with Alaskan ports would be removed by Canada, but that it was necessary to consult with American authorities on timing the operation.

Mr. McGeer said he was determined not to be a candidate for re-election to the House of Commons.

"The balmy zephyrs of the Pacific Coast are such that at my age (he is 57) I don't want to leave them again," he told the Canadian Press.

For 10 years and more Mr. McGeer has campaigned for monetary reform in Canada, looking toward the wider use of national currency and less accumulation of public debt.

"We have made great strides in 10 years," he said. "We are farther ahead than Britain or the United States. But it is just possible we monetary reform pioneers are 'one depression' ahead of our time."

Perfect Life-boat Finally Adopted

LONDON, May 23—(CP-Reuters). —An unsinkable lifeboat which experts have been trying to sink for two years has been adopted by the Ministry of War Transport as a standard design for its ships.

Lowes lifeboat—it is named after Francis H. Lowe, joint managing director of Lamport and Holt Shipping Company of Liverpool—was described by an expert from the Ministry of War Transport as "the safest lifeboat in the world."

Roseneath News

F.-Sgt. Nelson Harvie and Mrs. Harvie of Montreal visited his aunt, Mrs. Fannie Blodgett, on Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Annie Lapp is in Toronto with her daughter, Miss Mildred Lapp, the latter having undergone a major operation recently.

Miss Cora Sandercock of Red Deer, Alberta, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Orra Robins, and other relatives in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie McCallum of Peterborough, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McHenry and James McHenry of Toronto, and Mrs. John McHenry of Trenton were called here during the week owing to the death of their relative, Mrs. John Murphy.

Misses Margaret, Clarice and Betty Atkinson were guest singers at George Street United Church, Peterborough, on Sunday morning.

Miss Clarice Atkinson won first place and a silver cup in a public-speaking contest held at the Ontario Temperance Federation convention held at Warkworth on Friday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Crego and children, Rex and Francis, visited relatives in Kinmount during the week-end.

Trent River News

Mrs. Harry Mann, Mrs. T. Brown, Mrs. E. Little, Mrs. Earl Greenly, Mrs. Ward Glenn and Mrs. W. G. McLaughlin of Trent River were in Peterborough Thursday attending the district annual meeting of the Women's Institute held in the agricultural rooms in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Christie of Toronto are spending a few days at their cottage.

Mr. Reg. Brennan of Toronto arrived on Thursday to spend the summer at his cottage.

Pickerel fishing has been very good at Trent River so far and a number of good catches reported. One of the best catches was taken by Mr. Florence and C. Ellis of Peterborough on Wednesday evening when they brought in nine nice ones. The largest weighed 6½ pounds.

U.S.-CANADA FORCE ADVANCE IN ITALY—With British and American forces on the move again in Italy, three members of the U.S.-Canada force file cautiously along the mountain trail which leads past a cluster of peasant homes.
(Canadian Army Overseas Photo)

WITH THE BOY SCOUTS

PLAN JOINT MEETING

When the Scouters planned to hold their next meeting out at the Scout grounds they also sent an invitation to the Local Executive of the Boy Scouts Association to join them. This invitation was accepted at the last executive meeting. The date of this joint meeting is Wednesday June 14. The members will meet outside the Scout headquarters at 6.30 p.m. bringing their supper with them and proceed to the Scout grounds. Any member having a car, and who can find room for other members should phone President Earl McNabb at 7376 so that the transportation of all those going can be taken care of. Every officer and assistant should plan now to attend this meeting in support of the Scouters club and the association.

Murray St.

The night of the Troop meeting is being changed from Wednesday to Tuesday commencing this week. On Wednesday the Troop met on the Canal bank and held an open air meeting for the second week in succession. All Scouts are urged to attend the meeting this week as a "Going Up" ceremony is being arranged and a good attendance should be recorded to welcome the Cubs.

Seven Victoria Crosses

Seven Victoria Crosses awarded by the King in the present war have been won by Boy Scouts. Three were won by British Scouts in the Navy, Army and Air Force, three by Scouts of New Zealand and one by an Australian Scout.

St. Luke's Pack

The first outdoor meeting of the Pack for this season was held on the lawn Tuesday evening. Following the opening ceremonie recording of attendance and collection of dues, Baloo Pearse was presented with a Scout fountain pen by the Cubs and Akela. On behalf of the Cubs, Jack Bertrand wished Baloo (who recently joined the Navy) every success with the hope that it would not be long before he was once again attending the Pack meetings. The Cubs then proceeded to the grounds at King George School, where two teams were chosen, the Dodgers and the Rinky Dinks and a rather one-sided ball game played, the Dodgers being the lucky winners.

Sunday being Empire Youth Day, the Cubs and members of the Mother's Auxiliary attended divine service. Rev. Mr. Arthur's sermon being on the load of tomorrow, the task of the youth of today. Assistant Commissioner A. Hope was in attendance with the Pack.

Scouts Feed Famine Victims

During the terrible famine in the state of Bengal in India, a group of Boy Scouts from a neighboring state ran a food kitchen, feeding from 300 to 600 people daily. An 11-year-old Wolf Cub took on the job of feeding the babies.

St. John's.

The Pack—Again it was softball night with the Pack. The winners of last week's contests were eager to find out which were the stronger and the contest went to the Peewees who outclassed the Flaming Torches, 6-2. Then the losers of last week were matched with the Smoke-eaters displacing the Mohawks 4-3.

The monthly 'Chins Up' fund campaign, which started this week brought in about $1, each boy giving an account of how he saved 5c. This week it will be test work night. Tests passed last week were: Albert Buckton, signalling; Clarence James and David Bacon, somersault; Roderick Delany, hopping; Jack Adams, knots. Donald Dawson and John Nesbitt completed their tenderpad test and will be invested next week.

The Troop.

If you had wandered through Victoria Park on Friday night you would have witnessed Scouts scattered all over the lot, in all manners of positions. Then, if you had glanced toward St. John's church, you would have seen two or three groups with flags, sending messages to the lads out in the park. Many different tests were gone over with the troop members finally ending up at the post office where they sent a postcard to Scouter with the message on it that had been signalled to them. Don Searles passed compass and second class signalling during the week. Jamie Collis repassed swimming and life savers badge.

One week ago Scouter Ford, accompanied by Patrol Leaders Jamie Collis and Art Dobson went on an overnight hike. This was a practice to give them an idea of what they are to do for their first class badge. No tentage was taken, the trio sleeping under blankets out in the open.

Craft Show Lists.

Leaders are still waiting on many of the Craft Show lists. The members of the Packs and Troops are entitled to certificates of recognition for work done. Lists prepared should be to Mrs. Langhorne or to Skipper Groombridge.

CAN'T TELL THEM APART—The only way to distinguish the Canadian from the American, in this combined force, is to ask. Lieut. J. Kostelec, Calgary, Alta., Left, and Lieut. H. C. Wilson, Olympia, Wash., U.S.A., are two of the officers.
(Canadian Army Overseas Photo)

Bonarlaw News

Miss Megan Key has returned to Toronto, having spent the past few days at Bonarlaw.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Burkitt were called to Belleville recently to visit Mr. Thomas Burkitt, who is seriously ill in the Belleville Hospital.

Little Betty McFaul, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McFaul, is quite ill, and is a patient in Havelock hospital. Her condition is improving.

Miss June Walker of Blairton and Miss Nona Bartlett of Marmora spent the week-end with Miss Phyllis Huff, Bonarlaw.

Mr. Melville Heath is ill at his home on the 10th Line, suffering from a mild form of typhoid. Mr. Heath was employed by his brother, Mr. Thomas Heath, at Shamrock Cheese Factory, and will not be able to help in a factory for a year.

Provincial Police Given Transfers

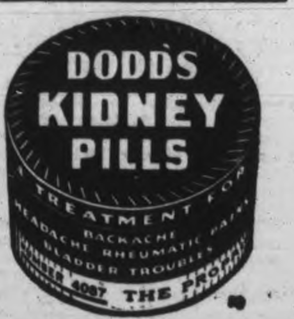
LINDSAY, May 23—(ENS)—Provincial Constable William H. McBrien and Traffic Officer Charles Siple of Lindsay will be transferred to duty at Bowmanville and Belleville respectively. Constable McBrien will fill the vacancy caused by the death of Constable David Silvester, who for a number of years was stationed at Peterborough.

Previous to coming to Lindsay, four years ago, P.C. McBrien was stationed at Belleville and at Minden in Haliburton township. He has been an active member of the Lindsay Curling Club and the local Masonic Lodge. Mrs. McBrien has also been active as a member of the choir of the Cambridge Street United Church and of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Traffic Officer Siple was stationed at Belleville and Port Hope before coming to Lindsay two years ago. His strict patrol of highways has resulted in far less serious accidents during the last two years.



OLYMPENE
THE ANTISEPTIC LINIMENT
for CUTS, BURNS AND BRUISES

Technical

Estate planning today abounds in technical points. Good planning needs a practical familiarity with estates management, a thorough knowledge of succession duties and income tax, of the best way of handling such assets as life insurance, real estate, a private business, and so on. The Estate Planning and Information Department of this Corporation can help you; why not consult this Department today and make sure that you are on firm ground. You will incur no obligation.

THE TORONTO GENERAL TRUSTS CORPORATION
HEAD OFFICE 253 BAY ST. TORONTO

ALL THE Extra VITAMINS and MINERALS HE NEEDS

Authorities say the difference between husky children and those who are poor eaters, underweight, and nervous is often simply a matter of proper nourishment, especially an adequate supply of vitamins and minerals.

But don't worry about vitamins and minerals! Children who eat 3 average-good meals including fruit juice, and drink 2 glasses of Ovaltine each day, are getting all the extra vitamins and minerals they need. In addition to its well-balanced food values, Ovaltine adds significant amounts of Vitamins A, $B_1$ and D and the minerals Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron. So, if your child is not developing normally, remember this rule:

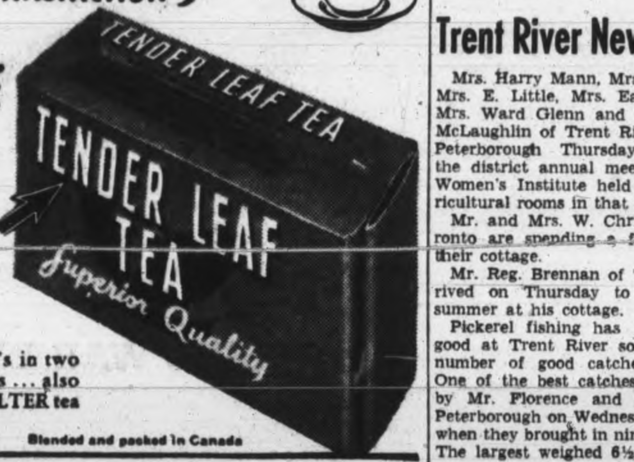
3 good meals plus 2 glasses of Ovaltine every day.

OVALTINE
THE PROTECTING FOOD-DRINK

DAVIS-THOMPSON COMPANY
Established 1858
Insurance and General Agency
All Branches of Insurance Represented
433 GEORGE ST. PHONE 4724

For Extra { FRAGRANCE FLAVOR SATISFACTION } here

LOOK FOR THE NAME HERE



At your grocer's in two convenient sizes ... also in improved FILTER tea balls.

Blended and packed in Canada

it's the truth!

You CAN have brighter teeth!

Impartial laboratories made hundreds of tests. Scientists checked their findings with photoelectric measuring devices and authorize this statement: Pepsodent Powder produces a lustre on teeth twice as bright as the average of all other leading brands ... brighter than any of them — bar none! These results have been double-checked by identical twins who made practical in-the-home tests ... by technicians in dental clinics ... by dentists in their own offices. The result is always the same: Pepsodent Powder makes teeth far brighter. Get Pepsodent Powder to make your teeth brighter ... today!

Teeth Can change your Personality!

Crooked, crowded teeth often do more than mar a person's looks. Frequently, they make that person shy and self-conscious; give them an inferiority complex. But this can be corrected. For today, modern dentistry can do wonders in straightening crooked, misplaced teeth. Or, like the movie stars, you can have chipped and broken teeth recapped. Your dentist will tell you what needs to be done and how quickly you can expect results. Yes ... it's the truth ... your dentist can help you have sound, good-looking teeth; but it's up to you to keep them clean and bright through careful daily brushing!

BEFORE — AFTER
Drawn from an actual case record

PEPSODENT MAKES TEETH FAR BRIGHTER
The Pepsodent Co. of Canada, Ltd.

Of all Tooth Pastes and Tooth Powders only Pepsodent contains Irium!

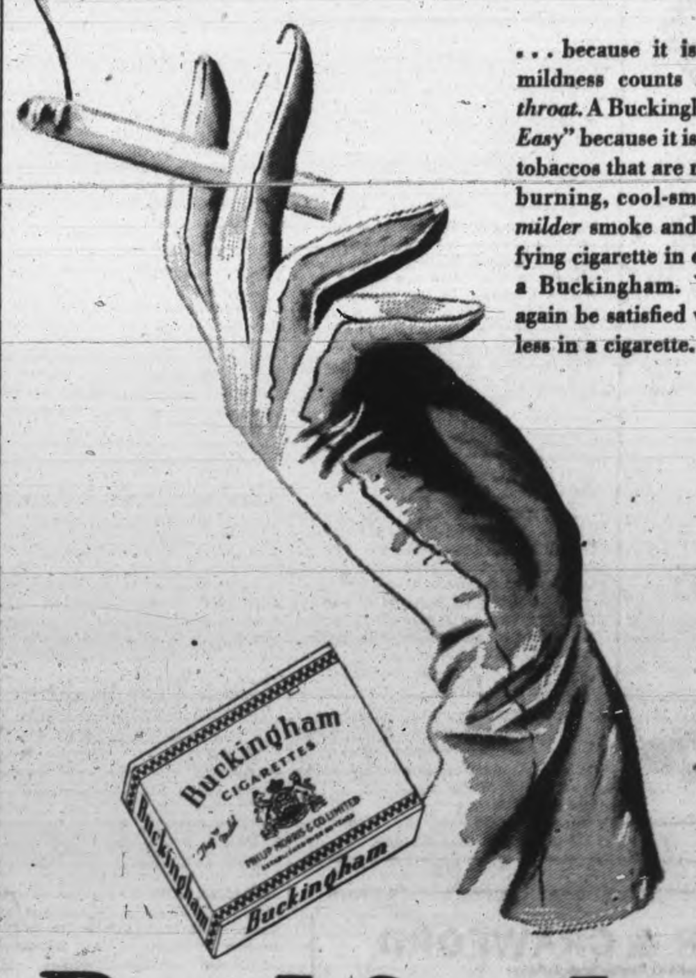
THE MILDEST CIGARETTE YOU CAN SMOKE

... because it is mild, where mildness counts most—in the throat. A Buckingham is "Throat Easy" because it is blended from tobaccos that are naturally cool-burning, cool-smoking. For a milder smoke and a more satisfying cigarette in every way, try a Buckingham. You'll never again be satisfied with anything less in a cigarette.



Buckingham
They're "Throat Easy"—

Five-Run Lead Of Switchgear Gives Them 10 to 9 Win Over St. Peter's In City League

Switchgear set up a 5 to 0 lead in the first two innings of their City League game with St. Peter's at Riverside Park Monday night and it was just enough to finally give them a 10 to 9 victory over the Saints. The newcomers to the loop made it so close on end that they had the tieing and winning runs on the bases when the final out was registered.

The former Catholic Leaguers hadn't had much practice but they came up with a team that after a shaky start chased the strong Switchgear outfit all the way to the finish and with a little better luck on the bases might have made it even closer than that. They lost at least one run in the fourth when Pearson, all set to score on a hit to the outfield, slipped and fell and was finally tagged out.

Two pitchers, each of whom was working against his old teammates of last season faced each other. Bas. Murphy, who pitched for St. Peter's last season was on the hilltop for Manager Chambers' club while Gene Reynolds, who was on the 1943 Switchgear pitching staff, went the route for the losers.

Reynolds got more effective as he went along and after yielding nine runs in first four innings allowed the Switchgear only one more counter for the rest of the game. On the other hand Murphy, who blanked the Saints in the first two innings, weakened in the later stages and a wild streak in the eighth nearly cost him the verdict.

Both teams reeled off some nice fielding. Frank McCormick in right field and Honey Tompkins at third contributed defensive gems for Switchgear while Al Courneya at third and Joe Caccavella at second came up with some outstanding plays for St. Peter's.

Tompkins' double on a drive which bounced off Reynolds into left field, McCormick's single to centre and Carpenter's safety to left scored two runs for Switchgear in the first.

In the second, with one away, Murphy singled to left, Padgett was safe on Caccavella's fumble, Tompkins' single scored Murphy; Ashmore's fly to Pearson scored Padgett, after the catch. McCormick's single to left sent Tompkins in.

Saints got their first runs in the third. The bases were filled on singles by Reynolds and Courneya and a pass to Masterson. Carlson's roller to McNabb forced Reynolds at the plate but Len Hollingsworth smashed a long double to right, scoring Courneya and Masterson.

Switchgear got those back in their half. With two away McNabb walked, Murphy singled through short and Padgett to centre, the latter rap driving in two runs.

St. Peter's added two in the first of the fourth and should have had more. With one away Pearson singled to right and Reynolds walked. Conroy singled to centre and Pearson who should have scored easily, fell, and was trapped between third and home. Then Courneya doubled to send Reynolds and Conroy home. A nice catch by McCormick prevented further damage.

In their half Switchgear retaliated with a pair of runs. Ashmore singled to left, McCormick bunted safely and Mowry had forced Ashmore at third, Carpenter doubled to send McCormick and Mowry in.

The Saints closed the gap in the sixth. With one out Reynolds singled to left. Conroy dropped a single into centre. Courneya's single filled the bases. Masterson flied to Playford and Reynolds scored after the catch. Bob Carlson ripped a single past third to score Conroy and Courneya.

Switchgear got what turned out to be the winning run in the eighth. Ashmore singled, McCormick bunted safely and Mowry strolled to fill the bases. Carpenter fanned but McNabb's fly to Pearson sent Ashmore in.

St. Peter's with the score 10 to 7 against them made it close in the ninth. Carlson walked and after Hollingsworth had flied out Condin and Caccavella both drew passes to load the bases. Pearson's roller forced Caccavella at second but Carlson scored on the play and Condin ran in on Reyolds' third hit of the game, a single to left. Conroy flied to Playford to end the rally.

| Switchgear | AB | R | H | PO | A | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Padgett, 2b | 5 | 1 | 2 | 2 | 4 | 0 |
| Tompkins, 3b | 5 | 2 | 2 | 4 | 2 | 0 |
| Ashmore, 1b | 5 | 1 | 2 | 7 | 0 | 0 |
| McCormick, rf | 5 | 2 | 4 | 4 | 0 | 0 |
| Mowry, c | 3 | 1 | 0 | 4 | 1 | 0 |
| Carpenter, lf | 5 | 0 | 2 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| McNabb ss | 4 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 3 | 0 |
| Playford, cf | 4 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 2 | 0 |
| Murphy, p | 4 | 2 | 2 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| | 40 | 10 | 15 | 12 | 12 | 0 |

| St. Peter's | AB | R | H | PO | A | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Conroy, ss | 6 | 2 | 2 | 1 | 0 | 1 |
| Courneya, 3b | 4 | 2 | 4 | 4 | 3 | 0 |
| Masterson, cf | 4 | 1 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Carlson, c | 4 | 1 | 1 | 4 | 0 | 0 |
| Hollingsworth, rf. | 5 | 0 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Condin, 1b | 3 | 1 | 1 | 7 | 1 | 0 |
| Caccavella, 2b | 4 | 0 | 0 | 3 | 3 | 1 |
| Pearson, lf | 5 | 0 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| Reynolds, p | 3 | 2 | 3 | 1 | 1 | 0 |
| | 38 | 9 | 13 | 24 | 8 | 2 |

By Innings—

| | |
|---|---|
| Switchgear | 232 200 01x—10 |
| St. Peter's | 002 203 002— 9 |

Runs batted in—Pagett 2, Carpenter 2, McCormick 2, Tompkins, Ashmore, McNabb, Playford, Courneya 2 Carlson 2, Hollingsworth 2, Masterson, Pearson, Reynolds; Two-base hits — Tompkins, Carpenter, Hollingsworth, Courneya; Bases on balls—off Murphy 8, off Reynolds 4. Struck out—by Murphy 3, by Reynolds 2; Left on bases—Switchgear 9, St. Peter's 10. Umpires—Batley at the plate Dormer on the bases.

Softball Club Plans Tourney

HASTINGS, May 23 (ENS)—At a meeting of the Hastings Softball Club held Monday night, final arrangements were made for the Softball tournament to be held on May 24. It was decided to hold three games with Asphodel and Clerks starting at 3 p.m. Tannery will meet the Juniors at 5.15, the two winners to play off at 7 o'clock for a cash prize.

This represents the first attempt at organized ball in this Trent Valley town for some time. During the past two years, the Softball Club had confined its activities to war work. Smokes have been sent to the local boys overseas and several war bonds have been purchased. These will provide a neucleus for a bigger ball organization after the war.

With the formation of the Town League, made up of five teams, Tannery, Clerks, Asphodel, Elgin and the Juniors, local fans should see plenty of action this summer. In addition, Joe Mulholland, president of the club, is forming several school teams.

Work Hard

The Juniors have worked hard for this renewal of softball interest. This is much the same band of teen-agers who gave Hastings its only organized hockey team last winter. The Juniors are also sponsoring a dance in the Town Hall Wedesday night after the Softball tournament. A portion of the proceeds will go for war work.

It is hoped that the older players and fans will give them good support. The Hastings Softball Club is devoting more attention now to post-war activities.

Secret Camera

ROCHESTER, N.Y., May 23 — (AP)—The United States Navy yesterday permitted disclosure of a hitherto secret camera by which steady and accurate "fish-eye" pictures of hits and sinkings of enemy shipping can be taken through the periscope of submerged submarine.

Sculptor Dies

ENGLEWOOD, N.J., May 23—(AP)—Frederick George Richard von Roth, prominent sculptor, died aged 72 at his home here Sunday. He was a graduate of the academies of fine ars in Vienna and Berlin, and his work was displayed throughout the United States and Europe.

FOR EXPERT TIRE REPAIRS..SEE..

J. J. DUFFUS
Peterborough, Ont.

YOUR GOOD YEAR DEALER

BIGGAR & CRAWFORD
Members Toronto Stock Exchange
JOHN KNOX CRAWFORD — G. FIELDING BIGGAR (Limited Partner)
10 KING ST. EAST, TORONTO
PETERBORO BRANCH:
397 GEORGE ST.—PHONE 4456
A. L. STEDHAM, Manager
DIRECT PRIVATE WIRE TO TORONTO

IT'S HEMINGWAY—This bearded boxer is none other than Author Ernest Hemingway, conditioning himself for the rigors of reporting the opening of the second front. Hemingway, now in England won't be able to discard his gray-streaked beard for the duration because it is the distinguishing mark in pictures on his passport and military credentials.

Clerks Trounce Elgin By 20-12 Count

HASTINGS, May 23.—(ENS). — In a see-saw battle that saw opposing players rattle a barrage of hits, Clerks defeated Elgin 20 to 12 in the second game of the Town League in Hastings Monday night.

Stan Stevenson pitched for the Clerks and allowed a total of 12 hits, five of which went for extra bases. Stevenson received excellent support from his fielders, especially Humphries in centre and Barry Kumpf at shortstop.

Elgin returned to the local sandlot wars after an absence of several years and the boys in the familiar red and white jerseys gave a good account of themselves until the disastrous eighth frame. Orr started that inning by popping out but next three Clerk batters loaded the bases on two hits and an error. Vince Herrington singled to drive in two runs and the parade was on. When the smoke cleared Clerks had the ball game in the bag.

Vince Herrington led the winners at the plate with a perfect night. He garnered three hits, a walk, and was safe on two errors, good for four runs. Thistlewaite was a powerhouse for the visitors with a triple, a double and a fielder's choice, good for three tallies.

Both pitchers settled down on the home stretch and should be harder to hit in future contests. Stevenson yielded 12 hits to 15 by Eldon Preston, who was hampered by a sore arm.

| | R. | H. | E. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Elgin | 12 | 12 | 8 |
| Clerks | 20 | 15 | 12 |

The line-ups:

Clerks— V. Herrington 2b. Ab Beavis 3b B. Kumpf ss, L. Myles 1b, P. Coughlan lf, A. Orr rf, L. Humphries cf, I. Bonds c, S. Stevenson p.

Elgin—R. Scott 2b E. Preston p, J. Preston lf, L. Metcalfe c. A. Thistlewaite ss, G. Richardson 3b, F. Beavis cf F. Scriver rf.

Umpires—Wellman and Mulholland.

Fighter Denies Retiring Rumor

By PAT O'BRIEN
Associated Press Sport Writer.

WASHINGTON, May 23 — (AP). —Henry Armstrong says there is nothing to rumors of his retirement. Hammerin' Hennery, only man in fight history to hold three championships at the same time, figures to be a prominent guy in the welterweight picture for some time to come.

"I'm ready for the best in my class," Henry said to-day, "and I know there'll be no setups where I am concerned. All the youngsters want a crack at me."

Armstrong stopped Aaron Perry, Washington hopeful, in six rounds last night.

The former featherweight, lightweight and welterweight king, now touring his third comeback trail, admitted he's lost some of the speed that prompted sportswriters to label him the "perpetual motion" boxing machine of a few years ago.

"But I still can go against anyone in the same weight class," he insisted. Henry, now in his 30's, has been in more than 300 fights.

Armstrong is due to meet Willie Joyce, one of the better welters, in Chicago next month. Then he's ticketed for a bout here against Sammy Angott, the former N.B.A. titleholder, July 17.

In last night's fight Armstrong had the 18-year-old Perry on the floor five times before the referee decided to halt the slaughter. The Associated Press scorecard gave Armstrong five of the six rounds. The bout was scheduled for 10.

Fights Last Night

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON — Henry Armstrong, 140, Los Angeles, stopped Aaron Perry, 142½, Washington, 6. Morris Reif, 142, New York, knocked out Phil Morales, 148, Puerto Rico, 1. Danny Petro, 130, New York, stopped Beau Basco, 128, Montreal, 1.

BALTIMORE — Chalky Wright, 132½, Los Angeles, knocked out Sammy Daniels, 135, Baltimore, 8. Johnny Finzaao, 173, Baltimore, outpointed Buddy Thomas, 189, Washington, 8.

PITTSBURGH—Lulu Costantino, 131, New York, outpointed Billy Miller, 131, Pittsburgh, 10. Mello Bettina, 188, Beacon, N.Y., knocked out John D. Vorce, 177, Detroit, 5.

OMAHA—Lou Nova, 204½, Van Nuys, Calif., stopped Johnny Denson, 195, Indianapolis, 7.

PROVIDENCE, R.I.—Patsy Brandino, 135, Hamilton, Ont., outpointed Willie Roache, 132, New York, 10.

SPORTS-Day by Day

By FRED D. CRAIG

The Girls' Softball League got away to a fine start last night when a big crowd gathered at the Ashburnham Bowl to see the old rivals Westclox and Aircraft battle it out in the initial game of the season. The Big Bens finally took the argument 10 to 8 but they ran behind most of the route and at one stage were down 7 to 3. However they kept plugging away and finally put together a big inning to score five runs in the seventh and that was the ball game. While such favorites as Eunice Armstrong, Marg Watson, Beryl Dobbin, Bea McDowell and Marilyn McCarthy Low were missed from the lineups the two teams looked strong last night and the game was exciting enough to make it certain that there will be many hectic tussles between the rivals before the pennant is decided. While both Tommy Bullock and Norma Strickland, the opposing pitchers had an occasional streak of wildness both showed plenty of stuff and the two will probably face each other frequently during the summer. There will be no more games in the Girls' league until Friday night when Johnson Motors, the baby members of last season's loop will tangle with Lock Works who are making their debut in the league during the present campaign. It will be called at 6.45 o'clock. In the meantime the league is sending out an S.O.S. for umpires. Anybody who is willing to help is asked to get into touch with President Bill Bennett.

* * * * * *

The City League will hold down the boards for the next three nights at Riverside Park. Plazas who were beaten in their first start will clash this evening with the Military Training Centre and that should develop into a lively encounter between two clubs who have had some merry arguments in the past. Nothing has been announced from the Training Centre as to the pitching selection for tonight or as to the lineup. Among the new arrivals at the Camp is Billy Taylor the hockey star who also plays softball but whether he will be in action tonight remains to be seen. Terry Woods will likely do the Plaza pitching. Tomorrow night the new U.E.W. team will make their first appearance playing the St. Peter's team who gave Switchgear such a chase Monday night. The probable lineup of the Union team is Platt 2b, Quigley ss, Girard c, Murduff lf, Detlor 1b, Jackson cf, Doughty rf, Isaac p. U.E.W. will come right back on Thursday night and clash with the Plazas so that there is plenty of softball in sight for the next three nights in the Men's loop and Friday in the girls' league.

* * * * * *

Swing or Chin Lock?

Tonight's battle in the main bout at Brock St. Rink will decide whether John Katan's famed chin lock is more deadly than Frank Sexton's giant swing. The Palermo Panther, fresh from a series of exciting ring arguments across the line, including a number of engagements in Boston, is back on his native heath, more convinced than ever that he should be the British Empire champion. The Ukrainian-Canadian figures that the best way to convince the critics is to win a series of matches against first-class opposition and so he looks upon the contest with Sexton tonight as a stepping-stone toward his goal of a match with Whipper Billy Watson for the Empire title. Katan hasn't much love for a lot of the mat performers of today. He says they are not wrestlers but acrobats and he professes to be utterly unimpressed by what he calls their fancy holds. "They're talking a lot about Sexton's giant swing," the Palermo Panother declares. "What do they think I will be doing while he's trying to grab me by the ankles and take me for a ride? I have met a lot of boys like Sexton and most of them never even got a chance to try out their fancy stuff. They were too busy trying to keep away from my chin lock."

* * * * * *

In short you do not have to prove that Katan is both tough and good. He will admit both facts. But he is facing an adversary who holds the Pacific Coast title and has so far escaped unbeaten even by Wild Bill Longson is confident that he has the technique to take care of Katan or any other ring villain they happen to trot out against him. It should be a hummer of a battle between two powerful opponents who use widely different tactics. And there is plenty of excitement likely in the supporting card. Bunny Dunlop knows only one style and that is to sail in with all his guns firing and he is opposed by the rotund Nick Elitch who is plenty tough himself and will undoubtedly try to beat the Toronto performer at his own style. That should make for aption in gobs. In the other bout Johnny Gyroffy, ex-member of the R.C.A.F. who belongs to the school of ring speed and is all action all the time meets a new comer in the person of Cliff Bell of Syracuse. There is not much on the latter except that he has been making a good showing against tough opposition and may prove to be the sort of grappler to give Gyroffy plenty of trouble.

* * * * * *

George Campbell, Oshawa sports scribe is dubious about the Youth Council softball program. He says: "Lack of equipment, lack of interest, lack of qualified leaders to carry on with the duties of supervision, lack of grounds, school grounds or otherwise, on which to play the games and lack of a definite and sound plan of action and procedure are just a few of the handicaps hindering the progress of the recently proposed "softball-for-every-boy-and-girl" idea sponsored by the Youth Council. In fact, after several meetings now and apparently no noticeable progress made, it begins to look as if the only things not "lacking" is the need for such a sports program locally and the ability to talk about it. We heard good, sound advice voiced by experienced softball men, at the first meeting held by the "Youth Council" group, held more than three weeks ago. First requirement for a universal, city-wide softball program for younger boys and girls, will be a location or "diamond" in every section of the city. After grounds have been obtained, the business of getting equipment is a simple one, merely a minor financial problem of purchase. However, then comes the need for some older boy or man to "supervise" and accept the responsibility of being custodian of the equipment, one for each grounds. From this distance, it looks to us as if both grounds and "supervisers" are scarce and without either, the project is doomed to failure. Those behind the move might as well face that fact" and make sure that these two requirements are well taken care of—or fold up, now—instead of later."

* * * * * *

Bill Stewart, the man who turned from hockey refereeing to coaching and piloted Chicago Black Hawks to a Stanley Cup triumph in 1938, is hot after a record held by Bill Klem, present umpire-in-chief of the National League, says the Ottawa Citizen. Stewart was calling balls and strikes earlier in the season when Jim Tobin spun a no-hitter against the Dodgers and it was his third assignment as umpire-in-chief of a Hall of Fame game.... He was back of the plate June 15, 1938, when Johnny Vander Meer ushered in night baseball in Brooklyn with a hitless effort, and again when Tex Carleton accomplished the feat on behalf of Brooklyn at the expense of the Cardinals....Stewart has been calling 'em for 11 years and is only two no-hit umpiring games short of the five chalked up by the veteran Klem over a 36-year stretch....Klem's last no-hit date was Paul Dean's job against the Dodgers on Sept. 21, 1934, for Frankie Frisch's Cardinals on the high road towards their pennant and world series triumph.

* * * * * *

Sporting Chili Con Carne: Tucker of Chicago White Sox heads the American League in batting and that is a new name to have at the top of the list....Switchgear are well equipped with hard-hitting outfielders. Gib Brockley who played right field in the opening game was one of the batting stars....Last night McCormick played right field and came through with four hits out of five trips....Al Courneya, St. Peter's third-sacker had a big night, both in the field and at the bat....It was the first time out for some of the Saints and their showing under the circumstances was remarkable....Toronto Leafs stopped the victory march of the Buffalo Bisons last night winning 4 to 3 by pushing over a run in the ninth frame....Russ Johnston, Hamilton pitching star picked up 17 strikeouts, in a game against Dundas last night....Aircraft of the Girls' loop have ordered classy new uniforms. They should be the best-dressed outfit in the league when the toggery arrives.

LITTLE BIT OF HEAVEN—One of the leading members of Hollywood's second generation, lovely Gloria de Haven, doesn't have to depend on the reputation of her famous parents, Carten and Flora de Haven, as an aid to success. Gloria can stand on her own beautiful legs.

Joe Baski Sure He Can Trounce Savold

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sport Writer

NEW YORK, May 23.— (AP).—The bearded battler of Madame Bey's — that's what they're calling Joe Baksi the former miner from Kumpont, Pa., as he preps for Friday night's 12-round heavyweight scrap with Lee Savold in Madison Square Garden.

Joe, although only 22, has raised quite a crop of whiskers during the three-week grind of road and ring work. He plans to shave Wednesday, but he said to-day he would like to keep the hirsute adornment.

"I guess I can't keep it," Baksi said, "for the New York Boxing Commission has a rule that all fighters must be clean shaven when they enter the ring. I'm down to 207 pounds, five under the weight I had when I fought Savold a couple of months ago. I'll be down to around 202 when I shave off this beard."

Baksi is training at Madame Bey's famed fisticuff resort near Chatham N.J.

Madame Bey, widow of a former attache of the Turkish embassy, died a year ago, and since then the camp has been in the hands of Ehsan Karadag, a Persian.

Although Baksi, after a sensational victory over Tami Mauriello in his first Garden bout, dropped a close verdict to Savold in their former meeting, the bearded boy said he was confident he'd win over the Paterson, N.J., Adonis this time.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS

By The Canadian Press

With a fifth of the playing season over, the big league baseball clubs have already performed to 1,660,544 fans, with an aggregate patronage of 7,714,636 for the whole of last season, averaging 6,250 per game. Statistics show 60 per cent of the crowds attended the five Sunday and 20 night fixtures.

In ill-health for 18 months, Maj. Frederic McLaughlin, owner of the Chicago Black Hawks in the National Hockey League, is now a patient in the Lake Forest Hospital, Chicago, for observation.

The Office of Price Administration at San Francisco yesterday was reported checking 800 race fans who drove their cars to the Bay Meadows Track on four successive Saturdays. A number have had their gasoline coupons confiscated, it was announced.

The Ontario Lawn Tennis Association announced yesterday at Toronto the supply of tennis balls would be more plentiful this season because manufacturers had been permitted to use a limited quantity of reclaimed rubber for the purpose.

After suffering a heart attack at the annual meeting in Montreal of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association last month, Lorenzo Lafleur is expected to be able to return from that city to Ottawa this week. He is president of the Ottawa District Hockey Association.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

Gene Tunney was stripped temporarily of his light heavyweight title by Harry Greb of Pittsburg at New York 22 years ago tonight. Tunney lost the decision in a 10-round bout but later defeated Greb before entering the heavyweight ranks in 1926. He won the heavyweight title the next year.

May 24

The dynamite-laden New York Yankee bats cracked out 27 hits to score a lopsided 25-2 victory over the Athletics at Philadelphia eight years ago to-day. The 25 runs represented a new American League record for runs batted in, the previous mark of 23 having been held by the Athletics.

Classy Westclox Girls' Team Cops Opening Game Defeating Aircraft By 10 to 8

Westclox, last season's Girls' Softball League senior champions, had to come from behind in their battle with Aircraft last night in the opening game of the 1944 season but they finally turned the trick with a five-run rally in the seventh frame to take the verdict 10 to 8.

A huge crowd saw the rivals pry the lid off the season in an exciting game at the Ashburnham Bowl.

Both teams showed a number of lineup changes from last season and Westclox started the season without a spot in the infield being filled by the same player who occupied that particular post last season. Aircraft also had a number of new players including Marg. Batley, Helen Hunt and Marg. Barrie.

It was a battle between Isobel Bullock on the hilltop for the Big Bens and Norma Strickland who went the route for the Aircraft club. Westclox were outhit by their rivals, Norma Strickland holding them to four blows but the Aircraft pitcher paved the way for her own downfall in the seventh when she lost control, issued three walks and made a couple of costly errors.

Aircraft got away to a good start in the first innings when Marg. Batley, Eleanor Craig and Marg. Selkirk all hit safely to drive in two runs. Westclox however tied it up in their half of the first when Aggie Anderson, first up, was safe on an error and Nona Whetung walked and both eventually scored.

The losers came back with three in the second to take the lead again. Helen Hunt, who singled, Marg. Batley, who walked, and Annette DeCarlo, who got a safe hit, all crossing the plate. Norma Strickland helped her own cause with a timely hit at this stage.

The only reply by the Westclox was a run by Verna Patterson, first up in the inning, who walked and eventually scored.

Aircraft went further ahead in the fourth when June Moore opened the inning with a hit and walks to Norma Strickland and Marg. Selkirk coupled with an error sent two runs in and put the Aircrafters in front 7 to 3.

Westclox closed the gap in the fifth when they chased two markers over the counting station on two errors, a walk and a timely hit by Marg. Hawthorne.

In the first of the seventh Phyllis Bigelow walked and finally made the circuit to put the ultimate losers in the van by 8 to 5.

Then came the big Westclox half of the seventh. Isobel Bullock and Marg. Hawthorne walked and Viola McLean came through with a ringing single to centre to send the pair across. Norma Strickland's wide throw to first on Barbara Rome's bunt sent Viola McLean in with the run that tied up the game and a couple of errors put Barbara Rome and Verna Patterson across with the runs that meant the ball game for Isobel Bullock stopped the Aircraft in order in the eighth and the game was then called for darkness.

The teams:

Westclox — Aggie Anderson cf, Nona Whetung 1b, Isobel Bullock p, Marg. Hawthorne ss, Viola McLean 3b, Barbara Rome lf, Verna Patterson rf, Jean Castle c, Jean Withers 2b.

Aircraft—Marg. Batley ss, Annette DeCarlo c, Norma Strickland p, Eleanor Craig 3b, Marg. Selkirk cf, Marg. Barrie lf, Phyllis Bigelow lf, A. Patterson 2b, Helen Hunt 1b, June Moore rf, Irma Perdue, pinch-hitter.

| By Innings— | | R | H | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Westclox | 210 020 5x—10 | | 4 | 3 |
| Aircraft | 230 200 10— 8 | | 7 | 7 |

Umpires—Herb. Payne at the plate Pte. Montgomery on the bases.

Lots Of Action In Ottawa Bouts

OTTAWA, May 23 (CP) — Phil Shears of Montreal punched out a close five-round decision over Ottawa's Edgar Blondin in the main bout of a boxing card here last night. They fought at 118 pounds. In the semi-final, a 138-pound go, Tommy Tomlinson of Toronto decisioned Paddy Oakley of Ottawa. It was Tomlinson's first fight in an Ottawa ring.

In a 118-pound preliminary Clayton Kenny of Ottawa won by decision from Vic Snack, Montreal, and, fighting at 125 pounds, Roter Mineault, Ottawa, defeated Harold Phillips of Montreal by decision. Only knockout of the card was scored by Len Cregar of Ottawa, who put Harvey Barriere, Montreal, away in the second round of their 135-pound go.

Vic Lamarche, Montreal, decisioned Ronnie Lacelle, Ottawa, in a 95-pound match.

Complete Auto Service
MOTOR REPAIR. BODY BUMPING, REPAINTING
J. J. DUFFUS CO.
Tel. 5757

HOUSING WAR BRIDES

"Every paper I pick up is full of war brides," sighed Mr. Picobac.

"What's wrong with that?" inquired Mrs. Picobac. "But where are they going to live? There isn't an empty house in town!"

"Many may do as Betty did when Pete went overseas," said Mrs. Picobac. "Go home to their mothers."

Mr. Picobac was staring at a perfect smoke ring rising from his pipe—"Look!" cried he, "the visible aroma of a mild . . . cool . . . sweet smoke!"

MORE MEN SMOKE PICOBAC THAN ANY OTHER PIPE TOBACCO IN CANADA

"It DOES taste good in a pipe"
Picobac
The Pick of Tobacco
GROWN IN SUNNY, SOUTHERN ONTARIO

Tigers, Cards Zooming In High Gear

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sport Writer.

Detroit and St. Louis Cardinals rank as the two hottest clubs in the major leagues to-day on the eve of the second intersectional series of the season.

When the Tigers started their eastern swing they were buried in the American League's last place, but their 10-out-of-14 pace sent them soaring into fourth and only four games off the Yankee pace.

The western teams of the National, paced by the Cardinals with nine triumphs in 13 starts, handled the eastern invaders in easy fashion by playing .616 ball. Only the Boston Braves who got spectacular pitching to break even in 14 games, could remain at an even keel. Brooklyn nosedived from fifth to seventh with only four victories in 14 tries.

In the American's east the home teams had the edge, but had to scramble to keep above the .500 mark by taking 31 of 56. Detroit's success saved the other visitors from a complete rout although each showed flashes of form.

All indications pointed toward a real knock-down drag-out scramble in the American. Now that every club has played all others it is apparent there is no standout team.

McCarthy Still Sick

BUFFALO—(AP)—Still on the ailing list from influenza, Manager Joe McCarthy of the New York Yankees returned to his farm home at nearby Amherst yesterday for another brief rest before rejoining his team in Chicago.

"BEWDLEY PAVILION"
OPENING NIGHT WED. MAY 24.
Jack Galloway's Band, Modern and Old Time Music. Dancing 9 to 12.30. 50c each. 2 cash door prizes. Every Thursday night after during summer.

Four-Piece Orchestra
Open For Engagements
'Phone 8532

HIS YEAR? By Jack Sords

Baseball Results and Record

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Rochester | 16 | 10 | .615 |
| Buffalo | 14 | 10 | .583 |
| Syracuse | 12 | 9 | .571 |
| Toronto | 12 | 11 | .522 |
| Montreal | 12 | 13 | .480 |
| Jersey City | 12 | 12 | .478 |
| Baltimore | 9 | 12 | .429 |
| Newark | 8 | 17 | .320 |

Monday's Results.
Toronto 4, Buffalo 3.
Rochester 13 Montreal 11.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| St. Louis | 21 | 9 | .700 |
| Cincinnati | 17 | 11 | .607 |
| Pittsburgh | 14 | 10 | .583 |
| Philadelphia | 12 | 13 | .480 |
| New York | 13 | 16 | .448 |
| Boston | 14 | 18 | .438 |
| Brooklyn | 12 | 16 | .429 |
| Chicago | 8 | 18 | .308 |

No game scheduled.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| New York | 17 | 10 | .630 |
| St. Louis | 17 | 15 | .531 |
| Washington | 15 | 14 | .517 |
| Detroit | 15 | 16 | .484 |
| Boston | 14 | 15 | .483 |
| Philadelphia | 14 | 15 | .483 |
| Cleveland | 14 | 17 | .452 |
| Chicago | 13 | 17 | .433 |

No game scheduled.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
Monday's Results.
Columbus 8, Kansas City 5.

MOVIE TIME TABLE

Capitol—"Mr. Deeds Goes To Town", 2.15, 5.45, 9.05; "What's Buzzin' Cousin", 4.10, 7.40.

Centre—"A Night To Remember," 1.30, 4.20, 7.10, 10.00; "Mr. Mugg Steps Out", 3.13, 6.05, 8.55.

Regent—"Murder On the Waterfront", 1.30, 3.25, 5.25, 7.25, 9.30; "How's About It", 2.15, 4.15, 6.15, 8.20, 10.25.

ON LEAVE IN ENGLAND

COLOMBO, Ceylon — (CP) — Rt. Rev. C. D. Horsley, Bishop of Colombo, is spending his first leave for five years in England.

Actor Lew Ayres Aids Wounded In New Guinea

BY SPENCER DAVIS
Associated Press War Correspondent

HOLLANDIA, Netherlands New Guinea, May 22 — (AP) — At an evacuation hospital on the red clay slops of Pancake Hill they call him Lew—or sometimes, "Kildare."

He's not the same jaunty Lew Ayers who one portrayed doctor roles in Hollywood films. As an assistant to a Chaplain at this recently-invaded beachhead his function is to talk with soldiers as they are brought to the hospital, sick or wounded, and ease their problems.

"I never intend to go back to pictures," Ayres told me. "I want to continue this work, God willing. It's taken war to give me understanding of men and to find myself."

He said he plans to enter a seminary after the war and then go to a congregational pulpit.

"I'm still a conscientious objector of war, you see," he added.

(Ayres went to a camp for conscientious objectors at Wyeth, Ore., early in 1942 and a short time after was inducted into the United States Army at Portland, Ore., after he volunteered for non-combatant medical service.)

The former film star's appearance has changed. His close-cropped hair is turning gray. His face is lined and yellowed from Atabrine, the synthetic substitute for Quinine which soldiers in the tropics require as a malaria suppressant.

Dixie Walker Piles Base Hits

NEW YORK, May 23—(AP)—Dixie Walker continued to beat out a torrid tune on the basehit scale to lead both major leagues with a .421 average today as his Brooklyn Dodgers dragged themselves home from a disastrous road trip.

While Walker upped his mark seven points, Thurman Tucker of the Chicago White Sox collected 13 hits in 29 at bats during the week for an American League top mark of .395.

Including games of May 22, Walker has been up 114 times and bashed out 48 hits for his 57-point margin over Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals, his nearest challenger. Musial, the 1943 king, soared into second place at .364 with Boston's Tommy Holes who was not in the Big 10 a week ago, moving into third with .348 on as many hits as Walker.

Newcomers in the national Big 10 are Jimmy Wasdell of the Phils and Holmes although both had been up there earlier. Eric Tipton of Cincinnati, Danny Litwhiler of St. Louis and Max Macon of Boston dropped out.

Tucker has a 38-point edge on Detroit's Chuck Hostetler on a season total of 34 hits in 86 at bats.

Lippy Is Irked

NEW YORK—(AP)—After winning only four of 14 games on the western trip, Lippy Leo Durocher yesterday threatened an upheaval in the Brooklyn Dodgers' line-up, declaring "the guys out there have got to do less sleeping when they've got a uniform on." He intimated he might replace Bill Hart at shortstop.

PAULETTE WEDS "BUZZY"—Filing their intentions to wed are Paulette Goddard, film lovely, and Captain Burgess Meredith, former stage and film actor, at the Los Angeles Hall of Records. They were married Sunday.

Canadian Sport Snapshots

By SYD THOMAS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO May 23. — (CP).—Chicago Black Hawks must have been harking to Red Dutton's suggestions for bigger and better hockey seasons, with games galore on the program. Dink (Montreal Gazette) Carroll reports that the Chihawks suggested a 60-game schedule next season at the annual N.H.L. meeting in Montreal.

The report is that the idea was voted down as unfeasible with very little discussion for or against, and was shelved until the fall meeting of the executive.

Chances are the whole thing will be forgotten by then, but since the league's managing director is in favor of longer seasons some action might be forthcoming at that.

Of course, one angle the hockey bigwigs can't lose sight of is that there may no N.H.L. at all next season if the war and manpower situation intervene. The professional loop might have difficulty playing 10 or 20 games, even if the juvenile ranks are raided for hockey ivory.

What Price Sports?

Ken (Vancouver Province) McConnell wages a debate with some readers over the relative value of sport news in these days of rationed newsprint and unrationed war news.

Ken points out that without publicity in the public prints, horse racing and other sports would die into obscurity. And what a howl that would raise if Joe Plunger couldn't read up on his favorites to find out how to lose a few simoleons at the track or the stadum.

Besides that, servicemen would be as hard hit as any, since they are among the keenest of sport fans no matter where they are stationed. Proof enough of that is the keen demand for sport news by service readers of The Canadian Press News, overseas tabloid for the troops. Not only do the boys want news of current sports in Canada, but they also want other special features to while away the time with, such as chess problems and cross word puzzles.

Sport has its big part in keeping up the morale of the fellows who are going to end the current muddle the world got itself into.

Incidentally:

Fish and game associations in the Thunder Bay district are going all-out to conserve and propagate wild life. Latest scheme is a "buy an egg" campaign to increase the pheasants in the area. Everyone is encouraged to chip in with the price of an egg for a hatchery, and the young pheasants will be liberated when they are hatched and old enough. Les (Winnipeg Free Press) Russell urges opening of a lacrosse referee school so the new 25-team league won't have to worry about rough play and inefficient officiating spoiling things.

Here and There in Sport

By The Canadian Press

NEW YORK, May 23—(AP)—By way of explaining those Sunday baseball crowds, the figures show that competition still is there, if quality isn't. . . . Of 246 major league games so far 79 have been decided by one run . . . that's a .321 average, which is good in any league. . . . Incidentally, the Yanks have won five or six one-runners and the Cards four of seven. The Indians have played 15 of those tight games and the Braves and Dodgers 13 each. . . . The National Football League turned down George Preston Marshall's proposal to change its name from "league" to "conference". . . . If you could listen in on a conference between Marshall and the other club owners, you'd understand why they weren't interested in a permanent one.

One-minute Sports Page

After attending a race meeting at El Paso, Roy Hodges, the hoss trainer, is convinced that Texas will legalize mutuel betting again soon. . . . Mid-western scriblers have begun to complain about the way Michigan's twins, Ross and Bob Hume, deliberately try to run dead heats. They figure a race should be a race and not a family reunion. . . . The Clinton, Iowa, "700" Bowling Club—with just 13 members — won the first national tournament of the 700 bowlers with a 3,218 score. That's only a 643 average.

Veteran Coach Dies

PRINCETON, N.J.—(AP)—Keene Fitzpatrick, 79, termed by Dean Christian Gauss the "grand old man of Princeton University Athletics," died yesterday. Fitzpatrick came to Princeton as track coach in 1910 and continued in that position and as trainer of the football team until his retirement in 1932.

What's On the Air

| Stations | Kilocycles |
|---|---|
| CHEX | 1430 |
| CBL | 740 |
| CFRB | 860 |
| WJZ | 770 |
| WEAF | 660 |
| WABC | 880 |

Symbols: D—Drama, M—Musical, R—Religious, S—Songs, T—Talk, V—Variety, N—News

This Program has been given the Peterborough Examiner by stations herein listed. If the presentations as scheduled are not on the air, the fault lies with the stations and not with the Examiner.

Radio Station CHEX Carries the News on the Hour

TUESDAY EVENING

6:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Tunes
WJZ—John Kennedy-N
CBL—Relax and Enjoy-M
6:15 P.M.
CHEX—The People Ask
CBL—Market Report
WABC—Edwin C Hill-N
WEAF—Serenade to America
6:30 P.M.
CHEX—News; Rhythm R'nd-up
WABC—Jeri Sullavan-S
CBL—Curtain Echoes-M
WJZ—Whose War is This?
WEAF—Serenade to America
6:45 P.M.
CHEX—Parade of Bands
CBL—BBC News
CFRB—Sportviews
WEAF—Lowell Thomas-N
7:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Sportcast
CFRB—Vic and Sade-D
WJZ—Let Yourself Go-V
CBL—Concert Sketches
WABC—I Love a Mystery-T
7:15 P.M.
CHEX—School Children
WABC—Passing Parade
CFRB—Musical Revue
WEAF—World News
7:30 P.M.
CHEX—Electro Auto Light
WJZ—Diane and Jesters-S
WABC—Melody Hour
CBL—The Old Songs
7:45 P.M.
CFRB—So the Story Goes
CBL—News Roundup
WJZ—Don't You Believe It
8:00 P.M.
CHEX—Town and Country
WABC—Big Town-D
CFRB—Sport Club
WEAF—Johnny Presents-V
8:30 P.M.
CHEX—Drums
WABC—Judy Canova
CFRB—Fun Parade
WJZ—Duffy's-V
CBL—Back to Home-T
9:00 P.M.
CHEX—Le Gala du Printemps
CBL—John and Judy
WABC—Burns and Allen-V
WEAF—Mystery Theatre-D
9:30 P.M.
WJZ—Victory Parade-M
WABC—Cresta Carnival-V
CBL—Fibber and Molly
10:00 P.M.
CHEX—Bob Hope Show
CBL—CBC News
WJZ—Raymond G Swing-T
WABC—Presenting Corwin-D
10:15 P.M.
WJZ—Ilene Woods-S
CBL—Ribald Researches-T
10:30 P.M.
CHEX—Creeps by Night-D
WEAF—Red Skelton & Co.-V
CBL—Organ Series
WABC—Congress Speaks
CFRB—Calgary Kid
10:45 P.M.
CFRB—Guy Lombardo Orch
11:00 P.M.
CHEX—News and Commentary
CFRB—News.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

6:00 A.M.
CHEX—Early Risers
6:30 A.M.
CHEX—News
7:30 A.M.
CHEX—News
7:45 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Cheer
8:00 A.M.
CHEX—News
8:15 A.M.
CHEX—Breakfast Musicale
CFRB—Coffee Time
8:30 A.M.
CHEX—Breakfast Musicale
WABC—M'ssus Goes Shopp'g-T
CBL—March Past-M
8:45 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Devotions-T
WEAF—From London
WABC—Margaret Arlen
9:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Salon Strings
CBL—Mirth and Madness
CFRB—Interlude
WJZ—Breakfast Club-V
9:15 A.M.
CHEX—Meet the Band
CFRB—Sing Along Club
9:30 A.M.
CHEX—Invitation to Waltz-M
9:45 A.M.
CHEX—Waltz Time
CBL—Music While You Work
CFRB—This Life is Mine-D
10:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Masterworks
CBL—Band Plays On
WJZ—Sweet River-D
10:15 A.M.
CHEX—News; Masterworks
WABC—Kitty Foyle-D
CFRB—How Goes the Chorus
10:30 A.M.
CHEX—Peter McGregor-D
CBL—Wartime Housekeeping
CFRB—Mrs Aitken-T
WJZ—My True Story-D
10:45 A.M.
CHEX—Masterpieces-M
CBL—Monica Mugan-T
WJZ—The Listening Post-D
11:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Billy Catton-M
CFRB—Home Crafters
CBL—Road of Life-D
WJZ—Breakfast at Sardi's-V
11:30 A.M.
CHEX—Invit to Syncopation
WEAF—Brave To-morrow-D
CBL—Soldier's Wife-D
11:45 A.M.
CHEX—On Lighter Side
CFRB—Do You Remember
WABC—Aunt Jenny

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

12:00 NOON
CHEX—News; Home Folks
WABC—Kate Smith Speaks
WJZ—Common Sense-T
12:15 P.M.
WJZ—Reporters Abroad-T
CFRB—Farm Broadcasts
12:30 P.M.
CHEX—News; arm News
CBL—Ontario Farm News
WABC—Helen Trent-D
1:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Home Folks
CBL—CBC News
WEAF—Sketches in Melody
1:15 P.M.
WJZ—Woman's Exchange-T
CBL—The Happy Gang
1:30 P.M.
CHEX—Who's New To-day
CFRB—Tropical Moods
WABC—Bernadine Flynn-T
1:45 P.M.
CHEX—They Tell Me-T
WJZ—Piano Play House-M
2:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Salon Orchestra
WABC—Portia Faces Life-D
WEAF—Guiding Light-D
2:15 P.M.
CHEX—The Lady Sings
WABC—Joyce Jordan-D
WJZ—Mystery Chef-T
WEAF—To-day's Children-D
2:30 P.M.
CHEX—Stars of the Week
WJZ—Ladies Be Seated
CFRB—Name to Remember
WEAF—Light of the World-D
WABC—Young Dr Malone-D
2:45 P.M.
CHEX—Happy B'day Mother
WEAF—Hymns All Churches
3:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Melody Matinee
CBL—A Woman of America-D
WABC—Mary Marlin
3:15 P.M.
CHEX—Melody Matinee
CBL—Ma Perkins-D
CFRB—At the Console-M
WJZ—Appoint with Life-D
3:30 P.M.
CHEX—Alf Standen, piano
CBL—Pepper Young-D
3:45 P.M.
CHEX—Voice of Memory
CBL—Right to Happiness-D
WJZ—Ethel and Albert
CFRB—Lucy Linton-D
4:00 P.M.
CHEX—Make Believe Ballroom
WJZ—Blue Frolics
WABC—Broadway Matinee
4:30 P.M.
CBL—The Liptonaires
CFRB—Live and Learn
WEAF—Lorenzo Jones-D
4:45 P.M.
WABC—Raymond Scott Show
WEAF—Widder Brown-D
WJZ—Sea Hound-D
5:00 P.M.
CHEX—Robertson Davies-N
CBL—Front Line Family
WABC—Fun with Dunn-V
WJZ—Hop Harrigan-D
5:15 P.M.
CHEX—Lindsay Salute
5:30 P.M.
CFRB—Three Sisters-S
WEAF—Just Plain Bill-D
WJZ—Jack Armstrong-D
5:45 P.M.
CHEX—Musical Moments
CFRB—Southland Singing
WABC—American Women

Theatres - Dances - Radio

Toronto Beats Buffalo 4-3

By the Associated Press.

The International League has its third different leader in as many days to-day as the Rochester Red Wings went back on top one game ahead of the Buffalo Bisons.

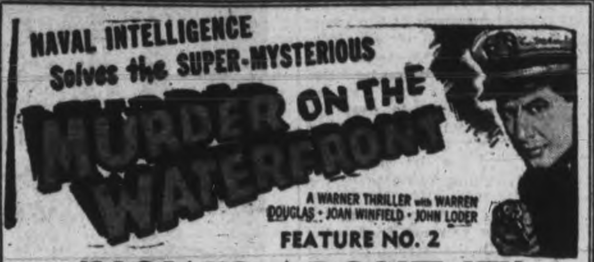
Buffalo fell out of first when Toronto eked out a 4-3 edge last night on an infield hit by Tony Castano with two out in the last inning.

Dick Shoff opened the frame with a single and took second on an infield out. Castano's smash was to the right of Carl McNabb who failed to get his man at first on a hair-line decision, Shoff kept going to score from second, sliding under Frank Heller's peg to Catcher Bob Garbark.

Rochester had some anxious moments at Montreal, but finally pulled out with a 13-11 win on a 16-hit attack off Al Zachary, Roy Saner and John Travis.

The Syracuse-Baltimore game was played as part of a twin bill on Sunday and Newark and Jersey City were not scheduled.

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE Solves the SUPER-MYSTERIOUS



FEATURE NO. 2
'HOW'S ABOUT IT'
Musical Comedy - With the Andrew Sisters
Regent
LAST TIMES TO-DAY
2 Good Hits
Mat. Daily 1.30
Special Holiday Attraction
"GEORGE IN THE HOME GUARD"
Starring Your Favorite
GEORGE FORMBY - PLUS! LATEST C.C.O.

CENTRE
TO-DAY
And WEDNESDAY
2—Splendid Hits—

AND THE SECOND BIG FEATURE

EXTRA! LATEST ASSOCIATED BRITISH NEWSREEL
STARTS THURSDAY
2 EXCELLENT FEATURES - DOROTHY LAMOUR
DICK POWELL - VICTOR MOORE in the Technicolor Hit
"RIDING HIGH"
Also "HERE COMES KELLY." PLUS! CARTOON

STARTS TOMORROW
PARAMOUNT'S sensational Technicolor triumph from the celebrated stage success!
THE SONG OF SONGS OF EVERY WOMAN

GINGER ROGERS
RAY MILLAND
WARNER BAXTER
JON HALL
with MISCHA AUER
"Lady in the Dark"
ON THE SAME PROGRAM
Excellent Technicolor Short
"LUCKY COWBOY"
and
Latest Canadian Universal News
Last Day—
What's Buzzin' "Cousin" and "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town"
Capitol

This Week
SUMMER GARDENS
PETERBOROUGH
TUESDAY
WRESTLING
WEDNESDAY
Ozzie Williams and His Band
FRIDAY
DANCING
"Melody Men"
SATURDAY
DANCING
"MELODY MEN"

Tomorrow
Wed., May 24th
OZZIE WILLIAMS
AND HIS ORCHESTRA
Direct From Toronto's "Club Kingsway"
Admission—75c Person
Summer Gardens
PETERBOROUGH

TONIGHT!
DON'T MISS THIS!

JOHN KATAN
PALERMO PANTHER
vs.
FRANK SEXTON
COLUMBUS POWERHOUSE
SEMI-FINAL
NICK ELITCH vs. BUNNY DUNLOP
FIRST BOUT
CLIFF BELL vs. JOHNIE GYROFFY
BROCK ARENA
FIRST BOUT 8.45 P.M.

New York Man Drowns In Lake Baptiste

BANCROFT, May 23.—(ENS). — John McCulloch aged 59 years, of 3342 Royal avenue, New York was drowned Sunday evening at Baptiste Lake. He was not missed until 8 o'clock Monday morning and dragging operations disclosed his body in 14 feet of water.

The American sportsman was staying at what is commonly called 'Millionaires' Island.' He had arrived Friday night with a party of 10 guests and four servants and they had spent the intervening time fishing.

His friends did not miss him because several members of the group had retired about 10 o'clock Sunday night, and it was assumed he had gone with them. When he failed to make an appearance in the morning they started to drag off shore with a pike pole and soon located the body.

It is believed that he was on his way to his sleeping cabin when the accident occurred. Mr. McCulloch had to cross a steep cliff near his door and it is believed that being unfamiliar with the terrain, he went in the wrong direction plunging to his death n the lake.

Provincial Officer S. W. Palmateer and Coroner Dr. O. W. Anderson of Bancroft were notified and as a result of their investigations, Mr. McCulloch's death was attributed to accidental drowning.

MORE ABOUT—

Premier Warns

Continued from Page 1

Evil Forces at Work.

"I should like to add this further word, and I do it as the result of what I have heard and seen and felt.

"I do not believe that this war is going to end the conflict between the different classes of races and men.

"The enemies of to-day must be completely destroyed, but forces of evil have been let loose in this world which it is going to be difficult to bring to bay. These forces of evil are going to continue to do their part in helping to destroy all that is best for mankind I am afraid, for many days to come, possibly years to come, after the main struggle is over.

"In all of our deliberations here, as I am sure will be the case in the deliberations of all the other assemblies of free nations, we must never lose sight of the fact that our greatest work perhaps still lies ahead in seeking to trample under foot and destroy the dragon that today is seeking to destroy all of mankind."

Open Freedom's Gates

More than ever he had been impressed with the truth that Britain held the gates of freedom for the world. If she had not been given the support of nations of the commonwealth she might not have been able to hold them open for she had been sorely pressed.

"If these gates are ever closed there will be no more freedom for free men in this world, I believe, for a thousand years to come," he said.

For once, the House forgot political affiliations as Gordon Graydon, Progressive Conservative House Leader, followed by M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader and John Blackmore, Social Credit House Leader, told of their pleasure in Mr. King's safe return.

Agricultural Minister Gardiner said there were parity prices on all farm products to-day, and more than parity on most products. To ask for parity prices meant asking the Government to reduce prices now prevailing.

It might not be possible to hold all the business for the supply of food to the United Kingdom after the war. Britain had been taking 80 per cent of Canadian bacon products, between 70 and 80 per cent of cheese and from 70 to 80 per cent of Canadian wheat market.

More Wheat Needed.

"The demand for wheat is increasing and we have sufficient to supply Britain for many months in advance with the storages of wheat that we have in this country at present," he continued.

The price for the foodstuffs for Britain was paid for in part by the British Government and in part by Canada. The Canadian taxpayers were asked to put up sufficient of the price to make it possible to get increased production.

"You created $1,000,000,000 last year,' said Victor Quelch (SC-Acadia), referring to the Canadian mutual aid provision.

Mr. Gardiner: "We created $1,000,000,000 worth of wealth, $1,000,000,000 worth of food, plus munitions, plus machines and we distributed it to different countries where there was a very strong demand for it."

Everything possible should be done to see that the markets were assured in various parts of the world for the food Canada produces, he said. If transportation difficulties could be overcome, Canada would be able to produce to the limit and market her products at a return which would make it possible to carry on farms.

L. E. Cardiff (PC-Huron North) said farmers had been asked to hold their cattle until they gained more weight with the result that a beef surplus developed this spring. He blamed the government for this condition.

Robert Fair (SC-Battle River) said that in claiming increased prices were being paid to the farmer Mr. Gardiner "has given us what we call in the west a bum steer." He had failed to take into account the increased cost of production to the farmer.

"This is an election year, when it is likely to take more kudos for the Liberal party," said P. E. Wright (CCF-Melfort).

"That is the way to get parity prices from the government."

On an item of $16,500,000 to cover freight assistance on the movement of western feed grain to eastern Canada, Mr. Gardiner said that from October, 1941, to March 31. 1944, the total tonnage moved was 6,755,146 worth $30,634,867.

STONE MEMORIALS WILL REPLACE WOODEN CROSSES — Temporary wooden crosses, such as those shown (Top) in the Canadian War Graves cemetery at Brookwood, Surrey, England, are used by the Canadian Army Overseas as a temporary measure only. After the war they will be replaced by permanent headstones like those in the Beechwood Cemetery at Ottawa, shown in the Lower photograph. These stone memorials are of a standardized size and design approved by the Imperial War Graves Commission and reserved exclusively to mark the graves of fallen members of the Commonwealth's Forces in all parts of the world. The Commission is the "accredited agent" of all the governments of the British Commonwealth and "custodian in perpetuity" of all war graves overseas. Although the Canadian Army has the war-time duty of choosing cemetery sites, marking graves and maintaining the plots, all such preliminary work is carried out under the close supervision of the I.W.G.C. (Canadian Army Photo)

MORE ABOUT—

4-Year Bacon

(Continued from Page 1)

Mr. Gardiner announced last fall that a contract had been made for the shipment of not less than 900,000,000 pounds of bacon to the United Kingdom in 1944 and 1945.

The next board however already has purchase 77 per cent of the 500,000,000 pounds required as a minimum for the United Kingdom this year, although the fifth month of the year was not finished.

"We are well on the way to supplying Britain this year with the whole quantity of 900,000,000 pounds which we agreed to supply her in two years," said Mr. Gardiner.

"If we get our later increase in hog marketings in proportion to increases in marketings in past years, we will find it necessary to market nearly the full quantity in the first year rather than wait for the second year."

(Almost half the four-year contract would be met in the first year if, as the minister said was possible, 900,000,000 pounds of bacon are shipped in 1944. On the basis of figures he gave the House, Canada has supplied the United Kingdom with 2,045,000,000 pounds of bacon in the last four years.)

MORE ABOUT—

Night Raiders

Continued from Page 1

over Dortmund, Air Ministry said large fires were observed after the attack, while "over Brunswick clouds prevented immediate observation of results."

During daylight operations Monday approximately 3,000 Allied bombers and fighters hammered at Kiel, at the Pas de Calais and widespread targets in occupied France and Belgium.

At dawn today other sky fleets roared out from Britain to carry the renewed Allied pre-invasion air offensive into its fifth straight day.

German broadcasts said that by mid-morning the daylight raiders had again penetrated Germany.

While the huge night armada concentrated its heaviest blows on Nazi industrial and communications cities, the smashes at rail junctions at Orleans and Le Mans were a continuation of the systematic campaign to paralyze Hitler's western transport system before Allied ground forces invade the continent.

During the Monday daylight operations American fighters destroyed 22 enemy planes while the Kiel attack cost five American heavy bombers and eight fighters. It was estimated the night raiders probably dumped 3,360 short tons of high explosives on their targets.

Several trunk rail lines meet at Brunswick, which also is an important centre of the German aircraft industry including research and development establishments.

The rail centres of Orleans, 75 miles southwest of Paris, and Le Mans, 110 miles southwest of the former French capital, have been the targets of many of the R.A.F.'s recent blows against key junctions on lines supplying the Nazi forces guarding the Atlantic wall. Les Aubrais, one of the chief rail junctions in France, is just north of Le Mans.

MORE ABOUT—

Fliers Murdered

Continued from Page 1

when rushing toward gates which they tried to force," and said neither inquiry nor trial preceded the killings.

"The shootings lasted several days," he added, "although most of the officers were shot March 23....

"They were apparently due to a breakdown of German discipline and morale. Witnesses state: 'During the past months most of the guards at Stalagluft III (German prison camp) behaved like lunatics.'"

Called "Mass Murder."

The first word in Britain of the shootings came May 18 from the Swiss Government, the protecting Power.

Lord Beaverbrook's Express, the largest newspaper in Britain, headlined the story: "Prison Camp Shootings were Mass Murder," and a sub-head said: "Guards Ran Wild for Three Days and Shot Men All over Camp."

"It has remained for Germany herself to add final inspiration for the ruthless assault that is being prepared," the Express said editorially.

MORE ABOUT—

Tension Grows

Continued from Page 1

hardly will be able to out-tank us immediately after the landing."

In the wake of a broadcast appeal yesterday by Allied invasion headquarters for European patriots to be ready to act as guides for Allied troops, the German radio to-day said that the only road signs left in France are in code.

"France is like a steel hedgehog now, with fortified villages barricaded roads and soldiers everywhere," the radio asserted.

The Danish radio said the German military commander in Denmark had barred all traffic across main bridges during the blackout period — even to military traffic except in extraordinary cases.

On the heels of yesterday's assertion by President Roosevelt that the Allies would strike blows at Europe from the east, south and west, the German-controlled Vichy radio asserted: "German reconnaissance has revealed large concentrations of troops on Corsica. It is possible these portend an attack on the Italian coast, opposite the island."

Aggressor Lands Must Be Held In Check

Disabling of transgressor nations whose past record shows them capable, if given the opportunity, of fomenting another world conflict and ensuring that no discard will be allowed to interfere with the co-operative efforts of the victorious Allied nations, were heralded as the essentials of a lasting peace by Dr. H. L. Stewart, noted political commentator and professor of philosophy, at Dalhousie University, in an address delivered to a large body of Rotarians and their guests at the Empress Hotel Monday noon.

Dr. Stewart, introduced by Dr. James Smart, minister of St. Paul's Presbyterian church expressed his belief that in no other way than by denying of material resources with which wars are waged to all nations presumed anxious to make a nuisance of themselves on an international scale, could a satisfactory peace be reached and maintained. This did not mean a peace of vindictiveness, Dr. Stewart asserted; it was simply the counsel of experience and the result of seeing the first peace, the Versailles Treaty, fail.

"I do not favor revenging ourselves on the leaders themselves of the guilty countries,' the speaker said. "Personally I wouldn't care to see Hitler hanged; and to torture him would certainly be a mistake. The motive should not be revenge."

Must Act.

"Even if it were presumptuous in us to declare that certain nations are the ones that would be likely to disturb he world's peace again, this must be done. But actually it is not presumptuous; we know who they are and in identifying them we are much within our rights as the judge who adopts a certain tone with a criminal in the court."

Access for victor and vanquished alike to the sources of raw materials was one of the clauses of the Atlantic Charter, Dr. Stewart pointed out; and to maintain the integriy of the Charter in this respect and at the same time keep from Germany and others the economic ability to start future wars was a problem of real magnitude. "There is a tremendous job of arrangement in seeing that these nations have access to the products which are not found within their own borders, and simultaneously making sure that none of the imports find their way into military uses," Dr. Stewart declared.

If not by bloodthirsty revenge and by grievous restrictions that would make all people suffer peace could be mantained by close garrisoning and splitting-up of the aggressor nations. Any optimistic conclusion that this would be a short and quickly-handled job was scouted by Dr. Stewart who made it clear that the job might be one continuous for a whole generation.

Co-operation Needed.

Co-operative efforts of the nations allied in victory was essential to any plan for keeping the peace and the probability that the need for co-operation would extend over a long period made apparent the fact that the basis of postwar alliance must be a sound one. Dr. Stewart asserted. "There must be no falling out of the nations with each other. No such blunder as permitting discord must be committed," he said.

Whatever name and form this union of countries bound together to keep the peace might take one consideration stood out paramount, the speaker said. "You can't have a federal union while one group is attempting to impoverish another economically. Certain interests will arise to voice objections, will put obstacles in the way of co-operation by all in order to promote their own selfish aims. There will be stealthy attempts to undermine international ideals; there have been some already. But the setting up of a lasting peace that will do away with the probability of a third world war will require a co-operative efforts as long as 30, maybe even 50, years."

"If we are going to take precautions ensuring against future wars, we must never lose sight of the reasons for which we fought; we must never allow a breach between our allies, and we must see to it that the plan of peace agrees with them all."

MORE ABOUT—

Allies Carve

Continued from Page 1

which commands the Fondi-Vallecorsa road.

Captured in Tunnel

The town of Monsicardi, two miles north of Fondi, also was occupied.

One hundred Germans were captured in the five-mile-long Monte Orso railroad tunnel which runs under the mountains north of Terracina on which fighting is taking place.

Further inland, in the vicinity of Lenola, American infantry advanced over difficult country despite stiff German resistance.

An Allied headquarters commentator said the evidence of German reinforcements had grown. The enemy has been rushing additional troops to the various points as they are threatened by Allied thrusts.

It was disclosed that 8th Army troops at Piumarola, four miles southwest of Cassino, knocked out and captured the first example in southern Europe of a hornet self-propelled 88-millimetre gun on a Mark Four tank chassis.

New Cream Deodorant
Safely helps
Stop Perspiration

1. Does not rot dresses or men's shirts. Does not irritate skin.
2. No waiting to dry. Can be used right after shaving.
3. Prevents under-arm odor, helps stop perspiration safely.
4. A pure, white, antiseptic, stainless vanishing cream.
5. Awarded Approval Seal of American Institute of Laundering—harmless to fabric. Use Arrid regularly.

Arrid is the largest selling deodorant

39¢ Also 15¢ and 59¢ jars

ARRID

Quix is so delicious—it's the happy way to whet your family's appetite for breakfast and supply an energy-rich and nourishing cereal! Crunchy-munchy crisp—Quix has the nut-sweet flavour of sun-ripe wheat. Ask for Quix today.

The Quaker Oats Company of Canada Limited

GET A QUIX START AT BREAKFAST— SAIL THRO' THE DAY!

SUCCESSION DUTIES Two of them plus Income taxes make heavy inroads in estate values where applied. A review of what you intend to do with your estate may bring to light an intention that can be bettered and so benefit your beneficiaries. If you are interested ask us to apply our extensive knowledge. Call Waverley 3861 —no obligation on your part will be implied.

THE TRUSTS and GUARANTEE COMPANY LIMITED

OFFICES — executor and trustee since 1897

Calgary · Winnipeg · Windsor · Brantford · 302 Bay Street, Toronto

The Seven Ages of Postum

FIRST AGE: At a tender age, baby shows natural leaning toward Postum. He spies that colorful package with glee. Whether you know it or not, you've got something there, baby!

SECOND AGE: Daughter decides she's getting on in the world and wants to have a hot drink in a cup, the same as grown-ups do. So Mother serves Postum-made-with-hot-milk.

THIRD AGE: What a thrill when teen-age boys get a chance on the school team. Training rules mean no stimulants — but they can have as much hearty, cheering Postum as they want.

FOURTH AGE: First meal at the start of a new life. Smart little bride serves Postum. She's going to see that hubby never gets caffeine-nerves. And he likes this great mealtime beverage.

FIFTH AGE: What a job Mother has being head of the family, where food is concerned. She's a staunch Postum supporter—because it is so economical, and all the family like it.

SIXTH AGE: Busy business man wouldn't think of retiring these days. He tears around at high speed. But finds great comfort and no bad effects, in a rich, hot cup of Postum.

SEVENTH AGE: And now we come to the last age of Postum-lovers. Many older folks have been enjoying Postum practically all their lives . . . and know they are healthier for it.

Postum is inexpensive — costs less than a cent a cup . . . and so convenient — Instant Postum is made right in the cup by adding boiling water or hot milk.

POSTUM A GREAT MEALTIME DRINK

A Product of General Foods

PS4

Needless to say, every tea consumer in Canada will welcome the increase in the TEA ration and will lose no time in resuming some of the pleasant habits he was wont to enjoy in pre-ration days. What a treat it will be for the tired housewife to have her tea again in the mid-morning or afternoon when its delicious refreshment means so much to her.

You may depend on it, to the best of our ability, every grocer in Canada will be kept supplied with a fresh stock of delicious SALADA to meet these added needs.

A HALF POUND PACKET FOR ONLY TWO COUPONS

A BOX OF 60 BAGS FOR ONLY TWO COUPONS

The Peterborough Examiner

VOL. LXXXIX NO. 121 — TUESDAY, MAY 23 — PAGE NINE

Main Street Topics

WINS D.C.M.

Cpl. M. J. Pickens of Gooderham, Ont., awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal, led his section forward while under heavy machine-gun and sniper fire during an attack against strong enemy positions south of the Ariell River.

HEALTH CONTRAST

In an argument for more public investment in outdoor living, Senator Duffus Monday night said that as a comparison of national efficiency and health, Sweden reported 96 per cent of its army conscripts passing their physical examinations, and in Canada only 17.6 per cent.

PETERBOROUGH ARTIST

Covered design and story illustrations appearing in the "Strange Detective Magazine" this month, were drawn by Lyle Glover, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Glover, 182 Reid street. Mr. Glover was born in Peterborough and attended the Collegiate, following which he spent three years at the Ontario College of Art. His wife and daughter live in Toronto.

SUSPEND CONTEST

The amateur photographic contest proposed by the city council as a means of obtaining a new stock of local pictures for booklets and other publicity purposes has been indefinitely suspended. The manufacturers committee Monday night decided to depend upon certain assurances by local professional photographers that they would make a special effort to supply the city hall within the next two months.

NO FIRECRACKERS

To children educated in a noisy observance of Empire Day, Wednesday is going to be a complete "fizzle." All indications are that it will be a very quiet affair. Peterborough stores report that they have no firecrackers for sale, and that the supply has been practically non-existent for the last year. None have been manufactured in Canada for some time, since the companies that used to turn them out are now busy making rockets, smoke generators, flares and signal cartridges for the armed services; and reserve supplies of the traditional noisemakers have meantime dropped to zero.

BLOOD DONORS.

Donors at the Clinic on Monday numbered 95, of whom 41 came from the C.G.E. and Genelco. Other local industries represented by employees were the Brinton Carpet Company, De Laval, Raybestos, J. J. Turner's, the Westclox, Canada Packers, Canadian Nashua Paper Co., and the Quaker Oats. From out-of-town there were donors from Lakehurst, Curve Lake and Keene. Ninth donations were made by Roy Taylor and Allan Banks; while eighth donations were contributed by Henry Lord, Percy Halladay, James Amyotte, and Charles Nelson.

SERVING OVERSEAS — PO. Robert Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Young, 592 Chamberlain Street, who is now serving overseas. PO. Young enlisted four years ago and was overseas as an instructor for eight months. He was posted back to Canada and spent over a year in Western Canada. Later he returned to Britain. His wife resides in North Monaghan.

(The Roy Studio Photo.)

W. R. TURNER
Phone 4971 — 195 Simcoe St.
Heating—Plumbing
Sheet Metal Work
CONTRACTING, JOBBING, REPAIRING
"CRANE" PLUMBING FIXTURES
"IRON FIREMAN" STOKERS
"HECLA" FURNACES

BRICK
For Sale
Hard Red
Bark or Log
Immediate Delivery
CALL
REHILL'S
210 Wolfe St. Phone 5401

REPORT PROGRESS

Bert Thomas, 271 Thomas street, is reported to be improving in St. Joseph's Hospital, where he was taken after a fall on Saturday. He suffered neck and back injuries when he fell off a ladder while cleaning windows.

TWO ARE FINED.

Harold Keller, Centreville, pleaded guilty to a charge of being drunk and was fined $10 and $2.50 costs in police court to-day. Elmer Liddell, Peterborough who entered a written plea of guilty to a similar charge, was fined a similar amount.

TRAFFIC CASES.

Everett Weaver entered a written plea of guilty to a charge of driving without a licence, and was fined $10, and $2.50 costs, in Police Court to-day. Failure to stop before entering a through street cost Marvin M. Patterson a line of $2, and $1 costs

A LAKEFIELD CASE.

Charles Caraveggie, 328 Parkhill Road, entered a written plea of guilty to a charge of having failed to bring his car to a full stop before entering a through street in Lakefield, and was fined $2, and $1 costs. The charge was laid by Chief Garnet Samis, Lakefield.

LAUNCH NEW BARGE

The new barge of the Nephelene Company, Lakefield, which replaces the one that sunk last fall, will be launched at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday afternoon at Brown's boat-house near the foot of Lake Katchewanooka. Sam Duval, Peterborough boat-builder, will be in charge of the launching.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Roy Wright who was charged in police court this morning with having been drunk on Charlotte street, with two previous convictions alleged, entered a plea of not guilty. The police were not ready to go on and the accused was remanded until Thursday.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH

Death of Miss Alma Beavis, 119 James street, in an automobile accident at Rouge Hills in February, was accidental, a coroner's jury reported recently. No blame was attached to Dr. Alan Secord, Toronto. Miss Beavis was passenger in a car driven by Miss Irene Telford, which was in collision with a machine driven by Dr. Secord.

CARELESS DRIVING

William Hamilton, R.R. 1, Marmora entered a written plea of guilty in police court today to a charge of careless driving and was fined $7.50 and $2.50 costs, Provincial Constable Archie Grayling of Havelock who laid the charge said that two persons had received minor injuries and $45 damage had been done to Hamilton's car as a result of an accident in which the accused had been involved.

Seek To Promote More Industries

Resumption of enquiry and contact with sources of industrial promotion was recommended to the city council by its manufacturers committee Monday evening. Alderman Bradburn was chairman with Aldermen Glover, Swanston and Sullivan present.

Alderman Bradburn said that after a suspension of the committee's broader activities for five years it seemed advisable to begin renewing acquaintances with the industrial departments of the railways and banks and other institutions with their ears to the ground that registers factories going somewhere to locate.

It was even suggested that sometime this year Mayor Hamilton and probably a member of the council knock off two or three weeks to visit Ottawa, Montreal and New York. In the meantime a small deputation is going to Toronto on a mission of airport enquiry next Monday. Alderman Bradburn, Mayor Hamilton, Aldermen Swanson and Ovens were suggested, and on that trip the chairman is intending to include in his itinerary for the day probably some calls at the industrial offices of the banks.

The committee affirmed its interest in a proposal of the Ontario Government that the salaries of the staff of the Ontario House in London be paid by the Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce. One of the purposes of the agency at Ontario House is to facilitate enquiries and negotiations between British manufacturers and Canadian municipalities especially with regard to British investment in this province.

The manufacturers committee decided to reply to the associated boards of trade that this city is interested in the proposal from Premier Drew, and invites further information.

Maj. Fred Hills Gets Message For Guards

Major Fred Hills has received from Colonel H. R. Alley, director of the Veterans Guard of Canada, a greeting to the Guard from the Minister of National Defense recalling the fourth anniversary of its institution on May 24. The strength of this Corps of Veterans of World War 1 is approximately 11,000 all ranks.

To the men of the Guard, the Minister's tribute includes the following memory:—To you on this anniversary I express Canada's everlasting appreciation of the service you are again giving to our country. I congratulate you on the fine example you are showing to younger men. It must add to your satisfaction to feel that it is your lead which they follow in manning the battle fronts on sea, land and air, and in this new fight to free the world of gangsters and despots."

IMPROMPTU REUNION—Three Ontario lads stage an impromptu reunion on the Halifax "C-Comet" of the R.C.A.F. Bomber's Group Bluenose squadron in Great Britain. Stars indicate that it has completed ten bombing missions. Pictured, Left to Right, are: LAC. Harold Thompson, Oshawa; Cpl. Bob O'Donoghue, Rogers Street, Peterborough, and LAC. Earl Rainthrope, 45 Fairview Boulevard, Toronto. (RCAF Photo)

S. Robbins Gets Year In Jail For Car Theft

A year in the Ontario Reformatory was the sentence imposed in police court Monday afternoon on Sandford Robbins after Magistrate O. A. Langley, K.C., had registered a conviction against the 19-year-old Monaghan Road youth on a charge of stealing an automobile from Robert Crowley, Otonabee.

Most of the evidence in the case was heard at the morning session. When the court re-opened in the afternoon Defense Counsel John A. Bradshaw called the boy's father to the stand. The witness said that Sandford had been very backward at school and that he had attended for years without having been able to get out of the primer.

Magistrate Langley said that on the evidence he had to find the accused guilty and that a year's imprisonment was the minimum penalty prescribed under the section. His Worship said that he realized that the boy was not strong mentally and that he had not had much of a chance but under the circumstances he had no other choice than to sentence him to the reformatory. His Worship intimated that if there were an appeal for clemency, he would be inclined to support it.

Maurice Pelland, 19, similarly charged, pleaded not guilty and at his own request on the ground that he wanted to secure a lawyer, was remanded for a week.

Two Peterboro Men Arrested In Lindsay

LINDSAY, May 23—(ENS)—Arrested by police constables R. Hargrave and K. Thurston, Charles Fleetwood and Gordon Holland of Peterborough, appeared in police court here Monday and were remanded until Friday. Fleetwood was charged with the theft of three pair of stockings which police state came from the Canadian Department Store. Holland faced charges of intoxication.

Roy Hopkins of Lindsay was fined $25 and costs by Magistrate E. A. Gee for operating a truck without a license. His license was suspended several months ago.

WAITING SERVICE

CREWE, England—(CP)—A special church service is held on the Crewe railway station platform on Sunday nights for servicemen and women waiting for trains.

KILLED OVERSEAS — PO. George David Beatty, whose wife, Mrs. Marion Beatty, lives at Lindsay, was killed in action overseas, May 4. He was a radio location student at the University of Toronto, when he enlisted.

War—4 Years Ago

By The Canadian Press

May 23, 1940 — Allied troops counter-attacked on Somme, in Flanders and repulsed Nazi attack south of Sedan. British Fascist leader Mosley arrested and Montreal headquarters of Canadian National Unity party raided by R.C.M.P. Canadian government announced formation of Veterans' Guard of Canada.

May 24, 1940—In Empire Day broadcast King George said German victory would "mean destruction of our world as we have known it." German drive on channel ports developed around Boulogne and St. Omer. French blew up Rhine-Rhone canal locks in Maginot defence system.

Raybestos Plant To Be Enlarged

The building of an addition to the plant of the Canadian Raybetsos Co. Limited was announced to-day by Robert Abbott, general manager of the company, following a decision reached at the annual meeting of the organization here a few days ago.

"The matter is indefinite yet as to details," said Mr. Abbott. "The situation is that the present setup has to be changed and new building will be fitted into the picture but whether it will be used as a shipping and storage building or partly for manufacturing purposes has not yet been decided upon. Our plant has grown so that we have to make provision for the expansion and the only thing definite at present is that we propose to make an addition to the plant."

At the annual meeting three well known members of the Peterborough staff were made directors of the Canadian Raybestos Company. They are Doug. S. Pocock, sales manager Wm. Kay, superintendent and W. S. Cowell, manager of equipment, sales and engineering. This brings the number of the Canadian directorate up to five. The other two are Mr. Abbott himself and Miss Elva G. Jackson. Six other director live in the United States.

Five of them, Sumner Simpson, Bridgeport, Conn. president of Raybestos-Manhattan Inc., J. F. D. Rohrback, Ridgetown, N.J., vice-president, G R. Weber, Lancaster, Pa., R. B. Davis, Bridgeport, Conn., and F. L. Curtis, Passaiac, N.J., attended the annual meeting here.

Man Fined $25 Didn't Report To Authorities

Failure to obey an order from the local Selective Service office to report on March 27 at the local office for an interview cost Neil Harrington, 411 Downie street, a fine of $25 and $3.25 costs in police court this morning.

Harrington pleaded guilty to a charge of having neglected to report.

"I wasn't feeling very well," he told Magistrate O. A. Langley, K.C., when asked for his explanation.

"You could have told them that," said the court, "but apparently you simply ignored them."

"You can't do that sort of thing in wartime," continued Magistrate Langley. "We have all got to submit to these regulations even when we may not agree with some of them."

Gave Up Job

W. F. Huycke, K.C., who prosecuted the case told the court that Harrington had quit his job at Genelco on December 14 and hadn't worked since. On March 27 he had been ordered to report to the Selective Service office for an interview and he had failed to do so.

"We have had a conviction in a similar case in this court," said Mr. Huycke. "A man named McNee was fined $50."

"My recollection is that that was a more serious case than this one," commented Magistrate Langley.

"In that case I urged a fine of $200 and you made it $50," said the prosecuting attorney.

"You had better ask for $100 in this case and I'll make it $25," returned the magistrate.

"My own opinion is that the fines should go up and that the penalty in this case should be more than $50,'" said Mr. Huycke.

Magistrate Langley however made the penalty a fine of $25 and costs.

Store Food

LONDON, May 23—(CP-Aneta)—Radio Orange, official Netherlands broadcasting outlet in London, told Netherlanders in occupied Holland yesterday the importance of storing supplies for the coming invasion and said "it is worthwhile to suffer hunger now so food can be stored for future use."

FAILED TO REPORT

DARTFORD, England — (CP) — Three boys were fined $4.50 each recently for failing to report the finding of seven incendiary bombs to the police.

Lacrosse Games And Impromptu Parades Enthusiastic Feature Of Old Empire Days

Unless some of the stores can forage from dark corners of cellars or from top shelves of convenient storage dubious remnant stock of other years, Victoria Day's nightfall will miss the celebrant fireworks that had been a traditional community and neighborhood feature across Canada for a long span of time beyond all but the oldest memories.

The morning's firecrackers have passed out of stock with the evening roman candles and colored lights and pin wheels and all the rest of the products of pyrotechnic. For young Bill the Queen's Birthday, once the national holiday of Canadian springtime, will be just another day out of school with the employees of business and a few industries whose output is not dispensible to the maintenance of Canada's war machine.

The manufacturers of fireworks kept up a diminishing supply through the first years of the war, but the mere handful of miniature explosives and glowing lights of a year ago was the last sputter as Hitler extinguished in the meantime the last of them as the fireworks factories of the country were required entirely for more serious business.

Nature Helps

However, Victoria Day of this year of crisis and approaching "D" day has decked itself in all the greens of leaf and grass and the flowers of the orchards and woodlands as in the Springtimes at the turn of the century. Local custom always made an event of the 24th of May with sports and other games, especially lacrosse and baseball, and for Stoney Lake cottagers it was the first opportunity of the year to return to their properties by the water and scan the winter's effects.

One of the most verdant of Victoria Days, so it then seemed, and may be remembered, was featured by a morning lacrosse game at the old P.A.A.A. grounds in Ashburnham between the senior Orangeville and Peterborough teams. The visitors turned out in light sweaters of blue with white shorts before several thousands of spectators. It was as sparkling a game as was the morning, the thrilling beginning of a perfect Victorian holiday. Some of the player who stand out in memory were Rollie Glover and Jack McCabe, the late Lionel King and George Lipsett, Dot Brown.

Elders at that time used to recall calithumpian processions as the morning feature in which the youths and some of the dashing younger citizens used to make holiday with parades of their own devising.

Jim Lynch, RCAF Comes Home; Finds Pals Gone

An airman's pleasure in returning home on leave after two years overseas is lessened somewhat when he finds the old home town almost empty of the friends he used to know, says Flt. Sgt. Jim Lynch, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lynch, 494 McDonnel street, who arrived in Peterborough Monday after completing a tour of operations as a rear gunner in the big bombers blasting Nazi Europe from the British Isles.

Flt. Sgt. Lynch is on a 28-day leave, after which he will report to Ottawa for examination and instructions as to his next assignment. He has been through 22 operational flights in the Halifax and Lancaster bombers, many of them into the Ruhr Valley on what fliers call "the milk run," and his trips have included two visits to Berlin and one to the giant Creusot Works located 200 miles south of Paris. His return at this time is partially due to having had trouble with his nose, on which two operations have been performed.

"I miss the close comradeship of squadron life," Flt. Sgt. Lynch told the Examiner. "And then to come back to Peterborough and not find any of my friends around makes it seems a bit lonely. But of course, you often get that feeling of loss over there too, because time and again you get to be pals with a man, only to learn that he is missing or dead. I've lost a lot of buddies myself," the airman continued, adding that crashes in landings and take-offs and on operation training flights have claimed a high proportion of lives.

Worked In Bank

Flt. Sgt. Lynch who worked for four or five years with the local branch of the Bank of Toronto and later was employed at the Abitibi Power and Paper Co. plant at White River, Ont., prior to his enlistment, insists that his participation in those 22 bombings raids was merely "routine." "We have taken evasive action lots of times," he explained, "but actually I've never fired a shot at an enemy plane. The only time we ever ran into excitement was when we bombed Essen all by ourselves.

"That was a mitake. We were supposed to be going over Bochen. 15 minutes flying time away, but the navigator got mixed up and we came in over Essen, while all the other planes went to the right target. Jerry caught us in his searchlight cones at least three times, and we wound up with 45 holes in the ship. We made the trip back to base alone, too." Flt. Sgt. Lynch added that the raid on southern France in which he took part had been an all-Canadian efort.

Enlisting in April, 1941, he trained first as a pilot but then switched over to gunnery, completing a six-weeks' course at Mountainview air base just prior to embarking for overseas in May, 1942. The past two years he has been in the British Isles. "Airmen leaving Canada have just scratched the surface of flying training," he says. "Over there they really begin to learn what it's all about."

Saw Many Places

A sergeant at the time of his arrival on the other side and promoted to his present rank about one year ago, this Peterborough flyer has managed to see a great deal of England, Scotland and Wales on various furloughs. He likes the people and says they're "okay."

Monotony of the rations served in the forces was one subject he drew attention to, but he said there was always enough food and by comparison with the lot of English civilians Canadian servicemen certainly had nothing to complain about.

One of Peterborough's flyers whom Flt. Sgt. Lynch ran into in his time abroad was Flt. Sgt. Max Graham.

FLYING OVERSEAS — Pilot Officer Marvin (Red) Howey of the R.C.A.F. is serving overseas. His wife, formerly Marjorie Lang, lives at 187 Antrim Street. Although his home is in Exeter, PO. Howey was employed in the Bank of Montreal here for a time before he enlisted in March, 1943. He was commissioned as a navigator at Crumlin.

DOCTORS ON CALL

The Peterborough Doctors are observing Wednesday Afternoon as a Half-Holiday throughout the year. Those on call on Wednesday Afternoon and Evening of this week are Dr. Cameron, Dr. Moffat, Dr. Morgan, Dr. Chenoweth.

SAFE IN CHINA—Miss G. Clark, formerly of Omemee, who fled with 39 missionaries to North China, has been reported safe. When she lived in this district, her home was a short distance north of Omemee.

3-Year-Old Girl Drowns At Sturgeon Lake

LINDSAY, May 23—(ENS).—The first drowning fatality of the year occurred at Snug Harbor, Sturgeon Lake, Monday night when the body of three year old Elizabeth Anne Schinnour was found in about a foot of water at the dock of the summer cottage where she and her mother were staying with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Watson of Lindsay.

The child's father is Oakley Schinnour of the R.C.A.F. stationed at Mountain View

Mrs. Schinnour was alone at the cottage when she missed her small girl. After a short frantitc search she was horrified to find her stretched out in shallow water. Mrs. J. Power in neighboring cottage ran half a mile to the nearest farmhouse and phoned Lindsay for aid.

It is believed that the small child who suffered from asthma, fell into the water during a coughing spell.

Mr. and Mrs. Schinnour are of Foremost, Alta. and had planned to spend the summer with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. C. Watson, of Lindsay. The funeral will take place in Foremost, Alta.

Normal Students Hear Dr. Stewart

Dr. H. L. Stewart, internationally famous radio commentator and news analyst, addressed the Normal School students on Monday afternoon. Introduced by Principal E. H. McKone, Dr. Stewart informally discussed the place of radio in the discussion of public issues. Drawing on his personal experiences as a commentator he illustrated his point by interesting references.

Comparing the invention of the radio with the invention of the printing press nearly five centuries ago, he warned that its influence in educating mankind would not ensure the end of strife, turmoil and suffering any more surely than the press did in the fifteenth century. But he did see in the radio a powerful influence for improving the discussion and conduct of public affairs. Because of the absence of fanfare and because of the critical nature of the radio audience the radio speaker is forced to rely upon the soundness of his argument. Thus the radio audience is able to discuss the issues as they are presented. In this way the radio can become more powerful influence for good than the public platform.

Dwelling briefly on his activities analysing the news Dr. Stewart confessed that "were it not for the tragedy of events, piecing together the pattern of world happenings is a most fascinating experience."

He likened the search for relationships among events to the solving of jig-saw or crossword puzzles. In either case there are moments of exhiliration when the pattern becomes evident and there are times when the whole matter must be turned out on the table again and a new start made. "Consequently, a far-seeing, cautious commentator does not predict.

French Busy

BERN, May 23 (AP) — A Nazi expedition against the Maquis, French guerillas, shattered the calm of the French village Haute Savoie this week-end and placed the area of the village of Novel under martial law. Frenchmen 18 to 30 years old were placed under guard.

ENDOWS SCHOLARSHIP

LONDON — (CP) — The Royal Academy of Dramatic Art has accepted an offer of Sir Alexander Korda to provide $22,500 for the endowment of ten R.A.D.A. scholarships for British men and women demobilized from the services.

Canadian Legion Makes Gift On Empire Day

Empire Day finds a responsive note in all true patriots hearts, and specially may this be so among those who fought and offered life itself in defense of Empire in years gone by, for patriotism like many other things is best shown in a practical way rather than by a display, which at the most may mean nothing more than a mere lip service, or a camouflage to suit ones own convenience.

At a time when the nation is at bitter grips with a desperate enemy who seeks to enforce his will and way of life on others by sheer weight of power, it is well to recall the glorious past that came by way of the sacrifice of patriots of bygone years, for the youth of this generation can gain much in inspiration therefrom, which can be of service to the cause at the moment when liberty of thought, word and deed all depend on the success of the titanic struggle now being waged in its defence.

Indeed this may also apply to older folk as well, since they too can renew their faith in the ultimate triumph of right over might, while the free peoples of the earth can stand fast for all that is just, holy and true.

Nothing could therefore seem more appropriate on this Empire Day in the year of approaching victory in defense of all these ideals, that the local veterans banded together in the Peterborough Branch No. 52 of the Canadian Legion, who fought in the last great struggle some 25 years ago for the self same object, should again be Johnny on the spot with further help for the motherland in her time of need, continuing a service they have now been rendering regularly month by month for practically three and a half years, for no better marking of this particular day could be made than in a manner such as this is.

Fine Record Total's $2,097

Their latest achievement is marked by a further credit of $55.00 to their name per G. Gimblett and G. G. Torrance, president and treasurer respectively all during the period of their assistance to the fund, and now gives them a splendid total of $2,097.71 which is a remarkable tribute to their war work during the present struggle in this one field alone, and is only $150.00 short of their having contributed one full £500 donation on their own.

This has for the main part come from a portion of the net proceeds from the bingo games held every Wednesday night in the interests of their own welfare work, which in itself has many demands, and it should be stated that these games will be held this Wednesday as usual, even although the day has always been a holiday one.

In paying tribute to the good work they have done, it should not be forgotten that they are also doing a good job in sending smokes to the men of the city and district serving in the active services, for which purpose they hold games of the same nature every Friday evening.

| | |
|---|---|
| Previously acknowledged | $76,234.82 |
| Branch 52 of the Canadian Legion per G. Gimblett and G. G. Torrance.... | 55.00 |
| Total to date .............. | $76,289.82 |

NATURE IS KIND

Although Iceland's climate is too severe for ordinary vegetable growth, huge garden plantations have sprung up about hot springs where even semi-tropical crops can be grown.

INVALIDED HOME—Corporal Ken Sisley, of Seymour township, who has been invalided home after action in Italy, where he received leg wounds from German anti-tank guns.

The
PETERBORO METAL COMPANY
Plumbing and Heating Materials

WOOL
Standard Government prices paid for various grades. At Registered Warehouse No. 3 we have been handling and grading wool for twenty-five years.
Ship or Bring Your Wool To:—
G. WHITAKER & CO. Limited
SIMCOE ST. EAST
(Rear Dewart's Feed Warehouse) Peterborough

Personals and Social

Mrs. D. Gunn, 272 Simcoe street, is celebrating her birthday today.

◇ ◇ ◇

Sgt. T. W. Battle and Mrs. Battle, of London, spent the week-end in Peterborough with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Battle, Rubidge street.

◇ ◇ ◇

Mrs. F. A. Reeds, of Lindsay, was in Peterborough Monday evening, to attend the concert given by the choir of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. She was the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. E. Barrie, 635 Water street while in the city.

◇ ◇ ◇

There will be no Brownie meeting of the First St. Andrew's Brownie Pack, on Wednesday, May 24, because it is a school holiday. The First St. Andrew's Guides, however, will hold their regular meeting Wednesday, when plans will be completed for a First Class hike, on Saturday.

◇ ◇ ◇

Mr. and Mrs. George Lee, Edinburgh street, and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bullied, of Toronto, are today jointly celebrating their 38th wedding anniversaries. Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Bullied are sisters, and were married at their home in Peterborough in a double ceremony. Mr. Ken Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee, is observing a birthday today.

◇ ◇ ◇

Mr. and Mrs. G. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Johnston, and daughter Arlene, Mr. and Mrs. Learl Humphries and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McC?e, of Hastings, were in Belleville recently, attending the graduation ceremonies at Belleville General Hospital, when Miss Mary Rutherford, of Campbellford, was among the graduates.

Fashions

Only one yard of cotton needed for this smart, practical apron, Pattern 9003! Isn't it prettily styled? For kitchen wear or hostess duty.

Pattern 9003 comes in sizes Small (14-16), Medium (18-20), Large (40-42). Small size, 1 yard 35-inch Use ready-made bias binding.

Pattern Number ....................

Size ....................

My Name ....................

....................

Address ....................

I enclosed 20c for postage

Both Juvenile and Adult sections of the Public Library will be closed Wednesday, in observance of Queen Victoria's birthday.

◇ ◇ ◇

Mrs. D. Heels and Mrs. Alice Moore, of Lindsay, visited their brother, Mr. George Lee, Edinburgh street, over the week-end.

◇ ◇ ◇

Exactly four years ago today, Tpr. George Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cooper, Nicholls Oval, arrived in England. Tpr. Cooper, who will celebrate his fifth birthday overseas in August, is now serving in Italy.

◇ ◇ ◇

His little friends will be pleased to learn that Adam Sands, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sands, 100 Gladstone avenue, is doing very well in St. Joseph's Hospital, after his recent appendectomy.

◇ ◇ ◇

Mrs. Clara Barnes, Third avenue, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Irene Hilda Barnes, to Frederick Lawrence Peel, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Peel, Norland, Ontario. The wedding will take place on June 10, at 2 p.m. in the Pentecostal Church.

◇ ◇ ◇

Lakevale Ladies' Aid

FOWLER'S CORNERS, May 23.—(ENS).—The Lakevale Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. M. Deyell. The Scripture reading and commentary were given by Mrs. Moncrief. The topic of the afternoon was taken by Mrs Harry Fowler. Mrs. Deyell also gave a reading. After the meeting a social half hour was enjoyed, during which a contest took place. The winner was Mrs. Fowler.

◇ ◇ ◇

Entertain Bride-To-Be

Miss Mary Warriner, of Douglaston Sask., who is to be married to Stanley Downes, of Peterborough, early in July, was recently entertained at a miscellaneous shower, given by Mrs. M. Holder, 593 Lock street. She was also a guest of honor at a party given by Mrs. W. Downes, when she received many lovely gifts. Miss Warriner will be leaving shortly for her home.

◇ ◇ ◇

George Street Baby Band

The May meeting of the George Street Baby Band took place at the home of Mrs. J. Tinney, Bethune Street. The evening was spent in quilting in order to finish the layettes for the year. During the past year five layettes were sent to the mission field. It was decided to hold the annual picnic some time in June and final arrangements were left in the hands of a committee. A lunch was served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

◇ ◇ ◇

C.G.I.T. Banquet

The C.G.I.T. group of Mark Street United church recently held Mother and Daughter banquet in the church. Dinner was served at tables decorated in yellow and green, and centred with silver baskets filled with yellow tulips or cowslips. Miss R. Keifer, of the Y.W.C.A. was guest speaker, choosing as her topic, "The Purpose of the C.G.I.T."

Mrs. E. DeNure led in a singsong during the evening and Miss Willa Wright and Marilyn Pomeroy played a piano duet. Mrs. G. Eason, leader of the group, was presented with a token of appreciation, on behalf of the girls. Jean DeNure, president of the C.G.I.T., introduced the speaker.

200 Soldiers Club Guests

The season's activities of the Catholic Auxiliary Service Club were brought to a close Sunday morning when 200 soldiers from the Training Centre were entertained at a communion breakfast.

The soldiers attended mass in the Sacred Heart church and paraded to the Knights of Columbus Hall, where they enjoyed an appetizing breakfast.

Captain the Rev. F. Grant, the chaplain at the Training Centre, spoke briefly, remarking on the fine attendance of soldires and thanking the Catholic Junior League, the Knights of Columbus and everyone who helped to make the communion breakfast possible.

Sgt. A. DeNoble was master of ceremonies and conducted a lively sing-song after breakfast. Solos were sung by Miss Phyllis Cowie and by Ptes. Boyer and Fortier.

The committee in charge of arrangements was made up of Capt. the Rev. Fr. Grant, Mesdames J. White and J. O'Brien, Misses Gladys Perdue, Anne Donoghue, Helen Cadigan Fay Galvin, Jack Legros and Fay Collett, F. Marino, J. Marino and V. Anthony also assisted in preparing the food.

The soldiers were served by members of the Catholic Auxiliary Service Club, who had been hostesses at the semi-monthly dances sponsored by the Club throughout the winter.

MEDAL WINNER—The Gold Medal, awarded for general proficiency, was given to Miss Mary Rutherford, Campbellford, at the recent graduation ceremonies at the Belleville General Hospital. Miss Rutherford, who is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stinson of Hastings, was also awarded the prize for the best surgical nurse among the 20 who graduated.

Teresa Sullivan Wed at Mark St.

Rev. E. W. Rowland officiated at the ceremony on Saturday, when Teresa May Sullivan, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sullivan, 125 James street, became the bride of John David Smith, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, Omemee. Mark Street United Church was decorated with dragons and pink carnations and ferns for the ceremony. Harry Northrop was at the organ, and accompanied Mrs. Reg. Doolley, when she sang "I Love You Truly," during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a gown of white sheer, over taffeta, with lace inserts. The gown was made on long torso lines, with a sweetheart neckline, buttoned down the back from neck to waistline with tiny self-covered buttons, and with long sleeves, coming to a point over each wrist. Her finger-tip veil of white silk net was caught to a heart-shaped halo of matching material, trimmed with orange blososms, and she carried a bouquet of Bettertime roses. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Bridesmaids were Miss Florence Robinson, cousin of the bride, and Miss Betty Smith, sister of the groom. The former wore a gown of pink taffeta, with a matching shoulder-length veil caught with pink flowers and carried a bouquet of pink Dream roses. Miss Smith was frocked in sky blue taffeta, with matching shoulder-length veil, caught with pink flowers, and she carried a bouquet of pink Dream roses. Miss Shirley Anne Robinson, cousin of the bride, was a dainty flower girl in a long yellow sheer gown, with matching flowers in her hair, and carrying a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Best man was Gordon Robinson, cousin of the bride, and the ushers were William Cavers, brother-in-law of the groom, and George Robinson, cousin of the bride.

At the reception, held at the home of the bride's parents, the bride's mother received the guests in a gown of dusty rose, with a flowered hat, white accessories, and a corsage of Bettertime roses. The groom's mother, who also received, wore navy sheer, with a navy and white hat, white accessories, and a corsage of Briarcliffe roses. Friends of the bride, Misses Helen Hughes, Lourdes Scollard and Hilda Wildman, served.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and other points, the bride donned an aqua sheer frock, with dirndl insert waist line, and navy accessories. On their return the young couple will live at 125 James street.

Needlecraft Pattern

DECORATIVE DOILIES.

Simple crochet that pays big dividends in beauty—these pineapple-design doilies. Done in string they cost little in time or money.

Combine the two sizes in luncheon, buffet or dresser sets. Pattern 859 contains directions for doilies; stitches; list of materials.

Pattern Number ....................

Size ....................

My Name ....................

....................

Address ....................

I enclosed 20c for postage

Fantasia Number Feature of Choir Concert

A fantasia of traditional British airs, opening with the clear hunter's call, in "A Hunting We Will Go," continuing with contrasting melodies, and building to a climax with the stirring "Rule, Britannia," formed the main part of the program of songs, presented Monday evening by the choir of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. The choir's presentation preceded an address by Dr. H. L. Stewart, of Dalhousie University.

Following the hunter's call, in the Fantasia, the male voices sang the toast, "Here's a Health unto His Majesty," joined by the rest of the choir in the chorus. Soft, melodious "Annie Laurie" was sung with deep feeling, and excellent tonal expression. The technique and training of this group was ably demonstrated when they slipped effortlessly from the light "Cherry Ripe" into "The Piper," which featured a quartette of voices. They were joined in the chorus by the remainer of the choir. Mrs. Jessie Spencely sang a solo, "The Bagpipe Man," a sprightly, Scottish air. Her diction was good, and her delivery excellent. The quartette was made up of Mrs. Spencely, Helen Cuthbertson, John Anderson and John Smith.

Other numbers sung on the program were "Hail, Smiling Morn," "Men of Harlech," "We Sing a Song of Canada," and "Motherland." Martin Chenhall at the organ, Mrs. Pearl Read and Norman Hurrle at pianos, accompanied throughout. To open the program, Mr. Chenhall, Mrs. Reid and Mr. Hurrle played "Pomp and Circumstance." The pianos began softly, and continued through the melody, being joined by the organ, and by the choir, as the music swelled into the well-known majestic "Land of Hope and Glory." Mr. Chenhall conducted the choir in their numbers and Rev. Dr. J. D. Smart introduced the program.

F.W.T.A. Holds Dinner Meeting

The district meeting of the representatives of the local organization of the Federation of Women Teachers' Association of District 5 was held in Lindsay on Saturday. It took the form of a dinner held at the Benson House. Miss Ora Dunford president of the F. W. T. A. O. of District 5 presided.

After the minutes and financial report the secretary gave a brief report of the year's activities. Miss Dunford gave an interesting account of the executive meeting held in Toronto at Easter. She expressed regret at the retirement of Miss Carr, general secretary, who had worked so faithfully for automatic membership of teachers in the F.W.T.A. which becomes law with the coming into force of the Teaching Profession Act in June.

Another accomplishment of the F.W.T.A. during this year is that $1,000 has become the minimum salary for the next school year. Much discussion took place as to the merits of the present superannuation fund as against those of a proposed plan which was brought before the executive.

Miss Dunford in closing, expressed her thanks to the locals for their co-operation during the year.

Miss A. Young, Lakefield, took the chair for the nominations of the officers for the coming year. She also said a few words in appreciation of Miss Dunford's splendid leadership.

Widdop-Deyell Vows Pledged

A wedding of interest took place recently in the United church at Frobisher, Sask., when Margaret Ruth Deyell, only daughter of Mrs. Deyell and the late R. R. Deyell, became the bride of Flt. Sgt. H. J Widdop, R.C.A.F., only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Widdop, of Etzikom Alta. Rev. Mr. Elliott, of Estevan United church, officiated. During the signing of the register, Mrs. W. Y. Forgay played "I Love You Truly."

Given in marriage by her brother, Stewart Deyell, the bride was gowned in floor-length ivory satin, with a long veil caught to her head with orange blossoms and carrying a bouquet of Dream roses and ferns. She was attended by Miss Melba Rennie, in blue chiffon, with a chapel veil and carrying a bouquet of pink snapdragons.

WO. R. U. Day, R.C.A.F., of Winnipeg, was best man, and LAC. Newton Whitefield, R.C.A.F., and Ralph Deyell were ushers.

The home of the bride's mother was decorated in pink and white, and cut flowers for the reception, and a dinner was served to the guests For a trip to Banff, Alta., the bride wore a gold tailored suit, with brown accessories. For the present, the young couple will live in Yorkton, Sask.

The bride has serveral relatives in Peterborough. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitfield North Monaghan, are an aunt and uncle and Mrs Mildred Wood, Water street, is an aunt and Mr. and Mrs. W. Hanbilge, of Smith, are also her uncle and aunt.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carr, 566 Weller Street, who are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary today, are pictured above. They were married in the Methodist parsonage, Lindsay, in 1894, but have lived in Peterborough for 44 years. Mr. and Mrs. Carr are planning to be "at home" to their friends and neighbors this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, and tonight from 7 to 9 o'clock.

(Parks' Studio Photo)

THE STARS SAY ....

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Thursday, May 25

A SUDDEN AND quite unprecedented course of events may bring many thrills and benefits, providing these surprising opportunities be grasped with alacrity, sound judgment and an absence of emotional, impulsive or eccentric behavior. It is probable that a radical change is called for, and that business, finance, exceptional talents or skills, are involved, with romance and adventure of a dramatic and far-reaching significance. Quick action may give singular results, but reckless wild or sensational moves might precipitate peculiar crises.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared for a year of astonishing and quite unforeseen adventures, with sudden upheavals, peculiar changes and startling opportunities to put the affairs on a progressive, productive and perhaps a radical, strange and thrilling basis. Change, travel, romance and high adventure are precipitated by an extraordinary development of peculiar situations. Wisely manipulated there may be joy and happiness, as well as good fortune and spectacular denouements. But shun wild and erratic conduct. Romance should reach high levels of enjoyment and celebration.

A child born on this day may have exceptional talents and creative skills with high ambitions, assuring it a carefree, adventurous and romantic career. It should achieve some degree of restraint on its emotional or unconventional urges.

THE TEA HOUR GOSSIP ....

We are today going to take our first look at summer, telling you about some of the new styles and fabrics that will be worn this year. Versatility unlimited are the two words that best describe the new collection of dress fashions for summer. It takes in all the fabrics from magnificent printed crepes to wisp-like sheers, in colors from stark white to the beautiful pastels. The two-piece tailored suit in a novelty weave linen is among the fashion highlights, the outstanding shades being tan or blue. With these suits you will see worn an oversize sailor hat in novelty straw, with a simple tailored trim. With the sheers and printed crepes, will be worn the Chinese inspired oversize Coolie hat. This is one of many styles in broad brimmed hats that you will soon see making their appearance. These hats are shown in plain colors, in milan straw, and a smart trimming of white pique to finish them. The dropped brimmed sailor is another style, having a low crown and an extra wide brim, with the drop on the edge about 1¼ inches deep. These are worn straight on the head and well forward over the brow. The new prints we speak of being so much in style right now and later, may be worn by either the tall person or the shorter person, but we must be careful to pick out the pattern most becoming to us. The tall woman, who wants a break, will find it in a flowering print, the waist made with a peplum, the neckline close and tied in front with narrow bow. A beautiful dress of this type that I saw had a white ground with small brown flowers all over it.

Now the little woman will find her print with small dots all over it. A pretty one is shown with pink ground and brown pin dots The goods this dress is made of is rayon crepe, and is ideal for the small woman. Other shades much in fashion's favor for summer are white, sky blue, lime and Mexican pink. The style formula this season is very easy to follow. Lines are straight and simple, but the fabrics must be beautiful. One of the most beautiful fabrics this season is the Bemberg rayon. It is one of the many beautiful sheers you will find being sold by the yard, so that if you have the talent for making your own summer dresses, you will not have a hard time to get pretty goods out of which to make them. With these floral prints will be shown small flower hats, some turbans worn over the face and some worn very much off the face. Be sure and ask to see these smart flowered hats before you buy. You will like them, I know.

W. A. Conference Event of Week

The Peterborough Presbytery Women's Association Conference will be held at St. James' United church this year, on Thursday, May 25. As in past years there will be a morning and afternoon session, with a dinner served at noon. The conference will feature addresses by several prominent women, including Senator Iva Fallis, who will address the luncheon meeting; Mrs. W. H. Morton, who will speak at the morning session; and Mrs. Richard Maddocks, first vice-president, who will address the afternoon session.

Rev. J. W. Wilkinson, chairman of the Presbytery, will bring greetings, and will officiate at the election of officers. Rev. F. W. Craik, minister of St. James', will also address both meetings.

Ina Robinson Guest At Showers

A novel idea was introduced by Mrs. Frank Sullivan, 52 McDonnel street, when she entertained at a kitchen shower for Miss Ina Robinson, a June bride-elect. All those attending the shower were given a large piece of flannelette, a needle, and color thread. Each had to hem her piece of goods, work her initials in the thread, and then present it to Miss Robinson, as a duster. The shower itself was in in the form of a treasurer hunt, and the guest of honor was led a merry chase around the house, finding her gifts.

Lunch was served, and a musical evening enjoyed. Those attending were Misses Marie Thomas, Florrie Barrie, Doreen Wells, Isabel Wray, Grace Schiarizza, Earla Quick, Mary McPherson, Peggy and Monica Lawless, Jean Carew, Dorothy Hepburn, Doris Graham, Isabel Pierce, June Patterson, Opal Robinson, June Robinson, Jean Thomas, Marguerite Royea Doris Royea, and Jean Ball; and Mesdames Leslie Dyer, L. English, R. Young, H. Rennie and J. Condon.

The Thursday gym swim club also attendede a get-together, held at the home of Misses Marguerite and Doris Royea, Park street. The party was in the form of a picnic, enjoyed at an out-door fireplace. Miss Isabel Wray presented a picture and a wooden sandwich tray to Miss Robinson, who is president of the club, on behalf of all the members. There were about 25 girls in attendance.

When Miss Robinson returned home from this picnic, a surprise miscellaneous shower was held in her honor by about 20 relatives. Mrs. Eldon Sisson, 492 Sherbrooke street, was hostess. Little Iris Sisson, cousin of the guest of honor, drew in a large basket, decorated in white, and filled with gifts. Miss Esther Renshaw was at the piano were served.

Those present were: Mrs. David for a singsong, and refreshments Lehman, Mrs. Wilbert Abbott, Lakefield; Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. George Hadley, Mrs. Mary Avery, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Bridgenorth; Mrs. J. King, Mrs. Charles Avery, Mrs. Thomas Avery, Mrs. Robert Avery, Mrs. W. Thompson, Mrs. Stanley Exell, and Misses Mary Lehman, Shirley Abbott, Ruth Hadley, Esther Renshaw, Thelma Wheeler, Doris Avery, and Mary King.

Dancing Pupils Entertain K. of C.

A varied program was presented Sunday evening in the K. of C. hall, Simcoe street, when members of the Knights of Columbus local Council, were host to visiting delegates and friends. Dancing pupils of Marion Perry Laird contributed several numbers. The orchestra of St. Peter's School played several selections, and a trio from Lindsay sang a number of songs.

J. W. Kontaway, of the Supreme Office, in New Haven, Conn., addressed the gathering, and stressed the importance of "boy work." Norman Bissett, of Lindsay, was master of cermonies. At the conclusion of the program, refreshments were served by the Catholic Junior League, with Miss Gladys Costello in charge.

An Odd Present

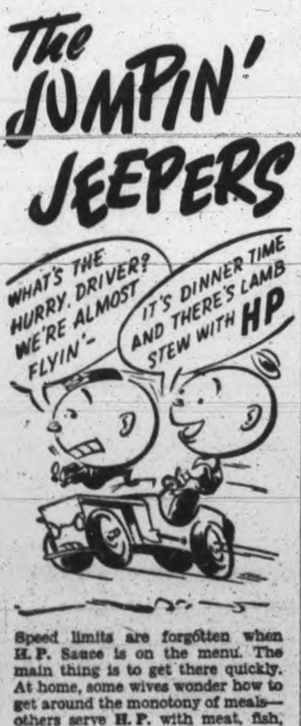
HARTFORD, Conn., May 23 (AP)—Of all the gifts that Dr. Charles Coffin Beach received on his 88th birthday, the one that gave him the biggest thrill was a copy of the Connecticut Courant, containing the Hartford birth list for the week ended May 24, 1856. In obscure, archaic type on yellowed paper, his name appears.



Speed limits are forgotten when H.P. Sauce is on the menu. The main thing is to get there quickly. At home, some wives wonder how to get around the monotony of meals—others serve H.P. with meat, fish, fowl, stews, salads or sandwiches. A few drops of good old H.P.—that grand English sauce—adds a flavour that makes you come back for more.

Economical — thick — fruity H.P. is "tops" when it comes to sauces. Your family will like it too. Get a bottle today.

HP SAUCE

Fashion's Spotlight

SUMMER JERSEYS, CREPE AND SHEERS

A floral design in white and many striking selection of colors in one and two piece styles.

ELLA KINGDON STYLE SHOP

Over the Bank of Toronto

PHONE 4315

Nervous, Restless

On "CERTAIN DAYS" Of The Month?

If functional periodic disturbances make you feel nervous, cranky, high-strung, tired, weak and "dragged out"—at such times—start at once, try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. Here's a product that helps nature. Follow label directions. Pinkham's Compound is worth trying! Made in Canada.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

How long should it take to say GOOD-NIGHT?

It's Etiquet to say good-night almost the minute you reach your doorway. A long drawn-out farewell embarrasses a man—unless he's in love with you. And he's more likely to fall in love with you if you keep yourself dainty-sweet. Use Etiquet—the new antiseptic deodorant cream. It's more effective!

It's Etiquet DEODORANT CREAM that stops underarm perspiration 1 to 3 days...

*Scientific tests prove Etiquet 24% more effective as deodorant than other deodorant creams tested. Etiquet spreads smoothly...not crumbly; pure...not irritating to normal skin; works fast...no need to rinse.

LOOK FOR THE BLUE PLAID JAR AT TOILET GOODS COUNTERS ... 39c

The Rational Choice!

RED ROSE COFFEE "is good coffee"

... As good as RED ROSE TEA

ISN'T IT THE TRUTH? By Ti-Jos No. 42

IT CAN HAPPEN HERE

Canada isn't immune to the dread economic disease of inflation. It CAN happen here — but it needn't. Not if we Canadians support our government's control measures to the utmost of our ability. Never pay more than the ceiling price. Never buy unnecessarily. Make what you have do you as long as possible. Even if other people seem to be profiteering that is no reason why we should follow their example!

JOHN LABATT LIMITED London Canada

The Examiner

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES

Cash with order. 1½c per word per insertion; 35c minimum for first insertion; 45c minimum with box number.

If paid within five days, 2c per word per insertion.

After five days, 2½c per word per insertion.

Refunds must be claimed within thirty days.

The names and addresses of box-holders are confidential and cannot be given under any circumstances.

THE PETERBOROUGH EXAMINER reserves the right to classify, edit or reject any classified advertising copy. Read your ad at the first insertion. The Examiner will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion. Copy accepted up to 1 p.m. each day for insertion the same day, except Saturdays when copy must reach the Examiner before 10 a.m.

| | |
|---|---|
| Birth Notice | 75c |
| Card of Thanks | 75c |
| Engagement Notice | 75c |
| Marriage Notice | 75c |
| Death Notice | 75c |
| In Memoriam | 75c |

The above charge is for 50 words—over 50 words 2c per word is charged. Coming Events — First insertion 20 words or less minimum charge 50c. Subsequent consecutive insertions 40c per insertion. Over 20 words, 2c per extra word per insertion.

TELEPHONE 4641.

Births Marriages Deaths
In Memoriam
Cards of Thanks

BIRTH

INGHAM—To Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Ingham of Millbrook on May 22, 1944 at Nicholls Hospital a son.

ARMSTRONG—To Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Armstrong, Lakefield, at Nicholls Hospital on Monday, May 22, 1944, a baby boy, a brother for Glenda.

THIRNBECK—Mildred and Fred Thirnbeck are happy to announce the arrival of their son at Nicholls Hospital on Monday, May 22, 1944.

DIED

SAUNDERS—At St. Joseph's Hospital on Tuesday, May 23, 1944, Francine Saunders, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Saunders and dear sister of Lenore, Audrey, Lois, Jacqueline, and Mary. Resting at the Funeral Home of A. Comstock and Sons, 205 Water Street where service will be held on Wednesday, May 24 at 2.30 p.m. Interment Little Lake Cemetery.

LONERGAN—Mary F. Somers at at Warkworth, on Monday, May 22, 1944, Mary Frances Somers, beloved wife of the late William Lonergan in her 68th year.

The funeral will leave the family residence on Thursday, May 25 and proceed to St. James Church, Warkworth for Requiem Mass at 9 a.m.

Interment in Warkworth Roman Catholic Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

HANSON—In loving memory of a dear Mother who passed away, May 23, 1926.

Not dead but passed beyond
The mist that binds us here,
Into the newer, larger life
Of that unclouded sphere.

Always remembered by Lottie Herb. and Family.

WRIGHT—In loving memory of a dear wife and Mother, Alemia Bernice Wright who passed away, May 26th, 1943.

We cannot, Lord, Thy purpose see,
But all is well that's done by Thee.

—Ever remembered by her husband, Milton Wright and Daughters Bernice and sons, Ormie and Mansel.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. White and Family wish to thank all the neighbours, the attending physician, and Rev. Moore for their consideration, thoughts and help during their recent loss of a dear little boy.

FLORISTS

ASHBURY'S
WEDDING AND FUNERAL FLOWERS
Phone 4962—Nights 3054 316 Charlotte

TURNBULL'S FLOWERS LIMITED
441 George Phone 7583—Nights 3257

COMING EVENTS

First insertion, 20 words or less minimum charge 50c. Subsequent consecutive insertions 40c per insertion. All over 20 words, 2c per extra word per insertion.

OLD TIME DANCE AUSPICES Women's Institute Norwood Town Hall, Friday May 26. Good music. Admission 25c.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT—RUMmage Sale, Thursday, May 25th. Proceeds in aid of War Work. George Street opposite Capitol Theatre. Doors open at 10 o'clock.

SOCIAL EVENING. — K. OF C Hall, Simcoe street, Tuesday — Thirty games. Special Prizes. Come and bring your friends for an enjoyable evening.

LILAC TEA—ST. ANDREW'S MISsionary Society at the Manse, Friday, May 26th, 3 to 6 p.m. Home Cooking. Novelties, Roots and Bulbs for Sale.

DANCE IN MARMORA TOWN Hall, Friday, May 26. Music supplied by Jimmie Cooke and his Hayloft boys from Peterborough. Adm. 50c and 35c.

In Memoriam Verses

A booklet from which In Memoriam verses may be selected is available at the Advertising counter of The Examiner Telephone Classified Dept 4641

Coming Events
(Continued from Preceding Col.)

57th REGIMENT CHAPTER OF I.O.D.E. Thrift Sale, May 25, 26 and 27 at 257 George, opposite Hood and Cummings.

TULIP TEA, QUEEN ELIZABETH Home and School Association, Friday, May 26, from 3 - 6 at the home of Mrs. C. Doughty, 225 Barnardo avenue.

THE W.C.T.U. WILL HOLD THEIR regular meeting in the Green Room of the Y.W.C.A. on Thursday at 3 o'clock. "Law and Sabbath Overseas" will be the topic.

BINGO AT THE LEGION HALL, Tomorrow night (Wednesday) at 8.15. Main Prizes $30.00 and two prizes of $5.00 each. Many other good prizes. The contribution to the British War Victims Fund has now topped the $2,000.00 mark thanks to our patrons. Admission 25c. Extra Card 10c.

"BAND CONCERT" AFTER Church, Collegiate Auditorium, Sunday, May 28th 8.30 p.m. 35-piece Girls and Boys Band, assisted by outstanding Violinist and Saxophonist and Mixed Brass Party. Bandmaster R. G. Routly, Temple Band Chairman, Silver Collection.

PERSONALS

FOR INSTANT RELIEF, GET "LLOYD'S Corn and Callous Salve," containing Benzocaine, the new local anaesthetic 50c at Elliott's McDermid & Jury and Payne's Drug Stores.

"CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS, INdigestion quickly relieved with Kipp's Herb Tablets," the effective tonic laxative. 25c and 75c sizes, at your Druggist.

AVON REPRESENTATIVE. 548 Bethune. Telephone 3194.

SPIRELLA REPRESENTATIVES— 3011, 3150, 5151.

RAWLEIGH'S PRODUCTS. 360 SIMCOE Telephone 3055.

FULLER BRUSH REPRESENTATIVE. Telephone 9778

FULLER SALESMAN. F. DAWE, 481 Water. Telephone 4789.

Custom Tailoring

DOES YOUR COAT OR SUIT NEED Altering? Have it done now. Tony Pepe, Greene Building. Dial 4295.

Piano Tuning

WILLIAM POTTER, PIANO TUNING and Repairing (formerly Heintzman) Dial 9462.

PIANO TUNING AND REPAIRING — Fred Walker, Heintzman & Company, Toronto. Mail orders to CHEX or Telephone 9496.

3a Hairdressers 3a

MARY MARINO SUGGESTS FOR FINE Dry, Hard-to-curl Hair, one of her better Oil Waves at $7.50. Other Oil Waves from $3.50 up. Dial 8663.

SPECIALS — END PERMANENTS $1.00 up. Oil Permanents $2.50 up. Downer's. Dial 8874.

SPECIALS — $8.50 VAPOR PERMANent for $7.00. $7.00 Machineless Permanent for $4.00. Includes Shampoo, Hairstyle Cut and scientific testing. Telephone 8311. Paris Beauty Salon.

EXTRA SPECIAL OIL WAVE, $6.50 FOR $5.00. Rosanne Beauty Salon, Kresge Building. Dial 8837.

FOR SALE

4 Miscellaneous 4

GOOD SINGLE BED, CHEST OF Drawers, Chifrobe Mirror, Kitchen Service Table, Screen Door, Child's Scooter. 574 McCannan, after 7.

KITCHEN CABINET 30 DUMBLE Avenue.

LARGE COOK STOVE, RESERVOIR and Warming Closet. 6042.

EVENING DRESS, WHITE CHIFFON, practically new, in good condition. Telephone 6129.

CAMP SUPPLIES

| | |
|---|---|
| PUP TENTS | $4.65 |
| WALL TENTS | $17.25 |
| MOTORISTS' TENTS | $32.25 |
| COTTAGE CHAIRS | $1.49 |
| HAVERSACKS | $2.29 |
| BUOY-O-BOYS | 98c Up |

FISHING GOODS

Bass, 'Lunge and Lake Trout Baits. Large display of most successful Baits. Lines, Preserved Bait, Sinkers, Hooks, Guides, etc.

Save Safely at

CANADIAN TIRE CORP'N
ASSOCIATE STORE
(I. H. Keefer, Proprietor)
342-4 Water Street. (Opposite Market)
Phone 8281

DOUBLE BRASS BED, SPRING AND Mattress 300 Maitland, or Telephone 5996.

ROLL-TOP DESK, DAVENPORT BED, Studio Couch, Table, Chairs, Small Articles. Apartment D, above Regent Theatre.

GO-CART. TELEPHONE 4537, 527 King Street.

RED MAPLE BEDROOM SUITE (IMperial Loyalist), also Continental Bed. Telephone 4994, after 6 p.m.

COAL OIL STOVE. 646 STORMONT, Evenings.

SMALL COOK STOVE, CREAM ENAmel. Dial 8413.

FURNITURE AND GIFTS — 2-PIECE Chesterfields $99.00, $33.00 down. $7.38 per month for 10 months; 6-Piece Breakfast Suites, $69.95, $23.95 down, $6.44 per month for 8 months; Ornaments, 19c up; Cushions, $1.79; Mirrors, $3.50 up; Electric Heating Pads, $7.45; Table Lamps, $5.95 up; Vases, 29c up; Artificial Flowers, 19c per Spray up; Play Pens, $5.95; Bassinettes, $11.95. F. H. Johnston, corner George and McDonnel. Telephone 4697.

POTATOES. TELEPHONE 5089.

MINNOWS, DEW WORMS. 172 ADEline Street.

NO. 1 COBBLER POTATOES. LIMITed quantity of Small Burbanks. Telephone 5065.

22 AUTOMATIC RIFLE, WITH SHELLS Dial 3670

KITCHEN STOVE. 500 PARNELL Street. Telephone 7927.

FULL SIZE STEEL BED, WITH Spring-filled Mattress, in A1 condition. 120 Aylmer.

CABINET RADIO. 149 LAKE STREET.

RUG, 6' 9" x 8' 8", GOOD, CLEAN Barrymore. Telephone 8872.

DOG KENNEL, SHINGLED, REMOVable front. 4717.

PLAYER PIANO, WITH ROLLS AND Bench, in good condition. Sacrifice. Parks' Studio, 208 Charlotte.

THREE-LEAFED DINING TABLE, REmovable legs, 4 Chairs, good condition. Telephone 9695.

FOR SALE

4 Miscellaneous 4

HOT WATER FURNACE, IN GOOD condition. Telephone 9055.

KITCHEN PUMP, COMPLETE; COOK Stove, Steel Bed. 157 Morrow Street.

CHIPPAWA POTATOES, FROM CERtified Seed—Large $1.50 Bag, Small $1.25. Mrs. E. Howson, Route 8. Telephone 7069.

CAMP BED, FOLDING METAL, WITH Mattress; Candid Camera in Case, like new. 478 Wellington Street.

NEW CAMP BED AND MATTRESS. Telephone 7518.

NEW ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR, DE-luxe Model, 6 cubic foot size. Apply 136 Park North.

THREE-BURNER GAS STOVE, BED complete, Modern Go-Cart, Ice-Box. Telephone 3468

YOUTH'S SUIT, 16 TO 18, CHEAP. 9087.

HEINTZMAN & COMPANY PIANO, good tone, Tuned and Delivered. Parks' Studio, 208 Charlotte

DRESSER AND STAND. TELEPHONE 6907, 424 Stewart.

DOUBLE BED, SPRING AND MATtress 474 Aylmer. 4384.

MINNOWS AND DEW WORMS. 1035 Water.

NEW 303 SAVAGE RIFLE AND 45 Shells for same. Apply Calvin Chard, Cordova Mines.

ICE-BOX, GOOD CONDITION. 540 Waterford.

MEN'S SPRING AND WINTER COATS, 38 Doll's Wicker Carriage, Sleigh, Single Iron Bed. 509 Bethune.

BLACKSMITH'S PORTABLE FORGE, practically new. 5280.

ROCK, SUITABLE FOR BUILDING. Free. Telephone 9934.

The Peterborough Metal Co.

Plumbing and Heating Supplies, Bath-tubs, Kitchen Sinks, Toilets, Basins, Septic Tanks, Boilers, etc., Pipe, Fittings, Electric Motors, Belting, Pulleys, Shafting, Posts, Angle Iron, Drums, Barrels, Fibreglas Insulating Products.

Telephone 5769 — 236 Simcoe Street

SOLID WALNUT BEDROOM SUITE, and Spool Bed; After 6, Telephone 4448.

Musical Instruments

UKULELE (INLAID), SOMETHING out of ordinary. 216 Stewart Street.

Plants and Flowers

PERENNIALS, STRONG PLANTS — Hesperis in bud, Rudbeckia, Lupins, Spider Lily, etc. Also Ruby Rhubarb. Telephone 6921.

4a Seeds and Grains 4a

CERTIFIED SEED POTATOES — SEbago and Chippawa Foundation A Dial 5005.

5 Dogs, Cats, Birds, Etc. 5

COLLIE PUPS, MALES, $3.00. GEORGE Lindsay, Apsley.

DOGS BOARDED. HEDGLEY KENnels Port Hope Highway. Telephone 4906.

6 Fuel 6

MIXED WOOD, STOVE LENGTH, $10.00 Cord Delivered. Omemee 35 ring 3.

MIXED SLABS, 90% PINE, $7.50 PER Cord, Delivered. Telephone Lakefield 34W.

7 Livestock and Poultry 7

SIX YOUNG PIGS. 36-41, KEENE.

30 LAYING HENS. TELEPHONE 9436.

SEVEN DURHAM 2-YEAR-OLD CATTLE One Young Durham Cow, due to freshen, 4-year-olds. Melville Freeburn, one mile west Young's Point.

MATCHED TEAM PERCHERON MARES 3 and 4 years old; 1 Clyde Gelding, 4 years, quiet and well broken. Harold Ray, Warsaw.

YOUNG PIGS. SMITH BROTHERS, Fraserville.

REGISTERED CLYDE MARE, 5 YEARS sore on front, otherwise sound. Will sell cheap. General Purpose Horse, suitable for garden work; will work double or single. Melbourne McInnis, 52 ring 32, Omemee.

TEN LAYING HENS, $1.50 EACH. 17 Brioux.

YORKSHIRE PIGS, SEVEN WEEKS old. Norman A. Bowles, Cavan. Telephone 4012.

SOW AND NINE PIGS. PERCY MONcrief, 4 ring 12, Bailieboro

BLACK HEIFER, DUE. F. CLANCEY, 33 ring 3, Keene.

JERSEY HEIFER, DUE TO FRESHEN June 1. Jersey Cow, due to freshen June 9. J. Braithwaite, Cavan

COW AND PIGS. DUFFUS FARM, Keene Road.

JERSEY COW, DUE TO FRESHEN soon. Telephone 8046.

HOLSTEIN COW, 5 YEARS, DUE TO freshen one week. Emmet Fitzgerald, Indian River.

Baby Chicks

PULLETS—STARTED HEAVY BREEDS Delivery middle June and later. If you want June-July Chicks, place order now, as it's possible we'll be only hatching to order. Bray Hatchery, 364 Water. Dial 3834.

IT'S IMPORTANT IF YOU WANT June-July Chicks to get your order in now, as it's possible we may be hatching only to order. We have Day-old and Started Leghorns, also B.B.xW.L. immediate shipment. Bray Hatchery, 364 Water. Dial 3834.

7x Farmers' Needs and Supplies 7x

ONE - HORSE MOWER, MASSEY-Harris, good condition. Dial 6633

NEW WHEELBARROW, SCUFFLER with Attachments. Telephone 5355.

LISTER CREAM SEPARATOR, LIKE new. Harold Rowan, Springville. Dial 6010.

MANURE SPREADER, GOOD WORKing order. W. Waterman, Fraserville.

ERBAN OATS. DIAL 6020.

TRACTOR CUSTOM WORK. C. M McInroy, 4511

EXPERT TRACTOR PLOUGHING AND Cultivating. Two Tractors at your service. 319 McDonnel or Telephone Art O'Halloran 7781.

MASSEY-HARRIS MOWER, NO. 21, 5-foot cut, fitted with complete set of New Gears and Bushings, and New Knife. J. M. Sandy, R. R. 2, Omemee.

ONE ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION Milk Cooling Unit. Will handle up to 10 Cans of Milk at one cooling. Price complete installed, including Electrical wiring, $298.00 cash. Terms if desired. Guaranteed one year. F. H. Johnston, corner of George and McDonnel, Peterborough.

FOR SALE

8 Real Estate 8

$4,600—Nice Brick Residence, Dennistoun Avenue. Lovely lot. Possession September 1.

WHY NOT TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE NEW N. H. A. LOAN AT 4½%? Investigate the possibilities afforded by this low interest rate, with repayment on a monthly basis.
H. J. McCANNAN - JACK SINCLAIR
140 Simcoe St. Telephone 4246

Brick, 9 Rooms, 3-Piece Bath, Furnace, ideal for Duplex. Possession soon ... $3,800
Brick, 7 Rooms, 3-piece bath. Possession July 1. Easy terms ... $3,700
100 Acres, 80 working. Brick House, barn stone foundation, 2 silos, Hydro ... $5,500
M. STOREY
374½ George St. Telephone 6573

$4,000—Modern 7 Room Pressed Brick, South.
$2,500—5 Room Frame Cottage, Dublin Street.
$3,000—5 Room Cottage, Murray Street.
$4,700—Double House, West, one side vacant August 1st, $1,200 down.
$3,500—6 Roomed Brick, Perry Street, vacant now.
$11,500—Modern Home, West-end — owner leaving City.
Owing to death of Owner, I have one of the best Guest and Tourist Homes in Ontario—13 Rooms, beautiful grounds, on main highway to the Kawartha Lakes. Possession July 1st.
A. E. THOMPSON, REALTOR,
Kresge Building. Telephone 7284

CENTRAL BUSINESS LOT, 70 BY 112 feet, on West side of George Street, south of King. Good Site for Stores and Apartments, Garage. Apply 146 Hunter Street for particulars. Take Small House as part.

A Good Going Business, Large 13-Room Guest Home, garages, etc. Very modern, large lawns and gardens. A choice locality. Inquire.
South, 4 Rms, oak fls., vacant ... $2,000
Sherbrooke, 10 Rms, modern ... $3,900
Princess, 6 Rms, oak fls., vacant ... $4,000
Many others to choose from.
J. A. GIBBS, 141 Hunter St. 3843.

EIGHT-ROOM HOUSE, CENTRAL, first-class property, good location—$4,200. W. P. Hetherington, 421 George. Telephone 7454.

FOR SALE, IN THE VILLAGE OF Grafton, New House. Possession soon. North Shore Realty Co. Ltd., Alger Building, Oshawa. Telephone 81

Cottages for Sale or Rent

INSULATED, ELECTRICITY, PLUMBing, eight miles, first part July-August. 6708.

HIAWATHA LODGE, OTONABEE River, to Rent for June, by Month or Fortnight. Dial 5229.

TWO COTTAGES FOR SEASON, Telephone 48 ring 3, Omemee

FIVE-ROOM SUMMER COTTAGE, 15 miles from Peterborough. Write Box 226, Examiner.

BEAUTIFUL LOG COTTAGES FOR Rent, fireplace, spring water, safe beach, Lake Chemong. Telephone 7032.

WANTED TO BUY, LOT OR COTTAGE Crowe Lake. Must be reasonable. Write Box 225, Examiner

Summer Resorts

THURSTONIA HOTEL — OPEN JUNE Third. Excellent Meals, Comfortable Beds, conveniences. Summer activities. Cottages, Special June Rates. Booklet. Percy Skitch, Thurstonia Park.

Tourist Accommodation

ROOMS, OR OVERNIGHT ACCOMMOdation. 351 Charlotte. Dial 4885.

10 Used Cars 10

1929 MODEL A FORD COACH, MECHanically perfect, excellent tires. Apply 396 Armstrong Drive (Hatton Property).

1929 FORD COACH. 675 DONEGAL.

1937 TERRAPLANE SEDAN, EXCELlent motor and tires; needs slight fender work. Enlisting. Cash only. 29 Crescent Street, Wednesday.

1928 CHEVROLET SEDAN, GOOD MOtor and tires. 109 Romaine.

1936 OLDSMOBILE SEDAN, GOOD condition. Telephone 3101, Norwood.

1929 DESOTO COACH, GOOD CONDItion. 179 Aylmer, between 5 and 7.

1929 ESSEX COUPE, WITH RUMBLE seat, good condition. 322 Mark Street.

1934 CHEVROLET COACH. 576 ROGERS.

1932 CHEVROLET COACHES, GOOD condition. 508 Glengarry Avenue, after 6

1934 FRONTENAC, EXCELLENT CONdition. 305 Reid.

1930 CHEVROLET COUPE. 530 PARnell.

10a Used Trucks 10a

1940 FORD ½-TON PICK-UP TRUCK, good as new. Dial 4511, 24 Cricket Place.

TO RENT

11 Miscellaneous 11

GARAGE. 9873.

ELECTROLUX CLEANER COMPLETE. by Day or Week. 4547.

11x Apartments to Rent 11x

HEATED APARTMENT, FURNISHED, Unfurnished, garage, adults. 709 Water.

SMALL APARTMENT, SUITABLE FOR Business Girls. Telephone 6514.

11xx Houses To Rent 11xx

MODERN 6-ROOMED HOUSE FOR Summer months, Furnished. Telephone 4365.

FIVE-ROOMED HOUSE AND GARden, 2 miles North-east of Peterborough. D. McCall, Curtis Brick Yard.

12 Rooms 12

COMFORTABLE, FURNISHED ROOM, all conveniences. 297 Park Street North.

FURNISHED BEDROOM; BOARD OPtional. 487 Bolivar.

ROOM FOR WOMAN, CHILD NO OBjection, central. Write Box 204, Examiner.

FURNISHED ROOMS FOR MEN. 417 Stewart

OVERNIGHT ACCOMMODATION. TElephone 8319, after 5

LARGE BED-SITTING-ROOM, SUITable Two Girls, private home. Telephone 4448.

WANTED

13 Rooms Wanted 13

WANTED BY BUSINESS LADY, TWO or Three Unfurnished Rooms, Downstairs preferred, anytime, before fall. Write Box 231, Examiner.

WANTED

13a Apartments Wanted 13a

THREE OR FOUR ROOMED APARTment, Unfurnished, near General Electric, by June 1. Write Box 203, Examiner.

REFINED BUSINESS WOMAN DESIRES Small Apartment. Telephone 4426.

13b Houses Wanted 13b

TO BUY, SMALL HOUSE AT NORTH-end. Write Box 232, Examiner.

MODERN HOUSE, CENTRAL OR North, immediately or later, adult family. 9428.

15 Miscellaneous 15

1941 BUICK, TORPEDO. WILL PAY cash, or Trade Lighter Car; private. Telephone 9918.

CHESTERFIELD SUITE. WRITE BOX 223, Examiner.

BROKEN-DOWN TRICYCLES FOR REpairs. Telephone 6446.

WANTED, TO RENT, A 50-ACRE Ranch. Walter Windrem, Dial 6020.

GARDENS TO PLOUGH. DIAL 8576. 245 Princess.

1933 OR 1934 BUICK OR HUDSON Coach or Sedan. Write Box 224, Examiner.

POCKET MODEL OR CANDID TYPE Camera for Airman overseas. Telephone 3069.

BOARD AND SINGLE ROOM, BY A Stationary Engineer, working alternate shifts. Write Box 205, Examiner.

SINGER BUTTON HOLE ATTACHment. Telephone 8514

EVENING WRAP. WRITE PARTICUlars, Box 202, Examiner.

ICE-BOX, ANY CONDITION; GOOD Commode Chair. 763 Donegal.

THE PETERBOROUGH METAL COMPANY
WE BUY
SCRAP IRON AND METALS

HOT PLATE. TELEPHONE 9049.

BICYCLE, ANY CONDITION. TELEphone 5894

FURS
Cash Paid for Your Old Fur Coat. Write Box 65, Examiner.

SMALL USED WAGON. DIAL 9612.

IRON, RAGS, FEATHERS, PAPER. Petersiel, Bethune and Hunter. Telephone 9403.

STOVES, FURNITURE. HUDSON Telephone 65, Lakefield

POULTRY AND FEATHER TICKS PAY Highest Prices. M. Gishman. Dial 8298.

LIVE POULTRY WANTED — MARKET Prices. A. Lantin. Telephone 6297.

LIVE POULTRY — PAY HIGHEST Prices. Florence, 6823. 560 Homewood

STOVES AND FURNITURE WANTED Telephone 4115—Nights 6294.

LIVE POULTRY—MARKET PRICE. M Katz. 6906. 192 Aylmer.

HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR RAGS, Paper, Iron and Metals. J. Burfield Dial 8368.

16 Teachers 16

TEACHER WANTED FOR S.S. NO. 13, Cavan, Protestant, Experienced preferred. Duties to commence September 5th. Apply, stating salary, qualifications and experience, to the Secretary, Merton V. Thexton, R. R. No. 3, Millbrook, Ontario.

QUALIFIED TEACHER FOR S.S. 14, Douro. Applications will be received until June 1, 1944. Please state salary. Apply Secretary-Treasurer, R. W. Little, No. 2, Lakefield.

17 Help Wanted, Male or Female 17

COOK AND WAITRESSES, EXPERIenced or Inexperienced, Male or Female. Apply Selective Service, Peterborough. O-274.

EXPERIENCED HAIRDRESSERS Wanted for Salons in cities East of Toronto. Also Helpers Wanted. Apply nearest Employment and Selective Service Office.

18 Help Wanted, Female 18

CAPABLE MAID, GOOD WAGES. APply Mrs R. Brooks, 222 Dalhousie Street.

CAPABLE WOMAN TO ASSIST STEWardess at Local Golf Club. Apply Selective Service Office, Peterborough. O-293.

SALESLADY FOR DRESS GOODS DEpartment; good salary and commission. Apply Selective Service. O-292.

GIRL OR WOMAN TO DO HOUSEwork; Plain Cooking; hours from 10 to 2:30. 544 Stewart. Dial 3997.

PART TIME, 3 HOURS DAILY APproximately. Does not interfere with own Housework; good wages. Telephone Mr. Pogue, 4641.

RELIABLE WOMAN FOR HOUSEwork; good home; must be capable of doing Plain Cooking. Apply 813 Water Street.

19 Help Wanted, Male 19

RELIABLE MAN FOR FARM WORK. Dial 4051.

MAN TO CUT GRASS AND TEND Lawn. 463 Hunter.

SALESMAN WANTED TO COVER REtail and Wholesale Grocery Trade in Peterborough and district, by Manufacturer nationally advertised Food Product; salary. Apply Selective Service Office, Peterborough. O-291.

DELIVERY BOY, WITH LARGE CARrier on Wheel. Come prepared to Deliver This Evening 5 o'clock, or as soon as possible after 5, 701 George Upstairs.

21 Boarders Wanted 21

GENTLEMEN BOARDERS. DIAL 5947

TWO GIRL BOARDERS, ROOM TOgether, separate beds, home privileges. 21 Bowden Avenue. Telephone 8267.

WHO CAN DO IT

22b Painters, Decorators 22b

EFFICIENT, SMART STYLING for HOME DECORATION
Interior and Exterior
"Elastica Quality Goods"
HAROLD COLEMAN
Telephone 9922 — 336 George Street

COLEMAN BROS. — "THE HOME OF Decorating." Established 1906. Telephone 4485. North of Brock Street

PAPERHANGING AND PAINTING — Reasonable Prices. Hudson, Telephone 4514.

22f Miscellaneous 22f

LAWN MOWERS, MACHINE SHARPened. 82 McDonnel. Dial 4315.

WHO CAN DO IT

22f Miscellaneous 22f

GARDENS TO PLOW. 7781.

BRICK, CEMENT WORK, STUCCOING, Brick Painting, Chimneys Rebuilt. 217½ Charlotte Street. Telephone 9636.

SHINGLING DONE AT REASONABLE Prices — Specializing in British Columbia No 1 Shingles or Asphalt. Dial 6634 or 8203. See Bert Pearson, 499 Stewart.

LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED — WE have the most Up-to-date Machinery. Satisfaction guaranteed. R. Harran's Cycle Shop, Dial 5925.

DUSTLESS FLOOR SANDING. WILliam Higgins. Dial 6867.

22j Wood Cutting 22j

WOOD SAWING. CLIFF JEWELL. Telephone 4241.

25 Nursing 25

REGISTERED NURSE, AVAILABLE. Write Box 221, Examiner.

PRACTICAL NURSE. WRITE BOX 228, Examiner.

25x Dressmaking 25x

DRESSMAKING, TAILORING, ALTERations. Telephone 4936. 593 Harvey

Radio Service

RADIO SERVICE
Every Repair Guaranteed,
Established 23 Years.
F. H. JOHNSTON
Corner George and McDonnel
TELEPHONE 4697

DELUXE RADIO SERVICE — ALL makes of Radios Repaired. All work guaranteed. Telephone 7142—Night 6384. 450 Rubidge Street.

Electric Sales and Service

ELECTRIC WORK — SERVICE AND Repairs. Telephone 6195

LOST

FLY FISHING ROD, BETWEEN CAvan and Pterborough. Cecil Hayes, Route 3, Peterborough. Reward.

DODGE HUB CAP. TELEPHONE 5892. Reward.

LADY'S YELLOW GOLD IDENTIFICAtion Bracelet, with R.C.A.P.C. crest, dates engraved on back, somewhere downtown area, on Friday. Reward. Telephone 7622.

St. John's Win Bantam Tussle

The bantam teams from Mark St. Church and St. John's Church played a league game on Monday night at the Queen Mary school, St. John's winning 35-10.

There was a good turn out of spectators to cheer the teams. Everyone enjoyed a real sporty game with plenty of laughs. The church league would like to take this opportunity to invite the public to its game.

The players for Park Street Church were: Edgar, Hardy, Grant, Dolan, White, Panter, Dinsdale, D. Graham, Gimblett.

St. John's players were: Van Allen, Swanston, Burrows, Wilfong, Wyatt, Thompson, Patterson, Buckland Bolton.

Georg Street Wins

St. Paul's bantams met George Street bantams in a church league softball game on Monday evening at the Oval.

St. Paul's won the toss for home game. The game was very exciting in places. However the umpires called the game at the end of the sixth because of darkness. George Street won their third game of the season against one win for St. Paul's.

An old church leaguer in the person of Bill Greatrix R.C.A.F., was umpire at the plate, Ken Doughty handled the bases. Teams:

George St.—Marshall, 2b; Wood, rf; Davidson, 1b; J. Dormer, p; McKee, c; Connell, lf; Hall, ss; Smith, cf; B. Dormer, 3b.

St. Paul's: Taylor, c; Brown, p; Archibald, 1b; Lavis, 2b; R. Johnston, ss; R. Beals, 3b; H. Johnston, lf; T. Hill, cf; D. Curtis, rf.

Hall for Curtis, Howard for Beals in the fourth.

Keene Players Organize League

Monday night, May 22, the Keene and Community Softball League was organized and plans were made to start the first week in June. Schedule will be printed later. Officers elected are:

President, Tom Gall; vice-president, Douglas Armstrong; secretary and treasurer, Harold Kempt; auditors, Stewart Millar and Bert Fife.

Team representatives:

Westwood—Bruce War and Stewart Millar.

Villiers—Bruce Davidson and Roy Hope.

Mathers Corners—Tom Mather and Bill McIntyre.

Bethel—Bert Fife and Allan Borland.

Keene—Duncan Keitel and Bob Wood.

Knox Team Runs Up Big Score

In a Church Bantam League game played at Queen Alexander School Monday evening, Knox defeated St. James' Bantams in a high-scoring game despite the score of 32 to 6.

St. James'—B. Prest 2b, G. Gibson 3b, D. Breadman c, B Beggs 1b, D. Ball cf, J. Tate lf, B. Jones rf, K. Deck ss, R. Harris p.

Knox—F. McMullen 1b, B. Freeman, 2b; B. Gardner, ss; W. Killingbeck, p; G. Mongraw, c; B. Granger, rf; A. Chalmers, rf; M. Johnson, 3b; A. Riches, cf.

Umpires—F. Weir, E. Darling.

LOANS

LOANS
$20 TO $500
NO ENDORSERS NEEDED

| Cash Loan You Get | 4 Payments | 6 Payments | 10 Payments | 12 Payments | 15 Payments |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| $25 | $6.57 | $4.46 | $2.78 | $2.36 | |
| 50 | 13.13 | 8.93 | 5.57 | 4.73 | |
| 75 | 19.70 | 13.39 | 8.35 | 7.09 | |
| 100 | 26.26 | 17.85 | 11.13 | 9.46 | $7.78 |
| 125 | 32.83 | 22.32 | 13.92 | 11.82 | 9.73 |
| 150 | 39.39 | 26.78 | 16.70 | 14.18 | 11.67 |
| 200 | 52.52 | 35.71 | 22.27 | 18.91 | 15.57 |
| 300 | 78.79 | 53.56 | 33.40 | 28.37 | 23.36 |
| 500 | 130.60 | 88.84 | 55.10 | 46.73 | 38.38 |

(Choose a monthly payment plan)

To apply for a Household loan just give us a few facts about yourself and choose a convenient payment schedule. Payments shown repay loans in full and include charges at our reduced monthly rate of 2% on a loan balance of $300 or less and 1% on that part of a balance in excess of $300.

Household Finance
Corporation of Canada
Established in Canada 1928
Second Floor Lansfield Block
177 Charlotte St. (Opp. Loblaws)
M. E. Holt, Manager Phone 5841

Campbell Loans
WITHOUT ENDORSERS
THREE TYPICAL PLANS

| CASH YOU GET | 3 Payments | 6 Payments | 12 Payments | 15 Payments |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| $50 | $17.34 | $8.93 | $4.73 | $ |
| 100 | 34.68 | 17.85 | 9.46 | 7.78 |
| 190 | 65.88 | 33.92 | 17.97 | 14.79 |

A Campbell loan can be in your hands the same day you apply. Friendly, confidential attention.

CAMPBELL
FINANCE CORPORATION LIMITED
Subsidiary of Industrial Acceptance Corporation Ltd.
169 Charlotte Street
F. M. Vivash, Branch Manager
(Above A. & P. Store) Phone 3520

NOTICE

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF CHARLES JAMES, Late of the Township of Asphodel, in the County of Peterborough, Farmer, Deceased.

All Persons having CLAIMS against the Estate of the said CHARLES JAMES, who died on or about the 30th Day of November, 1943, at the said Township of Asphodel, and who at the time of his death had his fixed place of abode at the said Township of Asphodel, are hereby notified to send to the undersigned, the Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of the said Deceased on or before the 22nd Day of June, 1944, full particulars of their Claims duly verified by affidavit on Satutory Declaration.

Immediately after the last mentioned date the Assets of the Deceased will be distributed among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the Claims of which the Executrix shall then have had notice.

DATED this 22nd Day of May, A.D. 1944.

(MRS.) ANNE JAMES,
R. R. No. 3,
Norwood, Ontario,
Executrix.

Ugly-Visaged Wrestler Kills Wife

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., May 23 — City Police Capt. G. J. Stark on Sunday night reported Charles Eastman, the 40-year-old Chicago wrestler who capitalized on his ugly visage, shot and killed his beautiful wife Geraldine, 27, attempted to kill their 15-months-old baby, then shot and hanged himself yesterday.

Stark said Eastman had threated to give his wife and baby a "one-way ride." Eastman, wrestling under the names "Gorilla Grubmeyer" and "Frankenstein," fancied himself a terror before the mat fans.

Married two years ago, the couple was estranged. Stark said they went back together 3 weeks ago but couldn't make a go of it."

End Not Near

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP) — Admiral Ernest J. King, commander in-chief of the United States fleet, deplored yesterday what he said was a tendency to believe "that the end of the war is close at hand, both in the Atlantic and Pacifc." He was speaking at the annual meeting of the colors at Washington Cathedral.

New War Weapon

GRAND RAPID, Mich., May 23—(AP)—The United States Army removed the veil of secrecy Saturday from another weapon—a rapid-fire, 20-ton mobile anti-aircraft gun which hurls 4.7-inch shells more than 11 miles into the air. An automatic loader and rammer permits a high rate of fire.

Getting Ready

STOCKHOLM, May 23—(AP) — Tokyo, preparing for Allied bombing of Japan, has evacuated non-essential persons from the city and leveled inflammable wooden structures near war industries to reduce the fire hazard, a German correspondent stationed there cabled Berlin Saturday.

Frog Wins Title

ANGELS CAMP, Calif., May 23—(AP)—"Maggie," owned by Merlin Fisher of Stockton, Calif., is the international jumping frog champion. "Maggie" set a new world's record of 16 feet two inches yesterterday in the 17th annual event. The former record was 15 feet 10 inches, held by "Zip," owned by Eddie Robinson, also of Stockton.

7 Soldiers Hurt

LONDON, May 23—(CP Cable)—Sigmn. Robert Farnes of Kirkland Lake, Ont., and another Canadian soldier were killed in an army vehicle crash off the York-Scarborough road Saturday and seven other soldiers were injured, it was announced today. Names of the other men involved will be announced when next-of-kin has been informed.

IMPORTANT CALLS

| | |
|---|---|
| Police | 3535 |
| Fire Dept. | 5711 |
| Nicholls Hospital | 4691 |
| St. Joseph's Hospital | 3561 |
| Examiner | 4641 |

NOTICE

Tenders Asked for City Horse Barn

Tenders will be received by the undersigned for the construction of a large new horse barn for the Corporation of the City of Peterborough to be erected on the Board of Works yard. Details and specifications available at City Engineer's Office.

Tenders must be in sealed envelope marked "Tender for Barn". Tenders close at 5 p.m., May 31st.

E. A. OUTRAM, City Clerk.

PROFESSIONAL

44 Lawyers 44

P. D. SCOLLARD—Barrister, Solicitor. Bank of Toronto Building. Telephone 9939.

JOHN A. BRADSHAW — Barrister and Solicitor. 360 Water. Telephone 9894.

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY — Barristers, Solicitors. Money to Loan. Offices 415-417 Water Street. Telephone 4681. E. A. Peck, K.C., F. D. Kerr, K.C., V. J. McElderry, K.C., Walter H. Howell.

JACOB LOW — Barrister, etc. Mortgage Loans. Suite 1-2, 435 George Street (over Toronto Savings and Loan Co.). Telephone 7423 — Nights 6214

ELLIOTT, PHILP & CHANDLER—Barristers, etc. Money to Loan. Offices, Kresge Building. Telephone 6675. A. L. Elliott, K.C., W. R. Philp, B.A., R. J. Chandler, B.A.

Chiropractors

M. C. GOODWIN, CHIROPRACTOR and Drugless Therapist. 108 Barrie Building, 312 George. Telephone 8795 and 5865.

AUCTION SALES

GORDON HANCOCK, LICENSED AUCtioneer and Valuator. Telephone 5021.

J. H. MILES, AUCTIONEER AND VALuator. Office 211 Hunter. Dial 4115, Residence 9122. 25 Years' Successful Selling and Valuating.

BABY GRAND ELECTRIC IRONER, Child's Two-Wheel Cyclette, like new. Thursday, 2:30 p.m.—Miles' Auction Rooms, 211 Hunter.

MILES' AUCTION ROOM, 211 HUNTER Thursday, May 25: Electric Frigidaire A1 condition, also Ice-Boxes, Walnut Settee and Chairs, Screen Door, Hall Racks, Chesterfield Suite, Beds, Springs, Mattresses, Chairs, Tables, Sectional Book Case, Ironing Board, Electric Electrolux Vacuum Cleaner, like new, with Attachments, Ironer, good condition, Dishes, Clothing, etc.

RE-CONDITIONED LAWN MOWERS—Miles' Auction Rooms, 211 Hunter Street, Thursday, May 25.

Fur Charge Brings $520 Penalty

NORTH BAY, May 23 — (CP) — Charged with illegal possession of 22 beaver and four other pelts, Maurice Tattlebaum, Sturgeon Falls, today paid a fine of $520 and costs.

Charges were laid by Overseers H. S. Dorann of Alanford and A. M. Hodgins of Lindsay, working in Northern Ontario for the Department of Game and Fisheries. The furs were seized during a raid on Saturday.

Soviet Russia

(Continued from Page 3)

presented, of making its own Munich bargain with Germany and so gaining time to arm for the attack it knew would one day be coming.

The mutual understanding that had grown up between the western democracies and Soviet Russia since those early days of the war was the great promise for a satisfactory peace settlement when victory was won, Dr. Stewart concluded. Soberly, however, he added the note that despite their eargerness to cooperate with each other, the leaders of Russia and Great Britain might run into trouble in trying to bring their people along with them; and that the clearing of the atmosphere still left many irreconcilables in both countries to be converted to a belief in open and whole-hearted cooperation.

Survivors Arrive

SYDNEY, N.S., May 23—(CP)—Thirty-one survivors of the Canadian frigate Valleyfield, torpedoed in the North Atlantic recently, arrived here Saturday from Newfoundland and later left for their homes across Canada. A number of the survivors remained in Newfoundland, where they are being treated in hospital.

Unusual Mishap

HULL, Que., May 23 (CP). —Albert Deschenes, 15, of Hull, died in hospital yesterday a few hours after he had been forced by a restless horse onto the whirling blade of a circular saw. He was cutting wood for his employer in a Cremanzie Street lumber yard when the horse backed up, forcing him to fall across the saw table onto the moving blade.

SEEN IN PRINT—The idea of using a matching hat and gloves with a print frock is a delightful one, with the provision, of course, that the whole thing is extremely well handled and that the print is of the type that can be taken in large doses. As Mainbocher does it, the idea is delightful, as can be seen from this pretty Spring trio fashioned in white navy silk crepe. The dress uses a tiny peplum to break the line of the very slim skirt.—By Alice Alden.

DOROTHY DIX

HAZARDS IN LETTER WRITING
War Brings New Perils In Correspondence School On Love-Making, Having Fatal Results

It is, of course, known to all and sundry, as Damon Runyon would say, that letter writing is not the innocuous pastime it is believed by the unthoughtful to be. On the contrary, it is a diversion that is about as dangerous as playing with T. N. T. and as likely to blow you to Kingdom Come. For you never can tell when a mash note is going to explode into Exhibit A in a breach of promise suit, or you are going to be called on to make good on the sentiments in Exhibit B that you never expected to be taken seriously.

Ink Starts Writing Jag

Many strange and inexplicable phenomena are connected with letter writing. One is that just dipping into the ink seems to send the average man and woman into a jag in which they write indiscreet things they would never have been foolish enough to have said. Ordinarily they are level-headed people, with their feet on the ground, but the sight of a clean sheet of white paper, tempts them to soar amidst the piink clouds of romance and to slosh over with emotions which they are far from feeling.

They know the folly of this. They know that we write letters at our own risk, and that while the spoken word goes in one ear and out of the other, a scrap of paper can last for a hundred years and be a witness against them. Yet, for all of this, girls will go on addressing boys in letters as "my heart's idol" because they have really forgotten the lad's name, and boys will swear in black and white that Angelina is the only girl in the world for them, just to fill in the space at the bottom of the page.

Even in peace time letter writing is a hazardous sport, but the war has added new perils to it, for it has started a School of Correspondence Love-making that is having fatal results. At the beginning of the war the young women of the country were urged to get into correspondence with the boys in the service and, whether they knew them or not, write them bright and cheery letters to break the strain of life at the front.

Letter Writers Go Sentimental

It was a grand idea. The girls leaped to their typewriters as one woman, and all went well as long as they stuck to neighborhood gossip and the last movie and asking their correspondent whether he would like them to knit him a sweater or a pair of socks, and he responded in kind, with his opinion of the Sarge and the camp cook. But the curse of the letter writer was on them and they couldn't escape it. They had to go sentimental and romantic and to imagine themselves in love with boys and girls whom they had never seen.

Apparently Cupid shoots just as well with the pen as he used to with the dart, for thousands of our doughboys and gobs have become engaged to ready letter writers and are preparing to take on mail order brides on their next furlough home, which would be well enough, perhaps, if marriage was going to be conducted by correspondence and not in person.

But, alas, such is not the case. In marriage individuality counts more than all the virtues, and my guess is that there will be plenty of trouble a-cooking when these letter-writing lovers meet for the first time.

Released by The Bell Syndicate Inc.

ADDRESS CHANGED

Remains of the Arctic walrus have been found in Georgia.

SALLY'S SALLIES

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

Copr. 1944, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved.

"But, father, he doesn't want to support a family; he just wants to marry me."

Needlecraft Pattern

862

by Laura Wheeler

TO-DAY'S NEEDLECRAFT

Beginners like the wide variety of easy motifs in this inspiring assortment. Make plain lines glamorous with these bits of embroidery.

Add a "party look" to your linens with simple stitchery. Pattern 862 contains a transfer pattern of 18 motifs, 1¾ x 2½ to 3¾ x 9 inches.

Pattern Number ....................

Size ....................

My Name ....................

....................

Address ....................

I enclosed 20c for postage

The Stars Say . . .

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Wednesday, May 24

A PARTICULARLY lively and enterprising day is forecast from the ruling aspects which stimulate the energies, faculties and ambitions. In this there will be ready co-operation from public, community and influential sources, especially with agencies, communications, travel, publicity and business. But a subtle and tricky under current must be handled with shrewdness and sound judgment rather than emotionalism or sensational urges in order to avert regrets and delays. Maintain balance, vigilance and common sense in all sinister attacks.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may enjoy a very lively and interesting year, with new fields of operation, travel, dealing with agents or public channels of publicity and promotion. Writings, new contracts or verbal agreements should thrive, but be alert to subtle snares or bewildering intrigues, with suspicious or malevolent intent. Read all documents cautiously and preserve sound judgment and logic where such schemes or pitfalls menace or cause delays, disappointments or regrets, with grave consequences. With care there is progress.

A child born on this day may have much business sagacity, with talent of a literary or creative skill in many lines. Its tendency to emotional or sensational extremes, with craft and cunning or expediency rather than principle, should be given early direction.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

LEARN BRIDGE FAST
2—Sketching the Game

SO YOU never have seen a game of bridge? And you would like to play tonight? If you know three players who will be sympathetic, go ahead and join them. This sketch will give you an idea of what it is all about, so you can let them guide you in the rest of it. If you don't know any such group, it will give you a general view of the game as a starter, and succeeding lessons will carry you deeper into it.

Contract bridge requires four players. Two are partners against the other two. Partners sit opposite each other.

You use a standard deck of 52 cards. They are dealt one at a time, each getting 13. Every player sorts his cards into suits—spades together, hearts, together, diamonds together and clubs together—holding them up so others don't see them.

Then begins what is called the bidding. We will go farther into that later. It is followed by the play. Since the bidding is based on what the different players think their cards can do in the play, it is important to understand the play first.

One player—whose identity is determined by the bidding—is called the "declarer." The player at his left "leads"—that is, he plays a card face up on the table. Then the partner of the declarer puts his entire hand on the table, face up, opposite the declarer, with his cards sorted according to suits.

The declarer does all of the playing of that deal for his side. He plays both his hand and the faced hand, which is called the "dummy." All of the play is clockwise—the same direction as the hands of clock. After the lead, the declarer plays a card from the dummy, then the opponent at his right plays, and finally he plays a card from his hand. Those four cards constitute a "trick."

In each case, a player must play a card of the suit that was led, or "follow suit," unless he has no card of that suit, in which case he plays any card he desires.

The winner of that trick then leads to the next trick. That keeps on, the winner of each trick leading to the next, until all cards are used up, making 13 tricks in all.

A trick is won by the player who plays the highest card of the suit which was led to that trick, the order of rank being ace highest, king next, queen next, jack next, 10 next, 9 next, and so on down to the deuce, or two-spot, which is the lowest. There is just one exception to that. If a player, who has no card of the led suit, puts a "trump" on the trick, that takes precedence over all cards of the led suit, and if there is more than one trump in a trick the highest trump wins it.

What is a trump? A trump is any card of a certain particular suit—determined by the bidding. All cards of it rank above any other cards of any other suit. Sometimes there is not any trump, because the final bid was made in what is called "No Trump." That means that the declarer and his partner have chosen during the bidding to play the hand without any favored suit as trump, so that every trick gets taken by the highest card of the suit led to the trick.

After a trick is taken, its winner puts the four cards together and places them close to him on the table. Consequently, after a deal has been played, it is possible to count up quickly and see how many tricks each side won. The hand can then be scored. Scoring, however, is a subject we will take up later. For the present, if you begin to play now, you must leave that to your friends.

Tomorrow: Play at No Trumps

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

DAILY CROSSWORD

ACROSS
1. Type measures
4. God of earth
7. Per. to weight (Physics)
9. Take as one's own
12. Proposal
13. Cat-like mammal
14. Biblical city
15. Indehiscent fruit
17. A bulrush
18. Equip
20. Fine cotton fabric
22. Crust on a sore
24. Court
25. Keen
27. Beginning
31. By virtue of being
33. Rational
34. Pretended
38. Vitality
39. Engagement
40. Source of light
42. Music note
43. Melodies
45. Color slightly
47. Devilfish (zool.)
48. Satiates
49. Thou (poss.)
50. Chop

DOWN
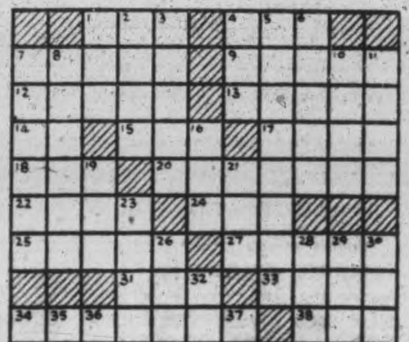
1. Garden plot (So. Afr.)
2. Bearing
3. Scour
4. Perched
5. Issues of newspapers
6. Sham
7. An exchange
8. A continent
10. Dressed skin of an animal
11. Woody perennial
16. Marble
19. Choking bit
21. Also
23. To leave by will
26. Alcoholic liquor
28. Weaken
29. Force of utterance
30. Conical tents
32. Roman money
34. First man
35. Girl's name
36. Task
37. People of Netherlands
41. African river
44. Speak
46. At the present time



Yesterday's Answer

ROOM AND BOARD —By Gene Ahern

TERRY AND THE PIRATES —By Milton Caniff

LI'L ABNER —By Al Capp

HENRY —By Carl Anderson

DONALD DUCK —By Walt Disney

BLONDIE —By Chic Young

MUGGS AND SKEETER —By Wally Bishop

BRICK BRADFORD —By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

TILLIE THE TOILER —By Russ Westover

With The Armed Forces

The editor of this column will welcome extracts from letters from boys serving or any other information concerning them.

By JEAN STENTON

FLT. LT. RUSTY ADAMS

Flight Lieutenant Ernest Allen (Rusty) Adams, D.F.C., son of Mr. R. J. Adams and the late Mr. Adams of Omemee, completed two continuous operational tours over enemy territory in Lancaster bombers in February of this year. He is now serving as a Postings Officer, overseas.

The young airman was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross in November 1943 and also earned the Permanent Pathfinder's Badge.

He enlisted in the R.C.A.F. in January, 1941 and in December of that year received his wings at Mountain View as a wireless air gunner. Being one of the top four in his class, Flt. Lt. Adams was given his commission as pilot officer. His other promotions have been granted overseas. Flt. Lt. Adams married Daphne Irene Taylor of Cambridge, England on April 15.

Another son of Mrs. Adams, Sgt. Lewis Adams, is serving in the Provost Corps of the R.C.A.F. and is stationed in Toronto. Two sons-in-law are serving with the Canadian Army, Sgt. Lewis Brown, RCASC, pay sergeant at Kingston and Sgt. William Wedlock with the R.C.O.C. in Italy.

Death Rate High

J. Faust, who wrote under the pen name of Max Brand, was the 41st Allied War Correspondent killed. Of that number, two were Canadians—Sam Robertson of the Canadian Press, lost at sea when his ship was torpedoed in 1941, and Edouard Baudry of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, lost when an airplane was shot down in North Africa in 1942.

PTE. GORDON SIMPSON

Pte. Gordon Simpson son of Mrs. W. Simpson of Norwood, is serving overseas. His wife and two children, one of whom he has never seen, live in Toronto. He writes that the weather has been grand, and he is instructing, as well as taking a course on tanks.

"Things are pretty well tied up over here now, no privilege leaves or out of town passes being granted I guess it's all because of the second front. We are in no danger though, but I'll bet the Germans wish it were over. I see some beautiful formations of our bombers going and coming these days and am mighty glad they're ours."

Decorated Twice

"The fighting postmaster of Sunderland," Major George Arthur Welsh, D.S.O., has been decorated a second time, with a Bar to the D.S.O.

Two Western Canadian Regiments, on December 24, 1943, were engaged with the enemy in a fierce street battle in Ortona. One regiment had been fighting for more than 24 hours in this area against a determined effort by the enemy to hold the exits from the town. At the height of this battle one Canadian tank was put out of action by a German anti-tank gun, thus forming a barrier across a narrow, fire-swept street which both prevented further tanks from getting forward and obscured troops' view of their targets and of enemy movements.

"Major Welsh who had been endeavouring to bring a six-pounder gun forward to blast enemy-held houses, immediately took charge and by a display of resourcefulness and great courage under observed fire, organized the removal of the casualty tank by another tank. He then, with the assistance of the crew, manhandled his gun forward and destroyed the enemy post that had been responsible for the destruction of the tank. Then, still under the heaviest mortar and machine gun fire, he blasted a route through the rubble for the succeeding tanks which were then able to move forward and relieve the pressure on the infantry. The energy, persistence and courage displayed by Major Welsh were of the highest order. Through them a situation which might have resulted in heavy casualties to Canadian troops was averted and the infantry regiment was able to complete its consolidation of the area and continue its attack."

CHAPLAIN J. D. HOWSON

Chaplain James Donald Howson, R.C.N., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Howson, 548 Aylmer street, is a recent graduate of the officers' special training course at H.M.C.S. Cornwallis. Before enlisting in March of this year, he was minister at St. Andrew's Church, Fredericton.

Serving Overseas.

Harry Coones, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Coones of Lakefield R.R. 1, is serving overseas. Before enlisting two years ago, he was employed at the Peterborough Canoe Company. The young airman is a member of the ground crew.

New Chaplain.

Capt. Allan Reoch, Protestant Padre at Camp Ipperwash, left today for Halifax where he has been posted for duties in Military District No. 6.

Formerly a Presbyterian missionary in China, Capt. Reoch will be succeeded at Ipperwash by Capt. M. E. Rowland of Fraserville.

Capt. Reoch served for a time at No. 3 C.W.A.C. Basic Training Centre, Kitchener.

Nature's War

Had there been no world war the recent eruption of Mount Vesuvius would have been the biggest story of the century says SGT. H. T. JANSEN, serving with a Canadian Public Relations unit in Italy.

Rivers of Lava

"There was Vesuvius, geysers of flame shooting skywards, balls of fire that shot up and slowly filtered back to earth. From the crater flowed two rivers of red lava, a river that flowed down the mountain side, dividing halfway, one to the right, and the other to the left; two streams that looked like giant arteries, bright, brilliant, blood red, rivers that spread destruction as they crept slowly seaward, to the base of that age-old mountain.

Sgt. Jansen relates how next morning he went to get a better look and saw the billions of tons of lava, a great crawling slag-heap about 40 feet high. "Time had slipped back a million years," he wrote, "and slithering across a Naples vineyard, was the stuff this Old Mother Earth is made of. As we drew closer we watched it digest an Italian village for lunch."

Church Disappears

"The heat withered the plants within about ten feet. On it came, crept around a tree which suddenly burst into flame. Then on to a tiny house, up the walls and around the sides. The house vanished without a trace. Close by a church was being engulfed. The old building stood it well, but the clinker mass slowly rose to its roof and soon it, too, disappeared, the last sound of that proud edifice being the jangle from the bell in the toppling tower."

COSTLY PRAMS

HEXHAM, Northumberland, Eng.—(CP) — Some mothers paid as much for baby prams here as for a second-hand automobile. One pram brought $185 and another $95.

Provincial Park

(Continued from Page 3)

considered.

A national park would attract more tourists into this county, and the type of tourist who had more money to spend.

"I suggest that you investigate this park idea; if it doesn't work out, at least no harm has been done," Senator Duffus proposed. "I believe the National Parks division is ready to accept an application from here."

The conclusive action was the appointment of the committee to engage in a broad enquiry of a park project without restriction as too type.

E. McKone, principal of the Normal School, introduced the guest speakers.

ROOM AND BOARD — By Gene Ahern

SALLY'S SALLIES

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

"George, when I received your letter telling me how much you missed me, I came to you as soon as I could."

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

LEARN BRIDGE FAST
3—Play at No Trumps

TO MAKE any subject clearly understood, the surest way is by giving examples. In bridge an example usually means an example hand. If you will get used to looking over what bridge players call a "hand diagram," it will help you greatly in learning the beautiful and intricate parts of the game that will come later. Here is one:

| West | North / South | East |
|---|---|---|
| | ♠ 10 4 2♥ J 6 5♦ A 9 4 3♣ A K 9 | |
| ♠ K J 7♥ 10 7 4 3 2♦ J 2♣ J 7 2 | NW ES | ♠ Q 9 6 5♥ A 8♦ Q 10 8 6♣ 10 5 3 |
| | ♠ A 8 3♥ K Q 9♦ K 7 5♣ Q 8 6 4 | |

That diagram shows the cards dealt to four players. Suppose South became the "declarer" in a No Trump contract. That was determined by the bidding. But never mind that now. Bidding will be explained in later lessons. If South is the declarer, the opponent at his left makes the opening lead, and then the declarer's partner, North, puts all of his cards face-up on the table, arranged in suits. Remember the other players hold their cards up, so that nobody sees their cards except the holder of them.

Suppose West leads the heart 3. The declarer then should study his hand and the dummy together to plan in general how he intends to play the whole hand. But that again is something we will get to much later—hand planning. He then must play a card from the dummy—the play always being clockwise, in the direction of the hands of a clock.

He must follow suit always if he can. And he can. He plays the heart 5 from dummy. East plays the A (ace) and South the 9. East, with the highest card on the trick, wins it. He puts the four cards together in front of him. Then, as winner of that trick, he must lead to the next one and leads the heart 8. The declarer wins that with the K, West playing the 2 and the declarer putting on the 6 from the dummy.

Now the declarer, as winner of that trick, is the leader. He leads the club 4 to the A, takes the next trick with the K and leads the club 9 to his Q. He is pleased to see that both opponents followed suit to all three of those tricks, because now he knows neither of them has a club left. So he leads the club 8, which wins a trick, since nobody can follow suit to it and it is therefore the highest card of the suit led. Even if one of the opponents played a higher card from some other suit, that club 8 would still win the trick when the contract is No Trumps.

The declarer then wins a trick with the diamond K and leads the diamond 5, letting West win it with the J and playing low from the dummy. After West leads back the heart 4 to the Q, the reason why South gave up a diamond trick is shown. He leads to the A. If the opponents' six diamonds had been evenly divided with three in each hand, he could have taken an additional trick now with the diamond 9. But they weren't. East still has the Q left because he had four originally.

South then takes another trick with the A, giving him a total of nine, but the opponents easily take the others.

If you want to make this still clearer in your mind, and understand better how No Trump play works, take a deck of cards, lay out four hands and then go through the play as outlined.

Tomorrow: Play With a Trump

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

DAILY CROSSWORD

ACROSS
1. Yeast on brewing liquors
5. Fellow
9. Light boat
10. A lemur
12. Sea eagles
13. Made of oak
14. Female deer
15. Scorch
17. Music note
18. Half an em
19. Gloomy
20. Tuber (So. Am.)
21. Pleads
22. Travel by oxcart
23. Old woman
25. Metal
26. Escapes (slang)
27. Hair on sheep
28. Subside
29. Slang
30. Exclamation
32. Jewish month
33. Metal thread
34. Roman money
35. More mature
37. Liturgical sign (Psalms)
39. Passive
40. Not full
41. Wither
42. Exclamation

DOWN
1. Nobleman
2. A Queen of England
3. Spawn of fish
4. Communication
5. Garment
6. White with age
7. Noah's boat
8. Stabs
9. Yield
11. Lurks
16. Bitter vetch
19. Lairs
20. Verbal
21. Explosive missile
22. Jog
23. Nets
24. Long-eared rodents
25. Herb
27. State of strife
29. Island sorceress (Odyssey)
30. Tract of waste land
31. Full of ashes
33. Dam in a river
34. Mountains of Europe
36. Author of "The Gold Bug"
38. Ostrich-like bird

Yesterday's Answer

TERRY AND THE PIRATES — By Milton Caniff

LI'L ABNER — By Al Capp

HENRY — By Carl Anderson

DONALD DUCK — By Walt Disney

BLONDIE — By Chic Young

AND SKEETER — By Wally Bishop

BRICK BRADFORD — By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

TILLIE THE TOILER — By Russ Westover

Bernard Smith Havelock Plans To Retire

HAVELOCK, May 23 — (ENS) — Another of Havelock's business men, Bernard Smith, has decided to retire from daily store activities and has sold his business on George street to his son Hugh, who will carry on.

Mr. Smith came to Havelock from England in 1911, and being a splitter (shoe work) by trade, he opened up a shoe repair shop in the present dentist office of Dr. Wallace. At that time Havelock was booming, and he had great difficulty in finding a boarding place. After he became established, he added harness and work boots and started to branch out into a store for general footwear.

He remained at this stand until 1922, when he purchased his present stand on George street. Soon afterwards though, he sold out to George Sanders and purchased the Waller place on Concession street, where he now resides. Since then, he decided to visit his homeland and in due time made the voyage across the Atlantic. When he returned, he once more purchased his former business stand back from Mr. Sanders, and has remained there ever since.

At present he carries a full line of footwear, harness, luggage, and other items of dry goods. His son Hugh Smith who has taken over the business, has been operating a shoe store in Norwood for a few years.

VOLCANIC ISLAND

Iceland is an island of volcanic origin.

CANADIANS TAPER OFF TRAINING FOR "D-DAY"—Training is tough for the Canadian soldier but it makes him the toughest bit of fighting material in the world. Dangerous tasks like mine detecting and mine laying are all in a day's work, as shown in top photo where Rifleman J. W. Huff, Toronto, removes some TNT during training in England. Even live ammunition is brought into training schemes (lower photo) where machine gun bullets are whining just two feet above these Canucks. (Canadian Army Overseas Photo)

Close Election Battle Looms In Eire

BY JOHN MURDOCH
Canadian Press Correspondent

DUBLIN, May 23 — (CP-Cable) — Neutral Eire's general election campaign is almost two weeks old, but nothing has happended to suggest it will be anything but the closest contest ever fought in the Irish political arena.

The parties fighting the election know there are good prospects that the fate of Eire's next government may be decided by a mere handful of votes.

There still is no major issue for the electorate. The main point for the people to decide is whether they want Premier De Valera back at the head of his Fianna Fail Party or whether they want a coalition government composed of all the other groups—Fine Gael headed by Gen. Richard Mulcahy, the Labor Party, the Farmers Party and the Independents.

Decision on this would automatically decide the acceptance or rejection of the Transport Bill which brought defeat to De Valera's government by a one-vote margin in the Dail and led to his calling the May 30 Election.

The Transport Bill would have provided for amalgamation of Eire's two biggest transport companies, the Great Southern Railway and the Dublin United Transport Company, which have a virtual monoply on the country's rail and road transport.

Return of the De Valera government would mean going ahead with the bill as it now stands. The election of a coalition government would mean acceptance of the bill in principle with possible drastic amendments.

At a week-end election meeting, De Valera repeated his opposition to a coalition government. He said the whole history of coalition governments in other countries proved that they were a danger for the countries in which they were found.

Old Paper Tells Of Advance In Living Cost

What the advance in the standard of living, coupled with inflation, has meant in the way of prices compared with those of more than 40 years ago, is amusingly illustrated by an ancient copy of the Toronto World that was discovered recently in the home of Joseph O'Keefe, 79 Lansdowne Street, while the spring house-cleaning was going on.

The edition of the paper, dated June 5, 1902, was found behind an old picture in the O'Keefe residence; and among other appealing items that would tickle the fancy of a present-day newspaper reader, it contains a large insertion by the Robert Simpson Company, advertising their gigantic Summer Sale Bargain Day.

Two-piece men's summer suits in lightweight tweeds and English flannels selling for $3.75; men's tweed pants, "good Canadian tweeds," says Simpson's, for 69 cents the pair; men's hats as low as 89 cents, and socks at 9 cents; and many other astonishing offerings in furnishings, drug store items, and garden tools. Among the toilet bargains the firm advertises shaving brushes two for 5 cents, with the parenthetical comment that "these brushes are quite good enough to lather with, but also are useful for pasting or painting."

"Two great springs of economy unite to-morrow the Summer Sale and our regular Bargain Day," says the Simpsons copywriter, attempting to drum up trade. "The result is a flood of bargains, a great river which will carry business along with a rush the moment the floodgates are opened at 8 o'clock. Better be there on the advance wave."

That June day 42 years ago the Toronto World carried stories about a coal strike in Pennsylvania; and an announcement of the English House of Commons that a grant of £50,000 would be made Lord Kitchener, the successful military leader of the recently concluded Boer War. It added that the Irish Nationalists had announced their intention of opposing the grant at every stage along the line.

Former Grove Boy Killed In England

TORONTO, May 23 — Returning from a bombing raid, PO. James Gordon McMaster of Toronto, bomber pilot, was killed last Tuesday, according to word just received. He was buried at Harrowgate, Yorkshire, England. His mother is engaged in war nursing in Toronto. Two cousins, William Skidmore and D. W. Gordon, both bomber pilots, were killed in action early in the war.

PO. McMaster joined the R.C.A.F. early in 1942, received his wings at Brantford in January, 1943, and had been on bombing operations in Britain for about five months, with many sorties over enemy territory to his credit. Son of Mrs. Clair E. and the late H. McMaster, he was educated at The Grove School, Lakefield, where he excelled in cricket and hockey, and was graduated from Queen's University in mining engineering. No details of the operation which ended in his death were given in the official notification.

Rough lips soothed!

Painful Chapping Prevented

Rough, chapped lips are painfully sore and unsightly—the cracked surfaces easily infected by dangerous germs. Get relief the quick, sure way with Lypsyl! Its wonderful emollient action instantly soothes the wounded membranes and seals them against germs and impurities. The first application gives wonderful relief—lips quickly regain normal smoothness. Get Lypsyl at your store today. Use it regularly to soothe and protect your lips. Sold everywhere in handy stick form.

LYPSYL Natural Red or Invisible White for Men and Women

14 Canadians

LONDON, May 23—(CP Cable)—Fourteen Canadians, repatriated from German prison camps, are aboard the exchange ship Gripsholm which is enroute to Britain, it was learned today. The Canadians boarded the Gripsholm at Barcelona, Spain, last week with British and American repatriates.

Names of the Canadian repatriates were not available here. The Gripsholm has sailed from Algiers for Belfast.

WA Names Delegates To Peterboro Meeting

NORWOOD, May 23—(ENS)—The Women's Association held their regular meeting recently at the home of Mrs. Warren Gardner when 38 women were in attendance. Mrs. W. K. Scott had charge of the business part of the meeing. A donation is being sent to the Victor Mission in Toronto and delegates were appointed to the W.A. Convention to be held May 25 in St. James Church, Peterborough.

Mrs. G. Would was program convener and Mrs. J. Burgess led in prayer. Mrs. K. Tedford sang a solo "Open Mine Eyes". The scripture was read by Mrs. E. Hogg and Mrs. C. McConnel gave the topic, "The Shield of Faith". Mrs. F. Jenkins gave a reading "Released From Fear."

At the conclusion of the lunch a baking sale was held to augment the funds of the group.

Calgary Plans Service

CALGARY, May 23 (CP) — The Calgary Board of Trade, in consultation with the Ministerial Association and the Retail Merchants' Association, has made arrangements with Mayor Andrew Davison and civic authorities for a public religious service downtown on the day of invasion from 11.35 to 11.55 a.m.

The Mayor has requested that all business establishments close from 11.30 to 12 o'clock so that employees may take part in the service.

June Beer Coupons Can Be Used Now

June beer coupons one to four in the individual ration books become valid today at all Ontario outlets, and with them a purchaser may obtain up to 24 pints of beer, it was announced last night by the Liquor Control Board of Ontario. May coupons remain valid until the close of business on May 31.

The pushing forward by four days of the date when May coupons became valid prevented some of the congestion expected on May 1. The board hopes to see a further decrease in congestion as a result of the new move.

Saturday afternoon line-ups still cause concern. They are not caused by demand for beer, but by lack of planning on the part of purchasers, a board official said. He urged customers to do their beer buying at hours when stores obviously will not be crowded.

2-Year-Old Cake

TORONTO, May 23 —(CP)— A two-year-old cake, inscribed "welcome home," awaited Flt.-Lt. C. Harold McCarthy when he returned to Toronto after 120 operational flights overseas. The cake, baked by his grandmother, who died a year ago, had been kept for his arrival.

Release 63,000

WELLESLEY, Mass., May 23 (AP) —Vice Admiral Randall Jacobs, chief of navy personnel, told the graduating class of Wellesley College yesterday that the women's branch of the United States Navy had released 63,000 men for sea duty.

E. A. Warfe Heads Young Britons

BELLEVILLE, May 23 (CP)—E. A. Warfe of Toronto was elected grand master of the Loyal Orange Young Briton Association of British America at the 63rd annual convention here Saturday.

Other officers included: Everett Gardiner, Brockville, deputy grand master; T. P. Hackett, Ottawa, grand chaplain; J. Birch, Ottawa, grand orator; J. Edward, Smiths Falls.

Belleville was chosen again for the 1945 session.

Priest Reinstated

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 23—(AP)—Rev. Stanislaus Orlemanski made his first public appearance since his dramatic 26-day trip to Moscow to meet Marshal Josef Stalin and celebrated two masses at the church of Our Lady of the Rosary, where he is pastor.

"Wear-Ever" is Still at War!

But, Patience, "W-E" Will Be Back!

If you prefer to cook in "Wear-Ever", but cannot buy these utensils . . . don't let it get you down. Cheer up and carry on . . . take care of the precious "Wear-Ever" you now have . . . keep smiling and hope for the speedy return of your favorite Aluminum Cooking Utensils to your dealer's shelves. When aluminum is available . . . our factory will again manufacture "Wear-Ever".

"Wear-Ever"
Aluminum Cooking Utensils
144N

"Home Sweet Home" Trio
Of Brantford, Ontario.

MAY 24th IS Youth Rally Day
AT
Free Methodist Church
(296 Aylmer St.)

GUEST SPEAKERS
EVANGELIST A. L. McGUIRE
DISTRICT SUPT. REV. R. L. CASEMENT

Services
10.30 a.m., 2.0 p.m., 7.30 p.m.
TUNE IN CHEX 8.03-8.30 P.M.
PRAY — PLAN — COME
REV. B. E. DAWSON, Pastor

DAWN BREAKS ON WAR ZONE—Dawn breaks upon the cross of Christ at the bow of a U.S. coastguard combat cutter protecting an Allied convoy moving into the zone of war, led by Navy Lt. (J.G.) Stewart Rankin, chaplain from Putnam, N.Y. The coastguardsmen sing the Glory of the Cross at this impressive service in the forecastle under the guns loaded to battle with their enemies.

C.D.S.—THE STORE FOR YOUNG CANADA HAILS THE HIGH SCHOOL FARMER

A young army moves forward. Forward to wage war against weeds . . . to create havoc among potato bugs. Forward to pick and prune and spray and pack. Forward to man tractors . . . to milk cows . . . to hoe in the hot sun.

Canadian students, staunch substitutes for the freckled-face farm boy who fights in Italy, assemble this summer as a farming force. A force whose objective is food . . . food measured in millions of eggs . . . in tons of butter . . . in seas of grain. Food to feed their fellow countrymen, to accompany invasion.

C.D.S., The Store For Young Canada, feels a very real respect for such fighters. We salute them one and all . . . gallant youngsters who pitch in to a hard job with the same rousing enthusiasm they lend to sports meets or swing sessions.

CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Store will remain closed Wednesday, May 24th

POST-WAR RECONSTRUCTION

INTEGRITY, experience and business capacity must be given full opportunity to contribute to post-war reconstruction. These qualities are fully as important to the bank in considering applications for loans as are the material resources of borrowers. Indeed, when possessed in high degree, these personal factors often weigh more with the bank than other considerations.

It will be the policy of The Royal Bank of Canada to extend liberal financial assistance to promising business undertakings, whether large or small, new or old, when under reliable management.

What is PRIVATE ENTERPRISE?
It is the natural desire to make your own way, as far as your ability will take you; an instinct that has brought to this continent the highest standard of life enjoyed by any people on earth. It is the spirit of democracy on the march . . .

THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA

Telephones
Examiner ............ 4641
CHEX ............ 4641
Nights after 6 p.m., Sundays, Holidays
Examiner ............ 4641
CHEX ............ 4643

Evening Peterborough Examiner

NIGHT FINAL

VOL. LXXXIX, No. 123 — WEATHER Fair and warm. — PETERBOROUGH, THURSDAY, MAY 25, 1944 ★★ — PRICE FOUR CENTS

Canadian Drive Routs Nazis
4000 Planes Hit West Wall

DEDICATE CANADIAN CEMETERY IN ITALY — Maj.-Gen. C. Vokes, D.S.O., of Ottawa, in the picture on the Left speaks to Canadian soldiers during the dedication of a Canadian cemetery in Italy. The chapel, shown on the Right, was bombed by the Germans but will be restored and used as a shrine to the Canadians who fell in Italy. (Canadian Army Overseas Photo)

Toulon Port And Lyon Battered Too

Airfields, Railyards Heavily Pounded In France, Belgium

By GLADWIN HILL
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 25—(AP).—Masses of planes estimated to total 5,500 bombed the Germans in north and south France, Belgium, northern Italy and the Reich itself today in great-co-ordinated assaults from Britain and Italy.

Around 4,000 assaulted the west wall of Europe, with 1,000 U.S. heavy bombers plunging their explosives into rail yards and airfields of northern France and Belgium, while Berlin and the west German transport centre of Aachen still smouldered from pre-dawn attacks of 500 to 750 R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. heavy bombers.

Simultaneously, the heavy bombers from Italy struck in southern France at the naval base of Toulon, graveyard of the scuttled French feet, and at Lyon on the Rhone River—a historic invasion path. Rail installations at both cities were targets.

Heavy Flak.

Processions miles long of up to 1,000 heavy bombers shepherded by at least 500 righters, encountered suddenly increased resistance from the invasion-threatened ground, as they smote ruthlessly at enemy military targets close to this great invasion base.

The enemy did not care to risk his dwindling air force, but augmented the regular flak barrage with curtains of rocket fire, destroying several of the great four-engined craft in green and black explosions.

The British and Canadian night bombers attacked the choked rail yards of Aachen in Western Germany last night in two waves, spaced two hours apart. They spotted another sign of Nazi invasion preparations — blazing strings of searchlights all along the coast.

The strike of the Mediterranean Allied Air Forces from the south was the second time in two days that Hitler's fortress had been under attack from two directions.

The Carnoules yards, 15 miles northeast of Toulon, were bombed and other heavy bombers attacked the Lyon area, results of which were not immediately reported.

Mediterranean Allied Air Force headquarters announced that 3,300 sorties were flown yesterday, rather than the 2,950 record previously announced.

Lyon is a key rail centre feeding Southern French ports and is 170 miles into the interior of France. By 5 p.m. it was estimated that 7,500 tons of bombs had been cast upon the Germans since midnight and the planes were still at work.

R.A.F. and Allied planes also were shot down.

Military targets in and near three of Europe's capitals—Berlin, Paris, and Vienna—formed the major objectives of yesterday's air offensive, history's greatest aerial assault against Europe. Flying from both

RAIL YARDS
(Continued on Page 8, Column 5)

Six Nations Indians Object To Suggestion That Government Abolish Existing Reserves

BRANTFORD, May 25 — (CP) — Indians in Canada are loyal to Canada and the Crown, but are proud of the own individuality as a people occupying their own land, William F. Powless, Secretary of the Six Nations Council, said today.

He was commenting on a report from Ottawa in which T. R. L. MacInnis, Secretary of the Indian Affairs Branch of the Resources Department, told the Commons committee on reconstruction that Indians in Eastern Canada "should be divorced entirely from the reserves . . . it is their own salvation."

Mr. Powless said members of the Six Nations Indian reservation "are certainly not in accord with such a view." Any attempt at such action would cause feeling to "run high."

He added: "Any such action would contravene the terms of the Haldimand Treaty made between the Six Nations Reserve and the Imperial Government. By that treaty, our nation was guaranteed this reservation forever."

Bitter Liri Valley Battle Cost Canadians Many Men

By DOUG HOW—Canadian Press War Correspondent

WITH THE CANADIAN CORPS IN ITALY, May 25—(CP Cable).—There is nothing nice about this story. It concerns headquarters of a Western Canadian battalion that in one savage day fought through pillboxes, anti-tank positions, mines, machine-guns, snipers and Germans strung across the Liri Valley and called the Hitler line.

The Canadians smashed the Hitler line Tuesday. History will call it a glorious feat.

But the men who did it weren't thinking of glory or history that overcast day. They were thinking of those who didn't come back to tell the story, of those still up there, unheard from for hours, of an enemy who is supposed to have fled north but who is still a virile foe.

Fresh Canadian armor and infantry pushed through the breach in the Hitler line yesterday and the main body of the enemy moved back. But all day, German shells bit into the soil around headquarters that consists of a house, a dugout, slit trenches in fields filled with trees and high with grass.

Resistance Heavy.

All day long what they call enemy pockets of resistance resisted. You could hear their machine-guns and ours from here. Another patrol left to seek them out. Another had gone shortly before.

Briefly, tersely and bluntly, this battalion's rifle companies were cut up badly.

A young colonel climbed down into a slit trench and pointed to a point on a map where two forward companies were supposed to be. Patrols had been sent out to locate them, but they hadn't come back. Walking wounded had come back but their stories hadn't helped form a coherent, definite picture.

The colonel's finger moved back and located on the map the line where the enemy, behind 20-foot wire entanglements, had killed and wounded many of his men. His finger pointed out minefields that had halted British tanks supporting his battalion.

Then he waved his hand and said: "That's just up ahead here. You can imagine what happens to tanks in country like this."

Leafy trees, the grass and slope after slope explained the statement. It told the story of nature's part in the battle of the Hitler Line. It wasn't our ally.

The colonel's men had fought hard and lost heavily before. They were in the fighting in Sicily and earlier in the Italian campaign but seldom if ever had they gone through a day that riddled their ranks as had this bloody day in the Liri valley.

Suddenly shells started falling again. Five of us crouched in one slit trench. A private in words that

BITTER LIRI VALLEY
(Continued on Page 2, Column 2)

Allies Gaining In Myitkyina

CHUNGKING, May 25 — (AP) — Allied forces beseiging Myitkyina in northern Burma continued to make slow but steady progress yesterday in their street-by-street fight to drive the Japanese from the city, while to the northwest the Chinese 22nd Division forged ahead five miles along the Mogaung River, Lt.-Col. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters announced today.

The communique described the progress at Myitkyina as "satisfactory," but indicated the enemy still was resisting desperately. It said the Japanese counter-attacked at several points but were thrown back, while their patrols were repulsed in attempts to penetrate Allied positions around the Myitkyina airport.

The airport was seized by the Allies a week ago.

The communique did not specify the sector where the Chinese 22nd Division had scored its gains except to say that it was west of the Mogaung river, along which Allied troops are advancing southward toward Magaung.

Chineses forces on the Salween front also occupied Tatangzu, mountain village 29 miles northeast of Tengchung after annihilating more than 1,000 encircled Japanese who had held out since the start of the Chinese drive along the Burma road 15 days ago, Field dispatches reported.

Other dispatches from the Honan front in Central China, offering no confirmation of Japanese claims to capture of the historic city of Loyang, said fighting there was growing in intensity.

It was admitted, however, a Chinese counter-offensive in Honan had stalled.

Newspapers Hit

MONTREAL, May 25.— (CP).—Lack of Canadian newsprint has compelled South African publishers to reduce the size of their newspapers from 16 to in some instances as few as two pages, Dr. Henry Laurjey, Canadian High Commissioner to South Africa, said here yesterday.

Pile-Driver Tank Attack Sweeps Up Liri Valley And Across The Melfa River

Motor Battalion Holds Strong Position
Canadians Take Pontecorvo
500 German Prisoners Taken

By DOUGLAS AMARON—Canadian Press War Correspondent

WITH THE CANADIAN CORPS IN ITALY, May 25—(CP Cable).—Infantry and tanks of the Canadian Corps consolidated positions on the banks of the Melfa River, five miles northwest of captured Pontecorvo, today after a rapid drive which netted at least 500 prisoners. Enemy opposition stiffened after the Canadians had taken the Liri Valley town, one of the most stubbornly-defended points in the broken Hitler line, but troops of a Western Canada motor battalion held a firm base astride the river south of Highway 6—the road to Rome.

Ontario infantry and Western Canadian tanks established themselves on the southern bank. A task force of Ontario reconnaissance squadrons and Maritime infantry reached the Melfa where it flows into the Liri. Leading reconnaissance elements already have crossed the river.

The Canadian corps, leaving the shattered Hitler line in the rear, drove northwest through the Liri valley yesterday. By mid-afternoon the day's objectives were reached and the first tanks were reported to have forded the wide but shallow Melfa, which flows into the Liri River from the north.

Move In Lorries.

The infantrymen moved up in lorries, following closely behind the tanks.

Mines and a small amount of shelling and mortaring provided the chief obstacles to the Canadian thrust, which began yesterday morning from the Aquino-Pontecorvo and slight south of the Via Casilina, the main Cassino-Rome highway.

The Germans still are clinging stubbornly to the northern end of the Hitler line where British troops of the 8th Army, with Canadian tank support are fighting west of the Aquano airfield and Polish formations are locked in a grim street duel with enemy paratroopers at Piedimonte, northern anchor of the line six miles northeast of Pontecorvo

But south of this anchor position, the front defintely is broken wide

CANADIANS
(Continued on Page 8, Column 3)

Allied Forces Reach AnzioBeachhead

NAPLES, May 25 — (CP) — The Allied forces on the Anzio beachhead joined up today with American troops of the 5th Army from the main front to open a new phase in the 14-day-old battle of Rome. A special communique from Allied headquarters, announcing the junction of patrols from the two Allied fronts, said the meeting climaxed a roughshod advance by troops of the 5th Army of more than 60 miles since the attack began between Cassino and the Tyrrhenian Sea the night of May 11.

Other points which have fallen include Sonnino, in the mountains 10 miles north of Terracina, the coastal town whose capture by American troops was announced yesterday.

New Threat.

(The German communique hinted at a new threat north-west of the beachhead, declaring Allied troops had landed behind the German lines on the western wing of the beachhead but had been annihilated. There was no Allied confirmation. Earlier, the Germans had announced withdrawal from the entire coastal strip between the beachhead and Terracina. The communique said the Allies were employing "enormous" tank formations in a series of crushing attacks.)

The Allied beachhead was established by a landing late on January 22 in which British and American units of the 5th Army got ashore with little opposition. Subsequently the Germans launched bitter counter-attacks, but the beachhead was held.

A special force of Commando-type Canadian and American soldiers also has been operating on

AMERICANS REACH
(Continued on Page 8, Column 4)

Beat Depression With Trade Claxton Says

NEW YORK, May 25 — (CP).—Brooke Claxton, chairman of the Canadian - American Commercial Arbitration Commission and Parliamentary Assistant to Prime Minister MacKenzie King, said to-day that Canada as the third greatest trading nation in the world, was vitally concerned in the expansion of trade "until all the countries of the world are exchanging all the surpluses of the goods and services they can produce at peak production."

In an address prepared for delivery to the world trade luncheon. Mr. Claxton said that for both Canada and the United States the difference between the years 1932 and 1943 was the difference between "depression, restriction and scarcity in 1932 and in 1943 the highest scale of production, the highest national income, and, despite the colossal demands of war, the highest individual standards of living that most of our citizens have ever known."

"Our 1943 record was achieved because the common danger we are facing led us to work together. Under the Hyde Park declaration of 1941, between your President and our Prime Minister, we achieved degree of economic co-operation never before achieved between any two countries. We did that under the incentive of immediate fear.

"The question is, can we do equally simple and sensible things in peace? Can we act sensibly without the immediate incentive of fear? Will we forget our war-won knowledge that if we don't promote

BEAT DEPRESSION
(Continued on Page 2, Column 3)

Should Notify Them

MONROVIA, Calif., May 25 (AP).—Vice-Admiral Raymond A. Spruance recently came back from his Central Pacific command for his first visit home since the war started. Instead of a hero's welcome, he found his family didn't know he was coming, and had gone out for dinner. The Admiral raided the ice box, then moped around until the folks came home.

2 Jap Airfields Next Objective

ADVANCED ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, May 25—(AP)—Two Japanese airfields fringing Maffin Bay were the prime objective of reinforced American troops pressing west today against heavy artillery and machine-gun fire from their Tor River bridgehead on the north coast of Netherlands New Guinea.

One partially-completed airfield was 3½ miles ahead of the Americans, who crossed the river after a five-day stalemate. An equal distance beyond is the serviceable Sawar airstrip.

The Americans met resistance strong enough to indicate the enemy is going to make a fight for the Maffin Bay sector, some 120 miles northwest of captured Hollandia.

Headquarters reported aerial blows to east and west, and north to Truk in the Carolines where 84 tons of bombs were unloaded by unescorted heavy bombers. The enemy sent up 40 interceptors at Truk and two, possibly five, were shot down. One bomber was lost.

American patrols moving toward the enemy's base at Wewak from their Aitape beachhead on northeastern New Guinea were cut off for a few hours Monday by an enemy attack, but managed to reform their outpost, 35 miles southeast of Aitape after a fierce fight in which they were supported by Australian-flown fighter bombers.

At Empress Augusta Bay on Bougainville Island, 570 dead Japanese were found near the Allied positions. Only a few days ago 250 bodies were discovered in an abandoned hospital nearby.

Patrols in the Hollandia area reported finding Japanese who had perished of "disease, starvation and privation" in the New Guinea jungles where they had sought refuge from the Allied invaders.

7 Dead, 35 Hurt As Fire Traps Dancers

HAMILTON May 25. — (CP).—Death toll in a dance- hall fire here Tuesday night rose to-day to seven with the death in hospital of Mrs. Isobel Numbers, 38, whose husband had died earlier as a result of the blaze.

Six of those who perished were married couples. Thirty-five others were injured, with one of them—Miss Masie Clark — reported by Hamilton General Hospital to be in critical condition.

Fire Chief William Murdock said the cause of the fire which destroyed the Moose Temple has not yet been established. Apparently it broke out on the main floor near a stairway which was the only means of reaching or leaving the dance floor above.

Chief Murdoch said once the fire reached the second floor the dancers were trapped like passengers on a torpedoed boat.

The Board of Control to-day opened a study of fire hazards and building requirements in a move to prevent a repetition of the tragedy.

Exit Cut Off

Almost immediately after the first cry of "fire" flames cut off the only stairway to the street. One man got out that way; the other dancers jumped or were pushed through windows 30 feet above the street. Almost all were burned by flames sucked up the stairs into the second-floor dance hall.

Only one woman died in the Moose Hall itself. She was Mrs. Roy Martin, 35, whose body was found by firemen in a chair where she apparently collapsed after being separated from her husband in the panic. The other dead:—

Leave Families

James Numbers, 39.

William Cleland, 40, and Mrs. Sarah Cleland, his wife, the parents of five children.

William Whitley, 41, and Mrs. Anne Whitley, 41, his wife, also the parents of five children.

Besides Mrs. Numbers and Miss Clark, those reported early today by hospital authorities to be in grave condition were:—

Mrs. Flora Wells, 47, second and third degree burns on both legs, arms, shoulders and face; condition slightly improved.

Gordon Hamilton, 45, a director of the Royal Oak Dairy who suffered fractures of both wrists, fractured ribs and burns; conditoin unchanged.

Mrs. Annie Shaw, 38, fractured pelvis and shoulder, laceration of left leg; condition fairly good and a little better.

Mrs. Hazel Lindsay, 42, burns on

6 DEAD, 36 HURT
(Continued on Page 8, Column 4)

Yugoslav Front Mass Of Flame

LONDON, May 25 — (AP) — The irregular Yugoslav front has erupted into a mass of flashing guns and raging battles, with many Germans slain, a communique from the headquarters of Marshal Josip Broz (Tito) announced today.

Units of the army of liberation surged forward in Hercegovina, and one brigade defeated enemy forces at Cemerno and threw them back to Gacko with heavy losses, the broadcast bulletin said.

Units of the 29th Yugoslav Division attacked so fiercely on the Stolac sector in southern Yugoslavia that 6,500 Germans and Chetniks were routed, the communique added.

The Germans and Chetniks are being pounded on the borders of Montenegro and Sandjak in violent battles, and in all other sectors, notably Croatia, west central Bosnit and Slovenia, fighting is raging with the Germans constantly on the defence, the communique added.

$15 TRAVEL CEILING

OTTAWA—The new $15 ceiling payable by members of the armed forces when travelling home on annual leave or embarkation leave in Canada becomes effective June 1, the Defence Department said today.

Greek Mutiny Easily Quelled

CAIRO, May 25 (CP-Reuters)—A 10-minute burst of fire ended a mutiny by Greek troops, mentioned in the House of Commons yesterday by Prime Minister Churchill, at a desert camp not far from El Alamein.

The action ended a series of unhappy incidents among the Greek forces which cost the life of one British officer.

The unit which mutinied was the First Greek Brigade and the mutineers were compelled to lay down their arms by the action of British troops supported by tanks.

The British forces advanced under

GREEK MUTINY
(Continued on Page 2, Column 3)

Heavy Artillery Is Demand

U.S. Production Calls For Large Increases

WASHINGTON, May 25 — (AP) — A tremendous shift in army supply plans to heavy artillery and big-gun ammunition was viewed in production quarters today as evidence that the United States army may be laying plans for possibly long and costly inland fighting after invasion beachheads are secured in Europe.

The new ammunition program—up an average 400 to 500 per cent more than current schedules and representing a dollar increase of about $750,000,000 for the next 16 months—calls for reopening some production facilities that have been closed or placed on a standby basis.

Officials who disclosed the new program noted also it will place a new strain on the Nylon industry to provide the bags for powder charges, and lay still heavier demands on the already burdened ammonia and alcohol facilities.

The guns on which new emphasis is being placed as a result of battle experience the 155-millimetre Howitzer, the eight-inch gun, the 240-mm. weapaon and the 155-mm gun, or "long Tom."

WAR BULLETINS

Allies Gain Slowly In Northern Burma

BURMA: Stilwell's forces engage in heavy street fighting with Japs for Myitkyina in Northern Burma. Japs stalled near Imphal.

• • • •

Thunderous Raids Spread Ruin Over Europe

AERIAL: 4,000 planes smash at west wall; R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. hit Aachen railyards, Belgian and French targets, on Wednesday night. Mosquitoes raid Berlin

• • • •

More Fire Victims Expected To Die From Injuries

HAMILTON: Board of Control studies fire hazards after dance hall disaster which killed seven and injured 35.

• • • •

Germans Retreating Rapidly Across Italy

ITALY: Canadians sweep up Liri valley, occupy Pontecorvo; American troops join comrades on Anzio beachhead; Sonnino, Terracina captured.

• • • •

Maffin Bay Airports Now Under Fire

SOUTH PACIFIC: Jap airfields threatened by Allied advance across New Guinea.

Huns Driven To Fight Allies

TORONTO, May 25 (CP)—L.Cpl. Chris Davino, 32, of Hamilton, who lost an eye Christmas Day near Ortona, today saw his year-old daughter, Christina, for the first time. He was among 84 soldiers who returned today from overseas, 29 being sent to Christie Street Hospital.

Pte. Harvey Bouffard of North Bay, Ont., also was among the returning servicemen. He said: "Our officers lead us into battle, but the Jerries we encountered were driven by their officers who urged them on from the rear."

Cpl. J. R. Gilchrist of Windsor, Ont., a member of the Essex Scottish Regiment who was captured at Dieppe, also was among the returning men. He spent three months in a German prison camp and was repatriated to Britain last October.

Lieut. J. F. Wallace of Barrie, Ont., who won the Military Cross in Italy, also has returned to Canada.

EXTRA!

LONDON—Aquino, Liri Valley town in Italy under attack by the British 8th Army, was evacuated by the Germans this afternoon, Capt. Ludwig Sertorious, German military commentator, said to-night.

The Weather

Peterborough Temperatures:

Today:
Night low. 58 — Noon .... 64
Yesterday:
Highest....75 — Lowest....56
One Year Ago:
Highest....70 — Lowest....42

Weather Forecast:

Georgian Bay — Moderate winds; fair and warm to-day and most of Friday, followed by thundershowers in west portion.

Lower Lake Region — Partly cloudy and moderately warm to-day. Friday: Moderate winds, generally fair and warm; scattered thundershowers in the west portion Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence Valleys — Moderate winds; fair and warm to-day and Friday.

Jap Casualties Reported Heavy

KANDY, Ceylon, May 25 — (AP) — British and Indian troops are firmly holding their roadblock to the rear of enemy troops which attacked Imphal along the Tiddim Road from the south, Allied headquarters announced today.

From the roadblock position, offensive sweeps are further imperilling the Japanese invasion of India, the communique said.

Heavy enemy attacks along the Tamu-Palel road southeast of Imphal have been turned back, with many enemy soldier bodies counted and many others at the bottom of precipices where they could not be recovered, it was said.

May Break With Bulgars

Move Will Force U.S. Decision On Finnish Question

WASHINGTON, May 25 — (AP) — Diplomatic officials here consider it entirely possible that Russia may break with Bulgaria in the next few days. This would almost certainly force a new decision on the question of an American break with Finland.

The two situations are by no means similar in all respects, authorities said today, but they are described as similar enough so that a major development in one would immediately involve the other.

Moreover, there is a general tightening up and adoption of serner measures all along the satellite front of Bulgaria, Finland, Hungary and Romania. This dates from the issuance of a British-Russian-American warning to the satellites two weeks ago that if they expect relatively lenient armistice terms they had better try to get out of the war while such action will be of help to the Allies.

RadioCommittee Reviews News Broadcasts

OTTAWA, May 25.—(CP).—After a brief afternoon session yesterday the Commons Radio committee wound up hearing of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation evidence and prepared for a final cleanup session next week after which it will meet in camera to draw up a report.

After questioning Dan. C. McArthur of the C.B.C. News Service, members said they had heard enough and asked for adjournment.

In a morning session Mr. McArthur defends the integrity and lack of bias of the CBC news service. In the afternoon he said cost of the service was made up of $40,000 to The Canadian Press and $25,000 to the British United Press for their services and $20,000 to the wire companies for lines and teletype rentals.

He said there also was the cost of CBC news staff salaries to be reckoned. Formerly, he added, The Canadian Press has supplied a news bulletin service, not as comprehensive as the CBC service, at a cost of about $20,000 annually.

Dr. J. J. McCann (L—Renfrew South) asked Mr. McArthur if the increased cost involved in the establishment of the CBC's own service seemed warranted by the results obtained.

Mr. McArthur replied this was a difficult question to answer. He said The Canadian Press had supplied "an excellent service which was as dependable and objective then as it is now for it is used as our basic source of news."

Dr. McCann said it must be remembered that if the CBC so desired they could sell their news bolletins at a "handsome profit" if they wanted to "go commercial" but the CBC was desirious of keeping Canada's national bulletin "untinted."

Free From Bias

John Diefenbaker (PC—Lake Centre) said he wanted to compliment the CBC News Service and go on record as saying it was free from bias and was weighted neither to one side nor the other.

Paul Martin, parliamentary assistant to Labor Minister Mitchell, said news over the radio should be kept free from color and political bias as the news in the press.

M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, interjected: "No, we want to keep it freer than the news in the press."

Mr. Martin replied: "Well, it (the press) is free from any government or party interference."

Dr. McArthur said he felt sure CBC editors would resign rather than give in to any pressure to color the news.

The committee agreed to call either Munitions Minister Howe or one of his assistants to give an answer on division of authority as between the CBC Board of Governors and the Munitions Department. The agreement came after it was ascertained the department had the final say on the allocation of radio station licenses during wartime.

The question arose in connection with the granting of station applications from Saskatchewan, where Mr. Diefenbaker said he was especially interested in Prince Albert. There, he said, a station had given good public service for the last 18 years and now was faced with possible competition from a French station and a station to be sponsored by the newspaper Herald of that city.

Dr. Frigon said he did not like to disclose his knowledge of the negotiations.

Regarding the Herald's application, Mr. Coldwell said: "I don't think newspapers should be allowed a monopoly on news in any one area and I don't think they should be allowed to control radio stations."

NOTHING GLOOMY ABOUT OUR KING AT FLEET INSPECTION — King George enjoys a laugh with the commander of the British Home Fleet, Sir Bruce Fraser, during his recent inspection of the fleet at its base.

Says RAF Officers Were Murdered

LONDON, May 25—(CP).—Shooting of 47 air officers, including six Canadians, after a mass escape from a German prison camp, was "murder and nothing else," Lord Vanstittart declared in the House of Lords today and urged that Britain inform the Nazis the entire camp personnel would be put on trial after the war.

Proposing that Britain institute her own inquiry into the incident, reported last week to the House of Commons by Foreign Secretary Eden, Lord Vanstittart said: "We all know the old German pretext of shooting while attempting flight. That formula was in use for many years before the war. It is the hoariest and most flimsy pretext for massacre.

"It is quite impossible that 47 men should have been shot dead without one being wounded. Obviously these men were not shot at a distance. I think they were lined up and mown down....

"The Germans have frequently threatened our bombers in the past. They knew full well this was butchery and that is why they tried to conceal it for so long."

The actual shooting took place March 25 but Mr. Eden told the House of Commons that representatives of Switzerland, the protecting power, were informed of the incident by the Germans only during a routine visit to the camp April 17.

"I am president of the Prisoners of War Relatives Association," Lord Vanstittart said. "I had not had time to consult my organization but I know some of them at least will be in agreement with me when I say in advance that I will not accept any explanation or extentuation put forward by the Huns through the protecting power. That will merely be a collection of lies."

Lord Vansittart said if the Germans "should put on trial any British airmen they shoto down, as it is reported they are threatening to do, we should try the judges."

Sunday Schools Meet For Convention

LAKEFIELD, May 25 (ENS) — Canada is faced with a 50 per cent. chance of becoming a pagan civilization, according to Sunday School Statistics, which show that only 50 per cent. of the children of today attend Sunday School, stated Rev. F. R. Vanderburgh, of Oakwood, representative of the Religious Education council of Canada in an address at the annual Sunday School Convention held in Lakefield Presbyterian church on Wednesday.

At the convention were delegates from Smith township, Harvey township and Lakefield village.

Rev. L. M. Sharpe, pastor of the church, in a welcoming address said he was pleased to see so many out.

Church Can Help

Rev. Vanderburgh as guest speaker spoke on "Some Home Problems in which the church can help". The first problem dealt with was preference—all through life people are challenged to make decisions and their preferences have a tremendous influence on their lives. Preferences also are at the bottom of world wars some nations prefering one nation to another.

Discipline was the second problem on which the speaker spoke. "Discipline comes slowly and should be a matter of talking things over if we would have a democratic world. Families should discuss their problems, and in this way stop the next world war now, he declared.

Mrs. W. Bell of Fairview reported on the year's activities.

Rev. Vanderburgh announced a Young People's camp to be held at Oak Lake on July 22 to 29, and Miss Phyllis Moore announced that a summer school will be held at Beaverton from July 29 to August 6.

Miss Moore and Mrs. E. Jory were named as the resolutions committee, and Mrs. Harrison, Braden Mann, H. Lewis and H. Powell were named nominating committee.

Forum Discussion

An enthusiastic open forum was conducted by Rev. Vanderburgh on "Parent-teacher relationship." Miss Moore and Mr. Powell gave readings to illustrate the influence this relationship had as to whether or not the child of the home attended Sunday School.

Rev. George Kelly said it shows that the teacher is interested in the child if she calls at his home. Grattan Telford stated teachers must show interest in the child to get them out to Sunday School. Mr. Vanderburgh declared the community must be made church conscious. It was suggested that Sunday School be made more interesting so that the children wished to go instead of being forced to go.

Rev. Kelly said it was an amazing thing to him sometimes that people went to church, not that they stayed at home, but he felt that the children should be encouraged to do things they don't like doing as they find they have to do this a great deal later on in life. It is a false philosophy that allows today's youth to evade things they don't like to do. A real challenge is presented to the home today. A pleasing interlude was a solo by Mrs. Guy Peel.

Although the Mr. Vanderburgh criticized the parents for not taking their children to Sunday School, when they called for the reports from the departmental superintendents only three were present to give their reports, showing that the parents were not entirely alone in lack of interest in Sunday School work.

Miss Phyllis Moore gave an interesting address on the girls' work, Braden Mann gave teachers present suggestions for the year's work with the boys' classes and Mrs. Arthur Hancock gave a report for the missionary department.

Improvements

Discussion on "Things we would like to see in our township" was then directed by Mr. Vanderburgh which contained four thoughts, namely Vacation Schools, Leadership Training Schools, Week day Religous Education and Camps. A book display was given and all delegates went in to a lovely dinner prepared by the women of St. Andrew's Church.

Bridgenorth Sunday School was in charge of the worship portion of the evening session. Those taking part were Rev. Mr. Mutton, general thanksgiving; W. A. Sidey, prayer; Olive Sidey, the Scripture reading; E. Ball, poem. Rev. Mr. Sharpe answered questions. Submitted that the boys and girls ask the teachers.

Name Officers.

Miss Olive Bell presented the slate of officers as follows: Past president, Bruce Clark; president, Robert Kitchen; vice-president, Eric Pearson; secretary-treasurer, Olive Bell; superintendents of the various departments were as follows: Children's Department, Mrs. Charles Hunter, Girls' Department Phyllis Moore, Boys' Department Braden Mann, Young People's Department Helen Kelly, Adult Department Mrs. H. Trude, Home Department Ruby Nicholls, Missionary Department Mrs. A. Hancock, Temperance Olive Sidey, Leadership Training Dr. McLean.

Mrs. E. Jory, reporting for the Resolutions Committee expressed appreciation to Mr. Vanderburgh and all who contributed to the program; suggested a remembrance card be sent to the past president Bruce Clark, now in the Navy; and expressions of sympathy to Mr. Moore and Dr. McLean, who are ill.

Olive Bell gave the treasurer's report which showed $55 spent during the year, leaving a small balance. The officers for the year were then installed by Mr. Vanderburgh. Curve Lake Sunday School Choir sang an anthem.

Home Important.

The home as an agency of Christian Education was the topic Rev. Mr. Vanderburgh chose for his evening address. He stated it is necessary for the home and church to co-operate. He gave a brief synopsis of the book "Until That Day," the story of the son of a Lutheran minister born in Germany, and how discussion was stifled in Germany after Hitler came into power, how the writer became the member of an underground movement to uphold religion, the death of his father by the Gestapo, and how he eventually escaped to the United States, were also dealt with. "If we would have a democratic nation," said the speaker, "we must begin at home. Two persons make a home, whether it be a beautiful edifice or of lowly structure, as long as love and God are there. The family should have fun nights together, and in closing the speaker asked his listeners not to take home relationships too lightly; they are the grandest things in the world and our boys and girls of to-day are our men and women of to-morrow."

The service concluded with a hymn and prayer by Mr. Sharpe. Rev. George Kelly was chairman for both sessions.

SOFTENING UP THE JAP—U.S. bombings of the Kurile Islands caused Secretary of the U.S. Navy Frank Knox, shortly before his death, to hint broadly that the invasion was on the blue prints of the future, meanwhile the "softening up" process goes on with still more bombings of the islands. Map shows the long chain of islands as they lead to the back door to Tokyo and, in the dark area, a more detailed idea of some of the key bases.

Stern Treatment Promised Japan, Germany

LONDON, May 25—(CP)—Both Germany and Japan have been served with a warning by Prime Minister Churchill that they must expect stern treatment at the hands of the United Nations when the war is won.

In his review of foreign affairs in the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. Churchill said there was no guarantee against Germany suffering territorial changes after the war if that seemed necessary for future peace. He placed Japan also beyond all hope of negotiation short of utter capitulation.

"The principle of unconditional surrender will be adhered to as far as Nazi German and Japan are concerned," the Prime Minister said in his speech.

Some observers here believed, however, that Mr. Churchill's remarks suggested the Axis satellite powers might be confronted with less sweeping conditions.

Tribute To Spain

The review also advocated a post-war world organization armed with "overwhelming military power" to maintain peace and advised Turkey and Spain, politely but firmly, that an Allied victory was coming with or without support of new recruits.

Mr. Churchill defended Britain's attitude towards Spain and the government of Gen. Franco, recalling that Spain has not lined up with the Axis powers by declaring war on Britain when Britain and the Empire stood along against Germany.

Referring to the conference of British Commonwealth prime ministers in London, Mr. Churchill said the Commonwealth and Empire had discussed and solved all their major immediate problems and were ranged in unity with the Allies "to beat the enemy as soon as possible."

As for Italy, Mr. Churchill reaffirmed previous statements that after the war the Italian people would be permitted to determine their own form of Democratic government.

He announced that he had invited Gen. Charles de Gaulle, leader of the French Committee of National Liberation, to visit London.

STERN TREATMENT

(Continued on Page 8, Column 4)

Suggests Badge

MONTREAL, May 25 (CP).—Canadian mothers, whose sons and daughters "have taken up arms for God, king and country," should be asked to wear "some badge, some bit of ribbon" to distinguish their sacrifice, Maj.-Gen. L. R. LaFleche, Minister of National War Services, suggested here yesterday.

CULTURAL EXPANSION

The Harvard cultural library has about doubled in size every 20 years for more than a century.

Cheese, Produce and Livestock

TORONTO FRUIT

TORONTO, May 25 — (CP) — Wholesale fruit and vegetable prices were unchanged here today with the following exceptions: Domestic, asparagus 90c-$1.25 11-qt. bskt., radishes 20c-25c, spinach 50c-75c.

TORONTO HOGS

TORONTO, May 25 — (CP) — Prices were unchanged at bacon-hog markets reporting early today.

Dressedweight: Stratford, A $17.25, B1 $16.85 delivered; London A $17.25, delivered; Hull A $17.40, delivered; Barrie A $17.40, B1 $17. delivered.

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, May 25 — (CP) — Canadian Commodity Exchange. Spot: Butter, Que. (92 Score) 33⅛-33¾; eggs, B1, eastern A-large 34¾-35¼; A-medium 32¾-33¼; A-pullets 27¾-28¼; E-B 30-30½; E-C 24½-25.

Futures: May butter 33⅜A; eggs 34B.

TORONTO PRODUCE

TORONTO, May 25 — (CP) — Eggs: Wholesale to retail unchanged, A large 37c, A medium 35c, A pullet 31c, B 33c, C 30c, country shippers quoted on graded eggs cases free down ½ cents doz. A large 34½c-35c A medium 32½c-33c, A pullet 26½c-27½c, B 29½c-30c, C 26½c-27½c.

Butter: First grade solids 33½c, second 31½c-32½c.

TORONTO LIVESTOCK

TORONTO, May 25 — (CP) — Cattle trade was slow up to mid-session on the livestock market here today with prices about steady on steers and heifers and a shade lower on bulls. Veal calves, hogs and the few sheep offered were steady. No lambs were ofered.

Receipts reported by the Dominion Marketing Service were: Cattle 400; calves 600; hogs 800; sheep 10. Unsold from Tuesday were 200 head of cattle.

Prices in the trade included:

Cattle: Weighty steers $11.50-$12.50; butcher steers $10.50-$12, a few heifers $10.75-$11.50; butcher cows steady $8-$9.75; canners and cutters $5.50-$7.50; bulls $7-$9; fed yearlings $12-$13.25.

Veal calves: $14.50-$15 for choice, common to medium $7-$13.

Hogs: Grade A $17.65, sows $13 dressedweight.

Sheep: $4-$5.

Hog Quotations In Peterborough

THURSDAY, MAY 25

Grade A hogs $16.90 plus transportation

Sows: $12.00 plus transportation.

Eggs: A large 31c; A medium 29 cents; A pullet 23c; B grade 26c; C grade 23c.

The Quaker Oats Company quotes No. 2, $1.10; No. 3, $1.08; milling Ontario Winter Wheat No. 1, $1.10, oats 62c; buckwheat 68c.

Sports Spice

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sport Writer

NEW YORK, May 25 (AP)—Walter St. Denis, dean of Mike Jacobs' drum-beating staff, argues that the next heavyweight champion won't come out of the armed forces but will be a four-effer like Joe Baksi or Freddie Schott.... Maybe it's just a coincidence that Baksi and Schott are on Friday's Garden card, but Walter has a logical argument that fighters who are active in the ring have better chances of reaching the top than guys whose energies have been devoted to another kind of fighting.

A rookie a day:

Fermin (Mike) Guerra Senators' catcher: Rated just one line and no pro record in the Red Book this spring.... He's a Mexican who played in the Cuban Winter League.... Signed as a possible understudy to Rick Ferrell, Mike got his chance when Ferrell ripped a thumb trying to handle those butterfly pitches. Now Rick is the understudy as Guerra has been handling the pitchers expertly hitting in the .300 class and showing something that most catchers haven't—speed afoot.

Shorts and shells:

After the Giants blew that game for him Tuesday night Bill Voiselle was so mad he threw down his glove and gave it a couple of lusty kicks.... Whereupon a kid broke out of the crowd tucked the glove under his shirt and raced for an exit.... Tom O'Reilly who received his nautical training on Jacobs Beach has written a book "Purser's Progress" in which he takes liberties with his voyage on a Liberty ship. It should be the season's best yeller.

MORE ABOUT—

Bitter Liri Valley

Continued from Page 1

didn't sound funny at the time apologized to the colonel for kicking his leg as he dived in.

Shells kept coming for five minutes and they kept coming closer. They were heavy artillery shells. The colonel said "it's been that way all day."

Two-hundred yards away a dead Canadian lay face up by the roadside.

This is not a nice story. But it couldn't be any other sort if the truth is to be told.

St. Paul's Juveniles Defeat All Saints

In a hard-fought battle in which most of the scoring was done in the first three innings St. Paul's juveniles defeated All Saints in a Church League game Wednesday night, 13 to 11.

The Presbyterians really won the game in the first frame when they chased eight runs over the counting station. They came back with two in the second and three in the third and then were through for the night but it was enough.

All Saints, too, did most of their run-making early. They registered four times in the first and five in the second, and two more in the sixth closed the gap considerably.

St. Paul's—Courtney, 3b; L. Brown, p; Doughty, c; McNaught, cf; Barrett, 1b; J. Brwon, 2b; Hall, lf.

All Saints—Menzies, c; McDougall, p; Doughty, cf; Ellis, 1b; Cutmore, 2b; Outram, ss; Kidd, rf; Filer, 3b; Shadgett, lf; Franks, lf.

Umpires—Meredith and Easton.

MORE ABOUT—

Greek Mutiny

Continued from Page 1

a smoke screen towards the mutineers with orders not to fire unless they were fired on.

Of the two principal Greek outposts the first surrendered immediately but the second resisted for 10 minutes before the entire camp gave up.

Gen. Sir Bernard Paget, commander in chief in the Middle East, who assumed plenary powers of command on the breakdown of Greek military authority, indicated throughout the mutiny that he was not interested in what the Greeks called a political demonstration and he refused to accept the mutineers' view that a settlement lay in the hands of the political authorities.

MORE ABOUT—

Beat Depression

(Continued from Page 1)

trade on a vast scale another war will be inevitable?

"We know now that this war became inevitable because we failed to take steps we knew could and should be taken to make people prosperous."

Every nation would emerge from the war with greater capacity for self-sufficiency than ever before. Both the United States and Canada would have a surplus of specialized and highly-efficient productive capacity on an unprecedented scale and would be equipped to supply the world with a volume of goods more than triple peacetime exports.

The acquired foreign markets in which to dispose of surplus goods, Canada and the United States would have to buy "the things from the rest of the world that they can make best." The only alternative to accepting goods was either to give away surpluses or to face "mass unemployment."

Explosion Kills More Than 1,000

BARI, Italy, May 25 — (AP) — More than 1000 persons were killed by 70 direct hits on an ammunition dump and airport in an American heavy bomber attack on Podgorica in the southwest corner of Yugoslavia on May 5, a Partisan military mission headquarters reported today.

Among the killed, the Partisans declared, was Maj. George Lasic, one of the most important Chetnik officers of Gen. Draja Mihailovic.

Home and School

PRINCE OF WALES SCHOOL

Mrs. G. W. Hutchinson was re-elected president of the Prince of Wales Home and School Association, at the annual meeting and election of officers. Other members of the executive are as follows: vice-presidents, Mrs. G. Webb and Mrs. A. Harris; recording secretary, Mrs. Frank Gray; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. Lynch; treasurer, Mrs. J. Stuart; pianist, Mrs. C. Ross; executive members, Mrs. I. Rattenbury, Mrs. S. Watson, Mrs. B. Austin, Mrs. J. Donaldson, and Mrs. J. Godfrey; teacher's representative, Miss Gladys Coulter. Mrs. F. S. Harrison, a past-president of the association, presided for the election.

Mrs. Hutchinson was in charge of the business period, when annual report given showed that the association was striving to maintain Home and School ideals. Mrs. J. Stuart, Mrs. A. Halliday, Mrs. G. Webb and Mrs. Hutchinson, gave accounts of the Home and School convention, held in Toronto, in April.

A short program of entertainment was also presented. Mrs. Charles Huffman gave two humorous readings; Joan Austin played a piano solo, "Gypsy Rondo"; and Joy Edgar sang two solos, "Piper from over the Way," and "Lilac Tree."

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

Fred Perry's debut as a professional tennis player in England seven years ago to-day was marred by Ellsworth Vines, U.S. star, who defeated him 7-5, 6-8, 6-2, 4-6 6-3.

He Was Caught

LONDON, Ont., May 25—(CP).—Evidence that Lieut. Milton M. Shaw, Chatham, Ont., climbed through a window into the Canadian Women's Army Corps barracks at nearby Camp Ipperwash was given at a general court martial here which found him guilty of "conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline." It was announced today that Shaw, a member of the Camp Ipperwash staff, was sentenced to dismissal from the service.

Now—She Doesn't Feel Tired The Way She Used To

...And WHAT a Difference In Her Figure and Pep!

The pepless, exhausted feeling, common to many women, is often due to low blood count. Lack of sufficient red corpuscles, resulting from iron deficiency, may be robbing your body of vital oxygen. And you must have plenty of oxygen to help explode your energy and give you "going power".

Get Dr. Williams Pink Pills today. They are world-noted for the help they give in increasing the number and strength of red corpuscles. Then with blood count up, most people regain that glorious feeling of health and energy that gets them out of the old rocking chair into the activities they need to help restore a youthful, fit appearance. Don't delay—ask your druggist for Dr. Williams Pink Pills at once.

YOU CAN GET $20 to $1,000 ON YOUR CAR TODAY

If you are in need of cash and own a motor vehicle, you may borrow up to $1,000 at Campbell Finance Corporation. This all-Canadian company has been the leading specialist in auto loans for 17 years. Although you can now get cash on other loan plans at Campbell's, auto loans remain one of the quickest and most convenient ways of making a loan.

SPEED. You can usually get the cash you need the same day you apply.

NO ENDORSERS. Campbell's require no one else's signature but your own for auto loans.

All loans made in accordance with Wartime Prices and Trade Regulations.

44-18

CAMPBELL FINANCE CORPORATION LIMITED
OVER 100,000 SATISFIED CUSTOMERS

F. M. VIVASH, Branch Manager
169 Charlotte St. Phone 3520
(Above A & P Store)

Are You a Sufferer From Rheumatic Pains?

These pains come from an inflammation in the muscles and are generally caused by a deposit of poison in the blood called uric acid which produces the irritating and painful effect that causes many days and nights heavy with pain.

During the past 60 years Canadian people have found that by purifying the blood stream, Burdock Blood Bitters aids them to enjoy freer body movement with less rheumatic pain, as B. B. B. helps to tone up the system and clear up the uric acid in the blood, and probably help fortify the system against future attacks.

Price $1.00 a bottle at all drug counters.

The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

First Bottle Convinced Her Syntona Was Great Medicine

Was Nervous, Rundown And Full of Aches And Pains After A Serious Illness — Appetite Was Poor, Stomach Upset And She Couldn't Sleep.

MRS. OLIVE SPRING

All around us are grateful men and women who have used Syntona and found it to be just what they needed to put new energy in their rundown systems and to relieve common ailments of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Syntona produces these results by cleansing the system of irritating waste matter and by aiding in the proper assimilation of food to build strong, healthy nerves and sound bodies. Here, for example, is the interesting experience of Mrs. Olive Spring, 14 Keith Street, Hamilton, as verified only recently:

"Last summer I had a serious illness, and it left me very nervous and rundown. I suffered with dizzy, bilious spells, backache, headaches, and there were pains all through my arms and shoulders. Sometimes these pains were so bad I couldn't even sit up or do light work like knitting. At night gas crowded into my chest so badly I couldn't sleep to regain my strength and I just dreaded the thought of all the work that had to be done.

"It was then that Syntona was recommended to me, and I must say I began to feel better before I had finished the first bottle. It relieved me of that stomach gas, dizzy spells and headaches, so my nerves were better and I could sleep. Then, as I continued with the medicine, the pains gradually went away and my energy returned. For several months now, I have been able to do all the work for my family and I feel more happy and healthy in every way."

Let this grand herbal tonic help you, as it has hundreds of other local men and women. Syntona is pleasant to take and it contains no harmful drugs or depressors.

Syntona is sold and recommended in Peterborough at Elliott's Drug Store.—(Advt.)

"Constipation gone – this easy way"

"I'm delighted I found out about ALL-BRAN, for it ended my constipation woes. It rid me of taking nasty harsh purgatives—which never helped more than a day or so. Now, thank goodness, I'm an ALL-BRAN 'regular'. I wouldn't miss eating this gentle-acting cereal for worlds."

It's natural, if you suffer from constipation due to lack of "bulk" in the diet, that you'll cheer for ALL-BRAN. It's so gentle and simple. All you do is eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN — as a cereal or in several muffins every day—and drink plenty of water. This famous cereal helps to produce smooth-working "bulk", and prepare wastes for easy elimination. And once you know ALL-BRAN's relief, you'll want to eat it every day to stay regular. Remember, it's a cereal—not a medicine. Get ALL-BRAN today, at your grocer's. 2 handy sizes. Made by Kellogg's in London, Can.

Make this

Your TRUST COMPANY

If you believe in freedom—the right to work, earn and save—you must also believe in protecting what you accumulate as the fruits of your labour.

Providing a convenient and effective means of protection for the property of worthy people, whose courage, industry and thrift are so vital to the stability and progress of our nation, is the principal business of The Royal Trust Company.

You are invited to make use of our services, which you would find most valuable yet inexpensive, and to regard The Royal Trust Company as your Trust Company—always available to advise and assist you or your family when needed.

Safeguarding family security is our primary function—trustworthiness, our dominant quality.

THE ROYAL TRUST COMPANY
CORPORATE SECURITY — PERSONAL SERVICE

66 King Street, West, Toronto

Assets Under Administration $730,000,000

Cobourg People Give Corvette Warm Welcome

COBOURG, May 25 — (ENS) — Several thousand people from Cobourg and district thronged the waterfront Wednesday to welcome the corvette "H.M.C.S. Cobourg" and its personnel. The ship arrived around 7 o'clock in the morning. Its pennants flying and its siren sounding as the craft swung into the harbour. On either side of the harbour, the car ferries, Ontario no. 1 and 2 blew a salute to the corvette and on shore a large throng of people waved and cheered. To use the words of its commander Lieut. G. Johnson, "the reception given to us by the people of Cobourg left many a man with a lump in his throat."

First thing done after the corvette arrived was to take aboard a huge amount of boxes and ditty bags, gifts to the officers and crew from the townspeople of Cobourg. Two electric washing machines and some other equipment, donated by the people had been taken aboard at Toronto, while the remainder was loaded when the ship came in to Cobourg. Over two truckloads comprised the Cobourg donations of sailor's comforts.

It was a proud day for veteran skipper Captain Dan Rooney of Cobourg who sailed the lakes for over fifty years, when he piloted the corvette into Cobourg harbour. Capt. Rooney boarded the ship at Toronto the night before and made the trip down. The Mayor and town Council, with members of the corvette committee were taken on a tour of inspection in the morning. In the afternoon a parade of the sea cadets of Cobourg and Port Hope, the Rangers, Air Cadets, Legion, Girl Guides and others, proceeded from the Armouries headed by the Cobourg Kilties band to the harbour where the official welcome was tendered the new ship.

Specially Chosen

Mayor Jack Burnett told the crowd of spectators that the officers and crew of the corvette Cobourg were handpicked and a credit to the ship. The Mayor bid the personnel a hearty welcome to Cobourg and assured them of the continued support of the townspeople. Mayor Charles Stevenson brought greetings from the town of Port Hope and Alderman A. B. Sands representing the Mayor of Peterborough, brought greetings from that city and welcomed the people of Cobourg to the civic reception which would be given the new corvette, H.M.C.S. Peterborough, at Cobourg on June 4. The dedication of the Cobourg corvette was made by Rev. S. D. France, chairman of the Cobourg ministerial association. William Goodfellow M.L.A. for Northumberland county also spoke. W. A. Fraser M.P. for Northumberland was unable to be present but sent his good wishes in a telegram. The Commander of the ship Lieut. G. Johnson, was introduced by Judge J. C. M. German, chairman of the corvette committee.

"It is beyond words to express our appreciation to you people of Cobourg. As we came into Cobourg this morning the crowd at the pier, waving a welcome to us was a reception by the people of Cobourg which left many a man with a lump in his throat, declared the Commander.

The Commander of Peterborough corvettee Lieut. J. B. Raine also spoke. In the evening the officers and men of the Cobourg corvette were guests at a banquet in St. Peter's Parish Hall.

He Also Serves

TORONTO, May 25 (CP).—Gerald Minor, Toronto postman, who is unable to join the armed forces because of blindness in one eye, has made his contribution to the war in the form of 30 blood donations since Feb., 1940. Doctors have ordered him to take a year's rest before giving more blood.

Chapped lips relieved!

Prevent Painful Roughness

Rough, chapped lips are painfully sore and unsightly—the cracked surfaces easily infected by dangerous germs. Get relief the quick, sure way with Lypsyl! Its wonderful emollient action instantly soothes the wounded membranes and seals them against germs and impurities. The first application gives wonderful relief – lips quickly regain normal smoothness. Get Lypsyl at your store today. Use it regularly to soothe and protect your lips. Sold everywhere in handy stick form.

LYPSYL Natural Red or Invisible White for Men and Women

CANUCK ESCORTS NAZI—A Canadian soldier guards the first German prisoner captured during a recent advance by the Canadians in Italy, as he takes him back to the rear. The German, a member of the First Panzer Grenadiers, seems to be chatting with his captor, who has one hand on the butt of his gun, just in case.

Inquest Shows No Blame In Boy's Death

The death of Robert David White, six and a half years old, Tuesday, May 16, in the lumber and wood yard on Braidwood avenue, North Monaghan, was declared by a jury of five men at the inquest Wednesday "to have been purely accidental," with no blame attaching to any person.

The jury suggested that a fringe of brush along a roadway on the property where the fatality occurred be cleared out to afford a better view to all concerned, and also "that everything possible be done to keep children out of the yard, which is dangerous to them.

Evidence of Dr. C. B. Waite, provincial pathologist, and Dr. D. W. Clarke informed the jury that death resulted from a fracture of the skull and injury to the brain in the accident of which there was no eye-witness. Opinion leaned to the assumption that a rear wheel of a heavy motor truck passed over the upper part of the boy's head.

The enquiry was held in the police station with Dr. H. G. Carleton, coroner, presiding, and Crown Attorney V. J. McElderry, conducting the examination of witnesses.

The members of the jury were Stanley C. Kerneghan, foreman, Fred Dummitt, William Addyman, H. A. Abramson and Percy Atkinson.

Robert David White was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter White, Braidwood avenue. It was stated that the lumber mill is owned and operated by Charles Wood, and that the ten-acre lot and the lumber and slabs are owned by the Scott Lumber Company.

Deep Sympathy

The inquest was conducted in a spirit of deep sympathy for the bereaved parents by Dr. Carleton and Mr. McElderry and by the witnesses who assisted in trying to decide how the accident happened.

Mrs. John Wood testified that she was sitting at the window of her home, which is located on the mill property. She is the mother of Charles Wood. She said she noticed her son's truck, drawing a wagon load of slabs from the sawmill, pass by to the piling ground. She saw Ronald Calbury, small boy of the neighborhood, was sitting on the platform of the truck, and Robert White was trying to step or climb on to the running board on the side opposite the driver's seat.

Ernest Dew, the driver of the truck, a later witness, said the truck was moving slowly, about two miles an hour.

"Every time Robert White tried to step up on to the running board, he couldn't make it; he was too small to step up," Mrs. Wood said. "He was trying to climb on the right side. The truck was drawing a wagon loaded with slabs as a trailer."

John Wood said he didn't see the two boys or the accident. "I have often chased boys out of the yard. We have notices up all around the place. Three weeks ago last Sunday two boys with a crowbar were trying to break a planer in the mill."

Mr. Wood said the boys were attracted to the sawdust to play in it. He had sent for Bruce Menzies, township constable, "quite a few times." "Some of them come from up town, and they are the worst. The boys from the neighborhood are all right. Robert White was a nice little lad. The whole place is fenced in although the boys have the fence pulled down in one place. I've been worried stiff about the danger of the place to boys, or I wouldn't have tried to keep them out."

Step Is High

Witness said he had not heard anything about the accident until 5:30 p.m.

"The riding board on the truck is a good step for me; and there was nothing to hang on to if the boy did get up on the running board." Mr. Wood said the trailer wagon weighed about 3½ tons. "I think Robert may have been brushed off the riding board by brush growing close to the wagon tracks, and that the wheel of the Studebaker truck passed over his head."

Ernest Dew, driver of the truck, said it was a big dual wheel vehicle with a platform. "I didn't see a thing, so I can't tell much about it," witness stated. When I got out of the cab at the piling place I did not see any boy." I didn't see either of them on the truck."

Lloyd Robinson, yard foreman, recalled that Ernest Dew had driven in off the road, having come from the mill, and stopped at the yard office. Witness told him two or three more wagon loads could be piled at the north side of the yard.

"I walked out of the office and talked to Mr. Dew on the right side of the truck. At the piling place we heard a scream. We went over to the turn in the road and looked back. We saw Mrs. White trying to lift up her little boy from the road."

Not Seen By Driver

The accident happened between the office and the slab pile. "The boy could have been on the side of the truck opposite the driver," Mr. Robinson replied to Mr. McElderry.

Constable Bruce Menzies, Provincial Constable Price Morris, Dr. Clarke, Dr. Waite and Walter White were the other witnesses. Their evidence added nothing definite to the account pieced together for the jury. Mr. White mentioned that his son's fishing rod was found on the roadway near the place of the accident.

"How it got there I can't imagine," Mr. White said. "Robert left home after four o'clock to go fishing for minnows in a creek."

Cheese Factories Boost Output

CAMPBELLFORD, May 25 (ENS) —Although Central Ontario has thus far this season shown a decreased making of cheese, yet Roger Factory with 16,400, Springbrook with 10,700, Maple Leaf with 15,500, Harold with 12,600, Plum Grove with 11,700, are averaging 2,000 pounds of milk per day in excess of the same date last year.

St. Andrew's Church Observes Anniversary

NORWOOD, May 25—(ENS)—Anniversary services were held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Norwood, on Sunday. Rev. J. Davey was the speaker at both services.

His text was taken from the 13th chapter of Matthew. The anthem, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say" was sung by the choir. In the evening, the United and Baptist churches withdrew their services, and joined with the Presbyterian church, Rev. E. Pugsley reading the scripture Mrs. R. K. Tedford and G. Robinson sang a duet, and the anthem in the evening was "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven." A special congregational prayer for use in time of war was used both morning and evening.

Campbellford News

Capt. J. R. Anderson of the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps Petawawa spent a four-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Anderson Front street.

Pilot Officer Jack Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Stephens, of the Transport Command, is home on leave.

Mrs. J. R. and Mrs. Battisby are visiting their daughter, Mrs. A. G. Thompson and family of Stouffville.

Gunner C. E. Michetuk is spending his leave in Campbellford.

The Campbellford Bowling Club is opening the season on May 24 with an old fashioned pot-luck supper in the pavilion.

Gerald Hay has purchased the John Ivey farm on Lot 22, Concession 10, Township of Percy.

Roseneath News

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Down and daughters of Wellington were holiday visitors with his brother. L. E. Down, Mrs. Down and Pauline.

Wilmert Covert, of Westwood, is staying with his brother, Arthur Covert, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Fleet of Hamilton, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Norris.

Mrs. Gregory Towns of Oak Heights, visited Mrs. Ezra Sherwin on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Tucker of Belleville, were holiday visitors with his mother, Mrs S. A. Tucker and brother, G. L. Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor and sons Billie and Allan, of Oshawa, were holiday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Taylor.

Jim Robins, R.C.A.F., is sending a leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Robins

Mrs. Annie Lapp arrived home on Tuesday from Toronto, where she was staying with her daughter, Miss Mildred Lapp.

Mount Julian

Sunday visitors at Mr. and Mrs. John Northey's were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McIlmoyle, Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard McIlmoyle and family of Peterborough, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Davis and baby daughter, Lois Pauline, of Young's Point, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry McIlmoyle.

Mrs. Jack Sneath of Toronto is at her cottage on Stoney Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Doughty and sons, Ronald and Donald of Peterborough visited relatives here on Sunday.

Jame Reid is spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. Bruce Reid.

William Langford and Mrs. Henry Sholar of Peterborough visited friends in this district on Sunday.

Convoy Destroyed

WASHINGTON, May 25—(AP)—A German convoy of six ships loaded with ammunition and gasoline was destroyed in the Mediterranean by a British-American force after two American Patrol Torpedo boats took on a pair of German destroyers and lured them away from their protective positions the Navy disclosed today. In the action last March, the Navy said, the two small American boats raced at the destroyers and at 350 yards released torpedoes.

Provincial Constable

CAMPBELLFORD, May 25 (ENS) —Provincial Constable Don Carruthers, formerly of Campbellford, who resigned from the Ontario Police Force to assume the position of constable in Belleville, has been reinstated by the Ontario Board as Provincial constable, it was announced by Inspector H. Storey.

HAVE ANOTHER SLICE!

It's lovely bread — so smooth and so white

—to bake bread just right use Fleischmann's FRESH Yeast

Bread plays a big part in today's meal planning. It is your family's most dependable low-cost energy food—supplying Vitamin B. And, it is extra useful now as a stretcher for other foods. If you bake at home, Fleischmann's fresh Yeast will give you good bread every time—light, sweet, just right tasting loaves! Ask your grocer today for Fleischmann's fresh Yeast with the familiar yellow label—Canada's favorite for over 70 years!

MADE IN CANADA

SUPPLEMENT YOUR DIET by eating 2 cakes of FLEISCHMANN'S fresh Yeast every day. This fresh Yeast is an excellent natural source of the important B Complex Vitamins.

Where's Joe?

... Gone for Chicken Wire

Joe says, "Yes, sir, this year I'm right into it. Got the best little victory garden in our block. It's a real break, after office hours, to get out and garden. Never knew a fellow could get such a kick out of this back-to-nature stuff."

And, Mrs. Joe is already talking about how the budget is going to get a break too. "A daily saving," she says. This year my slogan is: "Grow all that I'm able, fresh for the table."

Contributed by Dow BREWERY — MONTREAL

LET'S ALL DO MORE TO WIN THE WAR

D-12

RHEUMATIC PAINS

Quickly relieved and Kidneys stimulated by RUMACAPS

MASON'S

Thank You--- Mrs. Consumer

Thank you for your splendid contribution to Canada's war effort.

By

- YOUR wise and sane buying
- YOUR willing acceptance of necessary wartime regulations and restrictions
- YOUR reasonable attitude towards wartime shortages
- YOUR willingness to carry small parcels whenever possible
- YOUR avoidance of Black Markets by buying from established business only, THEREFORE SAFEGUARDING PRICE CONTROL
- YOUR patience with new and young clerks who are really trying to do their best

You have done a wonderful job ---

By your generous support you have made success possible thus far in the fight against inflation. The task ahead is still a tremendous one—but we know you will meet it in that spirit of co-operation which makes Victory certain. Again thank you!

You can buy more for your food dollar during this war ... because inflation has been controlled

Check our advertised items listed below and compare prices as listed in 1920 with what we pay to-day. The difference is astonishing.

| | 1920 | 1944 |
|---|---|---|
| 100 lbs. Granulated Sugar | 22.00 | 7.90 |
| 2 lbs. Coffee | 1.20 | .70 |
| 6 lbs. Rolled Oats | .45 | .35 |
| 6 lbs. Corn Meal | .45 | .42 |
| 5 cans Tomatoes | 1.00 | .68 |
| 5 cans Corn | 1.00 | .70 |
| 5 cans Peas | 1.00 | .70 |
| 1 glass 4 lbs. Jam (Raspberry or Strawberry) | 1.60 | .69 |
| 2 lbs. Currants | .56 | .27 |
| 4 lbs. Med. Rice | .72 | .56 |
| 2 lbs. Creamery Butter | 1.40 | .78 |
| 2 doz. Eggs | 1.10 | .78 |
| 2 lbs. R. B. Lard | .74 | .33 |
| 10 bars L. Soap | 1.00 | .55 |
| 4 lbs. Med. Prunes | .92 | .48 |
| 2 lbs. Evap. Apples | .56 | .40 |
| 2 Baker's ½ Cocoa | .64 | .34 |
| 1 lb. Soda Biscuits | .23 | .20 |
| 3 Dutch Cleanser | .39 | .33 |
| 24 lbs. Flour | 1.85 | .79 |
| 2 Corn Flakes | .28 | .17 |
| | 39.09 | 18.12 |

THESE ARE TRUE FIGURES

Fresh Fruits & Vegetables

NEW Carrots 3 lb. 17c

NEW Cabbage lb. 8c

LOCAL Asparagus Bunch 10c

288's Oranges Doz. 30c

360's Lemons 3 for 10c

HEAD LETTUCE, TOMATOES, CUCUMBERS, LOCAL RHUBARB, Etc.

Maple Leaf MEATS

RED BRAND BEEF

BLADE ROAST ... lb. 30c
SHORT RIB ROAST ... lb. 33c
PRIME RIB ROAST ... lb. 42c
POT ROAST BONELESS lb. 28c

YOUNG SWEET PORK

FRESH LEAN SHOULDERS ... lb. 27c
FRESH LEAN HAMS ... lb. 30c
SIDE PORK— sliced, lb. 30c; piece, lb. 28c

LAMB

LEGS ... lb. 42c; LOINS ... lb. 45
STEWING LAMB ... 2 lb. 25c
SHOULDERS LAMB ... lb. 30c

Mason's GROCERY STORES

The Examiner

The Peterborough Examiner published each evening by Peterborough Examiner Limited. Office Hunter and Water Streets, Peterborough, Ont.

W. RUPERT DAVIES, President
H. L. GARNER, General Manager
G. WILSON CRAW, Managing Editor

Subscription Rates 20c per week in City of Peterborough delivered by carrier; $6.00 per year by mail to outside points.

Members Canadian Press; Audit Bureau of Circulation; Canadian Daily Newspaper Association; Empire Press Union; Ontario Provincial Dailies Association.

TELEPHONE 4641
Private Branch Exchange to all Departments

As cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.
—PROVERBS XXV.

THURSDAY, MAY 25, 1944

The Invasion

There is still a great deal of talk about 'The Invasion' by people who appear to expect it to come like a thunderclap, paralysing all activity everywhere in the world until it is brought to a successful conclusion; these naive folk seem to think that a thrust across the English Channel at the Low Countries is the be-all and end-all of recapturing Europe, and that until that thrust is made nothing of any importance has been done.

But it does not need a strategist to see that the invasion of Europe has already begun and is progressing satisfactorily for the United Nations. Since earliest Spring the British and American air forces have been bombing Europe according to a clearly visible plan; last Sunday the air blows struck at Europe were far beyond anything of which the enemy had ever dreamed. After a deadlock in Italy our forces have made a determined assault on German strongholds, and have breached not only the Gustav line but the Adolf Hitler line as well—the line which the Germans had expected to afford them support if the Gustav should fall. The fighting is hard, but the battle is decidedly ours. The Nazi Marshal Kesselring is thought to have 25 divisions in Italy; he has lost one of them already, for in eleven days of fighting the Allies have taken more than 6,000 prisoners, and it is unlikely that the Nazi wounded and dead are less than equal to that number. Our forces have taken great quantities of booty from the retreating Germans and already the Nazis are noticeably weak in artillery. The Nazis are in full retreat, and although they will fight resourcefully all through Italy, they will never have a carefully prepared line to fall back upon.

These are practical considerations. What will follow? We do not know, and it is obvious that the Nazis are baffled, because they have fallen back on their old trick of publishing unsupported statements in the hope that they will be denied. Their newspapers have canvassed every possibility of invasion: they appear to be certain that the Italian campaign is the first move in the land assault, and they talk at length about a "composite invasion pattern", involving a Russian thrust in the east at the same time as the assault from the west.

The Nazis seem to be sure that they will be forced to fight on three fronts at once, and they are now playing up the advantage which their "interior lines" will give them in such a battle. Some Allied commentators are also impressed with the ease of communication which the Nazis will enjoy. Perhaps so; a rat in a hole enjoys the same sort of interior lines. The question is: can the Nazis fight successfully on three fronts at one time? They have always avoided fighting on two fronts; three may easily be their undoing. As their air power is now slight compared with that of the United Nations, their prospects are scarcely cheery.

Within the past few days both Prime Minister Mackenzie King and Marshal Smuts have said that the war may not go on so long as many people imagine; neither man is given to saying things of that sort merely to raise a smile in his audience. Perhaps the Empire leaders who attended the London conference learned a few things which justified their optimism. We cannot tell, but the prospects seem very favourable.

Australia's New Censorship Policy

Since the outbreak of war Australia has had a powerful censorship, administered by officials whose powers were not clearly defined; on several occasions there have been strong protests against such a censorship, and the crisis came recently when six powerful Australian newspapers were suppressed because they violated censorship rules. The newspapers protested that the censorship was being used to silence legitimate criticism of the government and its war policy, and in the showdown which followed their suppression, they proved their point. Now Australia has reshaped its policy on censorship and has devised a policy much like that in force in Canada.

In future the Australian censors will only exercise control over matters which concern defense, national security and military secrecy. That has been the Canadian policy and it has worked very well. We cannot recall an instance of real dispute between the censors and the newspapers of Canada since the war began. The censors do their work in a tactful and helpful manner, and the newspapers have shown themselves ready to co-operate in all things; as a result we have retained a free press, but we have not given the enemy any news which he should not have.

A censorship which is given the task of maintaining national unity, or keeping an eye on the interests of the country as a whole, has an impossible task and will sooner or later come to grief. The tendency of all censorships is to be conservative and restrictive, and when they are allowed to meddle with newspaper policy they are usually far behind public opinion. That was the trouble in Australia: the papers wanted to discuss what the people were really thinking, and the censors only wanted opinions published which were agreeable to the government of the day.

We are glad that Australia has dealt with its censorship problem. The nations of the British Commonwealth are closely linked, and we in Canada cannot be entirely happy about a suppression of freedom in Australia. We hope that the new censorship, with its limited and carefully defined powers, will work as satisfactorily there as it has done here.

Anti-Jewish Propaganda

The Kingston Whig-Standard recently commented on something which has received attention on several occasions in these columns—the extent and persistence of anti-Jewish propaganda in this country. This is what our contemporary says:

"On two or three occasions recently this newspaper has had its attention drawn to samples of barnyard doggerel which are said to enjoy wide circulation, particularly in larger industrial centres. These crude verses were all on the same theme: That time taken from work was no doubt highly acceptable to the Germans, so the thing to do was to stick to the workbench persistently, to realize that there was no time to lose, if we are to " 'Win the war for the . . . Jews'.

"This is propaganda—dangerous, prejudiced and horribly unjust propaganda. We do not know its source, but the samples we have seen were mimeotyped and quite obviously largely reproduced. It may seem very far fetched to name it German propaganda. Yet if it ever had the effect it is so clearly intended to produce, then it would be propaganda of immense value and comfort to the enemy".

The curious thing about anti-Jewish propaganda is that it seems to find a congenial audience among men and women who are not particularly mean, or spiteful or hard-hearted, but who are nevertheless ready to believe that Jews are diabolically clever, completely without scruple and in every respect their moral inferiors. Now it is quite true that the Jews, as a race, are not always likeable, and nobody is compelled to like them all, but it has yet to be shown that they are any less deserving of the charity of God and man than the rest of us.

We heard a story the other day about Quentin Reynolds, the well-known war correspondent, who was in Boston on a period of leave. A gentleman asked him where he was going, and Reynolds replied that he was bound for New York. "Too bad", said the gentleman, "you'll see nothing there but Jews". Reynolds replied: "That will be nothing new to me. I've just come from Italy, and it is full of Jews, too, fighting in the American forces".

The Jews are good and bad like the rest of us, and they have had a lot of hard luck. Let us not be so stupid as to condemn them as a race. It is silly to talk spitefully about "the Jews" when, if we consider the Jews whom we actually know personally we find that many of them are very good fellows, and as for the rest—well, we are not compelled to know them, are we?

NOTE AND COMMENT

A news report says that when Mayor Lewis announced Ottawa's great Victory Loan total you could have heard a pin drop. But after a campaign like that nobody had a pin left to drop.

The London Free Press remarks: "Some men we knew as civilians four years ago are now colonels, majors and squadron leaders. We wonder how they will be reabsorbed into civilian life after the war ends". The same problem was with us after the last war and in some cases it has not been solved yet.

Says the Catholic Record: "The literature and entertainment put before young people have, for years, been soaked in sex suggestions". Yes, for several thousand years, and the subject still seems to be fresh to each new generation.

Add Up The Votes

By
BRUCE HUTCHISON

"MANKIND, when they are left to themselves," said George Washington, "are unfit for their own government." Agreeing with him, the Founding Fathers of the United States tried to make sure that the American people would not elect their President. Instead, they were to be permitted only to choose a College of Electors, the wise men of each community who, meeting together, would choose for President the best available man in the nation. Theoretically that is what the College of 531 Electors will do next November but, in fact, the people will elect the President, using the Electors as rubber stamps. The voters will not vote for the President direct but for electors, each of whom is pledged to support one or other of the presidential candidates.

This makes the presidential election complicated. A candidate may have a large majority of the popular vote and only a small majority in the College of Electors, or vice versa. It is the College vote that Messrs. Roosevelt and Dewey have to figure on and they are figuring pretty carefully these days. As they figure they must both reach the conclusion that the vote in the College is going to be close—so close that one big state like California, with its 22 Electors, may well decide the whole election. It is the fact that each state has a different number of electors that makes the election so difficult to understand.

◆ ◆ ◆

STRANGE things can happen under such a system. After the Civil War the Democratic candidate, Samuel J. Tilden, had a popular majority of a quarter of a million over the Republican, Rutherford B. Hayes, yet Hayes was elected in the College. The majority of the nation did not get the President it wanted. In 1916 Charles Evan Hughes, Republican, went to bed on election night, assured that he was elected. In the morning, when the late California returns came in, Woodrow Wilson was President.

The last presidential election, of 1940, was regarded as an enormous popular victory for Mr. Roosevelt. Yet Mr. Willkie was only 4,900,000 votes behind him over the whole nation. If Mr. Roosevelt lost 2,500,000 votes this year and Mr. Dewey gained them (assuming the total vote was about the same) the President would lose the election. Actually, as Mr. Eliot Janeway points out in the current issue of "Fortune," the 1940 election was decided by a much smaller margin than this—by something less than 500,000 votes distributed among the ten big states, each with big blocs of Electors in the College.

Since 50,000,000 votes were cast, Mr. Roosevelt really won by a very uncomfortable margin, less than one per cent. Yet in the College Mr. Roosevelt received 449 votes and Mr. Willkie 82. Mr. Willkie lost ten close states and 185 electoral votes by a total of only 910,000 votes. A slight gain in these vital states would have made him President.

◆ ◆ ◆

THESE facts must be remembered in calculating this year's chances. As Mr. Janeway says, Mr. Roosevelt can hardly expect to repeat the 1940 vote. His chances are definitely poorer at the moment than they were four years ago. He still holds the Solid South, 11 states, with 124 electoral votes, but if the Midwest is against him, with its 146 votes, as seems quite possible, he must make up for it be strong support on the east and west coasts.

Mr. Janeway, a season observer, sums up the mathematics of the situation thus:

"Of the 531 votes in the Electoral College 266 are needed for a majority. The Republicans can expect the Middle West to start them off with 146. If, outside the South, they capture half the balance, they will win with 277 votes. The Democrats, on the other hand, will start with 124 southern votes. If they can add California's 22 they will have 146. Then if they split the difference they can win—under one condition. The total of electoral votes is an odd number. To win by carrying California and breaking even in the other close states, the Democrats would have to bag the odd vote; if they lost Missouri's 15 votes they would have to hold New Jersey's 16. For the Republicans, therefore, California is a strategic margin of safety. They can afford to lose it, if they can win its equivalent elsewhere. But the Democrats can afford to split the doubtful area only if they can first capture California. For them it may well be the election."

"Fortune's" public opinion poll has showed all this year a popular majority for Mr. Roosevelt over all rivals, if the war is still under way, and a popular majority usually means election. But in the cumbersome indirect election system, with blocs of electoral votes to consider, it is necessary to consider the distribution of the popular vote. For example, if Mr. Roosevelt got every vote in the safe South it would not increase his electoral vote in the least, though it might pile up his national total. From all these calculations only one clear prospect emerges—this year's election is likely to be close and certainly will be bitter.

The Purist and the Bible

As long as there are newspapers, readers will continue to lay grievances of various descriptions on their doorsteps, in the form of letters to the editor. Occasionally, these are language grievances, and an interesting one of this nature was recently received by the New York Times. An Albany reader of that journal was worried about a certain American bishop, who said in the course of a speech at Kansas City that the world's 80,000,000 Methodists "must rise up and demand an international organization." The Albany reader complained that every day he read about people "rising up" about something, but "I never hear of any one rising down, and I am not certain that it can be done."

The first impulse of The Times was to set its correspondent down as a purist with a tendency toward pedantry and let it go at that. On second thought, the Oxford edition of the Bible was consulted, with the obvious reasoning that anything that is good enough for the Bible must be taken as good enough for members of the Methodist Church, and for objectors to the above phrase.

The result was rather astonishing. As any one may discover, the index to the ordinary desk edition is rife with "rising up." A particularly good instance may be found in Job xx, 27, for the auther of Job had a gift for words: "The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him."

And if the reader in Albany remains dissatisfied, The Times stands ready to smother him with a shower of other quotations containing the same phrase.—Kingston Whig-Standard.

The Inns Of England

(KINGSTON WHIG-STANDARD)

IN a recent issue of The New York Times, a story from Folkestone, in Kent, England, referred to an inn there, the British Lion, said to have been opened for business in 1460. Legend has it that this is the inn in which Dickens wrote "Our Mutual Friend," and although the legend cannot be verified from any biography of Charles Dickens, the story is good enough to be true.

The inns of England are famous in song and story, and many still stand which date back to the fifteenth century. Two of them, the Pilgrim's Inn at Glastonbury and the Angel at Grantham, are in much the same shape as when they were first built. There are others which retain part of their original structure, like the Falstaff at Canterbury, the Fighting Cocks at St. Albans and the New Inn at Gloucester. The four-cornered, galleried yard of the last named invariably recalls to the beholder the inn-yards described by Dickens.

There is an actual flavour in the names of these English inns which makes infinitely more palatable the goods they sell. It doesn't need a very likely imagination to picture the difference between a glass of beer at the Palace Hotel or the Hotel Continental and a mug of ale at the Cat and the Fiddle, the Red Lion, the Bear and the Billet, the Grapes, the Six Jolly Fellowship Porters, the Dun Cow, the Old Tippling Philosopher, the Three Cronies, the Castle of Comfort, the Cat and Custard Pot, the Parrot and Punchbowl, the Swan and Sugar Loaf, the Cow and Pail, the Fish and Eels, the Swan With Two Necks, the Goat and Compasses or the Bag o' Nails (Bacchanals).

They say that the ale of Old England is a weakened and watered brew, and that spirits are in short supply. But even less traditional beverages could be sipped with vast appreciation, were they served in these places or in some others where Mr. Dickens still treats — the Great White Horse, the Marquess of Granby, the Magpie and Stump; then, too, the Hop Pole, the Tabard, the Running Footman, the Bear and the Rugged Staff are open still.

These and others like them have lately heard unfamiliar accents within their walls—friendly, but different. The men whose voices now mingle with softer British ones in the inns of England are there to help make sure these mellowed taverns remain for future generations to dream over and enjoy.

Mr. King's Speech

(SATURDAY NIGHT)

MR. KING'S speech at Westminster last week will not be generally appraised at its rightful value in Canada, because the point of view from which it should be judged is not widely possessed by Canadians. It was a speech designed to produce certain results, not in Canada, and not in the British Empire, but in the international world. Mr. King's main concern throughout his prime ministership, but especially in the later and more difficult years, has been predominently international. We do not mean by this that he has been willing in any way to sacrifice the interests of Canada to those of a vague generalized humanity; we mean rather that he is profoundly convinced that only in a well organized international world can Canada hope to find security and complete self-fulfilment.

American opinion, as it will express itself in the elections which are now only a few months away, is the most important undetermined factor in the world situation today. Mr. King never loses sight of that factor. It would easily be possible just now to make the British Commonwealth of Nations look to a great part of the American people like a strong power bloc organized for the chief purpose of elbowing the United States aside in the rivalry for military and commercial position after the war. Mr. King is acutely conscious of that danger, and conscious also that no voice can soothe the alarm in the American breast as effectively as a Canadian one. Hence the accent on the notes of inclusiveness and not of exclusiveness, of cooperation rather than unification, of co-operation which "is capable of indefinite expansion" rather than of unification which involves the surrender of individuality. The form of the British Commonwealth is based upon "common allegiance to the Crown" — a phrase which also recurred several times, and which is itself highly suggestive of the latitude and diversity of the Commonwealth structure; but the spirit of the British Commonwealth consists in a conception of the nature of man and of the state which is entertained by many other nations, and notably by the United States, and which extends the true Commonwealth far beyond the borders of the legal or formal one.

We do not see how any class of Canadians can find grave fault with Mr. King's speech, except those who are still convinced that what the Commonwealth needs is a single voice and a single central council to pronounce that voice. They are not, we suggest, a very numerous element in this country, nor one which can cherish much hope of determining its course. The Prime Minister pronounced himself as strongly in favour not only of close consultation and cooperation, but of "effective co-ordination of policies". That phrase certainly does not limit us to the improvizations and last-minute decisions of pre-war years; it does not bar "commitments"; it must refer to long-term policies as well as to those which affect only the next month or year. But the policies continue to be those of separate nations, and the process of co-ordination remains open to other nations to join, even if they are not associated with us by common allegiance to the Crown.

The circumstances all were such as to suggest that Mr. King was speaking not only for Canada but for the Commonwealth, and that his words were carefully calculated to allay any concern that may have arisen lately among people outside of the Commonwealth and not very clearly informed as to its character, concern lest it may develop into a centralized and aggressive military empire perhaps faintly resembling one of those against which we are now fighting. It must be remembered that there are millions of people outside of the Commonwealth, and perhaps a few within it, who do not realize how utterly impossible, how totally foreign to the whole character of our institutions and our peoples, such a development is.

Measuring Bomb Damage

General Eaker estimates that the output of the Ploesti refineries, on which Germany depends for 30 per cent of her war needs, has been cut to a quarter of normal by the attacks of our heavy bombers. This estimate is based on the observations of returning fliers and the study of reconnaissance photographs. It is on similar evidence that all our estimates of damage to enemy industrial plants and communication systems are based.

By chance we have a more exact measure of such damage in one instance. It comes from bomb victims themselves. The Swiss are preparing a bill of particulars for us on the results of our unfortunate bombing of their town of Schaffhausen on April 1. This was a brief attack made in error by thirty American bombers confused by heavy weather over a small target. Thus far the material damage figures at $8,500,000. Only forty-one persons were killed, but 1,021 buildings, including 123 residences, were ruined and the equipment in at least four of the town's principal factories is a total loss. The rail-yards were wiped out. Transfer this attack to enemy industrial centers, multiply it by 2,000 or 3,000 bombers in the air day and night, and returning again and again to these scenes of destruction, and we get some idea of the devastation spreading over central Europe. If Dr. Goebbels now estimates that it will take ten years to repair this damage it must already be beyond the possibility of present calculation.—New York Times.

SOUND ADVICE

Speaking at a special convocation at University of Michigan—at which he was awarded an honourary LL.D. degree—Viscount Halifax, British Ambassador to the United States, gave his hearers some sound advice, declaring that whatever arrangement is made for international order in the post-war world, "we must never forget that unless it has behind it a force sufficient and ready to prevent its violation sooner or later a Hitler or a Tojo or a Mussolini will rise up to challenge it. . . . Treaties and pacts and covenants are necessary; but unless we are ready in the last resort to see to it that they mean what they say they are a dangerous illusion."—Owen Sound Sun-Times.

Hard To Believe How Time Flies

MAY 25

1914 The visit of the 15th Regiment of Belleville proves one of the outstanding features of the year.

Thomas Batty is fatally injured by falling over a railing in the Grand Hotel.

Many cottagers spent the holiday at Stoney Lake with the steamer Empress giving a special service.

George O'Neill, owner of the Erie ball club is banquetted by Peterborough fans.

St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society has asked the North Monaghan council to improve the roadway into T.A.S. Park.

1924 Sixty candidates are received at an assembly of the Peterborough Council of the Knights of Columbus.

Mrs. A. McLeod, returning to her home in Scotland is honored at a farewell party.

Peterborough had heavy rain today followed by a drop in temperature almost to the freezing point.

Kingston Ponies get away to a good start and defeat the Petes here 6 to 4.

North Dummer football team, playing its first game at home wins from C.P.C. Greybirds 4 to 2.

1934 A. E. Smith, Communist candidate in East York, addresses a meeting in the Ashburnham Hall.

A story from Toronto says that a nudist colony is to be established somewhere in the Peterborough area.

Local unemployed stage a mass meeting and picnic in Jackson Park.

J. E. Sullivan attends the Boy Scout jamboree held in Maple Leaf Gardens, Toronto.

Johnston's Tire team are beaten in the final of the softball tourney at Omemee by an Oshawa team.

Contemporaries

ON TEMPERS

It speaks much for a man if he can hold his temper under fire. It speaks more for him if he is not influenced by the temper of another. But beware of the individual who has no temper at all. He is either a devil or a god, and the odds are unbalanced.—Victoria Colonist.

DOUBLE CENSORSHIP

Mr. Bracken came to Fleet Street to declare bluntly that one war reporter's message from a battlefront is worth 100 hand-outs from the Ministry. These are the words of a man who realizes that Truth is best told by independent witnesses without axes to grind. For the rest, Mr. Bracken's censors are able to protect the security of the State, a job which they do remarkably well and without friction. But there are other censors at work in other Ministries. They are concerned with achieving security against the Germans, which is the only valid reason for the existence of a censorship at all. They seek to censor for a variety of other reasons that have little to do with the war. In Fleet Street this is called "double censorship." And double censorship is bad for the newspapers, bad for the departments, bad for the public.—London Daily Express.

INFURIATING QUESTION

A Post reader writes us to the general effect that sometimes it is hell to be an intelligent, sensitive and patriotic young woman. Here is a girl who was doing all right for herself in civilian life—a well-paid executive, with an adequate salary, and an adequate number of friends and beaus. She joined the Waves for the simple reasons that she loves her country and believes that winning the war is the most important business on hand. But now, when she encounters some of her old civilian friends, they want to know why she enlisted, giving up a well-paid job, etc. That question: "Why?" makes our friend hopping mad. She is so annoyed that she has stopped explaining about patriotism, etc., and she now takes it out in saying that she enlisted because she likes the uniform. That seems to satisfy the inquirers. We think that question: "Why?" shows, as well as anything else, the need for a national service act which would route every man and woman of us into his or her best spot in furtherance of the war.—New York Post.

A Bible Message

When thou art come into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an echanter, or a witch, or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord: and because of these abominations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee.

Thou shalt be perfect with the Lord thy God. ((Deut. 18: 9-13.)

◆ ◆ ◆

And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead? To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. (Isa. 8: 19, 20.)

Unconsidered Trifles

A cautious man is not naturally adverse to heeding his wife's entreaties to buy himself a new suit; it's just that he fears the additional cost of bringing the little woman's appearance up to an equal footing with the new suit.

◆ ◆ ◆

"Theodore, what do you have to do when you draw some money out of a bank?" asked an innocent young wife.

"You have to put some money in the bank beforehand," replied the husband. "That's always been my experience!"

◆ ◆ ◆

Here's an old-fashioned, pre-war kind of story about a Negro maid. Her mistress had to speak to her about one annoying failure—ignoring the telephone when it rang and allowing other members of the household to come running.

"After this, I want you to answer the telephone, Clarice," said said.

"Yas'm," the maid replied, glumly. "Seems sort of silly, though. Nine times out of ten it's for you."

Banking Debits Show Increase

OTTAWA, May 25 — (CP). — Bank debits from individual accounts in major centres amounted to $4,561,260, 734 in April compared with $4,773,277,391 in March and $4,070,712,509 in April last year, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported yeesterday.

The increase of 12 per cent. over last year represented expansion in productive and speculative activities at a "somewhat higher level", the Bureau said.

Cheques cashed in the 33 clearing centres in the four months ended April 30 totalled $18,055,044,182 compared with $15,694,067,229 in the coresponding period of 1943, an increase of 15 per cent.

Each of the five economic areas recorded advances in April, the Prairie provinces showing the greatest increase.

Bank debits are an important index of business activity as they show the volume of cheques issued against current and savings accounts. . Bank clearings show the volume of cheques drawn from one bank to another but do not include cheques drawn from one bank branch on another branch of the same bank in the same city.

Following include Ontario April bank debit figures, with comparative figures for March, 1944, and April, 1943, in brackets (in millions of dollars):—

Ontario—Hamilton 106.8 (122.2, 105.8); Kitchener 20 (22.9, 20); London 46 (48.5, 42.8); Ottawa 680.2 (712.583.1); St. Catharines 18.6 (18.7, 21.2); Toronto 923.9 (1130.5, 901.3); Windsor 82.8 (88.3, 82.9). Totals 1967.2 (2234.4, 1839.8).

A Wealthy Soldier

LONDON, May 25—(CP Cable)—Ordinary Seaman Sir Robert Peel, who died on war service in 1942, left £150,388 (about $676,746) to his mother, Lady Peel, better known as Beatrice Lillie the actress, it became known today when his will was probated.

HIS MAJESTY INSPECTS CANADIANS —The King inspects Canadian guard of honor. During his recent tour and inspection of Canadian troops in England, this guard of honor, consisting of men of a Canadian Highland unit, were drawn up at a unit headquarters. (Canadian Army Overseas Photo)

Would Remove Indians From Reserves

OTTAWA, May 25 — (CP) — T. R. L. MacInnis, secretary of the Indian Affairs Branch of the Resources Department, said Wednesday, he could see no justification for the maintenance of Indian reserves in Eastern Canada.

Testifying before the Commons Committee on Reconstruction, Mr. MacInnis said Indians in Eastern Canada "should be divorced entirely from the reserves . . . It is their only salvation."

Indians had proved they could get along very well when they were off the reserve, he said. But they retained a complex of dependency on the reserve, which was created for the purpose of giving them protection when protection was needed.

There might be still some necessity for reserves in parts of Western Canada, where the Indians had not overcome the "first shock" of their contact with the white man.

Dr. P. E. Moore, acting superintendent of medical services in the Indian branch, said that along the Alaska Highway last year 14 different epidemics broke out when the Indians came in contact with white men.

"Horse-and-Buggy Stage"

Mr. MacInnis spoke after Mrs. D. W. Nielsen (Unity-North Battleford) said she believed the Federal Government's policy of treating Indians was still in the horse-and-buggy stage."

G. H. Ross (L, Calgary East) suggested a Commons committee be set up to investigate the whole question of treatment of Indians.

J. R. MacNicol (P.C., Toronto-Davenport) said the Government was not spending enough money for the welfare of Indians.

D. J. Alan superintendent of reserves for the Indian Affairs Branch, asked the committee to recommend that $2,800,000 be voted for the setting up in the postwar of beaver and muskrat reserves.

Mr. MacInnis said Indians along the Pacific coast were making a success of the fishing industry. Iroquois Indians at Caughnawaga, Que. were in demand all over the continent for steel structural work.

Quite Intelligent.

It had been proved that the Indians were as intelligent and as skilful as the white man when they worked on an equal basis. Because of this, Mr MacInnis said he felt the reserves were serving as a drawback, particularly in Eastern Canada.

Mrs. Nielson said sufficient educational facilities were not available to the Indans.

"It is our fault that they haven't

(Continued on Page 11)

Peterborough One Of Six Cities Reducing Debt

By The Canadian Press

Wartime economies appear to have bettered the financial condition of Ontario cities, a survey by The Canadian Press showed to-day, with the 22 cities covered with one exception reporting lower taxation rates and decreased indebtedness since 1939.

Many cities have cut thir indebtedness by more than 50 per cent. Most have reduced their taxation charges by a few mills, while Guelph has scaled down its rate for public school supporters from 49 mills in 1939 to 29 mills in 1943, and for separate school supporters from 52.5 to 31.5.

Decreased expenditures appear to be largely responsible for lower taxation, with reduced indebtedness lightening interest charges. Many cities have been unable to keep up peacetime service because of the lack of manpower.

Nearly all the cities reported population increases since the start of the war despite enlistments.

The one city which reported its taxation up was Chatham, increased from 31.5 in 1939 to 34 mills last year. However, Chatham's debt has been virtually halved from its pre-war $808,000.

Large Decrease.

Cities which reduced their debts by more than $1,000000 between 1939 and 1943 included Peterborough, Hamilton, Guelph, London, Brantford and Kitchener, with populations ranging from 21,800 to 174,500.

Hamilton's bonded indebtedness declines from $23,418,084 to $15,013,478 in the five year period. However annual expenditures in the same period have increased although the tax rate has been reduced from 37 to 35.75 mills.

Guelph's bonded debt stood at $1,436,209 at the end of last year compared with $3,000,793 in 1939. London's net debenture debt was $6,140,546 in 1939 and $2,540,437 last year with this year's tax of 34.5 mills comparing with 38.4 in 1939.

Brantford's gross debenture was reduced from $4,392,823 in 1939 to $2,876,184 in 1943, while the tax rate dropped from 46 to 40 mills.

Kitchener's bonded indebtedness of $1,977,000 in 1943 compared with $3,058,000 in 1939. The tax rate of 38.75 mills compared with 42 mills.

The city enjoying the smallest debt was St. Catharines, which cut its indebtedness from $303,821 in 1939 to $138,473 this year. In the same time the tax rate has come down from 39 to 32½ mills.

Lowest Rate in 1943.

Figures on Toronto's indebtedness are not available, but the city's taxation rate for 1944 is 32.85 mills compared with 34.15 in 1939, and estimated expenditures this year will be some $1,321,394 less than they were in 1939.

The low point in Toronto taxation in the last six years was reached in 1943 when the rate was set at 31.60 mills. The Commissioner of Finance explained the increase this year as due to higher current expenditures and a decrease in the surplus brought forward from the preceding year.

North Bay is enjoying its lowest tax rate for Public School supporters in 20 years, now paying 45 mills compared with 61.5 in 1939. The rate for Separate School supporters has dropped from 67.5 to 50.5 in the same period with total indebtedness reduced by some $900,000.

Other Cities.

Figures from other cities include:

| City | Tax Rate 1939 | Tax Rate 1943 | Indebtedness 1939 | Indebtedness 1943 |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Stratford | 43.2 | 40.6 | $2,288,935 | $1,480,417 |
| Peterborough | 34.5 | 30. | 4,126,158 | 2,666,729 |
| Chatham | 31.5 | 34. | 808,766 | 413,976 |
| St. Thomas | 37.5 | 36. | 776,525 | 686,378 |
| Woodstock | 38.5 | 38.4 | 819,840 | 442,242 |
| Kingston | 41.8 | 34.5 | 1,442,149 | 1,044,210 |
| Sarnia | 34.5 | 32. | 1,250,992 | 784,933 |
| Niagara Falls | 35.5 | 31. | 2,157,748 | 1,403,501 |
| Cornwall | 16. | 28.5 | 1,006,106 | 77,905 |
| Sudbury | 48. | 44. | 2,282,964 | 1,563,257 |
| Sault Ste Marie | 37. | 36. | 2,841,172 | 2,106,804 |
| Brockville | 45. | 41. | 388,651 | 174,857 |
| Waterloo | 36.5 | 31.5 | 526,004 | 360,520 |
| Galt | 40. | 35. | 1,948,592 | 1,355,591 |

(The tax rates quoted for 1943 include a provincial subsidy of one mill.)

Deer Invades School Grounds

MARMORA, May 25 (ENS) — High School girls of the 1st and 2nd Forms playing softball on the north side of Marmora Public School grounds on Tuesday had a diversion which caused a thrill for some moments.

The girl at bat dropped her bat as William Hoski shouted out "Look out, there's a deer coming". Along a path through the adjoining commons the creature, a doe, came then crossed to the south side of the school, next crossed No. 7 Highway, vaulted the fence of the Pearce Company's field and leaving the field again travelled a short distance down North Hastings Avenue to pass through Dr. C. V. Wallace's grounds and beyond.

Three deer, one of them a fawn, were seen in Smith Fraser's meadows by Earl Wells on Saturday evening. The meadows are about a mile from the Public School grounds mile from the Public School grounds.

Marmora News

Miss Gladys Gehan is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gehan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Davern of Peterborough were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Marett.

Mr. Hector Boudreau and Mrs. Charles Phillips are visiting relatives at Niagara Falls, N.Y.

Tastier Leftovers

Food is precious—make your leftovers tasty and appetizing with high quality Windsor Salt. Plain or Iodized.

WINDSOR FREE RUNNING SALT

F & G Markets - - E. C. Braund Stores

Thank You . . .

Mrs. Peterborough

The week of May 22 to 27 has been set aside as Mrs. Consumer's week in appreciation of the splendid way that the women of Canada have handled their share of the war effort on the home front. Your F. & G. and Braund Stores know well the vital part Peterborough women are playing in their own homes and that's why we join in saying THANK YOU MRS. PETERBOROUGH.

THIS WEEK'S FOOD VALUES

DR. JACKSON'S ROMAN MEAL ......... pkg. 29¢

AYLMER DEHYDRATED BEANS ......... 3 for 25¢

LIPTON'S NOODLE SOUP, 2½ oz. pkg. ... 2 for 25¢

Shreddies 2 for 23c

FROM OUR FISH COUNTER

SLICED Salmon lb. 25c

SLICED Halibut lb. 37c

MILD CURED Kippers 2 Pr. 25c

HAWES FLOOR WAX 45c 1 lb.

NUTRIM Baby Cereal 8-oz. Pkg. 29c 14-oz. Pkg. 49c

Ogilvie's TONIC WHEAT GERM CEREAL, pkg. 50c

QUAKER QUIX Wheat Flakes 2 for 25c

AYLMER DICED 16-oz. Glass Jar BEETS or CARROTS 23c

HABITANT — 10-oz. Vegetable Soup 2 for 19c

AYLMER Grape Juice 13-oz. 2 Bottles 29c

SAVE on QUALITY MEATS

HALF or WHOLE FRESH HAMS - - - - lb. 31c

ROLLED VEAL-LEG FILLETS - - lb. 36c

COMMERCIAL QUALITY BEEF

BLADE ROAST - - - - lb. 27c

ROUND STEAK ROAST - lb. 37c

POT ROAST ROLLED - lb. 27c

PRIME RIB (FIRST FIVE RIBS) lb. 33c

COLD MEATS

Bologna lb. 23c Head Cheese lb. 21c

FRESH Fruits AND VEGETABLES

NOW IS THE TIME TO PRESERVE — 18, 24, 30 Size Cuban Pineapples Lowest Prices

HARD RIPE — Best Quality TOMATOES - - - lb. 21c

LOCAL RHUBARB - - Bunch 5c

NEW CARROTS - - - 3 lb. 17c

CALIFORNIA VALENCIA Size 288 ORANGES Doz. 29c Size 220 Doz. 39c Size 176 Doz. 49c

E. C. Braund - F & G MARKETS

There is a Store in Your Neighborhood

You'll enjoy our Orange Pekoe Blend

"SALADA" TEA

"Deal your Complexion Aces!"

DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK If Libby's "Gentle Press" Tomato Products are not the best you've tasted.

"Vitamins are the aces that help your complexion become a winner. Two very important ones are vitamins A and C. They are essential to perfect health and natural skin beauty. Both these vitamins (together with valuable minerals) are present in Libby's 'Gentle Press' Tomato Juice."

No ordinary tomato is ever "gentle pressed" into Libby's Tomato Juice. Only the big, fat, sun-ripened ones are used—vine-fresh, grown from special seed, rich in natural goodness. That's why Libby's has such a superb, refreshing flavour, the outstanding favourite of Canadians everywhere.

TOMATO SAUCE

2 tablespoons butter
1 tablespoon flour
½ cup water
Salt and Pepper
2 teaspoons Worcestershire Sauce
1 10-oz. can Libby's Tomato Juice

Melt butter and blend with flour and seasonings. Add Tomato Juice and water. Cook until smooth and thickened.

Libby's "Gentle Press" Tomato Catchup, Chili Sauce and Soup are equally good—try them.

LIBBY, McNEILL & LIBBY OF CANADA, LIMITED CHATHAM • ONTARIO

Libby's "GENTLE PRESS" TOMATO PRODUCTS

WRITE OFTEN... WRITE CHEERFULLY TO THE BOYS AND GIRLS OVERSEAS

It only takes a postage stamp, To chase the blues in any camp.

A Suggestion from COSGRAVE'S WHITE LABEL BREWERY LIMITED TO BUILD MORALE

Plazas Defeat Soldiers In City League

Steady pitching by Terry Woods and timely hitting, mixed with Soldier misplays, enabled the Plazas to break into the win column in the City Softball League Tuesday night when they defeated the Military Training Centre 12 runs to 5.

Woods who pitched for Genelecs last season held the Training Centre to eight hits and only one of the five runs scored against him was earned.

The Soldiers fielded a team that had a number of new faces including two new pitchers and a third baseman who has played against Peterborough baseball and softball teams on a number of occasions in the person of Solly Sone, a Toronto boy.

Aiken and Thiessen, who divided the pitching duties for the Training Centre, the former working the first five innings, were both victims of loose fielding, and Thiessen was the chief sufferer when the Soldiers had a blowup in the first inning he worked and Plazas scored half a dozen runs.

In spite of the errors some good fielding was done with Huck Herrick in right field for Soldiers and Frank Malone in centre for Plazas contributing some nice catches. Pryde also had a nice running grab.

Plazas practically won the game in the first inning when they shot three counters over. Bun Kingdon walked, and after Pryde had popped to Anderson, Tucker was safe on an error by the same player. Joe Blewett rolled to Chambers advancing the runners and Les Burton scored the pair with a single to right centre, going to second on the throw to the plate. Hawks slashed a single into left scoring Burton.

The winners made it 4 to 0 in the second. With two away Kingdon doubled to centre and ran home on Pryde's single past third.

There was no further scoring until the first of the fifth when Soldiers broke into the run column. Morgan got a scratch hit on a roller deflected by Woods. Aikens struck out. Mortimer sacrificed, Morgan going to second and Herrick's single to centre sent the runner across. When Maloney dropped Anderson's high fly to centre, Herrick registered.

Plazas got the pair back in their half. Kingdon walked, Pryde singled to left and after Tucker was out bunting foul on his third strike Blewett got a hot shot single down the first base line which Morgan knocked down but could not field in time. Burton's long fly to left centre, nicely taken by Hanley, allowed Kingdon to score after the catch and Hawks' single to right scored Pryde.

With Thiessen on the rubber for the Soldiers Plazas broke game wide open in the sixth. With one out Woods singled to right and Kingdon to left. Pryde lined to Mortimer for the second out but Tucker doubled over third to score Woods and Kingdon and Tucker both counted when Blewett's roller got away from Chambers.

A single by Burton, a pass to Hawks, a wild pitch and two more errors sent three more markers across before the side was finally retired with the bases full after 12 men had batted.

There was nothing more until the first of the ninth when Soldiers registered three. With one out Doug. Mortimer walked and Herrick singled to left. Anderson flied to Kingdon. Tucker's error of Sone's roller sent Mortimer in and Herrick counted when Hawks fumbled Thiessen's hopper. Tony McIlveen laced a single into right to score Sone. Chambers popped to Hawks for the third out.

| Plazas | AB | R | H | PO | A | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Kingdon, 2b | 3 | 4 | 2 | 6 | 0 | 0 |
| Pryde, rf | 5 | 1 | 2 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Tucker, ss | 5 | 2 | 1 | 0 | 4 | 2 |
| Blewett, c | 5 | 1 | 1 | 5 | 0 | 0 |
| Burton, lf | 5 | 2 | 2 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Hawks, 3b | 4 | 1 | 2 | 4 | 2 | 1 |
| Ellis, 1b | 5 | 0 | 0 | 6 | 0 | 0 |
| Maloney, cf | 4 | 0 | 2 | 5 | 0 | 1 |
| Woods, p | 5 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 3 | 0 |
| | 41 | 12 | 14 | 27 | 9 | 4 |

| Soldiers | AB | R | H | PO | A | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Mortimer, lf | 3 | 1 | 0 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| Herrick, rf | 2 | 2 | 2 | 4 | 0 | 0 |
| Anderson, ss | 5 | 0 | 1 | 3 | 1 | 1 |
| Sone, 3b | 5 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 2 | 1 |
| Hanley, cf | 3 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| Thiessen, p | 2 | 0 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| McIlveen, c | 5 | 0 | 1 | 4 | 1 | 0 |
| Chambers, 2b | 5 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 3 | 3 |
| Morgan, 1b | 4 | 1 | 2 | 6 | 0 | 0 |
| Aiken, p, cf | 3 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 |
| Lecdair, cf | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| | 38 | 5 | 8 | 24 | 8 | 5 |

By Innings—

| | |
|---|---|
| Plazas | 310 026 00x—12 |
| Soldiers | 000 020 003— 5 |

Earned runs—Plazas 4, Soldiers 1; Runs batted in—Burton 3, Hawks 2, Blewett 2, Pryde, Tucker, Ellis, Woods, McIlveen, Thiessen, Herrick, Anderson Sone; Sacrifice hit—Mortimer; Two-base hits—Kingdon, Tucker; Hits—off Aiken 8 in in five innings, off Thiessen 6 in four innings; Bases on balls—off Woods 4, off Aiken 2, off Thiessen 2; Struck out—by Woods 5, by Aiken 2, by Thiessen 1; Left on bases—Plazas 9, Soldiers 11; Double play—Sone to Chambers to Morgan; Losing pitcher—Aiken. Umpires—Dormer at the plate, Batley on the bases.

CUTTING REAL FIGURE ON ICE—Ice-skating sisters, Carol Lee, left, and Margie, get together in Dayton, O., where Margie is appearing with the Hollywood Ice Revels. Carol is a featured performer with the Stars on ice show in New York. Carol is vacationing at Dayton.

Here and There in Sport

By The Canadian Press

Staging a 39-event program in 3½ hours, 16 schools participated in a sparkling athletic display including a parade of athletes and ceremonials for the annual Victoria Day track meet of the Toronto Secondary Schools Association. The North Toronto Collegiate squad carried off the championship with 34½ points.

Scoring his third successive win in 10 days, Pagan Star, owned by Neil Campbell, Okotoks, Alta., captured the 14th running of the $1,000 Alberta derby at Calgary yesterday, covering the seven furlongs in 1:27 2/5. Divulge, the second horse, was eight lengths behind.

The Philadelphia Nationals yesterday reduced their active player list to 27 by sending catcher Bill Asnke, discharged from the army last year, to Utica of the eastern league. The Philadelphia athletics also released outfielder Lou Flick to Toledo of the American association.

In Army Boots

Wearing regulation army boots, Pte. Leon H. Brown, 18, of Chatham, Ont., won the Camp Borden four-mile cross-country championship yesterday 29:37, with Tp. O. J. Marleau of Kirland Lake a close second. Seventy-five soldiers competed.

Grounded since Oct. 29, 1942, when he was suspended for alleged collusion with another rider in a race at Jamaica, Jockey Don Meade yesterday was reinstated by the stewards of the Jockey Club at New York. He was No. 1 rider in 1939 and 1941 and his previous successes included the winning of the 1933 Kentucky Derby on E. R. Bradley's Brokers Tip.

The Harness-Racing season opened at New Hamburg, Ont., on Victoria Day when Jackson Henley copped the free-for-all pace in three straight heats. Bruce Henley was the winner of the 2.20 pace, taking the second heat in 2:12¼ for the fastest mile of the card.

SPORTS-Day by Day

By FRED D. CRAIG

The U.E.W. team which was nosed out in the final innings of their first game of the season against St. Peter's in a City League fixture last night come right back tonight to meet Plazas in a league engagement at Riverside Park, with the action starting at 6.45 o'clock. The Union team made a good showing in their debut last night, with plenty of power at the plate and they could just as easily have started off their season with a win. They will be out tonight battling all the way to head off the Plazas and the latter will be just as eager for a victory to keep on the heels of Switchgear who are leading the loop with two straight wins. Either Don Isaac or Anderson will get the pitching call for the U.E.W. outfit against Plazas while the latter will likely call upon Dave Wilson. Eddie Starr is still out of the game for Plazas, but his injured thumb is improving and the hard-hitting backstop will probably see action before long. In the meantime Centrefielder Joe Blewett is making a good job of filling in for the injured catcher. He will likely be behind the plate again in tonight's game. It should be an argument, especially if the Union team's war clubs are swinging like they were last night.

* * * * * *

Girls' softball it gives tomorrow night again at the Ashburnham Bowl when a new entry in the Girls' City League this season, the Lock Works will clash with the Johnson Motors' team. Neither outfit has made any announcement so far as to its lineup, but the teams have been working out and they should stage an interesting argument all the way. Johnson Motors who were the new team in the loop last season earned brackets for their sportsmanship and the manner in which they filled every engagement in spite of the fact that victory consistently refused to perch on their banners. They are back this season, determined to make this a better season and they will have the encouragement of the fans who admired the spirit they showed during the 1943 race. Lock Works too, can be assured of plenty of support in their debut in organized sport. The game is called for 6.30 o'clock and a big crowd should be on hand to encourage these younger players from whom the teams to represent Peterborough in the Ontario Association will eventually have to be chosen.

* * * * * *

This Year's Soldier Team

The Military Training Centre club is always sure of a good following and there was a big crowd on hand Tuesday night to see the 1944 khaki team in action for the first time against Plazas. The latter won the argument 12 to 5 but the Soldiers showed enough to indicate that when they level away and get a few rough spots ironed out they will give their opposition plenty over which to worry. There were a few new faces in the lineup Tuesday night. The most notable new comer was Solly Sone, Toronto third baseman, who played baseball against Peterborough minor and senior clubs and also performed for the Dunlops of Toronto when they met the local representatives in the O.A.S.A. playdowns. Sone is a good fielder and also takes a nice cut up there at the plate and he should be a big help to the Soldiers during the current campaign. Of last season's team catcher Tony McIlveen, first baseman Harry Morgan and infielder Ossie Anderson and outfielders Huck Herrick and Doug Mortimer are still with the club. The Soldiers introduced a pair of new pitchers, Aiken and Thiessen, who would have got by a lot easier against the hard-hitting Plazas if their support had not failed them at critical moments. As a matter of fact eight of the Plazas 12 runs Tuesday night were unearned, although four of the five counters scored by the Soldiers were also in the same category.

* * * * * *

The Advisory Vocational Committee of the Collegiate Institute Board has had a plan outlined by which football, hockey and basketball players of the Interscholastic Leagues will be covered by medical insurance in future, says Billy Westwick in the Ottawa Journal. This plan has been under consideration by athletic heads here since last Fall and has met with the approval of representatives of all schools taking part in the regular inter-school schedules. It had its inception among football officials, who are associated with most other branches of school sports. A few schools in the past have had individual policies, but one rather expensive mishap and the possibility of others has led to the proposal to make it general. There have been very few serious accidents in interscholastic football in the past and those in charge have kept in mind the injury factor in adopting rule changes. While striving to make school football as thrilling and open as possible they have been always alert to the risks involved. In such body contact games as football and hockey there is always the chance of injury. The gridiron game has produced the most, with hockey second and basketball comparatively free of such mishaps. For some years now the possibility of accidents has been a source of worry to those charged with the direction of school athletics, and quite likely to the players' parents.

* * * * * *

Frankie Hayes Starring

Connie Mack's prediction some years ago that Frankie Hayes would develop into one of the great catchers of history is rapidly being verified. The Athletics' backstop, besides handling pitchers smartly and proving a tower of strength defensively, is becoming one of the most dangerous long distance hitters in the league. He demonstrated that yesterday in a tussle with the Detroit Tigers when he came to bat with the bases loaded and promptly drove the ball out of the park for a four-run homer that won the ball game. The rap was Hayes' sixth circuit clout of the season. It was tough on big Rufe Gentry, former Buffalo Bison star who is having a hard time building up anything that looks like a winning streak. As a matter of record he has won only one game and has four defeats marked against him. In the National League yesterday Rip Sewell showed that his cunning has not deserted him for he came through with a six-hit effort against the Boston Braves and the Pirates took the verdict 8 to 1. It was the veteran's fifth win of the campaign while he has had two losses. His opponent was no-hit Tobin, one of the aces of the Bostons staff. It was Tobin's fourth loss. He has had a similar number of wins.

* * * * * *

Jack Kramer of the St. Louis Browns became a six game winner last night when he held the Boston Red Sox to seven hits and the Brownies turned back Joe Cronin's men 7 to 3. Incidentally Emmett O'Neill of the Red Sox turned in one of the wildest relief jobs of the season when he walked four Brownies in a row and then fired a couple of wild pitches to send two of them home. The veteran Dutch Leonard pitched the Washington Senators to a 5 to 4 win over the Cleveland Indians. Leonard did not pass anybody and allowed only eight hits and was master of the situation after the Indians had scored four runs in the first innings. The Senators in coming from behind to take the verdict drove Lefty Al Smith to cover. In the National loop Paul Erickson of the Cubs made his first start of the season last night and it was very effective for he blanked the Phillies 2 to 0. Raffensberger was the losing pitcher for the Blue Jays.

* * * * * *

Sporting Chili Con Carne: Westclox have two teams in the Girls' Softball League and they had a flock of candidates out at a workout Tuesday night....It took a long while to get Pitcher Gene Reynolds of St. Peter's out....He started off with three hits and two walks in five trips to the plate in Monday night's game against Switchgear and last night Reynolds made three hits in a row before he was finally retired in the eighth inning, his first out of the season....Bill Walshe, sports editor of the Kingston Whig-Standard has returned to Toronto....Another shift takes Jim Binkley who has been connected with the Belleville Ontario-Intelligencer's sport department to Cornwall where he replaces Jack Park who has accepted a post with the London Free Press. ....With the Church League, Industrial League, and the men's and girls' city leagues all operating there should be enough softball just now to suit anybody.

Fights Last Night

By The Associated Press

Flint, Mich.—Jimmy Reeves, 170, Cleveland, outpointed Eddie Taylor, 171½, Detroit (10); Martin Doyle, 147, Birmingham, Ala., knocked out Otto Schmidt 150, Detroit (2).

Ookland, Cal.—Holman Williams, 160½, Chicago, outpointed Jack Chase, 160, Denver (12).

Move Fence In

BOSTON (AP)—In case the rest of the National League is interested, the rampaging fifth-place Boston Braves have whittled their outfield pasture by moving the right-field fence 20 feet—in-bound. The Braves yesterday opened a home stand of 11 days in a field that might be regarded as a bandbox since, by moving the fence, a chunk of 2,500 square feet melted off right field.

Additional Sport On Pages 2, 7, 17

Police Battle Irate Fans At Brock Arena

The Tunney wrestling rodeo at Brock Street arena Tuesday night wound up in the wildest riot in the local history of the game with city and provincial police having to take a hand in the battle, as maddened fans invaded the ring and attacked Al. Bunny Dunlop.

The brawl came after Frankie Sexton and John Katan had staged a grim fight in the main bout with the Panther, untamed and unscupulous, using his whole repertoire of rough stuff to give the popular Pacific Coast champion a rough ride.

Katan took the first fall in 14 minutes with his favorite chinlock, supplemented by a barrage of punches and Sexton came back after 11 minutes to even the match by throwing the tough Ukrainian-Canadian with a neck-twister hold in which the big Katan was snapped down in check-the-whiplash fashion.

Katan was rougher than ever in the early stages of the third round, subjecting Sexton to hair-pulling gouging, head and chin-locks and everything in the way of skulduggery that any of the bad men have dug up. Sexton finally turned on his tormentor and cut loose with a series of rights and lefts to the head that drove Katan across the ring and dropped him in the corner.

Crowd Takes A Hand

The Ohio grappler continued to pound the prostrate Panther and at this stage came the episode that sent the crowd into a frenzy. Al. Bunny Dunlop, pal of Katan's rushed into the ring in his street clothes and attacked Sexton. Bunny's arms were swinging as he flailed the popular Frankie. From the other side of the ring Nick Elitch who had tangled with Dunlop in the rough-house semi-final started to climb in to go to the rescue of Sexton. Simultaneously a score of fans rushed the ring and most of them got through the ropes and made a mass attack on Dunlop.

Constables Clair McGillen and John Morrow climbed into the ring to restore law and order and they got some valuable assistance from Soldier Frank Hewitt, the Camp Borden wrestler, who was a spectator at the bouts and helped the officers eject most of the fans from the ring.

In the meantime however Dunlop had climbed through the ropes and the battle was resumed outside the ring with Provincial Constables Price Morris and Lloyd McClure taking a hand in the affray as angry fans tore Dunlop's clothes and the Toronto wrestler fought back with both fists in action.

When the melee finally ended Dunlop's coat had been ripped and torn and he had scratches on his shoulders, Sexton sustained a jab on his knee that bled freely and Constable John Morrow had a cut finger. Casualties among the embattled fans were not listed.

Katan Disqualified

The wild riot cost Katan the bout. When comparative quiet was restored Referee Bert Maxwell raised Sexton's arm indicating that he was the winner. The official had disqualified Katan because of the interference staged by Bunny Dunlop.

It had been a tough bout, Katan, powerful, very strong in the arms and carrying the fight most of the way gave Sexton a rough passage but the Ohio smoothie did not back up any and at times he made things decidedly hot for the Panther. The neck-twisting hold with which he took the second fall was a new method and it was smoothly and effectively employed.

All the fighting was not confined to the main bout. Nick Elitch, the rotund New Yorker who should be called the human pile-driver from the manner in which he butted with his head and Bunny Dunlop clashed in the semi-final and it was a dog-fight all the way in which everything went. Dunlop used everything he knew including a kicking barrage against the New Yorker while Elitch's head was his best weapon. He butted the Toronto man right out of the ring on one occasion and Referee Maxwell heard the birds sing once when he got in the road of a head attack directed at Dunlop. Neither battler had secured a fall when the timer's bell rang just as Elitch had tossed Dunlop through the ropes.

Hit With Chair

Then there was a wild moment. Elitch climbed out after the Toronto battler and Dunlop sprinted until he reached a chair which he picked up and used as a weapon against the infuriated New Yorker. When Dunlop prodded him in the face with the chair Elitch went down in a heap, bleeding from a cut near his eye. He was up in a momenth or two and armed himself with a bench. Then he started to look for Dunlop but was overpowered and peace was finally restored.

The opening bout was comparatively mild compared to the other two. Cliff Bell, Syracuse, former amateur light-heavyweight champion was matched against the speedy Gyroffy finally took the battle after 18 minutes with a couple of monkey drops, the second one doing the trick.

Bert Maxwell refereed all three bouts and as usual Fred Scates held the watch and introduced the performers.

MUDDY MARCUS—One of the top jockies now riding in the midwest, Marcus Pena, above, needs a semi-bath after riding in a race on a muddy day at Chicago. Pena was the leading rider at the recent Sportsman's Park meeting.

17 Blue Jackets Formerly In Big Leagues

GREAT LAKES, Ill., May 25 — (AP).—There's no room for another major league baseball team and United States naval rules forbid, but many experts and fans are of the opinion a 17th big time squad is operating this season — at the Great Lakes naval training centre.

Seventeen of the 22 young sailors on the bluejacket roster at this big naval station were playing in the National and American League last season. The remaining five were on top of minor league clubs in 1943.

For the third successive year, Lieut. Mickey Cochrane has fielded an entirely new team. The Bluejackets have won their first six games, including victories over the Philadelpha Phillies and the Boston Red Sox.

The Bluejackets in 1943 won 52 of their 63 games but only 32 contests are scheduled this season, including 11 against big league teams.

Cochrane, whose American League career included managing Detroit, has an infield composed of former National Leaguers—Johnny McCarthy, Boston, first; Billy Herman, Brooklyn, second; Merrill May, Phillies, third, and Al Glossop, Dodgers shortstop.

Outfielders are Gene Wooding, Cleveland; Dick West, Cincinnati, and Mizell Platt, Chicago Cubs, with Schoolboy Rowe who pitched in both big leagues, available for outfield as well as pitching assignments. Other ex-major league hurlers are Virgil Trucks, Detroit; Junior Thompson, Cincinnati; Bill Brandt and Bob Klinger, Pittsburg; Si Johnson, Phillies, and Ed Weiland, Chicago White Sox.

Catchers from the big time are Clyde McCullough, Cubs; Bill Baker, Pirates and Joe Glenn, New York Yankees.

FOR SHAVING COMFORT YOUR BEST BET IS BLUE GILLETTE BLADES

TED HUSING
—Ace Reporter on Gillette's "Cavalcade of Sports"—says:

"YOU see, every Blue Gillette Blade fits the Gillette Razor exactly and protects you from the irritation of misfit blades. One reason is that the slot in the Blue Gillette is precisely centered so that the blade's edges are exactly parallel with the razor guard and have just the right degree of exposure. Your razor breezes through your whiskers. No drag! No pull! Your face looks well-groomed and feels refreshed."

C-285

FOR SORE AND TIRED FEET
OLYMPENE
THE ANTISEPTIC LINIMENT

J. J. DUFFUS CO.
PETERBOROUGH, ONT.

Complete Auto Service
MOTOR REPAIR, BODY BUMPING, REPAINTING
J. J. DUFFUS CO.
Tel. 5757

ERIC HOWARD
Comfort and Relaxation
Jantzen Swim Trunks

You can't beat swimming as a health conditioner so better drop in now while stocks are complete. We've a grand selection that will give beach appeal in addition to comfort.
Priced 2.50 Up

STRAW HATS 1.95 & 2.50
Dip crowns, fancy bands, cool and comfortable.

SUMMER WINDBREAKERS 3.95
A good outdoor garment. Sand shade with maroon or brown trim. Knitted collar and cuffs.

GRENFELL CLOTH WINDBREAKERS
Just arrived. Natural shade. Shower and windproof. Genuine quality ........ 10.95

•SUMMER TROUSERS •SPORT SHIRTS

Eric Howard
MEN'S APPAREL

3 Teams Seesaw For Top Spot In International

By The Associated Press

The International League, accustomed to cat and dog pennant fights right down to the wire, should prove no exception this year.

In the last four days three teams have occupied the top rung in the standings, the latest being Syracuse Chiefs, who took over while sitting out their scheduled game with the Newark Bears due to rain.

Before yesterday's games, Rochester Red Wings, who wrested first place from the Buffalo Bisons Monday, were two percentage points ahead of Syacuse. However, Rochester split with Montreal.

Rochester won the first game 8-6, as young Bill Emmerich hung up his fifth victory of the season.

The Royals bounced back to win the second, 9-2, with Elmer (Red) Durrett leading the attack with three for three, including a home run.

The fourth-place Toronto Maple Leafs and the third-place Buffalo Bisons exchanged places as the Maple Leafs took two games, a morning and a night affair, from the Bisons, 9-1 and 4-1. Al Jarlett won his fifth game in the opener and rookie Woody Crowson, his second.

Bobo Palica pitched Baltimore Orioles to within a game of the sixth-place Jersey City Giants, limiting the Jaycees to six hits as the Orioles won 8-1.

HE'S U.S. MILITARY SKI CHAMP—Military ski champion of the United States is Master Sergt. Clarence Campbell, above, of Fort Leavenworth, Wash., attached to the Mtg. 15th Special troops at Camp Hale, Colo. Campbell won his title by finishing first in the first of a series of annual military cross-country ski races to be held at Camp Hale.

Hatch Horses Win

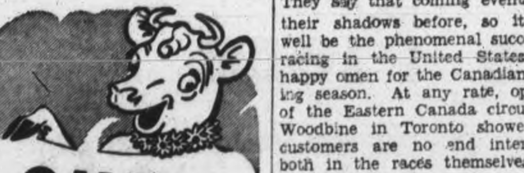
TORONTO (CP) — The double blue silks of Harry C. Hatch of Toronto, yesterday carried off first and second honors in the King Edward Gold Cup, feature attraction at Woodbine Park, when the four-year-olds Grandpal and Sweepgold finished a length apart.



CHEX
TONIGHT 9.30

HEAR THESE TONIGHT!

WHERE TO, CANADA?—A famous editor gives his impressions.

KING OF SWING—listen tonight to the man who's tops in Canada.

THE QUEEN TOLD HER—a report on the Canadian Red Cross Corps in England, by Mrs. Barston Tudball.

These and other attractions.

LORNE GREENE—Narrator

Borden's CANADIAN CAVALCADE

Presented by ©THE BORDEN COMPANY LIMITED

Canadian Sport Snapshots

By SYD THOMAS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, May 25 — (CP). — They say that coming events cast their shadows before, so it may well be the phenomenal success of racing in the United States is a happy omen for the Canadian Racing season. At any rate, opening of the Eastern Canada circuits at Woodbine in Toronto showed the customers are no end interested, both in the races themselves and in the betting.

The story was the same in Calgary when the western circuit opened recently with attendance and parimutuel figure showing substantial boosts. With all the war-promoted loose money around and Finance Minister Isley expected to ease taxation somewhat for the bettors in the lower or $2 ticket brackets, parimutuel marchines may well jangle up new records this year.

Even if record heights aren't scaled, everybody probably will be very happy about the whole thing, with the jockeys getting insurance benefits, the grooms more exercise money, and higher purses in some cases to sooth the owners.

Incidentally:

It's the same old ditty out on the West Coast as far as lacrosse is concerned. New Westminster Salmonbellies, Dominion champs, started the season off in their accustomed style by trouncing Army 16-11 in the opener....Bill Durnan is as stingy with the batters in a softball game as he was with the hopeful scorers in the N.H.L. last winter. He fanned 19 men as the Montreal Canadiens diamond outfit defeated an R.C.A.F. team recently.....Edmonton was the only important Canadian city without racing last summer, but that has been corrected. A 10-day meet will be held during August in the Alberta capital....Softball is looking up in Saint John, N.B., and promoters of a six-team league are hoping for one of the best seasons on record....St. Catharines, Ont., always a hotbed of lacrosse, is lagging this year with senior lacrosse in the doubtful stage. The good folk of St. Kitts won't even know what is in store for them until a meeting and election of officers is held the end of the month......Baseball prospects are excellent in Windsor, Ont., this summer and Doug Vaughan of the Windsor Star says there are several fancy professional prospects among the youngsters there. He predicts several may get offers from the pro loops before the summer is out.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press

Frankie Hayes Athletics—Clipped Walt Beck for bases-loaded home run in Philadelphia's 8-4 triumph over Detroit, his second grand slam of season.

Rip Sewell, Pirates—Held Boston to six safeties and helped own cause with pair of doubles, driving in three runs.

Paul Erickson, Cubs—Made first start of season a winning one by blanking Phils with five blows, fanning eight.

Author Dies

SAN DIEGO, Calif., May 25 (AP)—Harold Bell Wright, who left the pulpit to become one of the United States' famed fiction writers, died yesterday in a Lajolla, Calif., hospital. He was 72.

Frankie Hayes Clips Homer With Three On

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sport Writer

Connie Mack still rates as the diamond's No. 1 "David Harum" to-day on the performance of Frankie Hayes who was tabbed "all washed up" when he hit only .188 for St. Louis Browns in 1943.

Hayes' second bases-loaded homer of the season was the telling wallop as the Philadelphia A's took over fourth place in the American League yesterday with an 8-4 decision over Detroit.

Only three men have hit "grand slam" homers in 1944 but Hayes has done it twice. His clout off Rufe Gentry won another game from the Tigers 10 days ago.

Mack brought Hayes back to Philadelphia in January after an absence of a year and a half by shifting Pitcher Sam Zoldak, Outfielder Barney Lutz and a "small amount of cash" to the Browns. Zoldak has pitched only 1 1-3 innings for St Louis and Lutz is in the service and never played an inning.

Don Black was coasting to his third victory on the strength of Hayes' clout yesterday but the Tigers knocked him out and scored four runs in the ninth to ruin his shutout. He had allowed only two hits until the ninth but Joe Berry had to finish.

Jack Kramer climbed into the six-victory class as the Browns trimmed Boston, 7-3, and moved into second place in a night game.

Superb control and effective clutch hurling by Dutch Leonard helped Washington level Cleveland, 5-4, with an 11-hit attack on three Tribe hurlers.

Pittsburg's Rip Sewell pounded out two doubles and drove in three runs while taming Boston with six hits for an8-1 decision. Jib Tobin was the victim.

Paul Erickson made his first start a neat five-hit shutout as Chicago blanked the Phillies, 2-0, last night. Other games were postponed.

14 Expected In King's Plate

TORONTO, May 25—(CP)—The running of the King's Plate is only three days away and there is a possibility of a field of 14 lining up for the feature Canadian Classic.

Observers say the H. C. Hatch entries of Acara and Sayonara now loom as the public choices to capture the race following the fast mile trial of the grey colt Acara Tuesday.

Hatch at present has three candidates in the race—Acara, Sayonara and Ompala.

Western Canada will be represented by two in the Whittier Park Stock Farm's Gower Mon and Dr. L. H. Appleby's Cum Laude.

Observers say that considering Cum Laude and Gower Mon entrants, the others making up the field will be Acara, Sayonara; Charlie Hemstead's Hemfox and Patafryn; Cosgrave Stable's Gypster; Medway Stable's Korafloyd; Parkwood Stable's Heulwen and Heysiris; Riverdale Stable's Attester and Nimblefoot; Fred Perkin's Haggerty; and W. T. Newmarch's Fordo.

It has been rumored the J. E. F. Seagram silks of Waterloo, Ont., will not be represented.

Hollywood and HERE

By HYE BOSSIN

Who do you think ought to play Will Rogers on the screen? Right now John Wayne looks like the choice. . . The late John Barrymore, despite the family tradition, started out as an artist. Some fine short stories were found among his effects and they will be published by his brother Lionel. . . Gene Fowler, friend and biographer of Barrymore, has a trick which he claims saves time. After reserving seats to the theatre he sends a note to the manager the night before attending to the effect that "to-morrow night my wife will lose a pair of gloves" at so-and-so seat. . . The Red Cross and St. John Ambulance Corps each received a cheque for $12,500 as partial payment of the Canadian profits from "Forever and a Day," the RKO all-star film made gratis by British stars for USA, British and Canadian funds.

* * *

Joseph Calleia, the screen villain, is a British subject, having been born in Malta and educated in England. His debut on Maltese screens was quite an event, the citizens of Valetta crowding the theatre and his father occupying the Governor's box. In the film Calleia was killed. His father waved wildly to stop the film and ran weeping out of the theatre. It took the whole town to convince him that his son was still alive.

* * *

On the set of "None But the Lonely Heart" there is a penny amusement arcade. The extras, while waiting, put pennies in the machines. Each night the prop men remove the pennies and divide them. . . Cary Grant's marriage to the five-and-ten store heiress, Barbara Hutton, has provided a headache for Betty Hutton, who isn't even a relation. People keep writing to her to ask this and that about Grant, under the impression that he is Betty's husband. Many of the questions are very personal. The other day a woman asked Betty where she could find Cary Grant. "I haven't the slightest idea," Betty answered. "I should think," said the annoyed enquirer, "that you would know where your husband is!"

* * *

A number of Canadian newspapers have been editorializing about ladies who wear their eye-obstructing millinery in theatres. It has become a sort of a game, each making suggestions about what to do with them.

One paper said: "How about making it legal and in good taste for a man to give in to his real inner craving: to plant his big paw on the whole contraption and slowly grind it down to her ears."

* * *

The "Tugboat Annie" stories will return to the screen soon, with Marjorie Rambeau doing the Marie Dressler role and Charles Winninger the part originated by Wallace Beery. A studio has just purchased 21 of the stories from Norman Reilly Raine, the author, who hails from Toronto and was with the RCAF in the first World War. . . Judy Garland will have the lead in the new version of showboat. . . Mae West, preparing for that role, signs her letters "Catherine the Great."

Baseball Results and Record

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Syracuse | 13 | 9 | .591 |
| Rochester | 17 | 12 | .586 |
| Toronto | 14 | 11 | .560 |
| Buffalo | 14 | 12 | .538 |
| Montreal | 14 | 14 | .500 |
| Jersey City | 12 | 13 | .480 |
| Baltimore | 10 | 13 | .435 |
| Newark | 8 | 18 | .308 |

Wednesday's Results

Toronto 4-9, Buffalo 1-1
Rochester 6-2, Montreal 6-9
Baltimore 8, Jersey City 1
Syracuse at Newark—postponed.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| St. Louis | 21 | 9 | .700 |
| Cincinnati | 17 | 11 | .607 |
| Pittsburgh | 15 | 10 | .600 |
| Philadelphia | 12 | 14 | .462 |
| Brooklyn | 13 | 16 | .448 |
| New York | 13 | 17 | .433 |
| Boston | 14 | 19 | .424 |
| Chicago | 9 | 18 | .308 |

Wednesday's Results

Pittsburgh 8, Boston 1
Chicago 2, Philadelphia 0
Cincinnati at New York—postponed.
St. Louis at Brooklyn—postponed.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| New York | 17 | 10 | .630 |
| St. Louis | 18 | 15 | .545 |
| Washington | 16 | 14 | .433 |
| Philadelphia | 15 | 15 | .500 |
| Detroit | 15 | 17 | .469 |
| Boston | 14 | 16 | .467 |
| Cleveland | 14 | 18 | .438 |
| Chicago | 13 | 17 | .433 |

Wednesday's Results

Philadelphia 8, Detroit 4
Washington 5, Cleveland 4
Boston 8, St. Louis 7
New York at Chicago—postponed.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Wednesday's Results

Columbus 3, Minneapolis 1
Louisville 10, Milwaukee 5
Kansas City at Indianapolis—postponed.

Major League Leaders

By The Associated Press

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Batting—Tucker, Chicago .395
Runs—R. Johnson, Boston 28
Runs batted in—Tabor, Boston, Stephens, St. Louis and Seerey, Cleveland 22.
Hits—Torres, Washington 39
Doubles—Doerr, Boston 12
Triples—Gutteridge, St. Louis 5
Home runs—Hayes, Philadelphia and Seerey, Cleveland 6
Stolen bases — Stirnweiss, New York 8
Pitching—Harder, Cleveland and Leonard, Washington, 4-0.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Batting—Walker, Brooklyn .424
Runs—Bordagaray, Brooklyn 27
Runs batted in—Schultz, Brooklyn 33
Hits—Walker, Brooklyn 50
Doubles—Homes, Boston 13
Triples—Barrett, Pittsburgh 6
Home runs—Schultz, Brooklyn 6
Stolen bases—Macon, Boston 6
Pitching—Lanier, St. Louis 6-0

GIVEN A MERRY CHASE

LONDON —(CP)— It took two policemen, 10 men of a heavy-rescue bombing squad and the use of a police van to recapture a wallaby which escaped from London Zoo. The wallaby is a kind of kangaroo.

Theatres - Dances - Radio

Harness Racing At New Hamburg

NEW HAMBURG, May 25—(CP)—Harness racing opened here on Wednesday with good brands of trotting and pacing being displayed. Threatening weather affected the attendance.

Lastic Grattan, veteran and iron-sided gelding, who has for years thrilled racing fans by lowering track records throughout Ontario as a pacer, perhaps gave the crowd its biggest thrill when he started with a field of trotters in his first performance as a diagonal gaited performer.

Summary:

2:28 Pace — Amber Light (Wilmore), 1-1; May Chillo (Gray), 2-5 Vera Baldwin (Hillock), 7-2; Helene Grattan (Brough), 3-3; Dazzle Henley (Turvey), 4-4; Del Peters (Milton), 5-6; Chas. Abdell (Fields), 6-7. Times 2:18¾, 2:19½.

2:24 Trot — Lastic Grattan (Hillock), 1-3; Minto Harvester (Milton), 3-1; Midnight Volo (Linberg), 2-2; Duke Volo (Fields), 4-5; Mr. Oakie (Ownes), 5-4; Winston Worthy (Louton), 6-dr. Times—2:20, 2:21.

2:20 Pace — Bruce Henley (Thompson), 1-1; Bud Volo (Linberg), 2-4; Lina Lee (Milton), 5-2; Bob Canuck (Ford), 3-3; Peter Brooke (Fields), 4-5. Times—2:15½, 2:12¼.

Free-for-All Pace — Jackson Henley (Linberg) 1-1-1; Lena Henley (Wilmore), 2-2-2; Barton Grattan, Jr. (Milton), 3-3-3; Callie G. (House), 4-4-4; Laura Bell (Fields), 5-6-5; Ex Ra (Grey), 6-5-6. Times—2:13¼, 2:15¼, 2:18.

TONIGHT 7.45 P.M.
Something to Sing about
WGR 550 ON YOUR DIAL
EVERY EVENING MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY

MOVIE TIME TABLE

Capitol — "Lady in the Dark", 2.40, 4.50, 7.05, 9.15. Last complete show, 8.45.

Centre — "Riding High", 1.35, 4.20, 7.05, 9.50; "Here Comes Kelly" 3.12, 6.03, 6.50.

Regent—"George in the Home Guard", 1.30, 3.30, 5.40, 7.45, 9.50.

Four-Piece Orchestra
Open For Engagements
'Phone 8532

Regent
NOW PLAYING
A Favorite Of All
Mat. Daily 1.30
GEORGE FORMBY in
George in the Home Guard
A NEWER, FUNNIER GEORGE
IN HIS BEST HIT - HILARIOUS ROLE
Plus!
Canada Carries On – Trans-Canada Express and Latest News

CENTRE To-day FRI. And SAT.
Two—Excellent Hits—Two

PLUS! UNDERGROUND WORLD - SUPERMAN CARTOON

PETER PAN BREAD

Kiddies! "THE ADVENTURES OF PETER PAN" CHEX—5:45 p.m. Mondays and Fridays
Wonder Bakeries Limited Phone 9164
The WHITE Loaf that's light and fluffy. At your store—At your door

SHOPPING these days really requires fitness. Eno helps to cleanse the system of the wastes and excess gastric acids that most always bring on sluggishness, indigestion and a listless feeling that take the edge off life. Sparkling and refreshing, Eno is pleasant to take—free of harsh, bitter salts, gentle but effective in its action. Buy a large bottle today from any druggist.
ENO'S 'FRUIT SALT'
SPARKLING AND REFRESHING BEFORE BREAKFAST

What's On the Air

| Stations | Kilocycles |
|---|---|
| CHEX | 1430 |
| CBL | 740 |
| CFRB | 860 |
| WEAF | 660 |
| WJZ | 770 |
| WABC | 880 |

Symbols: D—Drama, M—Musical, R—Religious, S—Songs, T—Talk, V—Variety, N—News

This Program has been given the Peterborough Examiner by stations herein listed. If the presentations as scheduled are not on the air, the fault lies with the stations and not with the Examiner.

Radio Station CHEX Carries the News on the Hour

THURSDAY EVENING

6:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Tunes
CBL—Relax and Enjoy-M

6:15 P.M.
CHEX—Singing Strings
WJZ—Terry and Pirates-D
CBL—Market Report
WABC—On Your Mark-T

6:30 P.M.
CHEX—News, Rhythm R'nd-up
WJZ—Whose War Is This?
WABC—Jeri Sullivan-S

6:45 P.M.
CHEX—Voice and Song
CBL—BBC News
WABC—The World To-day-T
WEAF—Lowell Thomas-N

7:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Sport Cast
WABC—I Love Mystery-D
CFRB—Vic and Sade-D
WJZ—Kelly's Courthouse

7:15 P.M.
CHEX—School Children
WABC—Passing Parade

7:30 P.M.
CHEX—Down Nature Trails
WABC—Mr. Keen
WEAF—Bob Burns-V
CBL—Rhythm Musicale

7:45 P.M.
CHEX—Harry Horlick
CBL—News Roundup
WJZ—Evening Serenade-M
CFRB—So the Story Goes

8:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Home Hour
CFRB—Sports Clubs
CBL—Songs of Liberty
WEAF—Fannie Brice
WABC—Suspense

8:30 P.M.
CHEX—Without a Sponsor
CFRB—The Army Speaks
CBL—Aldrich Family
WJZ—Town Meeting-T
WABC—Death Valley Days-D

8:45 P.M.
CHEX—To be announced.

9:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Barn Dance
CBL—Music Hall-V
CFRB—March of Money
WABC—Maj Bowes Amateurs

9:30 P.M.
CHEX—Canadian Cavalcade
WEAF—Joan Davis-V
CBL—Fighting Navy
CFRB—Ontario Panorama
WABC—Dinah Shore Show

10:00 P.M.
CHEX—Light Up and Listen
CBL—CBC News
WEAF—Abbott and Costello-V
WABC—The First Line

10:15 P.M.
CBL—Promenade Symphony
CFRB—Morgan Thomas Or.

10:30 P.M.
CHEX—Swing for Services-V
WEAF—March of Time
WJZ—Stop or Go-V
WABC—Here's to Romance-V

11:00 P.M.
CHEX—News
CBL—Radio Newsreel
CFRB—News

FRIDAY MORNING

6:00 A.M.
CHEX—Early Risers

6:30 A.M.
CHEX—News

7:00 A.M.
CHEX—News

7:15 A.M.
CHEX—Eveready Early Birds

7:45 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Cheer

8:00 A.M.
CHEX—News
CFRB—Jim Hunter-N
WEAF—News Roundup
WJZ—Kibitzers-V

8:15 A.M.
CHEX—Breakfast Musicale
WEAF—Do you Remember?
CBL—Morning Devotions

8:45 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Devotions
CFRB—Coffee Club

9:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Salon Strings
CBL—Mirth and Madness
WJZ—Breakfast Club-V

9.15 A.M.
CFRB—Sing Along Club
CHEX—On Parade

9:30 A.M.
CHEX—Console Airs

9:45 A.M.
CHEX—Dick Manning
CBL—Music While You Work
CFRB—Life Is Mine-D

10:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Masterworks
CFRB—Melody Mustangs
CBL—Band Plays On WJZ—Sweet River-D

10:15 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Masterpieces
CFRB—How Goes the Chorus?
WABC—Kitty Foyle-D

10:30 A.M.
CHEX—Peter McGregor-D
CFRB—Mrs Aitken-T
CBL—Wartime Housekeeping
WJZ—My True Story-D

10:45 A.M.
CHEX—Master Singers-M
WEAF—Timmy Taylor-S
WJZ—The Listening Post-D
CBL—Monica Mugan-T

11:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; An. Kostelanetz
CBL—Road of Life-D
WABC—Honeymoon Hill-D

11:30 A.M.
CHEX—Invit to Syncopation
CBL—Soldier's Wife-D
WABC—Bright Horizon-D

11:45 A.M.
CHEX—On the Lighter Side
WJZ—Baby Institute
WABC—Aunt Jennie-D

FRIDAY AFTERNOON

12:00 NOON
CHEX—News; Home Folk Hour
WABC—Kate Smith Speaks
CBL—BBC News

12:15 P.M.
CFRB—Farm Broadcast
CBL—Big Sister-D

12:30 P.M.
CHEX—News, Farm News
CFRB—Life Can Be Beautiful

1:00 P.M.
CHEX—News, Home Folks
CBL—CBC News
CFRB—Sam Adams
WEAF—Sketches in Melody-M

1:15 P.M.
CFRB—Neighbors
CBL—The Happy Gang
WJZ—Woman's Exchange

1:30 P.M.
CHEX—Who's New To-day
CFRB—Tropical Moods
WABC—Bernadine Flynn-T

1:45 P.M.
CHEX—They Tell Me-T
WJZ—Girl Back Home

2:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Victor Salon Or.
CFRB—Our Gal Sunday-D
WEAF—The Guiding Light-D
CBL—Matinee Melodies

2:15 P.M.
CHEX—A to Z
WEAF—To-day's Children-D
WJZ—Mystery Chef-T
WABC—Joyce Jordan-D

2:30 P.M.
CHEX—Stars of the Week
WEAF—Light of World-D
CBL—Mutual Goes Calling

2:45 P.M.
CHEX—Meet the Band

3:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Holl'w'd Premiere
CBL—Women of America
WJZ—Morton Downey-S

3:15 P.M.
CBL—Report from Navy
CFRB—At the Console
WJZ—App'tment with Life-D

3:30 P.M.
CHEX—Alf Standen, pianist
CBL—Pepper Young-D
CFRB—Homefolks Frolic-M
WABC—Now and Forever-D

3:45 P.M.
CHEX—Voice of Memory
WABC—Life is Mine

4:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Ballroom Time
WJZ—Blue Frolics-V
WABC—Broadway Matinee

4:30 P.M.
CHEX—News, Ballroom Time
CFRB—Wonderland
WEAF—Lorenzo Jones-D
CBL—The Listenaires-M

4:45 P.M.
WABC—Raymond Scott Show
WJZ—The Sea Hound-D
WEAF—Widder Brown-D

5:00 P.M.
CHEX—Robertson Davies-N
WABC—Fun with Dunn
CBL—Frontline Family-D
WEAF—When Girl Marries-D

5:05 P.M.
CHEX—Lindsay Salute

5:15 P.M.
WJZ—Dick Tracy-D
CFRB—Fun with Dunn

5:30 P.M.
CFRB—Three Sisters-S
WJZ—Jack Armstrong-D
WEAF—Just Plain Bill-D

5:45 P.M.
CHEX—Adven. of Peter Pan
CFRB—Nightime
WABC—American Women
WEAF—Front Page Farrell-D

BRIDAL ROSE DIAMONDS
That she will be proud to wear through her many years of marriage. Fully insured and guaranteed for one year.
BERT AUSTIN
JEWELER
196 Charlotte St. Phone 5451

This Week
SUMMER GARDENS PETERBOROUGH
FRIDAY DANCING "Melody Men"
SATURDAY DANCING "MELODY MEN"

Extra Excellent Technicolor Short "LUCKY COWBOY" Latest Canadian Universal News
Capitol Today
A FAMOUS PLAYERS THEATRE

Jap Carries Christian Message From German To Americans

BY ROBERT EUNSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

SOMEWHERE IN AUSTRALIA, May 25 — (CP) — A Japanese soldier carried a final Christian message from a German Catholic Priest to two captured American airmen awaiting their fate near Madang, New Guinea, last July.

This story was told to me by August Beuers, mission brother from Muenster, Germany, who was among the 100 missionaries liberated when American troops seized Hollandia from the Japanese last month.

Beuers said he was bound hand and foot and was lying on the floor of a native hut when Japanese soldiers brought in two Americans. The Japanese untied Beuers and used the ropes to bind the Americans.

Through an interpreter Beuers related that the Americans were kept bound on the floor with no food and little water for several days.

"Finally, they took the Americans away," he said. "A few days later a Japanese soldier named Torino came in and said Maj. Natehara, our captor, had ordered the Americans executed. We didn't know whether he was speaking the truth. He told us the Americans had asked for a bible but Natehara had refused.

"I can't cut their heads off without giving them a Christian message or they will come back and haunt me," Torino told us," Beuers said.

The German then related how Father Luttman, a German missionary who later died in captivity, gave Torino the Biblical phrases "Let not your heart be troubled. Ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions. I go to prepare a place for you. I will come again and receive you unto myself, that where I am Ye may also be."

Beuers said Torino, who spoke English, memorized the message.

"Several days later the natives told us Torino had cut off the Americans' heads," Beurers said. "But we don't really know what happened."

If Not, Try This Tonight

When you awake in the morning do you feel vigorous and glad to be alive or do you feel weary and depressed? If the latter, try a cup of New, Improved Ovaltine warm at bedtime.

Taken at bedtime, New, Improved Ovaltine helps to relieve that feeling of nervous tension. Its special food elements, processed for easy digestion, and its rich supply of Vitamins A, $B_1$, and D and the minerals Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron help to replenish worn out muscle, nerve and body cells.

So why not try New, Improved Ovaltine? See if it doesn't help you to wake up fresher and more buoyant. Get Ovaltine at your drug or food store.

NEW, IMPROVED
OVALTINE
104

CLOSE VIEW "HUMAN TORPEDO"—The "human torpedo" with which the British sank an Italian cruiser in Palermo harbor is shown here being lowered over the side of a warship. The gadget actually is a submarine launch, carrying a torpedo warhead. Two men, wearing diving helmets, ride the thing as if aboard a motorcycle.

MORE ABOUT—
Canadians
Continued from Page 1

open and the speed with which the Canadians are advancing threatens the Germans with the alternative of withdrawing or being cut off from their retreat route along the Via Castilina-Highway No. 6

A Tough Route.

At the southern end of the Canadian sector, a combat team fanned out with tank support along roads northwest of Pontecorvo. The going here was tougher than in the central part of the Liri Valley, because of bomb craters and many mines left by the Germans

Progress is being made, however, although the Germans showed some semblance of fighting a rearguard action with tanks, mortars and amchine guns.

The general German withdrawal northwest along the Liri Valley wasn't surprising in view of Tuesday's smash through the Hitler line by the Canadian corps, fighting for the first time as a corps.

The enemy lost more than 500 prisoners to the Canadians in that assault and had little choice but to fall back towards the next defence line.

Canadian infantry cracked the line of prepared positions which were supposed to be impregnable and the results achieved are considered worth the price.

The spirit of the Canadians was never higher and friendly rivalry between the men has developed to the point where bets already are being placed as to who will reach Rome first, if it so happens that Rome lies within the orbit of the Canadian advance.

The prisoner total continues to mount with the figure beyond the 500 mark. The drive towards the Melfa River netted another good bag but the figures were not available when this dispatch was written.

Canadian troops encountered a minimum of enemy armor during Wednesday's action but incomplete reports showed three tanks and two self-propelled guns were knocked out. Two of the destroyed tanks were powerful Tigers.

The Air Force had a field day at the expense of German transport withdrawing along Highway No. 6. One pilot after a successful strafing attack messaged: "Much joy, much flak."

MORE ABOUT—
6 Dead, 36 Hurt
Continued from Page 1

right arm, shoulder and face and farcture of left radius, right hip; condition "about the same."

Mrs. Gwen Gallagher, 25, fracture of left arm and femur, burns on left hand and leg, condition "a little better."

Mrs. Margaret Muir, 42 fractured right shoulder and ribs, punctured lung; condition unchanged.

Miss Clark, who suffered multiple burns to her entire body, was reported "a little worse."

Cause of the fire, which broke out just at midnight, was unknown. Two investigators from the Ontario Fire Marshal's Office were surveying the ruins with Hamilton's Fire Chief, William Murdoch, but they said they would have nothing to say until they reported back to Toronto.

MORE ABOUT—
Stern Treatment
(Continued from Page 1)

Comment Varies

Editorial comment on the speech was mixed.

Some papers commended it as a brilliant survey. But the London Daily Herald, a Labor paper, criticized Mr. Churchill's remarks on Spain, and the influential Manchester Guardian expressed disappointment at what it called Mr. Churchill's attempt "to justify our refusal to recognize the French National Committee as a provisional government (of France)."

The Times praised the survey as "frank in its treatment of the past and broad and constructive in its approach to the future."

The Daily Telegraph said "Mr. Churchill's account will do or ought to do two things: namely, show what is the touchstone of our relations with other countries and show our soldiers what they are fighting for."

The Daily Mail said "it is hard to see how recognition of his (de Gaulle's) committee as a provisional administration would prejudice any subsequent wishes of the French people."

MORE ABOUT—
Americans Reach
Continued from Page 1

the beachhead.

Allied Headquarters announced yesterday an offensive had been launched from the beachhead, synchronized with a powerful push by the Canadian Corps against the remaining Hitler line defences in the Liri Valley.

In the first phase of the beachhead thrust, British infantry and tanks crossed the Moletta River north and slightly west on Anzio, while American troops cut the Appian Way and a railway line near Cisterna.

Contact by patrols was made a few miles southeast of the beachhead on the coastal highway between Terracina and Anzio.

"Thus the 5th Army established land communications with the bridgehead for the first time since the landing was made on Jan. 22," the communique said.

"Troops from the main front, overcoming powerful enemy resistance, have fought their way forward relentlessly since the night of May 11 over some of the most difficult terrain of the whole Italian campaign.

An official spokesman declared the beachhead had played "a most important role in the strategy of the Italian campaign" because the enemy was unable to ignore this threat or to deal with it.

The special communique said the 5th Army, which is fighting alongside the British 8th Army in the 13-day-old offensive, advanced "more than 60 miles in only 14 days."

MORE ABOUT—
Rail Yards
Continued from Page 1

Britain and Italy, Allied bombers dropped more than 5,500 tons of explosives during the day.

Fighters and lighter bombers raked railyards and airfields behind the Channel fortifications in France and Belgium, making a total of at least 3,800 sorties for the day from Britain.

Over England.

German raiders flew over the southeast coast of Britain and East Anglia during the night, dropping bombs at one place. No damage or casualties were reported.

In the Tuesday night of the air offensive, R.A.F. Mosquitoes hit Berlin and Dortmund and attacked French rail targets, while R.C.A.F. heavy bombers mined enemy waters. These operations were carried out without loss.

An American communique to-day said bomb concentrations fell near Templehof airdrome and in the vicinity of the Schlesicher railroad station in the rain on Berlin yesterday while the Rechlen-Lars airfield and other districts of the capital were bombed with good effect.

In the stab at the Paris area the Melun, Orly, Creil, and Poix airfields were also damaged, with the most damage done at Orly and Melun.

VANILLA FLAVOR

Puerto Rican horticulturalists have crossed the vanilla vine with the cashew nut tree.

Obituary

NORMAN BICKERTON EDMISON

Norman Bickerton Edmison, well-known farmer of Smith township, passed away after an illness of five weeks in Nicholls Hospital Wednesday. He was in his 59th year.

Born in Peterborough, Mr. Edmison, whose home was on R.R. No. 4, Smith, was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Edmison. Prior to moving to Smith district 32 years ago he lived on R.R. No. 1, Peterborough. He was a leading member of George Street United church.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, the former Olive Switzer; three daughters, Mrs. John H. Bush (Laura), of Norwich, Conn., and Margaret and Helen of Peterborough; and a granddaughter Mary Bush. A sister, Mrs. Clayton Sanderson, resides in Smith township, and a brother Arthur, lives in Toronto. Another brother, Harry, was killed in the Great War in 1915.

The body is resting at the late residence, R.R. No. 4, Smith township, until Saturday at 1.30 p.m.; and the funeral will be held that afternoon at 3 o'clock from George Street United church, with services conducted by Rev. H. L. Roberts. Interment in Little Lake cemetery.

GUIDE TRAINING

Homemaking, health and safety are the most popular Girl Guide training programs.

INDEPENDENT

MORE QUALITY FOR EACH FOOD DOLLAR!

Vegetable Soup AYLMER 3 for 25c
Pork & Beans AYLMER 20-oz. Size 10c
Pumpkin LARGE SIZE 28 oz. - 2 for 23c
Corn Flakes QUAKER or KELLOGG'S 2 for 15c
Pure Jam RASPBERRY, GRAPE, PEACH lb 20c

THANK YOU MRS. CONSUMER

This week is Mrs. Consumer week across Canada, and your Peterborough Independent Grocer wishes to express his appreciation of the co-operation the women of Peterborough have displayed in the observance of wartime regulations, rationing, etc.

Pure Lard MAPLE LEAF - 2 lb 27c
Cooking Onions SILVER SKIN lb 8c
Fresh Tomatoes - lb 23c
Pork Tenderloin FRESH lb 45c
Pot Roast Beef ROLLED COMMERCIAL lb 29c
Rolled Beef PRIME RIB COMMERCIAL lb 40c

PETERBOROUGH INDEPENDENT FOOD STORES

J. WILSON, Sherbrooke St. Dial 7615
LATIMER'S, McDonnel at Aylmer Dial 3586
HARRISON'S, Parkhill at Water Dial 4531
M. BRAUND Chamberlain St. Dial 3564
RAY HEALEY, Lock St. Dial 4935
H. S. POWERS, 340 George, Groceries only Dial 5323
CROWE'S GROCERY, Armour Road. Dial 9787

RICHARD HALL LIMITED

COOL FOR SUMMER

Two Piece
SUIT-DRESSES
8.95

These cotton two piece dresses are the leading ladies for the warm days that are coming (and it won't be long now). Choose your dresses from this wide assortment of printed waffle piques, woven seersuckers, striped chambrays, novelty plaid ginghams, aero-linens, spun rayons with coin spots and many others. Tailored with easy fitting gored or front pleated skirts and fitted jackets with frilled or tailored necklines. Sizes 11 to 17 and 12 to 20.

COLOURS:
BLUE
GREEN
RED
POWDER BLUE
BROWN & WHITE

6.95

- WOVEN SEERSUCKERS
- PLAID GINGHAMS
- MIAMI CLOTH

You'll be happy to have made your selection early from these cool crisp frocks . . Wear them . . . Wash them dresses. These 2 piece cotton frocks are so cleverly styled that you'll be amazed at their smartness, quality and fit. Make your selection now while we still have your colour and style in stock. Sizes 12 to 20.

Winning Styles In SUMMER HATS

Now that the warmer weather is here, you'll be needing cooler hats. See our collection of beguiling small and large brimmed felts in the soft flattering shades with mohair trimming—navy and black imitation leghorns—checked taffetas—white malayan straws bedecked with gros grain ribbon—flattering veils and organdie rucheing.

3.95

5761 Phone RICHARD HALL LIMITED PHONE 5761

The Peterborough Examiner
VOL. LXXXIX, No. 122 THURSDAY, MAY 25 PAGE NINE

INDIA'S FIGHTING MEN WITH CANADIANS—Not so many years ago this picture might have represented the Far East clamoring for skills and education only the West could provide. Today, the picture indicates the co-operation between East and West in the fight for freedom, civilization and future prosperity. It shows fighting men of India giving their fierce war-cry as they prepare to stand beside Canadians, British and Americans in the war against the Axis. This new view of the Far East is reviewed dramaticalll in the National Film Board's World In Action release, When Asia Speaks."

Main Street Topics

T OF BOUNDS

The Otonabee river from Inverlea ...rk to two miles below the sewage ...sposal plant and the Trent Canal ...om the Lift Lock to Little Lake ...ave been placed out of bounds ...r swimming for soldiers according ...o orders issued by M.D. No. 3.

N HOSPITAL

Lieut. Gerry Duffus of the Royal Indian Navy Volunteer Reserve, who was on his way home for a furlough, has been hospitalized in England, where he is suffering from a tropical disease. He is the son of Senator J. J. Duffus and Mrs. Duffus.

93rd BIRTHDAY

George Rollins, 93, Madoc tinsmith, reached his 93rd birthday, May 23. He has carried on his business in the village sixty-five years and is still active at his trade. Furthermore he is usually one of the first men downtown to open his workshop every morning.

COUSIN DIES

News of the recent passing of her cousin, Mrs. James H. Bride, at Pierson, Man., has been received by Mrs. F. J. Redpath, 641 Water street. Mrs. Bride, who was 81 years old, was the former Annie Fanning and at one time she made her home at Fraserville.

$5 WINNERS.

The following names were drawn for $5. War Savings certificates in aid of the bomber fund at the Canadian Legion Wednesday night bingo: Wallace Wagar, 253 Wolfe street. June Riel, 103 Rubidge street, Dorothy Millar, 222 Carsile avenue, Robert Hotrum, 533 Sherbrooke street.

AIRMEN GRADUATE.

Recent graduates from Royal Canadian Air Force stations in Canada included Sgt. G. A. Metcalfe of, of Norwood from the navigators' school at Winnipeg; Sgt. E. R. C. Casey, 269 John street, Peterborough from the bombing and gunnery school at Mont Joli. Quebec, and Sgt. A. E. Vardy of Bancroft, from the same school.

RETURNED FROM REST CAMP

According to news coming from Italy Col. Charles Fisher, Pte. Rick Roberts of Peterborough, Pte. Rick Watson and Pte. Elgin Bruce of Bancroft and Pte. Garnet Raynard of Bobcaygeon are again back with their unit in Italy after a seven day leave in the Eighth Army Rest Camp.

BANK CLEARINGS.

Clearing House figures for the past week amounted to $1,011,520.

THREE FIREMEN

Belleville has decided to engage three more firemen at $1,200 each the first year, $1,320 the second and $1,448 the third. A committee report had recommended seven new men.

PETERBOROUGH ATTACKED

Strong formations of low-flying mosquitoes attacked Peterborough Wednesday night. The raiders were in considerable strength and the attacks were determinedly driven home. Casualties among the civilian population were numerous but not serious. An undetermined number of the intruding dive-bombers was destroyed by our night fighters.

THE QUIETEST YET

Yesterday was probably the quietest Victoria Day in Peterborough's history. For the first time not a firecracker snapped and fireworks of any kind were a decidedly scarce commodity. Some of the stores had some odds and ends of Roman candles and sky rockets left over from last year but they disappeared in a hurry Tuesday and were scarcely noticeable around town last night. Fireworks are out for the duration and there will be none available even for the end-of-the-war celebration.

Obituary

MRS. HERBERT J. DUFFUS

The funeral of Mrs. Herbert Duffus, the former Annie Shauhnessy, took place on Wednesday from the family residence, 269 Romaine street, to the Church of the Sacred Heart and was largely attended. Rev. J. J. O'Brien, pastor of the church where she had worshipped ever since it was dedicated, sang requiem mass. Rev. Herbert Fitzgerald of Trout Creek and Rev. J. F. Houlihan were present in the sanctuary.

Spiritual and floral tokens were many and as an added tribute to her activity in church and charitable works a guard of honor composed of members of St. Anthony's Society and Catholic Women's League formed at the church and attended the service in a body. Rev. J. F. Houlihan conducted the services at the graveside in St. Peter's Cemetery.

Honorary pallbearers were William Fitzgerald, Leonard Clancy, James Burnie, Jerry Corkery. Active pallbearers were Joseph Crowley, George Lush, Elmer Clancy, Harry Bryant, Fred Kylie and Alphonsus Coughlin.

Relatives and friends from Lindsay, Toronto, Whitby, Keene, Harwood and Belleville were present at the funeral.

4 Nuns Die

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad May 25.—(CP Cable).—Four nuns were burned to death Tuesday in a fire that almost completely destroyed a block of buildings of St. Joseph Convent here.

War—4 Years Ago

By The Canadian Press

May 25, 1940 — Germans captured Boulogne, channel port, occupied Ghent and Courtrai in Belgium, encircled Calais and overran Vimy Ridge. Premier Reynaud disclosed that 15 French generals were relieved of commands when General Maxime Weygand was named generalissimo of Allied armies.

Clare E. Althouse
Presents
Madame Estelle, facial messeure expert at the new dermathia studio, at 408½ George St.
PHONE 5201
For Appointments

The PETERBORO METAL COMPANY
Plumbing and Heating Materials
256 Simcoe St. Tel. 8301

Sergeants Mess Marks May 24 By Gift To Fund

Not so long ago a great deal was made of May 24. birthday of her late Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria of blessed memory, and featuring as it did a holiday of a national character, it did much to promote that bond of union that should prevail between this country and the Motherland, although it was perhaps regarded by some in the nature of the spring holiday when the whole family could gather for their first outing in the open after a long winter.

In the trying times through which the Empire is passing, when the genuine thought behind the celebration of the day itself is more than ever needed, it would seem a pity that the exigencies of war should to some extent mar its recognition in an appropriate manner, for when one recalls the events of just the immediate past, there is much to remind all and sundry of how well this union of nations within the commonwealth is justly entitled to celebrate an Empire Day that is a reality in deeds consumated, and not a mere figure of speech.

Through many long years in the history of this city and district, a loyalty to the country and the motherland has been nurtured by those who have worn and are wearing the King's uniform as members, first of all of the old 57th Regiment, and later perpetuated by Prince of Wales Rangers, which has found and is still finding expression through those who have offered life itself every time the need has arisen to go forth and fight in defence of that freedom for which the Empire has always stood

Mark Empire Day By Gift

It has been the privilege of the secretary of the local and district British War Victims' Fund (itself an expression of loyalty to the Motherland) to be present at a few really soul stirring events which had both patriotism and a genuine regard for the welfare of less fortunate people in the motherland as the root of their inception, and this story is really wrapped around such a one as took place to mark Empire Day, in the Sergeant's Mess of the Prince of Wales Rangers late on Tuesday night, after another of their regular parades had passed into history.

In an atmosphere that would do credit to the finest of any establishment of a similar nature, surrounded by many of the members interested in giving a helping hand to the war torn sufferers in the front line in Britain, R.S.M. Chate presented a box of money they had been raising for that purpose to the writer, who then was given a willing hand to count its contents.

On completion this was found to amount to $27.30, all of it in small change given by the members, and before one could almost draw a breath, this was made up to $30.00 by the initiative of Sgt. Wilfred Rankin, who was spontaneously suppported by those present to make it up to that amount. To complete the story, one should also add that they then and there started right in at the bottom again to build up for the next donation, there being a number of coins in the box before the secretary of the fund retired, which caused him to reflect how typical of the soldiers of the King this was, in going on from one success to another until victory is accomplished.

This gift marks the second of a substantial nature they have given the fund this year, following on quite a number of previous gifts made during the time the fund has been in operation.

| | |
|---|---|
| Previously acknowledged | $76,289.82 |
| Members of the Sergeant's Mess of the Prince of Wales Rangers (RF) per R.S.M. Harold Chate.... | 30.00 |
| Total to date ............ | $76,319.82 |

6 Take Course

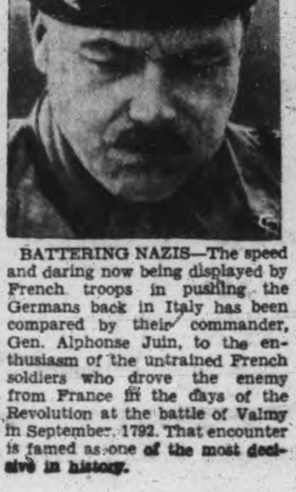
WASHINGTON, May 25—(CP)—Six officers from National Defence Headquarters, Ottawa, have started a short course in the Army Service Force job training school here with a view to adapting for Canadian use whatever is valuable in this system of introducing ordinary business methods to service administration. The officers include Maj. V. Harton, Regiment de Montmagny, from the staff school of army administration, Brockville, Ont.



BATTERING NAZIS—The speed and daring now being displayed by French troops in pushing the Germans back in Italy has been compared by their commander, Gen. Alphonse Juin, to the enthusiasm of the untrained French soldiers who drove the enemy from France in the days of the Revolution at the battle of Valmy in September, 1792. That encounter is famed as one of the most decisive in history.

WINNIE AND IKE TALK IT OVER—Winston Churchill demonstrates the zipper on his Siren suit to Gen. Dwight Eisenhower as they chat awhile during the Empire Prime Ministers' tour to inspect Allied troops.

5 Peterboro Men Invalided Home; Four Returning From Italy Front

Eleven men of Peterborough and district, who returned home from overseas aboard a hospital ship, arrived in Kingston early this morning. Among them are five servicemen whose next-of-kin reside in the city.

One of the boys, now just 20 and in the Army only a little over a year, is Tpr. L. McCartney, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. McCartney, 223 George street. His mother heard from Ottawa a week ago that he would be in the group coming home on the hospital ship, but she has no knowledge of his ever having been wounded or involved in an accident. The probabilities are, she feels, that her son has been put in a lower medical category.

PTE. J. J. McFADDEN

Joining up in the infantry on March 23, 1943, Tpr. McCarthy transferred to the Tank Corps before he went overseas in late November last year. He worked at several firms, including the Peterborough Canoe Co., the De Laval and Dominion Woollens between the time of leaving school and his enlisting in the Army. He has a brother, Gordon, who has been in the Navy for two years; and his father is a returned serviceman with a record of three years' service overseas in the last war.

Taken First Steps

Mrs. Marjorie McFadden, 358 George street, whose husband, Pte. J. J. McFadden, is another of the returning veterans, received a telegram from him from Halifax on Tuesday. His last letter to his wife, written May 1, told her that he was taking a few steps now after having been confined to bed since his wounding in Italy December 9. Pte. McFadden, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McFadden, Lakefield, enlisted with the Hastings, Prince Edward Regiment nearly four years ago and saw action in Sicily before the offensive began on the Italian mainland.

Three of his brothers are also in uniform, Pat in Italy with the Royal Canadian Dragoons, William in England with the Stormont, Dundas, Glengarry Highlanders, and Bernard, 19 years old and recently enlisted with the Army, now in training at Ipperwash, Forest, Ont. Another brother, Francis, discharged for injuries incurred overseas, is at present living in St. Catharines.

Ortona Veteran

Another member of the Hasty Petes and likewise a veteran of the long-continued battle for Ortona, is Pte. Mitchell S. Rashotte, whose wife, living at 696 Victory Crescent, moved to Peterborough some time after his enlistment. This soldier, who was wounded December 25, has the distinction of being a member of the first contingent to go overseas. Mrs. Rashotte received a telegram this morning informing her that her husband had been taken to Kingston Military Hospital and she is planning to leave today to go down and see him. The wounds he sustained were to the arm and shoulder, but how serious the family does not know. Pte. Rashotte is a native of Tweed, and his mother, Mrs. Ben Rashotte, resides in Belleville. He is 25 years old.

Three years in the Army is the record of Gnr. Frederick J. Lafrance, whose wife, Mrs. Madeline Lafrance, is living at 28 New Chamberlain street. A member of a Field Artillery Regiment, has has been stationed for more than two years in Great Britain, but recently contracted an illness which is responsible for his being sent home. The family lived in Peterborough for a short time about 11 years ago; and after her husband enlisted Mrs. Lafrance returned here with her children to live. Gnr. Lafrance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lafrance of Sydenham.

The fifth Peterborough man, Pte. Ken Masters, is also a veteran of the Italian fighting, having been wounded in the leg and hip on December 23. Son of John Masters, 163 Rink street, his wife, Ruth, is with the C.W.A.C. at Kingston; and he has a sister, Mrs. W. Fairs of R.R. No. 5, Peterborough. Before enlisting with the Hastings, Prince Edward Regiment in February, 1942, Pte. Masters was employed at the Martin-Hewitt Company.

Other personnel arriving in M.D. 3 this morning included Capt. R. F.

PTE. KEN MASTERS

Dafoe, whose father is Frank Dafoe of Madoc; Gnr. E. R. Haynes, the son of Mrs. Emily Haynes, 43A King street, Cobourg; Gnr. C. A. McCue, whose wife is Mrs. Bernice McCue of Curve Lake; Pte. H. A. Roper, the son of Mrs. Myrtle Roper, 20 Cambridge street, Lindsay; Acting Staff Sergeant J. A. Russell, the son of Mrs. Maydie Russell, R.R. No. 4, Campbellford; and Gnr. K. S. Spence, whose wife Mrs. Margaret Vera Spence, lives at 118 Queen street, Lindsay.

Hospital Expanding

LINDSAY, May 25—(ENS).—The board of governors of the Ross Memorial Hospital at Lindsay are faced with the problem of providing quarters for convalescent patients due to the present overcrowded condition in the hospital. Architects have examined the premises with the view of extending an L-shaped wing and board officials are also inspecting large homes in Lindsay with the view of purchasing a residence that would be suitable for patients.

FISHY AGE

A halibut matures when 11 years old; 40 is a ripe old age.

Truck Sale Action Is Dismissed

Marvin Armstrong and Mrs. Mabel Armstrong were plaintiffs in an action in the County Court against G. N. Gordon, for selling a truck that was damaged in a collision with a C.N.R. freight train on Water street, on November 10, 1943 and which was sold by Mr. Gordon to satisfy the balance due on a chattel mortgage, held by him upon the truck.

An action was brought, claiming $500. damages, by W. J. A. Fair against Mr. Gordon, alleging an improvident sale. The evidence showed that Mr. Gordon had offered the truck and the tires to five authorized tire dealers and sold it for the highest offer that he received. The action was dismissed with costs payable by the plaintiffs to the defendent.

P. D. Scollard acted for Mr. Gordon and W. J. A. Fair acted for the plaintiffs.

Case Hinges On Whether Lane Is Public

The question of whether the laneway leading from Simcoe street to the rear of the Charlbond Apartments on Charlotte street is a public place entered into the hearing of a drunk charge against Roy Wright in police court this morning.

Wright had been charged Tuesday as a third offender with having been drunk on Simcoe street and on his plea of not guilty had been remanded until today.

This morning Constable John Morrow, said that in answer to a complaint he had gone to the laneway and found Wright there.

"When I got him out on to Simcoe street I could see that he was drunk so he was brought to the police station," said the officer who said that the laneway was a public lane leading to the Charlbond Apartments and the adjacent stores.

"Are you satisfied that laneway is a public place?" asked the Magistrate of the Crown Attorney. "They have no right to take a man from a private place to a public place and then charge him."

Wright did not give any evidence himself and the case was enlarged until tomorrow morning for a decision. Magistrate Langley said both parties would have the right to submit further evidence if they desired to do so.

Business Quiet On Victoria Day

Compelled to remain open on what was otherwise a general holiday in the city, commercial banks, the Post Office and the Customs House were not much frequented by the citizenry Wednesday. Reports indicated a quiet day, with business transactions falling far below normal.

Especially was this the case with the banks, whose services must be available should notes come due. The Bank of Commerce operated with only half its staff and one teller instead of the usual four; and everybody left early. "There was nothing here yesterday—very quiet," said John E. Keyes, the manager.

The same situation prevailed at other banks in town; and the lightness of business was illustrated by the Bank of Montreal, which did have a few customers in the morning, but none at all in the afternoon. There they opened with a full staff, but tapered off gradually and let the personnel go home as quickly as possible.

Many people were under the impression that the Post Ofice was closed on Victoria Day, and a good many phoned to find out whether this was so. Business here likewise was not up to normal. It was also true of the Customs House, where things were very quiet despite the fact that a full staff was on hand from opening to closing at 5.30 p.m.

Closed too was the City Hall, and this despite the fact that the Mayor and City Council had refused to declare the day a civic holiday.

Bags 27th Plane

SOMEWHERE IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC, May 25 — (AP) — Maj. Joe Foss, ace Marine Flier who was the first Allied airman in the Pacific to destroy 26 enemy planes, is back in action— and has bagged his 27th. He got it Saturday, strafing a Japanese floatplane in the water off New Ireland.

Odd Accident

TORONTO, May 25.—(CP).—Leo F. (Barney) Meyer, 36, of St. Clement's near Kitchener, died in hospital here yesterday from injuries suffered while making repairs to his truck Monday night.

Meyer was using air pressure to test a cyclinder when a piston rod blew out and punctured his abdomen.

Survivors include his widow and three young children.

ON SICK LEAVE—Ordinary Seaman Donald Wedlock, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Wedlock, 93 Rubidge Street, is home on sick leave from his base in Prince Edward Island. The young sailor enlisted in March of this year and was formerly employed at the C.G.E. OS. Wedlock is training as a gunner and has a brother-in-law, Flt.-Lieut. Jerry Delaney, in the R.C.A.F. overseas.

FLIER OVERSEAS—Pilot Officer Kenneth R. Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Elliott, Chamberlain Street, is serving in England. A graduate of Peterborough Collegiate Institute and Vocational School, he was employed in the structural steel department of the Canadian General Electric Company. During this school days PO. Elliott was one of the Examiner's carrier boys.

Truck Driver Admits Failing To Stop

Francis Hale, Clarke township, the 18-year-old driver of a truck involved in a collision with an automobile driven by Ned Vitarelli at Aylmer and McDonnel Streets at noon on Saturday last entered a plea of guilty in police court this morning to a charge of failing to bring his truck to a stop before entering a through street.

Crown Attorney V. J. McElderry, K.C. told the court that his instructions were that Hale had driven through a stop sign and as a result considerable property damage was done in a collision with another car and that one person had been injured in the crash.

"On this charge there is not much I can do about it in this court" remarked Magistrate O. A. Langley, K. C.

Hale explained that he was a stranger in town, that several automobiles ahead of him had passed over the McDonnel Street intersection without stopping and that he had failed to notice the "stop" sign.

The boy's father made a similar statement to the court. "When you are in a strange city you should be more than usually careful" said Magistrate Langley in imposing a fine of $7.50 and $2.50 costs to the Clarke township truck driver.

Potato Importations Stimulate Producers

The monthly report of the Ontario Department of Agriculture casually mentions that 4,322 carloads of potatoes were brought into the Province during the present year 1943-44, and since then producer interest has been growing keener The decision to call on outside sources of supply since the crop was picked last fall has been contrasting with the abundance that has been coming to market in the last month, in fact since holdout producers began realizing that the price level had no notion of ascending.

The departmental review continues, in part, as follows:— "The farm labor situation is reported from all sections of the province to be even more serious than last year. Some farmers have had to make adjustments in their normal operations to meet the increasing production in some cases to what one man can do. Others intend to co-operate with their neighbours in an effort to carry on.

A large increase of cereals has been sown in comparison with last year. The demand for small seeds, particularly alfalfa, is greater than the supply. Fall wheat came through the winter in good condition, except in eastern Ontario, where poor growth last fall resulted in considerable winter killing. New seedings are also reported in excellent shape, but some damage has been done to old stands of alfalfa. Despite the scarcity of feed grains on farms last winter there was plenty of roughage to carry cattle through until grass, in nearly average condition."

Boys Get Cigarettes

FRASERVILLE, May 25 (ENS) —During the past winter the Community Service Club of Fraserville held a dance to raise funds to send cigarettes to the boys from the community who are serving overseas. These were sent and the Service Club received word from Pte. Jack Darling, Pte. Gordon Henry and Sgt. Mellville Lawrence, that they have received the cigarettes.

Harvey Youth Fined $25 For Joy-Riding

Sixteen-year-old Bryan Watso[n], Harvey township, pleaded guilty [in] police court this morning to the ... of the use of an automobile own[ed] by Albert Groves, Harvey, and wa[s] fined $25 and $1.75 costs by Magis[trate] O. A. Langley, K.C.

Watson had previously bee[n] charged with theft of the automo[bile] but that charge was dismisse[d] this morning when Crown Attorne[y] V. J. McElderry, K.C., offered n[o] evidence.

A similar charge against M. T. Tate, Harvey township, who wa[s] defended by W. C. Grant, was also dismissed in the same way.

In regard to the joy-riding charge against Watson, Crown Attorney McElderry, K.C., said that the car had been taken from the Depot road in Harvey township and driven to Lindsay, but there was no indication that the boys intended to steal the car. Their intention, he understood, had been to return it to the owner.

"How long did they have it?" asked Magistrate Langley.

"About 12 hours" returned the crown attorney, adding that the boys had been arrested in Lindsay.

Watson said that he knew the owner of the car and had driven it on other occasions. He admitted, however, that he had no authority to take it to Lindsay.

In imposing the fine and the alternative which was one month in jail Magistrate Langley dated back the jail sentence a week. It was intimated that the boy might have difficulty in raising the amount of the fine.

Ontario Seeding 80 Per Cent Done

While seeding across the province had generally reached the "75 to 80 per cent finished" stage at the beginning of this week, growth of fall and spring grains and in pasture fields has been rapid, and crop prospects are highly promising.

George Mullen of Smith township said this morning he had seldom seen more favorable conditions on May 24.

The weekly report of the Ontario Department of Agriculture reflects almost uniform progress. Seeding has been completed in Norfolk, and a Hastings estimate at the beginning of the week was 80 per cent. "Progress has been made in completing seeding in Northumberland." The same comment comes from Ontario county, "with pastures and meadows making excellent growth."

Frontenac expects the seed drills to have finished their work by the end of this week, "and early sown grains have made good growth."

Stormont county mentions a new dairy development: "About 250,000 pounds of whey from this district each day is used in the manufacture of penicillin." The dairy counties in eastern Ontario are stepping up their cheese production. Victoria adds the variety of work: "most of the sheep shearing is completed."

In New York: "Most of the spring grain has been sown, and the ground is being prepared for mangels, corn and potatoes. Favorable weather is bringing on excellent growth in the pastures to compensate to some extent for the short hay supply."

GETS PROMOTION — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Watkins, 19 Park Street South, have been notified that their son, Dick Watkins, has been made a Flying Officer. He is stationed on the West Coast.

W. R. TURNER
Phone 4971 195 Simcoe St.
Heating—Plumbing
Sheet Metal Work
CONTRACTING, JOBBING, REPAIRING
"CRANE" PLUMBING FIXTURES
"IRON FIREMAN" STOKERS
"HECLA" FURNACES

WOOL
Standard Government prices paid for various grades. At Registered Warehouse No. 3 we have been handling and grading wool for twenty-five years.
Ship or Bring Your Wool To:—
G. WHITAKER & CO. Limited
SIMCOE ST. EAST
(Rear Dewart's Feed Warehouse) Peterborough

Battle Ideas Of German Nation

LINDSAY May 25.—(ENS).— It is not a surprising feat that the German nation was able to display such overwhelming superiority in the first days of the war, commented Newton Smale of Lindsay addressing the Rotary Club here "It must be realized" the speaker stated, "that Germany has been preparing for 'Der Tag' (the day of world conquest) since 1848.

During the days of Bismarck, the German people were especially educated along military lines. A sense of race superiority tempered with restraint and confidence in their leaders has been taught German children for past generations. Visitors to Germany brought back warnings of a great movement which was either ignored or thought too fantastic by other countries."

AFTERNOON SAIL

Alaska and Russia are separated by only 56 miles of open sea.

Blended and packed in Canada

At your grocer's in two convenient sizes . . . also in improved FILTER tea balls.

PREMIER KING HOME AFTER EMPIRE CONFERENCE—Prime Minister Mackenzie King is back in Ottawa after a month in England attending the Empire Conference. Here he is pictured in an English village during an inspection tour of Allied forces, making friends with one of the village children.

Physical Illiteracy In Canada Is Handicapping War Effort

OTTAWA, May 25—(CP)—The "Physical Illiteracy" which now exists in Canada is a handicap to our war effort, Maj. Ian Eisenhardt, national director of physical fitness, said in addressing the first meeting of the National Physical Fitness Council, which today began a two-day conference with delegates representing each of the nine provinces and officials of the Federal Health Department in attendance.

"It is of no consolation to us that we are not alone; that other nations are suffering too," he said. "Current history is well known to all of us here; we are aware of the great percentage of rejections among boys called to the colors, we are aware of the great sums of money spent on sickness.

"So let us look at the present only as a challenge, only as a bad past from which we can draw a lesson, and let us at this two-day conference draw a blueprint for living guaranteeing all Canadians better health, greater usefulness and more opportunities for pursuit of happiness."

Maj. Eisenhardt said he considered the National Physical Fitness Act the "very cornerstone of health insurance, the first line of defence against disease."

Sport-Minded Only Passively

"Canadians are sport-minded, but often in a passive way. We shall endeavor to make our citizens participate actively by providing adequate recreation, sports and games for all, for young and old and both sexes."

What is needed more than anything else is a great national crusade for fresh air and sunshine, and every means must be used to acquaint Canadians with Canada. It is on playing fields and during leisure time that society can be shaped.

"In a completely civilized society sports and games should eventually displace war," Maj. Eisenhardt said.

The purpose of the conference, between delegates representing each of the nine provinces and officials of the Federal Health Department, is to draw up a rough preliminary plan of which Canada's first fitness program can be based.

When the program gets under way, Maj. Eisenhardt's office will act as a central clearing house for information and advice, and will also arrange for encouragement in the way of financial assistance in some cases and the provision of equipment or professional instruction in others.

The facilities of the Federal Health Department are backing the program and health officials are ready to step in with aid and advice where necessary.

Remove Indians

(Continued from Page 5)

gone out into life fully prepared," she said. "The whole policy needs revision."

W. F. Rickard (L., Durham) said Indian children didn't want to leave the reserve or pursue their education, and the Government could not force them to do those things.

R. A. Hoey, superintendent of welfare and training for the Indian Affairs Branch, hoped that in the postwar the Indian residential schools would be replaced by day schools and that more appropriate teachers would be found.

FRY'S COCOA

Canada's First Choice for Nourishment and Flavour!

Obituaries

MRS. SARAH MARTIN

CAMPBELLFORD, May 25 (ENS) — Sarah Martin of Toronto, beloved wife of the late George Martin and mother of Getra (Mrs. H. Wynne) Bertha, Alice, and John A. of Toronto, Cephas J. of Belleville and Lieut. Commander Graydon G. Martin (overseas), died after a lingering illness at her home Saturday.

The late Mrs. Martin was a native of Seymour Township and had lived in this community until fifteen years ago, when she moved to Toronto. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Hay and was married in Campbellford Her husband predeceased her in 1930. She was a Presbyterian, a life member of the Missionary Society and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. A brother, Henry Hay resides in Campbellford.

The funeral was conducted by the Rev. J. O. Ralston. Pall-bearers were Arthur Armour, Ernest Mitchell, Blythe Nelson, James Moir, John Wallace and Fred Smith.

Interment was made in English Line Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon.

MRS. FRANCES LONERGAN.

WARKWORTH, May 25—(ENS). There passed away at her late residence in Percy Township on Monday evening Frances Somers, wife of the late William Lonergan, in her 67th year. She spent her whole life in Percy Township and is well-known and highly respected. She had been in poor health for about 14 years. About a month ago Mrs. Lonergan suffered a heart attack.

She is survived by four sons and four daughters, Leo of Warkorth, Frank of Toronto, Tom of Rochester, and Bernard at home; Sister Mary Monica of Peterborough, Monica at home, Margaret and Teresa of Toronto; also one sister Mrs. M. McGrath, Rochester, and one brother Thomas Somers, of Warkworth, and one half-brother William McDonald of Campbellford. Her husband predeceased her in 1924.

The funeral service was held on Thursday morning at St. Jerome's Catholic Church.

MRS. WALTER WIGGINS

BANCROFT, May 25 (ENS) — The funeral of the late Mrs. Walter E. Wiggins was held from her residence in Bancroft recently to St. John's Anglican Church for Service which was conducted by the Rev. W. L. Simmons.

Three Hymns loved by the late Mrs. Wiggins: "On The Resurrection Morning", "The Lord Is My Shepherd", and "Just As I Am" were sung at the service. Rev. W. L. Simmons read the 19th Psalm and used as his text "I Am The Resurrection And The Light." The choir was also in attendance.

Following the service the procession left for St. John's Anglican Cemetery were interment was made in the family plot. Pall-bearers were: James Moore and John Moore of Queenboro, B. Mason of Belleville, George Bowen of Baptiste, Daniel Goodwin and D. K. Card of Maynooth, Gordon W. Jones, Dr. O. W. Anderson and P. A. Kellar, Sr., of Bancroft and W. J. Davis of Maple Leaf The extraordinary number of floral tributes expressed the esteem in which the late Mrs. Wiggins was held by her many friends.

Fenella News

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sandercock, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sandercock and Eleanor visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Meapham, Oshawa.

LAC. Merlin McNaughton, R.C.A.F., St. Hubert, Quebec, spent his leave with his parents, Cecil McNaught, Veteran Guard of Monteith and Mrs. McNaught at their home here.

It was planned to hold the Bethany (Macklin's Settlement) cemetery decoration service on June 11, when the cemetery board met. Mr. W. A. Macklin was appointed secretary-treasurer to succeed the late Mr. C. D. Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Down and Audrey, with Mr. and Mrs. B. Macklin and family of Bewdley, Mr. and Mrs. A. Tucker of Centreton recently visited the Niagara Falls district.

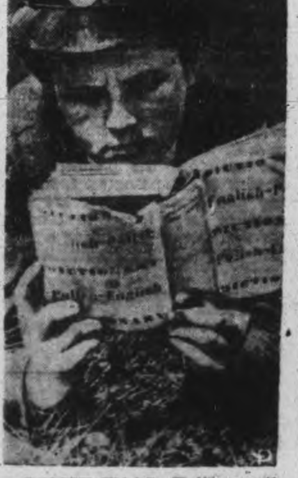
Mr. and Mrs. Giles Nichols of Toronto spent the week-end with her father, Mr. F. Slade and visited Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Macklin.

The W.I. are sponsoring a salvage collection. Articles to be left in the church shed before June 8.

Mr. Fred Talling, employed at Orono, spent Sunday at his home here.

PRODUCER DIES

LONDON—(CP)—Bernard Hishin, theatrical producer who died at the age of 59, started his career opening carriage doors outside the Theatre Royal for a shilling a night. Before he retired he had managed and produced shows at 27 different London theatres.



POLISH WAAC—Until recently the Polish Women's Auxiliary Army Corps, organized in England, has been officered and trained by British women. Now through a special training course, Polish girls are gradually replacing the British women officers serving with their organization. This young Polish girl is shown studying a Polish-English dictionary as part of her schooling for promotion to officer's rank.

HER SCHOOL MARKS ARE BETTER with this BETTER BREAKFAST

Keep young minds alert — young bodies well nourished with tasty Nabisco Shredded Wheat. It's made from natural 100% whole wheat with all the bran and wheat germ. It's a better breakfast because it provides what active youngsters need: proteins, carbohydrates, iron and phosphorus. Use the recipes found in every package.

THE CANADIAN SHREDDED WHEAT COMPANY, LTD.
Niagara Falls, Canada

444BX

SERVE PLENTIFUL FOODS TO SAVE SCARCE FOODS

Beautiful Teeth Start Young

THE building of beautiful teeth starts with mother's diet, before the baby is born. In babyhood, in pre-school years, the teeth are still in the formative stage—and even in adolescence, milk and vitamin D must keep up the good work of nourishing and protecting the teeth.

Irradiated Carnation Milk is a splendid source of calcium and phosphorus, and is enriched with "sunshine" vitamin D. A wholesome, nourishing, digestible milk for all ages. Write for free book, "Your Contented Baby". Carnation Co. Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

A CANADIAN PRODUCT — IRRADIATED Carnation Milk — "from Contented Cows"

If you don't see Carnation Milk at your grocer's, ask for it

LOBLAWS MEATS

COMMERCIAL QUALITY BEEF
BONELESS SHOULDER ROAST 27c

MEATY BLADE ROAST - lb. 26¢
CROSS or SHORT RIB Roast - - lb. 28c
FIRST 5 RIBS—As illustrated in heading PRIME RIB Roast - - lb. 31c
DELICIOUS SPICED PORK LOAF ........ lb. 21c
BAKED MAC. & CHEESE LOAF ........ lb. 26c
CHOICE LEAN LAMB Legs Whole or Half lb 39c
Fronts Whole or Half lb 23c

'JUNKET' RENNET TABLETS 2 Pkgs. 23¢
PURITY CRACKED WHEAT 2-lb. Cello Pkg. 19¢
DOMESTIC or EASIFIRST SHORTENING 1-lb. Pkg. 19¢
HARRY HORNE'S ASSORTED CUSTARD POWDERS 2 3-oz. Pkgs. 9¢
INGERSOLL PLAIN CHEESE RIDEAU 8-oz. Pkg. 19¢ MALTED 8-oz. Pkg. 19¢ CREAMY 4-oz. Pkg. 15¢
HOMOGENIZED LIBBY'S BABY FOODS - - 5 Fl. Oz. Tin 7¢
FAST RISING HI-DO QUICK YEAST - - - Per Cake 4¢ 4 Cakes 15¢
REQUIRES NO COOKING NUTRIM Baby Food 9-oz. Pkg. 29¢ 18-oz. Pkg. 49¢
NESTLE'S EVAPORATED MILK 6 16-oz. Tins 53¢ 6 Tins Require 1-G Coupon
QUAKER PUFFED WHEAT SPARKIES 2 Pkgs. 13¢
Quaker Quick - Cooking MACARONI 2 16-oz. Pkgs. 21¢
Speed Coat Floor Wax CHAN - - Pint Jar 59c
Concentrated Javel Water JAVEX - 16-oz. Btl. 14c
D.B. Cleaning Paste Jar 14c
Old English Scratch Cover Polish 4 Fl. Oz. Bottle 23c
Facial Soap WOODBURY'S 2 Cakes 15c
Toilet Soap CASHMERE BOUQUET Per Cake 6c
99 44-100% Pure IVORY SOAP 6-oz. Med Cake 6c 10-oz. Large Cake 9c
OXYDOL Small Pkg. 9c Lge. Pkg. 23c

SERVE IT OFTEN! NEW SEASON'S ONTARIO GROWN ASPARAGUS —Arriving Fresh Daily—
NEW SEASON'S ONTARIO GROWN ●SPINACH ●RHUBARB ●RADISH ●GREEN ONIONS ●HOT HOUSE TOMATOES ●HOT HOUSE CUCUMBERS —Arriving Fresh Daily—
NEW CROP TEXAS COOKING ONIONS ........ 3 lb. 17c
CALIFORNIA ICEBERG HEAD LETTUCE ........ 2 Large Size 60 27c
SPECIAL — THE FAMOUS "WINTER GARDEN" CALIFORNIA BUNCH CARROTS Original Bunches 1 Lb. or over "Each Bunch Individually Tagged" Bunch 6c
SELECTED QUALITY TEXAS TOMATOES ........ lb. 19c
NEW CROP MISSISSIPPI GREEN BEANS ........ lb. 25c
NEW CROP CALIFORNIA GREEN PEAS ........ lb. 25c
NEW CROP MISSISSIPPI CABBAGE ........ lb. 7c
NEW CROP TEXAS BULK BEETS ........ 3 lb. 19c
CANADA NO. 1 GRADE ONTARIO POTATOES ........ 10 lb. 24c
NEW SEASON'S CALIFORNIA VALENCIA ORANGES The smaller sizes are most plentiful, and are attractively priced.
FLORIDA FULL O' JUICE LARGE VALENCIA Oranges, Size 176 Doz. 45c
FLORIDA SEEDLESS GRAPEFRUIT A Selection of at Least Two Sizes to choose from.

LOBLAWS Red Label Orange Pekoe TEA 4-oz. Pkg. 22¢ One Coupon 8-oz. Pkg. 40¢ Two Coupons
SKILL-FULLY BLENDED
LOBLAWS Blue Label TEA 4-oz. Pkg. 19¢ One Coupon 8-oz. Pkg. 35¢ Two Coupons
LOBLAWS Brown Label Tea 4-oz. Pkg. 18¢ One Coupon 8-oz. Pkg. 33¢ Two Coupons
It Has a Pleasing Bun-Like Flavour LOBLAWS COTTAGE BREAD 2 24-oz. Loaves 15¢ WHITE WHOLE WHEAT CRACKED WHEAT
Baking Powder EGG-O 4-oz. Tin 9¢
Dr. Jackson's ROMAN MEAL - - - 32-oz. Pkg. 29¢
Mother Parker's ORANGE PEKOE TEA ½-lb. Pkg. 39¢
Aylmer Fancy PUMPKIN 28 Fl. Oz. Tin 13¢
Cream of Tomato HEINZ SOUP 10 Fl. Oz. Tin 9¢
McLaren's Invincible Pure Vanilla Extract 1½-oz. Btl. 23¢
VAN CAMPS PRE-COOKED BEANS 12-oz. Pkg. 14¢

RATION COUPONS VALID
BUTTER Nos. 58 - 68
SUGAR Nos. 14 - 38
PRESERVES Nos. 1 - 20
TEA & COFFEE Nos. 14 - 39 E1 - 6, T30 - 33
Butter Nos. 58-61 EXPIRE May 31st
HOME CANNING COUPONS Nos. 1-5 GOOD ON MAY 25 F. BLUE COUPON in RATION BOOK No. 3

LOBLAW GROCETERIAS CO., LIMITED

BEAUTIFUL "ALWINGTON" NOW C.W.A.C. BARRACKS —The old gracious way of living at the former home of the Governor-Generals of Canada has given way to war exigencies and the terraced gardens of this historic gray-stoned dwelling in Kingston now resounds to the happy barrack life of "The Ladies In Khaki". This mansion shown above has been connected with names famous on Canada's roll of honor since it was built over 100 years ago.

Steeped In Early Canadian History Alwington Now C.W.A.C. Barracks

The old gracious way of living at beautiful Alwington House, Kingston, whose hospitable walls once absorbed history in the making when three early Governors General of Canada made it their home, has given way to the exigencies of war. It is now serving as quarters for the Canadian Women's Army Corps.

Surrounded by terraced gardens, the gray-stoned dwelling is steeped in early Canadian history. Once the scene of official functions, the building and its encircling lawns, which still breathe a charm of the old-world, now resound to the happy barrack life of the "ladies in khaki."

These girls, who spend their days driving army vehicles, assisting army doctors and dentists, in office work and other duties, have released physically fit fighting men of the Canadian Army for more active duty elsewhere.

Several of the proudest names in early Canadian history are linked with the annals of Alwington House—such names as Baron de Longueil for whom it was built, a member of the aristocratic family of Le Moyne de Longueil, gentlemen explorers of French Canada; Lord Sydenham, the first Governor General of United Canada who resided at Alwington from 1841 to 1842, and Sir Charles Bagot, another name renowned on the roll of Canada's Governors General.

Later the house came into the possession of the Allen family through the marriage of a daughter of the Longueil family with the Rev. J. A. Allen. At Alwington their son, Grant Allen, was born, destined to become a noted writer of scientific works and a popular novelist. Thus Alwington has been connected with names famous on Canada's roll of honor since the day it was built.

Members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps feel privileged to live at Alwington. They feel a surge of pride on pausing at the stone post of the entrance to read the bronze sign placed there by the Kingston Historical Society in tribute to Alwington's historic background:

"The Right Honourable C. E. Poulett Thompson, Lord Sydenham, First Governor General of United Canada, Resided Here 1841-1842."

It is interesting to note how the old mansion has lent itself as a barracks. The spacious drawing-room, with French doors opening upon the gardens which extend to Lake Ontario, has become a recreation hall. Here the girls spend their leisure hours reading, writing letters, singing in groups around the piano, or listening to the radio. Chatting together about the events of the day may be seen girls from every part of Canada—and even Newfoundland. Western Canada is represented by Sergeant-Major M. Brownlee of Moose Jaw. Nearer home are Sgt. Elaine O'Connor, of Port Hope, Sgt "Beth" Boorman of Peterborough, and St. Patricia Morrow, of Prescott. It is a pleasant sight to see the sunshine pouring in through the great windows, the gleam on the highly polished maple furniture and the bright, animated faces of the girls.

The reception room, too, has undergone a change and emerged as the mess hall. Here the girls have their meals on long tables with spotless white tablecloths. Savory dishes are whipped up by the cook, Pte. S. G. Parsons, of Newfoundland, in the old basement kitchen which has been equipped with modern electric stove and refrigerators. Flowers for the table are supplied from the gardens in spring and summer, and during the winter from the conservatory, a luxuriant survival of the old days, left just as it was before the Army took possession.

Upstairs the lovely old bedroom furnishings have given way to utilitarian army double-deckers, the big rooms having ample space for six or eight girls. A quaint survival of the more elaborate days remains in the wallpaper, ornately scrolled and lavishly imprinted with cherubs and birds, giving a charming background for the modern "soldierettes" who are so efficiently serving in the Canadian Army.

To relieve distress of MONTHLY

Female Weakness

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made especially for women to help relieve periodic pain with weak, nervous, tired, irritable feelings—due to functional monthly disturbances. Pinkham's Compound helps nature and that's the kind of medicine to buy! Follow label directions. Worth trying!

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

● There's more than an easily washable finish waiting for you in SOFTONE (an oil paint). This loveliest of all finishes for walls, woodwork and furniture has everything you could wish for. It flows on easily—leaves no brush marks or laps—dries hard—lasts years—washes as easily as china—controls glare and reflection too. Beautify your home with SOFTONE.

3 WASHABLE ECONOMICAL FINISHES
• FLAT
• SEMI-GLOSS
• GLOSS
In many beautiful shades

HAROLD COLEMAN

336 George St. Telephone 9922

INTERNATIONAL VARNISH COMPANY, LIMITED

Apsley News

Mr. and Mrs. W. Earnshaw Jr. and Donald spent the week-end at Rockcroft.

Pte. Bert Smith of St. John, Que., spent a sick leave with his sister, Mrs. C. McColl.

Zed Hales of Toronto spent a few days last week with relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Webdale and Miss Cora of Lakefield spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. Blakeley.

LAW Doreen Edwards of Mountain View spent a leave with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Syd McCauley of Oshawa spent the week-end with relatives here.

Mrs. R. Hales and family have moved from the village to their farm near Loon Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edwards have taken up residence on their farm at Clanricarde where they are erecting a new house.

Murray McColl, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. McColl, was rushed to hospital for an appendix operation on Saturday night.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to Rev. F. and Mrs. Freeston in the death of their infant son in Toronto.

THEY HAD LUCK

LLANDUDNO, Wales — (CP) — Stream fishermen have come on boom times. The case is reported of two London fishermen who went to North Wales and in two weeks caught fish which they sold for $500.

DOROTHY DIX • • •

PHILANDERER A HARD PROBLEM

Every Woman Must Find Solution Herself, As No Other Knows Just How She Values Mate.

THERE is no other question that wives find so hard to answer as what they shall do with philandering husbands. Shall they forgive them, or divorce them? Shall they send them packing, or slay the fatted calf for them? Shall they believe them when they swear that they will never look at another woman again, or know in their hearts that they will never be able to resist a pretty girl with a come-hither look in her eyes?

Naturally it is a problem that every woman must solve for herself and with which no outsider dare interfere, for husbands are a purely personal proposition and what one is worth to his wife depends not upon what he is, but upon the value she puts upon him. Furthermore, what complicates the situation is that many men, aside from having incurable cases of wandering feet, 1-A husbands. They are good providers. Devoted fathers. Pleasant to live with, and treat their wives like Lady Loves, instead of household conveniences.

Any woman would hate to give up such a husband, even when she knew he was untrue to her, and so she balances his charms against her wifely jealousy, against her outraged dignity, her pride that he has humbled into the dust, against the tears she has shed and the heartbreak she has endured, she does not know what to do—whether she will be better off with him, or without him.

Decision Depends Upon Many Factors

Her decision depends upon so many things. Upon the kind of woman she is herself. Upon how much she loves her erring mate. If he is the whole of life to her, she will be happier being near him, having a little of his time and attention, a careless kiss, a kind word now and then, than she would be if entirely separated from him. But to make this solution of her problem a success she must have the philosophy to accept the situation and carry on as if her husband were Darby instead of Don Juan.

Then there are the children, who are the victims of every wrecked home. A mother should think long and prayerfully before she avenges her own wrongs at the price of her children's well-being, for even a bad father is better than no father at all. But a wife makes her sacrifice in vain unless she has enough self-control to live in peace with her husband, for nothing so destroys the morale of children as to be brought up in a home in which the parents fight like cats and dogs.

And before a woman buys a ticket to Reno she should count the cost of it in dollars and cents. A good home, a nice car, pretty clothes and an assured place in society are a consolation prize even for a flirtatious husband. Many a woman who has given these up for a little grudging alimony rues her bargain.

The truth is that divorce is no cure-all for unhappy marriages. Nine times out of ten the wives who get them regret it, for they find that they have only jumped out of the frying pan into the fire.

Released by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.

Norwood News

Eric Gardner, R.C.A.M.C., Camp Borden, is spending a two weeks' furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Gardner.

Mr. K. G Thompson of Toronto, formerly of Norwood, has been ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Hubert Carbrey and children have returned from a visit with friends in Toronto.

Eleven members of the W.I. attended the district annual held in Peterborough on Thursday. Mrs. W. Golloher was appointed citizenship convener of the district, and dresses made by the Get-Together Girls were on display.

Miss Ethel Gill has gone to St. Catharines, where she will spend thirteen weeks at farm service work.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Grover are spending a few days in Toronto.

Mrs. Don W. Skuse of Juneau, Alaska, is spending some time with her mother Mrs. B. C. Howson.

Corporal Irwin Buck, R.C.C.S., overseas, and Mrs. Buck (nee Marjorie Griffith) of Bromley, Kent, England, have announced the arrival of a son, Reginald Griffith, at Christlehurst Hospital, Bromley, on Monday, April 17.

FORMED AT MARSEILLES

The first chamber of commerce was formed at Marseilles in the 15th century.

NEED A CURFEW

CASTLE RISING, England—(CP)—Because mothers evacuated from vulnerable districts on the coast to a hostel in this Norfolk town are said to be keeping late hours, the district council have applied to the ministry of health for authority to enforce a 11 p.m. curfew.

WCP&CO LIMITED

A Watching Service

Clients of this organization whose holdings are known, are kept informed of any circumstances which might affect their securities.

They are also advised of exchanges of securities which in our opinion would have the effect of improving their investment position.

Write for further details regarding this service.

W. C. Pitfield & Company Limited

80 King Street West, TORONTO Telephone AD 6144

Montreal • Toronto • Ottawa • Halifax • Saint John • Moncton

Have a Coca-Cola = You're invited to our house

. . . or how to make sailors feel at home

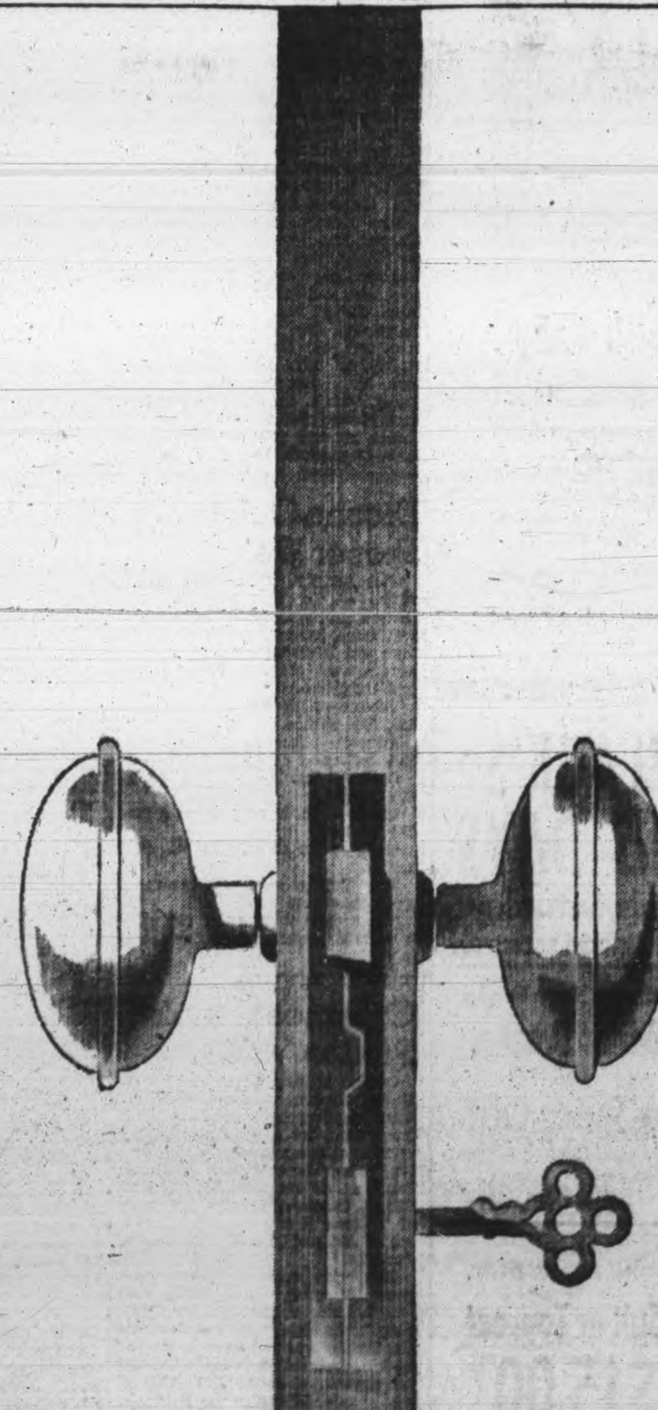
To an old friend Have a "Coke" says Welcome back. To a newcomer it says Stranger, you belong. And Coca-Cola belongs, too . . . in your icebox at home, ready to refresh the family and friends. At home, in camp, and overseas, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become the symbol of Canadian friendliness the world over.

It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke". 678

THE COCA-COLA COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED

What's all this about "interlocking" directorates?



WHEN you want sound advice you go to a friend who has had experience with whatever is worrying you. When you have to have professional advice you buy the best you can afford. In the same way, because the life insurance companies are the guardians of the people's savings, they seek the best business brains in Canada.

Individual directors of life insurance companies often occupy similar positions in many other lines of business. This is because they are men who have proven their ability. It needs men of sound judgment and wide experience to determine safe procedure in matters vital to so many millions of people.

Life insurance is a business of many phases. It bridges a gap between your present earning power and your far distant needs—sometimes spanning over half a century.

It is essential to have life insurance companies directed by men of broad business experience.

It is good citizenship to own LIFE INSURANCE

A Message from the Life Insurance Companies in Canada

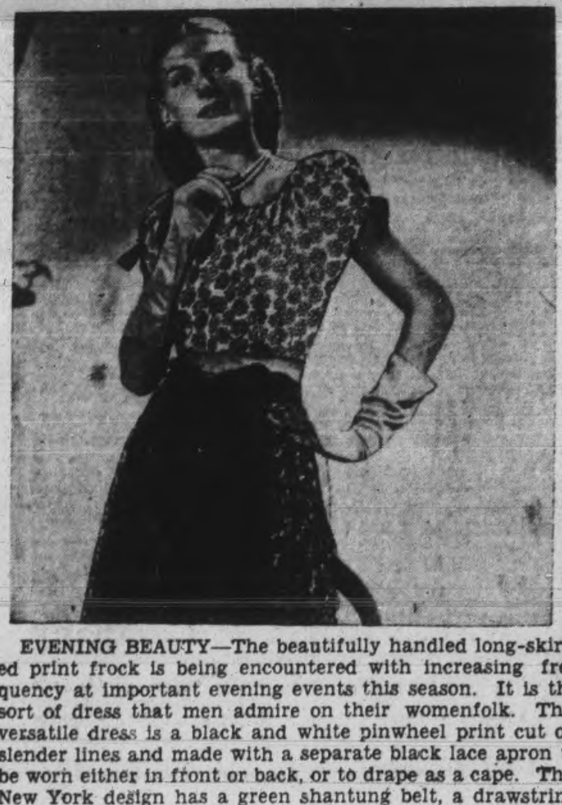
L-44



EVENING BEAUTY—The beautifully handled long-skirted print frock is being encountered with increasing frequency at important evening events this season. It is the sort of dress that men admire on their womenfolk. This versatile dress is a black and white pinwheel print cut on slender lines and made with a separate black lace apron to be worn either in front or back, or to drape as a cape. This New York design has a green shantung belt, a drawstring neckline and the skirt is split up on one side in back.

Friends Honor Couple On 50th Anniversary

Gifts from Chicago, Quebec, and other points and guests from Imlay City, Michigan, Owen Sound, Montreal, Ottawa, and many other towns and cities, greeted Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carr, 566 Weller street, Tuesday, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. They were at home' 'to friends on their anniversary and their home was filled with well-wishers in the afternoon and evening.

The guests were welcomed at the door by Mrs. Madelyn McWilliams and Virg. Carr, and Mr and Mrs. Carr rose from their seats of honor in the living room, to greet all the visitors. The room was filled with flowers and gifts, and the tables were covered with 50th anniversary cards of congratulation. Mrs. Carr wore a two-piece dress of blue and white, and a corsage of red roses.

Tea was seved from a table set with a white cloth, and centred with a huge wedding cake, set in a bed of lilac blossoms and green. The centrepiece was flanked by 2 large silver candelabra, set with tall white tapers, and two silver tea services were placed at either end. Pouring tea in the afternoon were Mrs. W. Butcher, and Mrs. W. Irvine, Mrs. Carr's two sisters. Mrs. H. James and Mrs. A. Murray, poured tea in the evening.

Those assisting in serving were Mrs. Roy Springhorn, Mrs. W. James, Mrs. W. Wilson, Mrs. H. right, Mrs. H. Kearns, Mrs. A. Fallis of Peterborough; Mrs. Roy Clements of Imlay City, Michigan; Mrs. W. Woodgate of Ottawa; Mrs. Max Middleton, Mrs. R. Davis, and Misses H. Moher, Ruth Murray Barbara Murray, Ada James, and Georgina and Marie Carr, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Carr.

Peter Robinson, Mrs. Carr's brother, who lives in Kirkfield, was unable to be present, but sent his congratulations. Mr. C. Carr, Mr. Carr's brother, called Peterborough from Chicago Tuesday afternoon and chatted for some time with Mr. and Mrs. Carr, who also received telegrams of congratulations from Mr. and Mrs. Walter James and Doris James, of Windsor, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wright, of Galt.

Among the guests who called to offer their congratulations and best wishes were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clements, of Imlay City, Mich.; Mrs. W. Woodgate and daughter, Corinne, of Ottawa; Mrs. W. Goldsmith and Mr. and Mrs. J. Everard, of Toronto; Mrs. Florence Bolyea, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bolyea, Mr. and Mrs. N. Bolyea and Mr. R. Clements, of Orillia; Mrs. W. Springham, of Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Fallis, of Millbrook; Mrs. Harry James, R.R. 11, Peterborough; Mrs. M. Coppius, of Cameron, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman, R.R. 1, Bethany; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph James, Omemee; Mrs. C. Daniel, Toronto; Mr. A. James, Oshawa; Mrs. Violet King, Toronto; Mrs. W. H. Cunningham, Montreal.

Peterborough friends who called are: Mrs. Madge McWilliams and Miss Madelyn McWilliams, Mrs. L. Cumming, Mrs. D. N. Carr, Mrs. W. Butcher, Mrs. H. Kearns, Mrs. J. Rowe, Mrs. W. Irvine, Mrs. T. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wright, Mrs. G. Hawkes and Lucy Hawkes, Mrs. A. James, Mrs. T. Sarginson, Mrs. W. Wilson, Mrs. B. Bradley, Mrs. A. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. R. Springham, Miss Ruth Murray, Miss Audrey Hooper, Mr. J. Wilson, Mr. Joe Peel, Miss Catherine Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon James, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Astles, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Hillier, Mr. H. Kearns, Miss Jean Stenton, Miss Connie Nicholson, Fire Chief George Gimblett, Mr. and Mrs. Orval James and family, Mr. Nelson Routly, Mr. Angus Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Murray.

Miss Gladys Green, Mr. C. B. Merrett, Mrs. T. Turcotte, Miss Bessie Moher, Mrs. Harold Moher, Mr. and Mrs. Roy James, Mrs. H. Beresford, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Routly, Miss Rose Ronco, Mr. Walter Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. F. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. E. Brady, Mrs. H. Clifton, Mrs. J. Peel, Mr. and Mrs. M. James, Mr. and Mrs. R. Davis, Mrs. E. Campbell, Miss Barbara Murray, Mr. R. Murray, Mr. H. James, Mr. and Mrs. E. Knight, Mrs. R. S. Chenoweth, Mrs. E. H. Brown.

Fretty Feverish Baby Gets Needed Sleep

There is no need to spend worried days and sleepless nights when baby is fretty, restless or feverish due to teething, constipation, stomach upsets or some similar minor ill. Baby's Own Tablets almost always give prompt relief so that the little one soon drops into restful sleep.

Baby's Own Tablets have been the standby with careful mothers for over 40 years. Inexpensive, sweet-tasting—promptly effective and always reliable. Easily crushed to a powder, if desired. They contain no narcotics, no "sleepy" stuff of any kind. Get a package of Baby's Own Tablets today at your druggist and have them on hand to help you, as well as your baby, get needed rest and sleep. Only 25¢.

BLACK'S $15 DAYS

Ends Saturday

STILL A GOOD SELECTION

For $15 You May Purchase

2 Better Dresses Or Any Spring Coat Or A Tailored Suit

AND IN THE MEN'S DEPT.

A Suit or Topcoat $15.00

BLACK'S

GEORGE AT KING

Dionne Quints Proper Weight

CALLANDER, Ont., May 25. — (CP). — To illustrate how the Dionne quints, 10 years old on Sunday, have grown since their birth, here are their weights when they were a week old and their weights and heights now.

Yvonne—2 lbs. 6¼ ozs.; 78 lbs. 8 ozs., 51¼ inches.

Annette—2 lbs. 4 ozs; 78 lbs. 8 ozs., 52½ inches.

Cecile—2 lbs. 1 oz.; 77 lbs. 8 ozs., 52½ inches.

Emilie—1 lb. 13 ozs.; 82 lbs. 8 ozs., 52¾ inches.

Marie—1 lb. 10 ozs.; 74 lbs., 51¼ inches.

The Quints were not measured when they were born.

The normal weight of a girl of 10 is 49 to 81 pounds, normal height 46 to 58 inches.

Omemee Couple Pledge Vows

OMEMEE, May 25 (ENS)—Trinity United Church, Omemee, decorated with snapdragons and stocks, was the setting for a wedding Tuesday evening at seven o'clock, when Marion Cora Jane Fisher, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fisher, Omemee, became the bride of Thomas James Pogue, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pogue, Omemee.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of misty white chiffon with long full sleeves and tight cuffs. The gown had a high round neckline, and the bodice was buttoned down the back from neck to waist with tiny self-covered buttons. Her veil of white tulle, falling to the floor and extending in a graceful train, was caught to her head with a halo of orange blossoms. She wore white, toeless pumps and carried a bouquet of Bettertime roses. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls.

The couple were unattended. Rev. R. M. Patterson of Omemee officiated at the ceremony.

The bride and groom left for a motor trip, the bride travelling in a heaven blue dressmaker suit with brown accessories. On their return they will reside in Omemee.

Personals and Social

Miss Florence M. Leach, R.O., has returned to Peterborough, after attending an optometrical convention in Toronto.

◊ ◊ ◊

Mrs. W. Woodgate, and daughter Corinne, of Ottawa, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Murray, Reid street, for a few days.

◊ ◊ ◊

Mr. Harold M. Sage, of Oakland, California, is spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. M. J. Storey, 475 Gilmour street.

◊ ◊ ◊

LAC. Jack Williams, R.C.A.F., of Edmonton, is spending a furlough with his parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Williams, Ware street.

◊ ◊ ◊

Mrs. J. Everard and Mrs. W. Goldsmith, of Uxbridge, are spending a few days in Peterborough as guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. James, Bethune street.

◊ ◊ ◊

Mrs. H. Tremaine and Mrs. F. W. K. Harris will be receiving with Mrs. E. W. Young, at the lilac tea, being held at St. Andrew's manse, Friday afternoon.

◊ ◊ ◊

Mrs. G. Pakenham, Water street, has returned to Peterborough from Toronto, where she spent 10 days visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pakenham.

◊ ◊ ◊

Mr. T. J. Stenton, 610 Reid street, left today for St. Louis, Missouri, to attend a convention of the International Association of Theatrical employees.

◊ ◊ ◊

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Fowler, Mrs. W. Rose, and Mrs. A. Chartren, were in Cobourg Wednesday, attending the commissioning of the corvette Cobourg.

◊ ◊ ◊

Sgt. R. Williams, Jr., and Mrs. Williams, have left for Kingston, after spending a few days with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. Williams, Engleburn avenue.

◊ ◊ ◊

His friends will be pleased to learn that Rev. Dr. P. J. Kelly, of St. Michael's parish, Cobourg, who has been seriously ill in St. Joseph's Hospital, has recovered sufficiently to return to his home.

◊ ◊ ◊

Sgt. S. K. Lake, R.C.A.F., and Mrs. Lake of Malton, are spending a few days in Peterborough with the latter's mother, Mrs. W. E. Dorrington, Sr., 52 Victoria avenue.

◊ ◊ ◊

Mrs. C. Doughty, 225 Barnardo avenue, will be hostess at the tulip tea, sponsored by the Queen Elizabeth Home and School Association, being held Friday afternoon, from 3 to 6.

◊ ◊ ◊

Miss Geneva Adelaide Babcock, of Campbellford, will be one of the 28 nurses graduating from the Women's College Hospital on Friday. It will be the 27th graduation at the hospital.

◊ ◊ ◊

PO. Percy Adamson, R.C.A.F., who is stationed in Bagotville, Quebec, has returned to his post, after spending leave with his wife and family at their home, 257 McGill street.

◊ ◊ ◊

Telegraphist Walter R. Wheeler, R.C.N.V.R., who has been on active service for 26 months, and on duty at sea for 18 months, is spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wheeler, 29 Brown street.

◊ ◊ ◊

Mr. J. F. Daley, Sault Ste. Marie, has returned to his home after visiting his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Kennedy, Maria street. While in Peterborough, Mr. Daley attended the K. of C. convention.

◊ ◊ ◊

PO. Arthur Jones, R.C.N.V.R., has returned to his station at H.M.C.S. Cornwallis, after spending a leave with his wife and son at their home, Douglas avenue. Mrs. Jones accompanied her husband on his return, and will spend a month in Nova Scotia with him.

◊ ◊ ◊

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bateson, Miss Marion Bateson, Mrs. L. White and Miss Viola Davidson, were in Belleville recently, attending the graduation ceremonies at Belleville General Hospital, when Miss Dorothy Bateson was among the graduating class.

◊ ◊ ◊

George Street Y.P.U.

Miss Jeanne Kerr, Fellowship convener, had charge of the worship service of the regular meeting of the George Street Young People's Union. Clarene Corbett was guest speaker, taking as his topic, "The Four Squares of Life." Miss Elsie Chambers, guest pianist, played "To Spring," and "The Glow-Worm." The meeting opened with a singsong, led by Miss Viva Harris and the two losing groups in the membership contest entertained the two winning groups, during the social hour, when refreshments were served.

◊ ◊ ◊

Rogers—Heasman

A pretty wedding took place recently in the parsonage of George Street United Church, when Rev. H. L. Roberts officiated at the ceremony when Beulah Ruth Heasman, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Heasman, of Bethany, became the bride of Foster Thomas Wilbert Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, of Warkworth.

The bride was frocked in white silk jersey, with white hat and accessories. She was attended by Miss Mildred Rogers, sister of the groom who was dressed in rose crepe, with navy blue accessories. Roy Rogers, of Warkworth, was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kempt, of Ida, witnessed the signing of the register. Mrs. Kempt was dressed in Allied blue crepe, with black accessories. After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Toronto, the young couple will live on the groom's farm, at Warkworth.

◊ ◊ ◊

Ladies' Aid Meets

NORWOOD, May 25.—(ENS). — Mrs. William Chamberlain was hostess to the Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church this week. The president Mrs. R. Nevins, led in prayer and Mrs. G. Stackhouse and Mrs. W. Chamberlain sang a duet, "He Understands and Cares."

Mrs. J. Stevens' reading on "Plant a Victory Garden" was appreciated, and Mrs. W. Chamberlain's reading, "There Are No Atheists Among the Fighters of the Sky." Mrs. C. Fife gave the chapter from the study book, followed by a circle of prayer by Mrs. J. Rorabeck and Mrs. R. Baker and Mrs. W. Hubble led in prayer Mrs. W. Chamberlain served a lunch and a pleasant half hour was spent.

◊ ◊ ◊

Miscellaneous Shower

Miss Barbara Parsons, a bride-elect of June, was honored Tuesday evening at a miscellaneous shower given by her associates of the Quaker Oats Company. A dainty buffet lunch was served, and many lovely gifts were received by the bride-to-be.

Those attending were: Misses Barbara Parson, Alma Dobbin, Gladys Browne, Marion Mahood, Phyllis Lake, Francis O'Heron, Josephine McLean, Millie Rome, Gwen Parsons, Emily Parsons, Wanda Lockie, Margaret Flagler, Margaret Peel, Emily Wilshaw, Carlotta Laing, Mae Wilshaw, Barbara Rome, Jean Sutton, Hilda Robbins, Hazel Malcomson, Irene Ingram, Gertrude Masters, R. Toms, Madeline Toms; and Mesdames K. Johnson, M. Hunter, A. Coones, E. White, and J. Healey. Those who sent gifts but were unable to attend were Mrs. H. Porter and Mrs. G. Rivard.

◊ ◊ ◊

Pearson—Silver

LINDSAY, May 25 — (ENS). — A pretty wedding took place at St. Paul's Anglican Church here when Loreen Marie, daughter of Mr. E. Silver and the late Mrs. Silver, became the bride of Herbert Sherman, son of Mrs. M. Pearson of Haliburton

The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. D. Cross, rector of St. Paul's, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends.

The bride was charming in gown of blue satin and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Mrs. Hazel Van Valken of Lindsay was bridesmaid and the groom was assisted by Mr. Harold Van Valken.

Following a reception which was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. David Campbell, the young couple left on a short honeymoon trip, and on their return will take up residence in Lindsay.

WED IN TRINITY CHURCH—Mr. and Mrs. Donald Richmond, whose wedding was a recent event at Trinity United Church, are pictured above after the ceremony. The bride, the former (Noreen) Eleanor Deering Fitzgerald, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fitzgerald, 282 Sherbrooke Place, and the groom, who is in the R.C.N.V.R., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Richmond, St. Mary's Street.

(Photo by Morris Duke)

Reta Sproule Wed In Victoria B.C.

A wedding of interest took place recently in Victoria, B. C., when Reta May Sproule, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sproule, Peterborough, became the bride of Surgeon Lieut. David Berkley Stark, R. C. N. V. R., son of Dr. W. Berkley Stark and Mrs. Stark of Toronto. Rev. John Furlong, the naval padre, officiated. St. John's Church, Victoria, decorated with lilies, was the setting for the ceremony.

Given in marriage by Lieut. George Darters, bride wore a two-piece dress of blue-grey wool, matching hat, navy blue accessories and a corsage of gardenias, lily of the valley, and violas. Mrs. Dhorma Rattan was matron of honor. Surgeon Lieut. Commander G. H. Grant, was groomsman. The wedding party passed through a naval guard of honor on leaving the church.

About 60 guests were present at the reception, held at the home of Surgeon Lieut. Commander Grant and Mrs. Grant. After a wedding trip to Shawnigan Beach, B. C., the young couple will make their home at 432 Quebec street, Victoria.

Miss Sproule travelled to British Columbia from her home in Peterborough, arriving just a day before the wedding was to take place. Surgeon Lieut. Stark is stationed at the naval dockyards at Esquimalt. Both are graduates of the University of Toronto.

King's Own Class Arranges Banquet

Mrs. A. Butcher, Dalhouse street, was hostess for the May meeting of the King's Own Bible Class, St. James' Sunday School.

The meeting opened with a devotional service led by Mrs. Ken Sloane. The scripture reading based upon Psalm "In the Lord, put I my trust," was read by Mrs. Sloane. Mrs. H. F. Doig's reading "In the Morning" was followed by another timely reading by Mrs. R. Burnside, "There Always will be Gardens" while Mrs. Sloane's reading was based on the 23rd Psalm.

The president, Mrs. Ernest Kitney, took the chair for the business session. The treasurer, Mrs. E. R. Frost, gave the financial standing of the class and was followed by Mrs. E. Johnston with the "Sunshine" report. Further plans for the banqueting the minister's attending the General Conference here in the near future were discussed and completed.

The musical program in charge of Mrs. James Goldie included two piano solos "Children's Carnival" "Parade of the Dwarfs" by Kenneth Butcher. The vocal solo "Brown Bird Singing" by Mrs. Goldie, accompanied by Mrs. Doig brought an encore "I Heard a Thrush At Eve."

An interesting and clever name-guessing contest was won by Mrs. E. Johnston and Mrs. K. Sloane. In the social half hour refreshments were served.

Mrs. G. Harris, Princess street, will be hostess to the class for their June meeting.

Trinity Club Holds Banquet

Trinity Club held its last meeting of the season Tuesday evening, and marked the occasion with a banquet in the Y.M.C.A. and an evening of bowling. After supper, the chairman, Dick Clayton, led the group in a singsong, and read the address to Mr. H. T. Rehill, director of the play, when he was presented with a gift on behalf of the club. Miss Elva Elliott made the presentation. Mr. and Mrs. Don Holmes presented a short program of entertainment, which included two short playlets, and a reading, given by Mrs. Holmes.

The group later adjourned to the bowling alleys for an evening of fun. LAC Burt McFadden, R.C.A.F., a past-president of the club, who is stationed in Weyburn, Sask., was home on leave, and he and Mrs. McFadden were present.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rehill, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. William Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Parker, LAC Burt McFadden, R.C.A.F. and Mrs. McFadden, Mrs. R. Turnbull and Mrs. Lila Barltrop; and Misses Audrey Garside, Kay Elliott, Leona Edwards, Grace Johnson, Isabel Taylor, Eleanor Bird, Elva Elliott, Madelyn McWilliams, Edna Elliott, Bertha Boyd, and Vera Young, and Messrs. Melville Elliott and Harvey Shier. Mis Vera Young, whose home is in Hamilton, was pianist for the singsong.

HOW TO SLEEP IN SUMMER—A bra top with pretty cut and flattering shirring, wide trousers with front fullness below a moulded waistline, style this white rayon sleeping pyjama model. This two-piece pyjama set is not a patio or cabana model, but a cool garment for hot nights when sleep may be hard to woo. Made of rayon jersey which is cool and slippery, not inclined to stick or bunch into uncomfortable haystacks, it is a model which can be washed in a jiffy, and which requires no ironing. Shirred bra top styled after the evening dress V decollete bodice.

—By Prunella Wood.

The Stars Say . . .

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Friday, May 26

AN EXCEPTIONALLY lively and constructive day is forecast, with much energy and initiative directed into peculiar or novel channels, arising from secret sources of a subtle or obscure nature, although sound and of good intent in the main. Quick and shrewd action may prove gainful and put peculiar situations on a secure basis, where hard work and unique tactics win out. Quite as important is the aggressive program, and practical development, the prospect of romance, finer emotions or other joys may reach dramatic fulfilments and gain.

◊ ◊ ◊

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for an extremely lively and intriguing year, in which much practical and constructive work and objective opportunity may have angles of a subtle, strange or inexplicable nature. While these may be spectacular, novel or sensational at root they may have sound and secure purpose. Shrewd insight, reasonable tactics and sound constructive programs of enterprise and initiative, may attain new heights of accomplishment with concrete results. However, the elements of romance, singular adventures, or thrills and bewilderment are to be sanely reckoned with. Marriages and engagements may be included as crises to these subtle emotions. Maintain poise.

A child born on this day may be skillful practical and aggressive and at the same time subtle, romantic and idealistic.

Superfluous Hair

On Face and Moles

Completely, Permanently and Painlessly Removed by Electrolysis. Eyebrows permanently arched. For appointments, Phone 6423 or write

MRS. MARIE MURDUFF
409 Wolfe St.

FASHIONS . . . .

Your little girl will soak up sun in Pattern 9208, easy-to-sew sundress. She adds the bolero for shopping with Mother.

Pattern 9208 in sizes: 2, 4, 6, 8, 10. Size 6, sundress and bolero, 2⅛ yards 35-inch. Heart pockets on costume optional.

Pattern Number ..............................

Size ..............................

My Name ..............................

..............................

Address ..............................

I enclosed 20c for postage

St. Pete's Cop 7-6 Win Over Union Team

A two-run error in the last of the ninth enable St. Peter's to come from behind and grab of a 7 to 6 win over the U.E.W. team in a City League game at Riverside Park Wednesday evening.

The Union outfit was leading 6 to 5, after going out in front in the seventh, when the miscue tossed the ball game into the lap of the Saints.

It was a closely fought contest all the way. The losers shot out in front with three runs in the first inning. St. Peter's came back with four in the third and added another in the fourth to make it 5 to 3 and U.E.W. tied it up again in the fifth. They set up a one-run lead in the seventh and held it until the fatal ninth.

Gene Reynolds went the route for the winners and while he yielded 14 hits he allowed only one walk. On the other hand Don Isaac who started for the Union team and Anderson who did a neat job of relief hurling when he took over in the fifth yielded only nine hits but they issued eight complimentaries, each passing four.

U.E.W. got a nice start when Platt beat out a bunt and went to second on Reynolds' high throw. Quigley rolled to Courneya, Platt advancing. On Girard's roller Platt was caught between third and home. Murduff lined to left for a homer when the ball shot away from Brown and Girard scored ahead of the hitter. Doughty tripled to left and scored on Starr Detlor's single.

St. Peter's staged a rally in the third to go in front. Brown doubled to left and ran in on Gene Reynold's single. Conroy singled past third. Courneya rolled to Isaac, the runners advancing. Reynolds scored when Carlson was being thrown out by Thrasher. Masterson tripled to centre scoring Conroy and crossing the plate himself on a bad throw to second.

The Union team tied it up in the fifth. Quigley doubled past third. Girard rolled out and Murduff flied to centre but Doughty singled to left to score Quigley and Detlor tripled to the same field to send Doughty home.

U.E.W. came back with a run in the seventh to take the lead again. Quigley singled to centre and Girard to left. A pass to Murduff filled the bases. Quigley was out at the plate on Doughty's hopper to Reynolds but Detlor poled a fly to Hollingsworth in left, Girard running home after the catch.

There was no more scoring until the last of the ninth. With one away Hollingsworth was safe on Anderson's fumble and Caccavella walked. The two pulled off a double steal and the stage was set for the finale. Condon hit sharply to Thrasher who tried to cut Hollingsworth off at the plate but the third baseman's throw hit the runner in the back and bounded away and both Hollingsworth and Caccavella crossed the plate with the runs that meant the ball game.

| St. Peter's: | AB | R | H | PO | A | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Conroy, ss | 3 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 1 |
| Courneya, 3b | 4 | 0 | 1 | 5 | 6 | 1 |
| Carlson, c | 3 | 0 | 1 | 7 | 0 | 0 |
| Masterson, cf | 5 | 1 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| Hol'sworth, rf, lf | 5 | 1 | 0 | 4 | 0 | 0 |
| Caccavella, 2b | 4 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Condon, 1b | 4 | 0 | 0 | 5 | 1 | 0 |
| Brown, lf, rf | 2 | 2 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Reynolds, p | 4 | 1 | 3 | 1 | 1 | 1 |
| | 34 | 7 | 9 | 27 | 8 | 3 |

| U.E.W.: | AB | R | H | PO | A | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Platt, 2b | 5 | 0 | 1 | 5 | 1 | 0 |
| Quigley, ss | 5 | 1 | 2 | 1 | 2 | 0 |
| Girard, c | 5 | 2 | 1 | 4 | 0 | 0 |
| Murduff, lf | 5 | 1 | 3 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| Doughty, rf | 5 | 2 | 2 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Detlor, 1b | 5 | 0 | 2 | 7 | 0 | 0 |
| Jackson, cf | 2 | 0 | 2 | 1 | 1 | 1 |
| Patterson, cf | 2 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Thrasher, 3b | 4 | 0 | 1 | 2 | 4 | 1 |
| Isaac, p | 2 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 3 | 0 |
| Anderson, p | 2 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 1 |
| | 42 | 6 | 14 | 25 | 11 | 3 |

One out in the ninth when the winning run was scored.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| St. Peter's | 004 100 002 | —7 |
| U.E.W. | 300 020 100 | —6 |

Runs batted in—Reynolds 2, Condon 2, Masterson, Carlson, Murduff 2, Detlor 3, Doughty. Two-base hits—Brown, Thrasher, Quigley. Three-base hits—Masterson, Murduff, Detlor. Home run—Murduff. Hits—off Isaac 6 in four innings (pitched to two batters in the fifth), off Anderson, 3 in five innings. Struck out—by Reynolds 3, by Isaac 1, by Anderson 2. Bases on balls—off Reynolds 1, off Isaac 4, off Anderson 4. Double plays—Jackson to Platt, Courneya (unassisted), Thrasher to Platt. Left on bases—St. Peter's 10, U.E.W. 9. Losing pitcher—Anderson. Umpires—Batley at the plate, D. Holmes on the bases.

Tannery Takes Surprise Win In Softball Tilt

HASTINGS, May 25—(ENS)—Paced by their powerful first baseman, Frank Kraul, Hastings Tannery captured the softball tournament held on the local diamond Wednesday. In the two games he played Kraul hit safely five times and garnered three walks in his nine trips to the plate.

He drove in four runs and scored another four himself. The three games were marked by several heated arguments which were quickly squelched by Umpire Wellman who threatened to wield his additional authority as local constable. The several hundred spectators on hand thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Asphodel and the Clerks tangled in the afternoon contest which saw the Clerks hammer out a 16 to 7 victory. Vince Herrington, pitching for the Clerks, was hit hard but the Asphodel boys were weak in the clutches and left seventeen players stranded on the base-paths. The Clerks had their big inning in the third when they scored five runs.

Harold Fife was the big threat for Asphodel. He counted two hits and two free trips to the initial sack in six tries.

The line-up:

Clerks — V. Herrington, p; B. Kumpf, rf; P. Coughlan, lf; L. Myles, 1b; I. Bonds, ss; S. Stevenson, 2b; Ab Beavis, 3b; A. Orr, c; L. Scriver, cf.

In the second game, the Tannery, who lost their first game of the season, and were counted as pushovers for the confident Juniors pinned the youngsters back by a count of 16 to 8. Although outhit 12 to 7, the Tannery capitalized on their opponents nine errors for some markers. Jack Wilson pitched excellent ball for the losers but some erratic fielding by his mates nullified the fine effort.

Dinty Thompson, on the mound for the winners, allowed a dozen bingles but he kept them well-scattered and some fine running catches by his fielders held the vaunted power of the Juniors' bats at bay. Murray Fife led the losers at the plate with three hits good for three runs in four tries.

The line-ups:

Tannery—E. Radford, cf; F. Beavis, ss; A. Thompson, p; F. Kraul, 1b; E. Blackburne, lf; G. Killingbeck, 2b; D. Lemoire, 3b; G. Bonds, rf; Y. Calberry, c.

Juniors—L. Lynch, 1b; D. Kumpf, 2b; J. Crowley, ss; M. Fife, c; J. Wilson, p; S. McKenty, cf; T. Coughlan, rf; L. Stevens, 3b; R. Oliver.

Umpires—Wellman and Mulholland.

Winners Meet

The two winners met in the seven inning night cap and the Tannery came out on top by turning back the Clerks 7 to 4 in a close game.

The Clerks were weak at the plate as they could only salvage four singles off the combined offerings of Eddie Radford and Dinty Thompson. The winners scored four of their runs in the third frame.

Art Orr was the big gun for the Clerks with two safeties in four attempts

Some of the nicest fielding seen here this year was served up by Ab Beavis, young third sacker for the losers. He handled eight chances faultlessly.

Drafting Room Clips Marines

Drafting Room checked their play-off opponents of last season with a 26-11 win over Outboard Marines at the Bonnerworth in an Industrial League game Tuesday night.

The Draftsmen were never headed and played almost airtight ball behind great pitching by Greg. Kemp. Marines got away to a very shaky start, but settled down afterwards.

A. Shaughnessy and Waterman of the Drafting played wonderful ball in the field and Bill Shadgett also pulled down a hard hit fly ball by Hickey of the Marines. Simpson went best in the field for the Marines and Mattucci starred at short.

Herb. Correll of the Draftsmen had a home run and a three-base hit in four times at bat. Al Shaughnessy had three hits out of three, Shadgett 5 hits out of 5 times at bat.

Baz Murphy was best at bat for Marines with 2 singles and a triple in 4 times at bat. Bob Shaughnessy Blondeau and Simpson also hit triples.

| Score by Innings— | | R | H | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Marines | 000 411 32 | 11 | 17 | 2 |
| Draftsmen | 452 091 5x | 26 | 20 | 2 |

The Teams—

Marines—Davey, 2b; McEwen, c; Murphy, ss; Heffernan, 1b; B. Shaughnessy cf; Hickey, rf; Mattucci, 3b; Blondeau, p; Simpson, lf.

Drafting Room—A. Shaughnessy, lf; Shadgett, cf, lf; Kemp p; Stewart ss; Correll, 2b; Waterman, rf; McQuaig, c; Mathison, 1b; Bedford, 3b; Geraghty cf.

Umpires—P. Hillier at bat, Bennett on bases.

Brintons Defeat Canada Packers

Brintons defeated Canada Packehs 13 to 9 in the opening game of the Industrial Softball League Tuesday night at Brinton Field.

R. V. Dawson of Brinton's and Gordon S. Matthews and A F. Innes of Canada Packers took part in the opening ceremonies.

The teams were as follows:

Brintons— Corbett 1b, Jones lf, Weese ss, White 3b, Byers c, Rose cf, Dorrell 2b, Eddington rf, McGarrity rf, Phillips p.

C. P. C.—Downer c, Seymour 2b, Csumrik ss, Detlor 1b, G. Downer p, McCullough p, Begley 3b, Franks rf, M. Downer cf.

In an Industrial League game last night the Quakers defeated Westclox 23 to 6. Quakers scored eight runs in the opening inning and that proved more than enough to win for them.

The Quaker line-up was as follows: Sullivan 2b, Pollock rf, Ash 1b, Weaver 3b, Gunn c, Willshaw cf, Tice lf, Roote ss, Horton p, Scott lf.

AMBITIOUS

The Chinese were trying to predict eclipses as early as 2,000 B.C.

SALLY'S SALLIES

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

"Isn't he dumb, though—just sitting there counting his fur?"

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

LEARN BRIDGE FAST
4—Play With a Trump

THERE IS just one basic difference between play of a hand at a No Trump contract and play at a suit or "trump" contract. In the latter, some one particular suit is called the "trump," and any card of that suit, no matter how little, will beat any card of any other suit, no matter how big. The fundamental law of always having to follow suit—play a card of the same suit as the card led to a trick—applies. But, when you have no card of the suit led, then you may play anything you want. You may either "trump" the trick by putting a trump on it, or you may discard a card of some other suit. Take this example:

North: ♠ 10 9 4 3 ♥ 6 5 4 2 ♦ Q 4 ♣ K 8 6

West: ♠ Q 8 ♥ A K Q 9 3 ♦ K 9 6 ♣ J 5 3

East: ♠ J 7 ♥ J 8 7 ♦ A J 10 7 ♣ 10 9 4 2

South: ♠ A K 6 5 2 ♥ 10 ♦ 8 5 3 2 ♣ A Q 7

Suppose the bidding—and we will go into that in later lessons—has determined that South is the declarer with spades as trumps. Let us go through the play which might occur on that hand.

West leads the heart K, the other three hands following suit. As winner of that trick, he leads again, and this time picks the heart Q. South, having no more hearts, "trumps" the trick by playing a trump on it, the spade 2, taking the trick. He then leads the spade A and K, the other hands following suit.

Now he leads the diamond 2. West wins with the K and leads the heart A. South trumps it with the spade 5, and then leads the diamond 3. East wins that with the diamond A and leads the club 2. South wins with the A. He then leads the diamond 5 and trumps it with the spade 9. He leads the dummy's club 8 to his Q, and then the diamond 8, which he trumps with the dummy's spade 10.

The next trick is won with the club K, and then the heart 6 is led and trumped with South's spade 6.

If you will count up, you will find that South took 10 tricks. He trumped three heart leads with his spade 2, 5 and 6, trumped two diamond leads with the dummy's spade 9 and 10, took two trump tricks by leading the A and K, and took three club tricks, with the A, Q and K. The opponents took one trick in hearts, with the K, and two in diamonds, with the K and A.

Except for the three heart tricks which were trumped and the three diamond tricks which were trumped—or "ruffed," as one technical term describes this putting of a trump on the lead of another suit—the play was exactly the same as in the No Trump contract explained yesterday.

But what a difference the "ruffing" made. A study of the four hands will show you that East and West had stronger hands than North and South, so far as high cards are concerned, and yet North and South could take more tricks with their best suit as trumps. The most tricks East and West could have taken, with hearts as trumps, would have been eight, as North and South could take the first five tricks: two in spades and three in clubs. The reason North and South could take more is what experienced players call "distribution." You will hear plenty about that later on.

Tomorrow: Now for the Bidding.

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

DAILY CROSSWORD

ACROSS
1. Floating mass of ice
5. Dull
9. Tree
10. Eagle's nest
12. White poplar
13. Sacred song
14. Border
15. Bone
17. Drunken revelry
18. Norse god
19. Shaded walk
21. Editor (abbr.)
22. Wicked
25. Coin (Rum.)
26. Cotton cloth
28. Cram
32. Cistern
34. Fencing sword
35. Any powerful deity
37. Boy's name
39. Radium (sym.)
40. Kind of dance
42. Pennsylvania (abbr.)
43. Bitter vetch
44. Lively dance
46. To cut again
48. Backbone
49. Noblemen
50. Droops in the middle
51. Real

DOWN
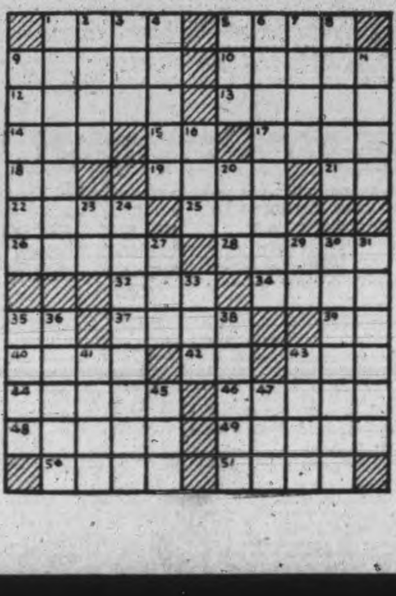
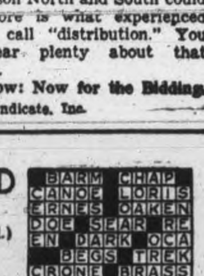
1. To have faith
2. A Dutch cheese
3. Male sheep
4. One who cares for horses
5. To skip, as a stone on water
6. Firm
7. Sandarac tree
8. Bottom of the hull
9. Cut, as meat
11. Fresh-water tortoise
16. Salt (chem.)
20. French article (pl.)
23. At home
24. Entire
27. Disfigure
29. Aloft
30. Metal ring on a cane
31. Banquets
33. Apex
35. Units of work
36. Jumps
38. Proofreader's mark
41. Pen-name Charles Lamb
43. Beige
45. Footlike organ
47. Audience





5-25

Yesterday's Answer

ROOM AND BOARD —By Gene Ahern

TERRY AND THE PIRATES —By Milton Caniff

LI'L ABNER —By Al Capp

HENRY —By Carl Anderson

DONALD DUCK —By Walt Disney

BLONDIE —By Chic Young

MUGGS AND SKEETER —By Wally Bishop

BRICK BRADFORD —By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

TILLIE THE TOILER —By Russ Westover

C.D.S. Parade of Values

Special Selling of Men's and Boys' SUMMER WASH PANTS

Men's—Reg. 2.39

Made of sturdy sanforized cotton that can be washed easily. Just the type of pant for nock-about-wear. Usual pockets and belt loops, plain shades of blue and green. Sizes 30-42. Special, pr. 1.89

Men's—Reg. 2.89

A snappy-looking trouser in neat stripe patterns of strongly woven cotton yarns that wash well and will give good wear. Two side pockets, one back pocket, regular belt loops and buttons. Brown and blue shades. Sizes 30 to 42. Special, Pair .................. 2.31

Boy's—Reg. 1.69

They're tough cotton drill, a popular trouser with both parents and young chaps. Plenty of tough wear at a saving price. Sanforized shrunk, usual pockets, attached belt and buckle strap. Navy blue only. Sizes 24 to 34. Special, pair .................. 1.33

Boys'—Special

A practical buy in medium weight cotton, sanforized shrunk that can be washed without shrinking. Regular belt loops and buttons, one hip pocket, plain colors, brown, blue and green. Sizes 24 to 36. Pair .......... 2.59

Men's Fancy Half and Ankle Socks

Here are smart-looking socks at a low price. Sturdy cotton and wool yarns in neat patterns that pep up your appearance above the shoe line. Colors: blue, maroon, green, brown. Sizes 10 to 12. Pair .................. .39

Special! Men's Work Socks

A good cotton work sock for summer wear. An excellent buy for the man actively at work. In light and dark grey. A neat fitting sock that comes in one ample size for wear with average shoe sizes. Special, Pair .......... .18

—Main Floor, C.D.S.

FORENOON SPECIALS

On Sale Friday From 9 Until 12 Noon If Quantities Last

FORENOON SPECIAL

Full-Fashioned Rayon Leg Stockings

"Substandards" in chiffon and semi-service weights. Cotton tops. Assorted beigetones. Sizes 8½ to 10½. Forenoon Special. Pair .......... .71

—Main Floor, C.D.S.

Quilted Cotton Crib Mattress Pads

Excellent value! Stock up for baby's crib. Size about 17 x 18 ins. Forenoon Special, Each .. .29

—Second Floor, C.D.S.

Kitchen Towels

LIMIT 2 PAIRS TO A CUSTOMER

"Seconds" in natural colored, single loop terry towels, with stripe pattern. Size about 18" x 36". Forenoon Special. Pair .29

—Second Floor, C.D.S.

Electric Light Bulbs

Good quality electric lights bulbs in 40 and 60 watt sizes. Frosted. Forenoon Special, At .................. 9 for 1.09

—Basement, C.D.S.

C.D.S. THE STORE FOR YOUNG CANADA

Young Smooth Summer Frocks!

Look cool as a frosted drink in one of these heat-denying dresses! Softly detailed spun rayons, cotton gingham seersuckers and striped seersuckers . . . bequilingly ruffled but clean-cut, crisp and cutely feminine.

A. Spun rayon in slim-making princess lines. Some have frilled-trimming; others with the new low square-cut necklines. Colours: Large floral patterns in blue, turquoise, pink and tan. Sizes 12, 14 and 14x. Each .......... 3.98

B. Cotton gingham seersucker and striped seersucker frocks in young, young styles. Square and frilly necklines with dirndl skirt effects. Stripes and checks in red, blue or brown. Sizes 12, 14, 14x. Each .......... 4.98

C. Popular 2-piecers you'll practically live in from now on! Carefree cotton seersuckers that require practically no ironing. Jackets are button and frill-trimmed; skirts are gored or with unpressed pleats. Stripes or large checks in blue, red and brown. Sizes 12, 14 and 14x. Each .......... 5.98

—Second Floor, C.D.S.

THE CANADIAN DEPARTMENT STORES LIMITED

Opportunity To Buy SLIPS

Fancy Trimmed Celanese or Rayon Crepe Slips

"Pretty" for you who like dainty slips. In smart styles that conform readily to body lines. Neatly finished with fagot or lace trim. Sizes 32 to 42.

Each 1.29

Bias Cut Slips

A good choice for everyday wear. Of smooth celanese crepe with dainty lace trim, bias cut style with adjustable shoulder straps. Colours white and tearose. Sizes 32 to 42.

Each .79

Special! Rayon Satin Panties

We suggest you shop early for this feature as the quantity is limited! A special purchase from a manufacturer of fine quality lingerie offered this lot at a clearing price. . . . Dainty lace trimmed styles with wide leg and roomy double gusset. Tearose and white, with stretchable waist. Sizes small, medium and large. Special, Each .................. .89

Cotton and Wool Plaid Crib Throws

Clearing at Half-Price!

A real buy at a saving price, woven of soft cotton and wool yarns, strongly bound on edges, in soft pastel pink or blue shades in dainty plaid design. Size about 28 x 42 inches. Reg. 2.95.

Special, Each ... 1.47

Children's Cotton Jerseys

Just the jersey to keep them cool and neat looking this summer. Round neck or turned back collar styles in plain or stripe designs. Colours red, powder, navy, maize. Sizes 4 to 8 years. Each .................. .69

Extra Special! Boys' Play Suits

In a cool cotton weave for summer wear. Button front blouse in white or sand, with button on shorts in contrasting blue, brown or wine. Sizes 2 to 6 years. Special, Each .49

—Second Floor, C.D.S.

CLEARANCE! Misses' Sport Shirts and Blousettes

Regularly, Each 1.59

Buy them now at a saving, to wear all summer. SPORT SHIRTS are of white cotton broadcloth with long sleeves, in sizes 16 to 20. BLOUSETTES are of roman-striped cotton chambray in smart short sleeve, high bow neck style. Sizes 30 to 38. Extra Special, Each .................. 1.09

—Main Floor, C.D.S.

For Protection Against Moths

Paper Garment Bags

Heavy quality paper bags for fur coats, overcoats or lighter garments. Size about 27 x 3 x 60 inches. Slide fastener closing.

"Safe Pack"—Each .................. .49

"Protector"—Each .................. .59

WOODS' "MOTH KILLER" BLOCKETTES—Five odors. Deodorizes and gives moth protection. Each .................. .10

Practical, Laundry Saving Cork Table Mats

Smart-looking table protectors—real laundry savers for summer table settings. Of natural colored cork with four colorful fruit or floral printed designs to choose from. Size 12 x 17½ inches. Each .................. .39

—Main Floor, C.D.S.

Colorful Leatherette Cushions

Extra comfort for summer days at the cottage . . . in the boat . . . at home on the verandah. Made of vari-colored leatherette squares and well-filled with clean converted material. Size about 15" square.

Each .69

—Main Floor, C.D.S.

Look At This Dual Purpose Davenport

It's simple, streamlined, smart! And it's a grand idea now-a-days, when you want to make the best possible use of space. Let it be the centre of hospitality in your one-room apartment, or keep it to use as that important "extra bed" for house guests. Covered with sturdy cotton repp, walnut finished hardwood trim, plenty of space underneath for storing bedding when not in use, full spring construction. Size about 80" outside length, 71" inside seat, 33" high. Each .................. 65.50

Walnut Finished Chiffoniers

A chiffonier so designed you can set it beside most any type of bedroom furniture. Made of sturdy hardwood with rich walnut finish. Four roomy size drawers with modern pulls. About 28" wide, 43 inches high. Each .................. 17.50

Kitchen Chairs

Made from kiln-dried hardwood in harvest color, strongly constructed with side stretchers. A good choice for the home or cottage. Each .......... 1.69

—Basement, C.D.S.

Clearance Of Imported Spun Rayon Dress Fabrics

Regularly Yard, 1.29 to 1.69

In the lot are GAY, WASHABLE PRINTS in smooth or linen-like weaves—spun rayon COVERT CLOTHS for neat sport suits and slacks—spun rayon SUITINGS in a variety of good colors for summer togs. All about 38" wide. Extra Special, Yard .................. .98

COTTON LINENE SUITING

A favourite tubfast fabric for sport togs, smocks, and kiddies' wear. Has a linen-like weave. Solid colours of royal blue, reseda green, maize, white, sand, red, navy, black, rose, wine and dark brown. About 36 inches wide. Yard .................. .49

—Second Floor, C.D.S.

KITCHENWARE FEATURES

Cups and Saucers

Colorful bone china, Royal Albert, Paragon, and Aynsley china. Makes a nice wedding gift, or bridge prize, or for your own home use. Each .................. 1.98

Glass Fruit Nappies

Good for everyday use, made of sturdy but neat corrogated glass that should prove satisfactory in use. Special, Each .................. .5

32-Piece Breakfast Set

Your table will be well decorated with this dainty set. White background with flowered edge in a neat design, with a smooth glaze finish. Set .................. 9.95

Covered Stock Pot

(SECONDS)

A handy kitchen pot that can be put in use almost everyday in the year. About 6 quart size with two-side handles. White enamel with red trim. Each .......... 1.65

Milk or Cream Pitchers

In two useful sizes that is handy for home or cottage use. Plain colours of blue, pink and green. Each ....... .49 and .69

Kitchen Cannister Sets

Your kitchen is not complete without one of these useful sets. Cream and green with flower trim. Four cans to a set. Set .......... 1.19

—Basement, C.D.S.

Telephones
Examiner ........ 4641
CHEX ........ 4641
Nights after 6 p.m., Sundays, Holidays
Examiner ........ 4641
CHEX ........ 4643

Evening Examiner
Peterborough

NIGHT FINAL

VOL. LXXXIX, No. 124 — WEATHER Fair and warm. — PETERBOROUGH, FRIDAY, MAY 26, 1944 — ★★ — PRICE FOUR CENTS

Canadian Drive Spectacular Allies 18 Miles From Rome

STRETCHER CASE HOME—Members of the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps are shown lifting Pte. M. S. Rashette, 696 Victory Crescent, Peterborough, from a hospital train at Kingston on Thursday, May 25. He was invalided home aboard the Lady Nelson. Canadian Army Photo)

Corvette Crew To Visit City On Monday

Christening of the Corvette "Peterborough" will take place Saturday at Kingston, and sixty-five officers and ratings of the ship's company which is being assigned to service on Sunday are expected to arrive here Monday afternoon shortly after 5 o'clock from Port Hope for a public reception.

The precipitate announcement was received this morning from naval headquarters by Mayor Hamilton who with Alderman Sands, chairman of the council's reception committee, were confronted with the emergency of completing arrangements for the event which was not generally expected until early in June.

"The notice has been so short and has come to us so suddenly that we found it just impossible to make anything like the arrangements we were planning for the occasion," Mayor Hamilton said.

To Christen Boat

Alderman Sands confirmed the information that the honor of christening the Corvette "Peterborough" would be paid to Mrs. Edward Evans, sister of the late AB Llewellyn Evans who was lost in the sinking of the Canadian destroyer "St. Croix," sunk in the Atlantic by an enemy submarine.

Llewellyn Evans was a son of Dick

CORVETTE CREW
(Continued on Page 2 Column 3)

Two More Die From Dance Fire

HAMILTON, May 26 (CP)—Two women died of burns in hospital today, bringing to nine the death toll in the fire at Moose Hall here Tuesday night when dairy employees were holding a dance.

Those who died today were Mrs. Hazel Lindsay and Mrs. James Muir.

Previous victims were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Numbers, Mr. and Mrs. William Cleland, Mr. and Mrs. William Whitney and Mrs. Roy Martin.

Of the 35 injured 7 are still in critical condition.

C. L. Snyder, Deputy Attorney-General of Ontario, announced at Toronto yesterday that "a wide-open investigation" would be held into the blaze, cause of which has not yet been determined. The blaze started on the main floor and quickly swept the stairway, trapping the dancers.

The Weather

Peterborough Temperatures:

Today:
Night low..60 Noon .....77

Yesterday:
Highest....69 Lowest....58

One Year Ago:
Highest....67 Lowest....55

Weather Forecast:

Georgian Bay — Moderate winds; generally fair and warm; few scattered thundershowers. Saturday: Moderate winds; fair and warm.

Lower Lake Region—Moderate winds; generally fair and warm; few scattered thundershowers. Saturday: Moderate winds; fair and warm.

Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence Valleys — Moderate winds; generally fair and warm; few scattered thundershowers. Saturday: Moderate winds; fair and warm.

Lake Superior — Moderate to fresh winds; fair and moderately warm today and Saturday.

971 Japanese Killed In Week

ADVANCED ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, May 26—(AP). — Capture of the ninth Japanese air base within a month by American forces moving toward the Philippines up the north New Guinea coast appears imminent.

To-day Headquarters reported the hard-fighting Americans, after using artillery and medium tanks to break up concentrated enemy small arms and mortar fire, had reached the edge of an incompleted airfield at Maffin Bay, Dutch New Guinea, last Wednesday.

The Maffin Field, beyond which lies the serviceable Sawar airstrip; is on the mainland just west of the Wakde Island air base, captured on May 18 and now in operation.

Jungle fighting in the Wakde-Maffin Bay area has been bitter. Since the May 17 landing near Toem, south of Wakde, 971 Japanese have been killed and five captured as against American casualties of 61 killed, 182 wounded, and three missing.

EXTRA!

LONDON—A spokesman for the Japanese Admiralty, Capt. Tauzo Kurihara, said today the situation in the Central and South Pacific was serious.

CAMP ANZA, Calif., May 26—A United States court martial convicted Lieutenant Beaufort G. Swancutt today on a charge of murdering four persons in a shooting affray here last March 5 and recommended that he be hanged.

Aerial Strength Of Japan Wanes In Pacific

By LIEF ERICKSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

PEARL HARBOR, May 26—(AP)—Japan's aerial weakness along the Pacific highroad to Tokyo overshadowed today the devastation left by American carrier planes in a dual slash at Marcus and Wake island.

Only two Japanese aircraft appeared as fliers from a task force gave Marcus a two-day currying with 148 tons of bombs. One was shot down. The other was destroyed on the runway of the tiny island, 1,137 miles southeast of Tokyo.

No enemy planes were seen at Wake where the Americans poured 150 tons of bombs Tuesday, three days after they wrecked Marcus installations. Wake is 848 miles southeast of Marcus.

Announcement of the raids yesterday by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander of the U.S. Pacific fleet, made no mention of anti-aircraft fire at Wake. The Americans lost no planes there. Four planes and three men were lost at Marcus. The attack there started a week ago today and continued Saturday.

The Japanese had almost nine months since Marcus was last hit to build up its air and ground defences. But the absence of plane strength allowed the fliers to pound at will.

Failure of the Japanese to produce a single plane at Wake, captured by Japan early in the Pacific fighting, indicated the extent of neutralization achieved by frequent raids of Central Pacific land-based army and navy bombers.

Bad Weather Curtails Flying

LONDON, May 26 — (CP)—The great Allied pre-invasion air offensive dwindled as adverse weather conditions prevailed over the English Channel and most British-based planes were reported grounded during the night and early today.

The Italian end of the mighty sky pounding of Europe continued, however, with attacks last night by R.A.F. heavy and medium bombers on tactical targets in aid of the battle for Rome.

The lull at the British end of the two-way offensive followed a night in which more than 6,000 planes of all types, operating from both Britain and Italy, hammered European targets with more than 8,000 tons of bombs.

The lull today gave Allied ground crews a chance to repair damaged aircraft and allowed a rest for pilots and air crews.

Only single aircraft, probably reconnaissance planes were reported over Germany by the Berlin radio, heard by the Associated Press.

Later the German-controlled Vichy radio said the Lyon and Etienne regions of France were attacked this morning, followed by an alert which covered a considerable area of central France.

Photographs revealed heavy damage to rail facilities in France and Belgium as a result of attacks by American bombers and fighters yesterday, said an American air force communique.

Rings Bells At Pontecorvo

St. Catharines Officer First To Enter

With the 8th Army Behind the Hitler Line, May 26 —(AP)—Lieut. Bill Rich of St. Catharines, Ont., was the first Allied soldier to enter Pontecorvo. He led a scout patrol into the deserted town, gathered up a few German prisoners who saw the end coming and had already packed their blankets.

Rich made his way wearily through the town, somehow climbed up to the battered church tower and rank the church bell.

Major F. T. Forgave of St. Johns, Que., then led his company in to occupy the town. They found some 50 Germans hiding behind tombstones in the cemetery, waiting for them.

With Rich when he entered were Sgt. Frank G. White of Montreal and Pte. Hache-Ryckman of Grande Anse, N.S.

They found an empty town. Only a few German slender piles of ammunition remains. There were no civilians to be found. Every building had been cleared of its contents.

There was only one complete pane of glass left in the entire community, said Lieut. W. C. Watson of London, Ont., officer of a pioneer unit.

Great piles of mines lined the road into Pontecorvo, important Liri river anchor of the Hitler Line. Some had been dug up by Canadian sappers. Many never had been laid.

Cori Town Taken Huns Retreat

Piedimonte Taken By Poles; Cisterna Occupied

By EDWARD KENNEDY
Associated Press Staff Writer

NAPLES, May 26—(AP).—The 5th Army captured the town of Cori, seven miles outside the former Anzio beachhead today as Allied forces rolled the Germans back in swift advances toward Rome.

The British 8th Army took frowning Monte Cairo and the town of Roccasecca beyond it in advances north of Cassino, Allied headquarters announced.

The 8th Army already had swept up Aquino while Polish troops took Piedimonte—last remaining strongpoints of the once-vaunted Hitler line—and Canadian Corps troops established a bridgehead across the Melfa River, in the Liri Valley 13 miles west of Cassino.

San Giovanni, on the southern edge of the Liri Valley and four miles south of Ceprano, also has been captured.

The capture of Cori, 6½ miles northeast of Cisterna, severed the last enemy communications in the direction of Calmontone for any German troops remaining in the vicinity of the Pontine Marshes and placed the 5th Army within eight miles of the Via Casilina (Highway 6), the route which serves the enemy fighting in the Liri Valley.

(The German radio commentator, Martin Hallensleben, in a broadcast recorded in London, said German Field Marshal Albert Kesselring had ordered his troops to give way at the main points of Allied pressure in the face of the "sweeping might of massed enemy tanks" and that the front now runs through Velletri, 18 miles south of Rome.)

Take Littoria

Southeast of Cisterna, 5th Army troops occupied Littoria, Mussolini's model town in the Pontine marshes, without opposition.

The Melfa River bridgehead is five miles northwest of Pontecorvo.

The Canadian push compelled the Germans to pull out of Aquino yesterday and withdraw northwest across Highway No. 6 towards the town of Roccaseca. Presumably also it was this push which forced the Germans to give up Piedimonte, six miles northeast of Pontecorvo.

Highway No. 6 now is open to Allied traffic as far west as the Melfa River. This highway is the main road from Cassino to Rome.

Occupation of Aquino gave the Allies a new airfield.

The enemy still was offering stiff resistance on the flanks of the Canadians who crossed the Melfa River. Five miles north-west up the valley lies the town of Seprano, an important road junction.

2,600 Prisoners

In its four-day-old offensive, the beachhead section of the 5th Army captured 2,600 prisoners up to noon yesterday. Among the prisoners were the commander of the 954th German Infantry Regiment and his staff.

French and American troops, ex-

AQUINO FALLS
(Continued on Page 8, Column 4)

48th Highlander Wipes Out Gun Nest Single-handed, Using Nerve and Tommy-gun

TORONTO, May 26—(CP).—L.-Sgt. D. K. Caswell, member of Toronto's 48th Highlanders, wiped out single-handed an enemy position in Italy which his company commander, Maj. John Clarke, had ordered him to take, thinking he would attack with a platoon, Maj. Bert Wemp said today in a dispatch to the Toronto Telegram.

Instructed to wipe out the position from which the Germans had pinned down the advancing Canadians with cross-fire, Caswell unhesitatingly crept with his tommy gun to an opening in the house they occupied and "alone wiped out machine-gun crews and a rifle sniper," said Maj. Wemp, Telegram war correspondent with the Canadian Corps in Italy.

Kitchener Man Gives Life To Save 3 Other Soldiers

OTTAWA, May 26—(CP).— A 23-year-old corporal of the Canadian Army who interposed himself between an unexploded grenade and his comrades and attempted to throw it clear, suffering mortal injuries when it exploded, has been awarded the George Cross posthumously, Defence Headquarters announced today.

He was Cpl. (Acting Sgt.) John Rennie, of (35 Fairview Ave.) Kitchener, Ont., who served with the Canadian Infantry Corps until his death October 29, 1943. Rennie was cited for "conspicuous courage in the face of extreme danger." The George Cross ranks second only to the Victoria Cross.

Rennie was supervising grenade throwing by a member of his unit at a Canadian training camp in England when a grenade failed to clear protective embankment and rolled back into the throwing area.

"Despite the fact that he had time and opportunity to escape from danger, Acting Sgt. Rennie, without the slightest hesitation, dashed forward, interposing himself between the grenade and his comrades, and attempted to pick up the rolling grenade and throw it clear," his citation said.

Unusual Bravery

"Before he could do so, however, the grenade exploded and Acting Sgt. Rennie sustained mortal injuries.

"By his sacrifice, Acting Sgt. Rennie prevented serious and possibly fatal injuries to three other soldiers who were within five yards of the explosion, and his gallant act carried out in complete disregard of his own safety, showed bravery of a high order that stands out in the annals of the Canadian army."

Defence headquarters also announced the award of the British Empire Medal (military division) to Sgt. David Shepherd, 33, Rumsey, Alta., Royal Canadian Army Service Corps; Cpl. (now L. Sgt.) Clifford A. Saunders, 22, of Verdun, Que., Canadian Armored Corps, and L. Cpl. R. S. Eckhardt, 22, of St. Catharines, Ont., also of the Canadian Armored Corps.

L. Cpl. Eckhardt, though burned in the same explosion in which Cpl. Saunders was injured, ran half a mile to a workshop attached to an anti-aircraft gun site for help, and refused all attention to himself until the officer in charge had reached No. 33 general hospital and all possible aid had been sent Eckhardt's comrades.

Allies Ambush Relief Column

CHUNGKING, May 26 (AP)—Allied troops have foiled a Japanese attempt to reinforce the garrison at besieged Myitkyina in northern Burma, ambushing a relief column approaching from Namkwi to the west of the city, a communique from Allied north Burma headquarters announced today.

In the ensuing fight 30 of the enemy were reported killed and 60 wounded.

Northwest of Myitkyina, meanwhile, Allied troops continued to exert pressure on the Japanese garrison, while directly north of the city 52 Japanese were killed by attacking Chinese troops, the bulletin declared.

In the Mogaung valley the Chinese 22nd Division was credited with further advances against Japanese positions southeast of Malakawng.

On the Salween front in Yunnan province, a Chinese spokesman said, the Chinese had reached a point 25 miles from the Burma Road town of Lungling. The spokesman declared a previous claim that the Chinese had cut the Burma Road southwest of Lungling was in error.

American airmen made further widespread attacks, ranging from Hainan Island, Thailand and Indo-China to the Yangtze and Yellow rivers areas in China, Allied headquarters in North Burma announced.

The missions, accomplished with the loss of two planes, resulted in the sinking of two cargo vessels on the southern tip of Hainan, dropping of medical supplies May 23 to the besieged defenders of Loyang, an attack on Yuncheng, the important Japanese base in Shansi province.

Re-united

SPOKANE, May 6.— (AP).— A father and son, each of whom thought the other had perished in the San Francisco earthquake and fire were re-united here yesterday after 40 years. They are William H. Merrick, 83, retired Spokane fuel dealer and his eldest son, Ross Dennis Merrick, now a deck officer in the United States merchant marine.

WAR BULLETINS

Allies Start Final Push To Capture Rome

ITALY: United Allied armies batter Huns along the road to Rome. Allies now 18 miles from the Holy City. Canadian troops spearhead spectacular drive.

• • • •

U.S. Raids Marcus And Wake Without Loss

CENTRAL PACIFIC: Raids on Wake Island reveal aerial weakness of Japan across the Central Pacific.

• • • •

Pre-Invasion Aerial Barrage Halted

LONDON: Air offensive slackens as bad weather moves in, following terrific pounding of European targets.

• • • •

The Canadian Tar Sands Development

OTTAWA: Commons debates value of Athabaska tar sands. Some members claim money spent on development has been thrown away.

• • • •

Defence Minister Has Praise For Canadian Corps

OTTAWA: Ralston tells members of House of Commons of the sensational gains made by Canadians on the Italian front.

Judges Find Seizure Illegal

WASHINGTON, May 26—(AP).—A Senate judiciary sub-committee headed by Senator Patrick McCarran (Dem., Nev.) declared today President Roosevelt had "no constitutional or statutory authority" to issue the executive order under which Montgomery Ward and Company's Chicago mail order house was seized by armed troops last month.

The sharply-worded report criticized Attorney-General Francis Biddle, who assured the President he had authority to issue the order; Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones, who called for soldiers to take over the plant and eject Sewell Avery, Ward board chairman; the conciliation services of the Department of Labor; the War Labor Board and the National Labor Relations Board.

Senator Chapman Revercomb (Rep., W. Va.) joined Senator McCarran in the report, but the third member of the sub-committee, Senator Ernest W. McFarland (Dem., Ariz.) declined to sign it.

A special House committee which undertook a separate investigation of the Ward seizure recessed yesterday until June 6 after hearing Mr. Biddle and Wayne Chatfield Taylor, Undersecretary of Commerce. Mr. Avery is scheduled as the next witness.

2-Division Corps Smashes Hun Panzer Units Consolidate At Melfa River

Prized Hitler Line Now Wiped Out First Division Infantry In Thick Of Fighting All Week

By DOUGLAS AMARON—Canadian Press War Correspondent

WITH THE CANADIAN CORPS IN ITALY, May 26 — (CP Cable).—Infantry of the Canadian division commanded by Maj.-Gen. B. M. Hoffmeister are consolidating their positions on both sides of the Melfa River while battalions of the 1st Canadian Division under command of Maj.-Gen. Chris Vokes are also consolidating, in preparation for the next phase of the advance northwest through the Liri Valley towards Rome.

The Canadian Corps, which consists of these two divisions, pushed infantry, armor and guns up to the Melfa River yesterday, five miles northwest of Pontecorvo which fell to the Canadians Wednesday.

It was a day of consolidation and mopping up and, for the battalions along and across the Melfa, it was a day of heavy shelling and mortaring.

In Strong Position.

The general Canadian picture last night showed the infantry of the division commanded by Gen. Hoffmeister, 36, of Vancouver, was establishing itself on both sides of the Melfa. The infantry units were supported by western motorized infantry and tanks.

Battalions of the division commanded by Gen. Vokes, 39, of Ottawa and Winnipeg, also are consolidating.

Between the two Canadian forces the Germans still are holding out with tanks. Artillery concentrations from Canadian guns yesterday helped to erase this resistance.

(This indicated troops of the 1st Division captured Pontecorvo and were in that area, although the dispatch did not say so.)

Large numbers of prisoners still are moving back through both divisions and no accurate figures of the total captured are yet available. However, the number runs well over 1,000 during the last three days.

Tank Attack Fails.

The strength of the enemy tank and infantry opposition in the closing stages of Wednesday's push to the Melfa river, a tributary of the Liri, was greater than expected in view of the speed with which the Germans withdrew from the Hitler line.

The enemy used panzer tanks in a vain attempt to slow the Canadian advance. A number of these were knocked out as well as an undetermined number of Mark IV tanks.

The success of the Canadian advance aided the British troops of the 8th Army—with which the Canadian Corps is fighting. The British formations had been held up in front of Aquino, three miles north of Pontecorvo. But the Canadian push compelled the Germans to pull out of Aquino yesterday, because their line of retreat was threatened by the thrust on the south.

The Germans who had held out stubbornly in Aquino withdrew across Highway No. 6—the Cassino-Rome road—towards the town of

2-DIVISION CORPS
(Continued on Page 8, Column 3)

Britain Issues White Paper On Employment

By WILLIAM STEWART
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 26 —(CP Cable)—The British Government today issued a long-awaited white paper on post-war employment, sketching proposals to assure work for all in the next era of peace through widespread measures of economic control.

The paper, issued by Lord Woolton, reconstruction minister, suggested however the problem of unemployment is unlikely to arise immediate after the war.

The paper proposed for the immediate post-war period a controlled switchover of industry from war production, the allocation of labor and raw materials on a priority basis, a temporary extension of rationing and of limited price control.

External trade is held up by the white paper as the key to the whole post-war employment problem.

As part of the broader aspect of post-war employment, the paper said the government is seeking by international collaboration to create conditions of world trade which will make it possible for all countries to carry out full employment policies.

Among the long-range measures

BRITAIN ISSUES
(Continued on Page 2, Column 6)

Turkey Willing To Enter War

ANKARA, May 25 — (Delayed) — (AP) — Indications that Turkey is willing to enter the war if requested to do so by Britain and the United States and if provided with new supplies was given in reliable quarters today as an aftermath of Prime Minister Churchill's statement Wednesday on Turkish neutrality.

Official reaction still was withheld, but from a well-placed source came word that Turkey was willing to take action provided she was supplied with 300 planes and 400 tanks. The same source expressed doubt of any immediate Turkish entry into the war because the Allied Command's plans at present apparently did not call for her to do so.

Unofficially Turkish leaders repeated past claims that British promises of war equipment had not been fulfilled and added that the sum of £20,000,000 (about $90,000,000 in Canadian funds) in supplies mentioned by Mr. Churchill fell far short of their requirements.

Rare Dandelion

KITCHENER, May 26 (CP) — A rare type of dandelion, which has a broad stalk, surmounted by eight golden rosettes, the "Taraxacum Officinale," has been found here by nine-year-old Harold Voll.

Huns Planning Another Try

Poisoning Neutrals Against United Nations

WASHINGTON May 26.—(AP).—The Office of War Information reports that the Germans and Japanese realizing the war is lost, are "trying to spoil" the Allied victory "and prepare for another try at total war."

The agency particularly emphasizes Nazi propaganda efforts in Turkey. Prime Minister Churchill said Wednesday the United Nations have lost hope of winning Turkey as an ally after pouring arms worth $80,000,000 into that country.

Whether Axis activities are diabolically long-range, as O. W. I. thinks, or are merely intended to keep Europe's neutrals out of this war while Germany tries to split the Allies, this much is true: No European neutral has entered the war on the side of the United Nations.

The Germans are using tactics that paid off before this war. "Tourists" who swarmed into Danzig the Sudentenland and the Polish border regions in the 1930's now are reappearing in Scandinavia, Spain, Portugal and Turkey.

The earlier "tourists" were to pave the way for "victorious German arms" but the present crop is ordered to "poison the minds of neutrals—so that Germany may prepare a springboard for another try."

House Debates Tar Sands; Money Wasted

By JAMES McCOOK
Canadian Press Staff Writer.

OTTAWA, May 26 — (CP). — Now a hardy annual in parliamentary debates, the Athabaska, Alta., tar sands development had its day in the House yesterday.

The debate developed thus:

1. Resources Minister Crerar said the Dominion Government was making "an honest effort" to find out whether commercial development of the sands for oil production was justified.

2. John R. MacNicol (PC-Toronto Davenport) said he was not satisfied with what had been done by the Government and felt there had been waste of Government funds He said there should be a parliamentary committee to study the development.

3. J. M. Dechene (L-Athabaska) said Hon. W. A. Fallow, Alberta Minister of Public Works, had criticized the Dominion Government operations at the tar sands on information given him "by a lot of drunken men in the hotel at Edmonton."

4. C. E. Johnston (SC-Bow River) said Mr. Crerar failed to deny one of the statements made by Mr. Fallow in the Alberta Legislature. A Royal Commission should be established to examine the charges made by Mr. Fallow, for the Alberta Minister had accused the Federal Government of sending a survey party to the tar sands to

HOUSE DEBATES
(Continued on Page 8, Column 4)

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, May 26 — (CP) — Canadian Commodity Exchange. Spot: Butter, Que. (92 score) 33⅛c-33⅝c; eggs B1, eastern A-large 34¾c-35¼c; A-medium 32¾c-33¼c; A-medium 32¾c-33¼c; A-pullets 27c-27½c; E-B 30c-30½c; E-C 24c-24½c.

Futures: May butter 33⅝cA; eggs 34cB.

Mrs. F. Horton Beginning Sixth Year As President

For the sixth consecutive year, Mrs. Fred Horton was elected president of the Peterborough Presbytery Women's Association, at the conference held in St. James' United Church, Thursday morning and afternoon.

Other members of the executive are: vice-presidents, Mrs. E. Wand, Mrs. C. S. Tanner of Lakefield Mrs. G. S. Taylor Keene; recording Secretary Mrs. C. Price, Havelock; corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. Laing; treasurer, Mrs. P. I. Bentley, Millbrook; executive members, Mrs. M. Drysdale, Mrs. J. A. Brumwell. Mrs. J. C. Larmer, Mrs. J. Allen, Mrs. N. Thompson Bailieboro, and Mrs. George Kelly, Lakefield.

The responsibility of church women, as mothers, to safeguard their children and homes; to use their franchise; and to work towards the furtherance of the temperance movement, was stressed in all addresses, and was one of the guiding themes of the meeting. Reports read by various heads of affiliated Women's Associations gave accounts of the year's work and showed that war work and Red Cross work had been continued. It was reported donations had been made to boxes for boys overseas, and to the Victor Home in Toronto, and that sick and shut-in-work was being kept up. The president, Mrs. Horton, mentioned the work of the Victor Home, and spoke of its efforts on behalf of girls not only in Toronto but also in surrounding dirstricts.

Mrs. Richard Maddocks, first vice-president of the Dominion W. A. Council, Toronto, addressed the group on the subject, "Church Women Adventuring Together in Christian Living". In her talk, Mrs. Maddocks stressed the influence church women could wield if they banded together. She said that "fellowship" aptly described the theme of the Women's Associations and asked the women to make more use of the Bible in their homes, since teaching for life really began in the home, and mothers could influence their children for better living.

Time To Act

The speaker urged the women to use their franchise, and cited examples of the work women in India had done towards the furthering of their rights. "Now is the time to make our influence felt", she said, as she urged tre women to band together and to use their combined influence towards the obtaining of better conditions.

Mrs. E. Beavis who spoke to the afternoon session on the subject of "Temperance", gave statistics which showed the increase in the sale of intoxicating beverages, and deplored the lack of progress along temperance lines. She cited several examples of cases which had come before the courts, and emphasized that it was women's duty to prepare for the future of their children and to help make the world a better place in which to live.

Women In Peace.

Senator Iva C. Fallis addressed the luncheon meeting, and spoke of the part women could play in the post-war planning. She said that the government had called women to many important positions, and that they had done their work efficiently and to the satisfaction af all. However, when the war is over, she felt that women's organizations should insist that women be represented on national and post-war committees, and have a representation in the peace councils, since they were called upon to make the greatest sacrifices when war comes.

At the beginning of her talk, Senator Fallis stressed the fact that the minds of the people were being centred too much on Social Security. "While we are all agreed that the injustices of the past should not be repeated," the speaker continued, "I personally would not like to see too much emphasis put on what the state does for the individual, but more on what the individual does for himself. Social Security is a necessary legislation but I would like to see it supplementary to individual effort. We do not want to bring up this generation with the idea that they don't have to do anything for themselves. While there have been errors in the past, the pendulum must not be allowed to swing to the other extreme, and destroy individual initiative."

In conclusion, the speaker dealt with the tragedy of the loss of brilliant young men, who would have been leaders in every field in national life. "Although they cannot be replaced," she said, "every encouragement should be given to young women of talent and ability, because the future well-being and life of Canada depends on men and women working together, to make a better country for all."

Devotional Period.

Mrs. W. H. Morton spoke to the morning session on Citizenship and Women and Mrs. M. Stokes, of St. James' W. A. read the address of welcome. Mrs. J. A. Brumwell led in a singsong at the opening of both periods. Mrs. J. Gerard and Mrs. R. Laing, of the W. A. of Knox United Church, took charge of the morning devotional period, and Mrs. Glover and Mrs. A. E. Metcalfe, of the Hastings W. A., took the devotional period during the afternoon. During luncheon, Mrs. R. Maddocks led in a round table conference of presidents and vice-presidents. Members of the St. James' W. A. served dinner.

Rev. J. W. Wilkinson, as chairman of the Presbtery, brought greetings from that group, and expressed appreciation for the active and faithful work of all W. A.'s. He also conducted the election of officers, and officiated at the installation ceremony. Rev. F. W. Craik was in charge of the quiet hour during the morning meeting, and, assisted by Rev. Wilkinson, Rev. F. Horton, and Rev. J. E. Glover, conducted the sacrament of the Lord's supper.

Soloist during the morning was Mrs. H. A. Mitchell, who accompanied by Mrs. Ross Mann, sang "The God of Love My Shepherd Is," and "Down Here." Mrs. James Goldie, soloist during the afternoon, sang "Green Pastures,' 'accompanied by Mrs. H. Doig.

Mrs. G. Kelly, reporting for the resolutions committee, read several resolutions, and it was decided to forward a copy of these to the president of each W. A. so that they could be discussed at individual meetings. It was also decided to send a post card to the president of each W. A. before the programs were sent out, as an added reminder of the conference. Lakefield W. A. will be in charge of the morning devotions at the 1945 conference, and Springville W. A. will be in charge of the devotional in the afternoon.

If the members decide to hold the next conference outside of the city, an invitation to go to Lakefield was extended. Miss Elva Throop, of Mark Street United Church, was named as organist for the conference.

War Paint for the Home Front

HOUSE paint is war paint these days. Paint will preserve your home ::: prevent small damage from becoming serious and costly through neglect and decay. The mo... "mend and make do" around your own home the less you will consume the goods and services needed elsewhere for an all-out war effort.

For helpful advice talk to your C-I-L Paint Dealer. Any home maintenance problem that you are likely to have has been met many times in his experience or in the experiences of his many customers. You will find, too, that he has many sources of technical information ::: colour styling, tips on painting. And when you need paint, your C-I-L Paint Dealer sells finest quality C-I-L Paints, enamels and finishes for every home need.

Constant research has maintained C-I-L Standards of Quality despite wartime shortages.

N-44-8

CANADIAN INDUSTRIES LIMITED C-I-L PAINTS

PRESERVE AND PROTECT

SOLD BY:

KINGAN HARDWARE LTD.
167 Simcoe St.

GEO. S. TAYLOR
Keene

Graham Trophy Draw Is Announced

The following draw has been made for the first round of the C. G. Graham Trophy, a mixed two-ball foursome match play tournament. Play will commence at the Peterborough Golf Club on Sunday afternoon, May 28, at 2 o'clock.

Play will be conducted under what is commonly known as Scotch two-ball foursome rules wherein all four contestants drive from each tee and a team may decide upon which ball they wish to play thereafter. Three-quarters of the difference between team handicaps will be used.

S. Payne and Mrs. Hutchings 12 vs. Mr. and Mrs. C. Elliott 24.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Steer 19 vs. R. Abbott and Miss Abbott 22.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Graham 21 vs. Mr. Kitchen and Miss M. Hatton 23.

Mr and Mrs. O. A. DeGraw 14 vs. Mr. and Mrs. W. Lloyd 25.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Waddell 15 vs. C. B. Brown and Miss Bullock 29.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Maniece 24 vs. S. McBride and Mrs. J. Watson 30.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McKerchar 24 vs. W. McCreey and Miss Johnson 33.

J. Watson and Mrs. McBride 24 vs. T. Mackay and Mrs. Hicks-Lyne 25.

A. Rutter and Miss F. Leach 17 vs. G. Whiting and Miss M. Strickland 26.

B. Butler and Miss B. Richardson 26 vs. J. Sackville and Miss M. Wood 29.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wood 14 vs. G. Whatman and Miss Armstrong 26.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Eastwood—bye.

Other teams are making last-minute arrangements to enter this competition and their opponents will be notified by telephone. So far the Match and Handicap Committee has received entries from more ladies than gentlemen, and, if any of our readers who are members of the Petrborough Golf and Country Club wish to play in this tournament, they should contact Andy Rutter of the Match and Handicap Committee.

The opening of the women's section of the Peterborough Golf and Country Club will take place on Tuesday afternoon, May 30. Luncheon is called for 12:30, and will be followed by bridge and golf competitions. Members who plan to attend the luncheon should make arrangements with Mrs. Devall at 9130 early on Saturday.

Discharge Pay Inadequate Speaker Claims

The Active Army Auxiliary, with the co-operation of all the I.O.D.E. chapters in Peterborough, will hold a tag day, June 17, to raise money for the Christmas boxes to be sent to boys in service. This was announced at the regular meeting of the Auxiliary, Thursday afternoon in the Y.W.C.A.; and the president, Mrs. J. A. Dewart, asked every member to assist with the tagging. The Buying Committee will have to start early in the summer to get the materials ready for the boxes, since they must be sent away earlier this year, because so many of the men are stationed farther away.

Another project on which the Auxiliary is working, is the salvage drive, which is to be held early in June. Mrs. J. Turnbull, reporting for the salvage committee, told of the city-wide drive to collect salvage, and said that the section of the city assigned to the Auxiliary was McDonnel street, east to the river, and south to Sherbrooke street. The members decided to have a house to house canvass on June 6, in order to impress the residents of their sector with the necessity for getting out the salvage.

Mrs. H. T. E. Hicks-Lyne, speaking for the rehabilitation committee, said that the present clothing allowance of $65 for discharged soldiers, was inadequate, and that the grant on discharge—one month's leave, and one month's pay after discharge—was not sufficient. She spoke of the plan used in South Africa, where men retained their rank and pay in the Army until suitable employment had been found. Mrs. Hicks-Lyne also dealt with the present transportation allowance, and with the plans for pensions, unemployment insurance, vocational training for returned soldiers, and land grants.

Mrs. H. G. Mason gave out knitted articles, and wool for summer knitting. Mrs. Jack Duncan reported two airgraphs and parcels of cigarettes sent to wounded soldiers, and the receipt of a letter of appreciation from Pte. Joe McIntosh, who has now recovered from his wounds, and is back with his unit.

Mrs. Hicks-Lyne gave an account of the recent meeting of the Local Council of Women, and a brief outline of the talk given by Mr. R. Haskill, of the Better Business Bureau, Toronto, on "Business Rackets." By request, Miss Margaret Stevenson repeated the paper she had given at a previous meeting, on the address of Major W. Welbourn, a Salvation Army Officer, recently returned from Italy. A number of new members were welcomed by the president, Mrs. D. T. Diplock, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting, and Mrs. L. Bateman, treasurer, reported a balance on hand of $545.55. Refreshments were served by the social committee.

Miss Alicia Langley, guest soloist, was accompanied by Mrs. James Turnbull, when she sang "In Summertime on Bredon," and "Ferry Ahoy."

MORE ABOUT—
Corvette Crew

(Continued from Page 1)

Evans of Lansdowne street, and the late Mrs. Evans. His mother died after his enlistment.

Alderman Sands said that the officers and men coming to Peterborough Monday afternoon by way of Port Hope comprised the sailing crew. They will take the corvette from Cobourg to Halifax where the ship's company will be completed.

Dedication on June 4

Dedication of the Corvette will take place at Cobourg Sunday, June 4.

The visiting seamen of the "Peterborough" will parade from the C.N.R. station at 6 p.m. Monday, accompanied by Peterborough's Sea Cadet Corps and R.C.A.F. Cadet Squadron to the Hunter street bowl where they will be welcomed by Mayor Hamilton, and will be given an opportunity of informally meeting citizens who are generally requested to attend in large numbers. Later the visitors will be taken to the Kawartha Golf and Country Club for a dinner and dance. They will spend the evening at the Peterborough Training Centre, and visit around the city Tuesday morning until their train leaves at noon.

LIVELY AS A CRICKET!

Don't let sluggish kidneys slow you down. Take Gin Pills—the "relief or money back" remedy—and see how much better you'll feel.

Regular size, 40 Pills
Large size, 80 Pills
In the U.S. ask for "Gino Pills"

REVERBERATIONS CARRIED

A dynamite explosion set off on the Arctic island of Nova Zembla in 1933 was heard in Berlin 2,000 miles away.

OVERSEAS AGAIN — Just a month after he got his wings at Dunville service flying training school in the fall of 1941, Pilot Officer E. Dean Kelly, Peterborough, was flying Spitfires at one operational training unit in England. Now he's on a second tour of ops with the R.C.A.F. Wolf squadron commanded by Squadron Leader R. A. Buckham, D.F.C., and American D.F.C. He has spent six months in Malta, and while there shared a JU-88 with Flight-Lieut. "Hap" Kennedy of Sicily. (RCAF Photo)

THE TEA HOUR GOSSIP . . . .

Now that we are getting bananas once again, I am going to give you a few real nice recipes for desserts in which bananas are used, and I am sure all who read this column will each try one, and never be sorry they did. Bananas are so nourishing, and so easily digested, that all may eat them and enjoy them. Below are some choice recipes.

Whipped Cream Pie

One egg, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 1 cup milk, bananas, 1½ cups flour, ½ teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1 cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon lemon extract, ½ pint of cream, chopped walnut meats. Break a large egg into a measuring cup. Add melted butter, fill cup with milk. Turn into mixing bowl. Mix and sift dry ingredients, add lemon extract, then add slowly to the liquid mixture. Beat until creamy, bake in layer cake tins. Whip the cream, sweeten and flavor with vanilla. Fill between layers with slices of ripe bananas and whipped cream. Heap remainder of cream and bananas on top, and sprinkle with walnut meats. Serve fresh.

Banana Whip

Three bananas, 1-3 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 cup heavy cream, few finely chopped pecan nuts, vanilla, pinch of salt. Cook mashed banana pulp in a double boiler, with sugar and lemon juice until scalded. Add a few drops of vanilla, pinch of salt and cool. Whip cream until firm and gradually beat in banana mixture. Set mixture aside to chill. Pile high in sherbet glasses with a sprinkling of fine pecan nuts on top. If you wish, line the glasses with slices of banana before filling. This will serve 8 people.

Sunshine Bananas

Six bananas, 3 tablespoons maple flavored corn syrup, 3 teaspoons butter, ¼ teaspoon salt, whipped cream. Cut bananas in halves, and each half lengthwise in four pieces. Add the maple flavored corn syrup, salt and butter. Cook very slowly on back of stove or simmering burner. Baste often, and cook until bananas are soft but still retain their shape. Serve with unsweetened whipped cream.

Cabbage Salad with Bananas

Two cups chopped cabbage, ¾ cup celery, 2 bananas, lettuce, ¼ cup salad dressing, chopped nuts. Shred or chop the cabbage, add diced celery and finely cut bananas. Mix lightly with salad dressing and serve very cold on lettuce leaves. Sprinkle with chopped nuts. Serves six persons.

Farmers' Guarantee

LONDON, May 26—(CP).—British farmers were given a four-year guarantee of a market for their whole output of milk, beef cattle, sheep and lambs by the government yesterday with assurances that price levels would not fall below those now prevailing except the case of milk in 1944, for which there is a special bonus.

13 Horses In King's Plate

TORONTO, May 26—(CP)—Thirteen horses were named today for the 85th running of the King's Plate at Toronto's Woodbine track tomorrow afternoon. Official entries closed with the following listed to compete:

| Horse | Owner | Rider | Weight |
|---|---|---|---|
| Acara | H. C. Hatch | Summers | 117 |
| Attester | J. Heffering | Palaez | 117 |
| Cum Laude | Dr. L. H. Appleby | Holyday | 112 |
| Gypster | Cosgrave Stable | Birley | 117 |
| Haggerty | Duke Stable | Leavitt | 112 |
| Hemfox | C. Hemstead | Remillard | 117 |
| Heulwen | Parkwood Stable | Lindberg | 117 |
| Heysiris | Parkwood Stable | Rogers | 112 |
| Korafloyd | J. E. Smallman | Courtney | 117 |
| Nimblefoot | J. Heffering | Parise | 117 |
| Ompalo | H. C. Hatch | Dewhurst | 117 |
| Patafryn | C. Hempstead | Barker | 117 |
| Sayonara | H. C. Hatch | Watson | 112 |

THE STARS SAY . . . . .

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Saturday, May 27

THE ASTRAL indications are for a day of enterprise and aggressive action in an effort to branch out into fresh and untried fields of operation, with the hope of putting the affairs and fortunes on a more active, enduring and firmer foundation. Openings in this direction may come as a surprise, but it is admonished that all writings, agreements and legal documents be read and signed with consideration and precaution. There might be loopholes for disagreements, fraud or disappointment. Trivial annoyances or delays may arise. Cooperation from those in high places may be assured, but have plans and propositions well formulated.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are assured a splended year for pushing the affairs to high goals of achievement, with new openings and contacts for placing constructive projects or fresh ideas on a sound and practical basis. In this the interests and hearty support may be forthcoming from superiors or public bodies attracted by the novelty and workability of such ingenious plans. In all contacts and agreements be alert to any loopholes for fraud, misrepresentation legal entanglements or other frustrating circumstances. Push to high goals with determination but discretion.

A child born on this day should have much practical ability, originality, creative talent, attaining surprising success in its projects, although subject to trouble or impediments with papers or writings.

MORE ABOUT—
Britain Issues

Continued from Page 1

was a proposal by which under social insurance provisions contributions of workers and employers would be larger during times of plenty than in lean years, with the aim of stabilizing spending.

The paper said taxation might also be varied similarly, with taxes high in good times to establish surpluses that could serve as credits for bad years.

Planned spending on public works to forestall depressions was proposed, and also concerted action between the treasury and banks for control of the volume of capital expenditure by varying interest rates.

The white paper also said the government proposes to set up a special staff of economic experts to advise on trade trends in the hope of getting forewarning of slumps. Industry will be asked to provide statistical informaiton and the labor ministry will keep a check on the manpower situation.

To control the industrial switch-over after the war, munitions production would be curtailed first of all in areas where capacity and labor could be devoted to civilian production of high priority. Steps for the disposal of war-time government stocks would be designed to avoid jeopardizing normal trade.

The paper said the government will seek to avert local unemployment by directing the location of new enterprises and removing obstacles to transfers of workers.

Stability will be the over-riding aim of government policy and while public works spending will go on a controlled five-year plan, at the same time private enterprise will be encouraged to expand or contract its spending in keeping with current trends.

The government aims at a reasonable stability of prices and wages, the paper said, adding that general wage increases would have to be related to increased output. It suggested employers would have to look to increased output rather than to high prices for their profits.

The government will seek authority to prevent restrictive agreements and combines which conflict with government policy, the paper said.

FLAVOR did it!

More people are drinking FlavorFULL Chase & Sanborn Coffee than ever before. Sales are going up, up, up!

Quaker Tennis Club Opens Saturday

The opening of the Quaker Tennis Club has been announced for Saturday afternoon, May 27, and all members have been notified to be on hand and join the friendly competitions. Play should commence around two o'clock and refreshments will be served at about 6 p.m. The club grounds keeper, Mr. Arthur Barrett, reports that the courts are in excellent shape and the north court, which has just received a new top dressing, looks better than ever. The club has a large membership this year and the sponsors are looking forward to an excellent season.

Cheese, Produce and Livestock

TORONTO FRUIT

TORONTO, May 26 — (CP) — Wholesale fruit and vegetable prices were unchanged here today with the following exception: Domestic, radishes 20c-25c, asparagus 11-qts. $1-$1.25, green onions 20c-25c.

TORONTO HOGS

TORONTO, May 26 — (CP) — Prices were unchanged at bacon-hog markets reporting early today. Dressedweight: Hull grade A $17.40 delivered, Stratford grade A $17.25, grade B1 $16.85, delivered. Barrie grade A $17.40, B1 $17, delivered, London grade A $17.25 delivered, Chatham grade A $16.90, B1 $16.50 delivered.

TORONTO PRODUCE

TORONTO, May 26 — (CP) — Egg and butter prices in the spot market here today as reported by the Dominion Department of Agriculture follow:

Eggs: Wholesale to retail, A large 37c, A medium 35c, A pullet 31c, B 33c, C 30c, country shippers quoted graded eggs, cases free, A large 34½c-35c, A medium 32½c-33c, A pullet 26½c-27½c, B 29½c-30c, C 26½c-27c.

Butter: First grade solids 35½c, second grade solids 31½c-32½c.

TORONTO LIVESTOCK

| | |
|---|---|
| Cattle | 400x |
| Calves | 600 |
| Sheep | 10 |
| Hogs | 10 |

x—Plus 200 holdovers.

Cattle trade was slow yesterday with prices about steady on steers and heifers and a shade lower on bulls. Veal calves, hogs and the fed sheep offered were steady. No lambs were offered.

Prices in the trade included:

Cattle: Weighty steers, $11.50 to $12.50; butcher steers, $10.50 to $11.50; butcher cows, steady, $8 to $9.75; canners and cutters, $5.50 to $7.50; bulls, $7 to $9; fed yearlings, $12 to $13.25.

Veal calves, $14.50 to $15 for choice; common to medium, $7 to $13.

Ralston Lauds Canadians In Italian Push

OTTAWA, May 26 (CP) — The House of Commons applauded yesterday as Defence Minister Ralston said Canadian troops on the west flank of the Allied advance in Italy had made a "brilliant" advance of some six miles in which they aided in the capture of Pontecorvo, one of the important communication points in the Hitler Line.

He said he was not able to give any estimate as to how heavy Canadian casualties might be, but he added the resistance had been stiff and there had been many obstacles, such as minefields, in the way.

He said the Canadians, forming the west flank of the Allied advance, had taken over a sector of the front from other Allied troops. He said tough enemy resistance had held up the troops for two days following the crossing of the river Pedro.

"However," he added, "in the last 36 hours the Canadians have made a spectacular and brilliant advance which is continuing."

He said the Canadians pushed up the Liri Valley after capturing the important point of Pontecorvo. The enemy still was falling back from the Hitler Line.

The Canadians were spearheading this drive which had already taken six miles and he said he thought it was "of more than passing significance that this is how our boys observed Empire Day."

"The Germans are continuing to fall back from the Canadian assault," he added.

Gordon Graydon, Progressive Conservative House Leader, said he wanted to express the pride of members in this new achievement of Canadian arms. He added that he hoped that from time to time Col. Ralston would provide the House with reports on important military developments.

Queen Mary Observes Her 77th Birthday

LONDON, May 26 — (CP). — Queen Mary, who combines modernity of mind with old-fashioned regal dignity, observed her 77th birthday to-day in the most practical way she knows—by working as usual on her country estate in the west of England.

That has been her course since war began, and those who serve her say that every day, regardless of weather, she "goes into the woods and works really hard clearing undergrowth, helping cut down trees, looking after gardening and so on." They said that she is in "the best of health and just as active as ever."

Besides visiting factories, schools, hospitals and community centres, Queen Mary frequently entertains visiting notables.

FIREPLACE FURNACE

For Summer Homes and Cottages—

TWEED STEEL WORKS Limited (Dept. 8) TWEED, ONT.

BUEHLER BROS. LTD.
326 George St. Phone 3680
COMMERCIAL QUALITY FREE DELIVERY

Summer MEAT VALUES

WEEK-END SPECIALS

Sirloin Steaks 38c lb
Boneless Veal Roasts 25c lb
Blade Roast lb 26c
Boneless Prime Rib 39c lb
LAMB and VEAL STEW 2 lbs. 25c
Fresh Sausagemeat 23c lb.
Meal Cottage Rolls 35c lb.
Pot Roast 25c lb.
Smoked Jowls 23c lb.
Shoulder VEAL CHOPS - - - 2 lbs. 45c

An unabridged dictionary printed in Braille requires 32 volumes.

this Cream Deodorant Stops Perspiration

SAFELY — Doesn't irritate skin or harm clothing.

QUICKLY — Acts in 30 seconds. Just put it on, wipe off excess, and dress.

EFFECTIVELY — Stops perspiration and odour by effective pore inactivation.

LASTINGLY — Keeps underarms sweet and dry up to 3 days.

PLEASANTLY — Pleasant as your favourite face cream—flower fragrant—white and stainless.

AND doesn't dry up

The big jar contains 21 more applications for 39¢ than other leading deodorants — and the entire contents are usable because it doesn't dry up

CREAM DEODORANT ODO-RO-NO CHECKS PERSPIRATION

War Department Seeks New Inventions

By C. R. BLACKBURN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, May 26—(CP)—Got any good ideas that might help win the war? Send them to the National Inventors Council, Commerce Department, Washington.

The Council has received 200,000 ideas since 1940 but it is pleading for more. Here are some of the things they want inventive minds to go to work on:

A durable coating suitable for field application to reduce the glare from glass surfaces.

An optical method of distinguishing the difference between an artificial green and a natural green.

A voice-transmitting gas mask that will permit the wearer's voice to be heard with clarity.

Protection against flame throwers.

A life vest designed automatically to inflate and turn the wearer on his back to protect those thrown overboard while unconscious from concussion.

A manually-operated and controlled firefighting gadget to keep down flames in a fighting tank long enough to enable the occupants to escape.

The Council is composed of the United States' outstanding inventors, scientists and industrialists. They have a staff of engineering experts to assist them. All ideas are kept strictly secret.

Ambassadorial Topliners: British Ambassador Viscount Halifax and Canadian Ambassador Leighton McCarthy were star attractions at the last National Press Club Canteen of the season when the guests were officers of the men's and women's services—mostly the latter. The Ambassadors had to compete with eight composers of songs hits—including the perpetrators of "Mairzy Doats"—but they won the hearts of the women officers.

CLIFF FALL FATAL

LLANDUDNO, Wales — (CP) — Bird-nesting with friends, Derick Latham, 15, slipped on the cliff face and fell nearly 300 feet into the sea. His body was washed onto the rocky beach below the cliffs.

CASSINO—THE GHOST TOWN OF ITALY—The embattled town of Cassino, for which Nazi and Allied armies fought for months is a ghost city. This view, at the entrance to Cassino from Route 6, shows that plainly. Structures are so destroyed they are not identifiable. The broken walls are a mute testimony to the four-month siege it withstood.

Bowling Club Opens Season

CAMPBELLFORD, May 26 (ENS) — The Campbellford Bowling Club was officially opened on Wednesday, when more than thirty bowlers spent the afternoon and evening on the greens. Keen competition marked the games and in view of the late season the greens were in good shape.

Sandwiches, pie and coffee were served by the women and it was decided that the same program would be held next Wednesday. Men's schedules were distributed and they will be played commencing on Monday night. Friday will be the regular Dime night. W. Brady, president of the club, distributed the prizes which were won as follows:

High for three games: E. Slogget's rink, score 39-54 Don Meyers lead, Mrs. Blewett, second, and Mrs. Wiggins, vice.

High for two games: J. P. Archeres' rink, score 31-33, Jas. Smith, lead, Mrs. Diamond, second, Mrs. Glover, vice.

High for one game: Bert Taylor's rink, score, 26-40.

After the games the prize for the 1943 Ladies championship singles was presented to Mrs. Donald Meyers.

William Brady, presided, and said that the club was looking forward to a pleasant and successful season.

55 Club Members Demonstrate Work

CAMPBELLFORD, May 26. — (ENS).— Fifty-five girls of the Northumberland county home-making club were present at a successful meeting held in Brighton town hall. R. C. Banbury acted as chairman, and among the successful leaders of clubs during the past year were Mrs. G. Airhart, assisted by Miss Elsie Rannie, Seymour East, and Mrs. Mac. Waddell, assisted by Mrs. Robert McCullough, Seymour West.

The forenoon was given to contests to show the ability of the students and during the afternoon demonstrations were given by the different groups. Club exhibits dealing wtih the topic, 'The Club Girls' Bedroom,' were on display and one girl from each club gave a three-minute talk.

Plans were made to continue the work in October and the project of being well dressed and well groomed was selected for study for the coming year.

RHEUMATIC ACHES AND PAINS

If just one bottle of Ru-ma does not show you the quick, easy way to get real relief from rheumatic aches and pains, it costs you nothing

Don't suffer longer; try Ru-Ma today, and if you are not pleased with the results your money will be refunded by Tamblyn's. This is a generous offer to all rheumatic sufferers.—(Advt.)

USE SKEETER SKATTER
THE MODERN REPELLENT
FOR BLACK FLIES, MOSQUITOES

Kills 60 Japs

WASHINGTON, May 26 — (AP).—A 19-year-old marine—Pte. James M. Thomas, five-foot-seven, 150-pounder from Biltmore, N.C., killed 60 Japanese in the struggle for Namur Island, Kwajalein Atoll, according to a dispatch from Marine Sgt. Edward F. Ruder, a combat correspondent. Thomas, the dispatch added, has received the Bronze Star Medal from Admiral Chester W. Nimitz. No details were given.

Pte. J. J. Chapman Dies Of Wounds

COBOURG, May 26 — (ENS) — Mrs. Marguerite Chapman of Cobourg has received word that her husband, Pte. John James Chapman has died of wounds in Italy. The deceased was a native of Oshawa and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chapman. He enlisted with the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment four years ago, going overseas in 1941. He was through the Sicilian campaign without mishap.

He was married to Marguerite Gerin at Cobourg five years ago. He is survived by his widow and two children; his parents; two brothers, Herbert in the tank corps in England and Robert in the R.C.A.F. and three sisters, Doris, Eleanor and Emma at home.

Lindsay Arsenal Case To Be Heard

OTTAWA, May 26—(CP)—Labor Minister Mitchell said in the Commons yesterday consideration was being given to having the recently appointed Joint Council of the Civil Service deal with the case of union representation for employees of the Lindsay, Ont., Arsenal. The United Electrical Workers (C.I.O.) recently applied to the National Wartime Labor Relations Board for certification as bargaining agent for the Lindsay workers. The Board held that as the workers were direct employees of the crown a union could not be certified on their behalf.

Pins And Certificates Given For Projects

COBOURG, May 26 (ENS) — Three Northumberland County women, with six homemaking club projects completed, were presented with honor certificates and pins at the Achievement Day held at Brighton town hall recently. The three are Mrs. Fred Thompson of Seymour East; Miss Marion Deviney, Wicklow and Miss Eleanor Lee of Harwood. In addition, certificates of achievement were presented to Betty McCullough, Arlie Bright, Leita Kelly, Shirley Hutcheson, Doris Thomson, Marjorie Wallace, Muriel Todd, Mrs. E. Parr, Helen Anderson, Jean Austin, Helen Bently, Phyllis Vanhorne, Shirley Harnded, Mary Calnan, Marion Deviney, Eleanor Lee, Betty Walker, Shirley Haig, Regis Calnan and Kathleen Sharpe.

$20 Fine For Assault

COBOURG, May 26—(ENS)—Joseph Quigley of Cobourg was fined $20 and costs on a charge of assaulting Henry McIvor of Cobourg, in police court Thursday. A charge of assault laid against William Quigley was dismissed.

92 Pigeons Flying In 42-Mile Race

COBOURG, May 26.—(ENS). — Cobourg Pigeon Cub held its first race of the season recently with the birds being released at Belleville and flying to Cobourg, a distance of 42 miles. There were 92 birds in the race. Following were the speeds in yards per minute:

Senior: G. H. Rawlings' entry, 1378.94; E. Hie. 1289.96; G. Manton, 1278.74; J. Hilliard, 976.04; Juniors: W. Jamieson, 1014.64; K. Medhurst, 795.88 and J. Jamieson. 689.43.

Trent Valley I.O.D.E. Sponsors Recital

CAMPBELLFORD, May 26. — (ENS).— Sponsored by the Trent Valley Chapter of the I.O.D.E., the senior pupils of Mrs. A. G. Watson gave a musical recital in the auditorium of the High school, which was decorated with ferns, lilacs tulips and aspidistra for this occasion

A large and attentive audience greatly enjoyed this musical event. Vocal and instrumental selections from the masters were skillfully handled by Misses Georgia Rutherford, Georgia DeCarroll, Constance McKelvie, Evelyn Stephens, Patricia Robertson, Muriel Barnum, Mrs. F. G. DeCarroll, Diana Ironsides and Francis DeCarroll. The accompanists were Misses Ruth Rutledge and Patricia Ironsides while Misses Crissie McKenzie, Betty Keller, Ruth Watter and Alice Sutton acted as ushers.

On behalf of the Trent Valley chapter, Miss Mayme Winstanley thanked Mrs. Watson for granting the I.O.D.E. the privilege of sponsoring the recital and Miss Georgia DeCarroll expressed the appreciation of the pupils while Miss Patricia Robertson presented her with a bouquet of roses.

One Quad Dies Two Others Ill

SOUTHEND, England, May 26 — (CP) — The condition of Daisy and William, two of the three surviving quadruplets to Mrs. Daisy Moxham on May 22, still was causing anxiety today. George, smallest of the Quads, died last night.

The condition of Brian, who topped all the Quads with a birth weight of three pounds 10½ ounces, and his mother, wife of an R.A.F. Flying Officer, was satisfactory.

Obituary

JAMES J. BELL

CAMPBELLFORD, May 26 (ENS) —The funeral of the late James J. Bell who was accidentally drowned in the Trent River Sunday was largely attended. The services were under the auspices of the Masonic Order and the Canadian Legion.

Pall-bearers were N. A. MacColl, Ray Connor, Ralph Locke, Frank Osborne, H. Price and C. B. Williams. Rev. J. O. Ralston of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church officiated. The last post was sounded by Bandsmen Walter Lowe and Joseph Clark.

MISS SUSAN WATTERS.

CAMPBELLFORD, May 26. — (ENS).—Susan Watters died suddenly in Campbellford Thursday morning aged seventy-two years and nine months.

She was born in Seymour township, daughter of the late Richard Edward Watters and Elizabeth Reddy and is survived by one sister, Mrs. Maud O'Sullivan, of Campbellford, and one brother Edward of Norwood.

The funeral will be held on Saturday at 9 a.m. when requiem mass will be celebrated by Rev. Father Collins. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

Call Little Men

LONDON, May 26 — (CP) — The "Little-Ship-Men" who four years ago helped rescue the British army from Dunkerque have answered the call again—this time with offensive operations in the wind. They are among 3,700 volunteers with boating experience who have been enrolled by the Admiralty for short periods of duty in home ports.

Doctors Wrong Many Times In Heart Cases

TORONTO, May 26 — Many persons who believe they have had bad hearts, and are condemned to bed or to idleness, have been diagnosed wrongly by their doctors and are actually in good health. This is the firm belief of Dr. John M. McEachern of Winnipeg who in an address here yesterday, said he was "astonished" at the attitude of some students and practitioners in diagnosing heart diseases.

Speaking to the section of medicine meeting of the Canadian Medical Association convention, Dr. McEachern bluntly labelled the reason for this as "considerable ignorance" concerning the wide variations in the normal heart and blood circulation system.

He said also that there was tendency among doctors to assess the heart on such a single sign "as a heart murmur," that here is "slavish dependence" upon mechanical methods of diagnosis without consideration for the patient, and that "18th century theories are still being taught or read."

Sees Physician Responsible

"The responsibility for the tremendous increase in cardiac (heart) anxiety states may, I believe, be laid directly upon the doorstep of the physician," said Dr. McEachern.

He believed that arbitrary standards of the normal have been set up for the specific purposes of their own by life insurance companies, the medical services of the armed forces, and even by industry."

"Such rule book standards in the broad clinical sense tend to nullify all thought and stultify all judgment on the part of the physician," he said.

In illustration, he said that heart specialists had re-examined 4,994 men rejected on account of heart disease from the United States Army, and that 17 per cent, of them were found to be fit and raised to category "A".

Another examination of normal R.C.A.F. aircrew showed 75 per cent. had systolic murmurs, arising out of natural contraction of the heart in pumping blood under certain conditions. His own experience, said Dr. McEachern, showed this upon examination of many healthy young people.

Cites Case

"And yet, just a week ago, I examined a patient, age 20, who had been kept bedridden for the most part of five years, and the only finding was a systolic murmur," he said.

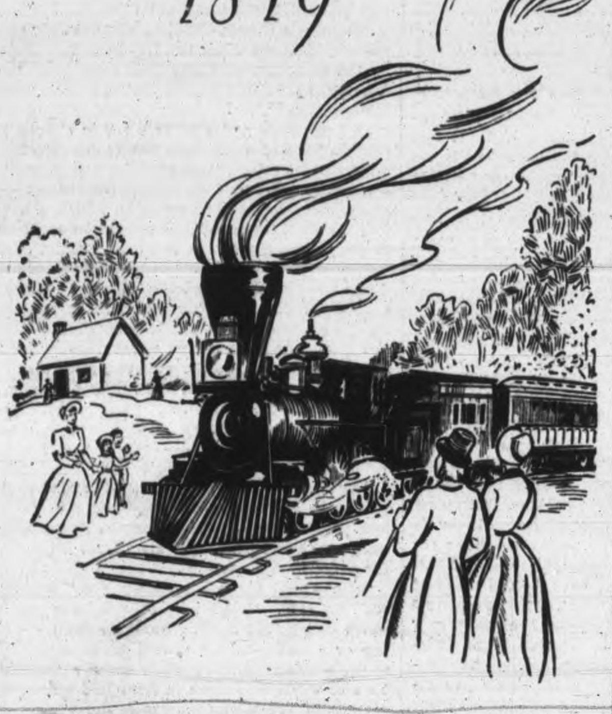
"Many variations in heart shape, heart action and heart size, formerly considered pathological, are now known to be within normal limits," he explained.

Three great groups account for nearly all cases of heart disease. Heart disease of youth and middle age caused by rheumatic fever; heart disease of middle age caused by syphillis, and heart disease caused by such degenerative diseases as coronary sclerosis, asthma, chronic lung conditions and others.

Many other diagnostic terms such as "valvular heart disease" and "chronic myocarditis" were labelled by Dr. McEachern as "a cloak for the physician's ignorance."

Great Moments in History . . . . . . No. 4

1849



First Canadian Railway Bill

brought in . . . and the Automatic Machine revolutionizes Knitting!

In 1849 Francis Hincks, inspector-general in the Baldwin-La Fontaine government, brought in the first Canadian railway bill. This greatly stimulated railway building which culminated, in 1885, in complete trans-continental railway communication.

Townsend's invention of the automatic latch needle machine, also in 1849, was the prelude to power machinery for knitting, produced eight years later.

This had been considerably improved in 1868, the year that Penmans came into being with a definite business ideal—high quality in all respects. This has been faithfully adhered to for over 75 years. As a result, Canadians know that Penmans name and trade mark are a guide to excellent materials, fit, style and tailoring that ensure comfort and adequate health protection.

Penmans
KNITTED PRODUCTS
UNDERWEAR · HOSIERY · OUTERWEAR

"SALADA" TEA
Quality Guaranteed

PEPSI-COLA TIME is any time

"Pepsi-Cola" is the registered trade mark in Canada of Pepsi-Cola Company of Canada, Limited

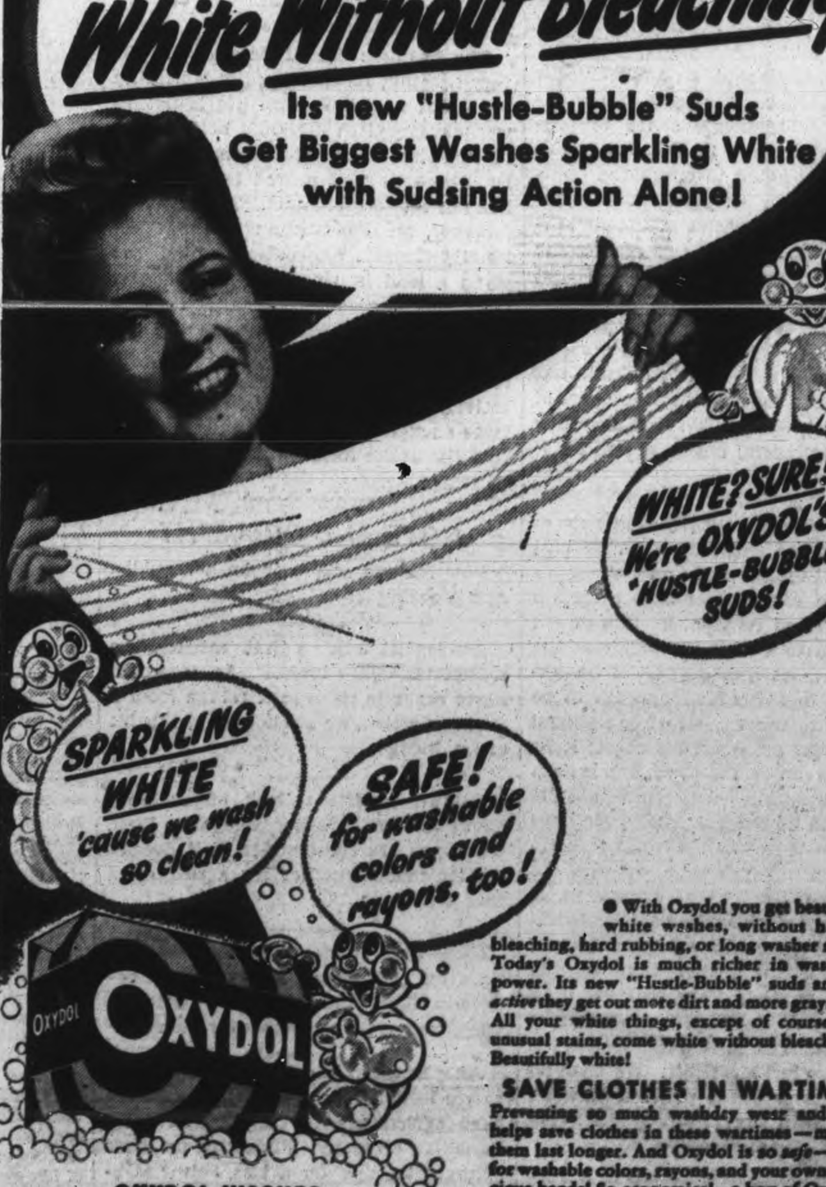
BOTTLED BY
BOORMAN'S BEVERAGES, Peterborough, Ontario
Under special appointment

Make your white clothes last longer— BLUE prevents them turning YELLOW!

Now that you're doing your own washing, don't forget that white clothes turn yellow eventually, unless you put back the Blue that's always part of true white. The older the white things the more they need Blueing. Just a swish or two of Blue in the last rinse—that's the one way to prevent white things turning yellow.

RECKITT'S BLUE
PREVENTS CLOTHES TURNING YELLOW

OXYDOL Washes White Without Bleaching
Its new "Hustle-Bubble" Suds Get Biggest Washes Sparkling White with Sudsing Action Alone!



● With Oxydol you get beautiful white washes, without harsh bleaching, hard rubbing, or long washer runs! Today's Oxydol is much richer in washing power. Its new "Hustle-Bubble" suds are so active they get out more dirt and more grayness: All your white things, except of course for unusual stains, come white without bleaching: Beautifully white!

SAVE CLOTHES IN WARTIME
Preventing so much washday wear and tear helps save clothes in these wartimes—makes them last longer. And Oxydol is so safe—safe for washable colors, rayons, and your own precious hands! So economical—a box of Oxydol goes much farther than before . . . washes much more clothes or dishes!

OXYDOL WASHES WHITE WITHOUT BLEACHING
Trade Mark Registered
MADE IN CANADA

The Examiner

The Peterborough Examiner published each evening by Peterborough Examiner Limited Office Hunter and Water Streets, Peterborough, Ont.

W. RUPERT DAVIES, President
H. L. GARNER, General Manager
G. WILSON CRAW, Managing Editor

Subscription Rates 20c per week in City of Peterborough delivered by carrier; $6.00 per year by mail to outside points.

Members Canadian Press; Audit Bureau of Circulation; Canadian Daily Newspaper Association; Empire Press Union; Ontario Provincial Dailies Association.

TELEPHONE 4641
Private Branch Exchange to all Departments

As cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.
—PROVERBS XXV.

FRIDAY, MAY 26, 1944

Two Men—Two Minds

Recently two men of widely divergent opinions expressed their views on freedom of speech. The first of these was the Rt. Rev. C. A. Seager, the Anglican Bishop of Huron, who, in his charge to the Synod of Huron, opposed a bill at present under discussion which would greatly hamper the free discussion of matters of religion. Discussion, in Dr. Seager's opinion, is vitally necessary to religion, and it is a very poor brand of religion which cannot be discussed with complete freedom. There are adequate laws in Canada which protect established religion against blasphemies; but doubts, differences of opinion and denials are not blasphemies, but are invariable accompaniments of living faith; indeed, they have often been the means through which faith has been purged of impurity. His lordship also gave it as his opinion that Fascism, and not Communism, was the principal threat to freedom in Canada, and he pointed to what he described as "the real peril, and a first step in Fascism—the uncontrolled regimentation and bureaucracy of which we have evidence today".

• • •

The other speaker was Mr. Clarence Gillis, the C.C.F. member of Parliament for Cape Breton South, who made this interesting suggestion to the House of Commons:

> "The Canadian Press should be checked, and only items which tend to promote national unity and the war effort and the country's interest in general should be printed in the newspapers across Canada."

This is a perfectly logical socialist suggestion; it is also totalitarian. Whatever socialism may be in theory, in action it is invariably totalitarian in direct proportion to the degree in which it is complete. In Russia, for instance, where state socialism is as complete as it has ever been in any country, the press operates on the lines which appeal so strongly to Mr. Gillis; this is equally true of Germany and Japan. Although one of them is our invaluable ally at present, we do not think that any of those countries is a model for a land which values freedom.

• • •

What Mr. Gillis said has a specious air of common sense. The press of a country should undoubtedly strive to promote the interests of that country. But if someone is going to check the opinions expressed in the press, that 'someone' will be an appointee of the government in power, and the press will become the unpaid propaganda agency of that government; the newspaper which refuses to toe the line can easily be suppressed on a charge of violating security regulations. The press of Australia has just finished a fight against that sort of tyranny. No, Mr. Gillis' suggestion may be sound socialism, but it is also barefaced tyranny.

• • •

The press agrees with the Bishop of Huron that the cause of truth is best served by uninhibited expression of opinion. If a man wants to complain about organized religion, let him do so; if he wants to attack the policy of the government, let him do so. If he has something to say which appears to be prejudicial to the war effort or national unity, let him get it off his chest; if he is wrong he can be answered, and if he is right the situation needs immediate attention, and he deserves credit for having brought it to light.

• • •

Of course freedom of expression is sometimes hard on stuffed shirts, demagogues, and those who want to rule by a political doctrine rather than by the will of the people. Very well; let it be hard on them. Let it destroy them root and branch. The Bishop has spoken his mind and so has Mr. Gillis. We have no doubt whatever which point of view we support. Have you?

---

A man walking in his sleep in a Toronto hotel fell from the sixth floor and was killed. Thus ends the popular belief that somnabulists never hurt themselves.

Scheme Of Educational Guidance

The Premier of Ontario, in his capacity as Minister of Education, has announced a scheme of educational guidance which is intended to adapt the education available in the schools to the needs of individual pupils. At present, he says, the schools provide a broad general education, hoping that this will fit the pupil for almost anything that may come his way; the new system, he hopes, will be of particular use to pupils who cannot see why they should study some of the subjects which are on the curriculum, and to help them either to adapt themselves to the system, or in some degree to adapt the system to their needs.

The Premier has not said enough about the plan to make possible a detailed discussion of it, but from what he has said it is possible to make two predictions. First of all, no scheme of educational guidance will be any better than the men and women who are appointed to do the guiding, and guiding young men and women in matters of education and future work is a responsible and perilous job. Are there, we wonder, enough people in the educational field in Ontario who are qualified for such work?

The second consideration is this: to what extent is it advisable to arrange a man's education to suit his future work? If he is going to be a doctor or a lawyer a broad general education will be of most benefit to him before he goes to a university and begins to specialize. But is not a broad general education best also for the industrial worker? We think so. We shall never get an intelligent, well-informed electorate in Canada if we permit vocational education to become too narrow in its scope.

A danger which we see in educational guidance is that it may tend to fit the individual too narrowly into his place in the industrial and business life of the Province. There are few jobs which are so absorbing that they can fill a man's whole life, and if he is educated only for his job he is going to be a miserable and ignorant fellow during the sixteen hours a day when he is not at work.

The two points which we have put forward refer to educational guidance considered in the void. Possibly the Ministry of Education plans something of an altogether different tendency; we shall be interested to see more on the subject.

New Life For Peterborough

Last weekend Peterborough was visited by Dr. H. L. Stewart, professor of philosophy at Dalhousie University, who has a Dominion reputation as a commentator on foreign and international affairs; Dr. Stewart spoke twice in St. Paul's church on Sunday, and he spoke three times on Monday, and on every one of these occasions he had a large, attentive, eager audience. We think that this shows clearly that there is an enthusiasm in Peterborough for informed, intelligent discussion of world affairs and we should like to see this enthusiasm catered to and fostered.

The business life of Peterborough is very healthy; its sporting life is healthy too. But its intellectual life is not as well-developed as it should be in a city of this size. The enthusiasm is here—Dr. Stewart's visit proved that—but it has not found a channel. The city has, however, an organization in the Community Concert Association which has given a lead in this respect, and has shown what organization and enthusiasm can do. Perhaps an association could be formed here to bring lecturers to the city who would speak authoritatively on current affairs. The city is large enough to support it, and we think that the desire for it exists and could be increased.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Now Iceland wants to be a republic. And probably iceolationist.

---

A scientist tells us that rattlesnakes sometimes climb trees. As it would never occur to us to seek refuge from a snake in a tree, we are not filing this bit of knowledge.

---

Ottawa reports a lack of curiosity about the forthcoming Budget. Well, when you are right under it, it doesn't matter much whether it's a two or a four-ton bomb.

---

Those Utah fundamentalists who have six wives each say that they "do not believe in liquor and tobacco". Obviously they are not living merely for pleasure.

---

John Bracken, the Progressive Conservative leader, tells a Maritime audience that agriculture is the Cinderella of Canadian economy. Puckering up those sphinx-like lips for a kiss, John? Obviously Mr. Bracken sees himself in the role of Prince Charming, but whom can he possibly associate with the two Ugly Sisters?

Commonwealth And World

FROM THE LONDON TIMES
Friday, May 12, 1944

THE address which the Prime Minister of Canada, Mr. Mackenzie King, delivered yesterday before the two Houses of Parliament was the far-ranging estimate of a statesman thinking of the British Commonwealth and the world in world-wide terms.

I profoundly believe (said Mr. King) that both the security and the welfare of the nations of the British Commonwealth, and, in large measure, the security and welfare of all peaceloving nations will depend on the capacity of the nations of the Commonwealth to give leadership in the pursuit of policies which, in character, are not exclusive but inclusive.... So long as Britain continues to maintain the spirit of freedom, and to defend the freedom of other nations, she need never doubt her preeminence in the world; so long as we all share that spirit we need never fear for the strength or unity of the Commonwealth.

These passages are instinct with the enduring traditions of the British constitution. The doctrine would have been as acceptable to the Pitts or Edmund Burke as to Mr. King's own predecessors, the Prime Ministers of Canada from Sir John Macdonald to Sir Robert Borden, and to the Prime Ministers of each of the British nations now meeting in family council in London.

◇ ◇ ◇

THE unity of the Commonwealth and its methods of co-operation, proven, strengthened and given new significance by the common effort of the war, represent, in Mr. King's view, though the words he chose were aptly quoted from an address of Mr. Churchill in 1907, "a model of what we hope the whole world will some day become." In Mr. King's address, as in that of Mr. Churchill, the Commonwealth and Empire are defined not in terms of a limited asociation but of the evolution of free nations looking forward "to larger brotherhoods and more exact standards of social justice." Not merely is the security of nations indivisible but also their prosperity; and the nations of the Commonwealth as part of "a larger company" embracing the United States, the Soviet Union, China, France, and all other nations united today in the defence of freedom "must help to fashion a new world order in which social security and human welfare become a part of the inheritance of mankind." In these sentences there is no suggestion of a restricted bloc of British nations seeking to sustain it power in competition with other groups, but a vision of the Commonwealth as the inspiration and precursor of an inclusive and expanding system of free States, sharing the common purposes of security and welfare and serving their own high national interests, conscious and regardful of the interests of other nations. Mr. King's address, like those of his associates, is at once a definition of the nature of the British Commonwealth and a program and policy for the Commonwealth and the world, consistent both with the long history of the widening freedom of each British nation and with the spirit of the Atlantic Charter and the Moscow Declaration.

◇ ◇ ◇

CANADA'S history and Canada's voluntary and unstinted share in this war both symbolize the nature of the Commonwealth and exemplify the world character of its role. "All our political experience told us," said Mr. King, "that freedom in Canada could not survive in a world that was no longer free." His statement is equally true for every part of the British Commonwealth and Empire. For no world event, least of all if its purport is aggression and domination, can fail instantly to influence some part of the British system; of all groups of nations and peoples, there are none so sensitive to world forces, and for the British Commonwealth to fail to respond to them would in itself be a world failure. Indeed, in this as in so many other respects, the Commonwealth itself is a test of the possibility and hope of an effective, permanent system of international co-operation. With all its advantages of common political principles and unique political capacity and experience, if the Commonwealth fails or allows its own vision to grow dim, there is no other group of nations far flung across the oceans and continents of the world ready to assume its duties and its tasks. For the world as for the Commonwealth, Commonwealth policies should be those which "make an appeal 'to all sorts of men in all sorts of countries,' provided only that they are men of good will," and in the pursuit of such policies, "the way to maintain the unity, of the Commonwealth is to base that unity upon principles which can be extended to all nations."

◇ ◇ ◇

SUCCESS, as Mr. King recognized, will depend on the extent to which other nations are prepared to pursue similar policies. But it remains the duty of the Commonwealth wherever possible "to give the lead that is in the interest of the world as a whole," in security and in welfare—since it is more and more apparent that a broad community of thought and action in social purposes must be one great element in that leadership. To this end, "it is of the utmost importance of the Commonwealth that there should be the greatest possible co-operation among its members," secured through close consultation and effective co-ordination. When decisions are taken, they will not, it is true, be those of some visible Imperial Cabinet or Council sitting continuously in London. But, what is most significant, the decisions will be taken through a continuing conference of the Cabinets of the Commonwealth, using all the resources of modern communications—"a conference of cabinets," in Mr. King's words, "which deals from day to day, and, not infrequently, from hour to hour, with politics of common concern," and reaches its decisions 'after mature consideration by all members of the Cabinets to each country, with full consciousness of their immediate responsibility to their respective Parliaments." The difficulty inherent in centralization of whatever kind has been more clearly brought out in recent weeks. It implies necessarily that some body other than the several Cabinets or Parliaments should, in whatever degree, decide the policies of those Cabinets or Parliaments. It is the firm conviction of Mr. King, and, it may be assumed, of other Prime Ministers, that the other Parliaments no less than the Canadian Parliament would accept no such derogation of responsibility to their electorates. This being so, the unity of the Commonwealth is better nourished and sustained by consistent and improved methods of consultation, by the sense of responsibility of each Government for the interests of all others, and by the deep, firm sense of community founded not in remote authority but in that form of free government where, in Burke's words, "the people is the true legislator."

◇ ◇ ◇

MR. King's address is a fine and helpful contribution to the philosophy of the Commonwealth and Empire and to the thought of all free peoples. Among these free peoples none has more right than Canada to define the purposes of the United Nations or the principles of the unity of the Commonwealth. Canada has not sought and does not wish to influence the policies of her great neighbour and friend or her partners in the American hemisphere, but twice at a solemn moment in world history, the political imagination and experience of the Canadian people, instantly and freely responding to a challenge, physically distant but morally immediate, has anticipated those policies and has anticipated them by a declaration of war that enhanced rather than weakened the unity of the Canadian people.

Never Any Doubt About It

(TORONTO STAR)

ACCORDING to the St. Catharines Standard, "it will be remembered that back in September, 1939, there was the gravest doubt and anxiety whether the government of Canada would make a war commitment. Members of parliament present will confirm the situation as described."

That slander has been refuted so often, it is a wonder that any newspaper would be so rash as to repeat it.

On September 1, 1939, two days before Britain declared war, Mr. King, in summoning the Canadian parliament for September 7, issued a public statement in which he said: "In the event of the United Kingdom becoming engaged in war in the effort to resist aggression, the government of Canada has decided as soon as parliament meets to seek its authority for effective co-operation by the side of Britain."

Thus even before Britain declared war, Mr. King, so far as his government was concerned, had committed Canada to join with the Mother Country. He also announced that the Canadian army, navy and air force had already been placed on active service.

Britain declared war on September 3, and King George issued an appeal to all his people to make their own the cause of freedom in which Britain was prepared to fight. Canada's prime minister at once went on the air to point out that "Canada has already answered that call." He reiterated his pledge that Canada would fight at Britain's side, and that he would seek from Parliament a confirmation of the government's decision.

Then, when parliament met, he said: "We are going to stand for the co-operation of this country at the side of Britain. If this House will not support us in that, it will have to find some other government." The House did support him, and the formal declaration of war was then made.

In view of these facts, it is time that the lie about uncertainty as to the government's course in September of 1939 ceased appearing in partisan papers.

A Polish Compromise

(NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE)

LONDON has heard reports that the Polish-Soviet problem may be on the way to a solution as a result of compromise proposals advanced by the American State Department. These would involve, on the one hand, the modification of the "Curzon line" to include both Lwow and Vilna in Polish territory, and, on the other hand the reconstruction of the Polish government to eliminate certain reactionary elements which the Russians have regarded as particularly inimical to themselves. The present commander-in-chief, Gen. Kasimierz Sosnkowski, who has become involved in the scandal of anti-Semitism in the Polish Army, would be replaced by a high command made up of representatives from all the Polish armed forces, including the divisions now serving with the Red Army, those in the Middle East, those who have been making heroic records in the last few days with the Anglo-American forces in Italy and those based in the British Isles. Gen. Marian Kukiel, who signed the celebrated request to the Red Cross to investigate the Katyn massacre would disappear, and the Cabinet would be made more clearly responsible to the Polish National Council.

Since it has long been quite obvious that a compromise solution is the only possible solution for the Polish problem, one can only hope that this report is well founded. It is encouraging, also, to find it attributed to the efforts of the American State Department. Because of its strength, because of its geographical position and because of its liberal traditions the United States ought to be able to serve as the chief intermediary between Soviet Russia and the rest of the United Nations. Up to the present it has failed to do so for many reasons, at least one of which is discernible in the curious affair of Father Orlemanski. The priest obviously had no business undertaking what amounted to a diplomatic mission to Moscow, and it is absurd that the Polish question, with all its contradictory political, religious and social implications, should have been abandoned to such private and amateur offices. But it is equally absurd that the priest on his return should be disciplined by his bishop, not only because of his dereliction of his religious duties, but also because he had been "treating with Communists".

Considering that Soviet Russia is the most powerful present ally of the United States and that the blood of her sons is daily and hourly saving the lives of American soldiers, this seems a lamentable intrusion of the Church into political issues. But it plainly would not have occurred—and Father Orlemanski would never have made his journey to Moscow—if the official instruments of American foreign policy had taken a firmer grasp from the beginning over the progress of the Polish problem. The Orlemanski affair is a bizarre note in a serious question. The London report that the State Department is officially developing a rational compromise of the Polish problem is a reassuring indication that our policy is beginning to rise to the real responsibilities before it in this very difficut and confusing world.

Like Liberty Itself

SOON we begin to climb to the hills. And soon the cultivation begins to be intermittent. Extraordinary how the heathy, moor-like hills come near the sea: extraordinary how scrubby and uninhabited the great spaces of Sardinia are. It is wild, with heath and arbutus scrub and a sort of myrtle, breast-high. Sometimes one sees a few head of cattle. And then again come the greyish arable-patches, where the corn is grown. It is like Cornwall, like the Land's End region. Here and there, in the distance, are peasants working on the lonely landscape. Sometimes it is one man alone in the distance, showing so vividly in his black-and-white costume, small and far-off like a solitary magpie, and curiously distinct. All the strange magic of Sardinia is in this sight. Among the low, moor-like hills, away in a hollow of the wide landscape one solitary figure, small but vivid black-and-white, working alone, as if eternally. There are patches and hollows of grey arable land, good for corn. Sardinia was once a great granary....

This is very different from Italian landscape. Italy is almost always dramatic, and perhaps invariably romantic. There is drama in the plains of Lombardy, and romance in the Venetian lagoons, and sheer scenic excitement in nearly all the hilly parts of the peninsula. Perhaps it is the natural floridity of limestone formations. But Italian landscape is really eighteenth-century landscape, to be represented in that romantic-classic manner which makes everything rather marvelous and very topical: aqueducts, and ruins upon sugar-loaf mountains, and craggy ravines and Wilhelm Meister waterfalls: all up and down. Sardinia is another thing. Much wider, much more ordinary, not up-and-down at all, but running away into the distance. Unremarkable ridges of moor-like hills running away, perhaps to a bunch of dramatic peaks on the southwest. This gives a sense of space, which is so lacking in Italy. Lovely space about one, and travelling distances—nothing finished, nothing final. It is like liberty itself, after the peaky confinement of Sicily.—From "Sea and Sardinia," by D. H. Lawrence.

WE NEED MORE SHIPS

The announcement of the award of new contracts to Vancouver shipyards was the assurance that, at least to the end of this year, and probably beyond that date, there will be no diminution of work and wages for our wartime shipbuilders here. It meant a great deal in the maintenance at a high level of our wartime economy in this community.

Properly considered, it was a salutary reminder of a continued condition that none of us may evade or ignore.—Vancouver Province.

Hard To Believe How Time Flies

MAY 26

1914 C. I. Howse, Hamilton, has been appointed manager of local electric and waterworks system at a salary of $2,400 a year.

The suggested plan of one engineer to handle all municipal work is not favored by the Utilities Commission.

Rev. Robert Pogue of St. Paul's tells his congregation that Christians should vote for abolish-the-bar candidates.

Work has started on the new turnout of the Radial Railway on George street between Antrim and Smith streets.

Foley and Gleason have finished the paving of George srteet between Charlotte and McDonnel streets.

1924 It is announced that the steamer Stoney Lake will be available for excursions this summer.

Grove School cadets in their new uniforms march to St. John's Church, Lakefield, for a service.

Stoney Lake cottagers back from a holiday week-end trip report the worst Victoria Day weather on record with heavy rain, hail and cold.

Congregation of St. George's Church presents purse and address to Rev. W. R. Courage who is leaving for the United States.

At the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Orange Young Britons it is decided to hold the next annual session here.

1934 One hundred unemployed men of the city and district are to be given work filling in ditches along the provincial highways.

Eggs were down to 15 cents a dozen here today and butter sold on the market at 17 and 18 cents a pound.

Rev. Fathers Hilaire Archambault, Frank Grant and Joseph Walsh are ordained by Bishop O'Connor at St. Peter's Cathedral.

It is announced that the number of families on relief here has dropped to 632 as against 770 in the same month a year ago.

A memorial tablet in memory of Isabella Duff, teacher in the Lakefield Public School for 51 years is unveiled.

Contemporaries

YOUTH'S IDEAL

"Youth's only philosophy right now is money," Bruce Yorke, a third-year university student, told the B.C. Parent-Teacher Federation recently. One wonders where Mr. Yorke has been keeping himself during the past three or four years and what sort of youth he has been associating with. Certainly the best of British Columbia's youth has no such philosophy as Mr. Yorke alleged. Their actions shout to heaven that they haven't. For some 41,000 of British Columbia's youth have enlisted in Canada's army, some 9,000 in Canada's navy and some 21,000 in the R.C.A.F.—Vancouver Province.

SLUMGULLION TO COFFEE

American contempt for our coffee making, and pride in their own, has recently been illustrated by the establishment in a back street in the Northwest area of a United States Army Coffee Roasting Depot.

Two corporals and a private are in charge of this institution, and their names are inscribed under the name of the depot. There is no denying, of course, that Americans do, as a rule, make better coffee than we in Britain, but possibly we shall improve as time marches on. Even in the United States, at one time, coffee was terribly bad.

In an early Western mining town, for example, a beverage was served for breakfast in its eating-houses which went officially by the name of coffee but which the miners called "slumgullion." A miner would say to the waitress, after tasting the dubious liquid, "Well, miss, if this is coffee, give me tea; but if it's tea, give me coffee."—Manchester Guardian.

IN IRISH BARBER SHOPS

American soldiers have brought added prosperity to Belfast hairdressers—and provided a new problem for civilian customers. As my locks were shorn the other day my barber explained the position.

"The Americans are certainly great customers", he said. "They very seldom have just a shave or a haircut. They usually have a shampoo or a face massage as well, sometimes both. If it's a shampoo, they often order a 'special'. Two or three who come in here just tell me to give them 'the works'—meaning the whole service. The only trouble is that if five or six Americans come in it takes nearly the entire morning or afternoon to look after them. Some of my ordinary customers have complained about having to wait so long".

Another thing that the barber pointed out was that the average Belfastman has his hair cut every four or five weeks, while the American has an "overhaul" every two or three.—Belfast News Letter.

A Bible Message

And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked: the same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked. (Acts 14: 8-10.)

◇ ◇ ◇

And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus.... And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul....

Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so. And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified....

Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed. (Acts 19: 1, 11, 13-17, 19, 20.)

Personals and Social

Miss Pauline Humphries, of Peterborough, was recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wildman and Miss Ruth Wildman, Norwood.

◇ ◇ ◇

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Harrison and Miss Mildred Fowler, have returned to Peterborough, after attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Joseph Mann, in Toronto.

◇ ◇ ◇

Mrs. Wilson Webb and Miss Anne Webb, of Peterborough, were recent visitors with former's father Mr. Robert Steele, at his home in Norwood.

◇ ◇ ◇

EA. W. C. Neck, R.C.N.V.R., who has been stationed at Hamilton, is spending a leave with his wife at thier home, 248 Munro avenue He is a Petty Officer, and will report to a new post at the conclusion of his furlough.

◇ ◇ ◇

Pastor F. Poole, and Mrs. Poole, Miss Eva Wall and Mrs Harry Golloher, have returned to their home in Peterborough, after spending a few days in London, where they attended a convention of the Apostolic Church in Canada.

◇ ◇ ◇

Mr and Mrs. Frederick Delahey have announced tre engagement of their youngest daughter, Helen Beatrice Delahey, to Walter Alerick Ihamaki, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lauri Ihamaki of Garson Mine, Ontario. The wedding will take place in George Street United Church, June 17 at 2 o'clock.

Miss Margaret Wynne, 12 Metcalfe street, Toronto, is celebrating her 22nd birthday to-day.

◇ ◇ ◇

C. S. Cummer, of the Bank of Montreal, is spending a few days in Toronto.

◇ ◇ ◇

Sgt. Howard Brooks, R.C.A.F., who has been on active service for the past eight months, is now spending a leave with his wife at their home, 588 Aylmer street He also will be spending some time with his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. Brooks, at their home in Coldsprings.

◇ ◇ ◇

No Meetings For Summer

The Parkhill Fellowship Group will discontinue its meetings for the summer months, according to a decision made at the regular meeting at the home of Mrs. B. Holloway, the president. After the business, a social hour was enjoyed, and the hostess and her assistants served refreshments.

◇ ◇ ◇

Take Part In Convention

LAKEFIELD, May 26 (ENS)—J. M. Simpson, superintendent of St. Andrew's Sunday School, Lakefied, welcomed the delegates to the recent Sunday School convention, held in Lakefield. Numbers presented on the special entertainment program included a solo by Jean Clark, a reading by Mrs. Harold Trude, a recitation by Irene Boyce, and songs by Irene Ruth and Doris Charlton. Mrs. Harold Trude was at the organ.

◇ ◇ ◇

Dick—Barjarow

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Lakefield, was the scene of a quiet wedding recently, when Rev. L. Sharpe, of Lakefield and Omemee, officiated at the evening ceremony which united Mrs. Ethel Barjarow of Omemee in marriage to Harold Dick, of Omemee.

The bride wore a brown tweed travelling suit, with matching hat, and carried a bouquet of orange blossoms. She was attended by Mrs. V. Dinsdale, of Peterborough, and Mr. V. Dinsdale was best man. After a trip to Toronto, Hamilton and western points, Mr. and Mrs. Dick will live on the groom's farm in Omemee.

WED IN SCOTLAND—Stoker 1-C Clifton H. Westman, R.C.N. V.R., recently married Miss Nancy Stretton of Paisley, Scotland. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Westman, R.R. 3, Peterborough, and worked in the tool room of the C.G.E. before enlisting. The young couple expect to make their home in Peterborough after the war.

W.M.S. Entertains At Lilac Tea

A profusion of lilacs and wild apple blossoms graced the Board and Primary rooms of the George Street United church, recently, when Group C of the Women's Missionary Society sponsored a lilac tea. Tea was served from a table with a lace cloth, centred with a bouquet of purple iris and bleeding heart, and green candles were placed in silver holders at either end.

A delightful musical program was presented in the Board Room during the afternoon. Mrs. A. H. Radford, accompanying herself on the piano, sang three songs, and Mrs. W. G. McLaren entertained with a reading. A piano trio, Willa Wright, Marie Derry and Marilyn Pomeroy, played several numbers, and Mrs. A. Bennett and Mrs. F. Board, accompanied by M. B. Chenhall, sang two duets. Miss Joy Walker, accompanied by Mrs. C. Renaud, sang a group of songs, and Marie Derry and Marilyn Pomeroy played piano duets. Mrs. W. P. Purdy was in charge of arrangements for this program.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. H. L. Roberts, and Mrs. A. B. Burrows, assisted by Mrs. E. McFarlane and Mrs. A. Parker. Pouring tea during the afternoon were Mrs. James Brown, Mrs. J. H. Rowe, Mrs. A. F. Lane and Mrs. W. G McLaren Tea room assistants were Mrs. M. Munro, Mrs. W. J. Routley, Mrs. R. Kingdon, Mrs. G. Marshall and Mrs. W. H Frise. Miss E. Might was treasurer. Three ladies, Mrs. R. Parnall, Mrs. H. G. Walker and Mrs. D. Rowe, were in charge of general arrangements.

Red Cross Group Finishes Quilts

NORWOOD, May 26.—(ENS). — The May meeting of a group of Red Cross workers was held at the home of Mrs. W. N. Hagerman this week for sewing and knitting, with a good attendance. Mrs. H. B. Peters and Mrs. J. Marks were in charge of the meetings in the absence of Mrs. H. J. Ford.

One large quilt and a cut quilt were quilted, and a small completed quilt was turned in by Mrs. Ford. Mrs. Hagerman, Mrs. Marks and Mrs. Peters handed in nine additional pieced blocks before the meeting and Mrs. Peters assembled all the blocks for a large quilt top. Mrs. Ford handed in 12 afghan blocks. Mrs. Hagerman donated an appliqued crib quilt top; Mrs. Greenbanks, a large quilt top, lining and batts, and Mrs. Ford, 2 cut quilt tops and linings.

The following knitting was reported: 1 white baby jacket, 1 pair white baby mitts, 1 pair pink baby mitts for the local Red Cross, 1 pair socks for the I.O.D.E., and 1 pair socks for a prisoner of war (wool donated).

It was decided to send a parcel to Wesley Nevin., overseas, and Mrs. Baldock invited the women to her home for the June meeting. Cutouts for a large quilt top and afghan blocks were given out.

An afternoon tea was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. Johnston.

Fashions

A jacket-dress to be worn through the summer. Pattern 9025 is cut for figure flattery. Gathers at shoulder yokes add softness; slim waistline.

Pattern 9025 is available in women's sizes: 36 to 50. Size 36, dress, 3¾ yards 35-inch; jacket, 2 yards contrast.

Pattern Number ....................

Size ....................

My Name ....................

....................

Address ....................

I enclosed 20c for postage

JUST FOR WOMEN

By CONNIE NICHOLSON (Society Editor of The Examiner)

Holiday Time

With summer almost here, the business girl is beginning to plan for her holidays, and to get her wardrobe ready for the wear and tear of happy summer times. However, a make-up kit is one essential article that a great many girls neglect. Sun and wind break havoc with delicate complexións, so complexion aids are needed and it's easy to forget something, have to borrow, or buy another kit.

Here's a list of necessary things for a complete beauty kit, no matter where the trip might be; three face cloths, an antiseptic mouthwash, toothpaste and tooth brush, some boxes of face tissues, a pair of tweezers, a bottle of shampoo, a manicure set, a jar of cleansing cream, two cakes of complexion soap and a bottle of astringent. If the trip is to the beach a bottle of sun tan lotion won't go amiss, and a bottle of liquid stockings, which can be smoothed on in a minute, will be a valuable addition to any kit.

◇ ◇ ◇

Make-up Bases

Now that make-up bases have come to the front in the complexion parade, it's easy for any girl to have a smooth and glamorous complexion with just a little care. First of all, the right complexion base to suit the particular type of skin must be chosen. When correctly used, a good make-up base gives a velvety finish which covers up small blemishes, and gives a professional appearance.

Never start to apply make-up until the skin has been thoroughly creamed and washed with a mild complexion soap. If the skin is oily, a woman should stick to the popular wet cake foundation, which has drying tendencies. However, for the girl who has the dry skin condition which is so common, tinted creamy bases, made especially to benefit and protect delicate skins, are just the thing.

A liquid foundation is ideal way to hide the occasional skin blemish which often threatens to spoil the complexion at the most inopportune times. A liquid foundation always gives a somewhat heavier finish to the skin, and is really wonderful for use on neck and shoulders, with the new low neckline dresses and backless sport clothes.

◇ ◇ ◇

Shining Glasses

Every housewife is proud of her precious glasses and china, when she displays them in her glassed-in cabinets. However, even behind protecting glass panes, table glasses and crystal are apt to lose their lustre, and look dingy and dusty. To renew the original beauty of these articles, try swishing them in warm water and good rich suds, adding a little laundry bluing in the rinse water. A soft clean cover on the drainboard, will help to avoid those disheartening chips and cracks which often mar the beauty of fine glassware and crystal.

◇ ◇ ◇

Soak Away Stains

Pecan stains are hard to remove from kitchen towels, but there's one way that usually works. Boil the towels in a very weak solution of lye, for 10 minutes, and the stain will generally disappear. If it doesn't work the first time, repeat the process, and then rinse and boil again in a mild soap solution.

Fruit stains on linen or cotton materials, that are hard to get out, can usually be persuaded to disappear this way: stretch the material over a bowl, and hold a tea-kettle filled with boiling water, at least three feet above the material. Pour the water on until the stain disappears, taking care, however, not to get scalded in the process.

Before washing the artice, which has been stained with egg, always soak the spots in cold water, or sponge the spotted places. Part of the egg can often be scraped off with a knife.

◇ ◇ ◇

Dainty Lingerie

It's easy to give lingerie that lasting fragrance that the old-fashioned sachet used to impart. Merely sprinkle the ironing board with a favorite cologne just before ironing them. The pressed-in scent will stay with the articles until they are laundered again.

◇ ◇ ◇

Easily Removed

Grease, accidentally spilled on the kitchen floor can be easily removed if cold water is poured on it immediately hardening it. The hardened surface can then be scraped of, and the floor wiped clean with soap and water.

◇ ◇ ◇

Clothing Tip

To remove chocolate and cocoa stains from washable material, try removing them first with soap and hot water. If this method fails, sprinkle the spots with borax and soak in cold water. Then rinse thoroughly in boiling water. For silk or wool garments sponge the spots with lukewarm water.

DOROTHY DIX

LOVE HUSBAND AND CHILDREN When Mother Love Crowds Out Wifely Love, Then Man Begins to Roam.

◇ ◇ ◇

DEAR MISS DIX: Do you think that after a couple have been married for some time and have children that it is an unhealthy attitude for the woman to continue to love her husband more than she does her children? I am devoted to my children, but my husband comes first. This seems to be unusual, but is it wrong?

My husband claims that after the children come a family unit is formed and the couple share their love with the children, and there should be no question of loving the wife, or the husband, or the children more. What do you think?

A READER.

◇ ◇ ◇

LOVE ENOUGH FOR ALL.

ANSWER: Your husband is exactly right in his conception of the situation, but there should be no question about whether fathers and mothers love their children or their mates more, because the love a man has for a wife, or a wife for a husband, in no way resembles the love they have for their children. You might just as well discuss whether air or water is more necessary to us.

Perhaps the reason you inquire if it is unnatural for a wife to love her husband better than she does her children is because we see so few exhibitions of it that it has come to seem abnormal, that is the root of most of our domestic tragedies. For mother love seems to crowd out wifely love, and after the first baby is born the average wife never sees her husband again as a man. Henceforth he exists only for the comfort and service of her children.

They are her first consideration. She gives to them all of her attention and caresses, and poor husband is left out in the cold, with nobody to entertain or amuse him of an evening, or to step out with him to a show, because his wife is absorbed with the children. Often with nothing fit to eat because wife caters only to the children.

It is when wives get monopolized by the kids that husbands begin roaming. And if the true co-respondent were named in many a divorce case, it would be a howling red-faced infant.

◇ ◇ ◇

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I have been engaged to a young man for five years, but he is so slow in doing anything about getting married that I have gotten discouraged. He was honorably discharged from the service three months ago as he was shell-shocked, but now he is able to work. But still nothing doing, and I am tired of asking him "when are we going to get married?"

He is very moody and changeable. One minute he is gay and the next he is depressed. What is your advice on what to do?

WORRIED.

◇ ◇ ◇

MENTALLY ILL MAN SHOULD NOT WED.

ANSWER: I urge you to be patient. Don't try to rush this boy into marriage for your own sake as well as his, because the fact that he is so moody shows that he is not mentally well.

You would find him very hard to live with, very notionate and unreasonable, and perhaps not able to hold a job and make a living. So wait until he is in a better fix to marry.

◇ ◇ ◇

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a 'teen-age girl who would like to get acquainted with my father. When I talk to him he either yells at me or doesn't answer at all. I would like to be able to be companionable with him, as I am with my mother. Can you tell me how to do it?

L. F.

◇ ◇ ◇

ANSWER: Perhaps if you keep on hammering at it, you can break down the barrier he has erected between you, but I doubt it. The best suggestion I can make to you is to try flattery on him. Ask his advice and tell him how much you respect his opinions. And, above all, tell him what a good-looking man he is and how proud you are of him. If that won't soften him up, nothing will.

A father who isn't chummy with his daughter throws away one of greatest sources of happiness in life. It is a pity so many men do it.

(Released by The Bell Syndicate Inc.)

Needlecraft Pattern

TO-DAY'S NEEDLECRAFT

Impress your most important guests with a luxurious looking apron, easy to embroider. Use color on white or vice versa.

Lazy-daisy motifs dress up your apron. Pattern 856 contains a transfer pattern of embroidery, necessary pattern pieces; directions.

Pattern Number ....................

Size ....................

My Name ....................

....................

Address ....................

I enclosed 20c for postage

Dr. Agnes Moffatt Named Treasurer

TORONTO, May 26—(CP)—Dr. Eleanor Percival of Montreal last night was elected president of the Federation of Medical Women of Canada at the annual convention held here in conjunction with the annual conferences of the Canadian Medical Association. She succeeds Dr. Eva Macdonald of Toronto Treasurer is Dr. Agnes Moffatt of Peterborough.

Church Services Stressed To WCTU

With the president, Miss E. Might, presiding, a worthwhile and interesting May meeting of the W.C.T.U. was held Thursday afternoon in the Green Room at the Y.W.C.A.

An invitation was extended by Mrs. B. W. Manning to hold the June meeting at her cottage, Chemong Park, which has become an annual outing for the W.C.T.U. members.

The solo, "There's a Beautiful Land on High," by Mrs. D. Jackman was enjoyed. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. E. W. Glover. Law and Sabbath observance was the subject under study this month and Miss Lena Aikens was the speaker.

In introducing her topic, Miss Aikens said that God's law was contained in the first five books of the Bible. Sin, is a transgression of this law, for: "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul." In speaking of Sabbath observance, she explained that the word Sabbath comes from a Greek word meaning cessation from work, or "day of rest." Even in the creation of the world God rested on the seventh day from all work.

People Forget

"The fourth commandment tells us to "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." This law is sometimes forgotten, even on the radio Sunday services and programs are being crowded out by commercialism," she said. When people have church services, they are apt to be careless and not attend them, but if they have none they would feel the loss in their lives. Like the Polish people who never or seldom attended divine service, now that they have none to go to, are anxious for them.

The Bible lesson chosen from Nehemiah was read by Mrs. Routley and prayer was offered by Mrs. J. H. Rowe.

Women Golfers Have Field Day

The ladies' section of the Kawartha Golf and Country Club held its opening field day Thursday afternoon, at the Club. A buffet luncheon was served in the cubhouse before play was begun in the eighteen and nine hole competitions. Tea was served at the close of play, with Mrs. F. M. Somerville presiding at the tea table. Mrs. A. Clarke was winner in the eighteen hole competition, and Mrs. H. Pounder was winner in the nine hole competition. There were about 20 ladies present.

Plan June Picnic For Camp Soldiers

The first picnic, arranged for the entertainment of soldiers during the summer months, will be held Sunday, June 18. At a recent meeting of the program committee, it was decided to hold two picnics a month, one in the city, and one outside the city. Arrangements for transportation, refreshments and entertainment, were left to various committees, and conveners for these groups were named.

Miss Helen Lytle will supervise the refreshments, and will be responsible for obtaining the hostesses for duty at the picnics. Miss Eleanor Craig is convener of the ladies' sport committee and C. C. Mowry is in charge of the men's sport committee, assisted by H. Dodds and E. Irwin. B. Chambers and F. Revoy make up the transportation committee, while Miss Doris Royea will supervise the obtaining of prizes for the competitions.

George Groombridge has the job of managing the finances, and L. Grant, assisted by Miss Marie Kearns, will be in charge of publicity. C. C. Mowry presided for this meeting, with Miss Kearns as secretary.

"Uptown Silk Shoppe"
BUY THIS Summer Merchandise
Early while stocks are complete
Dirndl Skirts
Seersucker and printed broadcloth, bordered, plain, striped, flowered, etc. .......... 1.98 to 2.98
Seersucker Fabrics
Striped, flowered and checked. 36" wide. Reg. 79c and 89c. Reduced to, yard .......... 69c
CREASE RESISTING
Flowered Spuns
36" to 42" in width. Special selling .......... 79c, 89c to 1.19
Alpine Alpaca Slacks
Sizes 12 to 44
All the seasonable colors ..... 2.98 - 3.95
UPTOWN SILK SHOPPE
404 Geo. St. Phone 3619

BACKACHE OFTEN WARNING
Backache may be the first sign of Kidney trouble. When your back aches, look to your kidneys. Don't fail to heed this warning—it is too important. Take prompt action to correct Backache, or its cause. At the first sign of Backache turn confidently to Dodd's Kidney Pills—for over half a century the favorite remedy for Kidney ailments. 107
Dodd's Kidney Pills

WARNE'S
OUR REPAIR DEPARTMENT
CAN HANDLE THESE ITEMS
Clean and Repair Watches
Repair Clocks
Make Rings Larger and Smaller
New Tips to Diamond Rings
Repair Ronson Lighters
Pearl Beads Rethreaded
Silverwear Repaired and Replated
Supply Rolls Razor Hones and Strops
Supply Watch Straps and Bracelets
Pens and Pencils Repaired
Eye Glasses Repaired
Your Repairs Will Be Well Taken Care Of At WARNE'S
JEWELLERY STORE
349 Geore St. Phone 5171

Etiquet DEODORANT CREAM
*Stops underarm perspiration 1-3 days
*Scientific tests prove Etiquet 24% more effective than other deodorant creams tested.
● Spreads smoothly . . . not crumbly.
● Pure . . . not irritating to normal skin.
● Works fast . . . no need to rinse.
● Will not harm delicate fabrics.
LOOK FOR THE BLUE PLAID JAR AT TOILET GOODS COUNTERS . . . 39c

For PERMANENT COLORFUL CHARM use Murphy Paints and NARVO
Canada's Smartest Finishes
ROUTLEY'S
"MURPHY" PAINTS—WALLPAPERS—GIFTWARE

SHE MISSED SO MUCH—
UNTIL SHE STEPPED OUT OF THE BARRIER!

Not long ago she was always left out of things. Unknown to her, the invisible barrier of "B.O." cut her off from the friends and good times she longed for.
Today, she is popular, sought after. The answer is simple. She discovered the pleasant safeguard of sensible people everywhere. She bathes daily with the special purifying lather of Lifebuoy soap. Because Lifebuoy is especially made to stop "B.O.", it gives lasting all-over protection. And its clean, invigorating scent vanishes before you're even dressed.
You'll like Lifebuoy's mildness, too. Tests prove that Lifebuoy is actually milder than many so-called beauty soaps.

NEW ADDED INGREDIENT
NEW VANISHING SCENT
SAME PROTECTIVE LATHER
FROM HEAD TO TOE—IT Stops "B.O."

ECZEMA?
TO RELIEVE ITCH PROMPTLY! Mildly medicated Cuticura soothes promptly—is used by many nurses! Buy today!
CUTICURA SOAP & OINTMENT

EX-POLO PLAYER NOW A MARINE—Winston Churchill Guest, New York, second cousin of Prime Minister Churchill of England, peels onions while on mess duty at the Marine Corps training base at Parris Island, S.C. Several days after this picture was taken, he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps reserve, and transferred to Quantico, Va., for aviation ground officers training. Lieut. Guest ranks with the top men in polo and was a member of the all-American team for several years.

The Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 26 — (AP) — Brooklyn fans' startled reaction to the discovery that you need not be a Bum to be a Dodger merely emphasizes the fact that Eddie Basinski is just one of a long line of college ball players who have made good in the big leagues....Eddie is the bespectacled youngster who came from Buffalo U. to soothe that second base sore spot in the Dodger infield.

A fat chance:
Detroit Red Wings have signed three of the Chin brothers, William, Albert, George, of the hockey-playing Lucknow, Ont., family whose parents were born in China....Maybe Jolly Jack Adams figured that having them around will make folks forget his own double chins.

Sportpourri:
Cecil Isbell was all set to return to the Green Bay Packers next fall when he was offered the head coaching job at Purdue. And chances are that Don (I won't play) Hutson still is boiling at the Boilermakers....If the Dodgers can hold out long enough, they'll have a good shortstop prospect in Lloyd Waner, Jr., who is playing that position for Den Two in a Cub Scouts tournament at Oklahoma City. His mother coaches the team....Dale Stafford reports a feminine racing fan at the Detroit Fair Grounds recently couldn't understand why she didn't receive $1,500 for a $2 win ticket when the program stated the purse was for that amount.

Knox Team Wins Church League Game

Knox bantams defeated Park St. at Queen Alexandra School 33 to 9 in a Church League game.

Park St.: Sisson, 2b; Gimblett, p; Panter, cf; Graham, 3b; Corbett, rf; Batley, 3b; Fowler, c; D. Graham, cf.

Knox: F. McMullen, 1b; B. Freeman, 2b; Charlebois, ss; Bill Killingbeck, p; Mongraw, c; B. Granger, lf; A. Chambers, rf; M. Johnson, 3b; A. Riches, cf.

Umpire—C. Corbett.

Brilliant Move

LONDON, May 26 — (CP) — The Moscow radio today called the Allied victories in Italy a "brilliant operation." The official commentator on International Affairs went on, "Allied troops are full of courage and daring."

Open Bowling
To-night and To-morrow
A healthy recreation and plenty of fun for all. Come in parties and enjoy yourself.
Saturday night is the last night of bowling before closing for the summer season.
DUFFUS RECREATION ACADEMY
Phone 9068

Old Glory
PLUG SMOKING TOBACCO

Sure! it goes further and lasts longer

Plaza Players Smother U.E.W. 20 to 1

Plaza bats rang with power reminiscent of the last two seasons as the former 4th Battery team smothered the new U.E.W. club 20 to 1 in a City League game at Riverside Park Thursday night.

Led by Jack Tucker whose string of four for six included a homer with the bases loaded and Joe Blewett who had five for five, Plazas hammered out 25 hits off two Union pitchers for a total of 39 bases. Some of the hits were the result of badly played drives but most of them were well hit and the U.E.W. outfielders were run ragged chasing after the ball.

Dave Wilson pitched for the winners and held the Union club to eight hits and one unearned run. The U.E.W. counter was the result of a couple of bad throws; otherwise the big Plaza pitcher would have registered the first shutout of the season.

Anderson started for the U.E.W. outfit and after he ran into a heavy barrage in the fourth inning he was succeeded by Isaac, who got an even worse shellacking for the balance of the game. The Plazas scored eleven times in that one frame which broke the game wide open.

Plazas opened with a pair in the first. Jones started with a single to right but was forced by Pryde who in turn was forced by Tucker. Blewett however doubled to right to score Tucker and ran home himself on Burton's single to right centre.

In the second Ellis, safe on Reid's muff of his easy fly, stole second, went to third on Starr's infield out and scored on Jones' rap into right for a base.

The Union team blanked the winners for the next two innings and scored their only run of the game in the last of the fourth. Reid opened with a single to centre, was sacrificed to second by Detlor. When Starr threw high to second trying to pick him off that base and Blewett threw past third Reid registered the only U.E.W. run.

Plazas broke loose in the fifth. With one out Tucker doubled past third and scored on Blewett's single to centre. Burton got a life when Detlor dropped Platt's throw. Hawks tripled over Girard's head, scoring Blewett and Burton. Ellis tripled to centre to score Hawks and went home himself on a wide throw to third. Starr ripped a double over first and Wilson singled to right. Anderson was lifted and succeeded by Isaac who passed Jones, filling the bases. Pryde, up for the second time struck out, but Tucker laced a long homer over Murduff's head, clearing the bases and the parade was on again. Before the Union team could get the side out Plazas scored three more runs on singles by Blewett and Hawks and an error on Burton's fly to centre.

The winners added another in the sixth and five more in the seventh. It might have been worse in that frame if Wilson had not hit into a double play.

Although his injured thumb is not altogether better, Eddie Starr got into the game for the first time last night and got three hits to keep his continuous hitting record alive. The Plaza backstop hit safely in every game he played last season.

The score:

| Plazas | AB | R | H | PO | A | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Jones, 2b | 3 | 1 | 2 | 1 | 1 | 0 |
| Heal, 2b | 1 | 2 | 1 | 0 | 1 | 0 |
| Pryde, rf | 4 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Maloney, rf | 2 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Tucker, ss | 6 | 4 | 4 | 0 | 3 | 0 |
| Blewett, cf | 5 | 4 | 5 | 1 | 0 | 1 |
| Burton, lf | 6 | 1 | 2 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| Hawks, 3b | 5 | 2 | 3 | 1 | 5 | 1 |
| Ellis, 1b | 5 | 2 | 2 | 13 | 0 | 0 |
| Starr, c | 6 | 2 | 3 | 6 | 1 | 1 |
| Wilson, p | 6 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 3 | 0 |
| | 49 | 20 | 25 | 24 | 14 | 3 |

| U.E.W. | AB | R | H | PO | A | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Platt, 2b | 4 | 0 | 1 | 3 | 3 | 0 |
| Quigley, ss | 4 | 0 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| Girard, rf | 3 | 0 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Murduff, rf | 4 | 0 | 0 | 2 | 0 | 0 |
| Reid, 3b | 4 | 1 | 3 | 1 | 3 | 1 |
| Detlor, 1b | 1 | 0 | 0 | 6 | 1 | 1 |
| Todd, cf | 2 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 2 |
| Doughty, cf | 2 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 1 |
| Patterson, c | 3 | 0 | 1 | 7 | 0 | 0 |
| Anderson, p | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 0 |
| Isaac, p | 2 | 0 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 1 |
| | 30 | 1 | 8 | 24 | 10 | 6 |

By Innings—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Plazas | 210 0111 50 | —20 |
| U.E.W. | 000 1 00 00 | — 1 |

Runs batted in—Tucker 6, Hawks 4, Burton 2, Jones 2, Blewett 2, Heal Pryde, Starr. Sacrifice hit—Detlor. Two-base hits—Tucker 2, Blewett 2, Starr. Three-base hits—Hawks, Ellis. Home run—Tucker. Hits off Anderson 11 in 4 1-3 innings, off Isaac 14 in 3 2-3 innings. Bases on balls—off Wilson 3, off Anderson 2, off Isaac 6. Struck out—by Wilson 4, by Anderson 1, by Isaac 3. Losing pitcher—Anderson. Double plays—Hawks to Jones to Ellis; Reid to Detlor to Patterson. Left on bases—Plazas 12, U.E.W. 8. Umpires—Payne at the plate, Batley on the bases.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

Lawson Little Jr., California golfer, won his second successive British amateur championship nine years ago to-day at St. Annes-on-the-Sea. He was the third player — and the first invader—to win the title two years in a row. In 1936 Lawson turned professional and won the Canadian Open the same year.

COLOR DERIVATION
Emeralds and rubies get their color from the same substance, chromium oxide.

Complete Auto Service
MOTOR REPAIR. BODY BUMPING. REPAINTING
J. J. DUFFUS CO.
Tel. 5757

SPORTS-Day by Day

By FRED D. CRAIG

Two of the newer teams in the Girls' Softball League, Johnson Motors, the baby members of last season's loop and Lock Works, newcomers this year will make their 1944 debut at the Ashburnham Bowl tonight in a league game and there should be a real crowd to see them perform. More than that these young players should get encouragement from the fans, if the latter will only realize that these newer teams are providing the nucleus for Peterborough teams of the future. For some reason or other there are patrons of the girls' games who seem to get a lot of kick out of razzing the players. Our opinion of these grandstand experts is that they are made up largely of loud-mouthed youths who couldn't go out on the diamond and make a better showing themselves. Usually the loudest raspberry after an error comes from some bird up in the stands who would probably get hit on the head if he went out on the field and tried to catch a fly. We have never heard a good athlete on the sidelines indulge in any audible criticism of the girls' playing. That is usually left, as we have said, to a lot of folk who couldn't fall off a chair and hit the floor and who couldn't catch a cold themselves. Tonight's game will get under way at 6.45 o'clock and it rates a real crowd.

* * * * * *

The softball dope that comes out of Oshawa cannot be listed under the heading of good news from the standpoint of the Peterborough team that will eventually win the right to meet the Motor City GM Colts in the Ontario playdowns. Scribe Soup Campbell announces that practially all of last year's championship Oshawa team is still available and the club has started its workouts. The only absentee, and his loss will be felt, will be Red Jubenville, lanky second-sacker of the Colts. Jubenville, big and rangy, had played a lot of fine softball for the Oshawa team. He also was a dangerous hitter and defensively he would come up with a sensational fielding play just when it was needed the most. Scribe Campbell says that the second baseman can be replaced out of the Colts' reserves but it will be a tough job at that filling Red's shoes. But the disturbing feature of the Oshawa announcement is that the two-man pitching staff of the champions is again ready to go. Preem Whiteley, veteran speed-baller who seems to roll along just like Old Man River, and Dean McLaughlin, the drop-ball horseshoe expert, are both with the team again and any outfit that is lucky enough to start the season with a pair of gunners of the calibre of Whiteley and McLaughlin are already half way to the championship before the first ball is pitched.

* * * * * *

Here's Something New

Promoter Frank Tunney has lined up something new and sensational for next week's wrestling show at the Brock Street Arena. He announced yesterday that he proposes to introduce tag team wrestling to Peterborough at next Tuesday' show, probably as a logical development of the brawl that developed at this week's entertainment. And he has lined up as partners on one team none other than the Palermo Panther John Katan and the Toronto strong man Al Bunny Dunlop while the other pair will be the clever Frankie Sexton of Columbus, O., and the human pile-driver Nick Elitch of New York. Incidentally that makes it an international affair with Katan and Dunlop the Canadian representatives and Sexton and Elitch the delegates from across the line. At that the support of the fans will probably go to the Sexton-Elitch combination for the riot the other night caused by Dunlop's attack on Sexton has sent the Toronto grappler a few notches lower in the estimation of Peterborough enthusiasts. Katan, too, has angered the local followers of the game by the manner in which he manhandles his opponents and there is nothing the fans here would like better than to see the pair thrown for a complete loss.

* * * * * *

This team wrestling contest should prove about the most exciting mat fare that has been staged here. Under the rules one member of each team takes the ring and begins the battle. His partner has to remain at a corner outside the ropes with his hands on the post and in order to bring about a change of fighters it is necessary for the man in the ring to tag his partner before the latter can enter the fray. They can switch any time they like, just as hockey teams keep sending in fresh relays of forwards to keep the pace up all the way. With such battlers as Katan and Dunlop lined up against a pair like Sexton and Elitch and fresh competitors entering the argument every time a battler tags his partner Tuesday's team tussle should be the fastest and most exciting mat argument that has ever been staged here. There is no love lost between the rival teams. Katan and Dunlop claim to be the toughest team in the game and that team wrestling is right down their alley while the other pair refuse to admit anything of the kind. "That Dunlop didn't look so tough when I butted him around with my head the other night," Nick Elitch says "and he showed he was beat when he had to use a chair as a club."

* * * * * *

The Law of Averages

Nick Stricevich, former Toronto Leaf pitcher, had his victory parade halted yesterday after he had reeled off four straight wins for the Pittsburg Pirates since the season opened. And Strincevich had to be decidedly unlucky to suffer his first defeat of the campaign. Boston Braves scored a run off the former Leaf in the first innings and he held them to six scattered blows but the solitary counter was plenty. Al Javery who had been on a different kind of streak and had dropped five games without a win held the Pirates to three blows and shut them out. And that was that. The law of averages apparently caught up with both pitchers on the same day and Strincevich was the victim. That wasn't the only fine pitching duel in the big leagues yesterday for the Philadelphia A's blanked the Detroit Tigers 2 to 0 with Luman Harris holding the Bengals to three hits as he applied the whitewash brush vigorously. The Athletics garnered ten hits off the delivery of Gorsica and Hal Newhouser but could only put together a pair of runs. With Harris pitching the way he was doing, however, one would have been ample.

* * * * * *

Strincevich was not the only pitcher who had a winning streak broken yesterday. Mel Harder, veteran curveballer of the Cleveland Indians, striving for his 202nd major league triumph sustained his first trimming of the season at the hands of the Washington Senators. Up to the ninth frame it looked like another win for Harder for the Indians were in front 2 to 1. In that fatal inning however the Cleveland ace made a fielding error that sent in the tying run and before he could get the side out two more Senators had registered and the game was in the bag. In the other American League game played yesterday still another ace took a trimming. Tex Hughson of the Boston Red Sox being the victim. St. Louis Browns out-scored the Sox 3 to 2 and the loss was chalked up against Hughson. Incidentally George McQuinn who used to hit a lot of them drove out his first homer of the season for the Brownies.

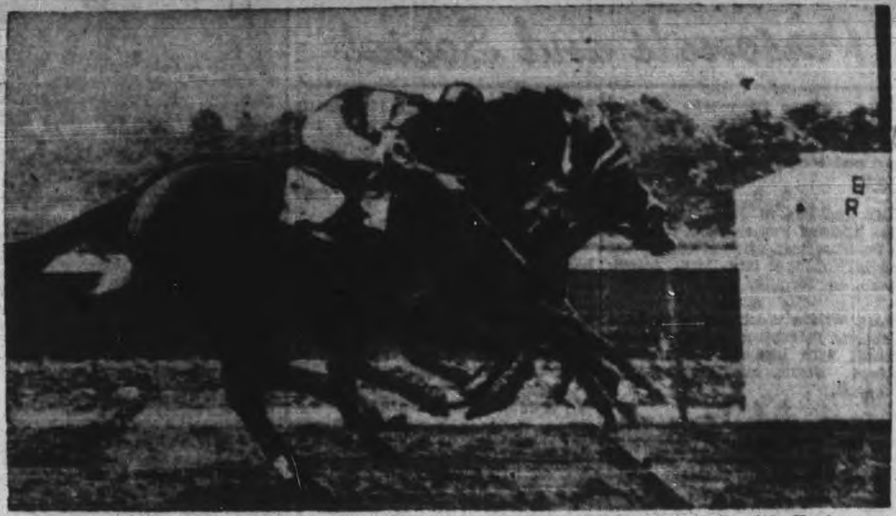
* * * * * *

Sporting Chili Con Carne: The Peterborough-Whitaker Cricket Club will play the Grove School in Lakefield tomorrow afternoon....There are no more games in the City Softball League this week, the next fixture being a clash between St. Peter's and Military Training Centre on Monday night....Whipper Watson defeated Strangler Bob Wagner in Toronto last night, taking a fall in 29.46 with the Canadian avalanche....Detroit Tigers have lost 11 out of their last 12 starts and Manager Steve O'Neill would be a tough man to interview right now as to the cause....Luman Harris who lost 13 games in a row at the end of last season and his first start of the current campaign is now apparently headed for another kind of streak....His victory over the Tigers yesterday was his fourth in succession and two of the triumphs were shutouts....Base hit were a dime a dozen for the Plazas in last night's game....Dave Lambton, native son of Ottawa pitched great ball for Leafs against the Rochester Red Wings last night, shutting them out 5 to 0 and allowing exactly five hits.



DEAD HEAT (IT LOOKS) AT THE RACETRACK — In what appears to be a triple dead heat, three horses race toward the finish line in the second race at Belmont Park, N.Y. "Bardia" with E. Arcaro up, was first: "Miss Sugar," T. Atkinson in the saddle, second, and "Liquid Lunch," jockeyed by R. Phelps, third.

George Street Wins From St. James

St. James' first team met George Street bantams in a Church League game Wednesday evening.

In spite of a late start and long innings, 7 frames were completed before dark. George Street won by a wide margin. Teams:

St. James: Eakins, c; Floyd, p; Grant, 1b; Hillier, 2b; Johnson, ss; Anderson, 3b; Bigford, rf; Cummings, cf; Bryan, lf; Bradley for Bigford, Cheshier for Cummings in the fifth.

George St.: Marshall, 2b; Hamblin, 3b; Davidson, 1b; J. Dormer, p; McKee, c; Connell, lf; Smith, cf; Pridham, rf; Wood, ss; B. Dormer for Hamblin, Hall for Pridham in the fifth.

McKee hit a homer in the sixth for George Street.

Umpires—C. Bedford at the plate; W. Ellis on the bases.

Fights Last Night

By The Associated Press

Fall River, Mass.—Eldridge Eatman, 196, Norwalk, Conn., outpointed Charlie Wright, 216, New York, 10. Joe Albanese, 160, Boston, outpointed Mickey Green, 169, U.S. Navy, 6.

5 Teams In League

COBOURG, May 26 — (ENS) — Schedule of the girls' softball league will open on June 2. There are five teams in the league this year, C.Y.O., Campbell's, Cooey's, Matting and Gliders. Rev. Father G. Maher heads the league as president; Ed. Campbell is vice-president; Ken Pritchard, general secretary; Mrs. Frances Keating, recording secretary and Sam Round, treasurer.

Heads Liberals

TORONTO, May 26.—(CP).—Miss Caroline Crerar of Hamilton, Ont., was elected by acclamation yesterday as president of the Ontario Women's Liberal Association succeeding Mrs. J. Culnan, of Toronto.

SERVING OVERSEAS — Pte. Gordon "Tom" Parsons, R.C.O.C., well known softball pitcher, is now serving overseas with the Canadian Army. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Parsons of Omemee and was employed at the Westclox before enlisting in January. He received his preliminary training at the Military Training Centre here and was afterward posted to Barriefield as driver instructor in the technical training wing. Pte. Parsons pitched for Omemee, the local Plazas and the Military Training Centre in the City Softball League, and played a lot of hockey for the Omemee Black Hawks.

THRIFTY SHAVES
With Minora Blades!
Minora stands first among low-price blades—the keenest and best double-edge blade in its class. Try it and see for yourself.
Minora BLADES 4 for 10¢

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

The opening of the 1944 season as far as the Peterborough Lawn Bowling Club is concerned, will take place next Wednesday, May 31, at 7:30 p.m. This bit of news came through to us on Thursday afternoon, and it is official.

It will be just the same as was intended for May 24 — mixed tournament from the board, no fee, two sets of prizes, donated by the club, three 8-end games, and to start not later than 7:45 p.m.

And while we are on this Wednesday and Friday night tournament business, we would respectfully draw attention of our members to the paragrapn on page 5 of our schedule book, with the heading: "Weekly Friday night tournaments." This explains fully just how these tournaments will be conducted, and the only exceptions on this coming Wednesday night will be that there is to be no charge and only two sets of prizes.

Many of our bowlers have received their schedule book, but there are still quite a few who have not. We wish to remind the bowlers once more that these books are available at Harold Freeman's shop on Simcoe Street.

IN SUPPORT OF DARWIN
Zoologically speaking, apes are more like man than like monkeys.

Clear Sailing IF YOU PREPARE NOW

The tightest squeeze this year on the farm front will come at harvest time. Many over-age binders and threshers cannot survive another year. All-Crop Harvesters must be prepared to carry an extra load.

Here's what you can do to get your machine ready—

• Schedule your All-Crop immediately for our 24-POINT FARM COMMANDO overhaul. This also includes reconditioning the attachments for special crops and replacing or rebuilding worn parts.

• List your machine on our local Register as a qualified Farm Commando, available for outside work on neighboring farms.

If you are in need of an All-Crop Harvester, come in and talk to us. We may be able to furnish one or help you locate just the machine you are looking for.

BUY STILL MORE WAR BONDS! GET YOUR SCRAP IN QUICK!

ALLIS-CHALMERS AUTHORIZED DEALER
HAROLD C. BALL

NEED WE SAY MORE?
Once the fabric shows on your tires even we can't help you!
RETREAD YOUR TIRES NOW!
(NO PERMIT REQUIRED)
FOR Finest Tire Service
GOOD YEAR DEALER
J. J. DUFFUS CO.
PETERBOROUGH DIAL 5757

CANADIAN C.W.A.C.'S BATTLE IT OUT IN LONDON—Strange sight in Hyde Park, London! The London Area League of the C.W.A.C. opened in Hyde Park with teams of No. 43 Co. and No. 41 Co. battling it out in the nitial game. It finally went to No. 43 Co. (The Sussex Beavers) by a score of 7 to 1. The champion team of the league will win the cup donated by Mrs. Vincent Massey. The picture shows a tense moment in the game with L.-Cpl. M. Duck, 41 Co., at bat; catcher, Pte. Betty David of 43 Co., and umpire, 1st Sergt. Daniel Rome of Houme, La., U.S.A.

Canadian Sport Snapshots

By SYD THOMAS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, May 26 — (CP). — The golf season is getting in full swing now, and earnest individuals are preparing for a season's delight pursuing the little bounding pellet about the fairways. That being the case, Doug (Windsor Star) Vaughan pauses to consider the way of a golfer with a putting iron.

Doug ponders the inescapable fact that a golfer, whether expert or suffer, clings tightly to his favorite driver, spoon, matched irons, niblick, and what have you, but is forever experimenting with new-fangled putters. This constant yearning for new blood in the putter line isn't due to any desire to keep up with the latest fashion, but rather from a constant effort to improve his putting game.

When your golfer is off his game it is due to those lumps on the putting green, and then the putter catches the wrath and a new one must be obtained.

As candidate for the rovingest putter-changer, Vaughan nominates chaser of the spherical waffle by name Joe McGee, who has had 60 putting irons in the past five years Magee is also quite a billiard player. That explains his somewhat bitter comment that billiards is a science where a shot may be lined up in mathematical fashion, but putting can't be called anything but an art.

Name-calling:

You mightn't agree with him, but Wallace (Vancouver News-Herald) Kelk points out that there may be something in a name after all, as far as racehorses are concerned. Supporting his argument he lists the eight greatest money-winning horses of all time. They had names that rolled right off the tongue and into a bookie's ear with profitable results: Whirlaway, Seabiscuit, Sun Beau, Alsab, Equipoise, Challedon, Phar Lap, Gallant Fox. Besides those, either the name or something put plenty of quality in horses like Man o' War, Twenty Grand, Top Flight, Pretty Polly, Sceptre, La Fleche, and Carbine, to name a few.

Friday's fishing:

On the chess front, Frank Yerhoff of Regina—the Saskatchewan titleholder and one of the Dominion's ranking players— added the Southern Saskatchewan scalp to his belt in a recent competition in Regina......From all reports race fans at Woodbine in Toronto got quite a shock when an entire day's card was run off exactly on schedule this week. Usually there is considerable delayed action in getting the nags from the post in each running....Several topnotch tennis stars from British Columbia and Quebec are being seen these days on the courts of Ottawa's Rideau Club. Among them are Major Jack Brawn of Vancouver, once second-ranking player in Canada; former Davis Cupper Flight Lieut. Laird Watt; 2nd Lieut. Alan Eaton of Toronto; Gaetan Valois, Quebec's number one junior. It looks like a good tennis summer.

Beaver Meadow Golf Course Now Open
Green Fees, 50c
Clubs to Rent
LOCATION
Turn right two miles east on No. 7 highway.

A TIP ON THE TOP TUNES
Hear these NEW VICTOR and BLUEBIRD RECORDS
Milkman, Keep Those Bottles Quiet — King Sisters
Good-for Nothin' Joe — Charlie Barnet
I'll Get By — King Sisters
Behind Those Swinging Doors — Spike Jones
I'll Be Seeing You — Tommy Dorsey
Victor Smart Set Album, P147, "Smoke Rings"
"The Mikado" (Gilbert & Sullivan) D'Oyly Carte Company.
SULLIVAN'S
Charlotte St Opp. Loblaw's

Swimmer Says Peak To Come

BAINBRIDGE, Ma., May 26 — (AP)—Holder of 40 world's swimming records and undisputed king of the backstroke, Ensign Adolph Kiefer, 25, believes he won't reach his athletic peak for another two or three years and that he will be capable of top-flight competition for at least five years more.

The Chicagoan who holds every world's backstroke record between 50 yards and one mile said today that "if a man stays in shape, there is no reason why he shouldn't be good until he's 30 years old."

Kiefer wasn't enthusiastic about his chances in last night's invitational swimming meet at the Bainbridge Naval Training Station, where he is a physical education instructor.

But he bettered unofficially his own mark for the 100-yard backstroke as he swam the first two-thirds for the 150-yard backstroke in :56.1, seven-tenths of a second under his recognized world's record. Only one watch was held on him for the first 100 yards, so the mark cannot be certified.

"I surprised myself," Kiefer said after winning the event in 1:30.8, just four-tenths of a second off his record. "It proved to me that I still haven't reached my peak and I probably won't for another two or three years."

Major League Leaders

By The Associated Press

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Batting—Tucker, Chicago .395
Runs—Johnson, Boston 29
Runs batted in—Tabor, Boston 23
Hits—Doerr, Boston 41
Doubles—Doerr, Boston 12.
Triples—Gutteridge, St. Louis 5
Home runs—Seerey, Cleveland and Hayes, Philadelphia 6
Stolen bases — Stirnweiss, New York 8
Pitching — Leonard, Washington, 4-0

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Batting—Walker, Brooklyn .424
Runs—Bordagaray, Brooklyn 27
Runs batted in—Schultz, Brooklyn 33
Hits—Walker, Brooklyn 50
Doubles—Holmes, Boston 14
Triples—Barrett, Pittsburgh, 6
Home runs—Schulz, Brooklyn 96
Stolen bases—Macon, Boston 6
Pitching—Lanier, St. Louis 6-0

MOVIE TIME TABLE

Capitol — "Lady in the Dark", 2.40, 4.50, 7.05, 9.15. Last complete show, 8.45.

Centre — "Riding High", 1.35, 4.20, 7.05, 9.50; "Here Comes Kelly" 3.12, 6.03, 6.50.

Regent—"George in the Home Guard", 1.30, 3.30, 5.40, 7.45, 9.50.

Tigers Lose 11 of 12 Games At Home

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sport Writer

Steve O'Neill must be tempted to put the show on the road for keeps today after watching his Detroit Tigers lose their 11th of 12 Briggs Stadium starts for an .083 home percentage.

The Bengals swept the east at a 10-of-14 clip and have played .667 ball outside of Detroit. Even the pennant-winning clubs of 1934, 1935 and 1940 couldn't approach that pace.

A .500 "away" gait is considered by baseball men as excellent ground work for a pennant bid but the Bengals' sorry showing on the home lot leaves them struggling to stay in fifth place in the American League. The loyal Detroit fans who have boosted home attedance over the 112,000 mark haven't seen the Tigers win since John Gorsica turned back Cleveland, 4-2 in the second game of an April 30 doubleheader.

Lum Harris spoiled Detroit's hopes yesterday with a three-hit shutout, and drove in one of the Philadelphia runs in their 2-0 edge. It was the fourth victory for Harris who didn't allow a man to reach third.

A .500 "away" gait is considered by baseball men as excellent ground work for a pennant bid but the Bengals' sorry showing on the home lot leaves them struggling to stay in fifth place in the American League. The loyal Detroit fans who have boosted home attendance over the [illegible]00 mark haven't seen the T[illegible] since John Gorsica turned [illegible]eveland, 4-2 in the second gam[illegible] April 30 doubleheader.

Lum Harris spoiled eDtroit's hopes yesterday with a three-hit shutout, and drove in one of the Philadelphia runs in their 2-0 edge. It was the fourth victory for Harris who didn't allow a man to reach third.

Blank Pittsburgh

While the Tigers' troubles deepened, Al Javery finally broke his hard-luck string by blanking Pittsburgh with three singles. Boston's 1-0 victory was the first for Javery after six heart breaking losses. The only badly pitched game in the chain came Sunday when Chicago knocked him out with seven hits in two and a fraction innings.

Cincinnati at New York and St. Louis at Brooklyn, night tilts, and Chicago at Philadelphia were postponed.

St. Louis Browns strengthened their hold on second place in the American League and advanced to within a game and a half of the idle Yankees by shading Boston, 3-2. Bob Muncrief scattered seven safeties for his second triumph and helped the cause by driving in the first run. George McQuinn homered for St. Louis in the fifth.

Mel Harder lost his bid for victory No. 202 the hard way as his own error with the bases loaded sent the tying run across the plate and Washington went on to score two more for a 4-2 night game decision before 18,706 fans. Mickey Haefner retired for a pinch hitter in the ninth but got credit for his fourth decision.

The Yankee-Chicago night game was rained out.

Philadelphia—Billy Arnold, 143¼, Philadelphia, knocked out Solomon Stewart, 140½, New York, 2; Jimmy Long, 167½, Chester, Pa., knocked out Johnny Finney 165¾ Philadelphia, 1.

TUCKER TUCKING AWAY A HEFTY BAT AVERAGE

Thurman Tucker...hits 'em often

By Central Press Canadian

CHICAGO, May 23—Meteoric rise in his batting average from a weak .235 to a .400 clip has propelled Outfielder Thurman Lowell Tucker, the "Joe E. Brown" of baseball, into the major league baseball spotlight.

Tucker, who closely resembles the big-mouthed hero of many screen comedies, is now in his second full season with the White Sox and still has to prove he's something more than a flash in the pan at the plate.

In 139 games with the Pale Hose last year Tucker batted .235. In seven games at the tag end of the 1942 season he batted .313 which of course, doesn't prove anything.

The slim lefthanded batter, a fine fielder, has been brushing around the minor leagues for eight seasons. He broke into baseball with Siloam Springs in the Arkansas-Missouri league. He hit for .317 that year in 117 games.

He then moved up, in succession to Eldorado, Abbeville, Greenville, Clarksdale, Oklahoma City and finally Fort Worth in the Texas league.

With Clarksdale in the Cotton States league in 1940 he was a heavy hitter, batting .39. Then, with Fort Worth in 1942 he managed to keep above the .300 average with a .313 mark.

He failed to hit American league pitching last season but has proven a surprise at the plate this year.

Baseball Results and Record

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Syracuse | 13 | 9 | .591 |
| Toronto | 15 | 11 | .577 |
| Rochester | 17 | 13 | .567 |
| Buffalo | 15 | 12 | .556 |
| Jersey City | 13 | 13 | .500 |
| Montreal | 14 | 15 | .483 |
| Baltimore | 10 | 14 | .417 |
| Newark | 8 | 18 | .308 |

Thursday's Results

Toronto 5, Rochester 0
Jersey City 11, Baltimore 4
Buffalo 16, Montreal 1
Syracuse at Newark—postponed.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| St. Louis | 21 | 9 | .700 |
| Cincinnati | 17 | 11 | .607 |
| Pittsburgh | 15 | 11 | .577 |
| Philadelphia | 12 | 14 | .462 |
| Brooklyn | 13 | 16 | .448 |
| Boston | 15 | 19 | .441 |
| New York | 13 | 17 | .433 |
| Chicago | 9 | 18 | .308 |

Thursday's Results

Boston 1, Pittsburgh 0
Cincinnati at New York—postponed.
St. Louis at Brooklyn—postponed.
Chicago at Philadelphia—postponed.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| New York | 17 | 10 | .630 |
| St. Louis | 19 | 15 | .559 |
| Washington | 17 | 14 | .548 |
| Philadelphia | 16 | 15 | .516 |
| Detroit | 15 | 18 | .455 |
| Boston | 14 | 17 | .452 |
| Chicago | 13 | 17 | .433 |
| Cleveland | 14 | 19 | .424 |

Thursday's Results

Philadelphia 2, Detroit 0
St. Louis 3, Boston 2
Washington 4, Cleveland 2
New York at Chicago—postponed.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Thursday's Results

Louisville 7, Milwaukee 5
Indianapolis 6-6, Kansas City 5-1
St. Paul 2-2, Toledo 0-4
Minneapolis at Columbus—postponed.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS

By The Canadian Press

Manager Bill Southworth of the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday rated Outfielder Andy Pafko, now with Chicago, as the pick of the season's crop of rookies in the National League. Pafko, now hitting above the .300 mark, led the Pacific Coast League batsmen while with Los Angeles in 1943.

A $25,000 offer from Olsen and Johnson, stage and screen comedians, for the boxing contract of Ike Williams, Trenton, N.J., lightweight, yesterday was rejected by Connie McCarthy, the fighter's manager. Williams is scheduled to fight 10 rounds with Sammy Angott at Philadelphia June 6.

"We feel lucky to be playing at all this season," declared Manager Fred Fitzsimmons of the Phillies yesterday at Philadelphia after receiving word Catcher Ben Culp had passed his test for the U.S. Navy right after Shortstop Ray Hamrick had been accepted for the armed services. Further, Outfielder Ron Northey and Pitcher Ken Raffensberger are appearing before the medical board today.

The greatest cheer from the 10,000 who attended the Mills-Delaney fight in Albert Hall, London, last night came when a case of Scotch whiskey was brought out for an auction in aid of the Russian wounded. The liquor sold for $54 a bottle.

Four-Piece Orchestra
Open For Engagements
'Phone 8532

What's On the Air

| Stations | Kilocycles |
|---|---|
| CHEX | 1430 |
| CBL | 740 |
| CFRB | 860 |
| WEAF | 660 |
| WJZ | 770 |
| WABC | 880 |

Symbols: D—Drama, M—Musical, R—Religious, S—Songs, T—Talk, V—Variety, N—News

This Program has been given the Peterborough Examiner by stations herein listed If the presentations as scheduled are not on the air, the fault lies with the stations and not with the Examiner.

Radio Station CHEX Carries the News on the Hour

FRIDAY EVENING

6:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Tunes
CFRB—Dinner Music
CBL—Relax and Enjoy-M

6:15 P.M.
CHEX—Swing and Sway
WEAF—Negro College Fund
CBL—Market Report

6:30 P.M.
CHEX—News; Rhythm Rndup
CBL—Curtain Echoes-M
WEAF—Serenade to America
WJZ—Whose War is This?

6:45 P.M.
CHEX—Parade of Bands
CBL—BBC News
WEAF—Lowell Thomas-N
CFRB—Sportviews

7:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Sports
CFRB—Vic and Sade-D
CBL—Sinfonette-M
WEAF—Pleasure Time-M
WJZ—Nero Wolfe-D

7:15 P.M.
CHEX—School Children
CFRB—Musical Revue
WABC—We Who Dream

7:30 P.M.
CHEX—Help Wanted
WABC—Friday on Broadway
WEAF—Musical Revue
WJZ—Lone Ranger-D

7:45 P.M.
CHEX—From Parliament Hill
CFRB—Song Styles
WEAF—H. V. Kaltenborn-N

8:00 P.M.
WEAF—Cities Service-V
WABC—Kate Smith-V
CBL—Victory Parade
CFRB—Gardening

8:15 P.M.
CHEX—On the Mall
CFRB—Lum and AbnerD
WJZ—Parker Family-D

8:30 P.M.
CHEX—These, the Invaded
WEAF—Hit Parade
CBL—Musical Mailbox
WJZ—Meet Your Navy

9:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Mood Music
CFRB—Air Band
CBL—Waltz Time
WABC—Pays to Be Ignorant
WJZ—Gang Busters-D

9:30 P.M.
CHEX—That Brewster Boy
WJZ—Victory Parade
CBL—Opera and Ballet
WEAF—People Are Funny-V

10:00 P.M.
CHEX—Championship Fight
CBL—CBC News
WEAF—Amos 'n' Andy-V
WJZ—Leland Stowe-T
WABC—Durante-Moore Show

10:30 P.M.
CHEX—Concert Orch.
WABC—Stage Door Canteen
WEAF—Sports Newsreel
WJZ—Letters to Servicemen

11:00 P.M.
CHEX—News Commentary
CBL—Radio Newsreel
CFRB—News

SATURDAY MORNING

6:00 A.M.
CHEX—Early Risers

6:30 A.M.
CHEX—News

7:00 A.M.
CHEX—News

7:30 A.M.
CHEX—News

7:45 A.M
CHEX—Early Risers

8:00 A.M.
CHEX—News
WEAF—News Roundup
WJZ—Kibitzers-S

8:15 A.M.
CHEX—Breakfast Musicale
CBL—Morning Devotions
WABC—Music of To-day

8:30 A.M.
CHEX—Breakfast Musicale
WJZ—United Nations Review
WABC—Missus Shopping-T

8:45 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Devotions
WABC—Margaret Arlen
WEAF—In the Record

9:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Salon Strings
CBL—First Piano Quartette
WJZ—Breakfast Club

9:15 A.M.
CHEX—On Parade
CFRB—Garden Gate

9:45 A.M.
CHEX—Melody Parade
CFRB—Golden Gate Quartette
WEAF—Stuart Gracey-S

10:00 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Masterworks

10:30 A.M
CHEX—Morris Duke, pianist
WABC—Mary Lee Taylor-T
WJZ—Ozark Ramblers-M
WEAF—Inter Decorating-T

10:45 A.M.
CHEX—Church in Wildwood

11:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Our Neighbors
WABC—Let's Pretend
CBL—On Stage Everybody-V

11:30 A.M.
WABC—Fashions in Rations
WEAF—Lighted Windows-D
WJZ—Land of the Lost-D

11:45 A.M.
CHEX—On the Lighter Side

SATURDAY AFTERNOON

12:00 NOON
CHEX—News; Home Folks
WABC—Theatre of To-day-D
WJZ—Blue Playhouse-D
CBL—BBC News
CFRB—Red White and Blue

12:15 P.M.
CBL—Hot Wax-M
WEAF—Consumer's Time-T

12:30 P.M.
CHEX—News; Farm News
CBL—Children's Scrapbook
WABC—Stars Over Hollywood
WEAF—Atlantic Spotlight-V

1:00 P.M.
WJZ—Report from London
CHEX—Home Folks
WEAF—Here's to Youth

1:30 P.M.
CHEX—Home Folks
CFRB—Country Journal
CBL—Melody Moments

1:45 P.M.
WJZ—Swing-Shift Frolic
WEAF—War Telescope-T

2:00 P.M.
CHEX—Siesta Time
WJZ—Women in Blue
CFRB—Men and Books

2:30 P.M.
CHEX—Victor Album
WJZ—Sherwood's Orchestra
WEAF—Sport Stories

3:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Hol'w'd Premiere
CFRB—Victory F.O.B.
CBL—Minstrel Melodies

3:15 P.M.
CHEX—Happened This Week

3:30 P.M.
CHEX—Hawaiian Dreams-M
CFRB—Visiting Hour
WJZ—Variety Show

3:45 P.M.
CHEX—Scotland Singing

4:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Ballroom
CBL—Sat'day Music Review

4:30 P.M.
CFRB—The Colonel-V
WEAF—Doctors at War-D

5:00 P.M.
CHEX—Lindsay Salute; News
CFRB—Corliss Archer-D
CBL—Saturday Concert
WEAF—Your America

5:30 P.M.
CFRB—Report from London
WABC—Mother and Dad
WEAF—Behind the Headlines

5:45 P.M.
CHEX—Musical Moment
CFRB—Lone Ranger
WJZ—Hello, Sweetheart-M

GIFTS!
• Weddings
• Showers
• Birthdays
Cook Books For the Brides
Better Homes and Gardens .... 3.00
American Woman's .... 3.39
Boston .... 2.65
Canadian Cook .... 2.00
BOOKS!
What America Is Reading Today:
What a Man Can Believe .... 2.50
The Robe .... 3.00
Tree Grows in Brooklyn .... 3.00
Undercover .... 4.50
Hotel Berlin 43 .... 3.00
The Razor's Edge .... 3.25
Strange Fruit .... 3.00
Chicken Every Sunday .... 3.50
The Promise .... 2.75
Ten Years in Japan .... 5.00
Blessed Are the Meek .... 3.50
Lassie Come Home .... 2.35
Madame Curie .... 1.39
This Above All .... 1.49
BOOKS FOR CHILDREN!
New shipment Burgess books .... 59c
WEDDING GIFT SUGGESTIONS—
• Glass Salad Plates
• Cook Books
• Pictures
• Leather Goods
• Wood Plates, Salad Bowls
• Mottoes
• Luggage
• Wooden Trays
• Gift Wrappings
FATHER'S DAY CARDS!
• Mail Early
• Select Now
Sunday, June 18th
SPECIAL!
Notepaper and Envelopes 29c
1 Pad Notepaper, 2 packages Envelopes. Real value. All for 29c
PAPER TOWELS!
Sypro Paper Towels .... 35c
Metal Holder .... 35c
3 rolls for 1.00
DEYELL'S BOOKSTORE
393 George St. PHONE 9641 Near Hunter

Theatres - Dances - Radio

Buffalo Swamps Montreal 16-1

By The Associated Press

In sharp contrast to the closely-fought contests of the past few days, last night's International League games resulted in lopsided scores.

Buffalo turned in one of the most one-sided victories in many years by swamping Montreal, 16-1, making 20 hits. Every man in the Buffalo lineup scored at least once, and all but Rupert Thompson made at least one hit. Carl McNabb led the Bison attack with four safeties, and Mayo Smith, Otto Denning and Pitcher Hank Oana collected three apiece.

Oana spaced nine Montreal hits and struck out nine to raise his league leading total to 39.

Jersey City assaulted four Baltimore hurlers for 13 hits to win an 11-4 decision. Carroll Lockman and Steve Filipowicz led the Giants' hit parade with three safeties each. Filipowicz drove in five runs, and Lockman three. Andy Hansen replaced Frank Rosso for the Jaycees during an Oriole four-run uprising in the second inning and held the Birds to three hits the remainder of the way to receive credit for the victory.

Dave Lambton pitched Toronto to its fourth straight victory by shutting out Rochester 5-0, with five hits. Jimmy Gruzdis stole home for the Leafs in the second inning.

Syracuse-Newark were postponed because of rain.

Acara Conceded Horse To Beat

TORONTO, May 26—(CP)—An air of confidence reigned today in rival camps of King's Plate candidates on the eve of the major Canadian horse racing classic. However, it is generally conceded Acara, the grey streak from the stable of H. C. Hatch, Toronto, will be the filly to beat.

All the charges have reached the peak of condition and except for brief walks in their stables yesterday and today have had no work-outs since Wednesday.

Acara stepped into the favorite position following his run over the mile and one eighth stretch at Woodbine last Tuesday. He clipped the mile distance in 1:41 4-5 and was tagged at 1:55 flat for the longer route.

A field of 14 seems likely to start.

DANCING at RYE'S PAVILION
Friday, May 26th
Modern and Old Time Dancing
MOLONEY'S ORCHESTRA
Admission 50c and 35c

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press

Billy Weitelmann and Al Javery, Braves — Weitelmann engineered double play to stall Pirate rally and saved shutout with sensational stop in fifth; Javery picked up first victory by blanking Pittsburg with three singles.

Luman Harris, Athletics — Held Detroit scoreless with three hits, didn't allow single Tiger to reach third and drove in winning run with single.

Sgt. Freddie Mills of the R.A.F., British and Empire lightweight champion, knocked out Tr. Al Delaney of Windsor and Oshawa in the fifth round of a scheduled ten-rounder which was staged as a benefit for the Russian fund.

This Week
SUMMER GARDENS PETERBOROUGH
FRIDAY DANCING "Melody Men"
SATURDAY DANCING "MELODY MEN"

Lady in the Dark in Technicolor
GINGER ROGERS
RAY MILLAND
WARNER BAXTER
JON HALL
Extra- Swell Technicolor Short "LUCKY COWBOY"
Latest Canadian Paramount News
Capitol
A FAMOUS PLAYERS THEATRE

Regent
NOW PLAYING
A Favorite Of All
Mat. Daily 1.30
GEORGE FORMBY in
George in the Home Guard
A NEWER, FUNNIER GEORGE IN HIS BEST HIT - HILARIOUS ROLE
Plus!
NEW SERIAL, "FLYING CADET" - CARTOON

CENTRE To-day And SAT.
Two—Excellent Hits—Two
The West Goes WILD... with Music, Gals, and Color!
Rootin', tootin' TECHNICOLOR! rodeo with
DOROTHY LAMOUR
DICK POWELL
VICTOR MOORE
in RIDING HIGH
A Paramount Picture with Gil Lamb · Cass Daley and Milt Britton and Band
AND FEATURE NO. 2
HERE COMES KELLY
with Eddie QUILLAN
Joan WOODBURY
Maxie ROSENBLOOM
ARMIDA
PLUS! UNDERGROUND WORLD - SUPERMAN CARTOON

Engineers Meet In Pontine Marsh

By DANIEL DE LUCE
Associated Press War Correspondent.

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY ON THE ANZIO BEACHHEAD, May 26 — (AP) — The two Allied fronts in Italy were united at 7:31 a.m. Thursday when an American combat Engineer from the beachhead clasped hands with another from the 5th Army in the Pontine Marshes.

The meeting place was near Borgo Grappa, five miles east of old beachhead front on the Mussolini Canal.

Members of 5th Army Reconnaissance Squadron under Lieut. Simmie Callahan, from Texas, were swarming around the green meadows and they bumped into both British armored car scouts and American Engineers who started from the canal after dawn to achieve the historic union.

At 10:15 a.m., Lt.-Gen. Mark W. Clark, 5th Army Commander, and jeeploads of correspondents reached the bridge where the two tiny forces had assembled. The General declared:

"This is an eventful day for the 5th Army."

New Work Law Declared Invalid

SYDNEY, Australia, May 25 (CP) —A New South Wales state court today invalid an Australian Federal regulation under which citizens are ordered to work in various industries.

Chief Justice Sir Frederick Gordon said the regulation was a piece of gratuitous executive or bureaucratic despotism and reduced the Australian population to a state of serfdom.

The Commonwealth appealed the decision, which directly affects the Federal National Security setup under which a manpower directorate has been functioning.

DAVIS-THOMPSON COMPANY
Established 1858
Insurance and General Agency
All Branches of Insurance Represented
433 GEORGE ST. PHONE 4724

Cattle Draggy, Veal, Sheep, Hogs Unchanged

TORONTO, May 26 — (CP). — Cattle trade on the Livestock Market closed here on Thursday draggy with slightly easier prices, after the holiday. The opening was active, with prices on cattle 15 cents cwt. higher. During the week veal calves hogs, sheep and lambs were unchanged.

A normal supply of cattle was fairly well cleared by the close. Supplies of live and dressed beef from Western Canada have practically halted, allowing a greater area of distribution for local packers. Weighty steers sold at a top of $12.90 with most sales from $12.50 down. Butcher steers were $10.50 to $12.50 and heifers $11.85 down. Fed yearlings sold at $12 to $13.50 and a few prime brought $13.75. Butcher cows were $3 to $9.75. Bulls closed easier at $7.50 to $9. Light stockers weighing 450 lbs. to 600 lbs. sold at $10 to $11.50. Common to medium quality milkers and springers sold at $75 to $140. No good milch cows or springers were offered.

Veal calves brought $14.50 to $15 for choice with common to medium Easterners plentiful at $7 to $13.

Small lots of feed-lot lambs, the finish of last year's crop, sold from $10 to $14.75 cwt. according to the quality. Spring lambs sold in small numbers at $16 to $16.50 cwt. for choice. Sheep were from $3 to $6 cwt. according to quality.

Hogs sold off-trucks at yards and at local packing plants at $17.55 to $17.65 for Grade A. Sows were $13 dressed.

Weekly summary of receipts:

| | Cattle | Calves | Hogs | Sheep & Lambs |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| This week .. | 4265 | 2761 | 3898 | 364 |
| Last week .. | 4743 | 2696 | 4513 | 528 |
| 1944 to date . | 84973 | 36010 | 86111 | 32574 |
| 1943 to date . | 83309 | 32802 | 67159 | 20125 |
| This week 1943 | 4621 | 2465 | 3889 | 469 |

MORE ABOUT—
2-Division Corps

Continued from Page 1

Roccasecca, in the hills five miles north and slightly west of Aquino. Highway No. 6, also known as the Via Casilina, now is open to Allied traffic as far west as the Melba river.

French units of the Allied 5th Army, advancing on the southern side of the Liri river, also benefitted from the Canadian breakthrough of the powerful Hitler Line defences, which protected their right flank.

In recognition of the Canadian achievement, Gen. Alphonse Juin, commanding the French formation, sent the following message to Lt.-Gen. E. L. M. (Tommy) Burns, commander of the Canadian Corps:—

"Heartiest congratulations for the great success won by your troops who broke through the Hitler Line and achieved an advance that greatly facilitates the task of the French Expeditionary Corps."

Gen. Burns replied:—

"Thank you very much for your kind message, which will be passed on to the troops. All ranks of the 1st Canadian Corps are filled with admiration for the magnificent Fighting French Expeditionary Corps in this offensive and are most happy to be advancing with you on our flank, recalling the victory at Amiens on Aug. 8, 1918."

Gen. Burns was referring to one of the major achievements of the Canadian Corps in the First Great War, which was commanded by Gen. Sir Arthur Currie. The victory at Amiens played an important part in the final Allied drive which drove the Germans back from the Paris area and led to the Armistice in November, 1918.

Charges Owner Of Mine Made Big Profit

OTTAWA, May 26.—(CP).—G. S. White, (P.C., Hastings-Peterborough) said last night in the Commons that H. C. Miller, a Federal Government employee, had made $10,000 to $25,000 profit in eight or 10 months of operation of a fluorspar mine which was developed by funds advanced by the Government.

Mr. White said Mr. Miller could not finance development of the mine at Madoc, Ont. and the Government had advanced him about $35,000. More than $7,000 of the amount had been repaid.

Resources Minister Crerar said he believed Mr. Miller was an employee of the Prices Board. He was advanced $34,196 and had repaid up to last Jan. 31 a total of $7,229. The Minister said he did not know whether Mr. Miller made any profit.

Mr. White asked that the Minister find out what profit was made.

The arrangement was entered into with Mr. Miller when fluorspar was desperately needed for the war effort.

"Do you think we should have turned down the opportunity to get fluorspar just because he was an employee of the Prices Board?" the Minister asked.

Mr. White said the property should have been taken over by the Government. Mr. Crerar said this could have been done without cost. The advance had been made to Mr. Miller and the sum was being repaid. Meantime the Government held claim on the assets of the mine.

"Have you evidence that Miller made profit?" asked Mr. Howe. "You are making statements you evidently cannot prove."

Mr. White: "Don't go saying that now. I have asked the Minister of Mines and Resources to find out for me just what the profit was."

MORE ABOUT—
Aquino Falls

(Continued from Page 1)

erting steady pressure in the mountains north of Terracina in a move that was rapidly straightening the battle line out along an east-west line, captured Monte Vaglia, on north-east of Pico, Monte Civitella west of Vallecorsa, and other important points in that region. The enemy hit back with several local counter-attacks.

In their flight from Littoria and elsewhere along the Pontine Plain the Germans left behind much equipment. At the southern end of the plain the towns of Sabaudia and Pontina were found unoccupied.

In swift exploitation of the German coastal withdrawal and fall of Cisterna, 5th Army forces cut a lateral road leading to Cori, six miles to the northeast, and another leading in a northeasterly direction to Doganella, three miles off the Appian Way south of Cisterna. Several enemy attacks directed down the Cori road were repulsed.

Lots of Mines

In their advance toward the Alban Hills, some 15 miles southeast of Rome where the Germans apparently hoped to make their final stand for the eternal city, American troops encountered deep mine fields but enemy artillery fire was lighter than had been expected.

The navy announced new bombardments of enemy targets in the Anzio area during the past two days. Buildings were destroyed, and gun positions and bivouac areas were well covered with shells, the announcement said.

Aircraft of the first tactical air force knocked off a large proportion of the two-day toll of enemy vehicles in attacks yesterday on two large German motor convoys withdrawing from the Cisterna area. In these and other forays, the Allied battle planes destroyed at least 610 vehicles and damaged 561 more.

Twenty German planes were destroyed, of more than 80 encountered, as the Mediterranean air forces flew 3,000 sorties yesterday, including heavy bomber attacks on German rail lines in France, in the Lyon and Grenoble areas, and against various targets in northern Italy. Twelve Allied planes were lost, six of them heavy bombers.

MORE ABOUT—
House Debates

Continued from Page 1

bring in an unfavorable report.

5. Pensions Minister Mackenzie said Mr. Fallow should have followed up his charges by having the Alberta government appoint a Royal Commission to investigate. Mr. Johnston should either stop wasting the time of the House or make the charges on his own responsibility.

A Little Garbled

6. Concluding the discussion, Mr. Crerar said that Mr. Fallow's statement in the Alberta legislature was filled with "inaccuracies and misstatements." The government had not spent half the $1,700,000 Mr. Fallow had charged. Information given Mr. Fallow "by a drunken man" was insufficient reason for the Dominion to establish a Royal Commission.

The Alberta Minister had not held a provincial inquiry because he could not substantiate his charges, said Mr. Crerar. Mr. Johnston could have an investigation if he made the charges on his own responsibility.

Government examination of the Tar Sands to establish their value had been carried on, and a reconstructed test plant would be in operation this year.

The discussion of Tar Sands developed on mines and resources department war appropriation estimates.

Further discussion of north developments was promised after Howard Green (PC—Vancouver South) said the government policy on northern development should be given the House.

Hastings News

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Beamish of St. Catharines were visitors recently with friends and relatives of town and the former visited his Mother, Mrs. Sam Beamish, who is a patient in the Cobourg General Hospital.

Mrs. E. A. Sherwin has returned to her home in Niagara Falls after spending a few holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McGragne.

Mrs. Robert Bibby has returned home after spending the past three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Millar and infant baby of Toronto spend the week-end at their summer home on the Trent River, Hastings.

EASY WAY TO TREAT SORE, PAINFUL PILES

Here is the chance for every person in Canada suffering from sore, itching, painful piles to try a simple home remedy with promise of a reliable firm to refund the cost of the treatment if you are not satisfied with the results.

Simply go to McDermid & Jury or any I.D.A. or other drug store and get a bottle of Hem-Roid and use as directed. Hem-Roid is an internal treatment, easy and pleasant to use and pleasing results are quickly noticed. Itching and soreness are relieved, pain subsides, and as the treatment is continued the sore, painful pile tumors heal over, leaving the rectal membranes clean and healthy. Get a bottle of Hem-Roid to-day and see for yourself what an easy, pleasant way this is to rid yourself of your pile misery.

NOTE: The sponsor of this notice is a reliable firm, doing business in Canada for over 20 years. If you are troubled with sore, itching, painful piles, Hem-Roid must help you quickly or the small purchase price will be gladly refunded.—(Advt.)

Another proud tradition

Bridal Wreath
THE PROUDEST NAME IN DIAMONDS
For over seven decades the makers of Bridal Wreath rings have had only one standard of diamond quality: Complete perfection in colour, cut, brilliance and flawless clarity. This time-honoured heritage of quality lends lustre to the proudest name in diamonds—a worthy tribute to the wartime bride!
FREE INSURANCE AND BRIDE'S BOOK

Here's WHERE TO GET THAT Ring
SCHNEIDER BROS.
JEWELLERS
367 George Street Phone 7184
Choose a BRIDAL WREATH DIAMOND Ring

"We'll Have the Loveliest Coffee!"

To be sure of full satisfaction in every cup you must use really good coffee

YES—young lovers planning to set up housekeeping for the first time know that lesson. All who really appreciate coffee learned it when coffee was even scarcer than it is today.

And for that reason new thousands who have tried Maxwell House intend to use this famous blend always.

For Maxwell House is so delicious; so fragrant and full-bodied; so completely satisfying. You, too, can make it your regular coffee with every confidence, because:

1. It's blended from rare, extra-flavor coffees, each with its own special quality of flavor, body or fragrance.

2. Roasted by a remarkable process that roasts every single coffee bean evenly all through.

Maxwell House is packed in a Wartime Bag, in an All Purpose Grind and at less cost to you.

Maxwell House Coffee

A Product of General Foods

MH94

Standard of Quality!
RED ROSE TEA "is good tea"
RED ROSE Orange Pekoe Tea is extra good!
449

RICHARD HALL LIMITED

PLAY TOGS for SUMMER

Whether you'll be loafing about on the lawn, swimming or bicycling, digging out in your Victory garden or perhaps just having fun, you'll feel at ease when you know you're properly dressed for all occasions. Now is the time and Hall's is the store. Choose your play togs now and avoid disappointment.

Wool and Rayon
Sweaters
2.98 - 3.95
Wool and rayon pullovers and cardigans, shetland finish. Popular torso length. The cardigan is buttoned down the front and bound with grosgrain ribbon. Colours turquoise, gold, red, navy, powder blue. Sizes 14 to 20.

Floating
Boat Cushions
Buoy-O-Boy safety cushions — Kapok filled — Waterproof. A necessity for canoes, boats, etc.
DOUBLE ............ 2.49
SINGLE ............ 1.29

Cut a Pretty Figure In Algoma Cloth Slacks
And of Course With Appropriate
Jackets to Match

THE SLACKS—Rayon algoma weave with stitched seams and buttoned side closing. Sizes 14 to 20. Colours: brown, Chinese Earth, navy, mineral blue.
THE JACKETS — Rayon algoma weave packets with two patch pockets. They come in the corresponding sizes and colours as the slacks.
2.98 EACH

Larger Sizes 38 to 42
These Summer jackets and slacks are made from the same material and are the same styles as those mentioned above. Colours: mineral blue, brown and navy. Each ............
4.95 EACH

SWIM SUIT NEWS

Start your sun life now in swim suits like these. Silk jersey Ballerinas in white with red, blue with white, green with white, red with white—Rayon jerseys and rayon moire and brocaded dressmaker styles. Colours: red, blue, gold—Cotton seersuckers and prints in colourful patterns—They're all ready for a warm Summer. Are you?

Rayon Poplins
Sizes 14 to 20
And 38 to 44
3.95

Rayon Jersey
Dressmaker styles
Sizes 14 to 20
4.95 - 5.95

Cotton Seersuckers
and Printed Dressmakers
Sizes 14 to 20 and 38 to 44
2.98

Sport Shorts and Shirt
1.98 - 2.98
Shorts of Alpine and spun rayon with choice of inverted pleats front and back, some laced front and no pleats — Others in the tomboy style. Sizes 12 to 20. Colours: navy, red, brown saddle beige.

Shirt 1.49
Firmly woven cotton broadcloth shirts in tailored styles. Colours: white, blue, red, yellow. Ideal to team up with your slacks or shorts. Sizes 12 to 20.

Special! Millinery Clearance
Of Felt and Straw Hats, Regular 2.49 to 6.95
Reduced to Clear
$1.00
Here are Spring hats of exceptionally good value. They're offered at this price because we need the room for our Summer stock. You'll find fashionable models in both straw and felt. All have becoming trimmings and we still have several of the most popular shades and models. An outstanding chance to buy quality at a low price.

Phone 5761 RICHARD HALL LIMITED PHONE 5761

Peterborough Examiner
VOL. LXXXIX, No. 123 FRIDAY, MAY 26

Main Street Topics

WELL-KNOWN TRAVELLER.
Charles E. Fice, 80, well-known shoe traveller in Canada, died in Toronto on Tuesday from a heart seizure. He came to Toronto from Cobourg 60 years ago, and was a member of the Commercial Travellers' Association for 59 years.

INADEQUATE LIGHTS.
A written plea of guilty to a charge of driving a motor vehicle not equipped with proper lights cost Russel Edwards, Indian River, a fine of $2 and $1 costs in police court this morning.

HOME ON LEAVE—Stoker Donald Beatty, R.C.N.V.R., who has been taking a course as electrical artificer at Edmonton, is home on leave, before going to another post, where he will complete the course. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Beatty, Jr., of Warkworth, and before joining the navy he was a student at the University of Toronto.

Crown Withdraws Drunk Charge

Roy Wright, who refused to plead guilty to a third offence drunk charge on Tuesday and in the hearing of whose case yesterday an element of doubt arose as to whether the laneway in which he had been found by the police was a public place, walked out of police court this morning, happy.

When the case was called today Crown Attorney V. J. McElderry, K.C., announced that he wished to withdraw the charge.

"The Crown has asked to withdraw the charge; what have you to say about that?" asked Magistrate Langley.

"What does that mean?" asked Wright.

"It means that you can go," replied the court and Wright smilingly agreed that it was all right with him.

"I think it could be proved, but the Crown has withdrawn it," said Magistrate Langley. You are a lucky man."

H. Barton Re-enlists With Rangers Band

Deprived of his expert services with its bugle band for some months now, the 2nd (R) Battalion, Prince of Wales Rangers, has re-enlisted former Sgt. H. D. Barton, 595 Aylmer street. Sgt. Barton, whose initiative and constant efforts were in a large measure responsible for the peak of efficiency reached by the band unit at the beginning of the year, was compelled to accept a discharge for medical reasons back in January. Now he has got himself in shape again and it with his old regiment once more.

His loss was keenly felt by the bugle band when he left the Rangers four months ago, and many members of the outfit remarked on the falling off of the band's performance coincident with his departure. Now that he has been able to re-enlist as of this week, Sgt. Barton is expected to start a re-organization of the musical unit he formerly directed with such success.

TOP HEAVY
The orang-utang an ape usually as heavy as a man, has exceedingly long and strong arms but his legs are correspondingly weak and small.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY — Shown above is Thomas Allston, 107 Aylmer Street, who recently celebrated his 88th birthday. Born in Colchester, Essex, England. Mr. Allston, a marine engineer, came to Canada in 1917, arriving here after a 15-day journey. He has lived in Peterborough since that time.

RESIGNS FROM STAFF.
Arnold Noftall acting vice-principal of the Prince of Wales school has resigned from the city public school staff to accept a position on the staff of the Port Arthur Collegiate Institute.

HAD NO PERMIT
Driving an automobile without a driver's permit or chauffeur's license cost George Fisher, Asphodel, a fine of $10 and $2.50 costs in police court this morning. A written plea of guilty had been entered to the charge.

NAMED TO BOARD
Miss Margaret Eastwood a member of the Peterborough Public School Staff has been named to the Board of Governors set up under the Teachers' Federation Act. The legislation bringing this board into being was passed at the recent session of the legislature.

BOTH PLEAD GUILTY
Arrested Thursday night on the market square, Odo O'Toole, Indian River, and Frank Traynor, Catchacoma, both pleaded guilty in police court this morning to charges of having been drunk and were fined $10 and $2.50 costs by Magistrate O. A Langley, K.C.

FOUR GO ACTIVE.
Four men, two of whom are from the city, have enlisted this week in the Canadian Active Army. They are Fred Pemberton, 77 Strachan Street, Port Hope; John O'Brien, 636 Union street, Peterborough; Reginald Green, 217 Hunter street; and B. J. Cournoyer of Haliburton.

GREASE FIRE
A quiet two days for the members of the Fire Department was broken early this morning when a call was received at 2:36 a.m. from 531 Douglas avenue, the residence of Louis Thompson. The alarm was caused by a pan of grease set on the stove catching fire, but no damage resulted.

PRINCIPAL APPOINTED.
Herman E. Fawcett, on the staff of the Fort William Vocational School for four years and for 16 years a high school teacher, has been appointed principal of Lakefield High School, replacing J. F. Harvey. He will take over in September. Mr. Fawcett is a Bachelor of Arts and has specialized in English. Thirty-nine years of age, he is the father of two children.

ON TWO CHARGES
Gerald J. Garvey, McDonnel St. who was on an adjournment on a charge of having been drunk on May 12, was arrested again last night on a charge of having been drunk on Charlotte street and had to face both charges in police court this morning. He pleaded not guilty on both counts and sought a further adjournment. Magistrate Langley remanded him until tomorrow morning with bail fixed at $100.

HE GOT AWAY
A sneak thief who showed considerable speed in taking evasive action when he was in danger of being caught, tried to help himself to a handful of neckties from Ed. Riley's store Thursday afternoon. His action was noted by one of the staff and the thief took to his heels. Running out of the store, he dashed up the stairway leading to the offices on the second floor of the building, dropped the stolen ties at the top of the stairs, and made his escape down a rear fire escape.

RECEIVES FIRST LETTER
The first letter he has received from his wife in Italy since Mussolini's declaration of war in June, 1940, was received this week by Frank DeLauro, 428 Mark street. Mrs. De Lauro, who is living with relatives in the re-occupied port of the Italian peninsula, had made preparations to leave for Canada late in May four years ago when the ship's sailing was cancelled and her departure made impossible. Only within the past few months has civilian mail service to and from Italian territory been resumed.

ATTEND FIRE CONFERENCE.
Chief Gimblett of the Peterborough Fire Department and Allan Clark, chief of the Lakefield Fire Department, are among those who will attend a conference at the Parliament Buildings in Toronto next Monday, it has been announced by W. J. Scott Ontario Fire Marshal. The conference has been called to investigate the disastrous Hamilton dance hall fire, and to consider precautionary measures to be taken in the case of establishments that might conceivably be the scene of tragic blazes such as that in Hamilton's Moose Hall.

Obituary

SOLOMON SCHICKLER
Solomon Schickler, Wilberforce farmer who had been staying during the past year at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Percy Scott, 73 Pine street, passed away there Thursday in his 81st year. He had been in ill health about six months.

A resident of Wilberforce since the age of 16, he was born in Waterloo the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Schickler and was a member of the Church of England, Wilberforce. Surviving are his wife, the former Mary Jane Brethauer; one son, John of Wilberforce; and three daughters, Mrs. Percy Scott of this city, Mrs. Robert Elliott of Wilberforce and Mrs. Eric Anders of Toronto. Two sisters, Mrs. John Conaghan and Mrs. Hugh Conaghan reside in Toronto; and a brother, Amos is living in Colonna, B.C.

The body is resting at the Nisbett Funeral Home, 347 Charlotte street, until Saturday morning; and the funeral, in the Church of England, Wilberforce, will take place on Sunday at 2 p.m. Interment is to be made in the church cemetery.

RED FOR ADAPTIBILITY
Red goggles have been developed so that eyes can be adapted for night vision more quickly in a lighted room than in darkness.

HOME FROM ITALY — Among those who arrived in Kingston on Thursday, May 25, after being invalided home from overseas were, Left to Right, Gunner F. J. LaFrance, Peterborough; Trooper L. McCartney, Peterborough; Sgt. K. S. Spence, Lindsay; Pte. H. A. Roper, Lindsay; Gunner E.P. Phillips, Fenelon Falls; Gunner C. A. McCue, Curve Lake, and Pte. J. J. McFadden, Peterborough.
(Canadian Army Photo)

14 Teachers Are Appointed To City Staffs

Thirteen teachers were appointed to the staff of the Peterborough Public Schools at a special meeting of the Board of Education on Thursday night, and one appointment was made to the staff of the Collegiate Institute and Vocational Training School.

Notice was received from the Department of Education that the Minister had approved of the agreement between the Board of Education and the School Board of North Monaghan whereby the City Board can take over May's and Confederation Schools on July 1. The agreement also provides that all children of school age now in the section, which includes the area to be annexed and an outside area, will be permitted attend the schools as designated by the Inspector until June 30, 1945.

Take in Two Schools.
Eight teachers of the present staff of May's and Confederation Schools were named to the city staff—seven to the permanent and one for a year. The salaries to be paid will include the promised increases. Those named to the permanent staff and who will get the annual increases up to the maximum and also the cost of living bonus are: James Burns $1,900, Miss Mildred Brown $1,400, Miss Helen Savigny $1,250, Miss Olive Day $1,200, Miss Ethel Garbutt $1,400, Miss Olive Johnston $1,350, Miss Vera Squire $1,350, Mrs. Ethel Sheehy $1,100.

Mrs. T. J. Jackson, veteran teacher of Confederation School, was appointed for one year at a salary of $1,600 plus bonus.

Named to City Staff.
Earl A. Drury of Kirkfield and H. B. Cunningham of Cobourg were appointed to the Public School staff at a salary of $1,400 each plus the bonus, and Miss Eleanor Drury of Emo, Miss Grace Westcott of Holt, and Miss Laura Asherhurst of Warsaw were named to the same staff at a salary of $1,150 plus the $100 bonus.

Ross Rutherford and Arnold Olmstead, now on the teaching staff, were appointed acting vice-principal with salary according to schedule commencing September 1, and the appointment of Mr. Burns was confirmed as vice-principal.

Mrs. Jeanette Payne, now on the temporary staff, was named to the permanent staff, and the appointment of Mrs. Glen Webber was renewed for another year.

Increases were granted Miss Marjorie Oliver and Miss Marian Beals to bring their salaries into line with the recent appointments.

Percy Noble was appointed to the caretaking staff at a salary of $1,200 plus full cost of living bonus; and Smith Brothers was awarded the contract to paint the exterior of Queen Alexandra School.

E. P. Ray of Simcoe was appointed to the staff of the Collegiate Institute at a salary of $2,500, with increases according to schedule.

NO COD SHORTAGE
The cod is one of the most prolific of fish, a female 39 or 40 inches long producing 3,000,000 eggs.

FLYING OVERSEAS — Pilot Officer Archie Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wilson, R.R. 3, Peterborough, is serving overseas. He enlisted in March of 1943, and graduated at Dafoe, Sask. PO. Wilson is a graduate of the Peterborough Collegiate.

Chamber Of Commerce To Conduct Post War Planning Survey In City

Decision to undertake a post-war planning survey of Peterborough and vicinity along lines similar to the one just completed by Kitchener-Waterloo was made at Thursday evening's meeting of the directorate of the Chamber of Commerce just as soon as the report and methods of procedure are released to the public. Results obtained in Kitchener with the full co-operation of all service clubs and women's organizations were most successful and covered almost every angle to the picture, such as employment situation, intention of the public with regard to post-war purchases, the position of the farming community, post-war plans for municipal projects and wartime changes in purchasing power in the survey area. This project it is expected will get under way in the course of a few weeks.

The housing situation was another problem the board discussed at length when the secretary suggested the Chamber might endeavour to form a group of representative citizens prepared to sponsor the building of some 50 better type homes in the city, but with the many uncertainties ahead no definite assurance of the employment situation, no action was taken. However, the board went on record as recommending to Wartime Housing Ltd. if any more houses are to be built in Peterborough, that they be of a better and more permanent type under supervision of a capable planner.

Report of the recent convention in Toronto of members of the Aeronautical Institute was given by Alderman Ovens. He stressed the part that landing fields would play in place of airports in the smaller centres to serve as feeder lines to the Trans-Canada and American Air Lines. Several excellent sights for such a landing field exist around Peterborough, and the average cost of such a field equipped as a passenger depot and service station for planes, but no hangars, runs, around $40,000.00. The directors were unanimously in favour of such a field for Peterborough as another post-war project, and were prepared to co-operate and support the work of the City Council along this line. It was the opinion of the board, that closer contact and co-operation between the Chamber and the City Council was not only desirable, but most necessary in the tackling and successful completion of many of post-war problems.

Plans Completed For Meeting Of Bay Of Quinte Conference

The committee to make the final arrangements for the Bay of Quinte Conference of the United Church of Canada met in St. James 'church Thursday. Rev. F. W. Craik presided and present were Revs. J. E. Glover, J. W. Williamson, A. L. Sisco, H. L. Roberts, H. J. Mahoney, E. W. Rowland, E. W. Young, Mrs. Elizabeth Hawley, Alpine MacNabb and I. H. Keefer.

The chairman reported that he had received word from 287 delegates that they intended to come, these had been appointed to billets provided by the different congregations in the city and neighborhood. Dr. E. W. Young reported that the Peterborough Ministerial Association which brings greeting on Tuesday, June 6, will be represented by Revs. W. A. Filer and J. H. Sutcliffe, and that Most Rev. Derwyn Trevor Owen, D.D., D.C.L., Archbishop and Primate of Canada will accompany the deputation and will give a brief address. His Worship the Mayor James Hamilton, will bring greetings on behalf of the City Council at 9.15 p.m. The Ministerial Association at 9.30 p.m. Dr. Young was appointed to introduce these delegations. He also reported satisfactory interviews with the City Clerk, E. A. Outram, and Inspector James Reid, about parking arrangements.

Rev. H. L. Roberts was appointed to arrange with the Boy Scouts to be present at 4.30 p.m. on Tuesday afternoon to guide the delegates to their billets.

The chairman read the list of churches for the provision of meals, Tuesday night Knox 150, St. Andrew's 100, Wednesday midday, St. James' 150. St. Andrew's 100, evening, St. James' 150, St. Andrew's 100, Thursday midday Mark Street 250, George Street banquet at night. Friday midday St. Andrew's 100. It was arranged to ask the bus company to provide transportation to Mark Street and St. James' churches.

All the committees of the conference will meet in St. Andrew's church. Rev. J. G. Gilkey, D.D., of Springfield, Mass., U.S.A., will be the guest speaker, and will give addresses at 9.30 a.m. each morning, and at 2 o'clock on Wednesday. The public are invited to be present on these occasions; they will also be welcomed at any of the sessions of conference to hear the debates. The evening sessions on Tuesday and Wednesday will be of special interest. The chief social event of the week will be the layman's banquet in George Street church Thursday at 6.30, when Wilson MacDonald, Canadian Poet will be the speaker.

The meeting for Laymen will be held in St. Andrew's church on Wednesday at 2 p.m., and for ministers in the conference church at the same hour. The public meeting on Wednesday wil be addressed by Dr. L.Winnifred Bryce of India, and Dr. R. B. Cochrane of Toronto.

Other church officers from Toronto who will speak are Rev. George Williams, John Cobwen, J. I. MacKay, C. A. Myers and Mr. Ray S. Bedford.

The conference will be held in Trinity church. Dr. George S. Easton is president, Rev. J J. Black, acting president, Rev. James E. Bickell, secretary, and Rev. John E. Glover, B.A., treasurer.

The conference includes within its membership the following Presbyteries: Belleville, Cobourg, Kingston, Lindsay, Oshawa, Peterborough and Renfrew. Every minister in these Presbyteries is a member, and the number of laymen who are members is equal to that of the ministers. The list of delegates and their hosts will be printed in the Examiner in a few days. Rev. E. W. Rowand was appointed to arrange the platform for the sessions of the conference.

War Job For The Down Of The Milk Weed Is More Important Than Beauty Of Sylvia's Hair

Milkweed down is likely to assume next autumn more practical importance than as the poetic phrase of euphony paying figurative tribute to the soft tresses of Sylvia. In fact, the gossamer which wafts the milkweed seed down the gentlest breeze is likely to go to war, possibly as an auxiliary of the air force.

Frank Paterson, agricultural representative, informed The Examiner this morning that he is now making the rounds of the first milkweed plantation ever made in this country other than by the careless hand of nature. The plants are making second-year growth, but that is for the purpose of synthetic rubber.

"The down of the milkweed after it bursts its pods is required as a substitute or alternative for kapok to be used in life belts and aviators' service uniforms," Mr. Patterson said. "It is extremely light and warm, and is especially adapted for life belts. A recent departmental suggestion has been considering a general campaign by the children next fall to gather the milkweed pods for their down content, and offer a pretty good price to enlist the active efforts of the young folks who would be taking a direct part in the war. I understand that the down would be purchased for United States account. However, the autumn is quite a long way off yet, and who can tell what may intervene by the time the milkweed seeds of the 1944 crop are ready to take the air."

In regard to the milkweed plantation contracts that were made by the department with a group of district farmers last year, Mr. Paterson said that all but the poorest, the least promising fields, are being retained; farmers are being asked to do certain cultivating, and a circular letter of instruction and advice will be sent out to all the contracting farmers within a few days.

"One thing I have already observed," Mr. Paterson said, "is that some of the seeds that did not make any growth or germination last year now appear to be coming through. You can tell them, I think, because they are only tiny plants compared with those which had come through last year."

Plans Prepared For PWR Camp This Summer

A one week's refresher course early in June, in preparation for the summer camp to be held this year between July 23 and August 6, will be taken at Connaught Rangers by members of the Training Staff of the 2nd (R) Battalion, Prince of Wales Rangers, it was announced at headquarters of the regiment in the Armouries today. The personnel participating will not only brush up on existing plans and methods of camp training, but will take in new features recently added to the regular program.

Battalion officers are hopeful of obtaining a much greater number of men for the summer camp this year, and the vacation shut-downs announced for several of the city's most important manufacturing industries engaged in war production appear to a large extent to be coinciding with the plans of the Rangers for their annual camp at Connaught Ranges.

Managers of Peterborough plants from which the Rangers draw the great proportion of the reserve soldiers enlisted in their ranks are co-operating with the regiment in urging the attendance of all the members in their employ wherever possible, and helping to make it plain that where vacations came at the time the summer camp is being held, men have an obligation to take part in the battalion's training outing.

As Major V. M. Eastwood pointed out this morning, members of the Reserve Army are divided into two classes and two classes only. "There are those," he said, "who are indispensable and vital to war production activities and not available except in the event of a national emergency, but who can carry out training at local headquarters; and the other class, comprising all the rest, are those available for any training, including camp training and all occasions when the unit may be called up."

The definition of war work, Major Eastwood said, embraced only those plants that have a contract with the government and did not include industries, often termed essential, whose connection with the war effort was merely of the indirect sort. He added, however, that it was of course conceivable that instances might arise where attendance at the summer camp could be an actual hardship or a detriment to personal endeavour; and here the individual case would be judged separately on its own merits. Men unable to attend camp are required to make up the time in parades at the local headquarters.

PRISONER OF WAR — Pte. Lloyd George Spinks, the second Peterborough soldier reported missing during the fighting in Sicily in July, 1943, was reported today in the Army casualty list to be a German prisoner of war. His wife lives at 17 High Street, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Spinks, Lansdowne Avenue.

Market Stall Is Working For War Victims

The headlines of today's feature on behalf of the Peterborough and District British War Victims' Fund is one which concerns both the past and present tense, for it tells of what has been accomplished and also of the immediate hopes for the future when it resumes work in this particular at this Saturday morning's market.

The fruits of the earth are given by an Almighty hand for man's benefit, so it would seem appropriate in the extreme that they should be utilized to give aid to a suffering humanity on whom the curse of war has fallen in the nature of destruction by bombs from the enemy planes in the skies, and this effort which is run by the fund management itself is worthy of all the support that citizens can give to it, for all the entire proceeds are used for this one purpose alone.

This Saturday, two senior girls from Prince of Wales School through the kind arranging of P. D. Windrim their principal, will be on hand to act as sales clerks, and in addition to the supplies from the secretary's own garden, a number of potted plants from the Little Lake Cemetery greenhouse through the kindness of F. Kitney and I. Harrison will be offered for sale.

Among these will be a box each of Hollyhocks, Columbine and Love in a Mist, the latter from seed originating in the Old Land, and there will be potted varieties to include feathered columbine, Japanese Iris and Prince of Wales feathers.

Total This Season Reaches $28.95
Last Saturday two senior girls Edith Miller and Marjorie Lewers from King George School acted as sales clerks and gave very good service, and it should be mentioned that Edith Miller's mother brought a personal interest to bear on the day's proceeds by bringing two dozen tulip blooms which added nicely to the returns and found a ready sale.

Among last weeks offerings were boxed plants donated by the Peterborough Floral Co., some pots of sage given by R. R. Ford, and Anthony's Store under the clock assisted with a cash donation, the total returns for the week-end amounting to $10.35, which added to previous returns, now makes a total of $28.95 that has come to the fund this season thus far, from this particular feature on its behalf. Donations in kind to sell on behalf of the objects the fund seeks to serve will be gratefully received, and same can be brought to the stall any time after 9 a.m. on Saturday.

Last Lap of School Year
School students have now started on the last lap of this school year, and the fund management would like to suggest that they plan to give a helping hand as a school or class, to the people of Britain through this fund, before parting company to spend the summer vacation on their own.

Central School pupils have taken the spotlight on a number of occasions already this year, and another assist comes from them today, with Miss Beal's class Grade 3 adding another $1.50 to the previous good record established by them in the past.

| | |
|---|---|
| Previously acknowledged | $76,319.82 |
| Proceeds of sale of plants and seeds at Market Stall per Edith Miller and Marjorie Lewers | 10.35 |
| Miss Beal's Class, Grade 3, Central School | 1.50 |
| Total to date | $76,331.67 |

A Nazi Claim

LONDON, May 26 — (CP) — A broadcast German communique today claimed that a Soviet air attack on a German convoy off northern Norway resulated in Nazi fighters shooting down 68 out of 80 attacking aircraft. Another plane was brought down by escort vessels in the convoy, the communique said.

Earlier the Berlin radio said the action took place last night off Nordkyn, at the extreme northern tip of Norway, about 200 airline miles northwest of the Soviet port of Murmansk.

Need More Ships

WASHINGTON, May 26 — (CP) — Reinforcing the Navy's promises that "vast amphibious operations lie ahead," the United States Senate passed and sent to the White House yeserday legislation authorizing the construction of an additional 1,000,000 tons of landing craft and other small vessels. The cost of the extra tonnage is estimated at $1,800,000,000.

Moscow Sympathetic

MOSCOW, May 26 — (CP-Reuters) — Sympathy for Britain in connection with the shooting by Germany of British and Dominion Prisoners of War was expressed yesterday by the newspaper, Izvestia.

War—4 Years Ago

By The Canadian Press
May 26., 1940— Gen. Sir John Dill replaced Sir Edmund Ironside as commander of the Imperial General Staff. Germans captured Calais and British Admiralty announced loss of destroyer Wessex off French coast. British Empire observed day of prayer.

NURSE OVERSEAS — Lieut. Anne Heffernan, whose parents reside near Norwood, is serving overseas with the R.C.A.M.C. Before enlisting in September, 1943, she was working in a Montreal hospital. Lieut. Heffernan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Heffernan, near Norwood.

Soldier's Mother Dies Of Heart Attack

Mrs. Frank Peters, 112 Hurley street, North Monaghan, the mother of Victor Thomas Peters, Peterborough soldier who was killed December 16 during the battle of Ortona, and of Pte. Frank Peters, seriously wounded last summer in Sicily and now in the military hospital at Kingston, passed away suddenly last night in her 53rd year.

The tragic death of her son, who was mortally wounded when a chance German shell struck in an area behind the frontlines in Italy last December, was the second piece of shocking news to be received by this mother, three of whose five sons have worn the uniform of His Majesty's Canadian Army. Frank, her second son, was the first Peterborough casualty reported in the Sicilian campaign.

Mrs. Peters, born in Peterborough Mary Ethel Blodgett, the daughter of the late Thomas Blodgett and Alice Carey, was a resident of the district all her life. She was a member of the Church of the Sacred Heart, and a very active worker in its affairs, belonging to the Altar Society and the Catholic Women's League.

Left to mourn her loss are her husband, Frank Peters; her sons, Pte. Frank in Kingston, James serving overseas in Italy, and Raymond and Gerald at home; and five daughters, Mrs. F. James (Kathleen), Mrs. F. Alley (Madeline), Mrs. A. R. Crossman (Marion), and Teresa and June, all of Peterborough. Also remaining are two sisters, Mrs. L. Thompson of Peterborough and Mrs. P. Russell of Toronto.

The funeral will be held from the Bert Duffus Funeral Home, 431 George street south, on Monday at 8:45 a.m. to the Church of the Sacred Heart for requiem mass at nine o'clock. Interment will be made in St. Peter's Cemetery.

ELOQUENT MEMORIAL
The saxaphone is named after its inventor, Adolph Sax.

HAS CROSSED ATLANTIC — Sgt. James Healey, R.C.A.F., son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Healey, Douro, is serving overseas. He received his wings at Lethbridge and before enlisting was employed at the Western Clock Company.

COLLECTION OF ASHES
GARBAGE DEPT.
Commencing Monday, May 29th, ashes will be collected once weekly on the last day of the weekly collections.
EXCEPTION—Areas where present collection is on Wednesdays and Saturdays ashes will be collected on the Wednesday.
G. G. TORRENCE,
Supt. of Collections

The Examiner

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES

Cash with order. 1½c per word per insertion; 35c minimum for first insertion; 45c minimum with box number.

If paid within five days, 2c per word per insertion.

After five days, 2½c per word per insertion.

Refunds must be claimed within thirty days.

The names and addresses of boxholders are confidential and cannot be given under any circumstances.

THE PETERBOROUGH EXAMINER reserves the right to classify, edit or reject any classified advertising copy. Read your ad at the first insertion. The Examiner will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion. Copy accepted up to 1 p.m. each day for insertion the same day except Saturdays when copy must reach the Examiner before 10 a.m.

| | |
|---|---|
| Birth Notice | 75c |
| Card of Thanks | 75c |
| Engagement Notice | 75c |
| Marriage Notice | 75c |
| Death Notice | 75c |
| In Memoriam | 75c |

The above charge is for 50 words—over 50 words 2c per word is charged. Coming Events — First insertion 20 words or less minimum charge 50c. Subsequent consecutive insertions 40c per insertion. Over 20 words, 2c per extra word per insertion.

TELEPHONE 4641.

Births Marriages In Memoriam Cards of Thanks Deaths

BIRTH

MOHER—Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Moher wish to announce the birth of a son on May 22, 1944 at St. Joseph's Hospital.

BOYD—Mr. and Mrs. Russell Boyd (nee Verna Bradley) wish to announce the birth of their son, Kenneth John, at St. Joseph's Hospital on May 25, 1944.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. David McGrath, Roseneath, Ont., announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Joan to Joseph Charboneau only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charboneau of Ottawa, Ont., the marriage will take place quietly in Ottawa, June 9th.

DIED

PETERS, Mrs. Frank—At the residence, 112 Hurley St., North Monaghan, Mary Ethel Blodgett, beloved wife of Frank Peters and mother of Mrs. F. James, Mrs. F. Alley, Mrs. A. R. Crossman, Teresa, Junie, Pte. Frank, Pte. James, and Raymond and Gerald Peters.

Funeral from Bert Duffus Funeral Home, 8.45 a.m. Monday to Sacred Heart Church for Mass at nine o'clock.

Interment St. Peter's Cemetery.

PRINGLE—Suddenly in Ottawa on May 24, 1944, Ada Jane Rapsey widow of the late William Pringle, formerly of Peterborough.

Remains will arrive in Peterborough Saturday morning. Funeral Service will be held at the Comstock Funeral Home, 305 Water St. on Saturday, May 27, at 1.30 p.m. Interment Little Lake Cemetery.

SCHICKLER—Solomon, on Thursday, May 25, 1944, at the residence of his daughter Mrs. Percy Scott, 73 Pine Street, Solomon Schickler, beloved husband of Mary Jane Brethouer.

Resting at the Nisbett Funeral Home, 347 Charlotte St., until Saturday morning. Funeral on Sunday, May 28, at 2 p.m. from the Anglican Church, Wilberforce. Interment Wilberforce Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

MORROW—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Fred Morrow, who passed away five years ago to-day.

"Gone but not forgotten".

—Remembered by his Wife and Family.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. A. Darling wishes to thank the attending doctors, nurses and aids at Nicholls Hospital for their kindness, also the W. A. of Lakefield United Church, those who called, sent flowers and fruit, and for the many kind messages received during her stay there.

FLORISTS

ASHBURY'S WEDDING AND FUNERAL FLOWERS Phone 4982—Nights 3054 316 Charlotte

TURNBULL'S FLOWERS LIMITED 441 George Phone 7583—Nights 3257

COMING EVENTS

First insertion, 20 words or less, minimum charge 50c. Subsequent consecutive insertions, 40c per insertion. All over 20 words, 2c per extra word per insertion.

BRING YOUR FRIENDS TO Nick's Dance Hall, Saturday, a good time for all. Good Music. Light lunches.

RESERVE MONDAY, JUNE 5 FOR R. C. A. F. Auxiliary Bingo. Exceptionally good prizes. 30 games. Tickets 25c.

THE SOLDIERS CIGARETTE Bingo will be held tonight in the Legion Hall, at 8.15. The main prize will be $36.00 with other good prizes of cash and goods. The names of thirty-six sailors, soldiers, airmen and C.W.A.C.'s will be drawn from the box. Admission 25c. Extra card 10c.

In Memoriam Verses

A booklet from which In Memoriam verses may be selected is available at the Advertising counter of The Examiner. Telephone Classified Dept. 4641.

Coming Events

(Continued from Preceding Col.)

PENNY SALE. FINAL DRAW AT Headquarters, 336 George Street, Monday, May 29, at 10 p.m. auspices Nicholls Hospital, Women's Auxiliary.

RUMMAGE SALE ON SATURDAY by a group of St. James' Sunday School opposite Capitol.

57th REGIMENT CHAPTER, I.O.D.E., Rummage sale, Saturday, May 27. Open at 9 across from Hood and Cummings.

K. OF C. BINGO, SATURDAY, May 27 at 8.30. Thirty games, 3 cards for 35c. 2 door prizes.

DIAMOND ANNIVERSARY OF St. Paul's Ladies' Aid will be held, June 2, at 8 o'clock in the Church a fine program has been arranged. Everybody welcome.

WORKERS AND UNEMPLOYED, Bingo Tonight, Moose Hall, 8.15. "Prizes" $40.00 cash, Esmond, Woolcot and other good quality Blankets, Bedlinens, Kitchen-linens, End tables, Magazine Racks, Hassocks, Lamps, Fancy Cushions, Chromeware, Cookware, 32-piece Luncheon Sets, Reversible Comforters, Bed Spreads, 8-day Mantel Clock, and other good prizes. Names of Men and Women serving in the Armed Forces overseas will be drawn, and three hundred cigarettes sent to each. Admission 25c. Extra card 10c.

DANCE AT RYE'S PAVILION, Saturday, May 27. Graydon Orchestra, Modern and Old Time dancing. Admission 35c. Gents 50c. Tune in CHEX 9.00 to 9.30.

BINGO AT THE ORANGE HALL, Saturday, 8.15. 30 games, 5 freeze outs. Large Cash Prize on 13th Game, Substantial Cash prize on 10, 20 and 30th Game. Come and bring your friends.

RESERVE THE DATE, JUNE 8th, for the Grenfell Mission Garden Party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Langley, Burnham street. Home Cooking table. Also sale of stationery.

"BAND CONCERT" AFTER Church, Collegiate Auditorium, Sunday, May 28th 8.30 p.m. 35-piece Girls and Boys Band, assisted by outstanding Violinist and Saxophonist and Mixed Brass Party. Bandmaster R. G. Routly, Temple Band Chairman. Silver Collection.

PERSONALS

"SLENDOR TABLETS" — HARMLESS and effective. Two weeks' supply $1.00, $5.00. At Buchanan's, Finn's, and McLeod's Drug Store.

AVON REPRESENTATIVE. 848 BETHUNE. Telephone 3194.

SPIRELLA REPRESENTATIVES— 3011, 3150, 5151.

WANT TO LOCATE RELATIVES OR Surviving Heirs of Charles A. Wilson, born in Peterborough, May 1, 1860. Had four older brothers and four older sisters. Mr. Wilson was living in Minnesota in 1890. Write Lock Box 190, Terminal A, Toronto.

RAWLEIGH'S PRODUCTS. 360 SIMCOE Telephone 3055.

FULLER BRUSH REPRESENTATIVE Telephone 9778.

FULLER SALESMAN — F. DAWE, 451 Water. Telephone 4789.

Custom Tailoring

DOES YOUR COAT OR SUIT NEED Altering? Have it done now. Tony Pepe, Greene Building. Dial 4295.

Piano Tuning

WILLIAM POTTER, PIANO TUNING and Repairing (formerly Heintzman) Dial 9462.

PIANO TUNING AND REPAIRING — Fred Walker, Heintzman & Company, Toronto. Mail orders to CHEX or Telephone 9496.

3a Hairdressers 3a

SPECIALS — END PERMANENTS $1.00 up. Oil Permanents $2.50 up. Downer's. Dial 8874.

SPECIALS — $8.50 VAPOR PERMANent for $7.00. $7.00 Machineless Permanent for $4.00. Includes Shampoo, Hairstyle Cut and Scientific testing. Telephone 5311. Paris Beauty Salon.

EXTRA SPECIAL OIL WAVE, $6.50 FOR $5.00. Rosanne Beauty Salon, Kresge Building. Dial 8837.

MARY MARINO SUGGESTS FOR FINE Dry, Hard-to-curl Hair, one of her better Oil Waves at $7.50. Other Oil Waves from $3.50 up. Dial 8663.

FOR SALE

4 Miscellaneous 4

KITCHEN CABINET 30 DUMBLE Avenue.

FURNITURE AND GIFTS — 3-PIECE Chesterfields $99.00, $33.00 down, $7.38 per month for 10 months; 6-Piece Breakfast Suites, $69.95, $23.95 down, $6.44 per month for 8 months; Ornaments, 19c up; Cushions, $1.79; Mirrors, $3.50 up; Electric Heating Pads, $7.45; Table Lamps, $5.95 up; Vases, 29c up; Artificial Flowers, 19c per Spray up; Play Pens, $5.95; Bassinettes, $11.95. F. H. Johnston, corner George and McDonnel. Telephone 4697.

MINNOWS, DEW WORMS. 172 ADELINE Street.

CABINET RADIO 149 LAKE STREET.

RUG, 6' 9" x 8' 8", GOOD, CLEAN Barrymore. Telephone 8872.

DOG KENNEL, SHINGLED, REMOVable front. 4717.

PLAYER PIANO, WITH ROLLS AND Bench, in good condition. Sacrifice. Parks' Studio, 208 Charlotte.

SHORT FUR JACKET, OPOSSUM, never worn. 213 Stewart.

MEAT BLOCK, 2 TOLEDO SCALES, Platform Scale, Meat Grinder, Bar Register. 521 Reid.

MARBLE TOPPED COUNTER 8 x 2½ feet, large drawers. W. Wolff, Harwood.

QUEBEC COOK STOVE (JEWEL) WITH Warming Top, heavy nickel trim, good baker, Pipes and Elbows. Bargain. Other useful articles. 276 Dalhousie Street.

HEATING COILS for Stove or Furnace $2.50
LAUNDRY TUBS (2 Section) $18.25
HOT WATER BOILERS $11.75
Complete Line of Plumbing and Heating Materials.
The Peterborough Metal Co.

WOOD LATHE, WITH TOOLS AND Attachments. Telephone 3802.

SEWING MACHINE 58 HOWDEN Avenue.

FOR SALE

4 Miscellaneous 4

RADIO, DEFOREST-CROSLEY, EIGHT-Tube, good condition. 359 Aylmer, Upper Apartment.

WICKER FERN STANDS, 3.95

3-PIECE CHESTERFIELD SUITES ........ 49.00 Up

1 WALNUT FINISHED DRESSER—3 good drawers, bevel plate mirror ........ 10.00

WALNUT TABLE ........ 4.00

ONE 6-PIECE ENGLISH SEMI-PORCELAIN CHAMBER SET ........ 3.50

GOOD DROP BACK COUCH with figured repp covering ........ 16.50

COAL AND WOOD RANGE 18.50 to 49.00

CHERNEY BROS. Trade-In Store
383 WATER STREET
TELEPHONE 9765

NEW REMINGTON TRIPLE HEAD Electric Razor. 578 Charlotte.

RIPSAW TABLE, SELF-FEEDER, and 7½ H.P. MOTOR AND STARTER.
The Peterborough Metal Co.
256 Simcoe Street.

ICE-BOX. 396 ARMSTRONG DRIVE (Hatton Property).

ELECTRIC STOVE, FOUR-BURNER; Large Lawn Roller; Large Bookcase. Telephone 5461.

HOT WATER FURNACE, IN GOOD condition. Teelphone 9055.

BICYCLE PARTS, FRAME, FRONT and Back Wheels. 207 King George Street.

WASHER SERVICE

If your Washer needs repair call us! We repair all makes—electric or engine drive. It pays to protect your appliance. We carry a complete line of repairs including wringer rolls and motors.

If you are interested in disposing of your washer, we will gladly value it for you.

GIBBONS & KNOX
332 George Phone 3129

NEW CHROME CHAIRS. TELEPHONE 9490. Elliott's Stationery and Advertising.

ELECTRIC RANGE, IN GOOD CONdition, $49.00 Telephone 4967.

WARDROBE TRUNK, ELECTRIC IRON and Collapsible Ironing Board. Telephone 5143, between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m only.

SPRING-FILLED STUDIO COUCH, with Wardrobe, new condition. 605 Rubidge Street, Evenings.

CHILDREN'S TABLE, CHAIRS, AND Rocking Chair. 570 Romaine.

THREE-BURNER GAS STOVE, WITH Oven. 443 Mark.

CHIPPAWA POTATOES, FROM CERtified Seed—Large $1.50 Bag, Small $1.25. Mrs. E. Howson, Route 8, Telephone 7069.

$15.00 DAYS END TOMORROW
STILL MANY ATTRACTIVE BARGAINS
BLACK'S
GEORGE AT KING
TELEPHONE 6812

NEW CAMP BED AND MATTRESS. Telephone 7518.

YOUTH'S SUIT, 16 TO 18. CHEAP. 9387.

HEINTZMAN & COMPANY PIANO, good tone, Tuned and Delivered. Parks' Studio, 208 Charlotte

DOUBLE BED, SPRING AND MATtress 474 Aylmer. 4384.

MINNOWS AND DEW WORMS. 1035 Water.

NEW 303 SAVAGE RIFLE AND 45 Shells for same. Apply Calvin Chard, Cordova Mines.

ICE-BOX, GOOD CONDITION. 540 Waterford.

BLACKSMITH'S PORTABLE FORGE, practically new. 5280.

GERHARD HEINTZMAN, PERFECT condition. Write Box 227, Examiner.

SOLID OAK 8-PIECE DINING-ROOM Suite. Telephone 4942

POTATOES, TELEPHONE 5069.

25-FT. INBOARD MOTOR BOAT. 160 Parkhill Road East.

MODERN 3-BURNER WHITE ENAMEL Gas Range, also White Enamel Coal and Wood Range, both like new. Telephone 8249. 466 Cambridge

POTATOES, $1.50 BAG, DELIVERED. Telephone 5132

IVY-CREME
for
POISON IVY.
Itchy, Watery Poison Ivy Rash quickly checked with IVY-CREME
DIAL 8734
MILLER'S DRUG STORE
Corner Charlotte and Downie.

BEDROOM SUITE, USED 3 MONTHS, Walnut, 4 Pieces. Owner leaving town. Bargain for quick sale — no dealers. 486 Wellington.

CLASSIFIED ADS BRING QUICK RESULTS

FOR SALE

Plants and Flowers

TULIPS, 50c A DOZEN. 196 PERRY.

TOMATO PLANTS, STURDY, HARDened, Improved John Baer, by the Box; discount on large lots. Mrs. G. Westman, Port Hope Highway. Telephone 7054

5 Dogs, Cats, Birds, Etc. 5

DOGS BOARDED. HEDGLEY KENnels Port Hope Highway. Telephone 4906

7 Livestock and Poultry 7

12 DURHAM YEAR-OLDS P. M. CONdon, Douro.

FIVE DURHAM STEERS, 3 YEARS old. Pete Doherty, Route 1, Indian River.

DURHAM BULL, 14 MONTHS OLD. Arthur Charlton, Route 4, Peterborough.

PURE-BRED DURHAM BULL, 1½ years old. 100 Barred Rock Roosters, 6 weeks old. Telephone 4035. William Thompson.

THREE REGISTERED ABERDEEN-Angus Bulls, Two Show Bulls and One Thirteen-month-old Bull, suitable for Grade Herd. Cheap for quick Sale. Telephone 8355.

SIX YOUNG PIGS, 36-41, KEENE.

30 LAYING HENS. TELEPHONE 9438.

SEVEN DURHAM 2-YEAR-OLD CATTLE One Young Durham Cow, due to freshen, 4-year-olds Melville Freeburn, one mile west Young's Point.

MATCHED TEAM PERCHERON MARES 3 and 4 years old; 1 Clyde Gelding, 4 years, quiet and well broken. Harold Ray, Warsaw.

YOUNG PIGS SMITH BROTHERS, Fraserville.

Baby Chicks

WE MAY ONLY BE HATCHING TO order soon, so if you want June-July Chicks they should be ordered now. We have some for immediate delivery in some breeds, and for June, started heavy breed Pullets. Bray Hatchery, 364 Water. Dial 3834.

BARRED ROCK BABY CHICKS, 10c. Telephone 6090

7x Farmers' Needs and Supplies 7x

AUTO TRACTOR, ON RUBBER. ALLAN Downs, Springville.

WHITE STAR POTATOES $1.40 BAG. Telephone 8063.

LIGHT DELIVERY WAGON APPLY Jackson Brothers, 212 Hunter Street. Teelphone 3478.

ECLIPSE DOUBLE PLOW, PRACTIcally new; Disc Colters; Deering Mower, five-foot cut; McCormick Manure Spreader. Telephone 4093.

ONE - HORSE MOWER, MASSEY-Harris, good condition. Dial 6633

NEW WHEELBARROW, SCUFFLER with Attachments. Telephone 5355.

MANURE SPREADER, GOOD WORKing order. W. Waterman, Fraserville.

ERBAN OATS. DIAL 6020.

TRACTOR CUSTOM WORK. C. M McInroy, 4511

EXPERT TRACTOR PLOUGHING AND Cultivating. Two Tractors at your service. 319 McDonnel or Telephone Art O'Halloran 7781.

ONE ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION Milk Cooling Unit. Will handle up to 10 Cans of Milk at one cooling. Price complete installed, including Electrical wiring, $298.00 cash. Terms if desired. Guaranteed one year. F. H. Johnston, corner of George and McDonnel, Peterborough.

8 Real Estate 8

Brick, 9 Rooms, 3-Piece Bath, Furnace, ideal for Duplex Possession soon ........ $3,800
Brick, 7 Rooms, 3-piece bath. Possession July 1. Easy terms ........ $3,700
100 Acres, 80 working, Brick House, barn stone foundation, 2 silos, Hydro ........ $5,500
M. STOREY
374½ George St. Telephone 6573

$4,000—Modern 7 Room Pressed Brick, South.
$2,500—5 Room Frame Cottage, Dublin Street.
$3,000—5 Room Cottage, Murray Street.
$4,700—Double House, West, one side vacant August 1st, $1,200 down.
$3,500—6 Roomed Brick, Perry Street, vacant now
$11,500—Modern Home, West-end — owner leaving City.
Owing to death of Owner, I have one of the best Guest and Tourist Homes in Ontario—13 Rooms, beautiful grounds, on main highway to the Kawartha Lakes. Possession July 1st.
A. E. THOMPSON, REALTOR, Kresge Building. Telephone 7284

BEAUTIFUL HIGHLAND HEIGHTS

Get your Post-war Home Site Now in East City's New and Coming Sub-Division, and Buy an Extra Lot or Two for an Investment.

TERMS $10.00 DOWN, $5.00 MONTHLY UNTIL PAID
PRICE $100 to $200 EACH
Location East of Armour Road, North of McFarlane Street.
Plans at the Office of
J. A. GIBBS, 141 Hunter St. 3843.

120-Acre Farm, 85 Acres Best of Clay loam soil, no stones or stumps, tractor all, 20 Acres timber, pine, oak and hardwood, balance Pasture; spring water; barn 100 by 35, stone wall, cement stabling, tie up 20 head, box stalls, feed all from head, hayfork, drive, shed, Hydro close by. Brick House, 7 Rooms, oak floors down, divided cellar, furnace, pantry, hard and soft water, nice lawns garden and fruit, all in first-class condition. A real Farm and Home. Bargain ........ $6,500
For further particulars, see us—
P. E. RUTHERFORD
146 Hunter Dial 3602

BUNGALOW, MODERN, SIX-ROOM, North, Double Lot. Possession July 1. 689 Stewart, after 6 p.m.

MODERN DUPLEX
Hot Water Heat, Stoker, Hardwood Floors. Partitioned Basement, Garages.
Low Heating Costs and Taxes.
GOOD INVESTMENT.
TELEPHONE 7779

N., New Brick Bungalow, Modern bath, natural fireplace, tile kitchen. Immediate possession ........ $5,000
Central, 7-Room Brick, newly decorated, oak floors, complete plumbing, furnace and garage. September possession ........ $4,500
Central, 6-Room Brick, modern. $3,500
S., 7-Room Frame, easy terms. $2,500
O'TOOLE BROS.
Real Estate and Insurance
184 Charlotte St Phone 9447

$4,600—Nice Brick Residence, Dennistoun Avenue. Lovely lot. Possession September 1
WHY NOT TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE NEW N. H. A. LOAN AT 4¼%? Investigate the possibilities afforded by this low interest rate, with repayment on a monthly basis.
H. J. McCANNAN - JACK SINCLAIR
140 Simcoe St. Telephone 4246

LOTS FOR SALE. ALL HIGHWAY Frontages, near City. Dial 7045.

FOR SALE

8 Real Estate 8

DESIRABLE SUMMER COTTAGE Property at Stoney Lake, between Burleigh Falls and Mount Julian. Good Buildings, consisting of Cottage, 4 Bedroom Cabins, Ice-house, and Outbuildings on acreage on Island. Apply McLaughlin, Fulton, Stinson & Anderson, 89 Kent Street West, Lindsay, Ontario.

CENTRAL BUSINESS LOT, 70 BY 112 feet, on West side of George Street, south of King. Good Site for Stores and Apartments, Garage. Apply 146 Hunter Street for particulars. Take Small House as part.

Summer Cottage, Nine Rooms, Furnished, full plumbing, boathouse, boats, 12 Acres of Pine and Mixed Timber, 12 miles from City. A good buy ........ $3,000
Farms and Houses in all sections
ARNOTT REAL ESTATE
354 Water Telephone 3709

A Good Going Business, Large 13-Room Guest Home, garages, etc. Very modern, large lawns and gardens. A choice locality. Inquire.
South, 4 Rms, oak fls., vacant $2,000
Sherbrooke, 10 Rms, modern ... $3,900
Princess, 6 Rms, oak fls., vacant $4,000
Many others to choose from.
J. A. GIBBS, 141 Hunter St. 3843.

Cottages for Sale or Rent

FOR RENT, 5-ROOMED FURNISHED Cottage, electric refrigerator, lights, spring water, boat. Telephone 4262

FOR RENT—3 COTTAGES, NO LIGHTS two to three miles from City. Telephone 5012.

FOR SALE — TOURIST RESORT ON Deer Bay, 5 Furnished Cottages, Canteen, Boats and Boat House, Ice-House, etc., running spring water. Apply Mrs. John Armstrong, Lakefield.

SMALL SUMMER COTTAGE FOR Rent for June. 570 Romaine

INSULATED, ELECTRICITY, PLUMBing, eight miles, first part, July-August. 6708.

TWO COTTAGES FOR SEASON. Telephone 48 ring 3, Omemee

Summer Resorts

THURSTONIA HOTEL — OPEN JUNE Third. Excellent Meals, Comfortable Beds, conveniences. Summer activities. Cottages, Special June Rates. Booklet. Percy Skitch, Thurstonia Park.

Tourist Accommodation

ROOMS, OR OVERNIGHT ACCOMMOdation. 351 Charlotte. Dial 4885.

9 Business Opportunities 9

BLACKSMITH SHOP AND REPAIR Business, Lakefield, complete with Equipment. Write Box 393, Lakefield, or Telephone 141.

MODERN STORE, MAIN BUSINESS Section, May 5, 1944. Walter Badgley, Campbellford

10 Used Cars 10

1936 FORD COACH, WITH TRUNK, excellent condition. 9616.

1941 CHEVROLET SEDAN, WITH radio and heater; 1941 Dodge Opera Coupe; Trades. 1937 Oldsmobile Sedan, Two 1936 Ford Coaches, 1929 Ford Cabriolet, 1937 Chrysler Coupe. R. Hopkins, Imperial Service Station, Lakefield. Telephone 124.

1929 FORD SEDAN, GOOD CONDItion. Telephone 4044.

1936 DODGE COACH, GOOD TIRES. 630 Park. 9835

1933 BUICK SPECIAL SEDAN, MODEL 87, 6 wheels and tires 17 x 700; mechanically okay; body needs considerable work, $200.00. Telephone 9674.

1929 FORD, GOOD CONDITION, $125. Telephone 5572.

1934 PONTIAC COACH, GOOD CONdition 640 Bethune Street, after 7.

1941 DELUXE CHEVROLET SEDAN, radio and heater, Cash or Trade. 196 Wolsley Street, after 6.

PRIVATELY OWNED 1937 DODGE Coupe, low mileage, good tires, spotless condition throughout; give particulars of Trade, if any. Write Box 251, Examiner.

1931 BUICK LIGHT 8, GOOD TIRES, good condition throughout, cash. 5 to 7—506 Stewart Street.

1934 FORD V8, RADIO, HEATER, DEfroster. 2 McClennan, after 6.

WANTED — FOUR-CYLINDER CAR; must be in good condition, except tires. Joseph Tedford, Havelock.

1929 DURANT SEDAN, GOOD CONDItion. 492 Bolivar.

1930 DODGE, CHEAP FOR CASH. Apply 685 Gilchrist, after 6 p.m.

1929 PONTIAC SEDAN, IN GOOD shape. 82 McDonnel.

1938 OLDSMOBILE SEDAN, GOOD condition. Telephone 3101, Norwood.

1934 CHEVROLET COACH. 576 ROGERS.

10a Used Trucks 10a

HEAVY STEEL FARM TRUCKS. ADAM Carroll, Ennismore, ring 14.

1940 FORD ½-TON PICK-UP TRUCK, good as new. Dial 4511. 24 Cricket Place.

TO RENT

11 Miscellaneous 11

GARAGE. 9873.

ELECTROLUX CLEANER COMPLETE, by Day or Week. 4547.

11x Apartments to Rent 11x

LOWER DUPLEX, MODERN, 6 ROOMS unheated, garage, central, $37.00, adults. Write Box 262, Examiner.

HEATED APARTMENT, ADULTS ONLY 496 Mark

THREE-ROOMED APARTMENT, HEATed; adults only. Dial 3624

ATTRACTIVE ROOMS, FURNISHED, owner's home, hot water heating. West. Dial 9420.

HEATED APARTMENT, FURNISHED, Unfurnished, garage, adults. 709 Water.

11xx Houses To Rent 11xx

MODERN 6-ROOMED HOUSE FOR Summer months, Furnished. Telephone 4365.

12 Rooms 12

TWO BRIGHT, CLEAN, LIGHT Housekeeping Rooms, suitable for Working Couple or 2 Girls. 605 Rubidge Street.

LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS. Telephone 3837.

FRONT ROOM, KITCHENETTE, ICE-Box. 417 Stewart.

TWO LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS, Furnished, close to Factories. Telephone 4194.

TWO UNFURNISHED ROOMS, HEATed, suitable for one or two adults. Telephone 3804.

TO RENT

12 Rooms 12

FURNISHED HOUSEKEEPING, TWO Girls, central. 270 Reid.

FURNISHED BEDROOM, SUITABLE for Two. Apply 121 Stewart.

WANTED

13 Rooms Wanted 13

THREE UNFURNISHED ROOMS, Ground Floor desirable, adults, West or Central, by June 1. Write Box 261, Examiner.

WANTED, BY BUSINESS LADY, TWO or Three Unfurnished Rooms. Downstairs preferred, anytime before fall. Write Box 231, Examiner.

13a Apartments Wanted 13a

MIDDLE AGED COUPLE, FOUR ROOMS and bath (private). Can pay up to $40 monthly; central. Possession immediately. Write Box 252, Examiner.

13b Houses Wanted 13b

WANTED, HOUSE OR ROOMS, NEAR C.G.E., for Couple. Write Box 265, Examiner.

FIVE OR SIX ROOMED GOOD HOUSE, modern. Write Box 264, Examiner.

15 Miscellaneous 15

1941 BUICK, TORPEDO WILL PAY cash, or Trade Lighter Car; private. Telephone 9918.

CHESTERFIELD SUITE. WRITE BOX 223, Examiner.

USED LAWN MOWERS
Any Condition.
TELEPHONE 6884

MOVABLE LAWN SWING HAMMOCK. Telephone 8055.

CANVAS COVERED CAR TOP BOAT, for cash or will Trade Cedar Skiff. Telephone 4219.

5½-FOOT CROSS-CUT SAW. TELEphone 3848.

THE PETERBOROUGH METAL COMPANY
WE BUY
SCRAP IRON AND METALS

BROKEN-DOWN TRICYCLES FOR REpairs. Telephone 6446.

IRON, RAGS, FEATHERS, PAPER. Petersiel, Bethune and Hunter. Telephone 9403.

BICYCLE, ANY CONDITION. TELEphone 5894

GOOD USED CARS TELEPHONE 6101.

FURS
Cash Paid for Your Old Fur Coat. Write Box 65, Examiner.

STOVES, FURNITURE. HUDSON. Telephone 65, Lakefield

POULTRY AND FEATHER TICKS PAY Highest Prices. M. Glahman. Dial 8298.

LIVE POULTRY WANTED — MARKET Prices. A. Lantin. Telephone 6297.

LIVE POULTRY — PAY HIGHEST Prices. Florence, 6823. 560 Homewood

HIGHEST CASH PRICES
for
OLD GOLD
(in any form)
WARNE'S
JEWELLERY STORE
349 George Street Telephone 5171

STOVES AND FURNITURE WANTED Telephone 4115—Nights 6294.

LIVE POULTRY—MARKET PRICE. M. Katz. 6906. 192 Aylmer.

HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR RAGS, Paper, Iron and Metals. J. Burfield. Dial 8368.

16 Teachers 16

QUALIFIED PROTESTANT TEACHER for S. S. No. 8, Harvey. Duties to commence September 5. Apply stating experience and salary, to K. D. Hunt, Secretary, R. R. 1, Peterborough.

TEACHER WANTED FOR S.S. NO. 13, Cavan, Protestant, Experienced preferred. Duties to commence September 5th. Apply, stating salary, qualifications and experience, to the Secretary, Merton V. Thexton, R. R. No. 3, Millbrook, Ontario.

17 Help Wanted, Male or Female 17

COOK AND WAITRESSES, EXPERIenced or Inexperienced, Male or Female. Apply Selective Service, Peterborough. O-274.

EXPERIENCED HAIRDRESSERS Wanted for Salons in cities East of Toronto. Also Helpers Wanted. Apply nearest Employment and Selective Service Office.

18 Help Wanted, Female 18

WOMAN TO CLEAN OFFICE AFTER hours. Write Box 263, Examiner.

CAPABLE WOMAN TO ASSIST STEWardess at Local Golf Club. Apply Selective Service Office, Peterborough. O-293.

SALESLADY FOR DRESS GOODS DEpartment; good salary and commission. Apply Selective Service. O-292

PART TIME, 3 HOURS DAILY APproximately. Does not interfere with own Housework; good wages. Telephone Mr. Pogue, 4641.

RELIABLE WOMAN FOR HOUSEwork; good home; must be capable of doing Plain Cooking. Apply 813 Water Street.

19 Help Wanted, Male 19

Superintendent Manager For Feed Mill

Excellent opportunity is offered by Feed Manufacturer (in this district, out of town) to Superintend and Manage Modern Fed Manufacturing Plant. Experience desirable but not absolutely necessary. Honesty, reliability, devotion to work, planning ability, and some sales experience, also ability to handle men are essential. Good advancement and permanency desired. Those in essential war work need not apply. Apply in writing to Selective Service, giving full particulars of past experience. O-294.

MAN OR BOY TO CUT GRASS. APply 629 Charlotte Street

CENSORED BY SPEAKER

BLACKPOOL, England — (CP) — Elijah Sandham, 68, former Labor M.P., who once was censured by the Speaker of the House of Commons for accusing M.P.'s of accepting bribes, died here.

WANTED

19 Help Wanted, Male 19

NEWSPAPER CARRIER BOYS

A NUMBER OF EXAMINER PAPER ROUTES WILL BE AVAILABLE IN THE NEAR FUTURE. BOYS AND GIRLS WISHING TO HAVE AN EXAMINER ROUTE SHOULD FILL IN AN APPLICATION

AT THE

Examiner Office

TODAY

20 Employment Wanted 20

PLAIN SEWING. 58 HOWDEN AVEnue.

21 Boarders Wanted 21

ROOM AND BOARD. 342 CHARLOTTE.

FURNISHED ROOM, MEALS OPtional. 467 Chamberlain.

GENTLEMAN BOARDER DIAL 5947.

WHO CAN DO IT

22b Painters, Decorators 22b

EFFICIENT, SMART STYLING
for
HOME DECORATION
Interior and Exterior
"Elastica Quality Goods"
HAROLD COLEMAN
Telephone 9922 336 George Street

COLEMAN BROS — "THE HOME OF Decorating." Established 1906. Telephone 4485. North of Brock Street.

22f Miscellaneous 22f

HOUSES AND CELLARS WHITENED 634 Union.

WALLS AND WINDOWS WASHED. 634 Union.

ELECTRIC WORK — SERVICE AND Repairs. Telephone 6195

LAWN MOWERS, MACHINE SHARPened 82 McDonnel. Dial 6315.

GARDENS TO PLOW. 7781.

BRICK, CEMENT WORK, STUCCOING Brick Painting, Chimneys Rebuilt. 217½ Charlotte Street. Telephone 9636.

LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED
$1.00
Guaranteed to Cut, or Money Refunded.
Called for and Delivered—35c
CHARLTON BROS.
LAWN MOWER SERVICE
Wolfe and Rubidge Streets
TELEPHONE 6884.

LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED — WE have the most Up-to-date Machinery. Satisfaction guaranteed. R. Harran's Cycle Shop, Dial 5925.

DUSTLESS FLOOR SANDING. WILliam Higgins. Dial 8887.

22j Wood Cutting 22j

WOOD SAWING. CLIFF JEWELL. Telephone 4241.

25 Nursing 25

REGISTERED NURSE, AVAILABLE. Write Box 221, Examiner.

PRACTICAL NURSE. WRITE BOX 228, Examiner.

25x Dressmaking 25x

DRESSMAKING, TAILORING, ALTERations. Telephone 4936. 593 Harvey.

Radio Service

RADIO SERVICE
Every Repair Guaranteed.
Established 23 Years.
F. H. JOHNSTON
Corner George and McDonnel
TELEPHONE 4697

DELUXE RADIO SERVICE — ALL makes of Radios Repaired. All work guaranteed. Telephone 7142—Night 6384. 450 Rubidge Street.

LOST

SMALL BROWN DOG. DIAL 8789. Reward.

TWO-YEAR-OLDS, "V" IN TOP OF right ear. Don Clysdale, Warsaw. Telephone 2 ring 32.

THREE JUTE BAGS OF FEED, BEtween Norwood and Havelock. Telephone 5771, Peterborough.

FLY FISHING ROD, BETWEEN CAvan and Pterborough. Cecil Hayes, Route 3, Peterborough. Reward.

De Laval Trims Woollens 11-6

Getting an early lead, the De Laval team defeated Dominion Woollens in a wellplayed Industrial League game at the Bonner-Worth field Thursday night 11 to 6.

The De Laval outfit scored eight runs in the first three innings and led 8 to 0 but Dominion Woollens rallied then and made a battle of it for the rest of the game.

The winners had thirteen hits as against ten for the Dominion Woollens.

Feature fielding play was a circus catch by Deb Hillier.

Batteries Mayfield and Pearson for De Laval, Cavanagh and Caraveggie for Dominion Woollens.

Apsley News

Mr. and Mrs. John Selkirk and son, Bobbie, arrived in the village this week. Mr. Selkirk has purchased Morley MacDonald's store and has begun business here.

Mrs. Newble of Toronto is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Parks.

Mrs. W. Reynolds and Mrs. Robert Trotter have returned from Belleville after spending two weeks with the former's sister there.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernal Windsor have moved into their house here from their farm at Clanricarde.

The W.I. sponsored a progressive euchre party at Mrs. R. Tucker's.

FOUND

HEIFER, YEAR OLD, TIP OFF RIGHT ear. David Taylor, Warsaw.

LOANS

$20 to $1,000 Loans
FOR Married Couples
WITHOUT ENDORSERS

QUICK, friendly, fuss-free service. Easy repayment terms.
OVER 100,000 SATISFIED CUSTOMERS
CAMPBELL
FINANCE CORPORATION LIMITED
Subsidiary of Industrial Acceptance Corporation Ltd.
169 Charlotte Street
F. M. Vivash, Branch Manager
(Above A. & P. Store) Phone 3520

LOANS
$20 TO $500
NO ENDORSERS NEEDED

| Cash Loan You Get | 4 Payments | 6 Payments | 10 Payments | 12 Payments | 15 Payments |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Choose a monthly payment plan | | | | |
| $25 | $ 6.57 | $ 4.46 | $ 2.78 | $ 2.36 | |
| 50 | 13.13 | 8.93 | 5.57 | 4.73 | |
| 75 | 19.70 | 13.39 | 8.35 | 7.09 | |
| 100 | 26.26 | 17.85 | 11.13 | 9.46 | $ 7.78 |
| 125 | 32.83 | 22.32 | 13.92 | 11.82 | 9.73 |
| 150 | 39.39 | 26.78 | 16.70 | 14.18 | 11.67 |
| 200 | 52.52 | 35.71 | 22.27 | 18.91 | 15.57 |
| 300 | 78.79 | 53.56 | 33.40 | 28.37 | 23.35 |
| 500 | 130.60 | 88.64 | 55.10 | 46.73 | 38.36 |

To apply for a Household loan just give us a few facts about yourself and choose a convenient payment schedule. Payments shown repay loans in full and include charges at our reduced monthly rate of 2% on a loan balance of $300 or less and 1% on that part of a balance in excess of $300.

Household Finance
Corporation of Canada
Established in Canada 1928
Second Floor Lansfield Block
177 Charlotte St. (Opp. Loblaws)
M. E. Holt, Manager Phone 5841

MONEY TO LOAN ON FIRST MORTGAGES
Easy Terms of Repayment
Apply to
PETERBOROUGH WORKINGMEN'S BUILDING AND SAVINGS SOCIETY
414 Water Street
Established Over 50 Years.

NOTICE

I HEREBY WISH TO GIVE NOTICE, that Reeve and Council of the Township of Ennismore will, on JUNE 5, 1944, sit in COURT OF REVISION to deal with an Appeal against 1944 Assessment Roll (Signed) H. J. HENNESSEY, Clerk.

PROFESSIONAL

44 Lawyers 44

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY — Barristers, Solicitors. Money to Loan. Offices 415-417 Water Street. Telephone 4681. E. A. Peck, K.C., F. D. Kerr, K.C., V. J. McElderry, K.C., Walter H. Howell.

JACOB LOW — Barrister, etc. Mortgage Loans. Suite 1-2, 435 George Street (over Toronto Savings and Loan Co.). Telephone 7423 — Nights 6214

ELLIOTT, PHILP & CHANDLER—Barristers, etc. Money to Loan. Offices, Kresge Building. Telephone 6675. A. L. Elliott, K.C., W. R. Philp, B.A., R. J. Chandler, B.A.

P. D. SCOLLARD—Barrister, Solicitor. Bank of Toronto Building. Telephone 9939.

JOHN A. BRADSHAW — Barrister and Solicitor 360 Water. Telephone 9884.

Chiropractors

M. C. GOODWIN, CHIROPRACTOR and Drugless Therapist. 108 Barrie Building, 312 George. Telephone 8795 and 5865.

AUCTION SALES

J. H. MILES, AUCTIONEER AND VALuator. Office 211 Hunter. Dial 4115. Residence 9122. 25 Years' Successful Selling and Valuating.

Westclox Trophy Draw Announced

Announcement was made today of the draw for the first round of the Westclox Trophy match play at the Peterborough Golf and Country Club. The first round must be completed by June 3 and O. DeGraw has been named as referee.

Players whose names appear first in any match are instructed to contact their opponents. Handicaps may be revised at any time and all cards must be turned in.

The first round draw is as follows:

S. Payne vs. G. H. Whiting.
N. Waddell vs. G. A. Wooll.
J. Watson vs. J. Jebson.
DeGraw vs. H. Benson.
A. Rutter vs. W. Brady.
R. Abbott vs. G. Monroe.
R. Kitchen vs. F. Jobbitt.
G. Whatman vs. J. Keyes
S. Northrup vs. Haig Kelly.
O. Steer vs. C. A. Weir.
R. G. Maniece vs. H. Thompson.
M. G. Hardill vs. T. Mackay.
W. A. Eliott vs. C. G. Graham.
J. G. Wharry vs. G. Monkman.
H. C. Sootheran vs. J. H. Eastwood.
W. Lauder vs. H. Chown.
C. Cummer vs. Dr. Cragg.
Dr. Weldon vs. Rev. Kelly.
W. E. Lloyd vs. J. Sackville.
C. V. Elliott vs. J. H. Vernor.
J. E. McKerchar vs. W. McCreery.
H. T. Cranford vs. Dr. A. G. Howson
C. Westbrooke vs. S. J. Gann.
H. Bradburn vs. W. S. Colwell.
T. Labranche vs. E. H. Howson.
C. P. Brown vs. R. L. Dobbin.
M. J. Starr vs. H. T. Gorrell.
W. Eastwood vs. W. S. Derry.
S. McBride vs. J. Comstock.
A. T. Le Fevere vs. J. O. Huddart.
H. S. Longhust vs. H. L. Garner.
W. B. Butler vs. T. T. Rodger.
D. T. Diplock vs. W. F. Huycke.
F. R. Pope vs. F. Garner.
I. T. Lillico vs. J. L. Thompson.
C. Monkman vs. J. Jobe.

Survey Started To Find Men For Jobs

By JACK WILLIAMS
Canadian Press Staff Writer.

OTTAWA, May 26 — (CP). — National Selective Service has launched a three-way attack on the most acute manpower shortage Canada has yet faced, Arthur MacNamara, director of the National Selective Service said yesterday in an interview with The Canadian Press.

The program designed to find men to fill essential jobs includes:

1. Personal interviews with men rejected as medically unfit for the military service.

2. An on-the-spot survey of the plants to combat hoarding.

3. Extension of compulsory transfer orders to industries now not affected.

"We estimate that of the 8,820,- persons in Canada 14 years and over 5,500,000 now are in the Armed Forces or gainfully employed," said Mr. MacNamara. "That is about 62 per cent and it is just about as high as we can expect to go.

Need 175,000.

"The answer now is to make the best possible use of the people who are working. At the moment we need 175,000 workers to fill jobs in war plants and essential industries —entirely apart from farm workers."

(In the previous manpower peak September last, 160,000 workers ere required for war and other essential industries.)

Plants engaged in manufacturing and filling shells at the moment hold top place in the priority list for available workers. Others in the upper brackets are: Farming, base metal mines, packing plants, and general war industries.

"We have got down to the fine teeth of the comb," Mr. MacNamara said, explaining the technique adopted in an effort to fill these jobs.

The plan of calling in men rejected by the Army for individual interviews is being tried experimentally in Ontario — where the most acute labor shortages exist.

Men who are found unfit for Army service are required to notify the local Selective Service Office of the job they now are holding. If it is not considered essential they may be called in for an interview with a view to putting them in some more useful employment.

"We have examined about 1,000,-000 men for Army service and roughly half of them have been unfit," said Mr. MacNamara. "We will have to depend on that pool of 500,000 to fill some of these jobs."

7,000 Railroaders.

So far seven compulsory transfer orders have been issued affecting men between the ages of 16 and 40, regardless of their marital status, in a wide range of occupations varying from automobile service stations to manufacturing plants which turn out products not regarded as essential. These men may be required to take employment in some essential occupation.

Preliminary consideration has been given, it is understood, to the other occupations and industries which might be brought under the plan and action in this direction is expected shortly.

With railway freight and passenger movements at an all-time high Canadian railways need 7,000 track workers. Large numbers of men are required at the Lakehead for unloading wheat. Packing plants, with 25 per cent more workers than they had in 1941 and 50 per cent more than in pre-war days, also need more workers.

Selective Service is exploring various channels and, as an example, plans to make increased use of prisoners of war. Some 5,500 now are engaged in farming or lumbering. It is expected this number will be stepped up to about 8,000 during this summer.

Announcement was also made recently that consideration is being given plans to move workers from Southern United States to Ontario to assist in harvesting the tobacco crop.

Marmora News

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Poulujko and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Poulujko visited relatives at Point Anna on Sunday.

Lance Corporal Charles Reynolds of Ottawa recently returned from England, is vistiing his brother, John Reynolds and Mrs. Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kerr and daughter, Margaret, visited relatives at Thomasburg on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Holland and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pigden in Madoc township on Sunday.

Something New

BOSTON, May 26—(AP). —A United States army ambulance plane bringing 30 casualties direct from the European theatre to New York landed late yesterday at the East Boston airport, where it was forced down by unfavorable flying conditions, army officials declared.

Veals Family Learns Brother Back From China

OMEMEE, May 26 (ENS) — Following is a copy of a letter received by W. C. Veals, Omemee from the Foreign Mission Board of the United Church of Canada announcing the safe arrival of his brother, Rev. Howard J. Veals, and his family, from China where he has been serving as a Missionary for the past six years.

To Relatives of Missionaries on Furlough,—

We are very pleased to send you the good news of the arrival of the China and India Missionary party which we have been expecting for the last few days. This morning a telegram arrived announcing that the following had arrived at Boston, Mass. on Monday, — from India: Drummond, Grahams, Miss Scott, Scotts, Taylors. — from China: Hoffman, Rackhams, Reeds, Stinsons, Struthers, Veals', and Wilmotts.

Thirty-one missionaries including children, are in this large party, and we are grateful that they have safely reached Boston. It may not be so easy for so many to get transportation immediately, but they should arrive shortly. We wired them asking when they would arrive in Toronto and when we get an answer we will let you know."

Two sisters also live in Omemee. They are Miss Alice Veals and Mrs. S. D. Vaughan.

Friends Hold Dance For Fraserville Soldier

FRASERVILLE, May 26—(ENS)—Mrs. J. Bothwell and sons Ray, Percy and Donald held a dance in the Orange Hall, Fraserville Tuesday night in honor of Sgt. Hugh Bothwell who has been home on furlough for two weeks and will return to his post on Saturday.

Friends from South Monaghan Peterborough, Best's Station and Fraserville enjoyed an excellent time with both round and square dancing. Those calling for the square dancing included, Sherwin Morrison of Springville and Wm. Kellar and Leigh Hewitt of Fraserville.

Lunch was served at midnight and dancing continued until 1.30.

Temperance Gathering Held In Warkworth

WARKWORTH, May 26.—(ENS). —A convention of the Ontario Temperance Federation for Northumberland county was held in the town hall recently, with afternoon and evening sessions. There was a good attendance including representatives throughout the county.

R. A. Whattam, field secretary was in charge. Rev. C. W. DeMille, general secretary, conducted a panel discussion dealing with problems which confront the temperance workers and also gave an interesting and instructive address.

An interesting feature of the evening session was the public speaking contest. Miss Clarice Atkinson, Dartford, speaking on "The greatest enemy of civilization," won first place and was awarded the Temperance Federation trophy. The other contestants were Douglas Coyle, Roseneath and Dorothy Buttars, Baltimore.

The movie film, "It's the Brain That Counts," was also enjoyed.

65 Carriers

WASHINGTON, May 26—(AP).—Artemus L. Gates, assistant Secretary of the Navy for Air, said in a broadcast last night that 65 aircraft carriers are in active service with the United States fleet. Gates also disclosed that navy airplanes of all types "will soon total some 37,700" and declared 1,000-plane raids against the Japanese by carrier-based planes are "only the beginning."

24 Cars Derailed On Sudbury Line

SUDBURY, May 26—(CP)—Auxiliary wrecking crews from Sudbury and MacTier today were clearing the Canadian Pacific Railway mainline at French River after a locomotive and 24 freight cars left the track this morning.

None was injured in the derailment, cause of which had not been determined. The northbound freight had just cleared the station when the engine left the rails.

The train was in charge of Conductor J. C. Witt and Engineer G. Fish, both of MacTier.

Britain Asked

LISBON, May 26 — (AP) — Disclosing for the first time officially that Britain had asked Portugal to remain neutral, Premier Dr. Antonio Salazar told the second convention of the National Union yesterday that this country "will remain faithful to the right of peace."

SALLY'S SALLIES

Registered U. S. Patent Office

"You ought to know how to mix pancakes, you KNOW so much about everything else."

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

LEARN BRIDGE FAST
5—Now for the Bidding

IN THE bidding that precedes the play, the players are endeavoring to foresee what can happen in the play and bid accordingly. Bidding is based on the number of "odd tricks" bid for. So just what is an "odd" trick?

All told, 13 tricks make up an entire deal. If each side took six of them, that would account for 12, leaving one over. It would be the "odd" trick. So if a player bids for one odd trick, he commits his side to the undertaking of capturing that odd trick or taking a total of seven. If he bids for two, he is really bidding for two odd tricks, or a total of eight. Bidding for three means three above the six, or nine all told, and so on. Bidding for seven means seven odd tricks, or a total of all 13.

There are five different declarations which a player can name if he bids. They rank, from the bottom up, in this way: Clubs are lowest, diamonds next above them, hearts next, spades the highest suit, and No Trump ranks above spades.

When a player makes a bid, he does it by stating a number and naming one of the five declarations, such as "1-Club," or "2-Hearts," or "3-No Trumps," or "6-Spades."

The dealer gets the first turn. He may either pass, saying "Pass," or make a bid. His bid may be anything from 1-Club, the lowest possible bid, up to 7-No-Trumps, the highest possible. If he passes, the player at his left may either bid or pass. If he passes, the fourth has the same option. In case all four pass, the hand is "passed out." That deal does not count, and the player at the left of the old dealer becomes the next dealer

If any of the four players makes a bid on his first turn, then the next player has three options. He may pass, make a bid or "double." Any bid must be higher-ranking than the last preceding bid. Thus, 1-Diamond will overcall 1-Club, 1-Heart will serve to overcall either of those, 1-Spade will overcall any of those three, and 1-No Trump will overcall any suit bid of one. But to make a legal bid with a declaration which is of lower rank, a player must do it at a higher level. Thus it requires 2-Clubs to overcall 1-Diamond, or 2-Hearts to overcall 1-Spade, and two of any suit to overcall 1-No Trump. The same is true at higher levels of bidding. A bid of 3-Diamonds would not overcall 3-Hearts, but 4-Diamonds would, and so on in the still higher levels.

When a player says "double," he automatically doubles the value of each trick eventually taken, if the contract gets made, and also increases the doubler's score if the contract gets beaten. That is, if the deal winds up with the declarer in a "doubled" contract. A player is not permitted to double a bid by himself or his partner, but only an opponent's bid. When a bid by you or your partner has been doubled, however, you have the right to "redouble," which again doubles the value of each trick to four times its original size if the contract gets made, and likewise increases the score for defeating a contract.

After the bidding has been "opened," through some player making a bid, it continues in regular order until there are three consecutive passes. Then one member of the pair which made the last bid—not double or redouble, but bid—becomes the declarer, the particular member of that pair who first named the declaration. Thus, if South bids 1-Spade and North raises him to 4-Spades, the others passing, North does not become the declarer, even though he made the last bid. South becomes the declarer because he was the first of his side to bid spades.

There are penalties for irregularities in the bidding, such as a bid or pass out of turn, an "insufficient bid," such as 1-Diamond over 1-Spade, etc., but they will not be touched upon until much later in this course.

Tomorrow: Scoring in Contract

Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

DAILY CROSSWORD

ACROSS
1. Source of hashish
5. Dancing girl (Egypt)
9. A creek
10. Intended
12. Choice group
13. Boy's nickname
14. Lair
15. Barium (sym.)
17. Mix
18. Evergreen herb
21. Girl's name
22. Presiding Elder (abbr.)
24. American Indian
25. Norwegian author
27. Large pulpit
29. Lease
30. Gods of the house
32. Chinese river
33. Steamship (abbr.)
34. Cuckoo
35. Surpass
38. Labels
40. Italian river
41. Decay
44. Halting place, as for troops
46. Rogue
48. Portable chair
49. Catcher of eels
50. Dispatch
51. Antlered animal

DOWN
1. Robust
2. Ogling
3. Witty saying
4. American Indian
5. Ambassador (abbr.)
6. Wreathes of flowers
7. Kind of cat
8. Stimulates
9. Layer
11. Despots
16. Rough lava
19. Genus of the lily (So. Am.)
20. Greek letter
22. Roofs of mouths
23. Diffuses
26. Ship's detention room
28. Large body of troops (mil.)
31. Therefore
32. Fired, as a furnace
36. Aloft
37. Silk scarf (Eccl.)
39. Reach across
42. Across
43. Thrice (mus.)
45. Conclude
47. Born

Yesterday's Answer

ROOM AND BOARD —By Gene Ahern

TERRY AND THE PIRATES —By Milton Caniff

LI'L ABNER —By Al Capp

HENRY —By Carl Anderson

DONALD DUCK —By Walt Disney

BLONDIE —By Chic Young

MUGGS AND SKEETER —By Wally Bishop

BRICK BRADFORD —By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

TILLIE THE TOILER —By Russ Westover

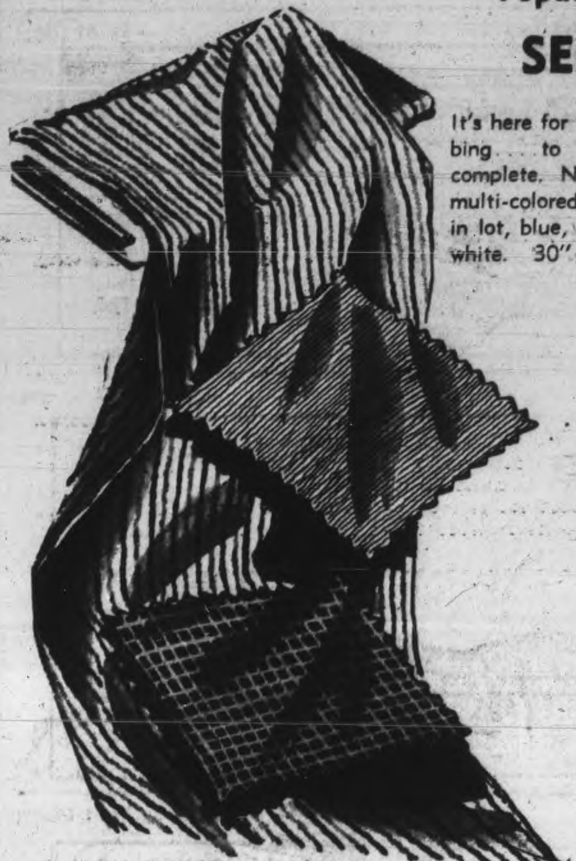
STORE HOURS: 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Wednesday, 9 a.m. to 12.30 Noon. DIAL 5721.



Popular Printed Cotton

SEERSUCKER

It's here for fashion sewing . . . for easy tubbing . . . to make your Summer wardrobe complete. Narrow stripes, medium stripes, multi-colored stripes, block checks. Colours in lot, blue, red, brown, green and copen on white. 30" wide.

Yard .59

SPECIAL!

Rayon and Wool

Miami Crepe

Specially purchased! This smart fabric should make lovely summer dresses. A cool tropical weave of rayon with a small percentage of wool to give it substantial body and crispness. White floral and coin dot designs on rose, powder, lime, tan, navy. About 38 inches wide.

Special, Yard ..... .98

—Second Floor, C.D.S.

FORENOON SPECIALS

FORENOON SPECIAL

Boys' Swim Suits

Now that the warm weather is here, he'll want to go bathing. Soft all wool one-piece suit with skirt, open back, straps over shoulder. Colors maroon, royal and black Sizes 24 to 34. Reg. 1.79. Special, each .98

—Main Floor, C.D.S.

Women's Straw Hats

FORENOON SPECIAL

Smart dark straw hats for almost any occasion. Sailors, pompadours and half hat styles. Gaily trimmed with contrasting flowers and veils. Reg. 2.98 to 5.98. Special, each .................... 1.49 to 2.49

—Second Floor, C.D.S.

FORENOON SPECIAL

Flock Filled Pillows

A real serviceable pillow for home or cottage use. Well filled with soft cotton and covered with good wearing art ticking. Size about 17 x 25 inches. Special pair .......................... 1.49

—Second Floor, C.D.S.

Chair Sets

Pretty chair sets of good quality cotton ecru material woven in two geometric designs. Back rest is about 10 x 16 inches, the arm rests about 7 x 12 inches. A summer freshness for your living-room, den, or summer cottage . . . at an attractive savings. Special 3-piece set ... .59

Lace Pieces

Ecru coloured lace oblongs and runners from which to make up smart vanity and buffet sets. Crochet style trim.

Size 6 x 13. Each .......... .25
Size 10 x 14. Each .......... .39
Size 12 x 18. Each .......... .59
Size 12 x 36. Each .......... 1.00
Size 12 x 43. Each .......... 1.25

—Main Floor, C.D.S.

White, Light and Lovely!
New Summer

NECKWEAR

Staccato accent on black . . . sharp foil on navy! Bright white to underscore in flirtatious feminine fashion the crisp trimness of a business dress. White collars of pique or organdy with lace or crochet-type trim. Each, or set .69

A—Shadow-striped cotton organdy dickie with double row of Val-type lace.

B—A frothy cotton organdy ruffle to border a V-neck collar of guipure-type cotton lace.

C—Bib collar of cotton pique with latticed insertions and self frill.

D—Wear it three ways: As a round collar; turned into a V; or about face as a bib! Waffle cotton pique, with frothy frill of cotton organdy.

E—Deep-notched collar of cotton pique, edged with guipure-type lace, matching cuffs.

—Main Floor, C.D.S.

Folding Go-Carts

Handy go-carts that you will be proud to take baby out in. Well-made and can easily be folded so as to put in car or out of the way in the home. Blue, grey, maroon shades. Each 22.95

Preserving Kettles

Good size kettles for your summer preserving needs. Brilliant blue enamel with strong handle. About 10 qt. size. Each .... 1.59

Oval Dish Pans

The popular "Renown" dish pan that most women go for. Clean looking white enamel with red trim in a good roomy size. Each ............... 1.25

—Basement, C.D.S.

Clearance of Men's 3-Pce. Suits, Reg. 19.95

Smartly tailored three-piece suits of good wearing cotton and wool worsted material. Two-button style, notch and peak lapels in fancy stripe patterns. Colours blue, black, brown and grey. A real good choice at a saving price. Special .......... 14.99

Special! Khaki Work Shirts

Light weight cotton that is just right for summer working. A well made shirt in a good roomy cut, coat style, two breast pockets, button sleeves. Sizes 14 to 16½. Special, each .......... .83

Men's Fused Collar Shirts

Fine woven cotton broadcloth for dress or every day wear. Fancy stripe designs with the popular and neat fused collar. Colours blue, brown, green and grey. Sizes 14 to 16½. Each ......... 1.39

Windbreakers

Men's summer windbreakers, in sporty two-tone colours. Made of smooth rayon satin with close fitting knitted waist, two side pockets, set in sleeves. Colours royal and wine, wine and green. Sizes 36 to 42. Each 3.49

Boys' Jerseys

Boys' loose knit cotton jerseys, short sleeves, two buttons at neck with collar, a sporty sweater for summer vacations. Colours grey and blue. Sizes small, medium and large. Special, each .................. .55

Men's Caps

Light weight summer caps in snappy herringbone and check patterns, of cool cotton material. Colors brown, green, blue and white. Sizes 6¾ to 7. Special, each .......... .25

—Main Floor, C.D.S.

6 Pieces in Natural Finish

Here's a news-making suite! Hardwood constructed, finished in natural effect, with gay red or green trim. 42" buffet has good sized cupboards, with drawers for linen and cutlery. Table has waterfall edges, measures about 32 x 40" closed, and opens to about 32 x 52." Table, buffet and four matching chairs .................. 59.50

BASSINET and MATTRESS

Sturdy made of seasoned hardwood in soft ivory shade, with smooth running castors. Soft, comfortable cotton filled mattress with pillow style edge, covered with strong art ticking. Complete ...................... 5.50

Spring Filled

Mattress

There is many hours of sleeping comfort in this well made mattress. Good strong springs covered with layers of soft cotton felt, outer cover is of sturdy cotton ticking that should give years of service. In three standard sizes.

Each 19.95

Walnut Finished

End Tables

Sturdy made of hardwood with rich walnut finish. Half-round top that fits well to Chesterfield arm, a very useful table that can be used for many purposes. About 12 x 24-inch top, 24 inches high.

Each 1.95

Single

Bed Cots

Just the cot for your summer cottage. Made of strong angle iron, fitted with anti-sag spring secured to frame with tempered helical springs.

Each 5.95

—Basement, C.D.S.

Feature! Studio Couches

Modern studio couch with a luxurious look that promises rest and comfort—a couch to blend tastefully with practically any surroundings. Covered with neat patterned cotton repp that should wear well. Spring-filled mattress with strong wood back to support cushions, some have wood arms and wardrobe. Colours wine and blue. Each .......... 46.50

Upholstery

Repp

A good serviceable covering for chairs, couches or chesterfields. Strongly woven cotton repp that will stand plenty of hard wear, in check design of brown, wine, rust and green. About 36 inches wide.

Yard 1.19

—Basement, C.D.S.

Misses' Summer Slacks and Jackets

SLACKS—Sporty slacks of finely woven Alpine cloth, neatly styled with permanent crease, wide waistband, side pocket. Smart shades of blue, aqua, navy, brown, red, gold and green. Sizes 12 to 18. Each .. 2.98 to 4.98

JACKETS—To match slacks, also made of Alpine cloth, good size side pocket with embroidery trim. Some have set-in belt and fitted coat styles. A real good range to choose from in colours of blue, aqua, navy, brown, red, gold and green. Sizes 12 to 18. Each .. 2.98 to 4.98

Girls' Candlewick Housecoats

Smart and colourful housecoats, that can be put to use almost every day throughout the year. Also smart for summer beach wear. Closely woven of good wearing tufted cotton yarns with three-quarter length sleeves, full skirt in soft shades of rose, fuchsia, aqua and blue. Sizes 8 to 16.

Each 2.98

Child's Cotton Dresses

Gay summer dresses, that they can wear day or night. Pretty floral patterns on pastel backgrounds. Some with ric rac braid trim and dainty white collars, gored and pleated skirts, self belts and tie backs in a good assortment of colors. Sizes 7 to 14. Each ......... 1.00

Torso Length

Pullovers

Peppy pullovers for the outdoor girl, finely woven cotton that is cool for summer outings. Short sleeve style, round neck and fitted waistline. Summer designs of coin dots, anchors and ships on white, yellow, blue and red grounds. Sizes small, medium and large, ach .... 1.98

—Second Floor, C.D.S.

Clearance! Misses' Tweed Suits

Regularly 22.50 and 25.00

A suit that will be the background of your busy wardrobe. At a savings you can't afford to miss. Smart herringbone and Donegal tweeds with pleated back and front in skirt. Jacket three and four-button styles that is always a popular choice with the young folks. Colors brown, gray and navy. Sizes 12 to 20. Each .................... 15.00

Special! Front-Lace Corsets

A favorite foundation at a money saving price. A well boned corset of firm, cotton coutil that should give lots of wear and comfort. Sizes 24 to 32. Special, each .... 2.50

Maids' Aprons

Crisp cotton white aprons, that always looks so clean and fresh. Large bib front and all-round full skirt that makes it comfortable to wear. Special, each . .53

Girdles

Light weight rayon satin girdle with stretchable side panels. Two small bones in front for added support, also four hose supports, side hook style. Sizes 25 to 30. Each ............ 1.95

Printed Cotton Gowns

Dainty cotton gowns that are so cool for summer sleeping. Printed in attractive floral designs. V-neck, fitted waist line styles. Sizes small, medium and large. Each ........ 1.59

—Second Floor, C.D.S.

Telephones
Examiner ........ 4641
CHEX ........ 4641
Nights after 6 p.m., Sundays, Holidays
Examiner ........ 4641
CHEX ........ 4643

Evening Examiner

Peterborough

NIGHT FINAL

VOL. LXXXIX, No. 125 | WEATHER Fair and warm. | PETERBOROUGH, SATURDAY, MAY 27, 1944 | ★★ | PRICE FOUR CENTS

BRITISH-U.S. FORCES UNITE ON ITALIAN BATTLEFRONT — Here British and U.S. army sergeants congratulate each other at the joining of the Allied forces from the Anzio beachhead and those units driving northward on the main Italian front. The meeting occurred in the Pontine marshes.

Boche Retreat Disorganized Mines Slowing Canadians

Ceprano Next Objective Of Canadians

Leave Melfa River Far Behind In Latest Advance

By DOUGLAS HOW
Canadian Press War Correspondent

WITH THE CANADIAN CORPS IN ITALY, May 27 — (CP Cable). — Canadian troops are butting ahead towards Ceprano with elements of the divisions commanded by Maj.-Gen. B. M. Hoffmeister and Maj.-General Chris Vokes both in the advance.

Maritime infantry and Western armor of Gen. Hoffmeister's Division made slow progress yesterday on the right flank of the Canadian sector because of excessive mine fields, booby traps and heavy shelling and mortaring. The were reported last night moving northwest on a front running from near a huge reservoir south-east of Ceprano to a point near Highway No. 6—the Cassino-Rome road.

Ot'awa Unit.

On the left flank of the Canadian sector Canadian reconnaissance troops (possibly the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards of Ottawa) were in the vicinity of the reservoir and continuing to advance with Maritime infantry towards Ceprano. They form part of Gen. Vokes' Division.

The next line of the German delaying resistance is expected to be on a line between Ceprano and Ance, four miles to the north-east Highway No. 6 bends south-westward at Arce and then turns northwest towards Rome at Ceprano.

But in their disorganized flight the Germans gave little indication they would be able to make a stern fight anywhere before the projected main defence line south-east of Rome, which runs across Highway No. 6 at Valmontone.

On the right flank of the Canadians, British forces made slow progress while Indian units mopped up several towns on the north side of Highway No. 6.

Earlier on Friday Maritime and

CEPRANO NEXT
(Continued on Page 12, Column 4)

Buckeroos Sent To Round-up Wild Mustangs Get No Horses, Lose Many Of Their Own

JORDAN VALLEY, Ore., May 27 (AP)—Eighty weary and disappointed buckeroos, sent into the rangelands of isolated Oywhee River country at the order of Interior Secretary Harold Ickes to round up 2,000 wild mustangs, rode back to town last night with nary a wild horse.

Twenty-five of their brothers still were out on the range lands—trying to round up some of their own horses.

Here's the story brought back by Arthur Seale, district grazier in charge of the roundup:—

The boys started out right according to schedule. They got 500 of the wild horses — ordered removed to provide cattle grazing land — cornered near the Three-Finger Butte country. Reserve ponies brought up for the riders doublecrossed the horsemen and evidently gave their wild fellows the equine tipoff that civilization isn't all it's cracked up to be.

At any rate, there was a stampede, and when it was over both the wild and domestic ponies had gone south.

Seale said there might be another attempted roundup later.

Canadians Finish 14 Days Of Fiercest Battles So Far

By DOUG HOW—Canadian Press War Correspondent

WITH THE CANADIAN CORPS IN ITALY, May 27—(CP Cable).—The Italian offensive moves into this third week today with the Germans in general retreat before the impact of the Allies' land and air blows that have shattered two defence lines long in preparation and sent them reeling back toward the third and last line barring entry to Rome.

For the Canadian troops and for Canada these have been historic and demanding 14 days because not a single one passed without the Dominion's infantry or armor being involved in the inexorable thrust fathered by Gen. Sir Harold Alexander and carried out by two heterogeneous armies under his command. And for the first time a Canadian Corps, fighting as a corps, fought and won a resounding, utter triumph.

Fill Vital Role.

The Canadians have been involved since the morning of May 12 when one Ontario and one Western regiment of an armored brigade gained a bridgehead over the Rapido River and filled a vital, possibly decisive role, in the Allied plan to outflank and reduce Cassino. The Canadian part in smashing the Gustav line was essentially that of the armored formation operating with an Indian division under command of a British corps.

But it was in elimination of the Hitler line, a deadly combination of natural and artificial obstacles strung across the green, rolling Liri Valley, that the Dominion's contribution became an all important one.

It was in those few thousand yards between Aquino and Pontecorvo that the corps made a brilliant, bloody debut in a courageous assault that carried Maj.-Gen. Chris Vokes' veteran division through a maze of minefields and barbed wire entanglements, dugouts, pillboxes buttressed by anti-tank guns and fierce artillery and mortar fire.

Big Infantry Push.

Battalions that fought in Sicily and Italy, that broke the German hold on the Moro Valley and on Ortona, entered the Liri fighting May 16 shortly after the Indians' veteran Canadian tanks climaxed a three-day battle with the capture of ruined Pignataro. From the start it was the intention of Lt.-Gen. Sir Oliver Leese, commander of the British 8th Army, with which the Canadian Corps is fighting, to save the Canadian infantry for the deciding onslaught.

CANADIANS FINISH
(Continued on Page 2, Column 3)

Strong Armored Opposition Guards Key Points On Road Leading To Rome

Ceprano, Arce, Valmontone Menaced By Newest Allied Gains Up Liri Valley And From Anzio

By NOLAND NORGAARD—Associated Press Staff Writer

NAPLES, May 27—(AP).—Canadian and British troops of the 8th Army moved up the Liri Valley today against the towns of Ceprano and Arce, key points on the Cassino-Rome highway, battering against strong German armored opposition. Meanwhile reconnaissance elements of the Allied 5th Army thrust to within 2½ miles of Valmontone, a key point in the main German defence line southeast of Rome. Valmontone is 36 miles northwest of menaced Ceprano.

In the surge through the Liri Valley Canadian and British 8th Army formations defeated the Germans in a furious tank battle west of the Melfa River, knocking out 12 tanks.

Then the Canadians—who had established bridgeheads across the Melfa River in earlier fighting — pushed on with British forces to within two miles of Arce, near the confluence of the Liri and Sacco Rivers, and to within two or three miles of Ceprano, important road junction four miles southwest of Arce. Both towns are on the Cassino-Rome highway which runs from Ceprano through Frosinone and Valmontone to the Italian capital.

Ceprano and Arce control communications in Liri Valley where Highway No. 6—the Cassino-Rome route—begins a long straight stretch through the Sacco River valley towards Rome.

Desperate Nazis threw in reinforcements at several danger points and used more armor and mobile forcs against the Liri Valley thrust than at any previous time in the Italian campaign.

Even though their right flank had been turned, the German First Parachute Division attempted to hold a Melfa River line in the Liri Valley north of the main railroad bridge yesterday morning, but the British troops forced a crossing and 8th Army tanks plunged through.

Castrocielo and Roccasecca, the town nestling in the foothills on northern edges of the Liri Valley west-north-west of Cassino, were quickly cleared by Indian and Polish troops of the 8th Army.

In this area paratroopers abandoned two Mark IV tanks in good running condition, and three anti-tank guns were abandoned in Pied-

STRONG ARMORED
(Continued on Page 12, Column 3)

Expect Germans To Evacuate City Of Rome

By JAMES F. KING
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 27 —(AP)— The Germans have opened a propaganda campaign preparing for the fall of Rome, and through the Vichy radio have spread word that Nazi forces would retire to a new defence line to the north without defending the city.

Quoting a German military spokesman, the Vichy broadcast last night said capture of Rome "would bring no new element in the general conduct of the war except for the prestige which would be gained by this success."

Announcement that the city would not be defended was seen in London as possibly carrying a double purpose.

1. To ease the shock among the German people and Hitler's satellites when the city falls.

2. To set the stage for placing responsibility on the Allies for any damage the Eternal City might suffer.

With the 5th Army driving against the last line of defence less than 20 miles to the south, gunfire already could be heard in Rome—pictured by neutral reports as a city of confusion, rumors and hunger.

In the last few days through

EXPECT GERMANS
(Continued on Page 1.., Column 3)

The Weather

Peterborough Temperatures:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Today: | | | |
| Night low | 63 | 9 a.m. | 66 |
| Yesterday: | | | |
| Highest | 83 | Lowest | 60 |
| One Year Ago: | | | |
| Highest | 64 | Lowest | 53 |

Weather Forecast:

Georgian Bay — Moderate winds; fair and warm to-day and Sunday.

Lower Lake Region—Moderate winds; generally fair to-day and Sunday; not quite so warm on Sunday.

Ottawa and Upper St. Lawrence Valleys — Moderate winds; fair to-day and Sunday; not quite so warm on Sunday.

Chinese Pursue Retreating Japs

CHUNGKING, May 27.—(AP). — Chinese are in pursuit of retreating Japanese who escaped with severe losses from a trap at Tatangtzu, "the highest battle field in the world," on the Salween front, the Chinese High Command announced to-day.

Tatangtzu is 29 miles northeast of Tengchung, and a big battle was believed in prospect for that strategic pivot of Japanese communications north of the Burma road.

The Japanese, with reinforcements, are counter-attacking south of Kaitou, the communique added.

Planes from the Chinese-American wing of the 14th army air force strafed enemy troops yesterday in the vicinity of Loyang, the ancient Chinese city whose probable fall to the Japanese has been conceded, said a communique from Allied North Burma Headquarters said today.

Other air activity included the damaging of a small merchant vessel southeast of Hong Kong by American heavy bombers, the bombing and burning of at least six river boats loaded with troops and supplies on the Yangtze river, and a strafing of troops on a road near Shansi that caused "many casualties."

Canadian Says Rocket Terrific Weapon

By ALAN RANDAL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

R.A.F. Coastal Command Headquarters, Somewhere in England, May 27 (CP Cable)—The newly-disclosed rocket gun, which the R.A.F. Coastal Command has been using with marked success in strikes against enemy shipping, is described by one Canadian airman as "a terrific weapon."

This flier, whose name cannot be disclosed, is an expert at this type of anti-shipping work and gained the D.S.O. last January for his achievements against enemy surface ships.

The rocket projectile is carried by Beaufighters and other types of coastal command planes and has been used against submarines and also such land targets as bridges, gun emplacements, wireless stations and military buildings.

It has been in use by R.A.F. and also by American planes, since last summer but disclosure of the weapon came only yesterday from headquarters of Air Chief Marshal Sir Sholto Douglas, chief of Coastal Command.

It was announced earlier in Washington that American planes hunting Nazi submarines now are equipped with long-range rocket guns.

It was explained at Coastal Command headquarters that eight rockets are carried, four under each side of the main wing. They can be fired in pairs of broadside, depending on which seems the best method of attack. The rocket projectile can be used as a primary weapon to sink enemy shipping or as a secondary weapon to keep down anti-aircraft fire from ships and damage the vessels themselves.

The rocket consists of a shell tube filled with cordite. The cordite is ignited by a small platinum fuse wire. The consequent flow of gas issuing from the tail propels the rocket, complete with its head, forward

CANADIAN SAYS
(Continued on Page 2, Column 2)

Russians Hit German Convoy

LONDON, May 27 (CP) — The Russians reported last night an Air attack on German troopships in the Barents Sea north of Norway, the first time in months large-scale German troop movements had been noted in arctic waters.

The midnight communique from Moscow said two transports and a destroyer were sunk and three other ships damaged. Whether the ships were carrying new German forces to Norway or withdrawing some was not specified.

Earlier the Germans claimed to have shot down 69 of the 80 attacking Red Fleet Air Force, but the Russians said only seven bombers were lost and 10 German planes were downed.

Skirmishes southeast of Stanislawow in pre-war Poland comprised the only activity reported on the long eastern land front.

The Berlin radio, in a broadcast recorded by the Daily Express, reported Red forces had occupied the island of Lavansaari in the Gulf of Finland, 70 miles west of Kronstadt, big Russian naval base, and 80 miles northwest of Narva.

EXTRA!

NAPLES—Italy-based American heavy bombers today attacked rail facilities in southeastern France for the third successive day.

LONDON—An armada of up to 1,000 American heavy bombers smashed railroad targets at four German towns and aircraft plants in two French cities today in a powerful renewal of the Allied pre-invasion aerial battering of Hitler's Europe.

NEW YORK—David Anderson in an NBC report from London quoted the German-controlled Vichy radio today as saying the Russians have started an offensive on the eastern front. No details were given and there was no confirmation from any other source.

Danube Mined Traffic Reduced

NAPLES, May 27 (AP)—A new series of mining operations, covering hundreds of miles of the Danube river—the vital water highway of the Balkans—has been completed by R.A.F. Liberators and Wellingtons of the strategic Air Force, it was announced officially today.

Mining of the Danube, carried out at night, has effectively reduced German waterway traffic to the eastern front.

"The difference in Danube traffic now, compared with the first time we went out, is like the difference between main street on Saturday night and a country lane," said an R.A.F. rear gunner, Sgt. William MacGuffie, of Whitehaven, Cumberland England.

After the mining of the Danube, it was announced, Hungarian and Romanian shipping companies broadcast a statement that they were no longer able to accept cargoes.

Canals and rivers—always a valuable means of transportation in Europe—are assuming even greater importance as Allied bombers methodically smash the railroad system.

The R.A.F. has been mining northern coastal lanes and many inland waterways successfully since 1940. Now it is completing an ambitious program along the Danube which has been carrying a great deal of oil traffic from Romania.

Chinese Capture Warong In Burma

By CHARLES A. GRUMICH
Associated Press Staff Writer

KANDY, Ceylon, May 27—(AP)—The Chinese have captured the North Burma town of Warong, 12 miles northeast of Kamaing, and seized a supply dump in the Mogaung Valley, inflicting heavy casualties on the enemy, it was officially announed today.

Allied troops from Zigyun in the Irrawaddy Bend were declared to have advanced 1½ miles toward the Japanese North Burma base of Myitkyina.

A Japanese battalion was reported to have been "practically annihilated and the commander killed" in the continuing fighting, which is ousting the Japanese from the Bishenpur area of India southwest of Imphal.

R. A. F. and Indian air force fighters and dive-bombers registered two direct hits on the Manipur river bridge in the Tonzang area, again cutting off communications serving the Japanese 33rd Division at the edge of the Imphal Plain.

Japan Has Lost 3 Million Tons In Sea Battles

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

Evidence increases that the Allies already have reduced Japan's outlying Pacific defences to such a low state as to render her inner bulwarks highly vulnerable to the great offensive which certainly will come as soon as the Hitlerian war is over—and maybe sooner.

James Forrestal, secretary of the United States Navy, says Allied sea warfare has been so successful that Japan's outer Pacific defences have been beaten down to the level of "a line of defence in name only." Eugene Burns, Associated Press war correspondent who has just returned home from the Pacific theatre, declares Nippon's defensive perimeter is so weak that the American Navy could slice through it at will. As a matter of fact, Burns adds, the Japanese are "operating everywhere on a shoestring."

Nearing Philippines

These results are amazing. They've been achieved in three ways: (1) By sinking the huge total of 3,000,000 tons of Nippon's shipping, thereby crippling her sea communications; (2) By such destruction of her warplanes and warships that she no longer can defend her remaining supply ships or outlying island strongholds; (3) By amphibious operations which have captured base after base and so have carried Allied forces steadily nearer the Philippines and Japan itself.

The latest demonstration of America's growing power and Japan's weakness is shown in the heavy raids by carrier-borne bombers on important Marcus and Wake Islands. Only two Japanese planes were seen, and both were destroyed.

Eugene Burns expects an early invasion of the Philippines, from which the Japanese can be attacked in China and on their own islands. There's support for this view in the steady leap-frog advances along the New Guinea coast. Having captured strategic Wadke island the other day, Allied southwest Pacific headquarters now show signs of getting set for another hop to the Schouten Islands, 200 miles further northwest. These afford air facilities—and the Philippines are only 900 miles away.

Member Wants 60,000 Men Back

REGINA, May 27—(CP).—M. A. MacPherson of Regina last night said there were 60,000 men in uniform in Canada who had been taken off farms and out of industry "where they were doing some good" toward the Dominion's war effort.

In a Progressive Conservative address broadcast over a regional network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, the former Conservative Saskatchewan Attorney-General said "it is difficult to hear the Liberals talk about an all-out war effort while this army of men remains mobilized at home."

Despite the C.C.F.'s promise not to socialize the land if successful in the provincial election June 15, Mr. MacPherson said if the C.C.F. proceeded to put their program into effect, they would not be able to withstand the pressure of their own system to socialize the land "any more than Lenin was able to."

He said Canadians in recent years have had a taste of regimentation through government - appointed boards which were necessary in wartime. The regimentation was one of what could be expected if the C.C.F. came into power.

Day Bombers Hit Karlsruhe And Mannheim

BY W. W. HERCHER
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 27 — (AP) — The Rhine River cities of Karlsruhe and Mannheim were struck by American heavy bombers today in a powerful resumption of the Allied pre-invasion aerial offensive, according to a German radio announcement.

The broadcast said unfavorable weather kept all but a few German interceptors from making contact with the bomber formations and their fighter escorts.

Residential quarters of the two cities were hard hit with "substantial quantities" of explosives and incendiaries, the radio added.

London observers said Allied formations including hundreds of heavy bombers crossed the Channel for three hours during the morning.

The size of the formations suggested strong attacks were under way as a follow up to night attacks on Ludwigshafen and the Rothe Erde Railway yeards at Aachen by R.A.F. Mosquitoes.

The Berlin radio earlier warned that Allied fighter-bomber formations were approaching southwestern Germany and that fighters were moving in on Western Germany.

Two R.A.F. planes failed to return from the night operations, which included mine laying in enemy waters as well as the attack on the two German cities.

Halifaxes of the Canadian bomber group took part in the mine-laying operation and returned without loss.

The German radio at noon declared Allied fighter-bomber formations were approaching southwestern Germany and that fighters were flying towards western Germany. It reported single planes already flying over western Germany.

The roar of war planes over the English Channel today indicated the brief lull was over in the Allied aerial offensive from British bases, and that the Germans wide-spread invasion defences were in for another pounding.

Flying above a light covering of clouds, the strong force of Allied

MOSQUITOES RAID
(Continued on Page 12, Column 3)

Tweed Editor Vice-president

NIAGARA FALLS Ant., May 27 — (CP) — C. B. Smith of the Creemore, Ont., Star, was elected 1944-45 President of the Ontario-Quebec Division of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association at closing sessions of the Wartime Conference here today. He succeeds John A. Marsh of the Amherstburg, Ont., Echo, who becomes Honorary President.

Other officers elected were: William Aylesworth of the Watford, Ont., Guide Advocate, first vice-president; Sam Curry, Tweed Ont., News, second vice-President, and R. A. Giles, Lachute, Que., Watchman secretary-treasurer.

Directors elected were: C. E. Bond, New Liskeard, Ont., Speaker; L. B. Cainan Picton, Ont., Gazette; G. Anslow Dundas, Ont., Star; D.

TWEED EDITOR
(Continued on Page 2, Column 2)

Nothing Is Safe

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., May 27—(AP).—Stanley Miller has sent a bill of $18.50 to the city for a new oil stove. He claims it was picked up by rubbish collectors after he carried it outdoors for a cleaning.

WAR BULLETINS

Canada's Northwest Comes Under Review

OTTAWA: House discusses development of natural resources in Canada's northwest. Canal project rapped.

• • • •

Pre-Invasion Aerial Blows Shake Europe

AERIAL: Mosquitoes launch attack on Ludwigshafen; railyards at Aachen heavily pounded during the night.

• • • •

Heavy Armor Covering Hun Retreat In Italy

ITALY: Germans falling back on third defence line as Canadians and British push up Liri Valley. 5th Army drives from Anzio toward Valmontone.

• • • •

Italian Capital May Yet Be Spared

LONDON: Belief exists that Germans will evacuate Rome before the Allied armies reach the city.

Army Battles Forest Fires

Flames Devouring Forests In 5 Provinces

By The Canadian Press.

Forest fires, spurred by wind and dry weather, are raging in at least five provinces of the Dominion, a survey by The Canadian Press showed today.

Canadian Army personnel were fighting flames in British Columbia, Ontario, and Nova Scotia where the worst conflagrations were reported. In New Brunswick and Quebec smaller fires were reported in several sections.

Hon. W. G. Thompson, Minister of Lands and Forests for Ontario, yesterday said a major fire hazard was developing in Northern Ontario and it was expected to grow worse with the weatherman's prediction of dry weather for the next few days.

In British Columbia Forestry Department officials said rain was badly needed to prevent any further outbreaks as they received calls for assistance from several areas in the northern section of the province.

New outbreaks were reported in several sections of Nova Scotia last night as soldiers and forest rangers fought three serious fires.

Golden Rule Peace Plan

Bracken Finds Religious Principle Answer

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 27—(CP)—John Bracken, national leader of the Progressive Conservative Association, in an address to wartime conference of the Ontario-Quebec division of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association last night said "what I think we need is not a new 'religion' but a re-statement of the old 'religion' in the basic language that the man on the street understands."

"Interpreted it means a job for every man, fair pay for every man, responsibility for every man, equity for farmers, fair treatment for enterprise, opportunity for youth, equality for women, security for the aged, and expanding economy for all—a world of peace for all," said Mr. Bracken.

"Let us build these objectives into the fabric of this nation and help promote goodwill between man and man, nation and nation and that will be a worthy monument to the men and women who are sacrificing their lives to win the peace."

Council Upholds Rates Set By Assessor

LAKEFIELD, May 27.—(ENS).—Five of six appeals against 1944 assessment were turned down by the village councillors at Court of Revision this week. The single appeal granted was that of Vivian Payne, who claimed that a lot sold off his property on Strickland street had never been taken off his deed and that he, as well as the owner of the lot, was assessed for it. His assessment was accordingly reduced $150.

E. W. Bailey, appearing on behalf of the Canada Cement, objected to an assessment of $55,000 on the company's storage tanks at present leased to the Richardson and Sons Grain Elevator Co. He claimed that with an assessment of $18,000 on the portion sold to Ventures Ltd., that it left only a 9 per cent reduction for that portion demolished, which he felt was not enough. Mr. Bailey said that the Canada Cement had offered the tanks to the Richardson Co. for $25000 and believed that the assessment should be placed above that figure. By reducing the levy to this figure the company felt there might be an inducement to the Richardson people to purchase and thereby create employment in the village. Should Richardson & Sons cancel their lease, which is on a yearly absis, the company stated Mr. Bailey intended to demolish the tanks thus leaving the village with no revenue whatsoever from them.

Reeve Gordon Scriver called upon the valuator, T. C. Ephgrave, for his views and Mr. Ephgrave stated that at pre-war costs the tanks could not be built for less than $250,000 and if they were replaced to-day would run considerably higher. An official of the grain company he said, had informed him that if these tanks were at a lake port they would have been assessed at full value. Only recently, while putting the tanks back in shape again, some $35,000 is reported to have been spent upon them, hence taking all things into consideration Mr. Ephgrave felt $55,000 was a fair assessment.

Reeve Scriver stated the revaluation of the village was being done for a fair equalization and if the citizensc were to be asked to pay on their own assessment as set by the valuator, that it would not be fair to reduce the Canada Cement assessment thus placing that reduction as a burden on the citizens.

Councillor Reg Doubt said it was apparent from the fact that the Richardson Bros. had not already accepted the $25,000 offer for the tanks that they were here only while the war pressure was on for grain storage and apparently intended to leave once this urgent need was over, and this being the case felt while they were here the property should be assessed at a fair value.

Mr. Bailey stated he felt the council was making a mistake as it was the taxation that played a great part in forcing the company to close down in 1930.

The council apparently disagreed with Mr. Bailey for on motion of W. C. Grant and George Graham the assessment was sustained.

F. C. Coyle appealed upon an assessment of $4,860 on his garage and $390 on the land, an assessment which he claimed double previous years. Mr. Ephgrave, called upon for an explanation of the figure which was two-thirds of what he valued the property at, claimed that the building could not be put up today for $7,500 and pointed out the building was of first class structure and modern in every way. Mr. Coyle stated the building had cost $4,400 and $4,600, and that a figure of $7,500 was away out of line, to which Mr. Ephgrave replied that while that may be true it was not necessarily an indication of the value of the building.

Councillor George Graham stated that the village had hired an expert valuator having full confidence in his ability and that it should be upheld. The appeal was dismissed.

Proper Valuation.

A. Drummond complained that an assesment of $250 on his cottage on the waterfront was too high and should be reduced to $100. He pointed out that another property close to his and worth four or five times as much, was assessed for very little more.

"That," stated Reeve Scriver, "is just what we're having the revaluation for, to have things of this sort straightened out. The council felt the $250 assessment was not excessive and the figure was sustained.

An appeal by C. S. Tanner, who did not appear, protested a figure of $1,563 on his store and apartment and $412 for the land, a total of $1,975 and $510 on the Bell Telephone Co. office, and $440 on the land, a total of $950 on that portion. The appeal was rejected.

Mrs. Clara Webster objected to a jump from her 1943 assessment of $1,800 on her home and undertaking parlors and $600 on the land, to a 1944 figure of $3,857 on her buildings and $643 on the land.

Mr. Ephgrave pointed out that to replace the entire structure today would mean an outlay of some $13,000. He pointed out, however, that he had allowed a depreciation of 65 per cent and that despite the fact the building had hardwood floors throughout, with plumbing, was newly decorated and in general first-class condition. Mrs. Webster claimed her old assessment of $2,400 as set by Judge Smoke, and was perfectly willing to let the matter go before him again.

The appeal was dismissed.

General Insurance

STAN DARLING
Insurance
Fire, Auto, Accident and Health, Plate Glass Liability and Life.
346 WATER ST. PHONE 8884

T. MARK & SON
General Insurance
360 WATER ST.
Phone 5425

INSURE IN SURE INSURANCE
C. J. RAY
418 Water Street Tel. 4142
Fire, Automobile, Sickness and Accident, Plate Glass, Liability, Etc

CONSUMER'S RATION COUPON CALENDAR — JUNE

COUPON VALUES
BUTTER - ½ pound
TEA - ¼ pound
COFFEE - 1 pound
SUGAR - 1 pound
CANNING SUGAR 1 pound

| SUN | MON | TUES | WED | THURSDAY | FRI | SAT |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | | | | 1 . . . | 2 | 3 |
| 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 Tea-Coffee Coupon T-34; Sugar Coupons 34 & 35; Preserves Coupons 21 & 22; Butter Coupons 64, 65 | 9 | 10 |
| 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 . . . | 16 | 17 |
| 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 Tea-Coffee Coupon T-35; Butter Coupons 66 & 67 | 23 | 24 |
| 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 . . . | 30 Butter Coupons 62, 63, 64, 65 Expire. | |

On and after June 1st One Preserves Coupon = 24 fluid ounces Maple Syrup

Roosevelt Wants Another Visit

WASHINGTON, May 27—(AP)—Suggesting that this summer's Allied operations against Hitler in Europe be described as liberation rather than invasion, President Roosevelt has left open the possibility that he might be close at hand to see some of it happen.

He told reporters at his news conference yesterday that he hopes to confer again with Prime Minister Churchill in the summer, the fall, or the late spring, naming the seasons in that order.

By ruling out winter as a possible time for the conference, on the ground that he does not like to cross the Atlantic at that time of year, Mr. Roosevelt indicated it probably will be he who does the travelling.

It was not brought out whether Mr. Roosevelt's reference to late spring as a possible time for the meeting applied to the few remaining weeks of spring, 1944, or to next year, after the presidential election and inauguration.

The bantering nature of the President's remarks left to his listeners any interpretation of fourth-term implications in his words.

Yesterday, at a news conference, he said he might see Mr. Churchill in the late spring, or summer, or possibly in the fall. Indications that the President would make the trip rather than the Prime Minister,

ROOSEVELT WANTS
(Continued on Page 12, Column 6)

MORE ABOUT—
Canadian Says

Continued from Page 1

along guide rails under the plane's wing and in the sighted direction. Four fins are fitted to the rocket's trailing end for stabilization in flight.

There is no recoil shock, as this is taken up by high velocity gasses ejected by the rocket itself. These gasses blow beneath the wing surfaces, where they do not affect the aircraft.

The Coastal Command attack on shipping, in conjunction with navy operations, has been so successful, that there are no known enemy surface ships at sea attempting to run the Allied blockade of Germany.

MORE ABOUT—
Tweed Editor

Continued from Page 1

R. Wilson, Shawinigan, Que., Standard; Ken Walls, Barrie, Ont., Examiner; T. E. Southcott, Exeter, Ont., Times-Advocate; Laird Miller, Jarvis Ont., Record; Jack Pickell, Paris, Ont., Star.

Keene News

The anniversary services of Keene United church will be held on June 18, when the guest preacher will be Rev. J. A. Cranston, D.D., of Toronto.

The annual banquet of the Young People's Society will be next Friday, May 26. Rev. H. Mahoney will give the address and members of the C.G.I.T., Y.P.U., Tillicum Class and Trail Rangers and all young people on the charge are invited. The banquet begins at 6.30 and an interesting program has been arranged.

At the Y.P.U. meeting which was in charge of Christian Culture, Stella Plunkett gave an interesting reading on the topic "Christ and the Fishermen." Lois Wright read the scripture, Tom Gall led in prayer, and Mary Miller gave a reading on the lesson. Definite arrangements were made for the banquet on Friday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Peterson and daughter, Gwenneth, of Toronto, were visitors at the United church manse last week-end.

Kenneth G. Murray of H.M.C.S. York spent the week-end at his home at the manse.

Having Trouble

TORONTO, May 27 (CP).—Answering a call from a citizen who heard noises in the Chalmer mills here, police discovered two shopbreakers in the mill, buried neck deep in a bin of flour. Detective Fred Miller, who placed the men under arrest, commented only, "They were a funny looking pair."

MORE ABOUT—
Canadians Finish

Continued from Page 1

It was a week later, in the early morning of May 23, that Canadian, British and French artillery chorused an hour-long prelude to the infantry push that carried Maritime and Western battalions across the Aquino-Pontecorvo road to stay in a day of raging conflict. On the left flank Ontario battalions that had gone through a hole in the line the day before felt their way forward simultaneously.

Both Canadian and German dead, both British and German tanks, were strewn through the fields as Maritime and French-speaking battalions with tanks continued to advance in a left hook that brought them to the next road running from Highway 6, great artery of supply, to Pontecorvo.

This set the stage for exploitation by Maj.-Gen. B. M. Hoffmeister's division. His tanks and infantry surged forward early May 24 in the first offensive action since his arrival in Italy last autumn and it is this action that has crossed the Melfa river and rolled northwest in continuing momentum.

On the left flank Vokes' infantry with armored support kept pace and the Corps moved ahead on a two-division front.

A recapitulation last night showed the Canadians were more than 17 air miles beyond the Rapido, the captors of somewhere near 1,500 prisoners, a solid anchor between the French on the left and Polish and British troops on the right.

It was Canadian armor that drew the main resistance and allowed the British forces to gain their own bridgehead over the Rapido. It was Canadian infantry that broke through between Pontecorvo and Aquino and made both these bastions untenable and helped the British forces to drive forward on the right.

Their triumph was achieved against men of the 90th Panzer Grenadier division and tanks of a panzer division brought south to meet the thrust. It is a fact the majority of the prisoners are far from the physical equal of the paratroopers the Canadians faced along the Adriatic coast front but in the positions they manned they didn't need to be.

As the Germans fled north in what can be called disorganized withdrawal, their position in Italy reflected one of the most severe blows dealt the German armies in this war.

The final strong line before Rome runs from Vezzano to Valmontone to the coast and the Allied armies—the Canadians with them—are ready for that, too, if the enemy is still ready to fight after losing more than 12,000 prisoners and thousands of dead and wounded in two weeks.

Slaght Tackles Question Bank Reserves

OTTAWA, May 27 — (CP) — Arthur Slaght (L—Parry Sound), a money reform candidate, today continued in the Commons Banking Committee a vigorous, but so far unsuccessful, attempt to have revealed the inner reserves of the 10 chartered banks.

The only specific information he obtained was the statement of C. S. Tompkins, Inspector General of Banks, that the figure should be given.

"I want to creep up on you as close as I can," said Mr. Slaght, in presenting his motion.

"I say that the hidden reserves are in the millions of dollars."

Mr. Tompkins: "It is in excess of $1,000,000."

Mr. Slaght: "Is it below $5,000,000?"

Mr. Tompkins: "I am not to be trapped that way."

Ross Macdonald (L—Brantford City) said he objected to Mr. Slaght's question.

Mr. Slaght: "All right, Mr. Tompkins, you appear to have friends here."

"Sure, they're all friends," said John Blackmore, Social Credit House Leader.

Mr. Macdonld: "I think it is improper. The question should be asked. When the committee has completed its work it can decide whether it is advisable in the interests of the depositors that these reserves should be disclosed."

Mr. Tompkins: "These inner reserves have not reached the fantastic figures some seem to think they have."

Fraserville News

Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seabrooke of Fraserville included thier two sons Mr. Walter Seabrooke of Peterborough and Flt. Sgt. Ronald Seabrook of Jarvis, and Miss Opal Preston home visiting from the west.

Mrs. A. Hunter of Peterborough, is visiting her sister, Mrs Isaac Lewis, Fraserville.

Miss Elinor Pue, Fraserville, spent the week-end the guest of her friend, Miss Edith Cook at her home at Foxboro.

Miss Kathaleen Waterman of Peterborough, visited with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Waterman, Fraserville.

Mr. and Mrs. L Hewitt and son Herbie, of Fraserville, motored with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hewitt, of Peterborough to visit relatives at Hall's Lake. Mr and Mrs. Arthur Hewitt returned home with them after spending two weeks there

Palace Hit

STOCKHOLM, May 27 (AP) — The famed Imperial Palace in Berlin was damaged badly in recent daylight raids, travellers arriving here from Germany reported. The great throne room was hard hit, as was the chapel in which Frederick the Great was baptised.

GOOD EATING ANYWAY

The speckled trout is really a charr.

Oil Resources Reviewed In Parliament

By JAMES McCOOK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, May 27.—(CP).—Members of the Commons yesterday fixed their eyes on Northwestern Canada and kept them there all day.

They discussed development of oil resources, and then went on to general consideration of all the region and the wealth that examination might reveal.

Howard Green (P.C., Vancouver South) said he suggested that Canadians might seek further information on Russian development of her northern territories to see if Canada should follow examples given there.

Resources Minister Crerar said that a mission to see the Russian developments might be possible after the war, but in the meantime Canada was being informed of Russian findings in the north through the Canadian embassy in Moscow.

G. H. Castelden (C.C., Yorkton), said the rights to the development of oil resources in northwestern Canada had been "handed over" to the Imperial Oil Company, without sufficient return to the people of Canada.

Terms Fair.

Resources Minister Crerar replied that the government had not given away any of Canada's resources in the agreement entered into with the company and the United States. The United States spent $134,000,000 in development of the Canol project, which includes pipeline from Norman Wells, Northwest Territories, to White Horse, Yukon Territory.

Mr. Crerar said that development of northwestern oil resources had been pravided for on terms considered fair and equitable and which protected the public interest.

OIL RESOURCES
(Continued on Page 12, Column 5)

St. Lawrence Project As Post-War Plan

CORNWALL, May 27—(CP)—Probably the proposed St. Lawrence River seaway and power project will be completed as a post-war development was suggested by John Bracken, Progressive Conservative leader, in an address here last night to a joint meeting of service club.

"The possibilities of this great project cannot yet be determined but it will unquestionably result in unprecedented opportunties for Cornwall, eastern Ontario and northern New York. However long this great project is delayed, it cannot be denied because it is too great an opportunity," he said.

In a review of Canada's post-war problems, Mr. Bracken said the task before Canadians was to "correct the weaknesses of yesterday and assure that our boys return to a different mode of life than that they had 10 years ago."

Bethany News

Mrs. Reginald Palmer of Pickering, is spending a vacation at her residence, west end, Front street, while convalescing from a fall sustained this spring.

Miss E. Richardson, with her cousin, Miss Ida Staples, of Woodville, who is her guest this week, accompanied by Mrs. Veale, Mrs. H. Ryley and Mrs. T. F. Jackson attended the annual Women's Association convention held in St. James' church, Peterborough, on Thursday, as representatives of the Bethany United church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Glengarry Road, received congratulations from their friends to-day on the 53rd anniversary of their wedding day. They were married in 1891.

Named Inspector

GUELPH, May 27 — (CP). — J. E. Durrant, assistant principal of the Guelph Collegiate-Vocational Institute, has been appointed an Ontario High School inspector, it was announced to-day. Before coming to Guelph 15 years ago, Mr. Durrant was on the staff of the Oshawa Collegiate. He is a graduate of Western University.

RUSS AMBASSADOR—Georgey N. Zarubin, new Russian Ambassador to Canada, has arrived in Ottawa with his wife and 14-year-old son, Victor.

Would Transfer Entertainers To Vital Jobs

CHICAGO, May 26 (AP) — The United States' manpower problem is critical, says Lt.-Gen. Brehom Somervell, but it must be solved and he suggests that "if we have to close the night clubs, let's lock them up—and the poolrooms and bowling alleys with them."

And, the commanding general of the Army Service forces said in a speech last night, entertainers who have lost their jobs in night clubs because of a new tax law should find no difficulty in getting work in war industries.

"There are plenty of jobs for them in your plants," Gen. Somervell told a conference of 1,000 executives and industrialists. "Or on the railroads and steamships that are carrying the guns and ammunition to our fighting men.

"Let's put these crooners to work at something useful. Our men are dying in Burma and in the jungles of the southwest Pacific. They're dying in Italy and in the air over Germany. There's too much sorrow among the families of our fighting men to waste any tears on a master of ceremonies out of a soft job.

"If we have to close the night clubs, I say, let's close them up, and the poolrooms and bowling alleys with them. And let's do without perfume and jewelry, if that will help get the war over sooner."

He asserted that manpower still is being employed in beauty shops and perfume factories as well as poolrooms and bowling alleys and said "there's been a lot of moaning" over the loss of jobs recently by some 15,000 night club entertainers because of retrenchments following the 30 per cent federal excise tax on such entertainment.

Gen. Somervell said American railroads "are short" more than 100,000 men, and many other industries "already are below the minimum manpower they must have to do their essential part in the business of victory.

"Let's put first things first. Let's get our men home."

Gilmour News

Those who attended the W.C.T.U. convention in Cobourg were Mesdames Gordon Mann, Marcus Fowler, Clayton Telford, Allie Edmison, Harry Archer, Reg McMullen.

The young people of Gilmour Church who attended the convention at London were Messrs Burritt and Braden Mann, Fred Mann and Morris Telford.

The many friends of Mr. Charles Moore are sorry to hear of his removal to Nicholls Hospital.

Mrs. I. Mann of Alberta attended the funeral of the late Mr. S. Blewett.

Miss Dorothy Clarke of Toronto spent the week-end at her home.

Mr. James Moore of the Guelph College is spending a few weeks with his parents.

Marmora News

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jarvis are occupying their cottage at Crowe Lake.

Private John Dougall of Toronto is visiting relatives here.

Cheese, Produce and Livestock

TORONTO FRUIT

TORONTO, May 27 — (CP) — Wholesale fruit and vegetable prices were unchanged here today.

TORONTO HOGS

TORONTO, May 27 — (CP). — Prices were unchanged at baconhog markets reporting early today. Dressedweight: Stratford grade A $17.25, B1 $16.85, delivered; Barrie A $17.40, B1 $17, delivered; Hull A $17.40 delivered; London A $17.25 delivered.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, May 27 — (CP) — Canadian wheat for export was in good demand today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange with United States, United Kingdom, Portugal and Switzerland taking supplies. Sales aggregated 2,250,000 bushels.

The United States Commodity Credit Corp. was the biggest buyer, taking 800,000 bushels, while the United Kingdom bought 250,000.

Oats were also in demand for export, United States interests taking 750,000 bushels.

Early declines were overcome in late Rye futures dealings and at the close values were 3⅝ to 1⅞ higher.

Hog Quotations In Peterborough

SATURDAY, MAY 27

Grade A hogs $16.90 plus transportation.

Sows: $12.00 plus transportation.

Eggs: A large 31c; A medium 29 cents; A pullet 23c; B grade 26c; C grade 23c.

The Quaker Oats Company quotes No. 2, $1.10; No. 3, $1.08; milling Ontario Winter Wheat No. 1, $1.10; oats 62c; buckwheat 68c.

THE STARS SAY . . . . .

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Sunday, May 28

SUNDAY'S horoscope holds excellent auspices for forging ahead to cherished objectives, of magnitude and broad scope, with radical moves, changes and plans, also affiliations with those in place and power. Prudently managed there should be signs of promotion, favors and probably some form of public recognition or esteem. Romance and adventure also may give happiness.

Those whose birthday it is may enjoy a year of much happiness, progress and prosperity, especially in a surprising opening for putting in operation unique ideas or talents, in which there may be public support or tokens of approbation or esteem. Others in high places also assist to this desired place where personality, popularity and prestige are advanced. There is indication of social and romantic happiness with much festivity and celebration.

A child born on this day may be talented, ambitious and may have much progress, prosperity and personal joy and happiness in life, and possibly public honors as well.

For Monday, May 29

MONDAY'S astrological forecast is for a day of attacking new and cherished objectives, after the breaking up of long static or crystallized conditions. With limitations and impediments removed there should be determined effort to put over major operations of scope and far reaching security and stability. This excellent prospect should be aggressively attacked but with good reason and sound judgment, lest over-ambitious projects carry danger, with probable reactions on personal happiness.

Those whose birthday it is may enjoy a year of great progress in putting in successful operation cherished plans and objectives long delayed or frustrated. This may be caused by the breaking up of old congestions and stagnations, and with the friendly aid of those in power and authority. Seek this aid, but within reason and good judgment, lest there be some sort of personal friction or dissatisfaction. Social and romantic felicity are in sight with celebrations and enjoyments.

A child born on this day should have much sound sense and stability, with worthy ambitions that may bring personal position, happiness and success.

Life's Little Joke

CHICAGO, May 27—(AP).—Albert Bittner paid 50 cents for a bundle of shirts at an auction sale seven months ago, but he couldn't wear them—they had no collars. Mrs. Bittner decided the shirts could be used for cleaning rags and opened the bundle. In a bag in the pocket of one shirt she found $500 in currency.

Finance Query Intrigues House Members

BY JAMES McCOOK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, May 27 — (CP) — A Bank of Canada $1 bill bears the inscription that the Bank will pay to the bearer, on demand, $1. If someone is determined to make an issue of it, he can make his demand—and emerge with a new $1 bill exactly the same or a fistful of copper, silver or nickel. He won't get gold or anything fancy.

These facts of finance vastly intrigued members of the commons banking and commerce committee this week. Their instructor was John Blackmore, Social Credit House leader, who invited a witness S. M. Wedd, president of the Canadian Bankers' Association, to take a nickel and a $1 bill from his pocket and examine them.

Mr. Wedd had both, and so had almost every member of the committtee—although Arthur Slaght (L—Parry Sound) flourished a $5 bill.

"The $1 bill carries a promise to pay, but the nickle bears no promise," said Mr. Blackmore. "Yet you accept the nickel without question. The cost of minting $5 worth of nickels is 47 cents."

Mr. Blackmore said that paper money was redeemed with paper money and therefore debts were dischargeable with a piece of paper.

"Our entire financial system is based on paper," continued Mr. Blackmore and every member, holding fast to his bill, had not a word to say.

Clannish: Far be it from Ross Macdonald (L-Brantford) to deny a friendly clan.

By mistake Mr. Wedd called him "Mr. Mackenzie."

"No, the name's Macdonald," said Mr. Macdonald. "But Mackenzie is a good name, too.'

Mr. Fraser's Quip.

Retort. G. K. Fraser (PC-Peterborough West): "I do not want to be too hard on the C.C.F. because only the other day I was told by a Progressive Conservative member of the Ontario Assembly that the C.C.F. Opposition in the Ontario House was a model Opposition."

Clarence Gillis (CCF-Cape Breton South): "Surely."

Mr. Fraser: "'Surely,' the honorable member for Cape Breton South says. I have looked up the definition of 'model' in the dictionary, and I find that it means an imitation of the real thing."

Embarrassed: A few weeks ago a gentleman visited members of Parliament and gave J. W. Noseworthy (CCF-York South) a Bible. Later Mr. Noseworthy found it had been published by the Watch Tower Bible Tract Society of the United States and he told the House he understood publications by this society were banned from entering Canada.

Said Mr. Noseworthy, sadly:

"My question is, what am I to do with it now? If I keep it I am no longer a law-abiding citizen; I have in my possesion banned literature. If I give it to someone else I am placing that person in the position I now am in. My religious scruples will not permit me to destroy this Book."

10th Fire Victim

HAMILTON, May 27 (CP)—Miss Maisie Clark, 21, died in Hamilton General Hospital last night raising to 10 the death toll from a fire in the Moose Hall here early Wednesday.

BARI—Mass desertions by Bulgarian troops in southeastern Yugoslavia were reported by the headquarters of the Yugoslav Partisan military mission today, with a spokesman asserting that morale is weakening noticeably as tension mounts in the Balkans.

HEADS DIVISION—Maj.-Gen. B. M. Hoffmeister, the infantry of whose Canadian division are consolidating their positions on both sides of the Melfa River in Italy.

— — — — Clip Here and Mail to Someone in Service — Do It Now! — — — —

THE HOME FRONT

Service Edition of the Peterborough Examiner

VOL. 1. EVENING EXAMINER — PETERBOROUGH, MAY 27 NO. 31

Cadets Inspected

The Sea Cadets sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and the Air Force Cadets sponsored by the Rotary Club and the Sea Cadets of the Lakefield Preparatory school all were given their annual inspection and each corps made a splendid showing.

Golfing Season Opens

Although some of the old hands were somewhat off the mark, the golfing season at the Kawartha Club and the Peterborough Club opened on the weekend with the usual opening day program.

Trout Placed in Streams

The Deer Lake hatchery north of Havelock has supplied this district with 59,840 speckled trout placed in 24 streams.

26 Sheep Dead

Twenty-six sheep owned by Robert Dobbin and William Succee of North Monaghan township were recently killed by dogs believed to have strayed out from the city.

Gain In Membership

Substantial gains in membership by the councils of the order throughout the province were reported at the State Convention of the Knights of Columbus here. Dr. Gerald J. Luntz of Hamilton was re-elected state deputy.

Potatoes More Plentiful

On Saturday's farm market potatoes were more plentiful with the price dropping as low as $1.25 a bag. However the general price was $1.50.

50 Years Old

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carr, 566 Weller street celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. They have lived in Peterborough for 44 years.

Provincial Passes

Provincial Constable David Silvester of Bowmanville and formerly of Peterborough is dead. A funeral service was held in Murray Street Baptist church and interment was in Little Lake Cemetery.

Bass Out Of Season

Els Sheehy, Burnt River farmer, was fined $15 and costs for catching bass out of season.

Drowned In The Trent

James J. Bell of Campbellford was accidentally drowned when he slipped into the Trent River while fishing.

To Enlarge Plant

Robert Abbott, of the Raybestos Company, has announced that his company plans on enlarging the Peterborough plant.

Failed To Report

Neil Harrington was fined $25 and costs for failing to report to the Selective Service. Evidence showed he quit his job in December and when told by the Employment Office to report he failed to do so.

Four Horses Lost

Four horses were lost in a fire which destroyed the stables of the Weston Bread Company in Ashburnham.

Drown in Lake Baptiste

John McCulloch, 59, of New York was drowned while on a fishing trip in North Hastings.

Child Is Drowned

Elizabeth Anne Schinnour, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oakley Schinnour of Lindsay was drowned at Snug Harbor, Sturgeon Lake. The child's father is in the R. C. A. F., stationed at Mountain View.

On The Sports Front

Westclox defeated Aircraft in the opening game of the Girls' League 10 to 8, coming from behind by scoring five runs in the seventh inning.

In the City League this week's scores were Switchgear 10, St. Peter's 9; Plazas 12, Soldiers 5; St. Peter's 7, U.E.W. 6; Plazas 20, U.E.W. 1.

Police had to interfere when the fans invaded the ring in a wrestling bout between John Katan and Frankie Sexton.

ESTABLISHED 1899
CONTINENTAL LIFE — FOUR SQUARE
Continental Four Square Service
Throughout 44 years the Continental Life Four Square Service has proved to be the foundation of Security and Financial Independence for policyholders and beneficiaries.
THE CONTINENTAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
HEAD OFFICE TORONTO
J. R. S. MacLEOD BRANCH MANAGER
355 George Street, Peterborough
A Purely Canadian Company

SAFE IN AMERICA — Rev. Howard J. Veals and Mrs. Veals and their two daughters, Katherine and Marion, have arrived in the United States from China this week. It is expected that within a few days they will reach Omemee, where a brother and two sisters of Mrs. Veals live.

Paul Tells Friends of Joys Found Serving Ministry

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for May 8 is II Corinthians 4:1-5:21, the Golden Text being II Corinthians 8:9, "Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though He was rich yet for your sakes He became poor, that ye through His poverty might become rich.")

◇ ◇ ◇

IN THIS lesson Paul writes to his friends in Corinth of his conception of his ministry, and what constitutes a real minister of the gospel of Christ.

Paul testifies that he received strength from his work. "Seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not," he writes. He suffered many discouragements, false accusations, physical harm and almost lost his life on more than one occasion, but his fervent feeling of love and thankfulness that he had been converted and accepted Christ, his earnest desire to turn as many as possible to the gospel, rose above the dangers of his life and all its discouragements.

A minister of the gospel should have "renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending themselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God."

Strive to Follow Jesus

Of all men on earth, those who accept posts in the Master's service, should strive to as nearly as possible live like Jesus. They do infinite harm when they forget their missions and think more of money, and of their own selfish gain than of the message they are sworn to teach. "The God of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them."

"We preach not ourselves," says Paul, "but Christ Jesus." No true minister uses his pulpit to exalt himself, but to proclaim Jesus Christ.

Following the Master's example the minister "faints not," but "though the outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day." How true this is many a good pastor can testify. There are times when such a man is worn out physically, even discouraged mentally and spiritually, but he finds strength to carry on. He is "renewed day by day." What he suffers from calumny, maybe, from the indifference of the world, in many other ways, he considers these but "light afflictions," as Paul says.

"We look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal."

At the beginning of chapter 5 of the second epistle to Corinthians, Paul writes:

"For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

In this earthly tabernacle we "groan, being burdened," Paul writes, but in spite of all the burdens, and Paul himself had many, we are reminded, "we are always confident (for we walk by faith, not by sight). Wherefore we labor, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of Him."

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."

Finally, Paul wrote, "Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you, in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God."

Annual Meet

MONTREAL, May 27 — (CP) — More than 120 Fellows from all parts of Canada are expected to attend the annual meeting of the Royal Society of Canada when the Society holds its three-day sittings in the new building at the University of Mount Royal, starting Monday.

NO RATIONING THERE

A coffee perculator is as essential as a typewriter in many Brazilian business offices, since the beverage is served several times a day.

The Charm of A Christian

By REV. E. R. JAMES

The servant of the Lord must be gentle unto all men.—2 Timothy 2:24.

In the last century, during the Victorian period, it was very common to speak of a lady as "a gentle woman." Today the expression is very rarely used. Have you ever met a gentle-woman? If so, you have never forgotten the impression she left on you. There was a quietness and charm about her; the voice quite low and an utter absence of "side." She was the very essence of courtesy to everyone. This writer boarded for many months in the home of such a "gentlewoman." She had left school early and her hands were toil worn. She would not have known how to behave in a drawing room. Yet she was a gentlewoman; a living example of the Apostolic injunction: "The servant of the Lord must be gentle unto all men."

It is striking to remember that Our Lord was never called gentle by any Gospel writer. The word occurs three times in the Bible: The Psalmist exclaims: "Thy gentleness hath made me great." Ps. 18:38. St. Paul pleads: "I entreat you by the gentleness of Christ. 2 Cor. 10:1. And he further teaches: "The fruit of the Spirit is gentleness." Gal. 5:24.

Without doubt Our Lord was the true Gentleman for the Spirit in all its fulness dwelt in Him. The very fact that the Spirit descended upon Him in the form of dove taught that He must be gentle and harmless. Have you noticed that Our Lord never shouts. "His Voice shall not be heard in the streets" is the prophetic promise. This is a striking contrast to oriental life which is full of noise and shouting. What an example for our noisy age. Quietly and calmly He went about and His very gentleness attracted the leper and the outcast. Little children loved to be taken up in His arms. Truly He is a Man Who is gentle. But we must not forget that He had been a Carpenter and Builder by trade; a business which developed both bone and muscle and created a strong body. We must get rid of the popular idea that the Lord Jesus was gentle and weak. He was gentle and also a strong man physically. He made an appeal to the strong fishermen of Galilee, who would certainly not have followed a weak and puny man.

The idea of gentleness is practically unknown in the Old Testament. It was an age of hardship, strife and battle. Men had to depend upon their own strong right arm to defend home and family. Men of those days rarely died in their beds. God revealed His truth to His ancient people according as men were able to bear it. The ruthless massacre of the Amalakites was in accordance of the ideas of those days. God had to teach men His Divine truth line upon line, precept upon precept; here a little and there a little. The revelation of God's character was progressive. God accommodated Himself to the ideas of men of that period. This is sound psychology.

Then in the fulness of time the "Word was made flesh and dwelt among us; and we beheld His glory the glory as of the only begotten of the Father full of grace and truth." The Lord walked among men as the Carpenter of Nazareth. Those who had eyes to see were fascinated by the beauty and loveliness of His character. He called twelve men "that they might be with Him" as the Evangelist pointedly puts it. As they went up and down the land with Him they were thrilled and fascinated by the greatest Personality of the ages. They not only heard words of deep meaning fall from His lips—never Man spake as this Man—but His goodness, purity and gentleness filled their hearts and they came to love Him for Himself.

Later they discoverd that He is the perfect Image of the invisible God. The tremendous truth dawned upon them..worshippers of the One God —that they saw God in the Person of Jesus Christ. "He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father" is His own claim.

You have friends and acquaintances. What do they think of your Christian life and character? Do they see in you something of His beauty, His patience and His gentleness? This can only be seen through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit in you. The indwelling Spirit will mould and reveal the Christ in you. "That Christ may dwell in your heart by faith" should be your ideal, that men may see Christ in you. Christianity in its highest is fascinating and attractive. It is catching in the truest sense of the word.

Are you hot tempered, priding yourself in speaking your mind? To overcome this fault will mean pain and grief to you. When the temptation rises the Spirit will give you strength to hold your tongue, to keep silent when it is pain and grief to you. Slowly your friends will see that you becoming kinder and gentler in your speech and manner. This is the outward and visible sign of the indwelling of the Spirit of the Lord. "Christ is being formed in you" in very truth, here a little and there a little. Perhaps this ancient prayer may help you: "God be in my mind and be in my thoughts."

LET THIS MIND BE IN YOU WHICH WAS ALSO IN CHRIST JESUS OUR LORD.

Repatriated Missionary To Be Visitor in City on Sunday

Rev. C. Scratch will be a visitor to Peterborough over the week-end, when he will speak at the Pentecostal Church. Mr. Scatch was recently released from internment in occupied China, and was rapatriated on the last return trip of the Gripsholm from the Far East. Going to China as missionaries with the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada in 1935, Rev. and Mrs. Scratch spent most of their years of service around the city of Tsingtao, former German colony. A few months before Pearl Harbor, Mrs. Scratch and their daughter Lorraine returned to Canada. After hostilities broke out, Mr. Scratch was permitted to continue his work with a limited amount of freedom in the city of Peiping, for a number of months before being finally interned. The large camp confined hundred of other foreign nationals, including the medical staff of the great Peiping hospital, a modern institution, described as comparable to any in our large cities. Mr. Scratch was appointed one of a committee of three, which was responsible for arranging for the camp food supply with the Jap authorities. It is his opinion that much of the bluster and arrogance of the Jap is an effort to overcome an instinctive inferiority which he feels relative to the white man. Mr. Scratch lost weight alarmingly, as did many others, during internment. He found the mental tension to be the worst hardship. Quite naturally he feels that one of the greatest moments of his life was the first glimpse of the Swedish luxury liner Gripsholm as she sailed into the Portuguese Indian harbor to meet their Jap prison ship. She seemed to them a symbol of freedom and home.

REV. C. SCRATCH

Church News and Notices

VARIOUS

CHRISTIAN AND MISSIONARY ALLIANCE
BETHANY TABERNACLE
George Street (near Y.M.C.A.)
Rev. Walter S. Crone, Pastor

Youth Campaign Closes With Two Great Services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.
With
Rev. and Mrs. James W. Anderson, of Flint, Michigan
And
Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Anderson, of Houghton, New York
PREACHERS — MUSICIANS — SINGERS
10 A.M. ......... Bible School, Classes For All Ages
4 P.M. ......... Young People's Radio Hour—CHEX
At Bethany you will find the ministry of the Full Gospel, a real welcome and true Christian friendship.
"A SUNDAY WELL SPENT MEANS A WEEK OF CONTENT"

BROCK STREET GOSPEL HALL
Near Aylmer—Meetings Lord's Day (D.V.)
10 A.M. ......................... Sunday School
11 A.M. ......................... Breaking of Bread
7 P.M. ......................... Gospel Service
Wednesday 8 p.m., Prayer Service and Bible Study
"While We Were Yet Sinners Christ Died For Us."—Rom. 5:8
Come! A Friendly Welcome Awaits You

Full Gospel Pentecostal Church
370 Water Street - - Near Simcoe Street
Pastor, Rev. Hugh J. McAlister

THIS WEEK ONLY
Rev. C. Scratch of North China
Recently repatriated after having spent several months in Jap internment camp. You will be gripped with his graphic picture of the situation. His message will give you something to think about.
Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Lantern slides Monday at 8 p.m.
Mr. Scratch will also speak briefly on the Glad Tidings Gospel Broadcast at 3 p.m. over Station CHEX.

Coldspring Union Sunday School
OTONABEE
56TH ANNIVERSARY SERVICE 2.45 P.M.
Guest Speaker
Rev. E. J. Whan, Pastor of Park St. Baptist Church
C. F. Kitney Superintendent — Everett Kidd Secretary

ELIM TABERNACLE
OLD LYCEUM HALL, SIMCOE ST.
(THE APOSTOLIC CHURCH IN CANADA)
Rev. F. C. Poole, Pastor
10 a.m.—Bible Class — Sunday School
11 a.m. — — Devotional Service
7 p.m. — — Evangelistic Service
SPECIAL NOTE! ELIM TABERNACLE GOSPEL BROADCAST OVER CHEX WILL BE AT 1.30 P.M. SUNDAY.
"FAITH COMETH BY HEARING, AND HEARING BY THE WORD OF GOD."—Rom. 10:17.
All visitors heartily welcome.

GOSPEL HALL
McDonnel St. (Near Water St.)
LORD'S DAY
11 A.M. ......................... Lord's Supper
3 P.M. ......................... Sunday School
7 P.M. ......................... Gospel and Song Service
Speaker—Mr. F. R. PEER, of BELLEVILLE
Those who have heard of Mr. Peer before will welcome this opportunity to hear him again. He is a former missionary to the West Indies and a very interesting speaker.
A FRIENDLY WELCOME AWAITS YOU
FRIDAY, 8 P.M. ............... YOUNG PEOPLE'S MEETING

THE SALVATION ARMY
SIMCOE AND AYLMER STREETS
Major and Mrs. John Wood, Commanding Officers
SUNDAY SERVICES: 11.00 a.m., 3.15 p.m., 7 p.m.
(Evening Service broadcast over CHEX 7.00-7.30)
FOR YOUNG PEOPLE: Doctrine Class, 10.15 a.m.; Sunday School 2.15 p.m.
Week-night Meetings—Wednesday and Friday, 8 p.m.
Every Saturday, 8.00 p.m. at George and Simcoe streets. Great Gospel service and band concert.

ANGLICAN

ST JOHN'S
Hunter St. W. (Opposite Queen)
Rector:
Rev. Canon W P Robertson B.A., B.D.
Organist and Choirmaster F G Mann, L.Mus.
WHITSUNDAY
8.30 A.M. .... Holy Communion
11 A.M. ...... Holy Communion
11.30 A.M. ........ Kindergarten
3 P.M. ...... Sunday School and Bible Classes
7 P.M. ............. Evensong
Preacher: Canon Robertson
Daily intercessions 5 p.m.; Wednesday, 10 a.m., Holy Communion.

ALL SAINTS'
Rector, Rev. W. A. Filer
Corner of Rubidge and Sherbrooke Streets
WHITSUNDAY
11 A.M. ...... Morning Prayer
"The Lord and Giver of Life"
3 P.M. ........ Sunday School
7 P.M. ........ Evening Prayer
"There Shall Be No Night There."
Last in Series "Night of the Bible."
Preacher For the Day—The Rector
Next Sunday, June 4th—Confirmation. Service at 11 a.m. Bishop Beverley of Toronto, will officiate.

ST. LUKE'S
Rogers St. (opposite Robinson)
Rev. A. J. Arthur, B.A., B.D
WHITSUNDAY
8 A.M. ...... Holy Communion
11 A.M. ...... Morning Prayer
3 P.M. .......... Sunday School
7 P.M. .......... Evening Prayer

BAPTIST

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH
(Independent)
NEW ROMAINE AND MERVIN AVENUE
Rev. L. E. Jones, Pastor
11.00 A.M. .............. Bible Study In Ephesians
3.00 P.M. ...................... Bible School
7.00 P.M. .............. Rev. A. Brodie Will Preach
"The Church Where You're a Stranger Only Once"

MURRAY STREET BAPTIST
Rev. Joseph H. Sutcliffe, M.A., B.D., Minister
Mr. Stanley Northrop, A.T.C.M., Acting Organist and Choir Director
11 A.M. ...... Service of Worship and Church School
Sermon Subject: "WHERE IS OUR DEPENDENCE?"
7 P.M. ...................... Sermon Subject:
"WHY PEOPLE STUMBLE"

PARK STREET BAPTIST
Rev. E. J. Whan, Pastor
11 A.M. ............... Morning Worship and Sunday School
"Commit Thy Way Unto The Lord"
7 p.m. — — "A Wise Resolution"
Second in Series on the Prodigal Son

UNITED CHURCH

MARK STREET
"House of Friendship"
Minister Rev. E. W. Rowland.
11 A.M. .......... Morning Worship and Junior Congregation
Subject: "WHAT IS RIGHT WITH THE CHURCH?"
3 P.M. .................. Sunday School and Adult Bible Study
7 P.M. ............................ 15 Minutes' Song Service
Subject: "THE SAYINGS OF JESUS"
Harry Northrop, A.T.C.M., - Organist and Musical Director

ST. ANDREW'S UNITED CHURCH
(Rubidge and Brock Streets)
Rev. E. W. Young, M.A., B.D., D.D., Minister
Director of Music, R B Harle, L.L.S.M., A.T.C.L.
Mrs Ross Williamson, A.T.C.M., Soloist
11 A.M. .............. Subject: "A Pure Church"
3 P.M. ........... Sunday School and Bible Classes
7 P.M. .................... "Christian Science"
Visitors Cordially Welcome

ST. JAMES' UNITED CHURCH
Rev. Fred Craik, Minister
Cecil Lapp, Organist
SPECIAL SERVICES
11 A.M. .. The Place of Women in the Life of the Church. Speaker, Mrs. Major Wood.
Subject: "THOU SHALT BE LIKE A WATERED GARDEN"
Special Music—Christian Fellowship
3 P.M. ........... Sunday School and Brotherhood
Let Us Worship Together.
7 P.M. The Place of Men in the Life of the Church
1—The Brotherhood will have charge of the service.
2. Envoy Art Wells will preach.
3. Brotherhood Choir will render special music.
Favourite hymns from 6.45 p.m. to 7 p.m.

KNOX UNITED CHURCH
Rev. H. J. Mahoney, B.A., B.D.
William R. Potter, Musical Director
11.00 A.M. ............ "Knocking the Church"
Anthem—"The Lord Gave the Word"—Turner
12.15 .............................. Sunday School
7.00 P.M. .......... "Is Salvation Old-Fashioned?"
Anthem—"Sun of My Soul"—Turner

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH
Rev. G. S. Easton, M.A., D.D., Minister
GUEST MINISTER
Lieut.-Col., the Rev. Dr. G. O. Fallis, B.D., C.B.E. of Kingston
11.00 A.M. ......Public Worship and Children's Church. Sermon: "SHIELDS AGAINST DESPAIR"
3.00 P.M. ................ Church School and Bible Study Groups
7.00 P.M. ........................ Evening Service Sermon:
"FOUR GREAT WORDS OF WINSTON CHURCHILL"
Miss Mabel Clarry, Organist and Choir Directress

GEORGE ST UNITED CHURCH
Rev. H. L. Roberts, M.A., B.D., Minister
Mrs. C. Renaud, Organist — Mr C. Renaud, Director
11 A.M. .............. "The Effect of the Gospel"
(1) Anthem: "The Roseate Hues of Early Morn"
(2) Solo: Mrs Gordon Ray, of Bridgenorth
11.30 A.M. Junior Congregation; 3 P.M. Church School
7 P.M. .... "What Some People Have Not Done Has Made a Tremendous Impression On History"
(1) Anthem: "I Will Lay Me Down in Peace"
(2) Duet: Mrs D. Jackman and Miss Joy Walker

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
183 CHARLOTTE STREET
All are Cordially Invited to Attend
SUNDAY CHURCH SERVICE 11.00 A.M.
Subject For Sunday, May 28th, 1944:
"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced"
SUNDAY SCHOOL - 12.30 P.M.
Wednesday Evening Meetings are held at 8:00 o'clock which include Testimonies of Healing through Christian Science
FREE PUBLIC READING ROOM

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Paul Encourages the Corinthians

Scripture—II Corinthians 4:1-5:21

By Alfred J. Buescher

Paul wrote the Corinthians: We are troubled yet not distressed; perplexed but not in despair; persecuted but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed.

For which cause we faint not, wrote Paul to the Corinthians; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

We look not at the things which are seen, but at the unseen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but those which are not seen are eternal.

If our earthly house were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
GOLDEN TEXT—II Cor. 8-9.

PRESBYTERIAN

ST PAUL'S PRESBYTERIAN
Rev. James D. Smart, M.A., Ph.D.
Organist and Choirmaster - Martin B. Chenhall, A.R.C.O.
11.00 A.M. .......... Morning Worship. Subject:
"THE BURNING BUSH"
Anthem—The Lord Is In His Holy Temple—Caleb Simper
THIS SERVICE WILL BE BROADCAST OVER CHEX
The Beginners Department of the Church School will meet at this hour. Ages 2-6.
3.00 P.M. ...................... Church School
7.00 P.M. .......... Evening Worship. Subject:
"EYES THAT CAN SEE AND EYES THAT CANNOT SEE"
Anthem—Holy Art Thou (Largo)—Handel
Come and Worship With Us.

Friday, June 2nd, at 8.00 p.m., celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of St. Paul's Ladies' Aid in St. Paul's church.

The Examiner

The Peterborough Examiner, published each evening by Peterborough Examiner Limited. Office Hunter and Water Streets, Peterborough, Ont.

W. RUPERT DAVIES, President
H. L. GARNER, General Manager
G. WILSON CRAW, Managing Editor

Subscription Rates: 20c per week in City of Peterborough delivered by carrier; $6.00 per year by mail to outside points.

Members Canadian Press; Audit Bureau of Circulation; Canadian Daily Newspaper Association; Empire Press Union; Ontario Provincial Dailies Association.

TELEPHONE 4641
Private Branch Exchange to all Departments

As cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.
—PROVERBS XXV.

SATURDAY, MAY 27, 1944

A Statement Of Foreign Policy

On May 24 Mr. Churchill made a very interesting and comprehensive report on the war situation to the British House of Commons, as an introduction to a two-day debate. The Prime Minister stressed the difficulty of making a speech which would be conned with the greatest assiduity in every corner of the globe; to do so, he said, "I must therefore pick my way among heated ploughshares, and in this ordeal the only guides are singleness of purpose and a good, or at any rate, well trained conscience". But in his speech he told the world a great deal which was not common knowledge before and which explains many hitherto curious aspects of United Nations' policy.

• • •

British failure to put severe pressure on Spain, for instance, was explained as a return for unexpected friendliness shown by Spanish authorities toward United Nations forces when they were massed at Gibraltar. The territorial waters of the Rock are not extensive, and often they would not hold the British ships gathered there. In Mr. Churchill's words: "The Spaniards continued absolutely friendly and tranquil. They asked no questions and raised no inconvenience. If in some directions they have taken an indulgent view of German U-boats in distress or have continued active exportations to Germany, they made amends on this occasion, in my view, as far as our advantage was concerned, for these irregularities by completely ignoring the situation at Gibraltar where, apart from the aircraft, enormous numbers of ships were anchored far outside neutral waters inside the Bay of Algeciras, always under command of Spanish shore guns". Spain, Mr. Churchill pointed out, has been indulgent toward the United Nations on several occasions when she could have made trouble; a like indulgence on our side is understandable.

• • •

Mr. Churchill likewise clarified the situation with regard to Turkey. The Turks were chiefly afraid of the Italians, and when Mussolini fell, their anxiety was removed. They see no advantage to themselves in entering the war except a seat at the peace table; they seem to value their peace more than that position of power. Now it looks as though the United Nations could handle matters in the Mediterranean without Turkish help, although the Prime Minister made it clear that Turkish help would undoubtedly shorten the campaign there.

• • •

Mr. Churchill revealed that discussion of the post-war organization of the world was already going on among the three principal powers of the United Nations, and he put forward Britain's suggestion for that organization. It was that Britain, the U.S.S.R. and the U.S.A. should retain enough of their armed might to guarantee the peace of the world; working in association with these powers would be an assembly of world powers concerned in the maintenance of peace. The details of the plan were not entered into by Mr. Churchill, understandably enough; the scheme which he put forward was purely a British idea, and it might not be acceptable to Russia and the U.S.A. Indeed, as long as the possibility exists that the latter country may repeat its earlier performance, and refuse to join an association for the preservation of world peace, any scheme of world co-operation must be nebulous.

• • •

It was significant that Mr. Churchill, who has always been impatient of post-war planning while the war was still being fought, departed from his usual course and spoke to Parliament of the distant future. It would be foolish to attach too much importance to this element in his speech, but it may at least be taken as a sign that he thinks that the end is within measureable distance, and that the time has come to think about the post-war structure of Europe.

What, No Knives?

There is a shortage of knives in Kingston, and the newspaper there has become quite lyrical about it, in an editorial called 'Lament For Young Whittlers'. Well, we have a shortage of knives in Peterborough, too, and not only the young whittlers are suffering. There are no paring-knives and no carving-knives, and housewives who break a treasured blade have to make shift with all sorts of unsatisfactory substitutes. If the Kingston editor has ever tried to carve a chicken with a pair of scissors he will know what we mean. Not that scissors are plentiful; the loss of a pair in this office recently disorganized work completely until an ancient and bandy-legged pair of shears was resurrected and put into service again.

Pocket knives seem usually to be associated with small boys, but most men carry them, as well. A boy likes a big knife, with scissors, screw-driver and a horse's manicure instrument built into it; a man usually carries a smaller affair, with two blades, both of which will open and cut. A man who is used to carrying a knife is lost without one; he finds that he uses it several times each day without really being conscious of the fact. Indeed, we ourself carry carry two knives and a pair of pocket scissors, and use them all for a variety of purposes. We do not whittle, of course, but we can make a newspaper look like a paper dollie in five minutes flat.

The Kingston editor is obviously a reformed whittler, and he rolls out the names of Bowie and Barlow and Boker like Homer reciting a catalogue of Greek ships. Perhaps in his youth he defended his honour in knife-duels fought in a dark room, like the hero of a story by Ambrose Bierce. We have no such romantic past, but we have an insistent present need. Unless we have plenty of cold steel hidden in our waistcoat pockets we cannot carry on our trade for a single hour.

Home And Castle

The English have a number of curious old-fashioned beliefs: one of these is that a man is master in his own home. Indeed, it is by no means uncommon to hear an Englishwoman speak of her husband as "the master" when she mentions him to her servants. The idea seems to be that the household is conducted primarily for his convenience, and that what he says, goes.

This laughable old superstition is even supported by the law of the land. We read of a case which came before a British court a few weeks ago, in which a war worker's wife sued for divorce because her husband was cruel; it appeared that he would not allow his wife's mother to darken his door. The judge ruled that this was not sufficient grounds for divorce, as a man is sole judge as to who shall be admitted to and entertained in his home.

Imagine that, in this day and age! Imagine what would happen if a judge talked that way on this continent! It is pretty clearly recognized here that a man keeps up a home for the benefit of his wife and children, and if he is able to fit into their scheme of things, he is of course welcome to do so. But he would not dream of disputing his wife's wish to entertain friends of hers who were not also friends of his own, and as for applying the veto in the case of his mother-in-law words fail us and we are aghast at the very thought of such temerity.

There is no doubt about it, the English are a very backward race.

NOTE AND COMMENT

A man in Idaho is reported to have bought a farm while drunk. His hang-over is going to last him for years.

---

The Brandon Sun says: "The cheapest thing you buy that costs the most to produce is a newspaper".

---

U.S. draft authorities find that fathers are in much better physical condition than single men. A particularly firm development of the right arm is usually noticeable.

---

The Ottawa Citizen estimates that people in its sphere of influence go to bed two hours later than their grandparents. Ottawa is getting to be quite citified.

---

A judge in the U.S. has ruled that a roller skate is a vehicle, and that the wearer of it is as much entitled to the use of the roads as anyone else. But the trouble is that too many roller-skaters have the lordly, road-hogging manner of motorists.

---

The New Commonwealth, the official organ of the C.C.F. says that in discussing international affairs we editorial writers are far beyond our depth. Alas, this is all too true, but the gurglings from your direction friend, do not point to any special command of the situation.

Diary Of A Novice Bowler

By SAMUEL MARCHBANKS

SUNDAY: Had a long talk today with a Westerner who had been "down North" and gave me a glowing description of the wonders of that country. While the Russians have been vigorously exploiting their northland, we have dawdled; but if we busy ourselves, a quarter of a century may see Canada a country with depth, as well as width.... Enjoyed some excellent rhubarb, fresh from the garden. Is it a fruit, or a vegetable, or a herb? Whatever it is, it is undervalued; in spring it is the monarch of the table. Rhubarb, freshly and lightly stewed, mixed with sliced oranges, is a dish for the most fastidious of epicures.... Out this morning with a child who was still young enough to be shaky about the distinction between cows and horses. What a blissful state, when every creature is a wonder, and names do not matter!

◇ ◇ ◇

MONDAY: Had to make a journey by car this morning, and saw some unmistakeable signs of advanced spring. A man driving a tractor was stripped to a pair of khaki shorts and a hat; a woman cultivated her garden in trunks and a halter; a crone sat at a door peeling potatoes, and stretching her bare feet to the sun; if these happy folk were Doukhobors I suppose they would all be in jail now, for not having their registration cards.... When I have to go driving in the morning I always have bacon and eggs for breakfast. I feel that a 'journey' demands extra fortification; and yet I do nothing but sit still, and stare out of the window. Perhaps I am a throw-back to ancestors who stoked themselves with plates of hot food and neat brandy before climbing on top of a stagecoach.... I wish I were not so infernally fond of candy and sweets! It is undignified to be always munching. I should have been a Turkish Bashaw, immensely fat, stuffing sweetmeats as a sign of wealth and high rank. Turks wear such easy clothes, too.

◇ ◇ ◇

TUESDAY: In the window of a second-hand store I saw a case of stuffed animals—a chipmunk, two squirrels, a groundhog, a small white creature which I could not identify, and a skunk. Pondered the matter of how a stuffed skunk would look in my office, and finally decided that the joke would wear thin in about two weeks, and I would then be faced with the problem of getting rid of the thing.... Received a letter from Waskatenau, Alberta, from a lady who reads this column, and likes it. She says: 'Our radio isn't in working order, hasn't been since 1940, and at that time the war news upset us so much and still we couldn't omit listening to it when it was on, that we let the radio go unfixed. Since then it has been so much easier to read or talk in any spare time we have that we shall never have one again, I hope." It is indeed surprising that man has conquered the airwaves only to flood them with piffle. But that is the fault of our civilization; our mechanical ingenunity has far outstripped our taste and our sense of values.

◇ ◇ ◇

WEDNESDAY: Went to a bowling party this evening, though I had never bowled before. I have done some lawn-bowling, but that is a very different matter; it is a slow, quiet game played with biassed, ellipitical bowls, and the players approach it in a solemn spirit reminiscent of chess. But this alley game is noisy and lively; a little boy jumps about at the end of a long waxed runway, fiddling with five Indian clubs; the idea of the game is to hit the boy with a ball weighing four pounds; if the player knocks over all the Indian clubs at one blow he has done well, but if he hits the boy he becomes a champion and his name is written up on a blackboard; if he kills a boy he gets a cup and a money prize. No boys were killed, tonight, to my disappointment, and few boys were badly hurt. I almost got a boy myself, but he made a lucky jump, and I missed; this was not bad for a beginner. The boys lend spice to the game by their insults and provocative gestures.... If there should ever be a shortage of boys it might be a good idea to put a 36 piece dinner set at the end of the alley, and let the bowler see how much of it he could break.

◇ ◇ ◇

THURSDAY: Felt no ill effect from my bowling expedition except for a slight stiffness of the left ham.... I hear that there is a Peeping Tom at work in my neighbourhood, and as this is the housecleaning season there is no blind on my bathroom window. But who am I to deny the poor wretch any lubricious pleasure which it may give him to watch me cleaning my teeth? He may peep his fill for anything I care.... Housecleaning means taking down all my books, dusting them, and putting them back again. This would be easy if I did not so often discover a book on a high shelf for which I have searched during the winter. The obvious thing to do when this happens is to sit down and read a few pages in it, and thus the work is delayed.... "What is the price of freedom?" asks a Victory Loan pamphlet which housecleaning has revealed in the broom-cupboard. The person to whom such questions should be addressed is the Hon. Mr. Ilsley; he is the man who makes up the current quotations on that commodity. But freedom grows scarcer everywhere in the world, and the price of what remains is correspondingly high.

◇ ◇ ◇

FRIDAY: A man, apparently of socialist sympathies, writes me a letter rating me for a few words I said about the rich in my diary last week. Well, my dear friend, there have been rich people and poor people ever since the dawn of history, and I think there always will be. Some people care more about money than others, and so they get it; some people are able to do things or make things for which others will pay large sums, and thus they collect fortunes. This is not really an unjust world, you know; most of us get what we want in life, and if we do not want anything hard enough to be ready to sacrifice for it, we must not whine when we find that we have nothing but mediocrity and the common fare of life. God is a just and humorous power; he gives us our deserts. Frankly, I do not care a button about a man's fortune, but I will not join in the stupid, sourbelly cant of your sect that all rich men are therefore dishonest; I have had too much experience of the crooked and undeserving element among the poor. Stop fretting about money, my friend, and nourish your immortal soul.

◇ ◇ ◇

SATURDAY: Transplanted a small tree today. That is to say, it looked like a small tree, but it had roots like a mighty oak. Transplanting for the novice, is a heart-in-mouth business; one embarks on the task with a light heart and a full knowledge of what is to be done; but when the tree is at last uprooted and ready to be moved to its new position, there is a period of frightful misgiving, when it looks as though a fine tree had been sacrificed to a foolish passion for change. However, when I last looked at it, the patient was firm and fresh, and accepted a drink of water gratefully.... In gardening, as in so many things, confidence and experience are the great secrets. I have watched professional gardeners treat valuable plants and shrubs with bullying contempt, and the plants have loved it. Flowers must be feminine; they love a masterful man.... Went to bed early and renewed my acquaintance with "The Count of Monte Cristo." Does anyone nowadays give up a lifetime to revenge, I wonder? I can bear a grudge for years, myself, but I would not be bothered to plot the fall of my enemies, particularly if I were as rich as Monte Cristo. Anyway, my enemies are all such contemptible wretches that they are ruining themselves faster than I could possibly ruin them.

LINE-UP IN EUROPE FOR D-DAY — By Rube Goldberg

One of Holland's Great Shows

WE cycle on still farther north, along a road that winds through lovely country, dunes on the left and pasture land on our right. Our goal is the town of Alkmaar, the great cheese market of Holland. We ought to be there on a Friday, for that is the day on which the market is held. It is in full swing in the early morning. By noon all the cheese will be sold. The sellers and buyers gather in the market place in front of the weigh house. Porters carry the cheese on stretchers to the weigh house, and from there, after the weighing, to the barges alongside the quay for shipment to the warehouses of the buyers and wholesale dealers. You have all, I am sure, rolled the balls in a bowling alley. You might pay the game with these Alkmaar cheeses. Their roundness makes the loading easy, for the carriers simply roll them along a chute from the quay into the hold of the barge. The unloading, early in the morning, is not so simple. The man on the barge has to threw them, two at a time, to a catcher on the quay.... It is a pleasure to watch this monotonous ball game, in which no ball is ever dropped. The catcher throws them on to a third who piles the cheeses on a stretcher. The shape of the piles never varies. The number of balls on each stretcher is always the same. When the pile is completed, the carriers take it to the weigh house. They run with short, shuffling steps to keep the stretcher and its heavy load in proper balance. These carriers are employed by different companies, and the colour of the queer-shaped hats they wear is their company's badge. On a sunny morning this Friday market scene is a picturesque spectacle. The golden-yellow of the cheeses, the bright red and pink of the brick houses all around, the colours of the carriers' hats, the streamers on the masts of the barges, the sparkle of the sun in the canal, give the place a festive aspect that makes the Alkmaar cheese market one of the great shows of Holland.—From "The Land of William of Orange," by Adriann J. Barnouw. (Philadelphia: Lippincott.)

The Shape Of The Peace

(MONTREAL GAZETTE)

THE rest of the democratic world, remembering what happened to the peace after the last war, will watch with the deepest interest the new awareness in the United States that the treaty-making powers of the U.S. Senate have been abused. They will take heart in Mr. Walter Lippmann's opinion that if Americans get the idea that the special privilege of minority rule is going to be abused again at the end of this war they will find a way to end the privilege and establish majority rule.

However, the very shape which the future world organization now appears to be taking falls into line with the procedure which Mr. Lippmann tentatively set forth yesterday in these columns. He feels that there ought not to be, this time, one omnibus treaty covering the whole terms of the peace; that if there are treaties calling for American participation in various international agencies or commissions dealing in matters which may affect the peace of the world they may be approved by simple majorities in both Houses of Congress. Congress, in any event, will have to support and approve such American participation by repeated votes appropriating money and confirming appointments.

It seems highly probable that this will indeed be the form of the machinery of the peace, whatever part the United States Senate may decide to play. The immediate formation of a new world organization, league, or federation, to which all nations will subscribe with high-sounding pledges and impressive national ceremonials, is scarcely conceivable. Is it not much more likely that the apparatus of world organization will be designed to reach agreements to deal with specific and pressing questions? And that the contemplated league, or whatever it is to be called, may well begin with the agencies and commissions that exist and are busy today with these questions?

If this is so, the establishment of the new economic order on which peace will be based would seem to be best accomplished by international boards created to solve such concrete problems as international trade, currency stabilization, food supply and distribution, tariffs, access to raw materials and so on.

This tentative approach to the problems of the peace through the agency of the wartime boards where they exist, and otherwise by the creation of new ones, is already operating, in fact, through such agencies as UNRRA, the air conferences, the Combined Chiefs of Staff, and the adoption of the White-Keynes stabilization plan, to cite a few examples. To these and similar boards other nations may no doubt adhere when they are able, and thus a workable union, though a somewhat loose one, may be formed naturally to deal with problems as they arise.

One advantage of this pattern is that the boards or commissions may be modified to meet changing conditions or abolished as the problems they were formed to solve are overcome, without impairing the co-operation that exists in other spheres. If the pattern is continued, and there are no visible signs that it is meeting serious objection in any quarter, it seems evident that the only irrevocable treaties that the Senate will be called on to ratify will be the treaties of settlement with Germany and Japan. The larger and continuing issues of preserving the peace will be met through international co-operation and agreement at levels which Congress itself will support and approve.

Technical Hitch

Anatole France (Jacques Anatole Thibault), whose birth centenary occurs this month, had an experience with one of his novels which was probably unique. "In his younger days he was commissioned to write a serial for a Paris journal, took all the instalments to the editor, drew his pay, and went off on a long holiday. On returning to Paris he turned up the files to see how his story read in print, and to his amazement found that, owing to wrong arrangement in the editorial pigeonholes, it had been printed backwards. "It made no difference," the editor blandly assured him. "No one noticed that anything was wrong."—Manchester Guardian.

The Unrequired Umbrella

Dozens and dozens of umbrellas still head the list of property left in Manchester trams and buses, another large collection of which is to be sold by auction tomorrow. This shows how entirely undeserved is the reputation of Manchester for wet weather; there is nothing that the citizens casts from him more freely than the apparently unnecessary gamp. He may leave his pyjamas or nightdress behind him now and then (he obviously does on the evidence of the catalogue for tomorrow's sale); he may cast aside his underpants, his macintosh, his overalls, and his bathing costume; but such is his overweening confidence in the set-fair prospects of his city's climate that nothing can match his magnificent and optimistic readiness to be rid of his gamp. And considering what it now costs to replace an umbrella (in the obviously doubtful event of its being needed) one can only assume that for aridity Manchester must rank next to Sahara.

For let it be noted that there are no sunshades or parasols in the list. To those we evidently cling. It is not wet feet but sunstroke that is the more deeply feared in Manchester.—Manchester Guardian.

Hard To Believe How Time Flies

MAY 27

1914 The grandstand at the Exhibition grounds is to be doubled in size.

Dr. J. W. I. Halliday of Peterborough is elected vice-president of the Ontario Medical Association.

City council announce that there will be collection of garbage twice a week during the summer months.

Otonabee residents living in the vicinity of the site of the proposed city sewage disposal point are objecting to its location there.

Peterborough Canadian League ball club leaves on a road trip to London, Toronto and Ottawa.

1924 Citizens of Lakefield may be asked to vote on a bylaw to assist the new Brass Company.

The provincial highway between Fraserville and and Peterborough has been treated to a fresh coat of tar.

At the annual meeting of the Y.W.C.A. it is announced that 70,000 meals were served there last year.

Peterborough Lumber Company is transporting by scow from Bewdley the lumber cut there during the winter.

The McLeod Construction Company has been awarded the contract for building the addition to the C.G.E. plant.

1934 Archbishop M. J. O'Brien of Kingston, formerly of this city, is taken seriously ill while attending a Knights of Columbus banquet at Ottawa.

Some of the unemployed notified to go to work on the highways have refused to report.

A. B. Cunningham announces an increase of 25 per cent in the number of relief gardens to be operated this year.

The Oxford group movement holds a successful rally of Peterborough members.

Dr. Leon Letellier, formerly of Peterborough dies suddenly at his summer cottage near Ottawa.

Contemporaries

WOMAN JOINS THE WISE

At one time and another, in one form or another, the rich men of the world—from Midas to Carnegia, from Croesus to John Jacob Astor, from Jacob Fugger to Com. Vanderbilt, from the first Rothschild to Rockefeller—have expressed the notion, which sometimes seemed quaint to the less well heeled, that money isn't everything. The idea still persists and it is probably sound. The latest person to make this discovery (and she made it quicker than most) is Mrs. T. D. Lewis, wife of a small farmer near the little town of Heidelberg, in Mississippi. An oil well, a gusher of magnificent proportions, was brought in on the Lewis farm; it may mean the opening of an important new field. And how is Mrs. Lewis taking it? Says she, "Money isn't everything. We've got money now to get anything we need, but we can't get any good cornmeal." Mrs. Lewis now belongs to the ages.—New York Herald Tribune.

DAMAGED VENUS

It was stated the other day that one railway system alone had hundreds of thousands of pounds of claims to meet every year for the disappearance of goods consigned to it.

Those claims must be of a very various kind, though it is doubtful whether even an experience so wide would include such a case as that mentioned in Deneys Reitz's "No Outspan" as having happened on the South African railways. It was vouched for, by the way, by his father, the much-respected Boer leader and State Secretary to Paul Kruger. It concerned a respected citizen of Johannesburg who from humble beginnings had raised himself to a position of great wealth which enabled him to become to some extent a patron of the arts.

Hearing that there was for sale in Capetown a replica of the Venus de Milo, he commissioned his agent to buy it and send it up, but on its arrival he was much annoyed to find that it was armless and put in a claim for the "damage" against the railway company. The railway company looked into the claim, accepted liability, and paid up.—Manchester Guardian.

A Bible Message

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.... Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire....

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess into them I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity....

And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. (Matt. 7: 15-17, 19, 21-23, 28, 29.)

Unconsidered Trifles

Miss Slater: "Are you living in the handsome house left you by your aunt, Colonel—the house you went to law about?"

Colonel: "No. My lawyer resides there."

◇ ◇ ◇

Mr. Semi-Detach: "For goodness sake, Ethel, stop making that alarm clock go off! What's the idea, anyway?"

Mrs. Semi-Detach: "I only want to make the neighbours think we have a telephone."

◇ ◇ ◇

Hitler was interviewing his troops and stopped to talk to one private.

"How are things with you?" he asked.

"Oh I can't complain, sir," answered the soldier.

"I'll say you can't," agreed the Fuehrer.

◇ ◇ ◇

"Get the butt of your rifle into the hollow of your shoulder!" cried the musketry instructor.

"I can't," said the recruit, "there's a bone there."

"Oh, is there? I suppose the rest of these blokes are filleted!"

ALL OCCASION COSTUME—Name the occasion and this New York suit is equal to it. The fabric is black silk crepe with a pink and mauve sweet pea design. The slim dress has side skirt opening and is collarless, with shirring through the bodice. The matching jacket is trimmed at the shoulder with flowers cut from the fabric and appliqued together.—By Alice Alden.

DOROTHY DIX

TIME LIMIT ON COURTSHIP

If Man Doesn't Propose After Year's Attentions Chance Are He Never Will

One of the things that keeps innumerable girls guessing is why the men who date them for everything else never date them for the altar. These men give every outward and visible sign of being in love with them. They practically camp on the girls' doorsteps. They remember birthdays and anniversary. They show that they enjoy the girls' companionship, and they spend endless evenings discussing art, literature, politics, every topic under the sun except marriage.

The subject is apparently taboo with the boy friend, and when the girl adroitly tries to bring it into the conversation he shies away from it as if it were a bugaboo that would get him if he didn't watch out. And this leaves the girl out on a limb. She doesn't know what to do. She doesn't want to give him the gate if there is a fair chance of his popping the question at last and, on the other hand, she doesn't want to waste any more time on him if he is one of the dilatory lads who court and court but never propose.

So what's a poor girl to do How is she to tell whether it is her charms or her mother's cooking that attracts him? How, in a word, is she to tell whether his attentions are with intention or not?

Men Avoid Paying For Girls' Society

The answer is that she cannot unless she is a seer and a mind-reader. Plenty of men enjoy feminine society but are not willing to pay for it. They like to monopolize a pretty bright amusing girl without becoming responsible for her support. They like to spend their evenings in her home, which is cheaper than belonging to a club. They want fine clothes and cars for themselves, instead of perambulators for the baby and gewgaws for the wife. And the fact that they are raising false hopes in a girl's breast, and shutting her off from other men and the chances of making a good marriage is the least of their worries.

Of course, sometimes the foxiest fox does get caught in the trap, and the man who thought he could play at love without having to make good finds himself saying the fateful words that he has avoided so long. But a girl merely befools herself when she thinks that the reason Cautious Cal doesn't tell her that he loves her is because he is too shy, or that the reason Thrifty Sam can't ask her to marry him is because he can't leave his old mother.

No man is ever too bashful to ask for what he wants, nor so filial that he prefers his mother to a wife, if he really wants a wife. It is only wishful thinking that makes a girl put any faith in these ancient alibis of men for letting girls waste their youth and good looks and their hearts upon them when they have no intention of ever offering them wedding rings

The wise girl should put a time limit on courtship, and a year is enough. If by then he hasn't spoken, the chances are he never will.

(The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Needlecraft Pattern

JIFFY KNIT NEWS

Everyone's wearing the new bare-arm fashions! "Jiffy knit" this cap-sleeve blouse, combining 2 pieces identical but for neck shaping.

Turn out a Jiffy Knit sleeveless blouse in a simple pattern stitch. Pattern 865 has directions for blouse in sizes 12 to 14, 16 to 18; stitches.

Pattern Number ..................

Size ..................

My Name ..................

..................

Address ..................

I enclosed 20c for postage

RUMACAPS
The 2 Way Treatment
1. Stimulate the Kidneys
2. Bring Quick Relief from
RHEUMATIC PAINS

250 Guests Attend Blaiklock Party

Approximately 250 guests were present Friday evening, at the party given by Mrs. J. W. F. Blaiklock, for her daughter and son, Rosemary and James, at their home, Engleburn avenue. The evening was spent in dancing, and the doors were thrown open, so that the guests could wander around the grounds at their leisure. The rooms were decorated with flowers, which gave an added spring-like touch.

Several guests at the party will also be visitors with Mrs. Blaiklock over the week-end. They are: Miss Robin Whyte and Miss Patricia Ridout, of Toronto; Miss Pamela Colston, whose home is in England, of St. Hilda's College; Miss Sally Hall, of Cobourg; Misses Ottilie Rose and Barbara Huycke, of Toronto; E. Huycke, Philip Gilbert, George Roberts, David Mulloch, Sandy Sinclair, of Trinity College School, Mrs. W. L. Duffield, Miss Joan Duffield, and Miss Daphne Fisher, of London, who also attended the party, will be guests of Mrs. Blaiklock fos the week-end.

Neighbors Honor Seymour Couple

CAMPBELLFORD, May 27 (ENS)—Over one hundred neighbours and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Parr of Seymour East who owing to Mr. Parr's failing health are in a short time moving from the community. That good old fashioned, kindly neighborliness was expressed in the address read by Miss Ruth Bennett and in the presentation of a beautiful tri-light end table by Mrs. Andrew Haig and Mrs. John Bennett on behalf of the gathering. The evening was spent with games and a dainty lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Parr are moving to Campbellford and will reside in Mr. William Craighead's house on Centre street.

BACKWARD AT SCHOOL?
First suspect shortage of vitamins in diet when child lacks interest and progress in study
To be keen at school, to be eager for play, a child needs the vitality that comes only from a full daily intake of the 5 vital vitamins. To offset diet deficiency, give "ALL-in-ONE" Vitamin Tablets—one after breakfast, one after dinner. Easy to take. No unpleasant after-effect. They supply ALL the vitamins and also contain valuable minerals (for teeth and bones) plus yeast. Only $2.15 for a month's supply. At most drug stores.
"ALL IN ONE" BRAND VITAMIN TABLETS

Mrs. Thomas Johnston, of Belleville, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Whibbs, 523 Aylmer street.

Stoker Jack Mason, R.C.N.V.R., of Kingston, is spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Mason, Bolivar street.

The many friends of Mrs. Moyle Swinn, 243 Murray street, will be sorry to learn that she is ill in St. Joseph's Hospital.

Mrs. F. R. Gauthier has returned to her home in Belleville, after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Whibbs, 523 Aylmer street.

Mrs. W. B. Gordon, Hunter street, is in Barriefield this week-end, visiting her husband, Capt. W. B. Gordon.

William McDougall, of Trinity College School, Toronto, is a week-end guest of Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Young, Stewart street.

Her many friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. W. A. Wood, 24 Stewart street, has returned to her home and is convalescing, after her lengthy illness in Nicholls Hospital.

John Hornsby Peterborough architect who has been working on government projects in Edmonton for some months is spending the week-end in Peterborough on his way through to Ottawa.

C. S. Browne, principal of the Peterborough Collegiate and Mrs. Browne, spent a few days in Ottawa, and stayed at the Chateau Laurier. Mr. Brown was visiting the Glebe Collegiate.

Miss Beverly Fortye of Branksome Hall, who was in Peterborough attending the party given by Mrs. J. W. F. Blaiklock, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Strickland, Hunter street.

Miss Ann Cameron, of Toronto, is a guest of Miss Eleanor Somerville and Frank Somerville, for the week-end. While in Peterborough she attended the house party given by Mrs. J. W. F. Blaiklock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dunford, Lakefield, have announced the engagement of their eldest daughter Marjorie Dunford, to Glenford Murphy, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Murphy, Lakefield. The wedding will take place early in June.

Mrs. F. Gray and Mrs. A. E. Edmunds are co-conveners for afternoon tea, sponsored by the Otonabee Chapter, I.O.D.E., being held at the former's home, 218 Aylmer street, Tuesday afternoon, May 30, from 3 to 6.

Mr. and Mrs. David McGrath, Roseneath, have announced the engagement of their youngest daughter, Joan McGrath, to Joseph Charboneau, only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charboneau, of Ottawa. The wedding will take place quietly in Ottawa, on June 9.

The official draw for the prizes of the Nicholls Hospital Women's Auxiliary Penny Sale, will be made Monday evening at the headquarters, 336 George street, at 10 p.m. Saturday and Monday will be the last days open for the purchase of tickets.

Several Peterborough doctors were in Toronto this week, attending the Ontario Medical Association convention. They were Dr. F. C. Neal, Dr. H. V. Dobson, Dr. G. S. Cameron, Dr. A. G. Howson, Dr. Agnes K. Moffat, Dr. Robert Young, Dr. G. Raymore Scott, Dr. W. A. Fitzpatrick and Dr. Charles Scott.

Hon. Lieut. Col. Dr. G. O. Fallis, B.D., C.B.E., who will take both services at Trinity United Church Sunday, will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kidd, 462 Hunter street, during his stay in the city. He is head chaplain of M.D. 3, and is at present on leave of absence from Trinity United Church, Toronto, where he is minister.

Presentation Made

GILMOUR, May 27—(ENS)—A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Kidd in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Norman Lillico. A short program consisted of recitation by Marlyn Scott; solo, Barbara Bulmer. Mrs. Clayton Telford sang and played several solos. Mrs. Ralph Scott read an address to Mr. and Mrs. Lillico and Mrs. Gordon McGregor presented them with a pair of woollen blankets and a linen tablecloth. The remainder of the evening was spent in lost heir and crokinole.

Gilmour Mission Circle

GILMOUR, May 27—(ENS)—The May meeting of the Y.W.M.C. of Gilmour Church was held at the home of Mrs. Edwin Bulmer, with the president taking charge. Phyllis More gave the devotional, her subject being "Jonah." It was decided to send Mrs. Roland Scott and Mrs. Jack Beatty as delegates to the convention held in Toronto. Mrs. Ralph Scott gave the topic on "Leper Work" and the inspiration was given by Mrs. Reg. McMullen.

Piano Pupils Give Recital

An exceptionally fine musical program, representative of all piano grades, was presented Friday evening in the Recreation Room of the Y.W.C.A., by the pupils of Miss Marguerite Rome. All selections were played without the aid of music, and the pupils were therefore able to turn their attention to the expression. The excellent results of this plan were evident in the junior as well as senior pupils. The students showed poise and assurance in their polished presentations, bespeaking practice and careful teaching.

Miss Olive Rome, mezzo contralto assisted in the program by singing four selections: "Grace Thy Fair Brow", "Ombra Mai Fu", The Four Leaf Clover", and "The Lord's Prayer". Miss Rome's voice is well controlled, with excellent toning and expression. Her high and low notes were equally sweet, and her power and expression as well as control, showed admirably in the latter song. She was accompanied by Miss Marguerite Rome.

Numbers on the program were as follows: "Melody", Irene MacMaster; "The Rose's Dream", Lou Ann Kempt; "Twinkle Twinkle," and "Peter's Donkey, Jenny", Patsy Ann Weston; "Serenade", Marion Bigelow; "The Merry-Go-Round", Betty Strano; "The Merry Peasant" Robert Peace; "Flemish Dance", and "Bouree in A Minor", Betty Williams; "Minuet from the Toy Symphony", Carol Goldstone; "Marine's Hymn", Douglas Rattenbury; "Sicilienne", Jean Graham; "Toreador Song", Floyd Roberts; "Marseilles", Stewart Brown; "Monkeys in the Tree", and "Dance of the Dwarfs", Sheila Goldstone; "Then You'll Remember Me", Clara Mae Althouse; "Waltz", Bernice Magee; "Spanish Dance", Peggy Patterson; "Valse Bluette," Marilyn Edgar; "Minuet", Ethel Fine; "Charlie is my Darling", Roy Weldon; "Waltz", Pauline Zacks; "Gavotte" and "Valse Mignone", Wilma Floyd; "The Curious Story", and "In the Merry Month of May", Joan Krogh; "Sonata in C", Gordon Parks; "Gypsy Rondo", Joan Austin; "Ecossaise", Louise Jarvis; "Gavotte in D", June Craft; "Impromtu in A flat", Pearl Cowan; "Gavotte and Finale", Eleanore Carroll; "Sonatta in D first movement", Betty Mehew. Catherine Wight played two duets with Miss Rome. "Bright as a Button" and "Little Ruby". June Craft also played a duet with Miss Rome. It was entitled "Minuet L'Antique". Bernice Magee played the national anthem.

H.S. Association Has Tulip Tea

A lovely tea table, set with a lace cloth, and centred with a large silver basket filled with tulips, was the centre of attraction at the tulip tea, sponsored by the Queen Elizabeth Home and School Association, Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. Doughty, Barnardo avenue. The table was set with candles in pastel shades in silver candelabra at either end. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of tulips and lilacs.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. C. Doughty and Mrs. W. Frise. Mrs. B. Brumwell and Mrs. George Simpson were tea room hostesses. Pouring tea during the afternoon were Mrs. C. H. Crowe, Mrs. R. Parnall, Miss Maralin Munro and Mrs. O. Deyell. Mrs. J. Johnston, convener of the social committee, was in charge of serving, assisted by Mrs. Peter Jarvis, Mrs. E. Boyer, Mrs. D. Maciver Mrs. William Grubb, Mrs. T. Davies, Mrs. P. Ellison, Mrs. N. Austin, Mrs. P. R. Castle and Mrs. F. Christmas. Mrs. W. Irwin was treasurer for the afternoon.

Personals and Social

Lilac Tea Sponsored by WMS Held in St. Andrew's Manse

Little flower pots of plants and bulbs, decorated in green and pink, and fastened with matching streamers to a doll dressed in similar colors, was a feature of the lilac tea, sponsored by the W.M.S. of St. Andrew's United Church, in the manse Friday afternoon. The table was also decorated in pink and green, making an unusual and striking display. Mrs. E. F. Reid and Mrs. J. Finnie were in charge of this table.

Other points of interest were the novelties, and the home cooking table. The former were in charge of Mrs. R. M. Hardie and Mrs. R. W. Harrison, and included knick knacks, knitted goods, handy sewing kits, and jewelry. Mrs. L. Nelson and Mrs. R. B. Harle supervised the home cooking table, which did a brisk business during the afternoon.

The lovely tea table, set with a lace cloth, was centred with a huge bouquet of lilacs, tulips and narcissus, in a tall crystal vase. The vase in turn was set in a low crystal bowl, which was filled with lily of the valley, and the mingled fragrance of these flowers filled the room with the breath of spring. Other rooms were also filled with lilacs, whose perfume was everywhere. The table was tastefully set with silver, with silver tea services at either end, and the silver candelabra were set with pink tapers. Pouring tea were Miss F. Dixon, Mrs. B. F. McNeely, Mrs. A. Porteous and Mrs. C. M. Scott.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. E. W. Young, Mrs. H. Tremaine, and Mrs. F. W. K. Harris. Mrs. W. A. Henry invited the visitors to the tea room and Mrs. A. Munro was treasurer. Mrs. D. R. Morrow was in charge of the decorations for the graceful tea table. General conveners were Mrs. E. R. Shirley and Mrs. F. E. Johnston. Those assisting in serving were Mrs. W. Langford, Miss E. Ferguson, Mrs. E. C. Manning, and Mrs. H. R. Davis.

Special Program Given At Consumer Branch

Sections of the program distributed for Mrs. Consumer week, were presented Friday afternoon to a meeting of the Advisory Committee, Consumer branch, of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, in the Y.W.C.A.

Mrs. V. Henry and Mrs. W. Fowler took part in a short playlet entitled "Libel or Label," which told of the advantages of the new label system on clothing. Mrs. C. W. Laing, chairman, read a letter by Col. C. Ralston, acting prime minister of Canada, expressing the government's appreciation for the co-operation given by consumers. Mrs. R. T. E. Hicks-Lyne read a reply to the letter, which stressed that everyone must work together to make wartime measures successful.

A consumer quiz was conducted by Mrs. H. H. Graham, reviewed price controls and rationing measures, compared cost of living in Canada with other countries, and was a general check-up on all steps taken to control prices and spending.

It was decided to ask Mrs. Ryland New, of Toronto, chairman of the Central Ontario region of the Consumer Branch, to address the September meeting. Since the meetings of the advisory committee are to be discontinued until that time, the members felt that a speaker like Mrs. New would add greatly to the first meeting of the new season, and the hope was expressed that all liason officers would attend.

When the meeting, Mrs. Laing explained that the high cost of pineapple was due to the mark-up allowed all retailers. Mrs. Graham, in answering a question about the coming price ceiling on strawberries and raspberries, said that nothing definite had reached her on that subject, and suggested that liaison officers get in touch with the local board, and check on plans for the control of those prices.

Fashions

TODDLERS' PATTERN

Tender-age tots learn to dress alone in Pattern 9192 with its easy front buttons. Make the complete set: dress, sunbonnet, slip, panties.

Pattern 9192 comes in toddlers' sizes: 6 months, 1, 2, 3 and 4 years. Size 2, dress and bonnet, 1⅝ yards 35-inch; slip, ⅝ yard; panties, ½ yard.

Pattern Number ..................

Size ..................

My Name ..................

..................

Address ..................

I enclosed 20c for postage

Duty of Church To Immigrants Outlined to Group

The responsibility of the church to immigrants, who will have to readjust themselves to a new way of life after this war was stressed by Rev. E. J. Whan, as he addressed the regular meeting of the Church Women's Year of All Saints' Anglican Church. The speaker said that Canadians would have to expect a great influx of people of every nationality and creed, and would have to accept the responsibility of teaching them their religions and customs. He also stressed the fact that immigrants should not be allowed to live in separate communities, but should be urged to join with other Canadians.

"If this had been done 30 or 40 years ago we would not have the trouble so prevalent today," Rev. Whan said. Using St. Paul as an example, he urged the women to work for a better world, when nations would be at peace with one another. The speaker was introduced by Rev. W. A. Filer of All Saints' Church.

In the business period, Mrs. R. N. Jones, reporting for the Navy League said that 12 articles had been knit for the month. A letter of thanks from the Navy Auxiliary, thanking the group for the splend[illegible] done during the year, has [illegible]ved. Mrs. J. Black, giving t[illegible]t of the work of the visiting [illegible]ittee, reported that nine visits had been made to sick members, and 11 cards had been sent out. Several articles of clothing, to be sent to the British War Victims, were on display.

Mrs. J. Adams, president, opened the meeting with a prayer, and Mrs. C. H. Hoiston read the Bible lesson. Mrs. V. Chandler was guest soloist, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. W. H. Logan. Refreshments were served by Mrs. J. Black and her committee.

THE TEA-HOUR GOSSIP . . . .

Now that warm weather is coming on, we again turn to some nice tasty salads, both vegetable and fruit. For a warm weather lunch or supper, there is nothing like a salad to start the meal with, so that is why I am going to give you three or four salad recipes. If you serve these once, you will be asked by all members of the family to please serve them again.

Neapolitan Salad.

One cup green peas, boiled and cold, 1 cup string beans cut in one-half inch lengths, well cooked, one cup celery cut into half-inch pieces, one cup boiled carrots diced, one cup beets diced. Leave all ingredients in ice box until chilled and stiff. Have ready a glass or silver salad bowl, a shallow one is best, heap the beets in centre, next a ring of celery, then the beans, next the carrots, and lastly the peas, all forming a mound. Pour over this good salad dressing and garnish with lettuce.

Fruit Salad.

One pineapple cut in small cubse celery and bananas. Dressing: 1 cup rich cream, 1 whole egg, yolks of 2, 1½ tablespoons sugar. Cook in double boiler until it is the consistency of custard, then add two tablespoons of lemon juice.

Tomato Salad.

Select tomatoes of equal size, remove skins, cut out blow end and fill with finely chopped onion and cucumber. Place on lettuce leaves and pour over each a little salad dressing. Garnish with parsley.

California Salad Cups.

One cup diced membrane-free grapefruit sections, 1 cup diced membrane-free orange sections, 1 cup sliced banana, ½ cup broken walnut meats, lettuce, 1 package (3 ounces) cream cheese, 1 tablespoon liquid honey, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ½ cup whipping cream, 4 walnut meat halves.

Combine grapefruit, pineapple, orange and banana, drain. Add broken nut meats. Arrange lettuce on salad plates, fill with fruit mixture. Mash cream cheese, add honey and lemon juice. Whip cream slightly, add to cheese mixture. Mask fruit with cream cheese mixture and garnish with nut meat halves.

Royal Slaw.

One-quarter cup dressing, ½ cup peeled sliced apple, 1 banana, 2 cups shredded red cabbage, ½ cup diced celery. Combine dressing and the apple slices. Slice banana and add. Combine with cabbage and celery. Serve on bed of lettuce. This recipe will serve four people. This is a delightful salad to serve for an afternoon tea.

Bailieboro News

Friends are sorry to learn that Joseph Lang is confined to bed suffering from the effects of a stroke. His daughter, Miss Esther Lang, Reg. N. of Belleville, is home attending him.

Miss Hilda Thompson and Miss Marian Howell of Burlington spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Thompson.

Miss Mary Fair, nurse-in-training at Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay, spent the past two weeks at the home of her father, Mr. and Mrs. James Fair.

NEW MAGPIE ACCESSORIES — The suit, made with a smoothly moulded waistline and flat welted details, has a wrist-length coat; peppermint striped taffeta makes gloves, gilet and draped pillbox. The sure fire success of black and white is enough fashion cunning for many smart women. It is one effect which never stales, and which year after year contrives novelties that please. Here, for a black faille suit for town, the striped accessories add peppermint red as well as white to the usual magpie effect. In the draped pillbox hat the current vogue for a single rose trim is used in a fresh way, quite provocative with good flat tailoring.

—By Prunella Wood.

See Our Display Of CORY
GLASS COFFEE
MAKERS
Beautiful in design, speedy in operation. Producing superb coffee and tea untouched by metal. Every Cory Coffee Maker is sold complete including such things as the Coffee Measure for exactness and the Funnel Holder for safety.
GRANT & LOUCKS
COMPANY LIMITED
418 George St. N. Phone 5745

HANG THIS UP IN YOUR KITCHEN

YOUR RATION CALENDAR

Weston's JUNE Weston's

| SUN | MON | TUE | WED | THU | FRI | SAT |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| COUPON VALUES: Sugar (Red) ........ One Pound; Tea (Green) ........ Four Ounces; or Coffee (Green) ...... One Pound; Butter (Purple) ........ Half Pound | | CANNING SUGAR (F COUPONS) COUPON VALUE—1 POUND SUGAR. Your Canning Sugar Coupons may be exchanged for Preserves Coupons if desired. See Local Ration Board Office. | | 1 | 2 | 3 |
| 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 Tea-Coffee Coupons 34; Sugar Coupons 34, 35; Preserves Coupons 21, 22; Butter Coupons 64, 65; are valid. | 9 | 10 |
| 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 | 16 | 17 |
| 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 Tea-Coffee Coupons 35; Butter Coupons 66, 67; are valid. | 23 | 24 |
| 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 Butter Coupons 62, 63, 64, 65, expire. | Be a member of the "25 CLUB" Buy a War Savings Stamp Each Week |

PRESERVES COUPON VALUES: 12 fluid ounces jam, jelly, marmalade, maple butter, honey butter; or 15 fluid ounces corn syrup, cane syrup, blended table syrup; or 20 fluid ounces canned fruit; or 24 fluid ounces extracted honey, maple syrup; or 40 fluid ounces of molasses; or 2 lbs. comb honey; or 2 lbs. maple sugar; or ½ lb. sugar.

HATS OFF TO MRS. CONSUMER
For her loyal co-operation in supporting Rationing, Price Control-Conservation in Canada's Battle against Inflation.

CASUAL GIFTS OF RATIONED COMMODITIES MUST BE MADE IN MERCHANDISE, NOT IN LOOSE COUPONS.

Compliments of Weston's
BREAD and CAKES
GOOD CANDY
English Quality BISCUITS

JOE BAKSI LEE SAVOLD

HEAD CURRENT BOXING CARD—Two topflight heavies, Joe Baksi, Kulpmont, Pa., battler, and Lee Savold, the middlewest's hope for a heavy champion to upset Joe Louis when and if, met in a return bout in New York, May 26, over the 12-round route. Last night Baksi defeated the veteran Savold on a decision.

Great Crowd Expected At Woodbine Park

TORONTO, May 27 — (CP). — A near-record crowd is expected to flock to Woodbine Park here today to witness the 85th running of the King's Plate, Canada's most coveted turf prize, and the oldest continuously run horse race in North America.

Thirteen of the Dominion's best three-year-olds will race for the purse of $10,000 added and 50 guineas, the gift of the King.

Gross value of the mile and one-eighth race will be approximately $12,985, with about $9,485 going to the winner.

Unlike in previous years when the Plate was contested at Woodbine's inaugural matinee — which meant the effort was the first for each contestant— the majority of this year's candidates have either had a race as a tightener or received early preparation in warmer climates of the United States.

Another change this year is the fact the race has been thrown open to any Canadian-bred three-year-old although only one "outsider" is included in the 13— Cum Laude, owned by Dr. L. H. Appleby of Vancouver.

Until this year only Ontario-bred horses could vie for the race.

The weatherman has promised a warm, dry day and the track is expected to be fast, giving the contenders plenty of opportunity of shooting at the Plate record of 1:54 1-5 set by Horometer from R. S. McLaughlin's stable in 1934.

It is problematical as to which of the 13 will carry the bulk of the public support in the betting, but it is known that Medway Stable's Korafloyd and C. H. Hemstead's Hemfox, winers of the two divisions of the Plate trial at Woodbine on opening day, will have a good number of backers.

Post time is 4:30 p.m., EDT.

Team Battle New Hit In Wrestling

Modern wrestling, with its flying tackles, drop-kicks, avalanches, etc. not to mention showmanship and sensationalism, has proven during the last decade to be one of the most popular of spectator sports. Consistently now for many years millions of people yearly flock to see the big muscular giants of the mat.

But during the last year another new and still more spectacular innovation has come in under the stimulating title of Tag Team Wrestling. In this new guise wrestling has, not the ordinarily exciting enough battle between two of the big fellows, but involves four heavywieghts in all during the bout. For the first time in Peterborough the fans here will see this new and evidently vastly pleasing twist to the old mat sport.

Rising out of a match here last week between Frank Sexton and John Katan when the burly Bunny Dunlop went haywire and interfered with a round-house right to Sexton's jaw, next Tuesday's main bout will be under the new rules and conditions. Dunlop's attempt to assist his old buddy Katan and the subsequent addition of Nick Elitch and many spectators to the riotous fray, built up such a situation that Promoter Frank Tunney took immediate recourse to the Tag Team plan. So the team of Katan and Dunlop will face the team of Sexton and Elitch. If the ring holds up and the Brock Arena roof doesn't fall in with the torrid action, the fans of this city are due for some of the wildest scenes they have ever dreamed could happen on a wrestling mat. The bout will be two our of three falls, each man supported at the touch of a hand (the tag) by his partner and with absolutely no time limit.

In view of the probable length of time it will take these four huge huskies to settle their differences, there will only be one other bout featuring that popular gent, Strangler Bob Wagner against long Vern Baxter.

M. Rawlinson LIMITED
610 YONGE ST. TORONTO KI. 5125
Moving PACKING SHIPPING STORAGE

St. Andrew's Register 2 Wins Within Week

A much improved St. Andrew's team seems to be going places in the bantam section of the Church Softball League, after a rather disastrous start. Playing two games this week the St. Andrew's team defeated St. James at King Edward Park by 30 to 5 and followed up that triumph by walloping St. Paul's 25 to 9 in a game played at the Queen Mary grounds.

The lineup and score by innings.

St. Andrews—Nicholls 1b, Murphy ss, Manbeck 3b, Sutcliffe 2b, Lee cf, Morrison p, Hillis p, Harris lf, Cranfield rf, Peltz rf, Hempstead c.

St. James—Anderson c, Eakins p, Floyd 1b, Hillier 2b, Johnston ss, Bradley cf, Chester 3b, Bigford lf, Castle rf.

| | |
|---|---|
| St. Andrew's | 5114 440 2—30 |
| St. James' | 1 02 000 2— 5 |

St. Andrew's—Nicholls 1b, Peltz rf, Murphy ss, Barnsley c, Harris rf, Rattenbury lf, Manbeck 3b, Hillis p, Sutcliffe 2b, Cranfield 2b Lee cf.

St. Paul's—Taylor c, Brown p, Archibald ss, Hill 1b, Lavis 2b, Hall cf, Smith 3b, Howkard rf, Finnie lf.

| | |
|---|---|
| St. Andrew's | 812 545 x—25 |
| St. Paul's | 140 011 2— 9 |

Church Standing

Following is the standing in the Church Softball League.

Juvenile Section

| | Won | Lost |
|---|---|---|
| All Saints | 2 | 2 |
| St. Paul's | 1 | 2 |
| Murray Street | 3 | 1 |
| Mark Street | 1 | 2 |
| St. James' | 1 | 3 |
| Trinity | 2 | 1 |
| George Street | 2 | 1 |

Bantam Section

| | Won | Lost |
|---|---|---|
| St. James' (2) | 1 | 2 |
| St. James' (1) | 1 | 3 |
| St. Paul's | 1 | 2 |
| Park Street | 0 | 4 |
| St. Andrew's | 2 | 2 |
| St. John's | 4 | 0 |
| George Street | 4 | 0 |
| Knox | 2 | 2 |

BOTTLED BY
BOORMAN'S BEVERAGES

Stratton Trophy Draw Made Handicaps Shown

The draw for the Stratton trophy of the Peterborough Golf and Country Club has been made and appears below, together with the handicap of some of the players.

Some players' handicaps are not available as we go to press but will be posted at the club as soon as possible. Players who desire a revision in their handicap must turn in at least three 18-hole cards, whereupon a change will be made immediately.

Stratton Trophy—Medal Play

First round to be completed by Sunday night, June 10.

Players whose names appear first in any match should contact opponent. Handicaps may be revised at any time. Turn in all cards. Referee, R. E. Maniece.

S. Payne 8 vs. W. A. Elliott 16.
H. Waddell 12 vs. Dr. C. C. Cragg 22.
J. M. Watson 12 vs. G. A. Wood 18.
W. B. Butler 16 vs. Hubert Chown 22
C. A. Weir 28 vs. G. H. Whiting 16
M. G. Hardill 16 vs. S. J. Cann 28
H. S. Longhurst 22 vs. Rev. George Kelly, Lakefield, 22
J. G. Wharry 17 vs. H. C. Benson 24
H. C. Sootheran 14 vs. F. R. Pope 28
H. I. Bradburn 9 vs. H. L. Garner 30
H. T. Cranford 16 vs. John O. Huddart, Lakefield 32
C. B. Westbrook 21 vs. H. Thompson 28
T. T. Rodger 18 vs. John Sackville 21
O. DeGraw 10 vs. C. G. Graham 25
C. P. Browne 22 vs. Dr. A. G. Howson 26
William Lauder 19 vs. James W. McCreery 34
C. S. Cummer 18 vs. H. T. Gorrell 18
Gordon D. Whatman 15 vs. R. L. Dobbin 22
A. Rutter 14 vs. Fred Garner 20
D. T. Diplock 18 vs. W. S. Cowell 22
Dr. A. M. Weldon 22 vs. J. L. Thompson 24
W. E. Lloyd 23 vs. William Derry 30
S. Northrop 24 vs. W. F. Huycke 22
R. Abbott 7 vs. E. H. Howson 30
J. A. Jebson 20 vs. Oliver Steer 16
Cyril Monkman 32 vs. Stanley McBride 26
F. H. Jobbitt 17 vs. J. E. Keyes 20
Gordon Monkman 20 vs. G. H. Monroe 20
J. R. Jobe 26 vs. J. E. McKerchar Lakefield, 20
M. J. Starr 36 vs. I. T. Lillico 32
W. Eastwood 30 vs. C. V. Elliott 21
Jack Comstock 36 vs. Haig Kelly 36
J. H. Eastwood 28 vs. R. G. Maniece 22
R. Kitchen 10, vs. T. A. Mackay 22
C. E. LaBranche 30 vs. A. T. LeFevere, Lakefield 30
J. H. Vernor 28 vs. W. Brady 30

Girls' Schedule

Following is the balance of 1944 schedule for the Peterborough Girls' Softball League.

May 30—Westclox vs. Brinton.
" 31—Quaker vs. Westclox (2).
June 1—Johnson vs. Aircraft.
" 2—Quaker vs. Lock Works.
" 6—Westclox (2) vs. Johnson.
" 7—Brinton vs. Aircraft.
" 8—Lock Works vs. Quaker.
" 9—Johnson vs. Westclox.
" 13—Lock Works vs. Brinton.
" 14—Westclox vs. Aircraft.
" 15—Westclox (2) vs. Quaker.
" 16—Johnson vs. Brinton.
" 19—Brinton vs. Quaker.
" 20—Westclox (2) vs. Lock Wks.
" 21—Aircraft vs. Brinton.
" 22—Quaker vs. Johnson.
" 23—Westclox vs. Brinton.
" 26—Westclox vs. Johnson.
" 27—Brinton vs. Westclox (2).
" 28—Johnson vs. Quaker.
" 29—Lock Wks. vs. Westclox (2).
" 30—Aircraft vs. Westclox.

INDIA BUILDS WARSHIPS

NEW DELHI — (CP) — All shipbuilding yards in India are now working to full capacity on the construction of naval vessels of various types. Over 300 such vessels are under construction as well as floating docks.

YANK AT CRICKET — Capt. Alvin Podwojski, of Cleveland, Ohio, member of the American team from a Flying Fortress base, who played their first cricket match against a British team composed of members of the English, Canadian and Australian armed forces, signs his autograph for a group of English children after he had made 22 runs in the match. The contest was held on the famous Dulwich cricket club grounds, with the British team winning, 150 to 37.

SPORTS - Day by Day

By FRED D. CRAIG

Military Training Centre softball team will make its second appearance of the season Monday night at Riverside Park when the Soldiers will clash with St. Peter's in a City League game. A win means a lot for either team. The Saints by knocking off the Training Centre outfit would climb up to a second-place tie with Plazas, only half a game behind the league-leading Switchgear. On the other hand the Soldiers need a victory to get up into the running. Both outfits will be at full strength and both can be counted upon to be stronger than in their initial appearances last week. Neither Soldiers or St. Peter's had had much practice when they made their City League debut and in both cases lineups had to be thrown together in a hurry. Weak spots are being strengthened up and as a result the two outfits will be in better shape when they take the field Monday night. Soldiers may have Billy Taylor in their battle array by that time. The hockey star is a good softball player as well and the Training Centre outfit could use him to advantage. Either Aiken or Thiessen will do the throwing for the camp team while Gene Reynolds is expected to get the nod from the Saints. The game will start at 6.45 o'clock and should attract a real crowd.

* * * * * *

Give Helen Mark, pitcher of the Johnson Motors team credit for some quick thinking on a nice piece of defensive play pulled off by the Outboard Marines in the third innings of last night's Girls' League game with Lock Works. The play in question is of course only orthodox baseball in first class company; it is as automatic as walking to first after the pitcher has thrown four balls. But oddly enough it is rarely seen in the Men's City League and for that matter was not seen half often enough when Peterborough had strong baseball outfits. Millie McFarlane, first up for Lock Works in the third rolled a grounder wide of first base and Vera Mitchell dashed over to field the ball. She hadn't a chance to get back to first ahead of the runner and it looked like a sure hit. But Helen Mark had run over as soon as the ball was hit and she arrived at the bag in time to take Vera Mitchell's toss for the putout. As we said it's only the old army game in fast circuits but it has been pulled off so seldom in softball here that we believe the two girls of the Johnson Motors deserve orchids for coming up with the play so successfully.

* * * * * *

The Last Word In Action

With a tag team wrestling battle on the cards at Brock St. Arena in next Tuesday night's Tunney circus it looks as if the last word in action has been arrived at. With John Katan and Bunny Dunlop combining their villainy in an attempt to defeat Frankie Sexton and Nick Elitch the probabilities are for the liveliest combat in the local history of the mat game. The rules call for one member of each team in the ring at one time, with a switch every time a partner is tagged but we have an idea that before the battle has gone very far the four big fellows will all be inside the ropes at once and that should make for a memorable dog fight. All the rules in the world are not likely to hold Bunny Dunlop and Nick Elitch in check when they feel the urge to climb into the ring and start swinging and so we imagine that the battling will be hectic from the opening bell and that about everything will happen before a winner is decided. Just who will referee the brawl has not been announced but who ever gets the job he is not likely to rate as a good insurance risk when those four big fellows get going at once.

* * * * * *

Just how long the struggle will last no one can tell. There will be no time limit but the team taking the first two falls will win the argument. As to which outfit that will be your guess is as good as this column's. If you put that question to Katan and Dunlop, however, you'd get an answer in a hurry. The Panther and the Toronto strong man—incidentally the two are neighbors now, for they live only two or three blocks from each other, think that as a team they are about the toughest twosome that ever battled in one of these mass brawls. They expect to clean up the bout in decisive fashion and at the same time to give Sexton and Elitch a lacing that they will remember. The feud between Dunlop and Elitch which wound up in a chair-swinging episode the other night has left a lot of ill-feeling and it will make it tougher than ever to keep the four from turning the affair into a battle royal instead of adhering to the tag rules. Anyway they play it, however, it is bound to be thrilling and the spectacle of all that fighting tonnage in action at the one time should make Tuesday's show the standout of the season.

* * * * * *

Colman Dood It

Frank Colman, London's gift to the Pittsburg Pirates, has only hit one homer in the National League this season but it was a very important four-master. The circuit clout came yesterday with two Pirates on the cushions and it was the blow that gave the Corsairs a 7 to 5 victory over the Boston Braves. Pitching credit went to Rescigno who relieved Doc Roe while the loser was Hutchinson who took over the Boston pitching duties from Andrews. Max Lanier, St. Louis Cards' ace went out after his seventh victory of the season yesterday and although his team won the smooth southpaw didn't get the credit. Lanier failed to go the route and Al Jurisch, the rookie right-hander who finished the game was nominated the winning pitcher when the Cards eventually knocked off the Brooklyn Dodgers 5 to 3. Hal Gregg was the losing pitching for the Bums. He has won five games and lost four so far this season and has been a valuable man for the Dodger club.

* * * * * *

The admirers of Paul Derringer—and they are legion—are doubtless glad to see that the veteran is beginning to get a bit of the gravy with the Chicago Cubs. It looked for a long time this season as if the former Cincinnati Reds ace was never going to find his winning touch again. He lost five straight games and just couldn't seem to win. But finally he picked off a win and yesterday he came back with another one. This time he merely had to go through the motions for the Cubs had their bats swinging merrily against two Phillie pitchers and when it was all over the Cubs had picked off the decision by a total of 9 to 1. Meanwhile cries of distress are coming from Detroit where the Tigers have apparently forgotten how to win a ball game. They were nosed out 3 to 2 by the Philadelphia Athletics and that made an even dozen losses in the last 13 starts which makes the Bengals consistent at that. Old Bobo Newsom was the winning Philadelphia pitcher, although he did not go the route and the loss was marked up against Dizzy Trout.

* * * * * *

Sporting Chili Con Carne: Promoter Tunney has matched Strangler Bob Wagner and Verne Baxter for the preliminary bout Tuesday and a fitting introduction to the tag team wrestling battle....St. John's and George Street are tied for the leadership of the bantam section of the Church Softball League with four straight wins each....In the juvenile division Murray St. are tops with three wins and one loss and Trinity and George Street are right behind with two wins as against one defeat. ....Max Lanier held Brooklyn scoreless until the sixth yesterday when English homered with two on....The Cards eventually won the game after Lanier had been relieved....Ernie Bonham of the Yanks who has been having a little difficulty recently in hitting a winning pace had no trouble at all last night in blanking the Chicago White Sox with six hits....It was his first win since April 30....Boston Red Sox scored twice in the 11th inning to beat the Brownies 4 to 2....Ken Raffensberger, young Phillies pitcher has been passed for the United States Navy.

Pinned Down

ALONG THE MELFA RIVER IN ITALY, May 27 — (CP-Reuters) — Major E. C. Rawlings of Montreal told yesterday how a Canadian unit piercing the German's vaunted Hitler Line, remained pinned to the ground in a wheat field under German fire, unable to lift their heads for 20 hours.

Rugby Star Back

OTTAWA, May 27 — (CP). — F. O. C. S. (Chuck) McLean of Brockville, Ont., former star with Toronto Argonauts football team, who suffered critical burns when shot down in the Mediterranean in 1941, is back in action in Britain with the Wolf Spitfire Squadron, the R. C. A. F. said yesterday.

Bob Hume, Left, and brother Ross Buddy Young

EXPECTED TO STAR IN BIG TEN TRACK MEET—Michigan's strong track and field team, headed by the middle-distance racing twins, Bob and Ross Hume, is favored to win the annual Big Ten track and field championship at Champaign, Ill., today. Individual star of the meet, however, probably will be Claude (Buddy) Young, the dynamite Negro freshman star at Illinois, who is entered in the sprints, the broad jump and perhaps a hurdle event. At Ann Arbor in a dual meet, Young ran the century in :09.5.

Names Are Announced For First Golf Tourney

The members of the Match and Handicap Committee of the Peterborough Golf and Country Club have each agreed to referee one tournament on this season's schedule and any club member drawn in such tournament, who has a problem, should contact the referee for information or ruling.

O. A. DeGraw will handle the Westclox Trophy, R. G. Maniece the Stratton Trophy, Joe Jebson the President's Prize, S. Northrop the McDonald Trophy, Joe Watson the Club Championship, and Andy Rutter the C. G. Graham Trophy.

President's Prize.

The President's Prize tournament first round to be completed by June 17, Joe Jebson refereeing.

R. Abbott vs. D. T. Diplock.
C. G Graham vs. H. C. Soothern
R. Kitchen vs. G. A. Wood.
J. W. McCreery vs. M. J. Starr.
H. I. Bradburn vs. F. Garner.
F. R. Pope vs. W. F. Huycke.
R. G. Maniece vs. C. S. Cummer.
W. Lauder vs. H. T. Gorrell.
O. DeGraw vs. W. A. Elliott.
J. E. Keyes vs. Dr. C. C. Cragg.
H. Waddell vs. Haig Kelly.
J. E. McKerchar vs. W. E. Lloyd.
G. H. Monroe vs. R. L. Dobbin.
A. Rutter vs. G. Monkman.
T. A. Mackay vs. W. Eastwood.
Stan McBride vs. W. B. Butler.
J. M. Watson vs. C. V. Elliott
A. T. LeFevere vs. J. Comstock.
C. V. Elliott vs. J. H. Vernor.
G. Whatman vs. I. T. Lillico.
J. R. Jobe vs. W. Derry.
S. Payne vs. W. S. Cowell.
W. Derry vs. T. T. Rodgers
J. G. Wharry vs. Dr. A. M. Weldon
Dr. A. G. Howson vs. S. J. Cann.
E. H. Howson vs. J. L. Thompson.
J. O. Huddart vs. S. Northrop.
J. Sackville vs. Heck Thompson.
H. C. Benson vs. H. L. Garner.
Rev. G. Kelly vs. H. S. Longhurst
G. H. Whiting vs. M. G. Hardill.
Hubert Chown vs. C. A. Weir.
C. B. Westbrook vs. H. Cranford.
C. P. Browne vs. J. A. Jebson
C. Monkman vs. J. H. Eastwood
F. H. Jobbitt vs. C. E. LaBranche

Johnson Motors Whip Lock Works 21-2 At Bowl

Johnson Motors, who couldn't win a ball game all last summer, have evidently found the winning combination this season for they opened their 1944 campaign at the Ashburnham Bowl Friday night by handing the newcomers, the Lock Works girls, a 21 to 2 defeat in a Girls' City Softball League fixture.

The Outboard Marines turned in a fine card to record their first City League triumph. They played errorless ball in the field, hit hard and got effective pitching from Helen Mark and Marg. Smith who divided the twirling duties.

Lock Works tried all the way but most of the girls were making their debut in organized ball and their lack of experience hurt. They will improve as the season advances, just as the Johnson Motors outfit did last summer.

Outboard Marines hstarted wit a bang by sending over five runs in the first innings with Mary Webdale on the hilltop for Lock Works. A long triple by Olive Smith and Fay Kelly's double were the big blows in that initial splurge. The winners bunched five hits with a couple of errors to score four more in the second and in the third they added another half dozen with a homer for Edna Smith helping a lot.

That made it 15 to 0 at the end of three innings. Beryl Lee, former Brinton pitcher, took over the gunnery department and in the fourth and from then on the Johnson Motors didn't find it so easy to score. They were blanked for the next two innings, broke through for four runs including a long homer by Marg. Smith in the sixth and finished with a pair in the eighth. Helen Mark pitched the first six innings for the winners, holding the Lock Works to four hits while the only run scored off her was a homer to the cars in left by Beryl Lee in the sixth with nobody on.

Marg. Smith who finished the game did not allow a hit until the ninth when a single by Doreen Lee and a triple to right by Isabella Matthews gave Lock Works their second run.

The smart fielding of Helen Mark and fine defensive play at first base by Vera Mitchell who handled twelve chances without an error were features of the game.

Marg. Smith had a homer, double and single, Fay Kelly with a double and a pair of singles and Olive Smith with a triple and two singles led the winners' attack.

Johnson Motors—Eileen Young c, Bertha Phillips ss, Vera Mitchell 1b, Olive Smith 2b, Helen Mark p, 3b, Phyllis Ferguson rf, Marg. Smith 3b p, Fay Kelly lf, Edna Smith cf.

Lock Works—Millie McFarlane rf, ss, Beryl Lee ss, p, Vera Carr 3b, Audrey Patten c, Madeline Russell rf, Barbara McMahon rf, Doreen Lee cf, Annie Houran 1b, Isabella Matthews 2b Mary Webdale p, rf.

Umpires — Herb. Payne at the plate; Corp. Montgomery on the bases.

| By Innings— | | R | H | E |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Johnson M. | 546 004 02x— | 21 | 17 | 0 |
| Lock Works | 000 001 001— | 2 | 6 | 8 |

Open Bowling
TO-NIGHT

A healthy recreation and plenty of fun for all. Come in parties and enjoy yourself.

To-night is the last night of bowling before closing for the summer season.

DUFFUS RECREATION ACADEMY
Phone 9068

Classy Player Leave For Army

NEW YORK, May 27 — (AP). — The International League batting championship race is wide open, now that Al (Red) Schoendienst, Rochester shortstop, has left for the Armed Services.

Schoendienst, tagged by League President Frank J. Shaughnessy as "the best player in baseball," threatened to become the first batter to lead the loop for two consecutive years since Jim Walsh of Buffalo did it in 1925 and 1926. Red led the circuit last year with .337 and paced the hitters this year until his final day when he was overtaken by Antonio (Chico) Rodriguez of Syracuse.

Rodrigues put on an amazing spree to climb from under the .300 mark to the top of the heap in three weeks. Latest averages, including games played on Wednesday, May 24, showed the Cuban infielder leading Schoendienst .388 to .382.

Otto Davis, Rochester outfielder, rested the run-scoring leadership from Schoendienst, his 27 tallies topping Red's total by one.

For the third straight week, Jersey City leads in team batting, raising last week's mark 3 points to .287. Toronto dropped one point to .969 in fielding, but retained its lead over Buffalo by four points.

Al Jarlett, Toronto, and Jim Konstanty, Syracuse, took over the pitching leadership, each with six victories and one loss.

Fights Last Night

By the Associated Press.

New York— Joe Baksi, 212, Kulpmont, Pa., outpointed Lee Savold, 197½, Paterson, N.J., 12. Freddie Schott, 207½, Akron, outpointed Walter Hafer, 209¾, Dayton, 6.

Atlantic City, N.J.— Billy Fox, 162½, Philadelphia, knocked out Speedy Duval, 166, Philadelphia, 7

San Francisco — Jackie Ryan, 146, San Francisco, and Auriel Couture, 148, Bangor, Me., drew 10.

NEVER BEFORE!
IN PETERBOROUGH

TAG TEAM WRESTLING

THE TEAM OF KATAN & DUNLOP
vs.
THE TEAM OF SEXTON & ELITCH

2 Out of Three Falls to a Finish

Dunlop and Katan claim they can beat any two other wrestlers in the world.

DON'T MISS THIS SPECTACLE

Tues., May 30, 8.45 p.m.
BROCK ARENA
PETERBOROUGH
NO INCREASE IN PRICES

EX-CHAMP DROPS HIS MAN FOR NINE—Henry Armstrong, former holder of the featherweight, lightweight and welterweight titles, stands by and watches Aaron Perry, promising 18-year-old Washingtonian, crumple to the floor of the ring for a count of nine in the fifth round of their bout at Griffith Stadium, Washington. This was just one knockdown of seven. The bout was halted in the sixth round and Armstrong declared winner on a technical knockout.

Canadian Sport Snapshots

By SYD THOMAS
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, May 27 — (CP). — Lacrosse still is referred to in some quarters as Canada's national game but just why is a very moot point. The game is practically unknown in many parts of Canada, and in others is a very minor sport. Jim (Toronto Globe and Mail) Coleman points out that, aside from Vancouver, the large cities have just about ignored boxla, leaving the towns and little communities to carry the torch.

On the West Coast lacrosse is just about the leading sport, but elsewhere it has been going downhill fast, especially since the outbreak of war. All is not lost yet, though, since Winnipeg is fast becoming lacrosse-conscious while a revival of interest probably will be general after the war. But it is going to be hard to convince any staunch hockey fan that lacrosse ever can be termed Canada's national sport.

Home brew:

Montreal Royals have a native on their International ball team for the first time since Oscar Major held down a regular berth in 1917 under Dan Howley. Stan Breard, 22-year-old youth from Lachine, Que., took over the shortstop job when Gene Mauch had to report back to the Army. French-Canadian players have put in brief appearances with Royals, among them Cleveland hurler Paul Calvert and Boston Braves' third-sacker Roland Gladu.

Horse talk:

Dr. Pat McNulty of Winnipeg is out for the laurels at the Winnipeg Horse Show in August. While in Toronto for the Canadian Medical Association convention, Dr. McNulty bought Lucky Boy, a black hackney with white feet that formerly was lead horse in the Francheschini tandem. Eaton's and Victor Sifton had better watch out.

Saturday subjects:

Maurice (Winnipeg Free Press) Smith quotes Jack McConnell of Winnipeg as picking the Yankees and Cardinals to meet in their third successive World Series this fall. McConnell hasn't missed a classic in 23 years, and outside of Joe Page in Montreal has seen more of the big shows than any other Canadian, Smitty says...... Andy (Toronto Star) Lytle reports that the Maple Leafs (hockey) executive was quite disturbed when Jack Adams signed up the Chin brothers for Detroit Red Wings. That box office appeal just can't be ignored.

Leafs Move Into Top Spot Beat Orioles

By The Associated Press.

For the fourth time this week, a new team occupied the top rung in the International League standings today. Toronto Maple Leafs, last year's champions, moved into that spot by defeating the Rochester team 5-3 last night.

Previously Rochester, Buffalo and Syracuse had occupied the top slot. It marks the first time that the Leafs have taken over first place since they won the first two games of the season.

Luther Knerr gained the distinction of hurling his team into the lead, holding the Birds scoreless until the ninth when Rochester staged a mild uprising to score three runs. Jimmy Gruzdis led the Toronto attack with two hits, driving in two runs and scoring twice himself.

Montreal Royals pounded out 13 hits including four doubles, a triple and home run to defeat Buffalo Bisons 10-3, and climb into fifth place ahead of Jersey City. Red Durrett hit his fifth homer in the sixth inning with one on.

The tail-end Newark Bears knocked Syracuse out of the league lead, defeating the Chiefs 9-3.

Howard Moss led the Baltimore Orioles to a 4-2 decision over Jersey City, dropping the Little Giants to sixth spot. Moss made two hits and scored two runs.

Major League Leaders

(By The Associated Press)

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Batting—Tucker, Chicago, .395.
Runs—Johnson, Boston, 29.
Runs batted in—Tabor, Boston, 23.
Hits—Doerr, Boston, 12.
Triples—Gutteridge, St. Louis, 5.
Home runs—Hayes, Philadelphia and Seerey, Cleveland, 6.
Stolen bases — Stirnweiss, New York, 8.
Pitching—Leonard, Washington, 4-0.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Batting—Walker, Brooklyn, .424.
Runs—Bordagaray, Brooklyn, 27.
Runs batted in—Schultz, Brooklyn, 33.
Hits—Walker, Brooklyn, 52.
Doubles—Holmes, Boston, 15.
Triples—Barrett, Pittsburgh, 6.
Home runs—Schultz, Brooklyn, 6.
Stolen bases—Macon, Boston, 6.
Pitching—Lanier, St. Louis, 6-0.

HANDICAP CHAMP - - By Jack Sords

Baseball Results and Record

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Toronto | 16 | 11 | .593 |
| Syracuse | 13 | 10 | .565 |
| Rochester | 17 | 14 | .548 |
| Buffalo | 15 | 13 | .536 |
| Montreal | 15 | 15 | .500 |
| Jersey City | 13 | 14 | .481 |
| Baltimore | 11 | 14 | .440 |
| Newark | 9 | 18 | .333 |

Friday Results

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Toronto | 5 | Rochester | 3 |
| Baltimore | 4 | Jersey City | 2 |
| Newark | 9 | Syracuse | 3 |
| Montreal | 10 | Buffalo | 3 |

NATIONAL LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| St. Louis | 22 | 9 | .710 |
| Cincinnati | 18 | 11 | .621 |
| Pittsburgh | 16 | 11 | .593 |
| Philadelphia | 12 | 15 | .444 |
| Brooklyn | 13 | 17 | .433 |
| New York | 13 | 18 | .419 |
| Boston | 15 | 20 | .429 |
| Chicago | 10 | 18 | .357 |

Friday's Results

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Pittsburgh | 7 | Boston | 5 |
| St. Louis | 5 | Brooklyn | 3 |
| Chicago | 9 | Philadelphia | 1 |
| Cincinnati | 4 | New York | 3 |

AMERICAN LEAGUE

| | Won | Lost | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| New York | 18 | 10 | .643 |
| Washington | 18 | 14 | .563 |
| St. Louis | 19 | 15 | .559 |
| Philadelphia | 17 | 15 | .531 |
| Boston | 14 | 17 | .452 |
| Detroit | 15 | 19 | .441 |
| Chicago | 13 | 18 | .419 |
| Cleveland | 14 | 20 | .412 |

Friday's Results

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Philadelphia | 3 | Detroit | 2 |
| x-Washington | 5 | Cleveland | 3 |
| New York | 4 | Chicago | 0 |
| Boston | 4 | St. Louis | 2 |

x—13 innings.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Friday's Results

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Minneapolis | 18 | Columbus | 6 |
| Toledo | 6 | St. Paul | 3 |
| Kansas City | 4 | Indianapolis | 2 |
| Milwaukee | 7 | Louisville | 8 |

Chicago Cubs Showing Signs Of Life

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sport Writer.

Banjo - strumming "Cholly" Grimm has those Chicago Cubs knocking to-day on the exit door from the National League cellar. In three weeks the Bruins have won nine of 17 games and are boasting a fancy six-game victory string.

Improvement was the only thing possible for the bewildered Cubs who had lost 10 straight after the opening day when Grimm succeeded Jimmy Wilson as boss man.

Paul Derringer's rejuvenation continued yesterday with the Cubs' success as he travelled the route for the third time in six starts to stop the Phils 9-1.

St. Louis came from behind to down Brooklyn 5-3 in the delayed opening of their Eastern invasion. Max Lanier, bidding for his seventh victory, faded for a pinch hitter and reliefer Al Jurisch got the win when the Dodgers' defence fell apart.

Woody Williams' single, scoring pinch runner Dain Clay from second, helped Cincinnati to a 4-3 nod in 10 night innings over New York. Bucky Walters yielded homers to Mel Ott and Danny Gardella in hanging up his seventh triumph.

Pinch hitter Frank Colman's home run with two on in the eighth enabled Pittsburg to trounce Boston 7-5.

The New York Yankees opened their tour on Ernie Bonham's neat six-hit shutout job against Chicago 4-0 under the arcs before 25,766, picking up a full game on St. Louis which bowed to Boston 4-2 in an inning "owl" game. Nelson Potter retired the first 23 Red Sox to face him, but finally lost.

Bobo Newsom had to get ninth inning help from Joe Berry in shading Detroit 3-2 with Frankie Hayes driving in two runs and scoring the other for Philadelphia. George Case's single in the 13th scored Rick Ferrell and Johnny Sullivan with Washington's decisive counters in a 5-3 verdict over Cleveland.

Big Baski Boy Defeat Savold

NEW YORK May 27— (AP). — You can call him "Holting Joe" now—this big Baksi boy from the coal mines of Kulpmont, Pa.

The rugged 212-pound scrapper jolted Lee Savold, the blond Adonis from Paterson, N.J., all over Madison Square Garden's ring last night for 12 rounds, to win by a country mile over the veteran who only two months ago shaded him in a 10-rounder.

In the first fight 198-pound Savold's rapier-like left was the deciding factor. But last night before 11,362 fans who paid $46,263 for the privilege, Baksi beat his lighter and faster foe to the punch and battered his eyes, mouth, nose and midsection unmercifully.

The lightning Savold left failed to find its mark many times, Baksi generally being inside it flailing away with both hands. There were no knockdowns, but at least three times the former ballroom bouncer had Savold in a bad way and hanging on.

Theatres - Dances - Radio

THEY KNOW JIU JITSU TOO—Here a group of United States army nurses in training somewhere in Wales, practice jiu jitsu on each other, just in case they meet up with an enemy soldier in the front lines. This is one phase of the complete course of training for the girls before being assigned to war areas.

The Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 27—(AP)—While the Big Ten football coaches were reaching a "gentlemen's agreement" not to play safe on kickoffs the other day, the basketball coaches were told that they ain't no gentlemen or they wouldn't teach rough tactics . . . The contrast, interesting as it may, is unimportant but the whole thing stresses the wartime development of coaches assuming roles that they never dared try before . . . with the colleges' permission, a lot of coaches have done surprising things to keep their teams—and their jobs—going . . . This week-end the National Football Coaches Association will discuss whether they should by-pass the dormant rules committee so as to give the customers a livelier game . . . can you imagine the old-time glorified trainers doing that?

Withers Are We, Etc?

Wonder if eventually all the big-time grid coaches will operate as Slip Madigan used to, when he'd dig up a team and a schedule for St. Mary's, share in the profits and run a sooper-dooper fans' tour to one of the games? . . . And if they do, wonder if the undergraduates and alumni will retain the old college spirit or will they regard football as a sort of semi-pro show trading on the college's names?

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

Primo Carnera, Italy's Ambling Alp, tottered to his corner and conceded a 10-round heavyweight boxing bout to Leroy Haines, Philadelphia negro, at Brooklyn eight years ago to-night. The mammoth Italian suffered temporary paralysis in his right leg in the ninth round.

CENTRE

Last Times To-day
DOROTHY LAMOUR
Dick Powell
Victor Moore
In the Technicolor Musical
"RIDING HIGH"
And Hit No. 2
"HERE COMES KELLY"
Plus! Comic Cartoon

STARTS MONDAY
2—SPLENDID FEATURES—2
James Cagney
In His Perfect Role as
"Johnny Come Lately"
A Picture You Won't ... to Miss
AND THE 2ND HIT
"SPOTLIGHT SCANDALS"
A Musical Comedy Delight
With Billy Gilbert-Bonnie Baker
And Two Top Orchestras
Extra! Latest British News

Legion Sends Smokes To 36 Overseas Men

The draw at the Canadian Legion overseas bingo on Friday night will result in each of the following seamen, soldiers and airmen receiving 300 cigarettes:

Trooper J. B. McClennan, L. Cpl. E. G. Berwick, Spr. Elwood A. Hendren, Grn. R. Kitchen, Gnr. Angus Blaney, L. Cpl. J. A. Willshaw, Sgt. G. E. W. Bousfield, Pte. J. O'Toole, Pte. H. Brooks, Lieut. G. Clarke, LS. B. W. Weir, Sgt. C. J. Brady, Ken Hetherington, WO. R. K. MacDonald, Pte. H. T. Doleman, OS. R. Gynane, L. Cpl. S. Weaver, Pte. Kenneth R. Hoard, Sgt. M. E. Boreham, Pte. Roy Fairbairn, Sgm. M. G. Deering, Spr. J. M. Neish, Coder R. W. Parnell, LAC. J. A. Fraser, Pte. A. McCall, Pte. A. R. Edwards, LAC. G. R. Spicer, Cpl. Melville McGill, H. Pammet, Pte. K. E. Mitton, Spr. H. R. Erickson, Sgt. J. G. Bush, Gnr. C. Joiner, Stoker G K. Patterson, Lieut. A. P. Lasenby, L. Cpl. Harold A. Campbell.

Salvage Collection

MARMORA, May 27 — (ENS) — As a result of the recent salvage collection in Marmora, a lot of much needed material in Canada's war effort was collected and delivered to Belleville. The funds of the Marmora War Workers received the substanial contribution of $81.85 as a result. Ed. Prentice principal of Marmora again supervised it.

TUNE IN
CHEX
SUNDAY
12.45 to 1.00 P.M.
JESSE CRAWFORD
Organist
GUEST ARTIST
JOHN CHARLES THOMAS
Baritone
Elsie Bennett
GIFT SHOP
345 GEORGE ST.

What's On the Air

| Stations | Kilocycles |
|---|---|
| CHEX | 1430 |
| CBL | 740 |
| CFRB | 860 |
| WEAF | 660 |
| WJZ | 770 |
| WABC | 880 |

Symbols: D—Drama, M—Musical, R—Religious, S—Songs, T—Talk, V—Variety, N—News

This Program has been given the Peterborough Examiner by stations herein listed If the presentations as scheduled are not on the air, the fault lies with the stations and not with the Examiner.

Radio Station CHEX Carries the News on the Hour

SATURDAY EVENING

6:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Tunes
CBL—Saturday Serenade
WABC—Quincy Howe-T

6:15 P.M.
CHEX—Singing Strings
CBL—CBC News
WABC—People's Platform
WJZ—Storyland Theatre

6:30 P.M.
CHEX—News; Rhythm R'dup
CBL—Songs at Eventide

6:45 P.M.
CHEX—Canada at the Front
CBL—BBC News
WEAF—Religion in the News
WABC—The World To-day

7:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Sportscasts
CFRB—Mayor of the Town
WJZ—Good Old Days-V
WEAF—Arms and the Man-D

7:15 P.M.
CHEX—Footlight Parade

7:30 P.M.
CHEX—Melodies from England
WEAF—Chew. Gum Mystery-D
CFRB—Tim's Gang
WABC—Thanks to Yanks

7:45 P.M.
CHEX—Lyrics for To-night

8:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Cugat's Orch
CBL—Ici L'on Chante
WJZ—Early Amer. Dance-M
WABC—Blue Ribbon Time-V

8:30 P.M.
CHEX—Erie Tully Barn Dance
WABC—Inner Sanctum-D
WEAF—Truth or Consequences
CBL—Share the Wealth
WJZ—Boston Symphony

9:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Dancing Party
CBL—Two-Piano Team
WABC—Your Hit Parade
WEAF—National Barn Dance

9:30 P.M.
CHEX—Dancing Party
CFRB—Awcommon Inn

10:00 P.M.
CHEX—Stringtime-M
WJZ—Guy Lombardo-M
WEAF—Variety Program

10:15 P.M.
WABC—Correction Please
CFRB—Holiday Hoedown

10:30 P.M.
CHEX—Norman Harris Orch.
WEAF—Grand Old OpryV

10.45 P.M.
CHEX—America Looks Ahead

11:00 P.M.
CHEX—News and Commentary
CFRB—News

11:15 P.M.
CHEX—Organettes; Sign Off
CFRB—Dateline
WEAF—Am. String Quartette

11:30 P.M.
WJZ—Hoosiers' Hop
CFRB—Casey, Press Photo'er
WEAF—I Sustain the Wings

SUNDAY MORNING

8.30 A.M.
WABC—Columbia Ensemble

9:00 A.M.
CBL—Interlude
CFRB—News

9:15 A.M.
WEAF—Commando Mary-T
CBL—Serenade in Waltztime
WJZ—Victory Garden Talk

9:45 A.M.
CFRB—New Voices-S
WJZ—White Rabbit Line
CBL—String Quartette

10:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Sun Song Sedv.
CFRB—Church of the Air
CBL—Andy Clark-T
WEAF—Nat Radio Pulpit-R
WJZ—Message of Israel-R

10:30 A.M.
CHEX—Words and Music
CFRB—Wings Over Jordan
WJZ—Southernaires
CBL—Ontario Gardener

11:00 A.M.
CHEX—St. Paul's Church
WABC—Blue Jacket Choir-S
WJZ—Your War Job-T
WEAF—Rhapsody of Rockies

SUNDAY AFTERNOON

12:00 P.M.
CFRB—Bluejacket Choir-S
CBL—BBC News
WEAF—Jewish Holiday
WABC—Salt Lake Choir

12:15 P.M.
CBL—St Michael's
CHEX—Rosanne Salon

12:30 P.M.
CHEX—News; Emerald Isle
WJZ—Moments of Memory

12:45 P.M.
CHEX—Old Refrains

1:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Chapel Chimes
WABC—Church of the Air
CBM—Hello Children

1:30 P.M.
CHEX—Elim Church
CBL—Chamber Music
CFRB—Sunday Hour-M
WEAF—R'nd Table Discussion

2:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Music and Verse
CFRB—Bid for Victory
WEAF—Those We Love-D
WJZ—Chaplain Jim-D

2:30 P.M.
CHEX—Wayne King-M
CBL—Religious Period
WEAF—John C Thomas-S
WJZ—Sunday Vespers

3:00 P.M.
CHEX—Pentecostal Church
CBL—The People Ask
WJZ—The Life of Riley
CFRB—N.Y. Philharmonic
WEAF—World Parade

3:30 P.M.
CHEX—Waltz with Me
WEAF—The Army Hour
WJZ—Hot Copy-D

4:00 P.M.
CHEX—Bethany Tabernacle
WJZ—Fun Valley
CFRB—N Y Philharmonic

4:30 P.M.
CFRB—Variety Program
WEAF—French in Canada-D
CBL—Church of the Air-R
WJZ—World of Song

5:00 P.M.
CHEX—News, Hit Parade
CBL—Concert Corner-M
WEAF—Symphony of the Air
WJZ—Mary Small Revue-V
CFRB—Family Hour-V

5:30 P.M.
CHEX—Guy Lombardo
WJZ—Musical Steelmakers

5:45 P.M.
CHEX—Command Performance

SUNDAY EVENING

6:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Hall of Fame
WEAF—Catholic Hour
CBL—Comrades in Arms
WABC—Silver Theatre-D
CFRB—Green Hornet-D

6:30 P.M.
CBL—Art and Democracy-T
CFRB—Light Opera
WABC—America in the Air
WEAF—Great Gildersleeve-V

7:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Salvation Army
CBL—Jack Benny
WABC—William Shirer-N

7:30 P.M.
CHEX—L for Lanky
WABC—We the People-V
WJZ—Quiz Kids

8:00 P.M.
CHEX—News
WABC—Walt. Pidgeon Show
CBL—Charlie McCarthy
WJZ—Chapel Service

8:15 P.M.
CHEX—Treasury Star
WJZ—Andy Russell-S

8:30 P.M.
CHEX—Memories Melodies
CBL—Week-end Review
WJZ—Keepsakes-V
WABC—Crime Doctor-D
WEAF—One Man's Family-D

9:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Say with Music
CBL—Man Who Wouldn't Die
WJZ—Walter Winchell-T
CFRB—Radio Digest-D

9:15 P.M.
CHEX—House of Dreams

9:30 P.M.
CHEX—Fred Allen-V
CBL—Familiar Music

10:00 P.M.
CHEX—Lat Amer Serenade
CBL—National News
WEAF—Hour of Charm
WABC—Take or Leave It-V
WJZ—Listen, the Women

10:15 P.M.
CBL—Songs of Empire-M

10:30 P.M.
CHEX—Nocturne
WABC—Adven. of Thin Man-D
WEAF—Bob-Crosby-V
CFRB—Artists' Trio

11:00 P.M.
CHEX—Nat'l News Summary
CBL—Radio Newsreel

MONDAY MORNING

6:00 A.M.
CHEX—Early Risers

7:30 A.M.
CHEX—News

7:45 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Cheer

8:00 A.M.
CHEX—News
WJZ—Kibitzers-V

8:15 A.M.
CHEX—Breakfast Musicale

8:30 A.M.
CHEX—Breakfast Musicale
CFRB—Quiet Sanctuary
WJZ—Woman of Tomorrow

8:45 A.M.
CHEX—Morning Devotions
CFRB—Coffee Club
WEAF—Modern Romances

9:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Salon String
CBL—Mirth and Madness

9:15 A.M.
CHEX—Meet the Band

9:30 A.M.
CHEX—Console Airs

9:45 A.M.
CHEX—Smiling Jack

10:00 A.M.
CHEX—News; Masterworks
CBL—Band Plays On

10:15 A.M.
CHEX—Uncle Jimmy-D

10:30 A.M.
CHEX—Peter McGregor-D
CFRB—Mrs Aitken
CBL—Wartime Housekeeping

10:45 A.M.
CHEX—Mastersingers

11:00 A.M.
CHEX—News
WJZ—Breakfast at Sardi's-V

11:15 A.M.
CHEX—Music by Montovani

11:30 A.M.
CHEX—Invit to Syncopation
CBL—Soldier's Wife
WABC—Bright Horizon-D

11:45 A.M.
CHEX—On the Lighter Side

MONDAY AFTERNOON

12:00 NOON
CHEX—News; Home Folks
CBL—BBC News
WJZ—Frontiers of Am. Life-T

12:30 P.M.
CHEX—News Farm News
WABC—Helen Trent-D
WEAF—Navy Band
CBL—Farm Broadcast

1:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Home Folks
WEAF—Sketches in Melody

1:15 P.M.
CBL—Happy Gang
WJZ—The Woman's Exchange

1:30 P.M.
CHEX—Who's New To-day
CFRB—Tropical Moods
WABC—Bernadine Flynn-T

1:45 P.M.
CHEX—They Tell Me

2:00 P.M.
CHEX—News; Salon Orch.
WEAF—Guiding Light-D

2:15 P.M.
CHEX—A to Z

2:30 P.M.
CHEX—Stars of the Week

2:45 P.M.
CHEX—Meet the Band

3:00 P.M.
CHEX—News, Melody Matinee
WJZ—Morton Downey-S

3:30 P.M.
CHEX—Alf Standen, piano

3:45 P.M.
CHEX—Voice of Memory

4:00 P.M.
CHEX—Make Believe Ballr'm
CBL—Ann Watts-S
WJZ—Ethel and Albert-D

5:00 P.M.
CHEX—Robertson Davies-T
WABC—Fun with Dunn-V
CBL—Frontline Family

5:05 P.M.
CHEX—Lindsay Salute

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS

By The Canadian Press

Bobo Newsom of the Philadelphia Athletics and Max Lanier of the St. Louis Cardinals are the only twirlers in the big leagues who have struck out 10 or more batters in a single game so far this season, according to figures released in New York last night. Leading the major loops in strikeouts this year is Jack Kramer of St. Louis Browns with a total of 43 but he has a long way to go to match the 174 total registered last season by Johnny Vandermeer of Cincinnati who is now in the Navy.

Bill Hart, who has been filling the shortstop position, was released by Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday to New Orleans of the Southern Association and Manager Leo Durocher announced the purchase of first-baseman Jack Bolling from the Montreal Royals.

The Detroit Tigers yesterday lost their utility infielder, Albert Unser, to the U.S. Army, although he has not yet been ordered to report for actual training.

Before a crowd of 18,203 which wagered $2,017,102 on eight races, Good Thing, Alfred G. Vanderbilt's three-year-old, ran away with the Whetstone purse at Belmont Park yesterday to pay $12.70.

POOR RELATION

A cyclone generally travels at the rate of 20 miles or more an hour, while its tropical cousin, the hurricane sometimes attains the velocity of 100 miles an hour.

MOVIE TIME TABLE

Capitol — "Lady in the Dark", 2.40, 4.50, 7.05, 9.15. Last complete show, 8.45.

Centre — "Riding High", 1.35, 4.20, 7.05, 9.50; "Here Comes Kelly" 3.12, 6.03, 6.50.

Regent—"George in the Home Guard", 1.30, 3.30, 5.40, 7.45, 9.50.

Yesterday's Stars

(By The Associated Press)

Frank Colman, Pirates—Smashed three-run pinch hit homer in eighth to drub Boston, 7-5.

Phil Cavarretta, Cubs — Paced Chicago 14-hit attack with two doubles and single, driving in two runs in 9-1 triumph over Phils.

George Case, Senators—Singled home Rick Ferrell and Johnny Sullivan with winning runs in 13th for 5-3 victory over Cleveland.

Joe Cronin, Red Sox—Batted in decisive score of Boston's 4-2 triumph over St. Louis in 11-inning night game after tying game in ninth.

YOUR MERRIEST MOMENTS IN MONTHS...

STARTS MONDAY
THE STAR OF "CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK"
HIT NO. 2—"THE BIG BLOCKADE"
Regent
TO-NIGHT ONLY!
George Formby—in 'The Home Guard' - Serial

DANCING TO-NIGHT
TO THE
"MELODY MEN"
ADMISSION:
Ladies, 40c
Gents, 60c
SUMMER GARDENS
PETERBOROUGH

PRIVATE LIFE of a Capital Cutie...
Olivia DE HAVILLAND
in
"Government Girl"
with
SONNY TUFTS
ANNE SHIRLEY - JESS BARKER

MONDAY
Capitol
A FAMOUS PLAYERS THEATRE
2ND ACE HIT
The Falcon Again Comes to Our Screen in a Tense Drama, Packed With Exciting Thrills!
"THE FALCON OUT WEST"
With
Tom Conway - Barbara Hale
TO-DAY ONLY!
"LADY IN THE DARK"
In Technicolor
Ginger Rogers - Ray Milland

Indians Guard Canada; 2,400 Enlist

BY JAMES McCOOK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, May 27 — (CP) — From the front line in Italy to the white acres below the North Pole, the first Canadians are keeping watch and ward for their country.

Indians affairs department officials said today there are virtually no unemployed among the 118,000 Indians. More than 2,400 are known to be in the forces, but many others of Indian blood are serving.

Hundreds are engaged in industry, other hundreds serve as guides, hunters and counsellors for defence projects in the wilderness, and some in isolated regions simply continue their old way of life but, knowing there's a war, serve as the guardians of their land and are quick to support suspicious occurrences to the authorities.

Valuable Job

Authorities said that this silent, unobstrusive watch is one of the most valuable services of the native peoples. Where the Indians do not go, among the waste of Arctic snows, the Eskimos travel. And they, too, will report strange ships, airplanes or travellers to the wireless stations.

In a recent report, Dr. H. W. McGill, director of the Indian Affairs branch, said there had been a decided and sustained improvement in the economic condition of Canadian Indians. Because the Indian has been able to obtain fur catches in recent years and has obtained remunerative employment to an unusual extent, notable physical benefits have followed.

D. J. Allan, superintendent of Indian reserves, cited the experience of a lumber man in northern Ontario in support of nutrition experts opinion that "Indian laziness and indolence is due entirely to malnutrition."

The lumberman had worked among Indians for 25 years without realizing they were good bushmen.

"As soon as they got filled up and got their muscles strengthened I found to my surprise that they were the best lumbermen I ever had," said the lumberman.

O.D.E. At Service

BONARLAW, May 27—(ENS)—Springbrook Lodge I.O.O.F. No. 429 attended divine service at St. Mark's Anglican church Sunday. There was a splendid attendance, visitors being present from Campbellford and Stirling Lodges and a large number of Rebekahs from Laurel Rebekah Lodge, Stirling. Past Grand Sidney Mason acted as Marshall for the Oddfellows and Mrs. E. G. Bailey, Past Grand, for the Rebekahs. Rev. A. B. Coldwell delivered the serman and the lesson was read by W. J. Cottrell. During the offertory F. Baker sang the solo "Jesus Remembers When the World Forgets."

STUDIES IN SLEEP NEAR FRONT LINE IN ITALY—When tanks of a company that was to take part in a new offensive and strike towards high country in enemy territory in Italy bogged down, the men simply took advantage of the delay by resting. Here we see a study in sleep as the G.I.'s strike grotesque angles. Some sought fox-holes for their nap, others just stretched out and snoozed.

Canadians Fight Singing Songs

LONDON, May 27 — (CP) — Doon Campbell, a Reuters News Agency correspondent, has returned from Italy with high praise for the Canadians who, he said, "can outfight and out-manoeuvre the German at his own tactics."

"The strains of sea chanties, popular ballads and ditties echo eerily above the furious turmoil of battle whenever the Canadians go forward," he said.

Campbell added that the Canadians "go into the fight with a nonchalance which is wholly misleading," some humming such songs as "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean," others smoking.

Friends Give Shower

NORWOOD, May 27—(ENS)—A large number of gifts and a purse of money were tendered Mr. and Mrs. J. Hamblin at a shower given in their honor in the town hall Wednesday evening. The evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. Hamblin thanked those present and B. Lochead and W. Kavanagh for making the arrangements. A recitation was given by Mrs. O. Edgely.

Many friends of the district were present including several from Lakefield.

SEVEN DIE FROM FIRE—Charred interior is all that is left of the Moose Hall in Hamilton, where seven persons died after fire swept the building. Over 40 were injured in the holocaust which brought tragedy to a merry-making crowd of dairy company employees on the eve of May 23.

Hear and Meet
John Bracken
National Leader of the Progressive Conservative Party
AT THE Academy Theatre
LINDSAY
Wednesday, May 31st
2.15 p.m.
HON. L. M. FROST, Provincial Treasurer, and
HON. PERCY VIVIAN, Minister of Health, will also speak.
(ONTARIO EAST CENTRE PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE ASSOCIATION)
Gordon K. Fraser, M.P., President.

Five Little Dionne Millionaires Ten Years Old Next Sunday

BY A. E. FULFORD
Canadian Press Staff Writer

CALLANDER, Ont., May 27 — (CP) — Their 10th birthday—coming about 4:30 a.m. May 28—is as good a time as any to bring a few popular fantasies about those happy millionaires, the Dionne Quintuplets, out into the open for a little truth treatment.

A three-hour visit with the Quints their father and their teachers provided a Canadian Press reporter with ample material to correct some of the public's misconceptions about the girls.

The first and most important of these widely-believed untruths is that the Quints are not bright. Or that one of them—Marie—is backward.

Not so. No infant prodigies, they are as intelligent as normal children of their age, perhaps a little moreso, and are as far advanced in school as other 10-year-olds. None is brighter in everything than the others. Yvonne may be a wizard at arithmetic one month but Cecile or Emilie will beat her later. Marie may be tops in social studies in one test but Annette or one of the others is sure to overhaul her eventually.

Speak English

As they were preparing for a quiet and strictly family celebration next Sunday of their first decade of life, the girls provided a convincing demonstration of another hardy untruth—that they can't speak English and are forbidden to learn.

They do speak English, and do very well, too for little French-Canadian girls—a great deal more English than most English-Canadians speak French. And they sing in English with scarcely a trace of accent. They have daily English lessons although most of their school work is done in their native French.

Another popular idea is that they are not pretty. They are definitely so. Not beautiful, as the advertisement illustrations make them seem, but attractive girls who have a splendid chance of growing into beautiful women.

Despite reports that their earning power has declined, the quints are doing quite nicely in a financial way, too. They still have lucrative contracts which bring them between $25,000 and $30,000 a year, and they have $1,000,000 in Government Bonds which won't be touched until they are grown up.

An afternoon spent with the quints in the new $50,000 home demonstrated that they are entirely natural, well-mannered children, not in the least, not in the least affected, not forward and not too shy.

Taught By Nun.

It was climaxed when they sang two songs for their visitor—one a rehearsal of a number written by their music teacher—Sister Louis De Gonzange — as a surprise for their mother on her return from a ship-christening trip to Superior, Wis., and the other, in English, a song in which they thank those who visit them.

They stood in a semi-circle with their blond, 11-year-old sister Pauline in the recreation room of their home, and, while the nun beat a lively time, demonstrated they have real ability to put over a song—with gestures.

When this reporter entered the room with Oliva Dionne, their 41-year-old father, they stopped singing and shyly waited for a lead as to what they were to do.

Mr. Dionne suggested that I, who first saw them when they were 3 months old, might be able to tell them apart; this was recognized by the quints as an old joke, and they agreed to lift their hands as I called out their names.

Annette, Cecile, Emile and Marie smilingly acknowledged their identity in order. There was only one name left to call—and I forgot it. The remaining Quint looked reproachfully for a minute until I hastily mumbled "Yvonne," and there was a sigh of relief from all five sisters.

While they played with their sister Pauline and a neighbour's child, Mr. Dionne and Sister Louis de Gonzagne explained they sing and play the piano daily and seem to be naturally musical. No compulsion is necessary for their piano lessons. The Quints eagerly wait their turn for instruction.

Not Spoiled

Their complete naturalness and undisguised love of fun and laughter were evident. Watching them at play, it was easy to see they all consider Marie, the smallest at birth, the baby of their group. Each seems to give her a little more attention than she gives the others. They are all happy children but Cecile seems to be the chief mischief-maker and Emilie the most carefree of them all. Yvonne and Annette are the leaders and seem more mature.

They are beautifully behaved and lack self-consciousness except when they are the centre of attention. Dressed in white silk, they stood primly with their hands behind their back while their father or teacher spoke to them but when it was indicated they could resume their play they lost all interest in the visitor and went at their games just as other children do. When I said goodbye in French they smilingly returned the compliment by replying in English.

The training they had under Dr. Allan Roy Dafoe, their physician for the first eight years of their life who died last June 2, and their parents—the discipline that made them self-reliant youngsters instead of the spoiled children they might have been— showed in their demeanor whether they were at play or on their best company behavior.

Bonarlaw News

Pte. Morley Stocker of the Veterans Guard, Timmins, visited his family her for several days last week.

Lieut. Russell Heath of Royal Canadian Signal Corps, Kingston, was the guest of his brother, Carl Heath, this week.

Mrs. Fred Comerford of Eldorado is visiting Mrs. Adelia McComb and other friends in this vicinity.

Guests at Mr. and Mrs. George S. Eastwood's on Sunday were Miss Mildred Brown, Miss Marjorie Byers, Frank McAvoy and Glynn Eastwood of Whitby.

Mr. George Eastwood is spending a few days in Toronto.

Rupture Troubles Ended
Thousands healed by our advanced method. No leg straps, no elastic, no plasters. No pressure on hips or spine. Flexo pad. Different from all others. Endorsed by doctors, mechanics, clerks, everywhere. Very light. INEXPENSIVE. GUARANTEED. Write for information and trial offer.
SMITH MANUFACTURING COMPANY
Established 1893 Dept. 37, Preston, Ont.

WATCHING PROGRESS OF BATTLE—General Sir Harold Alexander, Allied commander in Italy, follows the progress of the Allied assault on the Gustav line from a position on the 8th Army front.

Capitalists Try To Defeat CCF Is Claim

REGINA, May 27 — (CP) — Rev. T. C. Douglas of Weyburn, Sask., Provincial C.C.F. Leader, last night said the "tycoons of finance....are prepared to go to any lengths and spend any amount of money to keep Saskatchewan from going C.C.F."

In an address prepared for the broadcast over regional network of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, Mr. Douglas charged that "forces of reaction, under leadership of Gladstone Murray and his millionaire backers, are vainly striving to fool the common people."

(Gladstone Murray is a former general manager of the Board of Governors of the CBC and now is a Public Relations counsel in Toronto.)

Free enterprise only operates with any degree of efficiency in wartime, Mr. Douglas said. "That is why it breeds war because without wars the system would die. We would like to build a society which would function even better in peace than in war."

He said Saskatchewan stands at the "parting of the ways" and the June 15 provincial election would determine whether it would go forward to establish a new society or back to where it stood before the war.

Germany Preparing For Another War

STOCKHOLM, May 27 — (AP)— A new instructional manual from the German high command expressing concern about the declining birth-rate indicates Germany already is preparing for the next war.

The manual, copy of which was received here yesterday, declared "every stout boy born in 1943 can become a brave soldier in 1963."

Recognizing that war casualties would cause a further drop in the birth-rate "in the next years," the booklet declared every German family must, on the average, have four children.

Plural Marriage Exponents Jailed

SALT LAKE CITY, May 27 — Fifteen Salt Lake City men convicted of unlawful cohabitation with a total of 55 women yesterday were sentenced to indeterminate sentences in State Prison.

District Court Ray Van Cott, Jr., denied defence motions for a new trial, but permitted continued freedom of the men on bond pending an appeal.

The 15 are members of the Fundamentalist cult which advocates plural marriages and are among 46 men and women arrested March 27 in a Federal State drive. Among the 15 are John Yates Barlow, 70-year-old Fundamentalists' leader.

The maximum penalty for unlawful cohabitation is five years. Under Judge Van Cott's sentence, the men's terms might be ended by the Board of Pardons at any time after they start serving.

Norwood News

Flt. Sgt. G. Harvey and Mrs. Harvey of Montreal spent two days recently with Mrs. E. Blodgett and family.

Miss Palmer Godin of London, is spending two weeks' vacation with her parents.

Mr. Roy Scott is convalescing in the General Hospital Kingston, after a leg amputation.

Milton Andrews, R.C.M., of the West Coast, is spending a 12-day leave with Mrs. Andrews and family.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Bongard of Toronto, have taken up residence with Mrs. Catherine McNeely, Queen street.

Mrs. Earle Bongard and Patsie, of Toronto, are visiting with Mrs. Bongard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Marks.

Sergeant Russell Stevens, of the Canadian Dental Corps, is spending a furlough at his home here.

FROM MEXICO TO JOIN W.D.'S—Only member of the Royal Canadian Air Force Women's Division with a Mexico shoulder badge and the only one permitted to wear earrings, is Leading Air Woman Edith Walker of Air Force Headquarters, Ottawa. Edith's father, George Warrington Walker, spent his boyhood in Winnipeg but for many years has made his home in Mexico City. Edith enlisted in the RCAF at Toronto. The doll she holds in a souvenir of her native land. (RCAF Photo)

Lime Is Dangerous

OTTAWA, May 27—(CP). —Two Renfrew, Ont., boys, Norman Hebert, 11, and Gerard Leclair, nine, are under treatment in hospital here for eye injuries suffered when some unslacked lime sprayed into their faces yesterday. The boys obtained the lime from a building being erected in their neighborhood, mixed it with water and bottled it. It is believed the cork popped off while they were carrying the bottle, spraying their eyes.

Forest Fire Rages Near Algonquin Park

PEMBROKE, Ont., May 27—(CP) —Forest Rangers, assisted by 200 soldiers from Petawawa military camp, are fighting a serious forest fire at the northwest border of Algonquin Park, about 12 miles from Mattawa, Ont.

The fire covers an area of about 1,000 acres, but it is reported that it has ceased to spread. District Forester E. L. Ward said the bush was dry and the fire hazard "extremely high," but that it was the only fire raging in the area. Three small blazes along the Canadian National Railways right of way were quickly brought under control.

Indian River News

Mr. and Mrs. James Torpey of Toronto spent the week-end the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Torpey.

Misses Mary and Blanche Elmhirst of Toronto visited this past week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Elmhirst.

Mrs. Elizabeth Staples spent a few days recently the guest of Mrs. M. Miller.

Miss Margaret Hope of Peterborough spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. John McManus and little daughter spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cavanaugh.

Miss Rosalie Kelly of Peterborough spent the week-end the guest of her mother, Mrs. Frank Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fitzgerald of Toronto spent the week-end with the former's brother, Mr. Emmitt Fitzgerald.

Mrs. Mary G. Cavanagh spent a few days visiting relatives in Peterborough recently.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Greenley and Sheila visited Mr. and Mrs. Ross Webb of Toronto over the week-end.

Mr. Lawrence Fitzgerald and Miss Maitland, both of Toronto, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Fitzgerald.

Mr. F. Harrison visited his mother, Mrs. Long of Myrtle this past week-end.

Mr. C. Whibbs, Joseph, Charles and George, were Sunday guests of the former's fother, Mr. A. Whibbs.

CEMETERY HELP SCARCE

LONDON — (CP) — Southgate Cemetery is so hard put for labor that it now lends shears to visitors who are encouraged to keep the place tidy by cutting the grass.

SUMMER COLDS
CATARRH, ROSE FEVER
Insert a little Buckley's Stainless White Rub in each nostril several times daily. You'll be surprised and delighted to see how quickly this helps clear your clogged nostrils, eases breathing, relieves your discomfort. It must give relief faster or your money back. 30c and 50c.
TAKE A JAR ON YOUR VACATION
BUCKLEY'S STAINLESS WHITE RUB

8,500 Jap Troops Killed Near Manipur

KANDY, Ceylon, May 27—(CP)—Allied headquarters estimated today a total of 8,500 Japanese troops have been killed in the Manipur area in northastern India, where heavy fighting was said to be continuing in the Bishenpur sector southwest of Imphal.

A communique declared the Japanese have failed to penetrate Allied positions on the southwest edge of the Imphal Plain and have been thrown back in disorder on the Tamu-Palel road.

KING MEETS "TORPEDO" MEN—King George, on a visit to the home fleet, is introduced to two of the British naval heroes, who have been called "human torpedoes." Actually the men ride the underwater version of the motorcycle carrying a torpedo. Their strange outfit is a lightweight diving costume. Oxygen and air tanks are strapped to their backs. When the men ride their submarine gadget to its goal, they detach the torpedo portion, fix it to the target and ride away after setting a timing device. They bagged an Italian cruiser like this in Palermo harbor during the Sicilian campaign.

Man Shortage Hitting Weekly Papers

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 27—Some weekly newspaper plants will be forced to close in the coming year unless help is made available, John A. Marsh of Amherstburg, Ont., president of the Ontario-Quebec Division of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association, said to-day in his presidential address to the wartime conference of the association.

Mr. Marsh said the association should seek permission from National Selective Service to permit the establishment of a clearing house for workers. He added: "Our experience with Selective Service has not been a happy one."

Awards were presented to winners in competitions held by the association in the past year as follows:

Pearce Editorial Trophy for the best editorial page among member newspapers, Fort Erie Times-Review; E. F. Stephenson Memorial Trophy for best weekly published in towns of 4,500 or less, awarded jointly to St. Mary's (Ont.) Journal-Argus, Bowmanville (Ont.) Canadian Statesman, Huntingdon (Que.) Gleaner, and Dryden (Ont.)

Joseph T. Clark Memorial Trophy, for the best all-round newspaper published in towns of 1,500 or less, Stouffville (Ont). Tribune.

An oil painting was presented to J. Alex MacLaren, publisher of the Barrie, Ont., Examiner, past president of the C.W.N.A.

Committees were named as follows: Resolutions, Dave Williams, Collingwood; Mrs. A. E. Duncan, Wiarton, and D. R. Wilson, Shawinigan Falls; Nominations, Franc MacIntyre, Dundalk, Walter Legge of Granby, Que., and Bruce Pearce of Simcoe.

Other speakers at the morning session included Sam Curry, Tweed News, C. V. Charters, Brampton, Mrs. E. A. Duncan, Wiarton Echo, Mrs. K. Marston, Elora Express, Miss Helen Legge, Granby Leader Mail, and Miss M. Dawson, Parkhill Gazette.

Expensive Kisses

TORONTO, May 27—(CP). —Edward Pickering of Toronto has learned his lesson about kissing girls. He was fined $10 for stealing two kisses from a 15-year-old elevator operator here between the first and second floors of a downtown building.

YOU'LL BE IN THE LAP OF COMFORT...
when you INSULATE your home! By insulating now, you can look forward to a cooler summer—you can look ahead to a warmer winter, with worthwhile fuel savings.
Why not phone 4655 about insulation for your home, today?
ESTABLISHED 1840 — The — TELEPHONE 4655
PETERBOROUGH LUMBER CO., LTD.
Listen to CHEX for our program "Drums" every Tuesday evening 8:30 to 9 p.m.

The Peterborough Examiner

VOL. LXXXIX, No. 124 SATURDAY, MAY 27 PAGE NINE

Main Street Topics

WILL SHOW PICTURES

Rotarian Fred L. Roy will show a number of films of colored movies of Haliburton and other district beauty spots at the luncheon of the Rotary Club on Monday.

TIRE IS STOLEN

The premises of Central Wreckers 254 Brock street, were broken into some time Friday afternoon and a tire stolen. The safe in the place had also been tampered with but nothing was taken.

HOME FOR VISIT

Pte. J. J. McFadden who was invalided back to Canada from Italy this week is now home on furlough. His wife lives at 223 George street south and they are spending the week-end in Lakefield with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McFad-

GIRL ARRESTED

A 16-year-old girl, a ward of the Girls' Training School at Cobourg, who was arrested on Highway No. 7 by Constable W. A. Clarke is being held here until school officials arrive to take her back.

MARKET PRICES

Prices on the farm produce market this morning were unchanged from last week: eggs averaging 35 cents a dozen; chickens 35 to 38 cents; broilers 38 to 40 cents a pound; and potatoes were plentiful around $1.50 a bag up to $2.50 for certified seed. Flowers were bringing new color to the market, tulips, lilac and other blooms.

LECTURES FOR POLICE.

Until further notice Crown Attorney V. J. McElderry K.C., will lecture members of the police department on police duties, criminal law and similar topics at sessions to be held on Monday and Wednesday nights of each week.

PLAN SPECIAL BROADCAST

A special broadcast on "The People Ask" program is being carried in behalf of the appeal being made for more nurses. The Canadian Nurses Association is behind the broadcast which will be carried over CHEX on Tuesday at 6:15 p.m.

WIN AWARDS

The following names were drawn for $5 War Savings Certificates at the Canadian Legion overseas cigarette bingo on Friday night in aid of the bomber fund: Mrs. Catherine O'Toole, 20 Aylmer street; June Riel, 103 Rubidge street; Mary Crowley, 17 Cricket Place; Robert Hotrum, 533 Sherbrooke stret; Lillian Harte Maxwell, 110 Simcoe street.

IS FINED TWICE.

Pleading guilty to charges of having been drunk on May 12 and May 25 Girard J. Garvey, McDonnel street, was fined $10 and $2.50 costs on each count, with the alternative of ten days in jail on each charge, to run consecutively. As the second offence had taken place before he was tried on the first, the accused could not be charged as a second offender.

SERVING OVERSEAS — Pte. Arthur G. Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Duncan, 90 Auburn Street, is serving overseas. Before enlisting with the Prince of Wales Rangers (C.A.) he was employed at the C.G.E.

OLD SEADOG STILL FIGHTS

LONDON — (CP) — Capt. Le Meur, a Breton, is 62, but that doesn't stop him fighting against the Germans. As a Fighting French navy skipper he's hard at it and in the course of his career has earned 11 medals and 40 bullet wounds.

65 Sailors Plan Visit To City

At the christening of the Corvette "Peterborough" at Kingston today, the city was represented by Mrs. Edward Evans, who performed the nominal duty, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Merrett of the Peterborough and District Navy Auxiliary, Mayor Hamilton and Alderman Sands.

Sixty-five officers and men of the crew of the corvette are coming to Peterborough Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, by way of Port Hope, and will parade from the C.N.R. station to the Ashburnham bowl at 6 p.m. accompanied by the local Air and Sea Cadets and their bands.

The visitors will be greeted by Mayor Hamilton, and an opportunity will be afforded for the public to meet the officers and their men of this sailing crew who take the ship from Cobourg to Halifax where the enrolment will be completed.

The program for the men of the "Peterborough" includes some presentation of personal gifts for the men during the informal welcome at the Bowl followed by dinner and dance at the Kawartha Club. Arrangements have been made for the men to spend the night at the Training Centre, and on Tuesday they will have the morning to themselves around town until their departure at noon.

More Escape

ZURICH, May 27 — (CP-Reuters) — Thirty Russians who escaped from a German prisoner-of-war camp in the confusion caused by the United States raid on Mulhouse Thursday, crossed into Switzerland near Asle during the night. More escaped Indians are continuing to arrive in Switzerland from the German prison camp at Epinal.

The
PETERBORO METAL COMPANY
Plumbing and Heating Materials
256 Simcoe St. Tel. 8301

New Corvette Is Speedy Well-built Craft

(Special To The Examiner)

KINGSTON, May 27 — H.M.C.S. "Peterborough", the corvette built at the plant of the Kingston shipbuilding company, and sponsored by the City of Peterborough, will be christened at a ceremony to be held at the plant here this afternoon. T. G. Bishop, General Manager of the Kingston Shipbuilding Company stated this morning that the details of the ceremony were indefinite until the deputation arrived arrived from Peterborough.

Since the start of the war ships which were built for the Royal Canadian Navy were christened at the launching ceremony. This was not possible in the case of H.M.C.S. "Peterborough" as the weather was too cold to permit people to stand out while the ceremony took place. The ice in the bay close to where the boat was built was broken and the steel hull slid into the icy waters on the morning of January 15, 1944.

The large corvette which has the latest equipment aboard is nearing completion and will shortly be ready to take its part in the battle for freedom. For some days now the war vessel has been in the drydock having final touches made to the hull, including the paint. The boat will be floated in time for the ceremony this afternoon and will be tied at the dock.

The members of the deputation which were expected to arrive during the morning will have an opportunity of meeting the officer commanding the ship, and the members of the crew as they have been aboard for some time now and are anxiously awaiting the word to leave for active service.

Arrangements are now under way for the vessel to go to Cobourg on Sunday, June 4, and at that port citizens of Peterborough will have an opportunity to board the ship and give it "the once over". It was thought more people from Peterborough could see the corvette if it were taken to Cobourg, as gas is short, to say nothing of time for the war workers.

H. M. C. S. "Peterborough" is certainly a credit to the citizens of Peterborough who are sponsoring this naval craft. She is speedy and will certainly bring credit to her sponsors. She is one of many war vessels built at the local plant here since the start of the conflict. These vessels include the "Napanee", the "Prescott", "Sudbury", "Trentonian", "Charlottetown" and "Frontenac", the latter corvette being sponsored by the citizens of Kingston. H. M. C. S. "Charlottetown" was sunk by enemy action while on active service over a year ago. Other smaller vessels built by the local company are on active service. A corvette which was originally intended for the Royal Navy was turned over to the United States Navy, and is now a part of that force.

Recently the local shipbuilding company received a contract to build ocean going tugs after its present contract of covettes is completed. It is understood the company has three corvettes similar in size to H.M.C.S. "Peterborough" to build before embarking on the tug contract; one of these the hull of which is now laid, is H.M.C.S. "Belleville".

Money From Bingo For Soldiers' Smokes

Proceeds which were raised at the bingo Friday night, sponsored by the Workers and Unemployed Association, will be used to send 300 cigarettes to each of the following men overseas:

Gnr. L. E. Abraham, Spr. W. I. Brethour, Pte. S. Burke, Sigm. A. Berrill, Pte. C. A. Bowes, Bdr. J. W. Chappell, Tpr. G. W. Cooper, Pte. Ken Dall, Spr. F. M. Dafoe, L. Cpl. J. K. Dawson, L. Sgt. G. J. Ellis, L. Cpl. F. Forsythe, Pte. D. J. Forestill, Pte. K. D. Hart, LAC. G. Husband, Bdsm. R. A. Garden, Sgt. F. P. Gishman, Trp. D. J. Manley, Sgm. J. C. Hickson, Pte. F. M. Hyde, Gnr. W. H. Merrett, Spr. F. Morris, Pte. F. F. McMahon, Tpr. E. A. Northcott, Cpl. R. J. O'Donoghue, Cpl. B. M. Kearney, Lieut. N. Bowler, Tpr. H. C. Rowe, L. SA. W. J. Roode, Gnr. B. K. Reid, Pte. G. A. Pringle, Sgm. R. K. Rouse, LAC. D. A. Sharpe, Sgt. J. A Severin, Pte. J. S. Taylor, Pte. T. E. Tripps.

WELL LOOKED AFTER—Canadian boys in London on leave appreciate the "homey" atmosphere of the Canadian Red Cross Maple Leaf Club for junior officers. Miss Dorothy Tinker of Toronto serves coffee to three Canadians in the lounge of the club after their dinner. Rooms and meals are quite reasonable. At the Extreme Left is PO. Charles Rafter of Winnipeg. On his Left is FO. Fred Weir of Omemee, an observer who has done a tour in Egypt and Malta and whose aircraft has four enemy boats to his credit. Miss Tinker gives coffee to PO. Bill Wildman of 533 Aylmer Street, Peterborough, a wireless air gunner in the same crew as Weir, who has also completed a tour in Egypt and Malta.

War—4 Years Ago

By The Canadian Press

May 27, 1940— British offered stubborn resistance to Germans on Belgian front but continued to fall back. French recaptured several Somme villages but Nazis crossed Lys River in several places. Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced intensification of Canada's war effort.

May 28, 1940—Belgium surrendered to Germany as King Leopold III ordered Belgian army to cease fighting. Belgian government denounced king's action and decided to continue fight with Allies. Allied troops captured Narvik. Norwegian ore port.

Some Prisoners Get No Smokes

TORONTO, May 27. — (CP).— Toronto Headquarters of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire announced to-day that the organization has undertaken a new service—that of sending 300 cigarettes monthly to war prisoners who do not receive supplies from next-of-kin.

The development in the work of the Order is apart from the usual procedure of sending cigarettes to the fighting forces who have received approximately 10,000,000 smokes this year from I.O.D.E. Chapters.

Cigarettes to prisoners who previously did not receive any from relatives now total about 200,000, although the system has been in operation but a few months.

Peterboro Man Freed On Sox Theft Charge

LINDSAY, May 27—(ENS)—"I do not believe your story but there is not enough evidence to convict you," Magistrate E. A. Gee informed Charles Fleetwood of Peterborough in police court here Friday in acquitting him on a charge of stealing socks from the local C.D.S. store. Both Fleetwood and his companion Gordon Holland of Peterborough were found guilty of intoxication and fined $10 or 10 days in jail.

Police Constable R. Hargrave told the court that both of the accused had been picked up for being partly intoxicated and ordered to leave town. They were later re-arrested and when Fleetwood was searched three pairs of sox were found under his windbreaker and he had in his possession a bottle of rubbing lotion.

"The accused stated that the other fellow, meaning Holland took the sox", stated the constable.

This statement was denied by Fleetwood who defended his own case stating that a stranger had approached him while standing on the corner and had asked him to hold the sox while he tried to get a bottle of wine. "Before he came back I was picked up by the police", the accused said.

Richard Butler, manager of the men's wear department of the C.D.S. store, recognized the sox as being similar to those sold by the store but said it was impossible to check if they had been taken on a certain day.

Six Juveniles Face Serious Court Charge

LINDSAY, May 27 —(ENS)— Six youths, all from Mariposa township and ranging in age from 14 to 17 years appeared in police court here Friday charged with attempted rape of a 16-year-old Fenelon Township girl residing in Mariposa township. At the request of their counsel, C. G. Frost, they were remanded for trial and released on $1,000 bail each.

It is alleged by police that the boys ganged together to assault the girl who was working in the household of one of the boy's homes. Crown Attorney J. E. Anderson commented that all of the accused came from well to do families.

Tighten Rules On Dance Halls

TORONTO, May 27 (CP)—Stricter regulations governing private and public halls in the province were discussed yesterday at a conference presided over by Provincial Treasurer Frost, called as a result of a dance hall fire at Hamilton, Ont., in which nine persons lost their lives.

The government's aim is to tighten regulations, inspection and supervision, it was announced. Church halls present a problem as many are located in basements and are not considered safe.

Fire Marshal W. J. Scott and O. J. Silverthorne, chairman of the Motion Picture Censor Board, were present at the conference.

Man Pleads Guilty To Theft Of Gasoline

Arrested early this morning by Constable Leo. Murphy, Tegfryn Thomas, R.R. 6, Peterborough, an employee of the night staff of Border Transit, Limited pleaded guilty in police court today to stealing a quantity of gasoline from the company. Gas has been missed for some time and a watch was set up with the result that Thomas was taken into custody shortly after midnight.

Magistrate O. A. Langley, K.C., remanded the accused until next Friday morning for sentence, stating that it would give the police time to ascertain whether Thomas had a previous record.

The accused told the court that he came here two years ago from Pontypool where he had been living. He said he was a native of England.

Peterborough Clocks Said Stolen In Port

A story from Vancouver Friday, told of the theft of a consignment of 210 cases of alarm clocks, manufactured at and shipped from the plant of the Western Clock Company here and consigned for Australia.

When a freighter which was loaded in Vancouver in January discharged its cargo in Australia the cases of alarm clocks were missing.

It is thought that the Peterborough-made timepieces were stolen in Vancouver while the ship was being loaded.

One Traitor Less

LONDON, May 27—(CP-Reuters).—Gunnar Lindvig, quisling police inspector of Oslo, who once declared he would not spare his own brother if he resisted the "new order" has been shot dead, according to reports reaching the Norwegian telegraph agency.

The Coffee Club Promotes Aid For War Victims

When it comes to the promotion of things that stand for the public good, either in a civic or national way, one could go a long piece to find a more public-spirited group of citizens than those associated with the morning Coffee Club, who have demonstrated this in different ways since the early days of the war, by getting behind various civilian efforts which have a bearing on bringing the greatest conflict in history to a successful conclusion.

Among the many things they have found to give a helping hand, the Peterborough and District British War Victims Fund has taken its place, their efforts being of material assistance, and the many donations that have appeared in their name really come for almost 100 per cent from their own pockets, an example of which is demonstrated in this day's gifts to the fund, which come entirely from this one source.

To start with one of the members donated a bridge set of playing cards, he being designated under the initials "E.R." and the tickets at ten cents per throw were passed around until $3.10 had thus accumulated, and a gentleman of very portly demeanor carried away a rather useful prize, which no doubt has gone into action before now.

Then Hurrell Dodds made a swell replica of a man fishing from a boat which would adorn any lily pool or pond, and of course one or two of the rather notorious followers of Isaak Walton were more or less anxious to win it, but after paying 25 cents a shot to make another $3.25, the lucky chap happened to be neither much of a fisherman nor to have a suitable environment to place it in, and so far there is no word he is going to build a suitable repository for it.

Banter Gets Serious.

While much good-natured joshing often occurs, there are times when the discussion takes on a serious note, and on one of these occasions the subject hinged around a personal help to various things including the fund itself, and habitue was very much in accord with that, and his personal gift for $5.00 also appears to-day under the initials "G.M.F." not that they signify much in a general way, for they have been purposely jumbled.

Then another fellow who looks pretty well taken care of—for it is to be noted that he hardly is ever able to button the last button on his vest— opens up, and says he will give all the quarters he had on him at the time, and since there were three such found in his pocket, another 75 cents is listed under the title of "All the quarters he had."

To wind up the story, a latecomer at one morning session tossed with "The Feesh" of that session and lost, and then somehow or other his conscience began to go to work at soaking a fellow member 30 cents for his mornings libation, and so he turned it also over to the fund under the title of "Ill-gotten Gains," and this story like one of the regular meetings will now adjourn until the next time.

| | |
|---|---|
| Previously acknowledged, | $76,331.67 |
| Proceeds of draw on bridge set donated by E.R. per the Coffee Club ........ | 3.10 |
| All the Quarters He Had. | .75 |
| Proceeds of draw on fishing boat replica donated by Hurrell Dodds per the Coffee Club ......... | 3.25 |
| Ill-gotten Gains .......... | .20 |
| A Personal Gift G.M.F.. | 5.00 |
| Total to date .......... | $76,343.97 |

WCTU Medal Winner

GILMOUR, May 27.—(ENS). — Those who attended the W.C.T.U. contest in Fairview church were Mesdames Max Archer, Harry Archer, Reg. McMullen, Miss Isobel Wray, Nancy Archer, Jim McMullen. Those taking part were: Marion McMullen, Wilfred Moncrief and Clinton English bringing back the medal for the intermediate group of twenty contestants.

SERVING OVERSEAS — Pte. Reg. Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Robertson, 499 Albert Street, is serving overseas. Formerly employed with the C.N.R. here, he enlisted in September, 1943. Pte. Robertson was educated in Keene. His mother, backing him to the limit, has given her 4th blood donation.

Boy Owes Life To Efficiency Of Bus Driver

A deeply frightened little boy living on Wolfe street between Rubidge and Park streets owes his well being to-day to George Kilburn, driver of an Ashburnham-Byersville bus, especially for his close attention to traffic, his care in driving, quick action and finally the efficency of the brakes of the big bus.

Several youngsters were playing wth a softball on the east side of Park street, south of Wolfe street, and it bounced past them into the street lane and across toward the C.G.E. fence. Lacking automatic sense of traffic dangers this boy started running across to retrieve the ball and just as quickly as that suggests he darted in front of the Byersville bus. Actually the right side of its fender did bump against the little fellow, but the car's momentum was spent and under brake, resulting only in a brush off for the boy who was knocked off his feet but quickly jumped up unhurt.

"I'm sorry. I didn't mean to," he cried to the driver, who hopped out to help the boy. It was a tremendous shock for the little fellow, and he probably doesn't realize that Kilburn halted the bus in what seemed like a foot or more. He has been a driver for about six months, and in this instance he literally had complete control of the big tram.

The Examiner called the transportation office this morning for personal details, but they had not heard of the incident, from any source, so this account may be a substantive compliment to a responsible bus driver who was literally in full control of his car.

TURNABOUT

During the late glacial period, 15,000 to 25,000 years ago, Alaska was without ice, although glaciers covered most of North America.

W. R. TURNER
Phone 4971 195 Simcoe St.
Heating—Plumbing
Sheet Metal Work
CONTRACTING, JOBBING, REPAIRING
"CRANE" PLUMBING FIXTURES
"IRON FIREMAN" STOKERS
"HECLA" FURNACES

BAND CONCERT
TO BE GIVEN BY
CENTRAL ONTARIO'S BEST "BOYS AND GIRLS" BRASS BAND—35 PIECES—IN Collegiate Auditorium, Sunday, May 28th, 8.30 p.m.
AFTER CHURCH
Assisted by outstanding violinist and saxophonist "soloists" and mixed brass ensemble.
Bandmaster R. G. Routly, Temple Band, Chairman.
Come, see and hear girls perform on all brass instruments.
Sergt. H. J. Parnell, conductor. Silver collection

COLLECTION OF ASHES
GARBAGE DEPT.
Commencing Monday, May 29th, ashes will be collected once weekly on the last day of the weekly collections. EXCEPTION—Areas where present collection is on Wednesdays and Saturdays ashes will be collected on the Wednesday.
G. G. TORRENCE,
Supt. of Collections

WOOL
Standard Government prices paid for various grades. At Registered Warehouse No. 3 we have been handling and grading wool for twenty-five years.
Ship or Bring Your Wool To:—
G. WHITAKER & CO. Limited
SIMCOE ST. EAST
(Rear Dewart's Feed Warehouse) Peterborough

Released From Jap Internment Camp
The accompanying picture of Rev. C. Scratch was taken at Rio De Janeiro where the Swedish liner Gripsholm docked enroute to New York from the far east, carrying scores of American and Canadian repatriates. Mr. Scratch gained 40 pounds within a very few weeks of his return to Canada.
REV. C. SCRATCH, of North China
WILL SPEAK AT
THE FULL GOSPEL PENTECOSTAL CHURCH
370 WATER STREET
Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.
SHOWING LANTERN SLIDES MONDAY AT 8 P.M.
Mr. Scratch Has a Story Which Is Unexcelled
Don't Fail to Hear His Gripping, Thrilling Message

BRICK
For Sale
Hard Red
Bark or Log
Immediate Delivery
CALL
REHILL'S
210 Wolfe St. Phone 5401

The Mayor, Members of the City Council and the Corvette Committee
Cordially invite the Citizens of Peterborough
TO THE Official Welcome
To the Officers and Crew of H.M.C.S. Peterborough
Monday, May 29, 6 to 7 p.m.
AT THE East City Bowl
There will be a short ceremony at 6:15 p.m. after which the public will have an opportunity to speak personally to the officers and members of the crew.
PARADE FROM C.N.R. STATION AT 5.30 P.M. TO EAST CITY BOWL
Officers and crew of Corvette, Peterborough will arrive at the C.N.R. station at 5:15 p.m. and then parade with the Sea Cadets and Air Cadets to the East City Bowl for the official welcome.

The Examiner

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES

Cash with order, 1½c per word per insertion; 35c minimum for first insertion; 45c minimum with box number.
If paid within five days, 2c per word per insertion.
After five days, 2½c per word per insertion.
Refunds must be claimed within thirty days.
The names and addresses of box-holders are confidential and cannot be given under any circumstances.
THE PETERBOROUGH EXAMINER reserves the right to classify edit or reject any classified advertising copy. Read your ad at the first insertion. The Examiner will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion. Copy accepted up to 1 p.m. each day for insertion the same day, except Saturdays when copy must reach the Examiner before 10 a.m.

| | |
|---|---|
| Birth Notice | 75c |
| Card of Thanks | 75c |
| Engagement Notice | 75c |
| Marriage Notice | 75c |
| Death Notice | 75c |
| In Memoriam | 75c |

The above charge is for 50 words—over 50 words 2c per word is charged.
Coming Events — First insertion 20 words or less minimum charge 60c. Subsequent consecutive insertions 40c per insertion. Over 20 words, 2c per extra word per insertion.
TELEPHONE 4641.

Births Marriages Deaths
In Memoriam — Cards of Thanks

BIRTH

YOUNG — Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Young of Toronto (nee Carmelita Crowley) are happy to announce the arrival of their son at St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterborough, May 26, 1944.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dunford, Lakefield announce the engagement of their eldest daughter Marjorie to Glenford, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Murphy of Lakefield. The marriage to take place early in June.

WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McWilliams wish to announce the marriage of their eldest daughter Mary Margarete to Pte. Louis Joseph Roderick, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Roderick of Harcourt. The wedding took place, May 2nd at 7 a.m. in St. Peter's Cathedral. Rev. Father Finn officiated.

DIED

BELL, Robert Alfred—At St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterborough on Friday, May 26, 1944, Robert Alfred Bell in his 66th year.
Resting at the Tedford Funeral Home, Lakefield for funeral service on Monday, May 29, 1944, at 2 p.m.
Interment in Lakefield Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

PEARSON—In remembrance of Mr. Mr. W. J. Pearson called home May 25, 1943 and his wife Annie Pearson called home, May 1914.

One by one they go before us
They are fading like the dew,
But we know they're watching o'er us,
They the good, the fair, the true
They are waiting for us only,
Where no pain can never mar
Dear One who left us lonely
Watch us through the gates ajar,
There a Father, there a Mother,
Gone within those gates ajar.
—Their daughter and son-in-law, J. A. and Mrs. MacMillan and Family.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carr, 566 Weller street wish to thank the employees of the Dominion Woollens and Worsteds for the gift of a purse which was presented to them on the occasion of their 50th Weddin anniversary, also to the many friends who remembered them by sending gifts and money.

FLORISTS

ASHBURY'S WEDDING AND FUNERAL FLOWERS
Phone 4962—Nights 3054 — 316 Charlotte

TURNBULL'S FLOWERS LIMITED
641 George — Phone 7583—Nights 3257

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

FUNERAL SERVICE
J. J. DUFFUS
WATER AND CHARLOTTE STS
Telephones, Day and Night:

| | |
|---|---|
| OFFICE | 5757 |
| J. J. DUFFUS (Residence) | 6443 |
| ORVILL J. FALLS | 5618 |

TEDFORD FUNERAL HOMES

| | |
|---|---|
| NORWOOD | Phone 297 |
| LAKEFIELD | Phone 38 |
| HASTINGS | Phone 31 |

COMING EVENTS

First insertion, 20 words or less, minimum charge 50c. Subsequent consecutive insertions, 40c per insertion. All over 20 words, 2c per extra word per insertion.

"THE SWORD OF LIBERATION" title for public lecture by Mrs. J. S. Eason, Toronto, Editor and Publisher 'The Periscope' monthly magazine, in the Y.M.C.A., Tuesday, May 30th at 8 o'clock.

In Memoriam Verses

A booklet from which In Memoriam verses may be selected is available at the Advertising counter of The Examiner. Telephone Classified Dept. 4641.

Coming Events
(Continued from Preceding Col.)

AFTERNOON TEA. OTONABEE Chapter, I.O.D.E., at home of Mrs. F. A. Gray, 218 Aylmer, Tuesday May 30th, 3 to 6.

RESERVE MONDAY, JUNE 5 FOR R. C. A. F. Auxiliary Bingo. Exceptionally good prizes. 30 games. Tickets 25c.

K. OF C. BINGO, SATURDAY, May 27 at 8.30. Thirty games, 3 cards for 35c. 2 door prizes.

DANCE AT RYE'S PAVILION, Saturday, May 27. Graydon Orchestra. Modern and Old Time dancing. Admission 35c. Gents 50c. Tune in CHEX 9.00 to 9.30.

BINGO AT THE ORANGE HALL, Saturday, 8.15. 30 games, 5 freeze outs. Large Cash Prize on 13th Game. Substantial Cash prize on 10, 20 and 30th Game. Come and bring your friends.

"BAND CONCERT" AFTER Church, Collegiate Auditorium, Sunday, May 28th 8.30 p.m. 35-piece Girls and Boys Band, assisted by outstanding Violinist and Saxophonist and Mixed Brass Party. Bandmaster R. G. Routly, Temple Band Chairman. Silver Collection.

PERSONALS

AVON REPRESENTATIVE 548 Bethune. Telephone 3194.

HERE IS GOOD NEWS FOR MEN AND Women who have grey hair. "ANGELIQUE GREY HAIR RESTORER" restores grey hair to its natural color $1.00, at Elliott's, McDermid & Jury, Payne's and Tamblyn's Drug Stores.

"KLEEREX" — HEALS SKIN AILments. Used by Hundreds from Coast to Coast for Eczema, Psoriasis, Impetigo, Boils, Pimples, Chaps, Erythema, Etc. 50c, $1.00. (Medium and Strong.) Sold by Bogue's, Lynch's, Finn's, and Tamblyn's Drug Stores.

SPIRELLA REPRESENTATIVES— 3011, 3150, 5151.

WANT TO LOCATE RELATIVES OR Surviving Heirs of Charles A. Wilson, born in Peterborough, May 1, 1860. Had four older brothers and four older sisters. Mr. Wilson was living in Minnesota, in 1890. Write Lock Box 190, Terminal A, Toronto.

RAWLEIGH'S PRODUCTS, 360 SIMCOE Telephone 3055.

FULLER BRUSH REPRESENTATIVE Telephone 9778

FULLER SALESMAN F. DAWE, 451 Water. Telephone 4789.

Custom Tailoring

DOES YOUR COAT OR SUIT NEED Altering? Have it done now. Tony Pepe, Greene Building. Dial 4295.

Piano Tuning

WILLIAM POTTER, PIANO TUNING and Repairing (formerly Heintzman) Dial 9462.

PIANO TUNING AND REPAIRING — Fred Walker, Heintzman & Company, Toronto. Mail orders to CHEX or Telephone 9496.

3a Hairdressers 3a

SPECIALS — $8.50 VAPOR PERMANent for $7.00. $7.00 Machineless Permanent for $4.00. Includes Shampoo, Hairstyle Cut and scientific testing. Telephone 5311. Paris Beauty Salon.

EXTRA SPECIAL OIL WAVE, $6.50 FOR $5.00. Rosanne Beauty Salon, Kresge Building. Dial 8837.

MARY MARINO SUGGESTS FOR FINE Dry, Hard-to-curl Hair, one of her better Oil Waves at $7.50. Other Oil Waves from $3.50 up. Dial 8663.

SPECIALS — END PERMANENTS $1.00 up. Oil Permanents $2.50 up. Downer's. Dial 8874.

FOR SALE

4 Miscellaneous 4

MINNOWS, DEW WORMS. 172 ADEline Street.

CABINET RADIO 149 LAKE STREET.

SHORT FUR JACKET, OPOSSUM, never worn. 213 Stewart.

MEAT BLOCK, 2 TOLEDO SCALES, Platform Scale, Meat Grinder, Bar Register. 521 Reid.

MARBLE TOPPED COUNTER 8 x 2½ feet, large drawers. W. Wolff, Harwood

WOOD LATHE, WITH TOOLS AND Attachments. Telephone 3802.

SEWING MACHINE. 58 HOWDEN Avenue

CHINA KILN, WITH STACKS; SAWdust Burner, attaches any furnace, cheapest fuel. Telephone 8333.

STEEL BED, WITH COIL SPRING; also Day-Bed. 348 Burnham.

CONVERTIBLE CARRIAGE GO-CART, good condition, $8.00. 650 Bethune.

TWO PAIRS PORTIERES AND RODS, practically new. 218½ Charlotte, Apartment 1.

NEW BATTERIES FOR CARS AND Trucks — Famous Mor-Power Superbuilt, two years' guarantee — 15-Plates $7.45. 17-Plates $9.90, Long Type $12.35. Installation Free at Store. Allowance on your Old Battery. All sizes to suit every Car. Save Safely at Canadian Tire Corporation Associate Store, I. H. Keefer, 342-4 Water Street (opposite Market)

TWO-WHEELED CABIN TRAILER. 423 Water.

BROADLOOM RUG, BROWN REVERSible, 9 x 12; Breakfast Set, Ivory and Green, both good condition. Telephone 9876, after 6 p.m.

OAK TYPEWRITER TABLE, 2 DRAWers, like new. Telephone 5747.

NEW REMINGTON TRIPLE HEAD Electric Razor. 576 Charlotte.

RIPSAW TABLE, SELF-FEEDER, and 7½ H.P. MOTOR AND STARTER.
The Peterborough Metal Co.
256 Simcoe Street.

ICE-BOX. 396 ARMSTRONG DRIVE (Hatton Property).

ELECTRIC STOVE, FOUR-BURNER; Large Lawn Roller; Large Bookcase. Telephone 5461.

NEW CHROME CHAIRS. TELEPHONE 9490. Elliott's Stationery and Advertising.

ELECTRIC RANGE, IN GOOD CONdition, $49.00. Telephone 4967.

SPRING-FILLED STUDIO COUCH, with Wardrobe, new condition. 605 Rubidge Street. Evenings.

CHILDREN'S TABLE, CHAIRS, AND Rocking Chair. 570 Romaine.

MINNOWS AND DEW WORMS. 1065 Water.

ICE-BOX, GOOD CONDITION. 540 Waterford.

SOLID OAK 8-PIECE DINING-ROOM Suite. Telephone 4942

POTATOES, TELEPHONE 5089.

FOR SALE

4 Miscellaneous 4

25-FT. INBOARD MOTOR BOAT. 160 Parkhill Road East.

MODERN 3-BURNER WHITE ENAMEL Gas Range, also White Enamel Coal and Wood Range, both like new. Telephone 8249. 468 Cambridge

POTATOES, $1.50 BAG, DELIVERED. Telephone 5132

IVY - CREME
for
POISON IVY.
Itchy, Watery Poison Ivy Rash quickly checked with IVY - CREME
DIAL 8734
MILLER'S DRUG STORE
Corner Charlotte and Downie.

BEDROOM SUITE, USED 3 MONTHS, Walnut, 4 Pieces. Owner leaving town. Bargain for quick sale — no dealers. 486 Wellington.

Shrubs, Plants and Flowers

TOMATO PLANTS, STURDY, HARDened, Improved John Baer, by the Box; discount on large lots. Mrs. G. Westman, Port Hope Highway. Telephone 7054

5 Dogs, Cats, Birds, Etc. 5

DOGS BOARDED. HEDGLEY KENnels Port Hope Highway. Telephone 4906.

7 Livestock and Poultry 7

REGISTERED HEREFORD SPRINGER, 6 years old; 2 Durham Springers; 2 Hereford Bulls. 22 ring 41, Keene.

12 DURHAM YEAR-OLDS P. M. CONdon, Douro.

FIVE DURHAM STEERS, 3 YEARS old. Pete Doherty, Route 1, Indian River.

DURHAM BULL, 14 MONTHS OLD. Arthur Charlton, Route 4, Peterborough.

PURE-BRED DURHAM BULL, 1½ years old. 100 Barred Rock Roosters, 6 weeks old. Telephone 4035. William Thompson.

SIX YOUNG PIGS. 36-41, KEENE.

30 LAYING HENS. TELEPHONE 9438.

YOUNG PIGS SMITH BROTHERS, Fraserville.

Baby Chicks

STARTED PULLETS DELIVERY MIDdle June and later, in heavy breeds—place order now, and also for June-July delivery Chicks. Some immediate delivery specially Day-old and Started Leghorns, B.M.xW.L. Bray Hatchery, 364 Water. Dial 3834.

BARRED ROCK BABY CHICKS, 10c. Telephone 6090

7x Farmers' Needs and Supplies 7x

AUTO TRACTOR, ON RUBBER. ALLAN Downs, Springville.

WHITE STAR POTATOES $1.40 BAG. Telephone 8083.

LIGHT DELIVERY WAGON APPLY Jackson Brothers, 212 Hunter Street Telephone 3478.

ERBAN OATS. DIAL 6020.

TRACTOR CUSTOM WORK. C. M McInroy, 4511

ONE ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION Milk Cooling Unit. Will handle up to 10 Cans of Milk at one cooling. Price complete installed, including Electrical wiring, $298.00 cash. Terms if desired. Guaranteed one year. F. H. Johnston, corner of George and McDonnel, Peterborough.

8 Real Estate 8

Brick, 9 Rooms, 3-Piece Bath, Furnace, ideal for Duplex. Possession soon ... $3,800
Brick, 7 Rooms, 3-piece bath. Possession July 1. Easy terms ........ $3,700
100 Acres, 80 working, Brick House, barn stone foundation, 2 silos, Hydro .......... $5,500
M. STOREY
374½ George St. Telephone 6573

$4,000—Modern 7 Room Pressed Brick, South.
$2,500—5 Room Frame Cottage, Dublin Street.
$3,000—5 Room Cottage, Murray Street.
$4,700—Double House, West, one side vacant August 1st, $1,200 down.
$3,500—6 Roomed Brick, Perry Street, vacant now
$11,500—Modern Home, West-end — owner leaving City.
Owing to death of Owner, I have one of the best Guest and Tourist Homes in Ontario—13 Rooms, beautiful grounds, on main highway to the Kawartha Lakes. Possession July 1st.
A. E. THOMPSON, REALTOR,
Kresge Building. Telephone 7284

BEAUTIFUL HIGHLAND HEIGHTS
Get your Post-war Home Site Now in East City's New and Coming Sub-Division, and Buy an Extra Lot or Two for an Investment.
TERMS $10.00 DOWN, $5.00 MONTHLY UNTIL PAID
PRICE $100 to $200 EACH
Location East of Armour Road, North of McFarlane Street.
Plans at the Office of
J. A. GIBBS, 141 Hunter St. 3843.

120-Acre Farm, 85 Acres Best of Clay loam soil, no stones or stumps, tractor all, 20 Acres timber, pine, oak and hardwood, balance Pasture; spring water; barn 100 by 35, stone wall, cement stabling, tie up 20 head, box stalls, feed all from head, hayfork, drive shed, Hydro close by, Brick House, 7 Rooms, oak floors down, divided cellar, furnace, pantry, hard and soft water, nice lawns garden and fruit, all in first-class condition. A real Farm and Home. Bargain ........ $6,500
For further particulars, see us—
P. E. RUTHERFORD
146 Hunter — Dial 3602

N., New Brick Bungalow, Modern bath, natural fireplace, tile kitchen. Immediate possession ....... $5,000
Central, 7-Room Brick, newly decorated, oak floors, complete plumbing, furnace and garage. September possession ........ $4,500
Central, 6-Room Brick, modern. $3,500
S., 7-Room Frame, easy terms ... $2,500
O'TOOLE BROS.
Real Estate and Insurance
184 Charlotte St — Phone 9447

$4,600—Nice Brick Residence, Dennistoun Avenue. Lovely lot. Possession September 1
WHY NOT TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE NEW N. H. A. LOAN AT 4½%?
Investigate the possibilities afforded by this low interest rate, with repayment on a monthly basis.
H. J. McCANNAN - JACK SINCLAIR
140 Simcoe St. Telephone 4246

A Good Going Business, Large 13-Room Guest Home, garages, etc. Very modern, large lawns and gardens. A choice locality. Inquire.
South, 4 Rms, oak fls., vacant ... $2,000
Sherbrooke, 10 Rms, modern ... $3,900
Princess, 6 Rms, oak fls., vacant ... $4,000
Many others to choose from.
J. A. GIBBS, 141 Hunter St. 3843.

Summer Cottage, Nine Rooms, Furnished, full plumbing, boathouse, boats, 12 Acres of Pine and Mixed Timber, 12 miles from City. A good buy ........ $3,000
Farms and Houses in all sections
ARNOTT REAL ESTATE
354 Water — Telephone 3709

FOR SALE

8 Real Estate 8

ATTRACTIVE 6-ROOM BRICK HOUSE large lot. Immediate possession. Apply 576 Bolivar.

CENTRAL BUSINESS LOT, 70 BY 112 feet, on West side of George Street, south of King. Good Site for Stores and Apartments, Garage. Apply 146 Hunter Street for particulars. Take Small House as part.

Cottages for Sale or Rent

SUMMER COTTAGE FOR RENT, AT Lake Catchacoma. Mrs. Bousefield, Route 1, Lakefield. Telephone 96 ring 3.

FOR RENT, 5-ROOMED FURNISHED Cottage, electric refrigerator, lights, spring water, boat. Telephone 4262

FOR SALE — TOURIST RESORT ON Deer Bay, 5 Furnished Cottages, Canteen, Boats and Boat House, Ice-House, etc., running spring water. Apply Mrs. John Armstrong, Lakefield.

SMALL SUMMER COTTAGE FOR Rent for June. 570 Romaine

Summer Resorts

THURSTONIA HOTEL — OPEN JUNE Third. Excellent Meals, Comfortable Beds, conveniences. Summer activities. Cottages, Special June Rates. Booklet. Percy Skitch, Thurstonia Park.

Tourist Accommodation

ROOMS, OR OVERNIGHT ACCOMMOdation. 351 Charlotte. Dial 4885.

9 Business Opportunities 9

BLACKSMITH SHOP AND REPAIR Business, Lakefield, complete with Equipment. Write Box 393, Lakefield, or Telephone 141.

MODERN STORE, MAIN BUSINESS Section, May 5, 1944. Walter Badgley, Campbellford

10 Used Cars 10

1930 ESSEX COACH, NEW TIRES, good condition. Dial 5019.

1936 CHEVROLET COACH, GOOD tires and condition. 614 Stewart.

1933 GRAHAM SEDAN, TIRES GOOD. Owner joining Army. 63 Lansdowne

1932 CHEVROLET SEDAN, A1 CONDItion, good tires. 305 Reid.

1941 CHEVROLET SEDAN, WITH radio and heater; 1941 Dodge Opera Coupe; Trades. 1937 Oldsmobile Sedan, Two 1936 Ford Coaches, 1929 Ford Cabriolet, 1937 Chrysler Coupe. R. Hopkins, Imperial Service Station, Lakefield. Telephone 124.

1929 FORD SEDAN, GOOD CONDItion. Telephone 4044.

1936 DODGE COACH, GOOD TIRES. 630 Park. 9835

1933 BUICK SPECIAL SEDAN, MODEL 87, 6 wheels and tires 17 x 700; mechanically okay; body needs considerable work, $200.00. Telephone 9674.

1929 FORD, GOOD CONDITION, $125. Telephone 5572.

1934 PONTIAC COACH, GOOD CONdition. 640 Bethune Street, after 7.

1934 FORD V8, RADIO, HEATER, DEfroster. 2 McClennan, after 6.

1929 DURANT SEDAN, GOOD CONDItion. 492 Bolivar.

1929 PONTIAC SEDAN, IN GOOD shape. 82 McDonnel.

10a Used Trucks 10a

1934 CHEVROLET TRUCK, GOOD CONdition, also Spare Tires and Tubes, Extra Racks. 87 Hunter West.

HEAVY STEEL FARM TRUCKS. ADAM Carroll, Ennismore, ring 14.

TO RENT

11 Miscellaneous 11

GARAGE. 9873.

ELECTROLUX CLEANER COMPLETE, by Day or Week. 4547.

11x Apartments to Rent 11x

FURNISHED OR UNFURNISHED Apartment, Business people preferable. 671 George.

HEATED APARTMENT, FURNISHED frigidaire, garage; adults. 709 Water.

LOWER DUPLEX, MODERN, 6 ROOMS unheated, garage, central, $37.00, adults. Write Box 262, Examiner.

HEATED APARTMENT, ADULTS ONLY 496 Mark

THREE-ROOMED APARTMENT, HEATed; adults only. Dial 3624

ATTRACTIVE ROOMS, FURNISHED, owner's home, hot water heating. West. Dial 9420.

12 Rooms 12

FURNISHED ROOM; BOARD OPTIONal. 693 Elcome Crescent.

THREE UNFURNISHED ROOMS, TWO Downstairs, One Upstairs, suitable for Light Housekeeping; two adults. Possession immediately. 275 McGill.

TWO BRIGHT, CLEAN, LIGHT Housekeeping Rooms, suitable for Working Couple or 2 Girls. 605 Rubidge Street.

LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS Telephone 8837.

FRONT ROOM, KITCHENETTE, ICE-Box. 417 Stewart.

TWO LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS, Furnished, close to Factories. Telephone 4194.

FURNISHED HOUSEKEEPING, TWO Girls, central. 270 Reid.

FURNISHED BEDROOM, SUITABLE for Two. Apply 121 Stewart.

WANTED

13 Rooms Wanted 13

THREE UNFURNISHED ROOMS, Ground Floor desirable, adults, West or Central, by June 1. Write Box 261, Examiner.

13a Apartments Wanted 13a

GROUND FLAT, FIVE ROOMS, GARage; good locality, conveniences, two adults, July 14. 558 Rogers.

MIDDLE AGED COUPLE, FOUR ROOMS and bath (private). Can pay up to $40 monthly; central. Possession immediately. Write Box 252, Examiner.

13b Houses Wanted 13b

TO BUY, FIVE OR SIX ROOMED Good House, modern. Write Box 264, Examiner.

WANTED, HOUSE OR ROOMS, NEAR C.G.E., for Couple. Write Box 265, Examiner.

CLASSIFIED ADS BRING QUICK RESULTS

WANTED

15 Miscellaneous 15

1941 BUICK, TORPEDO WILL PAY cash, or Trade Lighter Car; private. Telephone 9918.

MOVABLE LAWN SWING HAMMOCK. Telephone 8055.

CANVAS COVERED CAR TOP BOAT, for cash or will Trade Cedar Skiff. Telephone 4219.

5½-FOOT CROSS-CUT SAW TELEphone 3848.

THE PETERBOROUGH METAL COMPANY
WE BUY
SCRAP IRON AND METALS

TO BUY, GOOD USED CAR, 1928-1935 Model. Telephone 3474, after 6

TRICYCLE FOR CHILD, 3 YEARS. 650 Bethune.

BROKEN-DOWN TRICYCLES FOR REpairs. Telephone 6446.

IRON, RAGS, FEATHERS, PAPER. Petersiel, Bethune and Hunter. Telephone 9403.

GOOD USED CARS TELEPHONE 6101.

FURS
Cash Paid for Your Old Fur Coat. Write Box 65, Examiner.

STOVES, FURNITURE. HUDSON. Telephone 65, Lakefield

POULTRY AND FEATHER TICKS PAY Highest Prices. M. Gishman. Dial 8298.

LIVE POULTRY WANTED — MARKET Prices. A. Lantin. Telephone 6297.

LIVE POULTRY — PAY HIGHEST Prices. Florence, 6823. 560 Homewood.

STOVES AND FURNITURE WANTED Telephone 4115—Nights 6294.

LIVE POULTRY—MARKET PRICE. M. Katz. 6906. 192 Aylmer.

HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR RAGS, Paper, Iron and Metals. J. Burfield. Dial 8368.

16 Teachers 16

TEACHER, SCHOOL SECTION NO. 9, Cavan, holding First-class Certificate. Duties to commence September 1st. State salary. F. Elliott, Secretary-Treasurer, Cavan, Route 1.

QUALIFIED PROTESTANT TEACHER for S. S. No. 8, Harvey. Duties to commence September 5. Apply stating experience and salary, to K. D Hunt, Secretary, R. R. 1, Peterborough.

TEACHER WANTED FOR S.S. NO. 13, Cavan, Protestant, Experienced preferred. Duties to commence September 5th. Apply, stating salary, qualifications and experience, to the Secretary, Merton V. Thexton, R. R. No. 3, Millbrook, Ontario.

17 Help Wanted, Male or Female 17

Stenographers and Typists
Stenos, Typists, Postal Clerks for Government war work. You can train at home. Free information. M.C.C. Civil Service School, Ltd., Toronto 10

EXPERIENCED HAIRDRESSERS Wanted for Salons in cities East of Toronto. Also Helpers Wanted. Apply nearest Employment and Selective Service Office.

18 Help Wanted, Female 18

MIDDLE-AGED LADY TO ASSIST with Housework, Light Work; good hours. 183 Stewart.

GIRL OR WOMAN TO STAY WITH Child odd Evenings. 653 Charlotte. Telephone 8523.

WOMAN TO CLEAN OFFICE AFTER hours. Write Box 263, Examiner.

PART TIME, 3 HOURS DAILY APproximately. Does not interfere with own Housework; good wages. Telephone Mr. Pogue, 4641.

RELIABLE WOMAN FOR HOUSEwork; good home; must be capable of doing Plain Cooking. Apply 813 Water Street.

19 Help Wanted, Male 19

WANTED, FIRST-CLASS ELECTRIcians, capable of General Contracting and House Wiring. Apply Selective Service. O-295.

Superintendent Manager For Feed Mill
Excellent opportunity is offered by Feed Manufacturer (in this district, out of town) to Superintend and Manage Modern Fed Manufacturing Plant. Experience desirable but not absoluaely necessary. Honesty, reliability, devotion to work, planning ability, and some sales experience, also ability to handle men are essential. Good advancement and permanency desired. Those in essential war work need not apply. Apply in writing to Selective Service, giving full particulars of past experience. O-294.

NEWSPAPER CARRIER BOYS
A NUMBER OF EXAMINER PAPER ROUTES WILL BE AVAILABLE IN THE NEAR FUTURE. BOYS AND GIRLS WISHING TO HAVE AN EXAMINER ROUTE SHOULD FILL IN AN APPLICATION
AT THE
Examiner Office
TODAY

20 Employment Wanted 20

PLAIN SEWING. 58 HOWDEN AVEnue.

21 Boarders Wanted 21

ROOM AND BOARD, NEAR C.G.E. Telephone 9271.

BOARD AND ROOM FOR TWO GIRLS, all conveniences. Dial 8349.

ROOM AND BOARD. 342 CHARLOTTE

FURNISHED ROOM, MEALS OPtional. 467 Chamberlain.

GENTLEMAN BOARDER DIAL 5947.

Rob Hardware Store

BANCROFT, May 27 (ENS) — C. W. Mullett's hardware store on Bridge street, Bancroft, was broken into this week and money and articles taken from it. The culprits gained entrance by breaking into the rear of the cement building and then passing through the warehouse to the main store. As yet no arrest has been made in connection with the break-in and Provincial Constable S. W. Palmateer is investigating.

WHO CAN DO IT

22a Financial 22a

Personal Loans
for the payment of Property and Income Taxes
If you pay your taxes when due you save yourself penalties and interest.
Consult us if you need money.
Repayment of Personal Loans is on a simple budget savings plan, with regular deposits over a period of 12 months.
In case of death a loan in good standing is liquidated by insurance which the Bank arranges.
Apply to nearest branch of
The Canadian Bank of Commerce

22b Painters, Decorators 22b

EFFICIENT, SMART STYLING for HOME DECORATION
Interior and Exterior
"Elastica Quality Goods"
HAROLD COLEMAN
Telephone 9922 — 336 George Street

COLEMAN BROS — "THE HOME OF Decorating." Established 1906. Telephone 4485. North of Brock Street.

22f Miscellaneous 22f

HOUSES AND CELLARS WHITENED. 634 Union.

WALLS AND WINDOWS WASHED. 634 Union.

LAWN MOWERS, MACHINE SHARPened. 82 McDonnel. Dial 6315.

BRICK, CEMENT WORK, STUCCOING, Brick Painting, Chimneys Rebuilt. 217½ Charlotte Street. Telephone 9836.

LAWN MOWERS SHARPENED — WE have the most Up-to-date Machinery. Satisfaction guaranteed. R Harran's Cycle Shop, Dial 5925.

DUSTLESS FLOOR SANDING. William Higgins. Dial 8887.

22j Wood Cutting 22j

WOOD SAWING. CLIFF JEWELL, Telephone 4241.

25 Nursing 25

REGISTERED NURSE, AVAILABLE. Write Box 221, Examiner.

25x Dressmaking 25x

DRESSMAKING, TAILORING, ALTERations. Telephone 4936. 593 Harvey

Electrical and Radio Service

ELECTRIC WORK — SERVICE AND Repairs. Telephone 6195

RELIABLE
LOW COST
Refrigeration Service
ALL MAKES DOMESTIC COMMERCIAL INDUSTRIAL
Wright Refrigeration Co.
Office and Residence:
536 WATERFORD ST.
Phone 7843
Service Department:
426½ GEORGE ST.
Phone 9906

RADIO SERVICE
Every Repair Guaranteed
Established 23 Years.
F. H. JOHNSTON
Corner George and McDonnel
TELEPHONE 4697

DELUXE RADIO SERVICE — ALL makes of Radios Repaired. All work guaranteed. Telephone 7142—Night 6384. 450 Rubidge Street.

LOST

CHILD'S GLASSES, BETWEEN MUNroe Avenue and King George School. Telephone 9857.

SMALL BROWN DOG. DIAL 8789. Reward.

TWO-YEAR-OLDS, "V" IN TOP OF right ear. Don Clysdale, Warsaw. Telephone 2 ring 32.

THREE JUTE BAGS OF FEED, BEtween Norwood and Havelock. Telephone 5771, Peterborough.

FOUND

HEIFER, YEAR OLD, TIP OFF RIGHT ear. David Taylor, Warsaw.

LOANS

LOANS
$20 TO $500
NO ENDORSERS NEEDED

| Cash Loan You Get | 4 Payments | 6 Payments | 10 Payments | 12 Payments | 15 Payments |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Choose a monthly payment plan | | | | |
| $25 | $ 6.57 | $ 4.46 | $ 2.78 | $ 2.36 | |
| 50 | 13.13 | 8.93 | 5.57 | 4.73 | |
| 75 | 19.70 | 13.39 | 8.35 | 7.09 | |
| 100 | 26.26 | 17.85 | 11.13 | 9.46 | $ 7.78 |
| 125 | 32.83 | 22.32 | 13.92 | 11.82 | 9.73 |
| 150 | 39.39 | 26.78 | 16.70 | 14.18 | 11.67 |
| 200 | 52.52 | 35.71 | 22.27 | 18.91 | 15.57 |
| 300 | 78.79 | 53.56 | 33.40 | 28.37 | 23.35 |
| 500 | 130.60 | 88.64 | 55.10 | 46.73 | 38.36 |

To apply for a Household loan just give us a few facts about yourself and choose a convenient payment schedule. Payments shown repay loans in full and include charges at our reduced monthly rate of 2% on a loan balance of $300 or less and 1% on that part of a balance in excess of $300.

Household Finance
Corporation of Canada
Established in Canada 1928
Second Floor Lansfield Block
177 Charlotte St. (Opp. Loblaws)
M. E. Holt, Manager — Phone 5841

MONEY TO LOAN ON FIRST MORTGAGES
Easy Terms of Repayment
Apply to
PETERBOROUGH WORKINGMEN'S BUILDING AND SAVINGS SOCIETY
414 Water Street
Established Over 50 Years.

Loans—$20 to $1,000
—WITH OR WITHOUT CO-SIGNERS
—STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL
—PERSONAL OR BUSINESS
—QUICK, FRIENDLY SERVICE
—WIDE CHOICE OF REPAYMENTS
CAMPBELL
FINANCE CORPORATION LIMITED
Subsidiary of Industrial Acceptance Corporation Ltd.
169 Charlotte Street
(Above A. & P. Store) — Phone 3520

Churchill Denounces Franco's Critics

LONDON, May 27—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill denounced in his Wednesday speech those who "draw comical or even rude caricatures of Franco."

Today the London Press carried four cartoons of the Spanish dictator—none of them complimentary.

The Daily Herald's cartoonist showed artist Churchill painting a heroic likeness of Franco from an unpalatable model.

The News Chronicle pictured Mr. Churchill whitewashing a smudged Franco, with a caption from MacBeth—"Out, damned spot! out, I say! What? Will these hands ne'er be clean?"

She Wasn't Lonely

LOS ANGELES, May 27—(AP).—Miss Grace Senger, 45-year-old school teacher, was accused of harboring 12 dogs, six cats and a pair of white mice. Neighbors, in making their complaint, said the dogs damaged their lawns and the cats whooped it up noisily all night. The mice wandered out and frightened women.

NOTICE

NOTICE
TREASURER'S SALE OF LANDS FOR TAXES
Corporation of the City of Peterborough

TO WIT:

